While the Agents of many Life Insurance Companies are petitioning their Officers for the ANNUAL DIVIDEND policy, it is a source of great satisfaction to the Policyholders of the Pacific Mutual to know that their Company has been issuing almost nothing else for years.

No petitioning necessary for liberality with the good old Pacific Mutual.

The Directors of the Company are by the California law made jointly and severally liable for all monies EMBEZZLED or MISAPPROPRIATED by the officers during the term of office of such Director. Quite a provision from the SECURITY STANDPOINT, considering what has recently occurred.

The best policies are issued by the best Company on Earth for policyholders.

PROPOSED RUSSIAN SETTLEMENT MAY FAIL

The prospects of a speedy settlement of the Kapaa land question, as prophesied by the Honolulu papers, seems to have received a set back owing to the disagreement between the Makee Sugar Co. on Kauai and the representatives of the Russian settlers.

Col. Z. S. Spaulding, representing the plantation has not entered into any contract with the prospective settlers for grinding of their cane and until a satisfactory and unequivocal agreement to that effect can be arranged, it seems likely that the proposition may fall through. A board of appraisers appointed by the Commissioner of Public Lands has placed a very low valuation upon the land, with a view of inducing the Russian settlers to locate permanently upon it. Their report has been given to Commissioner Pratt, but its contents will not be disclosed.

Governor Carter is heartily in sympathy with the movement and it is claimed is doing all he can to further negotiations to an amicable settlement. On the other hand it is contended by Jas. B. Castle, who represents the Russian settlers, that unless a contract can be drawn up securing to the planters a market for their cane at a reasonable figure and at the time for harvesting, it is better that the land remain idle or in the hands of the present lessee, which is the Makee Sugar Co.

Unless such a grinding contract be assured to the Molokans, the government cannot offer them an acceptable proposition for settling upon the lands. Governor Carter disclaims any power in the premises to compel the plantation to enter into such a contract.

The Makee Sugar Company holds from the government from 3,000 to 4,000 acres, under lease which expires in about eighteen months. In the latter part of November, Captain Demens representing the Molokans, a Russian sect not unlike the Quakers, investigated the possibilities of settlement of cane land by his countrymen. Providing the Makee Sugar Co. would cancel a certain tract of government land and to take the cane grown by the settlers, Captain Demens proposed to bring to Kauai a colony of about 130 families, or between 800 and 1000 people, who would become permanent settlers.

It is stated that these people are the very best kind of settlers. They will make their homes here and will spend their money here. It will not be sent back to Russia, as the Japanese send theirs to Japan. The idea is to have them take up the land as a settlement association in tracts of about 40 acres to each family. About half of it is suitable for cane cultivation and the rest can be used for other agricultural purposes. It will, if the plan is carried through, be opened on the purchase lease system, so they will be able to spend the first money they make on improvements and pay for the land later on. These men are not paupers, but have money with which they can make a good start.

Owing to the disagreement between the plantation and the Russians' representatives the plan seems likely to fall through.

President Against Jap Exclusion.

Several Californians called on the President, among them one or two members of the California Congressional delegation, says the San Francisco Chronicle. The President was in a furious temper over the introduction of the Japanese exclusion bill. One of the Californians told this story of what occurred:

"What on earth did you Californians mean by introducing such a bill?" burst out the President as he greeted them. "Don't you know such a thing is preposterous? With our great trade openings in the Orient, and our peculiar relations with those countries, and with our solemn treaty with Japan, which is the supreme law of the land? Do you suppose I would approve a bill that would be in violation of a treaty and an affront to Japan? Why, I would veto it if were passed unanimously."

"This bill represents the sentiment of a large part of the population on the Pacific Coast," replied a Californian. "It is introduced by the California delegation, composed of Republicans. We understand that a committee is coming here with the intention of having a similar bill introduced by a Democrat, who will try to make it appear that the regular delegation is opposed to the anti-Japanese sentiment in California."

"Who are these people?" asked the President.

"Well, the committee is headed by Mr. Livernash, and other members."

"Send them to me! Send them to me!" exploded the President, gritting his teeth and pounding the desk with his fist. "I'll veto the bill and deport Livernash!"

The Californians promised to suggest to Livernash and his associates that they call at the White House.

"Send them to me!" shouted the President, as the Californians departed, "I'll tell them what I think of Japanese exclusion."

