WAR EXPENSES ON HAWAII SUGAR BRING BONUS CHANGE

Basis of Payment to Be Average Price For Sales of Hawaiian Product and Bonus Hereafter Will Commence With Sugar at $85 Per Ton

Formal announcement was made this morning by the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association of a new bonus schedule, to date from November 1, 1917.

Under the new schedule the two important changes are as follows:

- 1. The basis of the bonus hereafter will be the average price upon which sales of Hawaiian raw sugars are determined, instead of the average daily New York market price.
2. The bonus will begin with sugar at $85 per ton instead of $71 per ton.

The announcement today emphasizes the heavy war expenses which the plantations must meet and are meeting as the prime reason for the change.

After weeks of consideration and several days of active discussion during the annual planters' meeting, the announcement was made this morning through the planters' bureau of labor and statistics, R. D. Mead, director. It is published in full herewith:

BONUS ANNOUNCEMENT.

"When the bonus system was inaugurated in January, 1912, $71 per ton was set as the point where the bonus should begin as being a fair figure when there was taken into consideration the average cost at market of Hawaiian sugar at that time. Since the European war started conditions have radically changed, and the entry of the United States into the struggle has been followed by a heavy increase in all of the expenses of the plantations.

"During the past two years, by reason of the war, the cost of producing sugar in Hawaii has increased in excess of $25 per ton.

"In addition to this the plantations must face a large increase of freight rates on sugar as well as all materials imported, and must also pay income and war taxes which will amount to at least 25 per cent of their profits.

"On account of these increased costs it has been found necessary to amend the bonus schedule.

The following bonus schedule is therefore announced to date from November 1, 1917, and to continue until further notice:

"The basis of the bonus shall be the average price upon which sales of Hawaiian raw sugars are determined.

"The bonus of 1 1/2 per cent will commence with sugar at $85 per ton and will increase 1/2 per cent for every dollar per ton over $85, and 3 1/3 per cent of the wages earned will be paid monthly as an advance on account of the bonus as heretofore.

SLIDING SCALE BONUS. (Amended as of November 1, 1917.)

"The sliding scale bonus plan adopted by the plantations January 1, 1912, and amended as of April 1, 1916, shall be amended to read and be as hereinafter set forth.

First—Bonus Period. "The bonus period will be for the twelve months to end October 31 in (Continued on page Two)

ARMED FREIGHTER WITH AUSTRALIAN WHEAT IN PORT

Movements of the immense stocks of wheat in Australia to America has begun, if the cargo of an Australian government owned ship is port today is a criterion. Officers are necessarily secret about details concerned with the movement of their ship, but it is admitted that the cargo is wheat.

The surprise expressed as to the shipment of wheat to the United States is met with the explanation that the American wheat is being sent to Europe and the Australian product to the states.

There are miles and miles of stacks of wheat in every export in Australia. This is from the crops of 1915 and 1916, with the crop of the present year being harvested.

The Australian boat which is taking the wheat to the coast is armed with a big gun.

Word has been received by Arthur Rice of this city that Thomas Neilson, the mining engineer sent to the Philippines islands by a number of Honolulu capitalists to investigate a lead mining property, is now on his way back to Honolulu.

$3,712,500 IS QUOTA OF WAR THRIFT-STAMPS

For Each $80 So Invested Government Will Pay $100 in Five Years

Hawaii's quota in the war savings certificate campaign which opened on December 3 throughout the United States has been announced as $3,712,500. This is figured on the basis outlined by the war savings certificate committee at Washington, D. C., which has decided that in order to dispose of the $2,000,000,000 of certificates it will be necessary for every man, woman and child in the United States and its territories to save $16.50 and invest that amount in the certificates.

The local campaign will be in charge of Postmaster D. H. MacAdam who is authorized to appoint agents to prosecute the work which will start in the territory as soon as the thrift stamps, the war savings stamps and the war savings certificates arrive from the mainland. They are expected to be here within the next few days.

Every city and rural mail carrier will become a solicitor for the sale of the certificates and will carry a certain number of each with him on his daily rounds. Besides that, the information received by Postmaster MacAdam states that a director is to be appointed by the treasury department for each state. Whether such a director is to be appointed here is not known, but the local Liberty Loan committee has asked the officials in Washington what is to be done on that point.

The certificates will continue to be sold throughout next year. The plan of saving which has been outlined before is as follows: Twenty-five cents will buy a thrift stamp and a thrift card will be provided with sixteen spaces. As each stamp is purchased it is affixed to the card and when all the spaces are filled the card is turned in to the postoffice together with 12 cents for which a war savings stamp with a par value of five dollars maturing in five years is given. With the war savings stamp comes a war savings certificate with twenty spaces in which the war savings stamps may be pasted. When the war savings certificate is filled with stamps it will have cost the subscriber $80.12. In five years that war savings certificate will be worth $100.

