PRICE FIVE CENTS

WAY TO PEACE POINTED BY DR. ELIOT

WORLD-TOUR SUCCESS PEACE IS PROMOTED

Harvard's Distinguished President Emeritus In Hawaii with Conclusions Reached—"Exempt Private Property From War Seizure"

"The chief contributory cause to world peace would be the adoption by the nations of the policy advocated by the United States for more than a hundred years; that of exemption from seizure of private property on the high seas in time of war. If universally adopted it would be a long step toward disarmament."

Standing on the deck of the Siberia as she nosed her way through the channel this morning, Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard, trustee of the Carnegie Peace Foundation, and emissary of education and international intercourse under the sweeping plan of world-wide amity projected by the Peace Fund, summed up the observations of a globe-girdling trip in the above sentence.

"There is no disposition toward disarmament among the nations of the Far East at present," continued Dr. Eliot. "The campaign of peace must be a campaign of education, and it will take time to work out the many complicated problems. There should be a fuller submission of all international disputes to The Hague Tribunal.

"As regards the exemption from seizure of private property on the high seas, it is easy to see how this would reduce the armament of the nations. Why does England maintain a navy of such enormous proportions? Simply because she is dependent on the outside world for all her foodstuffs and raw material, and must defend this supply in case of war with a strong navy. Japan is in much the same position as England as to this source of supply. Exemption from seizure would have to be reached by a binding international agreement that would be enforced by all the nations in case of war between any two or more."

The Peace Foundation.

Dr. Eliot is the first of the men of note to be chosen as peace emissaries to the world under the plans of the Carnegie Peace Foundation of $10,000,000. The foundation is divided into three main branches, each with a definite sphere of activity toward the common end. The first section is for the study and possible improvement and modification of international law; the second for the study of the economics of war, as applied to the civilized world; the third is to promote education and international intercourse. It is this third arm of the service of peace that Dr. Eliot is attached to, and since November 7 last he has been on a world tour investigating conditions and paving the way for better understanding and better friendship between the nations.

It is to the Far East that Dr. Eliot has looked for results on the present trip. Three months in Ceylon, and the rest of the time in China and Japan, have given him a clear insight into social and economic conditions of these countries, calculated to make his observations of lasting value to the cause which he represents.

"The wars of conquest are over," said Dr. Eliot. "It is wars over international differences of opinion that are

PROGRESSIVES LAUNCH NEW PARTY IN HAWAII

Fourteen Attend Meeting — Atkinson Goes to Chicago — A Declaration of Faith Is Adopted.

The progressive party of Hawaii was formally launched today when Honolulu men held a meeting at noon at the offices of A. L. C. Atkinson and adopted a "declaration of faith" to be announced to the voters and residents generally of the territory.

George P. Thielien just saved the new movement from being launchee with thirteen members. He came in late and stopped the hoodoo. Those present were:

Former Governor George R. Carter, A. L. C. Atkinson, Prof. H. M. Ballou,

C. G. Helzer, George P. Thielien, C. J. Falk, Prof. Taggart of the College of Hawaii, Apawi Manuwai, J. F. Bowler, Arthur Mackintosh, M. L. Heen, C. F. Peterson, Edward L. Kauai, and David Kaluaokalani, Sr. Mr. Carter as chairman of the provisional committee of five was chairman and Prof. Ballou secretary.

No change of importance was made in the progressive principles as drawn up and read to the meeting. They were taken up section by section and approved.

The meeting decided that A. L. C. Atkinson should go to Chicago to secure representation, if possible, for Hawaii in the Progressive convention in August. Atkinson leaves on the Siberia this afternoon.

The progressives will go ahead with organization work, drawing up party rules and outlining a skeleton plan of formation.

The statement embodying the progressive principles as adopted today was stated by Chairman Carter as not embodying all of them. Some matters have been talked over, but not yet agreed upon. As adopted today, the statement says:

The Provisional Committee beg to report that they met under instruction and concluded to proceed to advance the interest of a Progressive party by an attempt to secure representation for Hawaii in the Chicago convention and in the newly organized National Committee. With this in view the treasurer was instructed to secure the necessary funds, and the chairman to communicate with Progressives throughout the Islands.

CRITICAL POINT IN GREAT POLO BATTLE

This picture was taken during the third period of the polo game last Saturday, which was eventually won by Oahu 8 to 7 3/4. The score, as shown by the board in the background, was 4 to 3 in favor of the invaders, when the camera was snapped, and Oahu was defending the Makai goal. The action shows a hot scrimmage near the home goal line, with both sides making a desperate attempt to get possession of the ball. On the extreme left of the picture is Harold Rice, the Maui No. 2. Next is David Fleming, Maui back, who is trying to get in a backhander toward the goal posts, and is being ridden off by Sam Baldwin, Oahu's No. 1. Frank Baldwin is waiting just behind the scrimmagers, ready to jump toward the ball, which ever way it is knocked. On the right are Harold Castle and Arthur Collins (in helmet) in full gallop after the flying sphere. This picture is one of a remarkable series made last Saturday by A. R. Gurrey, Jr.

FISHER FAVORS FREAR BUT OPEN TO CONVICTION, HE SAYS

Secretary Will Leave for Hawaii the Moment Congress Adjourns—Will Consult Governor and Delegate Kalaniana'ole on Arrival.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

By C. S. ALBERT.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—"I will leave for Honolulu the minute Congress adjourns. I will make an investigation of land conditions and other matters in accordance with the instructions given by the President. I am much interested in pending legislation of importance to my department and can not go to Hawaii until the present session of Congress ends."

Such was the statement made to the Star-Bulletin correspondent by Secretary Fisher, who was some months ago detailed by President Taft as a special commissioner to investigate the administration of Governor Frear and report regarding the expediency of his reappointment for another term. He insists that the inquiry will be made as originally planned. He will consult after reaching Hawaii with Governor Frear and Delegate Kalaniana'ole, seeking to sift the divergent opinions entertained by each.

It is known that Secretary Fisher favors the renaming of Governor Frear, but declares he is open to conviction.

PACHECO, BACK FROM BALTIMORE, TELLS HOW SUGAR FIGHT WAS WON

Democratic Delegate Gives Inside History of Clever Victory for Hawaii

M. C. Pacheco, delegate from Hawaii to the Democratic national convention at Baltimore, arrived home today on the Oceanic liner Sierra.

How the Hawaiian delegation waged a winning fight against the adoption of a free-sugar plank in the party platform is told by Mr. Pacheco from the interesting point of view of an "insider," for he was a member of the committee on rules. He comes back declaring, like a good Democrat, that Hawaii ought to vote the local Democratic ticket, and is pulling hard for L. L. McCandless.

In speaking this morning of his trip, Mr. Pacheco said: "I have traveled considerably since I left Honolulu on June 12. I visited Chicago, Baltimore, Washington, New York, Coney Island, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Kansas City, Mo., and Salt Lake City, but I am glad to be back home.

"The Hawaiian delegates to the Democratic national convention have done their full duty towards the Territory of Hawaii in preventing a free sugar plank from being inserted in the Democratic national platform. It is now up to the voters of the Territory to perform their duty in protecting our chief industry by voting for the Democratic nominee for Delegate, to Congress—L. L. McCandless.

"There is not the least doubt in my mind that Woodrow Wilson will be elected to the presidency of the United States next November. It is also a certainty that the next Congress will have a Democratic majority in both House and Senate. Under these circumstances, it is the duty of the Hawaiian electorate to support the man who is compromised to a reasonable protection on sugar, not only because he is in duty bound to defend any sudden attempt to entirely eliminate the tariff on sugar, but because he will be in harmony with the administration and the majority in Congress.

"It was only by the wisest discretion and diplomacy that we succeeded in preventing a free sugar plank from the Democratic national platform. With Champ Clark in favor of free sugar, and Bill James, the permanent chairman of the convention, also outspoken in its favor, it took careful maneuvering to combat these powerful influences. Mr. Harry Irwin, as a member of the platform committee, worked like a Trojan to keep out the free sugar plank. As a member of the committee on rules I worked for a change in the order of business which appealed to

ADMIRAL STANFORD HERE TO INSPECT PEARL HARBOR WORK

Chief of Bureau of Yards and Docks Declares Plans for Extension of Drydock Will Be at Standstill Until Congress Appropriates Money for Improvements.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

That further plans for the extension of the Pearl Harbor drydock will be at a standstill until Congress appropriates money for the improvements, and that up to the present time the naval appropriation bill is indefinite, is the news brought by Rear Admiral Homer Stanford, chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, who arrived on the Sierra this morning.

Admiral Stanford's visit to Honolulu at this time is considered extremely significant, in view of the importance of the Pearl Harbor work to the broad defensive scheme of Hawaii. He will thoroughly familiarize himself with the conditions here, so as to understand the problems that find their way back to Washington from time to time, and his coming is thought to mean much for the progress and success of the new naval base that is intended to be the key to the Pacific.

No Money Available. "I received a cable this morning stating that the appropriation bill was still in conference," said Admiral Stanford to a Star-Bulletin reporter. "Until the question of finances is settled we will take no action toward determining the compensation for the contractors for the drydock extension or for the changes in specifications.

SPLIT SEEN ON SUGAR VOTE

Progressive Democrats in Senate and House Democrats Are Apart

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—It is believed that a substitute for the Democratic free sugar bill will be passed next Saturday by the Senate. The Progressive Democrats among the Senators have agreed to support a rate of 1.72 cents on refined sugar, abolishing the differential and the Dutch standard. It is said that the House will not accept this plan.

PROPOSED CUT DOESN'T WORRY SUGARMEN

The present duty on refined sugar is 1.90c a pound, or $38 a ton, so that the Democratic proposal of 1.72c means a reduction of only 9.50 a ton. Sugar men in Honolulu say that this will cut but little ice, and they presume that the duty on raw will be made the same as refined in the Democratic schedule.

DUKE GETS NEW RECORD

HAMBURG, Ger., July 22.—Duke Kahanamoku Jr. of Honolulu, winner of the world's 100-meter swimming championship at the Olympic games, today set a new record for the distance in a meet here in which many prominent Olympic athletes engaged. Kahanamoku swam the 100 meters in one minute and one-fifth of a second, breaking his own world's record of one minute two and two-fifths seconds set at Stockholm in a heat of the championship race.

FILIPINOS AND CHINESE DO BATTLE ON SIBERIA'S DECKS

Five hundred Oriental steerage passengers, who swarmed the lower decks of the Pacific Mail liner Siberia, were involved in a battle, early last evening, which, before the disturbance was quelled through the cool-headed action of the little band of American officers resulted in several bruised heads and bodies, and at the same time created all kinds of excitement for the small list of cabin passengers.

Philippines, to the number of nearly two hundred, enroute from the Philippines to the sugar estates of Hawaii are characterized by officers in the Siberia as the direct cause of the trouble that served to spread the riot call to all portions of the ship, as the vessel neared the Hawaiian Islands.

Despite all efforts towards maintaining a segregation of Filipinos and other Asiatic races, the little brown brothers are charged with having disobeyed the regulations, and found their way into the portion of the steamer reserved for the Chinese and Japanese. It was not long before a free fight was in progress. The efforts of the officers were directed towards disarming the Filipinos of the long, murderous fan knife, generally found in the possession of every native in the Philippines.

Blows rained, and for a time it is declared that it looked as if much blood would be shed before the disturbance was quieted down. The trouble is said to have started over a very trivial matter. The Siberia while carrying a small list of cabin passengers, left Yokohama with almost a record number of steerage travelers, 350 of whom left the liner at Honolulu.

The steerage passengers for this port included 2 Koreans, 29 Russians, 105 Japanese, 13 Chinese, and 181 Filipinos.

Cabin passengers for this port numbered 9, with 10 in the second class. The through list includes 33 cabin, 30 second class and 325 Asiatics.

Captain Zoeder reported a fine trip across the big pond, the time being nine days and ten hours from Yokohama to Honolulu.

Purser Mose Hunt reports 382 tons general Oriental cargo for Honolulu, the consignment including shipments of mutton, wine, Japanese, and Chinese provisions, miso, silk, a total of 5407 packages.

