WASHINGTON OPINION REGARDING BECKLEY'S MISSION.

The Governor Acted Within His Authority—Home Rule Memorial Will Not Lead to His Removal.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—The San Francisco Call today publishes the following dispatch:

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Subordinate officials in Washington who are acquainted with the President's views regarding the legislative situation in Hawaii do not believe the President would be inclined to take notice of the proposed memorial from the Hawaiian Legislature...

The fact that friction exists between Governor Dole and the Legislature has been known for months, but the President, believing the Hawaiians should work out their own salvation...

THE GHOST WALKS AGAIN

LAWMAKERS HAVE A HAPPY MORNING.

Acting Governor Cooper Signs Bill Number One of the Extra Session Appropriating Expenses.

The ghost walked this morning in the throne-room and bungalow. Acting Governor Cooper went to notice that he had signed the act to appropriate $30,000 for the expenses of the extra session...

Mileage was allowed to those who went home and back during the interval between the sessions. Other members were paid only the $200 salary each but it is stated that they will all probably get the mileage later.

Clerk Meheula of the house had the warrants for the house salaries all made out, and chairman Makinal of the committee on accounts was ready to sign them. There was a happy caucus around them as they worked.

They go A-FISHING. F. Northrop and H. M. Dow leave this afternoon in the latter's yacht for Pearl Harbor on a fishing excursion.

MORE PILLIKIA AT OUTFALL

IGNORANT GALICIANS NEARLY CAUSE SERIOUS INJURY.

Had to be Knocked Into the Water Yesterday to Prevent Their Hurting a Fellow Laborer.

If the pillikia at the Outfall Sewer continues it will not be necessary for the Legislature to bother appropriating any money with which to complete the job for it will be impossible to get men to continue the work at that point.

The trouble yesterday was caused partially by the rough water and partially by several Galician laborers who were apparently so ignorant of the English language that they nearly caused one of their race to lose his life, or at least, to suffer severe injury.

There were two pontoons moored about 20 yards beyond the end of the pier and fastened to the pier by four lines. While the gang of men was floating on a section of pipe to its place between the pontoons, the waves snapped three of the ropes.

Meanwhile two other Galicians were ordered to pull on the line and draw the pontoons closer to the pier.

The foreman became furious at the pair and before they could be made to understand, it was necessary to knock both of them off the pier into the water. They fell about 12 feet into deep water but saved themselves by clinging to the piles.

The foreman decided that he did not care to risk his reputation with such men. Some body was apt to be injured he said and he did not propose to be held responsible for the mistakes of a pack of ignorant fellows so he ordered to work with such men.

WILDEST DAYS IN THE HISTORY OF WALL STREET.

Panic Ends and Both Sides Claim Victory in the Fight for the Northern Pacific.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Wall street emerged from its gloom this morning and with growing confidence in the day manifested something like buoyant elation.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The panic of the last few days, the wildest in the history of Wall street, leaves still unsettled the far reaching question of who controls the Northern Pacific.

President Mellen of the Northern Pacific said: "Hill and J. P. Morgan between them own a majority of the $155,000,000 of stock, common and preferred. They cannot lose control."

When a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan was told of Schiff's claim that Northern Pacific, like Union Pacific, was now controlled by the Kuhn-Loeb-Harriman party, he said, impressively: "Well, Mr. Schiff is incapable of falsehood, but I think he is mistaken, that is all."

As a matter of fact, there seems to be no reason for doubting that both interests have control so far as stock in the present is concerned.

"THE ANGLE LAMP" The Light that Never Fails

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the islands people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people) but besides being infinitely cheaper it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a revelation to every one who uses it, and simply demonstrates that the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.80 up.

BONDS UNDER OLD ACT

LOAN BILL OF '96 TO THE RESCUE.

Attorney General E. P. Dole Says That It is Good For $700,000 Worth of Bonds Yet.

No new loan bill can be passed at this extra session of the legislature says Attorney General E. P. Dole, in an opinion given to chairman Emmeluth of the House finance committee, but bonds to the amount of $700,000 may be issued under the old loan bill, which the attorney general declares is still in force, with that amount of its provision for bonds unused. The opinion opens a way for relieving much of the difficulty under which the legislature labors in the matter of appropriations, and makes it possible to continue many public improvements that would have been dropped.

