ABOUT TROTTING.

The following are the four most essential gaits in what is known as Kentucky saddle horse:

The fox trot is simply a modification of the true trot; and while it is not a true diagonal motion it departs from it simply in the fact that the fore foot touches the ground slightly in advance of the diagonal hind foot. It is perhaps the slowest of the distinctive or artificial saddle gaits, but it is above all others an all-day gait, and a horse possessing it to perfection will perhaps make a longer journey from sunrise to sunset under saddle than at any other gait. A horse can travel seventyfive miles a day at this gait, and at night neither horse nor rider will be seriously tired.
The rate of speed is six to seven miles an hour for most horses.
The horse when going at this gait, should always be ridden with a loose rein, as he generally carries his head low.

The running walk is simply a modification of the trot, but the head is carried higher than in the fox-trot or the ordinary walk, and the hind foot takes the ground in advance of the diagonal fore foot, which breaks the concussion. A closer rein is generally held here than in the foxtrot, and the pace is a faster one and may be carried to a three-minute gait before the horse is forced out of it. This is a more showy gait than the fox-trot, and in it the poise of the horse is such as to give him more of a climbing action in front. In the running walk the sound of the hoofs is not unlike that of the ordinary walk quickened, and the feet take the ground in the same order. It might be described as a variation of the true walk by imparting to it an elastic or bounding quality—in fact, a walk in a run, if such a contradictory description is admissible. Trotters in harness frequently get away at this gait when started suddenly under a firm pull upon the bit before they settle to the true stroke.

The rack (or side rack, as it is sometimes called), is a modification of the true pace, in which the hind foot strikes the ground in advance of its leading fore foot. This gait admits of a wide range of speed, say from four miles an hour to faster than a three minute gait. This is a favorite saddle gait with ladies, and seems better suited to the side-saddle than any other. Few gentlemen like it as well as the foxtrot, though it is often used as an all-day business gait, and of the two is more readily taken by horses that have a natural pacing tendency.

The single-foot (or single footed rack) cannot be classed as either a diagonal or lateral gait.
It is exactly intermediate between a trot and a pace, or, if you please is such an exaggeration of the fox-trot as to bring it half-way to the rack, or vice-versa. Each foot seems to move independently of association with either of

PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, SEPT. 21, 1893

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The inconsistency of the Star editor is something wonderful. He comes out yesterday in two editorials, one written for the benefit of Mr. Theo. H. Davies, and one for the "deluded Hawaiians," and in both, tries to show the absurdity and impossibility of advocating a vote for the natives in regard to the future form of government in Hawaii. Mr. Davies is called a demagogue, and the Royalists who believe that the plebiscite will be taken are accused of misleading and deluding the poor natives. Now, it was not so very long ago when the very same editor came out pretty strongly and accused the Royalists of misleading the Hawaiians, because they told them through their press and at meetings that the intention of the annexationists was to deprive the Hawaiians of their franchise if annexed. We were termed liars, and everything bad, and the natives were assured that annexation's papa, and all his followers were determined never to accept any treaty of annexation, except the civil rights of the Hawaiians were fully protected and fully recognized. Why, the Star editor wrote columns for the purpose of emphasizing to the poor kanakas that the annexationists really were their best friends, and that they would receive more political rights when Hawaii was a State or a Territory in the Union.

We, and with us, the Hawaiians, were always rather suspicious and inclined to doubt the sincerity of the Star and its followers, and the present attitude of the Star confirms our suspicions, and shows how much faith could be placed in its promises of civil rights. For, if it is absurd and ridiculous to talk about a Hawaiian plebiscite, if it is folly to believe that the P. G. would ever allow the Hawaiians a vote in deciding the form of government for their country, why in the name of Heaven should anybody believe, that the Hawaiians if annexed would be granted the franchise, and thereby, given the power to rule their own country. If the "aborigines" as Mr. Smith now calls his formerly beloved friends the Hawaiians are unfitted to cast a vote, and have a voice in settling the present situation, why should they be fitted to settle the government, and be the rulers, if Hawaii should become a Territory or a State. Will the Star kindly explain?

The truth is that the promises of a franchise as given out by the Star, at the instigation and advice of L. A. Thurston were clumsy, and far from clever at attempts at deluding the natives. If any of them swallowed the bait they have to day received the proof of the sincerity of the annexation party, and we hope, received a never-to-be-forgotten lesson.

