THE IRON HAND.

The STAR welcomes the Advertiser to the stalwart side of Hawaiian politics. It is the side to win. Up to date there has been too much of what the New York politicians used to call "half-breedism" in the air—a sort of statesmanship which walks gingerly through the parts of speech, which looks upon a revolution as a sort of cake-walk and which would rather imperil all the gains of progress than to restrain even a conspirator's liberty or to hurt even a traitor's feelings.

After reciting the story of the royalist plots and intrigues, and their tolerance by the government, the Advertiser says:

Is it not time to ring down the curtain upon this farce? It may have been amusing, but the time has come when it ceases to amuse. We are no friend to unnecessary harshness, but the law must be upheld or else fall into contempt.

The deposed sovereign is a woman and is entitled to the chivalrous treatment due to the meanness of her sex, but the sentiment of chivalry must not be permitted to override common sense. No one who knows the Hawaiian can doubt for an instant that the ex-Queen is responsible, directly or indirectly, for all the attempts now making to break down the authority of the Government and to defeat its ends.

The plots and conspiracies, the embassies and manifestoes, the leagues and libel and lies of the royalist, are all at her door. One word from her would stop them all. She will not speak it, because she openly defies the Government, and because she is an avowed pretender to the vanished throne of Hawaii.

These are words of truth and soberness and they suggest a course of procedure and that the most moderate one which any other nation would take under similar circumstances. Plainly stated, every person known to be conspiring against the government, from the ex-Queen down, should be arrested and held to await examination or trial.

There should be no unnecessary delay in setting the machinery of the law at work and then, if the conspirators are found guilty, everyone of them should be banished and their estates confiscated. The moment the steamer passed around Diamond Head with the malcontents on board, there would not be a peep of protest against the Provisional power or the annexation movement from one end of the Hawaiian chain of islands to another.

The natives, no longer inflamed by royalist appeals and confused by royalist falsehoods, would then follow their natural instinct towards union with a great and friendly people and annexation could be won.

We do not think the government realizes what a depressing spectacle is shown by an hysterical nightly turn-out of the troops on royalist alarms, and by a busy secret service at work trying to ferret out what particular variety of egg the treasonable old harpy of Washington Place will lay next. They do these things better in France. A deposed monarch there, with all his entourage, does not linger long within the frontiers.

The soldiers do not have to lie awake nights from fear of what he will do. The detectives of the people find no birds in royalist nests to bother about. They are saved all trouble simply because their government chooses to fight its revolution out.

Why not have some Cromwellian backbone in dealing with intriguing royalty in Hawaii? What is to hinder? The world respects a nation that puts down its enemies with an iron hand, and recognizes its right to do so; but mankind has little regard for one which, from fear or mistaken amiability, lets a foe marshal its forces and reconquer its energies within the very walls of the government's citadel.

As to the payment of any salary or allowance to her, or to Kaiulani, as long as either maintains the attitude of a pretender, it is enough to say that the very idea is preposterous. It is an insult to the citizen, a misappropriation of public funds and a fraud upon the taxpayer.—Advertiser.

Why give the "Queen" or Kaiulani a cent under any circumstances? Neither has any more legal right to it than Benjamin Harrison and Levi P. Morton have to continue on the salary list of the United States. One of the things which caused the annexation treaty to be criticised in the American papers and withdrawn from the Senate was the legal provision made for discarded royal servants both of whom have received great pay and neither of whom had ever earned a dollar in their lives by any useful service to the people. It is time to end this talk of free government with a royal civil list. It is anomalous and disgusting, and no country compromised in that way could get into the American Union for love or money. Permit us to add that these are the frozen facts.

A JUST DEMAND.

The Portuguese of these islands are strong annexationists. They took part in the revolution and many of them are yet on military duty. In addition to this they are good citizens. Their first effort, after settling here, was to get homes of their own and to become responsible members of the body politic. Their children go to school, learn American history there, and are then taught habits of industry and thrift. Almost to a man the Portuguese want to see Hawaii in the Union.

These people are now asking to be recognized in the government and in Provisional politics. They want a chance at any vacant seat that may be made in the Advisory Council and they would like to have a representative of theirs put into the executive committee of the Annexation club. Who can deny that their claim is reasonable? Who can say that it is not in line with that theory of perfect union between all who are opposed to royalty which is necessary to maintain in this crisis.

