TAFTER'S WIN FIRST BLOOD AT CHICAGO

VICTOR ROSEWATER CHAIRMAN OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE

An Industry Ruined By The Fruitfly

An ocular evidence of ruin to a most promising new industry, of the diversified category, attended with bitter disappointment to a European farmer, was presented to the Star's observation this morning, the agent of destruction being the Mediterranean fruitfly. The industry in question consists of the growing and exporting of Chile peppers. For a harvest of this product amounting to 10,000 pounds, contracted in advance for sale at 5 1/2 cents a pound, the grower has nothing but empty skins to show and his selling contract is canceled. Below the victim's story is told.
.....
Rafael Campo is the sufferer. He is an expert farmer who arrived here from Spain in the immigrant steamer

Heliopolis five years ago. In company with J. Dutra he called at the Star office this morning with a paper parcel containing ten or twelve shriveled skins of what had been splendid specimens of Chile red peppers. Mr. Dutra, acting as spokesman and interpreter for him, related his rueful tale as follows:
"This is Rafael Campo, an expert farmer who has a vegetable and fruit farm at Waikiki. He came here five years ago in the Heliopolis.
"He lost $3000 last year on Chile peppers. For the first couple of years he made money. He had a contract with a firm here to deliver 10,000 pounds of sweet Chile peppers in three months at 5 1/2 cents a pound, delivered on the wharf here.
"These Chile peppers were shipped to San Francisco where they brought from fifteen to twenty cents a pound. They went from six to seven peppers to the pound, and were shipped when there were no peppers in California.

KUHIO ON WAY HOME

Cabled advice from Washington has been received here by friends of Prince Kuhio that the delegate is about to leave for Hawaii, as he says that there is no further necessity for his remaining in Washington. No further information has been received as yet as to the real reasons of the delegate's departure from the National capital.

Hawaiian Land Status Reported On

By J. A. BRECKONS.
(Special Correspondence of the Star.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—The report of the hearings before the House committee on territories in reference to House bill 17599, known as the Fairchild bill, forms an interesting record of the land situation in the Territory.
Statements in the hearing were made by B. G. Rivenburgh, Hon. Geo. H. Fairchild, W. A. Kinney and A. S. Tuttle, and in connection with the testimony given many valuable tables of statistics in relation to Hawaiian lands were placed on file and published. The report of the hearings also contains several editorial articles from the Hawaiian Star, and copies of news items from the same newspaper.

Many Want Cleanup Day A Holiday

Postals, telephone calls and delegations have been inundating the office of Acting Governor Mott-Smith all morning, urging him to declare a legal holiday on Cleanup Day.
Superintendent Pope is awaiting word in order to close the schools for the day in case the acting governor should declare a holiday on Cleanup Day and several heads of local business houses have declared their intention to close for the day. The acting governor declares that he will take no action in the matter until he sees the interest evinced by the delegates at the meeting tomorrow evening.
Superintendent Pope has received a communication from the Oahu Central Improvement Committee informing him that he has been made chairman of the school and Boy Scout committee for that day. Other members of the committee are Edgar Wood, Perley Horne, D. H. Hitchcock, Brother Henry and L. G. Blackman. They will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the superintendent's office to complete plans in order to be able to make a full report to the Central Improvement Committee at the meeting at the Young Hotel in the evening.

Arrangements have been made by the executive committee of the central body for a series of addresses at the mass meeting tomorrow night.
Acting Governor Mott-Smith will speak on the purposes of Cleanup Day.
George W. Smith will present the citizens' side of the subject.
Major Kennedy, U. S. A., will discuss the military side of Cleanup Day.
Walter G. Smith will talk about the effect on the community in the outside world likely to be produced by the proposed demonstration of active civic interest in sanitation.

ROOSEVELT TACTICS ARE DEFEATED

(Associated Press Cables to the Star.)
CHICAGO, June 6.—The Republican National Committee elected Victor Rosewater of Nebraska chairman. The Roosevelt men were defeated in the first clash demanding eight votes as sufficient to demand a roll call. Instead of acceding to this the committee fixed the number at twenty. The vote was secret. It is charged by Roosevelt men that the Taft leaders intend to use their majority in the committee to seat the supporters of the President in nearly all contests.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The contests will probably come before the National Committee tomorrow, 53 members voting. Alabama, California and Arkansas contests will be heard first. The Rooseveltists will contest the seats of all the delegates from Alabama and the majority of those from Arkansas. The Tafters will probably confine their California contests to two from the Fourth district. Representatives of the press associations will be admitted.

BRYAN THE DARK HORSE.
PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 6.—Congressman Littlepage, addressing the Democratic State Committee today proposed the nomination of Bryan, in case the convention can't agree on either Wilson or Clark. He described Bryan as "the Cicero of the West." A Bryan demonstration followed. The delegates-at-large were instructed for Clark.

THE BRIBERY EVIDENCE.
LOS ANGELES, June 6.—Today Rogers examined Attorney Ford for the prosecution in an attempt to connect the federal authorities and the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association with the prosecution, Darrow admitted on the stand Franklin's confession in the presence of Judge Lawlor.

POSTPONE MONEY INVESTIGATION.
NEW YORK, June 6.—The investigation of the money trust has been postponed until fall on account of lack of data.

WILSON GETS DELEGATES.
DULUTH, June 6.—The Democratic State Committee gives six delegates at large to Wilson.

JUDGE DOLE RULES AGAINST MAHUKA SITE RESPONDENTS

The monotony of the trial of the Mahuka site case was broken this morning by the first sensation of the week. Jack Lucas took an oath without swearing.
Lucas was called to the witness stand to testify as to the probable cost of moving fixtures from the buildings now occupied by the respondents to other buildings. He was one of several witnesses who testified along that line.
The respondents this morning finished putting on their evidence and the government began its testimony. This occurred about eleven o'clock. United States District Attorney Breckons stated that his first witness was not on hand, so he took up the remaining time of the session with the introduction of documentary evidence.
Judge Dole this morning gave his ruling on the point that was so vigorously argued last Tuesday, whether or not the respondents were entitled to damages for the loss of time and good will during the removal of their fixtures from the buildings at present occupied by them to other premises. The judge in a written decision ruled against the respondents and in favor of the government. His decision was in part as follows:

A question arose as to the introduction of testimony on the following points: To show damages for depreciation of fixtures by removal; damages for cost of removal of property on the premises; and damages for loss of business and profits in consequence of removal from the premises.
The most pronounced opinion in the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States, in regard to damages or compensation for anything outside of the market value of the property taken, is in the Monongahela Case, 148 U. S. 312, 326. The decision in this case is based on its construction.

Parker and Holstein On Taft's Trail

By J. A. BRECKONS.
(Special Correspondence of the Star.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—National Committeeman Holstein and Col. Sam Parker left here today for New York City, where they are to meet President Taft and have a conference with him in reference to Hawaiian political affairs. The President was here but a few hours between the close of the Ohio and the opening of the New Jersey campaigns, and was overwhelmed with work at his office so that he could not give the Hawaiian visitors any time for a conference here. Therefore he invited them to meet him in New York, and possibly accompany him during a portion of his New Jersey itinerary. Messrs. Holstein and Parker desire to lay before the President fully the particulars of the late convention in Hawaii, and also take up with him at length the situation in reference to the governorship.

AGED JOY RIDER REFUSES AID TO DROWNING MAN

Reclining in the back of a luxurious automobile and accompanied by a bevy of pretty Hawaiian girls, an elderly white man when stopped last night along the waterfront by the daughter of Captain Isiah Bray and supplicated to come and save an old man from drowning told her in a gruff voice to call up the police, whose duty it was to attend to such matters, and ordered his chauffeur to proceed with the joy ride. Such is the story told by Captain Bray when seen by a Star reporter this morning.
The incident occurred in connection with the near drowning of a old Hawaiian employed by Eben Low as watchman on his boats. The story as told by Captain Bray is as follows:
"Accompanied by my wife and daughter," he said, "I was coming down to the waterfront last night to row across to my home on quarantine island. As we were passing by where the Mokoli'i was berthed I heard someone say, 'Come here, come here.' I did not take any notice, as I thought it was some Hawaiian on board who had been enjoying himself.

"Looking down, however, I caught sight of a man in the water. I recognized him as Low's old watchman and immediately ran to the rescue. From the deck of the Mokoli'i I passed down a running bowline, which the old man managed to slip over his feet and gradually work up until it was under his arms.
"Just about this time I saw Kaminos, our boat man, coming across for us. My wife called out 'wiki wiki' to him and he made the boat fast at the steps and came round to where I was.

Another Pest Has Arrived

White ants, believed to be of the destructive Philippine variety, have found a lodging place on the dolphins at the outer corners of Alakea wharf and were fast eating the hearts out of the piles when discovered by Entomologist Ehrhorn yesterday. He notified Harbormaster Foster of the danger and a force of men was put to work treating the piles with crude oil in an effort to wipe out the colony. The nests were destroyed and if they are not rebuilt within a week, it is said, it will indicate that the ants have been wiped out.
Specimens of the winged ant were captured and will be examined with a view to learning whether they are a recent importation. The Philippine and African white ants are great destroyers of wood and every precaution will be taken to keep them from gaining a foothold here.
There is a species of white ant here, it is stated, but it is not regarded as dangerous, only a small percent being soldier ants, while of the kind believed to have colonized on the wharf it is stated 95 per cent are soldier ants.

CARTER MAKES QUICK CAPTURE

That Waterfront Officer Arthur Carter did not lose any of his old smartness during the time he chased the wily Mediterranean fruitfly among inter-island passengers' baggage was evidenced yesterday afternoon when he apprehended Joel D. Hall, a deserter from Lellehua, as he stepped off the ship William P. Frye where he had been trying to make arrangements for a trip round the Horn.
Hall got into some sort of trouble out at Schofield Barracks last Friday afternoon and later in the day it was found that he had disappeared. Orders were given for a search to be made and during the week the various patrols have been watching the town closely.
Yesterday Hall attempted to make a ship along the waterfront and this was where he made a mistake. Carter, who had been warned of the escape, was on the lookout for him.
Seeing a stranger go on the Virginian his suspicions were aroused and he followed him round to where the ship Falls of Clyde is lying. The man went on board and asked for a job but there was nothing doing apparently as he came off again. As he stepped off the ship Carter arrested him and took him to the station.

WILLARD E. BROWN RESIGNS SEAT ON STOCK EXCHANGE

Willard E. Brown, president of the well-known stock brokerage firm of Halstead & Company, Ltd., has severed his connections with the corporation, as far as active management of the business is concerned, although he still retains a financial interest in it. He will leave for the mainland next Tuesday with his family for a several months' vacation, and upon his return will engage in some other business, the nature of which he has not yet decided upon.
The business will be carried on under the same name, and along the same lines as heretofore by W. A. Love, who with Mr. Brown owned practically all of the stock of the company. The news of the change in the management of the company became known on the street for the first time yesterday, and was a topic of much interest in stock exchange circles, where the firm has long occupied a conspicuous and enviable position.
In confirming the report this morning, Mr. Brown said:

"Yes, I have gone out of the active business as a stock broker. No, don't say I've 'retired,' for I have neither the means nor the inclination for that; but after following the stock quotations constantly for sixteen years I have decided to change my occupation. I am turning over my seat on the stock exchange to Mr. Love, who, by the way, was one of the original five organizers of the exchange in 1898. I was another of that five, but Mr. Love sold his seat when he and I went into partnership.
"I am still retaining a financial interest in the firm, but am getting out of the active work. I am leaving on the Mongolla with my family for a vacation. When I return I shall take up some new line of work, which is undetermined at the present time."
The application for the transfer of Mr. Brown's seat to Mr. Love has been made to the exchange, and will probably be acted upon next Monday.

