Undervaluation Scandal Will Be Unearthed by Agent, Is Report

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable]
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 29.—It was learned here today definitely by the Star-Bulletin correspondent that the investigation that Special Agent Peyton Gordon, of the Department of Justice, has been sent to make in Hawaii has to do with alleged undervaluations of importations from Japan to Honolulu, San Francisco and other American ports.
Gordon is expected to obtain evidence for presentation to the federal grand jury in Honolulu, and it is learned that this evidence is expected to turn against Hawaiian importers.

The information above has been expected in some quarters here, and there have been intimations that the special agent would also take up other matters. The matter of undervaluation of imports, it is thought, has been revealed through the work of W. H. Tidwell, of the Treasury Department, who conducted a quiet sleuthing around the islands some weeks ago.

No added information could be obtained today on this subject from Governor Frazier, U. S. District Attorney R. W. Breckons, or Customs Collector E. H. Gunkle, the two last named declining to discuss the news, saying that such information must be gained from the special agent or from the Attorney General at Washington.

It is intimated in other sources, however, that during the trial of one man here some time ago on the charge of undervaluing imported merchandise, the defendant testified in effect that "everybody was doing it," or that it was a common practice, and that further investigation on the strength of this hint had developed the fact that there was more or less truth in the defendant's assertion.
It is said that Special Agent Gordon's evidence will be largely the result of these later investigations. Just how far-reaching the inspection and the evidence may be, probably will not be fully known until it has been presented to the federal grand jury and that body has taken action.

HACKFELD CABLE GIVES STATUS OF SUGAR BILL

H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., received the following cablegram from its New York office this morning:
"Sugar bill has passed the Senate, 52 against 3.
Proposed duty 76 degrees, 95 cents.
Additional for each degree, two and three-fifths cents. Polarization 100 figures $1.60.
Cuba 20 per cent. less.
"Dutch standard and refined differential abolished.
"Bill will likely pass House, with the probability that it will be signed by the President of the United States."

COMMISSION IN ROW OVER SCHOOL DESKS

Marquez Threatens to Enjoin Letting of Contract to Another

LOWEST BIDDER DOES NOT GET THE BUSINESS

Turned Down, He Maintains the Specifications Shut Out All but One Firm

The Hawaiian News Company was awarded the contract for school desks by the Oahu Loan Fund Commission this morning, although its bid was the highest of three, being $2957 against $2939.60 bid by Arleigh & Company and $2814.65 bid by the Office Supply Company—an excess of $14.70 in one instance and $142.35 in the other.
The matter was decided on a strict construction of the specifications, particularly with reference to the seat hinges, and the specifications it is declared, were plainly intended to shut out any desk but the "Peabody," the kind offered by the successful bidder. There was just one opening for a dispute in that regard, being the words "or its equivalent" following a prescription of one of the two or three "Peabody" types of attachments.

HOME RULERS LOSING MANY OLD LEADERS

Convention That Began Today Shows Great Decrease in Delegates

"Let the people have free hands"
With the above statement sounded through the convention hall, and with President Chas. K. Nottley seated in his chair on an elevated platform, the eighth convention of the Home Rule party was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning in Nottley Hall on Kukui street.

Nottley, who will unquestionably be nominated as a candidate for Delegate to Congress, on the Home Rule ticket, said this morning that he has always been in favor of letting the people have free hands in political matters. He believed that it is wrong for any party leaders to use coercion, as he said was evidenced during the Republican convention. This morning he told his Home Rule friends that they could nominate another man for Delegate to Congress on the Home Rule party, if they saw fit to do so, but as the committee on credentials, consisting of Jno. A. Baker, W. N. Kaahipapa and one other, failed to make its report at noon today the convention took a recess, subject to the call of the chair.
Not imposing.
Unlike former years, the convention of the Home Rule party was not imposing. The hall, which was filled to

DEATH COMES TO EMPEROR AT END OF LONG STRUGGLE

Report First Denied And Then Completely Confirmed

The first news of the death of the Mikado was given to Honolulu by the Star-Bulletin shortly after nine o'clock on the receipt of a "dash" by Associated Press cable. The report of the Mikado's death was formally denied by the Japanese consulate upon receipt of cabled news from Washington, but within a short time the consulate also received the report of the death.

DEATH FOLLOWS TWO WEEKS OF ILLNESS

[Associated Press Cable]
TOKIO, Japan, July 29.—Emperor Mutsuhito died at 12:43 o'clock and Crown Prince Yoshihito has been proclaimed emperor from the steps of the palace. All the imperial princes were present and a vast crowd heard the proclamation.

[Associated Press Cable]
TOKIO, Japan, July 29.—Emperor Mutsuhito is dead, and Yoshihito his son reigns in his stead.
The death of the monarch at 12:43 p. m. followed two weeks of illness during which time the greatest physicians of the empire have been in attendance and every recourse known to medical science has been used in the battle for his life.

Yesterday afternoon the emperor reposed into a coma and it was announced by the attending physicians that death was but the matter of a few hours. The ministers of state with the members of the imperial families kept vigil through the night at the palace. The crown prince Yoshihito assumed the sceptre as death closed his father's eyes.

Mutsuhito was the 121st ruler of an unbroken dynasty founded 600 . C. and he was probably the most famous of his line. Under his reign which began in 1868 when after a brief war he overthrew the Shogun, Japan moved solitude in which the nation had held itself for centuries and became one of the greatest of the world powers.

During his career on the throne Japan waged two great wars, one with China and the second and last with Russia and was victorious in both conflicts.

Mutsuhito was born at Kyoto, Nov. 3, 1852, and succeeded his father Komei Tenno in 1867. He was married Dec. 28, 1868 to Princess Ikaruko, daughter of Prince Ichijo. By the ancient and regular law of succession the crown devolves upon the eldest son.

That Japan has a constitutional government is due in a great measure to the initiative of Mutsuhito. When he succeeded to the throne the power of the Mikado was absolute, although its exercise was controlled to some extent by custom and public opinion, but in 1875 when the Senate and Supreme Judicial Tribunal were founded EMPEROR MUTSUHITO OF JAPAN, WHO IS DEAD IN THE FORTY-FIFTH YEAR OF HIS REIGN.

YOSHIHITO, CROWN PRINCE OF JAPAN, WHO SUCCEEDS TO IMPERIAL THRONE ON DEATH OF FATHER

AN APPRECIATION OF MUTSUHITO

By PROF. M. M. SCOTT.
(Mr. Scott was decorated two months ago by Emperor Mutsuhito with the Fourth Order of the Rising Sun.)

The deceased Emperor of Japan ascended the ancient throne of his ancestors in the year 1868, at the age of 15. He has, therefore, reigned for 45 years, and yet was not by any means an old man. His reign during this time was the most momentous and far-reaching of any in this ancient empire—perhaps the most remarkable in the changes that have gone on during that time of any nation in history.

He found his country beset with grave difficulties, both internal and external. For seven hundred years there existed in Japan a feudalism, the most unique and perfect that the world has ever seen. It was his glory to see this ancient feudalism changed into a strong, united national government. In addition to this, foreign complications were settled and perfected on an honorable and perfect basis, giving Japan entire supervision over her external affairs. With all her poverty, an admirable system of schools and universities has been organized, as well as an efficient army and navy that are recognized as among the world most perfect organizations. A parliamentary system of government, unifying the laws in accordance with those of the most advanced nations, has been established. Scientific investigations that Japan's students have made are recognized the world over.

Indeed, changes have gone on so rapidly in Japan during his reign that some witty statesman in Europe said that Japan was the only nation in history that had "jumped out of her own skin." All these changes, and many more of a like nature, have been made during the forty-five years upon the throne of the deceased Emperor. The Japanese people and her statesmen had already begun to look for-

HOW SUGAR TRUST TRIED TO CRUSH

[Associated Press Cable]
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 29.—Harry Oxnard, the sugar magnate, today testified before the sugar trust investigators that Henry Havemeyer began a campaign in 1901 to crush the American beet sugar producers, the Missouri river valley territory being his particular point of attack.
He said that he himself was confronted with the proposition of selling half of his stock or going out of business. A letter from Havemeyer to James Stillman, the New York banker, was introduced, in which Havemeyer said he was ready to establish a community of interest with the Oxnards providing that they would transfer half of their stock.

OAHU COLLEGE WIPES OUT DEBT IN REMARKABLE YEAR

Financial Statement Just Issued Is a Splendid Record

Oahu College's debt has been wiped out and a year of remarkable progress made, according to a report that has been prepared by P. C. Jones, treasurer, for the president and trustees of the institution.

The report, which is very comprehensive and which shows the finances of the college and Punahou Preparatory School in the smallest detail, is one that few educational institutions of the United States can equal. In fact, when Dr. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard, was taken to see the college and told of its successful financial year by President Grithins, he remarked that it was a splendid record and that Harvard could not equal it but was running some hundreds of thousands of dollars behind.

"The year just closed," says Mr. Jones in his report, "has been the most successful in the history of the college."
"Notwithstanding the severe loss sustained by the total destruction by fire of Castle Hall on August 2, 1911, we have had a most prosperous year and the value of the estate today is a little over one million dollars. The final balance of all operating expenses and receipts for the year shows a credit balance of $3851.94. The debt of the college June 30, 1911, was $10,871.72. This has been entirely wiped out."
"The loss and gain account was at the beginning of the present year $241,842.43. Today this account shows a credit of $468,288.56, a gain during the year of $226,446.13."
"Taking up in detail the finances of the college, Mr. Jones refers at length to the successful handling of

LEPER SETTLEMENT GIVES GENEROUSLY TO DUKE FUND

Public is Waking Up and Donations Are Now Coming Through Faster

More than one hundred dollars has been added to the Duke Kahanamoku fund and at last the public is beginning to respond in a way that gives promise of speedy success for the plan to buy the Hawaiian boy who has won the highest swimming honors in the world a house and lot as an appreciation of his efforts and the advertising he has given this country.

Never was there a donation to the fund that meant as much as one of $47.05 that arrived at the Star-Bulletin office this morning from the leper settlement. When it is realized that a big percentage of their scanty allowance the people of the Molokai settlement have made, their generosity and desire to see the fund grow will be appreciated at its real value. Many of them gave every cent they had in the world.

FIRMS FILE PETITIONS TO CONFIRM TITLES

Petition to register and confirm the title to the property beginning with the Arlington Hotel, on Hotel street, and extending down Fort street to and including the Boston building, was filed in the Court of Land Registration this morning by C. Brewer & Co., Ltd. The assessed value of the land sought to be registered is $375,000.
The same firm also filed a petition to register and confirm title to property on the northeast side of Fort street, above Hotel street, assessed at $6919.
The Hawaiian Trust Company, Ltd. for the estate of J. G. Hayselden, filed petition to register and confirm title to the property back of the O. R. & L. Co. roundhouse, on King street. The assessed valuation sought to be registered is $9000.

This morning the Star-Bulletin received a telephone message from the plantation that a substantial amount has been raised at the plantation and is being sent to this paper. It did not reach the Star-Bulletin in time for full acknowledgment today, but the donation will be published tomorrow. This is a sample of how the public is coming to the front to show its goodwill toward Duke.

The Honolulu Photo Supply Company and Photographer Williams this morning sent over $12.90 additional from the sale of their handsome hand-painted postal card photos of Duke in action. There is a big run on these photos and many people are securing them from the Photo Supply company.

LINER LURLINE BRINGS BIG CARGO FOR HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Proceeding from San Francisco to Honolulu through smooth seas and favorable winds, the Matson Navigation Company's liner Lurline, is nearing the islands, and according to a late wireless received this morning at the agency of Castle & Cooke, the steamer should arrive at this port early Wednesday morning.

The Lurline, in command of Captain Henry Weeden, sailed from San Francisco with 35 cabin and 8 steerage passengers for this port.

There is a very large cargo of general merchandise in the vessel of which 4522 tons will be discharged here before the vessel is dispatched for Kahului, with 831 tons.

A later mainland mail amounting to 245 sacks is due to arrive for the island in the vessel.

The Lurline will be berthed at the old Hackfeld, now known as the Matson wharf.

Demand for Steamers Increases.

With quantities of freight left behind on nearly every trip of trans-Pacific passenger- and cargo-carriers, a scarcity of tonnage is reported and the demand for vessels in the Orient becomes more pressing.

In consequence the N. Y. K., the O. S. K. and the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha, all Japanese companies, chartered a large number of vessels and therefore reduced considerably the number of vessels heretofore for hire. Lately the chartering charges in the Orient have advanced very considerably and the Oriental Marine Transportation Circle is suffering from a great difficulty in getting good boats on charter.

In order to somewhat relieve this shortage, the N. Y. K. and the O. S. K. have purchased two old British steamers, which are now being converted into cargo vessels. One of these is the British Monarch (4700 tons) and the Erney (4000 tons), which were purchased by the O. S. K.

Japanese Purchase Foreign Tonnage.

