BAND BOYS ON A BIG OUTING

Last Sunday was red letter day for the Lihue band boys who together with their families repaired to a beautiful kukui grove on the banks of the Wailua River where they indulged in a real old fashioned picnic.

Promptly at ten o'clock, a special train loaded with the jolliest crowd that ever gathered in Hanalei, pulled out for the Wailua bridge where, after a pleasant ride of an hour, the party embarked in two large boats which were waiting to convey them mauka to the grove. A string orchestra accompanied the party which rendered delightful music to the stroke of the oar. Arriving at their destination, willing hands got busy, and soon had an improvised table made from broken branches of kukui trees spread in the shape of an L. Around this table assembled the gay picnickers, each being supplied with ample refreshments, a generous helping of lauau, a bowl of poi and all other accessories necessary to complete a most sumptuous luau.

The dinner finished, speeches were in order. Director Souza, in a few well chosen remarks, expressed his gratefulness to all those who had in any way aided in bringing about such a pleasant time and hoped that the event would become an annual affair. Joe Rapozo Sr., followed with a very complimentary speech, reviewing the growth of the band from the beginning of its history. He told of how it had grown; of its struggles; and how, notwithstanding all the pitfalls, the band stood today as a monument to the determination of the boys to succeed and commended them for their unity claiming that to this alone, the organization owed much of its success. Antonio Rapozo also made a stirring speech in which he eulogized the band, saying among other things that from a mere nothing, the Lihue band had grown until it is now "the best band in the Territory." To show that this opinion was shared in by his audience, the bumpers were emptied to the future success of the band. F. Garcia Sr., then made a short talk, being chiefly in praise of Director Souza's valuable assistance as a band leader. His speech closed this part of the program, after which games were indulged in for a short time when "all aboard" was sounded and soon they were floating down the river. The boats were brought up at a rice mill about a mile below, where everybody climbed out and got in line for a two-step, on a smooth asphalt floor which had been used for thrashing rice.

In addition to two-stepping and a waltz or tyo, an innovation was created in the form of a typical Portuguese dance, in which the younger set frequently lost step at the undisguised delight of their elders. By far the most amusing thing connected with the dance program, however, was an imitation of the Japanese dance. A platform was erected, upon which M. C. Martin, took his place, holding a Japanese umbrella. John Rapozo, for a drum, used a cracker box, and for a drum stick, a piece of cane. The rest of the crowd formed a circle round the platform and at a given signal Martin turned loose a vocal selection with such tragic effect that the entire circle was simply convulsed with laughter. His expressions were so perfect and jestifications so tragic as to be easily mistaken for the real McCoy, while Johnny Rapozo handled the drum sticks like an expert. After a little more than an hour here, the happy bunch again "got aboard" and enjoyed the excitement of a boat race back to the Wailua bridge. Of course the best boat won, but no one seemed to mind that much as the picnic spirit was still rife; with no signs of diminution. The distance from the river to where the train awaited was quickly covered and with songs and music filling the air, the start for home was made.

Hanalei was reached at half-past seven and the populace gathered to greet the returning excursionists, who voted, collectively and in dividually, that the day had been one of the happiest of their lives.

Among the prominent ladies present were Mrs. Rapozo, Mrs. Cuetano, Mrs. Antonio Nobrega, Miss Marie Rapozo, Miss Elena Cuetano, Miss Marie Amorin, Miss Antonia Amorin, Marie Rapozo.

To the Lihue Plantation management and Mr. Wolters, the band boys wish to acknowledge their indebtedness for cordialities extended, and to assure them of the band's appreciation. Much praise is also due Engineer Costa for the careful manner in which he handled his train.

Had another excursion which was also highly appreciated by the picnickers.

FOUNTAINS FOR OUR SCHOOLS

If the plans of Health Inspector Frank Cooke are carried out, the public schools of Kauai will soon be fitted with sanitary drinking fountains. To a reporter Mr. Cooke stated that with such an arrangement, the chances for the spread of diphtheria and such diseases would be greatly lessened if not entirely obliterated. Mr. Cooke made a trip up Wailua River Saturday for the purpose of disinfecting the house in which the Lihue diphtheria case was discovered.

KAUAI COULD USE IT

Of that two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to which the Board of Health has fallen heir, Kauai is entitled to her proportion and the sooner she gets it the better as is shown by the conditions in Nawiliwili at low tide. We would respectfully call our worthy Health Inspector's attention to these conditions with a request for prompt action. With diphtheria all round us and a stream such as the Nawiliwili belching forth a daily supply of accumulated, half decayed vegetable matter, is a menace to the health of the community. The conditions in Nawiliwili call for prompt action in which Kauai's part of that $250,000 will play a most substantial part.

