A DAMAGING FIRE IN WAIMEA LAST WEEK

Fire Originates in Sewing Room - Kegel Club is Ready.

DOING GOOD WORK

Baseball Season Brings Out Suggestions For Our Next Series.

Special to The Garden Island.

WAIMEA, Feb. 1.—The residence of J. M. Silva was damaged by fire yesterday morning to the extent of several hundred dollars. The fire originated in the work room and when discovered was all but beyond control. The contents of the room including a quantity of valuable dress material, was a total loss, while the interior of the room suffered considerable damage, in all, totalling about three hundred dollars.

Ready For Contest

The Kegel Club bowling team is in good condition for that Kauai contest next Saturday night, and it is thought by many who have watched them practice, that the Maui team will not have a look in. Prospects point to a large attendance at the club room when the contest comes off.

Pretty "Lanihuli"

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Birkmyer have moved on to the old Kellert homestead, which overlooks Hanalei valley, and known as Lanihuli. It is one of the picturesque landmarks of Kauai and a most desirable location.

League Suggestions

It has been suggested by a prominent ball player, that in selecting new officers for the coming series, the captain and manager be the recognized leaders of their respective teams. Such an arrangement, he claims would provide that if the two could not be present, one would surely be able to attend meetings, and that all protests, etc., could be brought before these officials, thus leaving all power in the hands of those most vitally interested.

Does Good Work

Kauai is to be congratulated on the success which has attended our medical staff's efforts in ridding the island of diptheria. They have worked most diligently and are deserving of highest praise for all they have accomplished. The general tone of health conditions on this island is reported in better condition than ever; which is very gratifying indeed.

Two New Comers

Otto Prusser, hailing from Bremen, Germany, and Antone Busch, from Frankfurt, Germany, were among the arrivals last Saturday, destined for Hanamaulu, where Mr. Prusser, was assigned to head blacksmith's place, and Mr. Busch as field overseer. Mr. Busch is a graduate of an agricultural school and is therefore considered a valuable asset to the community. Mr. Prusser is an experienced blacksmith and takes a position which has been held to await his arrival.

The grandeur of strength is in silence:
In the power of spirit and will,
To turn from life's turmoil and worry:
To know and to work and—be still!

IS KILLED BY DYNAMITE, WHILE WORKING

Japanese Laborer is Careless And Meets Instant Death.

OTHERS ARE INJURED

Coroner Gave Verdict of Accidental Death - Some Social Doings.

Special to The Garden Island.

KOLOA, Jan. 30.—A combination of black power, dynamite and carelessness, resulted in the death of a Japanese laborer here about half past two this afternoon when a dillatory explosion occurred on a piece of work at the makai side of the plantation. A contract party was engaged in blasting and had supposedly set four holes when in some unaccountable manner, a fifth had been prepared, which exploded, catching the unfortunate man unawares, striking him full in the face, with such force as to blow a portion of his head off, killing him almost instantly. Others in the immediate vicinity were more or less injured, but not seriously.

Coroner Blake has summoned a jury with instructions to convene at nine o'clock to-morrow morning to investigate the sad affair, the members of whom are J. K. Kula, Lui McKeague, Jr., Joe Vallente, Isaac Hart, J. S. Hiba and Manoa. The deceased was not connected with the plantation only in so much as he was a member of a gang which was working under a contractor.

TAKE A FIRM STAND

Manager of Waterhouse Co., On Short Business Trip To Kauai.

Engineer Fitzgibbons is grinding out hundreds of yards of crushed stone daily and predicts that the Huleia stretch will be completed within the next three months. At the conclusion of this piece of road, the outfit will be removed to the Koloa grade.

The Hanapepe bridge will be ready for traffic within the next ten days. The forms were removed yesterday and the finishing touches are all that remain to be added.

Considerable repair work has been done on the Hanalei-Haena road lately, with telling results. Two disagreeable curves have been very much improved.

Sanding on the Kapaa-Kealia road continues and in time this piece of road bids fair to become a regular Paris boulevard.

The Koloa-Lawai cut has been opened to traffic and will shortly receive a dressing of macadam.

Resents The Insult

Editor Star: In an editorial yesterday you referred to the Hawaiians as "the dog-eating Polynesian majority."

