PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, JUNE 30, 1894.

MORE INTIMIDATION.

Mr. W. R. Castle was, a while ago, appointed President of the Board of Education. Everybody knowing the man smiled, but absurdities of the kind had become frequent and nobody cared to raise a tempest in the p. g. teapot. W. R. Castle, as President of the Board of Education, and W. O. Smith, as President of the Board of Health, furnish a demonstration of the capacity in regard to impudence of the present government that can only be equaled by the Dole-Washington badges.

Mr. Castle, as president of the Board, is ably assisted by a number of ladies who probably know as much about education as he himself. However, the world would have moved on, and Hawaii's coming generations would probably have progressed as usual if the political feeling of Mr. Castle and his male and female colleagues hadn't run away with his common sense. When, today, the teachers of government schools called at the Board of Education they received the following instructive document—and no wages—Mr. Castle had instructions and advises ready for them—he always has—but he had no money—he never has. We print the pronunciamento of president Castle in full:

To the employees of the Board of Education:

Upon the appointment of the present Board of Education, apprehension was expressed by teachers and other employees of the Bureau lest removals should be made on account of political opinion. The matter was discussed at the first meeting, and it was decided that removals should not be made for that cause alone. This policy has been strictly followed.

But while the Board recognizes and respects individual liberty of opinion, it is a very different matter when the employee becomes an active enemy of the employer. One of the important duties of the teacher is to inculcate obedience to law and respect for the government.

It has been brought to the attention of the Board that several of its teachers as well as other officers have used direct personal influence against the Hawaiian Government, besides expressing hostile and violent sentiments against it.

Every teacher or other employee of this Bureau is hereby given to understand that any active hostility, either of the character above referred to or otherwise, against the government, will be considered good cause for removal.

By order of the Board of Education,
W. R. CASTLE,
President.

Honolulu, June 26, 1894.

Mr. Castle is playing a dangerous game. If he really is interested in the future of the Hawaiians. If he really means to further our educational system, why does he, in the very first months of his incumbency bring in politics among the teachers of the youth? Is the Board of Education to be used as another political lever? If so we advise every loyal citizen to take out his children from the government schools, and rather allow them to romp around in happy ignorance, than to be forced to swallow the political opinions of W. R. Castle. Every teacher with manhood and independent feeling will throw up his job and leave his poorly paid work in the course of humanity, rather than listening and obeying the demands of W. R. Castle. And then we should suggest to that immaculate and alleged expert on educational matters, that he pays his employees their dues before he is ready to "fire them." His present action injures the credit of the country—his own credit cannot be injured.

What an Antithesis.

Of all the foolish, idiotic, nonsensical and childish ebullitions of our fifth rate statesmen (?) the new badges now for sale, and which will be sported by the p. g. heroes of feline-like vitality on the "day we celebrate," take the bun! Imagine the ONE first in war, first in peace, and first in the heart of his countrymen, being placed alongside of a political judicial—fillibustering leader of an insignificant clique who have stolen the right of a nation—and that nation, the country of his birth! On second thoughts we presume that the designer of these infantile symbols of mental and moral slavery intended to work in, on the p. g., a huge piece of irony, and he has succeeded admirably. Washington was first in war etc., while Dole—the great only—has ever been last in war—extremely first in peace, and is absolutely detested by the majority of his countrymen.

That Painkiller.

The new Republic (?) is to start under the auspices of temperance, and all saloons are to be closed on the Glorious Fourth—an extremely unprecedented proceeding, but of course, necessary in view of the tremendous strain that will be placed upon the nerves and courage (?) of the nine-lived defenders of the immaculate missionaries. Of course, the Attorney General—learned in the law—will purchase on Tuesday night the usual bottle of pain killer that he is accustomed to use in moments of great danger such as the 17th of January 1892 was, and he imagines the coming 4th will be.

LIKE PU.

Geo. Washington has been forced into partnership with S(and) B(ug) Dole. They appear shoulder to shoulder (in miniature) on a striped piece of ribbon, and both of them look like not-found-out-liars. The great resemblance between them is, that George got into serious trouble over his Hatch(et), and Sanford has at present got into the very same predicament with his Hatch.

The Monowai.

The Monowai arrived last evening from Sydney at 6 o'clock, and left for San Francisco at 9 p. m. The steamer met with heavy weather on her way and was delayed for several hours. A seaman named McAllister met an accident during the storm, which resulted in a broken leg. He is now at the Queen's Hospital. The Monowai had a small passenger list.

Christian Progress.