A LUCKY FISHERMAN

Representative J. H. Coney, Nawiliwili's expert fisherman, bagged a school of five Mo'i yesterday morning which aggregated three thousand pounds. A sharp lookout is being kept for another school which is said to be approaching the same vicinity in which this big catch was made.

LITTLE FOLKS PARTY

Special to The Garden Island.
KERAMA, JAN. 16. Mrs. E. A. Knudsen will receive Thursday afternoon, the occasion being a children's party. Children from all parts of the island have been invited and a delightful time is anticipated.

POSTMISTRESS SICK

Special to The Garden Island.
WAIMEA, JAN. 15.—Miss Whittington, Postmistress at Makaweli, is at the hospital here, recovering from an operation which was performed last week.

GRADE IS NEARLY PAU

Special to The Garden Island.
HANALEI, JAN. 14.—According to pretty good authority, the Hanalei Hill grade will be completed within another month. The completion of this work will remove one of the greatest drawbacks to auto traveling on this side of the island. The grade will be one of four per cent and an easy one to climb. Sand is being applied to the stretch of bottom road with the hopes of preventing a repetition of the recently almost impassable condition of this road.

WAIMEA CARD PARTY

Special to The Garden Island.
WAIMEA, JAN. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Hofgaard entertained at cards last Saturday evening to a number of young people included among whom was Miss Marie Anderson of Hanalei.

MANY WAIMEA AUTOS

Special to The Garden Island.
WAIMEA, JAN. 13.—No less than nineteen automobiles are reported to be in the rent service here, and still there are others contemplating entering the field. Auto agents are as thick as flies in Summer, there having been two or three cars sold here within the last few days.

AGAIN APPENDICITIS

Manuel Rodrigues a Portuguese lad living in Hanalei was operated on at the Lihue Hospital yesterday for appendicitis.

Mr. J. P. Kightley will leave today for Hanalei, at which place he will be located for some time.

MOKIHANA CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The regular meeting of the members of the Mokihana Club, was held at the Lihue Hall last Wednesday afternoon being well attended. The subjects up for discussion were "The Guilds" and "Growth of Cities' Commerce," and the manner in which the latter was handled indicated a knowledge of business affairs which certainly qualifies the ladies to vote. The program which was exceptionally well rendered was as follows:

- PROGRAM.
1. Pianoforte Selection—German National Anthem.....Mrs. de Bretville.
 2. Reading: The formation of Guilds and the Hansetic League.....Mrs. J. M. Lydgate.
 3. Song: "Old Plantation,".....By the Misses Sheldon.
 4. Reading: Literature of Germany.....Mrs. Hans Isenberg.
 5. Reading: Synopsis of Eisekhard.....Mrs. W. H. Rice Jr.
 6. Pianoforte Selection: Ludwig shlytle, "Down the River".....Mrs. de Bretville.

The hostesses were Mrs. Diernert and Mrs. Hans Isenberg, while Mrs. W. H. Rice, Jr., proved an able leader.

Members present were Mesdames Andermann Jr., Kassebeur, Diernert, Theilen, P. L. Rice, W. H. Rice Jr., C. A. Rice, S. W. Wilcox, R. L. Wilcox, F. Carter, J. A. Hogg, Wedemeyer, de Bretville, A. S. Wilcox, Isenberg, Gaylord Wilcox, K. C. Hopper, and Misses Lulu Weber, Lottie Jordan, Kau Wilcox, Daisy Sheldon, Hannah Sheldon, Maria Ellis, Mable Wilcox.

MOOSE INCREASING

Organizer Lund of the Loyal Order of Moose, left for Koloa last Sunday where he expects to be as successful in interesting the people in behalf of his organization as he was in Lihue. Mr. Lund is very much pleased with the outlook of the organization so far and anticipates getting at least two hundred members on Kauai. He reports the capture of 28 head of Moose in Koloa.