STATISTICS.

We publish to-day a table of the population of the Hawaiian Islands, showing the numerical strength of the different nationalities, their political and financial status, the variation, and estimated changes in the population from year to year, and the occupation of the different nationalities in the main industry of the country, the sugar cultivation. We are indebted for our figures to the Hon. A. Marques, who has taken great pains and care in gathering these statistics. There is no man in this country more familiar with such work than Mr. Marques, and he deserves the greatest credit for the time and skill that he has devoted in presenting the world with an absolutely correct exhibit of the true proportions of the heterogeneous population of the Hawaiian Islands.

As plebiscite undoubtedly will be taken in these islands in a very near future, the figures which we publish to-day will be of extreme interest to those who have the future of Hawaii at heart. A careful study of the table will also show what outrageous lies the Provisional Commissioners, and the annexation organs have manufactured in regard to the number, wealth and possessions of the American colony in Hawaii. We shall in this issue devote our space to show exactly how the Americans who claim nine-tenths of all the wealth here stand in proportion to all the other nationalities, whom they desire to force into submission to the Stars and the Stripes.

According to the census of 1890, there were 1928 Americans here, including men, women and children. The number of Americans had decreased since the census of 1884 by 138 souls, and this decrease has continued since 1890. In that year, they constituted only 2.14 per cent. of the whole population, and the total number of registered voters amounted only to 637 or a percentage of 4.66 of all registered voters in the country. When we read these figures, we cannot help being surprised at the audacity of such a microscopic body of men usurping to themselves the government of the land, as a right and as a matter of justice, because some American missionaries at one time came here, and gave to the native Hawaiian Christianity, and the more or less civilization following that religion. The envoys of the American colony here, have persistently represented the Americans in Hawaii, as being the dominating class, and have naturally created the impression that their numerical strength was of some consequence. They have demonstrated the sugar industry as depending on American workmen while the facts are that only 101 Americans are employed on all the plantations of the land, and their places could be filled to-morrow by English or Germans, or in many instances by Japanese and Portuguese without the slightest trouble.

It is then on account of their great wealth of which they boast that, they claim to have the right to ignore the other nationalities

NOTE: - Increase. + Decrease.

here and decide the destiny of Hawaii, but what do we see when we look over the figures relating to the financial status in our table. We find that real estate is owned by only 177 Americans, against 3,771 Hawaiians, 226 Chinese, 234 Portuguese and 169 Britishers. The holdings of the Americans, we admit, amount to a large figure, and they pay $139,998.30 in taxes every year, or 26 per cent. of all the taxes. But the Hawaiians pay yearly $135,416.05, or 25.3 per cent. of all the taxes, while the Asiatics here pay $139,214.51 or 25.8 per cent. of all the taxes. On what may we ask, do the Americans then base their claim for supremacy here? It must be remembered that Claus Spreckels and his interests here are included in the 26 per cent. of taxes paid by the Americans, and that more than one half of the amount is paid through his firm, leaving a very small amount for the American annexationists. Of course, the taxes paid per capita averages only $9.95 for a Hawaiian, while each American pays $105.26 as an average, but we can hardly believe that they would use that fact as an argument for their claims. Because if they should, we must call their attention to the fact that the average of taxes per capita paid by Britishers, amounting to $106.16, or somewhat more than the averages of the Americans. We shall in coming issues, return to this interesting subject, and shall in the meantime, suggest to our friends and also to our contemporaries to make a careful study of Mr. Marques' figures to see what deductions they can make from them.

More Music!

  6. Euphonium solo—"Rocked in the D. ep".....Pendville
  7. Waltz—"The Syrens".....Waldteufel
  8. Polka—"A Good Kiss".....Waldteufel
- Hawaii Pono!

Did He Mean It?

We are informed, that the Englishman from Van Diemens Land, Mr. J. T. Waterhouse, offers to bet $25,000 to $1,000, that the Queen will not be restored. We were not aware that the old party was a sport, but, if he is yet of the same opinion and ready to put up his coin, we will be obliged if he will communicate with our office either personally, or by letter, or telephone, and we shall be there in double quick time.

GRAND SHOW!

Farewell Benefit to the "Boston."

Execution Building, Monday, Sept. 25th, 1893.

