If Wholesalers Refuse to Meet Wishes of Food Administrator Legal Action May Result; Public Will Handle Retailers

The day of excess profits in Honolulu has ended. If local wholesalers are not willing to remain satisfied with a normal pre-war profit, then J. F. Child, federal food administrator for Hawaii, will take steps to make them do so.

As an aftermath of the general licensing of local food handlers and distributors doing a business of more than $100,000 a year, and in line with a nation-wide movement launched by the food administration in Washington, D. C., Administrator Child has set to work to secure weekly publication of wholesale prices of foodstuffs so that the retailer, as well as the consumer, may know at a glance just what profits are being made, and to overcome any possibility of exorbitant profits.

Administrator Child is sending letters to all wholesale dealers in foodstuffs requesting their prices on certain commodities, and to all retail dealers requesting their prices. Under the new system these concerns are required to furnish the cost, and the consumer, the administrator will be able to determine whether the wholesale price is reasonable and in line with the normal pre-war profit.

Mr. Child believes that if the wholesaler knows that his prices are going to be scrutinized he will immediately get his profits in line with what he was making normally before the war; and if a retailer's price is not in line with all others, which should be a normal pre-war profit, he will at once get them in line in order to meet the competition of the dealers who are declining to make an excess profit, and whose prices will be made public.

As regards wholesalers, the federal administrator has the power to take legal action if evidence of excess profits is found, and such action, says Mr. Child, will be taken if necessary. The public, he adds, will take care of the retailer.

RODIEK DIRECTED MOVEMENTS OF MAVERICK IS U. S. CHARGE

"Mystery" Ship of Hilo Fame Figures Prominently in Hindu Revolutionary Plot—U. S. Attorney Preston Says Former German Consul Here Sent Schroeder and Captains Elbo and Dinant to Ship at Hilo

Mail advices from the coast today revealed that Georg Rodiek, former German consul at Honolulu, has been indicted in connection with the Hindu conspiracy on the ground that he had a hand in directing the movements of the "mystery" ship Maverick while she was at Hilo in 1915.

The Maverick figures prominently in the trial as a lengthy description of her wanderings is incorporated in Attorney Preston's charges.

With reference to the stay of the Maverick at Hilo and her subsequent departure, Attorney Preston stated: "Purchase of Maverick

"The Maverick, an obsolete oil tanker, was purchased from the Standard Oil Company of San Francisco on March 16, 1915, by John F. Craig of the Craig Shipbuilding Company of Long Beach, at the instigation of Joseph J. Bley. The price paid was $48,000.

"Arthur Page of Page Brothers, 310 California street, ship brokers, were told by Harry J. Hart in the early part of March, 1915, that the Maverick was for sale, suggesting that they secure a buyer for her.

"On the last day of the option Fred Jensen sent for Page and asked for the opinion when the option to Moran had expired and gave Page $1,000 in cash to get the extension of the option from the Standard Oil Company. This $1,000 was given the Standard Oil Company with a memorandum.

"The license, in selling bakery products shall avoid all unreasonable delay. Resales, without reasonable justification, resulting in a higher market price to the retailer or consumer, will be dealt with as an unfair practice.

Honolulu Germans Lacking Permits Are Held on Kauai

Two alien enemies, German residents of Honolulu, are unable to return to their homes from Kauai due to the recent issuing of an order requiring the securing of a Presidential permit to travel from one point to another, according to statements made at the Inter-island offices today.

Strict observance of the order is being given by the Inter-island passenger agents, who faithfully question every applicant for a ticket as to his nationality.

Under the present law regulating the suspension of the coastwise shipping laws for foreign vessels, it is impossible and impracticable for the T. K. K. Co. to operate its steamers for island service.

Mr. Avery is accompanied by his wife and says he is here for a three weeks' stay. That he is not here to establish a Honolulu T. K. K. office separate from Castle and Cooke, was one of his most definite statements.

"We fully explained to the government that we could not successfully operate under the restrictions of the present law which permits the granting of permits only for single voyages.

The case brought by Henry C. Brown to force the board of education to reinstate him as principal of the Waimea, Kauai, school, was argued and submitted in the supreme court. The circuit judge of Kauai found in Brown's favor.

Authorizing its chairman to proceed at once with securing from the survey department copies of maps and other data on the district of Nawiliwili, Kauai, the territorial harbor board at a meeting today entered upon a process intended ultimately to secure for the government the lands adjacent to the proposed breakwater site.

REVISION OF BONUS SUGGESTED

A. W. T. Bottomley Charged With Duty and Will Report to Next Meeting of Trustees, is Report Following Executive Meeting

There is to be a considerable revision in the scale of bonuses paid to plantation laborers. The work of revising the scale is chiefly in the hands of A. W. T. Bottomley and will be presented to the trustees of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association for discussion at their next meeting.

Just what changes are proposed, whether the scale will be revised or raised could not be learned, most of those who attended the executive session yesterday, refusing to discuss the matter.

The greater part of this morning's session was consumed in the reading and discussion of the report of the experiment station committee but a supplementary report on that submitted by the committee on forestry was contributed this morning by Dr. H. L. Lyon.

In this supplementary report Dr. Lyon pointed out that the Hawaiian sugar industry which depends a great deal on water, will suffer unless the present watersheds are not reforested.

"Our forest is of the very ancient order. It is believed that these islands were once part of the Asiatic continent and that shortly after this land was formed the trees and plants which seek new-formed land spread here to what was then part of the Asiatic continent."

"When this land became divided from the mainland the flora and fauna which grows on old soil could not come and hence only trees that seek new made lands have been here. Now these trees are dying because the soil has changed and it means that we must reforest our watersheds with a society of trees, vines and plants that will hold water and that will find this old soil good to thrive in."

On the subject of the leafhopper which has worked such ravages in certain plantations Mr. Agee admitted that the solution of the problem had not been reached chiefly because the staff of the station had not had the time to study it, but that in the near future the leafhopper would be given considerable more attention than in the past.

TEMPORARY TRUCE IS EFFECTED ON GERMAN EAST FRONT; NEW TARTAR REPUBLIC IN CRIMEA

GREAT RUSSIAN KINGDOM CRUMBLING AS SMALLER NATIONALITIES RAISE CRY FOR INDEPENDENCE—SWEDEN DENIES OFFER TO MEDIATE BETWEEN BOLSHIEVICS AND GERMANS

LONDON, England, Dec. 4.—Representatives of the Bolshevik-Socialist cabinet in Petrograd and of Germany have signed an armistice calling for cessation of hostilities for 48 hours, according to a despatch from Amsterdam today.

LONDON, England, Dec. 4.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Times has cabled that the establishment of a Tartar republic in the Crimea has been announced. No details of this movement to give independent government to one of the smaller nationalities hitherto under the Russian rule can be learned.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Dec. 4.—The Swedish government today issued a formal statement in denial of the report that Sweden has offered to mediate between the Bolshevik government and Germany, in an attempt to hasten peace.

MINOR ARMISTICES ON EASTERN FRONT ALREADY BEING PUT INTO EFFECT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Armistices are already in operation in several sections of the Asiatic, German and Russian fighting fronts. Announcements to this effect were yesterday officially made from both Berlin and Vienna. Instead of negotiating between capital and capital proceeding the direct course of arranging truces along the fronts section by section is being pursued. Military representatives of the Russian government, officers and men, are being passed through the German and Austrian lines and conferences similar to the one at Czernowitz last week are being held.

Through a bulletin posted before the great headquarters in Berlin yesterday the German public was informed of the progress being made in the arrangement of a truce and cessation of hostilities along the Russian fronts generally. This bulletin said that numbers of such truces were already in operation and that fighting had accordingly ceased in several sections.

Propaganda Spreads In an official statement issued by the war bureau in Vienna more definite details were given. This statement said: "During the past few days an armistice has been announced on many sectors of the Russian front, negotiations proceeding and arrangements being completed section by section. In the Pripiet region the Russians have concluded an official armistice with the opposite Teutonic command."

KAMEHAMEHA ALUMNI RANKS SWELLED BY 23

Twenty-three persons last night became members of the Kamehameha Alumni Association at a meeting of the organization in its club house, Fort street. The list of candidates was presented by Rudolph Duncan, chairman of the membership committee, and all applicants were accepted and duly initiated.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—Secretary of War Baker sees evidence of the desperation of the German military command in the offensive attempted on the western front, which commenced on Friday. In his review of the war situation, covering the week ending on Saturday, Secretary Baker suggests that the Germans are now attempting to secure a decision on the French front and are staking great things on the battle being fought in the Cambrai sector.

BREAD PRICE TO BE REDUCED WHEN U. S. TAKES HAND

Food Board and Emergency Council Recommend Drastic War Measures

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—The baking industry bureau of the Emergency War Council today recommended that an immediate reduction be carried out in the prices of bread wherever it is possible. The bakers will be licensed beginning November 10, using the standardized loaf formula.

The United States food board last week announced definite rules for the baking industry of the country. In Hawaii, enforcement of these rules is presumably in the hands of the federal food administrator.

The license, in selling bakery products shall avoid all unreasonable delay. Resales, without reasonable justification, resulting in a higher market price to the retailer or consumer, will be dealt with as an unfair practice.

PHYSICIANS IN ENGLAND MAY BE 'NATIONALIZED'

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 4.—Dr. Christopher Addison, minister of construction in the war government, is working on a plan for the "nationalization of physicians" in Great Britain. Under this plan the services of physicians would be free to all for the duration of the war, the physicians to be compensated by the government, and all required to make their services available.

T. K. K. NOT RUN UNDER U. S. FLAG

W. H. Avery Declares It is Impossible for Japanese Boats to Enter Island Business Under Present Circumstances

Under the present law regulating the suspension of the coastwise shipping laws for foreign vessels, it is impossible and impracticable for the T. K. K. Co. to operate its steamers for island service.

Less than two weeks ago Mr. Avery was in Washington and discussed the question of having the Japanese liners entered in the coastwise trade during the period of the war.

Later he explained that the company officials were still in communication with Washington and it was hoped a solution of the problem could be arrived at.

Authorizing its chairman to proceed at once with securing from the survey department copies of maps and other data on the district of Nawiliwili, Kauai, the territorial harbor board at a meeting today entered upon a process intended ultimately to secure for the government the lands adjacent to the proposed breakwater site.

Through the efforts of A. T. Spalding and William Pullar, the sum of $734.05 has been donated to the Red Cross by the employees of the Honolulu Sugar Co. on Hawaii. The gift was turned in at the Red Cross headquarters in Hilo.

HARBOR BOARD MOVES TO SECURE NAWILIWILI LAND

Authorizing its chairman to proceed at once with securing from the survey department copies of maps and other data on the district of Nawiliwili, Kauai, the territorial harbor board at a meeting today entered upon a process intended ultimately to secure for the government the lands adjacent to the proposed breakwater site.

In the discussion of the plan which came previous to the motion general opinion was expressed by the commissioners that a proper procedure in backing the congressional bill for a breakwater was to gain title to the lands which will be affected by such construction. It was pointed out that the lands are generally held by two parties.

PRESIDENT HERE ON FIRST VOYAGE

More than usual interest was shown in the arrival of the steamer President, which docked at Pier 15 today shortly after 12 o'clock. This was the first time that the big passenger-carrying steamer of the Admiral line of the Pacific Coast Steamship Co. has ever been to Honolulu, and it was also the only time, as it is to be immediately taken over by the government.