Let the Portuguese in! They have earned the right to be represented.

HON. W. R. CASTLE has been doing good work in Hawaii for the Annexation cause. He has made several speeches and has found that about all that stands in the way of a native exodus from the royal camp, is the idea that union with America would mean loss of civil rights.

Like the STAR Mr. Castle believes in removing that impression as fast as possible.

SOUND HORSE SENSE.

A Great American Journal's Annexation Argument.

The following is copied from the New York Sun—at once the ablest and clearest-headed of American journals:

What is to be done with Hawaii? Mr. Cleveland has withdrawn from the Senate the treaty entered into by his predecessor for the annexation of the islands, but whether with a view to killing the project or merely to so modify it as to make it unquestionably an affair of his own Administration remains to be seen.

This country made no mistake when it annexed Louisiana. It made no mistake when it annexed Florida. It made no mistake when it annexed Texas. It made no mistake when it annexed California and New Mexico. It made no mistake when it annexed Alaska. It has never made a mistake in any of its annexations.

But it probably made a mistake when it did not annex St. Thomas. That looked like a small matter, and it was small compared with the great additions to our territory on the main land. Yet ever since St. Thomas was rejected, our government has been hunting for a Caribbean station. At one time it struggles to gain a foothold on Samana Bay; at another, it suffers mortifying repulses in its efforts to acquire Mole St. Nicholas; it has even studied the availability of Chiriqui Lagoon for its purposes, but we remain to this day without a naval and coaling station in the West Indies.

Hawaii is the strategic centre of the Pacific. It is at the cross roads of the great ocean, lying where the routes from the United States and British Columbia to Australia and New Zealand intersect with those from the Isthmus to China and Japan. Only a great blunder could fail to secure it now.

It is astonishing to hear annexation spoken of as if it were something to be shrunk from or ashamed of. What great nation has ever been anything else than an annexationist? Is it France, Italy, Russia, Germany, or England? Annexation has been the American policy since the foundation of the Union. Without it, this country would have been to-day a fringe of communities on the Atlantic seaboard, shut up between powerful neighbors. Its control of the continent is due to the policy of annexation, put into practical operation by Jefferson ninety years ago.

In those days, too, as many objections were trumped up against this policy as now. It was urged that the title of France to Louisiana was contingent; that an amendment of the Constitution would be needed to make the people of Louisiana citizens, as the treaty proposed; that the boundaries of the tract purchased were too indefinite. All this seems trivial enough now, in view of the great benefit sure to be gained; but such was the captious talk then, and even bribery was charged. In those days, too, there was the same conservative timidity that is manifest

now. "Objections," wrote Jefferson, when his purchase had been made, "are raising, to the eastward, against the vast extent of our boundaries." But he protested that the public feeling should be one of increased security rather than of anxiety, and that the acquired control of the Mississippi was of immeasurable value, "because I see in a light very important to our peace the exclusive rights to its navigation, and the admission of no nation into it, but, as into the Potomac or Delaware, with our consent and our police."

In Hawaii to-day we seek the assurance of peace and security, in holding an exclusive control of this ocean outpost, through the American plan of annexation. Can we halt and haggle about it? Any minor alteration of the compact, for better or worse, with a view to connecting its accomplishment more fully and definitely with the new administration, is not a matter of great concern. The only serious blunder would be that of putting in needless jeopardy the acquisition of the islands.

ST. ANDREW'S TROUBLES.

Rev. Alexander Mackintosh Says There is no Schism.

It appears that the word "schism" used in last night's STAR to describe the trouble between the First and Second Congregations of St. Andrew's Cathedral, has an ecclesiastical meaning apart from that given in the dictionary. The lexicographers analyze the word in this way:

1. In a general sense, division or separation; but appropriately, a division or separation in a church or denomination of Christians, occasioned by diversity of opinions; breach of unity among people of the same religious faith.

In scripture the word seems to denote a breach of charity, rather than a difference of doctrine.

2. Separation; division among tribes and classes of people.

As Bishop Willis said that the trouble was competitive and unfriendly, and that a spirit of antagonism had developed between people of the same household of faith, the word "schism" seemed to be the only one that would fit the case. In settling the meaning of a word the dictionary is the only guide to a newspaper, even if a hundred arbitrary definitions of such word have been wrought out.