The legislature of 1896 passed a loan bill for $2,000,000. The attorney general says: "In my opinion, the Legislature has no power to pass an original Loan Act at this session, but it has the powers of a regular session for the passage of appropriation bills. The problem, then, is resolved into a single question, can the Legislature, as a legitimate feature of an appropriation bill, in extra session called for appropriations, authorize the issuance of bonds under the provisions of the Loan Act passed in 1896?"

"Plainly, the Legislature of 1896 intended to provide public loans not exceeding, in the aggregate, two million dollars, for the industrial and other development of these islands through the issuance of bonds from time to time, upon approval, as necessity might require, pursuant to appropriations made or to be made by the Legislature of 1896 and by future Legislatures."

"Bonds of the Republic of Hawaii to the amount of about twelve hundred thousand dollars have been issued and sold under the Loan Act of 1896, with no other and further authorization than that contained in Act of 63 of the Session Laws of 1898, entitled 'An Act making special appropriations for the use of the Government during the two years which will end with the 31st day of December, A. D., 1899, setting forth the specific amounts of the aggregate loan.'"

Dole in his opinion calls attention to the fact that under the organic act it is necessary for the bonds to be approved by the President of the United States. Otherwise the procedure would be the same as in 1898, when the legislature passed appropriations under the '96 loan act. Regarding this action the attorney general says: "I think the bonds issued in pursuance thereof and based upon the Loan Act of 1896 were valid. If this is true, it seems to me that it logically and surely follows that a further issue of bonds, authorized by an Appropriation Act of 1896 and passed at the present session of the Legislature, will be equally valid with the bonds of 1898, when they are approved by the President of the United States."

ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE

COOPER, DOLE AND THURSTON ARE SUBPOENED.

Must Appear Next Tuesday and Show Cause Why They Should Not Testify Before Grand Jury.

Judge Humphreys yesterday afternoon issued ordinary orders to show cause in the cases of Acting Governor Cooper, Attorney-General Dole and L. A. Thurston. The citations require the three persons named to appear in court next Tuesday morning and to show cause why they should not testify before the Grand Jury.

A court bailiff was not sent out with these citations, but they were sent to the High Sheriff for service. They are really no more than an order or summons to appear, so that the blood that promised to flow in event of warrants, etc., went out of the flowing business quite suddenly.

In the citations Judge Humphreys repeats the report of the grand jury in which the reasons of the three gentlemen for refusing to testify are outlined, and then concludes with the following order, which is identical in all of the cases except as to the name of the parties:

"And thereupon the Court doth order that the clerk of this Court do forthwith issue a citation to the said E. P. Dole commanding him to appear before this Court on Tuesday, the 21st day of May, A. D., 1901, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, then and there to show cause if any he can why he should not be required to answer the interrogatories propounded to him by the said Grand Jury."

"It is further ordered and directed that the citation which the Court doth order to issue herein, be directed to the High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii, and that he, the said High Sheriff, be required and directed to return the same into this Court at the day and hour last aforesaid."

"It is further ordered that a duly attested copy of this minute be attached to said citation and served upon the said E. P. Dole."

BAND CONCERTS.

CITIZENSHIP.

Some interesting matters regarding citizenship have been treated of by recent decisions of the Treasury. It has been ruled long ago that a child born in the United States of alien parents who have never been naturalized is by the fact of birth a native-born citizen of the United States, and entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizenship. That is the broad statement and one that has general acceptance.

Maurice D. O'Connell, solicitor for the treasury has given his opinion that this principle will not apply where the parents of children born in the United States are aliens and are not entitled to return under our immigration laws. One of the principles of international and municipal law is that the domicile of a minor child follows that of the father until the child attains its majority. He quotes a letter of F. W. Seward, Acting Secretary of State, dated August 20, 1878. This letter said:

"The Constitution provides that all persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States. Congress has declared by law that the right of expatriation is inherent and inalienable to all citizens of the Republic. In Speck's case, while it is true that the boy, by virtue of his nativity, may claim citizenship of the United States, yet his father being an alien and continuing to remain a Swiss citizen and having removed the boy Joseph, while a minor, without the jurisdiction of the United States, his status, as well as his domicile, according to well-understood principles of international and municipal law, follows that of the father until the boy attains his majority. Should he, after reaching the age of 21 years, voluntarily return to the United States and make it his permanent home, asserting the right of citizenship in virtue of his nativity, his political status would then be determined according to the law and circumstances of the case."

