ESTIMATED INCOME AND EXPENSE NEXT YEAR

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 15th.

The Board of Supervisors convened on Friday morning, December 15th, to consider the budget of expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year, as required by the county act.

All members, excepting Supervisor Woods and Shipman, were present at 10 a. m. A number of communications and petitions were read and placed on file. B. H. Brown, Jr., asked that his salary as janitor of Fireman's Hall be increased to $40 was passed to be taken up with the budget. W. M. Kalaiwaa applied for a position in the office of the County Clerk, which was referred to that official for report.

Desha offered a resolution appropriating $10 per month for electric lights for the use of the county band. Passed.

The Secretary of the Board of Health forwarded copies of the health regulations recently passed by that body regarding expectoration, garbage and sprinkling of clothes. The same were placed on file.

The communication from County Attorney Williams, wherein he maintains that his office is not subject to the supervision of the Supervisors, and therefore he is not required to make any official report to the Board, was taken up and discussed. Supervisor Fernandez moved that in all of its official actions hereafter the Board ignore the County Attorney's office. Upon a vote Desha, Fernandez and Moir favored this action, and Kalaiwaa and Makua voted against the proposition. Mr. Fernandez then moved that the approval heretofore given of the appointment of Noa W. Aluli as Deputy County Attorney be revoked. Upon putting this motion, the Chair announced the vote to be the same as on the first motion, and the Clerk was instructed to notify Mr. Aluli that his services were no longer necessary.

Supervisor Fernandez, from the Police Committee, presented a unanimous report of the investigations of that committee into the charges against Deputy Sheriff Rickard. They state they have examined a large number of witnesses, and present a transcript of the evidence which was placed on the secret file. They recommend that Mr. Rickard be summoned to appear before the Board and be given an opportunity to defend himself. The report was adopted without delay and the Clerk was instructed to issue a summons.

A petition signed by 64 residents, voters of Hamakua, expressed their confidence in Deputy Sheriff Rickard and asked that other witnesses be summoned to testify. The petition will be considered together with the charges.

Supervisor Kalaiwaa called attention to the absence of a clock, stating that he could not tell when it was dinner time. After receiving the budget as prepared by the Clerk Pua and the Deputy Treasurer Ryan, the Board took a recess until the afternoon.

Upon reconvening, at 1:30 o'clock, the Board resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole for the consideration of the proposed budget of expenses for the year 1906. Mr. Moir was chosen Chairman and the different items of the budget were discussed at length.

The estimates which are based upon the expenditures for the past six months, are substantially as follows:

Estimated cash on hand, Dec. 31, 1905, $10,719. To this is to be added the amount due from the Territory between January 1st and 15th, $28,500, and 50 per cent. of tax receipt for the year 1906, amounting to $150,000, making a total of $189,219. The police salaries for the ensuing year, provided no increase is made in the police force, is estimated at $12,000, leaving a balance to the credit to be expended during the year, approximately $177,219.

The estimated expenditures for the year 1906 includes: Salaries fixed by statute, $22,780; salaries fixed by Supervisors, $6,780; Court expenses, 8 terms at $600, $4,800; Maintenance of prisoners, $2,000; Salaries of police, $24,000; County band, $1,200; Rents, $1,000; Electric lights, $230; Ice, $60; Office supplies, $600; Telephones, $1,800; Coroners' jurors, $500; Discount of Territorial warrants, $250; Furniture and fixtures, $500; Miscellaneous expenditures, $3,000, making a total of $69,500, which deducted from the estimated income of $177,219, leaves a surplus approximately of $107,719.

It was provided that the several items estimated and passed by the Board and the estimated surplus and appropriations may at any time be changed by the Board. The budget was then passed without opposition, and the Board adjourned until Saturday morning.

Did Not Want Any Advice.

The Supervisors convened Saturday morning, and after the usual formality of prayer and reading the minutes of the previous day, the Board proceeded to take up the charges against Deputy Sheriff Wm. J. Rickard, Attorney Carl S. Smith appearing for the defendant.

An opportunity was given Deputy Sheriff Rickard to enter his plea, but the attorney presented a formal pleading in the form of a legal demurrer. Some of the Supervisors did not know the nature of this proceeding, and Supervisor Desha objected to the defendant having counsel, stating that he could say whether he was "guilty" or otherwise. Smith pressed his motion, which in effect was a request that more explicit charges be furnished the defendant, so that he might know what he was called upon to answer.