Brilliant Galaxy of Talent,— Wonderful Feats.

Positively for One Night Only.— Special Attention called to the following "Star" numbers.

Monsieur Smart Aleck Jumpsome will introduce some of his wonderful feats of contortion—and lightning changes—posing first as a champion of the National Reform Party.

Splendid accessories of blue lights, Jersey lightning etc.—Reproduction of "back stairs compact," "Energetic idiots" "broken pledges" "reform corruptions."

Instantaneous transformation to Sissy Snappers (at $5.00 extra).—Lurid Episode "Bulletin Office"—Grand table, sprawling net with accessories of "revils" shrieking for copy. Cincinnati at the chicken ranch.—Soft music.

Lightning Cash Change. Brilliant and inspiring contortion act. In full presence of public, Smart Aleck will proceed to swallow all former utterances all the most fantastic tumbles to himself etc. (This last act will only be repeated at a later date.)

The San Diego Review, acknowledged universally—by himself—to be the leading exponent of the manly art will give an exhibition of his skill—Should you care to see two comedians—The country run on "Californian principles"—Defenceless sovereigns knocked out.

If encored the artist will give a humorous rendition of his skit entitled: "What I know about Hawaii"

The ring-toiled bowler Smart Aleck in conscience and stiff in his subsequent limbs, will next delight the audience with his antics—

He will play an act in the most approved style and with the most sanctimonious visage.—The audience is cautioned against laughter or demonstrations of disrespect as this performance is very real to the performer.

Mr. Has hadineer will ride the public situation with divided skirts, J. H. de Soup with the rank of colonel and the importance of the Emperor of China will then try to force his famous hayfoot, strawfoot act in which his legs will dodge the sword at his side in the most thrilling manner.

Tandem de Pothouse with the rank of Major and the general aspect of a meridian of longitude on a semi-circular tour will recite "I wish I was an Englishman, You know!"

Then follows the celebrated "Demon and Pusslanimons" sketch in which the former will jump from one financial leg to the other while Pusslanimons will swear that he is all the time on both feet.

This performance is the more amusing as the actors and not the audience are deluded and humbugged.

Giovanni di Martini the Pantaloon will give a scissors and goose exhibition in which he will "steal" the country from the Kanakas and what are you going to do about it?

The public is informed that this performance will be of the most exclusive character and that nothing will occur to offend the most fastidious.

The every day menagerie will be confined to the basement during the entertainment and the hatchet battened down. Royalists are cautioned against throwing poisoned meat or canned peas to the animals.

The Supreme Court.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 20.

The Supreme Court sitting in Banco, heard the case of the Hawaiian Soap Works vs. T. Rawlins yesterday. The case was argued and submitted. Messrs. Hatch and Hartwell appear for the Hawaiian Soap Works and Mr. Cecil Brown for Mr. Rawlins.

THURSDAY, Sept. 21.

The Supreme Court was occupied this morning by hearing the case between the Government and the Hawaiian Tramways Company. The case deals with the question, whether the car-licenses of the Tramways Company shall be stamped or not. The case was argued and submitted. Attorney-General Smith for the Government, and Hon. Paul Neumann for the Tramways Company.

LOCAL NEWS.

The schooner Mary Foster was 10 miles off port at 12.50 o'clock.

The Boston has changed the day for its departure from the 27th to the 26th inst.

The Mariposa left this morning at 10 o'clock for San Francisco. The band played the steamer off.

M. S. Levy will hold a great clearance sale next Saturday. Everything will be sold, and the opportunities for good bargains are great.

There were no arrests made today as we go to press. The community is evidently getting well behaved since the re-opening of the HOLOMUA.

The Board of Health held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which M. Meyers the Agent for Molokai was present, and made sundry suggestions relating to the Leper Settlement.

Mr. C. F. Horner arrived here yesterday to attend the match race between his trotter Lot Slocum and Mr. Hollinger's Gerster for a thousand dollar purse, which will take place next Saturday.

The James Makee arrived from Kauai this morning with the lepers who lately surrendered to the authorities. In spite of the promises of Sheriff Deverill to catch Koolau there were no news yet in regard to him. It is generally believed that he is snugly installed in Koolau valley.

Another ball will be given to the Boston officers at the Palace next Monday, by Honolulu "society," as represented by the annexation club. A meeting was held last night at the club rooms, and a number of committees appointed to attend to the affair. Subscription lists are being circulated to-day.

