The Bowen Case.

Mr. J. P. Bowen who, as it will be remembered, left the Court room yesterday refusing to plead to a charge of larceny preferred against him by J. Dadd, was re-arrested this morning on a Bench warrant issued by Judge Robertson. The warrant was not issued for contempt of Court as stated in last night's papers, but simply purposes to bring him before the Judge to plead to the charge against him. The case was continued till Friday. Mr. C. W. Ashford appears for defendant.

Mr. Bowen who is a well known citizen of more than ten years residence was seen by a HOLOMUA representative this afternoon in regard to the case now pending against him. Mr. Bowen stated that the charge brought against him, was an absolute outrage. On the 31st of August, he said, his lease of the premises occupied by him adjoining the Pantheon Saloon expired, and he engaged four men (three foreigners and one Hawaiian) to remove the fixtures of the European restaurant from the Pantheon premises. These men among other fixtures removed a screen-door from an outhouse, and it was this which caused the arrest of Mr. Bowen upon a complaint of Mr. J. Dadd, the present lessee of the Saloon. When Mr. Bowen appeared in Court, his attorney found that the specific charge of larceny of Mr. Dadd's property, had been altered to a charge of larceny of the property of Mr. H. A. Widemann, and he therefore advised his client to leave the court, which Mr. Bowen immediately did. That is all what there is to it, says Mr. Bowen, but he adds that he is ready to go through all the courts of the country to obtain redress and justice.

PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, SEPT. 20, 1893

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The annexation organs are evidently feeling blue over the news received by the China relating to the plebiscite, and they try to explain the impossibility of such a step being taken without the consent of the Provisional Government, and, we suppose, the annexation club. Our contemporaries are wrong in the premises, and the conclusions at which they arrive are consequently equally erroneous and absurd. They hold that so far as the United States are concerned the only present issue between that country and Hawaii is the question, if the offer of annexation made by the Provisional Government shall be accepted or not. If the United States decide not to enter into closer relations with Hawaii by accepting the annexation treaty, they have no further business in Hawaii and in the internal affairs of this country except what is granted by the treaty now existing. This is how the annexationists here talk and write, and this is where they are decidedly wrong—or forgetful.

The main point for an investigation by the United States into the Hawaiian affairs and into the causes which led to the revolution were, if it was true that the American minister resident J. L. Stevens conspired to overthrow the Hawaiian Monarchy and finally used the United States forces to accomplish his ends. He has been officially accused of so doing by the representative of Queen Liliuokalani, Mr. Paul Neumann.

The latter was received in Washington in an official capacity. The credentials which he presented and upon which he was received by the Administration in Washington did not consist of a power-of-attorney, but were a usual commission as minister plenipotentiary and envoy extraordinary made out on an ordinary foreign office blank, signed by the Queen and countersigned by her Minister of Foreign Affairs. When the United States accepted Mr. Neumann officially on such credentials, they acknowledged the position of the Queen and her claim, and the subsequent appointment of Mr. Blount as commissioner was made for the purpose of ascertaining, if the claims of the Queen and the Hawaiian nation were based on facts and if an outrage really had been committed in the name of the United States of America.

That investigation is now closed, and who can doubt, that by the result Mr. J. L. Stevens has been placed in a very unenviable position, and that his intrigues have been fully disclosed and proven? If then, Mr. Cleveland's administration is satisfied, that the name of the United States has been unlawfully and improperly used to further the political ends of a small band of American adventurers in a foreign country, what else can be done by the Great Republic than to devise some means to give redress to the outraged sovereign and nation, and to undo the wrong committed? And in what better shape can the true desires of the Hawaiian people be made known than through the taking of a plebiscite? The United States sit to day as a court of arbitration. There is before them a request for admission to the Union made by a body of men styling themselves the Provisional Government of Hawaii, and claiming (the gall of them!!) to represent the people of Hawaii. Then, there is a protest from the Hawaiian sovereign against the actions of the American representative and forces, and a demand for redress, and then, there are numerous petitions from nearly the total Hawaiian nation praying for succor, and for a peaceful re-establishment of their self-government, deprived them in the name of the freest republic on earth.