The Siberia is carrying six thousand tons through freight, and it is considered a very valuable cargo, with extensive shipments of silk and tea.

The liner was diverted to Keelung, Formosa, on the voyage, where much tea was placed aboard for the mainland.

Considerable cholera was found at the Formosan port, and before the vessel reached Yokohama, two Filipinos were sent ashore for hospital treatment.

An Oriental mail of 38 bags was received. The Siberia will be dispatched for San Francisco at four o'clock this afternoon, taking in the neighborhood of eighty cabin passengers from Honolulu to the coast.

A late mail for the mainland will be dispatched in the vessel. The liner arrived here this morning with a total of 737 passengers on board.

Hilsonian from Sound Ports This Afternoon. Bringing a large general cargo of merchandise and extensive shipments of lumber for discharge at Honolulu, Kaula, Port Allen, Kaanapali and Hilo, the Matsun Navigation steamer Hilsonian is expected to appear off the port this afternoon. The vessel will be brought to the upper railway wharf for discharge.

Hall Made Special Trip. The steamer W. G. Hall made a special trip from Kaula ports arriving here yesterday with 5000 sacks sugar, shipments of chickens, vegetables, coconuts, empty drums and 38 packages sundries.

The purser reports the following sugar awaiting shipment at Hanalei: L. P. 11,909 sacks, G. F. 6245 sacks.

Mikahala In With Live Stock. Live stock in variety to the extent that the decks resembled a barn yard, arrived in the steamer Mikahala from Molokai, Maui and Lanai ports.

The freight list included 25 head of cattle, 20 cords of firewood, 100 cases of honey, 93 pigs 18 boxes chickens, 5 cases eggs and 120 packages sundries.

Big Cargo in the Alaskan. Three thousand tons mainland freight was stored aboard the big kan upon the arrival of that vessel at the port of Honolulu yesterday afternoon.

The Alaskan is back from voyage over the trans-Pacific triangle, bringing cargo transhipped at Salina Cruz, also consignments of merchandise supplied at San Diego, San Francisco and Puget Sound ports.

Captain W. P. Hillman is now master of the vessel, and he takes the position vacated by Captain Patterson.

son, who will return to the east coast of the United States. Captain Hillman is but thirty-one years old and has been with the company four years, having worked up from the rank of third officer. First Officer H. C. Hülbert, who was formerly second officer, was promoted to his present rank at the same time that Captain Hillman took his step, as did Second Officer W. Russell, who was formerly third officer.

Honolulu Back With Sugar. Taking a quantity of sugar and molasses in bulk, the Matsun Navigation steamer Honolulu came into the harbor this morning after a call at Kaula, Maui. The Honolulu is to sail for San Francisco on Wednesday morning, the advertised sailing hour having been fixed for ten o'clock. Castle and Cooke, the agents for the liner, report a full booking of cabin passengers for the coast.

LINER SIERRA A NEW SHIP

After seven weeks at a Frisco shipyard, where hundreds of workmen swarmed over the decks and in the bowels of the vessel, the Oceanic liner Sierra went into commission, and arrived at Honolulu early this morning to all intents and purposes a new ship. The Sierra is now placed on a par with the Sonoma and the Ventura. The old favorites among the officers will go much farther and tell the traveler that the Sierra has the two sister ships backed off the drydock and struggling for headway when it comes to steadiness, sumptuousness in fittings, and the management of the cuisine.

There is intense rivalry these days in the Oceanic fleet. Each vessel is pronounced by its little family of officers to be the best ever, and sometimes the discriminating traveler is hard put to decide the absorbing question to the satisfaction of all concerned. The Sierra has experienced a number of important changes during the brief period of idleness. The vessel is much better fitted than before. Two shorter but more business-like funnels add much to the contour of the liner. Better oil-burning facilities are installed. All cabins were gone over, and are now in first-class condition.

Purser "Tom" Smith, looking at least ten years younger, spent a portion of the layover in touring California. The Genial Tom viewed the Yosemite, he renewed acquaintances with the scenic delights to be found at Tahoe. The well known purser actually had time to meet with members of his family and his friends, an event of much significance, in the life of a steamship man whose time at the terminal port is limited to but a few days and each one crowded with a host of duties and detail.

Captain Houdlette was the motif for a fine dinner given on board last night, to which a large company of passengers sat down as hosts.

Dr. L. L. Leonhardt is a new surgeon on the liner, taking the place vacated by Dr. Nelson.

F. W. Shaw is also a new man to the Sierra in the capacity of wireless operator.

The Sierra was off quarantine at daylight this morning bringing 76 cabin and 19 steerage passengers. The freight for Honolulu amounts to 3163 tons and includes eleven automobiles.

There are several very heavy pieces of machinery intended for the Honolulu Iron Works, some of which weigh fifteen tons each. A later mail from the mainland amounting to 316 sacks arrived in the vessel. Two little mites of children were passengers in the liner, and are brought here to meet their relatives. The little folk were induced to dance the Texas Tommy on last Friday night, and following the exhibition, a purse of nearly fifteen dollars was raised by the passengers. The youngsters while in the steerage received the best of care and attention on the voyage.

The Sierra is scheduled to sail for the coast at ten o'clock Saturday morning. One hundred cabin passengers have been booked for San Francisco.

MAKIKI LOT SOLD. A deed was recorded today from Margaret Lishman, widow, to Stella Peck for lot 13, new Makiki tract, containing 7858 square feet, near Makiki fire station, the consideration being $1250.

Because of the departure of T. Clive Davies for England, to remain until next year Circuit Judge Henry E. Cooper today appointed Alonzo Gately trustee, with the same authority as Davies has been holding, for the estate of the late Charles Frederick Hart.

LAKE VIEW NO. 2 OIL COMPANY'S WELL

Stockholders of the Lake View No. 2 Oil Co. received a postal card dated July 12 this morning which contained the following information: "After fighting a gas pressure for more than a year, that has proved to be one of the strongest in the California oil fields, the officers and directors of this company are glad to announce to you that the field force has at last formed a bridge above the danger zone, has set a string of 6-1-4 inch casing above the oil and gas, and have cemented the same in place. "It now becomes necessary to allow the cement to harden and as soon as it has thoroughly set, thus shutting off the water, the tools will be run back into the hole, the cement 'plug' drilled out and the well brought in."

REAR ADMIRAL ROSS HERE ON TOUR OF WORLD

Rear Admiral Albert Ross, U. S. N., retired, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alice Ross, arrived on the Sierra this morning for a stay of several weeks in Hawaii. Admiral and Miss Ross are on a tour of the world, which they have had in contemplation ever since the admiral's retirement from active service in 1908. They will leave for New Zealand and Australia on the next Ventura, and after spending several months there will proceed leisurely to the Orient and thence to their home in New York, by easy stages.

Admiral Ross made quite a name for himself as commandant of the Great Lakes naval station at North Chicago, while it was in course of construction. On the trip down he entertained the Sierra passengers with an interesting lecture on the Panama canal, on which he is well posted.

Phosphate Rock from the South Seas. The Norwegian steamer Prometheus has returned to Honolulu on the third round trip from Makatea, the vessel bringing a full shipment of phosphate rock for the fertilizer manufacturers at this port. The Prometheus left the phosphate fields on July 7th, and experienced a fine trip to the Hawaiian Islands. According to the officers conditions in the phosphate mines in Makatea are prospering. There is an inexhaustible supply of phosphate on the island, which, with improvements made for a safe mooring, could be shipped to all parts of the world. At present it is necessary for a vessel to moor to buoys on the windward side of the coast and in case of heavy weather the vessel must put to sea until the seas calm. It is hoped that a small breakwater will be built to give protection to vessels in case of storm.

That some of the best deer hunting in the world is to be found on the island of Molokai, is the opinion of Attorney-General Alex. Lindsey, Jr., who returned yesterday from that island, where he has been enjoying a summer vacation. "I shot over myself, saw at least fifty, and other members of the party killed them so frequently that we had venison whenever we wanted it," he says.

While the Territory does not exact a heavy hunter's license, the hunting is permitted only during certain seasons of the year, and the hunters must have the permission of the plantation owners. Lindsey was the guest of George Cooke, in charge of the American Sugar Company's plantation, or ranch. Very little sugar is now grown on the place, and the owners have turned their attention to the raising of cattle and sheep, having about 5,000 head of each. The Attorney-General turned cow-boy, helped handle the herds and make long pleasure tours a-horseback.

PACHECO BACK

(Continued from Page 1) me as favorable to our cause. This change in the rules of previous conventions made the third order of business of the convention the presentation of candidates for President instead of the adoption of the platform. In other words, the committee on rules recommended that the convention choose the candidate for President before adopting the platform as done heretofore. Having inside information that Mr. Wilson was personally opposed to free sugar, I supported this change in the order of business in the hope that Wilson would obtain the nomination, in which event the elimination of a free sugar plank would be a foregone conclusion, as the standard-bearer of the party would have considerable influence in the construction of the platform. This conclusion on my part was borne out by subsequent events. This rule will also make it impossible for the presidential nominee to hold joint debates with the platform, as has been the unfortunate situation in previous campaigns.

SLAYER MAY ESCAPE LAW'S EXTREME PENALTY

Francisco Antonio Mesquetta, who killed a friend and injured the friend's wife in an affray at the latter's home on the evening of the Fourth of July, may not be tried for murder in the first degree. Judge Robinson announced this morning, when the prisoner was arraigned, following the indictment by the grand jury several days ago, that the jury had expressed some doubt as to whether Mesquetta was guilty of first degree murder, and that he might see fit to reduce the charge before he enters his plea Wednesday morning. Doubt is expressed as to whether a first-degree charge should be made because it is thought the assault was not premeditated. Leon Straus was appointed counsel for the defendant following the arraignment this morning.

W. F. MARTIN LEAVES HYDROGRAPHIC SURVEY

In a letter to Governor Frear the director of the United States Geological Survey announces the resignation of W. F. Martin, who has been in charge of the hydrographic survey in the Territory. The director states that a new official will be appointed soon as his successor, and that meantime Mr. Pierce, at present in active charge of the work, will continue in that capacity.

The subject of Dr. Elliot's address at the opera house Thursday evening will be "The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace." Governor Frear will preside at the meeting.

"I can trace my descent for 500 years." "Sure enough." "Yes. How far can you trace your descent?" "Not very far. But I never claimed to have descended so far as you."

STRIP OF 13 ACRES ADDED TO FT. ARMSTRONG

An executive order from President Taft, adding the strip of land on the makai side of the Fort Armstrong military reservation to the fort, was received by the Governor this morning in the mail arriving on the Sierra. The strip is about 300 feet wide, extending the length of the reservation and out to the reef. It is about 287 feet in length and contains approximately thirteen acres.

That portion of the strip on which the territorial sewerage pumping station and crematory are located is retained, however, to the local government.

HONOLULU QUARANTINE FOR PEST EFFECTIVE

SACRAMENTO, July 13.—Cook says the quarantine established by the State at Honolulu has resulted in keeping the Mediterranean fly out of this State. During the few weeks that inspection has been made at Honolulu not a fly has been detected in the fruit shipped into the port at San Francisco. The quarantine will be continued, however.

LENNOX PREDICTS TOURIST TRAVEL

Imbued with the belief that a great tourist travel to Hawaii in the future is assured, John Lennox, president and manager of the Sachs Dry Goods Co., returned this morning by the Sierra from a pleasure and buying trip to the States. Presentation of the "Bird of Paradise" play, Duke's swimming festa, and the general distribution of printed matter by the promotion committee, are the three causes he gives for his opinion. "Hawaii is no longer somewhere out on the China coast in people's minds," says Mr. Lennox. "Indeed, it is known that it is easily accessible to world pleasure seekers. Formerly on trips to the coast, one often had to explain the geographical location of the islands. This time it was different. I accounts for the change to the publicity secured from the 'Bird of Paradise' play, Duke's swimming and the general wide distribution of promotion literature. As a result of all this I look for much travel to Honolulu in the next few years."

