

BUSINESS NOTICES.

W. L. GREEN, GENERAL COMMISSION AGENT & BROKER. CHAS. N. SPENCER & CO., GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS. McCOLGAN & JOHNSON, MERCHANT TAILORS. LEWERS & DICKSON, Importers, Wholesalers and Retail Dealers. C. E. WILLIAMS, MANUFACTURER, IMPORTER & DEALER. W. BENNETT, BOOT AND SHOE MAKER. M. T. DONNELL, CABINET MAKER AND UPHOLSTERER. THEO. H. DAVIES, IMPORTER & COMMISSION MERCHANT. RYMAN BROTHERS, IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS. WALKER & ALLEN, SHIPPING & COMMISSION MERCHANTS. L. L. TORBERT, DEALER IN LUMBER AND EVERY KIND OF BUILDING MATERIAL. BOLLES & CO., SHIP CHANDLERS AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS. M. RAPLEE, SHIPPING AND COMMISSION AGENT. IRA RICHARDSON, IMPORTER & DEALER IN BOOTS, SHOES. EDWIN JONES, GROCER AND SHIP CHANDLER. CHUNG HOON, Commission Merchant and General Agent. F. A. SCHAEFER & CO., COMMISSION MERCHANTS. ED. HOFFSCHLAGER & CO., IMPORTERS & COMMISSION MERCHANTS. A. S. CLEGGHORN, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE. THEODORE C. HEUCK, IMPORTER & COMMISSION MERCHANT. H. HACKFELD & CO., GENERAL COMMISSION AGENTS. THE TOM MOORE TAVERN, BY J. O'NEILL. CHAUNCEY C. BENNETT, DEALER IN NEWSPAPERS, MAGAZINES. B. F. EHLERS & CO., DEALERS IN FINE GOODS AND GENERAL MERCHANDISE. ADAMS & WILDER, AUCTION & COMMISSION MERCHANTS. C. S. BARTOW, AUCTIONEER. JOHN H. PATTY, Notary Public and Commissioner of Deeds. H. A. WIDEMANN, NOTARY PUBLIC.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

C. BREWER & CO., SHIPPING AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS. M. S. GRINBAUM & CO., IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS. J. P. HUGHES, IMPORTER AND MANUFACTURER. F. H. & G. SEGELKEN, TIN, ZINC AND COPPER SMITHS. J. H. THOMPSON, GENERAL BLACKSMITH. R. RYCROFT, HOUSE AND SHIP PLUMBER. JOHN NOTT & CO., COPPER AND TIN SMITHS. JAMES L. LEWIS, COOPER AND GAUGER. MR. J. COSTA, JEWELER AND ENGRAVER. GEORGE WILLIAMS, LICENSED SHIPPING AGENT. G. W. NORTON & CO., COOPERS AND GAUGERS. PIANOS TUNED. VOLCANO HOUSE, CRATER OF KILAUEA, HAWAII. THOMAS SPENCER-PLANTATION. HILO, H. I. SUGAR & MOLASSES. HAWAIIAN LEATHER. KONA COFFEE. I HAVE ON HAND A SUPERIOR KONA COFFEE. NEW CROP OF SUGAR & MOLASSES.

FOREIGN NOTICES.

SEVERANCE, CLARK & CO., COMMISSION MERCHANTS AND SHIPPING AGENTS. M'CRACKEN, MERRILL & CO., FORWARDING AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS. E. M. VAN REED, COMMISSION MERCHANT, Kanagawa, Japan. W. H. WILSON, S. F. BLANCHARD & CO., SHIPPING & COMMISSION MERCHANTS. LANGLEY, CROWELL & CO., WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS. SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS. THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING BEEN APPOINTED AGENTS FOR THE SAN FRANCISCO BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS. MERCHANTS' MUTUAL MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY. HAMBURG-BREMEN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. THE AGENT FOR THE BRITISH FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. SUGAR & MOLASSES. HAWAIIAN LEATHER. KONA COFFEE. I HAVE ON HAND A SUPERIOR KONA COFFEE. NEW CROP OF SUGAR & MOLASSES.

