General Funston Captures Aguinaldo.

MANILA, March 28.—General Frederick Funston's daring project for the capture of Aguinaldo in his hiding place in the province of Isabella, Island of Luzon, has proved completely successful. Aguinaldo was captured there on March 23d. The United States gunboat Vicksburg, Commander E. B. Barry, with General Funston and Aguinaldo on board, arrived here this morning. When captured, Aguinaldo was tremendously excited, but calmed down under General Funston's assurance that he will be well treated. General Funston secured all of Aguinaldo's correspondence, showing that he kept in close touch with the sub-chiefs of the insurrection in all parts of the archipelago. It was discovered that Aguinaldo on January 28th had proclaimed himself dictator. He had been living in Paarlannan for seven months.

The Latest Dispatches

PARIS, March 29.—An interview with Rigidor Jubado, who claims to be the Filipino agent in Europe, is published here. He says he has received the following cablegram from New York:—"According to precise information the man captured is not President Emilio Aguinaldo, but Baldomero Aguinaldo, chief of the general staff and Emilio's cousin."

More Filipinos Captured.

MANILA, March 29.—Brigadier General William A. Kobb reports surrender Sumalao, Mindanao, 9 officers, 150 men, 187 rifles, 80 shotguns, Capistrano's command. This ends trouble Mindanao as far as Filipinos concerned. "Brigadier General Robert P. Hughes reports Aikpali and Ruiz, 34 guns, surrendered to Captain David Shanks, Eighteen Infantry, at Mamburao; 206 guns Fulton's command surrendered to Lieutenant William S. Scott, Forty-fourth Infantry. "MAC ARTHUR."

To Pay Hawaiian Debt

WASHINGTON, March 28.—W. F. McLennon, Chief of the Warrant Division, and W. W. Ludlow, one of the officials of the Auditor's office, Treasury Department, will sail for Honolulu about the middle of April for the purpose of paying the bonded debt of the Islands.

Japan Making Ready.

LONDON, March 28.—The Japanese cruiser Iwate, recently constructed at the Elswick works, left Devonport for the Far East early Tuesday morning, instead of departing next Saturday, as was originally intended. She shipped her ammunition while she was coaling, and so hastily that portions were left behind. Judging from remarks made by her officers, they seemed to anticipate a conflict between Great Britain and Russia, in which event they said the Japanese and British fleets would co-operate.

Porto Ricans Coming.

PONCE, PORTO RICO, March 27.—The American steamship Califorman, which sailed from Guanico yesterday for New Orleans, has on board 899 emigrants destined for Hawaii. Of the number 395 are men, and the remainder are women and children. The emigrants are physically superior to those of the previous expedition.

Old Stage Effects.

"Great Scott, how a modern audience would gibe as the stage effects that used to thrill folks thirty or so years ago!" said an old theatrical manager who was in the city recently en route to Frisco. "Take the famous wolf scene in 'Davy Cockett,' for instance, that made a fortune for dear old Frank Mayo. That was considered one of the most realistic things of its day, and it stirred audiences to absolutely frantic excitement. You remember how it went: Davy and the heroine have taken refuge in a mountain cabin, and suddenly they hear a long drawn wail—Ow-o-o-o-o! Ow-o-o-o! It sounded like a totem on a moonlit fence and was emitted by the 'prop' man, standing in the wings. Davy springs to his feet. He listens with his hand to his ear. The orchestra plays tremolo. 'The wolves!' he cries, and the house begins to hold its breath.

Meanwhile the prop man puts on more steam. The beasts are nearing. Davy glares around distractedly. Merciful heavens! He has burned up the door bar for fuel! The prop man howls at the top of his voice. Davy dashes up his sleeve. He springs to the door, rams his bare arm through the empty staples, and two stuffed wolves' head are poked suddenly through a hole at the bottom! Then the curtain drops, there is more tremolo, and it rises again to discover Davy fainting at the portal with a couple of streak of red paint around his good right arm to show where the staples pinched. That scene would excite derision today, but it kept the wolf from Mayo's own door for many a long year. Incidentally it was responsible for some ludicrous mishaps.

