HANAIEI WHARF APPROPRIATION WITHHELD

Work Must Soon Begin Or Kauai Citizens Will Know Why

Must Stop Dallying

The citizens of this Island at the present moment are very much interested in the fate of the appropriation passed by the Legislature for a wharf at Hanalei.

For a number of Sessions an appropriation, or bill, has been under consideration for the purpose of erecting a wharf at this famous beach, but not withstanding the reputation of our Kauai Legislators and their ability to "do things," until the last Session they were certainly "done" out of landing the means to provide for its construction.

Within the last two years the necessity for this wharf has become even more apparent and urgent. All former objections to its construction having been met, it was hoped that by providing for it's erection out of the general appropriation bill, next winter would find Hanalei with its long over due wharf.

Recently the reports that have come from the Capitol by word of mouth, and newspapers, in reference to many public questions, are of such a nature as to cause us Garden Islanders to drop our hoes long enough to listen for not only the buzz of the Mediterranean fly, but with ears to the ground to get a line on whether the course of Empire is tending.

We are told that our high officials are contemplating an attempt to thwart the will of the people as expressed by their representatives in Legislature assembled.

Being simple rural people, we are inclined to doubt the existence of any grounds to warrant even the intimation of such "goings on" at a time in this political age when the primary law, the initiative, referendum and recall are menacing the downfall of anyone or anything which is not "of the people, by the people and for the people."

Just when we expected to hear of plans and contemplated action favorable to the construction in the near future of the Hanalei wharf, we are informed by the papers that the Hon. Marston Campbell, the Superintendent of Public Works, has gone for a "much needed vacation" to his old home in Oakland where he is going to "loaf and fish off the long wharf" and that the Governor had asked him to hold up the Hanalei wharf while he was holding down the Oakland wharf with the fishing pole he manipulated so adroitly during the last session of our Legislature.

He told the Frisco papers that he was the "right hand man of the Governor" but failed to mention the modesty which prevented him from letting the left hand know what was the right hand did at times.

The other day, having been jolted from the consideration of affairs of State to make a close inspection of our fruit for the presence of the dreaded fly from the regions of Monte Carlo, we were startled by neighbor Smith's voice from over our garden wall with "have you read in the papers that our Honorable Delegate to Congress has gone to a palmist to see if he should present for the consideration of Congress the resolutions passed by our last Legislature?"

All of which leads us to remark that if the Acts of the Legislature can be held up, held back or held down by the Governor of the Territory, our delegate to Washington or the Superintendent of Public Works, we can appreciate the feelings of the quadruped who is credited with the ejaculation "what's the use" when his olfactory organ

KOLOA PLANTATION STORE RAIDED BY THIEVES

Full Set of Burglars' Tools Found Which Indicates Professionalism

Make $60.00 Haul

(Special to the Garden Island)

Burglars entered the Koloa Plantation Store sometime Saturday night, gaining an entrance through the office. The burglars were evidently frightened in the early stage of the game, as a kit of burglars' tools consisting of a crow-bar, a pick, several knives, and an electric flash light were found. Goods to the value of about sixty dollars were taken, including a quantity of perfumery. Some little change which had been left in the money drawers was also taken. A monkey wrench which had been taken from show case was found lying near the safe, and it is thought an attempt had been made to open the safe. No clew was left by which a trace could be found of the burglars. This is the third attempt at robbery within the last six weeks.

Road Luna Onokea Is Bound Over

(Special to the Garden Island)

WAIMEA, June 26.—Road Luna Onokea, who was arrested last Friday, charged with embezzlement of County road funds, had his hearing before Judge Akina here this morning. He was bound over to the Grand Jury under the sum of five hundred dollars.

Baseball, Cure For A "Grouch"

The management of the Makaweli and the McBryde plantations are to be commended for putting a train at the disposal of their employees. It started from the Makaweli landing and picked up the employees along the way, arriving at Koloa with the Makaweli Club besides 250 spectators. While the score was not even, being 9 to 1 in favor of Makaweli, the crowd was intensely interested. In fact the interest is steadily growing.

It keeps pace with the improvement of the clubs.

These league games are a great improvement over Sunday drinking and card parties.

People are speculating during the week about the coming game and have something to think about in place of nursing a grouch.

Captain Puck To Be In Waimea

(Special to the Garden Island)

WAIMEA, June 26.—Major Wills, of the Salvation Army, paid a visit to Waimea last week, and installed Capt. Chas. Puck, in charge of the Waimea corps. Capt. Puck attended Oahu College previous to taking up his present line of work, and for the past two years, has been stationed in Hilo, where he left a host of friends.