FOOD 'DRIVE' MEETS SUCCESS

More than 100 patriotic women are giving their time to Uncle Sam today in bringing local housewives into line with the great nation-wide movement to conserve America's food supply.

Bright and early this morning the district leaders and their lieutenants began a canvass of the city for signers of the food pledge cards, and by tomorrow evening it is expected that thousands of women will have mailed their cards to the local federal food administrator.

A noticeable feature of the local "drive" is that many housewives are signing cards who had not signed them when a campaign was started some time ago. In this instance the cards were mailed direct to the food administration in Washington. Reports from the leaders of the food commission office, where Mrs. A. C. Alexander, chairman, and other members of the woman's committee are busy dealing out equipment, show that the housewives are signing cards by the hundreds, and it was announced this afternoon that the success of the local "drive" is now assured.

A delegation of Japanese women, led by Miss Tanaka and Mrs. Murali, wife of the Japanese consul, are canvassing the Nipponese homes. The first reports of the campaign are expected to drift in late this afternoon, and by tomorrow morning the woman's committee expects to have a complete account of the results of the first day's work.

FRANKLIN DENIES RODIEK DEFIANCE

Collector of Customs Franklin contradicted emphatically today that George Rodiek "dared" him to board the interned German cruiser Geier when the cruiser's boilers were being burned out to cripple the vessel, as alleged in an Advertiser editorial today. "There was no such incident," says the collector. "Rodiek made no such statement to me nor anything approaching it, nor it may be added, to any member of the customs staff. I feel it fair that this report be denied emphatically."

Mobilization Call For Guard Coming January 15, Report

The Hawaii National Guard is expected to receive its mobilization orders about Jan. 15. The call for active service at Schofield Barracks and Fort Shafter will probably follow in a few days. Indications and reports that are going the rounds makes it appear that the army is preparing to call the guard into early service. It is known that a quiet tip has been passed around to some of the guard officers to be prepared to report for service the middle of January and have been advised to see that their equipments and uniforms are in condition for quick service. It is further reported that physical examination of recruits to fill up depleted ranks to full strength will be held between Jan. 5 and 10. Jan. 15 is the day on which it is rumored the mobilization call will be issued, and on Jan. 18, the reports say, the men will be ordered to camp.

MARKET SHUT ON URGING OF FOOD BOARD?

President Rice Says Agricultural Board Acted on Advice of Territorial Commission

That the retail department of the territorial marketing division was closed at the suggestion and upon the advice of the territorial food commission and Superintendent A. T. Longley was stated today by Arthur H. Rice, president of the board of agriculture and forestry. This statement was made by President Rice when asked by the Star-Bulletin if the board is planning any meeting to discuss the reopening of the market in view of the numerous protests from citizens since announcement of closing down was given.

"No protest has been filed with the board," said Mr. Rice. "We are attempting to work in conjunction with the food commission, and it was on the suggestion of the food commission that we closed the market." Superintendent Longley also advised this action.

Mr. Rice says that while it is true that the market has made little or no profit, that profit is not the fundamental purpose of the institution. It was formed to give the small producer an opportunity to market his crops, he says.

"I may say also," continued Mr. Rice, "that I am not president of the Hawaii Meat Co. I resigned that position three months ago." J. F. Child, federal food commissioner, declared today he had nothing whatever to do with the closing of the market. The food commissioners are James D. Dole, chairman; Richard Ivers, F. E. Blake, C. G. Bockus, A. W. Neely and John Waterhouse. A. L. Castle is executive officer and Mr. Child assistant executive officer.

Mr. Longley's advice to close down the market was given about a month previous to action by the board of agriculture, and the reason for it was that the market was losing money at that time, he said today.

Reasons given by him for this condition are that the market did not have the necessary equipment for such business, that its location was not what it should have been and that it did not have a steady supply of enough variety to satisfy customers. Complaints on this last were frequently heard from them.

"At the time the legislature transferred the market to the board of agriculture I considered the retail market necessary," says Mr. Longley, "but now all produce can be sold to dealers."

INDIA PLOT INCLUDED PLANS FOR 'HOLY WAR'

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.) SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 7.—German and pro-German conspirators did not stop at seeking to incite fanatical Hindus to rebellion and rapine and plunder, but their plans contemplated bloody massacres of all Christians in the British and French provinces was shown by the prosecution in evidence which was adduced yesterday in the prosecution of the case against the remaining defendants in the conspiracy case now on trial in the federal court.

RELIEF TRAINS RUSHED FROM CITIES OF CANADA AND STATES

FOUR THOUSAND TONS OF TRINITROTULUAT EXPLODED—WHOLE DISTRICTS WIPE OUT—SAILORS AND MARINES PATROL CITY TO GUARD AGAINST LOOTING

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.) HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 7.—The estimate made late yesterday that the dead in Halifax number at least 2000 stood today as further reports came in.