PRETTY PARTY AFFAIR

Little Miss Alice Kanikeolani Wilcox was hostess at a pretty birthday party from 2 to 4 p. m. yesterday to her numerous little friends, the party being given at the palatial home of her grandmother, Mrs. A. S. Wilcox. A dainty table, prettily decorated and containing artistic favors, for each little guest, occupied the center of the room, ice-cream and cake however taking the precedence as the chief attraction of the happy gathering. Miss Alice was the happy recipient of numerous presents, comprising about everything her little heart could wish for. So delighted were the little ones in their elaborate feast of goodies, fascinating games and general good time that four o'clock found them very reluctant to depart. The mothers were charmingly entertained by Mrs. Wilcox at tea, four tables being tastily decorated for the occasion. The invited guests to Miss Alice's party were Waldemar Knudsen, Miss Clarice Coney, Miss Aileen Carter, Miss Alice Broadbent, Miss Lillian Rohrig, Miss Mary Dorothea Rice, Miss Harriet Rice and Rufus Spaling, Jr., Sam Wilcox, William Waterhouse, William Lydgate, Arthur Hyde Rice, Albert Hart Wilcox, Baby Hunt.

HERE AND THERE

Sheriff W. H. Rice made a trip to Waimua last week.

Supervising Principal, H. H. Brodie passed through the County Seat yesterday en route to the schools on the Hanalei side.

Miss Marie Anderson of the Hanapepe school spent Saturday evening and Sunday the guest of Miss Hofgaard in Waimua.

An exceedingly neat calendar is that which is issued by Nelson B. Lansing, agent for the American Biscuit Co., in Honolulu a sample of which this office is a grateful recipient.

Supervisor H. H. Brodie accompanied by Mrs. Brodie, returned to Hanapepe Friday after a trip of several days among the schools of the Hanalei side.

The Eleese Store is on the market with a pretty calendar this year far outclassing anything it has ever yet turned out. It is artistic in every respect and reflects credit on Mr. Silva's judgment of art goods.

Archibald Ainslie, head blacksmith for Honolulu Sugar Co., is the guest of Mr. Wm. Elliott of Koloa.

There is a wicked fly on the handsome calendar which L. Rubinstein is furnishing his customers. The calendar is more than two feet in length and contains the picture of a pretty blonde in the agonizing attitude of trying to swat a fly which is showing the extremely good taste of taking liberties with a beautifully bared shoulder.

According to statements by Major Wooten, the cost of constructing a harbor at Lihue and Port Allen, will be about equal, either of which will cost more than a million dollars.

Harry Waldron, the genial representative of the Honolulu Iron Works, came up on the Maunaloa last Saturday morning on a special trip for his concern. He left yesterday for Kilauea where he will spend a few days after which he will return to Honolulu by Saturday's boat.

George Bertram of the Waimua Garage, was in the County Seat Saturday in the interest of his firm.

LONG RECORD IS FINALLY BROKEN

W. H. Rice Jr., who has held the record for the highest individual score on the Kegol Club's bowling alley for the last four years, lost the pennant to H. Wolters last Saturday evening when the latter ran up a score of 253. Mr. Rice's record score having been 246. Considerable excitement prevailed when ten strikes had been placed to Mr. Wolters' credit, and it was hoped that he would make even a higher score, but his luck changed tho' when the end came he was heartily congratulated by his colleagues on his good fortune.

During the evening, Moose Organizer Lund enlivened times somewhat by offering a Moose pin to the members securing the highest score in two different games. As a result, Auditor Maser possesses one of them while Frank Crawford came in for the order.

BOOKS GIVEN FREE

Beginning with the issue of Jan. 23, THE GARDEN ISLAND will offer every school child in the Territory a present of five choice fifty cents story books absolutely free. As there are more than twenty thousand children attending our schools, this will mean a distribution of a hundred thousand story books. This offer will hold good for thirty days only, beginning at six o'clock on Thursday morning January 25, and ending on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, February 24.

Supervisor H. H. Brodie for the Kauai schools will select the books for children of the Kauai schools, while similar arrangements can probably be made with supervising principals of the other islands. Watch for next week's issue which will contain full particulars. Remember that each child will be limited to five books.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Miss Lulu Weber was operated on for appendicitis at the Lihue hospital at ten o'clock Saturday morning. The operation was highly satisfactory and Miss Weber is getting on nicely.

The horses of Hanalei are knowing creatures, and are interesting animals to a student of nature. It did not take long to learn that the pasture in the school grounds was fresher and sweeter than that outside; so they pulled off the gate latch, nails and all, and marched inside. A little after sun down the next evening a strong cord having been used to secure the gate against them—five horses appeared at the gate to see what new device had been used to keep them out; but they were driven away and the cord was made all the more secure. The following morning, however, the horses were standing leisurely by the fence at the back of the garden, while the cord, which had been cut with their sharp teeth, was lying by the open gate.