Secretary Everts, in a letter dated Nov. 12, 1880, said: "A person born in the United States, has a right, though he has immediately been carried abroad by his parents, to elect the United States as a nationality when he arrives at full age."

This point must be of the greatest interest to many aliens resident here, and who after a time desire to return with their families born in the United States to the country of their nativity. In the case of minor Chinese children, they would not be allowed to return till after their majority and then only after having proved their birth here and made a declaration, electing the United States as a nationality. Other minor children, born in the Territory, as say those of German parents, would lose their right of American citizenship if taken abroad and could only recover it by electing to become American citizens when they arrived at full age. Thus a young German, born in the United States whose parents were not American citizens and who returned with them to Germany, would be liable to military service till he was twenty-one, when he could voluntarily elect his United States nationality.

Of course the citizenship question as far as this territory is concerned affects the Chinese chiefly. By the exclusion act numbers of Chinese are entirely shut out. The Star, the other day called attention to the necessity of accurate birth records. The time will come when these records will be of the very highest and vital interest. It is by no means easy to accurately prove a birth unless there is documentary evidence. The Chinese overcome this laxity in our system by obtaining certificates of Hawaiian birth prior to August 12, 1898. The issuance of these certificates is endorsed by Secretary Gage, in a letter addressed to Secretary Cooper, April 25, 1901. This is good enough for those born prior to August 12, 1898, but what records are there for those born after that date. The wisest thing that Chinese parents can do is to see that the birth of their children is registered at the Board of Health. No one will hunt them up to register, but there is nothing to prevent them from registering themselves.

Though it is chiefly Chinese who will find difficulty about their citizenship, other children of aliens may find unexpected difficulties. The matter of citizenship is of the greatest importance to residents in a country, especially those who have large property interests or who mingle in politics. It behooves every man to make himself as familiar as possible with the various rulings and the general status of the question. The broad statement that "a child born in the United States of alien parents is by fact of birth an American citizen and entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizenship," is all very well in its way, but it is subject to modifications as has been shown in the commencement of this article. The opinion of Solicitor O'Connell was asked about the status of two Italian children, and the ruling being given against them, though they had been born in the United States, they were returned to Italy.

WIRELESS SUCCESS.

With the constantly recurring reports of the success of wireless telegraphy along the coasts of Europe, it is extraordinary that greater success is not obtained here. That messages are sent and received is perfectly true, but there is something about the service which precludes it from coming into general use. The price is heavy and the time occupied in getting messages through to inland places is very much longer than it should be.

In Europe many steamers are equipped with an apparatus for wireless telegraphy and readily communicate with stations on the coasts. Not long ago one of the mail steamers came across a disabled steamer off the mouth of the Elbe. Her condition and position were telegraphed to the shore station, and a tug was promptly sent to the rescue. By this means considerable property was saved. A mail steamer can only take a crew and passengers off, she cannot stay by a disabled or sinking ship, and she cannot, by her contract, take her in tow. Upon this point was the main interest in one of Kipling's stories, "Bread upon the Waters."

This last mail has brought out another wireless telegraphy story which has been forwarded to the State Department by Consul-General Guenther of Frankfort. He says that the captain of a channel mail steamer, which is equipped with an apparatus for wireless telegraphy, reports that on his last trip a message was received from the French light-ship, which is anchored about 25 sea miles from Dunkirk, stating that the latter would be unable to light up the next night unless help arrived from shore. The captain at once sent a second wireless message to La Panne, on the Belgian coast, from which point it was forwarded to Dunkirk by the regular telegraph line. From this place, a boat was dispatched to the light-ship and the necessary repairs were made.

If our wireless telegraphy system were in thorough order, so that it would inspire perfect confidence, some of the more important island steamers might be fitted with apparatus and the ocean mail steamers might also make use of similar means of communication. What the trouble with the local line is, the public cannot judge. Expert Gray no doubt knows, but he simply waits and will not tell.

The present Legislature is the most costly that Hawaii has ever had. Seventy-five thousand dollars will make the laws that have been passed come at a rather high figure.

The statesman from the Fifth called down yesterday, and became once more chairman of the Finance Committee. There is much excuse to be made for the gentleman. It has been exceedingly hot for the past few days and the tempers of the most even minded have been tried.

A reader of its editorials informs The Star that the picture by Toby Rosenthal "The dead steered by the dumb," which was stolen from its frame, was recovered some few months afterwards. The canvas was discovered hidden in a mattress. The thief or thieves had been unable to dispose of it. The adventures of Rosenthal's picture were not quite so romantic as those of the celebrated Gainsborough.

