PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, JULY 7, 1894.

A FALSE IMPRESSION.

The So-called Republic is Only Recognized As A Government De Facto.

Wasted Enthusiasm of the Sub- sidized Organs.

To anybody who knows anything about diplomatic etiquette and custom, the enthusiasm displayed by the Star and Advertiser, because Minister Willis has acknowledged receipt of a note from Mr. Hatch, in which he was informed of the proclamation of a republic is more than amusing. The Star comes out with the following editorial remarks that read remarkably inconsistent when compared with the letter of Mr. Willis. The Star writes:—

The following official reply of United States Minister Albert S. Willis, recognizing the Republic of Hawaii as the de jure Government of the Hawaiian Islands, was received at the Foreign Office this morning; it is clear, explicit and significant and needs no further word of comment.

Minister Willis writes:—

Legation of the United States, Honolulu, H. I., July 5, 1894. J. Hon. Francis M. Hatch, Minister of Foreign Affairs. Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of July 4, 1894, stating that "in pursuance of the will of the Constitutional Convention lately convened in Honolulu, and of an enactment of the Executive and Advisory Councils of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands, the Republic of Hawaii has been established and this day proclaimed; and having succeeded to the power and authority of said Provisional Government, now constitutes the sole and supreme government of the Hawaiian Islands."

You further state that "Sanford Ballard Dole, in accordance with the choice of the said Constitutional Convention, as expressed in the constitution adopted by it, has assumed the office of President of this Republic, and has appointed as his Cabinet, James A. King, Minister of the Interior; Samuel M. Damon, Minister of Finance; William O. Smith, Attorney-General," and yourself as Minister of Foreign Affairs. You inclose for my information two copies of the constitution adopted by said Convention, and express the hope that "the good will which has for so many years characterized the relations of your Government to former Governments of Hawaii may be extended to the Republic."

In reply to your note reciting the foregoing facts, I have the honor to inform you that I hereby, as far as I have the right so to do, extend to the Republic of Hawaii the recognition accorded to its predecessor, the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands. I do this in the belief that I represent the President of the United States, to whom, as the Executive Chief of the Government, my action in the premises will be promptly submitted for necessary approval.

Joining with you in the expressed hope that the cordial international relations of the past will be continued in the future, and with assurances of esteem, I am, sir,

Very respectfully,
ALBERT S. WILLIS,
Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary; U.S.A.

The enthusiasm of the Star and the other ignorant followers of the Dole-Hatch combination, is created because, they construe the letter of Mr. Willis as containing an acknowledgement of the republic as a government de jure, that means, a government with which international relations can be had treaties made and full sovereign equality given. How such an impression can have been created is really puzzling. It is stated, that it emanated from the foreign office.

Everybody conversant with the situation, would be aware that every diplomatic or consular representative is obliged to recognize any government of a country, in which his duties compel him to stay as a de facto government. A refusal to do so, would finish his diplomatic or consular standing, and his office would be of no use to his countrymen in whose service and for whose protection he was appointed by his home government.

The provisional government was recognized by Mr. Stevens, even before it was proclaimed as the de facto government of Hawaii, and although, the actions of Mr. Stevens have been disavowed and condemned by the Cleveland administration, there was no possibility to ignore or cancel the said recognition, except through a declaration of war. The recognition of Mr. Willis, is of the de facto government pending further instructions. If Mr. Dole had chosen to call his government an empire, a commonwealth, or styled himself dictator or formed a triumvirate in company with Hatch and Smith, Mr. Willis would have written a similar letter and recognized the de facto government.

There was only one government which would have needed no recognition, and which would have made no notification of an establishment and that was the, till this day, recognized de jure government of which Queen Liliuokalani is the head.

The diplomats in case of the restoration would simply be notified that the de jure government was again installed and the rebellion which temporarily deprive the legal government of its authority had been suppressed. And they would all have hastened to acknowledge the receipt of the information and taken the occasion to renew their assurances of etc. etc.