MOTORCYCLISTS IN COLLISION

A head-on motorcycle collision occurred about 12:15 p. m. today at the corner of Young and Victoria streets. One machine was ridden by G. Howe and the other by H. S. Brink.
The motorcycles were traveling at a good rate of speed when they ran into each other. Both front wheels were broken but luckily neither rider was injured.

Dr. Benz has received word from Dr. C. B. Cooper that he will arrive in Honolulu by the Wilhelmina next Tuesday.

THE FALL OF GENERAL WOOD WILL TAKE PLACE MARCH FOURTH

Major General Leonard Wood, who has his friend Theodore Roosevelt to thank for his tremendous rise in the United States army, is slated to fall from his place as chief of staff of the army March 4. The bill drawn to legislate General Wood out of office has been agreed upon by the senate and house conferees, according to advice from Washington. Representative James Hay, chairman of the house committee on military affairs, is the author of the bill. General Wood will be forced out on a provision of the measure which states that no officer shall hold the office of chief of staff unless he has served ten years with troops prior to his appointment as brigadier general.
The ostensible theory on which Hay acted was that the chief of staff who controls all the movements of the army in time of war should know something of the practical direction of large bodies of troops.

It may be noted in passing, that Chairman Hay is the intimate friend of Brig. Gen. Frederick Ainsworth, who was deposed from office and forced into retirement by General Wood.
Cavalry to Border.
Word was received at army headquarters today from Washington confirming the report that the Second Cavalry had been ordered to the Mexican border on its arrival in San Francisco. The order also gives the assignments of the Sixth and Ninth Infantry, soon to be en route to the mainland from the Philippines. The Sixth Infantry will go into cantonments at the Presidio of San Francisco, and the Ninth will go to Fort Thomas and Snelling, with headquarters at Fort Thomas.

BIG BENEVOLENCE AND TAG DAY

With tag day still several days in the future the activities of the promoters of the tag day campaign have brought forth donations to the permanent endowment fund of the King's Daughters' Home which amount to no less than $7000 during the past four days. Five thousand dollars was turned over to the philanthropic circle a few days ago by the Mary Castle Trust and George P. Castle yesterday added $2000 to this fund as a personal contribution and up to the present time no one has even asked for a tag.
Preparations for the tagging operations Saturday are being rushed and the public interest in the campaign seems to be growing the committee of the King's Daughters which has the management of the affair is increasing the force of taggers, recruiting new girls and assigning those who have already volunteered to their districts and district chaperons.

Harper's Weekly bases an anti-Roosevelt editorial on some published remarks by Arthur Withington in the Newburyport, Mass., Herald, edited by Leonard Withington, formerly of Honolulu.

SHIPPING AND WATERFRONT NEWS

ALLMAN ON CHINA'S BRIDGE

Friends Congratulate Former Chief Officer on Promotion--China Has Few Passengers--Many People Book On Local Boats--Ikala For Oil

Making his first trip here as a captain, Richard Allman brought the Pacific Mail steamer China safely to port early this morning. As soon as the pilot had her alongside the dock a rush was made for the new commander and he was pumped by his friends. Allman took it all very modestly but was pleased all the same.

As chief mate on the Korea he won himself many friends and also during his term as captain of the steamer Panama he made a name for himself. It will be remembered that the first time he took the Panama cut she ran into very heavy weather and things looked as though it was all up with the little ship. Water was pouring through a seam down below and no one would venture down to stop the leak.

Then Allman went himself and lacked a temporary patch in position. On arrival at San Francisco the passengers gave him a testimonial and strongly recommended him to the company. He is wished every success in his new position.

SMALL PASSENGER LIST.
The China brought a small passenger list, only six people stopping off at this port, while there are comparatively only a few going through to the Orient.

Among the arrivals here was Miss Irene Jeffers, who comes to be married. As the dock officials went up the gangway this morning they were blinded by clouds of rice, for Miss Jeffers was trying to get on shore. Those on the ship were determined that she should not get away without some little remembrance, so they got quantities of rice and the decks were thick with the commodity.

The through passengers number forty-eight cabin, four second and twenty-six in the steerage. Included among the latter are a Japanese and two Chinamen who are being deported. The vessel will also take a number of deportees from here.

The China has 503 tons of through cargo and will take on board 850 tons of coal from this port. She leaves tomorrow morning in continuation of her voyage to the Orient.

Included among the through passengers are a number of people going out to join the Burma Oil company.

SONOMA TOMORROW.
The Oceanic steamer Sonoma, which makes her first appearance here tomorrow since she was remodeled, was 512 miles off port at eight o'clock last night and will come alongside the Brewer wharf early tomorrow morning.

She is bringing sixty-four cabin passengers and fourteen in the steerage. Seventy-four sacks of mail are on board and she has general freight amounting to 2165 tons.

IKALA FOR OIL.
The British steamer Ikala arrived in port this morning en route from Mukilteo to Australia with a cargo of lumber.

She is an oil burner and requires 2000 barrels from her agents, the Union Oil company. Owing to the ballast tanks not being pumped out before the vessel came into the harbor, it is possible that she may have to go out again before the oil can finally be taken in, as the empty oil tanks on board have been filled with water. She will get away about Saturday for Melbourne.

SELL FAMOUS BOATS.
VANCOUVER, May 28.—The Casco, a vessel built at great expense by the late Mr. Tevis and used by the famous novelist, Robert Louis Stevenson for his South Sea cruise, will be among the sealers of the Victoria sealing fleet which is shortly to be sold by order of the Dominion Government. Another of the boats is the Vera, formerly the notorious smuggler Halcyon. A former New York to be taken into account by the traveling public. So many and so great are the improvements which have been introduced of late years for the purpose of assisting navigation that a steamer of the size of the Titanic is as handy as the smallest cargo boat. One might even say that she handles, for many small vessels are anything but easy to manoeuvre. Moreover, it is manifestly ridiculous to bring up the manageability theory at all, for when a vessel rushes without warning into an iceberg, not all the handiness in the world could affect the position.

SUGAR WAITING.
Purser Penke of the Helene reports the following sugar waiting shipment: Kukuhale 4500, Honokaa 10,200, Paauhau 6300, Paauilo 25,700, Ockala 12,000.

MANAGER FIRES PITCHER APAU

Word has been received here that Apau, the crack pitcher of the Chinese baseball team now touring the mainland, has been fired from the team by the manager for disobedience of orders.

This accounts for Luck Yee pitching in so many games of late and the repeated rumor that Apau was out of the game on account of a sprained ankle.

GEORGE HORINE WORLD'S BEST JUMPER

NEW YORK, June 6.—George L. Horine, champion high jumper of the world, and a graduate of Stanford University, California, and a member of the American team for the Olympic games, yesterday set a new high mark in jumping. At a noncompetitive trial he cleared the bar at six feet eight and one-quarter inches. This is one and one-quarter inches above the world's record for the high jump set by Horine some time ago.

Kahanamoku May Swim in Hundred And Also Relay

Captain Duke Kahanamoku received a letter from Duke Jr. this morning, from which the following extracts are taken:

"I am practicing swimming a lot these days at the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Kistler makes me swim for all I am worth.

"The other day I swam 200 yards handcap and beat him out. He swam the first two lengths of the tank, which is 200 feet. Shrylock, the intercollegiate champion, chipped in for the last four lengths and only beat me by a scant two feet.

"George Kistler says that he would rather see me swim in the 100 meter race than go in the relay, which is 220 yards.

"Otto Wahle in a letter says that he would like me to be in the relay but that I didn't have to swim in that race if it would interfere with my chances in the shorter event.

"I shall swim in the 100 meters for sure and will probably swim in the relay if I feel right.

"It is very nice here and I shall hate to go home. I would like to remain here all the summer. I learn from Kistler that after the games some of us may go to Germany. France and England and that I will be one of the party."

Chinese Players Cut a Swath At Coney Isle

(Special Correspondence to The Star.) NEW YORK, May 24.—We arrived here a week and two days ago from Baltimore. Three of our games scheduled here were canceled and also games at Washington, Pa., and Lewisburg, Pa.

New York Chinatown is a live district and the people are always fighting among themselves. In the long war a couple of more Chinamen are killed every day. It's pretty dangerous to go near that neighborhood without an experienced guide. For this reason we cook our own meals and, believe me, it tastes a whole lot better that way.

New York Impressions. New York is the best town we have struck yet. Traveling by elevated, subway and street cars is a wonder and the average rate is about a mile a minute. Some of the trains have ten cars and are just as long as our trains at home.

We were entertained on the first day after our arrival by the Chinese students of Columbia university at the Waldorf-Astoria and enjoyed the evening immensely. The entertainment was a benefit for the famine sufferers in China. We all helped out as best we could.

We played our first game here yesterday and lost to the Fordham university, 3 to 0.

At Coney Island. I went down to Coney Island last week and had a very fine time. There are lots of amusements there and some very nice girls who are not a bit stuck-up and who don't mind if you speak to them. I got acquainted with one very nice one. The same evening I lost a fine pearl scarf pin, and think that some pocket-picker must have swiped it. There are many pocket-pickers at Coney Island.

We have ridden the elephants and shot the chutes; also we have seen a woman with long pink hair and some seals that play in a band.

Gea, but Coney Island is a dandy place. Honolulu certainly ought to have something like that.

Lost at Newark. We played a game today at Newark, N. J., and lost, 2 to 1, after an eleven-inning game. It was our second defeat in the East. We play at Brooklyn on Sunday next.

We have met many Honoluluans in New York, among them Dr. Monarrat, and Manager Curtis of E. W. Jordan & Co. They were present at our game on the 22nd.

Mon Yin Chung came down one day last week to see the boys and made a feat in the East. We play at Brooklyn on Sunday next.

Our schedule has been shot to pieces and many games have been canceled. We will stay in New York about a month and a half and have plenty of games in sight.

Yours affectionately, KONOHU FAT CHOY.

CHINESE TEAM WINNERS AT LEXINGTON

LEXINGTON May 9.—In one of the most interesting and best played games seen on the local diamond this season, the Chinese team of the College of Hawaii, Honolulu, defeated the Transylvania University nine by the score of 2 to 0. The game was a pitchers' battle, with Luck Yee having the Chinese have a fast team, all sure fielders and fast on the bases.

The score was as follows:
CHINESE— AB R H PO A E
Hung Chack, ss 1 0 0 0 0 0
Asan, 2b 5 0 2 4 1 0
A. Akana, 1b 2 0 1 0 0 0
Lai Tin, 3b 4 0 0 9 1 0
L. Akana, lf 4 1 2 0 0 0

THE HAWAIIAN STAR

Published every afternoon (except Sunday) by the Hawaiian Star Newspaper Association, Ltd., Star Building, Merchant Street, Honolulu.

WALTER G. SMITH, EDITOR

THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1912

THE STAR—PRESENT AND FUTURE.

