DILLON SAYS "LIAR."

Is at Once Suspended from House of Commons.

London, March 20.—One of the liveliest scenes witnessed in the House of Commons since the palmiest days of the Irish Nationalists ended this afternoon with the suspension of John Dillon. During the discussion of the South African affairs the Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, vigorously protested against the Government's conduct in uttering "malignant slanders" in calling the Liberals "pro-Boers." These slanders, Sir Henry said, were used for party purposes. The Government, which had been going from blunder to blunder, claimed immunity from criticism, and if this continued it would follow "the precedent of the evil days of the American war."

Chamberlain, proceeding, referred to the Boers who are fighting on the British side, when John Dillon (Irish Nationalist) interjected, "They are traitors!" on which Mr. Chamberlain retorted: "The honorable gentleman is a good judge of the traitors."

A scene of great confusion ensued. When order was partially restored, Dillon demanded a ruling on Chamberlain's words.

The Speaker said: "An honorable member spoke of soldiers serving under the British flag as traitors. I deprecated the interruption, and I deprecated the retort of the other member."

Dillon then said: "I will tell the right honorable member that he is a damned liar."

A dead silence followed this remark. Such unparliamentary language seemed to stun the house.

The Speaker invited Dillon to withdraw the expression, but the latter said:

"I will not withdraw."

"Then, I must name you," said the Speaker.

The Government leader, A. J. Balfour, then said: "I beg to move that Mr. Dillon be suspended from service in the House."

The motion was carried by 248 to 48 votes.

Dillon immediately, by direction of the Speaker, left the House, amid wild Nationalist cheers, and Chamberlain resumed his speech.

Dillon's suspension, under the present rules, cannot exceed a week. His offense would have been much more severely dealt with had the new rules been in force.

MR. HETTY GREEN DEAD.

Nursed to the End by the Woman Who Saved His Fortune.

New York, March 19.—Edward H. Green, the husband of Hetty Green, said to be the richest woman in America, died at Bellows Falls, Vt., today, aged 80. Since last October he had been tenderly nursed by his wife. Green was a pioneer in the East India trade and accumulated millions.

Nearly fifty years ago he married Harriet H. Robson, who had $9,000,000 inherited from her father. Green went into speculation and neglected his business. One day it came to Mrs. Green's ears that her husband was on the verge of bankruptcy. His Quaker spouse took the reins in her own hands to save him. She was shrewd and energetic, and succeeded in saving her husband from utter ruin. The taste of the financial whirl was so fascinating that she has been at it ever since. Next to strife for wealth her most strenuous occupation has been dodging tax collectors. Mrs. Green often said her natural calling was that of a nurse, and the tender care of her aged husband bore her out in the claim.

C. P. HUNTINGTON GENEROUS.

Loaned Millions of Dollars to Friends and Strangers Without Security.

New York, March 19.—The Tribune will say tomorrow: The Collis P. Huntington estate, now being inventoried by the State tax appraisers, acting with the executors, Charles W. Tweed and Isaac W. Gates, will amount to about $28,000,000 or $29,000,000. The transfer tax will approximate $800,000. This is the unofficial information about the schedule of property left by Huntington.

The report of the State appraisers will not be filed for several months. It is understood that the delay is due in large part to the overhauling of claims and notes against friends of Huntington. These amount to an astonishingly large sum, it was said, and are in such shape that it is difficult for the executors to tell how much they are really worth. The major items in the schedule of assets have been known for a long time.

The executors paid to the State last fall $700,000 in part satisfaction of the transfer tax, thus securing a rebate of $35,000, which was clear gain to the estate.

BUSY WITH PREPARATIONS.

Great Difficulty in Finding Houses in Which to Entertain Princess.

London, March 18.—Half a million of London's poor will be the guests of King Edward during coronation week. His majesty notified the Mayors of the metropolis today that the sum of £30,000 was placed at their disposal, and he invited them to make the necessary arrangements to entertain the very poor to the number of 500,000 at a dinner in celebration of his coronation.

Every department of the King's household is busily engaged in the stupendous task of preparing for the coronation ceremonies. So very long is the list of foreign princes and ambassadors who will be present that the court officials are at their wits' end to decide how to dispose of his majesty's guests. Every available room in Buckingham palace and the other royal residences is already pre-empted, and the Lord Chamberlain is gladly availing himself of offers of many of the finest residences in London. The Belgravia and Buckingham Palace hotels have been requisitioned in their entirety, four houses in Grosvenor square have been taken and in addition the Lord Chamberlain has thankfully accepted the proffer of Dorchester House, lent by Captain G. L. Holford, the King's equerry; Chesterfield House, Harcourt and Wimbourne House.

The Maharajah of Jeypoor, one of the many Indian notables coming to the coronation, today chartered an Anchor line steamer to convey himself and his suite to England.

BOERS LIKELY TO BE SHOT.

Prisoners Taken in British Uniform Have Been Put to Death.

London, March 19.—In the House of Commons yesterday War Secretary Brodrick set at rest the rumors regarding Lord Wolseley's trip to South Africa by announcing that the former commander-in-chief had gone to Cape Town on an entirely private visit, without previously communicating with the War Office.

Regarding the Boers wearing British uniforms, Brodrick said all civilized nations punished such action with death. Boers captured wearing British uniforms were liable to be shot after trial by court-martial. Lord Kitchener in certain cases had already inflicted that penalty.

PRESIDENT SURPRISES MILES.

Report of a Stormy Interview in the Cabinet Room.

Washington, March 15.—President Roosevelt and General Miles have been at it again. Contrary to reports recently published, they have not made up their differences and resolved to be friends. In fact they are farther apart than ever. A few weeks ago General Miles called at the White House and remained some time in conference with the President. It was supposed then that there had been a pleasant talk. The facts are that General Miles called to say he forgave the President for the famous reprimand administered to him on account of his utterances in regard to the Schley case.

"For the time I did feel hurt by it," explained the Lieutenant-General, "but now I know it was not your work. It was a job put up on me by Root and Corbin. Corbin wrote it and Root carried it to you. I don't mind what my enemies do against me."

"Hold on," exclaimed the President. "That is not right. General Miles, I will state to you frankly that the reprimand of which you speak was my work, and I am fully responsible for it. It was prepared at my instance for the good of the service, and if you have complaints to make of anyone in regard to it you should make them to me."

This nearly took General Miles' breath away, but he recovered himself and made a spirited answer. The President retorted. For some minutes the atmosphere of the Cabinet room was at a high temperature. Then General Miles walked away and he hasn't been back since.

Cuban Reciprocity.

Washington, March 18.—The advocates of Cuban reciprocity scored a decisive victory tonight at the conference of Republican members of the House of Representatives, the proposition of Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means Committee for a 20 per cent reduction of duty, with the Sibley amendment, limiting the duration of the reduced rates to December 1, 1903, being adopted by a vote of 85 ayes to 31 noes. This result was reached at 11:30 o'clock after a protracted debate, followed by a series of exciting rollcalls.

