

With Maui's Girl Scouts

HOME, HEALTH & CITIZENSHIP
(A Study of Scout Awards)

These three major interests are coming to be indicated by the Girl Scout Trefoni as our girls more and more show their proficiency in the home, their high standards of healthy living in their robust bodies and wholesome outdoor play and work, and finally, as they take their part in the daily life of their communities, by intelligent service.

Among ourselves our special and class badges mean such; probably the outside world is more interested in the little colored symbols that mark the proficiency badges.

Tenderfoot badges are to be taken for granted as a prerequisite to registration, and as there were 42,810 new Scouts in 1921, these of course, had to pass the test. Perhaps the second class badges are the most significant index to new troop work. There were only 7,942 of these, far too few, when it is considered that there were over 5,000 new troops, and that this work should form the major object of the troop activities until all are qualified. This number should approximate the number of new Scouts and be about 10,000, or five times as large as it is.

The first class figure, 482, is also far too low, when it is considered that these are only about one in two hundred, of the average registration. If we consider five years as a fair average Scout lifetime, there should be a fifth of the total number of Scouts at any one time working toward first class, which would mean a figure of something like 20,000 for 1921, or about half the desirable number of second class winners. It is obvious that we are far from this.

The Golden Eaglets won during 1921, totaled 146, slightly over ten a month. This is a fair number, and it is not desirable to stress this highest award much until the second and first class tests are being taken by a more appropriate proportion of the Scouts.

Attendance Stars were won by nearly 8,500 Scouts. This is good, but it might be better. The Life Saving Crosses, of which there were 160, are dependent upon exceptional opportunities and there is no possible basis for comparison or establishing standards.

News Of The Troops

Schools close for the Christmas holidays Friday, December 15. Some of the troops are not meeting during the vacation, others will hold their regular meetings. Some will avail themselves of the excellent opportunity for hikes and the out-of-door activities. The Director feels sure that the Girl Scouts of Maui will delight in the many opportunities of "doing a good turn" at this Christmas season.

Don't be afraid to volunteer your services to the Community. It all helps toward the "Community Service" badge. Let us hear your experience of "good turns" both as troops and individuals.

Bird Of Paradise Troop

Hanalei, Dec. 8, 1922.
"A joint meeting of the two troops—Morning Glory Troop No. 7 and the Bird of Paradise Troop No. 16 met at the Hanalei High School on Thursday.

The Morning Glory Troop held their meeting as usual and a hike to Maiko Gulch was suggested. After a brief discussion both Troops planned to have it on Thursday. Each Girl will bring something along and some of the Scouts of the Bird of Paradise Troop are going to pass their fire and cooking test. Four girls of Troop 16 have already volunteered to do the cooking. The Captains of both troops have appointed a Committee of three girls to meet with her on Monday to discuss about the things what each girl will take along.

"After this we adjourned to the grounds where Miss Seibert presented four girls of the Bird of Paradise Troop with their tenderfoot pins and Dorothy Cup Choy was awarded the Health Winner's Badge. After the presentation ceremony troop 7 challenged Troop 16 to a game of long ball. The score was 23-8 in favor of the Morning Glories. All the girls of the High School troop didn't know how to play long ball so it was quite a new game to us.

"Most of the Scouts of Troop 16 are working real hard on their Second Class test as they all hope to pass it soon. Some of the scouts are after merit badges too as we hope to receive a lot of badges on Scout Day.

"We hope to a jolly swell time on Thursday and will let the other Scouts know about it next time.

"With our aloha to all the other scouts on Maui,

"We remain,
"The Bird Of Paradise Troop.

Maunaloa Seminary:

Two reports from the Cup of Gold Troop have been received. They are a bit old but so interesting that we are sure you will not want to miss them.

