

COMMERCIAL.

HONOLULU, NOVEMBER 6, 1880. Business in general does not give any indication of improvement...

The arrivals from the Coast have followed somewhat the ordinary course...

Trade continues satisfactory in most branches of business, we are receiving heavy billings...

THE SATURDAY PRESS.

Published for the Proprietor by ROBERT GIBNEY, Book, Job and General Printer, Honolulu, H. I.

SATURDAY PRESS, NOVEMBER 6, 1880.

Some evil disposed and malicious correspondents, or some satirical friend has sent to the Saturday Press...

It appears that Moreno spent at least a fortnight in Washington, during which time he seems to have been occupied in consulting with the Secretary of State...

We do not at all approve of the pseudonymous correspondent of the Gazette, in the disapproval of the scheme...

It is unofficially reported that a signal of alarm is being collected in the rear of the Palace, and that small squads of volunteers are being drilled...