"Everywhere one finds literature about the islands, and everywhere one meets people who state their intention of visiting Hawaii. This is true as regards people in New York, or the Colorado summer resorts, where I spent some weeks, as well as in California."

Speaking of the presidential political situation, Mr. Lennox's comment was confined to the statement: "It is chaotic." As to his personal opinion of the results in November he refused to be quoted, but added to his first remark, "that there were lots of Roosevelt supporters in Colorado—and of course in California."

"I had as successful a buying trip, as I did a pleasant one. I was in New York just at the right time to make full purchases and bought all the stock needed for the store up until the end of the holidays. Some of the goods which I purchased have already reached here and the balance will be coming in different shipments, during the next six months."

ODDS AND ENDS AT THE PORT

The steamer Noenu is on the berth to sail for Kaula windward ports at 5 o'clock this evening taking cargo and mails.

A cargo of coal, is reported to have left Newcastle, N. S. W., in the schooner Kona, destined for Abukini. The vessel sailed on last Friday.

The Pacific Mail liner Persia, with a few layover passengers and a later mail is reported to have sailed from San Francisco for Honolulu on Saturday afternoon.

The American-Hawaiian freighter Alaskan, now in port, will take 12,000 tons sugar and several hundred tons pineapples and sundries at island ports before departure for Salina Cruz. The inter-island has posted the steamer Iwailani for dispatch for Makuhona, Kawaihale, and Kipahulu at noon tomorrow. The vessel is to take general cargo and plantation supplies.

TRANSPORT HAS BUT LITTLE ROOM

Although the transport Thomas, which sailed from Nagasaki July 23 for San Francisco, is not known to be carrying any considerable body of troops, department headquarters here have been notified that there will be room on board for but six first-class passengers and four second class from Honolulu to San Francisco.

It is presumed that a hundred or so civilian employees of the Philippine government must be going home on their vacations, despite the fact that there is a list of soldiers and officers here who are awaiting transportation to the coast.

Orders were received this morning from division headquarters directing that one baker from Fort Ruger, one from Schofield Barracks and two cooks from the barracks be sent to the Cooks and Bakers' School at the Presidio of California for instruction.

Leave of absence for two months has been granted to First Lieutenant Fred A. Cook of the Second Infantry and First Lieutenant R. M. Barton of the Fifth Cavalry.

Inter-island sailings. Three inter-island steamers are listed for dispatch tomorrow. The Iwailani is on the boards to sail for Makuhona, Kawaihale, Kipahulu and ports at noon taking freight for the most part supplies intended for Big Island plantations.

The Mikahala for Maui, Molokai and Lanai ports will depart on her regular run at five o'clock in the evening, followed by the steamer Kinai for the Kaula ports. The Kinai is taking a number of cabin and Filipino deck passengers.

Woman Patient In Hospital Is Beaten By Intruder, Dies

Deputy Sheriff Rose is making an investigation of conditions at the Mitamura hospital, a private institution, which permitted a drunken man to enter upon the premises and beat a woman patient just recovering from an operation so severely that she died Sunday morning as a result, it is charged, of the injuries received.

The alleged assault occurred last Thursday night and was perpetrated by Kapapio, a drunken Hawaiian boy, who was permitted to run riot about the place for three-quarters of an hour and was not arrested until he had brutally beaten Mrs. Maria Rosa, who had given birth to a child six hours before.

Attacks Two Girls.
It was shortly after eight o'clock when Kapapio, unchallenged, staggered into the building, which is a private hospital under Japanese management. He immediately sought out Helen Lio, a girl friend of his who is in a convalescent condition.

He is alleged to have made himself obnoxious to her and when she told him to leave, he became abusive and slapped her several times across the face. She fled and the native staggered after her as rapidly as his intoxicated condition would permit.

Meanwhile Helen had managed to hide and the boy encountered Louise, the daughter of Mrs. Maria Rosa. The native had asked her where the Lio girl had fled and when she made a negative reply, he struck her across the face. She ran away and then Kapapio caught sight of Mrs. Rosa.

Drags Her from Bed.
He made the same inquiry of Mrs. Rosa and when he received the answer that she didn't know, he dragged her from the bed and started to beat her. She screamed with pain and Manuel Rosa, the husband, entered, and drove the boy from the room. But the native returned immediately and managed to strike Mrs. Rosa another vicious blow before he was subdued by the husband.

At this juncture, the hospital authorities stepped in and had Kapapio arrested. He was locked up at the police station late Thursday night and was held pending Mrs. Rosa's recovery. The woman died Sunday morning and the inquest will be held this evening.

Dr. T. Mitamura, proprietor of the hospital, will be summoned to make an explanation as to why no precautions are taken at the hospital to prevent the patients from being attacked by irresponsible outsiders.

ADMIRAL HERE TO INSPECT

If the bill goes through I will ask the commandant here to appoint such a board, and the questions can be decided."

Admiral Stanford is well satisfied with the progress of the Pearl Harbor work from a legislative standpoint.

"The work in Hawaii is getting an absolutely square deal in Washington," he said. "I think that the committee members of both houses, and Congress as a whole, realizes the importance of naval development in the Pacific, and that they consider our estimates and requests as just and reasonable. It is not the Pearl Harbor items that is holding up the appropriation bill."

President S. G. Hinds, of the San Francisco Bridge Co., contractors for the drydock, also arrived this morning. He talked the situation over with Admiral Stanford on the trip down, and undoubtedly there will be several conferences as to drydock construction within the next few weeks.

To Examine Work.
The work of pouring concrete into the second section of the drydock, which was to have been started yesterday, has been put off until tomorrow, so that both the "Y and D" chief and Mr. Hinds can be on the spot when the operation is resumed after the long delay.

Admiral Stanford passed through Honolulu in 1899 on his way to the Philippines, but has never made an extended stay here, and has never seen Pearl Harbor. His appearance bears out his high reputation for efficiency minus red tape. He was entitled to the full honors of flag rank when he called at the naval station this morning, but specially requested that they be omitted. Admiral Stanford is alone on his present trip, having left his family on the coast. He is staying at the Moana.

ANSWER TO CHARGES IN FEDERAL COURT

Gordon Roberts, arrested several days ago by federal officers on a charge of "white slavery" was arraigned this morning. Attorney Leon Straus was appointed his counsel and defendant is given until Thursday morning to enter plea, his bond meantime having been set at $1000.

Sunjaro and Okata, indicted also by the federal grand jury, on a charge of conducting an illicit distillery, both entered a plea of guilty. They will be sentenced Thursday.

James F. Fisher, accused of aiding in the smuggling of opium, was arraigned and given until Thursday to enter plea. Attorney Straus was appointed counsel for the defendant.

William Joseph Hokulua pleaded guilty to the indictment for bigamy and will be sentenced Thursday.

Mary Williams and John Alapal, both indicted by the federal grand jury last week, were found to be serving sentence in the county jail on other charges. Bench warrants will be issued for them upon their discharge from jail at the completion of the present terms, and they will then be arraigned on the federal jury indictments.

The Inter-Island steamer W. G. Hall will be dispatched for Kaula ports this evening after having been discharged of a shipment of sugar.

CHILD GIVEN TO MOTHER, FATHER CREATES SCENE

Shattering the noonday quiet of Hotel street with yells and cries of mingled rage and grief, a chagrined Portuguese man and woman rushed out of Judge Whitney's court today and created a scene in front of the old Y. M. C. A. building that brought people running from every direction for two blocks.

Some thought murder had been done. But it was just another of Circuit Judge Whitney's cases. He had taken away the 12-year-old daughter of Julio Texeira from the father's custody and awarded her to the mother, now Mrs. McMaster, wife of a Honolulu mail carrier.

The noise was made by the father, Julio, and his housekeeper, when they learned the court's edict. They even refused to give up the little girl and started to lead her out of court, but she was summarily taken from them and handed over to the mother.

The case is an old one, dating back to the time of the late Judge Gear, who granted a decree of divorce nine years ago, giving one girl to the mother and the other to the father. Four or five years later the father, a laborer, left Honolulu for Oakland, Cal., and placed his daughter in the care of a local Portuguese widow. He returned only recently, and wanted the court's permission to take the child back to California with him.

The mother explained that the caretaker had placed obstacles in the way to prevent her from visiting the older girl, in the father's custody, and that between them the father and the widow had poisoned the little one's mind, turning her against the mother.

When Judge Whitney ruled that the mother should have the full custody of both girls, the clouds gathered and the tempest began.

DR. SUN'S HEIR NOW A BENEDICT

Sun Fo and Miss Kai Chun of Honolulu Married at Moanalua

Attended only by a few personal friends, Sun Fo, eldest son and heir of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first president of China, and Miss Kai Chun of Honolulu were married at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of F. W. Damon, with Dr. Doremus Scudder officiating.

Among the friends of the contracting persons present were Mr. and Mrs. Chang Chau, C. K. Ai and Ho Fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Sun Fo, accompanied by the two sisters of Sun Fo, will sail for San Francisco this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Sun Fo will re-enter the University of California and Mrs. Sun Fo will probably enter a girl's school in San Francisco with her husband's sisters.

The bride is a native of Honolulu and her parents reside here. She is but 16 years old.

It was originally planned for Miss Chun to go to the coast with Sun Fo and his sisters and attend school there until Sun Fo finished his college course when they were to be married. But the plans were changed at the last moment, when Sun Fo secured permission from his father to be married at once.

With his sisters, Sun Fo arrived here a week ago by the Shinyo Maru and they have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chang Chau at the latter's pretty home in Kauluwela lane.

FIVE ARRAIGNED ON GRAND JURY INDICTMENTS

Frank Sullivan, indicted by the Territorial grand jury on the charge of burglary in the first degree, was arraigned before Circuit Judge Robinson this morning. Attorney George A. Davis was appointed counsel for the prisoner and the latter is given until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning to enter plea.

S. F. Chillingworth was appointed counsel for Robert Joseph Rowe, who was indicted for assault with intent to commit murder, and has been given until Wednesday morning to enter plea.

Evan Gustkin, indicted for criminal assault on a little girl, this morning changed his plea to guilty, and was sentenced to a term of not more than fifteen months in Oahu prison.

R. Lopez pleaded guilty to burglary in the first degree. He will be sentenced Wednesday morning.

Learning that Edward Lang, held on a charge of perjury, has been in jail since last February in default of $1000 bail bond, the court this morning reduced his bond to $250. He was arraigned this morning and will be given an opportunity to enter his plea Wednesday morning.

The sailing of the Pacific Mail liner Siberia for San Francisco has been fixed for 4 o'clock this afternoon.

THE WAY TO WORLD-PEACE

Dr. Charles W. Eliot's words today on international peace will be heard around the world. Touching American soil again after his tour of the globe in a search for methods of attaining international peace, the distinguished president emeritus of Harvard is giving first utterance to his conclusions on the virtual completion of his tour.

WHAT IS THE LAW TO BE?

Honolulu and every other community in this territory has to do something to stop the steady increase of drunken crime. Not a day passes but the police are called upon to deal with some crime that is due directly to drink.

"SEE HAWAII"

Hawaii has a chance to take active part in a movement that will mean much to this country in the way of bidding for tourist traffic. In October a great mass-meeting will be held at Chicago of those interested in the "See America First" movement, and representatives of all transportation companies, hotels and promotion organizations are asked to attend.

At a meeting of the temporary board of the See America First Association, consisting of representatives of the Santa Fe, New York Central, Burlington, Northwestern, Illinois Central, St. Paul, Wabash and Great Northern railroads, held in the rooms of the Transcontinental Passenger Association, this step was decided upon.

Membership of the association, it was decided, shall consist of all carriers, both rail and water; chambers of commerce, boards of trade, civic organizations, hotels and hotel organizations, transatlantic and transpacific carriers and others interested.

Hawaii should by all means be represented at this gathering. "See America First" is just the kind of a slogan that will help Hawaii and bring thousands of tourists here.

These islands have wonderful natural charms to offer the world, and such an organization as is to be formed in Chicago should certainly welcome Hawaii into the fold and make part of its campaign a nation-wide recommendation to "See Hawaii."

