VOLUME V. NUMBER 50.

HONOLULU, HAWAIIAN ISLANDS, AUGUST 15, 1885.

WHOLE NUMBER 259.

English and Hawaiian.

The following description of a view of the mountains west of the city of Honolulu, taken from the hill between the city and the harbor, will be found interesting to all who are interested in the natural beauties of the island.

It was on the night of August 10th, 1885, that we were favored with a view of the mountains west of the city of Honolulu, taken from the hill between the city and the harbor, which will be found interesting to all who are interested in the natural beauties of the island.

The Mail Service.

A Washington dispatch of July 19th, 1885, contains the following information regarding the proposed mail route from San Francisco to Honolulu via the Pacific Mail Steam Navigation Company.

The proposed mail route from San Francisco to Honolulu via the Pacific Mail Steam Navigation Company will be a direct line, following the coast of North America, and will be operated by the company's steamships.

Medical News.

The first steamer of the Compañia Mexicana de Navegacion de las Indias left San Francisco on July 14th for Mexican ports via Honolulu, and is expected to arrive in Mexico in consequence of the action of the government in the railway subsidies.

In London, recently, the Salvation Army marched with much parade in the parliament buildings to present to the house of commons the money petition against the ignorant masses of the Criminal Army.

Life ransoms through the things... SATURDAY AUGUST 13 1892

What Easterners... Gentleman of the Hawaiian Government... Your Majesty

Did Grant make his life worth the living? Yes. Was he great to the full measure of his capabilities? No.

Mr. A. S. Hartwell said in substance: 'Some men are born to greatness, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them.'

Mr. J. S. Schaefer has hit the nail on the head in what he is reported by the Bulletin to have said about the appointment of immigration inspectors and sub-inspectors.

THE GREAT MEMORIAL... A memorial to the great General Grant... The memorial walls of Honolulu's forty-second anniversary were most beautifully with floral garlands.