That the provisional government was not a de jure government, the Star could have learned by reference to the Gresham-Willis correspondence, and even to the Stevens letters.

Under date of October 18, 1893, Mr. Gresham writes to Mr. Willis a letter marked "Confidential" in which he says: * * *

"It is necessary to communicate to you, in confidence, special instructions for your guidance in so far as concerns the relations of the government of the United States towards the de facto government of the Hawaiian Islands."

On January 18, 1893, Mr. J. L. Stevens wrote to Secretary Foster: "I promptly recognized the provisional government as the de facto government of the Hawaiian Islands."

So much for the de jure question.

Let us now see on what the Dole government base their hopes and on what Mr. Willis expresses himself as entertaining "a belief that I represent the President of the United States," recognizing the republic. The relations between the provisional government and President Cleveland cannot be very cordial because, the p. g. was very politely asked by the very gentleman who "believes that he represents President Cleveland" to step down and out. But better than anywhere else is Cleveland's principles and sentiments shown in the following words used by him in his famous message to Congress. "While naturally sympathizing with every effort to establish a republican form of government, it has been the settled policy of the United States to concede to the people of foreign countries the same freedom and independence in the management of their domestic affairs, that we have always claimed for ourselves; and it has been our practice to recognize revolutionary governments as soon as it became apparent that they were supported by the people. For illustration of this rule, I need only refer to the revolution in Brazil in 1889, when our Minister was instructed to recognize the Republic "so soon as a majority of the people of Brazil should have signified their assent to its establishment and maintenance."

To the revolution in Chile in 1891, when our Minister was directed to recognize the new government, "if it was accepted by the people."

If Minister Willis after reading the above, still "believes that he represents the President of the United States" by encouraging a recognition of government established against the will of the people, based on a fundamental law not ratified by the people, and built on principles opposed to that which is sacred to every American, the will of the people then, we say, His Excellency must possess great faculties in the "believing" line.

A New Industry.

Honolulu has never been accused of being an unusually moral city, but lately, the encouragement of the social vice has become pronounced. It is evident that the immaculate government under W. O. Smith and Hitchcock is deaf and blind to corruption. The Chinese have entered on the latest field of competition with foreigners and Hawaiians. Certain of them make a public traffic in Japanese female flesh, and do so right under the nose of the police. They ought to be ashamed—or hire a Waterhouse cottage.

Professor Adelstein's musicale promises to be a success. A number of seats have already been taken at L. J. Levey's office where the box-plan is. Those who desire to enjoy a good musical entertainment should not hesitate in ordering tickets. The concert is on the 17th inst.

A number of good Americans residing on Nuuanu street, between King and School streets, are kicking on account of an item in the Bulletin of the 5th, stating that the only decorations on the 4th in that quarter of the town were displayed by Frank Godfrey and S. Davis. They were all flying their glorious stars and stripes, and feel themselves as good Americans as the patriots mentioned by the Bulletin man

"BIG" HEAD!

Little Hatch Has Got an Official Journal.

Yesterday, according to the Bulletin, a representative of that paper called at the foreign office and enquired from Major (I) Potter, the secretary of the office if the reports generally circulated in town about the recognition of the republic by Mr. Willis were true. The following conversation took place:

"Reporter—Has there been any recognition of the new republic, Mr. Potter, by any of the foreign powers?"

Mr. Potter—Yes sir.

Reporter—By whom?

Mr. Potter—By the United States Minister. He sent a letter to the office this forenoon.

Reporter—Can I get a copy of the letter?

Mr. Potter—Yes, sir; you can see it in the Star this evening. They have the exclusive right of publishing it."

We beg our readers to make a note of the last answer of this Potter, in which, he states that the Star has "the exclusive right of publishing" Willis' letter.