Smith had occupied the floor for perhaps half an hour, giving his version of what the law meant and attributing to the supervisors the functions of judge and jury, sitting in trial of his client. Turning to Supervisor Fernandez, he asked: "Suppose you, Mr. Supervisor, were charged with being unfit for office as a member of this Board or as a member of the House of Representatives, could you answer such a general accusation?" Growing red, Fernandez retorted "It would be up to me to defend myself. I do not care what charge you brought against me, it would be up to me to defend myself." Then with a dramatic wave of the hand, the counsel exclaimed, "Then I say heaven help you, if you were required to defend yourself."

This was too much for Fernandez who jumped to his feet and appealed to the chair, that he did not want to be insulted by the counsel for the defense. Moir called Fernandez to order, stating that Smith had the floor and for a time, it seemed there would be a scene. Reverend Desha raised his voice in protest against the remarks of counsel, stating that he wanted to see both sides have a hearing, but he did not care to listen to advice. "The Board has a County Attorney to give them legal advice, although, to be sure, we have decided to ignore him in the future. The attorney's remarks comparing us with the nine judges who decided witchcraft cases a few centuries ago, has no place in this hall. After Mr. Rickard has put in his plea and defense, then Mr. Smith can make his speech, but this is not the proper time for it."

Fernandez threatened to leave the room, if the defendant's lawyer continued to take up the time of the Board. Chairman Moir finally poured oil on the troubled waters by explaining what was desired, which was that "more explicit charges" be furnished Mr. Rickard to enable him to prepare his defense. After the storm had blown over, the Board excused Mr. Smith and decided to let the impeachment proceedings go over until the next meeting. In the meantime, Deputy Attorney Aluli, who had been reinstated, was authorized to go to Hamakua, thoroughly investigate the matter and prepare a more detailed complaint, a copy of which will be furnished Deputy Sheriff Rickard before the next meeting. At 11:30 o'clock a. m. the meeting adjourned until January 2nd.

Court Refuses a Recount.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 13.—The State Court of Appeals has decided against Hearst in the ballot recount case, involving the election of the Mayor of New York City.

[Hearst alleged fraud in the election held November 7th. McClellan (Dem.) received 228,651 votes; Hearst (Ind.) received 225,160 votes, and Ivins (Rep.) 137,049 votes.

The campaign was early marked by remarkable demonstrations of enthusiasm for Hearst, independent candidate for mayor on a municipal ownership ticket and a war against Tammany rule. It was generally conceded that Ivins, the Republican candidate for mayor, had no chance to win. After a campaign on these lines, the wealth and power of the city backing McClellan, and the proletariat backing Hearst, McClellan was declared elected. Tammany appears to be losing its influence. Jerome, an independent, anti-boss candidate was elected district attorney, and Hearst, without an organization, after a brief campaign, received within a few thousand votes as many as Tammany, with all its powers, and with three tickets in the field. Hearst drew his strength almost equally from the two old parties. McClellan's vote is some 110,000 smaller than it was two years ago, while Ivins's is about 125,000 less than Low's in the same election.]

A Japanese Sugar Plantation.

B. F. Dillingham, who returned from the Orient in the S. S. Korea the other day, brings back the report that Japanese capital will be directed to Hawaii in the exploitation of a Japanese sugar plantation in Oloa.

Mr. Dillingham says: "Japanese farmers are coming to take up a five thousand acre tract of land in Oloa, leasing lands from the plantation upon which to raise cane to sell to the mill. The Honorable Aoki, a member of the Japanese parliament representing Japanese capital heads the scheme and he will arrive in Honolulu next month to consummate details of the plan.

"Contracts for the purchase of cane raised by the settlers, for the mill have been agreed on. They will lease their lands from the plantation for a long term of years.

"They will bring their families with them. Aoki assured me that they were of a good class of Japanese."

CHRISTMAS DAY.

Next Monday will be Christmas day.

The Yuletide season is a peculiarly appropriate time for the expression of our gratitude.

The "angel's song" has been called the first Christmas carol, and the shepherds who heard this heavenly song of peace and good will went with haste to the birthplace at Bethlehem, where they found Mary and Joseph and the babe lying in the manger.

Whether the 25th of December which is now observed as Christmas Day, correctly fixes the period of that year when Christ was born is still doubtful; although it is a question upon which there has been much controversy. Many students of history think that the 25th of December does not correspond with the actual date of the birth of Christ and they regard the incident of the flocks and shepherds in the open field, as recorded by St. Luke, as indicative of summer rather than winter. The incident, it is thought, cannot have taken place in the inclement month of December, and it has been conjectured, with some probability, that December 25th was chosen in order to substitute the Christian festival for the festivals of Bacchalia and Saturnalia which were observed at this season.