The United States' Government have so far made haste slowly. It has caused a most searching investigation to be held in Hawaii, and the results are to-day in its possession. Upon those results will the decision which shall decide the future of Hawaii be based. That the decision will be just to the contesting parties, we can all rest assured, and that the United States are able and ready to enforce whatever decision in regard to Hawaii they may arrive at, only a fool, or a knave will pretend to doubt. The Provisional Government has been acknowledged as the government de facto at present in Hawaii, but its title to the government and to the country to which it has offered to donate America has not been recorded yet, nor has it been pronounced valid by the United States or any other country. A government which fears to ask its country's support at the ballot-box, will meet very little sympathy from the American people, and it should always be remembered that the United States dare do anything which is just, and will hesitate at nothing which is right. Give us therefore a rest from the blatherskiting about what the Provisional Government will do or will not do to Uncle Sam. We all know that, when the answers to the Queen, to the P. G., and to the Hawaiian Nation come that all parties will peacefully obey orders, and quietly do as they are told. Messrs. Johnstone and Smith, neither of whom are even voters in this country, should quietly sheet their goose-quill for there will be neither gore nor bloody pulp—but there will be a vote.

The word "restricted voters" used in the Herald's Washington despatch has evidently puzzled the community here. The Star interprets the word in its own genial way, and dreams about restricting the voting right to those who can write English, and possess certain property qualifications. We should, by the way, be very pleased with such arrangement, because even then would the annexation party be snowed under in the most emphatic manner, but we feel quite assured that by "restricted voters," is meant those persons qualified to vote under the present Constitution and laws of the country, as they existed previously to January the 17th. We shall, in a coming issue, furnish the Star with some statistics which perhaps will open the eyes of some of the rabid annexationists who lately appear to believe that the Americans in Hawaii have a numerical majority besides all the wealth and intelligence—barring though what is needed to be a policeman.

We were waiting anxiously last night for the Star, because we wanted to see the promised disclosures which should induce the P. G. to refuse to receive Mr. Ellis Mills as American Consul-General, but alas! we were deceived, and disappointed, and we will never trust the Star again. Not a word against Mills except that the P. G. will receive him out of respect to Colonel Blount. (Great Scott! how condescending!) and then a very original scrip about the gods having ground Mills very small. And are these all the reasons why Mr. Mills should be rejected? Stop that hedging Mr. Star man, and come out with what you had on your mind when you inaugurated your campaign against Mr. Mills, and desired the P. G. to lend themselves to gratify your personal pique—yours and another fellows—against a man who proved himself efficient and close-mouthed in his official capacity, and what hurts you more—a true gentleman!

The Star is calling for help from Ambrose Bierce for the purpose of satirizing Colonel Spreckels who receives from the annexation club's hand-organ, the usual amount of abuse. Mr. Spreckels has gone to Washington, and this fact worries the annexationists. Of course, Mr. Smith deprecates that President Cleveland doesn't understand the situation in Hawaii, and is so partial to the sugaring. That is undoubtedly sad, and we can only suggest that the political Siamese twins, senators Eumeluth and Waterhouse, dig down in their pockets—we hope they will not be seized by the horror vacui—and dispatch Mr. Smith to Washington for the purpose of showing Mr. Spreckels up and lecturing on Hawaii to Mr. Cleveland, and telling all he knows about us, after his six-months stay in the Islands. The P. G. ought to give him a job in the Legation say, to keep it open while the other diplomats are junketing around attending to their private business, while the janitor puts up the pleasing sign on the front door: "Shop closed—Annexation pau."

An Apparent Injustice.