The first test was when Payne concluded the speechmaking with a motion for the previous question on all pending propositions. This motion prevailed, 78 to 56. A vote was then taken on a substitute offered by Representative Dick of Ohio, in behalf of those opposing the reciprocity plan, offering in its stead a plan of direct payment to Cuba covering several years. This was defeated, 57 to 75. An amendment by Morris of Indiana to take off the differential on refined sugar was defeated, 50 to 72.

Situation in Ireland.

London, March 18.—The Vatican has received confidential news, says the Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, of a serious situation in Ireland. The Fenians have for some month been engaged in an active propaganda with a view to organizing for a general rising. It is believed the Vatican will instruct the Irish clergy to hold aloof from the revolutionary agitation.

Rhodes Slightly Better.

Cape Town, March 20.—A bulletin issued at midnight last night said that Cecil Rhodes had taken nourishment; that he was slightly stronger, and that at that time he was sleeping.

HIS FIRST EARTHQUAKE.

A London Tenderfoot Sojourning in Puna has an Experience.

Late last night I was sitting at the center table in my office with several gentlemen playing cinch, and one of them was a tender-foot from England. He has been a resident of the Islands for many years, but has lived on the more insignificant ones where they do not boast of earthquakes any more. Recently he strayed over, as it were, to Hawaii and finding employment in the office of the manager added one more white face to the limited number already on the plantation. This individual we will call "Forage" for short. The altitude at which he carries his head indicates long forage and his real name suggests, not only long forage but the building to store it in and the material out of which the house is built. Can you name him?

He has not been long enough on this island to have experienced many quakes, though they have been known to have occurred a hundred times in one short day; nor had he lived through a real big one, so it is no wonder he was alarmed at the coming of one. Like every thing else one gets used to them and they are nothing after that, but like scolding women they are the devil to get used to.

About ten o'clock one of those unusual tremblers you read about but seldom feel, manifested its unwelcome presence. It was the longest felt in more than a year, and came at a moment when we were all engrossed in the game; we were studying our hands to determine how much to bid for the privilege of choosing the trump. The silence was of a death-like stillness but did not last long; it was suddenly broken by the mental and physical confusion which usually attends severe quakes.

The house rocked backward and forward and seemed as though transformed into rubber and stretched to all points of the compass and let go again. The metallic roof cracked and popped, the windows rattled, the blinds clattered, the doors swung upon their hinges and the furniture seemed all animation. One felt as though grasped in the center and jerked from side to side—just that feeling I imagine as is experienced by a little cat when caught in the middle of the back and rudely shaken by a big bull dog. The rapid wavelike oscillations induce a faintish, sickening feeling which seems to pervade the very atmosphere and on an inexperienced man it is a cold head which can think.

At the first impulse "Forage" dropped his cards as though struck by lightning. His chin fell low on his neck, his hair stood on ends, his face elongated and his eyes seemed to roll out upon his cheeks and hang like great balls of living fire. His long ears waved and flapped in consonance with the waves of the quake, his teeth chattered like a telegraph and his bones seemed to rattle from the ague which had seized him. He wore the stamp of a raving maniac or one recently escaped from the torrid confines of the regions below and as he stood half straight, half upon the table in front of him, with his mouth wide open as in the act of screaming, he would have tickled the risibles of a statue of hardest bronze.

He was too badly frightened to speak and nothing but the peals of hearty laughter which greeted him from my side of the table saved him from paralysis of the brain. Fortunately he was scared stiff, too much alarmed to run, else he might have butted his brains out against the wall, for I do not believe he had any knowledge of himself or surroundings for fifteen seconds or more.

When it was all over and the rest of us were laughing and talking and commenting upon the duration, extent and possible damage of the shock, "Forage" who had not yet spoken, looked appealingly into my face and in plaintive, pathetic tones said, "won't you please go with me to my room and help me pack my trunk?"

HOOANOANO.

FIGHTING SUGAR TRUST.

Oxnard Said to Be Behind Beet Consolidation Scheme.

New York, March 14.—A special to the Tribune from Chicago says: Beet sugar men of the West, representing $100,000,000 capital, are organizing to fight the sugar trust, or the American Sugar Refining Company. The first steps were taken this afternoon at a meeting in this city of the stockholders of the Idaho Beet Sugar Company.

Ex-Congressman J. Hamilton Lewis of Washington, who is president of the Idaho Company and is said to be slated for the presidency of the beet sugar trust, arrived today from Seattle.

"It is true," he said, "that a plan for the reorganization of the beet sugar companies of the West is well under way, but the matter is not in shape to discuss."

"Will you fight the sugar trust or expect to be absorbed?" "There is no talk of merger or absorption. We will fight the trust; if you like, call it 'trust against trust.'"

From other sources it was learned that during the next fortnight representatives of most of the Western beet-sugar men will meet in this city to take final steps in the reorganization and consolidation of the new company. The name will probably be the American Beet Sugar Company and the capital will be $100,000,000, or about one-tenth of the combined stock issues of the subsidiary concerns. Michigan companies, the Idaho Company, the Colorado Beet Sugar Company and nearly all others of equal importance are said to be in the deal. Oxnard, it is understood, is back of the proposed consolidation.

According to these informants a great battle with the Havemeyer company is coming. Beet sugar, they maintain, can be manufactured cheaper than the cane product.

TO IMPROVE VOLCANO HOUSE.

Local Stock Holders Want the Hotel Brushed up.

There was a meeting of the Hilo stock and bondholders of the Kilauea Volcano House Company in this city last Monday at which a positive stand was taken by the local holders for a change in the policy of that well known mecca of tourists and rest seekers. It was unanimously voted by the stockholders present to petition the Board of Directors at Honolulu to hold a meeting at once to consider some scheme of reorganization. Mr. C. C. Kennedy, who is a stockholder, will go to Honolulu today. He takes the proxies of all Hilo interests and if a meeting is held at Honolulu, will attend and present the Hilo view of the case. Those present at the meeting last Monday were C. C. Kennedy, A. E. Sutton, representing the Richardson interest, Mr. Lindsay, for T. H. Davis & Co., Mr. Humburg for Hackfeld & Co. and Peter Lee.

The last meeting of the stockholders of the company was in 1894. The business has been directed chiefly from Honolulu. It is thought that the holders of stock at Honolulu will act in unison with the views of the Hilo stockholders.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.

For Coughs and Colds in Children.

"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs and colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well-known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by Hilo Drug Co.

CALIFORNIA CANNED FRUIT

The most favored country in the United States in growing fruit, is California. Its valleys produce the most delicious varieties, and the choicest product of the most favored localities is gathered and packed for our store under our "Fidelity" and "Crema de Luxe" labels.

The Fidelity represents the highest standard or extra quality of medium size, perfect fruit, in heavy syrup.

The Crema de Luxe covers the dessert grade of extra large fruit, particularly adapted for export, being firm fruit that will arrive whole in best condition.