The Danish ship Siam, which has recently been purchased by the Kishida Steamship Company at a cost of $500,000 yen, arrived here last Saturday. She is a vessel of 6,500 tons and was launched in 1898. It is said that other local companies intend purchasing foreign steamers of a further tonnage of 70,000 and the program drawn up is expected to be carried out by October, this year.

Another Japanese company, the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha, has also purchased a 1,000-ton boat in England, but so far has refused to make the name public for business reasons. As the marine transport circle in Europe is much more brisk than the Oriental the price of chartering value of these vessels has risen considerably and by the time a vessel of about 4,000 tons capacity arrives in Japan, taken on the spot, she is worth about $300,000.

Eric in Strict Quarantine.

A strict quarantine has been exercised by the federal medical officers against the American schooner Eric, which vessel arrived at Honolulu last Thursday from Tocopilla, with a full cargo of nitrates from the South American port.

The Eric, coming from a country where extreme precautions must necessarily be taken to guard against infection through mosquitoes, the local authorities are giving the vessel a thorough fumigation. One feature that serves to delay the work is the fact that the nitrates carried in the Eric are of an inflammable nature.

The Eric is expected to be brought from quarantine to the railway wharf tomorrow morning, according to the present expectations of the quarantine officers.

Sonoma Has Room for Many.

The Oceanic steamship Sonoma, which sailed from Sydney, N. S. W., on Friday destined for Pago Pago, Honolulu and San Francisco, has room for 122 additional cabin passengers from this port to the coast.

A cable has been received at the agency of C. Brewer & Co., giving detailed information as to the number and location of all available state-rooms on board that vessel.

The Sonoma is expected to arrive here August 9th. The receipt of the cable today makes the berthing of passengers from Honolulu to San Francisco a comparatively easy matter for the corps of accommodating officials at the local Oceanic office.

At the present time about ninety applications for transportation to the mainland in the Sonoma have been received.

Several Steamers Make Port.

Sunday witnessed the arrival of several coasting steamers, each bringing a general cargo of Hawaiian products, for the most part composed of sugar.

The Kinau, from Kaula with 7000 sacks sugar, 20 sacks coconuts, and 225 packages sundries, has been discharged and will load today for a return trip to the Garden Island.

The Mikahala is being discharged of a miscellaneous cargo including calves, chickens, eggs, hides, 75 pigs and 160 packages sundries. The Mikahala met with heavy swells and strong winds on the homeward voyage.

From Anahola with 10,800 sacks sugar the steamer Maui was a Sunday arrival and the sugar is being discharged as rapidly as possible with a view to early dispatch of the vessel to Hawaii. The Maui also met with rough weather.

The Likeli, from Honolulu, is being discharged of 6523 sacks sugar supplied by Hawi mill.

Damara to Fly U. S. Flag.

The British steamer Damara, which went ashore of Port Point on October 8, 1910, and was abandoned by her owners to the underwriters, is to become an American ship by virtue of the fact that she was repaired in an American shipyard. The vessel was salvaged by the underwriters and sold to the Union Iron Works, which in turn sold her to her present owners, Eschen & Minor of San Francisco. The vessel was repaired at the Union Iron Works. A bill has just been passed granting her American registry. On her next arrival at San Francisco the American flag will be raised to the masthead.

Divers Inspect Luka Below Water Line.

A diver was sent down to make a minute inspection of the bottom of the little auxiliary powered schooner Luka today, and much time was spent in carrying forward the investigation.

The Luka is being made ready for another cruise in the south sea, at which it is planned to have the vessel call at Fanning and Washington Islands, with a possible stop at Christmas Island, the former copra preserves of Father Rougier, the south sea Copra King.

The vessel recently left the marine railway after having received a cleaning and repainting.

China to Arrive This Afternoon.

The Pacific Mail liner China, with one thousand tons of cargo, from Hongkong and the Japanese ports should arrive at quarantine on or about three o'clock this afternoon according to a late wireless message received at the agency of H. Hackfeld and Company. The liner was two hundred and eighty miles from Honolulu at eight o'clock last night. This steamer has room for a small number of cabin passengers for San Francisco and is expected to sail for the coast tomorrow morning.

Pollitician Expected Daily.

The Harrison Direct line freighter Pollitician, from European ports with 2500 tons general cargo for Honolulu, including fertilizer and merchandise, is expected to arrive at this port daily. The vessel and cargo come consigned to the Fred. Waldron Company, Limited. The Pollitician is to be berthed at the railway wharf unless the vessel reaches port too late to permit the berthing of the American-Hawaiian freighter Arizona, in which event the Pollitician will be sent to the Hackfeld wharf for discharge.

War and Rumors of War.

TACOMA, Wash., July 8. — Unless an agreement be reached shortly between the various steamship companies and the Japanese lines with regard to the proposal of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Osaka Shosen Kaisha and Toyo Kisen Kaisha, to reduce the freight rates on tea from Japan a rate war will take place, according to advice received by the steamer Antiochus, which reached port yesterday from Liverpool and Asiatic ports.

Schooner to Load Sugar.

The American schooner Honoipu is to take on a shipment of sugar at the port of Hana, Maui, according to report that has reached this city with the arrival of the steamer Likeli. The Honoipu is being discharged of a consignment of general cargo forwarded from San Francisco. It is expected to leave Honoipu on or about August 3rd, and will proceed to Hana, to load sugar for the coast refineries.

Material for Wharf Construction.

Material for repairs and reconstruction of the railway wharves has arrived from Sound ports in the American schooner Prosper, which entered the harbor yesterday afternoon. The vessel brought a full cargo of timber, consigned to the Oahu Railway and Land Company. Work of discharging the schooner began this morning as the vessel lies at the upper end of the railway wharf.

Another wireless from the Oceanic Steamship Sierra is as follows: O. S. S. Sierra, en route to San Francisco, July 28, 8 p. m.—Sixteen hundred miles from San Francisco.

ODDS AND ENDS AT THE PORT

One thousand tons general cargo from the Orient is to arrive here today. Pending the arrival of the Pacific Mail liner China from the Orient today, Alakea wharf is free from freight.

The bark Andrew Welch was fumigated yesterday, preparatory to departure for San Francisco with a full load of sugar.

A shipment of fuel oil for Honolulu is en route in the American oil-tanker J. A. Chanslor, which sailed from the coast last Saturday.

A slow passage is recorded for the American schooner Carrier Dove, which sailed from Kahului on June 29 and arrived at Puget Sound ports yesterday.

The little steamer Noeua is on the berth for departure for Kaula ports at five o'clock this evening, taking cargo for windward points on the Garden Island.

Midway Island reports the arrival of the little cable supply schooner Flaurence Ward last Saturday. The vessel proceeded to the cable station by the way of Fanning Island.

With lumber the American schooner Robert R. Hind has been dispatched from Astoria destined for Honolulu. The vessel sailed from the Oregon port last Saturday.

All cargo brought to this port in the belated bark Nuuanu is subjected to a survey before being turned over to the consignees. The freight is discharged at Richards street wharf.

Bringing a large number of passengers and a later mail from the coast of Asia by the way of Honolulu, the Pacific Mail liner Siberia arrived at San Francisco at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

According to Captain Josselyn of the bark Nuuanu, the Falkland Islands afford a resting-place for the hulks of a score or more fast clipper ships and windjammers, once the pride and glory of the seven seas.

James Friel, in charge of the Inter-island wharf office, is enjoying a brief vacation at Kona and Kau, Hawaii. While the genial "Jimmy" is away, Oliver Scott, of the general office is holding down the lid at the big wharf.

Her allegation of extreme cruelty against Kalala this morning was granted a divorce from James Kalala. Judge Whitney today granted a divorce to Tina Yamamoto from Hihirogo Yamamoto, on the showing of non-support.

N. W. Brundage, who some time ago filed a petition for divorce from Helen V. Brundage, this morning filed notice of discontinuance of the action.

John Mattos has been ordered by Judge Whitney to pay his wife, Palma de Mattos, temporary alimony of $50 a month, in addition to attorney's fees and costs of the pending divorce suit.

SCHOOL DESKS

On the vote being taken first, Marston Campbell was absent and a tie resulted, Mayor Fern and Supervisor Dwight voting for and Chairman Adams and Secretary Petrie against a motion to award the contract to the Office Supply Company as the lowest bidder. Mr. Campbell was sent for and after being informed of the point of difference, promptly sided with the negative. Then, by a reverse vote with the same lineup on each side, a motion carried to award the contract to the Hawaiian News Company.

Besides the members of the commission there were present H. Stuart Johnson, the Commission engineer, Deputy Attorney General A. G. Smith, John H. Soper, representing the Hawaiian News Company, C. N. Marquez, representing the Office Supply Company with the "Acme" desk, and William N. Patten, representing A. B. Arleigh & Company with the "No-nonsense" desk.

Fern Favors Low Bid.

Mayor Fern, after the agents had shown the points of their respective desks, said that if they were going to go by the recommendations of school officials, there would be no need of specifications. The desks appeared to be very much alike. He understood all three of the desks were used in the schools today and he had not heard anybody say one desk was any better than another. He moved that the contract be awarded to the lowest bidder.

Mr. Dwight seconded the motion saying that if the tenders were called for a specified make there would be no competition.

Mr. Petrie said he felt as he did before. He did not think the difference in cost was offset by a difference in quality.

Mr. Adams said that, on general principles, if a desk was satisfactory it was satisfactory whether it had a certain filigree or not. They had called for bids on certain specifications and two of the desks shown were not up to the specifications.

Mr. Smith gave the opinion that the only question was whether the desks conformed to the specifications. If the one in the lowest bid was not equivalent to the specifications they were authorized to award the contract to the lowest bidder.

Mr. Adams made an argument on the hypothetical case of a contract to furnish shotguns.

Mr. Fern replied that the desks could not all be made alike, but the only difference apparent was in the hinges.

Mr. Adams next argued on the simple of a paving contract—if the specified proportion of crushed rock was not given the contract would not hold.

Mr. Fern denied that the cases were similar. In the matter of hinges the desks were different, but the specifications stated that the "equivalent" would be accepted.

Only Question of Hinge.

Mr. Marquez stated that on the mainland tenders for desks were called for by numbers, and patents had nothing to do with the awards if the desks were of standard types. In reply to a remark by the chair on the specifications, he said: "We admit we cannot give you a desk with the same kind of hinge as it is a patent."

Mr. Soper remarked, "We give a 15-year guarantee, to which Mr. Marquez retorted, "We give a 20-year guarantee on ours."

The vote was then taken and resulted in a tie as already stated.

"It is a deadlock," announced the chair, "and to decide the question we must have the other member of the commission present."

Mr. Campbell, arriving in a few minutes in response to a telephone summons, made the remark, on looking at the document: "This is an advertisement, practically, for a Peabody desk." After examining the desks he was ready to vote, and the motion was lost by three to two.

Mr. Petrie then moved, seconded by Mr. Campbell, that the contract be awarded to the Hawaiian News Company, which carried by the ayes of Adams, Campbell and Petrie.

Belt Road Contracts.

Mr. Johnson, on being asked about the belt road contracts, said the work on contract for section one had not yet started, J. H. Wilson, the contractor, being absent from the Territory. In reply to Mr. Campbell, he stated that no time to start work was in the contract.

Regarding the Lord-Young contract on section two, macadamizing had been started in one place, while grading was progressing in another. Macadamizing had been suspended for

OAHU EXPERIMENTS CAUSE CHANGE IN ARMY SIGNAL CODE

Cumbersome Myer System Abandoned in Favor of Continental Morse and Service Wireless Operators Will Profit By the Change.

Of far greater importance than appears from the mere printed order, is the recent change in army regulations, which entirely does away with the cumbersome Myer code, and brings all army signaling, both visual and radio, under what is known as Continental Morse. This sweeping change, which affects the navy as well as the land forces of Uncle Sam, is largely due to experimental work done right here on Oahu, and when a joint board of army and navy officers met to thresh out the matter of a signal code, local results are believed to have cut a large figure in the ultimate action.

The change means that signalmen in the army will learn to speak an international language of dots and dashes, and that those who become expert wireless operators while wearing the uniform can step right out of the service into well-paid and responsible jobs with the commercial wireless concerns. There is a dearth of wireless operators at present, and the signal corps expert has something definite to look forward to since the new regulation has gone into effect, should he care to quit the service when his time is up.

What is known as the Myer code is a cumbersome system of numeral combinations representing the different letters and figures, to be executed with the heliograph, searchlight or wire-want of water, but this was now to be obtained from the Army camp and the work will proceed.

Mr. Johnson reported that, according to the authorization of last meeting, a horse, saddle and bridle had been bought for $200. This was approved and the meeting adjourned.

"I think I will bring an injunction suit to stop the school desk contract," said Charles N. Marquez, manager of the Office Supply Co., this afternoon.

"I don't see what right Superintendent Pope had to recommend the Peabody desk above all others to the commission. A few months ago we sold a lot of these desks"—pointing to the sample of the "Ace" just returned from the loan commission office—to the department of education at a price the same as $150 below the Hawaiian News Co.'s bid. They are being used today in a number of the schools.