New Water Supply For Kilauea Cane

(Special to the Garden Island)

The Kilauea Plantation is constructing a new reservoir, which when full will contain about one hundred and fifty million gallons. It is to be completed within three or four months and will greatly increase the yield of cane as it will establish a more permanent irrigation supply.

TWO OF OUR LEADING EDUCATORS RESIGN

After Twenty-Eight Years' Of Faithful Work In The Department Of Education, Prof. Alexander Will Tour World With Mrs. Alexander

Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Alexander, who will leave shortly on a world tour.

Prof. Alexander is a native of Scotland, having been born in Greenock, in 1859, and after attending Grammer School, went to Glasgow University, where he had the privilege of attending the classes conducted by Sir. William Thompson, known later as Lord Kelvin, famous as a mathematician, and inventor, and R. C. Jebb, editor of an elaborate commentary on the plays of Sophocles.

In response to an invitation of some friends, he came to Kilauea in 1883, he conducted the school there for some years, the great majority of the pupils at that time being only beginners in English. At that time the plantation was under the management of R. A. Macfie, a very progressive and energetic man, who was among the first, if not the first, to introduce steam plowing and permanent and portable railway in Hawaii. A notable person in the district was C. Bertelmann of Pilaia, known for his hospitality and hearty manners. In the beginning of 1892 Mr. Alexander moved to Lihue, where he became principal of the public school, an office which he now relinquishes with regret, but with satisfaction that he is free to visit countries which have been in his mind more or less frequently in the past. He has from time to time tried to keep in touch with the wider forms of civilization by visits to Europe and California, at the latter making it a point to become acquainted with methods and thoughts of some of the greater teachers of the United States.

He had the satisfaction of proving to the educational authorities of the time, the value of the tonic sol fa system of teaching to read music, and of seeing it adopted definitely as a true form of writing and expressing music.

Mrs. Alexander has been an assistant to her husband, in the capacity as teacher since 1892.

Interesting Items From Eleele

(Special to the Garden Island) Cupid visited Hanapepe lately and left a diamond. Guess who wears it.

Mr. French of the Inter-Island has been visiting friends in Eleele for a few days.

The closing exercises of the Hanapepe school were witnessed on Friday by a large number of interested parents and friends.

By the way, Cupid says that he is taking one of the teachers.

The bustling and up-to-date. Port Allen is expecting three steamers in next week.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Hastie was the scene of much merriment last Saturday night. The occasion being the meeting of the monthly McBryde Card Club. Mr. Roendahl and Mrs. Silva, were lucky enough to carry off the first prizes, Mrs. de Vries and Mr. Meyers taking consolation prizes. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hastie, Mr. and Mrs. Roendahl, Mr. and Mrs. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. Fernandez, Misses Silva, Arms and Hastie, Mrs. de Vries, Messrs. SHAKESPEARE REGISTRATION A BIG SUCCESS

Prof. Alexander Once More Recites To Appreciative Audience

Is Fare-well Recital

The Shakespeare recital and musicale given by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Alexander on Saturday evening June 24th., was indeed a literary and artistic success. Although this is not the first time that Mr. Alexander has given evidence of his wonderful dramatic ability, yet it was almost impossible to realize that so profound a drama as that of Hamlet could have been given so skilful an interpretation by one who is not a professional actor.

The impersonation of Hamlet showed great appreciation of his character. Each character stood out separate and apart; the sombre, melancholy Dane, wrought to such intensity of feeling; the simplicity of Ophelia, even in her loss of reason; the guilty King and Queen, and the pertinent remarks of Polonious, were alike wonderfully depicted, and all who listened to Mr. Alexander's power of bringing vividly to one's mind the personality of each character, must have had Shakespear's words flash through their mind. "Age cannot wither nor custom stale his infinite variety."

There were several delightful musical selections, all of which received hearty encores. After this "Show of reason and feast of soul," delicious refreshments were served, and then followed old times songs and farewell speeches by several of the gentlemen. Such hours are an inspiration to both brain and heart; and in these isolated localities, where one gets but a meagre opportunity for literary stimulants, one appreciates the entertainment given on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander have proved themselves a charming host and hostess, and they will indeed be missed by their friends. The programme for Saturday evening was as follows:

LAST SUNDAY BALL GAMES BELOW AVERAGE

Lihue Diamond Scene Of A Poor But Exciting Exhibition

Kilauea Team First

The K. A. C.'s. won their first game of the season on the Homestead field last Sunday, where they pruned the pineapple farmers to a tune of 5 to 3 in a hard struggle. So far, it has appeared very much as though they were to be left behind in this series, but they now seem to have pulled themselves together and out of the hole, and occupy a position on the percentage list no great distance from Homesteads.

