THE TITANIC INVESTIGATION REPORTS

CAPTAIN OF THE CALIFORNIAN IS CENSURED FOR NEGLIGENCE

Big Fight Rages On Copeland

Controversy arose at the commission meeting this afternoon over the reappointment of C. E. Copeland as supervising principal for the district of Waialua.

Superintendent Pope and Mrs. Mary Wilcox objected to his reappointment on the grounds that Copeland was insubordinate.

Mr. Pope further averred that Mr. Copeland had written to the governor complaining about him (Pope).

Judge Stanley declined to take cognizance of the letters on the ground that they had been read at the meeting at which Mr. Copeland was first appointed.

Commissioner Aiken and Judge

Stanley were as firm in their defense of the insurgent principal as his accusers were vigorous in their attack.

Judge Stanley charged that the whole meeting of the supervising principals was abortive and that it was unfortunate that politics should have crept in, and he further declared that Messrs. Pope, Wood and Gibson had not had any right to attend the supervisor's meeting, and that the meeting was not satisfactory to the commissioners.

At the time of going to press, Judge Stanley was delivering a denunciation of methods employed by the supervisors and Mr. Copeland's appointment.

Native High Chief Dead

High Chief A. K. Palekaluhi, the son of the high chiefess Liliha, a lineal descendant of Kamehameha-nui king of Maui, died this morning at his residence at Kailhi.

Deceased was 81 years of age. The funeral will take place Friday morning from the undertaking parlors of H. H. Williams, under Catholic church auspices.

Palekaluhi used to carry a watch that had been presented to him by some notable person, which had his initials and the rest of the letters of his name enameled on the dial to mark the hours, the number of the letters being twelve, instead of the usual Roman numerals. In his prime he was influential in local politics.

A SAULT WAS MAJOR CHARGE

In the police court this morning Anami and Nakabara, charged with cruelty to a horse by cutting it on the leg with a pocket knife, were discharged.

Akana Espinda, charged with malicious injury, was discharged.

Harry Charman, alleged to have gambled, was found guilty and sentence was suspended for a term of thirteen months.

Uweda, gambling, forfeited bail of $10.

Pak Moon, Char Kun and Pak John, gambling, were fined $5 and costs.

J. Alapai was fined $100 and costs for selling liquor without a license.

John Townsley and Jack No. 1, charged with affray, were fined $5 and costs each.

Waha, charged with assault and battery, was fined $15 and costs.

Naholowaihaulani, also charged with assault and battery, was discharged.

J. H. Haole, assault and battery, was fined $10 and costs.

J. Alohioka, assault and battery, had to pay $15 and costs for his diversion.

Bi-Partisan Combination

The following bi-partisan ticket for the municipal legislative body has been handed to the Star, its author declining to present names for the various department heads:

Mayor—J. J. Fern.

Supervisors—Wm. H. McClellan, J. C. Quinn, H. H. Plemmer, D. Logan, Jno. Markham, R. W. Aylett, C. N. Arnold.

It may be stated that the proposer is a Democrat, who considers that the mayor and three supervisors for his side and four supervisors for the other side would be a fair deal. He also pointed out to a Star reporter that his ticket contains four supervisors of experience and two new ones—Markham and Plemmer—who would be likely to find general acceptance.

PROMOTION MAP MAKES BIG HIT.

From Miss E. Blodgett, a teacher in Public School No. 62, Hester & Essex Streets, New York City, comes the following acknowledgment to the Promotion Committee:

"I received the map 'Crossroads of the Pacific,' and also folders, for which please accept my thanks. If you could see the delight of my geography class—studying trade in the United States—at seeing this fine chart you would be repaid for your trouble. I hope I may visit your interesting city some day."

Japanese Spoil Fine Park Grove

Probably one-fourth of the handsome algaroba grove in Punchbowl crater has been destroyed by a Japanese gang during the past few days, and carted away for firewood. This is the information which was brought to the U. S. Army Division headquarters this morning by a gentleman whose attention had been called to the matter. A military detail was at once sent out to investigate, and District Attorney Breckons was communicated with to ascertain the legal status of the trespass.

Punchbowl is held by the federal government as a military reservation. A number of attempts have been made in the past by the promotion committee and others to have the weeds and brush cleared out of the crater, with the idea of converting the big bowl into a handsome park, but military red tape has thus far prevented this being done. A considerable portion of the interior of the big bowl was well covered with a fine growth of algaroba and comparatively little work would have been needed to make the place one of the beauty spots of the city.

FINAL FIGURES ON BISHOP STREET EXTENSION SCHEME

Attempts to compromise with the property holders whose holdings are involved in the proposed extension of Bishop street have failed and Deputy Attorney General Smith has announced that the only thing left to do will be to appoint a board of commissioners to decide the value of the fourteen claims involved.

Condemnation proceedings will then follow. On May 24, fourteen letters were sent out from the attorney general's office signed by Marston Campbell, superintendent of public works, to the various claimants, but according to Deputy Attorney General Smith none of the property holders whose claims involve large amounts have consented to the compromise offered by the territory.

In some instances, the assessed value of the property is doubled while in others the original figures are not altered.

Each letter contains a detailed statement of the value of the property needed by the Territory in the extension work, including damages to the property holder involved. The figures quoted by the government as fair estimates are as follows:

- James Steiner $1223.
- John Buckley, c/o Holmes, Stanley & Olson, $60,000.
- Mystic Lodge, K. P., $18,000.
- Mrs. Margaret F. Morgan, $15,000.
- First National Bank, $890.62.
- William Wolters, $3562.50.
- Pacific Club, $1 for damages to property.
- Charles Brewer Estate, $8500.
- Simpson Decker, $6122. Territory values claim for betterment.
- Mrs. E. J. Monsarrat, $1500 for life interest.
- Mrs. Mary B. Waller, $1768.
- Sisters of the Sacred Hearts, $1. for damages.
- Mrs. Nettie P. Fisher, $2118.
- Roman Catholic Mission, $1 for damages.

WILL HOLD CLEAN-UP WEEK BE THERE FUNDS OR NO FUNDS

"We're going to have a clean-up week this year, whether there's any money forthcoming to haul the debris away or not. We'll get the dirt out of the back yards and hidden places and put it out on the streets where the board of health or the city authorities will have to take it away."

This statement was given this morning by a member of the Central Improvement Committee in answer to a report that the proposed municipal clean-up would be called off on account of the fact that the chamber of commerce and the board of health are both sidestepping the matter of digging up funds for handling the tons of refuse which will have to be disposed of.

"Arrested for putting the trash in the streets" the improvement man repeated the query in substance. "That will be great, for we'll have about everybody in the city in the same boat. One thing is sure, they won't be able to put us in jail, for the lockups in the islands wouldn't be big enough."

"No, we're going to have this clean-up, and, if there is trouble about transportation, it will be one of the best object lessons we can have of the need of a free garbage collection system. There isn't going to be any calling off. The committee has determined definitely upon that, and work of arranging details for the big plan is being pushed as hard as possible. Another thing, we are not going to put ourselves in the position of beggars, and if the business community or the board of health can't make provision to cooperate, they will have the chance of solving the problem of cleaning the streets afterward."

BEER LEADING SUGAR TODAY

The market continues firm and practically unchanged since yesterday. Sales are almost nil, however, 49 shares of Brewery stock making up the sum total of this morning's transactions on the exchange. This stock, by the way, is holding apparently firm at 20 3/4 after its slump from 21 1/2 yesterday.

Between boards H. C. & S. shares sold at 45 flat, an advance from 45 7/8, and 16 continues to be the asking price.

No other sales of consequence were reported, nor other change in quotation made.

(Associated Press Cables to the Star.)

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The Titanic investigation committee reports that the compartments of the ill-fated steamer were not tight. The Californian at the time was less than nineteen miles away and saw the Titanic's signals, which she ignored in violation of humanity, nautical usage and law. Censure has been passed upon her for withholding information and the report urges laws to fit. Senator Smith, chairman of the investigating committee, reviews the whole case and censures Captain Lord of the Californian.

NEWS REPORTS MAKE EXCITEMENT

The Mahuka site case suddenly became interesting this morning, chiefly on account of the visible excitement of the expert witness, James W. Pratt, and the attorneys for the various respondents. The cause of their excitement was the stories concerning the previous day's session as published in the Star and the Advertiser.

Witness Pratt was so excited that he couldn't testify sitting down; he had to stand up in order to get more room for action. Mr. Pratt explained at great length that though he had said what the papers said he said, yet he didn't mean it. In other words, he had been sadly misunderstood. It was true that he had made the statement that he had tried to find where the Hawaiian Trust Company had any claim against the government and had failed, but he didn't mean it just that way and didn't think the papers should have said he did. What he really did mean was that whatever claim the Hawaiian Trust possessed had no marketable value; it couldn't be sold.

"You mean, then," said Breckons, "that the only one they could get any money from was the United States?"

Mr. Pratt became more embarrassed and explanatory than ever, but when he got through the only inference to be made was that the Hawaiian Trust Company had no claim that it could hope to sell to anybody but the Government.

The various attorneys for the various respondents also paid their compliments to the newspapers. In fact, it was newspaper day in the court.

BUILD UP THE CIGAR TRADE IN HAWAII

Ten thousand clear Hawaiian cigars, made from the best grades of Kona grown tobacco, are expected to arrive by the Siberia on Friday from New York. They are coming consigned to Jared G. Smith, the pioneer tobacco grower, who ordered the goods made up by a prominent firm in New York during his visit there recently. The cigars will be placed on sale in the local retail trade.

"I think we shall be able to build up quite a business with the Hawaiian cigars right at home," said Mr. Smith in talking about the matter this morning. "It is like any other new thing—the trade has to be built up—and I believe we cannot do better than give our own people a chance to help us advertise. I want to keep a supply on hand here constantly hereafter, and I contemplate a factory for making the cigars locally."

The fact that the Hawaiian tobacco taken to New York, both by Mr. Smith and by the Kona Tobacco Company, has not met with ready sale, is explained by Mr. Smith on the ground that the Hawaiian supply is too small at the present time to attract much attention, and from the fact that it is absolutely unknown.

"There are plenty of manufacturers," said he, "who spoke very highly of the leaf, and who would be glad to make use of the tobacco—if we cared to make them a present of it. They recognize its merit all right, but don't care to pay what it is worth, because it is unknown and would have to be advertised in order to get it started."

It is this feature of advertising that Mr. Smith is confident Hawaiian tobacco needs more than anything else. He believes that putting the cigars on the local market is one of the best means toward this end. Especially should this be effective, he thinks, with the large and increasing army population, which, if it can be educated into using Hawaiian cigars, will do much toward creating a demand on the mainland, just as the army has done more to introduce Manila cigars throughout the United States than any other thing.

AUTOMOBILES WITHOUT TAX RECEIPT TAGS MAY BE SEIZED

This automobile has been seized for taxes.

