HORNER NOT TO SUCCEED CAMPBELL

Governor Says He Understands Man He Wanted Is Not Available

Setting at rest the rumor that has been heard frequently during the last few weeks, and which seemed to have the earmarks of official sanction, that Albert Horner was slated to become the successor of Marston Campbell as superintendent of public works, Governor Peabody today said he understood Horner would be unavailable.

Asked if an appointment to the vacancy left by Campbell's resignation had been made the executive replied in the negative. When informed of the talk that has been current on the street concerning the likelihood of Horner's appointment, he said:

"While Mr. Horner is thoroughly equipped to handle the duties of the position, and would be eminently acceptable to me, I understand that his attention is so much taken by his private business affairs that he would be unable to take the office."

"The fact that he is unavailable is a source of regret to me, for I would like to have him in the office."

"Whether this announcement comes as the result of confidence between the Governor and Horner is unknown. It is known, however, that the Governor's appointments vary from time to time from the mainland, and that several private conferences between the two have been held in the Governor's office during the last few days."

Hawaii's Commission on Uniform Laws is urged to attend the Conference of the Commission on Uniform State Laws, which is to meet in Milwaukee August 21 to 25. A communication from the officials of that body has been received by Governor Peabody. They ask that the commission be permitted to attend, and it is impossible otherwise that the Governor recommend that the best legislative recommendations be made by a special appropriation at the next session.

Korean Suitor of Chinese Girl Is Given Another Jolt

Father of Damsel Goes Unpunished for Shooting at Gallant Who Hid in Barn

Owing to lack of sufficient evidence, Ah Soong, father of See Mey Soong, and charged by Kim Paw, suitor of See Mey Soong, with assault with a deadly weapon, was released from custody this morning. When the alleged shots were fired, the complaining witness was hiding in the innermost recesses of Ah Soong's barn, according to the testimony, and he did not come out again until Ah Soong, Mr. Ah Soong and See Mey Soong had retired for the night.

According to the evidence, Kim Paw, armed with a marriage license and an automobile, and accompanied by two friends, presented himself at the Kahala residence of See Mey Soong, but See Mey Soong's father accompanied her to the door and the three men fled.

Kim Paw sought shelter in Ah Soong's barn and was unable to testify as to how many shots were fired by the defendant or which way the gun was aimed. When the defendant was discharged, he was escorted from the courtroom by his daughter, who turned up her nose—American style—at her former fiancée as she passed.

SENATE INSTRUCTS CONFEREES NOT TO COMPROMISE ON BILL

(Special Cable to Star-Bulletin)

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 1.—Every indication now is that there will be no sugar legislation during the present session of Congress. The House contends that the reductions made by the Senate in its substitute for the free sugar bill are insignificant, while the Senate flatly refuses to go lower. A virtual agreement has been reached to postpone further action until next Winter.

The Senate today appointed Senators Penrose of Pennsylvania, Lodge of Massachusetts, Bailey of Texas, Bristow of Kansas, and Simmons of North Carolina as the Senate conferees. The Senate definitely instructed this conference against a compromise with the House committee, and to protect its own substitute bill, the Lodge-Bristow amendment.

"GET TOGETHER" AD CLUB SLOGAN

"Get together" was the slogan sounded by some sixty or seventy businessmen who assembled at the Ad Club lunch in the Kathakeller this noon to hear what Alexander Hume Ford had to offer on the scheme of a Civic or Chamber of Commerce building.

President W. R. Farrington of the Ad Club gave the guests some idea of what the Ad Club is by reading Elbert Hubbard's latest on the "Ad-man's Philosophy." The session was then turned over to Mr. Ford, who briefly outlined his ideas, which had been reduced to print and called on Mr. W. O. Smith, representing the Bishop Estate, which owns the property opposite the Young Hotel. Mr. Smith referred to the need for having another building in the city, which would be a building of which the city would feel proud through all generations. Mr. W. A. Bowen, Rev. Mr. Smith, Mr. Rivenburgh, D. Howard Hitchcock and Mr. H. L. Key were among the speakers who seconded the motion of getting together for the welfare of Honolulu. The Ad Club is strict in its rule of not allowing the session of the club to last more than one hour and adjournment was taken promptly on time. All those with ideas on the subject could not be heard, but there was sufficient enthusiasm to show that the atmosphere is well charged with the "get together" spirit on this particular project.

FRENCH TO AID DR. SILVESTRI

All the courtesies of the government in French West Africa will be extended to Dr. Silvestri, the entomologist, who has been sent into that country by Hawaii on a search of a parasitic enemy of the Mediterranean fruit fly.

This information is contained in a communication received by Governor Peabody this morning from the State Department at Washington, stating that the French government has forwarded such instructions by telegraph to the Governor General of French West Africa. Similar courtesies already have been ordered by the home governments of Great Britain and Germany for Dr. Silvestri's benefit during his visit to their provinces in Africa.

BLOW ON HEAD, NOT SCORPION BITE, KILLED BABE

A post-mortem examination of the body of the infant daughter of Chun Kim Sook, made this morning by Deputy Sheriff Ross, disclosed a four-inch fracture of the baby's skull. The baby died late yesterday afternoon at the sick child's hospital and at the time the parents and relatives of the child declared it had died from a scorpion sting.

According to the parents, a large scorpion crawled beneath the child's clothing and stung it repeatedly upon the chest before it was discovered. The baby was then taken to the hospital and died a few hours later.

Chun Kim Sook, the father, was arrested and locked up at the police station and will be held pending the inquest tonight.

ATKINSON NOW ON-THE SCENE

A. L. C. Atkinson, sent by local Progressives to Chicago to gain representation in the convention if possible, has reached the Windy City, according to a cablegram received by George R. Carter this morning. Atkinson hadn't had time to get any "dope" on the situation, but later advice is expected at any time.

E. L. Kaul was added to the Progressives' provisional committee this morning.

Chairman Carter said that the mail brought much encouraging news regarding the strides the Progressives are making on the mainland.

SLIPS ON FLOOR TILES, LEG MAY BE BROKEN

James S. Fox, who resides at the corner of Kanaina and Duval streets, met with a painful accident this afternoon, which will probably keep him on crutches for some time to come.

Mr. Fox, while descending the steps that lead to the basement and barber shop of the Young Hotel, lost his footing on the mosaic flooring below the stairway, and fell heavily. It is thought that he fractured his right leg just above the ankle.

Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., received a cablegram from New York this afternoon, saying sugar had sold there at 4.65c and refiners were bidding 3.92c.

Atkinson Wins; Will Be Delegate

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 1.—Senator Dixon, manager of the Progressive campaign, has promised that Hawaii shall have a delegate to the Progressive convention here, as well as national committee man. He opposes, however, representation by any of the U. S. possessions. The credentials committee will meet on Saturday.

A. L. C. ATKINSON.

The above cablegram was received last afternoon by the Star-Bulletin from A. L. C. Atkinson, who is in Chicago to attend the Progressive convention. It shows that he has won the point demanded by local Progressives, of representation for Hawaii, to which Senator Dixon has been opposed.

G. H. FAIRCHILD BACK TO PACK FOR FAR EAST

Under a cloud of glad hands and hearty "home" greetings, Senator George H. Fairchild, who returned in the Korea, told a Star-Bulletin reporter who met him at Post and Merchants streets about his intended departure for Manila, where he will in the future aid in the development of the Philippines, as hitherto he has participated in the advancement of Hawaii.

Mr. Fairchild stated that he was going to Manila in about a month, as manager of the new firm of Welch, Fairchild & Havemeyer, his partners being well-known sugar magnates of the mainland.

"The business of the house will be that of sugar factors," Mr. Fairchild said. "It will be a general agency, which will take over the control of all of Welch and Havemeyer's interests in the Philippines. They have one plantation there now, an estate of 55,000 acres."

Rules Require U. S. Soldiers To Wear Misfit Uniforms

Enlisted Men Forbidden to Have Their Clothes Made to Order

Any enlisted man in the United States army who has a uniform that fits him is guilty of a breach of the regulations in wearing the same, unless it is one which was issued to him and suspended by proper authority without the aid of a tailor.

Inspector-General Bell called attention to the "misfit" regulation when, following an inspection at Schofield Barracks, he reported three men who had their uniforms made to order by a tailor and so presented a neat and trim appearance. This in comparison to their comrades, who appeared in the sleeping bag uniforms designed by a celebrated English tailor for a fee of $25,000 and which are guaranteed to clothe but not fit anything from a battery mule to the smallest private in the rear rank.

Just what the purpose of the War Department was in making this rule is not known. It may have been for the reason that it was found impossible to fit every man with a tailor-made uniform and so it was deemed better to clothe the army in "misfits" and so avoid comparisons.

In the British army ready-made uniforms are not issued to the men. The recruit is given the cloth, buttons and trimmings and carries them to the regimental tailor, who thereon makes a uniform to fit him. In consequence the British army as a whole presents a trim and neat appearance which is lacking in the American army.