Miss Florence Deverill represented the Hanalei school at the Teacher's convention held at Lihue, being the only teacher from this place who was so fortunate as to be able to attend.

KAUAI'S PORT QUESTION UP

Waimua, Kauai, Jan. 13, 1912.
EDITOR GARDEN ISLAND.
Dear Sir:

A petition is going the rounds in this community on which is inscribed the information that a port could be constructed at Port Allen for the sum of half a million dollars, whereas the cost of the same at Lihue would be a million dollars, twice the figure of the one at Port Allen. Aside from the merits of the two places, can you tell me through the columns of your valuable paper, definitely as to the approximate relation of cost of the two harbors? It has occurred to me as well as to others that if a harbor could have been built at Port Allen for half the amount of money, that the Government would not have dilly-dallied about a choice for such harbor. Also would like your personal opinion as to where Kauai's harbor should be located. Thanking you in advance, I am sincerely,

HANALEI ITEMS

Deputy Sheriff Werner returned Friday from a trip to Lihue and Honolulu.

The church is springing right up above the tree tops, and is an interesting sight as viewed from the school grounds. The foundation is in, the studding all up to the plates ready for the rafters, and the tower frame is partly made.

Mrs. Deverill and her three children and Mrs. Sanborn and her little ones chartered a car for Lihue and made the trip there and back the same day. In the meantime they had a pleasant visit with their friends, the Wilcoxes.

Mr. and Mrs. Brodie spent a few days in the Hanalei District this week. They first came to Kilauea, and from there to the Deverill Hotel. Being unable to go farther in his car, Mr. Brodie went by carriage to Haena. Thursday, they visited the Hanalei school.

In a letter to his teacher, Samuel Werner, who has recently entered the Kamehameha School for Boys says that in connection with his studies, he is learning carpentry. He sends his "best aloha" to all his schoolmates. Good for Samuel! He will be a man some day that all his friends will be proud of.

Miss Florence Deverill represented the Hanalei school at the Teacher's convention held at Lihue, being the only teacher from this place who was so fortunate as to be able to attend.

The rumor that The Weekly Times, Maui's up-to-date little paper is about to take over the Maui News in order to add a comic supplement to its publication, clearly indicates a survival of the fittest.

The men who do a town more harm than good, may be classed as follows: First, those who oppose improvement. Second, those who run it down to strangers. Third, those who never advertise their business.

The advantage the automobile has over the horse was fully demonstrated last week when Supervising Principal H. H. Brodie accompanied by Normal Inspector Gibson made the following record: Leaving Hanapepe at nine o'clock, they proceeded to Kapaa where they visited the school and were ready to depart for Hanamaulu at ten-forty. They reached the latter school at eleven-fifteen where they paid their respects after which they left for Lihue, arriving there at twelve thirty. Considering the distance between Kapaa and Hanapepe to be thirty miles, and the fact that no less than three inspections were made, the work accomplished in a little more than three hours would have been out of the question without a machine.

We owe it to the community in which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's prosperity, means a great deal more to us than someone's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a firm price for his wares rather than send our money away, knowing as we do, that every dollar spent with our citizens will help in sustaining schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry.

THE Maui News in its last issue, devoted a column to a spasm over a write-up this paper had given regarding a bowling contest at the Kegel Club in which one of the Maui bowlers had participated. The editor, after alluding to our write-up, and terming it "hot air," set to and published our article verbatim. There is nothing unusual about this any further than the fact that the Maui News for once at least contained interesting reading on its first page. If our contemporary would apply some of THE GARDEN ISLAND'S "exuberance" to its own use instead of running so much boiler plate—and in most instances four columns of seven day-old wireless news—it would not be such a bad old rag.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Lydia Bertha Miller, passed away at the home of her daughter in Honolulu, on Tuesday, Jan. 2nd, 1912, at 4 p. m., at the age of 51 years, 11 months and 5 days, death resulting from heart failure. Deceased had been in Honolulu since last September to which place she had gone in quest of better health and had to all appearance, entirely recovered and was in the act of returning to her home in Koloa when death's messenger called her to her eternal home. She had taken leave of her friends and completed arrangements to sail on Tuesday's Kinai, but Tuesday morning she was found by one of her daughters lying unconscious on her bedroom floor in which condition she remained until the end came at four o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Henry Blake, a daughter who resides in Koloa was immediately wirelessed for, but was unable to reach the bedside before her mother had passed away.