If you should find one of these days that your automobile is decorated with one of these signs, that the wheels have been chained together and that a stern faced deputy is seated in the car, you will know what to do, for it is a hint from the tax office that you have not paid your auto tax.

For the automobile tax is overdue and the signs are part of a device by which the Treasurer intends to collect automobile taxes from one hundred and fifty automobile owners of the city who have not as yet paid their one cent a pound due the territory.

Several hundred of them are being printed this week by order of Territorial Treasurer Conkling and a general distribution will take place some time next week or perhaps sooner.

In former years, according to Mr. Conkling, it has been next to impossible to collect this automobile tax owing to the fact that the tax office had nothing to go by except the owner's word and many of them disclaimed ownership of their machines, when it came time to pay the tax.

But this year tags have been issued by the treasurer's department. These tags are issued to owners who have paid their automobile tax and are then attached on a conspicuous part of the car.

All automobiles that do not bear these tags are liable to seizure at any time, no matter who is driving at the time, or irrelatively to their ownership, as Tax Assessor Wilder gave preliminary warning of, through the Star, a week ago.

Police and deputies have orders to seize any automobile not bearing tags. The owner will then be notified and the automobile will be held for ten days, after which it will be sold for charges.

The owner can redeem the machine by paying a penalty of ten dollars plus the regular tax, but, if after ten days the tax is not paid, the car is advertised for sale and the machine is then sold at auction.

Then if there is any portion of the purchase price left after deducting the tax cost of advertising and the necessary papers involved in the sale, it is returned to the original owner of the automobile.

BRIDGES ARE SHORT LIVED.

Old Brooklyn Suspension Said to Be Undergoing Deterioration.

San Francisco Chronicle: In view of the announced intention to build a bridge between this city and Oakland, the deterioration in the Brooklyn bridge, which has resulted in a restriction of traffic, is worth considering. At the time the Brooklyn bridge was erected it was regarded as an indestructible work, or that its probable life would at least be several centuries. It has been in use less than thirty years, yet the time is not far distant when a $9,000,000 investment will have to be written off.

John A. Roebbing began the erection of the Brooklyn bridge in 1872 and his son, Washington A., completed it in 1883. For many years there was no other means of intercommunication between the two principal boroughs of New York, except by ferry, with the result that the congestion of the Manhattan terminal became a positive menace to human life. About the time the erection of the Williamsburg bridge was started 100,000 persons crossed the structure every business day between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock in the evening.

No one doubted the strength or life of the Brooklyn bridge until, during the rush hour several years ago, twelve suspenders buckled, and Greater New York was panic-stricken over the awful prospect of what might have occurred had more of the vertical cables given way.

Although the cables had been regarded as fully protected, examination disclosed that electricity and salt moisture had affected the strands. Auxiliary cables were placed above the existing ones and the structure was strengthened in other ways, and the incident was gradually forgotten by the public but not by the officials who were impressed with the duty of supervising the bridge.

Now the Public Service Board has announced that the bridge has deteriorated and will not long bear the strain of existing traffic, which has been restricted in order to prolong the useful life of the structure. No heavy teams will be permitted on the bridge hereafter, this traffic being diverted to the more inaccessible Williamsburg bridge, while the number of electrically propelled vehicles will be limited during rush hours, when the greatest fears are felt for the safety of the structure.

The old Brooklyn bridge has paid for itself many times over, but in building a suspension bridge between this city and Oakland it will be well to estimate the probable life of the structure, based on the experience of New York, and then distribute the investment over this period as depreciation. Whether the probable bridge traffic between the two cities would return such a charge is a question for traffic and engineering experts to work out.

THE DARK MAN OF THE SPECIES

LAS VEGAS, May 28.—Johnson, the negro pugilist, yesterday began his formal training for his fight here July 4.

In pugilistic circles quite a change has taken place; We mourn the sad decadence of the whole Caucasian race. The white man isn't in it any more, the fact we must bewail; For the dark man of the species is more deadly than the pale.

Now there is Mistah Johnson, holds the title in his grip; He hasn't fought a battle since he won the championship. He finds it easy picking, as he gathers in the kale, For the dark man of the species is more deadly than the pale.

Where are the mighty champions who used to rule the earth? Of pugilistic timber there appears to be a dearth. No white man is available, the colored man to whale; For the dark man of the species is more deadly than the pale.

If ever Mistah Johnson should tie up with Mistah Flynn And things are on the level, play the colored man to win; A thousand to a hundred are the odds that should prevail — For the dark man of the species is more deadly than the pale.

LATEST NEWS OF INTEREST FROM TRAINING QUARTERS

Everything is right with the boxers engaged in the festive carnival to be pulled off at the Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon.

Word was received from Schofield Barracks this morning that both Moriarty and Bauersock are in fine shape and will be in town the first thing on Saturday morning, together with a large contingent of Lilehua fight fans.

Ben de Mello boxed at Camp Very yesterday afternoon, his sparring partners being Corporal Trier, Conductor Williams and Tommy Lane. Ben went well and, if anything, is in better trim than when he boxed Gilmore.

After his work yesterday afternoon the Portuguese weighed 143 pounds, stripped. The Hilo Lion will box at Camp Very this afternoon with Denny Leary, the Fort de Russy scrapper, and Young Layman, a shifty bantam from the same post.

Young Caples and Johnny McCarthy boxed six rounds at the Orpheum at 5:30 and the former pleased his friends mightily by the showing he made with his old opponent. He will work-out with the same partner at the same time and place today. At 7:30 George Ingle and "Ping" Milne went at it for rounds and then the San Francisco boy skipped the rope for four or five rounds. He is coming along fast and is confident that he can make it three straight when he faces the Portuguese wonder on Saturday afternoon.

Yamagata Boxes. Yamagata, the Japanese who is billed to make his local debut on Saturday, boxed four rounds in private this morning with a well-known local amateur who is one of the best judges of the game in Honolulu. This individual went on record as stating that Yamagata is everything that he has been heralded as being and that he is a mighty tough man for anyone of his weight to tackle.

BEN DE MELLO INVESTS PROFITS IN HACK HORSES

Ben de Mello, who is matched to box fifteen rounds with George Ingle at the Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon, is a thrifty soul.

With the proceeds accrued to him from his bout with George "Slim" Gilmore, "Uncle Ben" purchased a new hack-horse.

The animal for a time was the envy of every jehu in Umbrellaville, and Ben was in the seventh or eighth heaven of content.

Offers were made him to come to Honolulu has boxed someone or other but Ben politely replied that he was sorry to refuse the chance for a bout with the gloves but the truth of the matter was that his new steed was stepping around so lively and the hack business was so good in Hilo owing to the phenomenal humidity that it wouldn't pay him to abandon his vocation for a trip to the metropolis.

Then something sad happened which changed the aspect of Uncle Ben's affairs. The horse took sick suddenly and although every effort was made to save him he went the way of all hack-horses, good and bad.

In process of time Ben received another offer from a local promoter to come over to Macedonia and help out.

This time Ben acquiesced gracefully and promptly. He needs another hack-horse. Verbum sap and likewise quantum cur.

MAUI PLANS SWELL FOURTH

(Special Correspondence of the Star.) WAILUKU, May 25.—The executive committee of the Maui Racing Association are very busy with a force of men getting the track, stables and grandstand in a better condition than at any time heretofore.

From the way things are beginning to look prospects are bright for a banner meet on the Fourth of July.

Wailuku is preparing for unusual festivity owing to the fact that on the glorious Fourth the town will for the first time be lighted by electricity and will consequently be en gala.

Dances and several big lucas are being planned. There will also be a lively game of baseball on the afternoon of the Fourth between a nine from Honolulu and a local team.

On July 3 the Foresters will give a luau and dance in honor of the first anniversary of their court. A number of invitations will be sent to Honolulu and a swell affair for the occasion is being arranged for.

YACHT CLUB IN THE DARK AS TO TRANSPACIFIC ENTRIES

Secretary Vetlesen of the Hawaii Yacht Club stated this morning that he was still waiting for an answer to the cable sent by him to the South Coast Yacht Club at San Pedro on the 16th inst., asking for cabined information as to the number of starters in the transpacific race which starts from San Pedro on June 11.

The local cable company have assured Mr. Vetlesen that the message was received at the other end and local yachtsmen don't know what to make of the fact that no cable has been received from the Californian club.

Entries for the race were to have closed on the 15th inst.

C. Wilder has written to Captain Stroud a letter which will reach him about Thursday asking him to cable the situation in full immediately on receipt of the communication and it will therefore be only a matter of a few days before the sportmen of Honolulu know the best or the worst, as the case may be.

"I feel no apprehension that the race has been abandoned," said Secretary Vetlesen this morning, "for had that been the case we would surely have been notified. I must say, however, that I am surprised that no reply has come to my cable as requested and think that, as a matter of common courtesy, the Hawaii Yacht Club should have been informed of the status of affairs in connection with the race long ere this."

SMOKED PORK.

MELBOURNE, Australia, May 25.—Sam Langford stopped Porky Flynn in the fourteenth round of their fight here last night.

SIX-FIFTY PAYS ALL.

Persons who feel the need of a change, and those who do not, can get it at an expense of six dollars and fifty cents if they will buy a return ticket to Haleiwa for the 3:20 train, limited, Saturday afternoon for Haleiwa, getting dinner at the famous Haleiwa hotel, good rooms and service, have a good time at golf, swimming or tennis Sunday and an old fashion chicken dinner Sunday night leaving the hotel on the limited at 8:10 arriving in Honolulu at 10:10. It is an opportunity to get a complete change of air and environments for little money.

NOBLE DUKE MAY CHALLENGE

NEW YORK, May 12.—The presence of the Duke of Sutherland in this country is believed by yachtsmen to foreshadow a new challenge for the America's cup. The expectations are that within a short time negotiations will be opened between the New York Yacht Club and the Royal Yacht Squadron, which will lead to an international contest next year.

Some three years ago it was announced the Duke of Sutherland was about to build a yacht and issue a challenge for a race for the cup. Then there was a hitch and the Duke changed his plans. Since then he has devoted most of his energies to efforts to win back the British international trophy for motor boats.

The New York Yacht Club has for some time been in a receptive mood and the belief is current that the club now would be willing to yield somewhat in modifying the rules which have discouraged challengers of late years. Experts say that the club probably would welcome a challenge under its own rules for a single-masted vessel of class K, or about 77 feet on the water line.

The class K yacht is much smaller than the Reliance or the Columbia, but it is one of the best sizes for fine racing. A yacht in this class can be built and raced for about $100,000, while a yacht of the Reliance type costs $800,000 to build and carry through one season.

MOTORCYCLE CLUB MEETS WITH ECLAT AND ENTHUSIASM

Twenty-one enthusiasts attended a meeting of the Mid-Pacific Motor Cyclists Club held last night and eighteen signed the roll as charter members.