"I asked Mr. Pope why, after accepting these desks before, he should have advised buying only the Peabody desk, and he said that was a different matter altogether.

"Now I propose to spend some money to find out if a square deal can not be had."

DEATH COMES TO MUTSUHITO

he solemnly declared his earnest desire to have a constitutional form of government, and this was formed in 1889.

New Emperor a Modern.

Yoshihito, who now takes up the reigns of government, is but 33 years old. He has never been beyond the confines of Japan, but has received a thoroughly modern education in the arts of war and peace. He speaks English and French fluently and is an advocate of all that is modern in the conduct of state affairs. The new emperor was formerly Princess Kujō. They have been married 12 years and have three sons.

Appriated of the death of the Emperor by the Star-Bulletin, the local consulate of the empire was at first loth to credit the news, on the ground that it had received a dispatch this morning stating that the condition of the royal sufferer was unchanged. An hour later, however, the consulate was officially informed of the Emperor's death.

This afternoon the Japanese of the city were awaiting instructions from Tokio as to the period and nature of the mourning to be observed.

"It is the first time since the establishment of the present empire of Japan that a death of a ruler has occurred," said Acting Consul Mori today, "and naturally we must await instructions as to the mourning for the Emperor. The flag on the consulate has been placed at half-mast, and I have sent messages all over the islands notifying the people of the Emperor's death. Flags will be half-masted everywhere. All projected entertainments will be abandoned, and there will be no ball games in which Japanese teams take part until the time of mourning is over.

"The Emperor was greatly beloved by his people, and his death will be mourned as a personal loss."

Under bond of $500,000 W. C. Parke this morning was appointed executor of the will and estate of Annie S. Parke, by Circuit Judge Whitney. The estate is said to have an approximate valuation of about $500,000.

Secretary Wakeman of the American Protective Tariff league says Wilson's election would be a serious menace to the industries of the country.

The Indian Appropriation Bill, amended so as to add about $4,000,000 to the $13,000,000 appropriated by the house, passed the senate.

James A. Carol has been appointed superintendent of the Osage Indian reservation, Oklahoma, to succeed Hugh Fitzner, resigned.

REVELATIONS BY FIELD MAY HIT BOND ISSUES

(Special Star-Bulletin Telegram)

HILO, T. H., July 29.—In a special report to the Hilo board of trade, H. Gooding Field, special accountant employed to investigate Hawaii county finances, declared Saturday that it is absolutely impossible for him to ascertain the financial status of the county until an audit made. He says the system is not constructed on sound principles of public accounting and long irregularities have been permitted every opportunity to ripen into actual abuses. He finds it impossible to state with any degree of accuracy whether the accounts fairly disclose the position of the county. The trade board thinks the status of affairs will seriously affect future bond issues.

HATCHET THROWN AT THE PREMIER

DUBLIN, July 18.—The arrival of Prime Minister Asquith in Dublin to-night was characterized by much popular enthusiasm and also by disturbances on the part of the suffragettes. An attempt made by the suffragettes to hold a demonstration on the arrival of the Prime Minister's boat was frustrated by the authorities, but during the progress of the party to the Hotel Gresham a hatchet was thrown at his carriage.

It was at first reported that the weapon struck John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, on the head, but this proved to be erroneous.

Redmond was slightly injured while entering the hotel, where the crush was so great that his head was jammed against the door.

When he appeared on the balcony with the Prime Minister it was seen that his head was bleeding and it was supposed that it was due to a blow from the hatchet.

Two women who occupied a box at the Dublin Theater, where Asquith will speak tomorrow, threw a blazing chair into the orchestra and set fire to the box turtles, causing a panic. One of the women escaped, but the other, who gave the name of Gladys Evans and said she came from England, was arrested. After this incident two English suffragettes handed in a statement at the offices of the Irish Times in which they declared they had come to Ireland with a full sense of the responsibility of having accepted the challenge of the Right Honorable Lancaster, by burning, not an English castle, but a Dublin theater.

its utmost capacity during the previous conventions of the Home Rule Party, was not crowded this morning when President Notley called for order. There were about 50 staunch Home Rulers present; but they made things move.

With the exception of roll-call and examination of the credentials of the delegates from Maui, Hawaii and Oahu, no important action was taken this morning. During the early part of the convention the aged Home Ruler, who still believe in the monarchical form of government, sang "Kuu Aina Honau E" with vim and enthusiasm. After that D. Kalaokalani, Sr., vice-president of the Home Rule party, offered invocation.

Afternoon Session.
At 2 o'clock this afternoon, important matters will be brought up for discussion. D. Kalaokalani, Sr., who joined the Progressive party, may be asked by some of the delegates to explain his reasons for affiliating himself with a new party.

Notley Silent.
President Notley, when asked this morning about his views as to Kalaokalani's attitude in the matter, said that any man has a perfect right to affiliate with any political party.

"It is the man's prerogative," said the genial Home Rule leader, "to affiliate with a party which he thinks will benefit him politically or otherwise."

Luau.
Late this afternoon the Home Rule delegates were guests of Pres. Notley at an elaborate luau prepared in the mauka room.

This evening, it is expected, a mass meeting of the Home Rule party will be given in Notley Hall.

The delegates present were: J. Annie, W. N. Kauhupaula, S. W. Kamakona, A. E. Hiwauli, Louis Kamaka, Napoliona Puanui, Jno. Kaanana, Kopa Kanlana, R. N. Kama-kahukilani, K. N. Party Twelve Years Old.
The Home Rule party was organized in 1900, shortly after the amalgamation of the Ahui Kalalaina and Abahui Alaha Aina. The late R. W. Wilcox was the first Delegate to Congress. He was the Home Rule candidate who carried victory on election day. Since his death in 1903, Chas. K. Notley has been his successor. It is believed that Notley will receive the nomination in the convention of the Home Rule party this afternoon.

OAHU COLLEGE'S SPLENDID YEAR

The College Hills tract. Last January the balance of the lots were sold to the Trent Trust Company. The statement is from the beginning of 1900, when the trustees voted to convert what was then a cow pasture into residence property. In March, 1901, an auction sale gave the tract a fine send-off.

The college had to put in the water-works and bear the expense of putting the Rapid Transit through, the latter item alone costing $17,557.98. The expense of preparing the property for sale were $70,232.84. Other expenses brought the total up to $94,006.78. Two hundred and thirty-seven lots were sold for $285,290, and small profits on gravel brought the total to $286,158. A net profit on the lots of $192,152.02 is shown, or 67.2 per cent. profit on this real estate investment.

Island investments of the college are given as $473,436.83. Many changes in notes and bonds have been made during the year. Dividends from stocks have made $15,484.50 for the institution, one O. R. & L. stock dividend totaling $10,600. Stocks to the value of $80,617.06 are held, the market value being in reality $102,900, showing what good investments these have been. Total receipts from investments, were $41,239.58.

The total endowment account is $432,675, on which 9.5 per cent. profit has been made. The U. S. endowment fund is $1497.31.

A substantial gain on the loss and gain account is due largely, it is stated, to the new buildings donated wholly or in part by friends of the college. The C. M. Cooke family gave the Cooke art gallery, costing $18,500.92. Charles R. Bishop Hall annex, given by friends of the institution, cost $37,905.61.

The new Castle Hall, for which the contract is let, is to cost $82,861, and with architects' fees, $87,781. On hand for this building there is $49,642.59. An amount, it is stated, of $25,000 is to be received from the Castle estate, leaving $25,000 to be provided for from donations.

Treasurer Jones closes the first part of his report with recommendations as to insurance, fire protection, and other matters. The second part of the report is a complete statement in figures of the finances up to date in which every item is clearly shown.

Notwithstanding the fine record made by Punahou, it still is lacking in sufficient room and accommodations for the many pupils who desire to attend. The alumni are now raising $100,000 for a new gymnasium, and Mr. Jones said this morning that $100,000 more is needed for improvements that at present the trustees would like to make but can not.

U. S. INTENDS TO STOP SMUGGLING

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 13.—Determined to break up the traffic in contraband Chinese along the coast, a party of immigration officials left Long Beach early today in the fast power-boat Tilikum, presumably for San Clemente island. The movements of the officers were kept secret, as they left before day-break, but it was learned that they took a heavy supply of arms, ammunition and provisions. Reports were received by immigration officials yesterday that a number of smuggled Chinese had been abandoned on the island, where twenty-two of their number and two alleged smugglers were captured several days ago. It was reported also that another shipment of contraband Chinese had left Ensenada, Lower California, a few days ago, and the belief was expressed that the officials intended to intercept them before they could land.

Many nations and many peoples may well mourn the death of Japan's great emperor, Mutsuhito.

What place history will give him as a statesman it is far too early to say with certainty, but with certainty it may be said that his place will be high.

OAHU COLLEGE'S FINE RECORD

In another column of the Star-Bulletin today is published a summary of the treasurer's report on Oahu College's financial year.

The record of Oahu college is more than a successful financial one. Its expenses are very largely increased by the attendance of students from islands other than Oahu.

Hawaii owes a lasting debt to the educational facilities afforded by Oahu college, and the cause of the alumni for a new gymnasium should be given a hearty response.

A JAPANESE VIEW

An illuminating article on Japanese immigration, with direct reference to the Dillingham bill with which Hawaii has become quite familiar in the past year, is contained in the July number of the Oriental Review.

He comments on the bill as follows:

"The firm opposition of Americans of European birth or parentage has resulted in the tabling of Senator Dillingham's immigration bill by the immigration committee of the house.

such restrictive measures when they are to be applied equally to all races. It is only when they are singled out as objects of discrimination that they protest.

THE ARCHBALD CASE

Lacking the sensational bitterness and much of the dramatic character of the Lorimer case, the impeachment of Judge Robert W. Archbald of the commerce court affords nevertheless a vivid picture for Americans to pause and consider.

Only eight times within the last century and a quarter have impeachment proceedings been brought before the United States senate.

Just what an impeachment is may be briefly explained. The senate is sworn in as a court of impeachment and a summons issued for the accused.

Judge Archbald is represented by counsel, and legal advice is also afforded the house managers.

The Lorimer case was marked by violent debate, by wild exhortation and finally by the melodramatic appeal of Senator Lorimer himself.

The impeachment proceedings against Judge Archbald will be shorn of much of this melodrama. They will be attended with utmost solemnity and dignity.

Any political year would be sufficiently marked by one such case as that of Lorimer or Archbald, and two within a few months is exceptional.

While every American must feel a sense of shame that charges should even be preferred against such eminent public officials, the charges must be sifted and if found true the officials must be driven from public life.

Senator Lodge not only hit the nail on the head but drove it in when he charged the sugar trust with complicity in the attempt to force free-sugar legislation through Congress.

Link McCandless refuses to get involved in the Jarrett row. As a matter of fact, he is involved in it.

Perhaps the promotion committee can persuade Kilanea to time her pyrotechnics for the 1913 Floral Parade.

British politics bobbing up again. They've been quiet since the House of Lords got that trimming.

LETTERS ON TIMELY TOPICS

THE FACTS OF AN UNFORTUNATE CASE

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.—Sir:—There appeared in the columns of your paper of last Saturday, under a large head-line, an article concerning me.

Anyone who read same would naturally believe I had committed a brutal assault on Mrs. VanGieson, and, in justice to myself, I cannot let it go by unanswered.

On the day of the alleged assault, July 9th, I went to Mrs. VanGieson's house to see how my 11-months-old sick child was and found him unattended while the mother was, all day, at the neighbors drinking gin.

Then I left the place with the child in my arms, and not until I was at a distance from her yard when she changed her mind, chased us up the road and commenced to attack me like a wild beast.

The record of the court will bear me out in my statement and why Judge Monsarrat fined me so heavily, in spite of the evidence, is beyond explanation.

Very respectfully yours, HENRY VANGIESON.

HOW A GROUP OF HONOLULU GIRLS IS DOING MUCH GOOD

Hui Pauahi, Organized in 1907, Has Wide Sphere of Influence

Of the many societies organized for the benefit of the needy there is one that although well known in the student body of Oahu College and among the people for whom they work the general public has perhaps never heard of. The Hui Pauahi is not very old having been organized in 1907. Although a large proportion of the pupils of the College belong to the society there were comparatively few active members. The sewing committee, which at that time was one of the most active ones was composed largely of girls from the boarding department who spent one afternoon of the week sewing for the children at the Palama Settlement. This committee also gives clothing to the Salvation Army Home, and to other charitable institutions. As the girls have not much time to give to the sewing there is perhaps not much accomplished along that line, but there is a large amount of clothing found and given away.

Children Looked After.
The committee for the amusement of children is not only one of the most active but is one that is greatly appreciated by the children. Little folks from the Salvation Army and Castle Homes are taken auto riding, car riding and driving, and thoroughly enjoyable afternoons are provided for them. Visits are also made to the Children's Hospital by this same committee who tries to amuse the children there. More real interest is taken in this committee than any of the others in the Girls' Department of the Hui Pauahi, and most of the girls who have machines and carriages at their disposal number among its members. For the girls greatly enjoy the delight shown by the youngsters on these excursions.