That the Star has gone steadily forward to the goal set by its owners at the time of its business organization, does not depend upon special assertion in these columns but on facts which the public knows for itself. The new Star building tells its own story. So does the growing increase of the daily's readers as seen in the street cars and in all public places, and in the burdens of carriers; and in the measurable increase of advertising, the enlargement in size of both the daily and semi-weekly issues. All these proofs of progress are known to the city and the Territory; but there are more in being and in prospect.

For instance the Star is about to acquire a modern press, larger than any now in use in Hawaii, at a cost equal to the entire capitalization of the plant at the beginning of the Star's career. The value of this press to our readers will be clear. With the old press it has been necessary to close some of the "forms" early and get them out of the way; and so it has often happened that we went finally to press with space occupied by matter of a general nature, prepared and printed early, with scant room left for the publication of important news, accruing at a late hour. By means of the new press all "forms" will be held open until nearly the time of issue so that there will be all the space required for the details of events that are slow in reaching us or which press upon a full first page. It can no longer happen that interesting matter will have to go over until the next day while less valuable contributions have the freedom of early printed pages inside. The result will be a better balanced paper, fresher and more complete news, a more reliable issuance and, we trust, more readers.

The growth of the Star's admirable job-plant has already required the installation of a fast Miehle press, by which commercial work may be run off faster than ever before. This press increases the Star's capacity to turn out all kinds of commercial printing and marks the latest improvements in method as well as in speed. Regarding changes in the staff, the Star has already given notice of the retirement of its present editor and its business manager, the former to go into the wider field of promotion for Hawaii on the mainland, and the other to seek fresh avenues of usefulness here. These changes are merely coincidences and in no way halt the progress of the Star, to which the owners will continue to devote their energies, nor reflect upon the capacity of either the paper or its chief employes to meet the public need. The places of both gentlemen will be adequately filled; and the readers of the Star will see no change from the old policies of the paper or in the ideas of public to which it has been devoted for almost two decades.

PROSPERITY AND HIGHER PRICES.

In all is said on the subject of the high price of living, the main cause of it is prosperity and the excess which prosperity begets. Since 1896 the world has been productive and money has been plentiful. Naturally one with anything to sell has acted as if he had a customer with lots of cash and no need of saving it and has thereby felt encouraged to ask more for his wares. It is prosperity which enlarges demand for the things people covet; and as demand grows prices always rise to meet it. By the same token, as demand lessens, as it does in hard times, prices fall to keep within the limit of incomes.

Prosperity accounts for the automobiles, high priced food-stuffs, the extension of credit, tipping, the importation of luxuries, increase of official administrators, increased building outlay, the multiplication of middlemen and the desertion of farming for lines of business which offer greater returns, the choice of professional vocations which decrease the number of producers. Prosperity induces a spirit of recklessness in which buyer and seller share. There was a near-by and concrete example of it in San Francisco when the influx of insurance and loan money to rebuild life city induced a period of fictitious prosperity there. Then everything went up from the wages of bricklayers to the prices of hats. Everybody sought the easy money; everybody felt the stimulus of prosperous times. Bricklayers asked $8 a day of short hours. Common laborers wanted to live high, and the butchers had hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of cheap cuts in cold storage, unable to sell them. Your former $1.50 men wanted prime rib roasts and chickens so as to spend his $6 a day. The era was one of inflation and its phenomena were like that of all such periods.

For years the world, and particularly this nation, has been passing through similar experiences. There is but little cheapness left. The rise of prices goes on in all quarters because there is more prosperity to meet it; and where prosperity does not naturally extend there are strikes to compel a more equal distribution of wealth and socialism to make such distribution permanent. In America the crops have been bumper ones, over and over again. The revenue from the tariff has been large. Money for pensions and military simply changes hands at home. Here is an annual statement, lately received from the government, which tells part of the story. We can only use a portion of it:

The foreign trade of the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will show larger totals than in any earlier year. The ten months' figures covering the commerce down to the close of April, just compiled by the Bureau of Statistics, Department of Commerce and Labor, make it quite apparent that in both imports and exports the totals for the fiscal year 1912 will be the largest on record. Imports seem likely to approximate 1600 million dollars, exceeding by between 40 and 50 million dollars the high record import year 1910, when the total was 1557 million dollars. Exports seem likely to approximate 2200 million dollars, or about 150 million dollars more than those of the previous high record of 2049 million made in the fiscal year 1911.

This growth in foreign commerce, while common to both imports and exports, is especially marked in the export trade. Imports have increased approximately 859 million dollars since 1896, while exports in the same time have increased about 1200 million, the excess of exports over imports in the same period increasing from 103 million dollars in 1896 to about 600 million dollars in the current fiscal year. This excess of exports of 600 million indicated for the fiscal year now closing will be larger than that of any earlier years except 1898, 1901, and 1908, in each of which years it was considerably above the 600 million dollar-line.

The principal articles comprising the 1600 million dollars of imports in the fiscal year, grouped according to the approximate magnitude of their prospective totals are as follows: Coffee, 120 million dollars; sugar, 110 million; rubber, 100 million; hides and skins, 95 million; chemicals, etc., 90 million; cotton manufactures, fiber manufactures, and raw silk, 50 to 65 million; tin, fruits and nuts, and wood, including manufactures, each about 45 million; art works, copper manufactures, raw fibers, diamonds and other precious stones, and wool, between 35 and 40 million dollars each; and tea, spirals, wines and liquors, raw cotton, leather, paper, meat and dairy products, furs and fur skins, fish, cocoa, ranging downward from 20 million to 10 million dollars each. The most conspicuous increases, comparing with 1911, occur in art works, over 50 per cent; hides and skins, 40 per cent; sugar, 15 per cent; tin, 20 per cent; and coffee about 20 per cent.

The leading exports and their indicated totals for the fiscal year are about as follows: Raw cotton, 585 million dollars; iron and steel manufactures, 260 million; meat and dairy products, 160 million; broadstuffs, 135 million; copper, 110 million; mineral oils, 100 million; lumber, etc., 90 million; cotton manufactures and coal, each about 50 million; agricultural implements, cars and carriages, leather, and tobacco, each about 40 million; and vegetable oils and fruits and nuts, between 20 and 35 million dollars each. The largest increases occur in iron and steel, about 20 per cent; meat and dairy products, 20 per cent, and copper and mineral oils, each 10 per cent, the comparisons, both in imports and exports relating to values only.

Here are the year's figures of an unparalleled prosperity for us. The balance of trade is immensely in our favor. Commerce is enriching Germany too, and is still enriching England. All Europe is feel-

THE MONTHLY GROUCH

By WALT MASON.

He gaily goes into the stores and buys brick cheese and oven doors and things and has them charged; the smile he wears is good to see; with fifty-seven kinds of glee his bosom seems enlarged. He seems to like the little graft of buying up a whole blamed raft of goods of divers sorts; and strangers seeing him would say: "He surely has a queenly way! He seems a prince of sports!" But on the first day of the month—collection day, say June the oneth—his sweet smiles aren't there; and when the tired collector comes he snorts around and haws and hums, as savage as a bear. "This bill must be corrected, please; I didn't buy that Sweitzer cheese nor yet that stovepipe hat; you have me charged with potted meat—it simply wasn't fit to eat—I will not pay for that! Your prices are too beastly high; you soak me, for you know that I am always prompt to pay; take back your bill and make it right, then come around next Thursday night—don't bother me today!" The wan collector, tired and pale, must camp upon this fellow's trail and circumvent his wiles; and still the villain she pursues until she wears out all her shoes and sickens of his smiles.

ing richer; even Portugal. Denmark is having its greatest agricultural growth. And with it all, higher prices everywhere have been the precedent condition. It is no longer the Europe of old where tourists could run about and save money over the sum total of expenses at home.

The remedy? Why hard times, such as began the descent of prices in 1873. But are there any of us that would invoke that anti-dote, which is worse than the bane?

Most lessees of land are not permitted, when the lease expires, to remove the improvements they have made themselves or which were already on the soil. Is a grown keawe tree not subject to this rule, or doesn't the rule extend to leases made by the Kapiolani Estate? That corporation has always taken the pound of flesh, whether it was justified in doing so or not. It was accused some years ago of trespassing on the sidewalk space of Alakea street for the Kapiolani building, notwithstanding that it had previously sold the space to the Territory. The public has never heard how that trespass was settled.

But for the untimely death of Governor Johnson, Minnesota, which has given its Democratic delegates to Wilson, would have probably had a leading candidate of her own. Three years ago Johnson was regarded as the coming man. Now it is hard to recall his initials.

Intervention in Cuba is quite another thing from intervention in Mexico. Cuba is not covered by the Draga doctrine, while Mexico is. Besides, every man in Cuba who owns a plot of land or a ton of sugar would like to have it annexed to the American pricelist.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

CAPTAIN ALLMAN (China)—I have prevented me from taking my customary exercise of late and I have accordingly accumulated some weight. I am now in strict training, however, and the fat is coming off nicely.

J. WALTER DOYLE—The Fourth of July celebration this year is going to put all previous celebrations away in the shade. What with the civic parade, the big military tournament, the symkhana afterward, and the lantern regatta and fireworks on the water-front, Honolulu will be right tired when they retire at the close of the festivities, but they will have enjoyed themselves.

WILLARD E. BROWN—Don't say I've "retired." The news that I was getting out of the stock business got around yesterday, and the questions about my "retirement" got on my nerves. I have neither the means nor the inclination to retire from business. Confidentially, I feel that I shall enjoy at least twenty years more work, but what this will be is really undetermined in my mind at the present time.

R. M. LINDSAY (Hilo)—The Hilo boys are getting in shape to play the champion soccer team of Honolulu on the Fourth of July for inter-island honors. We would like to know what colors the Honolulu team will play in and if they want us to supply the referee or not. If they want us to supply the referee we have three or four first-class men right here in Hilo. We would be greatly obliged if the Honolulu team would bring their nets along as we have none.

PAUL SMITH—The big work in connection with the last shakedown of immigrants is over but there is plenty to do now in attending to minor business for the immigrants who depend upon us for advice and assistance where we can give it.

"DOC" NUGENT—The Pake laura drymen have formed a trust and boosted prices so high that I'm afraid I'll soon be suppressed for a nuisance or else have to go bankrupt trying to pay for keeping clean. Who was it said cost of living isn't increasing?

JOHN O'ROURKE—Arrangements for the Hilo Fourth of July celebration are going along splendidly. We expect to have at least 3000 people at Hoolulu Park to witness the program of athletic events and horse races which has been mapped out.

A. T. WISDOM—I sincerely hope that Secretary Super can secure the services of P. W. Lee of the Portland Y. M. C. A. as men's physical director here. I have worked with Lee and know him to be one of the fastest and best in the business. He's on his toes all the time and would prove a live addition to the staff here.

ARCHIE ROBERTSON—I expect to be in fair shape to take part in the A. A. U. swimming meeting on June 11. Pressure of work at the office of land and set out 15,000 plants at a great expense for labor, taxes, city water, etc., and here are results of the hot Chile pepper from the fly, and they are all that way."

Mr. Dutra pointed to the red skins in the opened parcel and continued, now interpreting for Mr. Campo:

"Chile peppers can be grown here better than anywhere else in the world. Any man knowing the business of cultivating the Chile pepper in less than no time can easily accumulate $10,000. There is no end to the mainland market for products of this kind. This experiment alone stands me in the neighborhood of $600 loss. If something is not done in regard to the fruitly our islands will be ruined so far as vegetables and fruits are concerned.