The comet, according to Professor Lyons sets about four minutes later every night. Such being the case if it is quite possible that the celestial wanderer will show up more brilliantly during the next week. The trouble at present is that the comet shows up against a very light sky, and so its brightness is lost. The comet has appreciably changed its position since Tuesday. It has advanced considerably northward of Orion's belt.

The idea of removing the Hawaiian educational exhibit to Charleston, when it has fulfilled its function at Buffalo, may not be a bad one. But there should be a considerable addition. The Island products and manufactures should be shown. The commissioner for the exhibition is here, and the members of the Chamber of Commerce should see and talk with him. The advertising of the Territory on sensible lines is worth money, and the wrong impression created by the Hawaiian Village needs to be counteracted.

Consul Osborn of Samoa authoritatively denies the presence of "old" in Samoa. The story has been industriously circulated throughout the United States, and there has been talk of a company. Whoever bought shares would have himself possessed of a real gold-brick. There used to be talk of gold on this island, and somewhere in the fifties the population of Honolulu went on a prospecting tour in Koolau-poko. Some one had found a few quartz crystals, and the town at once had visions of incalculable wealth.

The investigation of the Hawaiian fisheries is a very necessary thing. No one has given more time and thought to our fisheries up to the present than Secretary Cooper. That our fisheries are not properly developed is patent to any one who gives the slightest attention to the matter. As things now are a considerable quantity of small fry is destroyed by the Chinese and Japanese fishermen, and they cannot legally be prevented from doing what they do.

Elder Cannon's estate shows how wealthy the Mormon leaders are. Not only was the Elder rich in this world's goods, but he was in the happy position of the man, who according to the scriptures need not be afraid to speak with his enemy at the gate, for he had no less than thirty-three children, the offspring of four wives. The wives and children are all amply provided for. This is a curious phase of our civilization. Of course it is now a thing of the past, but the death of such a man as Cannon, points out what has been. Cannon's position is the more interesting to us as he spent some time of his youth upon the Islands, and visited the Territory only a few months ago.

The Future of These Lots.

No one who realizes the rapidity with which this City is building toward the heights will doubt that property situated as this is, on an elevation with superior unobstructed marine view. Must advance rapidly in value. Look at the many beautiful homes in the neighborhood. Estimate their cost and realize that an opportunity of this kind will never again be repeated.

NOT HILARIOUS.

ABOUT OFFICER'S CLUB

GRAND JURY INVESTIGATES AN EMMELUTH CHARGE.

An Error of Steward at Beginning Was Corrected—Officer Outlines the Past and Present Practice.

The Grand Jury has taken up actively the charges of Representative Emmeluth that free drinks have been supplied members of the Legislature by that institution during the session. Mr. Emmeluth has already submitted his testimony, and a number of officers of the Guard and of the club as well as outsiders have made statements.

From the evidence submitted it appears that from a misunderstanding on the part of the Japanese steward there had been a slight departure from old rules. When this became known, however, it was promptly corrected.

The invitation to members of the Legislature, reporters and others are identical with those given to all United States army officers that pass through here for Manila. The form is as follows:

"At the request of the Board of Governors, the Officers' Club, National Guard of Hawaii, has the pleasure of extending the privileges of the club to Mr. Blank for the period of blank days. This is signed by the secretary and dated. Together with the invitation is a card of admission which is not transferable.

This invitation is identical with that given all army officers calling here as well as notables visiting the Islands."

It is a prominent National Guard officer. "It has never been the practice and was not the intention that any drinks should be served free of charge, nor that any single drinks should be served at all. Guests holding these invitations are expected to buy the bottle and keep it there for use from time to time. During the session the Japanese steward complained that some guests were not paying for their supplies. He was instructed to stop that forthwith, and I believe he did so.

"It is not covered by the card of liquor has been brought into the club. I am sure that would not go far in supplying a Legislature with free drinks.

"As for any intention of influencing members of the Legislature I can say that nothing could have been farther from the idea of the club when these invitations were extended. As a matter of fact a large number of the members of the club haven't given a rap about any of the bills thus far presented before the Legislature. Another thing is that politics are absolutely prohibited in the club. Not only are members enjoined from discussing political matters there but the same is expected of guests.