Sir Isaac Newton says that the Feast of Nativity and most of the other ecclesiastical anniversaries were originally observed at cardinal events of the year, without much reference to the dates of other incidents which many of them commemorated, and the exact dates of which, by lapse of time, it was impossible to ascertain. Thus the Annunciation of the Virgin Mary was placed on the 25th of March, or about the time of the vernal equinox; the Feast of St. Michael on the 29th day of September, or near the autumnal equinox, and the Birth of Christ at the time of the winter solstice. Christmas was thus fixed at the time of the year when the most celebrated festivals of the ancients were held in honor of the return of the sun. The Saxon and other Northern nations kept the festival at this time of the year in honor of Thor, at which season they mingled feasting, drinking and dancing with sacrifices and religious ceremonies. It was called Yule, or Jule, a term the derivation of which has caused dispute amongst all antiquarians; some considering it to mean the festival and others stating that Iol, or Iul, is a primitive word, conveying the same idea as revolution or wheel, and applicable to the return of the sun.

Christmas Day is now known as the Feast of the Nativity and has been observed quite as early as the first century. It is observed throughout the world by all Christians and by those of other faiths. It is the day of gifts, when selfish pleasures give way to the joy of making others happy. The feeling of peace and good will overshadows the barriers of theology and sectarianism. During the Yuletide season, the pessimist and cynic are touched with the divine spark of human kindness and exhibit the gentleness and most lovable traits of their natures. Good cheer to all.

Signs of Prosperity. Things in Kona are beginning to look up, according to the latest reports. The reorganized Kona Sugar Company are proceeding to plant cane, and already have 350 acres under cultivation. Inducements are being made to individual planters to engage in cane growing and the prospects are for a considerable acreage ready before the first grinding season. The pineapple crop will be a large one, and there is some talk of a second cannery, which will be located near Kailua. The coffee crop which is now being harvested promises to be the largest for the Kona district. Mrs. Sam Allen has 200 acres of land planted to sisal, which it is hoped will prove a successful experiment and profitable industry. Altogether the prospects for the Kona district are very encouraging.

ORIGIN OF MANUAL TRAINING.

The dedication of the new building of the Hilo Boarding School serves to remind that Hawaii has been a center of light and leading in this vast Pacific Ocean for many years. Compared with American civilization on the Pacific coast, Hawaii is venerable. As there was a time when we supplied California with wheat and other food products, so there was a time when California sent her sons to be educated here, and one of them afterwards became Governor of California.

Hawaii has been a center of missionary and civilizing influence to numerous groups of Pacific Ocean Islands. Her schools have prepared many who have carried the torch of the gospel to other Islands and peoples. In another respect the schools of Hawaii have been an example to the world in a direction that is only now beginning to be justly appreciated. The schools of Hawaii from the first were manual training schools. Not that they went by that name, nor indeed was that characteristic appreciated as being anything new or valuable outside of its application here, so aptly appropriate did it seem to the conditions. Nevertheless it was a principle, in the application of which, men in our own time have gained great reputations. That principle was the instruction and training of the youth in knowledge and habits of practical industry. In the boarding schools established by the missionaries for the Hawaiian youth, the boys supported themselves by their own industry. They raised the taro and other food they ate. They tilled the soil, and they often built the very school houses in which they were instructed and the houses in which they dwelt.

All that Booker Washington has done at Tuskegee, the missionaries did in Hawaii, and thought so little of it beyond its obviousness that they have never received the just credit due them for originating and carrying out a principle of education that is only now coming into its rightful place in the philosophy and practice of instruction for the young.—Star.

ECHOES OF THE PRESS.

The death of Judge Gilbert F. Little takes from the activities of life a man who figured largely in island politics for a time, and whose oblique and indirect influence at one time was not inconsiderable.—Star.

It is not very long since the anti-small farmers pointed out that this is no place to grow chickens. The poultry exhibit, which represents the best of an enormous total of island-grown fowls, is a convincing answer to the pessimists. The truth is beginning to be revealed that anything in the way of ground or feathered crops can be produced in Hawaii if one knows how and where to begin and devote himself assiduously to the work.—Advertiser.

EDITOR OF KAU WEEKLY.

His American Citizenship is Attacked.