(Associated Press by Commercial Pacific Cable) TRURO, Nova Scotia, Dec. 7.—It is now reported that the cause of the Halifax explosion was the collision of a Norwegian food freighter which set fire to a munitions ship. The seacocks of the Norwegian ship were opened and the crew took to boats. It is possible they escaped.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 7.—The fires which raged through Halifax yesterday are under control. The district of Richmond has been virtually destroyed, with thousands of people hurt and not a house left undamaged.

Shrapnel thrown by the force of the explosion from the cars and warehouses where it was stored has been found three miles from the waterfront.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 7.—Investigations today confirmed the fact that four thousand tons of the high explosive trinitrotuluaat caused the first terrific detonation yesterday.

The fires, though somewhat under control, are continuing today and thousands are fighting them. Almost constant snowfall adds to the sufferings of those whose homes have been wrecked and who can scarcely find shelter in the shattered city.

Relief trains have already arrived from Truro, Moncton and Windsor. Trains of injured persons have been taken to Windsor and other hospitals. Business throughout the stricken city has been suspended indefinitely and all schools suspended until New Year's.

The estimate of 2000 dead still stands and it is estimated that at least 2000 have been injured. Many thousands are helping in the relief work. Sailors and marines are patrolling the city rigidly and there is no looting in the wrecked districts.

Wireless communication has been established with outside points and the stunned city, rising from its disaster, is working with renewed energy to make the best of the situation. Today both wire and cable service are being reestablished.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—The number of killed in Halifax is unknown, said advices received early this morning from the naval commander aboard the U. S. S. Dartmouth.

His despatch said that all of North Halifax is destroyed and that a number of ships had been sunk and many others damaged.

CHINESE REBELS CAPTURE CITY

(Special Cable to Kings JH) TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 7.—Following a fierce bombardment of two weeks, revolutionary troops entered the city of Chang King in Sze Chuen province yesterday. The Peking troops made a stubborn defense, but troops from Yunnan and Kweichow came to the assistance of the southern troops and the soldiers of the garrison were forced to retreat to Tching-tu, the capital of the province.

Chang King occupies a strategic position on the Yangtze-Kiang river and is the gateway to the entire province. It is estimated that thousands of lives were lost during the two weeks' siege. The Japanese cruiser Tuba sent marines to protect the Japanese consulate.

WOULD DIVIDE PROFIT AMONG FISH FACTORS

J. F. Child Has Plan to Affect Consumer's Dollars to Dealers on Basis of Expense Account

Twenty per cent to the retailer, 5 per cent to the fish company and 13 per cent to the fisherman—this is the way J. F. Child, federal food commissioner, would divide the consumer's dollar among the three factors in the fishing industry in connection with his plan to have them agree on a price, or series of prices, at which fish shall be sold to the public.

This, however, does not represent profit. From the foregoing percentages the dealers and handlers would have to pay their expenses, the profit to be represented by what is left. Mr. Child met yesterday with a committee representing the Chinese retailers, and they expressed their willingness to accept an agreed price providing they are allowed to make a fair profit from their business. He will meet with the Japanese retailers next. Meetings with the fishermen and the fish companies will follow.

Administrator Child is still acting in his campaign to have fish dealt in by the pound instead of by count. But it will take some time, he believes, to get both retailers and public initiated into this new method of doing business.

Reports secured by Mr. Child show that in November one fishing company handled 31,920 pounds of fish valued at $10,997, and 97,718 pounds of sku valued at $3273. The auction price at which the sku was sold was about $0.0335, or 3 1/2 cents a pound. The other fish sold at auction at about 12 cents a pound.

Another company in November handled 261,257 pounds of fish valued at $21,576, which sold for about $0.082 a pound.

In figuring that the fisherman should get at least 72 per cent of the consumer's dollar, Administrator Child points out that the fisherman is put to the greatest expense.

PALMYRA SALE IS HANGING FIRE

Final transfer of Palmyra island to California capitalists who wish to establish a cannery there will not be concluded until their representative has sent a report to San Francisco, so far as he knows, says Judge H. E. Cooper who arrived in Honolulu yesterday afternoon after a five weeks' voyage to the little atoll on the schooner Luka. He was accompanied by the voyage by Carl C. Engvoldsen, who was commissioned to investigate the resources of the island by the California capitalists.

That the California interests have an option on the island is known, but what the purchase price is to be has been kept secret. The intention is to build a modern fish cannery and develop the copra production of Palmyra, it is said.

While Judge Cooper was away it was reported that the Luka might have experienced severe weather and have foundered. Others who knew Judge Cooper's maritime knowledge counted the idea. The trip to Palmyra was made in 11 days and the return voyage, despite heavy contrary weather, much sooner than was believed possible.

The condition of Hans Isenberg, president of the Lulu Plantation and Kona Sugar Company of Kona, remains the same. Mr. Isenberg was taken to the Queen's Hospital Sunday night where he was operated upon.

MARKET CLOSED ON ADVICE OF FOOD COMMITTEE?

whereas at that time it was not taken care of.