SAFE AND SANE AVIATING

The Aero Club of Illinois has promoted a national association of aviators, founded "to save the lives of the remaining American flyers." The avowed objects of the club are to pledge members not to fly in an aeroplane they don't think safe, regardless of jeers or accusations of cowardice, and to persuade their fellow-airmen not to engage in unsafe flights.

This movement is among the most remarkable ever recorded, but it is certainly in the right direction. Comment was made in these columns some time ago on the needless dangers that American aviators particularly expose themselves to purely for speed and altitude records.

CUBA'S MILITARY GENIUS KILLED

Cuba's most dangerous insurrectionist is out of the way, if cabled reports of the killing of Gen. Ivonet are correct.

Gen. Estenez, the negro, has been given most of the public attention during the recent outbreak, but the brains of the actual fighting have been Ivonet. Estenez was the politician of the revolt; Ivonet the military genius, and Ivonet was the leader of the fighting forces.

Ivonet and Estenez squabbled repeatedly over the question of military operations and part of the weakness of the revolt was due to mismanagement, of which the Cuban government leaders took advantage.

Why not put Duke Kahanamoku's photograph on some of the promotion literature sent out from Hawaii, with a fine stating that he is the world's champion swimmer, the product of Walkiki beach?

The muck-rakers are now busy with Philadelphia's famous Liberty Bell. They have discovered that it did not ring out for liberty on July 4, 1776.

A Pittsburg magistrate declares that quarrelsome women should be muzzled. It's lucky there's no judicial recall in Pennsylvania.

The Third Party is invited to consider a suggestion that it adopt the Third Term Party as its official name.

Dynamite is considerably more popular in Mexico than in the United States as a political argument.

Anyway, the Bull Moose party has an ample supply of teeth on hand for watch-charms.

There is no family connection between the Third Party and the Fourth Estate.

"JIMMY" BLAISDELL, who was a member of the crew of local yachtsmen who sailed the yacht Hawaii to San Pedro, but was obliged to remain behind because of illness, returned to Honolulu this morning in the Sierra. "Jimmy" was the recipient of an enthusiastic reception at the hands of his friends gathered at the wharf. It was predicted aboard the Sierra that the genial Jimmy is a late victim of Cupid's marksmanship.

"TEDDY" M'NAMARA, the comedian with the Pollard Juvenile Opera Company, which is to open an engagement at the Bijou this evening, joined the company as a passenger in the Sierra this morning. Teddy has a host of friends, won during the stay of the Pollards at Honolulu some years ago, when they became prime favorites at an engagement played at the old Orpheum. During the past five years M'Namara has traveled extensively about the United States and Canada.

PROGRESSIVES LAUNCH PARTY

The treasurer now reports that sufficient funds are in hand for the purpose, and the Chairman has received wireless messages from Hawaii and Maui, signifying approval and assurances of support. We therefore recommend that Hon. A. L. C. Atkinson be appointed our delegate to the convention at Chicago on Aug. 5, and also be elected as our National Committeeman.

Declaration of Faith. We submit for your consideration a few Progressive principles which we recommend for adoption, as a declaration of our faith.

We believe that wholesome party government can come only if there is wholesome party management in a spirit of service, and with individual willingness to act without hope of gain and even at the risk of personal loss and discomfort.

We believe that the time has come for a National Progressive party; a nation wide movement on non-sectional lines, so that the people may be served in sincerity and truth by an organization unfettered by obligations to conflicting interests.

"By the People." We are not prepared to accept the principle enunciated by the leader of the Republican party that ours is a government of the people, for the people, by a representative part of the people, for we believe that the government by the few tends to become, and in fact has become, the government by the sordid influences that control the few.

We believe that the beneficiary of a moral wrong cannot escape responsibility for it, even though it be a political party, and that our community, isolated though it may be, is not yet so refined or so sofete as to be indifferent to moral issues.

We believe that only through the National Progressive party can we obtain in the nation and in our own territory the legislation demanded by modern industrial evolution; legislation which shall favor honest business and yet control the modern business, so as to insure that it shall be an instrument used in the interest of the whole people; legislation which shall promote the efficiency of our local government to the end that the people shall have one hundred cents of return for every dollar of expenditure; legislation which shall promote the well-being of the honest wage worker, the professional man and the business man alike, but which shall at the same time strike in efficient fashion at the roots of privilege and dishonesty in the world of industry no less than in the world of politics.

We believe that only through such new age fearless political leadership of wise industrial evolution will the American people succeed in averting industrial revolution.

For Direct Primary. We believe in the right of the people to rule and that this can be best promoted in Hawaii by securing their expression through direct primary elections.

We object to the present method by which the supervisors themselves determine which supervisors shall have charge of our roads, our police, our public works and health departments and believe that those in charge of such public service should be elected directly by the people.

We declare in favor of direct official responsibility without unnecessary division, and oppose the election of deputies believing that the head of each department should appoint and be responsible for his own subordinates.

We believe that those receiving our support as candidates of the coming legislature should publicly discuss and frankly state their position on all important subjects of local interest. We shall deprecate a campaign of personality, or by candidates who are afraid to state their views.

And your committee suggest that an invitation be extended to all in accord with these views to join in this movement.

Enrollment cards are in the hands of the Secretary H. M. Ballou and may be had on application.

Your committee further recommends that the following cable be sent to the National Headquarters: "Hawaii Progressives sending Atkinson delegate Chicago. The only Territory in line Statehood expects representation. Hurrah for tidal wave."

Respectfully submitted, PROVISIONAL COMMITTEE.

SCHOOLMAMS ON VACATION

The Hawaiian islands have become a favorite mecca for vacationing school teachers, on the coast and throughout the mainland, as a result of the favorable publicity spread broadcast through the instrumentality of the Hawaii Promotion Committee.

A bevy of pretty and vivacious school mams were numbered among the passengers to arrive in the Oceanic liner Sierra this morning. They were reported to be the life of the ship on the way down from S. S. Francisco and were easily the leaders in all musical and literary entertainments planned by the officers.

The party will remain in the islands until a few days prior to the opening of the California school year. It was a very merry party of educators that traveled to Honolulu in the popular liner, and among the teachers were Miss Grace Hayman and Miss Helen Ward of the San Diego High School, Miss Ruth Blodget a teacher at Bakersfield, California and several others from other well known educational institutions.

Miss L. L. Lathrop of the Grammar School at Nixa, Nevada is a member of the party.

The Norwegian steamer Guernsey, from Honolulu in ballast, is reported to have arrived at Astoria, Ore., on Saturday. The vessel completed the discharge of a cargo of Australian coal at Honolulu on July 10.

THE name 'Wichman' is rightly accepted as a guarantee of the highest quality when pertaining to jewelry.

We have striven to establish such a reputation, and we now pride ourselves on the fact that our friends have coined the phrase "If it's from Wichman's you know it's Good."

THE Pickwick Club had finally dissolved and Mr. Pickwick had made a choice of a home. Everything was so beautiful! The lawn in front, the garden behind, the miniature conservatory, the dining-room, the drawing-room, the bed-rooms, the smoking-room, and above all, the study, with its pictures and easy-chairs, and odd cabinets and queer tables, and books out of number, with a large, cheerful window, opening upon a pleasant lawn, and commanding a pretty landscape, just dotted here and there with little houses, almost hidden by the trees; and then the curtains, and the carpets, and the chairs, and the sofas! Everything was so beautiful, so compact, so neat, and in such exquisite taste, said everybody, that there really was no deciding what to admire most. We have just such a home in Manoa Valley all ready for you—or we can build you a home after your own plans in Beautiful Kaimuki.

IN THE WOMAN'S WORLD

HINTS ON HONOLULU SHOPPING AND ON DRESSING FOR COMFORT

While discussing an article published in one of the current magazines on the cost of women's dress a friend spoke of the superiority of the woolen coat suit worn by the women on the mainland over the flimsy frocks worn in the tropics. Perhaps one does look somewhat neater in the suit but surely it cannot be quite as healthy or comfortable as the summer gown that is so frequently sent to the laundress. The heavier garment is also far more expensive than the light one for no girl or woman is satisfied with less than two or three suits, and although one wants even more of the washable dresses the material for one such frock can be purchased for a very small amount. The young girl who accustomed to wearing the little gingham wash dresses can buy the material for something less than a dollar. Women can dress far more inexpensively here in the islands than on the mainland so long as they buy only the pure article and do not sample the almost-as-good, it is true that the cost of living has gone up in the past fifty years in fact it has been going up since the beginning of the manufacturing days.

I have been told that in olden days necessities, or even luxuries were cheaper than now and infinitely better. For a time when one bought silk from a silk counter that material was really silk but gradually the manufacturers found that by pouring an acid of a metal into the silk fibers after swelling them the profit was larger. Perhaps you have noticed a few tiny pin holes in your tulle skirt. These little holes come from the drops of the acid that have been overlooked by the workers, and no doubt you have found from experience that such pieces of tulle or any other silk for that matter do not last very long. Nowadays there are so many substitutes for the real silk that often what is bought for the real silk is a mixture of silk and cotton. This is particularly the case with the silk stockings we buy. The sales where silk stockings are offered three pairs for a dollar, when one usually pays three dollars a pair for them are truly laughable. One seldom buys experience in a case like this more than once. There are however many grades of supposed-to-be-silk hosiery that are obtainable for a small price that are quite as serviceable as the real article. Here in Hawaii the women are not so liable to be duped with these fake articles for many of the new materials are never sent to the dry goods houses in the islands. Some years ago we might say twenty years, most all of the women in Honolulu wore silk hosiery even to market.

A young bride who came here in 1890 was telling some ladies of her first impressions in this city, and some were indeed amusing. She said that after she had been here a few days she spoke to a neighbor of some marketing she had planned to do and in a kindly way her friend offered to conduct her on her first shopping tour in Honolulu. The time was set and when an hour or so later the little mahina was waiting gowned in a traveling suit her friend met her at the gate wearing a silk holoa handsomely embellished with real lace. Thinking that her neighbor had come to say that she was unable to accompany her to town a rather disappointed expression came over her countenance, and noticing this, her friend asked the cause of it, "why replied the lady I am sorry that you cannot go town with me." The lady only laughed however and then explained that all of the women wore such gowns to market and that, owing to the manner in which the new comer was gowned she would receive many curious glances from the old residents of the town who were always on the lookout for strangers. After she had lived in Honolulu for some time the little lady became accustomed to the manner in which the ladies dressed but while she was a resident of the islands for seven or eight years she was never persuaded to appear out of doors in a holoa. A few years ago this same lady returned to the islands to visit and the complete change in the customs of the people was not altogether a pleasant surprise. Still she said that it was with a sigh of relief that she cast off her heavy woolen suits for the cool linge-like frocks. In fact she was so glad to return to the lighter gowns, and the warm climate that her visit has lasted for several years and she has practically made her home here, and she says that she is able to dress herself and her daughters far more inexpensively here in Honolulu than on the mainland where one is forced to dress so differently every season.

DR. BURLINGAME IS CENTRAL UNION SPEAKER

The Rev. Mr. George E. Burlingame, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church of San Francisco, occupied the Central Union pulpit yesterday evening and preached to a large congregation on "The Essence of Christianity." He sails for the Coast next Wednesday on the Honolulu, where he will preach for five Sundays in the First Presbyterian church of Oakland. Doctor Goodspeed

WOMEN'S CLUBS STEAM ROLLER

How It Was Used on Resolution at San Francisco Convention

That the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs was adjourned without any action being taken on the question of suffrage was undoubtedly a disappointment to a good many persons, who would have been glad of an expression of opinion from so representative a body of intelligent American womanhood.

It is well known that some of the most pronounced opponents of woman suffrage are from the ranks of women themselves, and it has frequently been asserted that if the question were left to the women to settle a majority of them would vote against the proposition. Whether this is so or not is, of course, a matter merely for speculation, for where the franchise has been conferred upon the women it has been done by the votes of the men.