One of the branches of the organization which although its work is more quiet—and still different from that of some of the other committees does much good, is the Magazine committee. Magazines and books are given to the chairman to distribute among the various institutions in the city and cloth scrap books are made for children in the Children's Hospital.

Music Furnished.
Another group of girls furnishes music for the gymnasium classes at Palama Settlement and at the Girls' Industrial School at Palama. At the present time there are only five members on this committee but they are very regular in their work and perhaps accomplish more than a larger committee would, for the members know that they are responsible for all of the work done by this branch of the Hui Pauahi.

The Sunday School Committee of the Hui Pauahi has comparatively little to do. The four members who teach at Palama Settlement are regular in their attendance and are willing to do even more than they have done in the past year. Heretofore the girls taught at Kakaako but during the past year the Boys' Department has taken over the work in that district.

Boys' Development.
The Boys' Department of the Hui is probably the most active, for they are able to give more time to the work than are the girls and as the major part of the work done by them is along the line of athletics they take a great interest in it. Their work is confined almost entirely to the Kakaako Mission, where they coach the boys in the Kakaako Club in athletics and help them in other ways when it is possible. Mr. D. J. Ricker a member of the faculty at the college is the chairman of this committee and the enthusiasm that he shows and the interest he takes in the work is an incentive to the boys in the school to take part in activities of the Hui Pauahi.

The membership of the Hui Pauahi waxes and wanes, but it seems that more real interest is taken in each year. Lately the students in the Boarding Department who are still in the Preparatory school and who as yet are not members of the Hui have been doing some work along this line and when they enter the College promise to be some of the most active members of the Hui proper. It seems that a branch of the Hui Pauahi might be organized among the seventh and eighth graders in the prep for the students there have more time to devote to this sort of work during the last two years in the preparatory school than they have during their Freshman year in College.

DANCING GIRLS OF NORTH AFRICA

What the geisha is to Japan, the nautch girl is to India and the odalisque to Turkey, the Ouled-Nail is to North Africa, but with this difference—that whereas the geisha is but a class of girls and women, the Ouled-Nails are a race, as distinct in features, language and customs as the Bedouin or the Nubian.

The preparation of an Ouled-Nail for her hereditary calling begins as soon as she is out of the cradle, says a writer in the Metropolitan Magazine, for the dances of the desert folk demand many years of constant muscle training and arduous practice.

Day after day, and week after week, year after year her education neither flags nor falters. Her muscles being systematically trained, supplied and developed until they are as much under her control as her slender, hemi-stained fingers. Her lustrous, black hair is brushed and combed and oiled and brushed again; she is taught to play the hautboy, the zither and the flute and to sing the weird and plaintive songs the Arab loves; to make the thick, black native coffee and with inimitable dexterity to roll a cigarette.

By the time she has reached her teens her schooling in these extraordinary arts and graces is completed, and one day she climbs into a camel litter and, followed by the blissfulness of her parents, sets out across the desert to make her fortune in the dance halls and coffee houses of Biskra and Tunis and Algiers; yes, and of Tripoli on the east and of Oran on the west, just as the daughter of a New England farmer sets out for the great city to earn her living at a stenographer's desk or behind the counter of a department store.

She reaps a more or less abundant harvest of sous, francs and napoléons. When the gold pieces into which she promptly converts her earnings are numerous enough to link together in a sort of chain, hanging from her slender, supple neck to her still more supple waist, she returns to the tented village from which she came, hides her pretty face behind the veil worn by all respectable Moslem women and marries some sheik or camel driver.

WINSOME TEACHER STROLLS WESTWARD

OGDEN, Utah, July 13.—Nearly a month ago Miss Della Anthes, a winsome school teacher of Sutton, Neb., walked out of her home in that town, strolled down the street and out into the country. The day before yesterday she arrived in Ogden, still "strolling," having walked 901 miles in twenty-seven days, an average of thirty-three miles each day. Yesterday Miss Anthes walked out of Ogden, en route to San Francisco, 1000 miles to the westward.

Miss Anthes is not in any sense of the word a "lady tramp." She is simply a young school teacher of good education and refined manners. She enjoys walking, and is determined to spend her summer's vacation in the "bike" from Sutton to the Pacific Coast.

Miss Anthes' traveling outfit is very unique. It consists of an automatic pistol and toothbrush. She takes just enough money along with her to pay her "walking" expenses. However, she has letters of credit which she can use in an emergency.

ROCKEFELLER RUSE WORKS

When Autos Speed on His Roads, Builds "Thank-You-Ma'ams"

NEW YORK, July 10.—William Rockefeller has solved the problem of how to prevent speeding through his estate, in the hills back of Tarrytown. Broadway in front of Mr. Rockefeller's estate had to be closed while some brick work on Arch hill was being repaired. The only way for automobilists to cut around the hill was through Mr. Rockefeller's property and he gave his consent.

His superintendent reported yesterday that the automobilists were speeding through the property and tearing up fine roads. Mr. Rockefeller said, "We will stop that," and he gave orders to have "Thank you, ma'ams" built across the road about a foot high and about twenty feet apart.

Soon automobilists were driving through the Rockefeller estate at less than ten miles an hour and using extreme caution.

LORD-MAYOR AT BIJOU

At the Bijou Theater tonight the Pollard Opera Company will present Gilbert & Sullivan's tuneful comic opera, "The Lord-Mayor," and as this opera is a great favorite with Honolulu theatre patrons a large audience should fill the Bijou during the three nights of this opera.

The Pollards will give a fine interpretation of the opera, as the cast, with Teddy McNamara as Ko-ko, Miss McNamara as Kailsha, Eva Pollard as Nanki Poo, Leslie Donaghey as Pook Bah, Patsie Hill as Yum Yum and Willie Pollard as the Lord-Mayor, insures its success.

The scenery and costumes have received special attention, nothing being left undone to make this a great production. The opera will run tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday, and early booking is advised for those who desire good seats. The doors will be open at 7:30 and the curtain rises at 8:15 sharp.

KAMEHAMEHA GLEE CLUB WILL GIVE CONCERT

The music-loving people of Honolulu have a treat in store for them this week. Next Saturday evening at the K. of P. Hall, the Kamehameha Glee Club will give a concert and dance which promises to be one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season. The club has just completed a successful tour of the island of Hawaii and everywhere their music pleased the large audiences that had the pleasure of hearing them. Mr. Matthew Kane, one of the leading baritone voices of the Islands, is with the organization, and he will sing one of his own delightful compositions. The club will render Mr. "Sonny" Cunha's latest song entitled "Dear Old Honolulu," a piece which shows good work on the part of this popular composer. Other new songs are on the program for that evening and the dance music will be furnished by Ernest Kaal's club.

PATIENT OUTLIVES BOTH DOCTORS

Capt. Thomas Holdworth of 417 Lyons Street, San Francisco, former Commander of the fast Stockton steamer "J. D. Peters," was critically ill with Bright's Disease. The ailment was heavy and there was the usual heart involvement, etc. He was in the hands of the leading kidney specialist. As he grew steadily worse the Captain's wife became alarmed and had a relative see the doctor to learn from him the exact truth. He told her that he did not believe the patient could live over three months. The treatment was thereupon changed.

This was all in 1903. That the Captain made a fine recovery and that its permanence may be known let it be said that he is over seventy and called with his wife at the office of the John J. Fulton Company on December 19, 1911, for Christmas greetings. He was in perfect health. Both of the doctors that were on his case have since passed over the river. The Captain gives the names of several whom he told about it who have also recovered.

Honolulu Drug Co., is agent for Fulton's Renal Compound. Ask or send for pamphlet and wire us if not improving by third week. Jno. J. Fulton Co., San Francisco.

TEAL COMPANY OPENS TONIGHT AT LIBERTY

Musical comedy and pretty girls are synonymous terms on Broadway. After the opening performance by Teal's Musical Comedy Company at the Liberty theater tonight, it is a safe wager that more people will remember "the beauty chorus" than the different musical numbers that will be sung, for pretty girls, vivacious girls, well-dressed girls, and all the other complimentary things that can be said about girls, predominate in this company. But lively, witty dialogue and songs follow a close second to the efforts of the girls to please.

RAYMOND TEAL

There are twenty-five people in this company and according to the reports that have come in from Walluku and Hilo, where they played for two weeks, their press agent's conscience has an easy time of it—all he has to do is to tell the truth, for the girls make good on all the usual promises for a musical comedy company.

Two comedians—Raymond Teal and Fritz Fields—are features that entertain also, to believe the reports from the outside island towns.

Among the members of the new company is Lillian Sutherland, a sourette of note, who is well remembered in Honolulu as the spubrette of the famous Kolb & Dill aggregation that played here several years ago. The popular policy of two performances moving pictures in addition to the nightly will be reverted to, introducing usual comedies, while the prices will be 10, 20, and 30 cents.

U. S. FEEDS MULE AND HORSE MEAT TO HUNGRY CEBUS

MANILA, P. I., July 2.—The military authorities at Fort Wm. McKinley having condemned 63 horses and 34 mules, it was decided instead of selling them to the natives and Chinese in Manila for hackwork, that these animals should be sent down to Cebu to be killed for food to help relieve hunger that prevails among the poor people down there by reason of the continued drought.

The transport Liscom arrived in Cebu on Sunday morning with these animals and the work of distributing them and killing them was promptly began. The first days' killing took place immediately on arrival in the barrios of Cebu city, when eleven were killed, one more being killed on Monday, and another on Tuesday.

The second day's slaughter was in the southern towns, sixty-seven being divided among the people, and third day saw twenty-three slaughtered in the northern district of the island.

The slaughter of these animals means that over 100,000 pounds of fresh meat has been distributed among the poor people during the past few days.

It is well gotten up and contains several articles upon young Peoples' work, contributed by several of the former presidents of other young peoples' societies and of the Oahu Young Peoples' Union. Among these are R.
H. Trent, Miss Florence R. Yarow,
George W. Paty, J. C. Ewing, Miss Rica Soares and Miss E. Erickson the new president of the union.

A description of the Y. W. C. A. is contributed by Mrs. B. F. Dillingham; descriptions of the Chinese church and Mid-Pacific Institute by F. W.
Damon; the Beretania Mission by Mrs. E. MacKenzie; the Oahu Young Peoples' Christian Union by Miss Rica Soares, and "C. E. Work Among the

MORE PEERS SELL ANCESTRAL ACRES

Now Is Chance for American Millionaires Wishing to Be English Squires

LONDON, Eng., July 10.—If there are overseas magnates who fancy they would enjoy themselves in the role of English squire, now is their time to acquire the necessary acres, for the breaking-up of great estates is proceeding apace. Ireland is growing accustomed to the return of the rich exile from the United States, but so far the land that is changing hands in England is mostly coming under the control of farmers.

Many other peers besides the Duke of Sutherland are selling their estates in instalments. Lord Penrhyn disposed of over five thousand Welsh acres the other day, receiving $45,000 for ten farms, while Lord Lansdowne, the Conservative leader in the house of lords, is also out after cash in return for part of his Bowood estate in Wiltshire.

Only the persuasion of historic or sentimental association, such as induces Lord Walsingham to sit tight in Merton hall, is standing in the way of even a more widespread withdrawal of peers from the land. But as the woods around Merton hall are commonly supposed to be identified with the old ballad of "The Babes in the Wood," and Lord Walsingham's ancestors to have supplied the parts of "the babies" and "the wicked uncle," there is reason enough there why the estate should remain in that family.

WILSON CHOSEN, SHE'LL WED

MARSHALL, Mo., July 3.—Charles Akerman, a young turfman, and Miss Nellie Wilson, said to be a distant relative of the Presidential nominee, were to have been married here on the Fourth, publicly, unless a reactionary
Democrat was nominated at Baumers.
In that case the wedding was to have been postponed indefinitely, the bride-elect being an enthusiastic Bryan follower.

Now that Wilson has won, the couple will wed, but publicity has caused them to change their plans and they left hurriedly today by motor car for the West. Friends say they will be married privately in Kansas City.

The total property loss by the tornado at Regina, Sask., was $2,000,000.

HONOLULU IRON WORKS ENTERPRISE IN ORIENT

Tropical Life, London, for June has an article on the increasing importance of the Philippines as a trade center, in which the following occurs with regard to the introduction of modern sugar mills:

"The Honolulu Iron Works are to the fore, as they are in Formosa, where we understand they have fitted up the bulk of the estates, and, no doubt, being situated out in Hawaii, comparatively close to both centers, gives them an advantage over our makers; but only one, and with all the other conveniences that must accrue through being in the United Kingdom, we ought not to have been cut out both of Formosa and the Philippines as we have been. It is all very well to plead 'duty', and these may hold good with the Philippines, though we are not sure that they do as fully as some pretend, but in Formosa they certainly can not count. It must have been purely a question of greater influence, more push, and, perhaps, more intimate knowledge of what was 'on the tapis', that enabled the Honolulu Iron Works to secure the orders first. If they could do this, the English makers could;
and we feel that our engineers are not showing up well as regards securing orders from these and other non-English centers for machinery. We hope they will be more pushful in the future, otherwise our trade will go back."