The deceased was a woman widely known throughout the islands for the deep interest she always took in church work, having from childhood displayed characteristics of a peaceful, loving Christian spirit. Her education was obtained at St. Andrew's Priory under the guidance of Sisters Beatrice and Albertina. Completing her education, she returned to her home in Koloa, and here took up school teaching under the direction of Dr. J. W. Smith and wife in connection with the Episcopal Church with which she had been affiliated from childhood. Later on she became identified with Dr. J. W. Smith and sister.

At the age of 21, deceased was united in marriage to E. C. Miller, a highly respected young man in the employ of the Koloa Plantation in the capacity of mason. To this happy union, eight children were born.

Special funeral services, conducted by Rev. Hopwood of the Kamehameha School, the institution which all her children attended, one of whom is at present a student there—was held at William's undertaking parlors, a special choir from the school rendering some very touching music.

On Wednesday the Kinai, as a special, brought the remains, accompanied by the family of the deceased to Koloa where the body was kept in state until the following Sunday afternoon when funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Lydgate and Rev. Kaulili, at 3 p. m., at which a special choir assisted, interment taking place in the Koloa Hawaiian Church cemetery.

The pall bearers were C. B. Blake, Antone Perry, William Elliot, A. G. Kaulikon, John Naleimale, Henry Spaulding.

Surviving are Fred Miller, Koloa; M. Miller, Honolulu; Mrs. H. Blake, Koloa; J. K. Miller, Honolulu; C. E. Miller, Hilo; Charlie Miller, Miss Albertina Miller, Normal School, Honolulu; Miss Lydia Miller, Kamehameha School, Honolulu, all of whom have the united sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

MAHINAULI BRIDGE.

The Engineer stated that plans and specifications for this bridge had been prepared but owing to certain changes having been introduced in the plans, of which he did not approve, he had been obliged to order new plans.

NEW HANAPEPE SCHOOL.

The specifications for this building had been received but through some mistake the plans had been omitted, so that he was unable to present the same for the criticism of the Board. He would state that slight changes had been introduced at the suggestion of Willis T. Pope, Superintendent of Instruction. It being the opinion of the Board that the former motion, authorizing the Engineer to proceed with the call for bids for the erection of the building, was sufficient, the Engineer was requested to proceed to carry out the same.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Upon the verbal request of the Engineer, the following amounts were, upon motion, appropriated and set aside for the respective work as designated.

Kapaa-Anahola New Grade	$1500.
Puhi-Apeula New Grade	$500.

ENGINEER'S VERBAL REPORT.

The Engineer made a verbal report on the work being done by order of the Board, under contract, as follows, HANAPEPE CONTRACT. That work had been delayed owing to some trouble with the boiler equipment, but that now it would progress rapidly, and he hoped to be able to report completion of the bridge at the next meeting of the Board.

SELECTION 1. KOLOA-LAWAI ROAD. P. FITZGIBBON.

This contract, as far as the grading work was concerned, was completed and bill covering balance due on contract had been approved by him.

The work of putting in the concrete drain pipes was not as yet finished, but would soon be and as soon as the fence on the makai side of the road was constructed, the new grade would be opened to the public.

SECTION 5. KOLOA-LAWAI ROAD. M. HAMARUK. This section of road was practically completed, but little more work being required to put the road in first class shape. This whole section of road, in from Eolon to Lawai, was now all within the 6% grade and was a satisfactory section of road and when macadamized, he was sure, would be greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

PUIH-APEULA ROAD.

He expected to have all this piece of road completed by the end of the month and ready for the laying of macadam.

KAPAIA-A-NATIOLA NEW GRADE.

Good progress had been made in the sanding of the piece of new road from the old smoke stack in Kapaia to the Keaha bridge, and if, when packed, it would hold as he expected, he would recommend this sanding, in place of macadam, on this particular stretch of road.

HANAPEPE HILL, NEW GRADE.

SECTION 4. GEO. W. MAHIKOA. The contract covering this section would be completed in about a week when work on the lower section would be commenced and he expected that this new grade, providing favorable weather conditions continued, would be open for traffic in about two month's time.

HANAPEPE-HARNA ROAD.

He had again made a verbal contract with the same contractor for another section of this road.

APUULA BRIDGE, HALF-WAY BRIDGE.

He had all the preliminary plans ready for this bridge and was now at work on the final drawings and specifications.

ASSISTANT.

He reported the arrival of his assistant and planned to start him at work at first on the relocation of the new "Anahola" grade.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Upon request, the Engineer, J. H. Moragne, was granted, by unanimous motion, a leave of absence.