It is said Senator Perkins intended to introduce a bill identical with McKinlay's bill, excluding the Japanese and Koreans, but when he heard of the President's threat to deport Livernash he concluded to let the House wrestle with the subject.

Speaker Cannon met ex-Representative Loud. "Loud" he exclaimed, "what in—do you fellows out in California mean by introducing bills to exclude the Japanese from the United States? Are you trying to stir up things so that we will fight Chinese exclusion? You'd better leave well enough alone."

These incidents, taken with the comments of Eastern Senators and Representatives and Eastern newspaper discussion, indicate how long and hard the fight will be before the exclusion of Japanese laborers is accomplished. Several Southern Representatives who formerly favored Chinese exclusion are now anxious to have the Chinese admitted in order to meet the labor scarcity in the South.

Kauai's Election Contest Case.

The Supreme Court has reversed Judge Hardy's decision ousting D. Kanealii from office of Supervisor of Kauai County. The court holds that the election is valid even if the conditions required prior to election were not complied with. The suit was brought by the late C. H. Wills, Kanealii's competitor in the campaign, it being charged that signatures to Kanealii's petition had been forged. The syllabus says:

"The provisions of the election laws relating to nominations are mandatory in the sense that the officers to whom they apply are obliged and may be required to comply with them before election; but a failure to comply with them does not, in the absence of a provision so declaring, invalidate the election unless it prevents a fair vote. The election of a county supervisor is not void because the signatures to the petition for his nomination were forged." The opinion of the court, by Chief Justice Frear, says:

"The circuit judges did not find that the respondent himself was implicated in the fraud or forgery. If he was, and should be convicted, doubtless the office would be vacated or he could be ousted from it under section 18 of the Organic Act.

"The judgment appealed from is reversed."

London, Dec. 22.—Hugh Watt, formerly a member of Parliament, has been sentenced to five years' penal servitude for conspiracy to murder the divorced wife of Sir Reginald Beauchamp.

New York, Dec. 20.—Abe Hummel the theatrical and divorce attorney, was convicted of conspiracy in a divorce suit and sentenced today, to serve one year in prison and to pay a fine of $500.

[Abe Hummel is one of the most noted attorneys in the United States, being widely known as counsel and attorney for actors and dramatists. He has been connected with many cases made notable because of the prominence of his theatrical clients. He was formerly of the firm of Howe & Hummel which defended Carlyle Harris in one of the most notable murder trials ever held in New York.]

Trouble Ahead in China.

Shanghai, Dec. 19.—Martial law has been declared in Shanghai. Foreigners are arming.

Shanghai, China, Dec. 19.—The news received from the interior is disquieting. Missionaries are being recalled to the coast cities.

Shanghai, China, Dec. 19.—An armed patrol is maintaining order. Additional warships are arriving.

Shanghai, China, Dec. 20.—The situation here is quiet. Volunteers and sailors from the warships are remaining on duty as a precaution.

Peking, China, Dec. 20.—The Empress has ordered an investigation of the Shanghai riots.

Shanghai, Dec. 21.—Order has been restored.

Revolution Is Spreading.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Dec. 20.—The revolutionary forces of Russia are confident that the great strike will break the Government's back. The telegraph operators have refused to send messages signed by the Emperor to Linevitch. The strike has already begun at Moscow.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Dec. 20.—The strike promises to be extensive. Many of the largest factories cease work today. Papers suspended by the censorship are appearing under other names. The insurgents have seized the State treasury in Tecum province.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Dec. 21.—The great strike throughout the empire has begun. The leaders at Moscow declare that the strike is the beginning of a revolution.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Dec. 22.—The city is quiet. Two workmen's councils have been arrested. The Berlin train with European mails departed with a soldier crew. Reports from Moscow indicate serious collisions and disorder. Ten thousand armed revolutionists are in possession of Khartoff. Troops are preparing to recapture the town.

Moscow, Dec. 22.—The town is in darkness. Fifty thousand factory hands are idle and the troops are confined to barracks.

Colossal Strike Throughout Russia.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 19.—The general strike which has been called to be effective throughout all Russia next Thursday, the 28th, has been endorsed by the union of the unions, the railroaders union, the union of the peasants and by the councils of workmen in both St. Petersburg and Moscow.

The strike will effect every industry in the empire. The strikers declare that this colossal strike is the direct result of the recent arrests which have been made of labor leaders, the orders to newspapers to suspend publication and other attempts to suppress the present strikes.