Prices on both grades are quoted in our price list. We pay particular attention to uniformity and selecting the finest flavored fruit to be had, as there is a vast difference between the fruit of different localities.

Our experience of twenty years in shipping to individual consumers is at your service.

WOLSELEY TO FRONT.

His Journey to South Africa Said to be Private, But Significant.

London, March 14.—Field Marshal Lord Wolseley, former Commander-in-Chief of the British army, is to go again to Africa, the scene of the greatest military triumphs. He says his trip is to be entirely private, and the war Office denies any connection with it, but the average Briton is talking of coming important changes in South Africa and connecting them with the journey of Lord Wolseley, which will begin tomorrow.

The capture of Lord Methuen made one of the hardest blows Britain has had to bear for years, and when this was immediately followed by news that Kitchener's blockhouse system had been found weak again in spots, anger was succeeded by disgust. That the War Office has determined to practically begin again at the bottom and make a clean sweep, mapping out an entirely new plan of campaign, is the belief.

In the City Lord Wolseley's trip is believed to be the beginning of new ideas. The War Office believes Wolseley will make a thorough investigation of the situation in South Africa. Hence came a rumor late tonight that as a matter of fact he is to take actual charge of future operations. He is not, however, to go to the front, it is believed, unless he deems it imperative, but is to remain in Cape Town, keeping in communication with Kitchener.

Kitchener is being most harshly criticised for his course in the present plan of campaign. His reassuring messages and his triumphant reports of insignificant victories have angered all Britain. Especially was this case when he announced the Majuba day anniversary victory—a victory that was almost immediately overshadowed by three almost inexcusable routs.

Colonel Frank Rhodes and Arthur Rhodes, brothers of Cecil Rhodes, and Lady Methuen will be passengers on the steamer which will take Lord Wolseley to Cape Town.

HIVE OF INDUSTRY.

Excellent Work Turned Out by Extensive Local Manufactory.

Geo. S. McKenzie is making the Volcano Stables and Transportation Company, a concern which is to Hilo what the Honolulu Iron Works is to the Capitol City. The concern is one of many branches and departments. There are the carriage shops where the best vehicles from a light road wagon to the heaviest dray are turned out in finer finish and more durable qualities than are possessed by the factory made vehicles of the East. Mr. McKenzie's trade is that of carriage maker. He knows the business and makes the best goods. He rides in a buggy that was made by himself in California, nineteen years ago. He puts durability into every vehicle turned out. The sixteen hacks used by the Volcano Stables were all made in Hilo at the Riverside shops and orders are being filled each week for heavy and light wagons for all parts of this Island.

The help employed in the various branches of manufacturing under the supervision of Mr. McKenzie, number twenty men, leaving out the large number of unskilled and skilled hands kept busy about the stables and on stage lines and the paddocks at the race track. Ten men work in the blacksmith shops. The horseshoing department keeps three of these busy and their particular work is supervised by a graduate horseshoer Mr. O'Rourke from one of the best veterinary colleges. The carriage department of the blacksmith shop employs a gang of expert workmen, who have every facility for rapid and efficient work. Take the matter of setting tires. Mr. McKenzie has put in a little plant of his own devising which enables his men to put on a set of four tires in 20 minutes. The tires are heated uniformly their entire circumference and are dropped into a tank which cools the tire instantly through its length.

This causes uniformity of contraction and makes a stronger, more durable job than the old fashioned slow method. One day last week his men put on sixteen tires 1 inch by four inches in two hours. For heavy work this is a record breaker.

The stock of carriage material and fixtures carried runs up in value to more than $10,000. The dry room is filled with some two thousand dollars worth of stuff ready to go into fine carriages and stout wagons.

The paint shop is supervised by H. Hardin, late of San Francisco, who has done some of the best work in carriage finishing that has been seen in the city. Hacks trimmed and painted and varnished and striped under his direction discount the finish on factory made vehicles as may be seen by a comparison at the Carriage Emporium on Wai-anuenu street. At this store house of fancy and stylish vehicles can be seen a large stock of both home and foreign made goods.

Every vehicle used on the Island of Hawaii should be from the Hilo factory.

The harness department of McKenzie's hive of industry is showing rapid growth. He carries an immense stock of ready made harness bought on the Coast at figures which make underselling an easy matter to customers who get quotations on large lots. In this line the Island buyer has also the advantage of immediate delivery. In made-to-order goods, McKenzie's men are doing work which brings the department to the front in point of excellence of product.

The Volcano Stables proper is an institution itself of many ramifications. There are stage lines, mail routes, freight contracts and the multifarious items of livery and the hack business which make the institution one of the most important to the people of Hilo. To the people outside of Hilo, the product of the manufacturing departments should appeal most strongly.

HILO'S FEDERAL BUILDING.

Progress Already Made Leads P. Peck to Make Trip.

Philip Peck received a letter from Captain Matson by the last mail, enclosing a telegram sent from Washington by Congressman Stark of Nebraska, saying that the matter of the Federal building at Hilo was being properly advanced. The data and the arguments sent forward by the committee of Hilo citizens had been received and given immediate attention.

Mr. Peck will go to the mainland by the return of the steamer Enterprise and has decided to go on East to Washington and other cities on business that will advance the interests of Hilo. He will do some good work in Washington in behalf of the Federal building and will carry a portfolio of information regarding conditions and needs in the Hilo harbor.

In a conversation with Mr. Peck the other day a TRIBUNE reporter asked him if he was not afraid the President might consider him a candidate for the Hawaiian governorship. "I shall soon prove to officials at Washington," said Mr. Peck, "that I am not there on any political lobbying scheme. They will soon know that I am there in the interest of a deserving community and I venture I will find willing ears for my story. As it will be some time before I depart I would like for anyone who cares to make suggestions in the interest of Hilo to call and see me before I leave. Of course too many cooks would spoil the broth, but two heads or more are better than one."

New Deputy Sheriffs.

Some time ago High Sheriff Brown sent to Sheriff Andrews of Hawaii the application of Henry K. Martin for the position of deputy of the Kau district in place of Mr. Eaton, who it was understood, contemplated resigning. Mr. Martin was seen and was found to be just the man for the place, so that High Sheriff Brown gave out news today that he had finally decided on that young man for the place, he began his duties on the 1st of April.

L. Kahlbaum of Kauai has been appointed deputy sheriff of Koloa under Sheriff Coney and he also began his duties on the first of April. O. Crowell, a Kamehameha graduate and a former clerk in the deputy sheriff's office here, was the last deputy sheriff of Koloa, but upon the resignation of Walter Wright, he was promoted to the more important post at Waimea. The many friends of Mr. Crowell in this city will be pleased to know that he is doing well and that he has the absolute confidence of his superiors.

METHUEN FREED BY THE BOERS.

Wounded General Being Attended by His Own Countrymen.

London, March 13.—The following dispatch, dated Pretoria, March 13th, has been received from Lord Kitchener: "General Methuen was brought to Klerksdorp today. He is doing well. Everything possible is being done for him."