Proceedings have been instituted in the federal court by District Attorney Breckons against Joseph Makino Higginbotham of Kau, to cancel his naturalization papers. It is alleged that respondent was naturalized in the Third Circuit Court at Kailua on the representation that he was a British subject of the Caucasian race, whereas he is an Asiatic of half-Japanese blood on his mother's side and therefore ineligible to American citizenship. Makino, as he is most generally known, is the editor of the Kau Weekly which has had such a checkered career in its fight against Manager Carl F. Wolters of the Hutchinson Plantation.

Epidemic in Waipio Valley.

A curious epidemic is reported from Waipio gulch, Hawaii. It appears that the residents of that section have been attacked by a strange sort of fever, which is frightening the ignorant natives, many of whom have left the place for fear of death. The services of the government physician who resides at some distance from the gulch are often difficult to obtain when medical attendance is most required. As a consequence, there have been a number of deaths, but just the proportion of the cases that have been fatal in the community is not reported. Those who can do so, are leaving. Some of the natives believe a kahuna is at work but the strange malady is thought to be typhoid fever.

NOVEMBER BILLS PAID.
Finance Committee Recommends Their Payment.

The report of the Finance Committee upon sundry claims was made at Friday's meeting of the Board of Supervisors and was adopted. The report is as follows:

The following demands against the County have been examined and your committee recommends payment thereof from the general fund in the following amounts:

Wall, Nichols Co., supplies, $61.85; Hilo Mercantile Co., supplies, $16.15; Hawaii Herald, printing, $5.75; Hilo Tribune Co., supplies, $15.25; Hilo Electric Light Co., lights sheriff's office, $5.35; H. Hackfeld & Co., supplies, $20.05; W. A. Fetter, mileage, $5.25; O. Yotaro, mileage, $5.25; Coroner's Inquest, jurors fees, $28; Noa W. Aluli, wireless message, $2.05; Wm. Kino, interpreter, $2; N. K. Lyman, $4; L. A. Andrews, garbage, $3.75; P. C. Beamer, supplies fire dept., $2.25; S. H. Webb, repairing safes, $10; O. W. Rose, plumbing police station, $34.52; Painting police station, L. Rich, $22.75; J. Mahaiula, $19.25; C. B. Lyman, salary (July) $36.29; W. M. Keolanui, cash advanced for transportation of prisoners to Honolulu, $16.25; City Stables, transportation jurors, $21.25; Ridgway & Ridgway, 1 safe, $149.47; Vol. Stables, passenger fare, county atty (Honokaa), $13.45; county atty and clerk (Kau), $45.91; Sheriff's office (Kau), $157.80; Dr. S. Kushima, witness (Honokaa), $28.25; Hilo Tel. Co., sheriff's telephone, $16.25; High Sheriff, support of prisoners, $290; Kodani, board 4 witnesses, $8.25; Palm Restaurant, meals 2 witnesses, .75; I. I. S. N. Co., transportation prisoners (bal), $5; Kilauea Volcano House, meals, sheriff's office, $4.25.

As to this last claim your committee has made a reduction as under Ordinance No. 11 now in force, the county is not responsible for the board of salaried officers, and further that the charge for meals is excessive.

These four claims your committee recommends be not paid:

Chas. Williams, P. O. Box rent, $3.25; Dr. C. L. Stow, medical services, $2.25; C. P. Kaina, mileage, $38.65; J. Kaailau, $38.65.

The first for the reason already set forth in our report dated Nov. 9th, 1905, nothing new appearing to cause a change in the same; the second, because the medical treatment and services rendered were for a private citizen, whom if he is an indigent person, the government physician should treat free of charge; the last two because the provisions of Ordinance No. 11, upon which the demands are based, are locally applicable or applicable to the county only.

Voucher No. 690, Vol. Stables & T. Co. items for express and freight are each $1.60, but the item in this demand for $15 being "Livery from Glenwood to 25 miles and return to Hilo, Deputy Sheriff Fetter, O. Yotaro and Doctor," your committee recommend be not allowed for the reason that mileage has already been allowed and is intended to cover all transportation charges on such trips as well as all other charges. Therefore the payment of $1.60 is recommended.

Voucher No. 582, Hamagili for stage fare from 11 miles, Olaa, to Hilo (12 p.

m.) for two persons and officer, M. Coleman, $8; your committee recommends that this demand be not allowed for the reason that the officer is entitled to mileage only, together with such cash fare as he may be required to advance for the transportation of prisoners according to the usual means of travel in the locality, which in this case is by train. Your committee has reconsidered the demand of Miss Madeline Stolder $10 and finds no reason to reverse its former recommendation, viz.: "This claim also your committee recommend be not paid as it is a Territorial charge." However, as Mr. Henry Smith, Clerk of Judiciary Department, Honolulu, has submitted a communication to the Board on behalf of Miss Stolder, which was referred to your committee, after careful consideration, we find fails to show that the same was a proper charge against the county, but on the contrary plainly shows that Miss Stolder should look to the Territory for payment. It is stated in said communication that "Miss Stolder is a stenographer of the Judiciary Department hired for such duty temporarily." No doubt she received some pay for her services from the Territory. Why not for all her services? The mere fact that the county sheriff certified that she performed some services at court in the prosecution of a prisoner that was convicted does not oblige the county to pay the demand.