We feel assured that we voice the sentiment of those identified with the best interests of these islands when we protest against such contemptuous characterization of the Hawaiian people.

PRINCEVILLE PLANTATION GROWS ALFALFA

A Thirty Inch Crop Harvested Monthly--40 Other Varieties.

CLASSY MOTORETTE

First Motorette is Property of Hon. W. H. Rice of Lihue.

Special to The Garden Island.

HANALEI, Feb. 4.—Small farming may not be a success on Kauai, but that all kinds of grass can be grown, has been proven by the Princeville Plantation in its endeavor to provide pasture for its ever increasing herd of thoroughbred Herefords. Manager Sanborn stated to a reporter last evening that a successful experiment had been carried out with forty varieties of grass, every one of which thrived equally as well here as elsewhere.

Alfalfa, however, seemed to take the lead, as he is able to cut a thirty inch crop each month. As to the curing of Alfalfa Mr. Sanborn states that the scarcity of sunny days is the only drawback.

The majority of grasses he is using in experimenting are of entirely new varieties, having been especially developed for tropical growth. The propagation of these grasses means much to stock raisers on Kauai all of whom will welcome the news of Mr. Sanborn's success.

Big Clearance Sale

J. Hopp & Co., Honolulu's big fashionable furniture house, is holding an immense February sale of choice furniture and house furnishings, embracing varieties and prices to suit all means and tastes. The very best furniture that skilled workmen can produce can be had while this sale is on at almost half the usual price.

Give yourself the pleasure of looking over the full page ad of good things appearing on page 2 of this issue wherein you will find the greatest furniture values both in styles and prices that has ever been offered.

Time and money are always very closely associated, so if you cannot make a personal inspection, send in your order, for this popular firm conducts a mail order department through which customers are equally well supplied, and at values such as you positively never saw equaled before in all your born days.

As to draperies and curtains, rugs and portiers, the bargains offered in this clearance sale, it would be impossible to equal them except by paying a fourth to nearly a half more, and in some cases, twice as much. There are curtains, draperies, and rugs for every class of room, and to harmonize with any furnishing scheme, all of which go at prices which are nothing less than a revelation of value-possibilities.

A Classy Motorette

A stylish little "motorette," the first ever brought to Kauai was landed here last week and is the property of Hon. W. H. Rice, who expects to derive much pleasure out of it. It is a two cylinder, navigates on three wheels, glides over the ground as gracefully as a locomobile, takes the hills on the high, drops down hill at a terrific pace, and, like Bill Nye's old plug, "on the level, runs like the devil."

A Capitalist Visitor

Leslie Butler, President of the Butler Banking Co., Hood River Oregon, was among the sightseers on Kauai last week. Mr. Butler motored over to Hanalei with C. S.

RECOLLECTIONS OF REVOLUTIONARY TIMES

Presence of Honolulu Man Recalls Historical Event To Writer.

THE LATE W. C. PARKE

Was Marshal of The Kingdom of Hawaii Nei For Many Years.

EDITOR GARDEN ISLAND:

Meeting W. C. Parke, Jr. in our popular Kegel Club, brings to mind, W. C. Parke, Sr., of old, founder of the W. C. Parke of today, and one-time marshal of the kingdom of Hawaii.

It is with pleasure the writer remembers the Hon. W. C. Parke, Sr., in his day. Mr. Editor, up to the time Kalakaua was elected king, Mr. Parke was marshal under many previous kings. He was head of the police department of all the islands. He filled this position with honor and gained the respect and admiration of all. He was a man of stern and upright principles, always ready at a moment's notice to do his duty, and never forgetting to be merciful to those who, in his judgment, deserved mercy.

His police force, from his deputy (David Dayton) down, honored him. Your writer was at one time in his service on one occasion when Mr. Parke placed his very life before the Hawaiians in a manner to win the united admiration of all who witnessed his act of bravery.

At the rebellion of King Lunali'i's soldiers, the writer, then a member of the Volunteer Rifle Co., in Honolulu, was called out and marched up to the front of the barracks. W. C. Parke, Sr. was there in front of the barracks, issuing orders when someone shouted to him to look out or he would get shot. He calmly replied that they would not dare shoot him.