So far as the advocates of suffrage among the delegates to the recent convention were concerned, the gathering here assembled under circumstances most auspicious to them. In the first place, the convention met in a State which but recently granted women the right to vote and sent two women delegates to a national political convention and is on fire with reform schemes which the clubwomen have been zealously promoting for years. In the second place is the fact, which must have been well in mind, that this fall 1,000,000 women will have the right to go to the polls and cast their ballots side by side with the men.

With these influences in their favor the suffragists, nevertheless, failed in their endeavor to get before the convention a resolution favoring the extension of the franchise to women. No political steam roller ever worked with greater effectiveness than did that guided by Mrs. Moore, the president of the federation, and helped along by the majority of the delegates. The resolution was declared not to be "germane" to the work of the organization.

Looked at from a purely impartial point of view, it is difficult to understand how the suffrage is not germane to the discussions of clubwomen. Certainly few other public topics are more talked about by women at their formal gatherings than is that of the franchise. It would seem, therefore, that the reason for availing a vote on the question was a desire to avoid precipitating a debate that would have revealed the women as being very much divided among themselves.

In announcing her ruling that the suffrage resolution was out of order, Mrs. Moore made it plain that her own sympathies were on the side of votes for women. She contended, however, that the proper work of the federation is educational and that the members should help to educate the mass of the women for citizenship, rather than pass a resolution demanding it.

Whatever may be thought of the action of the convention in "side-stepping" this interesting issue it is reassuring to have another proof of the fact that in America the foremost among those who favor the extension of the franchise are not minded to stoop to conquer, as so many of their sisters do in England, and that, while they may be eager for the consummation of their desires, they do not intend to bring the desired result about by shrieking in the streets and scuffling with policemen and destroying the property of others.—Exchange.

GIRLS IN CHINA

The childhood of a girl in China has been very different from that of a boy. Before the present century there were no schools for girls, and very few maids were taught anything but household work and needlework. By the edict of 1905 the nation changed its attitude and girls of the upper class must now be educated; indeed, many of them are sent to American schools and colleges.

But although this new idea of an enlightened womanhood is becoming the fashion it will make its way very slowly through those intricate compound walls and into the conservative homes of China, where two hundred women and girls have followed for centuries the customs of their ancestors.—Century.

MINISTER COMPARES LIFE TO GAME OF BALL

Many soldiers were present at the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday evening when the Rev. Mr. R. E. Smith delivered a sermon on "A Game of Ball," using for his text Isaiah 22:19: "He will turn and toss thee like a ball."

The pastor compared life to a baseball game and went into detail to show where earnestness, watchfulness and practice necessary to a good game were also essentials in the game of life. At the conclusion of the sermon a solo was sung by Mrs. Maud Bye.

"I see your son has gone to work." "Yep." "How is he getting along?" "Oh, fine. Anything in the way of a novelty always appeals to him."

of three parts and this is to be continued. There are few magicians that could put on a complete change of program, but this is as easy for Raymond as it is to mystify his audience with clever tricks. While the bill will be entirely changed and much new scenery used, the managerie will be as much in evidence as on the first night.

POLLARD JUVENILES WILL OPEN AT BIJOU TONIGHT

Presenting "Sergeant Brue" as their opening play, the Pollard Juvenile Opera Company opens its three weeks Honolulu engagement tonight at the Bijou theater. With a cast which contains the names of twenty-five young people, the production will be elaborate. Many former "Pollard Lilliputians" will be re-welcomed tonight, this list including Teddy McNamara, the comedian, who arrived from the Coast today; Eva Pollard, the favorite of the Lilliputians; Willie Pollard, Ethel Naylor, Leslie Donaghey and others.

"Sergeant Brue," with Norman Pearce in the title role, was made famous as a New York musical comedy success by Frank Daniels. It carries its own music through the three acts. It is a jolly, rollicking comedy, with many ludicrous climaxes. Leslie Donaghey is cast as the magistrate, a role which gives him opportunity to display his character ability, while Eva Pollard plays the part of the Sergeant's daughter. The Sergeant is left an annuity of $50,000 on condition that he become an inspector. To achieve this his friends, titled and otherwise, conspired, and the plot develops easily.

The doors will open shortly after 7 and the curtain will rise between 7:30 and 8:15 o'clock.

BERGER HONORED BY OLD FRIENDS IN BERLIN

Writing to a friend here, Captain Henry Berger, veteran leader of the Hawaiian band, tells of the hearty welcome accorded him in his old home, Berlin, Germany. From the day of his arrival he says he has been showered with attentions by his friends. One of the most enjoyable receptions was that tendered him by Major Wilhelm Stein, a retired army officer and the father of George Karl Stein, assistant manager of B. F. Ehlers & Co., Honolulu.

Among those present were veterans of past wars and a number of young officers. Lieutenant Edward Stein, in an appropriate address welcomed the guest of honor and the assembly drank a toast to the Germans in the Hawaiian Islands. In response Captain Berger made a short speech in which he told of his work in Honolulu and told the interested guests of the Paradise of the Pacific.

Captain Berger stated that he expected to have an audience with the Emperor who he has known for many years.

AUTO DAMAGES HACK IN FORT STREET COLLISION

Frederick Blackburn, a driver for the City Hackstand Co., complained to the police this afternoon that he was run down by Deputy Assessor Arthur W. Neely in an automobile on Fort street extension near the stream shortly before noon today and that although Neely's rear wheel knocked the hub cap off the front wheel of Blackburn's hack, Neely did not stop but continued on his way into town.

REBELS WRECK TRAIN AND BURN WOUNDED

MEXICO CITY, Mex., July 21.—One of the most horrible tales of the present insurrection reached here yesterday when the survivors of an attack made by the Zapatistas returned to the city. The story they tell is inhuman in its details.

When the train, in which there were several hundred passengers, for the most part federal troops bound for the little town of Cuernavaca, had arrived within a few miles of that place it was suddenly blown from the tracks by the explosion of a heavy charge of dynamite. The ground seemed to rise up, and the cars were lifted from the rails and "fell down in heaps."

Sixty were killed by the explosion and many were wounded, but that was only the beginning of the attack. The Zapatistas, hidden in a nearby culvert, rose up when they saw that their scheme had worked, and began pouring in upon the dead and wounded a galling rifle fire.

The rebels then proceeded to loot the baggage and express cars attached to the train, and piled the valuables on the side of the track. They then broke open a case of oil and poured the stuff over the wreckage, filled with dead and wounded as they were. At a word of command they then set fire to the debris and, taking their loot with them, rode off, leaving the mass burning fiercely.

The federal guard is exterminated. The American conductor is seriously wounded and may die.

MEXICO CITY, Mex., July 21.—Later additional news reported from the scene of the rebel attack upon the federal train, near the little town of Cuernavaca, throws added light upon the horror. The death list is now set at eighty-four, one of whom was a little girl not ten years old, who with her parents was riddled with bullets and then set on fire by the inhuman beasts with the Zapatista column.

Forty-three of the murdered were soldiers, who, caught unawares and totally unable to help themselves following the explosion of the dynamite that wrecked the train, were either shot down or imprisoned in the wreckage and burned to death after the rebels had fired the train. All the rest of the victims were noncombatants and some were Americans, beside the conductor in charge of the train.

As soon as the news of the attack and its results reached here word was sent to several department commanders with instructions to send out flying columns of cavalry in an effort to apprehend the bandits. Several hundred men are now in the saddle chasing the robbers, but so far there is nothing to indicate that they have overtaken them.

The survivors are being cared for at the hospital at Cuernavaca and the less seriously injured have been brought here.

LORIMER HURT IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

CLAYVILLE, Pa., July 21.—William Lorimer of Illinois today was thrown out of his automobile when the machine in which he and some friends were riding turned upside down. Lorimer was badly bruised and cut about the head and his friends escaped with minor bruises. Mr. Lorimer, as soon as he found himself able to travel, took a train for Chicago, declaring that he had had enough of automobiles for a time. The machine was hopelessly wrecked.

WALTER POMROY WINS BIG SWIM ACROSS THE GOLDEN GATE "TRACK"

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 21.—Walter Pomroy today won the long, hard swim across the Golden Gate in the quick time of forty-seven minutes and fifty seconds. There were sixteen entrants in the race in all, but only five finished, the rest being forced to resign. The course was extremely rough and windy, with the tide playing tricks upon the floating bodies of the swimmers.

ANDREW LANG DEAD

LONDON, Eng., July 21.—Andrew Lang, the famous author and critic, died at his home here suddenly this afternoon. He was stricken with heart trouble and was dead before aid could be summoned.

Andrew Lang was born March 31, 1844. He was educated at St. Andrew's University and later at Balliol College, Oxford.

NEED NO ELECTION TO AMEND PRIMARY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 21.—Attorney General Webb, in a statement made public tonight, declared that according to his opinion no special election is necessary in order to amend the state primary law as it now stands.

OPIUM ON KOREA

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 21.—Five thousand tons of opium were seized on board the Pacific Mail liner Korea today by government officials. In speaking of the capture Mr. McNab declared that the individual prosecutions which the government has been conducting have proved ineffective against smuggling and that he will appeal to General Manager Schreyer to stop the practice.

REPUBLICAN AID FOR WILSON

SEAGIRT, N. J., July 21.—More than one hundred Republicans will aid Governor Woodrow Wilson in his coming campaign. This much was learned today when the Governor made public the contents of a letter bearing the signatures of one hundred men prominent in the ranks of the opposite party who have promised to furnish him financial and other assistance. He declared that he would not at this time make public the signatures.

POLITICIANS ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 21.—Three well-known politicians were arrested here tonight accused of complicity in the murder of one Rosenthal, some weeks ago. They were Louis Weber, a dive-keeper; Sam Paul, a well-known East Side thug and politician, and Jack Sullivan, a go-between for the police in their dealings with the gamblers.

POLITICAL TANGLE PIZZLES WORKS

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—Senator Works of California announced last night that he has not yet made up his mind how he is going to vote. He is frankly puzzled by the political situation. He declares that his action will depend largely on how "Roosevelt gets a nomination." He will not, he says, "Follow Colonel Roosevelt out of the Republican party."

GENERAL GOMEZ HELD ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 21.—General Gomez, recently named as the provisional president of the Mexican insurrectionists, was arrested here last night by United States officers, charged on four separate counts with violation of the neutrality laws. He was released on ten thousand dollars bond.

TO VISIT WILSON

SEAGIRT, N. J., July 21.—For the first time in the history of the nation, a majority of the house has left Washington and lawmaking to take care of themselves and gone to offer congratulations to the nominee of their party. Yet this is what happened yesterday, when a special train bearing 116 Democratic members of the house rolled into the depot here. The solons are come to offer Governor Wilson Godspeed upon his road. There is a general feeling of confidence in the outcome at the polls next fall among the visitors which has communicated itself to everybody connected with the headquarters of the Bourbon candidate here.

STATE DEPARTMENT TO RESIST

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—It has been learned here that the officials of the state department have decided to resist to the very last the protests made by Great Britain against the proposed canal legislation. None of the officials would make any statement regarding the decision, save to admit that it has been reached.

NEW SWIMMING RECORD BROKEN

THE WORKER MUST BE WELL

In these days of sharp competition everyone who works should be keyed up to the highest pitch of efficiency. The rewards of business life go to the clearest thinkers, to the men and women who know and do things better than other people.

But who can do his best work when the health is impaired, when the appetite fails to demand the food necessary to sustain the body, when strength is lacking and ambition gone? Surely the part of wisdom is to begin at once to build up the body to its normal condition and this may be done more certainly by the use of

than any other medicine. It checks hacking coughs, sharpens the appetite, aids digestion, enriches the blood, restores flesh to the emaciated, and renews health and vigor. It is so agreeable to the taste that its regular use is a pleasure. Get it at your druggist's and be sure you get STEARNS'—the genuine.

DR. ELIOT, FOREMOST AMERICAN CITIZEN, AND HIS GREAT CAREER

Life-Story of Man Who Is Visiting Honolulu on Peace Mission

Honolulu today is welcoming Dr. Charles William Eliot, who has been called "America's foremost citizen." As an educator, a thinker, a philosopher, as a doer, a man of action guided by lofty ideals, he is entitled to that name.