By far the weakest exhibition of baseball by two crack teams, which has been staged this season, was pulled off Sunday, when the Makaweli and Lihue teams crossed sticks on the Lihue Diamond. Aside from a number of individual plays, the game was entirely shorn of the least intimation of the class of ball which might be expected from what are supposed to be two of our best teams. Errors were equally divided however, and the even scores prevailing from the second to the eighth innings, caused the greatest excitement. At the ending of the first half of the 9th., Lihue retired with a score of 15 to 10, and had there been less errors during the game, the home team might have been considered easy winners. Waiau, who had pitched a winning game for Lihue up to this time, took an arial flight. He fumbled, paid no attention to base steals and walked three men, each time filling bases. The result of these errors cost Lihue the game, as they were responsible for the six extra runs which the visiting team rang up on the last lap, giving them a score of 16 against 15 and the game was won. Waiau has the making of an excellent pitcher but evidently an insufficiency of strength to last throughout a nine inning game. Opunui and young Fernandez were in excellent team form and gained much admiration for their shrewd playing. Makaweli batted a home bagger which also brought in two others who were anchored on bases, thus increasing the score by three runs. Malina made two three-base hits. The Makaweli 1st. base showed skill seldom seen in the local league. Akina pitched in his usual good form but his support was, generally speaking, not up to standard by any means. The Lihue catcher was distressingly weak, as was also the first pitcher. On the whole, the game is conceded to have been by all odds, one of the most exciting but at the same time, poorest, ever played on the local field.

Kilaueas, "the leaders," added another jewel to their crown on Sunday, when they battered the Eleeles to a pulp on the Makaweli ground. It was give and take from the word "go." At the 9th. inning the score stood 10 to 6 in Kilauea's favor, but the Eleeles got a hunch and came over the plate with three more scores, the curtain dropping with 10 to 9 in favor of the Kilaueas. The Kilaueas are now very much in the lead and are playing with a determination which bodes ill for the team which lacks such a spirit.

THREE hundred dollars worth of prizes for winners in the first track meet ever held on Kauai speaks well for the supporters of clean sports.

KOLOA is out for a public park and there seems no sane reason why she should not have it. The land seems available, and the establishment of a park only requires a little energy upon the part of her prominent citizens.

LET us hope that when the teachers' schedule goes into effect, that it will be different to any that has ever yet existed in so much as it will recognize a teacher's experience as a fitting qualification for promotion.

A HONOLULU firm is going the clean-up committee one better by selling milk from which the water has been extracted. It is reported that the dairymen of Honolulu will get out an injunction, charging the firm with selling "pure milk."

THAT remark which Aviator Mars made while in Honolulu, concerning "Pikers," was fully demonstrated by the same bunch who spent their car fare to see Masson fly. Masson showed exceedingly good judgment in not risking his life on account of the jeers of a mob of demoralized "Pikers."

PERHAPS the new land man may have the foresight to apply the money from the sale of the Omao Homesteads, to the construction of the homestead roads which have been surveyed. Such a disposal of this money would have much to do with establishing his standing in the community, as well as saving the County the expense of building roads which money might be applied to schools etc.

CUT out so much of this "closing day exercises" in the public schools and our children will have more time in which to prepare for the final test which means so much to them in the way of promotion. Some schools devote several weeks to "drill for closing day." In the meantime the teacher, who is completing a hard year's work, is compelled to have the "tots" remain "after school to practice." It is not difficult to imagine the results. Either the examination must be slighted or no show. It seems unjust to expect a child at the end of a year's struggle over its studies, to practically abandon it's work at this critical period for the purpose of devoting it's time to the closing exercises. The physical condition of the majority of our teachers at the end of the year is not equal to such an extra strain, yet, they continue, year after year, simply because it has always been customary. If the children must be entertained, give them a good time at their Christmas vacation and not when teacher and pupil alike, are completely worn out, and at a time when every minute means so much to the child.

A letter from Ernest Kaai, bearing the post-mark of Christchurch, New Zealand, brings news of the success of the Royal Hawaiian musical troupe which, under Kaai's management is touring Australia. He expects to return about the middle of July and make a tour of Kauai.