The Ship's Company of the Boston has published a protest in the Advertiser against the idiotic letter which appeared in the morning paper yesterday relating to the hoisting of the Stars and Stripes. The Boston Company should have realized that the absurd fake was manufactured in the Advertiser's own offices.

Mr. Robt. Louis Stevenson is residing at Sans Souci. He will remain here till the 28th inst. and return to his Island home by the Alameda. His health has not been very good, and the famous novelist looks very poor. We hope that the bracing breeze at Waikiki will have a beneficial influence on Mr. Stevenson, and that his flying trip to Hawaii will assist him in recovering his strength.

District Court.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 20.

Jack was fined $10 and $3 costs for using vulgar and profane language. A Chinaman was fined $50 and costs for having opium in possession.

THURSDAY, Sept. 21.

In the District Court this morning, the Japanese who committed assault and battery on Mr. Thomas Lucas, was found guilty, and fined $20 and costs. The Chinese assault from Pawa case occupied the rest of the day.

WHAT THE WISE MEN SAY.

(Adapted from James Russell Lowell.)

The monarchy wasn't so bad after all; It minded it's biz, and made the law feared; It treated its foes always fair without gall, To the poor and the people, was it ever endeared.

But Walter G, (Stellar) Smith, he Sez, Uncle Sam shan't restore the Monarchiee.

My! Ain't it terrible! Wut shall we du? We can't never restore it o'course, that's flat;

Guess Uncle Sam 'll hew to come round (don't you)?

And go in with missionaries, and guns, and all that;

For Walter G, (Stellar) Smith, he Sez, we shan't vote for the Monarchiee.

The Provisional G., is of driftle strait breed It's grabbed all the power that give places and pelf;

But consistency still, wuz a part of its creed, It's been true to one party—an' that is itself

So Walter G, (Stellar) Smith, he Sez—We'll always be ruled by the Provisional G.

The Provisional G., it goes in for war, It don't rally principle more'n an old end; Wut did God make us raxional crecturs fer, But glory an' gunpowder, plunder an' blood?

So Walter G, (Stellar) Smith, he Sez, we'll always be ruled by the Provisional G.

We were getting on nicely, out here to our village, With good old ideas o' wut's right an' wut ain't,

We kind o' thought Christ went again war an' pillage

An' that epplets wan't the best mark of a saint;

But Sereno E, Bishop, he Sez—this kind o' thing's an' exploded idee.

The side of our country must ollers be took, An' the Provisional G., you know, it is our country.

An' the angel that writes all our sin in a book, Put the debit to it an' to us the per centry, An' Sereno E, Bishop, he Sez, this is his view o' the thing to a T.

Parson Davies, he calls all these argi ments lies, Sez, they're nothing on airth but jest fee, fan, fuff!

An' that all this big talk of our destinies, Is half on it ign'ance an' t'other half bluff,

But Walter G, (Stellar) Smith, he Sez, it aint no such thing; an' of course, go must we.

Parson Davies sez, he never heard in his life, Thet th' apostles rigged out with cartridge and gun.

An' marched round behind a drum and life, To get some on 'em office, an some on 'em—none.

But Nathaniel B, Emerson, he Sez, they did't know anything down in Judee.

Wal, it's a marcy we've gut folks to tell us The rights and the wrongs of these matters I vow.

God sends pious lawyers an' other wise fellers,

To start the world's team when it gits in a slough, Fer the P. G. Advisory C.

Sez, the world 'll go right if it hollers out Gee!

The Merry-Go-Round.

We learn, that the new steam Merry Go-Round was sold yesterday to Mr. Jos-ph A. Victor, for the sum of $3,200. The new proprietor took possession to-day, the former proprietors having left by the Mariposa for San Francisco. To judge from the figure paid the Merry-Go-Round, business must be the only flourishing enterprise in Hawaii, and beats both Sugar, Guava Jelly, and Cycloramas.

the others, and the same interval of time elapses between each football. It is seldom seen in harness.
It is a fast gait, generally not less than ten miles an hour, which can be increased to a three-minute gait. It affords the smoothest seat of all the gaits, because that portion of the animal which supports the saddle apparently glides evenly forward, while each quar-

none of that bounding or jolting