Witnesses at Kau term: E. F. Rogers, $67.75; W. E. Johnson, $67.75; James Sakai, $37.

Dr. B. D. Bond, another witness at Kau term, files a demand for $65.10, one item of which is for fare from Honolulu and return $25, although Dr. Bond is a resident of Kohala. It is not shown that he was summoned at Honolulu. Therefore your committee recommends that the fare on the Kinau be reduced to the amount charged from Kohala and return, to-wit: $10, leaving the amount due $55.10. With said exception your committee recommends payment of all the above demands of witnesses.

Your committee further recommends that warrants be drawn in favor of Geo. Desha, Postmaster, for postage as follows:

Treasurer's office, $5; Auditor's office, $5; Attorney's office, $5; Clerk's office, $5; and that the county clerk be directed to purchase stamps to the amount of $20 in such denominations as the several officers may designate by written requisition, not exceeding $5 each.

Demand No. 588 has been referred to the county attorney with a request that he furnish this Board at its next regular session, an opinion as to the county's liability therefor.

The following items to be paid out of the road funds of the District of South Hilo, we find are correct, in proper form, and duly certified by the persons who ordered the supplies and contracted for the services rendered, and recommend that warrants issue therefor:

Laborer's pay roll, aggregating $919.50; T. M. Rowland, overseer, $14; N. K. Lyman, road supervisor, $80.50; N. C. Willifong, tax commission, $41.60.

Supplies as follows: W. P. Peterson, $37.75; E. N. Holmes, $8.25; H. Hackfeld & Co., $35.87; T. H. Davies & Co., $5.75; Richards & Schoen, $3.75; Wall, Nichols Co., $2; Vol. Stables & T. Co., $76.25; Hilo Mercantile Co., $255.38; Hilo R. R. Co., $21.64; Hilo R. R. Co., repairing rock crusher, $154.48 and Hilo Electric Light Co., electric lighting, $263.85.

OTTAR OF ROSES.

Bulgaria's Industry Has Had a Most Fortunate Year.

According to the commercial statistics there has not been so good a year as 1903 for the production of ottar of roses in Bulgaria for thirty years. It is calculated that 13,770 pounds of this oil of roses were obtained.

The distillers employ chiefly the damask rose, which blooms in the month of May. It is a somewhat delicate plant and a frost will destroy the whole crop. The rose bushes are grown in tall thickets, seven feet apart. In the month of October some of the leafy branches of the old rose bushes are laid horizontally in ditches about twelve inches in width and depth and covered with good soil. In eighteen month's time these young shrubs come into flower. The crop is gathered in between May 20 and June 15, an acre producing 3,300 pounds of roses. The pickers gather the flowers while they are in the bud. These are then put into copper stills, cone-shaped with neck for filling, and the stills are placed upon furnaces of masonry.

Twenty-two pounds of roses and nineteen gallons of water are placed in each still, and the furnace is then lighted. The temperature is gradually reduced when the water begins to boil. After an hour or an hour and a half about twelve quarts of the liquid are taken away and there is a second distillation for extracting from the rose water the oil it contains.

The Greatest Health Work.

Congenial work with mind and hands should be encouraged in all persons, for its prophylactic as well as its curative influences. Rest will prove serviceable doubtless in numbers of cases, but its application should be restricted and carefully studied. There are many conditions where absolute rest will not only prove useless, but really harmful. To send a man from an active business life to one of complete inactivity will often prove disastrous, as much so as to prescribe all food for the obese.

The nervous will complain that they do not feel like work. If left to themselves and told to do absolutely nothing, not even to read, they are sure to dwell upon their infirmities and grow thereby morose and hypochondriacal, thus increasing their invalidism. The desire for work should be encouraged in all conditions and in all classes. If one's interest is aroused even to a slight degree a continuance in the work will develop a desire for occupation. One will never feel like work if one has nothing to do. Work will often accomplish what medicine, however properly applied, will not, for it is not alone that we must earn our bread by the sweat of the brow, but every man and woman should work for the pleasure of it, as well as for the health-giving, brain-expanding results, and the benefit of example.