LIGHTHOUSE PERCHES SAVE LIVES OF BIRDS

Dutch Find Real Cause of Destruction Was Lack of Roosting Place

BERLIN, July 7.—The German government has become interested in a plan adopted in Holland to prevent the destruction of bird life by lighthouses, and has recently sent two representatives to examine the system used with much success on the island of Terschelling.

Dr. Hennicks, one of these commissioners, has recently described the system in a lecture before the German Society for the Protection of Bird Life. The Dutch experiment, he says, is based upon the belief that birds are not killed to any great extent, as commonly supposed, by dashing themselves against lighthouses in the darkness, but that they try in vain to find a resting place on their sides, after flying around a long time, dazed and confused by the bright light of the re-flectors, and finally drop to the earth from sheer exhaustion and are killed.

At Terschelling broad ladders are fastened on the sides of the light-house tower, the rungs of which serve as perches for the birds. Near the top the rungs are placed about four inches apart, but lower down the intervals are occasionally considerably wider in places so as to accommodate the larger birds. According to Dr. Hen-nicks, the destruction of birds has been greatly diminished by this device. It is assumed that the system will be tried on German lighthouses.

OREGON

By GEORGE FITCH

Oregon has been a State for twenty years, but did not work seriously at it until a few years ago, when it began to have booms, expositions, progressivism and constitutional conventions all at the same time. It is now a massive commonwealth with 700,000 people, the initiative and referendum, the recall, three rival railroad systems, 7000 real estate agents, and many other features which make sleep during business hours impossible within its borders.

Oregon has been known ever since Messrs. Lewis & Clark, the celebrated explorer's team, discovered it in 1804, but it took half a century to find some use for it. In 1850, Oregon was a raw and unknown interior with a rim of settled country around two sides. A railroad ran along these two sides and allowed the 175,000 Oregonians a small commission on their products, after deducting freight charges. About this time, however, it was discovered that by supplying an ordinary apple tree with an irrigation ditch, a trained nurse, a masseuse, an osteopath and soft music during the spring season, the famous Oregon apple could be produced. Since this discovery, Oregon has grown rapidly and is now covered with happy agriculturists lowering red apples out of their polished orchard trees with derricks and shipping them east to sell in Wall Street at 5 cents a bite.

Oregon still consists mostly of desert and forest, but is rapidly being conventionalized by the saw-mill and the irrigating ditch. It abuts California on the south and the Pacific Ocean on the west and is successfully separated from Washington by the Columbia River, which is still strongly impregnated with the famous red salmon which have brought more gold to Oregon than its placer mines in the southern counties.

Oregon has a large variety of climate, including perpetual snow on several extensive mountains, perpetual drought in its interior and perpetual rain in the vicinity of Portland, where umbrellas are made without any closing device. Oregon people are enterprising, sociable and deeply interested in politics. Spending the constitution is the favorite Oregon amusement, having practically displaced baseball, while public officials are so docile that if a legislator wishes to smoke a cigarette he does so behind the woodshed where the stern eye of the recall can not see him.

COUNTY ENGINEER BISHOP OF HAWAII ON GOOD ROADS

Hawaii Herald, July 26: Advocating local roads being built with a six-inch sub-course and with a low crown so that the water will run off slowly instead of washing the surface away, for the width of the road to be only as much as is necessary for the traffic it will handle, for bituminous construction everywhere in the island except along the Hamakua coast where, owing to the weather conditions it is impossible to put down anything except a water-bound macadam, and a system of steady maintenance in order that the full value may be got out of the road and that the enormous amount of capital sunk in roads may not be thrown away, and the adoption of the State aid system. Engineer Bishop of the Loan Fund Commission gave an interesting and practical talk at the Board of Trade rooms on Tuesday night before a fair crowd.

Bishop went into the matter of "Good Roads" very thoroughly, his talk being illustrated by diagrams that helped the audience to grasp the subject very thoroughly. He traced the history of roads from the time the famous Appian way of the Romans was built in England right down to the present era of patented pavements. He branched into the matter of local conditions and gave his reasons for the specifications of the belt road, told his hearers why a water-bound macadam was necessary for wet districts and why bituminous pavements were better for dry, he explained the State aid system and dwelt upon the benefits to be derived from it and gave suggested all questions that were asked.

Speaking of the methods now in vogue for raising money for road building purposes, Bishop quoted from an article in the "Good Roads Magazine." It is written by L. E. Boykin, an expert, and a synopsis follows:

There are seven methods of raising revenues for highway purposes, viz: State aid, state labor, private subscriptions, assessments upon abutting property, automobile licenses, direct taxation and bond issue and State aid. The state labor method is fast going out of use although it was very common in the United States twenty years ago. It consisted of paying the taxes by personal labor instead of with money. The private subscription method has never been popular, owing to the fact that the building and care of public roads is a public function. Ten States have the abutting property system, in use in some form or another and the owners pay up without any protest. It has been successful wherever it has been adopted.

Auto Injure Roads. Coming down to the matter of automobiles and the tax on them he says that in 1912 there were 440,000 machines in use in the United States. They are injurious to the roads as they lift loose binding into the air, where it is blown away by the wind, and it is only right that they should bear their share of the cost. Massachusetts raises a fund of $250,000 a year, from this source alone. The writer advocates that every State in the Union should pass a law requiring automobiles to pay a reasonable tax, the proceeds to be devoted to roads.

Coming to the matter of direct taxes and bond issues, he states: "More funds, however, are raised from these two sources than from any other way. These two may be said to be the natural methods of raising money for any form of public improvement. There are many who prefer a direct tax to a bond issue. The direct tax should undoubtedly be adopted for the maintenance of roads in all cases, but for original construction I do not believe that it is most to be preferred, except in those countries having taxable value sufficiently large so that a small tax levy will yield enough revenue to carry forward the work as rapidly as it should be carried, or as much each year as can be wisely expended. The great trouble with the direct tax is that the levy that would be required on the assessed valuation of most countries to raise sufficient funds for carrying the work would be too large and would impose too great an immediate burden upon the individual taxpayer.

Retail Costs More. As a result of the circumstances only a small levy would be imposed and a small annual fund realized, so that only a few miles of road could be improved each year. The smaller the mileage improved, annually the greater will be the cost per unit; it is a well known fact that it costs more to build roads by the retail than by the wholesale. One reason for this is that contractors cannot afford to equip themselves properly for handling the smaller contracts without making their bids proportionately higher.

In some of the States the direct taxation is against the farmers only, thus making them bear the burden of the cost of improving the roads while the city dweller reaps equally as much benefit but does not pay anything. The chief claim for the direct tax is that it enables you to pay as you go, provided you are able to make adequate progress under it.

Explains State Aid. Coming down to the matter of state aid Bishop said what was exactly meant by this method.

The money is raised by state bonds and is expended through a state department. The roads are classified into three kinds—state roads, county roads and town roads. The engineers in the state department plan and build the main thoroughfares of the state at no cost to the counties. These roads are such as connect the centers of population.

With the county roads the state builds them and the pavement is made partly from the state funds and partly from the county. The latter's share is based on the assessed valuation.

The state has absolutely no direct control over the streets of the cities and towns proper. At the same time the county government can receive state aid if it is wanted. The state insists that the counties build the roads—the advice of the state engineers being available at any time. At the end of the year when the state auditor has examined the books and the state engineer has approved the work the state will give dollar for dollar for what has been spent. By this method the great burden on the counties is lessened.

Nothing is forced on the county and nothing is taken away. In our own case the Territory would issue bonds and the counties would be charged back in proportion.

Maintenance. Dealing with the matter of the cost of maintenance, Bishop gave the following figures, which include everything. The figures are for a mile of road:

Original cost	$15,000
Cost to resurface	5,000
Life of top surface	10 years
Rate of interest	4 per cent
Annual Cost
Interest	$ 600
Depreciation	417
Maintenance	500
Total	$1,517

The depreciation is based on the sum necessary to amount to $5000 at the end of ten years, when the road needs resurfacing.

Bonds. Bond issues should be limited to original construction work. Bonds should never be issued for maintenance work, but for improvement of main highways only. It is therefore a

MUST ARRANGE WITH TERRITORY FOR KAU WATER

Now that the Kau ditch bill has been passed and the big improvement duly authorized by the President's signature, a new subject of much importance will come before the Territorial authorities in the very near future, when the promoters present a proposition to the government as the basis of a request for the necessary water license.

As the flow through the proposed ditch will come from a high elevation on the Hilo side of Hawaii, the promoters and the Territory must reach an agreement as to the amount of water that can be taken, leaving a sufficient supply to insure the protection of the residents on the Hilo side. The amount of compensation, the license fee and a number of questions of similar character must be determined.

The promoters are expected to present a proposition, setting forth the situation and their demands, in a very short time.

GOVERNOR WILL BAR AFTERNOON CALLERS

"No afternoon callers" for the next three or four weeks, is the edict issued today by Governor Frest. Burdened by the stress of many important conferences with Territorial officials on matters of importance, and by the vast amount of labor to be done in preparing his annual report, the executive today decided that his afternoons must be given over to these without interruption.

Hereafter, probably until September 1, persons desiring to visit the Governor on social or even official business, must make their appointments for the morning hours, and it is likely that none will be admitted to his chambers after the noon hour unless called by him.

For news and the truth about it, all people buy the Star-Bulletin.

logical conclusion that only those roads that take care of the larger percentage of the traffic or 20 per cent. of all roads should be improved by the proceeds of bond issues.

Pertinent Points. The following points were made by Bishop during the course of his talk: The macadam road of today is made as follows: The first course is laid of stone 1-2 inches in diameter and is three inches thick, the subsoil being thoroughly rolled first. The next course is laid of 1 1/2-inch stone. This is filled with screenings, sprinkled, rolled and puddled. Sometimes it is necessary for a second puddling.

Foundation course is necessary; it is found that there is no need to pack this bottom course carefully.

While macadam roads have been popular in the past, automobile traffic has revolutionized ideas in the East, although it will be some time before Hawaii feels the effect of it. Some more permanent form of paving was found necessary and bituminous construction has jumped into favor. This is usually incorporated at the time of construction.

Highway surfaces are composed of the following substances: For pavements—Wood block, stone block, asphalt block, sheet asphalt, brick, concrete and bitulitic. For roads—Earth, sand-clay, gravel, macadam, slate and shell. Macadam may be subdivided into water bound and bituminous. The latter may be made by surface treatment, the penetration method or by mixing. The latter Bishop considers the best.

Light Oil Valueless. Unless it is an oil like that which comes from California, Bishop is not in favor of putting down "light" oil surface. The tars are falling out of use and the heavy and medium asphaltic oils are making a rapid rise.

The character of the Hawaii belt road:

It has a 6-inch subbase. There is an edging of stone to hold subbase and macadam in place. Owing to lack of funds there is nothing fancy about it, but it is serviceable and should be durable. Its width, 16 feet, is more than the general average throughout the Union. Bishop does not think Hawaii wants wide roads for many years, but has made provision in his plans in case they are needed so that the road can be widened without affecting the present road. There is a crown with a grade of one-half inch to the foot.

It is not advisable to take water off a road too fast, as it is liable to wash away the surface, on a high crown.

Favors Low Crown. On a high crowned road all the traffic is liable to concentrate on the center of the road. On a low crowned road the traffic spreads and the wear is more even.

The cost of building roads in Hawaii on the windward side averages about the same as in California—$15,000 per mile.

Where the life of a macadam road is likely to be less than ten years, it pays to put down a permanent pavement.

It is imperative for a road to be maintained after it is built. It will go to pieces otherwise, and this is only a foolish waste of money. Macadam is very perishable and a maintenance gang should be kept going all the time and should take charge as soon as the contractor has finished.

The lack of a systematic and permanently organized maintenance gang has been the main source of trouble with roads on Hawaii. Such systems are in vogue in Europe, France and England and some parts of the United States.

The prevailing idea is that once a macadam road is built it will last for all time. This is a great fallacy.

OAHU ACTIVE AND HIGHER

Keeping up the improvement noted on Saturday, this week began with a fairly lively board, Oahu and Ewa being the more active stocks. From a gain of a quarter-point between boards in sales of 150 and 20 shares at 27.50, Oahu made a like advance at the session in sales of 40 and 10 shares at 27.75. Sales in five unequal lots aggregating 100 shares of Ewa were made on the board at 31.50, being no change from Saturday. McBryde fell off an eighth on the board in a sale of 7 shares at 7.375 but recovered Saturday's quotation of 7.50 for 43 shares. Hawaiian Commercial sold down in recess seven-eighths, 100 shares going at 44. Pineapple fell off a point in a sale of 100 shares at 41 reported.