The War Secretary, Brodrick, announced in the House of Commons today that he understood that General Methuen, who was captured, severely wounded, by General Delarey, March 10th, had been released. The General's condition was favorable. Brodrick added that the exchange of General Methuen for Commandant Kritsinger had not been contemplated. The trial of the Commandant had been postponed because consideration of the evidence to be presented had not been completed.

Timothy M. Healy, Irish Nationalist, amid Nationalist cheers, invited the Government to show equal magnanimity and release Commandant Kritsinger.

Sound Sense in Poetic Form.

George W. Hatch, who thinks in numbers and who lispis in rhyme after a fashion that is envied but not to be attended by Miles Menander Dawson, has strung his lyre in this style—"Who works his brain from morn till night, and off from night till morn, and eats a lunch and wears a coat that any clerk might scorn?—the president. Who wrestles with the digits nine till figures fag his brain, to furnish estimates and such and make the reasons plain?—the actuary. Who ploughs around the field all day and hustles for his pie, and never to temptation yields to rebate, twist or lie?—the agent. Who struts about and smokes cheroots as if he owned the place, is up on sports, knows all the ropes, and and shows it in his face?—the office boy. Who wears a giddy pompadour and shirtwaists rare displays, and strews the mother tongue about in many curious ways?—the type-writer lady."

There is no Family Medicine so favorably known as PAIN-KILLER. For sixty years it has been used by Missionaries in all parts of the world, not only to counteract the climatic influences on their families, but for the cure of all diseases of the bowels, and for wounds, burns, bruises, etc. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. SUGAR.

New York, March 20—Sugar—Firm; fair Refining, 11-16c; Centrifugal, 95 test, 37-16c; Molasses Sugar, 2 11-16c. Refined, steady.

WHEN CAT'S AWAY, THE MICE—

Judge Gilbert F. Little of this Circuit Court now absent on the mainland on a well earned sixty days' leave, granted by the Department of Justice at Washington, might well expect the petty criticism which sneaks from the small bore gun at the foot of Church street. The exigencies which might arise to make the absence of the Judge a public calamity are freaks of a jaundiced imagination fully as absurd as the dismal prediction that the Judge may not return until next fall.

Another story, proceeding from the twin spirit of the small bore gun is the "disguise" racket dished up by O'Brien, formerly an Advertiser heeler, now a free lance in San Francisco with the columns of the Advertiser as his best market. Judge Little did not book on the vessel that carried him to Frisco. That was his privilege and he showed his sense in the course he pursued. To have booked in Honolulu would have been giving notice to suspicious and unscrupulous enemies like the "small bore" who would have at once sent on the same boat a shower of telegrams with the purpose of paving the Judge's vacation pathway with thorns. The Judge eluded the Dole-Advertiser spies by seven days, hence the "Smith" story is concocted to discredit him at home.

There are a few who would not crook a finger at the Judge when he is at home, who rise and squeak merrily when he is on the other side of the ocean.

PROGRESS IN SIGHT.

A preacher of unusually devout turn of mind was blest with an heir. In the pulpit next Sunday he said among other things in his prayer, "We thank thee Lord for the 'succor' thou hast sent." After being buffeted with flood and storm, with bridges falling and roads crumbling, the advent of a program of activity in making public improvements awakes a similar degree of thankfulness with all Hilo people.

Superintendent Boyd has more friends to the acre in the Hilo District than any other incumbent in the Capitol building offices. When every thing in the District goes wrong and a howl of curses arise against Fate, the man in the Public Works office who is trying to make cents do the work of dollars is likely to believe himself the target of maledictions. The truth is far different. When Hilo kicks, the kick is against fate; her attitude toward Mr. Boyd is one of thankfulness for the "succor" sent and the succors to come.

A BREAK WATER NEEDED.

All business men and plantations financially interested in the quick dispatch of sugar from the Port of Hilo will see by the news of the last month, how it would be money in their pockets to have a break water constructed in this bay at the earliest possible date. Shipping here were practically storm bound for a month. The interests involved call for concerted and vigorous action in behalf of this big improvement. The business men of Hilo and the planters of this Island should get together and formulate a plan of action with the purpose of obtaining early consideration of the matter by Congress.

Action of the vigorous never-let-up sort; action of intelligent concert on the part of city and country alone, will achieve results. Hilo has supinely waited for something to turn up for a long time. The currents of prosperity will run in this direction only by the hardest kind of effort on the part of Hilo men to divert them from the easy channels formed by the industry of longer headed rivals.

The business and plantation interests which will be affected by Hilo harbor improvements could well afford to send a special representative to Washington to work for what we ought to have. With a distinct and positive mission to perform, the right man could do much for the patient city of Hilo. The construction of extensive improvements, not only would be worth much to the shipping interests here but would give employment to hundreds of laborers and put money into circulation in the community which otherwise would go into some obscure swamp in Arkansas or Tennessee.

Hilo men and men on the windward side of the Island of Hawaii must take the initiative.

REORGANIZE THE MECCA.

It will be very gratifying to the people of Hilo and Hawaii if the movement inaugurated by the Hilo stockholders in the Volcano house results in making that resort a first class stopping place. Such a result will be equally appreciated by the people of Honolulu who know the delights of a sojourn of a week or ten days on the edge of the crater, if there were but good hotel accommodations.

The trip to the Volcano and a rest of a few days at the Volcano house is the most inviting part of the Island itinerary of the majority of the visiting tourists. The hotels of Honolulu, in their showing of inducements to bring travel to these Islands have no better drawing card than that of the volcano the road to and from it and the comfortable tavern of rest at the crater.

This being so, it will be surprising if there is not immediate reorganization of the hotel proposition along broad and generous lines. A first class Volcano house would claim many visitors and outing parties of Hilo people during the summer months. This trade formerly was an important source of revenue to the mountain hotel, but latterly, families and parties have preferred to camp independently. The Volcano house should continue to be the pleasant mecca of the tourist and the tired.

REV. MR. CRUZAN RESIGNS.

The resignation of Rev. J. A. Cruzan, pastor of the First Foreign Church read from the pulpit by himself at the Easter service last Sunday, breaks the bonds between pastor and flock, which have existed for four years. The sundering of ties like these is a sundering of nerves, no matter what be the exigencies that may have prolonged or shortened the pastorate term. No man in secular life toils four years in a vineyard, but that he forms an affection for the vines. The tendrils which he teaches to cling to artificial supports entwine themselves also about his heart. The fruit which he plucks in the Autumn is the joint product of the bounty of nature, his own vigilance and prayer. And when fortune calls the husbandman to other fields, he is conscious of pain at parting with the old.

In the spiritual vineyard the same processes are at work. The husbandman is cultivating vines which never die; he is training tendrils which spring from the soul. The fruits garnered, are benedictions from Heaven and gratitude from the children of men. Spiritual and social ties are bonds of kinship and are broken heedlessly only by the flippant heart and shallow soul.

HAIL THE "ENTERPRISE."