A while ago, a prominent member of the opposition to the revolutionary government had occasion to exchange certain communications with Mr. Dole, at that time president of the p. g. and minister of foreign affairs. In the letter to Mr. Dole, the gentleman referred to the Star as the official journal of the p. g. In Mr. Dole's answer, the soft impeachment was hotly repudiated, and the minister emphatically stated that the government has no official journal, and does not hold itself responsible for anything appearing in the Star or any other paper.

Now, if the government has no official paper, how does the Star obtain an "exclusive" right to publish a letter which is neither the private property of short Hatch or long Potter? The letter is the property of the tax-payers who pay the two gentlemen for receiving it, numbering it, filing it, and answering it. That is the short and the long of it. If a similar answer had been given in Washington to a representative of a republican paper by a clerk under a democratic secretary of State, the whole press from East to West would have entered a most vigorous protest and the silly action of the clerk would never have been repeated.

We have no doubt that Mr. Hatch and his clerk are both stockholders in the Star, but we consider it rather risky for His Excellency (?) to allow his understrapper to further private interests through the use of public documents.

The little game for the benefit of the Star proved a failure. The editorial heading, the letter of Willis, and, presumably, written by Hatch or Potter was intended to depress the hopes of the Royalists: It didn't, because, none of them reads the Star—and all of them know the caliber of the Star-editor. He has been among them before.

But if Mr. Hatch in the future should insult the press even if it is opposed to him or allow his subordinates to do so, it would be better for him to buy the proverbial mill-stone and jump off his perch than stay there and be "exclusive."

HARDWARE COMP'Y

The Advertiser who catches a persons eye usually wins a customer. Many different styles of advertising have been adopted and with more or less success, by the believers in the use of printers ink. The manufacturers of Pears Soap, for instance, occasionally buy paintings that have been on exhibition in the Paris Salon and have lithographs made from them for the purpose of bringing their product before the people. In addition to such side issues, Pears spends hundreds thousands of dollars annually among the newspapers and magazines. Some years ago the Agents of certain article on sale in New York made a hit in advertising by having on Broadway during business hours two fatuously dressed Negroes wearing very high collars, on the backs of which was printed "Use Smiths Pills." The idea was novel and the public caught on. Rising Sun Stove Polish has been kept before the public for years through persistent, and sometimes expensive advertising. Twenty odd years ago the manufacturers of this polish started half a dozen men across the ornament to paint signs on rocks and fences. The Aermotor Co., of Chicago have increased its sales more than five hundred per cent in two years by the use of printers ink. We believe we have been instrumental in increasing the sales of the Aermotor by keeping everlastingly at it in Hawaii.

We do not wish to say that advertising will sell any manufactured article; there is no use spending money in advertising "cheap and nasty" goods because the people will not be hoodwinked. If Haviland China was not the superior article it is, all our advertising of it would not have sold the thousands of pieces that we have. We simply call the attention of the people to it and its superior quality is apparent to the customer directly a piece of it is examined.

Printers ink has helped the sale of the James Locked Fence but it would not have done so if it had been as flimsy as the ordinary wire fence. First; the economy there is in building it recommends it to the plantation manager and then its durability clinches the sale. If the stays and washers cost as much as an ordinary redwood post our sales of the material would not have reached such enormous proportions.

Our average sale of the Pansy Iron Stove is about two a day the year round. It was not the best iron stove on the market we would not sell that many in six months. Advertising is the tip to the public the good points in the article sells it just as the good qualities of the Fischer Steel Range make it a desirable article for people who wish to economise in the use of fuel.

We buy only what has proven good after people in the United States or Europe have given it a trial; we profit by their experience if the articles are good we buy and sell them; if they are poor we steer clear of them. When we advertise an article it is to attract attention to it; the newspaper is the button we push, the salesman does the rest.

Persistent advertising coupled with the article being a superior one has sold thousands of the Frank Walcott Emory File. If it had been no better than an ordinary scythe stone we probably would not have sold twenty. When a man finds out that his table knives may be kept sharp at all times at an expense of fifty cents and a very little elbow grease he is quite willing to try the experiment.