PEACE TERMS TO RUSSIANS ARE FORECAST AMSTERDAM—An outline of what are said to be Germany's peace terms to Russia reached here tonight. The leading conditions follow: Indemnity from Russia to Austria. All Caucasian territory occupied by Russia to be restored to Turkey. Poland to be an independent kingdom, but under close Germanic supervision. Some of the present Baltic sea coast line, recently taken by Germany, to be retained. The Dobruja to be given to Bulgaria, which is also to have supervision over the mouth of the Danube.

RUPPRECHT CAN'T WIN IN VIOLENT BLOW UPON WEST

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Heavily reinforced with divisions from the Russian theaters, the army of Crown Prince Rupprecht was thrown against the British lines yesterday, the Germans making a desperate effort for the second time within four days to pierce the new British front. Along a section of six miles the battle raged throughout yesterday, last night finding the British positions intact, with the Teutons thrown back at every point with tremendous losses.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 3.—Secretary of War Baker sees evidence of the desperation of the German military command in the offensive attempted on the western front, which commenced on Friday. In his review of the war situation, covering the week ending on Saturday, Secretary Baker suggests that the Germans are now attempting to secure a decision on the French front and are staking great things on the battle being fought in the Cambrai sector.

REFORESTRATION IS DISCUSSED BY SUGAR PLANTERS

Uplands Neglected, Says President, Because Owned By Government

Nearly every plantation manager present at the initial session of the planters on Monday morning had something to say on the subject of reforestation...

H. A. Baldwin told of the conservation work on Maui and said that from 3000 to 5000 acres were being planted each year...

President Tenney declared: "It behooves us all to give serious consideration to this question and we all should cooperate in reforestation."

Mr. Forbes had complained that only recently a large area containing timber on the slopes of Mauna Kea had been released...

John Scott stated that he believed W. H. Shipman, leader of the Mauna Kea land, had fenced off the forest part...

R. Renton Hind wanted to know if anything was being done to secure the cooperation of the homesteaders who were usually on land lying between the plantation lands and the mauka forests...

On the motion of J. F. C. Hagens it was voted to approve of the working plan of the forestry department so far as practical.

In part Mr. Forbes' report on the subject was as follows: "Our main industries are solely agricultural, and in order to maintain those, water is essential..."

"Two factors are mainly responsible in bringing about such lessening of our forest area on uplands, surrounding the sources of streams or drainage areas of tributaries leading to such streams..."

"Within the past 30 years it becomes very noticeable on the island of Hawaii that our streams rise more suddenly after a few inches of rainfall around the sources, flow higher and fall more suddenly than formerly..."

"As an association we do not have the power of land adjustment or distribution, but as a body of business men we have the right to recommend. We realize very well that the government must have revenue to keep state affairs in order..."

"The following special rules and regulations governing licensees manufacturing bread and rolls were also made public: Rule 1. The licensee shall manufacture bread and sell it only in the following specified weights..."

ANNOUNCEMENT OF 1917 SUGAR CROP IN DETAIL AND RECORD OF CROPS FOR PAST TEN-YEAR PERIOD IS MADE AT PLANTERS' ANNUAL MEETING

Here are important figures on Hawaiian sugar crops, announced yesterday at the opening of the annual Planters' Association meeting. The 1917 figures by individual plantations are given, together with the ten-year record, similarly made up. The figures were compiled by the bureau of labor and statistics, Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association:

Table with columns for HAWAII, MAUI, OAHU, and KAUAI, listing various plantations and their sugar crop yields in tons from 1908 to 1917. Totals are provided for each island and overall.

* 2000 pounds to the ton.

Included in the report of Mr. Forbes:

"1. The reasons for reforesting open areas on the mountain lands of the Territory from the standpoint of the conservation of water are sound and all owners of such lands are urged to make a start on such work in a systematic and intelligent manner as early as practicable."

"2. The first essential step is to treat the protection forest as such by erecting suitable fences where stock is now a menace or doing damage to the forest and by getting rid of the stock (including hogs) already in the enclosed area."

"3. The next step after such protection is assured is to plant the open areas by first ascertaining the total area to be reforested and then allotting a definite area to be planted each year with trees specially selected for that particular region."

"4. The native koa, kukui, ohia lehua and hau are recommended for planting where conditions are suited to their growth."

"5. A spacing of 15 by 15 feet is recommended for planting of this nature."

"6. The establishment of a nursery near the scene of planting operations is advised on economical grounds."

"7. The trees should be systematically cared for after planting until they have overtopped the surrounding ground cover."

"8. The Division of Forestry will be glad to render detailed assistance to help in carrying this general plan into effect on any watershed and will be glad to arrange with owners, at their expense, to start and supervise the work."

change any bread or bakery products for other bread or bakery products which he has sold. Other Special Rules The following special rules and regulations governing licensees manufacturing bread and rolls were also made public: Rule 1. Rule 2. The licensee shall manufacture rolls and offer them for sale only in units weighing from 1 to 3 ounces, but no rolls shall be manufactured or offered for sale which shall weigh, unwrapped, 12 hours after baking, less than 1 ounce or more than 3 ounces.

Rule 3. The standard weights hereinafter prescribed shall be determined by averaging the weight of not less than 25 loaves of bread of any one unit, or five dozen rolls of any one unit, and such average shall not be less than the minimum nor more than the maximum prescribed by these rules and regulations for such units. Ingredients Limited Rule 4.—The licensee in mixing any dough for bread or rolls shall not use the following ingredients in amounts exceeding those specified below, per unit of 16 pounds of any flour, or meal or any mixture thereof: Sugar: Not to exceed 3 pounds of cane or beet sugar or in lieu thereof, 3 1/2 pounds of corn sugar. The licensee in making any bread or rolls shall not add any sugars or fats to the dough during the process of baking, or to the bread or rolls, when baked.

EDITH CAVELL FUND STARTED

At a regular meeting of the Graduate Nurses' Club of Honolulu last night, a fund was started for an "Edith Cavell" bed to be kept by this club in the creche which Honolulu proposes to support in Belgium for Belgian babies.

Mrs. J. S. Emerson, whose work in allied war relief causes never ceases, addressed the nurses on the great need of Belgian children. Mrs. Emerson laid stress on the fact that this creche is not to be for the illegal children of German officers and soldiers who have forced motherhood on many Belgian women, but for the children of Belgian men and women in that portion of Belgium which has not been conquered.

The fathers of many of these children are at the front. The nurses responded by contributing each one her share of the fund. That the entire amount necessary to buy the bed and bedding was not collected was due to the fact that it was the wish of the club to allow the members who could not attend last night's meeting to make their contributions, as the bed is to be the gift of the entire club.

After Mrs. Emerson's address, all visitors withdrew and the business of the meeting followed. Miss Elizabeth Dutot, as the president for the ensuing year, was elected without opposition. Other officers will be elected at the next meeting.

'CHARLEY' DOLE ENLISTS IN ARMY TO 'DO HIS BIT'

Augments Fine War Service of Long Line of Brothers Noted in Athletics Charles C. Dole, attorney of Kaula, nephew of Judge Sanford B. Dole, and member of the famous Dole family of college athletes, is enlisting in the regular army in his determination to get into active service for his country. "Charley" Dole, as he is widely known throughout the islands, came from Kaula with the national guard for the recent encampment, and remained here because of his resolve to enlist. He has been passed physically for enlistment in Company M, 2nd Infantry, Fort Shafter.

Dole was first of the long line of Dole boys who helped Stanford University's athletic teams to many a victory on the football and baseball field, on the cinder track and in the rowing shell. There are 10 of these boys, every one of them an athlete of championship caliber. The first two went to Cornell, the family living in Hawaii at that time. Charley was the first of the brothers to attend Stanford. Later the Doles moved from Hawaii to Riverside, California, and from the pioneer days of Stanford up to a couple of years ago, there was always a Dole or two attending college and making not only great athletic but fine scholarship records.

Of the 10 boys, more than half are now in active service for Uncle Sam during the war. Every week or so Charley hears of another brother who has gone into some branch of war activity.

SWEEPING, GARBAGE DEPARTMENTS OF CITY MAY BE MERGED

A move in the direction of centralizing the city management will be made, probably at tonight's meeting of the Board of Supervisors, when it will be proposed to unite under one head the street sweeping and garbage departments. Looking toward that end, and as an efficiency move for economy and better service, John Vasconcellos, former man of the street sweeping rank, has been asked to hand in his resignation, which he has done, to be effective in 30 days.

DREDGING WORK LIMITED TO 8 HOURS, RULING

Harbor Board Overrules Chairman's Request in Behalf of Hawaii Company

Against the advice of its chairman, W. R. Hobby, the territorial harbor board at a meeting shortly before noon today, refused to grant a request of the Hawaiian Dredging Co. to work 24 hours instead of eight hours a day, thus establishing what is considered a most important precedent.

Speaking to the board just before votes were taken, Chairman Hobby expressed his belief that the board's decision would count decidedly in the future in the cheapening or raising of contractor's prices, and he urged the board, despite objections which he believed were in the Hawaiian Dredging Company's request, not to go on record as refusing a 24-hour permit.

Waiter F. Dillingham, president of the company, spoke at length in the meeting and declared to the commissioners that refusal of this sort would "fold back" on them, and that they would eventually pay for it.

Commissioner W. H. McClellan stood with Chairman Hobby, and against them were Commissioners James Wakefield and C. J. McCarthy. Mr. McClellan's motion that the request be granted was lost for want of a second, while a second motion from Commissioner McCarthy that the request be not granted met a tie vote. Thus it was that a previous decision of the board opposing the granting of the request proved the final deciding factor in the case.

Charges that the Hawaiian Dredging Company had lottered for months on the job, between Piers 15 and 16, were fired across the gallery rail at the company officials by Commissioner McCarthy.

"I am absolutely opposed to granting anything other than what is in the contract," declared McCarthy. "I don't consider that the company is entitled to such permission as it seeks here."

Mr. Dillingham stated that it was the first time in 15 years' work for army, navy and territory—that work which had amounted to more than $10,000,000—that such a request had been refused.

There was no other place that he knew of, Mr. Dillingham said, where the 24-hour request was refused. The eight-hour clause was inserted merely to insure announcement by a dredging company of its intention to work at night.

Commissioner Wakefield said contractors are always coming in for special requests and that he, for one was "heartily tired of it."

Mr. Dillingham asserted emphatically that no special request was being made, and that the work would be finished on time—December 15.

The general opposition expressed by board members to the request was that dredging had not been continued steadily in the six months allowed, but the company officials argued this point was not at issue so long as the work is finished on time. Dredging had been done at the start where needed, they said.

MAYOR BACKS HOLT FOR JOB OF PARK SUPT.

Fern Thinks It is Expensive to City to Keep Vierra in Position

Public discussion as to the relative merits of the two aspirants for the position of park and playgrounds superintendent is earnestly desired by Supervisor E. A. Mott-Smith, upon whose vote hinges the reappointment of A. K. Vierra, the present superintendent. A meeting to discuss this matter was held Saturday afternoon in Mr. Mott-Smith's office. Present were Mayor Fern and Supervisors Mott-Smith, Peiris, McClellan and Bellina. Supervisors Hollinger, Arnold and Ahia, not having been notified of the meeting, were absent.