On one occasion, while touring through Iowa, the special scenery was delayed by a railroad wreck and a local stage carpenter undertook to 'fake up' the cabin interior. By some mistake he made the staples several inches too small, and when Mayo, who was rather portly, rushed to the rescue he was horrified to discover that he could not get his arm through the irons. He pushed and squirmed and sweat blood, but it was no go, and as the wolves were supposed to be advancing on a deadlope the situation was decidedly critical. It so happened that the actress who played the heroine that season was very spirituelle, not to say sawny, and while poor Davy was still wriggling at the door some gallery god suddenly piped out: 'Break away fatty, and let de lady try!' The audience roared and Mayo signaled for a quick curtain.

'Fire effects are regarded with disfavor nowadays,' continued the manager, "because if too realistic they are apt to create a panic in a crowded theater, but in the old melodramas there was no danger of mistaking them for the real thing, and they were great drawing cards. Back in the early seventies Joe Murphy, the Irish comedian, toured the country in a play called 'Help' which contained a fire scene that was regarded as the most remarkable ever produced on the road.

"The curtain rose on a barnlike interior, supposed to represent an opium den in San Francisco. Presently a Chinaman passed an open door in the back, carrying a lamp, and a moment later a crash was heard, indicating that he had dropped it. A red glow immediately came through the chinks in the rear wall and grew rapidly brighter and brighter, while there was a sound of excited footsteps, indistinct shouting and furniture being dragged across the floor. All that, occurring out of sight, worked the audience to a high pitch of nervous tension. Then smoke began to ooze through the cracks, the red glow continued to increase, and all of a sudden the entire back wall tottered and sank forward on the stage, disclosing a dim perspective, with flames shooting up here and there and firemen rushing pellmell in every direction.

"That spectacle created a tremendous sensation wherever it was put on, yet the entire effect was produced by a few shovelful of red fire burned in the wings and a little lycopodium powder, which flashes into a big, harmless blaze and was concealed in tin boxes attached to different parts of the setting. The back wall was let down on a couple of piano wires, which used to get stuck occasionally and suspend in midair. There was a celebrated fire scene in Chanfrau's play of 'Mose,' but it was admitted to be inferior to the one I have described and the crudities of both are very laughable when compared to modern attempts along the same line.

"The last thing of that kind I saw was in London a few years ago. It represented the burning of a tenement. Smoke and flames poured out the casements; immense beams crashed down, scattering showers of sparks; walls crumbled, people leaped from the windows and were caught in nets, and firemen sent streams of real water into the blazing ruins. As I watched the mimic conflagration my mind reverted to the days of Chanfrau and Murphy, and I smole several smiles a yard wide and all teeth."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Caroline Islands Legend.

The Caroline islands group includes besides coral islands five mountainous islands of basaltic formation, beautiful and fertile with rivers and springs.

Among the many queer legends of these children of the Pacific there is none more highly improbable than their theory as to the origin of these islands and their inhabitants. They think they themselves were very strong in the water—in fact, they lived in it.

The story goes that a woman and her children were floating around on the reef when a man appeared from the west with a basket of soil on his shoulders. He had started out to make an island with a mountain on it. One of the children cried to him, "Give us a little soil to make a place for our mother to rest, for she is very weak and cannot swim." He took out a handful of the earth and threw it down, making an island. As the man was going on his way over the water the son slyly made a hole in his basket, so as he proceeded on his way he left a trail of land behind. Suddenly he became conscious that the basket seemed light, and looking around, he saw the land. In his anger he turned about and trod upon it and thus the islands were formed.

The Shrinkage of England.

With regard to the east coast a sorry story has to be told, the county of Yorkshire, for instance, from Bridlington to Spurn Head, has been disappearing, it is calculated, at an average rate of six feet a year. It is said that careful observation of a 12 mile stretch shows that the cliffs 40 feet high have been eaten away by the waves for 132 feet in 40 years. It is, however, at Spurn Head that the greatest ravages have taken place.

In Edward I's time the village of Ravenspur, a seaport near Spurn Head, sent more than one member to parliament; in 1309 and 1471 Henry IV and Edward IV, respectively, landed there, but very soon after the latter's visit the entire town was swept away by the sea. Today the village of Kilmsea alone stands upon the head; the old site of the village, once a fair place on a hill, with a fine old church, destroyed by the waves in 1826, is now some hundreds of yards below high watermark, and when New Kilmsea joins it the sea and the Humber will not take long to destroy the entire promontory and make things very unpleasant at Grimsby.—Good Words.

The Sneez Wood Tree.

The remarkable sneez wood tree is a native of Natal and other parts of South Africa. Its funny name was given to it because one cannot see it without sneezing violently.