"The territorial marketing division was established as a wholesale institution, and now that the necessity of a retail market is over I consider it the proper time to discontinue operation."

As to the argument heard since the shutting down of the retail department, that such has been a detriment to the poor people of the city, Mr. Longley says that the people who should really have taken advantage of it seldom did so. He believes that they numbered not more than 5 per cent of all the customers. Most of those who came drove up in automobiles or gave other evidence of prosperity.

The poorer classes prefer to go to the Chinese markets where they could bargain until they got a piece of meat 5 cents cheaper than the first price asked. At the territorial market this habit of attempting to get a price down was not tolerated and the price that was posted for the day had to stick.

PEDDLERS HELP TO KEEP FISH PRICES UP

That the fish peddlers in Honolulu are largely to blame for the constant shortage of fish at the local markets, is the opinion of J. F. Child, federal food commissioner for the territory.

Mr. Child points out that there are now about 75 peddlers in Honolulu who, in a way, keep up the price of fish at the markets. These men, he says, pay no license and are under no sanitary restrictions. They peddle the fish in wagons and in baskets and, in many instances, keep supplies of fish at home in ice boxes. Many of these peddlers, says Mr. Child, are making from $10 to $15 a day.

ITALY, SAN DOMINGO ASK ABOUT HAWAII'S BEAUTIES

That Hawaii's publicity work is attracting attention to the islands is evidenced by the flood of letters received at the local promotion committee rooms, letters from all parts of the world inquiring about the climate, advantages and delights of the Pacific Paradise. Fred J. Halton, secretary, received yesterday two letters, one from a tourist bureau in Rome, Italy, offering to cooperate with the local promotionists in distributing literature of Hawaii in Italy and one from a businessman in the Dominican republic, inquiring about Hawaii's beauties.

In the annual edition of the San Francisco Journal of Commerce appear two stories by the local boosters. Fred Halton's name is signed to a lengthy article entitled "Sugar and Sunshine," while Alexander Hume Ford has contributed a story on the Pan-Pacific movement. Both articles are prominently displayed.

FOOD DEALERS TAKE OUT U. S. LICENSES

About half the license blanks received here recently by Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, have been taken by territorial concerns handling and dealing in foodstuffs and which must be licensed in order to carry on business. It is believed that all of the blanks thus far applied for have been filled out and forwarded to the food administration in Washington.

J. F. Child, federal food administrator, has cabled to Washington asking for 50 license blanks to be used by bakeries in the territory, which also must be licensed.

BOARD TO SIFT CLUB'S CHARGES

The Manoa Improvement club's charges to the effect that there has been a stinting by the contractor in the amount of asphaltum poured on the roads in the Manoa district and that the amount was not up to specifications of the original contract will be given a final hearing tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, when the members of the roads committee of the board will meet the remaining members of the board informally and settle once and for all time the long-standing question.

F. R. Ritchie, contractor, has asked for the final payment of $3,333.63 on the project and the Manoa Improvement club has put in a protest assailing the fee held up until the charges are settled.

It was brought to the attention of the deputy city and county attorney, A. M. Cristy, this morning that the Manoa club charges appear to be based on the supposition that the contract specifically called for 2 1/2 gallons of asphaltum for every square yard, whereas the specifications under which the contractor worked called only for approximately 2 1/4 gallons per square yard. It is pointed out that under the specifications calling for only an approximate 2 1/4 gallons of asphaltum per square yard there could easily be a difference of 102 tons in the total laying without violation of the wording of the contract.

EXHIBIT DRAWS LARGE CROWD TO UNIVERSITY CLUB

Work of R. B. Burnham and Miss Juliet May Fraser is Shown

Not in several years has there been such a largely attended opening night for an exhibit as that last evening at the University club when a private view was given of the work of Roger Noble Burnham, sculptor, and Miss Juliet May Fraser, painter.

The governors' room of the club is hung with the oil paintings by Miss Fraser, and the medallions, photographs of sculpture and other work by Mr. Burnham. The private view, beginning at 8 o'clock, allowed the large number of guests to study the paintings and medallions at their leisure, and shortly before nine all adjourned to the lanai dining room of the club, where Mr. Burnham gave an interesting talk on sculpture, illustrating it with simple clay-modelling and casting in plaster.

More than a hundred took advantage of the private view last night and were well rewarded. Some of Miss Fraser's work has been seen previously, but in bulk it is more impressive. While it is uneven in quality, there is much of merit to commend in its lively coloring and its attempt to catch the spirit of island scenes rather than adhere too closely to photographic reality. Some of her smaller canvases show up with special excellence, particularly those dealing with Oriental life.

It is unnecessary to put the stamp of praise upon Mr. Burnham's sculpture, since that has been done by competent critics of the mainland and those abroad. The audience was prepared to find even in the photographs of his sculpture a real breadth of vision and power of craftsmanship, and was not disappointed. The beauty, purity and grace of his medallion and bas-relief work make them things of exquisite delight. These smaller pieces lend themselves with particular adaptability as portraiture media for depicting children, and some of his heads of youngsters are specially noteworthy.

