SENATE SCORES TAFT ON LORIMER CASE

FAIRCHILD TO LEAVE HAWAII

Manager of Makee Sugar Company to Start Business in Manila.

George H. Fairchild, manager of the Makee Sugar Company, and for years prominent in business and politics of the Territory, is leaving Hawaii to enter business in Manila. He will be associated with big sugar interests in an agency in Manila, and indications are that among these associates will be the Wadches and the Havemeyers.

Fairchild is a Senator from Kauai and has been prominent in the Legislature as chairman of the Senate finance committee and a leader in law-making.

As a member of the Senate, Mr. Fairchild during the last session introduced a bill to provide for the maintenance of public schools of the Territory through the leasing of government lands. This bill, commonly known as the "Fairchild bill," required Congressional assent, and was introduced in the House of Representatives last January by Delegate Kahanamoku. Mr. Fairchild went to Washington to appear before the committee on Territories of the House on behalf of his bill, and has not since returned to the Islands. His work in Washington as well as a dangerous illness from which he recovered only a few months ago prevented a return here, and it now develops that he is making plans to leave the Islands permanently. The report was heard on the mainland by members of the Hawaiian delegation that went to the Chicago convention, and was thus brought back to Hawaii, and local statements confirm it.

Mr. Fairchild recently went to Germany, and it is not definitely known when he intends to return here, but in any case he will be here only a short time.

Some months ago C. J. Welch passed through Hawaii on his way to the Philippines to look into sugar properties. The Welch and Havemeyer interests are associated in large holdings of "friar lands" in the Philippines. Senator Fairchild's intimate relations with Mr. Welch indicate that he will be associated with the American capitalists in the big sugar agency to be founded and operated in Manila.

Sugar as an industry is rapidly developing in the Philippines, and Hawaii capital is playing a prominent part in the development. The San Carlos Milling Company, promoted and financed here, will shortly begin operations with its big "central" in Occidental Negros. It is thus probable that the agency which Senator Fairchild and his associates will launch, will be the agent of the San Carlos company.

Kauai's noted solid delegation in the Legislature will be badly broken up by Fairchild's departure. The Garden Island has always held a strong position in the Legislature, particularly with the finance committee. Charles A. Rice, one of the House leaders last year, has been mentioned as a possibility for the Senate.

PARTY LEADER SUGGESTS MEN FOR OFFICES

A gentleman prominent in the councils of the Republican party in discussing the political situation this morning said, to a Star-Bulletin reporter: "In view of the nearness of the fall campaign, the first part of which was held last Friday night, when nominations for precinct club officers were in order; it might be well for us to pause and think over the reason for the large volume of complaint which is manifesting itself against the administration of our municipal government, and endeavor by some method to arrive at a remedy, no doubt city and county affairs will be carefully analyzed by our next Legislature. "Party politics has no part nor parcel in, nor should sensible men permit it to dominate, our city and county affairs. It would seem hardly possible though to eliminate its influence when we elect the officers of our Municipality at the same time when party feeling is running high, which is usually the case when we are in the throes of a contest as to who should represent us at Washington. "About one year ago I suggested

KUHIO MEETING CALLED FOR TONIGHT

Kuhio supporters from every voting precinct in the city and county of Oahu have been asked to a meeting tonight on behalf of the delegate, according to a report which reached the Star-Bulletin today but could not be confirmed by the delegate himself.

It was stated that the meeting would probably take place at the Waikiki home, and that its object is to begin organization along the lines that Kuhio laid down in his statement issued soon after his return from Washington, namely, that he will make his fight against Governor Frear in the party if he will support him in it, but that he will make that fight if it carries him to the lengths of running on an independent ticket. So much was implied in the statement.

It could not be learned how many have been invited to the meeting tonight, and those who are asked are close-mouthed as to the meeting and its objects.

SUGAR QUOTATIONS

Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., received the following cablegram from New York at 2 o'clock this afternoon: "Holders of raws are asking 4.05. Refiners are bidding 3.98. Fifteen Cuban centrals are still grinding."

Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., received the following cablegram from New York branch this morning: "Holders of raws are asking 3.98c. October beets 11s. 2d. There is considerable speculation. European beet crops have had too little rains."

FINALS OF SWIM ON JULY 10

Associated Press Cables That Kahanamoku Won in 63 and 2-5 Seconds

San Francisco, Cal., July 16. Star-Bulletin, Honolulu: Duke won July 10. Time, 1 minute 3 2-5 seconds. ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Duke Kahanamoku Jr. is champion swimmer of the world. He won the title on July 10, when he finished first in the 100-meter swim at the Swedish Olympic games at Stockholm. The Star-Bulletin ascertained this today by calling to the Associated Press at San Francisco. On the morning of July 11, the morning paper carried an alleged cablegram to the effect that Duke was "brought into the stadium to hear the announcement of the result of the swimming heats," and that the announcer gave Duke as the winner of the heat.

On account of the mix-up earlier in the games, when Duke, after winning the 100 meters, was compelled to re-swim it, and the uncertainty whether Duke on July 10 had won the preliminaries, semifinals or finals, the Hawaiian lad's friends here have been very much up in the air. This morning the news was published that the American team, after winning the meet, was to sail home. Nothing was said about the swimming finals.

So the Star-Bulletin, to clear up the uncertainty, cabled the Associated Press at San Francisco as follows: "Did Duke win 100-meter finals Stockholm?"

A few hours later the Associated Press cabled to this paper the message given above.

It would appear that the cabled news on the night of July 10 was misinterpreted or incomplete. At any rate, Duke is the champion sprint swimmer of the world. He has met the best the world could send against him, and he has distanced them all.

His record, made in a preliminary heat, of 62 2-5 seconds for the hundred meters, may stand. This will not be known until later on.

Duke Fund Is Growing Fast

Steadily the fund for a gift for Duke Kahanamoku is growing. Today W. T. Rawlins, who has been in charge of the special fund to pay Duke's expenses at Stockholm and on his return trip, including a visit to Atlantic City, reported that all the subscriptions for this purpose were in, and that, with $50 yet to come from the promotion committee, Duke's expenses are fully paid back to the United States and right to Hawaii.

This clears the boards for the fund to buy Duke a modest house and lot out near the beach or somewhere else and present it to him as a token of Hawaii's appreciation for the great work he has done.

The committee that will handle this fund, and to which the Star-Bulletin will turn over the subscriptions it is receiving, will be announced within a day or two. So far, no effort has been made to organize a campaign because of the other fund that was to be completed, but now that is taken care of and Hawaii can get busy on the gift.

Mayor Fern is handling one of the subscription lists himself and said this morning that the city hall is going to do its share.

"Duke deserves a $5,000 house and lot," said the mayor. "Maybe we can't raise that much, but we can raise a good deal."

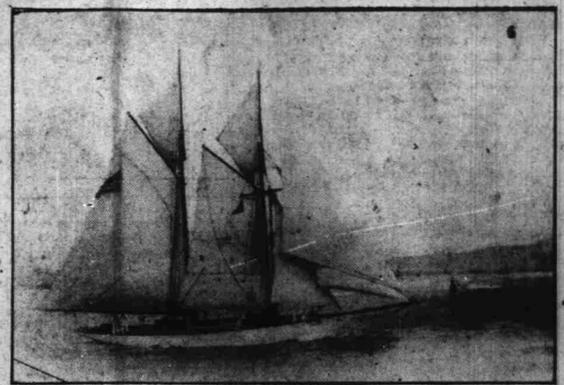

The board of health employees have started a subscription list. It was started today, and several others are ready to be started at once.

This morning a gentleman dropped into the Star-Bulletin office and held out $5. "Just put this on the Duke fund," he said, and when asked if he wished any name to be given, said: "No, just mark it 'Sport.' That's what it's for—clean sport."

This is the spirit in which the Duke fund has been started and is proving popular with everyone.

The Star-Bulletin is receiving subscriptions. Those mailed should be addressed "Duke Kahanamoku Fund, Care Star-Bulletin, Honolulu, T. H."

Yacht Hawaii Wins From Lurline In Race

SCHOONER-YACHT HAWAII, WINNER OF HILO RACE

Crosses Finishing Line Ten Minutes Ahead of Rival; Yachtsmen Jubilant

[Special Star-Bulletin Aerogram] HILO, July 16.—The yacht Hawaii crossed the finishing line off Hilo Bay at 12:34 this afternoon. Ten minutes later the Lurline crossed the line and came to anchor close aboard her successful rival. Full details of the race are not at hand, as no one from either yacht had come ashore up to 1.15, but both craft look to be in good shape.

HILO, July 16.—Captain Harris of the Lurline claims that he crossed the finishing line at 10 o'clock, two hours before the Hawaii. There is much discussion of his claims and everybody has a different story, but the official time taken by Captain Colcord of the steamer Columbian gives Hawaii the race with the time of 12:40 and the Lurline 12:57.

It seems that although the Lurline may have been outside before the Hawaii, the latter sneaked in ahead. Captain Harris claims he burnt flares, but could get no answer. There is no ill feeling between the crews. The Lurline hugged the shore and lost wind while the Hawaii kept out in the channel and caught up with her rival.

The crews of the two yachts will visit the volcano today.

The win of the Hawaii over the yacht that trimmed her in the transpacific race is a great triumph for the local boat, and vindicates the faith of those who thought that she could hold her own with the Lurline on a windward race, and who backed their opinions with coin. So confident were the Hawaii's backers that they did not ask either odd or handicap, although yachting wiseacres said freely that the San Diego yacht had all the advantage, and that it was really a race. Based on the regular handicap adopted in the transpacific race, the Hawaii would have been entitled to 49 minutes 28 seconds on the run from Honolulu to Hilo, and the fact that she was able to beat the Lurline on even terms all the local yachtsmen are shaking hands with each other.

He Kicked A Bill Collector And Court Holds He Did Right

If a bill-collector comes into your yard on a Sunday morning, reviles you, and abuses your wife and then refuses to get off the premises you are entitled to kick him off the place without fear of conviction for assault and battery.

This ruling was made in court this morning in the case of John Hopkins, a timekeeper at the American Cannery company, who was haled into court this morning on a charge of assault and battery.

The alleged assault took place in Hopkins' front yard last Sunday morning. Hopkins was in the house and Mrs. Hopkins was sitting on the lanai when the clothes-cleaner arrived and presented his bill. Mrs. Hopkins called Mr. Hopkins. He told the Japanese to bring the bill around to his place of business the next day and he would pay but not to come bothering him at his home on Sunday.

The Japanese became abusive and directed his remarks at Hopkins as well as to include Mrs. Hopkins. Hopkins ordered the Oriental off the place and when he refused to budge, Hopkins proceeded to "boot" him off the grounds and out in the street.

The warrant was sworn out and Hopkins appeared before Judge Monarrat this morning.

"This man only did what ninety-nine out of a hundred men would have done under the circumstances. I move that the case be stricken from the docket," said Prosecuting Attorney A. M. Brown. And it was.

NIGHT PROWLER OF EMMA STREET PROWLING AGAIN

Marauder Who Has Been Terrorizing District Frightens Woman

The prowler of Emma street, who for several weeks past has been frightening residents in the vicinity of the Colonial Hotel, is prowling again and last night after an inactivity of two weeks, attempted to enter the house of Mrs. J. Serpa at 1448 Emma street and was only prevented from so doing by the screams of the young woman, who, at the time, was alone with the baby.

According to the story Mrs. Serpa told a Star-Bulletin reporter this morning, it was shortly after eight o'clock when the attempt to break into her house was made. Her husband had not returned home and she was just putting the baby to sleep when she heard a man's voice calling out, "Boy home, Boy home."

Thinking that it was her husband, she said nothing and went on singing the baby to sleep. But the sound of feet scraping against the side of the house convinced her that some one was trying to climb up to the window

CONNES BILL RECOMMENDED

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable] WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—The Conness bill, granting a franchise for the construction and maintenance of a street railway at Hilo, was favorably reported today by the senate committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, to which it was referred last May. The bill has been considerably amended since it appeared originally. C. S. ALBERT.

which she had left open. With the baby in her arms, she went to the door of the rear bedroom, where she saw a man's face peering in the window. As she stood on the threshold, he made another effort and finally managed to pull himself up so that one-half of his body was in the room. All the time, he kept repeating the question, "Boy home? Boy home?" Screams for Help.

Mrs. Serpa screamed and the man cried "Hey! Hey!" This frightened her the more and she ran to the front door and shrieked for help, the baby was crying and when some of the neighbors came running to see what was the matter, the man had disappeared and Mrs. Serpa had fainted. From the description, Mrs. Serpa is sure that the man is the same that has been terrorizing residents in the

The wedding was solemnized at St. Mathew's church, San Mateo, with Bishop Nichols officiating. Three hundred guests attended. ### MARCONI CHIEF ENGINEER HERE TO PLAN GREAT WIRELESS PLANT

F. H. Sommis Confers With the Governor and Inspects Possible Sites for Use in Constructing World-Wide System in Which Honolulu Is to Be Important Unit.

That Hawaii is to be the starting point in the construction of the great around-the-world wireless system planned by the Marconi Wireless Company, which was announced in the Star-Bulletin on June 22, is now quite definitely indicated by the fact that F. H. Sommis, chief engineer of that company, is in the Islands and, with John Balch, treasurer of the Mutual Wireless Company of Honolulu, is inspecting sites for the location of the station in this Territory.

Sommis and Balch yesterday called on Governor Frear and were in conference with the Territorial executive for some time. While the latter declines to discuss the nature of their talk, information from other sources is that they discussed the possibility of acquiring a site on land now owned by the Territory.

It is understood the conference was not finished yesterday. Sommis and Balch left the city shortly afterward and are said to be on a tour of further inspection around the Island of Oahu.

Sommis Holds Conferences. Sommis has been in Honolulu several days and during that time has

YACHT LURLINE FAR IN LEAD WHEN PASSED BY MAUNA KEA

The yacht Lurline, between four and five miles in the lead of the Mauna Kea, both vessels apparently standing off about nine miles from Laupahoehoe, was a sight which greeted the eyes and passengers in the inter-island steamer Mauna Kea shortly before six o'clock last evening, as the flagship, under command of Captain "Dad" Freeman, steamed along the Hamakua coast in the direction of Honolulu.

Both yachts were plainly visible between half past five and six o'clock last evening, remarked the veteran skipper of the Mauna Kea when questioned about the vessels this morning. "Judging from observations taken from the bridge and the deck the yachts were going ahead at a fair rate of speed," said Capt. Freeman. "The Lurline appeared to have the best of it for nearly five miles. We expected to pass rather close to the Hawaii, but as we steamed along, both vessels were seen to change their course."

At a time when the Mauna Kea would have passed within speaking distance the Lurline tacked and then stood off. The Lurline was forging ahead to the windward of the Hawaii. Both vessels were beating against the wind up the coast and I would estimate that they would have about twenty-five miles to travel before dropping anchor in Hilo Bay."

Purser Phillips stated this morning that the greatest interest prevailed among the large list of passengers as the Mauna Kea came up on the two trim-looking sailing craft. Despite the fact that a glass was kept on the vessels until it became too dark to take further observations, no signals were displayed by the officers in charge of the Lurline or the Hawaii.

The news of the relative position of the two yachts was quickly circulated among local yachtmen and along the local waterfront at an early hour this morning. When the first definite news of the pleasure craft was received, considerable speculation followed as to the possible chances of the Hawaii reaching Hilo Bay before her larger and more successful rival. The receipt of a wireless this morning that the Hawaii had passed the line a few minutes ahead of her larger rival was matter for much congratulation.

Many Autos in Honolulu. Ten automobiles are included in the large amount of freight to arrive at Honolulu early tomorrow morning from San Francisco in the Matson steamer Honolulu. A late wireless received at the agency of Castle and Cooke this morning states that the vessel is bringing 62 cabin passengers, six of whom will transfer to the Canadian-Australian liner Zealandia, for Australia. The Honolulu will arrive here in ample time to effect the transfer of both passengers and 75 sacks of mail to the steamer for the Colonies as the Zealandia is not expected to arrive here from Vancouver before the noon hour.

The Honolulu is bringing 388 sacks mail, and 43 packages express matter. The cargo for Honolulu amounts to 3500 tons, while in transit there are 840 tons for discharge at Kahului. Eight automobiles are for Honolulu, while two are to be left at the Maui port.

Schooner Alexander Clears Hilo. After having been discharged of a full cargo of lumber, the American schooner S. T. Alexander cleared the port of Hilo on Monday with destination as Puget Sound. This vessel sailed in ballast, and was passed by the steamer Mauna Kea on her voyage to Honolulu.

The American-Hawaiian freighter Columbian has arrived at the Hawaii port to complete the last of a 12,000-ton cargo of sugar destined for the isthmus of Tehuantepec. Purser Phillips reports a fine homeward trip for the Mauna Kea. The vessel arrived at an early hour this morning from Hilo direct, bringing a fair list of cabin and deck passengers and freight, including 10 cords wood, 9 bales hides, 250 railway ties, 18 sacks rice and 75 packages sundries. Light trades and smooth seas were met in the channel. The steamers Kauai and Kalulani were at Hilo at the time of departure of the Honolulu-bound liner.

Fine Weather Along Hamakua Coast. With the arrival of the Kona and Kau liner Kilauca this morning comes report of the weather along Hamakua coast. Purser Logan stated that the vessel met with favorable winds and seas on the return trip. The steamer brought a large list of cabin and 91 deck passengers.

The freight list was a varied one, including a wide assortment of products of the Big Island, including 5000 sacks sugar, 30 head cattle, 6 crates pigs, 25 crates chickens, 4 crates eggs, 3 cases butter, 68 bunches bananas, 64 sacks pava root, 104 pieces log wood, 25 bales sisal, 26 bales hides, 214 sacks coffee, 92 sacks charcoal, 62 cases fruit, 20 barrels fish and 146 packages sundries. The Kilauca is scheduled to return to Kona and Kau ports at noon Friday.

Nautical Science for High School Pupils. The public evening navigation school in the ferry postoffice building, San Francisco, closed for vacation, to reopen for the fall term Monday, August 26. The location on the waterfront has been found best suited for the purpose, and large classes have been in attendance. A new class will be organized on the opening of the fall term. The city of Los Angeles is organizing a department of nautical science in San Pedro high school, and later an evening class will be in operation for the older pupils.

Sparks from the Radio-Telegraph. Aerograms received from liners now nearing the islands include the following: A-H S. S. Honolulu, en route from San Francisco, July 15, 8 p. m.—Have fifty-two passengers and 388 bags of mail for Honolulu. Will arrive Wednesday morning. C-A S. S. Zealandia, en route from Vancouver, July 15, 8 p. m.—Arrive Honolulu Wednesday at noon. Sail at 6 o'clock p. m. same day. Forty-five passengers for Honolulu.

Luka Brings Valuable Cargo. The little auxiliary-powered schooner Luka, back from a lively trip to the South Seas, including Fanning, Washington and Christmas Islands, brought a valuable cargo in thirty tons copra, gathered at the estates owned by Father Rougier, the Copra King of the South Seas. The copra will be forwarded to San Francisco, where it brings in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars a ton.

The Luka is apparently none the worse for her voyage to the little dots in the South Pacific, which trip consumed the greater part of two months. With the arrival of the vessel at Honolulu last evening came William Gregg, a part owner in island estates on Fanning and Christmas Islands. Gregg is making a visit to the scene of his boyhood after an absence of eight years. Father Rougier, who accompanied Captain Pittz to Fanning, remained there but is said may return to Honolulu.

He has purchased Christmas Island with its valuable phosphate deposits and coconut groves, the price being reported at a snug figure. The wireless rigging installed in the Luka is said to have gone by the boards following a severe blow met with shortly after the schooner sailed from Honolulu. Save the loss of a few sails, the vessel met with no serious mishap on her voyage to the verdure-clad islets.

The Zealandia, of the Canadian-Australian line, now en route from Victoria and Vancouver, is expected to reach this port on or about noon tomorrow, according to information contained in a late wireless message received at the agency of T. H. Davies & Co. The Zealandia will be dispatched for Sydney by the way of Fiji and New Zealand ports at 6 o'clock the same day. The Zealandia is bringing forty-five passengers for Honolulu.

Niihau Back from Kauai. Bringing a small shipment of limes and sundries, the inter-island steamer Niihau is back from Kauai. This vessel met with fine weather on the homeward trip according to a report brought by her officers.

BIDS FOR ARMY SUPPLIES OPENED. Bids for supplying Uncle Sam with the necessary staples to provide his soldiers with their "three squares" a day, for the month of August, were opened this morning by Captain Case, depot commissary. The estimates show that the amount of produce bought in the local market is steadily increasing. Next month the soldiers will require 10,000 pounds more potatoes than ever before. There is a proportionate increase in the other staples. The two largest items, potatoes and onions, go to Fred L. Waldron this month. Last month Hackfeld & Co. was the successful bidder. The prices on these items are a trifle lower than for the last two months, owing to the fact that the new potato crop is now available in quantities.

There was no reluctance on the part of local firms to bid for the government trade, in spite of the fact that substantial finances are uncertain. While naturally preferring to get paid promptly, all the Honolulu firms that deal with the commissary are in a position to wait for their money if necessary. Following are some of the larger items, the low bidders, and the prices: 110,000 lbs. potatoes, F. L. Waldron, 1.54 cts.; 12,000 lbs. onions, F. L. Waldron, 1.24 cts.; 3,000 lbs. beans, Davies & Co., 4.37 cts.; 4,000 lbs. rice, Davies & Co., 5.00 cts.; 40,000 lbs. sugar, Davies & Co., 5.2 cts.; 6,100 lbs. coffee, Hackfeld & Co., 24.15 cts.; 1,200 lbs. bacon, Hackfeld & Co., 21.25 cts.; 1,800 lbs. cheese, Hawaii Meat Co., 20.5 cts.; 3,000 lbs. ham, Hawaii Meat Co., 18.00 cts.; 1,000 cakes soap, Hackfeld & Co., 3.198 cts.

Water Rights. (Continued from Page 1) purpose and the superintendent of public works was authorized to direct the condemnation. While it is not definitely known now whether this sum is to come from the new bond issue or was provided for in the last one, it is thought the approaching bond sale in the East is expected to supply the funds for the action, and that the condemnation will be hurried through so that the purchase may be made as soon as the money becomes available. This amount is to come from the loan fund, and its authorization is given by Act 166, which says it is to be used to "condemn and acquire for the use and benefit of the Territory of Hawaii, all rights owned by the late Charles W. Booth at the time of his death, in all springs as well as waters of Paoua stream and valley, and in Pacific Heights waters and water-works and in such undeveloped land, maula of the spring known as Kahuakai, which surround sources of such water or watersheds thereof and in necessary rights-of-way to pipe the water out as may, in the opinion of the superintendent of public works, be necessary for insuring the purity of such water."

700 FIERY FOUNTAINS PLAY IN GREAT VOLCANO'S CRATER

All of Hilo Makes Auto Pilgrimage to Madame Pele's Glowing Shrine. Hundreds from Hilo were numbered in the exodus from that city to the Shrine of Pele on last Sunday. With the return of the inter-island steamer Mauna Kea this morning, there arrived a delegation of delighted tourist folk, who declare that the sight spread by nature for their delectation has never been equaled. Every available automobile in Hilo was pressed into service in conveying visitors to the crater edge. The Volcano Stables transported several hundred to the scene of volcanic activity and the hotel accommodation there was taxed to the limit.

So great was the illumination from the pit of molten lava that the surrounding country for miles around was brilliant in reflected light. With seven hundred fire fountains constantly playing the light at the volcano is one that is without parallel in its history. Over sixty automobiles left Hilo yesterday and practically everyone in the city who could possibly get away did so.

Professor Jagger made the estimate that there are seven hundred fountains playing and states that he is unable to account for the wonderful activity. Allick, the veteran guide, says that he has never seen such wonderful activity. The fire itself is about twenty-five feet below the lower ledge, but the surface is one boiling, bubbling mass of scarlet lava. Where Old Faithful once spouted with regularity and where an odd bubble burst it is now impossible to count the jets. Some of them seem to be more active than others as they are throwing the molten lava fifty feet in the air. Others are splashing over the lower ledge.

The glare can be seen from Hilo and hundreds of people have been sitting on their lawns during the last few evenings watching the red lights changing on the sky. The fire is not rising much but is spasmodic, rising and then falling in and being swallowed up in the fiery mass. The scene is constantly changing, the crater never looking the same for two consecutive minutes.

We will receive by the Honolulu tomorrow morning a shipment of fresh California fruits and vegetables and "Puritan" Creamery Butter. Henry May & Co., Ltd., Telephone 1271.

The firm of James F. Morgan & Co. has secured the Walkiki side of the Star building on Merchant street for its offices and will move as soon as the fittings have been installed. The old Morgan offices will be used by Bishop & Co. to enlarge the present quarters.

that we amend our election laws divorcing the City and County from the Territorial election, making the former in the odd year, leaving that for the Territorial Legislature, and for delegate to congress in the even year as at present. By some such arrangement we would be in a fair way to solve the difficulty.

Not Good Agreement. Some people argue against this saying that it would keep the country in a constant turmoil. I do not think this argument is well taken however, as thanks to the great register of voters, the matter of registering for every election is done away with, business need not be disturbed, and leaving politics out of the question so far as our local affairs are concerned, would permit all parties and factions to get together, and make up a strong ticket that would work for the public good. Surely in these days when scientific management is the watch-word in trade and industry and efficiency is called for in all our business organizations, some plan can be devised for providing greater efficiency in the operation of our city and county affairs, and in this movement should not business men who know something of the value of efficiency, be the first to take a hand?

Suggests Timber. "To that end I would suggest as representative of the business community the following names from amongst others that might be available as good timber for the Board of Supervisors: Alonzo Gartley, E. It is to be noted that all those named above are good Republicans, but in the event of a ticket being made up of all parties, among many others could be named J. W. Waldron, R. H. Trent, Jno. Effinger, Lester Petrie, W. W. Thayer, A. G. Gignoux, Col. J. McCarthy.

SOLDIERS HELP FENNEL IN HIS CAMPAIGN ON "BLIND PIGS"

Detailed to Gather Evidence Which Results in $100 Fine for Russian Illicit Liquor Vendor and Jail Sentence for His Friends Who Attacked Officers in Discharge of Duty.

Through the aid of the commanding officer of a local military post and with the assistance of two soldiers acting under their commanding officer's orders, Liquor License Inspector Fennell procured evidence enough last Sunday afternoon to convict Akim Dubrovny, a Russian resident of Twilei, of selling liquor without a license, this morning.

The offender was fined $100 and costs and two friends of his, also Russians, were sentenced to one and two months in prison respectively on a charge of assaulting the license inspector and the Russian interpreter at the time that the arrests were made.

These convictions are the first results of a campaign launched against the "blind pigs" by the license inspector in which the commanding officers of Forts Shafter, De Russy, Schofield Barracks, and Camp Very the lending aid and are permitting soldiers to procure evidence for the license inspector by buying liquor at suspected places.

Soldiers' Aid Needed. According to license Inspector Fennell, Dubrovny would never have been convicted if it had not been for the aid of soldiers in procuring evidence. Time and time again Fennell has attempted to detect the Russian selling liquor, but each time has failed to obtain a prosecution through lack of evidence.

Last week, the license inspector went to the commanding officer of one of the local posts and asked his aid and assistance in trapping the illegal sellers of liquor. The commanding officer assented and instructed two of his privates to act under the inspector's orders.

In accordance with their instructions, dressed in full uniform they left camp last Sunday morning for Twilei, arriving at the house of Dubrovny shortly after 11 o'clock.

There they found Dubrovny and two Russians drinking wine. According to the evidence of the privates offered in court this morning, they sat down with Dubrovny and his friends and ordered drinks.

They testified that they had six rounds of drinks at 50 cents a round for which they paid at the time.

Russians Attack Officers.

At this juncture Inspector Fennell, Interpreter Adler and a police officer arrived on the scene and placed the company under arrest. The two Russians assaulted Fennell and Adler, but were finally quelled and thrown into the patrol wagon. Fennell then poured the contents of the glasses into a bottle and seized two 25-cent pieces which Dubrovny tried to remove from under a cup.

Dubrovny and the two Russians were locked up at the police station, Dubrovny being charged with violation of the liquor statutes and the two others, Sarachin and Lukianow, with assault and battery on a police officer.

Attorney Chillingworth made a vigorous fight on behalf of the chief defendant this morning on the contention that wine was not named as an intoxicating liquor under the provisions of the statute, but he was overruled and the defendant fined $100 and costs. Sarachin and Lukianow were given two months and one month, respectively.

Hardly had sentence been passed than Fennell swore out another warrant for Dubrovny, charging keeping of intoxicating liquors on the premises for purposes of sale.

The present federal grand jury is considered an exceptional strong one, and is comprised almost entirely of representative business men of Honolulu. Its second session was called for 1.30.

compete with the commercial cables now in use. Powerful sending and receiving stations are to be located at San Francisco, Honolulu, in China and on the New Jersey coast, and with the exception of the station near San Francisco, the sites will be equipped with 1000 to 1200-kilowatt plants.

In addition to this news, later information published in mainland papers is to the effect that the government of Great Britain has turned over to the Marconi Wireless Company a sum of several million dollars to install a great wireless system taking in all of England's possessions. It is now believed that the Marconi concern, using its alliance with the Western Union Telegraph Company to finance the Pacific system, intends establishing a line of wireless communication encompassing the globe.

According to the story published in Honolulu recently, Balch was said to have obtained options on two sites in the Islands for the Hawaiian wireless station, however, it is surmised that these have not proved entirely satisfactory to Chief Engineer Sammis.

Great Plant Here.

The plant that will be established here will be one of the greatest, if not the largest, in the world, and because of the vast power needed will occupy a considerable space of land. Even at San Francisco, where a much smaller plant will be required, it is said the aerials will have a span of one mile, with more than 100 wires in the span. The plan is to relay messages across the American continent over the Western Union Telegraph lines, then convey them 2000 miles by wireless to Honolulu, and from here on over to the Orient.

The local plant, which is expected to be located near this city, is to be as powerful as the Marconi station now at Clifden, Ireland, the highest powered plant in the world.

Two plants are to be built on the New Jersey shore, for one of which a tract of 650 acres already has been obtained. The cost of each station is estimated at about $750,000, and it is expected that the Honolulu station will cost nearly as much.

Labor, if it were not necessary to the existence, would be indispensable to the happiness of man.—Dr. Johnson.

AN EVEN PARTY KEEL

An even keel is more effective in politics than in yachting, because an even keel in politics is always desirable, while a yacht wins races heeled over and rail under. But no party can win rail under.

The Republican party in Hawaii is buffeted by winds, and it is important that an even keel be kept. In this case, keeping an even keel means nothing more nor less than knowing what the Republican party has as its goal and sticking on the true course until the party gets there.

No factionalist, however bitter he may be, will for a moment argue that any Republican in Hawaii is bigger than his party. Personalities are not the campaign objects. If party work means anything, it means work toward effective government, and effective government cannot be bought or paid for in terms of personalities, whether flattery or abuse.

Effective government in Hawaii means capable men in city and county offices just as much as, and in Honolulu even more than, it means capable men in territorial offices. And it is plain that an even keel and a true course means, to drop the figure, that the Republican party fix its eyes on an efficient ticket for the fall campaign and use every honest and honorable effort to secure the election of that ticket.

The Star-Bulletin is informed that supporters of the delegate have been asked to a meeting tonight to discuss the political situation. This meeting will doubtless develop into discussion along the lines of Kuhio's last statement.

No political movement can be permanently successful unless it gets results with which the people are satisfied. The Star-Bulletin is quite certain that the people of Hawaii will not be long satisfied with anything but progressive, economical, efficient government.

A fight for clean government in Hawaii will not end with one campaign and one election. It will go on until clean government and harmony in that government are won.

Keep the party on an even keel! Republicans who can see two years or four years into the future will not permit any personal issues to outweigh the issues of decent, result-getting government.

EYES THAT CAN SEE

Opportunities numberless lie ready at the hand of those who believe in Honolulu Beautiful not as a catch-phrase but as a practical object.

In another column the activities of the Outdoor Circle of the Kilohana Art League are mentioned, and it will surprise not a few to know what speedy and tangible results a comparatively small number of public-spirited women are securing.

The improvement of the city ought to be only a matter of time, for in climate and in the number of trees, shrubs and flowers that grow here, the city is wonderfully blessed. Time, however, can be shortened by multiplying the willing hands that do the work.

The tree-planting so well begun by the Outdoor Circle suggests that a movement to improve every vacant lot along the principal streets would flourish here as it has flourished elsewhere. In one large mainland city, where clouds of factory smoke blemish the sky and the landscape, where most of the open spaces are paved with ugly brick or reeking asphalt, a Back-Lot Improvement Association has been formed with Neighborhood branches. The members of this association make it their duty to see the owners of the bare lots and urge some improvement or beautification, cooperating by furnishing sod, shrubs or flowers, even potted plants where soil is not available. At the close of one year, members of the association reported that the really remarkable number of 747 vacant lots had been improved.

These clubs got down, to definite work from the start. They had no opportunity for any general improvement scheme of such scope as the Kalakaua avenue project. They worked in small spaces. But the aggregate of that work was enormous.

THE BENCH AND THE BLUECOAT.

Police Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo of New York city, head of what is generally regarded as the greatest body of guardians of public safety in the world, gives it as his unbiased opinion that the restraint of crime, is less a police matter than a judiciary matter.

Given efficient police forces, says Mr. Waldo, that city will show least crime in the long run which has the strictest and most severe municipal judges.

He declares that London's remarkably low per cent. of crime is due to the fact that the Londoner knows that the chances are very good that he will be caught, and much better that if caught he will be handed a stiff sentence.

Paris's notorious laxity, rampant crime and utterly lawless street gangs he lays to the leniency of the French municipal judges even after the police have caught the criminals.

In a statement before Judge Goff of New York, Mr. Waldo declared:

"Eliminate from the criminal the fear of punishment, and you eliminate all restraining influence. If you have a policeman upon every street corner, and he arrests every man who commits any crime whatsoever against the law, and if the men arrested are not punished, then you will have a state of absolute disorder despite the number of your policemen; while, on the contrary, if every man whose impulse is to commit crime knows that he will probably be caught if he yields to this impulse, and that if he is caught he will surely suffer the consequences of his wrongdoing, he will probably restrain his criminal impulse. In the final analysis, it all comes down to this; whether or not the criminal knows he is going to be held responsible."

This noted police commissioner is extremely severe in his criticisms of the habit many police judges have of suspending sentence. He maintains that such an act is equivalent to release without punishment, for few judges are able to learn of a previous suspended sentence when a prisoner comes before them.

Mr. Waldo's criticism deserves serious consideration. Honolulu is very fortunately situated with regard to crime and petty misdemeanors, but no one who has lived here any length of time can fail to note the increase in certain forms of misdemeanor in recent years.

All over the world British law enforcement compels admiration and respect from the law-abiding and is a terror to evil-doers. The cattle thieves of the Canadian plains know it, and the Northwest mounted police rule their boundless miles of territory with an efficient hand. It is known in South Africa, in British municipalities of the Orient, in all the colonies. Its essential feature is the relentless pursuit of every criminal and speedy trial followed by a carrying-out of the sentence. There is no complaint against British law enforcement on the ground of leniency.

The police must do their part; the prosecuting officers must do their part; the judges must do their part. Mercy may temper, but should not thwart, justice.

Certain offenses against law in Honolulu are flouted constantly. The auto-speeder laughs at the law. It is time that the auto-speeder, the street-gangster and others were taught their lesson.

It is to be hoped that the supervisors who have just been saved $14,000 by a decision which holds it illegal to appropriate this sum for the armory fund, will not use it in raising more salaries. The last appropriation bill furnished all the activity needed in that direction.

Strange how Treasurer Conkling happened to get such an extraordinarily good indorsement for the territorial bonds without a high-priced attorney along to advise him!

Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst, famous British suffragette, has been released from jail because she persisted in starving herself, and even the fast-cure won't cure a suffragette.

It is safe to say that Schoolmaster Wilson knows enough geography to know that Hawaii is on the map.

There should be no such thing as a fire where the water pressure even hesitated, let alone failed.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

C. F. MERRILL—Referring to the big fire yesterday, an employee of the Hawaiian Pineapple Cannery told me this morning that the cannery would go the same way if it ever took fire; that frequently there was not sufficient pressure to get enough water from the taps to wash one's hands.

A. E. LARIMER—We are expecting word every day from F. B. Smith, head of the International Interchurch Federation. Mr. Smith is probably at the Y. M. C. A. Lake Geneva Conference now and until that is ended on July 24 he will have no time to complete his plans for his round-the-world tour.

JOHN SMITH—A good scheme for the Duke Kahanamoku testimonial would be to establish the champion in a little bathing resort on the beach, where he might give instruction in swimming and would himself give exhibitions for tourists. This should be a pleasant layover for Duke and would certainly be a big promotion asset.

A. F. COOKE—If the ladies would turn their attention to the moral conditions of our city, viz., to the hula and kindred evils, I think the hula good results of their labors would be of greater real general benefit than trying to "boycott" the signboards alone. I notice when there are changes made on the signboards, liquor and tobacco signs are on the increase.

GEORGE P. CASTLE—It occurs to me that the building inspector should have power to pass on the architecture as well as the construction of buildings. A lot of unsightly shacks of the familiar old type are going up on King street and there ought to be some way to stop such disfigurement of the city. It is not necessary that a cheap building should be ugly. An example of cheap construction combined with taste in architecture is seen in the French laundry building.

Jack Desha received his Master's degree from Harvard this year but is remaining in the East to continue his studies in the law.

PRIEST COMES TO STUDY LEPROSY

Father Keller Plans to Labor Here as Medical Missionary

To study leprosy in the Hawaiian Islands, the Rev. Charles Keller, pastor of a Catholic church at Centaur, Mo., has resigned from the ministry, and will journey to the Islands as soon as he completes a special course in medicine which he is now taking at Cambridge, Mass. Father Keller has just completed a four years' course in medicine at the American Medical College.

Word of the plans of the priest to visit Hawaii were received here yesterday. Father Keller says that his resignation as pastor will not affect his relations with the priesthood. He will work here as a Catholic medical missionary, he says.

"At first, I pursued the study of medicine for the sole purpose of occupying my mind in a beneficial way," said the priest. "My interest increased as I advanced in the study, and I decided to finish a professional course, as I was convinced that the practise of medicine might prove to be less beneficial to humanity than my previous activities."

"I do not give up my priesthood by my resignation. I merely surrender my priestly functions."

Father Keller is 47 years old and a native of Coblenz, Germany. After serving in the Prussian army, he came to America in 1888 and opened a branch house for his father, a wealthy wine merchant. In 1889 he went to Rome and began the study of theology.

KONA WANTS COFFEE PICKERS

Sugarman Suggests Chance for the Boy Scouts to Make Money

"Things are looking very well in Kona," said William H. Crozier, sugar holler for the Kona Development Company, who arrived in the Kilauea this morning. "We had good showers Thursday and Friday nights, although Kona has not suffered so much from drought as some other sections."

"The sugar plantation is doing well. It will have a crop of more than 2,500 tons of sugar this year. There is some good cane land to develop yet, although from the nature of the country there is considerable difficulty in getting it under cultivation. Probably it will take some years before a 5,000-ton crop will be reached."

"Coffee is doing splendidly. There will be a large crop this season, notwithstanding that much of it will be lost for lack of labor in picking. As high as a dollar a bag will be paid by the growers for picking the berries. If somebody in Honolulu would get up a crew of boys and send them to Kona with a chaperon, so that they could be kept together in a camp of their own, the boys could make three or four dollars a day and besides receive much benefit from the outing and the industrial experience. Yes, I should think it would be possible to get a band of Boy Scouts from Honolulu as coffee pickers."

"The Mediterranean fly gets into the berry, but, it is said, does no harm. It only attacks the pulp of the ripe berry."

"The volcano is very active at present, and attracting many visitors. We could see the glare from all along the coast, and the reflection was visible even from Lahaina this morning."

"The roads are bad, as no doubt you have often heard, but some improvements are being made in them here and there throughout the island."

Mr. Crozier will be in town for a week or two.

2 LOCAL BANKS MAY BUY BONDS

Two of the five banks in Honolulu may try to buy some or all of the new Territorial bonds that Treasurer Conkling is now on the mainland arranging to float.

Three banks will not look at them—two because they do not want the bonds and one because it is not allowed to handle them.

Cecil Brown, president of the First National Bank of Hawaii, said this morning that the bonds were not being considered by that bank at all. "They would be no use to us," Mr. Brown said. "We do not need them as investments, and would not sell United States bonds to get them."

C. H. Cooke, president of the Bank of Hawaii, Ltd., said the matter had not yet been taken under consideration, because so far no particulars of the issue had been received. The bonds had not yet been confirmed at Washington, and nothing was known here about the advertisement or the length of time the bonds would be advertised.

E. I. Spalding, vice president and manager of the Bank of Honolulu, stated that this bank was not going to do anything about the bonds. They were too low a rate bond.

Samuel M. Damon, senior member of Bishop & Co. bankers, said: "We are making inquiries about the bonds. Unless somebody wants them for trust funds there's very little use in them. A four per cent. bond is not particularly attractive. You can get more than that for money in New York. The value of such bonds is that you can use them as collateral, otherwise they would not go at all even if they were six per cent."

HAIKU AND PAIA BOTH GO KITING

Since yesterday's session of the Stock and Bond Exchange, 870 shares of Oahu are recorded as sold—$10 between sessions and 60 on the board, the blocks ranging from 5 shares to 410 and the price remaining unchanged at 28.50 throughout.

Hawaiian Commercial advanced an eighth and a quarter respectively in two sales of 50 shares each at 44.375 and 44.50 between boards. Pioneer sold up a quarter at 34.75 for 25 and 5 shares. Hawaiian Sugar is unchanged at 45 for 11 shares. Hutchinson holds at 21 for 100 shares, and Telephone at 24 for 75 shares.

Ewa, unchanged in recess at 32 for 15 shares, advanced on the board to 32.50 for two sales of 5 shares each. Haiku made a jump of 7.50 from last previous quotations in a sale of 10 shares at 225, and Paia at 225 for 10 shares registered ten points advance. Haiku sold at 217.50 last Saturday and Paia at 215 on Friday.

After one day's absence bonds came strongly into view again, sales of such reported today being $11,000 (Oaa 6s at 97.50 and $1000 Hilo Extension 6s at 94.75.

IN THE WOMAN'S WORLD

Outdoor Circle Busy With Effective Work

Women Carrying on Beautification and Improvements Through Summer

Although the committees of the Outdoor Circle of Kilauea Art League will not meet for business matters until after the summer months, they are still carrying on the work begun some months ago. The monkey pod trees planted at Ala Park are progressing rapidly and before long will be spreading their cool shade over those who spend their leisure hours in the park. At the water's edge purple bougainvillea has been planted and in the course of time will gracefully droop across the stream.

On Kalakaua avenue the circle has planted coconut trees, which are being cared for daily and are growing steadily. As yet the Outdoor Circle is in its infancy but day by day the women of the city are becoming more interested in the work that it is accomplishing and are anxious to join its ranks. Plans for the parking of Kalakaua Avenue are developing and if the people will come to the front and help with the work it will soon be one of the prettiest drives in the islands, whereas at the present time it may very well be called the reverse.

When the rains come in the fall the delicate shades of the clematis will be planted there to help cover up the marshes. It may be said here that the Circle has decided to have all of the trees planted there pink flowering ones. Then in the Walkiki district, Christmas berry trees which are so beautiful during the tourist season, are to be planted. This Walkiki district, as you may know, extends from Lewers Road to Kapiolani Park. It seems a pity that it does not extend through the park for it is here that so much improvement might be made by such an organization. At the present time it is in the hands of the government and as no large appropriation for its improvement has ever been made by the legislature it cannot even be kept green. Instead of having such a large stretch of bare, sun-burned grass, fern houses having rare varieties of ferns might be erected for the benefit of, not only the visitors to the islands but also for some of the city's own residents who, not having ferneries of their own, might be given the opportunity of seeing rare varieties in such a place.

Then, too, some of the many varieties of begonias might be planted there for there is nothing quite so beautiful as the large dark leaf of this plant in combination with its dainty lace flower. These are just two of the things that might be done at Kapiolani park, but there are many, many other ways in which it might be improved and might be made picturesque not only to outsiders but to ourselves.

Already an appropriation has been made for the Alaia Plaza and if more money can be secured that place will no longer be an eyesore but will be made beautiful. The plan is to have the plaza diamond-shaped, and planted with the Jacaranda, a species of the trumpet flower.

The Outdoor Circle has made many plans for the beautifying of the city and with the cooperation of the people they will surely succeed.

WOMAN AND PEACE.

Upon no subject which can come before the Federated Women of America can they exercise a more powerful influence than in promoting the abandonment of war.

Women are the greatest sufferers by war, and upon that subject they have a supreme right to be heard, and in the many States and countries in which they have the suffrage they can back up their voices with their votes. When candidates understand that their chances of election may be affected by their action on questions looking to international arbitration of all controversies, conversations to universal arbitration will be rapid and sincere. And where women do not vote they can greatly influence voting.

It is very satisfactory to note the prominence which has been given to this subject at the present biennial. The presence of the distinguished Baroness von Suttner, who has been a lifelong laborer in that cause, has added special interest to the topic, which is perhaps of greater concern to womanhood than any other which can be brought before them.

Possibly men can be more effective in demonstrating the economic folly even of successful war, but while the economic view may or may not take the strongest hold on the reason, it is the emotions which most inspire to affirmative action. When reason and human sympathy can be lawfully joined in wedlock the effect upon human action is irresistible.

A man can be killed in battle and be done with it, but it is the beginning of lifelong sorrow for the wife and mother. And even if war were not economic folly, there is no economic gain possible which justifies the infliction of such awful suffering on the families of the slain.

It is time for war to stop. And it never will stop until the strong nations of the world agree with each other to submit all justiciable causes, bar none, to the arbitration of an impartial tribunal and also to intervene in all attempts of the strong to oppress the weak.

And to this righteous end none can be more effective than the federated women of the world, who should and we hope will make it the most prominent of the causes which they advocate.

The money which can be saved by the reduction of armaments would be ample to effect all other needed reforms which women may seek to accomplish, and in promoting universal peace they will be most effectively promoting all other great causes to which they are so worthily committed. —San Francisco Chronicle.

"ALEXANDRA" DAY.

Queen Alexandra is taking a keen interest in the arrangements for Alexandra Day, Wednesday next, when 10,000 ladies will sell artificial wild roses in the streets of London for the benefit of hospitals and other charities. The day is the fiftieth anniversary of Queen Alexandra's landing in the British Isles.

Millions of artificial wild roses are now being made, chiefly by the workers in John Groom's Crippage and Blind Girls' Mission, London. Fifteen duchesses and many other leaders of society have promised to act as sellers or as flower-depot custodians and organizers. Some of the flower sellers will have interesting devices to attract attention. For instance, one lady has bought a costermonger's cart and a donkey; her two children will ride while she will be the driver.

The work of selling the flowers will begin at five o'clock in the morning, when the first party of flower-sellers will take their stand in Covent Garden. Later all the railway stations will be picketed to catch men on their way to work, and at the luncheon hour there will be flower-sellers in the entrance halls of the City and West End restaurants. All day the streets of London and the suburbs will be patrolled and selling will not cease until after the theaters have opened. The flowers will cost from a penny upwards, and once a rose is purchased and worn it will act as a passport through all the other flower-sellers.

Positions have already been allotted to most of the lady sellers. For example, Lady Limerick will be in Bond-street, Lady Camard and Mrs. Hwata-Williams will be at the Ritz Hotel, Lady Ninian Crichton-Stuart at Caridge's Hotel. All the flower-sellers will be dressed in white, with hats trimmed with wild roses.—Exchange.

NAVY WOMEN LIKE ORIENT.

Mrs. Wallace Bertoff and Miss Katherine Stryckler, who returned last week from the Orient on the Mongolia, give most glowing accounts of their trip. They were a month in Manila and a month in Olongapo, and were very much fascinated with the Eastern life, and regretted when Lieut. Comdr. Bertoff was transferred to the South Dakota and ordered home. He will not arrive in San Francisco, however, until the first of August, as the cruiser is to spend much time in China and Japan. Prior to their trip to the Far East Mrs. Bertoff and Miss Stryckler had a bungalow in Honolulu during the two months Lieut. Comdr. Bertoff was stationed there, and when the orders suddenly came for the fleet to move Eastward they decided to follow on the next liner. Mrs. Bertoff was Miss Mary Mariner before her marriage, and was a great belle in the army and navy set of several seasons ago.—San Francisco Dispatch.

MR. & MRS. WORTHINGTON TO MAKE VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Worthington will leave early this month for Honolulu, where they will remain for a month or more. They are going to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Thelma Parker and Henry Gaillard Smart, which will be solemnized at Waimea, at the magnificent country home of Miss Parker, on July 26. After their honeymoon, which will be spent in visiting various points of interest in the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. Smart and his bride will live for some months in Honolulu. They are planning to come to San Francisco shortly after the holidays and will later leave for Europe, where they will spend a year in travel.—San Francisco Post.

TEACHERS COME TO HAWAII TO STUDY LOCAL WORK

PORTLAND, June 21.—Miss Harriet Johnstone, a graduate of the University of Washington, and a teacher in the Queen Anne high school in Seattle, passed through Portland tonight on her way to Honolulu, via San Francisco. Miss Johnstone goes to Hawaii with other teachers to study the educational work on the islands.

FLIGHTS OF THE BUTTERFLIES

What more beautiful sight to behold than gaily colored butterflies flitting about among bright flowers, wrinking their sweets? The study of the butterfly is just as interesting as its appearance is beautiful.

The habitat of the butterfly is almost the entire world. There are places in the very remote Arctic and Antarctic regions in which the butterfly cannot live. Butterflies have been found in 82 degrees north latitude, in Greenland, but are unknown in Iceland, and only a very few are to be found in New Zealand. Ireland has about 40 species of butterflies, while Great Britain has 70. These interesting restrictions are in large measure determined by the distribution of the plants on which the larvae feed. Natural barriers, such as wide stretches of sea, have also in many cases a determining effect.

Certain species, however, often cross sea channels and establish new colonies or reinforce old ones.

Some observers have recorded rather remarkable facts concerning the flights of butterflies. Kent says that he has frequently seen hosts of white butterflies crossing the English channel from France into England. H. W. Bates states that at one place in South America he saw 80 different species of Lepidoptera flying about in large numbers. These flights are due, perhaps, in a very large measure, to the gregarious habits of these insects, and not to a real migrating instinct.

Parvin relates that he saw a "butterfly shower" 10 miles off the South American coast. He states that "as far as the eye could reach, even with the aid of the telescope, it was not possible to see a space free from butterflies."

Like Abraham's cattle of old, butterflies are "rined, speckled, spotted and broken," besides the white, yellow and brown. They rival the tropical birds in the beauty and the brightness of their coloring.—Progressive Teacher.

Farewell Performance Starts in Dark but Is Splendid Success

Honolulu is genuinely sorry to see the Juvenile Bostonians go. The farewell performance of this clever troupe of youngsters at the Hawaiian Opera House last night was an overwhelming triumph.

Packed to the doors, the house was full of friends and admirers of the Juveniles and enough flowers were sent to outfit a Pasadena carnival. And there were also ukuleles and other gifts liberally by the score. From first to last the audience wanted to show its friendship for the company and its appreciation of the very many pleasant evenings the Juveniles have given Honolulu.

Right at the start something happened, but it only made the evening more enjoyable. Just as the curtain was going up, and Joe Cohen, who has the house for the engagement, was beginning to turn away the crowd on account of lack of seats, the lights went out. Trouble with the electrician was rumored. They didn't come on again for half an hour. Meanwhile Joe Cohen and Manager Levi Lang of the company were doing marathons around town trying to get an electrician to find out what was the matter. No electrician. Joe produced a dozen candles, set a row along the footlights, and the show went on and went on with success from the start. While it was progressing, Mr. Lang was seized with a brilliant idea. He got hold of a couple of prestidigitators and plumped them down in the aisle. They passed for "spots."

The Juveniles weren't upset by the mishaps at all. They sang and danced and made merry without a waver, and the big house was having a mighty good time also. In fact, the failure of the lights served to start the evening off with an informal swing, particularly after the orchestra and the kiddies had put some impromptu music.

Joe Cohen rose to the occasion with a speech that was a speech. The audience didn't know that Joe had just run two hundred yards, and his breathlessness was naturally put down to timidity before the footlights. Joe's speech, as gathered in by a rapid-fire shorthand reporter who happened to be present, was as follows: "Ladies and Gentlemen: I have just been informed that an electrician is now rushing on the way as fast as an automobile can take him. Meanwhile, I crave your indulgence for this little accident, and when the lights are fixed, we will try to give you a performance that will be well worth your while." (Loud applause.) Exit Joe. Interviewed after the show, he said: "I don't know how I did it. I suppose making speeches is just come natural to me. I admit I was eloquent, but who wouldn't have been with such a house. No, I refuse to accept any flowers."

However, presently dashed an electrician and in a few minutes he had trailed the trouble to its lair, which was a transformer on Queen Street. The lights were fixed and the show went on faster and merrier than ever.

"ps" was the closing bill, and the encores came as fast as the flowers. And everybody was sorry when the evening was over and they said farewell to the Bostonians. Honolulu will welcome this company back again whenever it wants to come. The youngsters have made a steadily increasing success here, and very many personal friends besides. They have been widely entertained at private homes and they have been successful because of their behavior on the stage as well as on, and because of the clean, bright, wholesome plays they have given Honolulu. It would be unfair to mention one without mentioning all, for all have made hits. There'll always be an "aloha" here for the Juvenile Bostonians.

POLLARDS WILL OPEN NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

Announcement was made this morning that Pollard's Juvenile Opera company, which was billed to open its local engagement at the Bijou next Thursday night, will not open until Monday night.

Teddy McNamara is the cause, and the Honolulu people who know Teddy will be satisfied to wait until he gets here and can get on with the show. Teddy is coming down from the Northwest on the Zealandia and the Pollards are due in this afternoon from the Colonies.

GREAT RAYMOND IS WIZARD PAR EXCELLENCE

The following, concerning the famous illusionist who is to hold forth at Ye Liberty Theater, for a brief season is from "The Manila Times," of April 19th.

Combines Fun and Wizardry. Raymond creates everything from nothing. Possibly Raymond once had a real name and a mundane identity. But it must have been in a forgotten long ago.

Wizardry scintillates from his finger tips to his pate. The plane on which he soars is visible yet intangible. A personality of baffling simplicity is Raymond, who rolls up the sleeves of his dress coat and creates everything from nothing. What he does would glut the shelves of any library.

How he does it could be explained by the spectator in three words—"I don't know." Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde had not a shade on Raymond who is humorist as well as Magician. He leaps from fun to witchcraft and you never see him make the leap. Last night hundreds of persons went to the Grand Opera House to be puzzled and they went away sated.

Raymond waved a handkerchief at the audience, pressed it between the palms of his hands and there fluttered forth handkerchiefs of every shade and size. He produces birds and rabbits from the air. From a derby hat he produced a bushel of eggs. He locked a boy in a cabinet and in three seconds the cabinet yielded two girls and a boy. So many wonders were performed that one can scarcely recount them. A bird cage with two canaries was brought upon the stage. Raymond took the two birds, placed them in a paper sack, and while a young lady held the empty bird cage Raymond shot the bag to pieces and there were the birds in the cage.

Trick followed illusion and illusion followed trick in such quick succession that it is impossible to recall them. Raymond is master of the strange science of levitation.

He startled his audience last night in his experiment with "Astrala." His innumerable illusory tricks and the finesse of his work make his the greatest of all magical shows.

FOUR NEW PEERS NAMED BY KING

LONDON, England, June 25.—As is usual on the King's birthday, a list of honors has been issued. Four new peerages have been created, the recipients being the Earl of Carrick, Field Marshal Sir W. G. Nicholson, the famous soldier who is at present conducting an inquiry with regard to the army in India, Sir Francis Channing, and Sir Thomas Northwick, the two last-named gentlemen being men of well-known Liberal views. The Earl of Carrick was already an Irish peer, but the bestowal of a barony of the United Kingdom gives him the right to sit in the House of Lords.

Among the other honors may be mentioned the elevation of Mr. Masterton, financial secretary to the treasury, to be a member of the privy council, and the bestowal of a knighthood on G. T. Hutchinson, head of the well-known publishing firm. Among those upon whom the companionship of various orders has been conferred, the names of a considerable sprinkling of natives of India are noticeable.

BID FAREWELL TOMORROW TO PASTOR FELMY AND HIS FAMILY

PASTOR FELMY AND HIS FAMILY, WHO LEAVE HONOULULU

On the steamer Zealandia, tomorrow, Pastor Willibald Franz Michael Felmy, minister to the local German Lutheran Church for the past eleven years, will leave for Sydney with his family on his way to the Fatherland. From Sydney he expects to visit Charles Towers, to introduce to the German Lutheran congregation there a young minister due to arrive from Germany. After performing this duty Mr. Felmy will proceed to North Brisbane, where he will minister to the German Lutheran congregation during the period of about two weeks, and will finally arrive in Germany on October 20th next.

Pastor Felmy was born at Alt Rietz near Wriemsen in der Neumark, Germany. From his ninth year he visited the Joachimsthal College at Berlin and later the university there. He studied under Professors Harnack, Pfeiderer, von Soden, Scholz and others, and passed excellent examinations at the end of his studies. In the year 1894 he was assigned to Frankfurt-on-the-Main as Vikar to the church there, and in the latter part of that year followed a call as teacher and educator to the Moravian College at Koenigsfeld in the Black Forest. In 1896 he was called to Frankfurt on the Oder as assistant pastor and in 1897 was assigned to the pastorage in Zuellichau. In 1898 he felt that his inclination was more toward scientific religious work than practical church work. He therefore severed his connections with the church and devoted himself entirely to scientific work at the Royal Library of Berlin, where he secured a position as assistant librarian under Professor von Soden. In that position he assisted this eminent scientist in editing a critical edition of the New Testament, which necessitated his detailed personal research of all available Greek manuscripts appertaining to the Christian religion at the libraries of London, Oxford, Paris, Rome and other Italian cities. He spent some time at the library of Vienna and finally returned to Berlin. In the midst of these studies he received a call from the local German Lutheran congregation, who had chosen him from among eighty or ninety applicants. He received this call in January, 1901, and was ordained for the local church on March 30 of that year at Berlin. On October 21, 1900, he had married Barbara Tiesel of Redwitz, Silesia, and on May 15, 1901, he arrived here with his young wife. Pastor Hans Isenberg of Lihue, Kauai, introduced him into his new office on June 2, 1901, in the presence of a large gathering of local ministers and public men. Ever since that time Pastor Felmy has with marked success devoted his services to the upbuilding of the local German Lutheran Church.

WIFE OF PRESIDENT HEARS HIM CRITICISED

BALTIMORE, June 28.—Mrs. William Howard Taft, wife of the President of the United States, sat in the private box of Mrs. Norman E. Mack at the convention yesterday and heard many harsh things said about her husband. She laughed several times when the speakers' points were funny, but there was an expression on her face which seemed to indicate that she had come at the "inopportune moment."

Still, when the afternoon session adjourned and she was asked if she enjoyed her stay, Mrs. Taft said good-naturedly:

"Why, I had a very nice time and am used to the little flings which they hurl at my husband. You know, they hate the veto power, these democrats, and this is their main chance to retaliate."

Sitting next to Mrs. Mack Mrs. Taft was a conspicuous figure, although her presence was not known to many in the audience. She came to Baltimore as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wallace, the former being a delegate to the convention from the State of Washington. Mrs. Taft was entertained at the Baltimore Country Club in the afternoon and returned for the night session, which she enjoyed even more than her first experience.

In Mrs. Taft's party were Misses Mildred Aubrey and Nellie Patten. Those who recognized her watched her closely as Senator-elect Ollie James made his speech as permanent chairman of the convention. Mr. James, with his Kentucky reeling, might not have been so severe upon the President had he known that Mrs. Taft was within the sound of his voice and almost upon the same platform with him. Still nobody told him that she was there, and he proceeded relian religion at the libraries of London, Oxford, Paris, Rome and other Italian cities. He spent some time at the library of Vienna and finally returned to Berlin. In the midst of these studies he received a call from the local German Lutheran congregation, who had chosen him from among eighty or ninety applicants. He received this call in January, 1901, and was ordained for the local church on March 30 of that year at Berlin. On October 21, 1900, he had married Barbara Tiesel of Redwitz, Silesia, and on May 15, 1901, he arrived here with his young wife. Pastor Hans Isenberg of Lihue, Kauai, introduced him into his new office on June 2, 1901, in the presence of a large gathering of local ministers and public men. Ever since that time Pastor Felmy has with marked success devoted his services to the upbuilding of the local German Lutheran Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Felmy have a family of two boys, Karl Albrecht and Heinrich, born on October 21, 1903, and October 16, 1904, respectively. The eldest child, a daughter, died on October 12, 1904. In 1906 Pastor Felmy visited Germany, whether his family had preceded him a year or so previous, and he returned in fall of the same year. In 1910 he accepted the professorship of German at the College of Hawaii, which position he filled to the entire satisfaction of the principal and regents of that college. The many friends and pupils of Pastor Felmy as well as his entire congregation will miss him and his family.

His successor, Stadtvikar Engelhardt, born near Nuernberg, Bavaria, in 1886, is expected to arrive here in October next and will be introduced and installed in office on October 20, 1912, by Pastor Hans Isenberg of Lihue, Kauai.

lentless with his attack upon the President and his party.

"Taft said that Roosevelt was a friend of the trusts," said Mr. James, "and Roosevelt said that Taft was a friend of the trusts, I believe that both were right."

Mrs. Taft smiles.

It was a telling blow, but the element of humor in it brought a smile to the countenance of the "first lady of the land" and Mrs. Mack laughed with her. Both women seemed to appreciate the fact that "anything goes in a convention and that the ordinary 'conventionalities' are not observed."

As the speech of Chairman James grew more exciting and the crowd appeared to take great delight in what he said about the President, Mrs. Taft looked a bit nervous. Then to preserve her composure she laughed outright with the chairman made this statement:

"Teddy said that he was sorry that he had stood sponsor for Taft, as the latter had failed so miserably. I think the people of this country do not care anything about his sponsorship and have no faith in it."

The vetoing of democratic measures by the President also gave Mr. James an opportunity to say some pretty "plain" things about the chief executive, and he minced no words. Mrs. Mack smiled at Mr. Wallace, who sat on her right, but she did not dare look at her guest from the White House, who sat on the other side.

Waseda Professor Lectures at Palama on Strong and Weak Points

Four hundred Japanese listened to an address on the "Strong Points and Weak Points of the Japanese" delivered by Professor Shiga Shigeo, a member of the faculty of Waseda University, at the Palama Settlement House gymnasium yesterday evening.

Shigeo, who is a professor of Political Economy at the Japanese institution of learning has devoted practically all of his time to the study of Japanese economic conditions and was able to handle his subject very intelligently.

He arrived here three weeks ago at the invitation of the Kin Yo Kai Japanese literary society which meets every Friday evening and has been lecturing since to the various Japanese business and social organizations in the city. It was at the request of Palama Settlement that he lectured at their gymnasium last night for the benefit of those Japanese who had not heretofore heard him.

Has Large Audience.

When the professor appeared shortly after eight o'clock there were over four hundred in the audience. The address was in the Japanese tongue and was a frank arraignment of Japanese vices intermingled with words of commendation for the good points in the Nipponese character.

This lecture was one of a series of lectures and socials arranged by the workers in the Settlement to be held during the Summer months. It is planned to get good speakers of the various races represented in Hawaii who will address their countrymen in their native tongue on vital subjects concerning their economic welfare and by this means assist them in improving their condition.

The second of a series of classes for beginners in English was held yesterday evening in the club-house while the lecture was going on in the gymnasium. The English classes are for boys and men who wish to gain a conversational knowledge of the English language and are in charge of Mrs. Chester Hunn. Mrs. Hunn who is a teacher in the Royal School has voluntarily offered to devote one evening a week toward instructing the boys of the district in the English language and she will hold the classes throughout the summer.

Carter to Present Cup.

Former Governor Carter will address the Senior boys clubs tomorrow evening and will make the formal presentation of the silver cup which the baseball team won. James A. Rath will also make an address and it is expected that Scoutmaster James A. Wilder will be present.

Preparations are being made for a social to be held on July 31 to which admission will be by ticket.

Every time a boy plays in a game, he is presented with a ticket and when he has received nine of these tickets, he may exchange them for a ticket which admits him to the social on July 31. The settlement-house has been thrown wide open to all for the summer months—from nine A. M. to nine P. M. and seven or eight baseball games are played daily.

THEY INJURE CHILDREN

Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physicals May Cause Distressing Complaints

You cannot be over-careful in the selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given. Ordinary pills, cathartics, and purgatives are too apt to do more harm than good. They sometimes cause griping, nausea, and distressing after-effects, and may actually injure the health, thus establishing a life-lasting annoyance.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as a safe and dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies not only relieve constipation, but help to remove the cause of this ailment. They also frequently overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really, in our opinion, no similar medicine so good as Rexall Orderlies for the purpose to which it is directed, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form and in two sizes of packages: 12 tablets, 10c., 36 tablets, 25c., and 80 tablets, 50c. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Fort and Hotel Sts., Honolulu.

PRESIDENT'S LATEST VETO

President Taft has used the veto power to an extent and with a frequency that is a sufficient refutation of the absurd charge that he lacks firmness. In returning the army appropriation bill to Congress without his approval, he shows that he is not afraid of a dilemma. His objection is to the "rider" on the bill, the effect and purpose of which are to legislate General Wood out of the position of chief of staff. This provision is embedded in the bill so deeply that unless the bill itself is passed over the President's veto or Congress backs down, the army's pay and subsistence is held up by the President's refusal to approve the measure. But the army is not likely to suffer for all that. In the Hayes administration Congress adjourned without making the regular army appropriation, but the government, pending a special session, managed to find funds for the soldiers, a precedent not now likely to be neglected.

The President's course should meet with public approval, for his veto is directed against the "holdup" method of legislation expressed in "riders." These are much special legislation put upon appropriation bills to the end that only by acquiescing in these schemes can the government obtain the appropriation to which it is entitled without controversy and delay. The practice is in every way reprehensible, but can be stopped by a demonstration of popular opinion in support of the President, who is standing out against legislation by stealth and indirection. — Boston Transcript.

BIGAMY IS LAID TO DICK DALEY

Dick Daley, former cafe impresario of Honolulu, has been charged with bigamy in Manila. The Cable-news-American says:

Seeking the annulment of her marriage to Richard Francis Daley, and praying for heart balm in the sum of 15,000 pesos, Regina Leslincksv yesterday brought suit in the court of first instance, through her attorneys, Hixon and Zook.

The complaint sets forth that the marriage ceremony which it is desired to annul was performed by the United States consul at Canton March 5, 1910. Upon that date complainant avers, Daley already had a wife in the United States, which fact she was not cognizant of until after their removal to Manila, where Daley set up a restaurant known as the "Owl," which went out of business shortly after its establishment.

"According to the best information obtainable Daley is now in Tientsin, China. He has lived in China for several years, being well known along the coast as a restaurant man. Miss Leslincksv, or Mrs. Daley, whichever the court decides she is, did not accompany Daley north, and is now in the city where she will remain until Judge Crossfield hears her plea."

ASSESSMENT FIGURES REACH $176,834,801

The total assessment figures for the Territory, which have reached $176,834,801, were completed by Registrar Henry Hapai yesterday and cabled by Governor Peary to Treasurer Conkling in New York. Conkling will insert them in the prospectus he is preparing Table showing assessment figures for 1911 and 1912 for Oahu, Hawaii, Maui, and Kauai.

FOUR BILLIONS OF DOLLARS NEW RECORD IN TRADE

The foreign commerce of the United States made a new and remarkable record in the fiscal year just ended. The total value of the merchandise entering and leaving the country in its trade with foreign lands and its own island possessions in the fiscal year 1912 was four billion dollars; the value of manufactures exported was more than one billion dollars; and the value of non-dutiable merchandise entering the country was one billion dollars. Of this one billion dollars worth of non-dutiable merchandise entering the country during the year ending June 30, 1912, about nine hundred million dollars' worth was from foreign countries and one hundred million dollars' worth from Hawaii and Porto Rico.

Of the merchandise coming from foreign countries only (and not including that from Hawaii and Porto Rico) 53.5% entered free of duty, against 44.3% during the entire period of the Dingley law, 48.8% under the Wilson law, and 53% under the McKinley law when the admission of sugar free of duty made the percentage of duty-free imports unusually large, but not so high as that of the year just ended. In fact, the value of duty-free merchandise entering from foreign countries in 1912 not only exceeds by far that of any earlier year, but also forms a larger share of the total imports than in any previous years, except 1892 and 1894, the opening and closing years of the operations of the McKinley law, when the imports of sugar free of duty were abnormally large.

Imports of duty-free merchandise never reached as much as one hundred million dollars prior to 1873. They touched the two hundred million dollar line in 1880, the three hundred million dollar line in 1891, the four hundred million dollar line in 1892, the five hundred million dollar line in 1905, the six hundred million dollar line in 1907, the seven hundred million dollar line in 1910, and in 1912 approximated nine hundred million dollars; and the addition of the merchandise coming from our own islands brings the grand total of non-dutiable merchandise in the fiscal year 1912 up to around one billion dollars.

The principal articles forming the one billion dollars' worth of duty-free merchandise entering continental United States during the fiscal year 1912 are, according to the latest reports of the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor, food stuffs and manufacturers' materials. The food stuffs entering without payment of duty included about one hundred twenty million dollars' worth of coffee, approximately thirty-five million dollars' worth of tea and cacao, over twenty million dollars' worth of fruits and nuts, five million dollars' worth of spices, and about ninety million dollars' worth of sugar from Porto Rico, Hawaii, and the Philippines. The manufacturers' worth of hides and skins; over one hundred million dollars' worth of India rubber and substitutes thereof; about sixty-five million dollars' worth of raw silk; fifty million dollars' worth of tin in bars, blocks and pigs; forty-five million dollars' worth of copper in ore and pigs; thirty million dollars' worth of fibers, including hemp, jute and sisal; and about twenty million dollars' worth of raw cotton.

Of the more than one billion dollars' worth of manufactures exported during the year, those of iron and steel aggregated about two hundred seventy-five million dollars in value; copper and mineral oils, each more than one hundred million; lumber, nearly one hundred million; leather and manufactures thereof, about sixty million; and cotton manufactures, about fifty million. Manufactures exported in the month of May amounted to one hundred eight million dollars for the single month and formed 63% of the total domestic exports of that month. For the full fiscal year manufactures formed about 46% of the total domestic export.

During the 34 months in which the present tariff law has been in operation, manufactures exported averaged seventy-five million dollars per month and formed 45% of the total exports. During the entire existence of the Dingley law they averaged forty-six million dollars per month and formed 37% of the total exports; during the entire operations of the Wilson law exports of manufactures averaged twenty-two million dollars per month and formed 29% of the total exports; and during the existence of the McKinley law they averaged sixteen million dollars per month and formed 21% of the total exports.

Bleached Oats and Barley. Food inspection decision 145.

as a part of his advertisement of the sale of the Hawaii bond issue.

The figures, which include all real and personal property and the returns made by the tax appraisal boards of the Islands, show an increase of 191 percent over 1911, and show that the Territory's limit of bonded indebtedness is extended to more than $12,000,000.

The Islands' indebtedness, including the new bond issue which the treasurer is to float now, reaches only a little more than half-way toward the limit, or, in round figures, is $6,900,000.

With one exception all the tax appeals are definitely settled. The exception is the Walluku Sugar Company, which has appealed to the Supreme Court from the appeal board's ruling. The itemized figures prepared by Hapai are as follows:

Table showing tax assessment figures for 1911 and 1912 for Oahu, Hawaii, Maui, and Kauai.

The Department of Agriculture has received numerous inquiries relative to the application of the Food and Drugs Act to oats, barley, and other grains bleached with the fumes of sulphur. It appears that by this process grains which are damaged or of inferior quality may be made to resemble those of higher grade or quality, and their weight increased by addition of water. Such products, therefore, are adulterated within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906, and can not be either manufactured or sold in the District of Columbia, or in the Territories, or transported or sold in interstate commerce.

It is represented, however, that grains which are weather-stained, or soil-stained, the quality of which is in no wise injured in other respects, are sometimes bleached with sulphur fumes. Pending the report of the Reference Board of Consulting Scientific Experts as to the effect upon health of sulphur dioxide, and the results of experiments being made by this Department, as to the effect of sulphur-bleached grains on animals, no objection will be made to traffic in sound and wholesome grains which have been bleached with sulphur dioxide and from which the excess water has been removed, provided that each and every package is plainly labeled to show that the contents have been treated with sulphur dioxide. Bulk shipments should be properly designated on invoices. The terms "purified," "purified with sulphur," "processed," etc., are misleading and not proper designations for these products.

Attention is also called to the fact that grains bleached with sulphur fumes may have their germinating power very seriously impaired. R. E. DOOLITTLE, F. L. DUNLAP, A. S. MITCHELL, Board of Food and Drug Inspection. Approved: JAMES WILSON, Secretary of Agriculture. Washington, D. C., June 24, 1912.

RISE IN SUGAR

A cablegram was received by the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. yesterday afternoon that raw sugar was in demand in New York at 3.92c, and that beets had advanced to 13s. 1d., with bidding strong at these prices but no sugar to be bought thereat. The company forthwith bought 1200 shares of Oahu at 28.50, also, for a client, 400 shares of Hawaiian Commercial at 44.25 and a few at 44.50.

BEEF SUGAR-FACTORY IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA SOUGHT BY PETITION

ADELAIDE, S. Aus., June 20.—The suitability of large areas of land in the southeastern portion of the state for the cultivation of sugar beet has long been recognized. Experiments conducted some years ago showed that the beets grew well in the district, up to twenty tons to the acre having been produced. Little interest was, however, taken in the industry until recently, when a committee was appointed to make inquiries, both regarding the possibility of sugar beet growing and the manufacture of beet sugar in the Mount Gambier district.

The report of the committee was presented to a public meeting held at Mount Gambier recently. On the recommendation of the committee it was resolved to petition the Legislative Assembly to cause inquiry to be made whether the establishment of a beet sugar factory would not be a profitable undertaking, and if such inquiry proved favorable to cause such a factory to be established. The petitioners point out that in Europe the average price of sugar is ten pounds sterling per ton, and the average production of beet ten tons to the acre, while in the southeastern districts the average production would be at least twenty tons per acre, and the price of sugar in Australia is at present twenty-four pounds sterling per ton. They affirm that the establishment of a sugar beet factory would pay handsomely.

POSTOFFICE PROFITS TWO MILLION FOR YEAR

Wager of One to a Thousand That Taft Won't Get a State. A profit of $2,225,000 in the operation of the St. Louis Postoffice is shown in the report of the receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year ending Saturday. This figure is an increase of 2 per cent over the profit for the preceding year. The receipts for 1911-12 were approximately $4,725,000.

Pieces of incoming mail handled in the last fiscal year numbered 243,014, 548, as against 230,924 in the preceding period. Outgoing pieces handled in 1911-12 numbered 393,777,055, compared with 383,475,546 in 1910-11. These figures show a total increase of 49,551,565 in pieces of mail handled this year.

The California Railroad Commission has ordered the Tidewater Southern Railway to cancel $2,000,000 worth of their capital stock. The entire issue was to have amounted to $5,000,000. The Cincinnati home, in which President Taft lived just after he was married, has been sold at auction for $550.

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Austin, Texas, has been elected President of the Confederated Women's Clubs of America. The biennial convention is being held in San Francisco. Mrs. Blankenberg, wife of the mayor of Philadelphia was elected vice-president. Asst. Secy. A. A Congressional investigation of the Treasury Department is the probable result.

Several legations at Peking have received reports of Boxer uprisings and agitations in several of the provinces. The foreigners have not been seriously menaced as yet. A second "eminent alienist" has testified to the effect that Thaw is still insane and that his freedom would mean danger for others. Delegates from Pennsylvania, including Gov. Tener, and Arizona have arrived in San Francisco to pick out Exposition sites. A Chinese attacked Sir Francis Henry May, governor of Hongkong. He fired at him from close range, but the bullet went through the sedan chair in which the governor was sitting. Governor Charles E. Osborn, an ardent Roosevelt supporter, has come out strong for Woodrow Wilson since the Democratic convention. He hopes there will be no third party.

General Orozco and his rebel army are fleeing toward the United States border, followed by a strong Mexican federal army. It looks as though the rebels were about to make their last stand. The guard of two maintained at the grave of the late John Jacob Astor has just been doubled, but no explanation has been given by the family as to the reason for having four men on guard at the sepulchre. A balloonist giving an exhibition at Bellville, New Jersey fell from his parachute and dropped 800 feet to his instant death. Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, the famous equal suffragist and American clubwoman was taken seriously ill in San Francisco, and there is great danger that she will not recover. The new American flag, bearing forty-eight stars, was hung to the breeze on the Fourth on all Federal structures and on government vessels all over the world. The red field on the President's flag has also been changed to blue. Going at sixty-five miles an hour, a D. L. & W. express train near Corning, New York, crashed into the rear of a passenger train and killed forty-one persons and injured between fifty and sixty. It is reported that Roosevelt has asked Judge Lindsey, the famous "kid's judge" of Denver, to be his running mate on the new party ticket. Roosevelt is planning to go after the farmer and worker in his campaign. It is said that Woodrow Wilson will bar Bryan from the big Democratic council of war to be held soon. This means that he won't be one of those to plan the Democratic campaign this year. Troleys collided at Stockton, Cal., as a result of which one was killed and seven injured. The cars were demolished. Frederick Hyde of San Francisco, the convicted land grabber, who tried to steal thousands of acres in the Northwest, is preparing an appeal to Taft in an effort to escape the two years in prison to which he was sentenced.

Mayor Rolph of San Francisco with the beginning of this fiscal year is expected to reorganize many of the municipal departments, and it is feared that the axe will fall upon the necks of some of the McCarthy holdovers.

Abel Attell showed up in his old-time form by defeating Eddie Marino in ten rounds of fast boxing at Tacoma, Washington. Attell landed four blows to Marino's one and showed all his old-time cleverness.

Al Leitch, a famous American comedian, died suddenly in New York city of spinal meningitis. A dirigible will soon make regular air trips between Chicago and Milwaukee, carrying passengers.

SKELETON PUT ON STAND

Used to Show Effect of Broken Ribs in Damage Suit

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 28. — A skeleton occupied the witness stand before Supreme Court Justice Guy and a jury on the main floor of the old Tweed courthouse. It was brought in on behalf of the defense in Lamert Dekker's $25,000 suit against Richey, Browne & Donald, contractors, for injuries, but the jury brought in an eleven-thousand-dollar verdict for Dekker.

Dekker, who lies dying of tuberculosis at 132 Burgess Place, Passaic, N. J., contended that the staying in of his ribs in an accident was followed by the disease. The skeleton was used to show the relation of the ribs to the lungs.

Before the skeleton, dangling on a metal support, was put on the witness stand it was kept concealed in a wardrobe. Its presence there provided a shock for one of the court attendants, who journeyed to the wardrobe to get a glass to provide Justice Guy with a glass of water. When the attendant saw the skeleton he turned pale and hurried out, leaving the cabinet open. His fright provoked much amusement among his associates.

Bill Flynn, ardent Roosevelt man, got back to Pittsburg, still talking. "Taft will be defeated," he exclaimed excitedly.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and of narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, for the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria. Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better." JOHN J. LEFFA, M. D., Cleveland, Ohio.

"For several years I recommended your 'Castoria' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., New York City.

"Your Castoria is a meritorious household remedy. It is purely vegetable and acts as a mild cathartic. Above all, it does no harm, which is one that can be said of the great majority of children's remedies." VICTOR H. COFFMAN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild, laxative effect and freedom from harm." EDWARD PARKER, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments." J. A. PARKER, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

NATIONAL CONVENTIONS PROVED PROGRESSIVE BUT NOT RADICAL

Bryan Responsible for Platform Democrats Can Unite Upon

By C. S. ALBERT.

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 5.—The two dominating political parties of the United States have held two of the most interesting national conventions ever held in this country. The Republicans, at their convention at Chicago, had a battle royal for five days, including a portion of the nights, and the Democrats, at Baltimore, engaged in a more prolonged, and almost as strenuous a fight.

The progressives in both parties were trying to overthrow the machines of the conservatives or reactionaries. At both conventions the opposing factions were very bitter. Some of the incidents and scenes at Chicago and Baltimore are likened to those of days just before the French Revolution in France. Serious riots were expected at Chicago and many fist-fights marked the progress of the Baltimore convention. The tension was so high that upon the slightest provocation men were ready to fly into each other's throats.

Two striking characters took part in the Chicago and Baltimore conventions. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, for two terms President of the United States, was in Chicago to lead his forces in person, but did not appear on the floor of the convention. He was on the ground, however, and made known his desires and purposes to his friends in the convention. The active participation of a candidate in a convention, which was to pass upon his candidacy, was most unusual, and caused much comment. It is believed by Mr. Roosevelt's friends that Mr. Roosevelt would have fared better had he remained at home. But Mr. Roosevelt followed the suggestion of some of his enthusiastic but unwise supporters and appeared on the scene of action.

Mr. Roosevelt suffered because of the fact that a lot of inexperienced but zealous men undertook to run his campaign. He was outgeneraled. In the pre-convention campaign the inharmonious elements were crippled by internal strife. The opposition encouraged these dissensions in various ways.

Roosevelt's Followers Alarmed. The handful of practical politicians who supported Mr. Roosevelt became alarmed and virtually dropped out of the fight. The loose talk of "the wild men" frightened them. They did not care to bolt their party. Since the convention adjourned Colonel Roosevelt is having a desperate time getting his followers to stick to him. Senators Dixon, Borah, Clapp and other well-known men of the Progressive camp prefer to remain in the old party and make another fight to get control there. Senator La Follette, the Wisconsin Progressive, is not on friendly terms with Mr. Roosevelt, politically, because he does not think that he got a square deal. He believes that Mr. Roosevelt should have supported him for the nomination for the presidency.

Ormsby McHarg, one of Colonel Roosevelt's chief lieutenants, has announced that he will not go with the Roosevelt people into a new party. He declared that "the wild men" were having too much to do with his friend.

Bryan Live Wire. William Jennings Bryan, thrice the Democratic candidate for the presidency, was the live wire of the Democratic convention. Having enough men to hold the balance of power, he made things lively for the anti-Bryan Democrats. Mr. Bryan did not appear as a candidate, but many of his former supporters believed all along that he wanted the nomination. Early, however, it was demonstrated that Mr. Bryan had a strong following in the convention, but not enough to dominate. The Southern delegates no longer love Mr. Bryan. They have had enough of him, their leaders say, and he set a bad precedent by bolting his party's candidate for governor two years ago.

Platform Conservative. Yet, Mr. Bryan, by the aid of his Western worshippers, made the convention conservative. The new platform, literally drawn by Mr. Bryan, meets the approval of conservative as well as radical Democrats. Mr. Bryan did not urge upon the platform committee any new doctrines. He was eager to write a platform upon which the party can win. The tariff plank recommends a tariff for revenue only. Mr. Bryan was satisfied with this recommendation without fixing specific duties or singling out any articles for the free list as in the case of lumber in the Denver platform four years ago.

"The platform, although it may not be as progressive as other Democratic platforms I have seen, is all right," said Mr. Bryan. "It is progressive and strong."

W. P. HARCOURT TELLS BALTIMORE ABOUT HAWAII

"No more Orientals of the laboring class are coming to Hawaii, and a good many of our white citizens who cultivate sugar estates are sorry that the faithful Chinese are barred under the law," said W. P. Harcourt, a sugar planter of the island of Kauai, one of the Hawaiian group, according to the Baltimore American. "They are our best workers, and before the exclusion policy was applied we could count on a certain regular influx of brawny Mongolians to toil in the cane fields."

"The Chinese now in Hawaii have been here for many years and most of them are getting to be old men. Not many of the Chinese have wives, but in former days not a few of them became husbands of native Kanaka women. It was a good cross, and so likewise the offspring of the Japanese and native women. In recent times, however, the Japanese have been in the habit of sending back to their own land for wives. In most cases I think the self-elected bridegrooms get their parents back in the flowery kingdom to pick out wives for them."

"The matter is finally arranged through the Japanese Consul, the man in the case putting up money for the passage of his intended spouse. The hour that she lands must also be the wedding hour, for the authorities will not allow the fair ones to remain unless claimed and formally mated according to some civil or religious ceremony that both parties consider binding."

"Every now and then a wireless message comes to my plantation which tells one of my young Japanese hired men that he may expect on the arrival of the next ship at Honolulu the girl who has been picked out as his wife. I do not think that in many cases the principals have ever laid eyes on each other. On receipt of the message the man gets permission to go to claim his wife, and pretty soon the pair are domesticated on the estate, and my understanding is they get on as happily as if they had been wedded in the conventional way of the Caucasians.

"Not long ago a ship from Yokohama arrived with 40 or 50 so-called picture brides. Every one of them had been chosen through photographs forwarded to Hawaii some time in advance of the arrival of the originals. Occasionally there is a pathetic case, as when not long ago a very pretty young Japanese maid was forced to take the next ship returning to her old home. Inspection showed that she had trachoma, and the rigid rule that ordered her deportation could not be waived."

LONGER SCHOOL AGE IS DESIRED

LONDON, England, June 20. — In the course of the conference of the National Association of Head Teachers, held at Stoke-on-Trent, a resolution was passed urging:

"That full-time attendance at school should be made obligatory by law up to 14 years of age, that a system of compulsory continuation classes should be established for young persons between 14 and 17 years of age who are not otherwise receiving a suitable education, that it should be the statutory duty of every employer of young persons under 17 years of age to afford facilities for the attendance of such young persons at continuation classes or similar educational institutions, and that a limitation of the hours of labor for such persons should be fixed by law."

CALIFORNIAN COMING FOR HILO INSTRUCTORSHIP

EXETER, Cal., June 27. — Recently Dr. Leroy Anderson of the State University was asked by the Hilo Boarding School of Hilo, Hawaii, to suggest someone for the position of academic teacher and instructor of agriculture in the school. Dr. Anderson recommended LaRue C. Watson of Farmersville, and then told Mr. Watson what he had done. The school has offered the position to Mr. Watson, he has accepted, and he and his wife expect to sail for the islands in August or September, after spending the summer with Mrs. Watson's mother in San Luis Obispo.

It is one of the original mission schools of the islands, and is a manual training school for boys. There are about ninety pupils, mostly natives, with some Orientals and other nationalities, but the teaching is all in English. The principal crops of the school farm are bananas, pineapples, taro, citrus and other fruits, vegetables, live stock and stock feed. Mr. Watson says that most of his friends when they hear of his plans first throw up their hands in horror at the prospect of his going so far away, but on second thought they become enthusiastic over the prospect.

DUKE'S WORK AT STOCKHOLM IS A PUZZLE

America the Winner, but Honolulu Waits Anxiously for Swimming News

United States	128
Sweden	104
Great Britain	66
Finland	46
Germany	24

With the above score of the five leading contestants, the sixth Olympic games closed at Stockholm yesterday. The victorious American team is scheduled to sail for home today, but whether the athletes will come direct, or whether they will return via Germany and England, giving exhibitions there, is not known here.

Honoluluans are puzzling over the exact status of Duke Kahalaumoku. Since the cable received here some days ago announcing that the 100-meter race had been "swum," there hasn't been a word of definite news as to the Island swimmer.

It looks as though there had been a mix-up in the cables, and that when the King of Sweden asked Duke to the royal box it was to congratulate him on having won the final of the 100-meter event. This sounds more reasonable, on its face, for surely such an important event as the swimming sprint would not have been left out of the Associated Press dispatches.

Also, it would seem that the 800-meter relay swimming race won by America last Friday must have been a qualifying heat, as the dispatches yesterday stated that America took second to Australia in this event. These points will be definitely decided until the mainland papers bring full accounts of the Stockholm sports.

Apparently the other countries came up with a rush, and America's final victory was much closer than was expected about the middle of the week, when the Stars and Stripes was flying from the stadium flagpole most of the time.

The final result of the Stockholm meeting makes the sixth straight win for America in the Olympic games. At Athens in 1896, Paris 1900, St. Louis 1904, Athens again 1906, London 1908, and finally at Stockholm this year, American athletes have proved themselves the best and most consistent performers in the world.

EDDIE PLANK IS MACK'S BEST PITCHER

The many disappointments his numerous pitchers are handing him this season makes the work of Eddie Plank look all the brighter to Connie Mack, wizard of the Athletics. The veteran of the squad and a player whom some of the critics have for several seasons been relegating to the "has been" class, Plank keeps right on delivering the goods in masterly style.

It was Plank who kept the Athletics out of last place all through the early weeks of the season last year, and again it is Plank who is doing most of the winning this year. His left hand crossfire is as deadly as of yore, and his painstaking methods in preparing for the baseball season leave no cause for such excuses as lack of control and overweight.

Plank knew what was coming and prepared to give his best efforts at a time when good work is most needed.

PUBLIC APPROVES POSTPONEMENT OF TENNIS MATCHES

No Conflict Now Between the Big Championship Events of Next Week—Hard Practice.

The decision of the committee in charge of the championship tennis tournament to call off play on the two days when it conflicted with the polo championships, is the best news that the sport-loving public of Honolulu has heard for some time. First class events of this sort come too few and far between here to make a choice between the two necessary, and tennis enthusiasts will be just as glad of the chance to see the polo, as the polo devotees will be to see the court stars in action. The tennis tournament will start as scheduled on Monday, July 22, but there will be no play on Wednesday or Saturday of next week, the only two conflicting dates.

Tennis men are hard at work getting a final polish on their games. Every afternoon there is a considerable showing at Beretania and Pacific, and there have been some hot practice matches of late.

About the fastest doubles seen to date were played yesterday afternoon at Beretania, when A. L. Castle and Alan Lowrey paired off against A. M. Nowell and Eugene Horner. These two teams will line up for championship honors in the same order, and while yesterday's game wasn't much more than a practice, in which the players took lots of chances that they would fight shy of in tournament play, it nevertheless gave the spectators a good run, and provided a line on form.

The Castle-Lowrey combination won 6-0, 4-6, 6-1, after some brilliant rallies. Horner is the champion of Hawaii, while Lowrey is captain-elect of the Harvard tennis team for 1913. The latter plays a hard-hitting, dashing style of game, delivering his second service as hard as his first. As a result he double faulted often yesterday, but probably in match play he will be a deal more careful on this point.

Miss Louise Phillips and Miss E. Phillips, two Chicago players who will play in the ladies' events, were out practicing yesterday afternoon, and showed good form.

The drawings in the singles will be made on Monday, Saturday, when the preliminary round games will be scheduled so as to divide up the early matches between the Pacific, Neighborhood and Beretania clubs.

AUTO STUNTS NEXT MONTH

- 10—Automobile race, ten miles.

TAKE FIRST VACATION IN THIRTY-NINE YEARS

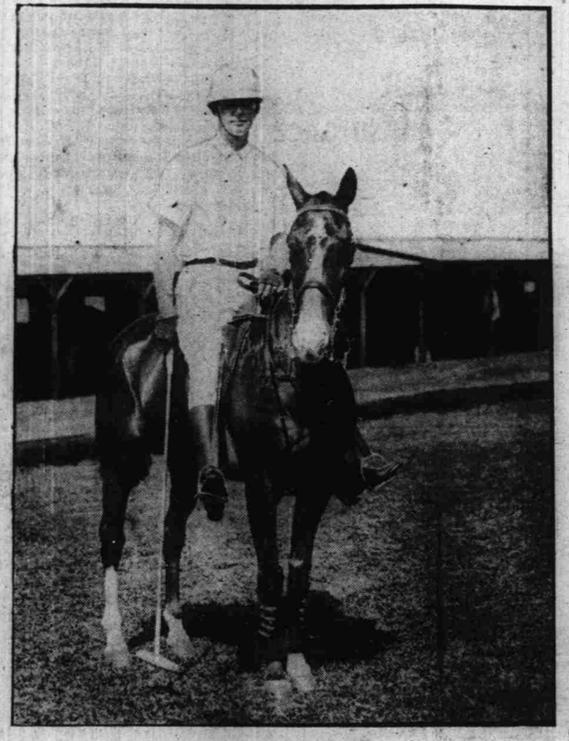

Rev. and Mrs. John C. Davison, for the past thirty-nine years Methodist Episcopal missionaries in Japan, left on the Shinyo Maru this morning en route to the mainland, where they will enjoy the first holiday they have had in thirty-nine years.

At the end of a year they will return to Japan and work for ten years at Kumamoto, their headquarters, a large city in the southern peninsula. Dr. Davison is district superintendent of the work there and, besides, has charge of twenty-five Methodist churches in the adjacent district.

While here Rev. and Mrs. Davison were the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Wadman at Manoa Valley.

Eddie Madison has started training for his August 3 date with Johnny McCarthy. It's to be hoped that matters pugilistic will go more smoothly than was the case last time.

Maui And Oahu Reds Are To Play A Practice Game

H. W. RICE, ON WAIALEALE

OAHU'S FIRST TEAM WILL NOT MOUNT AGAIN UNTIL THE INITIAL CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST

The four men who will carry the colors of Oahu in the coming inter-island polo championships are now practicing, and will not take the saddle again until they clash with Maui next Saturday afternoon, in the opening game of the series. Although the game is four days away, Captain Walter Dillingham feels that the rest will do both the men and the ponies a world of good, and that they will go into the match in better shape to put up a hard fight if they lay off for the last few days. The ponies will, of course, get the right amount of exercise, but there will be no chances of losing the best of the string through last-minute ill luck, such as cutting down a mount in practice.

The Maui team will be on hand tomorrow, and as the Valley Isle players must be given a chance to stretch their legs over their mounts before they start match play, a game is tentatively arranged for tomorrow afternoon against the Oahu seconds.

This should afford an interesting comparison between the play of the invaders and the Oahu firsts, for polo followers are familiar enough with the general form of the home team to be able to size up opposition against the Reds.

Only three of the Maui regulars will be available tomorrow, but they will requisition the services of some local man to fill in.

The Maui string of twenty ponies came in on the Likelike yesterday morning, and were taken right out to the Moanalua field. All stood the trip down in good shape, and the invaders are sure to be well mounted when the real test comes.

The Cavalry players have about completed hard work, their final practice being scheduled for this afternoon. The Fifth is better mounted than ever before, two new mounts, purchased on Kauai, having been added to the string within the last few days. The race between Lieutenants Sheridan and Millikin for No. 1 has ended in the former's favor, and he will swing a stick in the front line of the attack next Wednesday.

Harold W. Rice, Maui's No. 2, whose picture appears above, is prevented by business from arriving in Honolulu until the very last moment, being expected here Saturday morning. Rice has represented Maui in two former championships, and is considered one of the best players on the team. He is a very powerful hitter and a superb rider.

TOO MANY FREE RIDES TO FIRST

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Chief John Torges Meyers bears the unique distinction today of being the first Indian baseball player to have his position in the batting order changed, so as to prevent opposing pitchers from giving him too many bases on balls.

For three seasons now the big Indian has been allowed to pursue his hard-hitting way just above the pitcher. When McGraw first put him there he did not realize, perhaps, that Meyers was going to prove the most natural hitter in the league. When Brennan was with the Giants his hitting ability was responsible for his batting fourth. Sometimes he led off. But Meyers was getting along so well way down the list that McGraw decided to leave him there.

It so happened that the chief was frequently called upon to clean up the bases, and he made good so often that the opposing pitchers were forced to figure out a scheme to offset that terrible wallop. They did this by giving him a base on balls whenever there were runners on the sacks, preferring to take a chance on the pitcher, who is usually weak with the witlow.

Is Deliberately Walked.

In the first thirty games played this season Meyers was purposely walked no less than sixteen times. This gradually cut down his run-driving power, and then it was that McGraw began to figure. The result was that he moved the chief up a peg in the batting order and put a good hitter behind him. If the chief is given a base on balls now, the opposing pitcher will find a strong young batter like Fletcher or Grob ready to take up the work club and whoop.

Batters who are good "waiters" are frequently moved up to the head of the list so as to get as many bases on balls as possible, but the chief happens to be the first to be moved round to get away from it. So far the change has worked well, and Meyers can now go ahead and crack the ball just as hard as he pleases.

Changing positions of batters is a thing that McGraw rarely ever does. For two seasons he did not budge his batting order.

The amazement of the fans can be appreciated, therefore, when in the opening game at Brooklyn the Giant manager took one solid crack at the list of names and shuffled them up from top to bottom. With Devore and Doyle out, a food waiter had to lead off, and Snodgrass was elected to the job. Becker will now bat second, Murray or Herzog third and Merkle fourth or fifth.

LIBERTY TEAM HAS NOW ISSUED WHOLESALE DEFI

After severely trouncing two crack junior nines with decisive scores Sunday, one of them the champions of the Plantation League, the Liberty players come out with a challenge to any junior baseball team in the Islands. Manager Bly of the Libertys says there are no exceptions to this challenge.

The Luzons, the Filipino team that has swept everything before it, in playing other teams in the Plantation League, were the first to go down to defeat Sunday, the score at the conclusion reading Libertys 16, Luzons 2.

Following this game another was played with the C. Y. team, a collection of young Chinese players who fared somewhat better than the Filipinos but were nevertheless defeated, the score being 5 to 2.

Now the Libertys want to play any junior team in the Islands.

LARIMER DEFEATS CROSS AT TENNIS

Morning Match in "Y" Tournament Brings Out Some Fair Play

A. E. Larimer won from R. M. Cross this morning in a hard-fought tennis match played on the Y. M. C. A. courts at Hotel and Richards streets, in the first round of the "Y" tournament which started yesterday. The match went to Larimer in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3, the second being by far the best from a tennis standpoint. In the opening session both men played overcarefully, the result being some tedious pull. In the second both let out a wrap, and sent the balls spinning over the net to good effect.

Baldwin and Nelson had a long-winded argument yesterday evening that had to be called on account of darkness. The former took the opening set 6-4, but Nelson came right back and annexed the second 6-3. The third was very even, the games falling first on one side of the net and then on the other, until they reached 7-all. It was then too dark to see the balls, and the match was postponed. It will be finished tomorrow afternoon at 4:30.

In the only other match played to date, C. Hoogs beat Dr. Scudder 6-0, 6-2.

This afternoon at 4:30 Rietow plays Johnston, and at 5:15 Dodge and Redington will hook up. Edgecomb finds it impossible to get into town and has defaulted to Jack Guard.

SAWED OFF SHORT

Opening play in the handball tournament for employed boys of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday resulted as follows:

Arthur Nelson beat Cecil Boney, 21-12, 21-4; Jose de Coito won from Chris. Benny, 21-4, 21-9; L. Souza and Antonio Nunes broke even, the time limit putting off the rubber. Nunes, 21-17; Souza, 21-11.

Cabrel, the fast young pitcher of the Standard, distinguished himself last Sunday by striking out 15 of the opposition in the game between the Standards and the Kewala Giants. The final score was 11 to 4 in favor of the former. Chan, the losing twirler, accounted for six by the strike-out route.

The Stars are plotting revenge for next Sunday, and some of the threatening looks and mysterious plottings would do credit to the Mafia. The J. A. C.'s are all sporting the sort of smile that won't come off, and telling anyone who will listen that they can turn the same trick next Sunday. If the Stars do win the next game watch for a reversed situation next Sunday.

ANSWERS

Sporting Editor, Honolulu Star-Bulletin, Sir:

Will you kindly settle a discussion regarding an incident during the progress of a ball game. The gist of the argument is:—

A player is on second base, and another is on third. A double steal is attempted, but the player who left third is unable to reach the plate. An attempt is made to throw him out, but during the exchange of the ball in said attempt the player from second runs down and touches third. There is a fumble and the player gets safely back to third, and the player who ran from second gets safely back to his original base.

A says the player that occupied third base originally is out for the reason that the player running from second and touching third forced him.

B claims that neither player was out, because it was not a force and it would have been necessary to touch either player with the ball.

C argues that after the player who ran from second touched third, all that was necessary was for the catcher to touch home plate and the player who tried to steal home would be out.

PLANTATION FAN.

B is right. A and C are both wrong. No player can be forced from the base to which he is entitled except by the batter.

DR. MORRISON TO RETIRE.

PEKING, China, June 21.—Dr. G. E. Morrison, Peking correspondent of the Times, leaves for Japan early in July. It is understood that he is retiring from journalism and that David Fraser succeeds him.

Dr. Morrison returns to Peking in September, and then proceeds to Australia, where magnificent political chances await a man of his splendid experience and knowledge of foreign politics and profound ability. He will probably sell his celebrated and unique library, which is valued at $200,000, before his departure.

THE SPORTING EDITOR SAYS, SEZ-ZE, ABOUT AS FOLLOWS:

ABLE dispatches received here, announcing the win of Kenneth McArthur in the Olympic marathon were misleading, in that they gave the impression that the South African was a rank outsider, not conceding a chance by even his own countrymen. As a matter of fact, just the reverse was the case, and form students expected to see the lanky Transvaal policeman finish very near the head of the column.

McArthur has an unbeaten record in the five principal Marathon races held in Transvaal, Natal and Cape Colony during the past four years, and within the same period has established two separate records for the distance. His best Marathon time is (26 miles 385 yards) 2 hours 42 minutes 58 1-5 seconds.

The state of the South African roads makes this much better than it reads on paper, and McArthur is possibly the best Marathon runner, amateur or professional, in the empire of Great Britain.

From the cable accounts it would seem that McArthur came very near duplicating the unfortunate performance of Dorando Pietri, who, in the last international marathon race, willed with victory in sight, and was disqualified thanks to the over-zealous English judges, who tried to beat the American out by yanking the Italian over the line. The dispatches say that McArthur reached the finish, and then fainted, being caught as he fell over the line. It's a safe bet, though, that his friends saw to it that no one lent him a helping hand before the finishing post was reached, for the D. Hayes controversy must still be fresh in the minds of all athletes when matters marathon are mentioned.

McArthur's time, 2 hours, 36 minutes is nearly 20 minutes faster than Hayes' mark in London, but the Marathon race has varied in length at the different Olympic games, from 26 miles at Athens in 1896 to 26 miles, 385 yards in England four years ago. This year the distance was 40,200 meters, which figures about 25.59 miles. This is the fastest Olympic marathon to date.

Americans as a rule, have a lot to disregard for the statistics of foreign athletes. That is, the stay-at-home Americans have. Those who have actually competed against the best foreign talent, or witnessed competitions, have no such illusions.

The idea seems to prevail in some circles that we have the only real athletes in the world, and certainly the point score of the Stockholm meet to date indicates that we have about the best men, but this does not necessarily mean that German athletes come into the stadium chewing bologna sausage, or that the Russian shot putter practices with a bomb. Sweden has turned out a fine bunch of track and field men for her own games, and certainly South Africa has made good with first and second place in the greatest events of the entire Olympic program, the marathon.

Barney Joy pitched exactly 31 balls in eight innings of that sensational championship baseball game at Athletic Park Sunday afternoon, and in the disastrous inning, when he blew up, he pitched only fourteen balls. The number of balls he threw in the first inning was not counted, but it is safe to say that it was not more than nine or ten, making his total for the game about 100.

This is "some pitching." Hugh S. Philbert, probably the best-informed baseball writer in America, in the last issue of the American Magazine, says that the fewest number of pitched balls he ever counted in a game was 83, thrown by Ed Walsh the famous old Chicago twirler. One of the greatest number of pitched balls in a major league game, he says, was thrown by George "Babe" Wadsworth, the great eccentric pitcher formerly with the Philadelphia Athletics, who threw 211 balls, before himself pitched and lost the game.

Here is the number of Barney's pitches per inning: second, 6, third, 10; fourth, 6; fifth, 18; sixth, 15; seventh, 12; eighth, 10, and ninth, 14.

RACE FOR 2ND IN NATIONAL

While there are still some of the National League managers and owners who believe that their teams are going to pass the Giants in the race for the championship pennant of 1912, the general followers of the sport are conceding the right to represent that league in the world's championship series next October is already assured to the Giants. Their present lead is certainly very impressive and the only team that has so far been able to give them a serious argument is Pittsburg.

The race for second position is just now the most interesting feature of the series. Pittsburg and Chicago are having a great battle for the honors and neither one seems to be able to get a very substantial lead over the other. The teams are fairly well matched although Pittsburg looks, at long range, to be rather stronger, especially in the batting department of the game, and most of the followers of the older league expect to see Manager Clarke's men finishing the season in second place.

UNION CHURCH MEETINGS WILL BE HELD AT BIJOU

A series of church meetings will be held here for six weeks, beginning the first Sunday in August, in which, at the suggestion of the church federation, all the churches will join. These meetings, which will be held in the Bijou Theater, are to be conducted by the Rev. Frank Lincoln Goodspeed, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Oakland, Cal., who is to arrive in Honolulu on July 31.

During the same time, Dr. Doremus Scudder of the Central Union church will occupy the Oakland pulpit for a period of five Sundays. Rev. A. A. Ebersole will return next week from his vacation and will be at Tantalus, although he intends to assist at the union Sunday evening services.

WELL DRILLING.

Investigation of the fact that most of the deep drill holes for wells in South Africa deviate from the perpendicular, generally toward the north, has led to the conclusion that the drills with which they were made were influenced by magnetism.

AMERICAN GOLF CRACKS SUFFER

How much the mental side enters into the game of golf, particularly as applied to championships, must be a question which the events of the last few weeks abroad have caused many enthusiasts here seriously to consider.

Following closely upon the heels of Frederick Herreshoff's failure in the British amateur championship comes the fact that "Jack" McDermott, the native-born American who so cleverly won the United States title a year ago, failed miserably in the big open championship event overseas.

With a score of 91 in the first qualifying round, McDermott's chances of lowering the colors of the leading English and Scottish professionals vanished into thin air. He did better at the second attempt, getting well down in the 80's, but even so, the aggregate was sufficient to cause his permanent retirement from the tournament.

To McDermott the failure, even to qualify, is doubtless a hard blow, but he can take heart of grace from the fact that "Willie" Anderson, the greatest golfer this country has ever seen, once found himself in exactly the same position.

RAPID TYPISTS GIVE SPEED EXHIBITION

Humboldt Evening High School Pupils Show Skill.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—The pupils of the commercial department of the Humboldt Evening High School gave an exhibit before members of the Board of Education and thousands of visitors last night in the auditorium of the Mission High School.

Pupils of the typing department, under Mr. Daly, showed up to remarkable advantage, writing 100 words on technical matter on the machine with six errors, which were penalized for at the rate of five words for each, bringing down the net to seventy-nine words a minute. This test was performed by Miss Cassatas.

Walter O'Connor wrote the machine from a shorthand notes at eighty-five words in fifty seconds without mistake. R. H. Webster dictated a very difficult passage to Miss Cassatas to prove no collusion had been resorted to, and she transcribed direct on the machine at the rate of eighty-five words a minute net. Other typing pupils were put through their paces and showed the results of hard study under competent teachers.

The shorthand test by pupils from the class of Walter E. Treits, the well-known shorthand expert, wrote 163 words from unfamiliar matter taken in the Superior Court on the morning of the test. This work was re-read from the actual notes at high rate of speed by six pupils.

R. H. Webster congratulated the teachers and Mr. Taafe, the principal of the school, on their output, and said:

"I have been connected with various educational institutions and the School Department as Superintendent of Schools and Assistant Superintendent of Schools for many years, but have never seen more remarkable work. Mr. Taafe is to be congratulated."

GIRL'S INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL BUILDINGS NEAR COMPLETION

The Girl's Industrial School at Moiliili will be ready for occupancy by September 1, according to Educational Superintendent Pope. The buildings for the school are about completed and advertisements have been inserted in the daily papers asking for tenders for the iron fence that is to surround the school.

There are six buildings which will be enclosed by the fence; the three main buildings will be occupied by dormitories and school-rooms and three buildings which will be used for kitchen, dining-room, and janitor's quarters respectively.

Superintendent Pope's report for the fiscal year 1911-12 will be completed by the end of this week and will be presented to the Governor by Friday if Maui and Hawaii are not dilatory in forwarding their supervising principals' reports.

Kamali's report has already been forwarded to the superintendent of the department of education and shows a remarkable increase of the Spring enrollment over the figures showing the autumnal attendance, there being five hundred more pupils enrolled for the Spring term than for the Fall.

Oahu shows remarkable increase in some districts while in others there is a decrease. There is a decrease in the case of Honolulu, which Superintendent Pope explains is due to the number of graduates from the schools.

WOULD YOU WED IN HONGKONG? PERUSE U. S. CONSUL'S WARNING

It Takes Fifteen Days' Notice, Clear Weather, and Letter of Recommendation, and It Stays Cloudy for Days at a Time, He Says.

It takes fifteen days' clear weather notice, and one Hongkong dollar to get married in Hongkong, or $50 of Hongkong currency and no notice at all in case of cloudy weather. Prospective brides from the mainland or Honolulu journeying to meet prospective bridegrooms in Hongkong may well attend to this warning which emanates from Consul General Anderson at Hongkong for the benefit of those who do not know of the funny little laws which hedge the sacred rites of matrimony about in that zesty island city.

The consul general also begs all prospective bridegroom to equip themselves with proper credentials to show that their visit to Hongkong is not for the purpose of acquiring an extra wife.

The reason for the consular warning is this: The law of Hongkong requires that the names of the happy intending parties shall be posted on the door of the town hall, or some such edifice, for 15 days prior to the ceremony.

One Dollar Enough.

After a 15-day exposure to the gaze of men, women and children, license to wed may be had at the ridiculously low figure of one Hongkong dollar--if fair weather prevails. The law specifically stipulates that the notice shall be posted for 15 "clear" days. One cloudy or rainy day postpones the nuptials. Some statistics show that Hongkong often labors under a cloud for days and days on end, from which it must be taken that the rainy season is a poor one for matrimony.

Break Law for $50.

To get away from the 15-day provision, the bridegroom may cough up 50 Hongkong dollars, which knocks the law into smithereens and permits the authorities to issue a special permit for the happy couple to marry en seguida. This contingency is what brings the letter from the Consul General for upon him devolves in such cases, to vouch for the bridegroom.

Clear weather or no clear weather, before going to Hongkong equip yourself with all necessary documents to

SAYS COLLEGE GRADS. SLAY MOTHER TONGUE

Chicago Employer Declares They Violate Rules of Grammar

CHICAGO, June 25.—"I ain't got no time."

"I don't make no difference, no how."

"I can't think Mr. Blank has come down yet."

The foregoing and a hundred or so other equally glaring grammatical errors, made by his employees, who have had college or university educations, have led one Chicago employer to make the remark that some who have had the advantages of higher education are "the poorest grammarians on earth."

He has no fault to find with their ability to grasp business situations; he finds no fault with their mathematical attainments, but he does say that they "murder" their English.

"I heard one clerk ask another—a college graduate—to help him with the adding machine," said the employer the other day.

"I ain't got no time," was the college man's response.

"I ain't got no" is a common mistake.

take. I have heard hundreds of people make it, but some of the twists that the college men put to the English language are astonishing. Not long ago I had occasion to wish to see our advertising manager. I looked in at his office, but he was not at his desk.

"Has Mr. Blank come in this morning?" I asked one of his assistants who graduated last June from a State university.

"No sir" replied the assistant. "I don't think he has come down yet, if he has I haven't saw him."

"Can you beat that? You see I don't mind a little slang myself, once in a while, but I do hate to hear our mother tongue abused the way that clerk abuses it. The man who made this glaring error is a graduate of the literary department of his university, too. That's the strange part about it. He writes advertisements, and writes them well. He makes no errors in his writing, but in his conversation—phew! He slaughters the language."

To prove the truth of his assertions, Mr. Employer pushed one of the pearl buttons on his desk. An office boy appeared.

"Tell Mr. — to step here a moment."

The clerk entered. He was a well dressed, highly intelligent looking young fellow, with all the earmarks of the man who has been out of college about a year.

"Get me a copy of your contract, with Blank & Co.," his employer said. "The moment the young fellow returned."

"We ain't got a contract with Blank & Co.," he declared.

"Are you sure?"

"Yes, sir. There ain't none in the file, sir."

"What do you think of that?" laughed the employer when the clerk had left the office. "He has a diploma from the literary department of his State university. He is a bright fellow, too, but he is certainly a poor grammarian."

Here are some of the common mistakes made by the college men, according to this employer.

"John took he and I to a show."

"Him and me went to lunch together."

"Was you the fellow I seen at the ball game yesterday?"

"Evers throwed it to Tinker and Tinker throwed it to Chance."

"I want it understood, however," the employer concluded, "that I am not criticizing college men as a class. I'm only giving some personal observations concerning some of those whom I have employed. As I have said, they are capable fellows, most of them, and they do their work well, but some of them are certainly villainous when it comes to using correct English."

We again remark as we have often remarked before that plenty of work at reasonably good wages, and high prices beats little work at poor wages and low prices. Every workingman knows that to be true. ## ROOT UPHOLDS CANAL PROTEST

WASHINGTON, July 15.—That Great Britain is perfectly right in protesting against the proposed Panama Canal legislation, which would discriminate against ships of all other nations than our own, is the stand taken here by Senators Root and Burton, who are waging a desperate fight against the measure and in support of the British protest against it.
Both Burton and Root take the attitude that inasmuch as Great Britain surrendered certain very important treaty rights which she had secured under the terms of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, in order to secure the promise of the United States that there would be no discrimination against foreign ships in the Panama Canal traffic, that to go back upon the nation's word now would be criminal.
Senator Root in an address made in the senate today, declared that unless Congress would do the righteous thing the matter would have to go to the Hague Tribunal for arbitration.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE HEAD IS NAMED

CHICAGO, Illinois, July 15.—W. F. McCombs, who opened the campaign for Governor Wilson last spring, was today selected as the head of the Democratic National Committee in place of Norman Mack. He is a Chicago man. Joseph E. Davies, of Wisconsin was named secretary of the committee.

CLOUDBURST DAMAGE NOW FOUR MILLIONS

DENVER, Colorado, July 15.—The total damage done by the cloudburst which struck Denver today is now estimated at more than four million dollars and may prove still larger. At present there are believed to be more than three thousand homeless in the city and the suffering of many of them is severe. The number of injured from falling beams and houses is reported large. The hospitals are overcrowded.

TEDDY'S BATTLECRY "NO COMPROMISE."

WASHINGTON STATE MILITIA MAKES TOP SCORE

SEATTLE, Washington, July 15.—The official announcement of the target scores made by the Washington State naval militia at the recent target practice was made today. The local militia rolled up 55 consecutive hits with the four-inch guns and 45 with the three pounders. This constitutes a world's record.

NO THIRD PARTY ASSERT WASHINGTON PROGRESSIVES

They asserted that they are willing and anxious to fight Taft, but they believe in fighting him within the party and will concentrate their efforts towards securing the electoral vote of the State for Roosevelt.

THAW FIGHTING FOR FREEDOM

Millionaire Matches Wits With William T. Jerome

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 27.—While Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, wife on the slayer of Stanford White, sat in Judge Keogh's courtroom with her gaze intent on the face of her husband, Harry K. Thaw, as a witness for himself, continued here the fight which he is making to secure his release from the Matteawan insane asylum.

The hearings so far have been characterized by sharp verbal tilts between Thaw and the State's counsel, William T. Jerome, who is conducting the cross-examination of Thaw with a view to establishing his lack of mental balance. Thaw kept his temper throughout the proceedings, but gave some evidence of fatigue before the session was over. His answers were for the most part clear and direct, and several times he rapped the prosecutor with evident relish.

At one time, attempting to question Jerome's motives, he said, "Mr. Jerome, I have been told that when you sent Abe Humel up the river the mantle of Abe Humel fell upon the shoulders of William Travers Jerome."
Jerome used every device of a skilled cross-examiner to confuse Thaw, and was met with almost continual objection on the part of Thaw's lawyer, Clarence J. Shearn, and an increasing, though well concealed, irritation on Thaw's part.

Judge Keogh declined to sustain the objections made by Shearn to some of Jerome's questions, on the ground that they were flagging the witness. Toward the close of the session it was evident that Thaw was fighting for time to avoid giving any evidence of the brain fog which proved fatal to his chances of gaining release at his previous attempts.

THE TONIC FOR THIN BLOOD

Every Dose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Makes New Blood and Means Renewed Health And Strength.

People who are pale, languid, with slight palpitation of the heart, some difficulty in breathing and a tendency to fatigue are suffering from thin blood. They need only the resolution to take the right treatment and stick to it until cured. The remedy that can be relied upon is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. With every dose they make new blood and new blood means health and strength. They stop further progress of the disease and their success as a blood-builder can be plainly seen after a short trial. Their cheeks, good appetite, increased weight and strength, cheerful disposition and relief from the symptoms, all declare the general improvement in health. It is pure blood now that is traveling everywhere through the body and the benefit goes on until health is restored.

Mr. William A. Newman, of Sagadahoc, Camden county, Mo., suffered from thin and disordered blood as a result of an attack of the grip. He says: "My head ached continually and was filled with hissing and roaring sounds that were fearfully annoying. My heart fluttered and had regular running-away spells. My stomach was so sore that I could hardly bear a touch on that part of my body. I had a great deal of pain in the region of my liver and the doctor said that organ was enlarged. My head and my back ached dreadfully, but hard as it was to stand it I wouldn't give up entirely. I dragged myself about, kept growing worse and finally ran down to almost nothing. First I tried a doctor, but he did me no good. Then I took all kinds of advertised preparations but nothing proved helpful until I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As soon as I got them I knew that I had at last hit upon the right remedy for my case. The very first box did more for me than anything else I had ever taken. I wish I had heard of them long before for they would have saved me money and suffering."

The remedy which gave Mr. Newman complete health can be obtained at any drug store or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50.

NEARING END IN PANAMA

Will Raise Additional Large Sum to Finish Big Ditch

Aside from the circumstances that have led the House committee on appropriations to cut the Panama canal construction allowance in the sundry civil appropriation bill by the smart sum of $16,500,000, there are other and unmistakable indications that the end of the main construction is drawing near in the Panama Canal Zone, says the Christian Science Monitor editorially.

From the official reports it appears that approximately 45,000 names of workers on the isthmus appeared on the payrolls of the canal commission and Panama railway in June, 1911. About 5000 of these were Americans. In the latter part of the following month, or on July 26, 1911, there were actually at work 36,821 men, 27,740 on the canal proper, the remainder on the Panama railway.

Since then reports of dismissals from both branches of the force have been reaching this country. Representative Pace of North Carolina, in explaining the cut in appropriations referred to, and defending the appropriations committee for making it, stated the other day upon appearance high authority that within the last six months many canal employees had been discharged, and that the force retained had developed "an efficiency beyond the expectations of even the most sanguine."

It is not surprising, therefore, that the chief engineer, who has greatly reduced the time of construction, has also greatly reduced the cost. It is beginning to look now as if the expenditures would fall considerably below the estimate, for with completion of the heavy work of construction drawing closer daily, there is still a margin of a round $100,000,000 to the credit of the undertaking. Secretary MacVeagh, evidently, does not believe that any such amount will be needed to carry the work through.

5500 Copies Was the Press Run on Saturday, July 13, of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin Of this number there were ninety-eight copies left over for office sales, files and copies for the office staff. We are getting settled down to a bed-rock basis of circulation. The duplications of subscribers to the two former evening papers are practically eliminated, and the circulation of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin is holding to a figure far above the original guarantee. A circulation of Five Thousand or more, and an advertising rate of Fifteen Cents an Inch is an offering of value to advertisers that cannot be equaled for value in any other city of the United States. It is proof that the Honolulu Star-Bulletin is giving the best advertising medium with the lowest relative rate per inch. Everyone admits we supply the people with the best news medium Hawaii has ever known. The good work will be continued. Do not forget that the circulation books of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin are open to any business man who wishes to know what value he is getting.