ADJOURNMENT.

Upon motion, duly seconded, the meeting adjourned subject to call of the chair.

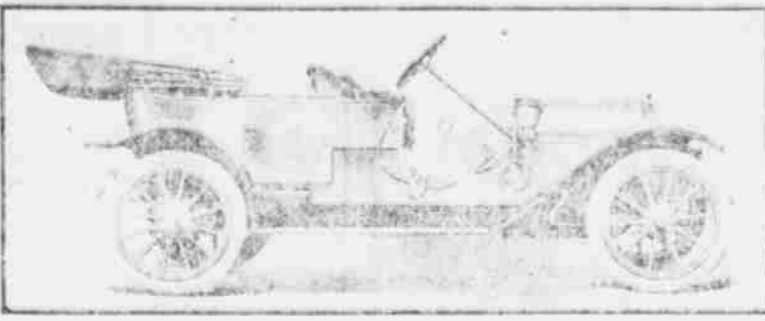

W. D. McBRIDE, Secretary.

Kauai Accounts Invited

Their Pleasant Summer

Short Story Series

"Where," asked the caller, in conventionally polite tones and with lukewarm interest, "are you going for the summer?"

The effect on her hostess was electrical. She sat bolt upright, dropped the teapot with a bang and echoed: "Going! We're not going—we're staying!"

"My goodness!" gasped the caller.

"Excuse me for mentioning it if it's a tender subject."

"It's not tender," said her hostess, energetically. "It's worse—it's an impossible subject! We went away last summer, and that's the reason. The Tunnills announced that they were going to Europe and said that if we'd occupy their big place across the lake for the season, and see that the servants didn't fight and that the cows didn't eat up the garden, we'd make them our debtors for life."

"We stored our furniture when the lease expired in May and rushed headlong to our doom. We thought it was a paradise on earth toward which we were flying, and maybe it would have been if the cook and the maid and the man of all work at the place hadn't decided that since their real family was gone, this would be a nice time to run home to the old country for a visit. And they went, two days after we came. They looked us over in a cold and critical way and disapproved of us and departed."

"We got lots of exercise before we found help. Tom used to rise at four and weed the garden and I got up at the same time to feed the chickens, turn on the automatic pump, get breakfast and superintend Tom's milking. He was kicked through the barn door only twice and we considered that the record was pretty good for a greenhorn. He had some minor mishaps, like poking back all the beans when they came up, pushing the seed ahead of them and training the potato vines up on strings instead of the peas, but trouble didn't really start until later."

"One day we were sitting in the flower garden having lunch, and I told Dotty, aged four, to go indoors for something. We watched her disappear into the house and then Tom said, "Could anything be more peaceful or inspiring than this perfect day!" And I responded in similar blank verse. Just then the neighbor whose cottage was on the lake shore came tearing around the corner of our house."

"She stared at us as though we annoyed her. 'Aren't you folks in bathing?' She inquired. 'Well, somebody is out in front, and I thought—'

"Tom and I did a foot race to the water unconscious and black in the face and he fished Dotty out of the lake. That child had marched in at the back door of the house and as promptly marched out through the front door and proceeded to take a paddle by herself in the lake, inspired by some unaccountable juvenile impulse."

"Dotty came out of her trance in two hours, but during that time I got ten gray hairs and Tom's nervous system was permanently shattered."

"It was a couple of weeks later that Dotty and Tom, Jr., remarked that their throats were sore and the doctor pronounced it black diphtheria. He murmured something about defective drains. There was a blur of trained nurses and horrors for a time and then the smoke of battle cleared away."

"Meanwhile the cows had eaten that part of the garden that had not dried up for lack of attention and the chickens were laying eggs all over the country. The Tun-

Kauai's Young People

A Hindu Fairy Tale

Once there live an old goat who was noted far and near for his shrewdness. Most people called him Billy, but he was so very wise, and had whiskers so very long, that his wife, Nannie, had great respect for him; so she called him William.

One day old William was scouting about in a mountainous district, quite a distance from home, looking for a good feeding place for Nannie and the kids, when there came up a sudden storm. A large opening in the cliffs near by promised shelter. Passing through the opening, he found himself in a small dry cave.

It was a minute or two before his eyes grew accustomed to the dim light, so that he could take note of his surroundings. Then he was horrified to see the floor strewn with the bones of animals, and he was not long in deciding that he had found his way into a lion's den! Turning to escape at once, he was stopped by a deep roar. The master of the house was coming driven by the rising storm.