"For this very reason many Spanish families are leaving the islands. Only for this pest two-thirds of those leaving would remain here. Their main object in going to California is to start farming on their own account."

INTENDED BRIDE OF C. F. LOOMIS

The Kansas City Star has the following to say regarding the approaching marriage of Charles F. Loomis, in charge of the boys' work at the local Y. M. C. A., and Miss Alice Richardson of Kansas City, which will take place here late in the summer:

"A romance began three years ago between two sophomores of the University of Missouri. Last spring both were graduated and the young man accepted a position as director of boys' work in the Y. M. C. A. in Honolulu. But three thousand miles failed to end the romance. Miss Alice Richardson, a daughter of E. E. Richardson, 104 Westport avenue, will sail July 24 for Honolulu to marry Charles F. Loomis, the M. S. U. young man. They will be married at the home of Paul Super, general director of the Y. M. C. A., who was in Columbus, Mo., yesterday.

"Miss Richardson was graduated from Manual Training High School in 1907. In the fall she entered the University of Missouri. She was president of the Y. W. C. A. there and a member of the Delta Gamma Sorority. Mr. Loomis, whose home was in St. Louis, was a Pi Kappa Alpha."

SUPER WRITES OF HIS QUEST

General Secretary Paul Super of the local Y. M. C. A., in a letter received from him this morning, states that he is negotiating with two men for the position of men's physical director of the association here. One is P. W. Lee, assistant director of the Portland association who has had ten years' experience in the work. The other is H. E. Barlow of Oak Park, Ill. He has been in charge of the work at Oak Park for two years and is a graduate of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. training school.

Secretary Super also sends additional data on W. E. Johnson, the crack University of Missouri athlete who has been engaged as boy's physical director. He says Johnson's record for the mile is 4.27 flat, ten minutes flat for the two miles and 55 minutes for ten miles. Johnson will go to the Lake Geneva physical training school for a term before reporting for duty here.

KAKAOKO MISSION.
The Loyal Temperance Legion of Kakaoko Mission held its fourth meeting Tuesday at the Mission, with Sam Kamaka, president, in the chair. He and his staff of officers had their hearts made glad by eighteen new members signing the pledge, making a membership of fifty-four. Those interested in temperance should rejoice at these young people, banded together in behalf of temperance and promising to do great things for others as well as themselves.

W. Holt has applied for a wholesale, and M. Faria for a retail liquor license, both at Wai'alua.

AT THE THEATERS

HOUN' DOG SONG.

The famous Houn' Dog song, of which Absalom is the local hero, will be sung at the Liberty theater to-night by Dodie Canfield who takes the part of Bill Brown in the "Dream Girl," the new piece the Juvenile Bostonians are to put on.

"The Dream Girl" is the best piece the company has in the repertoire. Mrs. Lang secured the exclusive rights for touring on the road and the Bostonians are the only people who have shown the piece outside of New York. They crossed the continent three times with it and each time won greater credit.

Clever little Jacques Casad, who has only been so far seen in minor parts, takes the lead, playing Alita. She was engaged specially to play Alita and is considered one of the cleverest juveniles in the business at the present time.

All the old favorites will be on deck with their new songs. Thom Hellen, as Captain Lonnie Austin in the Minnie McGluck, has a new song in "Then That Clear Went Out." She will also sing "Mort Amour." Dodie Canfield has the famous Houn' Dog song and "Girls Girls Girls." Ethel Stoddard has a pretty song entitled "If Someone Only Cared," while among the songs to be given with the chorus effects there are "I Want to Powder My Nose," "The Kiss Duet," "I'll Be Your Little Sister," and "Light Up Your Face With a Smile."

In the interval between acts the management will introduce Lizzie Weller, one of the most remarkable trick pianists ever performing on the vaudeville stage. Miss Weller, who is only a young girl, was performing in New York when an offer was made for her to show in Australia. The terms of the offer were so advantageous that she could not refuse. Finishing her contract there she received a cable to return to New York at a salary of $200 a concert. She broke the journey here and will be seen for a limited engagement at the Liberty.

The acoustics of the big theater is now perfect and there is no difficulty in hearing from anywhere in the house.

One-Legged Acrobat Gives Wonderful Performance.

Curran, the one-legged marvel, gave a very wonderful show at the Bijou last night. Sometimes using a crutch but the greater part of the time hopping on one leg he gave exhibitions of high kicking, hand leaping and balancing and flying rings and trapeze work, in which he was ably assisted by May Voegtler, who is an athlete herself. His most difficult stunt was leaping over four chairs and a large table. He is an all around entertainer, being able to sing and dance and tell stories.

Tonight the midweek change of program will be on and in addition to Curran the monopede three first class vaudeville turns will be on. The Harts Trio, the famous flying acrobats, will be seen in seemingly impossible aerial stunts. They are in a class by themselves as intrepid gymnasts. Mae Taylor will show more of her new costumes while rendering three new songs. The little comedian is still drawing big and nightly makes new friends by the energy that she puts into her work. Lordy's fourteen dogs and new films by the Lurline will make tonight's bill a first class one from beginning to end.

At the Empire. The cozy little theater is holding its own and is nightly showing to large audiences. The vaudeville program is in the hands of Knotts and Lawrence, a clever song and dance team, and the May Nannery Co. The pictures are the best in town and this theater is constantly being referred to as the home of good films.

BUSINESS SENTIMENT BECOMING CALLOUS TO CURRENT POLITICS

NEW YORK, May 25.—The highly confused political situation can hardly be classed as a bull argument upon stocks. Nevertheless, the stock market has shown remarkable indifference to the vicissitudes of an exciting political campaign. Fortunately, business sentiment is becoming more and more callous to such influences; although it cannot be expected to maintain such indifference at all times. There is still another five months of political discussion to be endured, consequently the market is liable to shocks from this quarter for some time to come. The critical period will have to be faced next month when the conventions are held.

Crops Improving. The most favorable element in the situation is the crop outlook. Although the season is still two to three weeks backward, there has been a decided improvement in conditions during the past two weeks. The outlook for grain is much better; a large hay crop is in prospect, and in many sections of the country the outlook for fruit is for the largest yield in several years. There is also a good chance for corn, in spite of the lateness of the season. In various States it is evident that the farmers are going to plant as large an acreage as possible in order to reap the advantage of present high profitable prices. The cotton crop is exceedingly late, and it is still too early to form any positive idea as to this year's acreage, although the general opinion inclines toward a decrease.

Another encouraging feature often overlooked is the satisfactory state of our foreign trade, the results of which for the current fiscal year promise to surpass all records both in exports and imports.

General Trade Slackens. The feeling in general trade is less buoyant. Initiative has been checked by political uncertainty, and merchants are pursuing a hand-to-mouth policy. The steel industry is an exception and continues more active than any other. About 95 per cent of capacity is fully employed. The output in some respects surpasses all records, and mills are now securing better prices. Profits, however, are very small, since prices are really low considering the rising costs of production.

In the textile trade there is a halting disposition. In some cases the distribution of goods has been positively checked by current high prices. It is not without significance that twelve out of twenty-six of the cotton mills in New Bedford have recently been forced into the non-dividend paying list.

Money Continues Easy.

The outlook for the money market is for continued ease until crop demands assert themselves. The demand for money from mercantile sources has hardly equalled expectations. The demand for stock market purposes has also been limited. Our bank reserves are somewhat reduced but could quickly be replenished by drawing upon our resources abroad. Germany is just now passing through a somewhat serious financial strain, owing to excessive speculation during the last few years, and the outcome of this situation will be watched with increasing interest.

There is another part of the world where similar conditions exist. Canada has enjoyed a grand "boom" for several years, particularly in her railroad and agricultural development. There are signs of this movement having been carried to excess. Fortunately this has been recognized by the best financial leaders in Canada, and sharp restraint is now being imposed upon ill-considered ventures.

Financial Readjustment. In stocks the outlook is for a somewhat irregular market. Speculative operations are still apparently in strong hands. Those who led the recent upward movement have not yet succeeded in distributing their surplus holdings. This probably explains in part the stubborn refusal of the market to react upon unfavorable news. Intrinsic conditions, however, are generally sound. Railroads are reporting better earnings, and labor troubles appear less serious, for the reason that such differences are being more satisfactorily settled by arbitration and negotiation than by strikes, which simply injure both parties to the contest. A feature of late has been the relative weakness of high-grade bonds, or Government, State and municipal securities. Of late more attention has been given to the better class of industrial shares as investments for the reason that these often show better returns than railroad shares and after a series of years have proved their steady earning capacity.

HENRY CLEWS.

in and by this time it was ten.

Would Not Help.

"My daughter heard an automobile coming and ran out to stop it and ask for assistance. She does not know who the occupants were but tells me that there was a chauffeur and in the back an elderly white man with a bunch of Hawaiian girls. She asked him to come and help me save the old Hawaiian from drowning but the man told her to call up the police as it was their duty and then ordered his chauffeur to drive on. Unfortunately she did not see the number of the machine.

"I then called up Eben Low and told him what had happened. He called for the ambulance and in less than ten minutes the wagon was down at the dock and they had taken the man to the hospital. It is lucky that my wife and daughter were with me or Kohli might have been drowned. They are both fine sailors and could give me great assistance. From what I could gather the old man fell over when fixing one of the lights."

JUDGE DOLE

tion of the Fifth Amendment, referring to the clause relating to the taking of private property for public purposes. It says: "And this just compensation, it will be noticed, is for the property, and not to the owner. Every other clause in this Fifth Amendment is personal. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, etc. Instead of continuing that form of statement, and saying that no person shall be deprived of his property without just compensation, the personal element is left out, and the just compensation is to be a full equivalent or the property taken."

Counsel for the government have referred the court to a number of cases which appear to take the view of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Monongahela case, but I feel that the construction which tends to place the person whose property is taken by the United States in as near as possible, the same financial condition as he was before the taking, is the view that is best supported by those considerations of justice and fair dealing which all governments should insist upon, not only as to their own interests but in relation to the interests of all with whom they deal, and is not inconsistent with the language of the Amendment. This court, however, recognizes the fact that the weight of authority is against this construction and that it is controlled in its application of the law by the precedents of the Supreme Court of the United States. Under that authority, therefore, the third point, i. e., damages for loss of business and profits caused by removal to another locality, can not be allowed.

The taking will cause damage to the removable fixtures of the lessees in their detachment from the building and removal to another locality. Evidence may be received to show such damage.

I have doubts as to allowing the expense of removing movable fixtures under precedents which refuse such expenses on the ground that at the expiration of the lease they would have to be removed in any case, unless such lease was extended, and will therefore rule against the admission of testimony showing the cost of removal.

Secretary C. G. Owen of the Kona Tobacco Company received information yesterday from New York that twenty-one tons of the company's tobacco product has been sold at a price which is satisfactory. The company's crop amounts to about 12,000 tons. Manager Daniels has been in the East for some time endeavoring to market the product. The company intends to manufacture cigars of its own leaf in Kona.

SOCIETY

"I have been a buffer between you and your mother for eighteen years," she said with spirit. "But now I'm going to quit."

She was a little, tired-looking woman, but she had called up enough grit to take a stand for better conditions in the home.