He was born at Boston on March 20, 1834, and is thus more than seventy-eight years of age. He was fitted for college at Boston Latin school, and took an A. B. degree from Harvard in 1853, and a masters degree four years later. His doctorate of law was given by Williams and Princeton in 1869, by Yale in 1870, Johns Hopkins 1902, and by other institutions, and he received a Ph. D. degree in Breslau, Germany, in 1911. He has been married twice, his first wife dying in 1869. He married again in 1877. He has one son, Samuel Atkins Eliot.

His career as an educator has been a long and notable one. Most of it has been spent at Harvard, though for four years he was professor of analytical chemistry at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

His great success as an educator and writer has led to his receiving many high honors at home and abroad.

Of him it is said that no leader of American thought without political authority has ever possessed the influence which he has quietly exercised in America during the last ten or fifteen years. A German publicist has said that when President Eliot speaks, America speaks. His numberless magazine articles, addresses and books, uniformly sane, authoritative and convincing, cover practically every side of American public life and American social and political questions.

Elected President of Harvard College in 1869 at the age of 35, he early showed his remarkable administrative ability. By his organization of the Graduate school he revolutionized the system of higher education in America. He already has a reputation as an authority on chemistry, and his introduction of natural science into the curriculum, together with the emphasis which he placed upon it revolutionized the undergraduate curricula not only of Harvard, but also of the other American colleges, which have one by one followed the example. He developed the elective system at Harvard, and provided in this way the solution of the problem that was vexing the American universities. In 1890 he was chairman of the Committee of Ten, which elaborated plans of reform and organization for American schools of all grades and types. It would be hard to say how many of the ideas of American education and school and university administration owe their origin, either directly or indirectly to President Eliot.

Of late years, President Eliot has come into prominence as a public speaker, and has taken an active part in national affairs. He has performed notable service by his warm advocacy of international arbitration and of the principle of the short ballot and commission government, and has devoted his energies to the solution of the vexing problems of the relation between capital and labor and the negro question in the South. He was member of the Committee of Fifty which investigated the liquor problem and published a comprehensive report on the whole subject. As a further example of his wide range of interest and influence may be cited his addresses and articles on employer's liability; congestion of population; city planning; conservation; the use of great wealth; lawlessness and so forth. A recent address on "The Religion of the Future" created a stir in religious circles.

Many honors have been bestowed upon him both at home and abroad. He has been President of the National Education Association, of the Conservation Society. He was offered the ambassadorship to the Court of St. James. He is an officer of the Legion of Honor, and a member of the Institute of France. The King of Italy has appointed him a Grand Officer of the Order of the Crown. The Emperor of Japan conferred upon him the Grand Cordon of the Order of the Rising Sun in 1909.

His published books include two notable works on education:—Education Reform, and University Administration; American Contributions to Civilization; The Conflict between Individualism and Collectivism in a Democracy; The Durable Satisfaction of Life; and Great Riches.

evidently been coached, without much seeming understanding. Great things are expected of the crown prince, and in the event of the emperor's death, the development of his policies will be watched and waited for.

Speaking of China, Dr. Eliot said that conditions in the newest republic were such that for some time it would cut little figure as a menace to any nation but itself.

"The Manchu dynasty didn't leave the republic anything," said Dr. Eliot. "China is getting more orderly, but there is no strength and no money. The present administration is trying to get rid of the revolutionary soldiers, who are more or less turbulent, and more stability is hoped for in the near future."

Although nearing the ripe age of four score years, the great Harvard educator is alert in mind and body, and seems ready for any problem or any physical test that he might meet in connection with the great work which he has taken up since retiring from active service at Cambridge.

Thin as a reed, Dr. Eliot still carries with him the keen eye and clear perception that made him respected and loved by every man that graduated from Harvard during his long term as head of the institution.

On the present trip he is accompanied by Mrs. Eliot and his granddaughter, Miss Ruth Eliot, whose illness delayed the party for some time in Ceylon. Miss Eliot is now completely recovered, and this morning expressed herself as having enjoyed every moment of the trip. Dr. Eliot's secretary, Roger Pierce, Harvard '04, is the fourth member of the party. Interested in Hawaii.

The doctor had no sooner come within ten feet of land than he began to breathe himself in Hawaii and her problems. He turned the tables on the newspaper men by asking many questions as to the labor problem here and the methods which were being employed by the planters to keep up the supply and bring a good class of workers to the islands.

"I should think that you would have the same trouble here that is found in Bermuda and other points on the East coast with the Portuguese and Spanish immigrants," he said. "Over there they work long enough to secure a small piece of land, and then they will work for themselves only."

He expressed himself as much interested in the social problems of Hawaii, and said that he hoped to understand more about them before he sailed for home. This is the first time since he left New York eight months ago that Dr. Eliot has set foot on American soil, and while anxious to see as much of Hawaii as possible, he is still more anxious to complete his circuit and be home once more. For this reason he will sail on the China next week, as originally scheduled, although he regrets being compelled to miss seeing the volcano. It is his first trip to Hawaii.

Met by Harvard Men.

This morning James A. Wilder, president of the Harvard Club; Harold G.

PROGRESSIVES ENLIST NESTOR OF HOME RULERS

David Kalauokalani, Sr., Is Taken Into Fold of Third Party Men

Fusion of the Progressives and the Home Rulers of Hawaii would appear to be in the wind. At least the "third" party leaders are manifesting joy today in the acquisition of the Nestor of the Home Rule party, former Senator David Kalauokalani, to the ranks of the Rooseveltians — or, as they have been dubbed on the mainland, the "Theocracy" party.

Mr. Kalauokalani, who represents Home Rule on the Board of Health, was recently mentioned as a possibility for the mayoralty nomination on the Home Rule ticket, if there is to be one this year. At last election the Home Rulers only nominated part of a municipal ticket, endorsing candidates of the other parties to fill the gaps. Mr. Kalauokalani was defeated with the rest of the Home Rule ticket when he ran for supervisor four years ago.

A. L. C. Atkinson, first lieutenant of the "Theocratians," will leave in the Siberia tonight as a delegate to the Progressive convention in Chicago.

MISS MAGOON IS NOT FRIGHTENED

Captain of Korea Said to Have Failed to Stop Merry Dance

One of those jolly little stories of life on the ocean wave that come back to Honolulu via the San Francisco papers appears on the first page of the Chronicle of July 13, together with a two-column photograph of Miss Emmeline Magoon. Says the paper:

The tradition that a sea captain is the king of his ship and the monarch of all he surveys was sadly wrecked on the shoals of feminine scorn during the homeward-bound voyage of the Pacific Mailer Korea, which arrived yesterday morning from the Far East.

How Captain Nelson put the ban on "ragging" or tried to do so, was the story related by the Korea's passengers, who pointed to Miss Emmeline Magoon, a pretty Honolulu girl, as the bold young person who defied the order against the captivating rag.

The voyage of the Korea was marked by many brilliant social functions and informal dances. The fancy-dress ball was conducted with all the elegance and dignity which feature such auspicious events. The dances, however, were informal—informal to the extent that the fair ladies and their gallants could not resist the catching strains of the "Texas Tommy" and the "Grizzly Bear" o' evenings when the deck piano worked overtime.

Whether it was the few staid globe-trotters on board who objected to the "ragging," or whether Captain Nelson acted on his own initiative, was not explained. In any event, there was a polite little chit, purporting to come from the bridge, and addressed to the rag dancers in general, suggesting that the old-time waltz and two-step be adhered to in the merrymaking.

According to the passengers it happened that the captain's Chinese, boy presented the censoring epistle to Miss Magoon.

"Well, of all things," the Honolulu belle is said to have exclaimed as she stamped her foot in the mazes of the "Texas Tommy," "who told our jolly captain that he was a social car?"

Miss Magoon, who was accompanied by her mother and brother, comes here to attend a finishing school. She is a member of the prominent Along family of Hawaii and is said to possess a large fortune in her own right.

Dillingham, a member of the executive committee, and Ralph Hosmer, the club's secretary, accompanied by the reporters, went out in the customs launch to meet the Siberia, and after bobbing round for something over an hour, while the quarantine formalities were complied with, the party climbed aboard and welcomed Dr. Eliot to Hawaii.

On the Alakea wharf as the liner drew in, a knot of Harvard graduates gave the Harvard cheer, with a "three times three tiger" for President Eliot. It was a royal welcome, and the doctor, as he waved his hat in acknowledgment, was deeply touched.

The party was placed in autos and taken to the Moana Hotel, where accommodations have been engaged. There is a possibility that a trip to the Fall will be made this afternoon, but it is more likely that no excursion will be scheduled, in order that the party may have time to rest up for the comparatively strenuous program, which opens with an afternoon reception under the auspices of the Harvard Club, at Harold Dillingham's residence.

A trip round the island Friday, several luncheons and a luau given by James A. Wilder at his Waikiki home Saturday night, go to make up a busy week for the visitors.

OAHU GETS FIRST LEG ON POLO CUP BY BEATING MAUI

LOCAL FOUR COME GAME GREATEST FROM BEHIND EVER SEEN AND WIN HERE

BY LAURENCE REDINGTON.

All the world loves an uphill fight, and when it's the home team that's making the fight, so that local pride and an appreciation of gameness can pull together, and when, to cap the climax, it's a successful fight, not much more can be asked of sport. That's why Honolulu went polo mad Saturday, when, after one of the most exciting and cleanly played games ever seen in the Islands, the Oahu four snatched victory out of the fire, and won an extra-period game from Maui, score 8 to 7.

It was a great game to watch, a grand game to win, but a heart-breaking hard one to lose. At half time Maui led by a score of 6 to 3, and was outplaying Oahu in every department of the game. Victory seemed certain. Then, as if imbued simultaneously with the spirit of fight for a lost cause, the four men in blue found themselves. It was a team transformed that started to pull down that long lead after the ten-minute rest. Slashing at the white sphere from possible and impossible angles, riding hard after the ball and hard after the opposition, with combination fifty per cent improved, Oahu grimly tackled the job of tying the score and forging into the lead.

One goal in the fifth period, and no tangible gain for the locals, although they seemed to be more than holding their own. One goal each in the sixth, and still it looked like a game already won, for each side was scoring only through the makal goal, and making little or no headway up the slope and against the wind. It was not until the seventh period that the crowd woke up to the fact that Oahu had a chance, and that the men were making one of the finest fights ever seen on a polo field, at home or abroad. Play started with Oahu at the big disadvantage of knocking uphill, but right here the tide of victory turned, with the scoring of the game's most sensational goal.

Soon after the throw-in Maui worked the ball down to the lower goal, and threatened at any moment to put it through the sticks. It was hit sharply toward the Walkiki sideboards, and in a flash Harold Castle was on top of it, for the minute crack of the field. He gave it a mighty crack that lifted the white willow high in the air, and hit again for good distance before David Fleming, the Maui back, reached the ball and stopped it with a back-hander, which also sent it into the air. Sam Baldwin was thundering along behind his team mate, and as the ball rose over Fleming's stock, he made a desperate pass at it in mid-air. The odd chance in a hundred came off the ball striking the cane of Baldwin's mallet and falling just in front of Arthur Rice, who was the third galloping Oahu on the line. Rice hit with all his might, but the ball curved even nearer the sideboards, and went bounding and hopping toward the line, but far away from the posts.

And then Arthur Rice made one of those rare shots that so seldom come when really needed. Leaning forward in his saddle and steadying his pony for the final effort, the Oahu back hit a mighty stroke under his pony's neck. So sharp was the angle that the stick bent almost double as the cane brought up against his mount's neck. The ball quartered for the white posts, with three Maui men almost on top of it, and trickled over the coveted line just as the foremost man reached out for it. Not until the goal judge threw up his arm did the crowd that had been following the rapidly changing play in breathless silence realize that it was another score.