They maintain that the Russian government has virtually thrown down the gauntlet for the final struggle. Predictions, on the other hand, are made that the strike will be a failure on account of the approaching holiday season. As an indication of the temper of the people, Admiral Rojestvensky, who commanded the Russian fleets in the disastrous battle of the Sea of Japan, arrived home yesterday and was given a hearty reception by the populace. A delegation from the Bourse has arrived from Moscow for the purpose of imploring Premier De Witte to prevent the proposed strike. They predict that if it is permitted to go forward the country will be plunged into general bankruptcy.

The Hilo Tribune.

TUESDAY, - DEC. 26, 1905.

Entered at the Postoffice at Hilo, Hawaii, as second-class matter PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY.
J. CASTLE RIDGWAY - Editor
D. W. MARSH - Business Manager.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Beginning with the new year the TRIBUNE will be conducted by Marsh & Marsh, who will reorganize it upon a new business basis. The editorial management will be in the hands of J. W. Marsh, lately of Portland, Ore., a man of long experience in newspaper work. The subscription and business department will remain as heretofore. The retiring members of the TRIBUNE staff bespeak for the new management the support and patronage of the public and prophecy for it the success which it deserves.

BE LOYAL TO YOUR TOWN.

Go back, ye knockers, and sit down;
Sit in the farthest, dimmest aisle;
Sit where they cannot see you frown,
Make way for some one who can smile;
Cease idly to revile the town
And let the boosters "boost" awhile.

There is a whole sermon in the above doggerel lines, which it would be well for every citizen to take home to himself. Now is the time when united effort is most desired and there should be no quibbling over trivialities to bring about what is most desired for the Territory and for the island of Hawaii.

It is proposed to send a representative body of eight business men from the various islands to present Hawaii's interests before Congress in the hope of securing the fulfillment of President Roosevelt's recommendations and that of Governor Carter granting to the islands for a period of twenty years seventy-five per cent of the federal revenues derived from the Territory.

What is desired is a delegation of workers and men who are alive to the needs and interests of the Territory. Every inch of the way towards a realization of the hopes held out by the President's message to Congress, will have to be fought with sound arguments and persistent effort. Hilo or the island of Hawaii is not lacking in available material and to be included in the personnel of such a delegation is an honor which any citizen, capable of filling the station would be glad to accept. This opportunity should not be allowed to go by without a hearty response on the part of the financial and business interests of the community, who seek for permanent improvements and our commercial prosperity.

RETAILERS OF GOSSIP.

It is surprising how many more things you believe than you know. Let one of our New Year's resolutions be to refrain from being a common carrier of common gossip.

The receiver of stolen goods is held in the law equally as guilty as the thief. And the man who helps to circulate a slander is as bad as the one who originates it. No constraint is put upon a man to act thus. It is wilful and atrocious. To put one's hand into a barrel of pitch and then go round shaking hands with everybody is a small offence compared with this. People who are given to scandal are not the most perfect, but are the most transparent in their actions.

It is often to hide their own defects that they endeavor to be spatter their neighbor's character. If you go back far enough into the history of such man or his family, you will find some "skeleton in the cupboard" that had better be kept out of sight. Had they been dealt with as they treat their fellowmen, their names would long ere this have been consigned to eternal infamy.

It is gratifying to see the interest displayed by the "powers that be" when properly directed in matters pertaining to Hilo's welfare. The progressive spirit which moves the men behind the scheme to build a Masonic hall, insures early construction of a building that will be an ornament and a credit to the community.

LACK OF PATRIOTISM.

The Honolulu Advertiser under the editorial caption of "An interrogation" makes the following pertinent remarks, contrasting the present lack of patriotism with conditions under the monarchy and the republic:

What has come over the spirit of Honolulu society that the gentlemen of the Navy, even when they come with an admiral at their head, are no longer entertained and made to feel at home?

When an English warship comes here every man and woman of British blood, who is accustomed to entertain at all, makes the strangers welcome. The arrival of the Amphitrite about two years ago was the occasion of constant social festivities, and whenever the red and white ensign is seen in the harbor our British society opens all its hospitable doors.

The arrival of the German cruiser Elbe a short time ago set our German society in motion at once; and every evening there was open house somewhere in town for the officers and on many evenings there was entertainment for the men.

When a United States warship comes, even when it flies an admiral's flag, there is very little doing. Has our American society lost its patriotism?