In the discussion Mayor Fern made clear his reasons for not wishing to reappoint A. K. Vierra, which reasons have to do not only with the fact that he, as mayor, has a right to make his own appointments, but with his belief that a change would be an economical move for the city.

"Under the present plan," said the mayor, "the park superintendent, Mr. Vierra, has to keep a man at Kapiolani park at a big salary—$175 a month—to do the work that should be attended to by the park superintendent himself, while he, the park superintendent, takes from the building inspector duties that rightly should be long to the inspector of buildings, leaving the last official too little to do. My idea is to give back to the building inspector the right to appoint janitors and oversee all the school and other county buildings, and put a man in as park superintendent who is capable of supervising the planting of trees and the general work of keeping a public park in condition. Valentine Holt, I have been reliably informed, is capable of doing this work."

Seen this morning the mayor confirmed these remarks, and added he wanted to be perfectly just and to make no more, that would not be to the city's advantage. He believed, he said, that by appointing Val Holt the position now held by John Wise could be eliminated, and the city saved the amount of Mr. Wise's salary.

Mr. Mott-Smith, caught just as he was getting ready to leave for Hawaii, said: "The meeting Saturday was to decide, if possible, upon a park superintendent. Personally, my choice lies between Vierra and Valentine Holt. I should like very much to have publicly discussed by the people and in the papers the comparative merits of these two men. I want to see the position held by the better of the two men, but so far I have been unable to decide whether Mr. Vierra or Mr. Holt is the better fitted for the job. I should like to have the matter summed up for me while I am away, so I can make a decision as soon as I return."

HONOLULANS SIGN FOOD PLEDGE CARDS IN U. S.

There are already a number of Honoluluans who have signed cards pledging themselves to help conserve the nation's food supply, and Federal Food Administrator J. F. Child became aware of this fact this morning when he received in the mail from Washington seven cards bearing the signatures of local people.

These cards were signed on the mainland by Honoluluans during the nation-wide food pledge campaign there. Those who signed were Mrs. George W. R. King, Mrs. Joel C. Cohen, Clinton J. Hutchins, Owen Merriek, Emil A. Berndt, Walter F. Free and Angus Erly.

FOOD SPEAKERS LAUNCH CAMPAIGN FOR GREAT DRIVE

R. D. Mead Named Chairman of Four-Minute Committee; Robertson Talks Tonight

Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson of the supreme court will speak for four minutes on "Food Conservation" at the Biju and Liberty theaters this evening under the auspices of the Four-Minute Men, recently organized here under authority of President Wilson.

Royal D. Mead, director of the bureau of labor and statistics of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, received by cable last night from McCormick Blair of Washington, D. C., his appointment as chairman of the Four-Minute Men in Hawaii, the organization having been formed here some days ago. Mr. McCormick is head of the national organization.

The Four-Minute Men in Hawaii plan to furnish on short notice speakers on patriotic subjects for gatherings or meetings of any nature. It is now aiding the local food pledge campaign by four-minute speeches each evening at the Biju and Liberty theaters. The organization is to become a permanent one.

Sanford B. Dole, former U. S. judge, spoke at the theaters last night on the general topic "Food Conservation." He called attention to the enormous quantities of food raised in the United States, principally wheat and corn, and declared that if all the people will cooperate and endeavor to economize, even to a very small extent, America will have sufficient supplies for its own needs, as well as for its Allies, during the period of the war.

Tomorrow evening U. S. Attorney S. C. Huber will speak. Dr. W. C. Hobbs will speak Thursday evening, Wallace R. Farrington Friday evening, and Attorney Frank E. Thompson Saturday evening.

The activities of the organization are to be definitely outlined as soon as Chairman Mead secures an executive committee. He has in mind Attorney F. E. Thompson and Walter Dillingham as its members.

Mr. Mead this morning was requested to furnish four-minute speakers for the weekly meetings of the Rotary Club during the first three months in 1918. He is planning to extend the scope of the organization to the other islands and, within a short time, will appoint chairmen for the outside groups.

BANKRUPT OWES $58,000; ASSETS TOTAL ONLY $400

What is declared to be the largest action of its kind to be brought before federal court in the last several years is the petition for adjudication in bankruptcy which has been filed by J. Winslow, whose liabilities, according to the petition, amount to $58,841.50, while his assets total $400, represented by household furniture. The petition shows that unsecured claims amount to $58,491.50, and accommodation paper to $350.

One of the peculiarities of the petition is that apparently none of the liabilities exist in Honolulu, all debts having been contracted on the mainland. Among the states mentioned in which the petitioner has liabilities are Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Idaho, Oregon, New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania. Many of the liabilities, the petition shows, represent cash loaned on notes, supplies and merchandise. The largest separate liability was contracted in Boston, Mass., in 1907, and is for cash on notes in the sum of $18,480. The next largest was contracted in Milwaukee and Chicago in 1907, and represents cash on notes in the sum of $15,200.

Another outstanding feature of the petition is that 25 liabilities were contracted in 1907, 10 years ago, and total $57,741.50.

FILIPINO HANGS SELF AT IMMIGRATION STATION

Leocadio, an insane Filipino, committed suicide by hanging himself to a tree in the rear yard of the federal immigration station at 5:30 o'clock this morning. The victim tied a burly bag around his neck and to a limb of the tree. Leocadio was sent to the immigration station from Hawaii, to be deported to the Philippines because of his condition.

SECOND PAYMENT ON BONDS DUE TOMORROW

Tomorrow, December 5, is the date set for the next payment to be made on Liberty Bonds. Banks and Trust Companies carrying these bonds for individuals ask that bondholders come in and make their payments without having to be notified. Sending out notices would require a great deal of time, and all bondholders will doubtless be glad to make their payments without putting the banks and trust companies to any unnecessary trouble.

RODIEK INVOLVED IN MAVERICK'S VISIT, CHARGE

master of the vessel, was known as Shorty. Hart collected a commission for selling the boat, for selling oil and other things. He had interest in the boat and the arms and ammunition. "Lieut. Von Brincken and Ram Chandra shipped five Hindus who were to sail on the Maverick under Persian names, being signed on as waiters at $1 a month. These waiters were the only passengers and the only cargo being Gadar literature, a few picks and shovels, $10,000 of German money and empty oil tanks. Bley-Jebens and Sauerbeck were in charge of the arrangements in Los Angeles. Jack Starr-Hunt was employed as purser. Capt. Nelson was in command. He died on the voyage.

"The vessel then went to San Jose Del Cabo and from that port cleared for Java. She went, however, to the Socorro Islands, where she waited for the Annie Larsen. Some three weeks had elapsed and the Annie Larsen did not appear. She went back to San Diego, anchored outside the three-mile limit and Nelson went ashore. There he communicated with the German consulate in San Francisco and was instructed to go to Hilo. The vessel arrived in Hilo in June, 1915, Nelson being instructed that 'King George' would be the password used by German agents and any person using such password was to be considered a friend. Captains Elbo and Dinant of interned German vessels at Honolulu and H. A. Schroeder of Hackfeld & Co., had been sent down by Rodiek, the German consul.

Ships Fail to Meet

"The Maverick was supplied with funds for both herself and the Annie Larsen, which she was to meet at Johnson Island.

"The Annie Larsen, being still confined at Hoquiam, Washington, the two vessels did not meet and the Maverick went to Batavia, where she remained until a few weeks ago, since being reported to have been lost on the high seas. Starr-Hunt was arrested in Singapore by the British and was subsequently brought to the United States and will appear as a witness. Some of the Hindus have been arrested and prosecuted by the British and one will appear here as a witness. This ends the voyage of the Maverick.

How Germany plotted on a world-wide basis to stir up a revolution in India was told fully by Attorney Preston. The consular agents of Germany in all parts of the world were used. The Berlin Indian Committee, an adjunct of the foreign office, takes rank as the directing head of all the plotters, he said.

California, as the dwelling place of many Hindus, was naturally the field for operations in this country. Preston stated that the German government had evidence that Germany was preparing to help the Hindu revolutionists for many months before war was declared against England. Money Handled in S. F.

Har Dyal, former professor of Hindu philosophy at Stanford University, who fled to Germany after he was exposed as an anarchist, was named as the man who conceived the revolution and who collected the first funds in this country for the propaganda. He was at work against England for years before the war. His work was taken off his shoulders by German-directed Hindu agents.

Ram Chandra, succeeding Har Dyal, became the chief plotter in California. When Berlin assumed charge of the revolution and started to carry the thing through with German efficiency, the German consulate in San Francisco became the San Francisco headquarters. Wilhelm von Brincken was appointed as the agent to deal with Ram Chandra and other Hindus. Vice Consul E. H. Van Schack supplied funds. Robert Capelle had $300,000 of German money to handle in this matter. Capt. Fred Jebens was one of the men who sought to arrange to get arms and ammunition to the borders of India, in Burma, where the first blow was to be struck.

That Germany's plot failed appears to have been due to the failure to get arms and ammunition through. "Something happened" to each of the three loaded ships started from United States shores.

Interesting portions of Attorney Preston's statement follow:

"A Berlin Indian committee was formed as an adjunct of the foreign office and Hindus were sent from this city and other parts of the United States at the expense of the German government to India to promulgate the doctrine of revolution. It was planned to scatter literature of a seditious nature to the native troops, the distribution to be made by aeroplane. Work Among Prisoners

"Barkatullah, on trial here, was sent to work among the Hindu soldiers who had been captured in Germany to create disloyalty among them and to promise them freedom if they agreed to take up arms against England.

"The committee was to assist and advise how to obtain recruits, to aid in sending out missions and the allotment of funds and to issue instructions to the Indian revolutionaries throughout the world.

"One of the earliest measures taken by Berlin was to provide leaders for the New York Center to work in conjunction with German agents in the west.

"In San Francisco the German task was a simple one. All that was necessary was to bring Ram Chandra's organization and the local German consulate in touch. We have evidence that this was brought about immediately after war was declared, the way had already been paved by Har Dyal. The consulate appointed Wilhelm von Brincken to see Ram Chandra and other local leaders, and very soon the organization was in full swing. The German consulate, which was represented by E. H. von Schack in the absence of Franz Bopp, supplied funds and worked out enterprises in the closest communication with Ram Chandra.

"There is a mass of evidence both documentary and oral to prove the intimate relationship between the con-sulate and Ram Chandra's organization. We will show that they worked together in enterprises such as the Maverick and the Stam expedition. Named By Zimmerman

"The foreign office being dissatisfied with the progress of the conspiracy in this country, Chakravarty sailed from New York disguised as a Persian merchant, as did the others sent to Berlin by the local agents. He was appointed directly by Zimmerman to supersede all agents in the United States and a code system was agreed upon by which he communicated with the German officials.

"Zimmerman himself executed the paper appointing Chakravarty and in the von Igle papers seized there are numerous documents bearing on the plot which will be introduced here. Chakravarty got $50,000, of which he still has $40,000; Ram Chandra has $9000 which he has never accounted for, Sarkar has $3000. There has been a large element of graft entering into the conspiracy.

"This case naturally classifies itself into four separate expeditions. There is Siam-Burma, the Maverick, the Korea and the Chicago, India was to be attacked from two points. From San Francisco the attack was to be made through Manila, China, Japan, Borneo from Siam into Burma. In the East it was planned to seize the Suez canal, go through Persia, Afghanistan and to the west coast of India.