"My horns, however sharp, will be of no avail whatever against this ferocious monster," thought William. "I must try what sharp wits can do."

In stalked the lion, hungry and surly. Seeing the goat, he paused, surprised, and then crouched to spring upon him.

"Oh, how lucky I am!" exclaimed old William.

"What!" roared the lion, astonished. "You mean how lucky I am; for it is indeed great luck that sends a fat goat into my very den when I am hungry."

"No," rejoined the goat, "I mean that I am lucky. I am a lion hunter, and it is great luck that sends me a lion just when my nills never did get them back.

"They'd send us postcards from Europe saying, 'We saw this today. Hope you are enjoying life at the dear old home.' This while I was burning fumigating candles. Or, 'We came down this river today. How you must be enjoying the garden green things.' That came the day the cows ate the last of the green corn we had expected to use ourselves."

"A little while later Tom dropped a flatiron on his toe and blood poisoning set in. Then the Tunnills sent a lovely card, saying: 'We can just imagine you doing the five-mile walk through Elm lane and the woods. We envy you.' This was while we were changing the bandages on his smashed and painful foot six times a day."

"The worst of all was that the family sent Tom's pretty and handsome sister Nell to us so that she'd forget the ineligible man she was trying to get engaged to. I produced all the young men at the hotel and several village lights to distract her, and so perfectly did I succeed that she eloped with a college boy who was running a launch to pay his summer expenses. As the family was saving up a millionaire for Nell when she should have come to her senses they still feel hard toward me, and I should have had more sense."

When we came back to town in the fall all the good flats were taken and the moths had got into our rugs, and I had lost fifteen pounds and all my color, and Tom was a dyspeptic old grouch. It's taken all winter to get Dotty and Tom, Jr., civilized again, and on the whole we've concluded that the family will be better off if it denies itself the strain of a summer vacation. We're going to stick right here!"

"It does sound safer," admitted the caller.

horns were aching for exercise—

whoop!" and William capered with glee.

"A long-whiskered old goat a lion hunter? Nonsense! I never heard of such a thing."

"Oh, you haven't heard of anything! Maybe you never before did meet a lion-killing goat. You certainly will not live to see another one. You can't escape. This week has been a little dull for me so far, as I have killed only four lions. You will make the fifth one. Prepare to die this very instant."

Old Billy reared on his hind legs, shook his head till his long beard streamed out wildly; then, dropping on all fours, he lowered his horns and rushed fiercely at the amazed lion.

Daunted by the bold speech and unexpected onset, the enormous beast turned and fled. As soon as he had disappeared, the goat slipped out of the cave, and ran in the opposite direction as fast as his legs could carry him.

The lion had not gone far when he met a jackal. To him he told the story of his late encounter with the wonderful lion-killing goat that had attacked him so fiercely. "You say he was an old whiskered gray-eyed chap?" queried the jackal. "Why, I know him. That's old Billy. And he called himself the lion-killer? Ha! ha! ha! That's a good joke. Why, he couldn't kill a half-grown kitten! He scared you with his big talk. Hunt him up and slaughter him. Give his carcass to me if you don't want it."

Back they went to the cave, but the goat was gone. Sniffing around among the rocks, they soon found his trail, and away they sped in pursuit. Old William, glancing back, caught sight of them; and, knowing that they would overtake him in a few minutes, feared that all was lost.

But he took heart and said to himself: "I can't run away from them and I can't fight them. All I can do is to try again the power of sharp wits." Facing about, he ran boldly toward his pursuers.

"Ha, jackal!" he called in angry tones, "how is this? I will discharge you if you don't do better. You agreed to decoy three lions, leading them to me here, and you have brought only one—and a small one at that. Start off for the other two at once! Stop! wait a minute till I kill this fellow."

As he finished speaking, old Billy rushed headlong at the lion. The great beast was again stricken with sudden fright. He gave an angry snap at the jackal and bounded down the valley. His cowardly companion sneaked away into the nearest thicket, while old William trotted home safe to his family.