It was in the year of 1886. The Paradise of the Pacific was in the usual Sunday repose. The professional Christians had returned from church and were in their humble, but comfortable and at-that-time-not-mortgaged-homes—thanking the Supreme Being for his watchfulness over the select—and the dividends. The fire bell suddenly sent out its monotonous and warning sound. In those days the bell was heard, in those days numerous volunteers rushed forward to save property and lives. The religious capitalist shrugged his shoulders when the clang of the bell reached his ear and he said, "Chinese shebangs only, let them burn." But soon it was known that the fire had spread, that the property of the true Christians was imperilled and they rushed to the scene.

Who among our kamaainas don't remember the day. Who can forget the missionaries joy whenever a saloon went into ashes, "thank be to the Lord" and their apparently regret when the churches were laid low. The smoke from the saloons, they said, was black as the heart—if he has got any—of their devil. The smoke from the debris of the Bethel Church was white and pure as the soul of Cruzan, Ogden and Company. The fire was put out. The town was saved from utter destruction and our Christians were in high glee as also were the Chinese who succeeded in saving their gold and "dope."

No churches arose, though, on the burned premises. The saloons were all rebuilt and prospered ever since. But on Bethel street, in the center of the town, a number of Christians gathered, and in a hall of their own, tried to improve the moral and religious standing of their fellow-men. The "heathen" monarchy was abandoned; the immaculate, the virtuous, and truly Christian men took charge. Since yesterday, the hall on Bethel street is used for the sale of hop-beer, and the Christian government smiles serenely.

The Evolution of the Judiciary.

Well, may Judge Frear read a paper on the "Evolution of the Judiciary" for verily the "Judiciary" has evolved some curious specimens. Judges made out of total strangers whose legal knowledge was practically unknown and of no experience in our Courts—boys just out of college and who never appeared in a case in Court appointed—and junior partners of prominent politicians foisted to the Supreme Bench over the heads of men of long experience and standing at the bar. The Monarchy has been called "rotten" but never have the Royalist Cabinets under the Monarchy made the Judiciary Department a pension bureau for rewarding political services, as has been done by the immaculate missionary p. g. A political judiciary commands the respect of no one, not even the politicians who control it, and woe to the country in which politics is the dominant motive in selecting the dispensers of justice.

Owing to the arrival of the Monowai the meeting of the Historical Society was postponed. Judge Frear's paper on the history of the judiciary in Hawaii will be published in the society's paper.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR HOLOMUA.

I called at the Station this morning to interview a man arrested yesterday. I requested to see him but was informed that he left at 9 p. m. last evening. Having seen him through the opening in the door, I confronted the turnkey with his mistake. He then called me away to be out of hearing of the general public and informed me it was the orders of the Senior Captain that no one was to see the man until after his trial for vagrancy.

I always thought a man was accorded the right of seeing his friends before conviction.

I now ask you the following: Has the Senior Captain of Police the right to prevent a man before conviction an interview with his friends?

Are certain islands in the South Pacific trying to out-do in despotism a certain country ruled by a Czar?

Are there no rights for foreigners in the Hawaiian Islands?

Are they to be subjected to arrest at the will of those invested with a little authority and after being detained in a dungeon for a while to be told to get out of the country? Kindly oblige me by an answer Mr. Editor.

Yours obediently,
W. H. COULTER.

[There is at present no law and no justice in this country. The missionaries have got it all their own way for a short while—Consular Courts will probably be established in a very short while, and justice might then be hoped for. ED.]

A Good Chance.

The Art Leagues exhibition will close very shortly. We have already mentioned the merits of the exhibition of our local artists and we call attention to all who love and understand art that it is well worth spending a little time at the store of King Bros., and enjoy a view of the several very artistic works of the exhibitors. According to the arrangement of the League the exhibition will be closed next week. The managers have, in a proper spirit, thrown open the doors to the exhibition, and nothing will be charged to visitors during the coming week. The works of Hutchison, Hitchcock, Miss Parke, Mrs. Graham and others are well worth inspecting, and we should consider it most appropriate for the principals of our different schools, not yet having vacation to take advantage of this chance and show their pupils what talent and study can produce. Mr. W. King will always be in attendance and act as a cicerone to the visitors.

What's Up?

General A. S. Hartwell left on the Monowai last night. His departure was rather surprising to his friends—and enemies. Even the Advertiser doesn't make any note of it. How the christening of the new republic is to be celebrated without the presence of godfathers Damon, Thurston and Hartwell is a conundrum. Perhaps the kid is still-born. It is always a bad omen when the great politicians above mentioned disappear from the scene.