THE selection of A. B. Loebenstein to be Hawaii's representative on the delegation, which it is proposed to send to Washington in the interest of legislation securing to the Territory seventy-five per cent of the federal revenues, is a judicious choice. Mr. Loebenstein is a man among men and his long residence in the Islands and his familiarity with matters affecting the growth and prosperity of the Territory, makes him especially fitted for the duties which the committee undertakes.

ECHOES OF THE PRESS.

The last attempt at securing assisted white labor for the cane fields from Porto Rico was not a success and it is therefore unlikely that a new supply from the West Indies will be attempted. On the other hand the Portuguese have proved themselves a reliable and thrifty class of labor and it would seem to be good policy to try to attract some of the immigrants from Portugal proper as from Madeira and the Azores. The laborers of that nationality brought to the Islands in former years, have proved to be of an eminently home building type, and that is the class of immigrants that the Territory is in need of.—Garden Island.

If those who feel they have a grievance against any of the county officials will take the trouble to read the Hilo papers they will find conditions here so much better than they are on Hawaii that the mistakes here pale into insignificance.

In Hilo recently the county attorney refused to make up the budget for consideration of the board and denied the board's right to compel him to do so. He further refused to furnish the board with any report of the work done in his office.

Such haggling is detrimental to the public and should meet a rebuke at the election next fall. Any official who quibbles over petty technicalities to the detriment of the public should receive nothing but scorn from his fellow men.—Maui News.

The proposed delegation will be a good advertising medium. It will make a good impression on the President and Congress. It will show that the people of this Territory are not entirely selfish and can display more practical enthusiasm over measures of mutual benefit than when asking special favors.

The President is disposed to help Hawaii. The Governor has furnished the cue for the line of action. The people of this Territory must lead the fight, furnish the rank and file workers. The most thoroughly representative body possible would include at least one man from each of the other islands. Congress is not likely to ask whether the delegates are all from Honolulu or Mahukona. At the same time the enlistment of wider support at home, giving citizens of each island a personal interest in the campaign, is a great source of strength.

A body of men representing all islands and both political parties, men whose impressiveness is evidenced in vigorous work, men who know how to reach Congressmen and not wait in the hotel lobbies till Congressmen come to them—such a delegation will be a compelling force that will succeed, and, if it shouldn't, will have done Hawaii a world of good well worth the price.—Evening Bulletin.

TEACHERS' SALARIES.
Superintendent Babbitt Talks to Teachers' Meeting

The forty-ninth meeting of the Hilo Teachers' Union was held in the Union School on Friday, Dec. 8, 1905. There were forty-five members present besides a number of visiting teachers and others interested in education. President C. H. Swain presided.

Sev. C. E. Shields opened the meeting with prayer. The roll call was responded to by examples of mistakes of pupils in language with the correct forms of the same. The minutes of the Oct. meeting were read and corrected.

Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. H. Babbitt, being present was asked to address the meeting. Mr. Babbitt in extending the greetings of the Department to the Union assured the teachers that that body, of which he is the head, is doing all in its power to advance the cause of education and help teachers in their work. A communication from a school in the most remote district receives as much consideration as one from a large city school. Teachers are desired to apprise the Board of their grievances. The sanitary reports are designed to show to the Legislature the needs of the schools. These should be carefully prepared. The Board is an advisory body and not a dictatorial Lord High Justice Tribunal. The speaker expressed the hope that the next Legislature may be induced to restore the old salary schedule.

Miss Akamu, with a class, conducted a lesson in the first step in Tonic Sol Fa. A picture was made on the black-board of birds on the rounds of a ladder. Each bird's note was given and learned by the class until the children were familiar with four notes. With these a little song was composed, written, learned and sung. The hand signs were also given for the musical notes.

Miss N. Pomeroy read a letter from her sister who was one of a party visiting the Mammoth Cave under the conduct of the Science Master of the Michigan State Normal College. The letter was a "clear" description of the wonderful formations of the cavernous depths of Erebus.

"School Excursion" was the subject of a paper by Miss Clara Stone. It dealt with visits to the sea shore and inland. The various formations should be studied on the spot, their characteristics noted and specimens collected. These excursions are a good test of a teacher's discipline.

A paper on letter writing was prepared by Mr. L. Malterre and read by Miss Maby. A specimen of a business letter was on the board to which reference was made. President Swain spoke of the importance of properly addressing the envelope.