Her situation is not the only one of its kind in the country. Many another wife has played the part of buffer between husband and domestic troubles. Many a husband has been a buffer between his wife and the hardships of the world. How far is husband or wife called upon to be a buffer? How long should the condition endure?

This woman had sunk her individuality, her every personal ambition, to shield her husband from all the little petty annoyances of a home in which an exceedingly disagreeable mother-in-law had done all she could to make trouble. She was an exceedingly disagreeable woman before she was a mother-in-law. Being a mother-in-law had not brought out the capricious, petty, taunting traits that made her a thorn in the flesh wherever she went. None of the other in-laws would have her to live with them. But this little daughter-in-law had taken her in and stood bravely at her post of pouring oil on the troubled waters of the home, so that when the husband returned at night, everything should be peaceful and serene and apparently happy.

And he accepted this situation complacently. He knew the sort of woman his mother was. He could not help knowing that, at times, she made his wife unhappy. But his motto was: "Let sleeping dogs lie." When he came home at night, he was tired. He wanted peace. And since he found peace, he didn't ask its price.

Without doubt, a wife should stand between her husband and many of the petty difficulties of the home-life, just as he stands between her and the hard problems of earning the living. But the danger is that both husband and wife may slip unconsciously into the attitude of letting the other endure too much. It is a habit that grows. It is pleasant to be sheltered and protected. And we may luxuriate in it to such an extent that we are unwilling to rouse, when we see the one who is providing us with this protection enduring more than is just.

Then again, it must be borne in mind that though the man is nominally earning the living, the wife is doing her share in managing the home. Many an easy-going husband still cherishes the delusion that he is the worker, and that his wife has the easy end of the load. Therefore he looks upon it as his due, that all home difficulties shall be smoothed from his path. But in the marriage partnership, she is probably doing just as much as he; and though it is part of her work to smooth out the home difficulties, there may come a time when these make her end of the load the heaviest. And then he ought to turn in and shoulder his share.

Each is a buffer up to a certain point. But the eyes of love ought to be keen enough to see where interference is necessary and help needs to be given. Else it may come to the point, as in this case, where one or the other decides to stand it no longer. And when a feeling of rebellion, or a sense of injury, creeps in, the happiness of the home is in danger of being destroyed.

SOCIAL NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mr. Herbert Dowsett and Miss Laura Nott, whose approaching wedding is being looked forward to as one of the social events of the year, were guests of honor last evening, at an elaborately appointed dinner at which Mrs. A. J. Campbell was hostess. The diningroom in Mrs. Campbell's home was a veritable bower of pink and blue, great branches of Carthagenus were arranged throughout the room, and long-handled gilded baskets filled with the same blossoms were suspended from the ceiling at the four corners, with pink and blue tulle. Gilded baskets, their long handles draped with tulle and filled with dainty pink bride's roses were arranged upon the round table. A large Cupid with his bow and arrow poised in mid air was suspended from the chandelier, and the favors were little Cupids. Musical place cards marked each cover.

Mrs. Campbell's guests were the members of the bridal party, including Mr. Herbert Dowsett, Miss Laura Nott, Miss Catherine Goodale, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Grace Davis, Miss Muriel Howatt, Miss Alice Cooke, Mr. Dixon Nott, Dr. Hedemann, Mr. Ed. Hedemann, Mr. Guilford Whitney, Mr. George Fuller, and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell.

Miss Grace Robertson and Mr. Robert R. M. McEldowney will be married at St. Andrew's cathedral at 9 o'clock, Wednesday morning, June the 12th, and will leave for Los Angeles at 10 in the Sonoma. Miss Sybil Robertson will be the maid of honor and Mr. George McEldowney will act as best man. Other members of the bridal party are Mr. Carl Myer and Mr. Banker. The Rev. Leopold Kroll will officiate.

Miss Mary von Holt was hostess at a luncheon yesterday afternoon for Miss Laura Nott. The color scheme for the decorations was pink and the effect was carried out with dainty pink roses. Each of the guests was given a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Francis M. Swanzy was dinner hostess last evening for Mr. and Mrs. Singlehurst. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mrs. Clarence H. Cooke entertained at a children's party yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the birthday of her little daughter Alice. The favors were little Japanese dolls and bon-bons filled with pink and white candy. After playing games on the lawn, the little folks gathered around

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Irwin are being much entertained since their arrival at Honolulu. Mrs. Eleanor Hyde-Smith gave a dinner in their honor at her Waikiki bungalow that was the most beautiful and artistic affair imaginable. The house was one mass of chrysanthemums. On the table was a low brown basket filled with gorgeous chrysanthemums and tied with a large bow of yellow tulle. Mrs. Harold Dillingham gave a luncheon for Mrs. Irwin, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers gave a dinner in honor of the visitors. The Iverses also entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Crocker, giving a surfing and supper party for them.—Chronicle, May 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown and family, who leave by the Mongrelia next Tuesday, will spend the summer in the vicinity of Lake Louise, in the Canadian Rockies. They will probably return in the fall in time for the opening of the schools.

The graceful fishu shows no hint of vacating the field; and for the summer, at least, it will remain high in fashionable favor. This dainty fishu model is fitted at the shoulder line so that the pleats lie very smooth and flat on the figure. A strap of Irish lace beading covers this shoulder seam and also the seam at the center-back where the folds come together. The fishu is caught at the bust with a rose of deep mauve satin, matching the color of the straw hat, and the plume is slightly lighter in tone. Hat and fishu make a charming restaurant costume when the tailored coat is removed.

Stop That Headache and Save Your Nerves

Do not try to endure a headache, waiting with what patience you can until you have "worn it out." Why should you? It's a great deal better to save your nerves the wear and tear of torture.

Stearns' Headache Wafers (Shac)

—a tiny tasteless wafer—brings you relief in a few minutes—real relief in that—leaves your head feeling clear and natural. When this certain case from that pain is always at hand (or at the nearest drug-gist's) there is no reason for suffering from headache. You would not consider it wise to suffer from a cinder in your eye or a thorn in your hand a moment longer than necessary. Think it over—and remember that Stearns' Headache Wafers cure, yet never cause the formation of a drug habit.

A PARASITE THE SOLE HOPE OF EXTERMINATING THE FRUITFLY

While approving of the methods of fruitfly control adopted here, as being the same as those that had been in any degree successful elsewhere, Dr. E. V. Wilcox, agent in charge of the Hawaii Experiment Station, believes that conditions here are such that it is hopeless to look for the extermination of the pest excepting through the introduction of some parasite that will kill it off. At the same time great care has to be exercised in introducing parasites, as sometimes when they use up their chosen meat they become destructive pests themselves.

Dr. Wilcox expressed these views publicly yesterday afternoon before the board of agriculture and forestry. He also told of experiments to determine what kinds of fruit grown here the Mediterranean fly will attack. The favorable conditions for the pest here he described thus:

"We have some tremendous problems to solve. I refer to the fact that from the seashore to the top of the mountains there is one continuous food supply for these pests, and it is here the year around. On moist land it is the guava; in dry sections it is the prickly pear. They are in localities where it is almost impossible to get to them.

"The main difficulty from the human standpoint is not the impossibility of doing it, but the uselessness of it from our present point of view. It seems to me that with the apparent certainty that the fruitfly is not in pineapples and is not likely to be, if you face the possibility that bananas may be excluded by California from the market and the other fact that the financial injury to coffee from the fruit fly is not great, so far as we can judge now, and there are so little financial interests behind the fruits which are attacked, the question will soon be raised whether these petty industries can stand the expenditure of this campaign."

Dr. Wilcox mentioned the commonly heard remark that if it was a sugar cane pest there would be fifty million dollars to fight it at once; but asked what would that do since the method suggested of getting infested fruit and destroying it was impracticable except over small cultivated areas. He approved of the sending of Dr. Silvestri to Africa for a parasite and, referring again to the difficulties of the situation, said:

"The Territory of Hawaii now consists of a few cultivated patches set down in a mass of rubbish. Nobody could afford to clean that for the sake of disposing of the fruitfly, as the burden would be greater than anything that could be gotten out of it. If we had one continuous system of orchards which gave a livelihood to a great number of men, then every one of those men would have an interest in keeping the fruitfly out, with results that would undoubtedly be better than any system of government regulation that could be devised, where you have to force, coerce and bully people to do what they ought to do.

"The California system has the same defects that ours has. I have been there twice recently and either time I could have put two bushels of fruit in my luggage and carried it in as well as not. No state or territory can force a man to show what he has in hand bags. The custom officers can, but no man acting under a state law can do so, unless he secures a search warrant. Since the fruitfly was discovered here, I do not know of any shipments of fruit that have gone to the other islands, yet the fruitfly has appeared there. People must have taken it there with fruit carried in hand baggage and trunks. I do not think the commercial shipments carry anything like the danger with them as these fruits that are carried by private individuals in their pockets or hand bags. The fruitfly has spread from Honolulu to the other islands almost exclusively from fruit carried in hand bags or in pockets."

The fly had been found, Dr. Wilcox said in the early part of his address, in certain varieties of the papaya and in the avocado pear, but not in the pineapple or the banana—although it had been bred in peeled bananas. It came here from Australia, but the speaker said:

"There is absolutely no evidence that it came in here by anyone's carelessness or malice or neglect, but that it came by perfectly natural means. Coming from Australia would explain why it appeared here so much earlier than in California. Also I think the main point to be considered is that if a fruitfly should escape from a boat here in Honolulu, it would have but a few hours to go to establish itself. It would find a supply all the way from the sea to the mountains. In San Francisco the conditions are different. The conditions there are such that the chances are it would be destroyed before it could reach a food supply."

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING DISCUSSED AT FRIEND MEETING

The present high cost of living in Hawaii, causes, effects and methods of meeting the causes, were discussed yesterday afternoon by eighteen professors and business men of the city—members and guests of the Friend's editorial board.

The meeting, which was called in response to a request from Secretary Hills of the Peace movement in Washington, took up the question of increased cost of living from the local aspect and considered it in its relation not only to the more well-to-do classes of the city but also as it affected the plantation laborers.

It was unanimously agreed that among the causes of the increase were the inroads upon the supply of food by the naval and military forces here, and the fact that the standard of living of the wealthier classes has been raised and consequently has affected prices of foodstuffs.

Other causes found to have affected the cost of the food products are the exportation of large quantities of fruit to the Coast, the monopolization of the market by the middleman and the doubling of plantation wages within the past few years.

In connection with the doubling of wages, Dr. Doremus Scudder laid part of the blame to the educational system which tends to wean the laborer away from the land to the city and shows him the many new ways in which to spend his money.

It was found that meat has increased in price anywhere from 2 to 3 cents a pound, fruits and vegetables are much higher in price than formerly was the case, milk is the same, while poi, if anything, is cheaper.

The methods of meeting these causes of the increasing cost of living were discussed thoroughly and it was agreed that the principal ones were (1) eliminating the middleman, (2) encouraging co-operative methods, (3) the single tax, (4) international arbitration treaties, reduction of armaments and hence lower taxes.