Bugs Cost $785,000,000.

We have the word of statisticians that the chinch bug annually destroys crops valued at $60,000,000; that the grasshopper eats up $50,000,000 worth, the Hessian fly $40,000,000; the cotton root worm, the corn-ear worm, the cotton-boll weevil and the codling moth of apple each $20,000,000, the army worm $15,000,000, the cotton-boll worm $12,000,000, the grain weevil and San Jose scale $10,000,000 each, the cotton-leaf worm and the potato bug $8,000,000 each, and the cabbage worm $5,000,000. This makes a total of $298,000,000 worth of products that might have been expected to, but never do, get into the market because of the ravages of these most numerous insects. And this is not the only loss charged to their account. Shortage of crops affects various industries and increases prices, and a deal of money is spent in fighting the pests. Taking into account all these things, the annual loss in this country from insect pests, distributed among the various products, is estimated as follows: Cereals, $200,000,000; animal products, $175,000,000; forest and forest products, $111,000,000; truck crops and hay and forage, $53,000,000; cotton, $50,000,000; fruits, $27,000,000; tobacco, $5,300,000; sugarcrops, $5,000,000; miscellaneous crops, $5,800,000, and products in storage, $100,000,000, making a total of $785,000,000.

To Cure a Cold.

Consul General Guenther of Frankfort, Germany, reported to the Department of Commerce and Labor a new cure for a cold. It consists of a mixture of cocaine, paranephrine and water, applied on cotton to the nose. It arrests secretions and cures the cold, usually, by several applications. Inasmuch as colds can lead to dangerous diseases, it is wise to prevent their protraction. In the case of children Dr. Volksen advises mothers to cut a small rubber tube obliquely and to insert the sharpened end into the nose, then, by means of a rubber bulb, blow air into the tube. Thus the secretions in one side may be blown out through the other side. This eases the children and allows them to breathe freely. One can see at a glance how valuable such knowledge is. It can be used in all kinds of cases affecting the nose and throat.

An Attack of Croup Warded Off.

"Our little girl, two and one-half years old, woke up coughing with the croup one evening recently. We happened to have some of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on hand and gave her two doses of it. She went back to sleep and woke up next morning without a trace of cold. It is certainly a great medicine," says A. J. Luginbill, editor of Star, Villa Rica, Georgia, U. S. A. An attack of croup can always be warded off by giving this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail. It contains no harmful drugs and may be given to the smallest child with perfect confidence. For sale by Hilo Drug Co.

Portuguese Church Fair.

The luncheon and fair given by the Ladies Society of the Portuguese Protestant Church in the Hilo Armory on Saturday last was an artistic success, although the inclemency of the weather prevented many from attending. The various booths were under the capable supervision of Mrs. Ella M. Loebenstein and the luncheon, which was tastily served at the rear of the hall, was under the management of Mrs. C. N. Arnold and Mrs. Frank C. Stone. The Hilo band gave a number of selections between 11 o'clock and noon, and those who attended during the afternoon and evening responded by giving liberal patronage so good a cause. The proceeds will go to the repair of the Portuguese Church of which Rev. E. J. Silva is pastor.

Searle Becomes Manager.

John C. Searle has been appointed manager of Puako Plantation, succeeding Wilmot Vredenburg, who has had charge since its inception. Mr. Searle's services were secured about ten days ago, and he is directed to report for duty next Friday. Mr. Searle is a man of long practical experience in the cane fields, having been connected with the Hutchinson Plantation in Kau for the past twenty-five years. He resigned his position as head luna at Naalehu to accept the post of Sheriff of Hawaii, when former Sheriff L. A. Andrews became a private citizen. His tenure in the sheriff's office was short-lived and at the election five months later, Mr. Searle was defeated by the present Sheriff Keolani. Mr. Searle will not remove his family to Puako until later.

An Automobile Truck

Manager J. A. Scott of the Hilo Sugar Co. received by the ship Falls of Clyde a monster electrical freight truck, which will be used on the plantation. It has 42 cells of storage batteries and has four speeds of two, four, six and seven miles per hour. Its dimensions are 5 feet wide by 14 feet in length. This type of freight autocar has been successfully used throughout the United States and is regarded as a great advantage over animals as a motive power.

HILO CITIZEN CREATES REVOLUTION IN RUSSIA.

Dr. Nicholas Russel, of Hilo, and His Reform Propaganda in Russia—Russia Aflame with Fever of Revolution. Remarkable Career of the Champion of Liberty and the People's Cause.