ANOTHER CAVALRY-OAHU SERIES

BONEHEAD PLAYS DEFEAT THE HAWAIIIS

Second Half of Series Opens with Two Different Games—
Some Sharp Fielding.

OAHU SENIOR LEAGUE
(Second Series)

Stars 5, Hawaiiis 2.
J. A. C. 3, Hawaiiis 2.

Why go to Africa for ivory when the supply at Athletic Park is seemingly inexhaustible? In a single game yesterday the Hawaiiis showed enough of the valuable commodity to turn out several sets of billiard balls, and make a few souvenir cases of poker chips.

That second game between the Hawaiiis and J. A. C. was a sad affair for the former team, who had the best of chances to tie the score or bat out a victory, and in each instance split the beans by some bonehead sticking or base running. Dave Desha's coils fielded a more snappy game than the first series champs, and held the opposition down to four hits, three of which were bunched in the first inning, but when it came to headwork the Hawaiiis invariably did the wrong thing at the wrong time.

Never was there a better chance to pull out a game than in the sixth when the scoreboard showed the original three runs garnered by the Japanese in the initial spasm, and a string of ciphers for both teams in the other innings. Heine Raphael started it with a rattling two-bagger to right, and Williams was safe on an infield bouncer that was fielded to third to nail Heine, but didn't turn the trick. Hill then stole second, and both men were dancing around their sacks ready to come in on any sort of a hit, when En Sue came to bat.

The infield all closed in, and most anything out of the diamond would have been good for a run or possibly two, but En Sue, after swinging wild at a couple, bunted! Get that? Of course, the pitcher pounced on the ball in a second, and threw Raphael out at third, after the latter had come half way home and then decided that he'd better get back again. Just to make things worse, Dave Desha bunted the third strike and was promptly called out, and Williams was caught trying to steal third. If En Sue pulled off his wiled stunt on his own hook, he had better read up on the theory and practice of ball playing, and if he bunted according to orders, then the man who planned the play should see a doctor. Never did a team throw away a prettier chance to drive in a couple of runs at least.

The Hawaiiis seemed to have another chance in the eighth, but here the luck was against them. Drejer was grazed by a pitched ball, and McIntyre brought him home with a three bagger. But Raphael hit a hot liner right into Henry Chillingworth's glove and the latter whipped the ball to Markham in time to catch Mac off the bag, completing the double. Williams was an easy out, pitcher to first.

Again in the ninth the Hawaiiis got a single run across. En Sue, the first man up, tied to short, and D. Desha came through with a hit. Hayes hit toward second base, and Chillingworth grabbed the ball and threw him out. Just as Burns received the throw, however, Hayes caromed into him, and the ball rolled toward the outfield. Desha came right on, and when Notley recaptured the sphere it looked more as though he tried to bean Hayes than to peg to the plate. At any rate, the throw was a mile wide, and Dave came home.

Three scratch hits in a row in the first gave the J. A. C. their only runs, and the lead that eventually won the game. Chillingworth just got one between second and first that went for a hit, and stole second. Kuali and Markham followed with hits to the same territory, and all in turn stole. Hampton fanned. Burns out to the first baseman unassisted, brought the third run across. Walker walked and Zerbe ended the agony by skying one to center.

A feature of the game was the hard work that fell to the new umpire, Sergeant Ralph of the Marine Corps, in deciding close plays on bases. Bert

PRATT AND MORSE WIN OUT IN FOUR BALL FOURSOMES

Keen Contests Over the Country Club Course Yesterday. Some Close Scores

In a marathon golf match that did not finish until 6.45, and that came near being called on account of darkness, J. C. Pratt and C. P. Morse defeated J. D. McInerney and J. L. Greig in the finals of the four ball foursome tournament held at the Country Club yesterday.

As the nine teams entered were to play off the tournament in a single day, only nine hole matches were played. The final contest was all square at the fifth, and, to make the handicaps proportionately right, a play-off of four extra holes was ordered. Pratt and Morse won 2 up. It was largely due to Postmaster's good work toward the finish of the match that his team pulled out a winner.

Eighteen players put down their names for the contest, partners being drawn. There were no less than four tied matches in the first round, and this made considerable delay in deciding the winners. Bockus and Simpson gave the winning pair their close-call in the semi-final round, being down 3, and then losing out.

Two ivory face drivers were offered as prizes.

Bunts and Bounders

The Stars played a new man on the third corner yesterday. He is Bill Hughes, a local product, who two years ago played with the St. Mary's College team on the Coast. He went into yesterday's game without a bit of preliminary practice, and made a creditable showing.

C. Moriama made a rotten toss to first in the eighth, after stopping a hard grounder off Joy's bat in sensational style. If he had set himself and thrown, he would have caught Barney a mile, but instead he tossed the ball way over the baseman's head this being largely responsible for the Stars' scores in the inning.

Niall got a split finger during the latter part of the game. He is one of the most unlucky bachelors in the league, and seems to get hurt in every game. A liberal application of iodine and tape, by Dr. Marcellino, enabled him to go back to his post amid the usual applause.

Alex Desha returned from Hilo Saturday, and was as lively as usual around the No. 6 position.

What would have happened if that left foot of Henry Chillingworth's if the ball had landed on those coyly exposed toes?

Umpire Ralph plays first base for the Whites in the Junior League, and has the distinction of being the only player with a real moustache on the team.

When Hayes stole third in the first inning Clarke woke up in time to snuff the ball down to second. (Laughter.)

McIntyre made a dandy assist from right to first in the fifth, that nailed Buckley in impressive style.

Drejer made a fine stop of a thrown ball in the sixth. He certainly pulls 'em down.

Catcher Buckley should hire a valet. He has a terrible time getting all those hooks and buttons fixed every time he dons his armor and goes behind the bat.

Admiring friends presented Umpire Ralph with a souvenir indicator in the seventh inning.

Chillingworth got a hard fall when he pulled the ball on Hayes on the latter's attempted steal in the seventh.

No one came near he Obak sign yesterday. T. H. K. please copy.

HILTON TO DEFEND HIS AMERICAN TITLE

A cablegram from London states definitely that H. H. Hilton, the English crack, will come to America this year to defend his title in the American golf championship at Wheaton, Ill. It is added that two other first-class English amateurs, "good enough to win," will accompany him and try conclusions with the best American players on various links.

C. Robinson, negro, was yesterday charged with larceny by Acting Chief Kellett. The man was caught late Saturday by two foot officers, as he was running out of the fishmarket with some dried fish he had taken.

OAHU POLO TEAM WINS THE 1912 CHAMPIONSHIP

Title Won in Three-Cornered Tournament Just Closed One to Be Proud of—Final Game Against the Cavalry Was Exciting and Hard-Fought.

By LAURENCE REDINGTON.

THE champion polo team of the Hawaiian Islands. That is the title that the Oahu players won last Saturday, when they defeated the Fifth Cavalry 8 to 6, and, judging by the standard of play that prevails in the Territory, it is a title that means something in the polo world. The four men who went through the championship tournament just closed without a defeat could hold their own in very fast company in the United States, England or India, and the weeks of hard practice and hard work that went to perfect the individual and team play, must be counted as weeks well spent.

It has been a clean-cut, sportsman-like victory for Oahu. The 1912 championship has passed into history, leaving no bitterness and no questionable points to be haggled over, and for the losers the sting of defeat is tempered by the knowledge that island sport is the better for the three matches that have been won and lost on the Moanai field. Sporting statisticians may argue that by the half-line victory of the locals over Maui, and the latter's much more decisive win from the Cavalry, the Valley Islanders should be considered the strongest team of the three, but this is not a fair way of looking at the situation. It is results of games, not total goals, that count in a tournament of this sort, and, twist the figures as one may, the fact remains that Oahu beat both Maui and the Cavalry, winning the championship beyond the shadow of a doubt.

Last the Keenest. The meeting between Oahu and the Cavalry was looked forward to with the greatest interest, on account of the keen rivalry that has always existed between the two teams that claim this island as their home ground, and the big crowd of polo enthusiasts that turned out to see the game was in no way disappointed in either the quality of polo or the quantity of excitement. The game provided good polo, and all the thrills that go with a contest between two well-matched teams, when partisanship is about equally divided, and when there are no neutrals on the sidelines. Every one who saw Saturday's game was a combatant, and was "pulling" with all his or her might for one team or the other. Cheers for Oahu's star plays. Cheers for the brilliant shots of the army riders. And, best of all, it was a generous audience, ready and willing to applaud good polo, no matter which side brought it off.

That the Cavalry team would pull itself together, and show much improved form over that of the Maui game, was freely predicted by those who know something about the sport, and this proved to be exactly the case. The army men not only made a better showing, pressing Oahu right up to the final period, but they really played a better brand of polo. It is true that they were not ridden quite so hard by Oahu as by the Maui players, which gave them an opportunity for more hitting, but it is also true that the individual players handled themselves better Saturday than they did last Wednesday, under similar circumstances. In the game with Maui, Hanson was about the only man on the team who hit up to form. In the Oahu contest Captain Forsyth and Doak, and to a lesser extent Sheridan, showed improvement in stick work and in general play.

First Period Close. Promptly at 3 o'clock the bell sounded, and Lieutenant Naylor of the First

WALTER F. DILLINGHAM, M. CAPTAIN AND NO. 3.

Field Artillery, who refereed throughout the tournament, bowed the white sphere between the rows of eager players. On the track, when the gate is shot for a big race, a concerted murmur of "They're off!" can always be heard. At the beginning of a big polo match there's the same quality of excitement, but no one has yet invented the correct expression to relieve the feelings of a polo crowd, so the murmur is a mere jumble of sounds—a sort of combination sigh, whistle and bark. After having gotten this hybrid cheer out of its system, the crowd settled down to intelligent enjoyment of the game.

The Cavalry had broken its hoodoo by winning the toss, and, of course, elected to hit downhill. However, Oahu started out with plenty of snap and carried the ball toward the mauka goal, a try by Castle just missing the posts. On the knock-out Walter Dillingham caught the ball with a strong backhand, and again it was only a matter of a few feet between the ball as it crossed the line, and the first score. The Cavalry then got together and rushed the ball downhill, Sheridan getting it through after a short scrimmage in front of the mauka pillars. Just thirty seconds after the throw-in Harold Castle had duplicated the trick. For the remainder of the period play was fairly even, and very fast.

Hanson a Star. The second period saw Hanson, the fast Cavalry No. 2, at his best. Time and again he hit from difficult angles and for good length, and twice he made showy runs down the Waikiki sideboards, working the ball with near side strokes that were marvels of speed and accuracy. Four times the Cavalry of the field. Perhaps it is just as well that this was the case, as it leaves the games with a clean slate. Doak crossed Castle, after the latter had received the ball on a pass from Dillingham, and had the right of way, but the latter pulled up and the danger of a spill was averted.

Oahu Gets Lead. The third period opened with some clever stickwork by Arthur Rice, who twice stopped coming balls with hard, accurate swings. Walter Dillingham broke through the defense of the upper goal, by scoring on a beautiful quartering shot from near the Waikiki boards. The next goal was also off the stick of the Oahu captain, the period closing 4 to 2 in favor of the locals, although the Cavalry made a wild rally in the closing minute, shooting several times and missing by small margins. Captain Forsyth did fine work at this time.

In the fourth the Cavalry again started to press the lower goal, and after one unsuccessful shot Sheridan sent the ball through. Rice just missed a backhand goal off Dillingham's backhand pass, and again Oahu almost scored after a sensational run two-thirds the length of the field by Castle. Right here it might be mentioned that Castle played in splendid form throughout. At times he was the star of the team, and Oahu's win was largely due to his brilliant hitting. Castle scored the next goal, putting his team again two in the lead. Again Oahu just failed to score through the mauka goal, when Dillingham made a brilliant save, carried the ball up the Waikiki boards, relayed it to Baldwin, who was in turn ridden off, while Castle put the sphere right in the mouth of the stakes. Doak swooped down and sent it out of the danger zone just as the bell rang.

Cavalry Braces. After the ten-minute rest the players went at it harder than ever, but the fifth was productive of only one score, Doak getting it just as time was called. This left the Cavalry only one point to the bad, with three periods still to play.

In the sixth Hanson was up on Millikin's famous mare Freckles, and showed his heels to the rest of the field more than once. Forsyth and Doak barely failed in a combination goal. Castle pulled off another spectacular run and just failed to score.

but a moment later Sam Baldwin turned the trick with a clever shot. Oahu's goal was threatened more than once, but Castle snatched the ball out of the danger zone and carried it up the field and almost through the mauka goal. Oahu had its usual two-goal lead when the bell rang. The seventh opened with another goal for Oahu at the upper end. Baldwin worked the ball right to the line, but couldn't quite get it through, but Castle, riding like a wild man, sent it slashing the last few feet for the score.

hit over the line in dangerous proximity to the goal, and finally Walter Dillingham failed to connect with a fast ball that he tried to meet, and Hanson, following the ball, managed to straighten it through for the Cavalry's second goal. The next play of note was a spectacular run down field by Sam Baldwin, who, when it looked as though the ball would cross the line wide of the posts, put on every ounce of speed that he could get out of his pony and pulled off a difficult cut shot that turned the willow between the sticks.