LOCAL NOTES.

Where is the promised boom?

Mr. Stackable has succeeded Mr. Barney Ordenstein as clerk to the Road Board.

The Hawaiis and Crescents this afternoon. Will the Hawaiis get rattled again and lose the game?

The bald-heads in town have formed a "serpentine club." The pass word is "Ugh."

W. H. Crossman, a well-known merchant of San Francisco died in New York last month.

Are the streets of Honolulu yet paved with gold as promised by the "republicans?"

Band Concert this afternoon at Emma Square, usual time, usual Professor and usual airs.

The office of appraiser at the Custom House has finally been filled by the appointment of C. J. Fishel.

The fire alarm was sounded shortly afternoon. A small blaze on Punchbowl was the cause. Nothing of importance.

The match race between the Philadelphia barge crew and the local crews will not come off at present.

Shares in the Inter Island Steamship Navigation Company were sold by J. Morgan today at 136 and 138.

Mr. Carl Willing, formerly of the government nursery, is now managing a pine apple ranch near Pearl City.

Very few people have so far taken the oath to the Mr. Dole's republic. Hawaiians won't do it, and the foreigners don't want to lose their citizenship "at home."

It is stated that shares in Ewa plantation were sold at 95 today at private sale. The Castle, Cooke ring think the high price is the result of Mr. Dole's republic.

Coxswain Atkinson and his crew were looking all afternoon for a challenge from the "Philadelphia" boys. It will come in due time and "Jack" will have his hands full.

Castle & Cooke and other firms have "hauled down" the Stars and Stripes, and are now displaying the Hawaiian flag—the flag they have endeavored to drag in the dirt.

It is rumored that Honolulu will shortly have another banking firm. If conducted on anything except the usual pawn-broker principles the country, and the concern will both be vastly benefitted.

St. Andrew's Cathedral was entered yesterday afternoon by a bold burglar. The invader emptied the container of the communion wine, but disturbed nothing else. There is a clew to the identity, and whereabouts of the impudent fellow.

Ewa plantation has given its Japanese laborers a holiday today. Numerous sports and other entertainments have been provided for. The National band is in attendance, and quite a number of people took advantage of trains and went down to Oahu's "big" plantation.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EDITOR HOLOMUA.

The constitutional convention has completed its labors. With a simplicity and innocence worthy of infants, its members have placed themselves in an absurd position. I make this statement upon the authority of the daily p.g. Advertiser. The convention and the p.g. Advertiser, aforesaid, with a most ingenious display of reason have admitted that the suggestion and advice received from the Shutzen Club, and other sources were very valuable, but that all such advice was given too late. The resolutions of the Shutzen Club were received before the third reading of the draft of the new constitution. This, according to the convention and p.g. Advertiser was too late. If this outside advice was good. If the adoption of such suggestions would have tended to improve the constitution, why were they not considered, even if it did require a few days longer? The convention are not limited by time.

The members of the Schutzen Club, however, they may prented to take this reception of their resolutions, can scarcely have failed to observe that the convention were simply disinclined to heed liberal suggestions from any quarter.

This new constitution which the superior intelligence of such statesmen as Mr. Mendonca, D. B. Smith, J. M. Vivas, Albert Kunuiakea and Fernandez has produced, and which the cuckoos of the American League and Schutzen Club have pronounced perfect, is an instrument that in the dark ages, might possibly, have passed as a progressive document.

Should the constitution be submitted to an unprejudiced stranger from America or a Continental Country, for an opinion, he would very likely suggest that the constitution had been framed by persons who ala Rip Van Winkle, after having slept three or four centuries, have just awakened, not realizing the length of their sleep nor the change in their surroundings. It was asserted that the main cause of the revolution of January 17, 1893, was the attempt of Queen Liliuokalani to promulgate a new constitution. This, of course, in the light of recent events, we know to be false. It has been discovered since January 17, 1893, that the avarice of that coterile or clique, who would now assume despotic powers, for gold, was the real cause of the revolution. Now, for the sake of illustration, if the Queen's attempt to promulgate a constitution, which could not have been more tyrannical than the constitution which the present government is endeavoring to force down the throats of the people, occasioned a revolution, what will be the false of this oligarchal document? By virtue of the same logic its end should be synonymous.