His lecture—or rather his very informal talk—was filled with humor while giving the audience a clear and simple exposition of the fundamentals of sculpture and casting, dealing especially with the routine of processes. Mrs. Burnham assisted him in the display of materials and tools used in the modeling.

The general exhibition begins today and will continue to December 20. The hours are from 9 to 11 a. m., 2 to 4 and 7:30 to 10 p. m. daily.

SHRINERS' SACK OF FLOUR DUE IN BUTTE TODAY

[By Associated Press]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Revel Colt Gridley's famous sack of flour which was sold and resold hundreds of times during the civil war and thereby earned $275,000 for a rehabilitation camp for union soldiers, has a counterpart in a similar sack which was first raffled by the Shriners here and which is now making a tour of the country. The sack is due in Leavenworth, Kansas, today. On Dec. 7 it is to be sold in Butte, Montana, and on Dec. 14 in Helena, Montana. The total receipts of the accumulated sales are to go to the Red Cross.

The sack was started on its way in this city on May 26 of this year and has been "on the go" ever since. It was taken to Honolulu and sold there for $1036. It was also sold on the steamers which took it to and brought it back from the islands.

Gridley's sack, which was first started from Austin, Nevada, wore out dozens of ordinary flour sacks and three buckskin coverings before it reached the final purchaser. It has already been necessary to place the Shriners' sack in a lauhala or tough, mat-like covering. This covering was a gift of the Honolulu Shriners.

In every case when the sack is sold, auctioned or raffled off it is returned by the purchaser to the person selling it. Thus it is being kept in the hands of the Shriners, who pass it on from lodge to lodge. The sack will progress on its money-making way until there is nothing left of it or until the demands of the Shriners for this particular Red Cross fund have been satisfied.

INSURANCE FIRMS OF GERMANY QUIT HAWAII BUSINESS

Although the recent decision of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo requires that under the trading with the enemy law the business of all insurance companies incorporated in Germany is to be liquidated, with the exception of life insurance companies, it will have no effect on Hawaii in this regard.
Four companies which had been operating in Hawaii up to the time war was declared with Germany last April withdrew from the local field and did not renew their licenses. It is a coincidence that the date for renewal came in April, the same month that war was declared.
At the territorial treasurer's office today it was stated that some of these companies which failed to renew their licenses had been operating in the territory since 1903.
Premiums in Hawaii during the year which ended on December 31, 1916, from these four German companies amounted to approximately $65,000, as follows:
Allianz-Berlin (marine), $55,670.10.
Magdeburg German (fire), $785.10.
Prussian National (fire), Stettin, Germany, $1030.30.
Hamburg-Bremen (fire), Hamburg, Germany, $6784.42.

Pineapple Line Links Hawaii to Front In France

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—There is a thin, constantly moving line of pineapples—some what broken, of course, stretched from the heart of the Hawaiian Islands to the fighting men in France, shipping men here declare. The line will be maintained until Hawaii's bumper crop of pineapples has been disposed of.
The line is made up of a string of boats bringing the pineapples here, countless freight trains conveying them across the country, another string of boats taking them across the submarine-studded Atlantic, and lines of trains and motor conveyances rushing them to the front.
On a recent day here 35,000 cases of canned pineapples were loaded on trains here for shipment east. Piers here are loaded high and shipments are constantly arriving and departing.

87,000 POUNDS POWDER STORED

In view of yesterday's disaster to the city of Halifax from an explosion of munitions, the following figures were given out today by the governor from the regular report on explosives stored in the territorial powder magazines are of interest.
On December 1 the following explosives were stored in the Honolulu magazine:
Giant powder, 67,300 pounds; black blasting powder, 15,700 pounds; rice bird powder, 4283 pounds.
On December 6 the following explosives were stored in the Hilo magazine:
Dynamite, 5600 pounds; black powder, 5000 pounds.
Distribution to users is made in small quantities. It is territorial law that large quantities of explosives owned by private firms or individuals must be stored in the government magazines.

CHIROPRACTOR IS UNDER SCRUTINY

"On the ground that he is practicing medicine without a license," a local chiropractor is to be investigated this afternoon by the territorial grand jury, according to an announcement made by City Attorney A. M. Brown, who is to present the case.
Several persons have been summoned to appear as witnesses, including Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, president, and other officials of the Board of Health. According to Attorney Brown, the charge against the local chiropractor was preferred by the Board of Health. It being alleged he is "practicing medicine" without having taken the examinations required of medical men before they may secure a license to do business in the territory.

A bill providing for the licensing of chiropractors without their having taken the examinations required of medical men was introduced in the house in the last legislature but failed. According to City Attorney Brown this is the only case of its kind which has been called to the attention of the city attorney's office or the grand jury.