This is by way of introduction to the following letter by Rev. Alexander Mackintosh:

EDITOR HAWAIIAN STAR.—In your preface to the letter of Alfred Willis, Bishop of Honolulu, you mis use the ecclesiastical term schism. Since it is probable that you sir, are not fully acquainted with the status of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral, I beg to inform you that that body is a distinct parochial organization working under the seal of the diocese of Honolulu, with the full approbation of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. The Second Congregation has only become self-governing and self-supporting just as any other parish becomes so, nominating or calling its own Rector or Minister.

Yours faithfully, ALEXANDER MACKINTOSH, Minister of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu, April 15, 1893.

HAWAII THE THEME.

Probable Excitement Over The Flag News in America.

If the Mariposa got to San Francisco on time and beat the Rush to San Diego, the current journals all over the United States have excited the people by the story of the hauling down of the flag. The coast and Chicago papers will be particularly full of the matter, their correspondents here having made the most of their opp. rt. unities. The Chronicle and Examiner will doubtless contain eight or ten thousand words each, amply illustrated, while the Chicago Tribune a most enterprising journal, has received, by telegraph from San Francisco no less than 19,000 words from its able correspondent Mr. C. E. Wetmore. Miss Kroust of the Inter-Ocean and Mr. Lee of the San Francisco Report, have also served their papers handsomely.

BY AUTHORITY.

Are we to be, or not to be, a part of the Great Republic, seems to be the burning question of the day, and one we had rather leave to wiser heads than ours to solve; and while great statesmen are wrestling with this momentous question, we want to have a little "poto-poto" with you on some other subjects, that concern you as well as ourselves.

Has it not occurred to you that you've been wearing that old hat long enough! In these progressive times if you intend to be "in it," you've got to keep pace with fashion. No matter how otherwise well dressed you may be, unless your hat is the correct thing you bear a shabby appearance.

We have already laid in a stock of the Latest Hats of the coming Spring and Summer styles, in hard felts, soft felts and straws, and including a line of the celebrated "Fidora" Hats, at present all the rage in the United States. There is therefore, no necessity for you to hang on any longer to that old Hat that bears such a strong resemblance to the hat "your father wore."

Believing that business will be better in the near future, we have not hesitated to keep our stock full in all lines. Take collars for instance: We have almost everything you could wish for. If you wear a standing collar, just come in and take a look at our "Narenta" or "Ardonia;" or if you prefer a turn down collar, try the "Winnipeg" or "Goswell;" we have have lots of others, and can't fail to suit you. Cuffs in abundance, links or otherwise.

Neckwear in profusion, scarfs windsors 4-in-hands, and a special lot of "Boys' Bows;" suspenders in great variety, leather and woven ends, good strong, serviceable goods.

We might go on indefinitely, but space is valuable, and to enumerate everything we carry would fill a pretty fair sized Book. If there is anything you want in the men's line, just drop in and see us, and if we can't suit you, we don't believe any one can.

If you should want a pair of nice shoes, let us try a hand at fitting you. Did it ever occur to you

CASTLE'S GOOD REPORT.

HE TELLS OF THE PROGRESS OF ANNEXATION WORK.

His Speech on the Island of Hawaii—The ex-Commissioner's Views About Thurston's Letter.

Hon. W. R. Castle returned this morning from Kohala in a very happy frame of mind after having canvassed that portion of Hawaii in a political way for several days.

"My first meeting was held in a small church building at Hauula," said Mr. Castle. "That meeting was arranged within a few hours and was attended by many natives of that vicinity, all of whom paid the closest attention to the discussions.

The natives need only such assurances as are given by the STAR, that they will be granted equal suffrage and protection from the royalist, when they will fall into line without reserve.

"The second meeting was held at the court house at Kohala. This meeting was advertised thoroughly which gave the royalists an opportunity for threatening the natives who as a rule remained away at the last moment, although many had told Mr. Castle they would attend.

"The majority of the audience being foreigners, many of them English, I abandoned the idea of speaking in native. This gave me occasion to discuss annexation as it is regarded in the United States and also from the Hawaiian Islands point, and I must say I was well received, despite the efforts of the fellow Kynnersley, the Englishman who in a drunken frenzy tore down the proclamation of the Provisional Government, to raise a counter feeling; but Kynnersley was full and no one paid attention.

"The annexationists in the several districts in Hawaii report greater progress than they had looked for, and are well pleased with the results. I telephoned to Hilo and was informed that the lists there were being rapidly filled and they requested that more badges be sent them by the first returning boat—a good indication I take it.

"In my opinion all that is needed is work, earnest honest argument. The cooperation of leading Hawaiians who hold the confidence of the natives is requisite for their assurances upon the one sticking point, equality of rights toward natives, will win all the better element without trouble."

In regard to the Thurston letters to Messrs. Kosa and Colburn, Mr. Castle said after expressing himself as very much amused at the attempt by the royalists to make capital of them.

"I read those letters in Washington, before they were signed. Mr. Thurston wrote three to prominent royalists in Hawaii; there were two of them. The letters were all of the same tenor and simply exhorted those addressed to fall into line and accept the inevitable—annexation. Mr. Thurston called me into his room, read the letters and signed sealed and addressed and posted them. He then called my attention to the fact of his having copies and added, 'if those fellows don't fall into line they should at least publish the letters and if they do not publish them in case they hold out against annexation I shall.'"

"Yes," said Mr. Castle, "I understand the royalists have placed a different construction on the letters, but the letters themselves would not bear distortion. If they have been tampered with, the fact can be easily proven and it will act as a boomerang to those responsible."

Indication of the straits in which the royalist are placed in Hawaii they have been forced to resort to accepting the signatures of school children in order to swell their list. The annexationists steadfastly refuse to permit the signature of any one under 20 years of age and while the royalist have been quite active as the annexationists they are for behind in numbers signed.

CAPITAL WAITING.

It Will Hurry This Way When Annexation Comes.

A gentleman who arrived on the Alameda and is looking about the city for investment says that when he left the coast all California was excited over the prospect of a Hawaiian boom.

"I went through the State considerably," said he, "and I heard Hawaii talked about on every hand. The Californian speculator and city builder has not been employed very much since 1887 and his eyes turn this way with anticipatory pleasure. I am sure that the minute annexation is assured the Honolulu-bound steamers will be loaded down with men of capital and push and that all the islands will find themselves rejuvenated in a business way.

MORE ROYALIST DEVILTRY.

A Sentinel, Stoned at His Post, Responds With a Shot.

Last evening, about 7:30 o'clock, while a sentinel of Company A named McClellan was on duty on the Waikiki side of the government building yard, he was constantly annoyed by some unknown person throwing missiles at him.

After he had been struck and bruised several times by large fragments of stone, coming from the direction of Queen street, he challenged his assailant and ordered him to move on. A native man's voice on Queen street replied, "You s— of a — of a haole, you no good; you see to-morrow, we fix you, and the threat was immediately followed by another volley of stones. At this point, McClellan became enraged and fired his rifle in the direction of the voice, after which he was troubled no further during his watch.

This morning Captain Juen investigated the matter. He found that the bullet had taken its course across Queen street, through the sash of a window of a native house, the back of a heavy chair, a pillow on the foot of a bed, a lot of clothing hanging on the wall, the partition of the room, and at last buried itself in a door casing beyond.

The natives were laboring under much excitement this morning when Captain Juen called, but quieted down when the cause of the shooting was explained to them.

IN FROM THE ISLANDS.

Quite a Fleet Arrives—The Passengers And Freight.

The steamers Kilaua Hou and Kinai of the Wilder line, and the Kala and Iwalani of the Inter-Island line arrived this morning. The Kilaua Hou from Ooaka and Paauhau brought 3,502 bags of sugar consigned to Irwin & Co.; the Kinai freight and passengers from Hilo and way ports.

The cargo of the Kinai consisted of 940 bags of sugar, 30 packages hides, 13 bags of corn, 21 hogs, 151 bags of spuds, 1 horse and 115 packages of sundries.

The steamer Kaala brought 1,550 bags of sugar from the Waialua plantation to Castle & Cooke, while the steamer Iwalani brought 4,457 bags of sugar from the Makaweli plantation to Irwin & Co., and 350 bags to J. T. Waterhouse.

The passengers of the incoming steamers noted were: by the Iwalani, from Kauai, cabin, E. M. Walsh, C. B. Hofgaard and wife, Mrs. J. A. Ward and E. H. Ensign and 5 deck passengers. Wight, Miss Lita Wilder and 42 deck passengers.

PROMINENT PEOPLE.

President Dole's Distinguished Callers To-day.

Commissioner Blount called at the Foreign Office this morning and spent half an hour with President Dole.

At ten o'clock Captain May of the Hyacinthe, accompanied by Major Wodehouse, British Minister Resident, called on President Dole and remained an hour.

The statement published in the Bulletin yesterday regarding an alleged visit of Capt. May to the Foreign Office, coupled with certain innuendoes and dark hints as to government conferences immediately following his visit, is false in every particular. Captain May did not call at the Foreign Office yesterday, as he was otherwise engaged aboard his vessel.

Will Go to Molokai.

Dr. Goto will leave by the steamer Mokoli early next week for the Leper settlement, where he will devote at least half of his time to the treatment of victims by the Japanese method. He will probably be accompanied by David Dayton, agent of the Board of Health. The doctor will probably spend fifteen days out of each month at Molokai.

The Flag on Punchbowl.

An American flag was raised over Punchbowl last night and could be seen this morning flying from a pole erected on the government survey station. It is not positively known who raised it, but it is believed that the same persons who put up the stars and stripes there a short time ago repeated their action last night.

Will Visit Her Daughter.

Mrs. L. A. Coney and servant left by the W. G. Hall yesterday for Kapapala, Kau, where Mrs. Coney will visit her daughter, Mrs. Monserrat, for several months. Mr. John Ena, Mrs. Coney's brother, together with many friends, among whom were Mrs. Renjes, a daughter, Mrs. Haaleka, her sister, and Miss Rose Davidson attended Mrs. Coney to the boat.

Rainfall Report.

The rainfall for March at prominent points is reported by Prof. Lyons as follows. On Hawaii: Hilo town, 15.08 inches; Laupahoehoe, 15.00, Kohala, 5.93, Kailua, 2.71, Volcano road, 24.90; on Maui: Haleakala ranch, 4.23, Olowalu, 0.49; on Molokai: 4.71, on Oahu: Panahou, 1.31, Nuuanu, 9.49; on Kauai: Lihue, 4.61, Hanalei, 15.66.

New School Houses.

The Board of Education are building a new school house at Hanamaulu, Kauai. The contract price of the building is $2,050, but the entire improvements will reach the sum of $2,500. The board will probably build a new school house at Kilauea, Kauai, where improvements have long been needed.

THE POISON ANALYSIS.

NO RESULT REACHED BY PROFESSOR LYONS.

He Cannot Distinguish Any Particular Bane Amidst the Food Examined.

Prof. Lyons, who analyzed the contents of the stomachs of some of the men who were poisoned at the barracks, has made the following report: HONOLULU, H. I., April 15, 1893.

HON. W. O. SMITH, Attorney-General.

Dear Sir:—In accordance with your instructions I have made investigations relating to the cause of the illness of men in the service of the government, with results, sufficiently meagre, but which may be of some service.

Two bottles were submitted to me containing matters vomited by some of the men, with request that I examine these for poisons. The nature of the symptoms clearly indicating the action of some powerful irritant. I have made tests for the principal irritant poisons, but have not discovered any of these. I have made also general tests for alkaloids, these constituting the most active vegetable poisons, the result again being negative.

There is present in the vomited matters certainly something of an irritating nature, which the stomach refused to retain. I have endeavored to isolate by means of solvents this irritating substance and have been able to concentrate it sufficiently to demonstrate its acid nature, but am unable to give a definite opinion as to its identity.

The postponement of symptoms so long after food was taken, and the nature of the symptoms themselves lead certainly to a suspicion that the poison has been generated in the stomach itself as a result of incipient putrefaction, or of abnormal fermentative changes.

The chemical nature of poisons generated in this manner—of which the number is possibly large—is as yet little understood, the compounds themselves being probably very unstable, and so easily altered in any attempt to isolate them. One which is generated in cheese, and sometimes in milk, has been identified, proving to be an exceedingly unstable body. This has not the reaction of an alkaloid, as some other poisonous products of putrefaction (ptomaines) have.