A constitution and bylaws were adopted. The following nominations were made for permanent officers of the organization.

President: E. V. Todd, H. B. Brown, O. B. Guest. Vice president: F. M. Friesell, A. R. L. Rowat. Secretary-treasurer: F. M. Friesell, W. G. McGee. Road captain: Sergeant E. L. Stewart.

Chairman Todd appointed the following committee to provide suitable quarters for the club: E. V. Todd, H. B. Brown, M. D. Abrue, A. R. L. Rowat, F. M. Friesell.

It was decided to keep the charter member roll open until June 20 when anyone desiring to enroll as charter members of the club should hand in his name to either E. V. Todd or F. M. Friesell.

Great enthusiasm was displayed at last night's meeting and from the way the club has started out it looks as if it would take a foremost place among the sporting organizations of Honolulu.

RING RECORD OF KID MILNE

Yamogata's opponent at the Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon will be Johnny Milne, otherwise known as "Ping" Milne and Kid Melnotte.

Milne has had several contests in the islands, his record being as follows: Drew with Ah Fook in Hilo, going into the ring at two days' notice. Knocked out the Peanut Kid in the third round. Lost to Kid Herrigan in the second round.

Drew with the Fighting Rooster of Hilo who had a pull of twenty pounds in the weights. Won from Kid Sylvester of Hilo in the fourth round.

Lost to Ah Fook in Hilo. Milne states that the referee in giving the decision to the hapa-pake showed undoubted bias. Milne promises to be in good fix on Saturday and says that the Japanese will have to go some to beat him.

SCOTLAND HAS REAL CHAMPION

NEW YORK, May 17.—Matt McGrath, the giant weight thrower, probably will not compete in the Olympic games at Stockholm. He declares that he can not afford to give up the time necessary to train for and compete in the games.

"It would be useless for me to go abroad unless I were in my best condition," he said. "I couldn't win otherwise. Tom Nicholson of the West Scotland Harriers is a dangerous man in the hammer throwing. To beat him I would have to hang up a new record. Nicholson is making record throws every day in practice."

With McGrath out of the competition, there is little chance of America carrying off the hammer event. Experts say he is the only man who can beat the Scotch champion. McGrath holds the world's record for the event, with a mark of 187 feet, 4 inches.

RACING ON ENGLISH TURF

The Two Thousand Guineas stakes, one of the classic events of the English turf, was won on May 1 by an American. A length in front of the second horse, H. B. Duryea's Sweeper 2 finished first, in a field of fourteen, carrying the noted jockey Danny Maher, who is also an American. The time was 1:38 2-5. It is probable that this victory will make Sweeper 2 the favorite contestant for the Derby.

Jaeger was second, Hall Cross third and the favorite White Star fourth. Hall Cross is owned by C. Bower Ismay, a brother of J. Bruce Ismay. One of the largest stakes in the early English races of the season is the Queen's Prize of $5000, which was won at Kempton Park by the American thoroughbred Duke of Sparta II. This race is at a mile and a half. The five-year-old son of Diomed and Jovita carried 95 pounds. When Duke of Sparta was sold by J. B. Haggin in England as a yearling, he brought $325. Among the horses he beat in this race is L. H. Winans' Dalmatian, said to have cost him $40,000.

MEMORIAL DAY CLOSING.

Presumably most business houses in the city will be closed on Thursday—Memorial Day. The Merchants' Association did not take up the matter at its meeting last week, and it will be up to the individual business men to do as they see fit.

Drugstores will probably close during the afternoon, according to President Gignoux, of the Merchants' Association. The banks will be closed, and doubtless most of the business offices in the city.

THE BANANA QUESTION.

The United Fruit company is particularly anxious to find some way of barring the Hawaiian banana out of coast ports.

Yesterday's Star told the tale of the latest effort which the United Fruit company would have reason to appreciate.

Fair play would suggest that unless California entomologists find the fruit fly maggot in any bananas that we send to the coast—

SAFETY AT SEA.

Lewis Nixon, a great shipbuilder, is authority for a plan to make the upper cabins of a steamship detachable by the act of immersion

But whether detachable deck houses are all right or not, the reassuring thing is that the ingenuity of ship-builders is now turning towards appliances for safety of crew and passengers rather than of luxury and speed.

THE VOTERS AND THE THIRD TERM.

The President's assurance that he would not take a third term himself puts him in a line of distinguished precedent.

We believe this law is cherished as much as it ever was by the thoughtful element of all parties and that, if made an issue in the regular presidential campaign, that fact will be registered in large adverse majorities.

BRYAN.

If it is true that Mr. Bryan wants the Democratic nomination this year, there are a great many members of the Democracy who would like to see him get it, partly because a man who has been willing to lead the forlorn hopes of his party in so many up-hill fights ought to have a chance to lead again when the Democracy reaches advantageous ground to which he has guided it.

Then again, the powder used against Bryan has mostly been spent; the big shells of opposition have been fired.

Every Democratic aspirant for the Presidency is running on Bryan's issues. A possible Republican nominee for President is professing them.

Finally, Bryan is head and shoulders above all other Democrats in the lists. Who is Champ Clark, or Underwood, or Harmon, or blundering old Schoolmaster Wilson beside William J. Bryan, the leader of the party for so many years?

These are the reasons why the Democracy may have to come to him in the long run and give him his first real chance of victory.

The Czar has threatened exile to the Grand Duke Boris and he may choose to come to the United States. He has been in its darkest confinement before and while in this part of them he disported himself in a white silk tuxedo suit, completely putting out the sartorial light of Prince Bert Peterson.

If Captain Greene of the Chiyo Maru does not want the news of his engagements published he can put a stop to it easily by getting married.

THE GLAD TOILER

By WALT MASON.

The man who really likes to labor, whatever the tool that he employs—the hammer, trowel, pen or saber—will find this life replete with joys.

Former Mayor Taylor of San Francisco is not in favor of Carnegie libraries. In a recent interview he said:

"Mr. Carnegie went to bed one night," he said, "with $130,000,000. He went down to breakfast the next morning and found the sum increased to $260,000,000. Do you want any of that money? I don't."

Mr. Taylor has a supersensitive conscience and so, no doubt, his Democratic soul will revolt at the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson who did his best to get on the Carnegie pension list.

The Little Interview column in the Star gives everybody a chance to publish an opinion or make timely comment and the public has begun to make use of it in that way of its own motion.

A man from Manila says that all the Philippines wants is certainty. In that modest ambition the Philippines are not alone.

S. T. STARRETT—If the small farmers can grow some of the staple products, such as potatoes, beans, onions, poultry and eggs, etc. (and I believe they can) they will find a first class market in Honolulu at all times.

SUPERVISORS DO ROUTINE WORK

At the meeting of the board of supervisors last night a fresh breeze was raised on the matter of the rest houses at Kaimuki, McClellan complaining that it had been put up without the plans having been submitted to the board, also, he had been told, fitted with benches contrary to the board's conditions of permission. The matter was referred again to the road committee with instructions to have the benches removed if they were there.

A protest from the mechanics' association against the purchase of hand instruments except through local dealers was received.

Francis Gay thanked the board for road work in Kailhi valley and asked for a monthly appropriation to complete it.

M. Picano's bond on the Nuuanu avenue contract was accepted.

Engineer Whitehouse was asked to make surveys and grade calculations for the Bethel street sidewalk between King and Hotel streets.

The Rapid Transit Co. if the attorney's department reports favorably on the proposition, will be asked to lay the dust on its right of way.

To the road committee and the engineer was referred the matter of a concrete bridge the Oahu Railway Co. proposes to build over the county road near Waipahu, which has been approved by the governor and the superintendent of public works.

Captain Berger, in a letter thanking the board for his vacation and wishing the mayor and supervisors success in their duties, said that while abroad he intended to study new technique which he hoped would be of benefit to the band.

KAIMUKI REST HOUSE.

Editor Star: Permit space for an absolute denial of the truth of the matter set out in this morning's Advertiser under the caption of "Rest House."

There are no benches in it—although it is strange that some supervisors object to seats in a house of rest; other waiting stations, in Honolulu are properly so equipped. Eben Low, a supervisor whose term shortly expires, exceeded the brief authority with which he was, in error, dressed, when in the temporary absence of the person in charge of construction, and to whom any proper objection could have been made, he, "he" ordered the workmen to discontinue their labors. Fortunately "his" orders (?) availed but a short time, and the job—a good one—proceeded to a finish. The approval of the plan was by the whole board, not by the insignificant part of it, and was in writing; the drawing of the building was on view at the board room and was thoroughly inspected; it was approved, fully, and should not now be open to the attack of numskulls—not to say liars.

Some supervisors fail to recognize a public benefit when it is made at private cost and regard for improvement. As to the little building, we venture to say that it is a good-looker and fills the bill. People of our section are not to be roped-in by Low or any of his kind.

with the work of the Women's Auxiliary.

Yesterday afternoon, Christian Education was the topic for the Episcopal convocation yesterday afternoon, being discussed by the Rev. F. W. Merrill, Mrs. James M. Kennedy, Miss Van Deerlin, Mrs. Couzens, G. C. Potter, and the Rev. J. K. Bodel, who each took up special phases of the subject.

At a business session in the evening a council of advice was appointed by the bishop, consisting of Canon Osborne, Canon Potwine, Rev. L. Kroll, Robbins B. Anderson, B. W. Colley and H. M. von Holt.

The board of directors elected for the ensuing year were Bishop Restarick, George F. Davies, John Gaild, George C. Potter, Alex. Lindsay Jr., Japanese Secretary Young, Canon Potwine and Rev. Leopold Kroll.

Alex. Lindsay Jr., was elected chancellor of the diocese, and Rev. Leopold Kroll, registrar.

There will be about 75 cubic yards of this material monthly, and that it must be removed from the quartermaster's corral at Fort Armstrong at least twice a week by the party securing the contract. The bids will be opened on June 4.

A "Classified Ad" in the Star will bring results when all other expedients fail.

ANOTHER MYTHICAL "PLANTER" STRUTS AS HAWAIIAN ORACLE

Baltimore American: "No more orientals of the laboring class are coming to Hawaii, and a good many of our white citizens who cultivate sugar estates are sorry that the faithful Chinese are barred under the law," said W. P. Harcourt, a sugar planter of the island of Kauai, one of the Hawaiian group. "They are our best workers, and before the exclusion policy was applied we could count on a certain regular influx of brawny Mongolians to toil in the cane fields."

"The Chinese now in Hawaii have been there for many years and most of them are getting to be old men. Not many of the Chinamen have wives, but in former days not a few of them became the husbands of the native kanaka women. It was a good cross, was this half breed progeny, and so likewise the offspring of the Japanese and native women. In recent times, however, the Japs have been in the habit of sending back to their own land for wives. In most cases I think the self-elected bridegrooms get their parent back in the Flowery Kingdom to pick out wives for them."