TRUSTEES ACT TODAY ON ROEHL RESIGNATION

A special meeting of the trustees of the Queen's hospital is being held this afternoon to consider the resignation of Supt. Werner Roehl, who gave notice of his intention to sever his connection with the institution following the announcement of a special committee of life members that it would recommend an investigation of the "German atmosphere" at the hospital.
Roehl's resignation followed closely upon his exonerated by the special committee from charges preferred by Mrs. William Moe, formerly Miss Agnes Collins, who was superintendent of nurses, that the hospital has discriminated against the United States uniform and that it had furnished meals to officers and men from the Geier.

It is reported that Roehl has requested that his resignation be accepted, and a trustee said today that this course will probably be followed. The trustees this afternoon may also consider a successor to Roehl.

Billie Burke and her wonderful gowns in the opening scenes of the serial, "Gloria's Romance," have won quick approval from Honolulu theater-goers and the production, which is only a part of the current bill at the Liberty theater, bids fair to establish a record.

The story is quick moving in its developments, and aside from the lavish costuming and elaborate settings which make it notable the picture should win popularity on its merits as a story alone. Developments of the narrative will continue to form parts of week-end programs at the Liberty for some weeks.

THRILLING SCENE
IN 'THE BARRIER'

Anyone who likes plenty of action and thrills in a "movie" will find ample appeal to them in Rex Beach's novel "The Barrier," now appearing on the Bijou screen. This virile drama abounds with stirring scenes of dramatic interest that make the blood tingle with admiration of those hardy men who conquered the snows and rigors of the far North and of whose adventures Beach is a faithful chronicler.

In "The Barrier" two of those terrible man-to-man encounters, whose description from the pen of Beach have become classic, are staged. John Gale who has secreted himself and his foster daughter in Alaska outside the pale of the law is discovered by the rival who ruined his life years before in the states. It means life or death for one or the other and John Gale precipitates the fight, man to man, in the darkness of his rival's cabin, hand to hand, knife against gun. Lamps and tables are overturned, gun flashes penetrate the darkness at regular intervals, the shadowy forms are seen in the semi-darkness, doubling to and fro, the fight comes to an abrupt end with the entrance of Lieut. Burrell, the curtain is lifted and a ghastly sight is revealed—Dan Bennett, robber, gambler and murderer has at last paid the penalty for his misdeeds.

FOOTLIGHTS TO PLAY NEXT WEEK

Seats went on sale today at Lani-akea for the two evenings of next week when the Footlights will present three plays. Friday and Saturday of next week are the dates. The three short plays, one of which is by Mrs. H. P.
Agree of this city, will be given each night.

DOMESTIC DRAMA
ON HAWAII BILL

It is a pathetic tale that is unfolded in the scenes that make up the screen story, "The House of Tears," which is the main attraction of the program at the Hawaii theater. It is a narrative of every-day life that is told in a human way and pictures in a telling manner the penalty a wife pays when she allows herself to be won away from husband and her little daughter.

The parts of the erring wife and of the daughter, who grows to womanhood in the course of the story, are both played by Emily Stevens, who has won a secure place for herself in former productions seen here. Miss Stevens is admirably supported by Henri Bergman, famed as an actor of emotional roles. The settings and costuming of the production are notable and the camera work is of a high order.

"Eternal Vigilance"

Before the sweeping flames had died down in stricken Halifax, before the crash of shattered building had gone to silence, there were well-founded reports of a German plot.

Today's Associated Press despatches indicate that a supposedly neutral vessel may have been used as the instrument for the diabolic scheme which has cost perhaps two thousand lives and devastated a flourishing city.

The lesson of Halifax is that no American city is safe without ceaseless vigilance. No American city is safe unless the hitherto uncorralled and almost unwatched suspects are put where they can do no harm. Halifax, as is well-known, is the point of concentration and departure for tremendous amounts of supplies and tremendous numbers of men for the war-zone. There is no military secret about this, though the Canadian and American press publishes no details. But Germany and German spies know quite as well as most others what is happening in Halifax, and could conceive of no greater coup than such terrific blow as has been struck now upon the Nova Scotian port.

Any American who is skeptical of the widespread character and absolute lack of scruple of the German plots ought to read in the December World's Work an article by French Strother about John R. Rathom's work in exposing German machinations in the United States and Canada.

Most readers of the Star-Bulletin are familiar with the fact that Rathom and his newspaper, the Providence, Rhode Island, Journal, bared the majority of the von Bernstorff-von Papen-Bopp stuff. The Journal, in fact, made possible the spectacular arrests and trials which have followed.

And the Journal publishes every day at the head of its editorial column the following warning to Americans:

Every German or Austrian in the United States, unless known by years of association to be absolutely loyal, should be treated as a potential spy. Keep your eyes and ears open. Whenever any suspicious act or disloyal word comes to your notice, communicate at once with the bureau of investigation of the department of justice.

We are at war with the most merciless and inhuman nation in the world. Hundreds of thousands of its people in this country want to see America humiliated and beaten to her knees, and they are doing and will do, everything in their power to bring this about.