As a matter of fact, it is said that the United States army cannot be said to have any regular uniform. Since 1898 the War Department has been fusing with the uniform ques-

GLACIER ARRIVES TONIGHT—CRUISERS DUE SUNDAY.

Last night the dots and dashes from the navy wireless station here, typed through the ether and were gathered in by the antennae of two ships at sea, word of which has been eagerly expected.

The station "picked up" the supply ship Glacier and the cruiser California, en route from the Far East, the word coming that all was well with the Pacific fleet, and that the Glacier was due to arrive at this port at 7 tonight, while the California and South Dakota would time their arrival for 9 p. m. Sunday.

The Glacier will berth at navy slip No. 1, and will probably remain until the cruisers arrive. She needs 700 tons of coal, while the other two will take 1600 each. The fleet will remain here only long enough to fill bunkers.

MANY GOOD MEN BEING SUGGESTED

Businessmen's Committee is Hard at Work to Get Out Best Candidates

Plenty for Board of Supervisors and Both Houses of the Legislature

One more session will be held of the businessmen's committee canvassing the political situation and endeavoring to get out for office a large number of responsible business men, probably next Saturday, and the report of the committee will be given some time next week.

Suggestions of many names have been received and are being considered. The committee does not intend to

SCREEN LAW UPHOLD; WILL BE ENFORCED

Following the opinion handed down by the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon, which upheld the constitutionality of county ordinance No. 55, the health and sanitation committee is preparing to enforce the measure and to prosecute all merchants on the public markets who do not keep their meats, fish and other commodities screened from flies.

"We propose beginning a campaign toward a strict enforcement of the screening law, now that the Supreme Court has handed down an opinion upon the important question," so declared Chairman Kruger, of the Supervisory health and sanitation committee, this morning.

"If the stall keepers at the city market fail to observe the letter of the ordinance as passed months ago by the Board of Supervisors it is up to us to see that they are punished as all lawbreakers should be."

Roosevelt Looks to South

(Associated Press Cable)

Leading supporters of Roosevelt say they hope to break up the son's strength by this move, as well as to capture what votes they expect from the South.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 1.—George H. Rolph, superintendent of the California-Hawaiian Sugar Refining Company, was today in Honolulu and stood in the sugar trust investigation. Rolph testified under circumstances under which the Crockett refinery was closed, and that the slashing of prices by the Western Sugar Refining Co. forced the acceptance of the contract which closed the Crockett for three years.

The investigating committee will hold a hearing in Salt Lake next Monday.

BLUMFIELD MAY COME TO HAWAII TO TRAIN YOUTHS

Meyer Blumfield, head of the Vocational Bureau of Boston, Massachusetts, and an expert at analyzing local conditions of education, intends to pay a visit to Hawaii in the near future, according to General Secretary Super of the Y. M. C. A., who returned yesterday from a three months' trip on the mainland.

While in Boston, the Y. M. C. A. secretary had a long interview with the Vocational Guidance authority and discussed various problems which the system strives to solve. Special reference was made to Hawaii, where, the secretary explained, there was a new generation of mixed races, children of many nationalities who were receiving no special training for any one line of work and would be forced to shift for themselves as best they could upon attaining maturity.

The head of the Vocational Guidance bureau expressed much interest and declared that he would try to come to Hawaii some time during the year and would then study the local situation with the end in view

PROGRESS SHOWN AT PUNAHOU BY ITS PRESIDENT

Decennial Report Emphasizes Growth—Needs Yet to Be Filled

At the annual meeting of the trustees of the Oahu College held at the regular time in July, the reports from the officers which were presented showed that the college in all departments is thriving and that the year has shown considerable advances both educationally and financially.

President Griffith this year presented a decennial report to the trustees of Oahu College, thus marking ten years of Punahou administration. Besides the usual statistics, reviews of changes in faculty, courses of study and administrative policies, this report presented a summary of the changes that had been made in the last ten years and discussed plans for the years to come. Some of these paragraphs are of general interest to the public.

HALF HUNDRED CHINESE UNDER STRONG GUARD ON LINER KOREA

A strong guard is thrown around a half hundred Chinese "passengers" who are being returned to their native land in the Pacific Mail liner Korea, which is a steamer at the port of Honolulu today.

The Chinese are desperate who have been gathered up all along the Pacific Coast through the lynx-eyed efforts of a wide-awake bunch of Federal immigration officers.

Several desperate characters are said to be numbered among the fifty Chinese who are confined to their quarters on board the ship, during the stay of the Korea at this port.

The big Pacific Mail liner steamed from San Francisco to Honolulu through smiling skies, beautiful moonlight nights, with smooth seas and light and favorable winds.

"It has been one of the pleasantest trips in many months," declared the "Billy" Allen, purser in the Korea, who is again back at his post of duty after a trying sojourn of illness which necessitated his remaining at a Coast sanitarium for some weeks to recuperate.

It was a jolly delegation of seventy cabin passengers who left the Korea at this port this morning. Many were Honoluluans and are therefore known as more or less regular passengers of the Pacific Mail.

A percent of the arriving passengers are said to be tourists. Eleven second class passengers also landed.

The Korea is proceeding to the Far East, handling Manila, with 31 first, 2 second class and 144 third class passengers.

Two hundred and ten tons of cargo were discharged at Alaka, where 100, which includes five large automobiles, the Korea brought 150 tons of inter-island mail, including the express of July 26th.

At least one-half of the liner's cargo is assigned to Manila, where it will be turned over to the United States army and navy department.

The Korea is scheduled to depart for Manila, Manila and Hongkong at five o'clock this evening, taking a few cabin and Asiatic steamer passengers.

The through list of passengers includes some prominent mainland business and professional men. On the passenger list to the East is H. H. Johnson, publisher of the Denver Post, who was accompanied by his wife and children. Mrs. W. F. Roth and O. W. Angus are regulars. Dr. Vincent Brown, of San Francisco, and his sisters, the Misses Mae and Edith Brown, are also passengers to Honolulu.

Miss Johnson Back On The Willamette. Miss Peter Johnson, one of the most popular shipgirls in the Matson service, and a prominent Shriners, has returned to duty as purser of the steamer Navigation Line ship, Willamette, and is bringing that vessel to Honolulu. The Willamette sailed from San Francisco yesterday at noon with 1,000 tons cargo for Honolulu and 1,700 tons freight for discharge at Hilo.

The prediction is made that the Willamette will arrive here bright and early next Tuesday morning with a good sized list of cabin passengers. All Matson liners are bringing down large cargoes at the present time, which presage an unusually busy season.

Manchuria Is Popular with Travelers. The Oceanic steamship Sonoma is popular with the traveling public because of its ample accommodations for 122 cabin passengers from this port. C. Brewer & Co., the local representatives for the liner, expect to dispatch all Oceanic through steamers from this port at 9 o'clock in the evening. The Sonoma will be given a supply of sugar and pineapples before leaving here.

Heavy Passenger Booking for Manchuria. There will be a heavy booking of passengers from Honolulu to the coast in the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria, according to the present list of applications for transportation on file at the office of H. Hackfeld & Co.

The Manchuria is scheduled to arrive here August 31st and will probably be dispatched on the morning of the following day. This vessel brings 1,500 tons Oriental freight for discharge at Honolulu, and there is room for 125 additional passengers from this port.

Nilahu In From Kawaihae. The little island steamer Nilahu returned from Kawaihae this morning bringing 6340 sacks sugar, 60 head cattle, one mill roller, a quantity of empty, four horses and several packages sundries. The vessel met with heavy weather for the first few days voyage along the coast of Hawaii. The purser reports the arrival of the steamer Iwawati at Kawaihae yesterday.

Ship Hackfeld to Load Wheat for Europe. The German ship H. Hackfeld, now about discharged of a large shipment of European merchandise, is ready to take a departure for the coast, there to load wheat at either Portland or Tacoma, destined for the United Kingdom. The charter is arranged on terms that are declared as private.

Dix, which is now en route from Seattle to Honolulu, Guam and Manila, and due to arrive at this port about August 9th, is believed to be bringing down a number of mounts for the United States army in the Hawaiian Islands.

Feed and forage for the army is also reported aboard the transport Dix, which sailed from the Sound yesterday.

MANY GOOD MEN

confine its labors to the consideration of only enough candidates to surround the office, but wishes to put forward a number of names.

So far, the committee has not come to any conclusion regarding the head of the ticket—a candidate for Delegate, J. M. Dowsett, C. A. Rice and D. P. Rosenberg have been suggested, but none is in a position where he can accept the candidacy, involving, as it does, a large sacrifice of time and effort.

For the other offices, many good men have been suggested. Names for possible candidates for the Board of Supervisors have been put forward at every meeting and the committee will have no trouble in endeavoring fully and heartily to choose the best men to fill the board.