Oahu went at it hammer and tongs as the ball came into play in the middle of the field, and in a jiffy was shooting for Maui's downhill goal. Three times the ball was over the line, but in each instance the posts were missed by narrow margins. On

No greater game of polo from a spectators' standpoint has ever been played in Hawaii than that in which Oahu's Blues downed the hard-riding Mauites last Saturday. There may have been harder-fought, more bitterly-contested games, but none in which the tides of fortune alternated to work the rival adherents up to such a pitch of enthusiasm in a few short moments.

It was an ideal day, to begin with. Over the mammoth amphitheater of action in which the galloping fours contested the sun hung unclouded, and the green hills, the brown plain across which the horsemen flung themselves in mad dashes after the streaking white sphere, the yellow sunshine, combined in a brilliant picture, given life and even color by the hundreds upon hundreds of spectators who gathered to see the first of the interisland series.

The attendance was notable. Never before have so many automobiles and carriages ringed the oval enclosure within which the game is fought. By 2 o'clock, the hour set for the game, there were many machines on the west road, and by half-past two the west side of the playing field was lined. Long before and after this the autos and carriages had rolled in a steady procession up from the Moanalua gardens. At 3 o'clock, when the rival teams made ready for the fray, the field was completely encircled, and in some places the machines were barked three and four deep. Also, many cars were left along the road before the field was reached.

A Grand Fight. All the elements for a grand display of this great sport were present, and the game itself was the climax. Beginning with three hard-won goals for each team, the Valley Islanders finally went to the front and left for Oahu and Oahu's supporters little hope and no confidence. Then Walter Dillingham pulled his men together and the team began its superb uphill fight.

When Oahu scored in the sixth period, making five for the Blues and eight for the Yellows, the Oahu adherents began to take heart. In the seventh period Rice's clever goal, adding another to Oahu's score, aroused much enthusiasm, but it was not until Rice repeated a few moments later and the score went to 7 to 8 that the Oahus really began to wake up.

From the sidelines the result of the game could be forecast right there. The last three periods had shown Oahu forcing the pace, taking longer chances, riding perhaps more daringly, certainly more effectively, and, in the snappy idiom of sport, "beating the other fellow to it."

Along the sidelines the comment at the end of the seventh period was that Oahu was entirely outplaying the Maui men, and that the Maui ponies were beginning to feel the effects of the pace.

Oahu's dash and confidence were unbeatable after this. When the score was tied, and the extra period was played, the sidelines knew Oahu had the game.

Some of the greatest playing of the game occurred right under the noses of the people in machines on the west side. It was here that Collins shot a goal from a seemingly impossible angle, so close to the goal line and so far from the posts that the bet was 100 to 1 he couldn't make it. But he made it.

Walter Dillingham pulled off a remarkable piece of work in getting the ball out from the sideboards while his pony was almost off its feet. The pony galloping just outside the boards, stumbled and fell forward into the field. Dillingham held his pony up and slashed the ball back-handed, driving it down the field, and almost with the motion swung his mount after it.

It looked like a sure spill and a yell went up from the male spectators, with real shrieks from feminine voices heard above the roar. But the pony got his feet and went on.

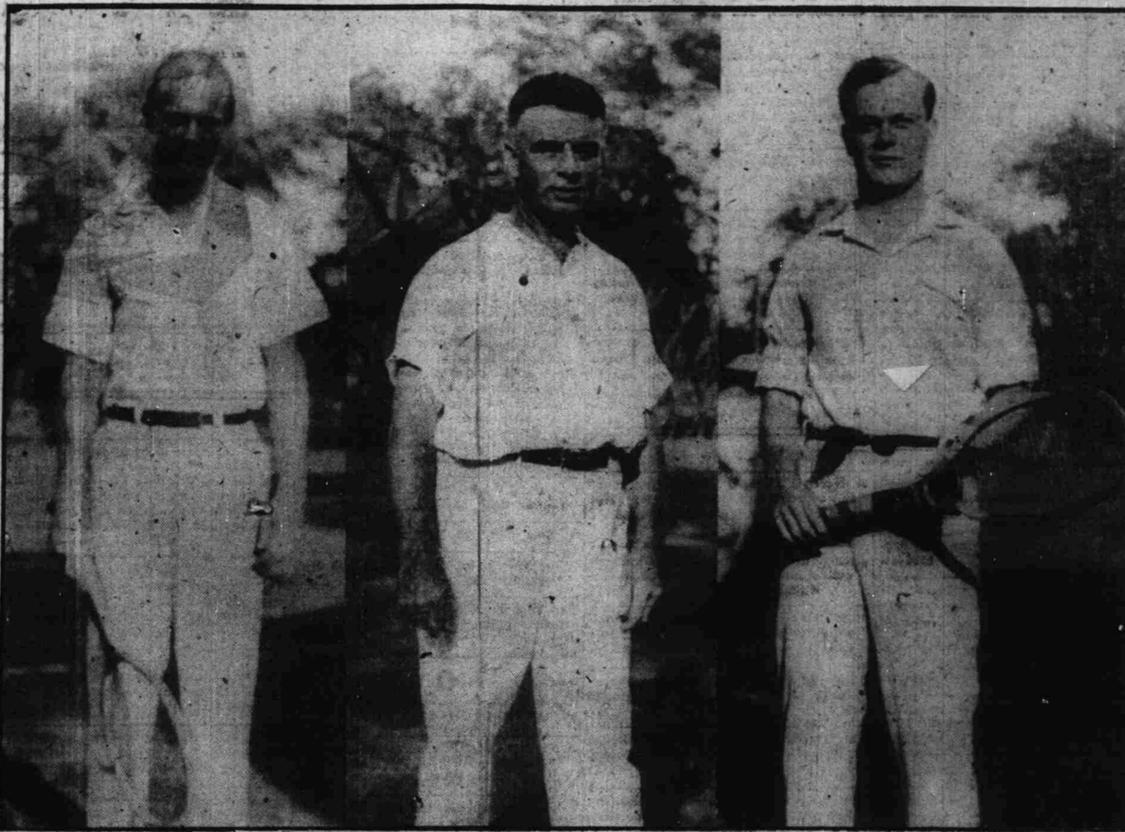

Most of Frank Baldwin's splendid driving runs down the field were made on this side, and Dave Fleming aroused cheers twice by clever work along the boards within a few feet of the parked autos.

Honolulu "Lets Go." The seventh, eighth and ninth periods were marked by enthusiasm such as Honolulu spectators rarely show. Many of those in the cars jumped out and ran up and down the sidelines. One well-known Honolulu man found the strain more than he could bear in silence. He had contented himself with deep imprecations when Maui was forging rapidly ahead of the Blues. However, when the Oahu quartet began to pick up, his voice rose to a pitch of high delight and he stalked up and down the boards with soulful curses that were uttered all unconscious of the spectators.

Judge A. A. Wilder was the life of one party. He had an enormous be-

THREE PROMINENT FIGURES IN THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

J. A. C.'S ANNEX FIRST HALF OF SERIES BY EXTINGUISHING STARS

J. A. C. 6, Stars 4. Well, the J. A. C.'s did it. Again they snatched victory from the grasp of B. Joy & Co., and with the game carried off the championship of the first half of the Oahu League series. As in the first game of the tie series a week ago, the Stars had the contest wrapped up and ready to take home, but the Japanese grabbed the package and made off with it at the last minute.

It was a good game to watch, not only because it contained about everything that makes baseball interesting to the fans, but because of the highly rivalry between the opposing teams, and the attempt at getting Barney Joy's goat that every member of the opposition, and many non-combatants in the stand and bleachers made. Close decisions, costly errors and clean-up hits kept the fans and players on their toes all the time, and gave a line of dope for future discussion that will last well into the second series.

The game was won and lost in the eighth, when the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of the Stars. The J. A. C.'s came to bat, and Markham was out to Winne, unassisted. Hampton hit safely to right, and Burns put one over the third baseman's head. Then Henry Walker waddled up to the plate and laced out a two bagger to right, scoring Hampton. The crowd went wild and the Japanese supporters looked for Barney to aviate, but the big Hawaiian kept his head in good shape, and the best that Buckley could get was a weak pop to first. Tong Medeiros came up smiling, and the fans yelled to him to win his own game. He laid down a fast hopping bunt toward third, which Burns rushed in to field. He fumbled and the ball caromed off Kibbey, who had run over from short to back him up. Two runs came across and the Stars' hopes of winning the first series twinkled out of sight.

The battle of the opposing pitchers was the real feature of the game, with Joy and his doings the main attraction. Everyone wanted to watch that alleged hawk of his throwing to first, over which the Japanese raised such a howl last Sunday, but for the first few innings Barney didn't get much chance to throw to first, for the good reason that the runners who reached the initial corner were few and far between.

In the sticking department Barney starred, getting a two bagger that brought Burns across the pan in the very first inning, the ball going to the deep right fence at the rate of a mile a minute. Next time up Joy pulled the unexpected by hitting to the left foul line for two sacks, and the third time up he got a home run. The Umpire didn't see it that way though, and sent Barney back to the bat, where he was retired second to first. The majority of the fans believed that the ball cleared the right field fence in fair territory, however, and that Joy was entitled to a homer. After that, Medeiros took good care to pass the Star skipper, although the latter raved round the plate and besought the J. A. C. sbsister to put one over so that he could comb it.

The Stars scored three in the third, and looked to have the game all their own way, but that ended their run getting. In the third Buckley got a freak home run, on a hit to right that bounced under the right field bleachers, while Kentnor pawed the air trying to climb over the boards and retrieve it. One hit, a pass and a couple of errors accounted for two more runs in the sixth, and the fatal eighth finished the trick, as above related.

Medeiros pitched a heady game, but he wasn't particularly tight, and was prodigal with his passes, issuing no less than eight, two of which were intentional. The score:

HOW THEY STAND

The big league races are getting hotter every day. In the National League the Giants are beginning to lose, but they are so far ahead that they'll have time to get a bad slump out of their system with a big margin to spare. The Washington team is still the sensation of the American League, and the Boston speed-boys, although well in front, are scared. The standings of four leagues as of July 15 are as follows:

PORTUGUESE TAKE FIRST FROM ASAHIS

The opening game between the Asahis and Portuguese wasn't much to look at, and had it been cut to seven innings the crowd would have been better pleased. The latter team won out, but the Japanese players had several chances to carry off the honors, and failed only through poor judgment in running the bases. The real feature of the game was the fielding of La Mere at third, during the warm-up stunts between innings. He pulled off several sensational stops that were better than anything shown in actual play. One man was painfully injured and had to be carried from the field. This was Murakami, the catcher, who took chances in working behind the bat without a protector, and suffered in consequence. The score by innings:

ISLAND TENNIS TITLES TO BE DECIDED THIS WEEK

TODAY'S SCHEDULE.
Beretania—4 p. m.: W. H. Hoogs Jr. vs. T. D. Collins; Captain Carey vs. C. G. Bockus. 4:30 p. m.: L. Withington vs. C. T. Littlejohn; H. M. von Holt vs. A. J. Lowrey.
Pacific—4:30: John Waterhouse vs. C. Henoch. 5:15: A. Marshall vs. A. L. Castle.
Neighborhood—4:30: W. A. Greenwell vs. L. M. Judd.

The annual championship tournament for the Hawaiian Lawn Tennis Association opens this afternoon, and throughout this week with the exception of Wednesday and Saturday, and during part of next week, play will continue in all five events usually carded. Drawings for the men's singles are all that have been made thus far, but in this event the luck of the draw has brought together some rattling good matches in the preliminary round.

L. Withington and C. Littlejohn, who meet at 4:30 this afternoon at Beretania, should provide some red-hot tennis, and it's a toss-up which player will win out. W. H. Hoogs Jr. and T. D. Collins, who are carded to meet on the same courts at 4 o'clock, should also put up a good argument. In the present tournament the foot-fault rule is to be strictly enforced, according to the management.

Bunts and Bounders

Medeiros walked his usual route—half way to the plate to receive the ball from the catcher, and then round to the side door of the plate. Buckley thought he was Huguey Jennings, and went through all the famous "Eh-Yah" motions.