In the same calm manner, he turned and gave orders to Capt. Long to cut off the water supply from the barracks. Nor was he shot, for the coolness of the man, in the very face of death, overawed the enemy, who realizing what was taking place, and fearing that the food supply might also be cut off, opened the big iron doors to the barracks.

Intense excitement prevailed as the great doors slowly swung open, the rusty, squeaking hinges giving forth their objection to their part in the drama. It was indeed, a trying moment.

There stood W. C. Parke, staunch and brave, between his own soldiers who stood lined up, with eyes traveling down gun barrels, fingers on triggers, prepared to shoot at the first move of the enemy, and the opening door which might provide the outlet for a perfect stream of deadly fire from the enemy. (I will mention as a passing remark that C. C. Williams was a member of our rank and possessed the only repeating rifle in the squad.) Undaunted, stood Parke, until the big doors stood completely ajar. And our excitement had grown almost beyond control and fingers were nervously twitching about the triggers, when at this very critical moment, "Don't shoot!" shouted Mr. Parke, raising his right hand, "the enemy surrenders!" Thus, through the indomitable spirit of one of the bravest of men, was terminated a bloodless battle, and that brave man was W. C. Parke, Sr., father of Mr. W. C. Parke, Jr., who is at present a house guest of Manager and Mrs. Weber.

PARADE EXCURSION

Joe Fassoth is Taken to The Hospital With Rheumatism of Knee.

Special to The Garden Island.

HANALEI, Feb. 4.—This district has been visited by an unusual high wind and sea for the past week, accompanied by the lowest temperature for years. On the Hanalei beach, waves reached the high-water mark, coming up as high as the Makee warehouse. At Waini, houses were flooded, while in Kalihiwai Silva's Store and the butcher shop were partly inundated.

C. E. Society Meet

The C. E. S. members turned out in full last Sunday to listen to a discourse on the work of the Society, the chief object being the celebration of the 25th. anniversary of the society. In 1906 a small branch Society came into existence in Lihue, since which time members to the extent of 890 have been enrolled on Kauai. Besides President Kaulukou's very interesting address, the presidents of the various branch societies contributed highly praiseworthy remarks. The society is in a flourishing condition and its members are very energetic.

KEKAHA NOTES
[The following very interesting notes were received from our Kekaha correspondent too late for last week's paper:]
Lady Herron is visiting her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Danford at Mana. Many entertainments have been given, and are planned for her during her visit on Kauai.
Mrs. Schultze gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Helen Mahlum who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hofgaard.
Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Sandow, gave a dinner in honor of Lady Herron Friday evening. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Knudsen, Mr. and Mrs. W. Danford, Mr. Milliken and Mr. Hart.
Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, gave a garden party Thursday afternoon between the hours of four and six o'clock, in honor of Lady Herron, to which many of her friends were invited. The Waimea band dispersed music throughout the afternoon and refreshments were served on small tables which were elaborately decorated with beautiful flowers.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard entertained at bridge last Saturday evening. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Sandow, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Knudsen, Miss Hofgaard and Mr. Hiorth.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Danford entertained in honor of Lady Herron at a dinner last Saturday evening, and also took the opportunity to have their little daughter christened, the Rev. C. D. Milliken performing the ceremony. Following the service, the guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner. Table decorations consisted of pink begonias and maiden hair fern. Owing to the inclement weather, the roads were impassable, whereupon a special train conveyed the guests to and from Mana. The invited guests were Mrs. V. Knudsen, Mr. and Mrs. T. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hansen, Dr. and Mrs. Sandow, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ewart, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Schultze, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knudsen, Messrs. Hime, Brodie, Milliken and Hiorth.
Miss Hofgaard, entertained at dinner on Monday, for her young friends, her guests being Miss Matthews, Miss McClaren, Mr. Lorange and Mr. A. Brodie.
Mrs. E. A. Knudsen, gave a children's party for her little daughter, Alexandra, and son, Valdemar, last week. Games of every description were enjoyed by the children and prizes were awarded to the lucky winners. Refreshments were served on the lawn at a horse-shoe shaped table, and very reluctantly the little tots took leave at dark.
Mr. Stokes, of Honolulu, visited Kauai last week, in quest of curios and Hawaiian relics.
Mrs. V. Knudsen, Mr. Lorange, Senator and Mrs. Eric Knudsen, spent a few days at Halemanu last week, when the thermometer registered 34 degrees.
Sen. and Mrs. E. A. Knudsen, entertained Dr. Pratt, Dr. McCoy and Dr. Shepherd at luncheon Friday, after which they enjoyed a spin which included a trip to the Barking Sands.
A luncheon was given in honor of Lady Herron Monday, by Mrs. T. Brandt of Waimea. Covers were laid for twelve. The table was decorated with trailing nasturtiums. Mrs. Brandt's guests were Mrs. V. Knudsen, Mrs. Whittington, Mrs. Aubrey Robinson, Mrs. Eric Knudsen, Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, Mrs. W. Danford, Mrs. Geo. Ewart, Mrs. B. F. Sandow and Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard.