"The invitations sent out were the most innocent things in the world and were simply in line with an old practice. I suppose if we had not sent them some of the Legislators would have been making speeches condemning us for being selfish and not extending to them the privileges usually granted to prominent men."

DETECTS EAVESDROPPERS

Now comes Sweden, also a land of inventors, with an important contribution to the telephone in the shape of an ingenious device for detecting the telephone "eavesdropper." If the man who has had experience with these "listeners on the line" were consulted in regard to a device for abating this nuisance he would doubtless ask for an invention that would fill the "listener" with about 1,300 volts. A shock of this kind would not doubt act as a powerful deterrent upon those who are in the habit of listening to telephonic conversations between other parties.

The Swedish inventor, however, contemplates no violence of this kind. His device merely enables the user of a telephone to tell when a third party is listening to his conversation. Pressing a button connects the "listener detector" with the telephone. The intrusion of "central" is indicated by the illumination of a red Maltese cross behind the glass front of a metal box, which remains lighted up as long as "central" is on the wire. The intrusion of a third party is indicated by the illumination of a white cross. In this way the listener gets the double cross from the Swedish invention. If the conversation is of a confidential nature the user may refrain from talking until the illumination ceases to disappear.

It is easy to see that this Swedish device will fill a long-felt want and is certain to become very popular. The discreet housewife doesn't care to have all neighbors know what she is ordering for Sunday dinner, and if Mrs. Johnson desires to communicate with Mr. Smith her opinion of Mrs. Brown's new bonnet there is no reason why Mrs. Brown should "break in" and listen to it. It will also be a priceless boon to the strenuous young man who does his courtship by wire.—Chicago Record-Herald.

HER MOTHER'S GIRL.

A bright, handsome girl on the borderland between childhood and womanhood, is at once a source of pride and anxiety to her mother. Being intelligent and dutiful she is her mother's pride. But she has grown fast and is still growing. Nature makes stern demands upon the slender body. The skin is dull, the eyes lustreless, the cheeks and neck are sunken, the appetite is capricious, and the movements languid. The trouble is impurity and sluggishness of the blood. It needs the life-giving elements from which alone the body derives all its vigor and health.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION of the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry, has saved many such girls. It contains all the flesh-forming and strengthening qualities of the oil without its loathsome taste. The most sensitive and feeble can take it as they take syrup, and digest it perfectly. Taken before meals it creates an appetite, stops the emaciating process, puts flesh on the thin and bony body, and ruddy cheeks soon tell the story of pure blood, good digestion and recovered health. It is a scientific modern combination of the best of curatives made palatable as honey. Taken in time it prevents consumption; taken in time it cures. Dr. J. L. Carrick says: "I have had remarkable success with it in the treatment of Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Catarrh and Scrofulous Affections, and consider it a marvelous success in medicine." To give it a trial is to believe in it always thereafter. Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists here.

CERTIFICATES OF NATIVITY

RULING OF THE TREASURY ON THE SUBJECT.

Secretary of the Territory May Continue to Issue the Same—Collector of Customs Should O. K. Them.

In the current issue of "Treasury Decisions" of date May 2, is given the ruling of the Secretary of the Treasury on the inquiries of Secretary Cooper as to whether he should continue to issue certificates of nativity to Hawaiian born Chinese under the Hawaiian statute of 1884. The inquiry of Secretary Cooper has brought out a suggestion from the department which it is believed will be of the greatest service to those affected by the ruling. It is that where these certificates are to be used at continental ports they should be, in effect, O. K'd by the collector of customs at Honolulu. The ruling of the Treasury Department is as follows: Treasury Department, April 29 1901. Sir: By reference from the honorable the Secretary of the Interior, the department is in receipt of your letter of 2d instant propounding certain queries, in view of the fact that you have received no direct ruling from the Secretary of the Treasury" hereupon.

The points upon which you desire information are: 1. Whether it is proper for you to issue certificates of Hawaiian birth to children born of Chinese parents in the Hawaiian Islands prior to August 12, 1898. 2. Whether you shall continue to issue certificates to persons of the exempt classes in conformity to the provisions of section 9 of the act of July 5, 1884. With regard to the first point, there appears to be no objection to your continuing to issue the certificates mentioned to which it would seem that applicants are entitled. This seems to be conclusive from quotations contained in your letter, to-wit, that from article 17, section 1, of the Constitution of the Republic of Hawaii that "All persons born or naturalized in the Hawaiian Islands and subject to the jurisdiction of the Republic are citizens thereof."