This new constitution is indeed a most extraordinary document. There is no endeavor to reconcile the discontented. On the contrary they seemed determined to widen the gap of enmity. Under this new constitution the spirit of discontent will be so great that the people of these islands will be split into two factions more averse to one another than if they were two hostile nations.

LAWS of the HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

18. RESPECTING LANDLORDS.

Reflect well, all ye landlords of the kingdom, on all the regulations of this law, lest you be dispossessed, according to the principles of the eleventh section. Search for your wealth on your own labor days, search out such kinds of business as will enrich the country, and those tenants who live upon the lands under you, that the high and the low may be under the like subjection to the same laws enacted by the chiefs for the protection of the kingdom. On the second year after the promulgation of this law, which is the year on which a full poll tax is paid, those landlords who do not belong to the national council shall pay to the King one tenth part of all the avails of their labor days. On the year which pays but a half tax on the poll, the landlords shall pay to the King one fifth of their income, and this shall be a perpetual tax of the kingdom on the landlords, having an annual change in the proportion.

19. RESPECTING OFFICERS TO BE APPOINTED ANEW.

This explanatory section is for all those officers that are newly appointed to enforce these laws of the kingdom, and also for all those who are called officers. You are appointed as persons to assign labors in perfect accordance with the requirements of this law. If you see the chiefs, landlords, or any other people doing that which is forbidden in this law, you are to give them correct information of the crime they are committing—the crime of seizing those articles which are said to belong to the common people. You are to give notice of those acts which not being well understood, and liable to involve the actors in difficulty, that the idler is to be punished with hunger and poverty—that it is the duty of the people to labor for that property which is appropriate to the several farms all round the island—to superintend the numbering of the people, including children and feeble persons, also the deaths and births in each year—to search out a course by which those parents who have a multitude of children, may retain them without having them separated from each other, and by which an individual having the charge of several feeble persons may be able to support them—to consult with the landlords as to what kind of production is most appropriate to their several lands, according to the suggestions of this law—to reflect well on the means by which the amount of property may be increased each year above that of the preceding, that it may be ascertained also whether there really is an increase of property on the islands or not.

20. TABOOED ARTICLES ON THE MOUNTAINS.

Of all the things which grow spontaneously on the mountains, the landlord can taboo nothing for himself, except one kind of timber; this however does not apply to timber prepared by the hand of man; that is his. If any of the common people take the timber which the landlord had tabooed for himself, he shall pay one of every two sticks to the landlord, however many he may have taken. His Majesty the King taboos the sandal wood for himself. The visitors of the mountains shall not touch that timber, until such time as the King shall say, when all the people may cut it by paying two thirds to the King, reserving one third to themselves. He also taboos all large trees such as one man cannot clasp. That tree shall not be felled for nothing. It may be cut for canoes, paddles, and such great works as small timber will not answer for. The landlord or tax officer must be previously notified, but no other person. Whoever violates the taboo on those trees, and fells without reason a large tree, or breaks down the small shoots of sandal wood in the mountains, shall be fined one hundred rafters each five yards long. But if the man, be furnished with a whip-saw, they are the third class of persons who may cut large trees of the forest, but not sandal wood. But there is one thing that is taboo on all the mountains of the land, that is, to kindle fires and burn up all the verdure of the mountains. Whoever does this shall be punished according to the aggravation of the offence. If the crime be small the fine shall be less; if large then he shall be fined by being put to hard labor for two years and a half. Such is the punishment of all who kindle fires on the mountains.