Cultivating Cotton In Chinese Empire

Ever since the planting of opium in Amoy has been prohibited, Chinese agriculturists have been seeking for alternatives, and attempts have been made this year in the Changchau plain to grow cotton, and so far with some success. Other places in the neighborhood of Amoy are hoping to try cotton, and requests are being made for new cottonseed direct from the United States. If it can be grown in any quantities it will go far to solve the problem of the loss due to the giving up of opium.

ADVENTURES OF LITTLE FITZ RUFF

For Our Girls and Boys

This story is the beginning of a series of short stories for "Our Girls and Boys." For every story containing not less than five hundred (500) words, and written by girls and boys who live on Kauai, and whose stories are published, the editor will pay the sum of one ($1.00) dollar, the writer having the right to choose the subject. An award of five ($5.00) dollars in gold will be made to school boy or girl writing the most interesting story on how they spent their vacation. In our issue of Tuesday, September 21st., the prize-winning story together with the name of the author, will be published. No boy or girl who is not a resident of Kauai, or who is in a grade higher than the sixth, will be permitted to enter the September contest. The "one dollar story" offer is open to all school children, regardless of grades.

—EDITOR

I do not think there was a happier little kitten than Fitz Ruff in the whole of England.

He was very handsome, from the tip of his lovely bushy tail, which waved like a flag in the air when he walked, to his beautiful orange eyes and small velvety ears.

He had won a prize, too, at the big cat show, and now he was sitting on the beautiful hearth rug, staring at the friendly fire and listening to his mistress as she told her friends what people said about him.

"Fancy!" she cried; "one lady, an American, offered me five hundred pounds for him!"

Fitz Ruff closed his eyes and purred still louder as one of the friends knelt down beside him and gazed reverently at his beautiful tufted toes.

"Yes; just imagine that! Five Hundred pounds! But I could not send my Fitz Ruff to America could I?"

Fitz Ruff's eyes opened wide as he was snatched up and hugged tight against the silken dress of his fond mistress.

She said he should have a golden collar and sleep in a bed of pure silk, and he was to live in a palace.

The friends gasped, and clasped their hands, and were so impressed that Fitz Ruff began to think his mistress had been a little selfish in not allowing him to enjoy all these wonderful things.

From that time onwards he began to get quite spoiled by all the attention paid to him. He began at once, thinking himself the most wonderful cat that had ever been born.

But one day he was caught stealing the cream, and his mistress was so angry that she slapped him quite hard. Oh, how hurt poor Fitz Ruff's feelings were! That he, the peerless blue Persian kitten, worth more than his weight in gold, should be slapped like a common cat! It was too much! He rushed from the house vowing never to return.

Weary and nearly dead with hunger, he crept on. His once beautiful coat became torn and wet, his tail dragged behind him, clogged with mud.

A huge dog rushed out of the shadows and sent him flying with terror into a tree. There he clung, trembling with terror, fear, and weakness.

The barking of the dog brought out the farmer to see who was trespassing. And when he saw Fitz Ruff he shook the tree to make him come down that he might shoot him, for Farmer Giles hated cats.

But Fitz Ruff clung on wildly, and the dog barked, and the farmer said things no honest farmer should say. And in the midst of all this hubbub up drove Mrs. Giles in the covered cart, and handed out her empty baskets, which she had taken to the market full of eggs and golden butter that morning.

When she heard it was a cat she came along and tried to coax poor Fitz Ruff. But he only opened his mouth feebly and looked at the dog. Then Mrs. Giles, who understood things, sent the dog away, and the farmer too; then she said things to Fitz Ruff which Fitz Ruff understood.

"He ain't no beauty, that I'll allow," she said later as Fitz lay on the brick floor in front of the kitchen fire. "E's right down ugly, but there, 'e's a pore stray creature, and we never know when we won't be the same."

Poor Fitz Ruff, his once beautiful coat, now smeared with dirt, clinging in matted lumps to his dainty limbs, certainly looked a sad object. Mrs. Giles knew nothing about his orange eyes, nor the tufts between his toes, points which had won him the gold medal at the show. And his proud little heart sank as he heard her comments.

Oh, to get back to his dear mistress and the white rug! Oh, to sit there once more blinking at the friendly fire, to feel the soft touch of his mistress's silk dress against his nose, to hear her soothing voice as she besought him to try and take a little more milk!