"The matter is finally arranged through the Japanese Consul, the man in the case putting up money for the passage of his intended spouse. The hour that she lands must also be the wedding hour, for the authorities will not allow the fair ones to remain unless claimed and formally mated according to some civil or religious ceremony that both parties consider binding.

"Every now and then a wireless message comes to my plantation which tells one of my young Japanese hired men that he may expect on the arrival of the next ship at Honolulu the girl who has been picked out as his wife. I do not think that in many cases the principals have ever laid eyes on each other. On receipt of the message the man gets permission to go to claim his wife, and pretty soon the pair are domesticated on the estate, and my understanding is they get on as happily as if they had known each other from infancy and been wedded in the conventional way of the Caucasians.

"Not long ago a ship from Yokohama arrived with forty or fifty so-called picture brides. Every one of them had been chosen through photographs forwarded to Hawaii some time in advance of the arrival of the originals. Occasionally there is a pathetic case, as when not long ago a very pretty young Japanese maid was forced to take the next ship returning to her old home. Inspection showed that she had trachoma, and the rigid rule that ordered her deportation could not be waived."

SIERRA WINS OCEAN RACE

Arriving in San Francisco at five o'clock this morning, two hours ahead of schedule time and three hours ahead of the Wilhelmina, the Oceanic steamship Sierra retains her title to the championship belt.

When the vessels left here last Wednesday it was known among those along the waterfront that the Wilhelmina was determined to capture the goat of the Sierra. Plans had been laid for some time past and every effort was to be made to be the first sighted at San Francisco.

During the week just past the two boats have been close to one another all the time and although nothing is known for certain at this end it is thought that Captain Houdlette fooled the Wilhelmina. The story is that the Wilhelmina was allowed to keep in touch with the Sierra until the last day when the engine room bell rang and every available ounce of steam was put on with the result that the Sierra passengers were sent off comfortably in their hotels eating breakfast when the Wilhelmina was sighted.

This is the last trip that the Sierra makes for some time and it is stated that after her overhaul she will make even better time.

KEWALO FILLING-IN

Lord-Young Engineering Company, the successful bidders for the contract of filling in the Kewalo tract with three hundred and fifty thousand cubic yards of earth, have announced that they will take the necessary dirt from the lagoon between the reef and the shore line of Kewalo and Kakaako.

Final preliminaries were completed yesterday afternoon when Acting Governor Mott-Smith signed the contract authorizing the engineering company's start work.

R. R. Reidford, representing F. W. Damon; James McLean, representing the McLean estate, W. Wolters and others, Brown, Reidford and Robinson were in favor of concluding the settlement. The others lined up in objection, upon either of the grounds just stated.

Murray was the proponent of the compromise among the supervisors. Low wanted to declare the business off and spend the money for other purposes. Murray won and the matter was left with the ways and means committee, either to effect a settlement or proceed by law to condemnation. Deputy Attorney Milverton had advised both sides that the board had adopted a policy which was to put through this improvement. It only remained to figure out a method to do this as soon as possible. If the county was compelled to bring legal proceedings the city would then compel adjoining property owners to pay on a basis of $21,000 instead of $15,000, the compromise figure.

MRS. POGGON'S PICTURES ATTRACT MANY.

What attracted the eyes of fifty or more persons at the exhibition of Mrs. Poggon's paintings in the Kilohana Art League rooms yesterday was a mural painting, back of the platform at the rear of the room, representing the grouping of calla lilies, and so natural did they appear that many supposed they were flowers banked for decorative purposes.

Mrs. Poggon, who is island born, handles flowers and fruits with a facility that marks her paintings as of more than ordinary worth from an artistic point of view. Detail is omitted except where it may be used to bring out the quality of the subject and it is never overdone. Take the vase of daisies, over the plain garden variety or the large shasta strain, and there is handling that produces values; the lighting is excellent; the technique as nearly perfect as the most ardent botanist could desire. A touch of nature is in the massing of the rich velvety greens and the higher keyed blooms. Tiger lilies is another notable picture in the collection and two zems are baskets of geraniums. In these the coloring is exquisite and the handling bold and effective. A canvas showing grapes is attractive but to the layman, the coloring is really very transparent, too much so to us of Hawaii whose knowledge of the luscious California whites is gained from observation of the boxes that come from the grocery shop. The drawing in this picture is good and the composition quite equal to any of the floral subjects. Another canvas that attracted the old Honolulu was the basket of vari-colored lels. This, together with the mango and Tiger lilies, Mrs. Poggon has painted since her return to Honolulu, all of which show the touch of the master hand as well as a knowledge of Hawaiian fruits and flowers and the ability to transfer to canvas their peculiar vivid brightness.

OWNERS BLOCK BIG IMPROVEMENT

Efforts at compromise with abutting and adjacent owners in the Hotel street widening scheme failed for the time being at the conference between them and the supervisors last night. The board has $30,000 set aside for the improvement, the cost of which on the basis of accepted claims for damages would be $41,617. According to law betterments of fifty per cent can be assessed. To avoid litigation the supervisors are ready to accept $15,000 instead of $20,000, the estimated legal amount, for betterments as that would cover the difference between the appropriation and the assessed damages, with $4000 or $5000 over for paying the widened portion of the street. But some of the owners assessed for betterments in the plan of settlement claim either that they are assessed too high or that their interest is too remote to be assessed anything.

Owners at the conference were as follows: Cecil Brown, representing the Campbell estate; J. R. Galt, representing the Brewer estate. Hawaiian Trust Company and Aldrich estate; W. W. Chamberlain, representing the Guardian Trust Company; M. P. Robinson, representing the James Robinson estate; A. D. Larnach, representing the Perry estate;

Now she is a bride of something more than a year's standing, and really ought no longer to be called a bride. But somehow or other, the name clings to her. A little boy has come into the home-nest. And theoretically, the nest sisters now a completely happy family.

But literally, the new mother is looking with bewildered, almost despairing eyes, at the wretch of her home or the close approach of it. She confronts problems which she feels utterly incapable of grappling. And with a sinking sensation about her heart, she feels as if everything will go to smash, before she can avert it.

She was a thoroughly charming girl and a fine pianist. But she knew absolutely nothing about housekeeping. She was so entirely ignorant of it, that she did not even realize its seriousness and importance in the new phase of living she was taking up herself. She was a motherless girl, the only child, brought up by a housekeeper and an over-fond father. And none of the serious facts of life were ever brought to her attention.

The man she married was in most modest circumstances; in fact, a clerk on a rather slim salary. She married him against her father's wishes; and though there is no direct break between father and daughter, there is a constraint and coolness that holds her back from seeking advice and counsel. Fortunately the young husband is a fine fellow, or probably things would have gone to smash before this.

For, the housekeeping in that little home is beyond words to describe. The husband eventually has settled down to doing the cooking and most of the cleaning. The waste that comes from ignorance is appalling,—when the size of the income is considered. And now that a wee baby has come to be taken care of, the situation is worse.

It all results from the fact that she didn't know what she was undertaking. And when she found the work she had on her hands, there was at first rebellion. She didn't want to give up her music and devote her days to sweeping and washing and cooking. This state of mind has gone by, but she feels helpless in the face of her ignorance. It seems to her things will go to smash before she can learn what she needs to know about running a home happily and economically, and caring for a baby.

Many another bride has found herself in the same situation. And if the situation is eventually saved, much anguish of spirit is endured. And sometimes, the situation isn't saved, and lives are wrecked. Yet it could all be avoided, if brides-to-be would look a few things squarely in the face. They should recognize that housekeeping if it is done properly is no easy task. They might as well admit it. Right cooking is a scientific proposition. The planning of well-balanced meals is a matter of chemistry. Making income meet expense is as big a financial problem as some that our shrewdest financiers handle. Housekeeping means headwork and handwork. And if the income is limited, it means hard handwork and plenty of it. There is no dodging these facts, and the bride-to-be who wants to be a successful wife should not dodge them.

She ought to decide whether she wants to accept this sort of life. And if she doesn't, then she and her future husband had better talk the matter over and plan other methods of living. The housekeeping problem can be lightened or done away with altogether, if necessary. But to rush ignorantly into it without knowing the work it implies, or how seriously it affects life, is only, with most young wives, to invite disaster.

And this is no mere conjecture. Those who have to do with the renting of small houses in cities have many and various tales to relate of the breaking up of new homes because the wife knows nothing of housekeeping. The house is so mismanaged, or the food is so poor, that the husband can't stand it,—for after all he is only human, or else bills are run up that he can't pay. Finally, there is an explosion, the furniture is sold, she goes home to mother, and there is wreck and devastation where might have been peace and happiness.

And it all comes about through ignorance, through a happy-go-lucky belief that housekeeping is a matter of instinct, and that a girl will take to housekeeping as naturally as a duck to water, and do it as well as the duck performs his feat of swimming. But unfortunately such is not the case. And the girl who expects to go to housekeeping and who knows she is absolutely ignorant of housekeeping, had better take some of the money she intends putting into a parlor-suit and invest it in a course in domestic science; unless she doesn't want the aforesaid parlor-suit to be wet with many a tear, witness many a stormy scene, and perhaps eventually go to the second-hand man.

NEW BLOUSES RESEMBLE OLD STYLE DRESSING SACQUES.

Not unlike the neat, tightly fitting dressing sacque of a generation ago is the new peplum blouse which fastens down the center front. But these blouses are decidedly modish and a typical model of batiste and lace is pictured here. The peplum is joined to the blouse at the waistline under a band of embroidery motifs, and similar motifs outline a round yoke of Val lace. The blouse does not actually button down the front, though this effect is suggested, the fastening being at the back in the usual way. The peplum is just short enough to escape being visible beneath the edge of the coat.

seized by four or five of his friends, tied to a board and carried through the streets. Every few moments the hazers dropped Martin to the pavement. He groaned at each drop, but his companions evidently thought he was shamming. Eventually he became dazed, and the other boys cut the rope that bound him to the board and fled.

The boys who did the hazing are being protected by their friends, and their names have not been revealed. Martin may die.

MR. THWING REPLIES TO PEKIN CORRESPONDENT OF THE HERALD

Some time ago the Star republished a Pekin dispatch to the New York Herald, which poked fun at Rev. E. W. Thwing for his anti-opium, pro-public-park, anti-opium and revolutionary activities, and attacked Bishop Bashford of the Methodist church for making mischief.

Mr. Thwing, as secretary of the International Reform Bureau, replies to the Herald correspondent in the Atlas Syndicate News, Shanghai, of May 1, which also quotes the associate secretary of Methodist missions, both replies being as follows:

Bishop Bashford's Friends Indignant.
When the Rev. Dr. S. O. Benton, associate secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the American Methodist Episcopal church, read the Herald's special from Pekin he took issue with the statements concerning Bishop James W. Bashford, Methodist bishop for China. Dr. Benton said:

"This representation of Bishop Bashford is utterly incredible. He is one of the most cautious men I know. He has been particularly careful in all his advices to the Chinese and to the missionaries, instructing them not to get mixed up in the political situation and to hold strictly to their religious work. He even has been criticised by some of the missionaries because of his extreme conservatism in this matter.