That horse racing may be revived on Kauai.
That Rufus Spalding would be a mighty good leader for this sport.
That the Kapaa track could be easily put in condition for the purpose.
That it is about time something more is heard of the "summer resort" hotel at Hanalei.
That the first dock at which a steamer can tie up to, will soon be erected at Hanalei.
That the Noeau will probably land at least two passengers per week on this dock.
That a dock at Kalihiwai is next on the program.
That after all other harbors on the island get docks, Lihue will come in for a little consideration—maybe.
That Lihue's population increased seventeen in number last week, by the arrival of this number of Spanish subjects for the plantation.
That they are a healthy, clean lot of people.
That there should have been seventeen hundred instead of seventeen.
That Lihue was blessed with four mails last week.
That this is going some.
That this proves Postmaster Pratt to be all right—sometimes.
That the political pot will soon begin to bubble.
That somebody is bound to get stewed.
That no great change in the present program will result.
That Assistant County Engineer Keightly is getting on to the ropes.
That he is very much in love with Kauai.
That his opinion is enthusiastically shared by his estimable wife.
That Kauai can return the compliment to this very popular young couple with interest.
That the crossing below the Fairview remains in a dangerous condition.
That a horse fell here last week and narrowly escaped injury to rider and itself.
That the Hanamaulu crossing would be a good pattern to follow.
That any kind of good crossing here would be cheaper than a damage suit against the county.

E. O. Hall & Son, Honolulu

Representative Hawes of the Associated Garage, returned to Honolulu Tuesday, having come up the Saturday previous and in the meantime disposed of two cars. Two cars in as many days is very encouraging, and Mr. Hawes will likely return soon for another try. It must be remembered that Mr. Hawes represents a firm which is a generous advertiser in Kauai's paper, hence the quick sales. Live men advertise, as indicated by Mr. Hawes.

Dr. V. P. Osborn, the Elele Hospital physician, accompanied by Mrs. Osborn, were seeing friends away at the Nawiliwili landing last Tuesday.

C. W. Spitz returned from a business trip to Honolulu last Wednesday. Mr. Spitz also took in the round-the-island excursion trip including Maui, which he claims is looking very prosperous.

Eloquence is the truth well told.

THE "WEEKLY TIMES" SPREADS ITSELF

It remains for the Weekly Times of Maui, a hustling little four pager whose first dress is hardly dry, to take the lead in modern newspaperdom. The success of the Times is assured since the last issue is reported to have been read by fifteen hundred readers—not a bad record for the infant. Not being satisfied with this prosperity, it is said Vet has been looking for something bigger. Foreseeing the present success of the paper, he decided to get out something entirely different to all other island papers and to do this, he sought the advice of many of his readers who generally agreed that a "comic supplement" would be a winning card. Accordingly,

Vet is said to have exhausted his wits in an attempt to get just what he wanted for his readers, and was about to give up in despair, when a savior appeared in the form of a reader of the Maui News, who suggested that the News would, in his opinion, be "comic" enough for anybody.

As the only change necessary in this transaction would be to substitute "comic supplement" for Maui News, it is said that Vet fainted through sheer delight over the suggestion, and that negotiations are pending which if put through will at last put the Maui News before its readers under the title to which it rightfully belongs—"Comic Supplement."

LIQUOR COMMISSION IN BUSINESS MEET

Meeting of the Board of License Commissioners held in Lihue, December 29th, 1911. Due notice of same having been given the members of the Board.

The meeting was called to order by W. H. Rice, Chairman, at 10 o'clock A. M. Those present besides the chairman being, G. N. Wilcox, J. K. Apolo, W. D. McBryde and W. H. Rice, Jr., Inspector. Absent, Augustus F. Knudsen.

Minutes of the meeting, held June 1st, 1911, read and approved. REPORT ON BONDS. PACIFIC SURETY CO. The Secretary stated that the bonds as furnished, with the Pacific Surety Co. as Surety, were now satisfactory to the Board's committee, to whom the matter had been referred in that the guarantee had been assumed by the National Surety Co. of New Jersey.

AMENDMENT TO LAW. The chairman called the attention of the Board to the amendments to the law as passed by the last Legislature.

APPLICATION: J. K. COCKETT. The chairman stated the meeting had been called for the consideration of the application of J. K. Cockett, for a renewal of his Wholesale Liquor License. The secretary presented the application, the report of the inspector approving of the issuance of same, and reported that the notice of application had been duly advertised according to law. Through some inadvertence, the bond, as proposed to be furnished by the applicant, with the National Surety Co. as Surety, was not to hand, and the Board agreed to accept as temporary bondsmen Mr. F. Crawford and C. W. Spitz. Upon motion, duly seconded, the application was granted, upon the understanding that the new bond to be filed would be satisfactory to the secretary and the inspector, where upon the secretary would cancel the old bond or temporary one. Upon the payment of the first installment of License in the sum of $500, License was duly issued as of January 1st, 1912.

Upon motion duly seconded the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the chair.