Dr. Scudder presided at the meeting, which was attended by Prof. M. M. Scott of the McKinley High School, Prof. Edgar Wood of the Normal School, President Horne of the Kamehameha Schools, President Gilmore of the College of Hawaii, Rev. W. B. Oleson of the Hawaiian Board, D. L. Withington, Theodore Richards, Alexander Hume Ford, Rev. J. P. Erdman, James A. Rath, Professor Hitchcock, Editor Sheba, F. C. Atherton, P. M. Pond, Rev. A. A. Ebersole, Dr. John Gulick and Frank Scudder.

Talks on the question were given by Dr. Scudder, Dr. J. T. Gulick, F. C. Atherton, Editor Sheba of the Hawaii Shippo and others. All of the speakers agreed that the standard of living was much higher than formerly and that prices had risen accordingly, but there was a disagreement as to whether wages had risen sufficiently in proportion to meet the increased cost.

Dr. Scudder declared that he had found from his own investigations that the cost had only relatively increased and that many local products did not cost much more than they did a decade ago. He mentioned in this connection that it would be interesting to have definite statistics offered to prove the question one way or the other.

Alexander Hume Ford laid the blame of the higher cost of vegetables and fruits to the Chinese hui or middleman who buys all the produce from the local growers and sells in turn to the consumer at a fancy price. Mr. Ford advocated bringing the producer and consumer closer together and eliminating the middleman as one solution of the problem.

The increasing size of the town and the higher standard of living were attributed as causes of the rises in prices by F. C. Atherton. Mr. Atherton declared that the increasing distances and the necessary resulting two deliveries a day cut into the profits of the middleman and made it necessary for him to increase prices in order to meet his increased extraction rates, reduction of armaments and hence lower taxes.

Love of luxuries was another reason given by Mr. Atherton, mentioning the fact that where the household used to be satisfied with one phone, he had to have an extension upstairs now, and, as the women of the household were paying more attention to the esthetic things of life, they had to have two or three more servants than formerly.

"When we are in a hurry now," said Mr. Atherton, "we never think of waiting three weeks for the mail but resort to the cable instead. We used to be satisfied with a horse and carriage, now it must be an automobile and the faster the better."

S. Sheba, editor of the Hawaii Shippo, discussed the situation as it affects the Japanese laborer and illustrated how the love of the good things of this world had reached the Japanese laborer as well as the white men of the city and how consequently he had raised his standard of living perceptibly.

Mr. Sheba described how in former years the Japanese came over here with the intention of staying for two or three years and meanwhile would conscientiously save all of his money or send it back to Japan. When wages were doubled and any Japanese in the city could get a job at one dollar a day, while plantation laborers as well received large increases in wages, he began to spend his money on better food and better clothing.

Mr. Sheba lays the beginning of the raise in the cost of living to the time of annexation, when the contract labor system was abolished and the laborer was made free to come and go as he pleased.

If it obtain permission of all the abutting owners, the company will extend the Wilder avenue switch to Oahu College entrance. A change of route of the Nuuanu Valley line where it enters the downtown section is under consideration.

CRIMINAL CASES BEFORE ROBINSON

The three men against whom indictments were returned by the territorial grand jury yesterday afternoon were arraigned before Judge Robinson this morning. Robert Haehae, charged with assault and battery with a weapon obviously and imminently dangerous to life, pleaded not guilty. The pleas of Harold Edward Wallace and August Santos, charged with robbery in the second degree, were continued to a later date.

A K. Vierra, the police officer who was fined by Judge Monsarrat for assault committed on the occasion that he arrested the boy Manuel J. Perry for sweeping rubbish into the street, has appealed his case to the circuit court. Perry, who was also convicted on the charge brought against him by Vierra, has likewise filed an appeal.

The suit of Annie Garvie Evans against the Bishop Trust Company has been discontinued.

MARKET DULL AND DECLINING

General dullness marked business on the stock exchange today. Also prices are still showing the bearish tendency of the past day or two. Without sales, Ewa was offered at close today at 33 1/4, 25 cents less than yesterday's quotation, while bidders offer but 33 flat. McFlyde fell off 1/8 during the session, closing at 9 1/2 for 200 shares sold. Pioneer is offered at 25 flat without takers. Oahu still holds firm at 25 3/4, since its slump a few days since, but Pineapples have dropped another 1/4, selling at 44 flat. Just why Pineapple stock should be falling in view of bright prospects for a big crop contracted for at high prices, is not clear except on the ground of sympathetic influence of sugar shares. However, there have been no heavy breaks, and from best indications none are considered likely.

PROBATE CASES

The will of the late Dr. Charles T. Rodgers was this morning filed for probate. Letters testamentary were issued by Judge Whitney to Professor William D. Alexander and Henry C. Meyers.

Petition for the probate of the estate of the late D. H. Davis was made to Judge Whitney this morning. There is no will, the deceased having died intestate. Judge Whitney appointed Frederick H. Hons to administer the estate, under bonds of $5000.

Court Items.

Judge Cooper is today trying the case of William Davis and others versus Pokki Davis and others, a petition to establish lost deeds and for an injunction.

Three more suits to quiet title were filed this morning by Judge A. S. Humphreys on behalf of L. Ah Leong, the defendants being Lam Tol et al, Henry Williams et al and C. K. Al et al.

DIVORCE GRIST LARGE TODAY

The divorce court did a rushing business this morning, several divorces being granted by Judge Whitney and several libels for divorce being filed with the clerk of the circuit court.

William George Roberts, more popularly known as Sailor Roberts, the pugilist, was granted a divorce from his wife Susan, on the ground that she is a victim of the Chinese leprosy.

A divorce was granted to Taruichi Higa from Ushi Higa on the ground of desertion.

Edith S. Trahanat has brought suit for divorce from Joseph L. Trahanat, alleging a long list of offenses as her grounds for action. She claims that Joseph has committed adultery with various women in Honolulu, that he has failed to support her, that he treats her with extreme cruelty, that he is in the habit of coming home drunk and that he uses the vilest language to her.

Katherine Davis wants a decree of divorce ridding her of Edward E. Davis, whom she charges with extreme cruelty.

Non-support is the ground upon which Ellen M. Vickery asks for a divorce from Carl A. Vickery.

PURELY HAWAIIAN CIGARS ON SALE

Jared G. Smith, through Fitzpatrick's cigar house, is placing on the market a clear cigar made entirely out of tobacco grown last year on his farm in Kona. Both filler and wrapper are of the homegrown weed. The tobacco has not been reworked or flavored. This purely Hawaiian cigar has been made up in New York, where Mr. Smith left the tobacco when he was back east. This year's crop is on sale in New York now.

Those who have sampled this "Hawaii" as the label is, find it an excellent cigar, a free burner and of exquisite flavor. The average smoker will no doubt find it at least a delicious variation from either the Havana, the Eastern or the Manila brands, while many are certain to make it practically their exclusive smoke.

Plans for a new boat landing have been approved by the harbor commission. It will be located in the make end of the Alakea slip between the Richards and Alakea street wharves.

CLUBS ACTING ON CLEANUP DAY

The Alewa Improvement Club, at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, appointed Frank J. McLaughlin captain of the district for Cleanup Day.

A meeting of the Kalia Improvement Club appointed Manuel Peter captain for the Kalia district, with Henry O'Sullivan, Harry Francon and A. L. Perry as lieutenants.

The Manoa Improvement Club appointed W. A. Greenwell captain of the upper part of the district with headquarters at Oahu College, and E. Buffandeau captain of the lower part with headquarters at his home on Alexander street.

A caucus of directors and members of Waiwala, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club, incorporated, met at the house of H. T. Mills and appointed A. F. Clark as captain, also a tentative list of lieutenants, and made eight subdivisions of the district for inspection. Headquarters will be at the Kaimuki Mercantile Co.'s building, at car terminus. The action of the caucus will be submitted to the club tonight for approval.

All the clubs will report to the Central Improvement Committee meeting in the roof garden of the Alexander Young Hotel tomorrow evening.

REAL GYMKHANA ON THE FOURTH

The Fourth of July celebration this year, for which great preparations are being made, will be marked by the holding of a real gymkhana at Kaplania park following the big military tournament in the afternoon. This decision was reached at a meeting of the sports committee, of which Charles Chillingworth is chairman, this morning.

According to present plans the gymkhana will include all the usual sporting features such as novelty races of all kinds, and several unique stunts which will be announced when the arrangements have been completed. The young equestrians and equestriennes of the city will have a chance to display their horsemanship in potato spearing races and tilling at the rings. The greased pig will probably put in an appearance together with the greased pole, and of course there will be sack, wheelbarrow and egg races.

The general committee on the celebration of the Fourth will probably meet tomorrow for a conference. According to J. Walter Doyle, the merchants of the city of all races are deeply interested in the civic parade of floats and have not been slow in contributing to the celebration fund when called upon.

YOUNG ELOPER IS KILLED.

HOUSTON, Tex., May 30.—Lloyd Jackson, a wealthy youth was killed today by D. M. Moody, just as Jackson and Moody's daughter were about to elope to wed. Jackson was killed as he waited near a second-story case of the Moody home, and Moody asserts he shot because he thought he had caught a prowler about to enter his daughter's room. In a dying declaration Jackson asserted that Moody had objected to the match.

JAGGED WIGHT SOUGHT WARRANT

A man with a warrant walked into the room where Judge Monsarrat daily presides; he'd a peach of a jag and his footsteps were mixed and he hummed a cute ditty besides.

"Where's judge?" queried he as he fell o'er a bench; "where's jolly old judge?" quoth he. "A fellow named Scott has been pleased me to swat and I want him arrested, by Ges!"

"Oh take him away," said Arthur M. Brown. "And please do it quick," said the judge. Fred Weed and Aman arose in their might and the man left the room shouting "fudge!"

Proceedings went on and Fred Weed fell asleep while Brown took a much needed nap. Apana went out for a fresh one—the judge was in a brown study, mayhap.

Anyways, the staid silence was suddenly broke by "I've got you at last, Mister Judge. Will you kindly sign this then we'll all have a drink just to show that I bear you no grudge." Freddie Weed woke so quick that he upset the ink, A. M. Brown with a start came to life; Apana blew in with the froth on his lips—from afar he had scented the strife.

The judge said, "I don't wish your feelings to hurt but I fear that your self you're not quite, so come back tomorrow and perhaps by then you'll see things in a different light."

"Right-o," quoth the man with the peach of a jag, "although the assault's not condoned, I'll come back tomorrow to Mr. Scott's sorrow—conclier the case postponed!"

FATHER FINED FIFTY DOLLARS

Judge Monsarrat is still ruling in the district court with a heavy hand. This morning he sentenced Charles Bradley to pay a fine of $50 and costs for beating his eight-year-old daughter with the handle of a whip.

According to the testimony the little girl stayed away from home all of one day and her father thereupon chastised her so severely that her back and shoulders were a mass of bruises and welts.

George Kikila, charged with assault and battery on his wife, was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs.

Six Chinese gamblers were fined $5 and costs, so was John Ako and Yee To Pen.

Three Japanese gamblers forfeited bail of $10 and T. Johnson, J. Akina, T. Kim, George Horman and Sam Ke-ali did likewise.

Tom Sheridan was fined $4 and costs for drunkenness and A. Botelho, similarly charged, got off a dollar lighter.

CRATER TRIP ENJOYABLE.