Mrs. Giles was very kind. She knew that a little kitten, though ugly and apparently innocent of the murder of mice, had still feelings, and she patted him now and then when she had time. And Fitz Ruff would stiffen his back as her rough hand wandered from his soft sensed an equally inodorous condition of affairs in his neighborhood from the exhaust of an automobile with too rich a mixture.

Hanalei Wharf

If our Legislature is to be merely a means to enact into law the wishes or plans of our high officials to the exclusion of those without the charmed circle, can't a more expeditious and economical plan than what we now have be devised? On the other hand if it is to remain the "forum of the people" the officials must give heed, especially when its Session is entitled to being designated by the Governor as the "best Legislature yet."

In the matter of the Hanalei wharf, we are informed that the representatives of the people authorized an appropriation from the current revenues, rather than the lean fund, in order to expedite its immediate construction, as was also the case with the Mahukona wharf, so we are inclined to discredit the rumors respecting the attitude of our high officials, but as public opinion on Kauai is in favor of the construction of this wharf at an early date, we shall be interested in watching the development of events.

We have a "crack-a-jack" County Engineer and Board of Supervisors who, if the Territorial government will pass the buck, can arrange to build that wharf before the autumn breezes scatter the pollen of the cane tassels on the road, but we don't want any of Promising Marston's evasive and facetious promises to the effect that it will be built "before the snow flies" for snow is as scarce in Hanalei as has been a wharf so far as the oldest inhabitant can testify.

We are a long suffering lot of "Little Islanders" but whether it was for better or for worse, County Government was our remedy for the disregard of the rights of the people under the old regime, so in the language of the ant to the elephant upon that memorable morning when Noah was getting his tribe in out of the wet, we say to the Superintendent of Public Works "stop your shoving" and see to the erection of the Hanalei wharf.

Local News

From Saturday's Record.
W. F. Frost is at the Hotel Fairview.

Rev. Hans Isenberg and Sheriff Rice are on a business trip to Waimea to-day.

A large number of Kauai's school children returned by the Kinau this morning.

Tommy O'Brien, the genial representative of the Von Hamm-Young Co., has added another prize to our list of prizes for the field day sports, the prize being a beautiful five dollar sweater. This is one of the most useful prizes offered and will certainly be appreciated by the winner.

IT IS GENTLY WHISPERED

That Paul Schmidt is champion traveling man bowler of the island.
That he never missed a shot when the traveling men were at the bowling alley.

That one other traveling man never missed a drink.

That Frost left very early saying that he was going home.

That he should know the rest of the traveling men stay at the hotel.

That Frost and Gus Prescott have their hair cut and parted in the same manner.

That Gus can only wear his t h i s one way.

That Tom O'Brien is making a very long trip on Kauai.

That his trips were never so extended before he was married.

That Gus Prescott is a natural born poet.

That he will donate a small poem in this issue.

That Dick Oliver's birthday party last trip was one great success.

That no one was seriously injured.

That one traveling man placed all his clothes on the bed and tried to go to bed on the chair.

That it is not necessary to mention names.

That every one knows it was not Sid Spitzer.

That some of the traveling boys say that they enjoyed watching the basket ball game far better than they did the baseball game at Koloa.

That the most enthusiastic one is married.

That we do not mention names in this matter but Paul Schmidt should know better.

That Lee Austin never carries a hammer as a sample.

That he is no knocker.

That he made a quick trip this time.

That he has not been out late nights this trip.

That Mrs. Austin is spending a vacation on Kauai.

That 'nough's said.

That Robinson the directory man is with us.

That there is in all twelve traveling men on Kauai at present.

That it is a good opportunity for Kauai to takes census.

That Robinson should know as he is the population systematizer.

That Charlie Herrick says he had a dry trip.

That every one on the island knows it has been raining.

That Charlie is not always talking about the weather.

That Editor Bridgewater is one good feller.

That it is too bad he cannot find a more honorable and usefull vocation.

That he did not learn to write from a correspondence school.

That he can write some and that he thoroughly learnt the paper business from a news boy up.

That his office would be a good location for a small side line of merchandise.

That all the boys would extend him a small credit.

That he could wrap up his sales in his newspapers.

That there would then be something in his paper.

That as the Kinau will be over crowded this trip, it is hoped that no one will be timid in asking the purser to let him have a drummers' room.

That not one of the boys care for a berth.

That it is a pleasure to sleep on deck for a drummer.

That a drummer's work is only a round of pleasure.