In this period occurred the first of two fouls which the referee did not see. In fact, the tournament establishes a record of being played through without a single called foul, which speaks volumes for the clean riding of all the players. A polo referee has a remarkably difficult job, as anyone who has officiated as ninth man can testify, and he can't see everything that goes on, as he has too big a territory to cover. It so happened that

GOVERNOR'S CUP WON BY SPEEDY SLOOP KAM IN WELL-SAILED RACE

The Round-the-Island Fixture Brings Out Sailing Qualities of the Entries—Hawaii First
Over the Line

Driving down to the finish line in the lead of the other white wings, the schooner Hawaii completed the circuit of Oahu first yesterday afternoon, but on corrected time had to take second place to the smart sloop Kamehameha. The Hawaii rounded the spar buoy at 2:37, while at 3:12 the Kam had crossed the finish line a winner by a clear margin, owing to the time allowance of 1 1/2 hrs. The Molokai was third, crossing at 5:30, while the Charlotte C finished in fourth place two hours later. The Gladys, Captain Tom King, opened a seam on the starboard side, and sailed no further than Waialua, putting in there Sunday night.

It was a good race between the Kam and Hawaii, and but for the latter's hard luck in smashing her spinnaker boom almost at the start of the race, the old reliable might have won, in spite of the heavy handicap. It is estimated by members of the crew that the loss of the spinnaker made a difference of about an hour in actual time. The Hawaii was a surprise in the way she outpointed the rest of the yachts, and those who sailed on her say that the trans-Pacific racer is a better boat than ever.

Charles Lewis and Jack O'Brien deserve a lot of credit for the way they rammed the Kamehameha through to victory. The sloop was beautifully handled, and every trick known to the trade was taken advantage of.

To the race-winner goes the Governor's cup, one of the perpetual trophies of the Hawaii Yacht Club. The Hawaii in the race was skippered by Commodore Warren D. Wood, of the South Coast Yacht Club, who made the trans-Pacific trip as the guest of Captain Stross, and who likes Honolulu so well that he refuses to look at a steamer schedule. The yacht carried a jolly party on the race just finished, those aboard besides Skipper Wood being Charles Wilder, Chan Wilder, Secretary Vetlesen, Tom Skinner, Carl Widemann, Judge Robinson, J. Walter Doyle, L. Y. Thompson, Walter McHenry, Mr. Melanphy, Mr. Restarick, Chas. Lill and Steward Joe Laro.

but a moment later Sam Baldwin turned the trick with a clever shot. Oahu's goal was threatened more than once, but Castle snatched the ball out of the danger zone and carried it up the field and almost through the mauka goal. Oahu had its usual two-goal lead when the bell rang.

The seventh opened with another goal for Oahu at the upper end. Baldwin worked the ball right to the line, but couldn't quite get it through, but Castle, riding like a wild man, sent it slashing the last few feet for the score.

In this period Captain Forsyth, in attempting to "hoo" Castle's stick, got a nasty crack on the base of the thumb which numbed his stick hand. He was practically out of the game when the above-mentioned goal was scored, and decided to retire in favor of Millikin. This changed the Cavalry line-up somewhat, the new man going to No. 1, while Sheridan dropped back to Forsyth's place at 3.

Soon after play was resumed Rice had to pull up standing, to avoid running into Millikin, who palpably crossed him. This cross, and the one by Doak in the second period, the writer saw distinctly. The alleged foul by Oahu he did not see, but half a dozen keen polo men did, and there is no doubt of its having occurred.

Oahu forced the ball down the field, and after several wild attempts Castle got it through. The next goal was the Cavalry's, Doak making a splendid pass to Millikin, who put the ball through with a touch.

Dillingham's Run. In the eighth and last period Dillingham, up on Dr. Baldwin's superb pony Carry the News, made one of the most remarkable runs ever seen on a polo field. He took the ball at full speed down the Waikiki boards, made a cut shot that was going to the Ewa side of the posts, and still at a full gallop prevented the ball from going up, turned it completely without slowing up, and again shot, this time missing the Waikiki pillar. Oahu couldn't score, Rice and Castle both missing easy chances, and finally the Cavalry took the ball upfield, Millikin scoring through the mauka goal, off Hanson's pretty pass.

A ninth goal was actually made by Oahu, but it was properly disallowed, the timekeepers testifying that although the ball did not ring until the ball had crossed the line, the call to ring the bell had been given fifteen seconds before it was sounded. The timers were Captain Willard, Harry Macfarlane and Dr. Cooper, and the bell was being handled by Mr. Schwartzberger. The latter was a little delayed in getting his hands on it, which caused the mix-up. It was more that fortunate that this controversy did not affect the final result of the game, as the possibilities for dispute and protest, which it opens up are endless.

SECOND TEAMS TO BE GIVEN THEIR CHANCE

Oahu Reds and Cavalry Blues Scheduled to Meet in Three-Game Polo Series at Lelehuia

THREE CHEERS for the "scrubs." They're going to get their chance after all, when the second teams of the Oahu and Fifth Cavalry Polo Clubs meet in a three-game series to be played at Schofield Barracks commencing next Saturday.

To develop a good team in any game, from ping-pong to polo, there must be an opportunity for the "scrubs" to get their feet under them. In polo, the "scrubs" are the second team, and at polo the seconds are hardly less important, as no four can develop team work without going up against some sort of opposition—the stronger the better.

But the polo second team is usually different from the scrubs of any other game, for the reason that besides leading themselves to the slaughter, they lead their ponies as well, all of which costs many hard iron dollars. The seconds are bumped, and ridden-off and cussed out by the first during the preparatory stages, and then, when it comes time for the big game they turn over their best ponies and have the added excitement of a match of seeing several thousand dollars' worth of horseflesh in imminent danger of being cut down or otherwise made useless.

It is therefore a good move in the interest of sport to give the loyal seconds a chance, and in this particular instance the matches should provide really good polo, and almost as much excitement as a meeting between the first teams.

The first match will be played at Lelehuia next Saturday afternoon. The second is scheduled for the following Wednesday, and if a third is necessary to decide the series, it will be played on the Saturday following. The Oahu ponies will be taken out by road toward the middle of the week, and stabled at Schofield during the tournament. The first team men will be given an opportunity to reacquaint, by lending some of their ponies to the common cause, and altogether, Oahu should be well off for mounts.

Oahu's second team, known as the Reds, will consist of Dr. Will Baldwin, Walter Macfarlane, R. W. Shingle, Harold Dillingham and Henry Damon. Probably in the first two games all five men will be given a chance. For the Cavalry, Millikin, Heffernan, Baird and Groninger will be in the saddle. On paper these teams are closely matched, and the series should prove exciting enough for anyone.

TENNIS TITLE NOW AT STAKE

The singles tennis championship of the Hawaiian Islands will be decided this afternoon, when A. L. Castle, the present champion, meets J. Atherton Richards in the final round on the Beretania courts. It should be a great match, and tennis enthusiasts are looking forward to seeing a last exhibition of their favorite game.

Castle did not suffer in any way by the new rule which requires the champion to play through the tournament, instead of merely defending his title in a challenge round, for all his matches have been easy, and have merely given him a little added practice. Richards had a gruelling five-set match in the semi-finals against Alan Lowrey, but that was last Friday, and he had had plenty of time to rest up. Both players then should take the courts this afternoon in good shape to stand a hard fight, although Richards is probably in better condition for a long match.

At driving Richards is the stronger of the two, but Castle has the variety of strokes, and "mixes 'em up" as they say in baseball, to better effect. If he can get to the net without being passed he can be counted on to see a number of shots. All things considered, he has the inside chance of landing the title.

The play this afternoon will be something of a social event, and refreshments will be served on the clubhouse veranda.

And have you then return this writ, with full return of your proceedings thereon.

WITNESS the Honorable Presiding Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, at Honolulu aforesaid, this 16th day of February, 1912.

(Seal) (Sgd.) J. A. DOMINIS, Clerk.

Territory of Hawaii, ) City and County of ) ss. Honolulu, )

J. A. DOMINIS, Clerk of the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the original summons in the case of Territory of Hawaii, by Marston Campbell, Superintendent of Public Works, vs. Goo Wan Hoy et al., as the same appears of record and on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court.

I further certify that the petition prays the condemnation for use as a public highway of the following-described land, situate in the City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, to wit:

Beginning at a point in the southwest property line of Kukui Street, which point is as azimuth 318° 46' 57.20 feet from the line between the Government Street Survey Monument on Liliha Street at the northeast corner of School Street and the monument above Kukui Street, opposite Kuanwai Lane, which survey line is seventeen feet (17) offset from the southeast property line of Liliha Street, thence running by true azimuth and distances as follows:

- 1. 47° 10' 54.2 feet in a straight line to a point, thence, in a curved line to the left, having a radius of 920.0 feet;
2. 42° 38' 14.63 feet direct bearing and distance; thence
3. 38° 09' 120.02 feet in a straight line to a point thence: In a curved line to the right, having a radius of 875.0 feet;
4. 44° 29' 193.04 feet direct bearing and distance; thence
5. 50° 43' 131.47 feet to a point in the northeast property line of School Street, which point is as azimuth 322° 29' 76.85 feet from the government street survey line on Liliha Street; thence
6. 322° 45' 50.0 feet along the northeast property line of School Street and across Frog Lane to a point; thence
7. 230° 49' 133.0 feet in a straight line to a point; thence in a curved line to the left, having a radius of 925.0 feet;
8. 224° 29' 204.07 feet direct bearing and distance; thence
9. 218° 09' 120.02 feet in a straight line to a point; thence in a curved line to the right having a radius of 870.0 feet;
10. 222° 29' 136.77 feet direct bearing and distance; thence
11. 227° 10' 54.29 feet in a straight line to a point in the southwest property line of Kukui Street; thence
12. 138° 45' 50.0 feet along the southwest property line of Kukui Street to the point of beginning. Containing an area of 56,787.6 square feet.

All persons having an interest in the land sought to be condemned are hereby warned that unless they appear as said Court on or before August 5, 1912, they will be forever barred from contesting said petition or any judgment entered thereon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Circuit Court, this 11th day of April, 1912.

BUYING A HAT

Embarrassments Attending the Purchase of a New Lid and After-Effect

Of all earthly transactions that one which I most detest is buying a hat. I don't mind getting a new suit of clothes. Nowadays it is real diversion. Not going to a tailor, of course, who tells you what you ought to wear and makes you take what you don't want, but going to the clothing store, where acres of counters are covered with cords of ready-to-wear suits, and trying them on. Trying on new suits is a genuine pleasure. It enables you to consider yourself in different colors, styles and effects. You realize your many-sidedness.

I enjoy purchasing a new outfit as much as a snake enjoys moulting. I enter into the spirit of the man who was accosted one morning by an enterprising clothier and asked, if he wouldn't like to come in and try on a few of the new spring goods. He said, after looking at his watch, that he didn't care if he did; he wasn't due at the office for an hour. The delighted merchant took him in and arrayed him in some thirty consecutive arrays, more or less. At length the man said, consulting his watch again, that he'd have to be going, but that any morning the merchant would like a few suits tried on he would be glad to accommodate him.

Albany Man Finds Half a Million Supposed to Be on Deposit in New York

ALBANY, N. Y., July 13.—When Thomas O'Brien, a blacksmith, saw a red leather bag lying behind a fence near his shop tonight he picked it up. A moment later his eyes were bulging out and he was telephoning police headquarters. The bag contained checks totaling $538,113, the property of the United Cigar Stores company of New York.

PREHISTORIC MAN'S TEETH UNEARTHED

WILLOWS, July 19.—Human teeth were found on the Spalding ranch, south of Willows, about eighty feet down, while an irrigation well was being bored. The altitude at the surface of the well is ninety-five feet. Some ten feet below the point at which the teeth were found a boring machine struck an ancient sea level. It appears therefore, that the man when the Sacramento valley was about ninety feet lower than it is today. On the ancient sea level found beneath the teeth were fine sea sand and numerous pieces of shell fish. Judging from the teeth, which are very much like modern teeth, the man to whom they belonged was very much like the man of today. T. L. Knock, manager of the Spalding ranch, who has the teeth, also has in his possession the backbone of a huge lizard forty feet long, which was dug out of solid sandstone in the Coast Range mountains by his sons.

COLLIER SENT TO BOTTOM

MONTREAL, Ontario, July 28.—With bows stove in and her plates buckled, the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Britain is hurrying up the river to her dock, after a collision with the collier Helvetia this morning. The collier is lying at the bottom of the river, where she sank within a short time following the crash.

Just how the accident happened is not known here, save that it occurred in the heart of a dense fog, which prevented the captain of either vessel from seeing the bows of his own ship. The Helvetia is reported hopelessly injured, and to have sunk in deep water.

Her crew was taken off in boats from the Empress of Britain and those of her own which could be lowered in time, for she sank very quickly.