Dear Miss Seibert:

"On Saturday we Scouts of the Cup of Gold Troop went to the beach to have a good swim. We walked from our school to the community house and there we met our Captain. Then we walked down to the beach where we Seminary girls always go. When we had almost reached the beach timekin it began to rain. Our captain told us to wait till one of our teachers came. We waited for her, while some of the girls put on their bathing suits. Four of us girls had our bathing suits on already. In about ten minutes she came. Then we went in swimming. We swam for a long time. We stayed in the water till five o'clock. It was raining and we stayed in the water till it was time for us to go home. Some of the girls found some Lemu and opihii on the stones. There were some other people that were swimming with us. We started back about half past five. Four girls and two teachers walked back and the rest rode. One of the teachers that was walking with the four girls bought Eskimo pies for us.

"Above the Plantation store Miss Collins met us and we rode in the machine till we reached the school. We related some of our news to some of the girls. There was only one girl that was not able to swim and join in the fun.

"Yours truly,
"Scribe Mary Kaholokula"

"Dear Miss Seibert:

Last Saturday we Cup of Gold Troop girls gave an entertainment for the girls. There were thirteen of us scout girls and of course our Captain Miss Collins planned this. We decided upon this plan in our meeting. It was carried out the following Saturday. We started about seven o'clock and were divided into several groups.

"We had a bonfire and our Captain gave the girls marshmallows and I tell you they were delicious. After we ate our marshmallows then we began our program.

"We Cup of Gold girls acted out some of our "good turns" for the benefit of the other girls."

Makawao

Miss Frances Lackaff, settlement nurse, has started a course in child nursing for these scouts. The first lesson was held Tuesday P. M. at the school house. Much interest is shown by the girls in the work.

Waihee

"Dear Miss Seibert:
"The girls of the Maile Troop are very proud of passing their tenderfoot test so soon.

Saturday, December 2, Mrs. Wadsworth took the girls of the Maile Troop to the beach. Mrs. Osmer loaned us her beach house which we appreciated very much. Mrs. Deibert the captain of the girl scouts of Spreckelsville went with Mrs. Wadsworth to help teach the girls how to swim. They learned very quickly.

"At 11:30 we had our luncheon; we had cakes, soda and other things. At 12 M. we came home. Mrs. Wadsworth took us up to Kapuna when she took the Kapuna girls home.

"Wednesday, Dec. 6, we had our rummage sale. We sold about $30.00 worth of clothing. It is to be used towards our uniforms.

The girls of the Maile troop are all very thankful for our dear captain, Mrs. Wadsworth.

Yours truly,
"FERNANDEZ S. CASTRO."

Spreckelsville

A good meeting was held Wednesday afternoon at the Spreckelsville schoolhouse. Mrs. Ed. Walsh is acting as captain of the troop during Mrs. Deibert's absence. The first patrol has agreed to take the new scouts and train them in their tenderfoot work. Miss Huddleston is assisting the scouts during the week at odd times.

Kahului

Now that entertainments and parties are over the Roselani scouts have decided to do some test work. Captain Wicke and Mrs. Morris are having their hands full examining them all.

Paia

How about the hike to the Seminary, girls? I have been expecting to hear from you every day.

"Olowalu, Dec. 12, 1922.

"Dear Miss Seibert:

"We are so anxious to write you a letter, for we have too much to tell you and all who are interested in scout work. Friday was a very happy day for us as that was the day you presented us with our tenderfoot pins.

On Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon we sold ice cream, all scout girls were very glad to help as they wanted to get some money in the treasury. We cleared $12.75. Wasn't that good?

"Now we are planning for a very happy Christmas, as we are going to make up a Christmas box and send it to the newly organized Girl Scouts at Kahili Receiving Station for lepers.

"From your Scout,
"ROSE PAUL,
"Hima Troop."

Kula-Haiku

"No news. How about it girls? We want to hear all about the Spreckelsville beach party.

Wailuku

The Lehua troop is progressing splendidly in the child nurse course under Miss Lackaff's direction.