The Latest In Poetry

(By Gus Prescott, Poet)

Yes, I am Gus Prescott.

Am I a poet?

Don't you know it?

If I had the time,

And a bottle of wine,

I could rhyme every line

Do I ever renig?

Do I look like I'm dead?

I am Sir Gus Prescott—

Renig? Well, I guess not!

A Traveling Man's Dream

By Sid Spitzer, member Associated Press of Kauai.

All is quiet, and a traveling man is seen approaching one of the best and largest stores on the island of Kauai. As his wagon stops before the door, the store-keeper comes rushing out and embraces him, and says: "Bring your samples right in! I have been waiting for you. That last shipment I bought was sold as we were unpacking it from the cases. I never saw any better goods than those you represent. I intend giving you four times the order this trip. I am glad you did not pass us by."

He assists the drummer in unloading the trunks from the wagon and they drag them into the store. The traveling man stops to open a case where the most profitable samples are kept and on arising, bumps his elbows upon one of his other trunks which is standing close by, and awakens.

It is only a dream! —Copy-writer.

Rev. Mr. Meritt Lectures In Waimea

(Special to the Garden Island)
WAIMEA, June 20.—Reverend Meritt delivered a very interesting address to the Waimea people, in the Waimea Church last Wednesday evening. He encouraged them to join in the church and Sunday School work to better themselves and their children. In part he said:

"I am very glad to see that Mr. Rice is the President of the Kauai Sunday Schools, and also superintending the work of the Board of Education also to learn that his interest in educational as well as religious work has been the silver thread that enabled your fathers, mothers and children on this island to make good church workers. Since my last stay in Hawaii nei about fourteen years ago I have studied how to progress the Sunday School problems. I have left the mainland to come down here and solve the Sunday School problems. We wanted to learn what your problems are. I am very happy to see the Hawaiian Union, Japanese, Chinese and Portuguese Sunday Schools in here tonight. Oh, how I wish I could talk the Hawaiian language. I suppose Mr. Rice will translate my thoughts for those who will not understand me. Before I speak, I want to know how many Sunday School superintendents, teachers and scholars are here tonight."

The audience respectfully raised their hands to meet his demand.

"I have found that Mr. Rice is as old as I am. I want to tell you all that nobody can get along without the Bible. We all need that book. Every one needs a Bible, and I would like to spend a little time to talk with these boys and girls. I know they love Jesus, and wanted to go to church. I want you children to have your Sunday School lessons thoroughly learned as well as you learn your lessons in the public schools. There are three things that I want you boys and girls to do. First: go to Sunday School on time with your lessons learned. Second: get your Bible by saving your pennies which your papa and mamma will give you, and get the habit of reading it. Third: I want every boy and girl to get the habit of kneeling down and pray. It is real rude not to thank Mr. Akina for his generosity and hospitality to me. So it is the same life to God and man. Thank him in Sunday School. I am very happy you are here tonight."

To men and women he said: "Dear friends, I am here tonight to say that Hawaii nei needs each one of you to get close to the old book. We found on the mainland that father and mother thinks that they are too big to go to Sunday School. I want you fathers and mothers here tonight to go with your boys and girls to Sunday School and after Sunday School ask your children to go to church. The first thing I will ask you, won't you be interested by going to Sunday School every Sunday? You send your children to public schools to have them well educated. So they are to be sent to Sunday School and to church to be religiously educated. In the mainland, every one who learn to read this book (Bible) is the best citizen. Get your children to go to church. But first of all is to go together with them. It is necessary for teachers to know what they teach. God wants to have this old book so learned and understood so that we can teach our children. The best way to get ready is, after church and Sunday School go home and always make a rule to get a bible and read to prepare for next Sunday. Is there anybody here who does not have three meals a day? To spend three meals a day for our body, we ought to spend a little time to feed our souls by reading the bible. In weeks days have your illustrations prepared and by Sunday you will be so filled and learned with your lessons, that you don't need any book but to speak by memory."

"We are trying to help Sunday Schools in America by making it better. To help boys and girls to know God's work. And I thank you very much for coming here to night."

Hon. W. H. Rice translated the thoughts of the speaker in such a way that it interested every one who understood him. He said that he had received a letter from the secretary of the National Sunday School to visit all the churches of Kauai. Now there are eleven hundred millions of those who know the English language well. And when Queen Victoria was asked, why the English language had so greatly increased among the nations, she replied, "The Reading of the Bible," as the Bible says, "God's word is the crown for our souls, we ought to study the Bible more."