The principals of fifteen schools reported on the work done on Arbor Day. Many trees were planted and are doing well.

The program was resumed after recess by a song rendered by the Misses Ewaliko, Akamu and Hapai.

Mr. Richmond of the High School was asked for some advice to teachers in preparing pupils for High School work. The speaker said that the mixture of races, their diversity of mental capacity lack of literary sentiment account for the chief difficulties attendant on higher work here. Fluent reading is the test of ability to get thought from printed books. There should be much written work in connection with English studies, but mere paraphrasing is to be avoided. Biography and literature reflecting English-speaking thought should be used. Choice poetic selections should be memorized. In arithmetic stress should be laid on accuracy and decimals as these are the essentials of all business computations.

Miss Mary Forbes put a class of seven children through the first and second day's orders in calisthenics.

Miss Coan asked that henceforth children coming to the meetings for class work should be tendered a formal vote of thanks before they retire.

Miss McCord, Miss Potter and Mrs. Wakefield were appointed to prepare the program for the next meeting to be held on Friday, Feb. 2, 1906.

The Rubber Industry.

A few figures from a recent official report will give the reader some idea of the magnitude and rapid growth of the rubber industry in the United States. In 1880 the number of establishments manufacturing rubber and elastic goods was 90, in 1900 it was 262. In the same time the capital employed increased from $6,000,000 to $39,000,000, the cost of materials used from $9,000,000 to $33,000,000, the value of the product from $14,000,000 to $52,000,000. Practically all this output is consumed at home.

While thin hair and baldness are undesirable for men, they are vastly more so for women. Nothing adds more to the adornment of women than rich, heavy, flowing tresses. ### FRIVOLOUS OBJECTIONS.

John Richardson of Maui Has Conviction Set Aside.

The Supreme Court, in setting aside the sentence of three years imposed upon John Richardson of Labaina, and ordering a new trial, took occasion to roast attorneys generally for delaying the court with frivolous exceptions.

The opinion sets forth that the defendant was indicted, tried and convicted for the offense of embezzling $1049.66, September 20, 1903, belonging to one John Tallett. The first twenty exceptions are briefly described by the court, after which the decision says:

"The foregoing exceptions, with the exception of 14 and 40 are overruled. They are, indeed, too frivolous to deserve comment. It is unfortunate for the administration of justice that trials should be delayed and useless expense caused to the Territory by trifling exceptions. Even if attorneys, who indulge in such practice, believe that they are impressing their client or jurors, the practice deserves censure. Perhaps the trial judge hesitates to rebuke attorneys for such things lest they may prejudice the jury against the attorney's client, but this court does not hesitate to pronounce its condemnation upon the practice. There are well established rules governing the form of questions to witnesses and the admissibility of evidence and an attorney is more likely to show his ignorance of those rules than to benefit his client by taking frequent and unmeaning exceptions to testimony."

The Use and Supply of Radium.

It is a far cry at present to discuss the use of radium, or radium salts, for illuminating or heating purposes. I do not suppose there is one-tenth of an ounce of radium in the whole world. If you can imagine getting that amount of radium together it would supply more energy than 250 tons of dynamite. Few persons who talk about radium and its components realize the great scarcity of the raw material for yielding radium or the exceedingly minute particles used in the experiments that have astounded the world. It is impossible to say where the future supply of raw material is to come from. I believe that in America carnotite looks promising as a basis for it. Cleveite, a mineral found in Norway, is also looked upon as a favorite source of supply.

Russia's Belated Christmas.

There are two Christmases at the Russian embassy, but the real celebration comes on Jan. 6. The fact that the joyous festival is, by reason of the use of the Russian calendar, somewhat belated does not, however, affect the enthusiasm with which the celebration is carried out. At a time when most of her American friends are removing the Christmas greens from their homes Countess Marguerite Cassini, the mistress of the Russian embassy, is superintending the decoration of a monster Christmas tree, generously laden with presents, and the distribution of these remembrances is followed by a grand dinner which is thoroughly Russian in its menu and appointments and as protracted as some of the celebrated all night feasts in the land of the czar.—Washington Times.

DRILLING SALT.

Hand Power Replaced by Anger Worked by Compressed Air.

In the city of Muskegon, Mich., salt is used in large quantities, and consequently the warehouses of the firms dealing in it are capacious enough to store away a very large quantity. As is well known, salt, on account of its affinity for water, is a substance that has a tendency to harden and cake when piled away any length of time, and some of the cellars where it is stored contains beds of it twenty feet high and so hard that but little impression can be made upon them even with the pick or ax.