Girl Scout Film

Mrs. F. F. Baldwin, Girl Scout Commissioner, has arranged with Mr. Weller for this film to be shown on Maui next week. The troops selling tickets will receive 20 percent of all tickets sold. Ask your captain for further particulars. Watch the papers for future notices regarding the film. The picture will probably be shown at Paia, Spreckelsville, Punene, Kahului, Wailuku and Lahaina.

No. 59—Queen Anne Wing Chairs

Comfort was the keynote of Queen Anne furniture, and especially in the chairs of the period. The wing chair shown in the illustration is a good example of this insistent provision for personal comfort. It is called a wing chair because of the wings or projections that extend forward from the top of the back and were meant for two purposes—for the occupant of the chair to lean his or her head against, and, secondly, to keep off draughts. These chairs had the same cabriole legs before referred to, and also a shaped apron beneath the front of the seat, the shaping sometimes continuing around the sides. In some cases, however, the aprons were made without shaping. The top of the back was shaped or arched with cyma curves as already explained, and the upholstered arms were rolled over and curved outward in front. These armchairs were comfortably upholstered on seat, back and arms and were covered with the velvets, brocades or needlepoint of the period, or else with some of the less expensive but equally beautiful printed linens and chintzes. Another type of Queen Anne upholstered armchair had a low straight-topped back without wings. Many of these Queen Anne chairs are being successfully reproduced and many be warmly recommended for general use.

on a dark dreary December night, the wind was howling and I took my way through the path in the woods and—TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF!" When the story-teller utters this warning all are obliged to run to the other end of the room, clap hands three times and run back again. The first one to return becomes the story-teller for the next sequence, and he continues: "and before me I saw a dim white shape waving its arms. I could not utter a sound but—TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF!" Again the players run to the other end of the room "knock on wood" three times and run back, the winner of the race taking up the continuation of the story in this wise—"but I took heart and marched bravely forward while the piercing winter wind whistled in my ears—TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF!" So the story is taken up by each return-leader until one ends. Another player failing to give the treble clap or knock is dropped from the game and obliged to pay forfeit.

Take Care Of Yourself
This game is derived from a Gaelic source, dating from the ancient times when every Celtic chieftain had a professional bard in his train and when stirring tales were told around glowing peat fires. Most of the stories were hero tales, but occasionally the narrative was humorous or in the nature of a practical joke, as was the case in "Take Care of Yourself."
In its modern form this story-game begins with a narrator and a circle of listeners the story-teller improvising as he goes, thus: "Once upon a time,

SPORT FOR SPORT SAKE

For nearly two hours yesterday afternoon the directors of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association considered the subject of athletic sports and games, how they could best be conducted in the interests of players and spectators and in the interests of the children who will soon be taking them up. They discussed evils which it has been alleged had crept into or were creeping into sports on Maui. They were utterly unselfish in their consideration and their action was for what they believe to be "best for the game" on Maui.

Except in places where there is a population large enough to furnish strong supporting memberships for athletic clubs and in the larger colleges the matter of financing amateur sport is a perplexing problem. So it has been on Maui. Players on a club, knowing the difficulty of securing uniforms and equipments looked with jealous eye upon the receipts of the games in which they participated and quibbled on a division of the spoils. It was not that players were in for the money for themselves. So far as they were themselves concerned they were clean and pure amateurs but the very difficulty of meeting necessary expenses brought about a commercialism on behalf of their teams.

It is to eliminate that condition that the directors of the Fair and Racing Association passed the resolution that resulted from their lengthy considerations. Their plan is to have the cost of sports budgeted, to have the money raised through contributions in the community once a year, to have the conduct of the games supervised and controlled by one of the associations committees, to take away from the managers of the teams the necessity of finding ways and means to put players on the track or the field and to relieve the Sports Committee from its worry in an effort to make, both ends meet, to pay profits that were made in one branch to that branch and to be confronted with deficits in others.