There is no wonder in the world greater than the volcano of Kilauea. There is no volcano of safer approach and which may be visited by persons in Honolulu for so little money that every one who has not seen a lake of fire should take the Mauna Kea on Saturday and make the trip to the Volcano House. The expense of the entire trip including transportation both ways and hotel accommodations is but $20, and the trip will occupy the time between Saturday at 4 p. m. and Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. Whether one goes from Hilo by train or automobile the ride is a pleasant one, for there is still something of the primeval Hawaiian forest left at the higher elevation. There is ample accommodation for a large crowd at the Volcano House and the service will be first class. Tickets for the trip may be had at the office of the Inter-Island Company on Queen street.

ALL SIGNS POINT TO BOLT IN THE CHICAGO CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Two Republican conventions for Chicago next month are declared today to be assured by many of the active workers in the Presidential fight. Though the managers of the two campaigns refused to declare what arrangements are being made for such a situation, both are standing firm in their positions, which are expected to force such a break in the party. The Taft managers declare that they have safe control of the national committee, that practically all of the Roosevelt delegate contests are unsound and that they will be thrown out.

The Roosevelt managers indicate that they will withdraw from the convention if they conclude that the "steam roller" methods are being applied to their contests. Among the rank and file of the party in Congress there is no secret of the apprehension that two conventions will result from the bitter fight which already is assured for Chicago. One positive statement was that options have been closed for a second convention hall.

No Wavering by Taft Men.
The threat of such a break has not caused any wavering in the ranks of the Taft managers toward a compromise candidate. They insist that the President will without doubt be the nominee of the convention and the regular candidate of the Republican party. All of the speculation is over who is to be the second man on the ticket and the list of suggested possibilities is longer than the roster of states, territories and insular possessions.

One of the strongest indications of the seriousness of the threatened disruption of the Republican party was a story which emanated from Roosevelt headquarters yesterday in which one of the men close in the councils of Senator Bacon announced that the new wing will be known as the "Constitutional" party. He left no doubt that he is firmly convinced of the organization of a new party is assured, but suggested that possibly the majority, which on the same theory will control the Chicago convention, might agree to relinquish the name Republican and give it to the seceders.

Battle in Committee.
The demand that committeemen-elect be permitted to take places in the meetings of the Republican National committee will be one of the first controversies to come before that body when it meets in Chicago next week. Though such a proceeding would be irregular, strong pressure is being brought to bear by the

NEW YORK JUDGE WHO
FACES SERIOUS CHARGES;
BAR ASSOCIATION ACTS

JUDGE
MULQUEEN

NEW YORK, May 18.—The Bar Association is investigating the charges that have been made against Judge Joseph F. Mulqueen of the court of general sessions. Among the accusations against Judge Mulqueen is one that in May, 1911, he directed a jury to return a verdict of not guilty against two men indicted for burglary in the third degree, on the ground of "improper conduct" on the part of a detective on the witness stand.

Roosevelt forces to accomplish it. If it succeeds to the extent of giving members-elect a voice in the deliberations of the committee, the complexion of the body will be considerably altered.

A check-up of the fifty-three members made in the Taft headquarters today showed that the President's leaders are counting on the support of forty members. They concede nine to Roosevelt and class four as doubtful. The line will be the leaders of the fight for a large number of Roosevelt contests. They are George A. Knight of California, Sidney Rieker of the District of Columbia, Senator Borah of Idaho, Pearl Wight of Louisiana, James Kennedy of North Dakota, William L. Ward of New York, Thomas Thorson of South Dakota, Cecil A. Lyon of Texas and Alfred T. Rogers of Wisconsin. The four doubtful ones not claimed by the Taft forces are the successor to John F. Hill of Maine, Frank B. Kellogg of Minneapolis, C. M. Cade of Oklahoma and M. C. Monday of Tennessee.

The obstacle against permitting delegates-elect to sit with the committee is that they are not formally elected by the State delegates until after the committee on credentials has reported in the convention. This is due to the fact that the delegations are not made up until all the contests have been settled. The hearing of contests is not expected by the managers here to start before Monday, June 9th.

Credentials from 960 out of 1076 delegates to the Republican National Convention have been received by Secretary Hayward of the National Committee. In the list are the names of two women delegates at large elected in the California direct primary—Mrs. Florence Collins Porter and Mrs. Isabella W. Blaney of San Francisco.

The time limit on contests expires tomorrow, but as the call was worded that contests should be forwarded by May 29th, it is likely that the committees will continue to receive belated notices for several days.

Illinois delegates instructed for Roosevelt were invited today to visit Oyster Bay next Saturday. The object of the meeting, the Roosevelt leaders declared, was to discuss plans for concerted action by the Central States delegates in advancing the candidacy of Colonel Roosevelt.

Chicago Roosevelt supporters believe the position of the former President on the proposed election of Senator Root as temporary chairman of the National Convention will be clearly defined at the Saturday meeting.

Reports Stir Washington.
WASHINGTON, May 28.—Rumors that attempts will be made to seat new National Committeemen so that they can serve on the Republican National Committee when it begins the hearing of contest cases in Chicago June 6th have stirred political leaders here more than any recent move in the Presidential campaign. In several States where the Roosevelt victories were pronounced, Chicago convention delegates were instructed to elect new National Committeemen, and it is said some of these delegations plan to meet soon, elect the new committeemen and demand that they be given seats immediately on the National Committee to take part in the hearing of the contests.

If such a movement is started it will be directed against such members of the committee as Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, Senator Crane of Massachusetts, Frank O. Louder of Illinois, Arthur I. Vorys of Ohio and E. C. Duncan of North Carolina, all of whom are friendly to President Taft's candidacy.

The rules of the National Committee and the procedure of former conventions are opposed to such action. It is claimed by Taft managers and by many Republican leaders here that the delegates to the Chicago convention from any state have no legal standing and no authority to elect a National Committeeman until their credentials have been passed on by the existing National Committee and later by the credentials committee of the Chicago convention.

EIGHT PRIZE WINNING CHINESE DOGS WERE THE GUESTS AT A LUNCHEON GIVEN IN THEIR HONOR AT A NEW YORK HOTEL

TINY DOGS AT A LUNCHEON
COPYRIGHT 1912 BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

NEW YORK, May 29.—A novelty indeed was the special Chinese luncheon given at the Vanderbilt hotel by Mrs. Arthur L. Holland for the seven Pekinese friends of her little daughter Doonya's prize winning Vi Sin and their mistresses. The table decorations were all Chinese, and there was a profusion of Chinese flowers. The dogs sat on teakwood Chinese taborets by the sides of their mistresses and got their dainties from a menu that was entirely Chinese. Vi Sin has won fifty-one ribbons, six silver cups and many special prizes. He was brought to this country from England. The dog guests at the luncheon were accompanied by (from left to right) Mrs. Carl E. Akley, Mrs. Holland, Mrs. William Shamar, Mrs. W. S. Belding, Miss Hilda Woodward and Miss Doonya Holland.

FOREIGNERS IN MEXICO'S CAPITAL ABLE TO PROTECT THEMSELVES

San Francisco Chronicle, May 29: A new light on conditions in Mexico as affecting Americans and other nationalities was shed by refugees who arrived from the strife-torn republic yesterday morning on the Pacific Mailer City of Sydney.

That the foreigners in the concentrated cities are well able to take care of themselves should intervention on the part of the United States precipitate an anti-foreign sentiment is the statement of two well-informed engineers who, with their families, were passengers on the liner.

"So far as those in Mexico City and vicinity are concerned," said Allan Moir, a civil engineer, and he was supported in his remarks by John E. Roberts, who deals in cotton machinery, "they have nothing to fear. It seems surprising, but it is none the less a fact, that the Americans, English and Germans, who number about 10,000 in that part of the country, are well armed and organized and should an uprising develop against them they would no doubt greatly surprise the Mexicans. Those who have remained in the tumultuous republic do so because all their interests are there, and it is essential that they should stand by their guns. They have had some relief in knowing that their wives and children are safe in the States, and are facing the crisis with determination. The foreigners are well supplied with arms and have organized concentration houses—forts, you might say—where they could hold their own in case of trouble affecting them. I daresay the foreigners could take and hold Mexico City against either the federals or the rebels if conditions warrant."

In addition to his own children Moir brought here a boy of 12 years, Albert Foster, son of a wealthy widow residing at Coyocacan, on the outskirts of Mexico City. "Stretchers with wounded soldiers passed our doors," said Moir, "and naturally the women folks became alarmed."

The Robertses had a trying time in reaching the sea coast from the vicinity of Guadalajara. The train in which they were making their flight was held up by banditti, and it was reported that two of the crew were killed. Most of the passengers escaped losing their valuables by sewing their money and jewelry in the lining of their clothes.

"There has yet to be discovered in Mexico the man who will be capable of righting conditions," said Moir. "They have had many leaders, but not one of them would have the backing of 50 per cent of the population."

EDWARD HATCH JR. IS LEADING FIGURE IN THE CRUSADE AGAINST THE FLY

EDWARD HATCH JR.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Edward Hatch Jr., chairman of the special committee of the American Civic Association which has to do with swatting the fly, is busily engaged in the work of the 1912 campaign, which is already under way. Mr. Hatch has published a pamphlet, "The Fly Fighter," which is being distributed broadcast. It tells of the evils of the fly and gives ways and means for exterminating the pest.

PICTURE THIEF PROVES TO BE AN ART EXPERT

CHICAGO, May 28.—Five oil paintings valued at $50,000 have been stolen from the prairie-avenue home of Mrs. Charles P. Kellogg. The theft did not become generally known until last night when descriptions of the paintings were mailed to every art center in the world by a detective bureau. It is the belief of Mrs. Kellogg that the thief was a connoisseur. Paintings of lesser value were left behind.

SENATE COMMITTEE'S FINDINGS ON THE WRECK OF THE TITANIC

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The Titanic disaster of April 15, in which 1517 souls went down amid icebergs off the Banks of Newfoundland, was the theme of speech, report and proposed legislation in the senate today.

Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan submitted the report of the investigation by the senate commerce committee, a feature of which was the condemnation of the captain of the steamer Californian for not going to the aid of the sinking vessel, and delivered a speech in which he personally took much stronger ground in reviewing the disaster and introduced measures designed to safeguard life in ocean traffic.

One of the most important recommendations was for stricter inspection of vessels by the federal steamboat inspection service and the meeting of all requirements of American navigation laws by every vessel clearing from an American port.

It was one of the noteworthy days of the present session of congress. Almost all of the senators were in their seats. The galleries were crowded.

The senate passed a joint resolution extending the thanks of congress and appropriating $1000 for a medal to Captain Arthur H. Rostron of the Carpathia and also a vote of thanks to the Carpathia crew.

The resolution was introduced by Senator Smith. It was adopted immediately.

Senator Rayner of Maryland, in a speech, arraigned American navigation laws and drew lessons from the accident.

Ice Warnings Ignored.

The report is largely a review of the evidence and contains recommendations for legislation. No particular person is named as being responsible, though attention is called to the fact that on the day of the disaster three distinct warnings of ice were sent to Captain Smith. J. Bruce Ismay, managing director of the White Star line, is not held responsible for the ship's high speed. In fact, he is barely mentioned in the report.

On the whole the report is impassive and Senator Smith in his speech went more fully into a discussion of the causes of the disaster than does the committee.

The committee agreed upon these principal conditions:

The supposedly water-tight compartments of the Titanic were not water tight because of the non-water-tight condition of the decks where the transverse bulkheads ended.