The dust of its wood has just the same effect as the strongest snuff and is so irritating to the nose that workmen are obliged to sneeze even when they are playing it.

If a piece of the wood of this tree is put in the mouth, it is found to have a very bitter taste, and no doubt it is this bitterness which prevents insects of any kind from attacking the timber of the "sneeze wood" tree.

The fact that insects find it so disagreeable makes its wood very valuable for work that is required to last a long time.

Gorks that have been steeped in vaseline are said to be an excellent substitutes for glass stoppers, without their disadvantages. They are not affected by acids or chemical fumes, and they do not become fixed by a blow or by long disuse.

A. G. DICKINS,

Be it known to the outside world that unambitious little Maui actually possesses within her borders some of the wonders of the world. In the first place the largest extinct crater on the earth is that of Mount Haleakala, and the most charming valley is that of the river. So much for natural wonders, but there is also another point of view. Maui now possess the largest improved cane plantation on earth, and the foundations are already laid and work is in progress on what will be far and away the largest sugar mill on earth, the plantation and mill alluded to being the H. C. & S. Co. property. Such things are worth seeing and now Wailuku boasts a hotel suitable to entertain visitors to the wonders of the island. Of course we must reconstruct the washed out road up the valley, build a good horse trail to the top of Haleakala, and put a comfortable house on the summit, but these things are only details which will shortly be accomplished.

It seem to be a very short sighted policy in the plantations on the Maui to seek to make a large profit out of the laborers of the plantations at the plantation stores. The greatest inducement which could be offered to laborers would be to sell them goods at prices which their limited pay would enable them to meet. Plantation stores could be operated without loss and still supply the laborers with their supplies at practically wholesale prices. It is an experiment which is worth trying and it is to be hoped that Wailuku Plantation will set the other plantations an example of the proper idea in the handling of a plantation store.

There is considerable discussion as to land values, not only in Honolulu but throughout the Islands, and it is asserted by some that boom prices are prevailing. But such really is not the case. That the values of land in Honolulu should advance is the most natural thing in the world, for the law of demand and supply is at work, and small cottages would not rent so high if there were not an actual demand for them. The same is true in a lesser degree in Wailuku, and the stiffening of land values is merely because there is a demand for town lots in excess of the present supply.

In one sense it was a good thing to send Robert Wilcox to congress. His contact with public life in Washington must have taught him that annexation means all that the word implies, and that there is to be no more talk about restoration. With the influence which he undoubtedly possesses in Hawaii, he can do much to educate native Hawaiians out of the idea of any other status than that of being American citizens of an American territory. Even if he felt so inclined, which is doubtful, he will have but little to say about restoration in the future.

A very serious problem which would have been solved, if Russia had been drawn into a war with England, is her ability to cope with the revolutionary sentiment in her midst. The present dynasty in Russia has been extremely unpopular with the aristocrats since the liberation of the Russian serfs, and added to this is the dissatisfaction growing among the middle classes. Nothing but a brutal use of power will suppress a revolution in Russia at the outbreak of the first war in which she engages.

The legislature should not neglect to appoint a code commission, authorized to codify the laws of the territory and report such a revision to the next legislature. The territory would not begrudge the cost of such a commission, if competent and learned men were placed on the commission, to the utter blasting of the hopes of a number of aspirants for a place on the commission, who have no particular fitness, whose desire springs only from a liking for the leaves and fishes.

The capture of Aguinaldo will afford the administration the opportunity which it has not before had of giving the Filipinos local self government. This can be done along the lines being pursued in Cuba, and Aguinaldo will be of invaluable assistance in bringing such a thing about. Self government on a limited scale at first with a strong American protectorate would be the wisest solution of the problem of what to do with the Philippines.

The arrival of smallpox in the harbor of Honolulu coincident with the passage of the anti-vaccine bill is a startling commentary on the folly of the legislature in passing such a measure. Vaccination from arm to arm is dangerous, but vaccination with bovine virus obtained from a credited source is an absolute necessity for Honolulu. The governor however will or at least should veto the bill.

Dr. Russell may be an intermittent ass, as some of his political enemies suggest, but at least he is an honest old donkey and such men as he are of the class who are least to be feared as representatives of the people. It is the "smart set" that require the most watching in the average legislature.

While the Dispensary Bill will not pass at the present session of the legislature, yet it has laid the foundation for future successful legislation restricting liquor traffic

Wailuku Dines at the Maui Hotel.