I received also some articles taken from the tables (condiments) and from the waste barrel, which I have examined somewhat in comparison with the vomited matters, but thus far only with negative results.

There are, of course, numerous poisonous substances, the chemistry of which has not yet been studied, and this circumstance must be borne in mind in forming any conclusion.

Respectfully submitted, A. B. LYONS.

THE VOTING FRANCHISE.

To be Made an Issue by a New Native League.

The rumors, which have been all at for several days regarding an organization of native Hawaiians formed to establish a republic in these islands, under American protection, have likely come from preliminary steps taken in another movement.

Lately there have been several informal meetings held for the purpose of considering the organization of what may be termed a native union league, favorable to the cause of annexation. It is understood that Hon. R. W. Wilcox is one of the prime movers in the matter and that the object is to secure annexation under more favorable terms than proposed in the withdrawn treaty.

The leaders state that their movement will bring to the annexation cause a large class of natives who would otherwise hold aloof; and in order to secure the support of these, representations have been already made to the Provisional Government that it is necessary for the natives to receive some assurance regarding the position of the authorities on the question of the voting franchise. The leaders of the new movement are awaiting an expression on the part of the government on this point preparatory to going on with their work.

THE NEW STAMPS.

They Will Not Be On Sale For Some Time Yet.

The new issue of re-printed government stamps will not be put on sale next week as stated; and the Postmaster-General says it will probably be some little time before the demand reaches the new issue.

The new issue will contain the words "Provisional Government, 1893." The letters will be printed in red and black according to the colors of the stamps. There will be fifty thousand sheets printed, containing two million and a half of stamps. The printing will be done by the Hawaiian Gazette Co.

NO FAIR EXHIBIT.

Hawaii Not to be Officially Represented at Chicago.

It appears that no official exhibit from Hawaii will be made at the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago. The $12,000 inserted in the general appropriation bill to defray the expenses of the band and providing for the distribution of literature descriptive of Hawaii and her resources, is held in abeyance and will probably not be used.

A private exhibit of curios will be made by L. A. Thurston in connection with his cyclorams, and by Peter Lee.

Cleghorn's Successor.

J. B. Castle has been appointed Collector-General of Customs, and Frank B. McStocker will advance from store-keeper to the position of deputy Collector. It is understood that Mr. Castle will introduce new business methods the department.

VARIETY
is the best of salesmen. He's always at our store, and that's why our sales of footwear touch so high a figure. We have shoes for all occasions, for all feet, and at all prices. Whether you need footwear for outdoor or indoor purposes, business or pleasure, it's all the same; you can possess your sole in peace and comfort, if you buy of us. It's a queer foot we can't fit and a queerer taste we can't suit. There are varieties of both feet and taste, but not the variety we can't match. There's something of everything in our stock, and although you don't want to buy everything, you want to see everything before buying.

The "Ship of State" having changed her course, the citizens of Hawaii are now sailing in smooth water, and on a course which is bound to lead to success. When we arrive at the port of Annexation the business of this community will be revolutionized. By this we mean that the methods of conducting business will be different. The business men of this community will be compelled to increase their energies in order to compete with new capital and fresh blood from abroad.

After considering this from all sides we have concluded not to wait until annexation is secured before changing our course. We intend to put the helm "hard-a-starboard" and let the breezes of competition fill our sails.

In order to do this we must begin by granting to all our customers who pay cash a discount of 10 per cent from the present retail prices on all merchandise which affords sufficient profit to enable us to do so. It is easy for the purchaser to comprehend what this will amount to on the purchases during the year. We are sure this will be appreciated by the public in general.

10 per cent. will be allowed on all purchases amounting to 50 cents or over. Remember the place to buy your medical supplies is at Island Potatoes have heretofore given but scant satisfaction to local consumers. This has been partly attributable to the fact that they were in the hands of growers of small means who desired to realize on their crops as quickly as possible, to obtain which potatoes have invariably been harvested in an unripe condition. The undersigned proposes to market none other than produce in full maturity. Our Potatoes are grown from the Best New Zealand Seed, and from lots now coming to market are pronounced to be superior to any imported article. Shipments are received by every week's steamer and will be sold at special rates to the trade.