The Californian, controlled by the same concern as the Titanic, was nearer the Titanic than the nineteen miles reported by her captain, and her officers and crew "saw the distress signals of the Titanic and failed to respond in accordance with the dictates of humanity, international usage and the requirements of law."

The committee concludes that the Californian might have saved all the lost passengers and crew of the ship that went down.

Eight ships, all equipped with wireless, were in the vicinity of the Titanic, the Olympic farthest away, 512 miles.

The mysterious lights on an unknown ship, seen by the passengers on the Titanic, undoubtedly were on the Californian, less than nineteen miles away.

The full capacity of the Titanic's lifeboats was not utilized, because while only 706 persons were saved, the ship's boats could have carried 1176. No general alarm was sounded, no whistle blown and no systematic warning was given to the endangered passengers, and it was fifteen or twenty minutes after the collision before Captain Smith ordered the Titanic's wireless operator to send out a distress message.

The Titanic's crew was only meagerly acquainted with its positions and duties in case of accident, and only one drill was held before the maiden trip. Many of the crew joined the ship only a few hours before she sailed, and were in ignorance of the positions until the following Friday.

"Ice positions so definitely reported to the Titanic," says the report, "just preceding the accident located the ice on both sides of the lane in which she was traveling. No discussion took place among the officers; no conference was called to consider these warnings; no heed was given to them. The speed of the vessel was not relaxed, the lookout was not increased."

The committee concludes that the Titanic's lights were visible to the Californian before she struck the iceberg, and that the Californian must have seen the distress rockets fired from the bridge of the Titanic. The report says:

Distress Signals Ignored.

"The committee is forced to the inevitable conclusion that the Californian, controlled by the same company, was nearer the Titanic than the nineteen miles reported by her captain, and that her officers and crew saw the distress signals of the Titanic and failed to respond to them in accordance with the dictates of humanity, international usage and the requirements of law. The only reply to the distress signals was a counter signal from a large white light, which was flashed for nearly two hours from the mast of the Californian. In our opinion such conduct, whether arising from indifference or gross carelessness, is most reprehensible and places on the commander of the Californian a grave responsibility."

"The wireless operator of the Californian was not aroused until 3:50 a. m., New York time, on the morning of the 15th, after considerable conversation between officers and members of the crew had taken place aboard the ship regarding these distress signals or rockets, and was directed by the chief officer to see if there was anything the matter, as a ship had been firing rockets during the night. The inquiry thus set on foot at once disclosed the fact that the Titanic had sunk. Had assistance been promptly proffered or had the wireless operator of the Californian remained a few minutes longer at his post on Sunday evening, that ship might have had the proud distinction of saving the lives of the passengers and crew of the Titanic."

The committee believes many more lives could have been saved had the survivors been concentrated in a few lifeboats and had the boats thus released returned to the wreckage for others.

The only mention of J. Bruce Ismay occurs in a review of the messages to the White Star offices in New York reporting the disaster. The first official information, the committee says, was the message from Captain Haddock of the Olympic, received from the White Star line at 6:16 p. m., Monday, April 15. Attention is called to the fact that in the face of this information a message reporting the Titanic being towed to Halifax was sent to Representative J. A. Hughes at Huntington, W. Va., at 7:51 p. m. that day. The message was delivered to the Western Union office in the same building as the White Star line offices. "Whoever sent this message," says the report, "under the circumstances is guilty of the most reprehensible conduct."

The committee does not believe the wireless operator on the Carpathia was duly vigilant in handling his messages after the accident, and declared the practice of allowing wireless operators to sell their stories should be stopped.

It is recommended that all ships carrying more than 100 passengers have two searchlights; that a revision be made of steamship inspection laws of foreign countries to the standard proposed in the United States; that every ship is required to carry sufficient lifeboats for all passengers and crews; that the use of wireless be regulated to prevent its use by amateurs, and that all ships have a wireless operator on duty constantly.

Detailed recommendations are made as to water-tight bulkhead construction on ocean-going ships. Bulkheads should be so spaced that any two adjacent compartments of a ship might be flooded without sinking. Transverse bulkheads forward and aft of the machinery should be continued water-tight to the uppermost continuous structural deck, and this deck should be fitted water-tight, the report says.

The committee deems the course followed by Captain Rostron of the Carpathia as deserving of the highest praise and worthy of special recognition. His detailed instructions, issued in anticipation of the rescue of the Titanic, were "a marvel of systematic preparation and completeness, evincing such solicitude as calls for the highest commendation."

THE MORNING CABLE REPORT

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Dispatches from Cuba announce that the situation there is much graver than has been thought. President Gomez officially announced yesterday that he is unable to continue to provide any protection for the American plantations situated in Oriente Province, the easternmost province of the island.

Captain George W. Kline, U. S. N., commanding the Prairie, acting upon this information had reported that he has landed one hundred and fifty additional marines to protect the property of American citizens near Guantanamo.

From Havana comes the word that in official circles it is believed that nothing short of American intervention can solve the problems that have presented themselves to the administration. Little is said about that contingency here and no statement has been made from the White House or the state department to indicate that the authorities are contemplating taking the step.

CHICAGO, Illinois, June 6.—Leaders in the fight here for President Taft declared last night that they now are assured of strength enough to insure Senator Root being made permanent chairman of the Republican convention. Mr. New, the chairman of the Republican National Committee, and President Taft are both backing up the decision to make the temporary organization of the convention permanent.

Mr. McKinley, who has been managing President Taft's fight, announced last night that according to the latest compilation of the delegates, the President now has 595 votes. Roosevelt 427, La Follette 39, and Senator Cummins 10.

Mr. Dixon, who is managing Mr. Roosevelt's campaign, declares that Mr. Roosevelt has more than 609 votes and will be nominated upon the first ballot.

DULUTH, Minnesota, June 6.—All factions here concede the control of Governor Woodrow Wilson after a bitter fight, in which Champ Clark took the lead.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Senator George Stuart Nixon of Nevada, died at a late hour last night at the age of fifty-two. Senator Nixon has represented Nevada at the capital for seven years and his career as a man of public affairs in Nevada has been a remarkable one. He was born in Newcastle, California, but removed to Reno at an early age. In Nevada he was successively telegraph operator, bank clerk, banker, promoter of irrigation and reclamation projects. State legislator and United States senator.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—Captain Greene, commander of the T. K. K. liner Chiyo Maru, yesterday was married to Miss Ethel May Holcomb, a passenger on the gallant captain's ship during the last trip from the Orient.

MRS. GREATON'S AWFUL EXPERIENCE

During Change of Life—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it has worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. MARION SWEET GREATON, No. 1 Jefferson St., Natick, Mass.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

BILLS PROMPTED BY DISASTER

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The formal thanks of Congress to the steamer Carpathia's officers and crew for the rescue of the Titanic's survivors were expressed in a joint resolution passed today by the Senate. The House will take prompt action. The resolution is the first of three measures introduced by Senator Smith of Michigan, following his speech in the Senate and the presentation of his report to the Commerce committee's investigation of the Titanic disaster.

The two measures were introduced and referred to the Commerce committee. One was a bill requiring that every steel ocean or coastwise seagoing steam vessel and every steel steam vessel navigating the Great Northern and Northwestern lakes, carrying 100 or more passengers must have "a water-tight skin in-board from the forward collision bulkhead over not less than two-thirds of the length of the vessel and the bulkheads so spaced that any two adjacent compartments may be flooded without destroying the flotability or stability of the vessel."

Every ocean or coastwise seagoing steam vessel navigating between different lake ports, allowed to carry more than fifty passengers, must have on board life boats of an aggregate carrying capacity, computed in cubic feet, equal to ten times the total number of her crew plus the total number of passengers. There are minute details of technical requirements as to the efficiency of life boats.

Every vessel except river craft must carry on life preserver for each person allowed to be carried on that vessel, including the crew. Every steamer must have lifeboats, floats, rafts, life preservers, life carrying projectiles and drags to secure the safety of all aboard in case of disaster. At least four members of the crew must be assigned to each lifeboat and drill at stated intervals.

A resolution introduced would provide for the creation of a commission under a $10,000 appropriation for expenses to investigate the laws and regulations relating to the construction, equipment and navigation of vessels and to report to Congress through the President its findings and recommendations, together with a draft of legislation and regulation it shall propose, by January 1, 1913.

JUDGE W. H. MOORE MAY BE A WITNESS IN THE STEEL TRUST HEARING

NEW YORK, May 15.—Judge William H. Moore, prominent in Wall street, is likely to be called at the hearing being conducted by Referee Brown in the government's suit against the United States Steel corporation. Judge Moore was associated with Daniel G. Reid and others in the formation of the American Tin Plate company, which later entered the steel combination. Judge Moore will be questioned along the same lines as was Mr. Reid and is expected to testify to some of the things that Mr. Reid was unable to recall and which the government's attorneys are anxious to bring out.

KAISER BUYS THE HATS OF EMPRESS PARIS, May 28.—Dispatches from Berlin announce that the Kaiser chooses his wife's hats, and the Temps, the leading Conservative newspaper, sees therein a favorable sign for the peace of Europe. "This interesting feature of the Kaiser's private life," it comments,

GOLD WATCHES DIAMOND RINGS AND SOLID GOLD JEWELRY YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD AT J. CARLO 1117 FORT ST

"Is perhaps of historical and political significance, following the sensational debates in the Reichstag, where the Socialists somewhat mauled the sovereign, though unable to prevent the voting of enormous credits for the augmentation of armaments. An Emperor who goes to a milliner's with a view to presiding personally over the selection of several hats for the Empress and Princesses is evidently neither greatly troubled by parliamentary tumults nor likely soon to disturb the peace of Europe."

BISHOP H. W. WARREN, WHO WAS RETIRED BY THE M. E. CONFERENCE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 17.—Delegates to the Methodist Episcopal conference voted to retire three bishops, among them Henry W. Warren. The recommendation of the Episcopal committee was that Bishop Warren be superannuated.

TO TURN TIDE OF TOURISTS FROM EUROPE CHICAGO, May 28.—The first steps toward the formation of a permanent organization among the railroads for the purpose of turning the tide of American travel from Europe to the magnificent scenic spots of our own country were taken at a dinner given by C. W. Pitts, general agent of the Great Northern Railroad in Chicago, to more than 200 passenger traffic representatives of the Western railroads centering in Chicago.

The suggestion from Mr. Pitts that such a movement be started was received with enthusiasm by the railroad men, and the nucleus of a permanent organization was at once formed. With Mr. Pitts, E. L. Bevington, secretary of the Transcontinental Passenger Association, was selected to look after the initial arrangements.

"Every year from $350,000,000 to $400,000,000 of American money is spent in Europe by tourists, the great proportion of whom do not know the first thing about the unsurpassed splendor of the scenery within their own country," said Pitts. GIVEN $25,000 FOR BREACH OF PROMISE SIOUX FALLS, S. D., May 28.—On a judgment for $25,000, rendered in the United States court of appeals, Miss Ella Bay of Menominee, Mich., today received a check for $28,828.52, which includes interest since the verdict was returned in her favor in the fall of 1910, in her suit against James S. Sanborn of Puckwana, S. D., for breach of promise. The case was peculiar as one of the few in which actual financial damage was proved. The woman worked as secretary of a lumber concern at Menominee, Mich., at a salary of $4300 yearly, and resigned on Sanborn's request to marry him.