HERE AND THERE
A. Robinson came in on the Kinau Wednesday.
Charlie Wilcox returned from Honolulu last Wednesday.
Miss Mae Brown was a returning passenger to Honolulu on the Kinau.
Miss Ruth Knudsen arrived from Honolulu last Wednesday morning.
Caesar Jardin and Mr. Markham, of Koloa, were in the County Seat last Friday.
Supervisor Francis Gay returned Wednesday from a business trip to the metropolis.
H. S. Hayseldon, Head Luna for the Makaweli Plantation, returned from Honolulu Wednesday.
Manager Hiorth of the Waimea Soda water and Ice Works, came in from the City on the Kinau.
Mrs. M. Kaeo, wife of County Attorney Sam Kaeo, returned from Honolulu on Wednesday's boat.
Dr. Sandow of Waimea District, was among the incoming passengers last Wednesday morning.
Hon. and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox returned from a short trip to Honolulu last Wednesday morning.
Deputy Sheriff Wm. W. Werner of Hanalei, was a Wednesday morning's arrival by the good ship Kinau.
The rain showers during the last few days are said to have been worth a whole lot to the growing cane.
Walter McBryde who has been confined to his bed for the last few days is reported to be rapidly improving.
L. C. Boreiko, bookkeeper for the Kilauea Sugar Co., returned Wednesday from a brief business trip to the city.
The Kona storm which has threatened Kauai for the past two weeks, has apparently turned out to be nothing but hot air.
A. Hanneberg, auditor for the Hackfeld firms on this island, accompanied by Mrs. Hanneberg, arrived on Wednesday morning.
Bishop Restarick returned to Honolulu last Tuesday, having filled the pulpit at the Foreign Church here the preceding Sunday.
Last Wednesday was certainly a busy day for the tax assessors, as the last day of grace had a stimulating effect on those who had "forgotten" to "come through."
The new blacksmith for Hanamaulu has arrived. The vacancy has existed for some time and the place is filled with Mr. Otto Busch, who arrived from Germany by the last Kinau.
The verdict of the coroner's jury which convened last Wednesday morning in Koloa to view the remains and investigate the blowing up of a Japanese laborer, was accidental death.
What with the Barking Sands, spouting horn, our excellent roads and most hospitable people, Kauai is entitled to the biggest share in that oft repeated phrase, "Paradise of the Pacific."
It is not likely that we ever had a public improvement which accomplished more real, genuine good for the public, than the marble fountain which stands across from the Lihue Store. Two streams of cool, sparkling water are constantly spouting forth their girgling welcome to the weary animals which slake their thirst at its friendly altar. Not only is this fountain a thing of usefulness, but it stands as an artistic mark to the donor, whose thoughtfulness for the welfare of the dumb animal is most praiseworthy among mankind, and much appreciated by the former.

Sporting News

Amateur sports throughout the Territory are to enjoy a season of exceptional prosperity during the approaching season if some of the plans of the leaders do not go astray.

The general opinion among men who are identified with the promotion of amateur sports is, that while much has been accomplished towards placing the islands to the front in purely amateur sports, much remains to be done in order that our standing may be of the best.

Hundreds of men and boys who should be enjoying sports have, not as yet had the field made attractive enough to get them into the various games. Possibilities for numerous athletic leagues as yet have not been taken advantage of, and in many instances, the sports that are fairly well indulged