Among the well-known and prominent local men whose names have received strong support are H. J. Auld, William Isaac, J. K. Clarke, Carlos Long and Andrew Cox. For the House, J. K. Kamaonala, William Aha, S. K. Mahoe, Charles Arnold, Eddie Perreault, Charles Kanokos, John E. Notley, Norman Watkins, A. L. Castle, William Williamson and several others are regarded as strong candidates.

Other names have been mentioned in the past few days, and the list named above does not by any means exhaust the number that have been suggested by members of the committee or to the committee.

H. M. von Holt's name as a possibility for mayor has received widespread approval ever since it was mentioned. The sheriffship is a matter of much conjecture. Eben Low has been talked of for this, though his private business interests may not give him time to consider it. John Lane has been talked of on the outside as a possibility.

Auditor Bicknell, Clerk Kalanokuni and City Attorney Cathcart are rather expected to be endorsed for reelection on their efficient records of the past.

The committee held a session this morning and good progress was made. It is proceeding carefully and impartially, and will probably call for a large meeting later on.

of finding a solution to the problem now confronting the people here as to what to do with the coming generation of aliens.

"There are two aspects to the Vocational Guidance work," said Secretary Super this morning. One is to make the boy fit the job, and the other is to make the job fit the boy. The Vocational Guidance bureau aims to do this through the schools; first to pick out boys specially adapted for a certain kind of work and then to train them for that line.

"The movement is becoming nation wide and bureaus have been established in New York City, Cleveland and other cities throughout North America. Mr. Blumfield makes a specialty of studying local conditions and has now left for Porto Rico, where the people have sent for him in order to help them with their problem—the same problem with which we shall be confronted within a few years."

STOCKS DOWN IN THE HOLLOW

Stocks are down in the hollow of the waves again, after a boom that held out scarcely three days. There is not much slumping in prices, but the volume of transactions today, as compared with Monday and Tuesday's list, is exceeding small.

Between sessions 62 shares of Oia sold unchanged at 7.75, 46 Pioneer unchanged at 34.50 and 109 and 100 H. C. & S. Co. down half a point at 44.50. Session sales were 20 Onomea unchanged at 52.25 and 5 Oahu down a quarter at 27.50.

Dividends were announced today by Hiko of $1.60 a share, or $2,500; Paha, $1.50, or $33,750; Pioneer, 30c, or $60,000. A dividend yesterday made the 75c dividend of Inter-Island, instead of 12.75. The $750 was the 15c dividend of the brewery.

H. H. TAMMEN, NOTED DENVER PUBLISHER, HERE

H. H. Tammien, one of the owners of the Denver Post, and Sella-Plato circus, arrived on the Korea this morning. Mr. Tammien is accompanied by Mrs. Tammien and will spend several weeks in the islands. They are at the Moana.

SHIP CAPTAINS GUESTS OF PROMOTION COMMITTEE

A get-together lunch was given by the Hawaii Promotion Committee at the Commercial Club at noon today, the guests of honor being Captain Andrew W. Nelson and Purser Allen of the Pacific Mail steamship Korea, and Captain Weeden of the Matson steamship Lurline. Others present were Chairman W. H. Hoops, Secretary H. P. Wood, Zeno K. Myers, W. H. McInerney and B. von Damm of the committee, F. W. Kiehn of H. Hackfeld & Co., W. H. Baird of Theo. H. Davies & Co., John H. Drew of Castle & Cooke, F. L. Waldron and representatives of the two English dairies. Before going into the dining room the guests of honor were given a reception in the reading room, where a number of citizens other than those of the party met them, including President E. I. Spaulding of the Chamber of Commerce and Vice-President James L. McLean of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co.

An elegant repast was served by the club steward, and more than an hour was pleasantly spent in conversation over the courses. This is one of a series of get-together lunches planned by Secretary Wood, the object being to make those who cater to the comfort and enjoyment of travelers to and from the islands feel at home themselves while in Honolulu.

The American-Hawaiian freighter Arizona is scheduled to depart for the Isthmus of Tehuantepec by the way of island ports this evening, taking 6,000 tons sugar from this port destined for shipment at Salina Cruz. The Arizona will call at Port Allen and Hilo, leaving the latter port with 12,000 tons sugar besides a quantity of preserved pineapples and other lines of sundries.

Payless Army of Oahu Vexes Soul of Paymaster

Not Enough Coin for Both Officers and Men; Paymaster Puzzled

The famous "Payless Army of Oahu" is again on the financial rocks. In fact, the department is faced with a situation similar to that which existed at the end of the fiscal year, only, if anything, more complicated. For Captain Cooke, the army paymaster, is faced with one of the most ticklish problems that any dispenser of Uncle Sam's coin has ever been up against. He has a decision to make for which there is no precedent as a guide, and the wires to Washington that he has been wildly working for instructions, are silent.

To say, or not to say, that is the question. Whether it is better that the officers suffer the slams and sorrows of outraged creditors, or to give shiekies to a sea of soldiers, and have them spend them.

So soliloquizes Captain Cooke, pacing the narrow confines of his office, handbook in hand, and index finger pressed to furrowed brow.

For the paymaster has enough money on hand to either pay all the officers and a few soldiers of the department, or all the soldiers and none of the officers. This problem can be argued both ways from the Jack, in a manner that would reduce any jury to tears.

"The obedient officers got their pay for June, but the poor, lowly privates in the rear rank have not seen the color of coin since May," says the paymaster. "Drop a few pennies in our palms that we may at least buy chewing gum and ginger pop."

"The honor of the army demands that the officers pay their bills, and the credit of the uniform remains untarnished," say the officers. "The enlisted men are fed, clothed, housed and provided with medical attendance by a paternal government, and can better afford to dispense with ready money. Slip it to us."

And in the meantime Captain Cooke is "sitting on the lid" and bawling the privates. The officers are "knocking at the door," and the enlisted men are appealing to him by mental telepathy, but the captain heads them off. The only welcome visitor to his office will be the native runner who brings a cable message from the Big Boss in Washington telling him what to do.

This situation arises from the fact that the urgent deficiency bill, in order to cover these expenditures of the army for the last month of the fiscal year, did not get through Congress. While the army appropriation bill was hanging in the balance a joint resolution appropriating one-twelfth of the sum expended in the eleven months of the last fiscal year was allotted to this department, but the fact that the local command has increased by a full regiment was not taken into consideration, so that there isn't nearly enough money to go around on this head.

The quartermaster's department is also up against it, and Major Cheatham, chief quartermaster, has wired for instructions, if they don't come by this afternoon he will enter into contracts with all the civilian clerks, and will be forced to discharge the quartermasters at the posts, and replace them by soldiers. This was done last month, but the quartermasters were re-hired the next day.

As to the extensive construction work at Schofield, there is barely enough money to continue it until September 1. An appropriation of $400,000 is carried in the army bill to complete the cavalry post, and about $30,000 is needed to finish the infantry quarters. Any lay-off on these jobs will mean the loss of thousands of dollars.

This afternoon Captain Cooke received a cable from Washington, that ignored his frantic questions and raised a question in return.

The paymaster general wanted to know how much 1912 money would be necessary to pay off the troops in the department for June. No doubt one glisten as to whether officers or soldiers should get the July pay, and Captain Cooke finds the information and the request for instructions right back over the wires.

SCREEN LAW

"I am going to seek an opinion from the city and county attorney department before taking any steps toward a general observance of the letter of the city and county ordinance, which has to do with the placing of all foods exposed for sale at the markets under a screen."

"We know full well that meats and foodstuffs have been, and are exposed for sale without the slightest pretense being made to protect the same from flies or dirt. What could we do, when the ordinance which we passed was so hotly contested? Now that the higher courts have decided in our favor, we can act accordingly."

Health Board interested. It is likely that the Territorial Board of Health, which holds its regular meeting late this afternoon, will fall in line and decide to aid in the enforcement of the ordinance, to the extent of declining to renew licenses to the tradesmen who do not comply with the city and county law.

There are nearly fifty of these merchants, and while the validity of the ordinance has been in question, pending the court's decision, they are said to have made little or no effort to guard against flies in the approved method. The licenses of all now come up for renewal.

They expired at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, but action by the Board of Health has been delayed, and at today's meeting the board members will report results of individual investigations, made within the last week, and decide on a standard of cleanliness and sanitation with which the tradesmen must comply before obtaining their licenses to continue in business. Dr. Pratt talks.

"Whether that standard will include screening, as the ordinance requires, or whether it will require screening only, I can not say," remarked Dr. Pratt, president of the health board, this morning. "There are other methods just as good, if not better, than screening, for the preservation of meats. For instance, the use of a cold storage plant, with the meats in a glass-covered case, airtight yet open to public gaze, will keep out the dangerous flies and other vermin and at the same time prevent decay."

"But screening, at least, should be demanded."