Before another issue of the TRIBUNE appears, the Enterprise will have arrived in port and steam communication between Hilo and the Mainland will have been established. Hilo's independence and larger commercial importance will date from the day of the arrival of the splendid Matson liner.

In honor of such an event, it will be proper and fitting for the citizens and business men of Hilo to give the Enterprise and her officers a hearty reception and welcome. Captain Matson who will arrive in his good ship should be given a levee and every handshake he is given should mean loyalty to the line which must some day have its Sonoma, Ventura, Sierra, etc.

A HOME INDUSTRY.

The fact that better carriages, wagons, phaetons, harness and saddles are made in Hilo than can be shipped from the Coast may not be generally known, but it is a fact easy of demonstration. The roads of this Island demand heavier construction than is usually put into vehicles on mainland factories. All vehicles made in the shops of the Volcano Stables Company are made under a practical carriage builder's supervision, a man who knows the roads and what they require. The ravages of insects and climatic conditions, upon all kind of wood work, are also prevented by treatment of the wooden gear before it goes into the vehicle.

The nucleus is already formed here for a great industry in the line of manufacturing vehicles. The consumer would without doubt find it a saving of money to purchase the Hilo brand of wagon, buggy, hack or road wagon. The industry is worthy of encouragement as a municipal asset.

THE TRIBUNE has received from Jared Smith, Director of the U. S. Experiment Station at Honolulu a small lot of seeds of the cork oak. These will be freely given to persons who call at the office and will plant the acorns and give the sprouting trees a fair chance for life.

THE bottling of Puna Water began in Hilo last Monday. It was the death knell to all imported fizzing waters and the awakening note of an enterprise that will add to local prosperity.

Marston Campbell Brings Money For Roads and Bridges.

Marston Campbell, Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, arrived in the city by the Kinau last week, remaining one day. While here he did several things to make the hearts of the Hilo road board glad. He saw what was needed in the way of public works and loosened the purse strings to a degree that will change the face of affairs in this District unless Dole gets back from Washington in time to block the deal as he did once in the past.
 Mr. Campbell came here with instructions to use his judgment carte-blanche in ordering work to be done.
 As a result there is an advertisement in today's TRIBUNE calling for bids for the construction of cement gutters on both sides of Waiannuue street to the sea. These drains will be put in at once and must be made according to plans and specifications which guarantee their capacity for handling any kind of a deluge that may be sent. The plans were prepared in the office of the Superintendent of Public Works and call for the best style of gutter. It has also been decided to lay the 10-inch water mains on Waiannuue street in place of the present pipe stems which are inadequate. The work of remacadamizing the street will not be done until this main is put down, thus avoiding the necessity of tearing up the newly made street to lay water pipe.
 Another important improvement ordered is the widening of the road to 16 feet, leading into Hakalan gulch.
 A new girder bridge has been ordered for Kukuan stream on Volcano street. The new bridge will be the width of the street, 60 feet.
 New abutments will be put in for the bridge at Pukihae stream at the foot of the first hill on the Hamakua road.
 In addition to these specific improvements, it will be recommended that $1,800 per month be authorized for the balance of the year for general road repairs in the District of South Hilo. This sum on top of what comes into this fund from the regular local taxes will give the road board something over the sum of $3,000 per month with which to remove traces of the late storm and past neglect.
 The outlook on the face of things is good and unless unforeseen vetoes bob up to crush the hopes of Hilo people, a few of our ragged edges will soon go glimmering.

MARCH RAINFALL.

Some Details Shown by Rain Gauges Round About.

The children of today will probably grow to be "oldest inhabitants before they see records of rain falls that beat the wet story told by the rain gauges on Hawaii during the month of March. The tables below tell of a precipitation probably unequalled before in the Island. The numbers are in inches:

Day of Month	Waikaka	Puna	Kaunama	Honokaa

At Kukuihaele, the rainfall during March at an elevation of 5000 feet, was 27.01 inches; at 4300 feet, 70 inches; at 1520 feet, 93.25 inches; at 250 feet, 63.37 inches; at 100 feet, 73.84 inches.
 In dry contrast to this great flood the record of the rain gauge at Naalehu on the leeward side of the island shows a rainfall of but 10.31 inches for the whole month, just an average hard day's rain for Hilo, Puna or Honolua.
 The record at Puna is the most surprising. In previous years, a thirty-inch rainfall in a month was considered heavy. This past month, in addition to rain, Puna was visited by hailstorm which had no precedent.

SNICKERSVILLE DANCE.

Cotillion Club Scores Another Social Success Tuesday Evening.