Germany since the War of 1866.

When Mr. von Bismarck first thought of carrying his plans into execution, he had to encounter many difficulties, amounting almost to impossibilities. To maintain his authority and keep his position, he had to depend for support upon the federal party and on the King, who wanted to achieve his long cherished idea of re-organizing the army. On the other hand, he had to ingratiate himself with the Parliament, which would not countenance in any way the King's designs. The greatest obstacle was Austria. Having now got over her debut in Italy, and co-operating to introduce in her Government the representative element of constitutional rights, she was sustained by the conservative party, and had just succeeded in severing the Electorate of Hesse and Hanover from Prussian influence. Austria was then, in fact, at the head of the whole German Confederation, and Mr. von Bismarck was aware that, before attacking such a formidable antagonist, it was absolutely necessary to have a powerful army, a sure and reliable ally, and the neutrality, if not the co-operation, of the great Powers. He did not forget that Mr. von Radowitz had failed in 1850, by neglecting to unite all these elements of success, and he endeavored, while avoiding the same causes of failure, to carefully prepare the events that were to make his name forever illustrious in German history. The reorganization of the army was entirely left to the King, who was certainly to be trusted with that part of the programme. The ally was evidently to be Italy, and perhaps Hungary. The latter well understood that as long as Austria maintained her supremacy in Germany, she would grant no freedom to the vassal provinces forming her Empire. These views are embodied in a work published before the war by Mr. le Baron Fettes, the most celebrated Hungarian writer of the 19th century. But would it be possible to make King William an ally of King Victor Emmanuel against Austria, when, in 1859, he had been on the very point of being Austria's ally against Italy? There was a still greater difficulty. What would be the attitude of the foreign Governments when they should see the old Diet destroyed and replaced by a more compact federal bond? In 1848, the French Republic refused to receive the envoy from the United Parliament of Frankfurt, and in 1850 and 1851, France, and more particularly Russia, were energetically opposed to all attempts on the part of either Prussia or Austria, to concentrate the German forces under one control. Was it to be expected that they would now exhibit more sympathy for a project which they had always combated? The only nation whose opposition was not in this way England; and it was precisely England whose wrath and passions might easily be roused, because, in order to gain in Germany that degree of popularity indispensable to the execution of her plans, Prussia was led to take by force Schleswig from the King of Denmark, to whom England had promised protection. It is curious to observe how wonderfully Mr. von Bismarck managed to guide his ship in the midst of that stormy sea, full of breakers, the least of which seemed to imperil her safety. Many points of comparison can easily be drawn between his genius and that of Frederic II. In both can be noticed the same readiness in throwing aside all perplexing respect for treaties or recent declarations; the same ability of adapting revolutionary ideas to the wants of the monarchical cause; the same clear foresight, sound appreciation of present circumstances, and prompt and violent execution of measures resolved upon; and the same spirit of determination that does not wait for obstacles to accumulate, but runs them down as soon as they appear by the crushing effect of a first attack. The main point to be attained was that France should not be opposed to Prussian supremacy and German Unity. Mr. von Bismarck left St. Petersburg to persuade King William to come to an open understanding with Napoleon III., and to do for Germany what Victor Emmanuel had done for Italy. The Bepnet was not yet ready to adopt this policy, and still humbly believed in "moral conquests." He therefore repelled the tempter who offered him the Crown of Germany, and he even took the trouble, in order to reassure the Princes of the minor States of Germany, to declare that he would not have any private interview with the Emperor of the French, but would only see him in the presence of the other Sovereigns. Strange distrust; it seems as though two Potentates can not meet without plotting between themselves the ruin and destruction of their colleagues and brothers! Mr. von Bismarck, during his mission at St. Petersburg and Paris, had already endeavored to secure the good will of the two Governments. When he was appointed Prime Minister of Prussia, he and Napoleon III. met at Biarritz, and came to a perfect understanding. He missed the opportunity that his Sovereign had allowed

Japan News.

We clip the following items of interest, from the mail issue of the Japan Gazette, showing the still unsettled condition of the country. A gross outrage on the person of H. E. Von Brandt, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, which threatened to put a stop to all intercourse between the foreign representatives and the great men sent by the Mikado, had been committed by two leading Yakuza of the escort of the Minister of Foreign Affairs. The war was being carried on with vigor by the opposing factions. The misfortune seems to be that on neither side is there complete union. Fighting goes on every day with varying success, but the advantage is on one side and then on the other. The Shogun and a few of his dependent Daimios decline to interfere in the contest. The authorities had earnestly requested the representatives of the United States and of the Netherlands to postpone their intended visit to Yedo, as large bodies of Southern troops were behaving in a disorderly manner. As H. E. M. von Brandt, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires was returning home about half past five o'clock yesterday afternoon in his carriage, from the Saitama Station, he was attacked by a party of Yakuza, who, with the exception of the two leading Yakuza of the escort at the station, were all unknown to him. He was severely injured, and violently pulled down the ground who was sitting in the back seat. We learn that M. von Brandt, in the most unexpected manner, has been arrested. The arrest occurred on the 24th inst. at the residence of the Governor of Kanagawa, and that he has been detained in the most complete isolation. The incident offered to H. E. the Prussian Charge d'Affaires has assumed a very unpleasant aspect. A meeting was to have taken place between the foreign ministers and the governor, but after this incident, it was decided that the meeting should not proceed until the assault had been made to M. von Brandt. The governor refused to give an apology or satisfaction of any kind. The meeting therefore cannot take place. Yesterday afternoon, as we were informed, the Governor went up to the residence of Sir Harry Parkes to confer with him, but the British Minister refused to receive him. This must lead to an uncomfortable state of things, as the pride of the Japanese must either yield to compulsion, or he must be removed from his post in such an improper manner, it converts one who was intended as a friend and protector of foreigners into the ranks of their haters. He has now but himself to thank for his present confinement. In his manner has never been such as to favour the idea that he was our friend, and almost every act has been rather showing a contempt for the feelings of those who were approaching to conciliation and kindness.—J. G. 28th August. The Japanese Authorities have given full satisfaction to M. von Brandt, as appears by the following notice, posted in Japanese, in the Native Town: With regard to the improper behavior which was the cause of the arrest of the Prussian Minister by pulling down his carriage on the 24th inst., I have expressed my deep regret to the Minister. Let everyone keep well in mind, that henceforward nobody, whoever he may be, shall conduct himself in such an improper manner towards a Minister or a Foreigner. The above decree of Higashi Kuxen no Chijojo is to have a residence at Yedo, and the name of that city is to be changed to Higashi-no-Kioto. All the Japanese newspapers published in Yedo are to be suppressed by the Mikado's government. The troops are behaving in so disorderly a manner as to cause great anxiety to the government itself. On the 29th ulto, the Representative of the Netherlands applied to the Saitama Station to cartage his baggage to Yedo. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa, who was so earnestly requested to forego his visit that he was compelled to do so. Yedo is to be opened, according to present intentions, on the first of October, and it is to be opened in such a manner as to be able to accommodate the troops of the Government. The Governor of Kanagawa most earnestly requested him to postpone his visit for some days, as the city was in a very disturbed state on account of the arrival of the Southern troops belonging to the South who were to march to Saitama. It appears that these troops are behaving in a disorderly manner, as to cause great anxiety to the Government itself. On the first of Sept. also, H. E. General Van Valkenburg, R. P. M.'s Charge d'Affaires, intended to go to Yedo with the Count de Sadowa,