The intent of the resolution is to establish a powerful control of athletics by going straight to the fountain head, the source of supply of money, and they ask that no contributions or donations be made in the Maui community except for projects endorsed through the sports committee of the Fair and Racing Association. To secure such endorsement or support the teams will have to come under a general supervision and abide by the rules of the organization. The competitions are for glory and for trophies. Such revenue as may be derived will go to the support of a community enterprise, a public property, the Maui County Fair and Racing Association which has acquired a property on which has been expended $260,000 of which all but $50,000 has been paid and which has annual expenses for interest and maintenance of more than $7000 annually. The association furnishes the grounds. Its approval will produce the funds to support the athletic organizations. Through it will come the prizes and trophies. That is what the resolution is designed to bring about.

Plantations, canneries and other business concerns are called upon frequently during the year to aid financially various teams and organizations in various branches of athletics. The proposed budget system would combine all such demands into one. The possibility of the money being squandered is eliminated and whatever may be the proceeds of the ventures, those proceeds go into Maui's big community amusement enterprise. Such is what the action of the Fair and Racing Association is designed to mean.

From the expressions of opinion heard last night among participants in the sports of baseball and football, they welcome the undertaking and a similar feeling may be expected to be found among the players in all the games in which young Maui participates and older Maui enjoys watching.

HOMES FOR FORMER LEPERS

News dispatches from Honolulu published today tell of the visit of Governor Farrington to Kalaupapa and of his finding while there that there are members of members of the settlement who may be expected soon to be paroled as arrested cases of the disease who do not want to leave Molokai where they have in some instances resided for years. It is proposed to have lands near the settlement opened for their use and to extend the Hawaiian Homes project accordingly.

Not more than five years ago such an expression as "Homes for Former Lepers" would not have been understood. Then the idea of arrested cases was hardly thought of except by a few medical and scientific men. Now it is looked upon so much as a matter of course that the finding of a place where they may live in happiness and contentment, not isolated from their fellow men but free and unhampered of restraint, raises the problem of where and how to locate them.

The governor is quoted as saying, also, that the outstanding feature he noticed is that accommodations in Kalaupapa are far in excess of requirements. And the joy of it is that each year now, there will be fewer inmates who have to be kept in isolation. Kalaupapa may be a central distributing point from which there will go forth to other homes men and women free from the danger of infecting those with whom they may dwell and be associated, no longer to be feared as bearers of contagion.

Especially creditable is it to the management of Kalaupapa and those associated with it that those people who are paroled and permitted to leave do not want to go. Louder than clarion trumpets, more graphically than many printed tones, is the praise that such feeling on the part of the erstwhile isolated bestows. Had the treatment been what the world used to believe of leper colonies, no such desire to remain near would be manifested. All Hawaii may rejoice that here is the proof that those who had to be taken from home and friends have been accorded such treatment that they are loath to leave Molokai for other places.

The project of rehabilitating former lepers may well go forward with the project of rehabilitating Hawaiians back onto the soil and away from the congestion of cities and towns.

Maui County is well provided for in the proposed budget of the harbor board. Some questioning is heard of the wisdom of two wharves for Molokai, however, and the Civic Convention recently voted against such a proposal. The addition to Mala wharf is designed to enable ships to lie up to the wharf head or stern on to the current instead of broadside on as now.

In an editorial a few days ago on the subject of the territorial government entering the banking industry a typographical error said the banks paid the territory "four percent" on deposits and did not pay interest on the drawing accounts of individuals or business houses. The figure should have been two instead of four. With that correction the editorial stands and two or four this paper is opposed to the territory entering into competitive business schemes.

EDITORIAL

The thought of vacation approaching always creates a broad, happy smile on every student's countenance. Christmas vacation is again approaching and we are apt to hold rather hazy and vague dreams of what its purpose really is. To many of us Christmas Eve itself is more of a sweet dream than an actual historical fact.

Let us consider for a moment why we celebrate this "Eve," Christmas day is not merely a day to celebrate His birth but also it is a day for all of us to begin a new and purer life. We should learn from our past and start a fresh new leaf.