Snickersville was taken by storm last Tuesday night by the members of the Hilo Cotillion Club and their friends. Snickersville society gave a ball and invited the Cotillion Club enmasse. Snickersville being a rural community, the society folks of Hilo went dressed in costumes that were well adapted to the rustic environments of the village where the festive dance was given.
 Arriving at the place of the dance the merry-makers found they had costumed themselves correctly. The arrangements for the dancers had been made behind the high board fence which runs by the road leading to the village grocery at Snickersville. The scene was a merry one in the well beaten lot, in one corner of which was the well known "Old Oaken Bucket" dripping over it. In another corner not far off was the chicken coops and the calves and the young ducks all disturbed with the cascade of boisterousness coming from the city crowd. On one side of the enclosure, seated high on two cider barrels sat two musicians, one pumping the life out of a wailing accordion, the other torturing a shrieking fiddle. The back stop of the village store stood diagonally across from the calf shed, and here the boisterous dancers were wont to gather in scrambling groups. For the matron of Snickersville had made hundreds of pumpkin pies and the village postmaster was dispensing peanuts with prodigal liberality. A waving cane field, adjacent to the High Board fence, rustled in the wind as the night advanced.
 Snickersville was in Spreckels hall. That prosaic four walled-room had been transformed into a typical cross roads village under the clever and artistic talent of the Decoration Committee headed by that prince of entertainers J. Castle Ridgway. He was ably assisted in this work by Mrs. Hayes, Miss Maul Cheek, Miss Mary Canario, and Messrs. Gurney, E. S. Walker, Frank Winter, Ridgway, Wachs, Scott, LeBlond, D. E. Cruzan, Bell, Bowman, Furneaux, Tracy, Given Peck, Ross, L. Schoen, A. C. Ridgway and Auerbach. The above named were guests of the Cotillion Club, who in spite of the admonitions of friends had failed to attire themselves in a style satisfactory to the rigid requirements of Snickersville fashion plates.
 When the accordion had been warmed up its voice ceased to creak and the dancing proceeded to the most charming melody. The fiddle thought of old times and did not miss a single note after the ball opened. During the progress of the dance, the auctioneer and stock dealer of Snickersville hung up a price bulletin from the village stock exchange. Quotations taken at random show that the market is on the sag: "Corns, no demand; turnips, coming up; chickens, rather flighty; butter owing stronger; calves, a little weak; young men, fresh; girls, live demand; mothers, holding their own; malt, rising; yeast, also rising; advice, cheap no demand."
 The calf on exhibition was the choice of Dr. Reid's herd, loaned for the occasion.
 The array of costumes worn by the dancers was killing. There were brigands, bowery toughs, highway robbers and tramps among the men. Among the ladies the range of characters represented was even more varied and vast. They were cunning cute and catchy. Those on the floor, and the characters they represented were as follows:
 Mrs. Balding, milkmaid; Mrs. Baldwin, country girl; the Misses Canario, bowery girls; Mrs. Guernsey, colonial dame; the Misses Hapai, country girls; Miss Maude Hansen, little old lady; Mrs. Hayes, bride; Mrs. Haley, shepherd girl; the Misses Peck (3), country maids; Miss Elvira Richardson, country girl with special aspirations; Mrs. Reid, country girl; Mrs. Rice, rural milkmaid; Mrs. Sedgwick, simpton; the Mrs. Winter (2), colonial dames; Mrs. Holmes, colonial dame; Miss Severance, puritan maid; Mrs. Walker, bowery tough; Mrs. Richards, fashionable farmer wife; Miss Mahlen, puritan maid; Miss Neuman, farmer's daughter.
 Messrs. Beers, school boy; R. Balding, dago; Cook, farm hand; Day, fashionable country bumpkin; Guard, section hand; Hapai, baggage buster; H. Howland, dusty rhodes; R. Howland, dago; bootblack; Aavis, Sontag or Evans; McKinney, from Virginia sub; Loebenstein, farm hand; McLean, farm hand; Mellor, sporty farmer; Prouty, farmer; Castle Ridgway, bride groom; R. Ridgway, farm hand; F. C. LeBlond, laborer; Walker, fun de Bowery, see; Elgin, just from the break beams; Stobie, Spaniard; Cruzan, Weary Willie; Hyde, "Chas. Hyde"; A. Scott, laborer; Richards, farm hand; Guernsey, farmer; Frank L. Winter, Theodoros; Irving B. Schoen, retired cowboy. When the time for rest and refreshment came, the Judges, Mrs. Clark and Messrs. Auerbach and Furneaux approached their unenviable task of deciding who had won the prizes. After close deliberation they awarded first ladies' prize to Mrs. Hayes; first gentleman's prize to Frank L. Winter. Special and honorable mention was given to Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Sedgwick, Mrs. Cruzan, Frank L. Winter, Harold, Cruzan and J. Castle Ridgway. The prize given Mrs. Hayes was a basket of carrots. Mr. Winter was given an old umbrella and a pair of carpet slippers.
 Refreshments, consisting of ham sandwiches, pumpkin pie and doughnuts were served by Messlames Ridgway, Cruzan, Severance, Furneaux and Clark.
 Before resuming the dance J. A. Scott was called upon to make a speech. Mr. Scott arose and asked that a collection be taken for the benefit of the Hilo Hospital. The response was generous, the amount raised being $19.50.
 After the interim the dance started again with the Virginia Reel and was kept up until a late hour.
 A delightful feature of the evening was the rendition of the "Old Oaken Bucket" by Messrs. Prouty, Howland, Jackson and Walker.

The Postmastership.

W. J. Madden, Postoffice Inspector who arrived by the Kinau with L. T. Kenake, when seen by a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday morning, was very much displeased with the statement in the Herald which credited him with having come to Hilo to transfer the office of Postmaster from L. Severance to Mr. Madeira. He said: "That paper is wrong. There will probably be no change here for some time. All I know is what the people of Hilo know. President Roosevelt has sent the name of W. J. Madeira to the Senate for confirmation as Postmaster at Hilo. This of course is tantamount to an appointment. If confirmed, the actual transfer of the office can hardly occur before two months."
 "As I said our presence here has nothing to do with the change. I am here to see if I cannot suggest improvements and alterations in your postoffice arrangements which will facilitate business and accommodate the public. I shall recommend a new equipment of lock boxes and other things which will be absolutely first class."
 Mr. Madden and Mr. Kenake will return to Honolulu today.

RESIGNATION READ.

Rev. J. A. Cruzan Lays Down His Charge Easter Sunday.

After the opening exercises at the First Foreign Church last Sunday, Rev. Mr. Cruzan tendered his resignation as pastor of that church to take effect August 15. The resignation was couched in the following language:
 To the Officers and Members of the First Foreign Church of Hilo, Hawaii.
 DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:
 I hereby present my resignation of the pastorate of your church, the same to take effect on the fifteenth day of August next, at the end of my fourth year of service.
 This is a matter to which I have given long and earnest consideration, and my action is positive and final. The long continued ill health of Mrs. Cruzan and the necessity for her of a change of climate, the lack of desirable school facilities in Hilo for my sons, and other reasons of weight, have led me to the conclusion that the wise and judicious course for me to take is to surrender the important work you have entrusted to me.
 In asking that the pastoral relation which has existed for nearly four years be terminated, I wish to express, both for Mrs. Cruzan and myself, our grateful appreciation of the kindnesses you have shown to us, and for the measure of co-operation with which you have sustained us in our work.
 I trust that you may be divinely guided in your choice of my successor, and that the Master may speedily send you an under Shepherd to take up this important work and lead you in winning great victories in His name and in the cause of righteousness.
 I remain yours with regard,
 J. A. CRUZAN,
 Hilo, Hawaii, March 29, 1902.
 After the regular service next Sunday there will be a meeting of the Board to consider the acceptance of the resignation.

Hilo's Postoffice.

If W. I. Madeira comes to Hilo as postmaster, he will bring with him a thorough experience in postal matters. He is now Assistant Postmaster at Honolulu. He will be able to do more for the Hilo Postoffice through political and departmental acquaintance, than any other person who was available.
 The removal of Mr. Severance will be heard of with regret by his many personal friends. He has held the office many years and if removed, it will not be for abuse of a public trust. The reason and the only reason is that having formed habits of business through long years of service in an isolated office, it was out of the question for a man of such training to catch the snap and energy and method of the Postoffice Department, which is driven by a dynamic force of stupendous business energy. And the Hilo Postoffice being of the second class, is in direct connection with the President whose voltage is rather high.

Her Son's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va., U. S. A. This Remedy is for sale by Hilo Drug Co.

Burial of Son of Mr. and Mrs. Gill.

The six year-old son of Geo. Gill, head luna at the Laupahoehoe plantation, died last Monday night after an illness of only a week. The body was brought to Hilo Tuesday afternoon and buried in the Hilo cemetery. The long distance and the condition of the roads prevented the attention of many friends of the family. The remains were accompanied to this city by Messrs. C. M. McLennon, A. C. Palfrey, E. W. Hockley and the father.
 Three young children of Mr. and Mrs. Gill are critically ill with the same trouble, which is a disorder of the bowels.

New Japanese Paper.