"Within two or three weeks there was a cable despatch in the Herald attributing certain things to Bishop Bashford. The Christian Advocate, the official organ of our denomination, wrote to Secretary Knox to ask if the Bishop or any other of our missionaries had written to the Washington administration any opinions about the Chinese political situation.

"Secretary Knox replied most emphatically that neither Bishop Bashford nor any other missionary had written to Washington on the subject. Bishop Bashford has been in China eight years. He has been right on the ground during all the recent happenings in China. He has kept the home office in touch with what was going on by cable and letters."

A Reply to the N. Y. Herald.
In a letter from its Pekin correspondent to the N. Y. Herald, published March 10, several matters are much misrepresented. The assertion that some missionaries have been sharply reprimanded by the responsible authorities of their societies, for being actively involved in the Chinese political situation, is quite untrue.

It is also considered dangerous by this correspondent, for a Christian worker to claim "the hand of the Almighty in the Chinese revolution." The fact of some missionaries sending telegrams to Pekin is also greatly misunderstood, in relation to the question of peace or war, then hanging in the balance. The message in question was a friendly one, sent to friends in the interests of peace and to prevent further bloodshed. Of course it was not known to the Pekin correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, at that time, but it is a fact, that the representatives of both of the contending parties expressed a wish that the telegram might be sent. They both believed that it would help, in the interests of peace, for some of these older missionaries in China to urge, in this way, that for the good of China the generous settlement proposed might be accepted, and so further bloodshed be avoided. It was not unwarranted or uncalled for interference, and it would seem not improper for those who come to preach the "gospel of peace" to urge a peaceful settlement at any time. The action taken has occasioned much friendly remark and appreciation from the Chinese newspapers, and from many of the Chinese leaders. During all the time of the revolution, instead of looking at the missionaries askance, both sides have turned to them for help. Another error of this Pekin correspondent is in his statement that "the revolution has put the anti-opium crusade out of business." The new government is taking up the matter most earnestly and in some places the republican soldiers have been sent out to dig up the poppy planted during the time of disorder. There is replanting in some provinces, but the republican government has decided that it must be put down, and as soon as the country is more settled will meet the question with a strong hand. While they can not now stop the sale of British raw opium, they can stop the sale of prepared smoking opium, under the new agreement, and, in some cities are completely closing up these opium shops. It is a sad fact that the British government is doing the most to hinder and discourage this part of China's great reform. Other errors might be mentioned, in this letter to the Herald, but enough has been said to show how after the China news becomes much mixed before reaching New York. I send you some fuller accounts on the opium question that your readers may know something of the present earnest efforts by new China to stamp out this evil. I trust you may find room to insert this reply to the letter from your Pekin correspondent.

Yours truly,
E. W. THWING,
Secretary of the International Reform Bureau.

GREAT DISCOVERIES

ARE MADE IN EGYPT
LONDON, May 16.—Details of the season's results in exploration by the British School of Archaeology in Egypt are described by Professor Petrie as gigantic. An alabaster sphinx was found at Memphis twenty-six feet long and fourteen feet high, which weighed eighty tons. The face is as perfect as when it was carved 1300 years B. C.

An earthen fortress with walls over 100 feet thick and a quarter of a mile across was discovered at Helopolis. They probably date back to the time of early barbaric invasions.

A cemetery was discovered thirty miles south of Cairo with dates on the stones from the earliest historic age down to the period of the pyramids. Lichen was found there of which some sheets went back to the eleventh dynasty. They were as white and as sweet as if they were just from the loom.

SEVEN TONS OF

BIBLES SHIPPED
NEW YORK, May 16.—Seven tons of Bibles, and none of them printed in English, was the shipment record of the American Bible Society today. They went from the Biblehouse in Astor place, and were destined for South America. They were in Spanish and Portuguese, with some in Indian and other dialects.

The Bible Society is getting ready for Bible work among the sailors who will pass through the Panama canal. It is said that 1500 new ships are building in Europe for the canal traffic. The society is already at work in Panama and the canal zone, but will enlarge its work to cover ships and their men as soon as the canal opens.
The society has now completed a translation of the books of the New

A Wonderful Sanitary REFRIGERATOR

Most Sanitary
Most sanitary because nowhere in the entire lining or food department is there a single groove, crack, or crevice where a germ can dodge the cleaning cloth, and there can never be any such hiding places, because, unlike all other so-called stone, slate, or tile-lined refrigerators, Xyno stone can never chip, crack, or discolor—corners rounded, shelves, ice tank, everything slides out from front, then a glistening naked snow white lining of Xyno stone, as durable as nickel steel, beautiful as marble, and as easily cleaned as glass.

Most Economical
The Rhinelander is most economical. First: because of price, lower than any other Refrigerator daring to approach the Rhinelander in efficiency; second: because of minimum ice requirements. The casing is constructed of eight separate and distinct walls of casing, sheathing, and matchings, including a mineral wool lining and the Xyno stone lining. It keeps out the heat; keeps in the cold. Furthermore, the Rhinelander has a drainage system and a system of circulation that guarantees throughout the entire Refrigerator absolute dry air. The ice chamber is made of rust-proof galvanized iron, with back slanting floor to insure proper drainage. Cabinets of beautifully finished, air-dried oak, unconditionally guaranteed against warping or falling apart. Heavy nickel trimmings.

Come in and let us show you this wonderful Refrigerator, also our twenty different styles and varieties of Rhinelander enamel-lined Refrigerators, from $16.00 and up.

Hamilton Strikes Back

An affidavit from W. C. Hamilton, a fruitly inspector, is published accusing Prof. Severin, of the College of Hawaii, of drinking seven cupsful of whisky while accompanying the affiant in the inspection of the banana fields of Lee Kin, of the Mow Hoj Wai Co.
Prof. Severin had charged Hamilton to H. A. Weiland, the California entomologist, with being crooked in banana inspection, as having passed the Chinaman's bananas after the Chinaman had furnished him with whisky. Hamilton strikes back in the affidavit mentioned.

SPANISH CUSTOM CAUSES TANGLE

A woman in Spain does not take her husband's name until after he is dead. This is a little like the Chinese custom, a married woman of that country being known always as Ah Shee, no matter what was her maiden name. In Korea, which has no women's rights, the married woman has no name.

All of the above is apropos to a contested divorce suit that was on trial in Judge Whitney's court this morning. The title of the suit is "Carmela Rimeres versus Emilio Rimeres." Yet the fact is that the name of the contesting parties is not Rimeres at all but Aranda.

It took the Spanish interpreter to explain to the judge and the attorneys how the error came to be made. In Spain, he said, where the parties were married, the woman keeps her maiden name until after the death of her husband, when she assumes his. The maiden name of the libellant was Carmela Rimeres. She married Emilio Aranda, but when she brought suit for divorce she followed the Spanish custom and gave her own name. The attorney naturally thought that Rimeres must be the husband's name and labeled him accordingly in the libel.

Carmela accuses her husband of extreme cruelty. He, through his attorney, Wade Warren Thayer has filed a cross bill in which he charges her with adultery. J. Lightfoot is representing the wife and the session this morning was rather lively.

Court Items.

The assumpsit suit of H. Hackfeld & Company against the Miller Salvage Company for $978.86 has been discontinued in the circuit court.

The $200 bond of Ura, indicted by the grand jury on a charge of having assaulted Zengo Miyamoto with a knife, was ordered forfeited this morning, the defendant not being present when the case was called in Judge Robinson's court.

In the matter of Lawrence H. Dees versus Elizabeth Foster, which was decided by Judge Whitney last week in favor of the defendant, an exception to the decision has been filed by the attorney for the plaintiff.

W. A. Fornandez, proprietor of a hat store, has filed in the federal court a petition in bankruptcy. He says he owes $832.55, all on unsecured accounts and is worth $567.30.

HIP BORKEN IN ACCIDENT

Mrs. Kierstein, grandmother of Mrs. Carl Klemme, was knocked down by auto No. 606 last night and sustained a broken hip. The car was driven by Chauffeur Gonsalves.

The accident occurred about 9:30 on Hotel street near Fort street. Mrs. Kierstein and Joseph E. Rogers had come out of the eating-house in the alley leading to the Bijou theater and were in the act of crossing the street to board a Waiiale-bound car when both were knocked down by the automobile mentioned.

Rogers was bruised and Mrs. Kierstein complained of her leg hurting her a great deal. She was taken to her residence.

This morning Dr. Straub was called in and after an examination declared that Mrs. Kierstein was suffering from a broken hip and ordered her removed to Queen's Hospital.

The car is a Locomobile touring car registered in the name of E. L. Gay, now a member of the mounted patrol.

Chauffeur Gonsalves disclaims any carelessness in the matter and states that both Rogers and Mrs. Kierstein ran in front of his car and were knocked down before he could stop the machine.

NEWS REPORTS

At The Theaters

MAY EDYTHE TAYLOR.

The clever little soubrette who was deluged with flowers at the Bijou last night.

Bijou Vaudeville Acts Packed the House. YODELING WINS BIG APPLAUSE.

The Juvenile Bostonians who put on the "Rose of Blandeen," a pretty Irish piece, last night at the Liberty theater as their first change have got vis-a-vis to the wonderful orator of the Democratic party. It is rumored that he a little more favorable it's safe to say all records in point of attendances would be smashed.

The first-class show put on by the management was the cause of the influx and at the end of the performance not one in the large audience had anything but praise for the entertainment provided, which consisted of three headline vaudeville acts and four interesting pictures.

Dainty little May Taylor began her return engagement under very favorable auspices and the armful of flowers she received were genuine evidence of the esteem with which this little soubrette is held in the community. May was in very good voice and spirits and sang four new songs with a new costume for each. Her harem costume created much favorable comment. All of her songs are of the popular variety and have a swing to them that will cause them to be whistled around town today. In her song, "Take Me Back to Honolulu," she was joined by the audience.

Mlle. Lordy's trained dogs, the much heralded act, proved that the press notices were not exaggerated, for a clever bunch of canines never stepped on a stage. Under the direction of Mlle. Lordy they performed all sorts of tricks and acrobatic stunts and went through their act without a hitch. The pantomime, "The Burglar's Fate," was a big success and it had the large audience laughing all through the act. The act starts with a dog dressed as a bear brummet calling to take his girl out for a stroll, and while they are out a burglar enters the house through a window and after a few minutes is seen coming out with a sack on his back. The head of the house being awakened turns in the alarm and a policeman appears on the scene. After sizing up the situation a la Sherlock Holmes he gives chase and the burglar is captured and brought to justice. The act all through is replete with comical situations. What makes the act all the more wonderful is the fact that the dogs perform without the aid of their trainer, they being alone on the stage.

The Yokohama troupe went big again with their feet balancing and human juggling feats. The youngsters in acrobatic stunts were all to the velvet, in the words of the poet. The carefully selected pictures were a show in themselves. The Bijou management is to be congratulated upon the class of show it is putting on and as long as the standard is kept up crowded houses will be the rule rather than the exception.

At The Empire.

May Nannery and company appeared in a comedy sketch last night at the Empire and had the whole audience laughing at the comical situation. Knotts and Lawrence in their singing act scored a big hit. The pictures on the whole were very good.

and Lois Mason and Thom Helen was a well deserved encore. A ruddy quartet is promised for one of the later pieces.

The "Wild Irish Row" song also won laurels for Miss Helen, her interpretation of the piece being very good. She has a fine voice and knows how to use it. The Mississippi Dip is a rag that will find favor round town and given with the chorus effect it had to be sung three times last night before the audience would call it square.

If you want to have some fun on "The First Dark Night Next Week" you should see little Flo Myling and Doris Canfield about it. They made a good hit with the song last night. Little Flo, rejoicing under the name of Tootsie for the present occasion, is becoming very popular.

Taking it all through the show is much better than the opening. The girls have got over their newness and have settled down to better teach work than they were showing before. The songs are nearly all new to Honolulu and each one seems to have been chosen very carefully. The chorus work is good and the show is well worth seeing.

BERGER'S BENEFIT

What the audience at the Opera House last night lacked in numbers, it made up in enthusiasm, for every number of the Berger benefit concert was vociferously applauded.

Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson was encored for her singing of Harley's "Gay Butterfly," and Mrs. Charles L. Hall also scored an artistic victory in the soprano solo of the Muzette waltz from Puccini's "La Boheme."

Kaaf's quartet earned five encores and the mixed sextet creditably handled the famous sextet from Lucia, doing better work, however, in Schubert's Serenade.

Those who participated in the program were Mrs. A. B. Ingalls, Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. R. D. Mead, Mrs. Charles L. Hall, Miss Alice Hopper, Mr. Ingalls, B. L. Marx, the Kamehameha Glee Club, Kaaf's quartet and the Hawaiian Band organization.

BURRELL CASE.

The suit against the Burrell Construction Company, the Connecticut firm that built Fort Shafter, has been dismissed by agreement. A stipulation was filed in the federal court this morning by which it is agreed that the receivers for the various complainants will accept $1 each and twenty-five per cent of their claims and the case shall be discontinued.

In this suit, which was filed in 1908, the Bank of Hawaii sued for $17,934.10, the Honolulu Iron Works for $2325.73, Lewers & Cooke for $25,875.82, Catton, Neill & Company for $127.82, the von Hamm-Young Company for $470.64, E. O. Hall & Son for $624.53, Charles Lucas for $2000.64 and A. B. Johanson for $85.43. All the amounts were for materials furnished the defendant company by the several respondents.

PHILIPPINE BUDGET

From Manila Files to May 4.

MANILA, May 4.—The city fathers of the town of Antipolo have taken the bit in their teeth and with one desperate plunge have gone the limit in the way of anti-automobile legislation by passing a sweeping ordinance prohibiting the passage of bubble-wagons through the streets of the village.

Autoists returning from an unsuccessful attempt to cross the deadline which has been stretched at the city limits of the hill city report that the guardians of the law are obdurate and will allow no motor propelled vehicle to pass within.

The trouble seems to have been brought about by the extraordinarily crowded condition of the city during the festa of the Virgin of Antipolo, which annually attracts thousands of natives and foreigners to the shrine of the city's patron saint.

The district engineer of the bureau of public works and several civilians who are interested in automobile traffic from Manila to Antipolo over the newly completed road are making strenuous efforts to bring about a modification of the new ordinance which will cause the embargo to exist only during train time, when all street traffic will stop.

Officials in Trouble.

Telegraphic advices received in Manila early yesterday morning from Cuyo state that Carroll H. Lamb, former superintendent of the Iwanic penal colony, was sentenced to imprisonment for one year and a fine of 1000 pesos, for malversation of public funds. The sentence of the court requires Lamb to make restitution of the amount of the shortage in his accounts, 2745 pesos. Lamb has appealed from the decision of the court.

The trial of C. J. Kosel on the charge of misappropriation of money sent him to pay debts, has been postponed 90 days to give time to the defense to secure the deposition of the complaining witness who is now in the United States, as to whether or not he signed certain promissory notes.

April 20.—Arrested on a warrant sworn out on Saturday morning, Frank C. Bascom, public accountant and insurance agent, was haled into court yesterday morning to plead to a charge of misappropriating the sum of 187.50 pesos, the amount of a premium paid to him by one Thomas Begg.

The complaint sets forth that Bascom accepted the sum of 187.50 pesos as the premium for the insurance of a dredge, but that he did not turn in the money to the insuring company. The company in question was the West of Scotland Insurance Company, a foreign corporation duly registered to do business in the islands, and represented in Manila by Lutz and Company.

Suit against Frank C. Bascom, public accountant and insurance agent, filed by Genaro Tan, a Chinaman, for the recovery of 105 pesos, the amount of a premium on 6000 pesos worth of insurance on a building on Calle Santo Cristo, failed in the justice of the peace court yesterday morning for lack of sufficient evidence.

BAGUIO, May 2.—Acting Governor General Newton W. Gilbert today completed his review of the cases of the patrolmen and plain clothes men of the Manila police force who were recently tried on administrative charges before Messrs. Weissenbagen and Du Fresno, appointed by the Governor as a special commission to conduct their trials.

As a result of the trials native Patrolmen Ylagan, Alvarez, Sacris, St. Agueda and Soliman are found guilty of bribery, and are ordered dismissed from the force.

The cases of Illingsworth, Herndon and Barnes have been returned to Messrs. Weissenbagen and Du Fresno for retrial, new charges have been preferred against these officers, the nature of which has not been disclosed.

Patrolmen Fernandez, Canapi, Lombardo, Mantique, Mateo and Zabala were acquitted by the trial commission, and have been ordered restored to duty with full pay from the dates of their suspension.

These officers were all tried on charges growing out of the Harvey investigation of the police and secret service of the city of Manila.

Y. M. C. A. Progress.

MANILA, May 4.—Friends of Associate General Secretary James M.

Groves, of the Manila Young Men's Christian Association, gathered last night in the big association restaurant and joined in a rousing despatch to the departing secretary, who sails today on the steamer Zafiro for Hongkong, transferring there to a steamer bound for San Francisco.

After enjoying an excellent menu informal speeches of good cheer and farewell were given by Rev. James B. Rodgers and Mr. Clarence W. Hubbell, of the association board of directors. Rev. George William Wright was toastmaster for the evening.

In his talk to the association men, Secretary Groves told them of the success that has characterized the recent months that he has spent in campaigning in the provinces of Luzon in the interest of the student Y. M. C. A. that is to be constructed in this city.

One of the principal missions of Secretary Groves in the United States will be the early completion of plans for the new Y. M. C. A. in Manila for Filipino young men, by conferring on the ground with the association architects in Chicago. This building is to be erected solely from the funds so quickly raised in the whirlwind campaign here and the great contributions of the International Committee.

Secretary Groves will tell the associations and college clubs of the United States, wherever he is sent by the International Committee, the real story of the Philippine Islands, dwelling especially upon the broad field still to be entered by the Young Men's Association.

The Meat Question.

Acting President P. G. McDonnell yesterday recommended to the municipal board of Manila that a report on the condition of the meat situation in this city be called for from the chief of the department of sanitation and transportation, in whose jurisdiction are the public markets.

The report desired will include the present price of meat in the various markets, compared with prices at various intervals within a reasonable period, probably three years. Additional information is also desired as to whether the consumption of meat among the poorer classes is increasing, the use of chilled or frozen beef among the market patrons, and the effect on the city revenues.

The high cost of meat and the great difficulties confronting the cattle trade, on which Manila and a considerable part of the provinces are largely dependent for meat supply, says Mr. McDonnell, threaten to aggravate a situation which is already serious.

It is understood that a monster petition, signed by 600 merchants and civilians, as been forwarded to Acting Governor General Newton W. Gilbert asking that the order against the private slaughter of cattle throughout the Philippines be rescinded and that the practice be allowed to continue.

New University Building.

Bids have been opened in the office of the bureau of public works, for the construction of University Hall, the first permanent structure of the University of the Philippines to be erected on the new campus. Eight tenders were received from prominent construction firms of Manila. The lowest bid was that submitted by V. W. Coleman, who proposes to build the University Hall for the sum of 170,000 pesos in 360 working days.

Hotel Protection.

MANILA, May 3.—The hotel men and boarding house keepers of the city of Manila will meet Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the Hotel de France for the purpose of organizing the Manila Hotel Association.

The purposes of the new association are to protect hotels, boarding houses and restaurants from being victimized by dishonest patrons and to secure legislation making any attempt to defraud hotels or boarding houses a misdemeanor.

The association has drafted a bill, which will be introduced at the next session of the legislature, providing that any one who obtains food or other accommodations at an inn, hotel, boarding house or lodging house without paying therefor and with intent to defraud, or who, after obtaining food or accommodation at such inn, hotel or boarding house, absconds and surreptitiously removes his baggage

TO ENCOURAGE ORIENT TRAVEL

Plans for the establishment of a bureau in which Japan, Manila, Hawaii and possibly Australia will have representation on the coast, are being discussed by the Publicity Bureau of Manila and J. M. Switzer, vice president of the Pacific Trading Company of Manila, took the matter up with Secretary H. P. Wood of the Promotion Committee during the stay of the T. K. K. liner Chiyo Maru in port. Mr. Switzer is one of the Taft instructed delegates on his way to the Republican convention. Colonel Tom Harrigan, the other delegate, is traveling in the Minnesota and will arrive in Seattle shortly.

"We have been working on the details for a co-operative bureau on the mainland," stated Mr. Switzer yesterday, "for some time past and have already been in correspondence with Mr. Wood about the matter. Many plans have been discussed but until we have come to some arrangement with your committee here we do not wish to make the details public. Japan is willing to come in with the proposition and Australia is also to be approached on the matter. With such a bureau working it would mean greatly increased travel to the Orient."

"Things are looking well in Manila and everyone is making money. There is an impression abroad that we are a great burden on the United States, whereas we are not costing a cent. The civic administration of the Islands is now on a self-supporting basis and the only cost is the maintenance of the army."

"Even in this we save money in some ways. For instance there have been two lots of troops sent across from Manila to China recently. If these troops had been brought clear from the States and there had been no regular transport service running it would have cost a great deal more. In this way we feel that we are breaking even on the extra cost of keeping a force in our Islands from elsewhere."

"The Philippines have only been scratched as yet and there are enormous opportunities waiting for Americans. The old idea was that everything had to be done through the government but now we are getting in touch with the people direct and the results are showing."

MARK TWAIN'S BOYHOOD HOME BECOMES A MEMORIAL TO HIM

MARK TWAIN MEMORIAL TABLET

HANNIBAL, Mo., May 14.—The old Clemens home has become a memorial to the gentle soul who spent his boyhood there and later made the name of Mark Twain known all over the world. In the humble little home the future humorist dwelt while having the adventures that he incorporated in the history of Huckleberry Finn. The house was presented to the city of Hannibal by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Mahan. Tablets suitably inscribed have been put in place on the walls. One of them bears a profile of Mark Twain and the following inscription by Mr. Mahan: "Mark Twain's life teaches that poverty is an incentive rather than a bar; that any boy, however humble his birth and surroundings, may by honesty and industry accomplish great things."

CUBA'S TROUBLE AND SUGAR CROP

'Tis an ill wind that blows nobody good, and Hawaii is likely to profit in case the threatened Cuban embargo proves serious. The almost certainty that Cuba's sugar crop this season will be one of the biggest on record, has doubtless had much to do with the comparatively low quotations on all grades of sugar which has maintained for the past month or more. Now come rumors of a rebellion which is deemed serious enough to call a bunch of American war vessels to the scene to look after American interests, just at a time when this big crop is about half harvested. The possibility of the labor supply being demoralized by the trouble, and the destruction of a lot of the remaining crop, seems sufficiently strong to be reflected in the markets, which have, indeed, shown a tendency upward for some days past.

Cable advices received by the Sugar Planters' Company Monday morning announce the advance of refined in San Francisco by 10 cents per hundred, thus following the New York advance announced on Saturday. The San Francisco quotation is now 5.50, while the New York price is 5.10; both these figures being subject to 2 per cent discount.

SCHOOL GARDEN IN HEART OF CITY.

School gardens, for some years a feature of education in smaller towns, have at last taken root in New York. Even in the heart of crowded Manhattan it has been found possible to turn a bit of the school yard into a garden and there to let the children grow flowers and vegetables. In some schools each class has its plot, in others there was enough room to provide a plot for each child, but this, except in the rural outskirts, is rare. In one school where it was impossible to raise plants from the earth, a goodly part of the cement-paved playground was given over to boxes which afforded a home for growing plants. There is a large society, called the School Garden Association, of which the president is Van Evrie Kilpatrick, principal of P. S. No. 52.

WHERE A GIFT INVESTMENT PROVES AN EMBARRASSMENT

It doesn't always pay to get something for nothing, especially if the gift happens to be in the form of extra shares in an oil company that doesn't produce oil. A lot of people—how many, probably nobody but the agents who sold the stocks in question could make a very close guess—during the past year or two, bought shares in Ventura Oil Company, Jewel Oil Company, Tempilor Ranch Oil Company, and a number of other "oil" companies. Some time ago these companies were consolidated into what is known as the Seaboard Oil & Transit Company, and holders of stock were given two shares of the stock of the new company for every one they held in any of the component companies. In short they now hold just twice the amount of stock as they did before—"par value."

By recent mails all of the shareholders received notice of an assessment, but this time it is an assessment of 2 per cent on the shares of the new company, in which everybody now holds double the amount they held before, and thus must now pay on two shares where before they paid on one.

It is understood that an effort is being made to get a meeting of the local shareholders held, with a view to forming an organization for the purpose of employing an expert to visit the properties of the company, and make a report, after which it will be decided what to do about future assessments which may be called. The plan proposed is similar to that pursued by the Honolulu shareholders in the Mt. King Mining and Milling company, and which at least gave a clear idea of what they were up against, and what had become of their money, if it didn't do anything else.

HOW LITTLE LOIS MASON RODE WITH BARNEY OLDFIELD

Lois Mason, who has been making a big hit with the Juvenile Bostonians at the Liberty theater, is crazy about automobiles. One time she used to be a speed fiend, but a little experience she fell occurred the habit once and for all.

It was on one occasion when she met the original and only Barney Oldfield down at Brighton Beach. Barney invited her to go with him one morning when he was trying out the track. "I met Mr. Oldfield at the hotel," she said last night when telling the story. "His manager and Mr. Lang were old friends. At dinner we had been talking about racing and I turned up my nose at the idea of any danger and told them that I had never yet traveled fast enough. Mr. Oldfield immediately took me up and invited me to go out the next morning."

"I was up early to find the machine outside but no signs of Mr. Oldfield, the only man there being a stranger dressed in blue overalls and wearing a rubber cap that he pulled down over his ears. On top of it was a tab with a handkerchief tied by one end. Pretty soon he picked up another queer cap and coat and spoke to me. Then I realized that it was Mr. Oldfield all the time. He pulled the coat over my head and tied it at the neck and it covered me right to the feet. There was a handkerchief tied to my cap too and he snapped a pair of goggles around my head and then fixed his own.

"Pull them down when we get to the course," he said.

"We climbed into the two seats and I found they were deep and built so that once in you are bound to stay there unless someone helps you out. On the back of the seat was an iron bar for another person to hang on to. Right there is where I caloused my knuckles. He started without a word and I was all excitement. He was completely changed and I realized that he was not human but a speed fiend. He looked at me when we came to the course and I had just time to put down the goggles. The machine leaped forward. The dirt was blinding and the wind deafened me. Something hit my goggles and I put up my hand to clear it away but it did not do much good. As everything was a blur. At last after what seemed an eternity it was over and we drew up at the place from which we had started. We were so covered with mud that we looked anything but human. I had a queer, quiet feeling and a sensation as if something inside of me had broken. I don't know just what would have happened, maybe I would have fainted. But Mr. Oldfield said:

"How do you feel now?"

"Sort of empty," I replied. "I am going home and never again will I try to break any records or try out the track."

"It cured me for good."

The Revery Of The Sawmill

By J. W. FOLEY, in the June Popular Mechanics Magazine.

A whirling disk of metal, and it glittered and it sang
As it ate its meal of sawdust, with a buzz and ring and clang;
How they rolled the logs upon it, and it seemed to laugh with glee
As it bit them and it tore them, with a savage melody
That kept ringing, ringing, ringing, so exultantly and clear
As it ate one meal of forest and beheld another near.
And my thoughts went back to boyhood, when the old bucksaw reined
As it slowly ate its luncheon with the help of bacon rind.

Ah, how well do I remember the old bucksaw, seamed and scarred,
Where it stood beside the woodpile, at the far end of the yard;
How, with heavy heart and hopeless, I would lift a log and then
Put my knee upon to hold it and hunt bacon rind again;
How the old bucksaw was rusted where I left it in the rain!
How it doubled where it struck the bark and seemed to cry with pain
When it found a knot and sought to eat its way through it, and wind
Its reluctant trail across it, with the help of bacon rind!

And the days I knew that fishing in the brooks and streams was fine,
When I hunted up my sinkers and the hooks to fix my line,

Just as everything was ready—I had bait enough and more—

Then the need for wood was told me from the open kitchen door:
Gone my radiant dreams of pleasure by the bank of creek or brook,
I must go and find the bucksaw where it hung upon its hook,
And while other boys along the shaded fishing pond were lined
I was smearing the old saw blade with its grease of bacon rind.

So I bless thee, Science, bless thee, for this whirling disk of steel
That has outgrown rind of bacon, and I look on it and feel
There is vengeance in the biting of its metal teeth, you see,
For these logs, they were in boyhood, each, my bitter enemy.

How they made my arms hang heavy and they made my back so lame
When I laid them on the sawbuck and I tightened up the frame
Of the old and battered bucksaw, and its lazy trail would wind
Through the tough and knotted cordwood by the help of bacon rind!

Reception to Bishop.

MANILA, May 1.—Bishop Charles H. Brent, of the Episcopal church in the Philippines, who returned Tuesday morning on the Loongsang from Hongkong, was given a reception last night at the Columbia Club in honor of his return to the islands after an absence of five months in Europe and the United States.

A large crowd was present at the Columbia Club last night to greet Bishop Brent. In the receiving line were Judge Charles S. Lobinger, Mrs. Lobinger, Reverend George William Wright, Mrs. Wright, Bishop Brent, Major Malcolm Hill Barnum and Mrs. Barnum. Reverend Meredith was chairman of the reception and a most pleasant dance enjoyed by the guests of the club.

Bishop Brent was sent from Manila as a delegate to the International Omm Conference, which was organized at the Hague on December 1, 1912.

Injured Bluejacket Recovering.

Chief Yeoman Cornelius, of the cruiser Colorado, who was run down by an automobile on Bagumbayan drive Monday afternoon, and later removed to the Division hospital where an operation was performed for concussion of the brain, was reported to be out of danger last night, and on the high road to recovery.

Chinese Domestic Loan.

MANILA, May 2.—Mr. Li Sun-ling, the genial young Chinese journalist who has been in Manila for the past month in the interest of his government, reports that his work among the Chinese of the city has resulted in the pledging of approximately 500,000 pesos for bonds to be issued as a domestic loan by the new republic independently of the foreign loan about which there has been so much talk during the past two months.

Of the sum pledged, Mr. Li reports that he has collected 120,000 pesos, which has been remitted to the government, for which amount bonds will be issued at once.

From Manila Mr. Li will go to Iloilo and Cebu, where he will endeavor to interest the Chinese communities in the domestic loan. Upon his return from the southern cities he expects to proceed to Peking, to attend some of the sessions of the new Advisory Council which held its first meeting Tuesday.

Mr. Li's visit to Manila was not the result of the desire of the new government to dispose of its domestic bonds in foreign lands, but was requested by leading members of the Chinese community who desired to participate in the loan.

WIFE'S HEALTH RESTORED

Husband Declared Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Would Restore Her Health, And It Did.

Ashland, Ky.—"Four years ago I seemed to have everything the matter with me. I had female and kidney trouble and was so bad off I could hardly rest day or night. I doctored with all the best doctors in town and took many kinds of medicine but nothing did any good until I tried your wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My husband said it would restore my health and it has."

There are probably hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve women's suffering. Read What Another Woman says: Camden, N. J.—"I had female trouble and a serious displacement and was tired and discouraged and unable to do my work. My doctors told me I never could be cured without an operation, but thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am cured of that affliction and have recommended it to more than one of my friends with the best results."

division in many years, in carrying out the reorganization of the Philippine division which was announced in the intention of the war department in the Cablenews American of March.

Contrary to the expectations and the fears of many cities at which army posts are located, Camp Jones and Camp Wilmett are the only posts actually to be abandoned in the reorganization scheme.

Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign.

MANILA, April 20.—An outdoor meeting on the Normal school campus, attended by some two thousand people, including a large representation of the Filipino teachers' vacation assembly, celebrated the annual anti-tuberculosis day Sunday afternoon. The program of speeches and music arranged by the Philippine Islands anti-tuberculosis society, began at 4:30 p. m. with Acting Governor General Newton W. Gilbert, chairman. Several excellent numbers were played by the constabulary band.

BAGUIO, April 25.—Anti-tuberculosis Day in Baguio was observed by a meeting at Teachers' Camp. The attendance was not as great as expected, about one hundred people being present. J. J. Coleman, director of the Teachers' Assembly, presided.

The first speaker was Commissioner Dean C. Worcester, who gave a brief discourse on the ravages of the great white plague and of the plans for the eradication of the disease from the Philippines. He stated that there were more deaths annually in the islands caused directly by consumption than the total fatalities of the cholera epidemic of 1902, at which time the government appropriated half a million pesos to fight that disease. No money has been spent from government funds in the anti-tuberculosis campaign which stands to have even greater results. The value of outdoor sleeping and the dangers of personal contact with sufferers were emphasized.

Farewell to the Harmon.

FORT MILLS, Corregidor, May 3.—Thursday evening a very fine musical and vaudeville entertainment was given at the pavilion, complimentary to Colonel and Mrs. Millard F. Harmon, who are about to leave the post for the United States. Every number on the program was excellent and well selected. The 9th Artillery Band, under the leadership of Chief Illingworth, gave a splendid program of numbers, making a big hit on the illustrated selections.

Colonel and Mrs. Harmon left the post Friday afternoon to take advantage of the southern island trip on the Seward. Upon their return to Manila they expect to take advantage of transportation to Japan where they will spend a few weeks before proceeding to the Presidio of San Francisco.

Saw Town Burning.

MANILA, April 30.—Passengers on the railway train from Baguio Sunday were startled as the train drew near the town of Mababac, near the boundary line between Tarlac and Pampanga provinces, to notice that a fierce conflagration appeared to be sweeping the town. When the train pulled into the station and stopped to allow a north bound train to pass, the passengers witnessed a scene of calamity and distress. Nipa houses, tiendas, and the more substantial buildings were already in ruins in several parts of the town and elsewhere flames shot into the sky for hundreds of feet as the fire licked at the sun burnt nipa structures.

The fire had evidently been for some time beyond control of the residents. Here and there the terrified natives scurried with what possessions they had rescued from the blaze, many of the women and children screaming in their fright at the uncontrolled ravages of the fire.

As there was apparently nothing that could be done to aid the stricken people both trains proceeded on their way through the burning town.

The Pacific Fleet.

The supply ship Glacier, which returned to Mare Island for supplies when the three vessels of the Pacific fleet now in Philippine waters left Honolulu for Manila, and which will bring to the islands target rafts which will be used by the vessels in their spring target practice, is to arrive sooner than was expected and will drop anchor at Olongapo about May 7, instead of May 15, as was previously announced.

As soon as possible after the arrival of the Glacier the fleet will repair to the target range, lay out the field and commence their battle practice. This practice will occupy at least two weeks after which the vessels will again go to Olongapo for such repairs as may be made necessary by the practice, and will leave for the China coast about June 7.

No intimation has yet been made as to the probable length of the stay of the vessels in Asiatic waters, or whether they will become a part of the present fleet. The officers of the divisions are entirely ignorant as to the purpose of the visit of the vessels or what is ultimately to become of them.

Australian Tourists.

Manila is likely to have an ever increasing influx of Australians, both as tourists and as investors, according to Captain Baikie, of the steamer Eastern, of the Eastern and Oriental line, which vessel sailed from Manila yesterday for Hongkong.

Captain Baikie said that of all the countries of the Orient, Australians took the greatest interest in Manila. He believes that if properly advertised, the next carnival should draw many tourists from Australia from the most wealthy and influential classes.

Battle of Manila Bay.

CAVITE, May 2.—The annual celebration of the "Dewey Heroes" was held last night at the residence of E. Valmas, and the representation was the largest in the 14 years this organization has existed, there being nineteen veterans present.

The roof garden was beautifully decorated with ensigns and bunting, and at one end was hung a life size photograph of Admiral Dewey, with the 4-star flag in the background.

Merrick W. Creagh of Manila, who was Admiral Dewey's yeoman, was master of ceremonies. When all were assembled, a toast was given to the Admiral, embodied as follows, and signed by those who took part in the Battle of Manila Bay:

"To Admiral George Dewey:

"Greetings.—The undersigned, members of your fleet in the battle of Manila Bay May 1, 1898, assembled at the residence of Mr. E. Valmas at Cavite, P. I., to celebrate, in the flowing bowl, the anniversary of that memorable occasion, and drank a toast to 'Old Glory' and long life, health and prosperity to our beloved Admiral George Dewey, its gallant defender.

"Flagship Olympia: Merrick W. Creagh, Chaplain J. B. Fessler, H. B. Robinson, Andrew Peterson.

"Baltimore: Max Bathke.

"Raleigh: Edward Rowland, John J. Rodan, William Wetzel, Max Hansen.

"Petrel: John Power, Olaf Larsen, Emil Bethagen.

"Concord: Stephen Murphy, G. A. Wagelle, Wm. Saxton.

"Boston: Wm. Taylor, George Burton, Augustus Williams, Hans Jensen."

Accompanying this letter to Admiral Dewey will be sent a photograph of those whose names appear thereon.

Each member gave an account of the battle, as he saw it and extreme rivalry was created in the discussions as to the greatest merits of the various vessels. As there were two engagements in the battle, so it was fought out last night again in two halves. Refreshments were served, both solid and liquid, and after all differences were settled by reference to the official log, all joined in on Auld Lang Syne and bid farewell to each other for another year.

Regimental Provost Sergeant S. Murphy, U. S. M. C. was officer of the guard, and the following officers at this station were among the guests: Paymaster C. W. Ellason, Captain Landers, U. S. M. C., Chief Carpenter Yates, U. S. N., Ensign Pashley, U. S. N., Regimental Sergeant Major Rowland, U. S. M. C., and Machinist Jones, U. S. N., Captain Macruder, U. S. N., commandant, being unable to attend, sent his regrets. Among others present were James L. Pierce and William Van Buskirk of Manila; P. W. Whitcomb, E. Valmas, Colonel Crosby, Louis Marzell, M. J. Moylan, W. J. Emmett, and John Smith of Cavite.

Moving Pictures.

BAGUIO, April 26.—A large crowd of interested spectators gathered in the big open air amphitheater of Teachers' Camp, on Thursday evening, when Secretary Dean C. Worcester, of the department of the Interior, gave one of the best lectures which has been heard in the Philippines in many years. Motion pictures and stereoscopic views told the life history of the Negritos, their peculiar customs and amusements, and other wonderful scenes in unusual places about the archipelago were depicted on the screen.

THE MORNING CABLE REPORT (Continued from Page One)

NEW YORK, May 28.—President Taft spoke at Atlantic City yesterday to one of the largest crowds that has assembled to hear him since he entered New Jersey. He concluded with the assertion that he would "under no circumstances become a candidate for a third term," if the people of the country saw fit to elect him for a second. Mr. Roosevelt brought his campaign to a finish at Hoboken, New Jersey. There he was greeted by a tremendous crowd. He said that he was glad he had made this night, and that from now he would devote his energies to the struggle at the national convention, "where after all the decision must be made. "They have accused me of having been disloyal to the Republican party, and have said that I have turned my back upon my former friends. This I deny, and I think the record will bear me out. I had to make this campaign. It was in a sense forced upon me, and now that I have gone into it I am glad that I did so. The Republican party was dying of dryrot, would have died of dryrot, if I had not, or if some other progressive had not, gone into the battleground and forced the standpatters to see that the people are awake and that they are still a power in this land." He wound up his address by declaring that he had assurances that South Dakota would give him ten delegates to the Chicago convention. JEFFERSON CITY, Missouri, May 28.—Governor Hadley was asked to accept the position of temporary chairman of the Republican national convention. He said that he would do so, provided the Roosevelt forces were in control of the situation at the time the convention met. SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Third Officer C. B. Kenney, of the Pacific Mail liner Siberia, was sentenced yesterday to pay a fine of $500 and to serve three months in the county jail for having smuggled eighteen tins of opium into the country. CASTILON, Spain, May 28.—In a panic following the explosion of a moving picture film here yesterday eight people mostly women and children were trampled to death. The theater was completely wrecked by the crowd in its frantic efforts to escape from the building, which every one believed to have caught fire from the cinematograph.

SPRAINED ANKLE. A sprained ankle may as a rule be cured in from three to four days by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for Hawaii. Unique Rally for the Left-Handed. ORANGE (N. J.), May 15.—A unique church service is to be held at the first Methodist Church here next Sunday, those invited to attend being left-handed. The pastor, Rev. Dr. William A. Frye, who is himself left-handed, will preach from the text, "But when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, the Lord raised them up a deliverer, Ehud, the son of Gera, a Benjamite, a man left-handed." The pastor's invitation says: "Most great geniuses, though not all, are left-handed, though perhaps I should say that left-handed people are geniuses. There is a real reason for it. The reason people are right-handed is that the left lobe of the brain is more developed. There is distinct advantage in having the right lobe more developed. If this side is more developed you are left-handed. Left-handed people are right brained people and out of the ordinary. They are apt to do the interesting or unusual things. "Do you know that among the great baseball pitchers the smartest are the left-handed ones. The 'southpaws' are in the ratio of six to fifteen great players. "I have conceived the plan of organizing left-handed people into a fellowship. The sign of recognition is to shake with the left hand."

A Family Medicine Without Alcohol Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic and alterative, free from alcohol. What is a "tonic"? A medicine that imparts strength or tone; a medicine that builds up, gives vigor and power. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Ayer's Sarsaparilla does all this without stimulation. Ask your doctor if a family medicine, like Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is not vastly better without alcohol than with it.

IT WILL COST LITTLE TO SEE THE VOLCANO The change of time in running the Mauna Kea between Honolulu and Hilo will make it convenient for those who desire to make a short visit to the volcano at little expense. Beginning Saturday, June 8, the Mauna Kea will leave at four o'clock in the afternoon, arriving at Hilo early the next morning, and train will then be taken for Glenwood, the terminus of the Hilo railroad. At this point stages or automobiles of the Volcano Stables and Transportation Co. will meet the passengers and carry them the nine miles to the Volcano House. The destination will be reached before noon and after luncheon there will be time for a visit to Kilauea-Iki and the other attractions in proximity to the volcano. Later the journey to the pit will begin and once there a desire to remain gets lodgment. From the Dodge reports the lava is showing unusual activity and this fact will draw many to the brink, now that the trip can be made for thirty dollars, which will cover all expenses from the time of leaving Honolulu. The tourists will leave the Volcano House on Monday afternoon and Hilo at five o'clock, reaching Honolulu at seven o'clock Tuesday morning. The new tariff will begin with the change of schedule Saturday, June 8. The steamers will run direct to and from Hilo on the Saturday run.