"The first strike was to be made at Siam. It was planned to bury arms and munitions at Phok, Siam. Tunnies were dug and men from all parts of the country were assembled and plans were made to march through Anam to Burma, where the outposts were to be murdered and the revolt started.

Aided By Germans

"The Henry S. left Manila with arms and munitions, but its engines blew out and it was seized. Most of the men were arrested, some were tried in England, some in Chicago and the remainder here. German agents have rendered aid to these conspirators at Rio de Janeiro, Holland, Genoa, Switzerland, Norway, Denmark and Italy. In New York, San Francisco, Honolulu in America. German consuls were active in Manila, Batavia, Shanghai, Nankin, Yokohama.

"Hans Tauscher, under the instructions of von Papen and with German money, purchased in New York and Philadelphia eleven carloads of arms and munitions. Ambassador von Bernstorff informed the state department that the arms and munitions were intended for the German forces in East Africa.

"Robert Capelle, who had between $250,000 and $300,000 of German money to expend, and Fred Jebens went to San Diego to make arrangements for handling the munitions. Here a fictitious individual by the name of Juan Bernardo Bowen, who claimed to come from San Blas, Mexico, wrote a letter to J. Clyde Hizer, who was at that time German agent, and commissioned him to charter a vessel to carry the munitions to Topolobampo, Ship Chartered

"Hizer with this money paid the expenses incurred at San Diego, including the charter hire of the steamer Annie Larsen, which was chartered from Olsen & Mahony of San Francisco by H. D. Bowly acting for John H. Rinder, to whom Martinez had telegraphed regarding the securing of the vessel. The Annie Larsen went to San Diego, where the cargo of arms and ammunition was loaded upon her, and from which port she sailed on March 6, 1915, with P. H. Schluter as captain and W. A. Page as supercargo. W. H. Page was a fictitious name assumed by H. Othmer, captain of the interned German merchantman Atlas at San Francisco.

"Just prior to sailing the charter party was assigned to W. H. Page by M. Martinez, Page going as supercargo.

PECK FOR HEAD, PRATT MANAGER, IS R. T. RUMOR

Either this afternoon or tomorrow afternoon a meeting of the directors of the Honolulu Rapid Transit Co. will be held to consider the acceptance of the resignation of C. G. Balleentyne as manager of the street car company. The call for the meeting for this afternoon has been issued, but this morning it was thought that the meeting might have to be postponed until tomorrow, due to late issuance of the meeting notice.

"No policy has been determined upon," was the only statement Tenney Peck, president of the company, would make this morning when he was questioned regarding the report that Alexander Pratt, the superintendent, was to succeed to part of the duties of Mr. Balleentyne, and that Mr. Peck was to be the executive head.

Another rumor stated that a mainland street car man was to be brought here to act as the manager of the company.

Y. W. BEACH HOUSE TO HAVE SWIMMING SLIP

Work was started this morning on dredging the coral in front of the Y. W. C. A. beach house at Waikiki. When the work is completed in about three weeks the club will have a channel 100 feet by 25 feet and another channel farther out of 50 feet by 25 feet. This will allow for swimming contests which will be staged in the near future.

Miss Helen Jones, swimming instructor at the association, is at present conducting the classes at Castle tank. Instructions are given on Monday and Friday afternoons to a group of young girls. It is expected that classes will be held at the beach house as soon as the channel is dredged.

"Running short of fresh water and provisions the Annie Larsen finally put in at Aicapulco, where Page communicated with Hizer. It wandered about until it finally reached the port of Hoquiam, Washington, where it was termed a "mystery ship." A customs guard was placed on board and Page made his escape."

FAIRCHILD SUGAR SCHEME FINANCED IN PHILIPPINES

A recent issue of the Manila Bulletin announces that financial arrangements have been made for the issuance of 3,000,000 pesos of bonds for the Mindoro Sugar company, a corporation guided by George H. Fairchild, formerly a well known sugar man of Hawaii. The article says: "Arrangements were completed last week whereby the Philippine Trust Company and the Union Guarantee Company, Ltd., a subsidiary corporation of the Union Insurance Society of Canton, Ltd., will underwrite the flotation of an issue of bonds to finance the operations of the newly organized Mindoro Sugar Company under the so-called Fairchild franchise in Mindoro. The Fairchild corporation will issue 3,000,000 pesos in bonds which are to be taken up in equal shares by the local trust company and the Union Guarantee Company.

"This deal provides the financial means for the carrying out of the plan involved in the granting of a franchise by the last legislature to George H. Fairchild and his associates in the big sugar operations at San Jose, Mindoro. Under the terms of that franchise the new corporation organized by Mr. Fairchild was authorized to buy the 55,000 acres of land held by Messrs. Hvemeyer and Welch of New York.

"The Fairchild plan provides for the sale of small parcels of sugar haciendas to an approved class of agriculturalists to whom the company will extend financial assistance. Already some 30 per cent of the land has been disposed of under sale agreements and there are many applicants for other parcels. The Mindoro Sugar Co., which also operates the sugar mill, will handle all the cane of the hacendados. The new corporation will increase the capacity of its sugar factory, or erect another, extend its irrigation, drainage and railway systems as rapidly as possible, and be prepared in every way to render financial assistance to the purchasers of its land to raise cane, rice, coconuts, and other products."

$250,000 MORE ALLOWED FOR PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Estimates which include an additional appropriation of $250,000 for public buildings in Honolulu were submitted by the treasury department at the opening of congress yesterday, according to advices received from Washington. As no definite details were given in the reports that reached this city late yesterday, it is not known whether the money is intended for a new federal building here or the proposed war department headquarters.

In view of the fact that it was the treasury department that submitted the estimates, local authorities believe that the money is intended for the construction of the new federal building on the Irwin site. The original appropriation was $1,250,000. Directly behind the federal building will be the new army department building, and the hope that at least Honolulu may house her federal officials, lighthouse, internal revenue, customs and United States courts under one roof is materializing.

MAGNESIUM CARBONATE OF M. P. COMMENDED

Manager Anderson of the Mineral Products Co. has sent the following week-end wireless message to Honolulu concerning the activities of the organization:

The drawings for the final plant are progressing. Several favorable replies have been received regarding the magnesium carbonate samples distributed to the trade."

A GREAT DISCOVERY

(By J. H. Watson, M. D.)

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations. As a remedy for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation caused by uric acid—as scalding urine, backache and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gout, it is simply wonderful how quickly An-uric acts; the pains and stiffness rapidly disappear, for Anuric (double strength), is many times more potent than Hühns and often eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for the liver and bowels have been favorably known for nearly 50 years. Anuric is a recent scientific discovery by Dr. Pierce, Chief of Staff at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Inst., in Buffalo, N. Y. Send 10c there for a trial pkg. of Anuric.—Adv.

QUEEN'S HOSPITAL MAY ADD WING

That the Queen's hospital may find it necessary in the near future to erect a new hospital building, costing in the neighborhood of $100,000, to accommodate the constantly increasing business, is the opinion expressed by a member of the board of trustees.

Only recently it was brought to the attention of the trustees that some action would have to be taken to accommodate this business, and a committee of three trustees—A. J. Campbell, chairman; W. A. Love, James Jaeger and George Potter—was appointed to arrange for plans for the proposed erection of a new wing which, at that time, was estimated to cost between $10,000 and $15,000.

According to one of the trustees, the need of a new hospital building has arisen, and it has been suggested that a temporary lanal wing or ward be constructed to take care of the increasing business until the corporation decides upon the feasibility of erecting the new building.

It has also been pointed out that the hospital organization is in need of new members, and one suggestion has been made, according to a trustee, that the initiation fee be reduced from $50 to $1. But the question has been raised whether more responsible members would not be secured if the initiation fee was allowed to remain as it now is. One trustee declares that the new hospital building would be assured if the corporation could get 1000 new members, each paying the $50 initiation fee.

LOCAL CONCERN HOLDS UNUSUAL EXHIBIT OF ART

An unusual exhibit of works of art, consisting of paintings by world-famous artists, various kinds of statuary, and Oriental rugs of almost fabulous value, is being made this week in the show windows and sale-rooms of Lewers & Cooke for M. B. Mhuran, an Armenian collector.

Of the paintings some of the most interesting, because of their timeliness as much as their beauty, are those by Carleton, the English artist, who spends all his daylight hours now depicting scenes in places whose names have grown familiar to every schoolboy during the last three years. These paintings are called the "War Zone Pictures," and are displayed in the windows, where they attract the admiration and comment of every passer-by. Among the most noteworthy of these are the street scenes in Antwerp and the village of Coutrai, and the cathedrals in Ypres and Brussels.

Among the very old paintings is one by an Italian artist of the 16th century, a Biblical scene showing Queen Esther receiving her father. The work is done on copper instead of canvas. Another very old picture was done on oak by D. Tennier, who died in 1690. This painting, "Harvest Festival in Holland," Bishop Libert says is unmistakably a Tennier, having all the Tennier characteristics, including a man with a big "poi-poi" drinking from a demijohn of his own shape.

Van Der Broeck's "Fisher Maidens in Holland" is another painting that stands out from its fellows and demands the admiration which it would receive if it were properly hung in some gallery. There are dozens of other remarkable paintings, many of them watercolors and oils of American scenes by well known American artists. Many of these are from the art collection of Ray Skilton, a Los Angeles millionaire who died not very long ago, after he had lost much of his money.

As for the rugs, no words can describe them, certainly no words of an Occidental. There is one whose price tag is $5000. This is not a very old rug, as ages of rugs are counted, having been finished between 50 and 60 years ago, but it is a wonderful example of the rug-maker's art, an Imperial Kashanshah, 21 by 14 feet, and flawless in design and workmanship. This rug is said to be a part of Mirza Khan's collection, and made by his favorite wife, Zulliska, and it certainly is beautiful enough to adorn any palace.

Exquisite in workmanship and greatly to be desired is a little rug not more than two feet long by a foot and a half wide, and so soft and flexible that, in spite of its thickness, may be rolled up like a piece of silk. It is made of silk, and some estimate of the length of time required to make such a rug will be comprehended when it is known that this rug contains nearly a million and a quarter knots. Try counting a million by one's and you will realize that it would take some few months to tie a million knots, without estimating the cutting, selecting and combining of colors, and all the rest of the work that goes into the making of a Persian rug. And the rugmaker was paid probably 1 1/2 cents a day for his work!

The Chinese rugs in the collection are all of the modern school, though some of them date back three or four dynasties for their designs. They are all very beautiful, as is also one huge Turkish rug, of the famous "Turkey Red." But the rugs hardest to love are the Kashanshahs, Kazaks, the Kashans and the Saruks.

The Social Side of Hygiene

Society as a rule is generally careful about the state of their health, and they are apt to make good use of remedies known as disease preventives. Germicides and antiseptics are included in this class, but the greatest care should be exercised in using any which contains poisons, unless prescribed by a physician. By reason of its absolute safety and its beneficial results, physicians have strongly recommended Tyroe's Antiseptic Powder. This preparation appears to occupy a unique position as a toilet and hygienic antiseptic and is being most favorably commented upon by society, both in the States and abroad. The late Prof. W. M. Gray, pathologist to Providence Hospital and microscopist to the Army Medical Museum, in discussing the merits of the preparation said: "From the above and other experiments with Tyroe's Antiseptic Powder, I conclude that it is a most valuable and useful compound, and that its efficiency must be due to its peculiar mode of manufacture and its well-balanced chemical adjustment as well as the exceptional purity of its ingredients." It is sold in packages at twenty-five cents and one dollar by the manufacturer, J. S. Tyroe, Chemist, Inc., Washington, D. C.