"Ji Ho" is the name of a new Japanese semi-weekly newspaper established in Hilo, issuing its first number this week. The editor of the lively sheet is T. Yano. He starts out with a Japanese lithographic press turning out a paper in three colors. The first number carries a good line of advertising and is in every way creditable to the enterprising promoters.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is a hair food. It won't take the place of grass or bread. It is good for the hair, and that is all. It feeds the hair with hair food. The hair can't keep from growing. It stops falling out because it is hearty and strong. And it always restores the early rich, dark color to gray hair.

We say that "gray hair is starved hair"; and the only way to treat it is to supply the best kind of hair food. This is where Ayer's Hair Vigor differs so greatly from other hair preparations; it feeds the hair. Just keep that in mind all the time you are using it.

RULES OF WAR.

Provisions of the Treaty Eliminate Worst Features of Warfare.

Washington, March 14.—The Senate spent an hour in executive session today on the convention growing out of The Hague peace conference relating to the conduct of war on land and sea, and finally ratified the agreement without a division. The discussion turned directly on the conduct of the war in the Philippines and related especially to General Fuston's capture of Aguinaldo.

Senator Teller inquired whether, if this treaty had been in force at the time, the method of Aguinaldo's capture could have been justified. He quoted the provision of the treaty relating to the conduct of spies, and said that he did not mean himself to say that General Funston's course could not have been regular, but merely to secure the opinion of Senators who had given attention to the treaty and who also were familiar with the details of Aguinaldo's capture.

Senator Burrows replied to the inquiry, speaking especially for General Funston, and said that he was sure the proceedings on the General's part had been not only humane, but that it had been in accordance with the rules of civilized warfare. It was true, he said, that General Funston and his force had acted somewhat in the capacity of spies, but what they had done was in the line of honorable warfare.

Senator Hoar also spoke at some length regarding this provision in the treaty. He referred to Aguinaldo's capture, and said that he believed the adoption of the treaty would have a tendency toward elevating the conduct of modern warfare.

Some of the members of the Committee on Foreign Relations said recently that the ratification of this treaty would place this country in accord with the highest thought of the times, and expressed the hope that the treaty would receive the unanimous support of the Senate. Those who raised questions apropos of the discussion disclaimed any intention to prevent favorable action.

The countries party to the treaty are Germany, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Spain, the United States, Mexico, France, Great Britain, Greece, Italy, Japan, Luxemburg, Montenegro, the Netherlands, Persia, Portugal, Roumania, Russia, Serbia, Sweden and Norway, Turkey and Bulgaria. The provisions of the treaty are binding only on the contracting powers in case of war between two or more of them, and cease to be binding when a non-contracting power joins either of the belligerents.

The most important feature of the treaty, the contents of which have been generally known, is that prohibiting the use of "dum-dum" bullets. Among other things specially prohibited are: To employ poison or poisoned arms; to kill or wound treacherously individuals belonging to the hostile nation or army; to kill or wound an enemy who, having laid down arms, or having no longer means of defense, has surrendered at discretion; to declare that no quarter will be given; to employ arms, projectiles or material of a nature to cause superfluous injury; to make improper use of a flag of truce, the national flag or military ensigns and the enemy's uniform, as well as the distinctive badges of the general convention; to destroy or seize the enemy's property, unless such destruction or seizure be imperatively demanded by the necessities of war; ruses of war and the employment of methods necessary to obtain information about the enemy and the country are considered allowable.

The treaty provides as follows regarding spies: An individual can only be considered a spy if, acting clandestinely or on false pretenses, he obtains or seeks to obtain information in the zone of operations of a belligerent, with the intention of communicating it to the hostile party. Thus soldiers not in disguise who have penetrated into the zone of operations of a hostile army to obtain information are not considered spies: Soldiers or civilians, carrying out their mission openly, charged with the delivery of dispatches destined either for their own army or for that of the enemy. To this class belong likewise individuals sent in balloons to deliver dispatches and generally to maintain communication between the various parts of an army or a territory.

GROWING OF PEPPERS.

Jared Smith Gets Information of Value from Washington.

Director Jared G. Smith, of the Agricultural Experiment Station, has received from the Washington department some valuable information relative to a market for peppers, which had been requested by the Island people.

The red pepper grows readily in Hawaii, and there have been numerous inquiries as to a sale for them. One of the farmers of the Wahiawa colony thinks of raising it on an extensive scale if he can be assured of a market for his product. Director Smith has been in correspondence with the Department of Agriculture for some time in regard to this, and by the last steamer received a reply from the botanical bureau, of which the following is the substance.

Peppers are used most extensively by pickle manufacturers. I inclose herewith a copy of a letter from Strothmeyer & Arp Co., New York, in regard to the use of peppers, and methods of packing them. I wrote to D. M. Ferry & Co., Detroit, in regard to shipping peppers from Hawaii, and received a reply stating that the peppers of the chili or tabasco type fermented and spoiled very quickly, and it would doubtless require considerable care to dry them for shipment. He thought that it would be possible to pick them before they were ripe and pack them in brine as cucumbers are packed for shipment from packing stations.

A few years ago the Southern California Packing Company, of Los Angeles, was engaged in packing various kinds of fruit and preserves, probably including peppers, but I have no definite information in regard to this company at present. It would doubtless save freight rates if you could secure a market for the peppers on the Pacific Coast. Mr. W. W. Tracy, who has charge of our varietal tests, states that the high prices of growing them, but to the very disagreeable work of picking them. The juice produces blisters on the hands and arms of those picking or handling them.

HYSTER H. DEWEY, Assistant Botanist.

The letters inclosed stated that the peppers could be packed either in salt brine or forwarded dry.

KALAKAUA MONUMENT.

Mr. Westervelt Discovers a Bronze Bust Paid for by the Public.

The following communication regarding the Kalakaua monument fund was sent to the TRIBUNE by Rev. W. D. Westervelt of Honolulu:

Honolulu, March 26, 1902.

HILO TRIBUNE:—"While in Hilo lately I was asked several times what was done with the money contributed for a Kalakaua statue. I have taken pains to look up this matter and find that only a small amount being contributed the committee in charge decided to have Hutchinson make a bust instead of a life size model of Kalakaua. This was cast in bronze and placed in the Bishop Museum. Governor Dole expresses the opinion that this bust should be placed in some niche in the Capitol Building."

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—SALLIE HARRIS, Salem, N. J., U. S. A. For sale by Hilo Drug Co.

A Bad Skin
Boils, Pimples, Impure Blood.

Boils are simply very large pimples. The trouble is not in the skin, but down deep in the blood. You cannot have a good, smooth skin unless it is nourished by pure blood; and the only way to make your blood pure is to take a strong blood-purifying medicine.

Mr. F. Eilian, of 870 Rae Street, North Fitzroy, Victoria, sends us this letter and his photograph:

"I had a most frightful attack of boils and pimples breaking out all over my body. I had heard so much about a thought I would give it a trial. It took only four bottles to drive all the impurities out of my system and make my blood rich. I have enjoyed the best of health ever since I took it."

If your tongue is coated, if your food disagrees with you, if you are constipated or bilious, take Ayer's Pills.