Medeiros would get over feeding Barney Joy those low straight ones, perhaps the big Hawaiian would quit knocking the ball out of the lot.

Medeiros thought Barney was trying to bean him in the fifth, when he got soaked with a pitched ball. What he said as he limped to first doesn't go down in the records.

Kibbey made a sensational scoop of Kuali's hot grounder in the seventh, and threw nicely to first. With a single exception, he played a good game for the Stars, and filled Reeves' shoes in style.

GAME ENDS IN SCRAP. The ball game yesterday afternoon between the Eagles and Liberties ended in a battle royal, in the fourth inning.

DUKE'S WORK IS FEATURE OF RELAY

Hawaiian Lad Gave His Team-mates a Lead Others Couldn't Overcome

Duke Kahanamoku added more laurels to the big string he won at Stockholm by a marvelous performance in the first heat of the 800-meter race. Duke's splendid swimming gave the American team a safe lead that enabled it to win the event. There were four men to a team, each swimming 200 meters. The Associated Press account of the race, which was swum July 21, says: The first heat in the 800-meter swimming for teams was won by the United States in 10 minutes 26.2-6 seconds; Hungary was second in 10 minutes 34.4-5 seconds, and England third in ten minutes 39.2-5 seconds. America's win was due largely to the lead gained by the Hawaiian, Kahanamoku. In spite of the enforced absence of Longboat, Australia entered a team composed of Hardwick, Healy, Champion and Boardman and swam over in the second heat with Germany. Although they were not pressed the Australians covered the course in 10 minutes 14.2-5 seconds—twelve seconds less than the Americans. The Marathon. Outside of Kahanamoku's wonderful work, the winning of the classic marathon race by a South African is the feature of the dispatches that came to Honolulu by mail this morning. Of this run, the dispatch says: STOCKHOLM, July 14.—Well, we were beaten, but by no means disgraced, in the marathon—the crowning event of the Olympic games. K. K. Arthur, the great South African runner, took the race with nearly two minutes to spare over his fellow countryman, C. W. Giffshaw, who was not quite a minute ahead of Gaston Strobino of Paterson, N. J., the first American to cross the line.

While our runners could not do better than third in the great race, it is worth noting that of the first fifteen men eight were Americans and two were Canadians. Ten Americans finished in the first 20. It is also worthy of note that Strobino, the man who gave the United States her only point in the race, is another of the athletes who were not considered worthy of a place on the regular team, but whose friends raised a subscription to pay his expenses. The Jersey lad ran a great race. In the last six miles he forged steadily to the front, and was pulling up rapidly on the leaders at the finish. The race was a beautiful contest from start to finish. Great crowds lined the 25 miles of the course and the stadium was jammed to the limit. The weather was about the hottest of the meet, with the sun beating down upon the runners with pitiless severity. More than 70 athletes started, representing 18 nations.

The South Africans and Kohlmeier, the wonderful Finn, set the pace from the start, and it was nip and tuck between them for the honors. The pace was too hot for the Finn, who finally dropped out about the time that Strobino began his remarkable bid for first honors. The South Africans were well ahead, with the American contingent closing up. They lasted the distance, however, though McArthur was barely able to stagger across the line when he collapsed. He soon recovered, however, and was given an enthusiastic reception, as was Giffshaw, the only other South African in the race.

Strobino finished strong, sprinting the last 100 meters or so within the stadium, shaking hands with the Americans who crowded around him and walking off the field as though he were ready to go a few more miles if necessary.

Sockalexis, the Maine Indian, came in fourth, showing little signs of strain. Gallagher of Yale was No. 7. The times as announced were: McArthur, 2 hours 35 minutes; Giffshaw, 2 hours 37 minutes 52 seconds; Strobino, 2 hours 38 minutes 42 2-5 seconds.

The Americans gave a death blow to the theory that the athletes of the United States are better at contests that require quickness and agility than in tests of endurance.

when Umpire M. Deas called an Eagle runner out for interfering with a thrown ball. The game stood 9 to 8 in favor of the Liberties, and a runner tried to score from third. The Liberty catcher threw to the bag, and the runner poked out his elbow and deflected the throw. Deas called the man out, and the riot followed. The Eagles walked off the field and the game ended.

GOOD GOLF YESTERDAY. James Greig and C. Grace turned in some fine cards in the monthly play for the president's trophy over the Country Club course yesterday. The former's 73 being low to date. Greig closed off a 39, 42, which, with his handicap of 9, gave him a net 77. Grace, with a handicap of 15, was only one stroke behind. It was a good day for play, and the links were crowded.

SUGAR SHIPMENTS

The Sugar Factors Company has shipped this month to date 36,000 tons making a total shipped for the year of 383,000 tons. Three other cargoes will leave this month. The Honolulu, sailing on the twenty-fourth of July, will take four thousand tons, the Aiekan on the twenty-eighth will have a cargo of 12,000 tons, and the Hawaiian will take about three thousand tons. This will make the July shipments total 55,000 tons. During the month of July last year 65,900 tons were shipped, but the total for the year 1912 to date exceeds the amount shipped for the same period of 1911.

The second half of the Virginian cargo arrived July 17 and was sold at the basis of 3.58. This amounted to but 2800 tons. The first half of the Virginian's cargo, comprising about eight thousand tons, arrived June 11 and sold at 3.778. The cable advising the Sugar Factors Company of the arrival of the last half of the Virginian cargo also says: "All four refineries quote basis 5.10. New business active. Accepting ten points less October."

hive straw hat for one thing and a big bunch of firecrackers for another. He wore the hat at intervals and set off the crackers after the game. The policing should be given especial mention. The road from Fort Shafter to the field was guarded at every turn and greek by police officers who held back flying machines, kept the way clear and averted possible accidents. It's a good plan, to keep this up.

the fourth knock-in Arthur Rice stopped the ball with a clever bankhander, which sent it rolling slowly through the goal. A Wild Rally. The close of this seventh period saw the wildest play of the game. There were several minutes of play remaining after the Baldwin-Castle score, and Oahu drove the ball to the upper end of the field; and made a desperate effort to score through the mauka goal, which would have tied the score and given the locals the down-hill advantage for the next court. Four separate and distinct times the ball hovered between the posts, but each time Frank Baldwin, or Collins, or Harold Rice, or Fleming, made a desperate save, and sent it out of danger toward the sideboards. Try as they would, the blue players couldn't get that much-needed goal, and after the bell rang the ball went out of play a few feet to one side of the pillars.

Here the Oahu supporters almost gave up hope. That had been the great chance, to even matters and start off the final period with the advantage, they argued, and it was too much to expect the team to continue pressing the fight in mauka territory. But Oahu had the encouragement of pulling down a hopeless lead, which Maui was suffering the moral handicap of seeing sure victory snatched away, and the telegraph told in the final stages of the struggle. Maui Dangerous. Maui opened with a rush, and carried the ball down the field for what would almost certainly have been the winning goal, but time and again the Oahuans made a miraculous save, and finally they worked the ball back to the upper end, and started to make things hot for the visitors. Sam Baldwin finally lined out a shot for goal, and Harold Castle, riding neck and neck with a Maui man, gave it the last touch needed to help it over the line.

The score was tied, but four minutes remained to play, and Oahu was hitting down! And in the last minutes of this red-hot game, Maui nearly turned the trick by scoring a deciding shot through the difficult goal.

Men and mounts were going for all that was in them, and again Maui seemed the stronger. But Walter Dillingham had a little in reserve and catching the ball on his stick as it was perilously near to goal, he faced it over to the Eva boards, and had it three-quarters of the way down the field when the gong sounded the end of the last period. Heaving ponies and exhausted men came off the field to prepare for the extra period of play that would determine the winner. The luck was with Oahu, for, although the rules say that in case of a tie the ball is thrown in at the center of the field, there is no change of goal, and, on a sloping field like Maunaloa, the locals, knocking with the slope of the ground and the wind, had a big edge on the situation.

The Deciding Safety. Lieutenant Naylor, hoping most earnestly that he would not be compelled to call a foul and thereby end the game in an unsatisfactory way, bowled the willow between the ponies' legs. Walter Dillingham caught it and sent it on its way toward the Maui posts. It was the last ditch for the Valley Islanders, and they knew it, and fought accordingly. Three times a score seemed certain, and three times Oahu missed by narrow margins.

The fourth time, instead of scampering to their positions for the knock-in, the players crowded together. "What's the matter?" "Was it a foul?" "Anyone hurt?" A volley of excited questions was fired by the spectators. And then came the explanation. David Fleming had hit a safety, subtracting one-quarter of a goal from the Maui score, and ending the game. Of course, it wasn't an intentional safety. He had seen what he thought was a certain goal coming and had tried to deflect it from the posts, but the ball had gone off his stick at an angle, and had crossed the line. After three minutes' play in the extra period, the game was over, and Oahu had secured one leg on the cup. Maui Faster at First.

The game up to half time saw Maui playing rings around Oahu. The local team didn't seem able to get going, and appeared to be suffering from a bad attack of stage fright. Frank Baldwin, the most dangerous hitter on the Maui team, was left practically elude, to get off with spectacular runs and marvelous starts that kept the ball perilously near the blue goal. Walter Dillingham, usually the coolest and most reliable of players, was missing easy bankhanders, and wasn't paying anywhere near to form. Arthur Rice was badly off, and Harold Castle seemed to be having all sort of trouble with his mounts, which kept him out of the game a good part of the time.

All the more credit then, for the fine brace and ultimate victory. A team that can pull itself together and deliver the goods against odds, is a good team to tie up in the long run. And all credit to the losers, who carried their keen disappointment behind the smiles of true sportsmen, and who didn't beef over the hard luck which kept three of their best ponies out of the game at a time when they were most needed. Individually, as good fellows, and collectively as good polo players, the men from Maui deserve the highest praise. Clean Play. The game was full of incident, but free from accident, and there wasn't a single spill to mar the day's sport. "It was one of the cleanest games I ever saw," said Lieutenant Naylor, the ninth man on the field. "Only once or twice was there any questionable riding, and then it was entirely unintentional, and not sufficient to warrant calling a penalty in a game of this kind. It was a clean fight throughout. To describe Saturday's game in detail would require several pages of type, for the ball moved fast, and the periods were replete with brilliant hitting and daring riding. There were several runs that stood out as remarkable, however, one of them being an uphill goal by Frank Baldwin, where he carried the ball the entire length of the field in two shots to a score, a feat that no player who is familiar with the Maunaloa field would have thought possible. It was about the hardest hitting ever seen here. At one time or another every player started, but to sum the game up briefly, Maui played better than they had in previous years, while Oahu didn't seem to get together as a scoring and defensive machine until both men and mounts had gotten over a streak of williness that characterized the play of the opening periods. The next game of the series will be played Wednesday afternoon, between Maui and the Fifth Cavalry. If Maui loses, it will be out of the running for good, but if the Valley Isle team wins, there is still the chance of a three-way tie, such as last year's tournament produced.

NO CAUSE TO DOUBT

A Statement of Facts Backed by a Strong Guarantee

We guarantee immediate and positive relief to all sufferers from constipation. In every case where our remedy fails to do this we will return the money paid us for it. That's a frank statement of facts, and we want you to substantiate them at our risk. Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity. Rexall Orderlies are unsurpassable and ideal for the use of children, old folks and delicate persons. We cannot too highly recommend them to all sufferers from any form of constipation and its attendant evils. That's why we back our faith in them with our promise of money back if they do not give entire satisfaction. Three sizes: 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents and 80 tablets 50 cents. CHURCH MEMBERS ENJOY PICNIC

The members of the Apostleship of prayer of the Catholic church of this city gave their first annual picnic yesterday at the Kalihi Valley Orphanage. At the noon hour a bountiful cold lunch with lemonade was served to all attending. At half past one the sermon of the Apostleship of Prayer was preached by one of the Fathers of the church. Following this there was a chapel service. Everybody present was decorated with a ribbon badge. During the afternoon the members of the church band rendered a delightful concert. There was a good time had by all present and the picnic was rated a decided success. It was planned to hold next year's picnic at Waialua.