Where displeasing acts have occurred at school we should resolve to disperse them through firm determination of each student to do his or her best for the school, for although Maui High is still but a mere child if we give our best, think our best, and do our best, it will be sure to grow into the best school in the islands.

Napoleon said "impossible" is a word that can be found only in the dictionary of a fool.

Faculty Facts

Miss Davis will be a guest, during the Christmas vacation, at the home of Mrs. Fearn in Kanaai. Mrs. Fearn was formerly Miss Gillespie, one of last year's grade teachers.

Miss Slotboom will spend a part of the Christmas holidays in Honolulu. Mr. Melvin will be in Honolulu for a while.

Miss Buell will leave for Honolulu on Friday's boat.

Miss Alvord will leave for Honolulu on next Wednesday's boat.

Mr. Judd, Miss Johnson, Miss Troland, Miss Dunkle and Mrs. Howe, will spend the Christmas vacation at home.

Miss Wobbs expects to pass the holidays in Honolulu.

FACULTY ENTERTAINS

On Saturday afternoon, a large number of the faculty of the Maui High and Grammar School were hostesses at a party given at the Teachers' Cottage. The living room was beautifully decorated with branches of Hawaiian holly and poinsettia. There were more than forty guests present. The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent in needlework and bridge. Prizes were won by Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Correll. Refreshments served with the beautiful color scheme of red and white, were enjoyed by all.

ANCIENT HISTORY

Before Captain Cook discovered Keelakekua Bay he was sailing around and around Kanaai, when one of his crew suggested that they name the island "Bull's Eye" due to its perfect roundness. "Oh! no!" replied Cook. "It's too pretty to be called 'Bull's Eye,' let's call it 'Cow-eye.'"

STUDENTS EXAMINED

Dr. Charles Barron of the Department of Public Health visited our school on Friday from 8:40 A. M. to 12:00 A. M., and examined a large number of serious cases of poor eyesight. Certain pupils, especially Freshmen, have been found to be nearly totally blind in one eye while other cases were diagnosed as serious refractions and ordinary stigmatism.

GOOD EATS

Cafeteria is running on splendid lines this year and is without doubt a success, due to the good management of Mrs. Rita Howe. Would you object to eating lunch at school when you would get such a menu at the following?

- Bread and butter, and Swiss steak, 5 cents.
 - Lima beans salad, 5 cents.
 - Peach ice-cream, 5 cents.
- From an analyzed chart of menus, it is remarkable to note how infrequently Mrs. Howe has doubled back to previous menus.
- THANKS
 Mr. Judd wishes to thank the boys boys who prepared the football field for the school.
- Miss D.—(In trig. class)—Bill!
 Billy Monkey—Rub?
 Miss D.—Wake up!

FINE SPIRIT SHOWN

To Mr. Judd's greatest satisfaction, much class spirit was shown on the football field on Friday afternoon. As the event was a complete success, it makes certain that a similar event known as "Track Day" will be held sometime in spring.

Interclass Football Won By Seniors Who Have Best Of Luck

Lucky for the Seniors whose ends hooked almost impossible forward passes, but as for the the Sophies, who are to be credited for their strong line, they had no luck at all. The first touchdown was made by Arthur Yee who caught a beautiful forward pass, which was delivered by his brother, just within his goal. The second was made in the last quarter when Wm. Mountcastle recovered a Sophomore fumble and chased himself down the field for a touchdown. The game ended with a score of 12-0 with the Seniors on top.

Freshies Hold Juniors

Sinnels—waddo you say—There goes a four yard gain.

That's how the Freshies started romping over the Juniors who were almost knocked completely out of their senses.

But in the second quarter the Juniors were filled with more life and started the pigskin rolling, working their way up the field for a touchdown.

The rest of the game was played with no advantage to either side and the whistle blew saying that the Juniors won by a 6-0 score.

Seniors Cop Title

Seniors, yes! Seniors. That's the very cry that was heard from the sidelines which proclaimed the victory of the Seniors in a hard fought game with the Juniors, played to a tune of 6-0.