HAWAIIAN:

HARDWARE COMP'Y

The Advertiser who catches a persons eye usually wins a customer. Many different styles of advertising have been adopted and with more or less success, by the believers in the use of printers ink. The manufacturers of Pears Soap, for instance, occasionally buy paintings that have been on exhibition in the Paris Salon and have lithographs made from them for the purpose of bringing their product before the people. In addition to such side issues, Pear spends hundreds thousands of dollars annually among the newspapers and magazines. Some years ago the Agents of certain article on sale in New York made a hit in advertising by having on Broadway during business hours two fatnessly dressed Negroes wearing very high collars, on the backs of which was printed "Use Smiths Pills." The idea was novel and the public caught on. Rising Sun Stove Polish has been kept before the public for years through persistent, and sometimes expensive advertising. Twenty odd years ago the manufacturers of this polish started half a dozen men across the ornament to paint signs on rocks and fences. The Aermotor Co., of Chicago have increased its sales more than five hundred per cent in two years by the use of printers ink. We believe we have been instrumental in increasing the sales of the Aermotor by keeping everlastingly at it in Hawaii.

We do not wish to say that advertising will sell any manufactured article; there is no use spending money in advertising "cheap and nasty" goods because the people will not be hoodwinked. If Haviland China was not the superior article it is, all our advertising of it would not have sold the thousands of pieces that we have. We simply call the attention of the people to it and its superior quality is apparent to the customer directly a piece of it is examined.

Printers ink has helped the sale of the James Locked Fence but it would not have done so if it had been as flimsy as the ordinary wire fence. First; the economy there is in building it recommends it to the plantation manager and then its durability clinches the sale. If the stays and washers cost as much as an ordinary redwood post our sales of the material would not have reached such enormous proportions.

Our average sale of the Pansy Iron Stove is about two a day the year round. If was not the best iron stove on the market we would not sell that many in six months. Advertising is the tip to the public the good points in the article sells it just as the good qualities of the Fischer Steel Range make it a desirable article for people who wish to economise in the use of fuel.

We buy only what has proven good after people in the United States or Europe have given it a trial; we profit by their experience if the articles are good we buy and sell them; if they are poor we steer clear of them. When we advertise an article it is to attract attention to it; the newspaper is the button we push, the salesman does the rest.

Persistent advertising coupled with the article being a superior one has sold thousands of the Frank Walcott Emory File. If it had been no better than an ordinary scythe stone we probably would not have sold twenty. When a man finds out that his table knives may be kept sharp at all times at an expense of fifty cents and a very little elbow grease he is quite willing to try the experiment.

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. W. G. Irwin left yesterday for Waimanalo.

Look out for the Vaudeville troupe on the fifth of July.

A p. g. soldier said today—"Dese are very dole, dole dimes, doan id?"

Billy Cunningham's favorite tune today is: "When the Cat came back."

A stabbing affray took place in a Fort street store today. Nobody got seriously hurt.

Dr. Geo. H. Huddy who escorted Walter Hill to Australia, returned to town on the Monowai.

Professor Berger's band gave a concert at the Hotel last night in honor of the Monowai passengers.

Patch the famous fox-terrier belonging to Colonel Bristol has been found. An advertisement in the HOLOMUA did the business.

It is understood that Mr. Dole will reconstruct his cabinet after his proclamation as dictator next Wednesday.

The "sojers" will not turn out on the Fourth. They will all be confined in the cellar of the palace.

The workmanship of the Dole badges is really fine, and Mr. Mellis is deserving of credit for the device. The idea is, to say the least, "bad form."

W. Sheldon has been appointed Deputy Sheriff for Waianae, so rumor says. It would be of interest to know how many 'breach of promises' this appointment leads the Marshal into.

Dickey Davies arrived in town yesterday morning, incognito. The boys know all about it now, and every room on the Claudine will be taken. Those who want to go have better get a move on.

Seaborn Luce has a few of his fragrant mice left. Why don't the Board of Health buy them and donate the same to the Water Works?

Minister Damon is booked to leave on the Warrimoo for British Columbia. The object of his departure at this date is a puzzle to the government clique.

Minister and Mrs. Willis entertained Bishop and Mrs. Willis at dinner last week. This is for the edification of the Star editor. No political significance.

The convention did some work today. The delegates earned their $100 a piece by finishing the job. Most of them had drawn it in advance.

Walter Hill, a distinguished fellow-citizen has arrived safely at Adelaide, N. S. W., and is trying to recover his impaired health among friends of former days.