For this reason a somewhat curious device has been brought into use to loosen the material so that it can readily be secured. This is a large boring tool or auger which is operated by compressed air. The auger is mounted on a wheeled truck which is guided by handles projecting from the rear of the framework. The rear end of the auger revolves in a socket fitted into the framework, while the air is admitted to the socket by a hose which supplies it. When operated, the boring tool is pushed against the mass of salt, and the auger is got in motion; and in a minute or two—so rapidly does the tool work—a hole about five inches in diameter is made in the formation of the entire length of the auger. Then another hole is drilled parallel with the first, and another until the pile has been undermined, so to speak, when its contents can be broken out. The advantage of this method is seen when it is stated that two men can get out as much salt by the power method as two dozen men by using picks and shovels.

Carrier Pigeons.

The pigeon post is largely used by both the naval and military forces of Japan. A movable loft is attached to the headquarters. Scouts are furnished with a knapsack capable of holding four birds. When they wish to communicate with headquarters they write out the message and place it in tube which is attached to the bird's leg. The pigeon is then liberated and flies to the movable loft, where its message is read. These birds fly at a velocity of nearly a mile a minute.

An Attack of Croup Warded Off.

"Our little girl, two and one-half years old, woke up coughing with the croup one evening recently. We happened to have some of Chamberlain's Cough remedy on hand and gave her two doses of it. She went back to sleep and woke up next morning without a trace of cold. It is certainly a great medicine," says A. J. Luginbill, editor of Star, Villa Rica, Georgia, U. S. A. An attack of croup can always be warded off by giving this remedy as soon as the croupy cough appears. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail. It contains no harmful drugs and may be given to the smallest child with perfect confidence. For sale by Hilo Drug Co. *

Special Mail Service.

The Hilo public and other citizens on the Island of Hawaii have no complaint to make on account of delays of Christmas mail. Besides the regular packet mail received by the Kinan on Wednesday, the Kauai brought seven bags of local mail on Saturday and the Claudine was promptly dispatched from Honolulu on a special trip with 48 bags of Xmas mail for Hilo and vicinity arriving by the Manchuria. Otherwise many Xmas packages would have been held in Honolulu until today and not gotten to their destination until tomorrow evening.

Shot a Mule.

Brughelli took his mules and hid himself to the tall woods when he heard of the proposed visit of Governor Carter to Hilo. Citizen Brughelli's former experience with the Governor was enough to inspire lack of confidence and he sought safety for his live stock from the reckless marksmanship of the Governor.

As it happened the Volcano Stables became the sufferer, and within twenty-four hours after the arrival of the U. S. S. Chicago, one of their draft mules was the victim of the wanton sport of some of the Jackies of the warship. While being led behind a wagon along the water front, two shots were fired at the animal from a crowd of intoxicated sailors off the Chicago who had been granted shore leave. One bullet struck the skull near the eye and glanced off, while the other penetrated the fleshy part of the thigh. The animal fell and as a result of the fall suffered a fractured hip bone. The mule is now in the horse hospital connected with the Volcano Stables and under the careful treatment of Dr. H. B. Elliott will recover.

The culprits who perpetrated the deed were arrested by the police, but later turned over to the ship's officers. They were placed in solitary confinement on bread and water in accordance with the usual custom.

Visit of Chicago.

The U. S. S. Chicago arrived last Wednesday about 9:30 o'clock a. m. and departed again on Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock. The vessel is the flagship of Admiral Goodrich, who is in charge of the Pacific Squadron. Governor Carter and Captain W. H. Lyons, naval commandant at Honolulu, were guests of the Admiral. Admiral Goodrich, Mrs. Goodrich and daughter, Mrs. Lyons, Governor Carter and other officers from the Chicago made up an excursion party to the Volcano. Owing to the necessity of readjusting the ship's compass, which took the vessel outside, little opportunity was given the general public to visit the man of war. On Thursday afternoon the ship's marine band gave a delightful concert a Moolook Park, which was largely attended.

AFFECT AN EXCHANGE.

Masons Secure Much Coveted Government Lot.

Governor Carter's visit to Hilo accomplished its purpose, and all opposition to the Carter program was immediately "Roosevelted". The Governor hurled the barriers placed in the way by Secretary "Jack" committing the government to reserve Block C for federal purposes, and has declared that the prospects for a government building for Hilo are so remote, that a new population will have sprung up, whose desires for federal improvements may not be so strong as our present voters.