There was a case before the District Judge this morning where we think that the Judge did not show the good and sound judgment which so far has characterized his incumbency. A somewhat dark complexioned gentleman answering to the uncommon name of Jack from the New Hebrides, was brought before his honor to answer a charge of having used profane and vulgar language. The New Hebridian gentleman pleaded that he, upon the occasion mentioned, had looked upon the wine when it was red, and that he, in fact, did not know what he had been saying or doing. The defendant appeared without a lawyer while the virtuous people who had been shocked by the profane New Hebridian language prosecuted the poor devil through their learned attorney, the irrepressible Magoon (J. Alfred). A witness was called on the stand who gave evidence in the English language against the Polynesian, and then left the stand, whereupon the interpreter gave Mr. Jack a resume of the testimony against him, and asked him if he wished to cross-examine (Ye Gods and little fishes!) Mr. Magoon's witness.—Jack feeling his inferiority in matters of law even to Magoon (J. Alfred) refused to get into legal arguments, and presented no further defense than that he had been drunk, whereupon he was promptly fined $10 and $3 costs, which means, that Jack will go to jail for about 25 days for having "damned" in his vernacular.—What we are kicking at is the amount of the fine imposed upon Jack. To be drunk is not an offense per se, and cannot be held so anywhere in the civilized world. The punishment prescribed by the law for drunkenness, was never intended otherwise than to protect the community from the nuisance and annoyance, which a man drunk in a public place is apt to become. Judge Robertson fines ordinary drunks generally from $3 to $5, and we cannot see why an exception should be made in this case, and the semi-wholly barbarian Jack fined $13. If the Deputy Marshal had prosecuted, we are inclined to believe that he would have been satisfied with having the culprit reprimanded, or given a nominal or small fine, and it should make no difference to the court in deciding the punishment of the guilty which they are especially prosecuted by some high-toned learned lawyer—say as Magoon, (J. Alfred) or not.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Kinan arrived this morning from Hawaii.

The R. M. S. S. Mariposa arrived to-day from the Colonies.

The Mariposa leaves to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock a. m.

Mr. H. M. Dow, chief clerk in the Marshal's office returned by the Kinan, after a short vacation spent on the other Islands.

The police to-day bagged a Chinaman who played Che Fa, a native who obstructed the police and a Japanese charged with assault and battery.

THE BALL TO THE NAVAL OFFICERS.

The Ball given last night as a compliment to the American naval officers at present stationed here, was the most brilliant of the year. In spite of the attempt on the part of the annexation club, to throw cold water on the entertainment party, because it was to take place at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, and partly, because it was evident that the members of the club wouldn't get an entree to society, simply because they had joined the Portuguese annexationists, the ball was an immense success, and the officers of the Philadelphia are loud in their praises of the hospitality and geniality of their new Honolulu friends, and profound in their admiration of our girls. The decorations of the Hotel were exquisite, and the music and the lights and the company (and also the refreshments) made Hawaii, and more especially Honolulu appear to our new guests as a true Paradise of the Pacific. Over 100 ladies and gentlemen gathered, and the dancing was kept up till about 2 in the morning. The Boston officers were brilliant by their absence, apparently obeying the mandate of annexation's papa, and his adopted sons, but nobody missed them or gave them a thought. The Kentucky orator had no speech for this occasion yet the company survived the snub bravely. Why politics should have been dragged into this purely social affair, we cannot see. The ball was under the efficient supervision of Mrs. Rose Tenney, wife of Mr. E. D. Tenney, member of the Advisory Council, of the Misses Glade, daughters of Consul H. F. Glade, and of Messrs E. D. Tenney, Hugh Gunn, and R. E. Carney, and we should imagine that the names of these ladies and gentlemen would in themselves have been a sufficient guarantee for the absolute success of the entertainment.

AFTER THE BALL.

After the ball is over.
The ball in the Midway Pleasance,
After the hulu-hula,
After the stomp dance,
Dawn over the housetops stealing
Brings to us one and all
That fearfully tired feeling
After the ball.—Chicago Times.

An Informer Assaulted.

Ah Kwai, a Chinese informer assisted the police in making raid on some Chinese in Pawaa at noon to day, and got into a hole himself. It seems that the Chinamen were prepared for the raid, and when the informer and two policemen appeared, made an attack on them with hoes and knives. The protectors of the peace of the community took to their heels, and ran until an attack of shortwindedness, or asthma, forced them to halt, face about, and show fight. The Chinese not desiring to hurt the short-winded policemen retired, and directed their pursuit against the informer, who finally was captured and badly cut up. Several arrests were made.

5375 letters and 112 papers were forwarded to the Orient by the China yesterday.

The famous English author Robert Louis Stevenson arrived here from Samoa by the Mariposa and will stay over.

The Pauoa Fire.