Quite a number of the people of Wailuku, desirous of testing the qualities of the new hotel, arranged a series of simultaneous dinner parties for last Thursday evening, and notified manager Field that they would expect the best that the hotel afforded.

Although the time was short, the manager responded nobly, and a menu was prepared that was worthy of the occasion. No such dinner has ever been served before for the Wailuku public, and it was a revelation to know that we at last have such an institution in our midst. Both Mr. Field and his chef covered themselves with glory, for the dinner served was right up to date and was well worthy of even a more pretentious hotel than the "Maui".

The hotel was lit up like a palace of Aladdin, and the dining room sparkled like a fairy scene. Dinner was served at 6:30 and for two hours the guests remained at the tables. Although this was the first dinner served at the hotel, there was no friction, and the service, like the viands, was faultless. The genial manager presided personally, giving a delightful air of hospitality to the occasion.

Among those present were Mr. George Hons, Miss Hons, Miss Mousie Hons, Judge W. A. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cornwell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coke, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Robertson, Capt. J. N. K. Keola, Dr. W. R. Boote and Messrs Carl Waldeyer, G. B. Henderson, and A. T. R. Jackson.

The following is the menu, which, while it sets out in cold type the bill of fare, yet falls short of portraying in proper colors the high degrees of culinary art which marked the preparation of each individual dish:

- Eastern Oysters.
- Consomme, Olives, Radishes.
- Fillet of Halibut, Tartar Sauce.
- Boiled Leg of Mutton with Caper Sauce.

Wailuku Plantation Store.

A site has been selected and ground has been broken for the construction of the new Wailuku Store.

Many hoped to see the store built on the lot adjoining the Settlement building on Main street, opposite Market street, but it was decided otherwise, and the store and a large warehouse will be built on the road directly in front of the Wailuku Mill.

Cyrus Green has the contract for the construction of the store and warehouse, and began work on it last Wednesday. The buildings will be pushed to completion and a stock of goods will be installed as soon as possible.

Mr. A. Hagencamp, at present of the Pala Plantation Store has accepted the position of manager of the new Wailuku store, and will reside here with his family. Mr. Hagencamp is a first class manager, as well as a very clever and sociable gentleman, and Wailuku as well as the Plantation store is to be congratulated on having him with us. Manager Wells of the Wailuku Sugar Company has long felt the hardship entailed on his laborers by having to meet the present ruling prices of necessary staples, and is opening the store for the sole purpose of enabling his laborers to purchase provisions at cheaper prices than at present. Just what effect the new store will have on the merchants now in business here is a matter of speculation.

Death of Mrs. John Richardson.

On Wednesday of last week, April 1, Mrs. Elisabeth V. Kalaiokamau Richardson, the wife of Colonel John Richardson of Lahaina, died at the residence of her brother, Mr. George N. Shaw, at Honolulu.

The funeral services were held at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu, last Sunday afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of the prominent people of Honolulu, Queen Liliuokalani being present. The coffin was draped with the Hawaiian flag and covered with beautiful floral offerings. The pall bearers were Hon. Robert W. Wilcox, S. E. Kaiue, D. Kalaukalanii, R. H. Mafekau and Messrs. S. F. Chillingworth, E. B. Friel and S. Nolein. The remains were interred in Kawaihooie cemetery.

The deceased was 45 years of age, and belonged to a prominent Hawaiian family of Lahaina. The cause of death was pneumonia.

Wants $10,000 Damages.

S. Ahmi by his attorney, George Hons, Esq., has commenced suit against W. H. Cornwell Jr. in the Circuit Court in Wailuku to recover the sum of $10,000 damages for false imprisonment.

Recently Ahmi was arrested on a warrant sworn out by defendant, charging him with the larceny of cattle. Ahmi was arrested and a hearing was had before Judge McKay of the District Court at Wailuku. At the hearing, it developed that one of Colonel Cornwell's calves was found branded with Ahmi's brand, but there was no evidence produced to show that Ahmi did the branding or ever knew that it had been done. Thereupon Ahmi was discharged, and the present suit is an outcome of the criminal proceedings.

Legislative Notes.

The County Government Bill will come up for discussion next week.

Governor Dole approved Act 2, relating to criminal jurisdiction of District Magistrates. This law goes into effect at once.

The bill to provide that English or Hawaiian language may be used in the Circuit Court was passed without a dissenting vote.