The Senior line outweighed the little Junior line but the Senior backfield had nothing to do with the million dollar Junior backfield with which the Juniors made their yardage whenever they wished.

Hi Girls Invade Football World

A game which afforded much amusement to the masculine element of the Maui Hi was played Friday afternoon. The Hi girls proved that when it comes to grit, they're there with the goods. The Sophomore-Seniors played the Junior-Freshmen and beat them to the tune of 6-0.

Owing to the fact that the game was played after school several players were unable to remain. This made a gap in the Junior-Freshmen front line which had to be filled with girls from the side lines.

When the game started, there were many grins and winks exchanged among the boys. This didn't last long, however, for they soon saw that the girls intended to play real football.

At the end of the first quarter the Junior-Frosh were 10 yards from the goal where Dorothy Cup Choy of that team made a wild dash in the opposite direction. By the time she stopped she was some 35 yards away from her goal. Mr. Humphrey, who was the referee for the game, laughed so much that he forgot to blow the whistle and, as his instructions were to keep on until he blew the whistle, Dorothy kept on.

The Soph-Seniors pushed on near and nearer their goal and at the last moment made a touchdown.

Although Dorothy Cup Choy made that "green" mistake in the last quarter she was undoubtedly the star of the Junior-Frosh team. She had never touched a football before but never touched a football before but she played the game. She made several of the opposing team see stars and as for speed—she had them all beaten.

Now that the girls have had one taste of football they will have another. A game is scheduled for Friday, December 15.

The lineup of last Friday was:

Baseball Players Secure Well Earned Letters

On Monday, a special meeting of the student body was held. Before the meeting, Miss Johnson asked the aid of the students in selling tickets for the plays and dance to be given on Saturday night at the Paia Community House.

Floyd Brown, president of the Student Body Association, then presented the letters to the players who formed last year's baseball team. Each player was called forward and given his letter amid the applause of the other students.

Schools May Conduct Their Own Exhibits At Next Maui Fair

School exhibits at the next county fair will be conducted on different lines from in the past, according to plans that were proposed yesterday by a committee from the Maui Principals Association and approved by the directors of the Fair and Racing Association. It is planned that the schools shall have their exhibit in their own interests and charge a separate admission fee to it. The suggestion comes from the schools. Suggestions for changes were made by a committee of three composed of Mrs. E. E. Boyum, who acted as spokeswoman, Miss Mary Fleming and H. A. Rogers. Mrs. Boyum told of the plans of the Educational Association to send two delegates to the next National convention, spoke of the difficulty of financing, told of the efforts expended in installing exhibits, at past fairs and said the schools got little from it for their trouble. The Principals Club believed a revenue could be secured either by holding the exhibit apart from the fair at a different time or through the charging of an admission. She spoke of Hawaii having secured more than $800 from school fairs. Considerable discussion followed. The directors of the Fair were a unit that the school exhibit should not be taken from the fair and added much interest to the big yearly show. Finally a motion was adopted to the effect that the directors recommend to the director of the next fair that the Territorial Building be turned over to the schools and that the educational and school exhibit shall be conducted as a concession with the privilege of charging admission and with other privileges that may be agreed upon between the fair director and those in charge of the schools exhibit. This action satisfied the committee. Some discussion as to what could be done in the way of giving the school children a better time on Children's Day at the Fair; followed and a number of valuable suggestions were made.

Eagle Boats Defeat Lahaina By 13 To 0

The Navy gridders, a team made up of the crews of several Eagle Boats that are lying off Lahaina, yesterday afternoon defeated the Lahaina team of the Maui football league on Malulu-ole Field by the score of 13 to 0. Although Lahaina was outshadowed in playing, the local team twice threatened the Navy's goal. Two times they advanced the ball to within a yard of the sailors posts but on one occasion the ball was lost on downs and the second time a fumble lost them the opportunity to score. A large crowd witnessed the contest.