"All Russia is aflame with the fever of revolt against tyranny." Thus writes Dr. N. Russel to a friend in San Francisco in a letter which has been published in the Call. The article referred to, in part, is as follows:

"All Russia is aflame with the fever of revolt against tyranny. Suffrage seems to be almost within the grasp of the people. An uprising, with which nothing in the history of the empire is liable to compare, is now threatening Russia. The seed that has been so often sown is at last sprouting. I feel that my own labors were not in vain. My pen is working now more vigorously than for years and my heart beats nervously as I anxiously yearn for that first hour of freedom that all Russians will enjoy when that awful reign of tyranny is destroyed."

The news from St Petersburg lately has frequently mentioned the name of Russel. It has told of the secret issuance of his propagandas that have kindled the fire of hatred among his countrymen and stirred them to revolutionary action. First he was skirting along the southern borders of Russia. Next he was compelled to seek refuge in Japan, where we have since learned of his work among the Russian prisoners of war, who, thirty thousand strong, several days ago demonstrated their sympathy for the revolutionists in Russia by singing the "Marseillaise" and waving red banners bearing the symbols of liberty, as they marched through the detention camps.

Few of the readers of the dispatches have probably recognized in this propagator of revolt the same Dr. Nicholas Russel, a distinguished and cultured oculist, who practiced for a number of years in this city, with his offices in the Phelan building.

Dr. Russel is a nobleman by birth, a fact he concealed after his arrival in San Francisco. He had been a graduate of the University of Kiev. Dr. Russel, as many others have done, incurred the anger of the Russian authorities by his seditious utterances at a student meeting and his arrest was ordered. Aided by a sister, then but 16 years old, he escaped from Kiev one night, disguised as a Mahomedan, and fled to Roumania.

For her loyalty to her brother Dr. Russel's sister was condemned to imprisonment for five years, and when he next heard from home the estate of his father, who had turned against the authorities because of the brutal treatment of his children, had been confiscated. From Roumania the young fugitive went to Bulgaria, thence to Greece, where he married the woman who has since shared with him the perils attending his frequent journeys to the Russian borders, and then they went to Paris. At the end of several years' practice as a physician in the French capital the doctor and his wife came to San Francisco. Mrs. Russel was an attractive woman, who rapidly surrounded herself with new-made friends, who will readily recall the happy social events they enjoyed as the guests of this entertaining hostess.

It was early in 1890 that Dr. Russel first gained prominence through the charges he made against Bishop Vladimir of the Greco-Russian church on Powell street. They were preceded by the withdrawal of the doctor and his wife from the church and were followed by Russel's excommunication. By this time two factions in the church had become arrayed against each other and a bitter war ensued, during which the edifice caught fire one night and was partially destroyed. This incident provoked more bitter criminations and for a time it was feared that blood might be spilled. Bishop Vladimir was arrested on serious charges but these were never pressed. Libel suits were also instituted.

About this stage of the controversy the Russian Consul, who had been dragged into the affair, published an attack upon Dr. Russel. He branded the doctor as a nihilist and charged him with being a fugitive from his native country. In a scathing retort Dr. Russel referred to the Consul as being beneath him in social rank and unworthy of recognition and in evidence of this charge he signed his reply with his true name, thus furnishing to the people the first intimation that he was a nobleman by birth.

One day, Dr. Russel in his office in the Phelan building was awaited upon by two of Bishop Vladimir's friends, who made an offer of $12,000 to Russel if he would cease his fight against the Bishop. Looking his visitors steadily in the eye the doctor replied in a voice that clearly expressed his indignation:

"Tell your Bishop that this fight is one of principle. All the gold the holy synod has stored in its vaults in St. Petersburg will not sway me in this affair. Vladimir must go."

Not a long while after this incident Vladimir was superseded by Archmandrite Innocent.

The doctor had always maintained that the education of his countrymen would eventually bring to them the freedom that they had long prayed for. He scorned the principles of nihilism and anarchy, declaring them to be a menace to the future welfare of the people and repeatedly expressed his opposition to their plots in the literature that was issued at regular intervals by him.

To the Russian, who had become a fugitive from his country for political reasons, however, the doctor was most generously disposed, and it was seldom that his house on California street, near Polk, was not affording shelter to some homeless countryman.