Take nothing for granted. Energy and alertness in this direction may save the life of your son, or husband, or your brother.

This warning is just as timely in Hawaii as in Rhode Island.

Privileged to Serve

Three well-known young Honolulu businessmen have been privileged to get actively into Uncle Sam's service for the purpose of winning the war.

Captains Percy Swift, T. M. Church and James T. Phillips go into the quartermaster reserve corps at a time when the community and the nation are just beginning to realize the widespread demands that war is making not merely on the fabric of business but on those who conduct that business. Presumably within a short time other businessmen of this city will be asked to drop their private affairs to take up Uncle Sam's service.

The officers' reserve corps built up here under Major C. S. Lincoln and with the hearty support of the Hawaiian department contains a large percentage of Honolulu's business executives, particularly among the younger men. As the exigencies of war call from Hawaii regular army officers whose experience is needed in mainland camps or in the war zone, the reserve developed here will supply men who need only familiarity with routine and military procedure to step into the vacant places. The work done during the last two years in developing the officers' reserve is beginning to show itself.

Why $45,000 Is Needed

The $45,000 budget which the Y. W. C. A. hopes to raise next week will be distributed as follows: $20,000 will be used for the regular local work for the year 1918.

$10,000 will be used for work in this city demanded by the pressure of war.

$15,000 will be applied to the national four million dollar fund for work among American nurses in France and among the girls and women in the United States in industrial and training camp centers.

The use of the $10,000 in Honolulu for war work will be as follows:

Half of this sum will be used to supply three new workers for the special demands made upon the association by the war.

Half will be used either to build a small addition to the present building, or to establish a few extension centers for the period of particular stress.

No pains are being spared by the government to keep safe the moral life of our boys.

The Y. W. C. A. has been requested by federal authorities to do its best to safeguard our girls. The local association proposes to do this by preventive, constructive means, by supplying girls with a practical outlet for their patriotic zeal, by keeping them to the standards that will "make democracy safe for the world."

Facts brought out at the San Francisco "India conspiracy" trial clear up the ownership of the vessels Maverick and the Annie Larsen. Some published reports previously have mentioned the firm of Charles Nelson company of San Francisco, but it is proved that this was a mistake, probably arising from the fact that the captain of the Maverick was named Nelson and was said to be a part-owner in the vessel. The Charles Nelson company is well-known to Hawaii businessmen, who are aware of its standing and reputation, and the refutation of the published reports connecting the firm in any way with the notorious Maverick or Annie Larsen is gratifying.

The Star-Bulletin has been asked to collect at once current magazines to be used by soldiers leaving Hawaii. In this patriotic cause it is hoped the public will join. The magazines must be secured tomorrow. If possible, bring your contributions to the Star-Bulletin office. If this is not possible, phone the Star-Bulletin, 4911, give your address to Harry S. Hayward, and arrangements will be made to send and get your magazines. Tomorrow morning will be the best time to make such collections.

The United States is going to the relief of a stricken city of the Dominion of Canada at top speed. City after city will send relief trains. It would have been done in time of peace, and in time of war it will be done with all the more energy and sympathy. The two countries are bound by many close ties, and none closer than that of a common patriotic cause.

Anonymous claims of patriotism do not ring true. No man or woman who has something to say on behalf of his country ought to be ashamed to face the public.

German air raids on London continue—and every raid makes the Englishman a little more determined to "see it through."

That imports embargo reminds us of the "off again, on-again" incident.

Even in the Holy Land the Germans can't put over their Holy War.

What have you done this day to help win the war?

Have you a Food Pledge card in your home?

In conclusion, I hope that Mr. W. H. Soper will not take this letter for a "whine." I'm not the "whining" kind and I do not spring from a "whining" race. I rather think that the whiners are those who have been laboring so earnestly to wind this net of falsehood and calumny around me, but I'll unwind it, never fear. I recognize that some have got a good start ahead of me and it may be mighty hard work to catch up, but "I'm on my way" and I will get there eventually. I am, sir, Yours faithfully, JACK D. CLEARY.

PRICE REDUCTIONS.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin: Sir: In a newspaper from a town in one of the Pacific coast states I find an advertisement that reads thus: "Complying with the request of the food administration we have reduced our prices on canned corn. Sportsman corn, 10 cents per can; Ute Malt corn, 2 for 25 cents. . . . You may look for further reductions at this store from time to time." If any of our local stores made such a statement as that, about half of us would drop dead. If canned corn, of a standard brand, can be sold in a town 500 miles from San Francisco for 10 cents a can, why are we here compelled to pay 20 cents and 25 cents for the same thing? EQUALITY.

The main idea is to advertise your goods so the public wants them—then to see that they get them the way they want them when they want them.