And section 4 of the act approved April 30, 1900, which provides: "That all persons who were citizens of the Republic of Hawaii on August 12, 1898, are hereby declared to be citizens of the United States and citizens of the Territory of Hawaii." As a matter of administration it would seem to be wise, where such certificates are to be used by the holders thereof at continental ports of this country to establish their rights of landing, that such holders, prior to departure from the Territory, should, through the collector of customs, have an investigation and report made showing the truthfulness of the allegations upon which certificates were issued, and that the holders are the persons actually referred to therein. Such a report, accompanied by these certificates, should be prepared in duplicate, one copy to be mailed to the collector at the proposed port of entry and the other to be presented by the applicant upon his arrival at such port.

With respect to the second point, it seems unnecessary to do more than reiterate department letter addressed, on June 2, 1900, to Attorney H. C. Schaefer of San Francisco, in which the following language is used: "You are informed that the department will regard certificates conforming to the provisions of section 6 of the act approved July 5, 1884, relating to the exclusion of Chinese, when issued by the Secretary of the Territory of Hawaii as being sufficient to establish the right of Chinese persons of the exempt class to enter this country, provided the statements made in such certificates are not controverted. Similar precautions should be adopted, however, with regard to such certificates as are mentioned above respecting certificates of birth in order that the necessity which would otherwise arise of having these certificates returned to the collector at Honolulu for investigation, and the consequent delay may be obviated. Your further request for information as to what rights of citizenship can be claimed, respectively, by Chinese who are naturalized in accordance with the laws of Hawaii prior to August 12, 1898, and those who were born of Chinese parents prior to the same date if used by the holder in view of the above quotations from the constitution of the Republic of Hawaii; and the act of Congress approved April 30, 1900, does not appear to require an answer, since the reply thereto does not involve any question of the administration of the Chinese-exclusion laws that has not already been considered specifically herein. Respectfully,

L. J. GAGE, Secretary.

HON. HENRY E. COOPER, Secretary of the Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu.

TOO MANY BARGAIN SALES. The sultan is said to look with extreme disfavor upon the proposal to establish a "department" store in Constantinople. There are 300 wives in the sultan's harem, and it's no wonder he is nervous about the store project.—Philadelphia Times.

TO TEACH BOYS.

It remained for a Manchester man to make the most unique suggestion. He said that many boys grow up to manhood, especially in the cities, without knowing how to harness, or even drive a horse. It is his opinion that for a small sum a steed of sufficiently urbane disposition might be purchased and driven about from school to school, and the boys could practice on him—Manchester (N. H.) TO AID COFFEE GROWING

TREASURY DEPARTMENT ISSUES REPORT.

Deals With the Industry in Hawaii, Porto Rico, and the Philippines. Some Figures on Imports.

All the coffee consumed in the United States can be grown in the islands which have been acquired since the outbreak of the Spanish war. This is the conclusion reached by the Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury Department after a careful study of the coffee producing capabilities of our new insular possessions. The islands in which coffee can be successfully grown are Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines. Porto Rico coffee, in the markets where it is well known, is regarded as the best in the world, and it is the conclusion of the Bureau of Statistics that when the coffee plantations have been developed in the Philippines and Hawaii all of one million dollars or more which the United States sends abroad every week for coffee can be expended among the inhabitants of our own islands. Porto Rican coffee has long commanded the high prices in the European markets, though it has been comparatively little known in the United States.

The developments of coffee culture in Hawaii during the past few years have been very satisfactory both in quality of the coffee produced and the prices realized. In the Philippines the product is of a high grade, and the fact that the physical conditions and climate of the islands are very similar to those of Japan, the greatest coffee producing island of the world, suggests great possibilities to those who desire to see American money expended under the American flag. The fact that the United States is by far the greatest coffee-consuming country of the world, and is steadily increasing her consumption, suggests that American capital and energy may turn their attention to this promising field now opened in the islands where American enterprise can safely enter upon business undertakings.

Our coffee importations during the nine months ending with March, 1901, amounted to 617,344,000 pounds, with a value of $45,218,000, a sum nearly $5,000,000 in excess of the value of the coffee imports of the same months of the preceding fiscal year, indicating that for the full fiscal year the total value of the coffee imported into the United States will be about $60,000,000.

A VERY REMARKABLE REMEDY.
"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever.' Sold by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Company, general agents, Hawaiian Islands.