The Supreme Court's decision was handed down in the long-deferred case of Hop Kee, one of a large number of merchants doing business at the public market who were arrested on the charge of violating the screening ordinance. The defendants protested on the argument that the ordinance was unconstitutional, so, selecting the Hop Kee incident as a test case, the authorities carried it through the lower courts and on up to the Supreme Court for an interpretation and final ruling.

Whether the remaining cases will now be prosecuted has not been determined.

The Matsun Navigation steamer Hlonian with sugar and general line of Hawaiian products sailed from Hilo for San Francisco direct last evening according to a report received at the office of Castle & Cooke.

The Hlonian left a large shipment of merchandise and lumber at the several island ports of call. Petition and summons were filed in federal court this morning in the condemnation suit brought by the government against a tract of 4.3 acres of land at Waikiki in which Mary Ellen Nohola has an interest. The tract is desired by the government as an addition to the army fortifications at that point.

With freight and supplies for Hawaii ports including Oahu, the interisland steamer Maui was dispatched shortly after the noon hour today.

FAIRCHILD BACK

900 acres in Mindoro province, which has a mill already in operation. Besides taking care of the present held interests, the house will go in for the general development of the Philippines.

"There are sixty million acres of land in the archipelago, of which forty million are arable, so that there is an abundant field for American enterprise. I have been working on the Philippine matter for some time past," Mr. Fairchild added, when asked if the scheme had been taken up by him on this visit to the mainland. He had resigned as manager of the Makee Sugar Co, but could not say who was to succeed him.

Mr. Fairchild is looking well, although revealing slight traces of the severe ordeal which he passed since he left here. No sooner had he become convalescent from the attack of pneumonia, which brought him to death's door in New York, than Mrs. Fairchild, worn in watching over his sick bed, was herself taken down with appendicitis, for which she had to undergo an operation. Then, when both were able to be about again, Mr. Fairchild went to Washington and for some time was strenuously engaged in promoting the Hawaiian land bill called after him as its author in the Hawaiian legislature.

Land Bill Held Up. "The land bill is held up in committee," Mr. Fairchild said, "until after Secretary Fisher's visit and investigations of conditions here."

"I think Governor Frear will be reappointed," he said in reply to a question. "That seemed to be the feeling when I left Washington. I believe that there will be nothing done on the sugar tariff this session, but nobody can tell. As President Taft said to me one day, throwing up his hands, 'If anybody can tell what that House is going to do he knows more than I.'"

It is a good thing the free sugar bill came up when it did. If it had not been for it there would have been a free sugar plank in the Democratic platform. The question was not understood in Washington until those interested in the sugar industry of the country were aroused to action by the bill, and had all its bearings threshed out for the enlightenment of Congress. I take my hat off to the old standpatters in the Senate, for they stand they have taken on the sugar tariff."

Mr. Fairchild said that while it looked like Wilson for President, it was too early to predict the outcome. Taft was strong with the thinking people all over the country, having made a good President—in fact he was the ablest statesman that had occupied the White House for a long time. Many things were liable to develop before November, in Mr. Fairchild's opinion—such as an uneasy fight between Roosevelt and Wilson, which would make the people tire of both of them.

The appeal of Maurice R. Carey, who is suing the stockholders of the defunct Hawaiian Lumber Mills, Ltd., or a judgment for $2,711.37, was placed on the supreme court calendar this morning. The suit was dismissed, with costs assessed to the plaintiff, by Circuit Judge H. E. Cooper. The judgment against the Hawaiian Lumber Mills was obtained November 29, 1911.

Governor Frear has been asked to appoint delegates to attend the conference of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, which is scheduled to convene at Milwaukee August 29 to 31. The request arrived by the mail this morning.

We find in life exactly what we put in it.—EMERSON.

FOR THE VOTERS

Responsible businessmen of the community are not in sympathy with attacks at this time on the "businessmen's committee" that is trying to solve a very serious political problem here.

The committee is not selecting a ticket, not making a slate, not framing a "deal."

It is seeking to get out for public office men of the highest standing in business and in public morals.

It is urging that every male citizen of the territory should take a personal interest in the territory's affairs.

It is trying to give the voters of the territory and of Honolulu in particular a choice of many good men.

It is paying the way for a convention that will play clean politics, not dirty politics; that will nominate for office men of brains, character and aggressiveness.

The committee has invited and is inviting suggestions from every person who is sincerely interested in efficiency in public office. Necessarily it must consider quietly and with discretion.

The committee was named only a few days ago, and has already received suggestions as to scores of possible candidates.

The work of the committee now is merely to make its work more difficult. If this community needs anything, it needs united support in a movement for efficient government.

THE CASE OF SUGAR

"House contends senate reductions insignificant; senate refuses to go lower."

The above quotation from the Star-Bulletin's cabled Washington correspondence today is the sugar-tariff forecast in a nutshell.

The senate several times recently has manifested its firmness in refusing to yield to the house demands for tariff-cutting.

The predictions made consistently by this paper's Washington correspondent that there will be no sugar legislation this session seem now certain to be carried out.

Meanwhile, there's no reason for Hawaii to despair. Just the opposite.

RATTLING THE WAR SCARE BONES

The rattle of dry bones was heard again in the senate yesterday when the committee on foreign relations dragged from its musty sarcophagus the remains of the Magdalena Bay story and shook the skeleton before their fellow-lawmakers.

It is only a coincidence that just when Congress wants a big army appropriation bill put through, or a two-battleship program decided upon, the "Japanese scare" is brought forth and paraded for a day or two?

It will be remembered that a congressional committee probed the story of a Japanese syndicate trying to secure an immense tract of land on Magdalena Bay. This committee reported first that there was no evidence that the syndicate had any backing whatever from the Japanese government, and secondly, that the Magdalena Bay location is not by any means such a menace to Uncle Sam as William Randolph Hearst and his sensational editors tried to make the country believe.

A few months ago, a brigadier-general told a congressional committee that there were 30,000 Japanese ex-soldiers in Hawaii and that grave dangers were threatening the islands. There was a fortification bill or something of the kind up before Congress at the time.

Congress is now asked to "reaffirm the Monroe doctrine vigorously." There's no harm in doing that. However, there is harm in allowing plain jingoism to sway national legislation. The Magdalena Bay matter will be solved, just as the defenses of Hawaii are being built, without the spur of labored war-scare to drive through appropriation bills.

NEW YORK'S POLICE SCANDAL

The real "inside history" of New York's police graft will not be told. This prediction may be safely made here and now. The "inside" is not the relation of gambler and patrolman, or gambling syndicate and police official; it is the relation of gambling and politics.

Were New York's police graft to be laid bare to its last dirty shred of political infamy, some of the Tammany leaders who figured at the Baltimore national convention would be found with smirched hands and stuffed pockets. Syndicate gambling cannot flourish without police protection.

Two millions and a half, it is told by one of the "boss" gamblers, has been paid yearly to the police as hush money. Of course the police didn't keep all of it, probably not even the half. The money was "cut up" in scores of ways.

Eager and unscrupulous hands dipped into the golden treasury and "spit the coin where it would do the most good." Some of the money, if the probe goes far enough and deep enough, would probably be found this fall in the Democratic national campaign fund.

TWENTIETH CENTURY WIRELESS

Hawaii's recent strides in wireless progress and the still greater strides promised with the installation of the Marconi system here and on the coast, have stimulated much local interest in this twentieth-century form of communication.

The reports say that wireless messages will be sent across the Atlantic and to other parts of the world by a new system, according to experts, within four months, not only much faster than by the present systems, but also with such precision that it will be possible to send pictures by this means.

The new system has been taken up by one of the big European telegraph companies and will be given a thorough test by a syndicate. Stations are to be erected at Lyons, in France, and at Washington, and the inventor claims he will be able to send at the rate of 200 words a minute.

The improvement consists in being able to control a continuous wave, as compared with intermittent waves by the present system.

After the Franco-American line is working the company intends to extend the system to the east to Africa and to the British colonies. The British Government has investigated it, but is apparently satisfied, as it has been in all recent inventions, to let some other nation test it before adopting it in the British Isles.

The Promotion committee should have supplied Dr. Victor S. Clark with literature and moving pictures before he started on his world-tour after labor.

The only way to enforce the screening law is to enforce it, and to arrest after one good warning the shopmen who persistently violate it.

Seagirt used to be the name of a rifle range, and there seem to be a few sharpshooters still left in the vicinity.

Col. Roosevelt is looking to the south for his running-mate. Why not Booker T. Washington?

Someone suggests that Col. Roosevelt pick the wordy Mr. Johnson for his vice-president.

"Gen." Orozco is great on long-distance bravery!

There doesn't seem to be any closed season for trusts.

GET TOGETHER

Briefly outlined Mr. Ford's proposal as follows: Mr. Ford's remarks were printed in pamphlet form and distributed before the luncheon. He took up various public and semi-public organizations which would desire space. Referring to tourist attractions, he said:

Honolulu and Hawaii have long needed a Tourist Agency, conducted along the lines of those successfully worked by the Australian and New Zealand governments. We should have a Government Tourist Bureau with an annual appropriation of $50,000, although this department could be made not only self-supporting, but lucrative. Last winter the Public Service Association demonstrated that excursions about the island of Oahu and to the other islands could be run at seeming impossible low rates, but still at a substantial profit, and while these were supported as well by kamalimas as by tourists, they increased the demand for autos for other excursions between times. They taught the people to travel. Such a Tourist Agency could pay a fair rent and there are those who are willing to embark in the project.

Roof Garden Restaurant and Theater. Honolulu needs a popular roof garden, with roof garden restaurant, where popular prices would prevail and where hundreds might be accommodated at a time. We also need an open air high class roof garden motion picture place of entertainment, and there are those who would invest in these projects and pay good rentals.

An Oriental Bazaar. An Oriental Bazaar is today the greatest tourist's desire. I have been approached many times within the last four years by Chinese and Japanese capitalists to secure a location and the friendly cooperation of the holed.

The home industries of Hawaii have for some time contemplated an arrangement whereby they might support a permanent joint exhibition and downtown office headquarters. With pianos, pineapple juice, lava bricks, ohia lumber furniture, Hawaiian tobacco, Kona coffee, aiala, home-made jewelry, Hawaiian jams, taro flour and canned bananas—a score of infant industries of Hawaii, some unable to alone support permanent headquarters and exhibition space are collectively capable of splendid promotion work for themselves and for Hawaii.

For some time, there has been a movement, or movements, on foot to secure for Honolulu a new theater and auditorium. Some advance has been made by committees appointed by interested parties and these committees are now prepared to unite their efforts.

As money, however, is the first requisite, let us see what the possibilities are. I tabulate these in a table, and I firmly believe that with a little friendly cooperation all around that these figures can be realized:

IN THE WOMAN'S WORLD

FOR HONOLULU HOUSEWIVES DURING WARM SUMMER MONTHS

While there seems to have been a greater migration from town this summer than there has been for many seasons, still there are many who year in and year out spend the hot season in town. Some do this from preference, some with a sigh of discontent, while others accept it in the martyr spirit.

A summer in town, or at least in Honolulu, need not be such a miserable thing if one would have it any other way, for there are a thousand and one things that can be accomplished during these months that have long been neglected. One's wardrobe can be renovated and the little odds and ends replenished, the little bits of fancy work that had been laid away for many months can be finished and the winter clothes can be planned, and even made for that matter.

Some complain because the house in the city is too warm to work in. This is not necessarily the case, for with a little thought and a little more time, the bungalow can be transformed into a charming summer cottage. Surely one can spare the heavy Morris chair for a short time, as it is too warm even to be kept in the living room during the months of July, August and September. In place of the embroidered sofa pillows put washable ones on the window seat or the Koa couch; they will prove cooler. Another thing that is almost a necessity all the year round in this country is the hanging couch, comfortable at any time, and especially so on warm summer afternoons and evenings on a mosquito proof mat.

Don't Neglect Flowers.

While one is arranging the home for the summer the flowers must not be neglected for they are important in any household. This summer there is an abundance of the drooping gladiolus and the pink gladiolus, as well as the blossoms we have the whole year round. The first of these is perhaps the easiest to arrange than most of the flowers of that family, for they will arrange themselves in almost any container and they give the whole room an air of grace and refinement. The pink gladiolus is not so easy to manipulate for the branches are firmer and the blossoms, for some reason or other, soon drop off, but when finally put in shape, the effect is satisfactory. The red carnation is almost a perennial here in Honolulu, and with a few ferns can be arranged prettily in any part of the house.

The Tea Table Idea.

If the tea table in the drawing room looks cool and inviting it will not only be an incentive for you to have tea there every afternoon, but your friends will be very likely to drop in too, for they will find and well as you will, that your home is a 'hive of industry' to others, who like yourself from choice or otherwise are spending the summer in town.

Many Amusements.

There is no lack here so far as amusements are concerned, for there are the golf links, where many of the ladies spend a part of the day; the tennis courts during the close of the day are usually dotted with rosy-cheeked, short-skirted misses of the racquet and ball; and the beach, as a visit to the Outrigger or any of the bathing resorts will show, is more attractive in the warmer months than in the cooler ones. Of course, there are a few who do not care for outdoor sports, but they have their sewing bees and card clubs. Most people can see, however, that the wiser plan would be to devote a few hours of the day to some outdoor exercise. Some women who have not the above-named recreations have learned that for them the day goes better if they don their garden togs and spend two or three hours in the early morning gardening—doing the manual work, not merely instructing the gardener. Few, perhaps, who have not learned from actual experience, know that there is nothing better than a good bit of Mother Earth to whiten the hands and arms. The soft, wet earth does much to remove the tan, and although I might advise one to remove the tan from the arms with wet earth, I would not advise it for the face. When one does one's own planting, every little bit on a plant and new trend on a fern seems far more beautiful than it does if the gardener has done all the work. Gardening is perhaps the lightest of all outdoor occupations, and yet it is one of the most beneficial and satisfactory.

SALES ATTRACT MANY SHOPPERS

August sales extensively advertised in the daily papers for the last few days, attracted many shoppers to the principal stores on King and Fort streets this morning. Not for a month have there been so many people—mostly women—in the business section of the town.

Among the buyers at Hays & Co.'s clearance sale of furniture there were a number of men buyers, and many women. A widow full of bargains at Ehlers, was the magnet for a large number of shoppers. Across the street at Jordan's all the clerks were busy during the entire morning. Sach's was another of the big stores that attracted a vast throng of buyers of ladies' goods, and at Blom's customers were numerous. As a result of so many customers being downtown, even the retail places that had no special sales, caught the overflow from the stores with sales, and did an unusual large business.

MRS. E. C. RICHARDSON DIED THIS MORNING

Mrs. E. C. Richardson, mother of Mrs. George W. Smith, died this morning at the home of her daughter after an illness of three days. Mrs. Richardson, though eighty-eight years of age, has been in excellent health until her last illness, which her strength was not sufficient to combat. The funeral will be private.

Mrs. Richardson was one of the "mothers of the hamlet." She was the widow of the late Ira Richardson, who for many years conducted a gentleman's furnishings store in Honolulu on the corner now occupied by the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. Mr. Richardson died in 1879. Three children survive the mother. They are Mrs. George W. Smith, with whom Mrs. Richardson made her home during the later years of her life; Mr. A. W. Richardson of Hilo and Mrs. Cyril Trower of Sydney, N. S. W.

THE SPECKELS TRACT.

Spencer Hicketon is handling the sale of lots in the unimproved Speckels tract at Punahou for the purchaser, Harry F. Lewis. The lots are good-sized, as already reported in the Star-Bulletin, and being in a select residential district will probably be in quick demand. Mr. Lewis stated to a reporter of this paper that there would be no building restrictions on sales. He did not believe such embargoes on property would hold good in law.

The year has seen considerable advance in the definiteness of our plans for giving help to individuals. The diagnoses of the pupils' difficulties are now recorded on permanent cards in the office, where each teacher can see what another believes is the matter and what she prescribes for the trouble. In addition to the week-day assistance to individuals, a regular Saturday morning help-period has been provided and much used.

Cooke Library.
The new librarian, Miss Vivian C. Mackenzie, took charge of the library May 8. When she has familiarized herself with the conditions for library work in the school and made a study of methods to meet them, she will carry on the important work of bringing the library to its highest usefulness to Punahou. The library will miss the enthusiastic interest of Mr. Damon, the chairman of the library committee.

Cooke Art Gallery.
The Cooke Art Gallery, a memorial to Mr. C. M. Cooke, was opened in the fall. The gallery is an attractive addition to Cooke Library. In it are hung a group of pictures, lent to the gallery by the C. M. Cooke Estate, Ltd., which give distinction to the gallery and to the school. These ought to contribute to the awakening of a real interest in art and to the beginning of plans for the expansion of our course in drawing to a course in art. The Freshman Problem.
From the educational standpoint the subject so which we have been giving most thought and attention is that which we have come to call "the freshman problem." This is the problem of bringing the eighth grader who has been more or less under the control of one teacher from a school in which he has had a chief place to a school where his restraint gives way to freedom, his superiority to mere inferiority and the simplicity of one teacher's steady control to the complexity of meeting the demands of four or more teachers. The problem is vastly complicated also, by the fact that this change comes, too, at about the same time that physical changes, especially in the boy, are upsetting normal conditions.

Every school in the land is seeking an answer to the questions which are here raised. The two great experiments now being tried are (1) to hold the student longer in the grammar grades and (2) to aggregate the freshman class with the seventh and eighth grades under the name of the senior high school.

Of course, any solution that we may try here must take account of our material facilities in the way of rooms and teachers and of our peculiar school conditions. We have been working experimentally along lines which we think are helping the students and pointing the way to some permanent solution of the problem. We first attempt to analyze the pupil's difficulties. The observations of individual teachers are compared in conference. The council diagnoses and prescribes. The remedy may take the form of daily reports from each teacher to the office, supervised study hour and help periods and much personal assistance by the teacher. The student is given a steady or a heavy hand as the case may require. This plan is helping. The next step is the creation of machinery by which the help shall come earlier, so early, in fact, that it shall be a part of his instruction almost from the first and the provision of facilities for the prompt and certain help to those who need it. These will include a freshman room where they may be kept and helped together, and a supervised study hour where they will be both assisted through their troubles and taught the means the next time of assisting themselves. The real need is to give them power over new tasks and confidence in meeting them.

Interest of Alumni.
This report ought to make mention of the increased interest of the old students in the school. There has always been an expression of much sentimentality; this tendency towards the crystallization of this sentiment into effort and action is one of the most hopeful signs of the times. Punahou ought to have behind her the interest and active support of her large body of alumni. Under Mr. Atherton's leadership, we hope that there may be a real rallying of old Punahouites.

Decennial Review.

In this decennial report you will perhaps pardon its prolongation by a brief review of the decade's progress and changes.

The Corporation.—Four members of the board of trustees in 1902-1903 are not now on the corporation. Joseph B. Atherton and S. E. Damon have died; W. H. Babbitt and William D. Alexander have left the board. F. W. Damon retired and returned again. Clarence H. Cooke, W. F. Dillingham, W. L. Whitney and A. G. Alexander have taken their places during the time. The secretary and treasurer of the corporation have remained unchanged during the period.

Measure of Progress.
The decade has seen a great growth in the material things by which growth is usually measured. The cultivated campus which in 1902 consisted of small areas around Faunui, Bingham and Charles R. Bishop halls now includes an acreage of . . . Within the boundaries of the present campus only one considerable undeveloped section remains. Cooke Library and Art Gallery mark a great advance on the literary and artistic side. Alexander field and courts give new facilities in the physical line. Rice Hall, Dole Hall and Castle Hall-to-be provide modern living accommodations for the boarding department. The president's house and five new cottages help to house the teaching staff. Faunui Hall, Bingham Hall, old School Hall, the principal's house, the tank, have all been remodeled. Bishop Hall of Science alone remains the same as it was ten years ago.

RECREATIONS

"GOLDEN BEADLE" BY POLLARDS TONIGHT

"The Golden Beadle," heralded as one of the cleverest, brightest and most tuneful light operas of the decade, will be heard for the first time in Honolulu tonight when the Pollard Lilliputians appear in it at the Bijou theater.

The Pollards are said to be at their best in the English opera. The scene is laid in Beadlecot village, the good old village green playing a part in the setting. The management is authority for the statement that costumes are unusually handsome and the singing and dancing will be a revelation to Honolulu folk and will add to the wide circle of friends gained by the Pollards. Miss Eva Pollard, Teddy McNamara, Miss Nellie McNamara, Miss Queenie Williams, Leslie Donoghue and other favorites will appear. The curtain rises at 8:15 o'clock.

On Saturday a special matinee will be given. Prices are fifty cents for the evening performance and ten, twenty and thirty for the matinee.

COLLEGE DAYS AT YE LIBERTY

Commencing tonight the Raymond Teal Musical Comedy Company will present the screaming comedy "College Days." It is a comedy with a plot and that is something seldom seen in tabloid musical comedy.

"College Days" is one of Mr. Field's best shows and he plays the principal comedy part and succeeds in getting everybody into trouble. The comedy situations are only interrupted by some new songs in which the Teal buckings will be seen in new wardrobe creations.

Some new lyrical effects will be introduced in the chorus numbers. Miss Lillie Sutherland, Mr. Teal's "dynamic soprano," will be heard in "Excuse Me, Mr. Moon," one of Alice Lloyd's latest successes.

Mr. Raymond Teal will introduce one of his inimitable blackface specialties with new songs and parodies and if you can believe what you hear, Mr. Teal's specialty must be worth the price of admission alone.

"College Days" will hold forth at Ye Liberty commencing tonight and ending Saturday night, with matinee Saturdays at 3:15. There will be two shows a night, opening with first-run motion pictures. Prices 10, 25, and 30 cents, no higher. Get the habit, come early and avoid the rush.

TAFT RALLY IS PROPOSED

A meeting of the executive committee of the Republican club, first precinct, fourth district, was held at the house of the president, A. F. Clark, Kaimuki, last night to organize the committee and fill vacancies caused by the failure of the club to elect a treasurer and two judges of election.

E. A. Douthitt was on motion elected chairman of the committee.

C. N. Marquez was elected treasurer of the club. J. H. Fildes and Henry Aylett were elected judges of election.

The chairman was elected a committee of one to see the Territorial Central Committee executive about the framing of a rule to prevent voters from being active in both Republican and Democratic clubs.

Several instances of such duplicity were cited. In this connection it was recommended that the club have an enrollment committee and revision of its roll.

A suggestion originating with A. D. Castro was brought up, to hold a Taft ratification rally, with delegates to the national convention and others as speakers.

The president and the chairman were authorized to confer with the like officers of other clubs on the matter.

Rice Declines. Charles A. Rice of Kausal yesterday wirelessly to friends in town that he will not stand as Republican candidate for Delegate to Congress.

In their offer of the candidacy to him, in opposition to Delegate Kalaniana'ole, he was informed that there was a compact between the Delegate and R. W. Shingle that Shingle would support Kalaniana'ole this year and he would support Shingle for the delegateship two years hence.

Makaka Combination. It is reported that Joel Cohen, J. C. Quinn and C. G. Bartlett have joined hands to secure the thirty delegates from the Kakaako section, sixth and seventh precincts of the fourth, in support of Cohen for Senator and his partners for supervisors.

ASSOCIATED OIL TO GET PIPE LINE

The Board of Harbor Commissioners yesterday tentatively decided that the only solution of the $30,000 fuel oil pipe line puzzle is to assign it to the use of the Associated Oil Company of California, which at present has almost a monopoly on the supply of fuel oil to steamship lines handling cargoes at this port.

The line, originally planned to be used by all the oil companies in common, has threatened to become a "white elephant" on the harbor commission's hands because the companies declined to use it together.

Their opinion on the subject was not consulted until after all plans had been completed, the contract let and materials ordered for its construction, and the commission could not stop the wheels it had set in motion.

Such other concerns as supply fuel to ships must continue to furnish the oil by methods at present in use, so that the pipe line to all practical intents and purposes belongs to the Associated Oil Company. It is possible that the company will not even be compelled to pay for a lease, as it is feared that would place it entirely under the control of the using company.

The Associated Oil Company is preparing to erect a powerful pumping plant if it gets the privilege of the line.

for Infants and Children.
Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Dr. J. C. Watson guarantees genuine Castoria.

J. F. ECKART CELEBRATES TODAY; 33 YEARS AT QUEEN'S HOSPITAL

Growth of Institution Due to Energy and Ability of Superintendent

J. F. ECKART

Thirty-three years ago today, on August 1, 1879, J. F. Eckart entered the service of the Queen's Hospital as assistant superintendent. Four years later, he was made superintendent and since then has remained the active head of the institution, straining every nerve to bring the hospital as near the standard of perfection as possible.

When Mr. Eckart entered the employ of the hospital it occupied one building with a capacity for 100 beds; there were no trained nurses, neither was there a resident physician, and there was only one attending physician. The hospital was then partly supported by a direct appropriation from the Hawaiian Legislature, which stipulated that native Hawaiians should be taken care of free of charge.

The hospital receives now no direct appropriation and is dependent upon its existence from revenue received from the care of patients. One thousand patients are received yearly and their care necessitates the use of two buildings erected since Superintendent Eckart assumed charge of affairs, the services of one resident physician, two surgeons, two attending physicians, and one specialist, assisted by two internes, one head nurse and fourteen trained nurses.

J. F. Eckart was born in Oldenburg, Germany, in the year 1857, but while still a young man went to Hamburg, after serving his apprenticeship as a sailor, received his second officer's papers and shipped on the bark "Priscilla," then engaged in the immigrant trade. Mr. Eckart is now fifty-five years old, has eight children, and eight grandchildren. During his thirty-three years' residence in Hawaii, he has been to the Coast three times, but has not visited Germany once.

first large shipment in Matson steamers to the coast," stated John H. Drew, Manager of the shipping department of Castle & Cooke, this morning.

From now on, the Matson steamers may be expected to take on a large number of cases of pineapples destined for the mainland market. The Matson liners are prepared this year to handle a heavy shipment of the pine, not only from Honolulu but the other island ports of call as well.

The Lurline will proceed to Kahu-lu, there to take on 800 tons of pineapples in bulk. The steamer is expected to return here on Sunday morning, and complete loading freight for San Francisco. The Lurline is scheduled to depart for the coast port, at six o'clock Tuesday evening, taking a fair list of cabin passengers.

PINES MOVING TO MAINLAND

The movement of preserved pineapples between the islands and the mainland will begin in earnest within the next few weeks, according to the predictions made by well posted shipping men at this port.

The Matson Navigation steamship Lurline, now at the port discharging nearly five thousand tons United States freight, is to depart for San Francisco on Tuesday evening, taking at least 12,000 cases of pineapples. This consignment represents the

The BULLETIN desires to place The 12-Volume New Standard Encyclopedia In Every Home

The possession of an Encyclopedia is today a necessity. It gives full and complete information on every subject—written in words that all can understand. Knowledge is power, and the only short cut to Knowledge is through an Encyclopedia, which gives in condensed and digested form the collected wisdom of all time. If you can afford only one set of books by all means let it be the New Standard Encyclopedia. For the children it will answer every question that pops into their inquiring minds; for older people it will be a complete home university, supplying the latest and most authoritative information in every branch of learning.

Former Prices Prohibitive

Heretofore the best Encyclopedias have been out of the market at abnormally high prices, ranging from $100 to $150—prices which only the very rich could afford to pay. In order to overcome this obstacle, THE SAN FRANCISCO BULLETIN made arrangements with the publishers of the "New Standard Encyclopedia" for several thousand complete sets of that famous work, which will be distributed among those who return the coupon shown below promptly, or send postal card giving name and address.

In entering upon this great educational enterprise THE SAN FRANCISCO BULLETIN simply acts as a purchasing agent for its readers. On account of our immense purchasing and distributing power we were able to secure the "New Standard Encyclopedia" at about the actual cost of manufacture. We are now distributing it by means of a great cooperative club, which entirely eliminates all middle profits. Complete sets are shipped direct from the binders to the purchasers. This shows what a great saving can be effected by cooperation.

It gives me great pleasure to indorse and recommend the New Standard Encyclopedia. It is complete and up to date. It possesses great educational value, supplementing the instruction given in school and college. I am more than pleased with my purchase. It is good, American and cheap.

LADIES' SINGLES MATCHES ARE STARTED

Hawaiian Title Up for Settlement on Beretania Courts. Army Represented

TODAY'S MATCHES.
2:15—Miss V. Wilder vs. Miss E. Smith.
4:00—Miss Richards vs. Miss L. Phillips.

There was some keenly interesting tennis on the Beretania courts yesterday afternoon, when the ladies singles event of the Hawaiian championship tournament opened, with eight players contesting for honors. For a week tennis fans have watched mere man slam the ball round the courts with indifferent success, scoring a clean ace one minute, and the next shot bounding the inoffensive rubber out of shape against the backstop. There has been so much of this slam-bang tennis that it was almost a relief to watch the graceful, easy strokes of the fair racket-wielders who managed to get over the courts without resembling runaway autos, as do some of the more strenuous males. The female of the species may be short on smashing and driving ability, but she is certainly there with glide shots and the conservation of energy.

The army was well represented yesterday, three of the eight players entered being from Schofield Barracks. Of these only Miss Violet Wilder remains in the running. Miss Wilder's play attracted a lot of attention, and deserves high praise. In her match with Miss E. Phillips, the Chicago player, whom she defeated in straight sets, Miss Wilder showed a variety of really classy strokes and a service that combined considerable speed with a strong cut. She has a very accurate service, at least half of her first ones going in, and what points more in connection, only twice in the entire match did she double fault.

Miss L. Phillips, the champion of the States, who is a member of the Hawaiian team, was a lot closer than the women here. Miss Ruth Richards, a sister of Alphonse Richards, the new Hawaiian champion, won a hard-fought match from Mrs. Barton, the third member of the Leluhua delegation. Miss Edna Smith showed some very good tennis in the match which she won from Miss Juliette Atherton. Following are yesterday's results:

Miss Ruth Richards beat Mrs. Barton, 6-3, 6-7; Miss Louise Phillips beat Mrs. Gibson, 4-6, 6-2; Miss Edna Smith beat Miss Juliette Atherton, 6-2, 6-1; Miss Violet Wilder beat Miss E. Phillips, 6-4, 6-2.

CHINESE PLAYERS MAKE HIT IN GOTHAM

The All-Chinese are managing to have a pretty good time on their baseball pilgrimages, and when they return to Honolulu it's safe to bet that the players will have a few yarns to spin to their less traveled friends here. It hasn't been all wins for the team by any means, but wherever the boys have played they have made a big hit with the fans, which counts a whole lot when it comes to a publicity proposition.

Especially in the big cities have the Honolulu Chinese been popular. It wouldn't be supposed that they would make a very large splash in such a big puddle as New York, but that is just what happened, the team getting more notice in Gotham than anywhere else on the route.

The following extracts from the day-to-day diary of one of the players, forwarded by the last mail, tell of the big reception the players got in the East:

June 30—Back to Little New York again, and all went about the city to renew acquaintances. Soon after 1 o'clock we caught the Bronx subway for the Bronx Oval, where we went up against the Bronx Athletics, the best semipro team in Manhattan. We won 7 to 4. Ten thousand people saw us do it, and the whole town is talking about the game. We practically own New York today.

July 6—Went to Long Branch to spend the day. This is a swell place. Caught the evening train for Asbury Park, and spent the night there. It is just jammed with people. Music and lights all over the place.

July 11—Barre, Vt.—This is the hottest day we have had yet. Just 106 in the shade. The Chinese team is the

TEAMS SELECTED FOR HONOLULU-MAUI TENNIS

Twelve racket-wielders representing Honolulu will journey to the Valley Isle on August 9, to contest with a tennis team representing All-Maui for the perpetual doubles challenge cup put up some years ago by the Punahoa Athletic Club, and now in possession of the local players.

The Honolulu-Maui match is a regular annual event, for doubles teams. The play is what is known as "Maui style," each match being two in three sets, but the aggregate number of games won by each team counting on the grand total. The Honolulu players will leave here the evening of the 9th, and the matches will be played off on the following day. While stronger individually, the local players are under the disadvantage of playing on turf courts, and very spongy turf at that.

Following are the teams that will represent each community:

Honolulu—Castle and Lowrey, Richards and W. H. Hoops, Jr., Bookus and H. S. Gray, Greenwell and Withington, Waterhouse and Judd, Anderson and partner.

All-Maui—Meyers and Richardson, Rosecrans and Savage, Welsh and Baldwin, Mellor and Sawyer, Lougher and Taylor, Thompson and Seaby.

JOHNSON WANTS $30,000 AGAIN

NEW YORK, July 25.—Jack Johnson, the negro heavy-weight champion, announced over the long-distance telephone from Chicago tonight that he was ready to sign for a match with Joe Jeannette on Labor day at Madison Square Garden, in New York, if he could get his price. The latter, Johnson dictated, was $30,000. The champion refused a $20,000 offer.

Johnson's statement was made to Billy Gibson, manager of the Garden Athletic Club, who is trying to get the big negro here as a Labor day attraction. Johnson informed Gibson that he could easily get $30,000 for fighting almost any second-rate man, and he would not take less than the larger amount for boxing with Jeannette.

"But you'll have to act quickly," Johnson shouted as he rang off. "because I would want to begin training on Monday."

Gibson informed Johnson he would confer with Jeannette's manager before reaching a decision.

talk of the day. Played the Italian Athletic Club and won 7 to 5. This is a granite town.

A match will probably be arranged as a special feature of the tournament now in progress at Beretania. It would undoubtedly be a big drawing card, and if it can be scheduled for some afternoon during the progress of the doubles event, it will be sure to bring a big crowd of tennis fans to the courts.

McCAREY HAS NERVE

Tom McCarey, the Los Angeles boxing promoter, has plenty of nerve, if nothing else. When Thomas read the news in the papers that both houses of Congress had passed the bill prohibiting the transportation of fight films from State to State, he realized at once that it would cut considerably into his revenue. His only hope was that the President might see fit not to sign the bill and make it a law. Therefore pen in hand, T. J. sat down in his sanctum sanctorum and drafted an epistle to the Chief Executive of the United States in which he gave his reasons for asking that the bill be not signed. And this is the way he closed:

"I will consider it a personal favor if you will not sign the bill. Thomas J. McCarey, president, Pacific Athletic Club, Los Angeles, Cal."

Suffice it to say that no answer has been received.

DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT PROMISES BEST OF FUN

All aboard for the Myrtle Boat Club's dance this coming Saturday night. It promises to be a hummer, and all the money obtained from the sale of tickets will be thrown right back into the entertainment fund, it being the aim of the organization to promote the social side of the organization.

If the dance is as good fun as the smoker given two weeks ago, those who attend will certainly have a good time. The above picture is of the jolly crowd that attended the last smoker, in the gaily-decorated and cheerful clubroom overlooking the harbor.

Saturday night Kaul's famous quintet will furnish the music for dancing. The decorations will be carried out for the most part with palms and flags, and many growing plants have been loaned by interested members.

Tickets, at $1, are for sale by a limited number of members, who are keeping a close watch on the outgoing pasteboards, thereby assuring a high-class attendance. Those who have tickets for sale are F. A. Bechert, E. Podmore, H. Bailey, A. F. Roller, A. T. Wisdom, R. K. Chillingworth, and L. Hough.

BOWEL COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN

Children when teething are liable to attacks of diarrhoea and this trouble, especially in warm weather, should never be neglected. The best medicine in use for ailments of this kind is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy. When reduced with water and sweetened, it is not unpleasant, which is of great importance when giving medicine to children. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

EWA TENNIS MAN WANTS TO PLAY NEW CHAMPION

Ewa has a tennis champion, who, owing to the exigencies of business was unable to take part in the island championships just closed, but who, the plantation players believe, is quite capable of giving the new title.

W. N. EKLUND.

holder, Atherton Richards, all that he can tackle in the way of a match.

The Ewa hope is W. N. Eklund, who has often played on the local courts, and who figured prominently in several tournaments at Beretania last year. Since then Eklund has come along fast, and his game is said to be far stronger than last season. His friends at Ewa are very anxious to see him in an exhibition match with the champion, and Richards, who isn't the sort to lock his title up in the safe and dodge all matches that may affect his tennis prestige, is quite willing to accommodate. He has expressed himself as ready to meet the Ewa crack at any time.

A match will probably be arranged as a special feature of the tournament now in progress at Beretania. It would undoubtedly be a big drawing card, and if it can be scheduled for some afternoon during the progress of the doubles event, it will be sure to bring a big crowd of tennis fans to the courts.

HOW THEY STAND

There is little change in the relative standing of the leaders in the Major and Coast leagues, New York, Boston and Vernon keeping their long leads, and showing little danger of being headed. Washington has forged ahead of Philadelphia for second place, but Boston is going so fast that in spite of the gilt edge ball the Senators are playing, they can't catch up with the head of the procession.

As to the world's champion Athletics, Cornelius McGillicuddy, known to the baseball world as Connie Mack, is the most serious person in the national game. Connie is known for the extreme length of his countenance rather than for the breadth of his smile. Baseball is a serious problem with Connie.

He has been in the game for many years. He knows the ups and downs of the game as well if not better than anyone else. Experience has taught him it is far more pleasant to be a winner than a loser.

At the present time Connie Mack is far from being satisfied with his team. On October 23, 1911, just after his boys had won the world's greatest baseball honors from the New York Giants, Connie smiled his satisfaction.

Since the opening of the present season the leader of the best bats in baseball has not duplicated that smile. He says there has been no reason for it, as his boys have played anything but the article of ball that befits a world's championship team.

Lately the Athletics have shown improvement in their work, and Connie feels confident that his boys will come through and win their third successive American league pennant, but there will be no smile of happiness for Connie as long as the Mackmen are in third place.

McLOUGHLIN AND BUNDY WIN DOUBLES

Are Now Challengers of Lake Forest Title—Win Preliminary at Lake Forest

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable]
LAKE FOREST, Ill., Aug. 1.—Maurice McLoughlin and Tom Bundy today defeated Ross and Weston, of Chicago, in the first round of the national doubles preliminary at Newport.

This means that the Pacific Coast will get another chance to win the national lawn tennis title for mixed doubles. McLoughlin and Bundy are winners of the Pacific Coast doubles championship, were pitted against the Eastern, Southern and Western championship winners in the elimination matches at Chicago, the chance being the right to play U. S. Lake Forest and G. F. Townsend for the national title at Newport.

This is the fourth time the Pacific Coast has been represented in the preliminaries. In 1908 Maurice McLoughlin and George James qualified for the challenge match, but were defeated by Herbert and Alexander, the champions. Thomas Henry and Ross Hendrick, both of Los Angeles, won the preliminaries in 1910, but they, too, went down to defeat before Mackett and Alexander. Last year McLoughlin and Bundy were entered in the preliminaries.

SPORTING NEWS

Yale has declined to try to coach again for her country. Rogers of New York was head coach. The English team will be coached next year.

John D. Smith, of Chicago, was awarded the doubles title of the West Coast at Los Angeles. The national doubles title will be played at Chicago at a match game played at Denver.

Wednesday, August 7, at San Francisco has been fixed as the date and place of Governor Wilson's formal installation of his administration.

SECOND VICTIM IN NEW YORK GAMBLING

NEW YORK, July 31.—Another victim has been claimed by the grafting police officials' ring, which for years has been band in glove with the gambling element in this city. This afternoon James Verrella, a well-known cafe keeper, was shot and killed for betraying the murderer of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler. The shooting of Verrella has caused an intense sensation throughout the city, and the gamblers and their satellites, are reported to be fleeing from New York.

Prosecutor Whitman issued a statement today dealing with the case which is attracting more attention than any similar case in years. He said that the murder of Rosenthal was planned for ten days before it actually occurred, and that the failure was bitterly denounced by Lieutenant Becker, who declared that he would have to do it himself.

Becker is being showered with letters from women sympathizers from all over the country. CONGRESSIONAL SQUABBLE MAY DELAY OPENING OF CANAL. WASHINGTON, July 31.—The hope that Congress will at this session take any active steps toward providing for the operation of the canal and the government of the canal zone after the big ditch is thrown open for traffic is daily growing dimmer as the time for the adjournment draws near.

PASTOR DILLE TALKS ON RUEF

Pastor Dille, mentioned in the following report from the San Francisco Chronicle, is well known in Honolulu having lectured and preached in the Methodist church here, besides joining a large party in a trip to the summit of Mauna Loa on the occasion of an eruption in Mokuaweo crater, in the nineties:

Using the nineteenth chapter of St. Luke as the text of his sermon, "A Reformed Grafter Pardoned," Rev. E. R. Dille, pastor of the Central Church, preached last night on the contrast between Zaccheus, the "grafter" of the Bible, and Abe Ruef, the grafter who is seeking a parole.

Dr. Dille went into the history of Zaccheus thoroughly, telling of his extortions in Jericho, of his securing money dishonestly, of the hatred in which he was held by the people and of his finally being forced to live in a sycamore tree, that he and his family might evade the villifications of those whom he and his publicans had robbed. The pastor then told of the Savior's visit to the abode of the Biblical grafter, who, influenced by the kindness and love of the Lord, paid back the money he had extorted four-fold and thereafter lived in such holiness as to become a bishop.

Coming down to the case of Ruef, Dr. Dille said: "The other day I was asked to sign a petition and join in a movement to secure a parole for Abraham Ruef. I would like to help Mr. Ruef for the very reason that Christianity is meant to help men and not to torture them in jails. I would much prefer seeing more hopeful prisoners than despairing prisoners, and a parole certainly means hope to the man behind the bars.

"I would be only too happy to sign a petition for a Ruef parole if Ruef would only act like Zaccheus—which merely means an offer on his part to return the loot he took from a stricken city. But, up to the present time, neither Ruef nor his accomplices have expressed their intention of doing any such thing.

And until Abe Ruef expresses a willingness to make reparation, either in whole or in part, I cannot conscientiously lend my efforts toward securing a parole or a pardon for him."

OCEAN CURRENTS AND WEATHER

With reference to a discussion regarding the possible permanent change in the climate of Alaska due to a shifting of the Japanese current, the monthly review of the weather bureau says that there have been many warmer Decembers than last December during the past twenty-eight years when records have been kept, but only four warmer Januaries and no warmer February; although February, 1902, was but about one degree colder. So much for the facts, now as to the why.

"It is a fact," the report adds, "that the atmospheric pressure for the past winter averaged below normal over the Alaska area. It being decidedly so in the month of February, when the excess of temperature was most marked. It is also true that in January and February the pressure was above normal off the California and Oregon coasts and over Western Canada. This leads to the assumption that the circulation of the winds around the high-pressure area in middle latitudes of the Pacific Ocean and their northward deflection into the low pressure area over Alaska was the real cause of the warm weather in the latter region in January and February, 1912. The extension of the Japanese current to the northward of its normal course, so far as this happened at all, probably only on the surface, was doubtless incidental to this pressure distribution and the resulting winds. As soon as the usual pressure of distribution was re-established, normal temperature conditions again set in over Alaska."

This appears to be again a case of mistaking the result for the cause. A persistent and unusual northward trend of the winds would blow the surface water somewhat northward of its usual position. The pressure distribution as observed would account for the water and temperature abnormalities, but why the pressure distribution? This great riddle of the elements remains unsolved. — Nebraska State Journal.