Baby Should be Fed Naturally if Possible

No substitute can give such good results as Nature's method—nothing can take its place. As breast milk is necessary in warm climates to use Condensed Milk, and the mother should know that there is no purer, richer product than Highlander Condensed Milk (full cream). Prepared from the milk of healthy carefully tested cows on the rich pastures of Scotland, New Zealand, scrupulous care and cleanliness marks every step of the process of manufacture. Highlander is the finest, rich, pure milk, with part of the water removed by evaporation. When the time comes to wean baby, however, Highlander Condensed Milk is of special value. The famous infant specialist, Dr. Eric Fritchard, points out that the essential—indigestible element for young children in fresh milk—is altered by the process of condensing, and is more digestible—almost like a peptonized milk. He believes that Condensed Milk is of special value in tiding over the change from breast to ordinary milk, and thinks that the child should be given an increasing proportion of fresh cows milk with condensed milk until gradual training of its powers of digestion enables it to take fresh milk entirely.

The evening's program will be as follows:

- Hawaiian selection, Mr. Ernest Kaai
- Mad Scene from "Hamlet" Thomas Ellen Beach Yaw.

The Territorial Messenger Service, handling the box office sales, assures that there will be a large audience present to greet the great artist in her thirteenth performance in Hawaii. The second of Miss Yaw's concerts while in Honolulu will occur at the same hour on Friday evening of this week.

SELINSKY RECITALS END; VIOLIN ARTIST TO MAKE RESIDENCE HERE

The last of the Selinsky series of recitals was played last night to an audience that comfortably filled the Mission Memorial Hall. The program in this instance was if anything even more interesting than those that preceded it.

The Cesar Franck Sonata, which was the first number, is a splendid work and represents the Belgian master at his best. Too little is known of his music in Honolulu. The second movement is particularly gorgeous and full of passion. All in all it is the greatest composition that has been heard in Honolulu in many a day. Of Selinsky's satisfying interpretation of it we may rest assured.

The Mendelssohn Concerto in E minor possesses more glitter. Being lighter vein, its appeal is instantaneous. Mendelssohn seems most happy in scoring for the violin, so that a composition of his in which the violin is given the part of a solo instrument is bound to be full of charm. The final movement, allegro molto vivace, is not only particularly tuneful, but is a triumph of bowing.

The program wisely descended from the heavy to the light numbers in so well arranged a manner that the interest of the audience was keenly on the alert until the final encore. In the first of these, "La Precieuse," by Couperin, arranged by Kreisler, the purity of the violinist's sustained high notes was a revelation. An Indian Lament by Dvorak, the ever popular Moment Musical by Schubert, both arranged by Kreisler, and a composition by Kreisler entitled "Chinese Tambourine," completed the program. During the interval that followed the Concerto Mr. Selinsky made an announcement that without doubt is a momentous one. Like every one else who comes to Hawaii and meets her people, he has become charmed with the place. Owing to unsettled conditions on the mainland in musical circles and to the attractive features which Honolulu possesses he has decided to remain here indefinitely. Selinsky stands in the front rank of present day violinists and his addition to local musical circles cannot be overestimated. In the course of his remarks he mentioned the introduction of chamber music as one of the treats that Honolulu has in store. There is sufficient talent locally to furnish a first-rate string quartet, and Mr. Selinsky's efforts to organize such a body will be eagerly watched for. It is out of the question for Honolulu to think of supporting a symphony orchestra for many years, if ever, but she can and should lend all her enthusiasm and ability toward seeing that a possible string quartet is a financial as well as artistic success.

The range of musical literature for the quartet is almost inexhaustible. Some of the most delightful compositions ever penned were written for it, and while there have been a few half-hearted attempts to form such an organization, until now there has been no leader who could devote the necessary time and set about bringing the proper musicians together.

REX BEACH PLAY NEXT AT BIJOU

"The Tyranny of the Romanoffs" will close its engagements at the Bijou tonight, so those that have not seen it had better avail themselves of the opportunity, for tomorrow night the entire bill will be changed and Rex Beach's popular story "The Barrier" will be shown. "The Barrier" is a story of love and adventure in the American northwest and is said to be one of the most intensely acted film dramas ever presented to the public. Acclaimed as a Broadway triumph in New York; the gripping story, superb photography and production marked "The Barrier" as the outstanding success of 1917. Local theater goers will have the chance to see this powerful picture within two months of the date it was shown in New York and at one-half the price of admission.

A Romance of War

The last German armed force in the last German colony has been wiped out. The surrender has come of the last German force in East Africa.—News Despatch.

While the nations of the Old World have been struggling and tearing at each other's vitals, there has been enacted, practically unnoticed by the rest of the world, a war drama that rings with romance, and as a result of which a vast territory has changed hands.

Some time after the first shot of the present war was fired, a British expedition, consisting of only twenty-seven officers and men, landed at a port on the coast of Africa, and after almost a year of strenuous effort, penetrated to the heart of that dark continent and pulled off a strategic war move which very successfully transferred from German to British control a very large portion of that little-explored land.

This small band made its initial move by a railway journey from Cape Town to Fungurme, which lies some distance northwest of Rhodesia. The objective point of the expedition was Lake Tanganyika, a small navigable body of water on the boundary line of the German East Africa colony.

From Rhodesia practically civilization was left behind, and this little band of fighters faced the feat of actually hewing its way through the brush to the Luabala river, a distance of 160 miles. The Luabala flows into Lake Tanganyika, 350 miles beyond the first objective.

On team and traction engine were employed to transport the material, which included two large motor boats, fully armed. An account of the expedition states that building roads, bridging gullies and streams and overcoming other difficulties were carried on daily.

Two-thirds of the first lap of the journey had been accomplished when the water supply failed. But it was a case of push on and not of retreat. The boilers of the tractor engine had to be supplied with water, and to do this hundreds of natives were not only employed but actually conscripted to carry water in jars for miles through the jungles.

Nor were their troubles lessened on reaching the Luabala river. Mud banks and snags were so numerous and augmented by treacherous currents and other obstructions made the water journey fully as exhausting and difficult as that over which they had traveled by land.

The lake was finally reached, and the two motor boats, which were nearly wrecked by a fierce lake storm, were put into fighting trim and officially placed in war commission. No time was lost in starting a search for the Germans then in power. In twenty-four hours the German gunboat Kingani was located in a small lagoon of the lake. A fight took place and the gunboat was captured. With this reinforcement it was but short work to sink the von Weissman, and the little British expedition took undisputed possession of all that region then under German protectorate, and, from last accounts was still holding the fort.

This achievement is a hitherto-unwritten chapter in the British campaign in Africa, a campaign now brought to a close as told in the news despatch which heads this editorial. The African campaign has in it elements of romance lacking in the brutish slaughter of trench warfare.

British rule has been extended over a tremendous territory which Germany had marked out for her own exploitation. It has often been said by the Germans that the Allies hold now Teuton territory except a small piece of Alsace-Lorraine. They overlook—conveniently—what has happened in China, the Pacific, Africa and a few other places.

Steamer Space

A good many retail merchants here and others whose business depends largely on tourist patronage are inclined to ask why empty cabins and cargo space on vessels of foreign registry now touching here cannot be made available between Hawaii and the coast. In view of the recent governmental provisions for allowing foreign vessels to enter coastwise trade, and in view of the reduction of service by American steamers, Hawaii looks on the use of foreign vessels as the solution of a difficult problem.

One T. K. K. steamer soon to arrive here en route to San Francisco will drop 30 cabin passengers and about a thousand tons of freight. Others will follow. Dutch steamers have accommodations of which advantage might be taken.

Various explanations of the apparent delay in opening the foreign lines to local patronage have been offered. Meanwhile Honolulu's merchants see a tourist season coming on apace with the Promotion Committee unable to proceed with its mainland advertising campaign because of the uncertainty of steamer accommodation.

Hawaii has many reasons for reassurance, many reasons to believe that accommodations will be afforded. But the definite action is not materializing at anything approaching a rapid rate.

Congress begins its winter session on a basis as nearly non-partisan as this generation has seen. Possibly not since the republic was founded has the party idea been so nearly subordinated to the ideal of national unity in war legislation. This will not be good news for Berlin.

They used to refer to him as King Boobie, but now he is only John Barleycorn and a pretty badly stared individual at that.

Getting At the Pro-Germans

It takes no special power of observation to reach the conclusion that a stern undertone of feeling is spreading throughout America against Germanism and pro-Germanism in their thousand subtle and insidious forms.

Nor does it take any special gift of prophecy to foresee that as this undertone grows in volume and strength, the still-busy agents of Prussianism will be hunted out, exposed and punished with a degree of severity beyond anything this nation has yet experienced.

The demands in Hawaii that American citizens stand forth and declare themselves are the result of this undercurrent. Characteristically an easy-going people, Americans are getting into the war with a speed and determination just as characteristic of their ability to handle new problems. As plots and plotters are exposed; as the daily news tell of fires, explosions, obstructions of the draft and opposition to the great bond issues; as evidence piles up that the enemy aliens are still at work in the United States, good-humor is put aside and tolerance is laid on the shelf. We are beginning to realize that we are coping with a nation which stops at no corruption, at no double-dealing, at no cruelty.

The news columns of mainland papers are full of articles showing that the German propaganda and the German agents are still active in America; the editorial columns day after day show the crystallizing conviction that we have been too lenient with the disloyal citizens and the enemy residents.

One particular activity of an exceedingly widespread nature is attributed to German influences. It is the attempt to discredit the entire food conservation program.

Women spies and women agents are declared to have been busy in many parts of the United States, claiming that the Hoover idea is all nonsense, and that the patriotic effort of housewives to save in their own kitchens is the mistaken result of a scheme of food speculators and market manipulators to reap millions by profiteering.

The man or woman who attempts to discredit food conservation, relief supply activity and Red Cross work is no longer likely to be regarded merely as a waster and a slacker. On the mainland, those who make contemptuous remarks about these national movements is very apt to be put down as pro-Germans.

And all over the nation there is arising a demand that the most drastic and exemplary punishment be given those engaged in traitorous deeds or spreading traitorous falsehoods.

CRITICISM OF A RECENT MOVIE.

No film-play recently seen here has aroused as much criticism as "The Slave Mart" which appeared at the Bijou last week. The Star-Bulletin has asked a great many people who saw this movie what they thought of it. Their replies vary greatly. Some of them thought there were spots of absolute indecency in the play. Others—the majority, so far as the inquiries have gone—found no fault with the picture itself but criticized the methods of exploiting it, which, they declare, aroused curiosity and pandered to low tastes. They objected to the advertising on the ground that it was misleading.

The whole incident once again brings up the question of adequate censorship. There is none here now, and no theater man would think of claiming that his productions are viewed from the standpoint of public morals and good taste rather than from the standpoint of the box-office. In a day when the whole nation is striving to conserve its manhood and womanhood, the theater cannot be too scrupulous in its offerings.

A good man for the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and for Hawaii at Washington is George McK. McClellan. He knows the islands thoroughly and he knows Washington thoroughly. He has a wide acquaintance and is persona grata at the national capital. Everyone at Washington who has had to do with Mr. McClellan speaks well of him. Hawaii was always more adequately represented at Washington when McClellan was on the job than after he had removed to Seattle and severed local connections. It is obvious that we need at Washington some live-wire spokesman who can think and act quickly on behalf of the territory's commerce and trade.

Charles R. Macauley, the cartoonist who won world-wide fame before and during the Spanish-American war, has again risen to heights of genius in his war cartoons now appearing simultaneously in a number of American papers, of which the Star-Bulletin is one. Macauley has to an unusual extent the power of simplicity. His cartoons convey one smashing, central thought, and he has both the fertility of idea and the craftsmanship which mark the able pictorial commentator on current events. His daily cartoon is a Star-Bulletin feature that has proved decidedly popular.

It is a fact, as mentioned by several contributors to the Star-Bulletin's letter-column, that the enlisted men are almost invariably first to rise and give to standing women their seats on crowded street-cars. This courtesy has been remarked again and again. It seems almost a part of the soldier's code, and no finer part of any code can be imagined than that of appropriate courtesy.

Whether the Teutons on the Italian front have stopped or been stopped, it appears that Italy's determined resistance and the reinforcements of the Allies have ended for the winter any danger of the Austro-Germans breaking through and overrunning a large part of the southern country.

Not hear a word against constituted authorities, and for a time, it looked very bad for the Times and its stalwart owner, but the reaction came, and truth prevailed, as it has a way of doing.

Now refusing the offer of a portfolio, Northcliffe writes to the premier: "May I also take this opportunity of giving warning about our relations with that great people from whom I come. We have had the tragedy of Russia, due partly to lack of allied propaganda to counteract that of the Germans."

"We have had the tragedy of Italy largely due to that same enemy propaganda. We have had the tragedies of Serbia, of Rumania, and Montenegro. There is one tragedy which I am sure we will not have and that is the tragedy of the United States."

"But with countless conversations with the leading Americans I know that unless there is swift improvement in our methods, the United States will rightly take into its own hands the entire management of the great part of the war."

This criticism of Mr. Loofbourow is constructive, and we want more of the same kind right now.

LETTERS OF TIMELY TOPICS

PASTOR LOOFBOUROW'S SERMON.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Sir: What a howl about nothing!

Even charges of disloyalty, German ancestry and sympathies, because an unusually timely sermon has been preached by a brave, honest minister of the Methodist church who dares tell the truth. For it is the truth, and Mr. Loofbourow is right. Provided he told the truth—which he did—it does not matter one whit whether his sources were English, Canadian, American or anything else.

Any kind of truth is usable, and at this time it is very proper indeed that Mr. Loofbourow should preach the sermon he did rather than a discourse on Job's bolts or salvation by blood.

Such a sermon as he preached is needed now right here in holy Honolulu. It was a patriotic sermon, too, more so than nine-tenths of the Fourth of July orations which delight the ear only.

It was to the point. The critics can't deny its application, either. They can only cry, pro-German, traitor, discrediting the Allies, and other nonsense.

Just think of the utter folly of all this talk in view of Mr. Loofbourow's standing in this community, his family history, his sympathies, his sincerity of purpose, which, I am sure, none may question?

War is on, we're worried with things our hearts are sore, and our poor human nerves on edge, but for God's sake let us stick together and know our friends. There are enough enemies about us, enough traitors, enough hypocrites trying to destroy our cause.

England stands today where she is because Englishmen have always bravely pointed out her national faults and criticized her policies.

The privilege of freely criticizing public men and government administration, is one of the finest things about our Anglo-Saxon civilization. It has made it what it is. It has put us to the front of everything. Mr. Loofbourow has used this privilege in a very mild way.

Let us suppose that Lord Northcliffe had never been allowed to use this privilege, and his early criticism and blame of public matters in England had been suppressed!

Things might have been going wrong yet. It is true Northcliffe aroused the wrath of those who could not see their own faults.

—DR. H. B. ELLIOTT of Hilo: I am going to take a year's vacation and do some health-building on the mainland. I've worked pretty hard for the last few years and now am looking forward to some motoring over Pacific coast roads.

—J. F. CHILD: I am in hopes that the publicity bureau started by the food commission will prove a successful and valuable feature of the work. All publicity material sent us from Washington is being sent to the newspapers and other publications in the territory.

—ALFRED L. CASTLE: Let's hope that every patriotic woman in Honolulu signs a card this week pledging herself to help conserve the nation's food supply. It is needless to say that our campaign here will be a success. Honolulu people always respond loyally in such matters.

—CIRCUIT JUDGE S. B. KEMP: The petitions of the Koloa Sugar Co. and the Paa Agricultural Co. of Kauai, for registration of title to some 4000 acres of land on the Garden Island, is looked upon as the most important, and one of the largest land court matters in the last few years.

—JOHN EFFINGER: I believe that Hawaii can secure more passenger accommodations by going after them. A number of steamers traveling through here from various ports have empty cabins and by organizing the service so that advantage may be taken of these, tourists will be assured of adequate facilities. There's no need to feel that we are going to have a shortage of passenger space on vessels touching Honolulu.

SUPERVISORS TO ACT ON LABOR PAYROLL
A meeting of the board of supervisors will be held this evening at 7:30, when the labor payroll will be the principal matter considered.

E. A. Mott-Smith will not be present, and in his absence Mayor Fern says he will not bring up the question of park superintendent.

For three weeks Mr. Mott-Smith has been suffering with several ulcerated teeth and he will leave on the Kilanea tomorrow for a little recuperation trip on the Big Island. He will be back for the meeting of Tuesday evening.

SAFETY AND SOLDIERS.

Honolulu, H. T., Dec. 1, 1917.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Dear Sir: I wish to give the lady who is annoyed by the soldiers' misconduct an example that will prove she used poor judgment. For three years or about a certain young lady residing near this post has traveled to and from her work all alone and at irregular hours. Up until this date she has never been insulted by the men in uniform. In fact the gentlemanly conduct received by her induced her to write an article in your good paper. In our defense we can fight a foe in open, but a stab in the back is abhorred by every man in the uniform. I have been on street cars which were crowded on numerous occasions; I and my fellowmen willingly giving our seats to the ladies, but yet have not been even thanked by some of the unlady-like women of Honolulu. Nevertheless we do not continually harp on this subject.

Thanking you in advance, I remain yours sincerely, I am
ELMER E. CLONINGER,
Co. G, 2nd Inf., Fort Shafter.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—DR. H. B. ELLIOTT of Hilo: I am going to take a year's vacation and do some health-building on the mainland. I've worked pretty hard for the last few years and now am looking forward to some motoring over Pacific coast roads.

—J. F. CHILD: I am in hopes that the publicity bureau started by the food commission will prove a successful and valuable feature of the work. All publicity material sent us from Washington is being sent to the newspapers and other publications in the territory.

—ALFRED L. CASTLE: Let's hope that every patriotic woman in Honolulu signs a card this week pledging herself to help conserve the nation's food supply. It is needless to say that our campaign here will be a success. Honolulu people always respond loyally in such matters.

—CIRCUIT JUDGE S. B. KEMP: The petitions of the Koloa Sugar Co. and the Paa Agricultural Co. of Kauai, for registration of title to some 4000 acres of land on the Garden Island, is looked upon as the most important, and one of the largest land court matters in the last few years.

—JOHN EFFINGER: I believe that Hawaii can secure more passenger accommodations by going after them. A number of steamers traveling through here from various ports have empty cabins and by organizing the service so that advantage may be taken of these, tourists will be assured of adequate facilities. There's no need to feel that we are going to have a shortage of passenger space on vessels touching Honolulu.

SUPERVISORS TO ACT ON LABOR PAYROLL
A meeting of the board of supervisors will be held this evening at 7:30, when the labor payroll will be the principal matter considered.

E. A. Mott-Smith will not be present, and in his absence Mayor Fern says he will not bring up the question of park superintendent.

For three weeks Mr. Mott-Smith has been suffering with several ulcerated teeth and he will leave on the Kilanea tomorrow for a little recuperation trip on the Big Island. He will be back for the meeting of Tuesday evening.

WINDOW DISPLAY IS FOOD SAVING ARGUMENT

With the admonition, "Don't Waste," and under the general slogan, "Food Will Win the War," the big show window of the retail department of Henry May & Co., Ltd., has attracted interest with its splendid display of wheat-saving foods.

A big placard urging food economy with its "Join the ranks of those who serve the nation through food conservation" hangs high in the center of the window, and beneath it are grouped, in tempting array, bowls and bags of white and yellow cornmeal, oatmeal, graham flour, rye meal, Ralston's bran and pearl barley. Also just as attractively displayed in the same window are Maui (silco) beans, Maui white beans, island washed sugar, island raw sugar, Gold Crumb brand, and Hawaiian rice.

In one corner of the window is a tray of Irish potatoes, against which leans the suggestion, "In place of wheat, use potatoes," and back of the samples of bulk goods are packages of oatmeal, corn flakes and other wheatless cereals.

A huge papaya, as big as a Georgia watermelon, occupies the exact center of the window, and adds the touch of green—17 pounds to the louch—needed to make the color scheme complete. This papaya, of the variety known as "Mexican," was grown by Miss Win-

NINE RED CROSS UNITS DO GOOD WORK ON MAUI

The island of Maui is now a recognized auxiliary of the national Red Cross organization, with workers all over the island, and the right to make its own inspections and send out its own supplies direct from Waikuku instead of sending them to Honolulu for inspection and re-shipment to mainland Red Cross headquarters.

Of the nine units which have been organized two are at Waikuku and the others are at Lahaina, Kahului, Paia, Unueme, Makawao, Kula, Hana and Haiku. Hamakuaoko workers belong to the Paia unit.

One of the Waikuku units is made up wholly of Hawaiian women. Japanese and Chinese women, too, are becoming much interested in the Red Cross work on Maui.

Gauge for the dressings is cut by the paper cutter of the Maui News. About 10,000 dressings have been made by the several units since their organization.

Mrs. Harold Rice, treasurer, and Mrs. H. D. Sloggett, secretary of the Maui Red Cross auxiliary, are in Honolulu, staying at the Youngs.

nie Alberta of Kaihi, and as papaya can be served in nearly a hundred different ways, shows what might be done with just one of the island's food-saving industries if the proper attention and industry are applied.

SINGER PROVIDES HOME FOR BOYS AT LOS ANGELES

(By GRACE TOWER WARREN.)

Ellen Beach Yaw, the noted singer, who is making her first appearance on the Honolulu concert stage tonight, is deeply interested in philanthropy and all forms of altruistic work. Indeed, the simple law of "just being kind," seems to have been one of the laws of her life and she is never so happy as when she is doing something for somebody. Her chief interest centers in the Lark Ellen Home for Boys, which was named after her many years ago and is situated near Elysian Park on the outskirts of Los Angeles, California. She is president of the board of directors and personally attends to much of the detail of the management of the institution. In fact, during several weeks' absence of the matron recently, Miss Yaw was in command and actually took up her residence at the home, performing all of the duties usually assigned to the matron.