BOTTLED KAWAIAKEAKUA.

Water From Puna Springs Put into Packages Here.

The first instalment of Kawai-akeakua water sparkling like moselle and clear as the melted snows of Mauna Kea were bottled and ready for the market last Monday at the Excelsior Soda Works.

Mr. Williams, the promoter and manager of the Puna springs mineral water enterprise, has entered into arrangements with the Excelsior Soda Works to do the bottling for the concern until such a time as the demand for the product requires a larger plant of their own. When this time arrives and the indications are good for its early arrival, the company will erect bottling works at the springs in Puna. Part of the machinery is already on hand for this purpose.

The first bottled Kawai-akeakua water was freely distributed among connoisseurs in Hilo. All pronounced the water a most excellent beverage, especially fine for lemonades. It is superior in its pleasant taste to any of the imported waters and physicians are of the opinion that Carlsbad waters are no better.

As soon as the Soda Works can turn out the goods, orders from New York or San Francisco will be filled at once. One hundred cases of 100 bottles each will go to the latter place and fifty cases of the same size will go to New York.

The first shipment of the water was brought from the springs in barrels. Better transportation arrangements, however, have been perfected. A gasoline engine will lift the water from the subterranean lake under the lava flows of Puna. It will be transported in galvanized tanks by wagon to the Puna terminus of the Hilo Railroad and brought to town in a tank car. The product will find its way into all the large cities of the mainland.

The first shipment to Honolulu was a consignment of 50 barrels. This will be bottled at Honolulu and put on the Oahu market.

The completed analyses of this water from the wonderful springs at Puna shows the following chemical properties in generous quantities: Chlorine, chlorine salts, magnesia, sulphuric acid, silica, lime and phosphate.

The medicinal value of the water is not only apparent from the listed properties but native tradition has many stories and legends of remarkable cures effected by bathing in the pools below the springs. The old Hawaiians have found relief in the clear pools from the pains of rheumatism, neuralgia and other ailments. The water acts directly upon the kidneys and produces no ill effects.

The men in Honolulu who are co-operating with Mr. Williams are Cecil Brown and F. W. Hankey. They have great faith in the product of the Puna springs and will leave nothing undone to make the commercial venture a success.

ALASKAN EARTHQUAKE.

Cook's Inlet Country Shaken Up and Covered With Ashes.

Seattle (Wash.), March 14.—A special dispatch from Juneau says: Information reached Juneau that some time about New Year's day a terrific volcanic eruption occurred not far from Kenai on Cook's inlet, about seventy miles above English bay.

After the eruption, or during the time, there was a terrific earthquake, which burst the mountain asunder, leaving a large gap and the flames could be plainly seen from the village.

The ground at the town of Kenai was covered with ashes and subsequently a tidal wave came in which did much damage. The water in the inlet rose to a great height and terror reigned throughout the village.

The mountain was still smoking at the time the letter was written and occasionally large quantities of lava were thrown therefrom.

The letter bringing this information is from the Russian priest at Kenai, who at one time resided here in Juneau. The Excelsior did not stop here going down and consequently the information which was sent here did not arrive until the return of the boat.

The steamer at this time of year cannot make Kenai and the letter was brought out to the nearest office by a native. The Discovery will undoubtedly have fuller particulars.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

(By Kona Telephone.)

The bill providing for the extirpation of anarchy was debated in the United States Senate March 18. It was opposed strongly by one of the Georgia Senators. Mason of Illinois and Senator Hoar championed the bill.

The ship subsidy bill has passed the Senate.

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock will probably resign; Philip Van de Venter is the leading candidate as his successor.

General Methuen compliments the Boers for their kind treatment to him personally. At the time he was wounded he was mounted leading a detachment to ward off the attacking Boers. His horse was killed. The Boer attack was made by soldiers disguised in kiki dress.

The straight jacket has been abolished in St. Quentin Prison.

Judge Edings at Kona has appointed M. F. Scott receiver of the Kona Plantation Company.

Cecil Rhodes Is Weaker.

Cape Town, March 14.—Cecil Rhodes is weaker today. Otherwise there is no change in his condition. He passed a restless night. His physicians sat at his bedside alternately all night long.

London, March 14.—The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says it understands that, with the view of preventing a dislocation of the markets, a syndicate of South African magnates has been formed for the purpose of taking over the whole of Cecil Rhodes' shareholdings in the event of Rhodes' death.

THE MINSTREL SHOW.

Company D Has Leased Chinese Theatre For Minstrelsy.

Company D is making great preparations for the minstrel show to be given by its members, April 19. The problem of securing a suitable stage and auditorium for so elaborate a production was a serious one with the management. It was solved, however, in a happy manner by securing a lease of one month on the Chinese theatre on Ponahawai street. This popular play house will be transformed into a pavilion of neatness and artistic beauty. The members of Company D have been working overtime at the theatre overhauling it and giving it a general house-cleaning.

New stage settings will be made for the minstrel show. A new drop curtain is being painted by Mr. Hering and the files and scenic successes at the county ball will be utilized. There will be new files curtains and wings and the stage will be dressed appropriately for the Altgeld Dead.

Joliet (Ill.), March 12.—Former Governor John P. Altgeld died at the Hotel Munroe this morning at 7:00 o'clock. After becoming unconscious, shortly before midnight, he remained in that condition until death. At 3:10 o'clock this morning it was thought he had died, but he revived, and from that time until shortly before the end showed wonderful vitality, although he made no move.

AMERICA TO RULE THE WORLD.

Alfred Mosely Says England Must Drop Antiquated Methods.

New York, March 18.—A special to the World from London says: Alfred Mosely, the retired diamond merchant who sails on the Oceanic tomorrow to arrange a tour in the United States this fall of two commissions of inquiry into conditions of labor, said today: "I am organizing these commissions entirely upon my own initiative and at my expense, although our Government has shown its approval of the undertaking by affording me advice aid help in many ways: I am deeply interested in questions affecting the welfare of the masses, and was absolutely convinced during my recent visit to the United States that unless both employers and workmen here bestir themselves Great Britain will sink to the status of a third-rate commercial power."

"I am convinced that America is destined to rule the world, and Great Britain ought to go hand in hand with her, but if we are to make up our leeway we must drop our antiquated, insular notions and imitate American methods."

DEMOCRATS PRO BOER.

Minority Members of the House Propose to Make a Fight.

Washington, March 19.—The Democrats of the House at a caucus held tonight unanimously adopted resolutions declaring that Congress should express the sympathy of the American people for the struggling Boer republics and pledging themselves to use their utmost endeavors to "force" the committees to report resolutions expressive of such sympathy, if only that Congress may have an opportunity to act.

Representative Hay of Virginia presided at the caucus and Representative Robertson of Louisiana acted as secretary. The attendance was large. There was no division of sentiment as to the course to be taken, the question presented being simply one of choice between two resolutions, one offered by Randall of Texas and the other by Sulzer of New York. The Sulzer resolution was as follows:
