

With the exception of a mild epidemic of mumps at Rota, health conditions in the northern Marianas and Bonin Islands have been very good. Recommendations of medical officers in field trip reports will be carried out as practicable.