"It was some task," laughed Miss Yaw, in relating the experience, "to see that 26 baths were taken and 26 heads were brushed and combed, and 26 sets of fingeralls were properly attended to each morning, and especially on Sunday, when the boys had to be sent off to Sunday School on time, my hands were full. It was some job seeing that all the buttons were on, all the socks were darned, all the rents were mended, and this was my work in addition to keeping the accounts, supervising the servants, and seeing that the institution generally ran on dented wheels. But I loved it," and the singer laughed a gay little laugh.

"Do you know," and here a merry twinkle lurked in the blue eyes, "I even had to spank one boy? Well, I really did. They thought I couldn't, but I did. There was such a babel of tongues in the dining room at meal time I couldn't stand it, so I told them they must be quiet and that the first boy who talked would be punished. I had to take out five that first morning, and we had quite a little talk together. But the sixth boy, a stubborn little fellow, refused to mind, so I laid him across my lap and administered the necessary spanking. He behaved after that." A slow smile of reminiscence crossed the singer's fair face, as she added: "But I love them all and the work was so interesting. They really loved me too, and before I left would do anything I asked. One of the little fellows was run over by an automobile and was taken to the emergency hospital. He kept asking for me and as soon as I arrived he put up his weak little arms and clasped them around my neck and would not let me go. I am always planning how I can help my boys and much of the money with which the home is run I provide through my concerts." It is a work that lies very close to my heart.

MANILA HAS NO RECORD OF CRIME GARCIA SAID HE HAD COMMITTED

That their records show no trace of a murder of Simeon Morales, in the Sampaloc district of Manila, is the statement made by Chief of Detectives Green of the Manila force, in answer to a cable sent by the Honolulu municipal authorities, according to advices received by the Star-Bulletin. Antonio Garcia, slayer of a Japanese at Honolulu, and self-confessed murderer of Harriet Kunano on Hawaii and Simeon Morales of Manila, was hanged at the territorial prison last Friday. When he made a confession several weeks ago concerning the murder of the Hawaiian girl at Kohala, Hawaii, he also confessed to the murder of Simeon Morales in the Sampaloc district of Manila.

The Manila police chief declares that their records show no trace of either the supposed murdered man, Morales, or the slayer, Antonio Garcia. The chief does not believe the murder could have been committed without the police hearing of it. The name Simeon Morales is unknown to the Philippine police.

A little son, who has been named Richard Francis, was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. William Geriz of 1224 Tenth avenue, a Kilauea.

KOREAN TRIES TO PASS BOGUS BILL

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

HILO, Hawaii, Nov. 27.—Ing Chun Bung, a Korean, is an enterprising man, but he seems to have underestimated the ability of Hilo's detective force when yesterday he tried to pass off one of the $20 bills that were issued at the time of the civil war. The bill that the heathen tried to get rid of was one of the Confederate States currency and its value is nil.

The Korean entered a tailor's shop and ordered a suit of the bogus type. In payment for the garments he tendered the bill of the losers in the civil war. The storekeeper was suspicious of the paper money, although he had seen quite a lot during the past week or so and he asked somebody else to change the note. Then came the blow-up and the Korean was arrested.

When cross-examined by Chief of Detectives George Richardson yesterday afternoon, the Korean declared that he had taken in the bill when playing in a crap game. This statement has been discounted somewhat, for it has been proved that the little gambling game was pulled off about six months ago. The fact that the Korean had packed the old-time bill around for so many months until bonus and bill time came around, is thought to be evidence that he knew very well what the paper was and that it was not United States money. This morning Mr. Ing Chun Bung will either go free or else go bung before Judge Metzger in the police court.

The Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. has been appointed executor of the estate of James Stirling by Circuit Judge C. W. Ashford. The appointment was made upon petition of Jas. H. Stirling, David E. Stirling and Robert Stirling who were named in the will as executors.

MORE KICKS ON MANOA HIGHWAY

More trouble is brewing for the Manoa valley road builders, and objections alleging failure on the part of F. H. Ritchie to comply with the specifications of the contract not only as to asphalt but as to the amount of oil sused, may hold up the final payment a while longer.

Upper Manoa road, is particularly mentioned as being in bad condition, complaints having been made that the edges overlapping the gutters are breaking away, and that the spaces between the concrete gutters and the curbs are breaking; also that the oil surface in many places has already broken and the rock of the roadbed is exposed.

Jack Balch and Ferd Hons, two members of the Manoa Improvement Club's special committee on the asphalt report, yesterday visited City Engineer Cantin's office to find out what had been done about the reported insufficiency of asphalt.

City Engineer Cantin and one or two of the road supervisors will pay a visit of inspection to these roads today and ascertain what basis, if any, there is for these complaints.

POLICEMEN NEED NOT PAY ADMISSION TAXES

Policemen who enter shows or other entertainments in the territory are not required to pay the special war tax that is assessed against most people with passes, according to Acting Collector Ralph S. Johnston's interpretation of the law.

All persons admitted to shows, whether passed or not, are subject to payment of the war tax, according to the price they pay for seats, but this does not apply to bona fide employees of the show house nor to municipal officers on official business.

CITY DIVIDED INTO DISTRICTS FOR FOOD DRIVE

Honolulu has been divided into 23 districts for the local food pledge "drive," each district being in charge of a captain who will appoint her own lieutenants to assist in the work. A house-to-house canvass will be made and housewives will be asked to sign cards pledging themselves to help conserve the nation's food supply.

The food pledge campaign is under the direction of the woman's committee of the territorial food committee, and women desiring to offer their services should communicate with Mrs. A. C. Alexander, the chairman, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and some of the older school girls will assist. The captains are meeting this afternoon to arrange the final plans for the "drive." 1 cup seeded raisins
2 ounces citron, cut fine

Art Exhibition and Sale

This collection of Paintings, placed on exhibition by M. B. Mihan, is undoubtedly one of the best to be shown in Honolulu. It embodies works of such celebrated American artists as Wm. Keith, A. H. Wyant, Geo. Innes, E. A. Blakelock, also a few works of the old European masters such as David Tenier, Attilio Piambo and C. Van Den Broeck.

There are several beautiful water colors by English artists, notably G. Ramer, E. E. Walters, T. S. Stamm and Harry Carleton.

Harry Carleton is a celebrated painter of architectural subjects and in this collection has produced in wonderful detail and color, the older cathedrals of Northern France and Belgium—most of these cathedrals now are in ruins. These canvasses are shown in our windows.

The public is cordially invited to visit and inspect this unusual exhibit.

SAY PASSENGERS WILL BE GIVEN ALL FACILITIES

Hawaii's need for passenger accommodations of such character as will not interfere with the nation's shipping necessities will be brought before Washington authorities in concrete form by business interests of Hawaii, according to tentative plans discussed yesterday at a luncheon at the Young hotel at which Manager Stinson was host. The guests included businessmen informally gathered together and representatives of promotion activities.

That Hawaii will not suffer for lack of such accommodations, and that means will be found to guarantee plenty of cabins for tourists was the gist of opinion. While the nation's prior call on vessels was recognized, it was also felt that arrangements can be made to secure space so that the winter's traffic will be taken care of. No definite scheme of action was arrived at. Other discussions will follow.

OAHU-BUILT SCHOONER IS FINALLY LAUNCHED

At high tide this morning the schooner Puck, built in the Ala Moana shipyard, was pulled into the stream by the Elizabeth of the Oahu Shipping Co. The Puck was completed nearly two weeks ago, but there was delay in launching the ship after her christening, as it was desired to wait for favorable weather. Despite a southerly swell the new schooner was taken over the reef without trouble this morning. An application will now be made at the customs office for the registering of the vessel.

DUTCH STEAMER HAS BIG IRON-STEEL CARGO

Heavily loaded with iron and steel, the Dutch steamer Ophir is in port from San Francisco with 345 bags of mail. Due to the heavy cargo, the steamer was far down in the water and several inches over the freight line.

Shipment of the big steel and iron cargo to Japan, where it is all consigned, is taken to indicate that the embargo on such exports to the Orient has virtually been suspended, although no public statement to this effect has been made since the return of the Ishii mission to Tokio.

There are only 18 cabin passengers aboard the Ophir, many of them Dutch merchants of the Far East.

HARBOR NOTES

Princess Tatiana, second daughter of the deposed Czar of Russia, is expected to pass through Honolulu on the next T. K. K. liner.

Congestion of the territorial wharves during the past week has been materially lessened by the removal of much of the incoming freight by the consignees.

Plans for the lighting of the channel entrance to Pearl Harbor with an outlay of about $50,000 have been approved by the Washington authorities. The present temporary buoys are to be replaced by the very latest modern equipment.

The treasury department has recommended to congress that a lighthouse depot to cost $90,000 be built on Sand Island, adjoining the present lighthouse area. News to this effect was conveyed to A. E. Arledge, the inspector of the Hawaiian lighthouse department, by an Associated Press cablegram received yesterday afternoon.

STAR-BULLETIN REPORTER WINS 2ND LIEUTENANCY

George Armitage Among Those Known Here Commissioned at Presidio Camp

George Armitage, former reporter on the Star-Bulletin, has won a commission as second lieutenant in the Presidio training camp, according to news received here. Armitage's home is in Montana. He came to Hawaii to join the Star-Bulletin staff, and after a year worked his way on one of the seized German steamers to the coast to get the experience, succeeded in entering the training camp and has come out with flying colors.

The list of successful candidates at the Presidio contains the names of a number well known here: Frederick W. Wichman, son of H. F. Wichman, emerges with a fine record and a first lieutenancy in the field artillery. Roscoe Fawcett, sporting editor of the Portland Oregonian, who was here with the Portland baseball team last spring, won a first lieutenancy in the non-flying branch of the signal corps. Alexis B. Luce, who spent some time here as one of the members of the theatrical stock company, has a commission as second lieutenant of infantry.

MEN URGENTLY NEEDED FOR MEDICAL CORPS
(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—Men are urgently needed for service in the medical corps, not merely physicians but men who can serve as nurses and drive ambulances. This need is the greater since the United States has taken over the ambulance service heretofore performed by Americans under the French. Surgeon-General Gorgas yesterday issued an urgent call for men between the ages of eighteen and forty years to enlist and thus join the enlisted personnel of the regular army medical corps. Candidates are directed to apply before the fifteenth of the month.

BRITISH AIRPLANES RAID FAR AND WIDE BEHIND GERMANS NEAR CAMBRAI
LONDON, Dec. 3.—British airplane squadrons raided far and wide behind the German lines on the Cambrai sector yesterday, driving back the German machines and clearing the air to the discomfort of the German artillerymen, while the British foot carried out a series of trench raids and moved up their heavy guns for a renewal of the general attack for the important junction point. The number of air casualties were many on this front, the Germans having 15 of their fighting and scouting machines destroyed by the British aviators, while three other German planes were driven down back of the German lines.

JAPAN PUTS WAR TAX ON SOME LUXURIES
(Special Cable to Hawaii Shipto)
TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 4.—War taxes are to go into effect in Japan. To meet government needs it has been found necessary to raise prices of some government controlled articles and imports on others as well as to increase postal rates. Announcement of raises in the price of tobacco was made yesterday by the government. It was further announced that the tax upon wine, sake and other alcoholic beverages was to be increased as is the tax upon sugar. Rates of postage are also to be increased.

CALIFORNIA SOLON OUT FOR TOTAL PROHIBITION
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—Absolute prohibition of the manufacture of alcoholic beverages except for certain restricted purposes is contained in one of the first bills introduced in the house of representatives yesterday. It was sent up to the clerk by Representative Charles H. Randall of the ninth California district, Los Angeles.

DON'T WRAP GIFTS TO BELGIANS IN NEWSPAPERS
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 4.—The California committee for relief in Belgium is urging all who send packages to that country not to wrap their bundles in newspapers. Word has been received that the Germans will not permit such packages through their lines, because the papers used may contain statements against them. The paper must be of the wrapping variety or of any other sort that does not contain printing or writing of any kind.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN N. Y. DRYDOCK SHOPS
NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 4.—Four large buildings on the property of the Morse Drydock and Repair Company were destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The loss will, it is estimated by company officials, amount to fully a million dollars. The fire started in the carpenter shop from some unknown cause. The loss is a serious one and will hamper shipping repair operations here materially.

REP. FITZGERALD TO QUIT SEAT IN CONGRESS
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—Representative John J. Fitzgerald of New York City, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, announced yesterday that he would resign his seat in Congress on December 31 and would resume the practice of law. Swager Shirley of Kentucky will probably succeed him as chairman of the appropriation committee.

ILLINOIS CONVICTS SAW THEIR WAY TO LIBERTY
JOLIET, Illinois, Dec. 4.—Thirteen convicts last night escaped from the Illinois state penitentiary here by sawing the bars and overcoming the keepers in the corridor. Posses were immediately organized and heavily armed and a thorough hunt of the surrounding country was started forthwith. Little doubt of their early capture is entertained.

TOKIO BANQUETS MORRIS
(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)
TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 4.—Roland S. Morris, newly appointed United States ambassador to Japan, was tendered a banquet last evening by the members of the Japanese-American Society. Among the principal speakers were Viscount K. Kaneko, member of the privy council; Prince I. Tokugawa, president of the house of peers, and Baron E. Shibusawa, a leading financier. The members of the society commented on the close friendship between the two nations.

PRICE OF MEATS, DAIRY PRODUCE TO BE LOWER

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—Lower prices for meats, milk and other ranch and dairy commodities may be looked for not later than January 15, according to a forecast issued by the food administration board last night. This forecast is based on the final crop reports, which show an enormous gain in the production of last year of corn. It is declared that this extraordinary crop is certain to remedy the situation brought about by the high price of meat and dairy products. The corn crop is now reaching the market and its effect is certain to be felt within six weeks.

AMERICA FIGHTING FOR COMMERCIAL SUPREMACY, SAYS VON HINDENBURG

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Dec. 4.—Aspersions against the motives which caused the United States to embark in the great war are cast by von Hindenburg in a statement which he made public yesterday in Berlin. He attributes the cause not to any action on the part of Germany, which he terms only excuses, but to a desire for commercial supremacy and the recognition of the need of a great army to accomplish this. In his statements von Hindenburg says: "The United States is making an effort to create a big army and in so doing is making the war its pretext. It is not raising the army because of the war so much as it has gone to war in order to raise a vast army which would not otherwise have been tolerated by the American people."

JEWIS EXPELLED FROM HOLY CITY BY TURKS

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Dec. 4.—The Jewish residents of Jerusalem have been forced to evacuate that city by the still Turkish rulers, according to an announcement given yesterday by the Austrian correspondence bureau at The Hague, on authority of despatches received by way of Budapest. The close approach of the British and the probability that the Holy City will soon be wrested from the Turks is regarded as a reason for the action of the Turkish garrison.

TRUSTEES MAY ACT THIS WEEK ON RESIGNATION OF HOSPITAL HEAD

Action on the resignation of Werner Roehl, superintendent of the Queen's hospital, will probably be taken by the trustees of the corporation at a special meeting which has been scheduled for some day this week. It was announced today that there is little doubt that the resignation will be accepted, as it is reported, Superintendent Roehl emphatically declines to continue his services. Who will succeed Roehl has not yet been discussed by the trustees. It was rumored today that Dr. A. N. Sinclair, one of the board of consulting physicians and formerly pathologist and X-ray expert at the institution, might be considered for the position, but the trustees said that his name has not been mentioned.

Lionel R. A. Hart, who was convicted in the circuit court before Judge William H. Heen on a charge of embezzlement last October, filed a motion yesterday for a new trial through his attorney, W. B. Lymer.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day
Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.
Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath. Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter. Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal, before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs. The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism, others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.

FILIPINOS TRY HOLD-UP GAME TO GET BONUS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
HILO, Hawaii, Nov. 29.—One of the most brazen affairs that has happened in these islands for many years was that which was perpetrated by two Filipinos yesterday just about noon at Pepeekeo when Head Luna William S. Mansfield of the Pepeekeo Sugar Company was held up at the point of two guns in the hands of the couple of desperadoes. The object of the holdup was to force the head overseer to pay the men a bonus they declared was coming to them. Mansfield, as he was unarmed, strove to change the minds of the Filipinos. The overseer took out his notebook and said that he would make a record of the men's plantation numbers and report the matter to the office. The Filipinos declared that Mansfield must at once give them an order on the plantation office for their bonus money. The luna, realizing that he was dealing with two half-savages, did as ordered. He wrote a note to the office staff telling them that these two men declared that they had bonus money coming to them and that he had instructed them to proceed to the office and there see what could be done in the matter. The Filipinos upon receiving the note from Mansfield, allowed him to ride away. The overseer made his way to a telephone and told the office and store staff of the holdup and advised them to telephone Hilo and have some police officers sent out at once. Captain Anakalea called three police officers and jumped into an automobile. Upon arrival at the plantation store three Filipinos were seen outside the office. Officer Aki jumped out and rushed up to the nearest man. The officer ran his hands over the person of the Filipino and discovered a loaded revolver. At that moment Captain Anakalea was also grasping one of the three men. The third, thereupon, shouted out: "Me, too, I got gun." This led to the arrest of the third man.

MAUI COUNTY AGENT GIVES FOOD FACTS TO WAIMEA LITERARY CLUB

A. Hebard Case Tells Garden Islanders Something About National Conservation

Paper presented to the Waimea, Kauai, Literary Club by A. Hebard Case, County Agent for Kauai.

The slogan of the food administration which has been used since the beginning of this work and to which we will march to victory is, "Food will win the war—Don't waste it." To stop wasting food is, of course, a cardinal point in food conservation. It is conservation. But to insist on that strongly, as strongly as we are going to have to insist upon it before the necessity for it is driven home, and not offset by the counterbalancing fact that there is something which we can eat instead of that which we save, and the disagreeable impression is created in the minds of the people that they are being asked to half-ration themselves while we are carrying on this great war against Prussianism.

This impression has already been created, to some extent. To correct this misconception—to tell the story of the part food plays in war, how bread and bullets will put down autocracy and make the world safe for democracy, how we must conserve our food supply in order that a share and an ungrudging share, may be spared to our allies, is, if not the most important, at least the immediate and first task of the food administration or any other such body. From this important task is brought to light a new slogan which will answer the needs of the administration and create no such feeling of fear in the minds of the people, that "Eat and win the war."

One of the first things to be done is to remove from the minds the fear that this country is entering upon a campaign of starvation. We are going to send great quantities of food abroad, in order that our allies may keep on fighting and win the war, for us as well as themselves. The more we send, the further we will keep the first line trenches from our shores. We will send food, then, send it abundantly, but that does not mean that the American people are going hungry. It does not mean that they are going to eat less than they have been accustomed to; they may, in fact, eat more. The time may come possibly, should the war continue for years, when they will have to eat less, but for the present all they are asked to do is to use sparingly the foods that can be conveniently exported to our allies.

There are some things, perishable stuff and bulky foods, which cannot so well be shipped abroad. They are wholesome foods of which the American people for their health's sake ought to eat more. Cornbread, rye, potatoes and home products, of which all are good. So that all we ask the people is to change their habits a little, to eat all they want of any number of foods wholesome and pleasing to the taste, but to cut down their consumption of certain things of which our allies stand in crying need—we are actually counseling the people, when we ask them to save, to do something which is good for them.

Food conservation is not going to be a hardship for us if we look at it in the right way. At most it will mean the substitution of one thing for another. The man who eats less wheat bread and more corn bread may find, as thousands have found, that they like corn bread better. Be willing to try new foods.

Conservation is not even going to mean that we are to be unduly limited in our choice of dishes. Think of a chart. On this side are the things of which we can eat more, on the other side those we ought to eat more sparingly. You will see that the "eat-more" outbalances heavily the "eat-less." On the food administration home card there is only six articles which Hoover has asked the housewife to save, viz.: Save the wheat, save the meat, save the milk, save the sugar, save the fuel; in addition the housewife is asked to buy home produce and use perishable foods in greater quantity.

Another impression that must be removed is the wrong idea some persons have that this whole movement is to cut down the grocery bills of the American people. As one woman was heard to say, "It's a lovely plan. We eat less and save our money so that we can send it to Europe." What the soldiers who are banging at the Germans want is food, not money, and food is what we are going to send them.

Thrift will undoubtedly be a by-product of conservation—and therein will be another benefit to us as a nation, but mischief will be worked if the impression becomes general that thrift is the ultimate object. That would leave unconsumed great quantities of food-stuffs which cannot be very well shipped abroad, and which, if we do not eat, will benefit no one. That in turn would have a bad effect upon future production. What we want to do—what we must do—and what we will do—is to induce farmers to put forth every effort to produce, produce, produce. They must not be discouraged by foolish economy that would have effect of over-production, and lead inevitably to inactivity or retrenchment on their part.

Furthermore the lesson must be driven home that the duty of conservation rests upon every one. John must save as well as James; the banker as well as the laborer; the wife; the husband as well as the entire nation. Women have been preached at about starving the garbage can until every woman must be weary of the very name of conservation. One would suppose that the whole duty of feeding the allies rested on their slender shoulders. One woman asked what good it did for her to skimp the dinner table when her husband burned up all she saved in his cigars. We will soon get after Mr. Husband. Every one in the family must cooperate with the housewife.

One more lesson the American people ought to learn—the purpose in establishing the food administration and commission was not, primarily, to reduce the high cost of living. It will, by throttling speculation and artificial shortages, undoubtedly tend in that direction, and for that, so much the better. But the great object of food conservation is to win the war. That fact ought to be dinned into our ears until we cannot possibly forget it or misunderstand it. Let me repeat that—the whole object of this movement is to win the war. Look at the matter in that light and you will see that it is important as it is, distressing as is high cost of living, especially to the poor, is of relatively little moment beside the necessity of winning this fight. We can put up with high prices for a while if necessary, but we don't want to put up with the Prussians. And that is what we shall have to do unless we subdue them. To subdue them each patriotic American must do his part, either in the trenches or at home. Regard it as a privilege to participate in such a patriotic movement in your home. The nation's task is a serious one. It touches each of us, you and I. If we do not win this war we must prepare ourselves for grave changes in our institutions and to lead a different life from that which we planned to live—from that which our forefathers died to give us the right to live. We shall indefinitely face the interference of the Prussian autocracy or bear permanently the intolerable burdens of militarism. To win this war we must have both men, money and food. Our soldiers in the field have always done their part; our farmers and housewives will do theirs.