Met at the fish landing on Waikena river by a Committee consisting of John Moir, the Governor was escorted with a little demonstration as it is possible to conceive to the latter's residence at Onomea plantation, in which the executive holds a large interest.

He came and went unheralded, and few citizens were aware of the executive presence in our midst. However, he summoned the leaders of the Masonic Hall Association and made known to them his decision after careful consideration, to accept the offer of exchange of the Masonic lot for a portion of Lot C. The Masons ask for lot having a frontage of seventy five feet on Waiuanu street and one hundred feet on Bridge street, at a valuation fixed by the Governor of ninety cents per square foot. This means that the lot is valued at $6,750.

In exchange for this lot, the Masonic Hall Association propose to give title to two lots on upper Waiuanu street. These are the Hitchcock and Masonic lots valued respectively at $1,500 and $5,000. The balance will have to be paid in cash. The Association agree to put up a substantial Mason Hall on the newly acquired land at a cost of not less than $15,000 within eighteen months from July first next.

The arrangements were eminently satisfactory to the Governor, and after securing the agreement from the Masons in writing, he gave instructions to Engineer Gere to advertise for the removal of the Riverside School to the new school lots. It is hoped the school building can be removed during the holidays and not disturb the daily attendance of pupils. As soon as the specifications are drawn up for the high school, contracts will be let for the construction of that building on the Riverside lot.

TO GO TO WASHINGTON.

Business Delegation to Urge Congressional Legislation.

By the unanimous choice of the Hilo Board of Trade and the Hilo Chamber of Commerce, A. B. Loebenstein was selected last Saturday as the representative from the Big Island to join the delegation who are to go on to Washington in the interest of securing favorable action by Congress upon the President's recommendation to restore the federal revenue to the Territory.

This action was taken at the joint request of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and Merchants' Association, who propose sending five men from Honolulu and who asked that each of the other islands be represented on the lobby. The names chosen in Honolulu are W. O. Smith, Mark P. Robinson, E. A. McInerny, J. R. Galt, Geo. W. Smith. It is understood that Maui will be represented by David C. Lindsay, former manager of Paia plantation, but now on the mainland, preparing himself for the banking business in which he expects to engage in Wailuku. No word has been received from Kauai, but it is expected similar action will be taken by the business interests of that island, so that the delegation will be strictly a representative body.

The visit of the delegates will not be confined solely to the special mission on which they are sent, but it is expected that while in Washington, they will press other matters of needed legislation affecting Hawaii. It is stated that one of the most important matters of legislation which will be pushed by Mr. Loebenstein, in conjunction with the other gentlemen, is the necessary appropriations for a breakwater, light houses and other public improvements. Mr. Loebenstein leaves next Friday for Honolulu, where he will join the other members of the party. It is expected they will leave on January 9th, and in the meantime all available data regarding the needs of the Territory is being collected.

A Christmas Souvenir.

One of the most artistic productions that has ever come from an island press is the Christmas number of the Paradise of the Pacific. The cover page is a rich design in sienna brown and old gold, portraying a characteristic Hawaiian scene of a coconut grove and rice field in the foreground. Litographic reproductions of Hawaiian landscapes, prominent residences, and specimens of various indigenous fruits appear in large array and number. The volume abounds with interesting articles on Hawaiian life, resources and diversified industries, written by members of the Paradise of the Pacific staff and other contributors. A. L. Louison writes an interesting article on coffee culture, with illustrations of the Louison Brothers' coffee ranch in Hanalei. This holiday number is one of the best examples of home printing issued from the islands and is a valuable addition to the promotion literature of the Territory. Copies may be had at all news stands or from William M. Langton, Editor and Proprietor, Honolulu.

Registered Mail Lost.

Official advices have been received from San Francisco that all registered mail going forward to the coast on the steamer Sonoma was totally destroyed by fire in a railroad wreck at Green River, Wyo. The Sonoma left Honolulu on November 28th, carrying registered mail matter dispatched from Hilo on Friday, November 24th. All persons who have lost registered letters or packages bearing first class postage rates, can make claim against the government therefor, within one year from date of loss. Ordinary registered parcels of merchandise unless bearing first class postage cannot be subject to a claim for loss. Applications may be made to the local post office, where the mail matter was registered.