What right has Mr. King, Minister of the Interior to offer a reward of $50 for the detection of the person who caused the fire in Pauoa? The fire was a grass fire upon the pasture land of Mr. C. Booth, and in no way endangered the surrounding property. The fire was put out by order of Mr. Booth, by his own men, and not by the people sent by Mr. King. As the whole conflagration was confined to the property of Mr. Booth, does the offer of reward mean, that under the present regime, a man cannot do as he pleases with his own, when he does not prejudice others?

A Petition to China.

From a prominent Chinese Merchant, we learn that a petition by the leading Chinese here asking the Emperor to negotiate a treaty with Hawaii was handed to Tsui Kwo Yin, the returning Chinese Minister yesterday. Tsui Kwo Yin stated to the petitioners that he would lay the matter before the Emperor, but was of the opinion that it is extremely doubtful if such a treaty could be entered into, because the relations between the two countries are too insignificant to warrant the expense of keeping a Chinese Embassy in Hawaii, which would cost the Flowery Kingdom at the lowest figures $10,000 per year. However, he stated he would do his best to procure treaty relations between the two countries.

Setting Him Right.

The famous bill-collector Mr. J. W. Luning desires us to state that he is not the Luning mentioned in our Court-notes of yesterday, as having been "fired out of a saloon." The party referred to is Mr. H. Luning, and a quite different party from Ornithorynchus. We cannot believe that anybody reading our item could for one minute have imagined that it referred to Mr. J. W. Luning—that is anybody knowing him. Mr. J. W. Luning is not to be fired out anywhere or by anybody—except his bills are paid, and then he leaves the crowd voluntarily, there being no more money in it for him. We trust that Mr. J. W. Luning's business reputation has not suffered by our report of his name-sake's little scrape, and we hope he will appreciate our efforts to set him right, and advertise him gratis.

Music!

Professor Berger and his band will give a concert to-night at the Hawaiian Hotel, complimentary to the passengers on the Mariposa. The following is the excellent program selected by the Professor for the occasion:

Hawaii Pono.

It is reported that there are four cases of measles in the steerage of the Mariposa. She didn't seem to have any trouble with the Port Physician though.

BROKE TWO RECORDS.

Directum Holds the Mark Now
for Trotting Stallions.

Fleetwood, Sept. 4.—Directum,
"the black whirlwind" from California, to-day broke the world's stallion record, beat all four-year-old figures and went ahead of all marks given to trotters as five year olds, and one-half of his mile was the fastest ever trotted by any horse on any track. He was entered to start against the world's stallion record of 2:07½, made on a kite track by Stamboul; the record of 2:06½,
made last Thursday by Nancy Hanks and the world's record of 2:04, made by the same mare.
If he broke the track record he was to get a purse of $5000.

When he started away, Direc-tum was followed by a running horse. The black stallion fairly flew to the quarter in :30½, and the journey to the half was all down hill, though it had one turn, and it was passed in 1:00½.
Then Kelly urged the black stallion with all his skill. He passed the three-quarters in 1:32, and as he did so, the running mate was moved up another peg.

Turning into the stretch Kelly
began slapping the record breaker with the reins. The horse was pretty well winded, but continued on his journey at a fast and even pace. Thirty yards from the wire, however, he appeared to be all through, and despite Kelly's slaps
he tired to a walk as the watches clicked on the mile in 2:07½.

There was another record broken to-day, when Pascal, a blackgelding, stepped five miles in 12 minutes and 45 seconds. This cuts 15 seconds off the best previous record, which was held by Lady Mac, whose mark was 13 minutes gained on a track in California as far back as 1874.

The Cholera Scare.

New York, September 3.—Jersey City's fear of cholera is practically ended, and there is no further occasion for apprehension. No new suspected cases were discovered to-day. Surgeon General Wyman of the United States Marine Service told Health Inspector Benjamin that he believed the disease had been stamped out. He does not expect to hear of any new cases.
The local authorities were in good spirits to-day. Dr. Herman Biggs of New York, who had made a bacteriological examination in the case of Mrs. Rhoda Black, a cholera suspect, reported that there were no indications of the disease at present. Mrs.
Black lived in a section of the city at West Berlin in which four persons died after enjoying a feast of crabs.

While Dr. Biggs was making an examination of this case the house in which Mrs. Black lived was placed under quarantine.
All restrictions were removed today and the quarantine in what is known as the "crab district"
has been raised. The authorities are now satisfied that the members of the crab party did not die
of cholera.