No one was injured on board the Empress of Britain, according to the meager reports received here. She had 700 passengers on board.

COAST CHINESE WELCOME

SUN YAT SEN'S CHILDREN
SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Local Chinatown turned out in a gorgeous Oriental parade today in honor of the arrival of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's children, Sun Fo, and his two sisters, and his bride, who reached town on the Siberia.

MEXICAN REBELS ORDER AMERICANS TO LEAVE.
EL PASO, Texas, July 28.—The rebel leaders here have issued orders to all Americans residing in Northern Mexico to surrender their arms, if they have any, at once and to leave their homes as soon as possible.

Refugees from the Mormon colonies are flocking to the border, bringing with them tales of the outrages perpetrated upon them and others by the insurgent bandits.

ALAMEDA OARSMEN IN TRAINING FOR OAHU RACE

ALAMEDA, Cal., July 28.—The local oarsmen yesterday began their active training for the coming races with the Honolulu crew.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE QUILTS THE RACE

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 28.—Declaring that he has found it hopeless to harmonize the warring Taft and Roosevelt factions throughout this State, Judge Dillon, the Republican candidate for governor, today announced that he would withdraw from the race.

HOPE FOR EMPEROR IS ABANDONED

TOKIO, Japan, July 28.—Physicians who have been attending the Emperor announced tonight that they had abandoned all hope of keeping His Majesty alive another day. Since morning the Emperor has been unconscious and life has been kept in his veins by means of artificial stimulants.

A hurried call demanding the immediate presence of the Imperial Prince, was sent out from the palace this afternoon, when it became known that His Majesty's end was near. Shortly after that the stimulants, which the doctors had been administering every little while, failed to produce any results. All efforts to arouse His Majesty from the coma into which he fell also failed.

The Emperor has been with her husband since early yesterday, refusing to leave his bedside. She is bearing up wonderfully under the strain of watching, but shows signs of breaking down.

Outside the palace all today there was a large crowd, recruited from all classes of the Emperor's subjects. In spite of the warnings for silence the crowds spent most of the day weeping and praying.

THINK TAFT WILL SIGN SUGAR BILL

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Official Washington believes that President Taft will certainly put his signature to the substitute sugar bill, which was adopted by the Senate, in committee of the whole yesterday. It is estimated here that the bill will cut the revenue of the government at least five million dollars a year, but its advocates assert that it will be a saving of four times that amount to the consumers throughout the country.

BELL IS HIGH SKUKUM.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Theodore Bell is undisputed monarch of the California Democracy today. Yesterday he succeeded in beating the Wilsonites on the State executive committee by seventeen to eight, and retains control of the committee.

In a statement issued by the minority of the committee the rebelling members declare that they will not recognize the "reactionary leadership which Bell represents," and assert that they will appeal from the majority of the committee to the rank and file of the Democratic party in California. Both factions endorsed Wilson and Marshall as candidates.

NAVAL HERO HONORED FOR LOCAL DEED

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Secretary McVeagh yesterday announced that he has decided to confer upon J. Wyatt, a sailor on board the cruiser South Dakota, a medal of honor for bravery in saving the life of a comrade at Waikiki beach, Honolulu, when the Pacific cruiser was there last winter.

FORBES ILL.

NEW BEDFORD, Connecticut, July 28.—Cameron Forbes, Governor of the Philippines, was taken seriously ill here yesterday. His family and friends have been notified.

TO INVESTIGATE NEW YORK POLICE

NEW YORK, July 28.—The board of aldermen yesterday resolved to mandamus Mayor Gaynor, and compel him to call a meeting to investigate the police force of the city, because of the scandal following the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal. Mayor Gaynor declared, when he heard of the resolution, that the real scandal lies in the fact that the police of the city "is honeycombed with rotten politics."

SAYS HILLES IS PICKPOCKET

NEW YORK, July 28.—Chairman Hilles and Theodore Roosevelt exchanged compliments yesterday. Oyster Bay called Hilles a "common pickpocket" and Hilles countered with the assertion that the "Roosevelt plan to capture the regular Republican States by stealing the electors is nothing but a fraud."

CALIFORNIA GIRL WINS WESTERN TENNIS FINALS

LAKE FOREST, Illinois, July 28.—May Sutton and Bundy were the winners in the Western Tennis finals played off here yesterday afternoon, before a large crowd of enthusiasts.

MORNING WIRELESS REPORT

WRECK IN CANADA.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 28.—A serious wreck on the Canadian-Pacific railroad, west of White River Junction, has been reported. Telegraph wires were down all night and no details can be obtained.

MINERS AND DETECTIVES HAVE DEADLY BATTLE.

CHARLESTON, West Virginia, July 28.—With both telegraph and telephone wires down and verification impossible reports reaching here today say that a dozen men have been slain in the Paint Creek section in a clash between the miners and the detectives sent into the district to guard mine property.

Governor Claescock, alarmed over the situation, ordered three companies of West Virginia militiamen to rush from Mount Gretna, Pennsylvania, where the state troops are in annual encampment. The soldiers arrived here yesterday on a special train. They will march into the Paint Creek section at once.

MONEY MAD.

LOS ANGELES, July 28.—Driven mad by constant indulgence in the only pleasures she has known—the counting of pennies and small silver pieces, begged from passers-by—Leopa Seybold, an ancient character on the streets, was sent to the asylum at Patton, and was there found to be a wealthy woman worth at least $300,000. Arrangements are being made to send her to Oakland where she owns large tracts of land, and where there are two sisters who will be asked to care for her.

UNCLE SAM AND MEXICO SETTLE DISPUTE.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The Mexican ambassador and the State department yesterday reached an agreement to settle the long-standing dispute regarding the disposal of the Chemical tract of about 5500 acres forming a part of the city of El Paso, Texas. On the strength of the purchase of the land from Mexico by the United States, the tract is believed to be worth, approximately, $1,000,000.

STRIKE COMMITTEE ADMITS DEFEAT.

LONDON, July 28.—The strike committee yesterday declared ended the strike at the London docks which started in May and caused about 50,000 dock laborers and families to live in a state of starvation for ten weeks. Work is being resumed Monday. The committee issued a manifesto to the men declaring that all agreements existing between employers and employees, existing prior to the dispute, must be maintained.

FAIL TO SOLVE MURDER MYSTERY.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The expected breakdown and confession of one or more of the men under arrest in connection with the murder of gambler Herman Rosenthal, have failed to materialize. The real murderers still are at large. District Attorney Whitney is balked so far in his efforts to show who plotted the murder. Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty says the developments in the last few days have been important, but does not expect any more arrests. Jack Sullivan, whose arrest was one of the sensational features of the investigation, will be given a chance to tell his story to Deputy Dougherty.

PORTLAND OFFICIALS FACE GRAVE CHARGES.

PORTLAND, Oregon, July 28.—Under the general nuisance statute, Mayor A. G. Rushlight, Chief of Police Stover, and C. G. Beatty, Clifford, Madox, Frank Reed and H. S. Smith, all connected with the police department, were indicted yesterday in connection with an alleged plot to bribe District Attorney Frank Collier. The indicted persons, under the statute, are accused of grossly injuring the person and property of another and of injuring public morals.

GLACIER COMING.

DETECTIVES IN EVENING DRESS ON GUARD AT CROCKER WEDDING

Footmen in Livery and Guests in Prince Alberts Are in Reality Keen Sleuths

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—At high noon today the Church of St. Matthew in San Mateo, already famed for the brilliant society weddings that have been performed there, will be the scene of the marriage of California's richest heiress, Miss Jennie Adeline Crocker, to Malcolm Douglas Whitman of Brookline, Mass., former tennis champion of the nation.

Today's wedding will be one of the most gorgeous that has ever been solemnized in the United States. It is to be graced by the presence of only 300 guests, yet the preparations have involved the expenditure of an immense sum of money and the employment of the services of hundreds of workmen. The church has been transformed into a bower of orchids, and the pavilion where the wedding breakfast is to be held into a fairyland palace.

This is to be a wedding of wealth and the precautions have not been neglected. The police force of San Mateo, Burlingame and Hillsborough will be out in force at the church and at the country home of Miss Crocker, and even the police department of San Francisco has been drawn upon. There will be wedding presents representing an incalculable sum, and the jewels of those bidden to witness the event will amount in value to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Detectives as waiters.

Detectives in full afternoon dress, Prince Albert coats, gray trousers and high hats, will be in the throng, and there will be other detectives in the garb of waiters and in the uniform of doormen and footmen. Chief of Police White detailed six men yesterday for duty at the wedding, the squad being composed of Detective Sergeants Thomas Murphy, Joseph Redmond, Jeremiah Dinnan and William Proll and Detectives Arthur McQuaide and Thomas Regan of the bureau of identification.

This detail was ordered yesterday at the request of City Marshal Conens of Hillsborough, who is secretary to Charles W. Clark of Hillsborough. The plain clothes men will be stationed at San Mateo, Hillsborough and at Miss Crocker's residence to guard the jewels of the guests, the wedding presents of the bride and the personal belongings of those who will attend the wedding. Moreover, they will keep a watchful eye out for pickpockets and thieves who might attempt to enter Miss Crocker's home during the ceremony.

Army of Workmen.

Yesterday the workmen employed to prepare the various pavilions and rooms to be used in connection with the wedding were engaged in putting the finishing touches on the collonade, under which the wedding breakfast is to be served on the Crocker lawn. This was not completed before night, and the gardeners and decorators were busy at their tasks long after dusk.

Unites Two Large Fortunes.

The wedding of Whitman and Miss Crocker unites two large fortunes, as Whitman is the heir to an immense estate in the East. Miss Crocker's fortune is conservatively estimated at $15,000,000, and she has been proclaimed the wealthiest heiress in the west. She is the granddaughter of Charles Crocker, one of the four Central Pacific railroad kings, of whom the other three were Stanford, Huntington and Hopkins. Her father was Colonel Charles Frederick Crocker. The heirs to Colonel Fred Crocker's fortune were Miss Jennie Crocker, Templeton Crocker, and Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, who was formerly Miss Mary Crocker.

Mrs. Harrison met her death in an automobile accident on Long Island in 1905. In the distribution of Colonel Fred Crocker's estate Miss Jennie Crocker and Charles Templeton Crocker each received $5,000,000 outright, and this amount has practically doubled since in each case by judicious investment. In addition to this fortune, Miss Jennie Crocker inherited $2,000,000 from the estate of Mrs. Harrison, and a sum estimated at from $2,500,000 to $3,000,000 from her uncle, George Crocker, in 1909.—San Francisco Call.

BONEHEAD PLAYS

Bowers, who is Ralph's running mate, was unable to make connections with the game, so Ralph was "put through" alone. He is pretty good on balls and strikes behind the plate, but his work in the field might be improved on. Still, he had more than his share of hard decisions to make yesterday, and it looks as though he would make good. If he gave his rulings a little faster there would be less chance of a roar from the losing side, though.

The opener between the Stars and Asahis dragged frightfully. The latter team got a man over in the first, and another in the eighth, while the Stars got three in the fifth and a brace in the eighth.

T. Moriyma pitched a good game, and not a single Star saw first until the fourth, when Burns got a hit. Barney Joy elected to play the keystone sack, leaving Kibbey to do the twirling. Hard-hitting Barney celebrated his first appearance at bat for the second series by striking out, after he had swatted to the right field fence in foul territory.

The game was slow, and there were numerous delays, some of which could have been avoided.

QUEEN AS WITNESS IN ROYAL SCANDAL

Notorious Helga de la Brache Case Again Crops Up in Stockholm

PARIS, July 7.—A mild looking, notorious Helga de la Brache case may occupy the courts, and the queen dowager of Denmark is threatened with a summons to appear as a witness.

Periodically this case has attracted intense interest in Scandinavia, by reason of the king and other members of the Swedish royal family being brought into the scandal, but this time the probe is apparently to be pushed further.

Helga de la Brache, it is alleged, was the daughter of King Gustavus IV Adolphus and his queen, born in exile. The king was dethroned. It is further alleged that over $2,000,000 in a mysterious way was paid to the Swedish court on her behalf by the Russian court, and four letters proving her royal descent were handed at the same time to the Swedish court.

It is certain that King Carl XV allowed Helga de la Brache a pension, but this was afterwards withdrawn. She has been dead many years, but the case has been fought with persistence by Mr. Johansson, formerly member of the landsting. It has been before several courts. The royal archives have been searched, the queen dowager of Sweden and other members of the royal family have recently filed long autograph statements in the case, and altogether the proceedings have stirred society from top to bottom.

Now, following the death of the king of Denmark, Mr. Johansson considers the dowager queen of Denmark, who is the only child of King Carl XV of Sweden, has become an independent legal personality. So he has addressed a letter to King Gustav of Sweden in which he earnestly begs of the king to persuade the dowager queen of Denmark to furnish him (the king) with a complete statement of her knowledge of the case, or, failing this, again to refer the case to a Stockholm court before which the dowager queen of Denmark could be summoned as a witness.