This is the forty-third day of the legislative session. Eighty senate bills have passed, of which seven have been sent up to the governor.

Representative Dickey's act to appropriate $30,000 for damages caused to roads and bridges by the storm of last February was finally passed and sent up for the executive signature.

Prendergast exploded a carefully prepared mine giving notice of an introduction by him of an Act to provide for the construction of a Street Railroad by the Hawaiian Tramways Company.

The majority report of House bill 48, establishing certain counties in the Territory of Hawaii and providing a form of Government for such counties was read. The special committee having the matter in hand asked for further time to bring in a substitute bill, the present one being too voluminous.

The report of the military committee in relation to Senate bill No. 64, which exempt from poll, road and school tax all citizens who have five or more children, caused a ripple of audible joy throughout the Senate chamber. The bill has been dubbed the "Portugese bill." In the report Mr. Carter stated the committee approved of the measure, as it would, to a certain limited extent, encourage large families.

The minority report of the police box installment system calling for $15,000 for the installation of that system, submitted the opinion that Honolulu is not yet large enough for such a system; that the local police force costs too much already, and that if the alarm system were constructed the cost should be borne by the City alone and not by the Territory. The majority report favored the adoption of the bill.

Cecil Brown's emergency loan bill gives to Treasurer Lansing the authority, so soon as the bill is approved by the President, to borrow in the regular way the total sum of $1,946,600 in the present biennial period. Most of this will be used in carrying on public works, which the legislature will prescribe; but as $799,000 of it goes back to current funds in repayment of advances the treasury will be thoroughly relieved of the threatened stress.

The following bills were passed by the Senate last Saturday:— Senate bill No. 29, by Kanuha, relating to licensed physicians and forcing them to serve under the Board of Health at $100 a month during periods of epidemic or plague. Senate bill No. 32, by Kanuha, defining the territorial seal for the Territory of Hawaii.

House bill No. 15, by Haabeo, to amend section 314 Chapter 59 of the Civil Laws, relating to dog tax, and providing for an annual dog tax of $1 to be paid by the owner thereof.

House bill No. 2, by Dickey, relating to an emergency fund to repair damages to roads and bridges on the other islands during the recent storm.

House bill 81, to pay ex-Queen Liliuokalani the sum of $150,000 in Treasury bonds, came up for the third reading. Robertson said that while the House desired to make some provision for a liberal annuity, the present bill was a fate one, illegal, and would result in nothing being accomplished in that direction.

The bill was deferred on motion of Emmelhuth until the afternoon session. The House Rule party is anxious to pass this bill; but the warning given by Robertson as to the impossibility and illegality of the Territory borrowing money for such a purpose has set them thinking. The alternative measure of giving the ex-Queen $12,000 for the biennial period is not at all to the liking of the Independent party, as that case future payments would be left to succeeding

SHIPPING NEWS

The long overdue Henry Failing anchored in Kahului Bay yesterday morning.

Captain C. M. Thomas has been ordered to command the Oregon, now at the Asiatic station.

There are now six vessels lying off Kaanapali Landing, the Omega, the Helen Wright, the James B. Bruce, the Albert, the Redfield, and the Golden Gate. They are unloading coal and lumber, and loading sugar.

The little schooner Mokihana has been chartered by Young and Wheeler, who will use her to procure sand for building purposes, dredging for the material with a pump. She will get the sand from the neighborhood of Pearl Harbor.

News was brought by Wilder's steamer Kinau on Saturday to the effect that the little Island steamer Upolu, which went on the reef at Panko last week is a total wreck.

It is said that nothing but a hive of bees and a box containing groceries were saved from the vessel. The Upolu struck on the reef while attempting to enter the harbor. She struck on the rocks and, knocking a big hole in her bow, was full of water in a very little while after she went aground. The wreck of the steamer Upolu was sold to John Hinds for $105. The small boats that were saved in good condition brought $35. The large ones sold for $27.

At two o'clock Sunday the United States Army Transport Lawton was sighted. It was not until nearly evening that she was allowed to enter the harbor, because of two cases of small pox which she had on board. After coming in, a strict quarantine was placed upon the Lawton, armed boats being stationed about her. The transport was anchored in naval row.

The two cases of small pox were taken to the quarantine station and barges are busy taking coal to the homeward-bound steamer. She will take on about 200 tons of coal at this port and will probably sail Wednesday or Thursday, provided Dr. Carnichael feels that he can give his consent by that time.