F. M. Husted's directory promises to be a great success. His agents are at work all over the country, and the "book of reference" ought to be a valuable work for business men and others in Hawaii.

You Dirty Boy!

Charles Girdler received by the Monowai a consignment of the famous Pears' Soap, the richness and quality of which have never been equaled in Honolulu. Pears is celebrated for his artistic and judicious manner of advertising, and the agents of Mr. Girdler have sent to him the superb statuette, in terra cotta, labeled in the art galleries of Europe: "You Dirty Boy!" The statuette, which is a superior work of sculpture, is on exhibition in Mr. Girdler's store, Kaahumanu street.

The consignment received contains nearly all the specialties of Pears' tablets of unscented soap, balls of soap, scented with otto of roses; sticks of the most creamy shaving soap, violet powder for the complexion of our girls, and, as a matter of contrast, "Fuller's Earth," the famous stuff on which the babies delight to sit, and which they consider the fundamental law of their "constitution." Mr. G. intended to present the statuette to the rifle association as a prize for the sharp shooters, but he remembered, in time, that Dole's heroes don't want soap.

Mr. Ruevsky a teacher of the Kamehameha Schools left by the Monowai. The school glee club serenaded the popular gentleman at the wharf.

The ball to be given next Monday by the Thistle Club as a house-warming of their new quarters will be one of the most prominent events of the season. Chief Lindsay's name is enough to secure the success of the affair.

There will be a meeting of government officials at the drill shed next Monday. They will masquerade as "the people," and approve of Dole and the constitution. The Advertiser says it will be a monster meeting, or a meeting of monsters.

Mr. Castle of the Advertiser, the disciple of Boeter, and the advocate of woman's right should read the "Blue Laws" of Kauka Okole-kala with care. We publish them daily for the special benefit of him and the unique grandson of the author.

The Star scribe says that the fishing party who went to Waianae yesterday carried with them a "mug" of champagne, whatever that may be. Admiral Walker and the other gentlemen will probably prefer a champagne "mng" to the "mug" of the Star man.

HAWAII'S "BLUE" LAWS

CONSTITUTION and LAWS

Framed by the Missionaries.

LAWS of the HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

11. DUTIES OF THE TAX OFFICERS.

On the first year after the publication of this law, these shall be the duties of the tax officers which the governors appoint to aid the general tax gatherer:—the general tax gatherer shall instruct the agents of states, counties, districts, plantations and farms, that they all labor faithfully on the public labor days of the King, to grow that kind of produce which is best suited to each particular land in every part of the islands. Though cotton is a production which is considered by this law as very important. Let that be planted in abundance as a new source of wealth to these islands. That is a third article in which taxes will be received, of which the tax officer shall give universal notice. In the same manner as he prompts the people in relation to the money tax for the poll, and the pork tax for the land, so also he shall prompt them in relation to the growth of the cotton. Other kinds of produce may be cultivated at the option of the officers and people. If they are industrious their hopes will be realized. Let the tax officers see that the taxes are assessed in strict accordance with the requirements of this law—let them enumerate the people, male and female, together with the children who pay the yearly tax; and make a separate enumeration of the old men and women and those children who do not pay the taxes—let them take a yearly account of the deaths and births, by which it may be ascertained whether the people of the kingdom are really diminishing in numbers or not, and by that means the amount of taxes can be known.

Furthermore, ignorant persons shall be no longer employed, neither as tax officers nor as land agents, for that is a means of oppressing the people and making them poor, they being so accustomed to impose burdens at will, and receive the property of others without pay. This is perhaps the reason why the people at the present time are so lazy, and work so feebly.

Ye landlords, to whom lands are given in charge, no longer rule your tenants in ignorance, lest the tax officers being enlightened in the principles of this book nullify your title as landlord, and we give the lands to those who are ready to aid the feeble portions of the community. The ignorant shall receive their proper reward, poverty, and the lands shall be given to other lords. This penalty, poverty, shall be the reward both of chiefs and people, if they act in reality contrary to the above.

12. THE BUSINESS OF FEMALES.

This is the appropriate business of all the females of these islands; to teach the children to read, cipher, and write, and other branches of learning, to subject the children to good parental and school laws, to guide the children to right behavior, and place them in schools, that they may do better than their parents. But if the parents do not understand reading, then let them commit the instruction of their children to those who do understand it, and let the parents support the teacher, inasmuch as they feel an interest in their children, let them feel an interest in the teacher too. But if any woman do not conduct according to the requirements of this section, then let her return to the labor of her landlord as in former times, to such labor however as is appropriate to women. The tax officers will look to and manage this business.