He wrote continuously on reform matters, and through friends of his cause in Roumania, Bulgaria and Austria this literature was smuggled into Russia and secretly circulated among the peasantry. Education was the constant cry of the persevering Dr. Nicholas Russel. His slogan was taken up by his secret followers at home, who were wont to occasionally write him encouragingly of the progress of his good work. The American friends of Russin, among whom are Julia Ward Howe, C. W. Folke and other notables lent their assistance, morally at least, to the educational cause.

Dr. Russel's life in San Francisco had not been prolific of much professional practice, not that his practice could have been made more general, but because his active interest in the affairs of Russia made the cause of his unfortunate countrymen the absorbing theme of his mind. His constant contributions of money, in various sums, to the people of his race who sought his assistance proved a serious drain on his income. At times he was penniless, but the fact did not seem to disturb either him or his wife, for their sentiments were one in all questions that related to the welfare of Russian subjects. It was not an infrequent experience for Dr. Russel to give his last dollar to a Russian fugitive. He gave as he had it and trusted to the morrow for assistance for himself and wife.

In the latter part of the '90's Dr. Russel and his wife removed to Hawaii, where in a modest home but a few miles from the base of volcanic Mauna Loa he frequently, for a time, corresponded with his old friends in San Francisco, to whom he confided many of the details of the inner workings of his great scheme to promote revolution in Russia. Finally his letters ceased, and soon the name of Russel became a matter of memory with those who had been associated with him.

Early in March, 1901, a steamer from Honolulu brought the news that Dr. Russel had been elected a member of the first Territorial Senate, of which he had been chosen president.

But the doctor, still wedded to his revolutionary theories, soon tired of Hawaiian politics and again retired from the Senate and was again lost track of by his former acquaintances in San Francisco. Four months ago his friends in this city were surprised by the receipt of a letter from the doctor in which he referred to the approaching revolution in Russia, and predicted its outbreak would mark the closing of the Japanese-Russian war. At that time he was in Japan, endeavoring in every possible way to communicate with Russian prisoners of war and arouse within them the spirit of revolution.

When the fact became known that Pobiebonostzeff had refused to acquiesce in the proposed overthrow of autocracy and had relinquished his post to emphasize this feeling of antagonism, his act was hailed with demonstrations by the students and masses, who, during their shouts of derision, cheered the name of Russel, their former student of Kiev, and leader in the latter propagandas.

Since then the mention of Dr. Russel has been frequent in the dispatches from abroad, showing that his revolutionary work has been bearing fruit, as he predicted in his recent letter from Japan. He has been generally accredited with the revolutionary cause that is threatening the existence of the monarchy. Even the Czar, through his various means of communication with the balance of the world, has attributed the present revolutionary spirit to the writings and missionary work of Russel and his colleagues, among whom is George Pieheklanoff, now exiled in Switzerland, where his pen has been working in harmony with that of Dr. Russel's in supplying reform literature to the people of his native land.

The latest achievement of Dr. Russel was in the Japanese detention camps at Hammadera and Himeji, where, since the fall of Port Arthur, he and his followers have been working incessantly among the Russian prisoners.

According to the dispatches from Kobe, more than thirty thousand Russian prisoners of war have been organized under the revolutionary banner and are daily singing the songs of the new party while awaiting transportation to their own country. In his several months' work at Hammadera and Himeji Dr. Russel is said to have been assisted by the various revolutionary parties in the United States, which furnished him with adequate funds and literature for this particular mission.

One great fear has been entertained by Dr. Russel is that, in the absence of strong leaders at home, the movement might be carried beyond limit by the nihilistic element in the empire and eventually recoil with disaster upon the freedom-loving masses that are simply seeking relief from the autocratic power that has dominated so cruelly in Russia for centuries. In one of his recent letters the doctor refers to this possibility, which he says would "end in the revolution devouring its own children."

Seemingly the recent countless disasters to the existing dynasty of Russia have added strength to the purposes of Dr. Nicholas Russel and increased his eagerness to avenge the brutal treatment of his father and sister and score for himself a settlement for the wrongs he was forced to suffer.

"Grateful Results"

A life of suffering and misery, without sleep, without appetite. Restored to health by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was grievously afflicted with biliousness and liver complaint. My mouth was in a terrible condition every morning, my tongue thickly coated, my breath was offensive, food distressed me, I suffered much from headache, my skin was sallow, and the many remedies recommended me did no good. At last I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and my improvement began almost from the first dose. It relieved the distress about my liver, caused my food to digest well, cured my headache, improved my complexion, and restored my appetite. These unlooked for but grateful results were accomplished by only two and a half bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Mrs. LYDIA M. TABOR, Altona, Pa.

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas.

Be sure you get "AYER'S."