NAVY LEAGUE HOLDS LAST MEETING; IS MERGED WITH ALLIED WAR RELIEF

Not Once is Name of Daniels Mentioned During Course of Business Session

Not once was the name of the honorable secretary of navy mentioned at the meeting of the Women's Navy League held yesterday afternoon in the library of Hawaii, although the assembly hall was comfortably filled with members of the League, and much business was handled. It was the league's last meeting too, for hereafter, although more work than ever will be done by the members, it will be done under the name of the Allied War Relief Society, the Women's Navy League having lost its identity in Honolulu.

"We decided upon this step at a meeting of the executive committee a few days ago," said Mrs. William L. Whitney, who presided at yesterday's meeting. "It seemed a division of effort to continue the two organizations here, when the same women were doing the same work for both, so we have amalgamated the two, and our work henceforth will all be in the name of the Allied War Relief Society. We had no funds to turn over. There were no dues for membership in the league, and the $50 or so contributed to us was spent for various equipment for Red Cross classes. We did a good work in the name of the league, and now we shall all concentrate our efforts in the same work in the name of the Allied War Relief."

Some of the work done by the Women's Navy League since the Hawaii branch was organized about two years ago has passed into history, and very few people in thinking of it realize that it was started by these women. Summed up, all the Red Cross classes that have been held all over the Territory to prepare women for service at home and at the battlefield had their inception at a meeting of the Women's Navy League held in the old opera house the tenth of last February. At that meeting cards were distributed outlining the work that could be done by women, such as the making of surgical dressings, knitting, house sewing of Red Cross garments, first aid, elementary hygiene, semaphore and signal corps study, telegraphy, clerical work, poultry raising and intensive farming. Each recipient of one of these cards was asked to check off whatever subject most appealed to her. Three hundred and fifty cards were signed and returned.

Out of this 350 women 250 joined the classes in first aid, of which Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder was chairman. Mrs. Wilder's report yesterday showed that 178 of the 250 had successfully passed their first aid certificates from Washington. One class in advanced first aid contained 11 students, all of whom passed, and received a bronze medal from Washington. Mrs. Wilder's report further showed that four classes in elementary hygiene had a combined membership of 69, 29 of whom have been certificated, and 20 of whom are still studying, and will shortly be up for examination.

"Summing up," said Mrs. Wilder, "321 women have received instruction in first aid and elementary hygiene and home care of the sick under the auspices of the Hawaii Chapter of the Navy League." Miss Nellie L. Moore, chairman of the wireless telegraphy classes, reported that three classes in this branch of woman's service had been organized, and that the first, a class of 11, had finished its course, and one member had taken the final examination. "Two classes in wireless telegraphy are being held twice a week in the library," said Miss Moore, "and one of them is going on just now. All the pupils are doing well, many of them having already reached the stage where they can easily take 17 words a minute, the requirement for a certificate being 20 words a minute. All these students are also studying the technical points of the work, learning about the instruments, how to manage them, et cetera, and they are all very much in earnest. Mr. Basil Penn, who has had charge of all the classes, is a most excellent instructor, and holds the interest of all the members in the work."

The classes in intensive gardening and in poultry raising, of which Mrs. Richard Ivers was chairman, have done most excellent work through the College of Hawaii. About 50 women took these two courses. Two classes of 10 members each in semaphore and signal corps work, one in April and one in June under Corporal Blackwood of Fort De Russy, who was selected by Major Carpenter as instructor, did most excellent work and turned out one expert—Miss Lani Hutchinson. The chairman of these classes, Miss Mary K. Brown, said that all the members could qualify as experts if they would keep up their practice.

Mrs. Mary L. Macfarlane, chairman of the classes in motor mechanics, mentioned in her report that "Through the courtesy of Mr. von Hamm, who allowed one of his head mechanics, Mr. T. Duggan, to conduct the course, a class of 14 learned a great deal about the mechanics of motor cars." Mrs. Macfarlane made reference to Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, for the use of her garage, and to Mrs. George R. Carter for the use of her garage and grounds for the classes.

The knitting classes, with Mrs. King as directress, have spread all over the city, until now nearly every woman in town who didn't know how before has learned to knit, or is engaged in learning. "Only the classes in simple cooking failed to interest," said Mrs. Whitney and that was because everybody who came to the classes already knew how to do simple cooking.

"On the whole, we are satisfied with the work done by the league, and we are glad, now, to amalgamate with the Allied War Relief society—and just keep right on working."

FORT SHAFTER NOTES

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

Major Robert M. Lyon and Captain Lester Baker have been designated to take two of the classes in French instruction at the post. The class, originally taught by Countess D'Artigue, has grown to such proportions that she was unable to handle it in its entirety, so has arranged for these officers to assist her.

Major Frederick Hadra and his family have moved down into No. 3 on the main point and the house which they vacated has been turned into bachelor quarters to accommodate the new officers who have been sent to the post. The house which Major Hadra has taken was formerly occupied by Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Daniel E. Gienty.

Major Dorst of the engineer reserve corps has moved into quarters in the bachelor building on the main post, having taken the quarters formerly occupied by Lieutenant Charles A. McGarrigle.

PERSONALITIES

CHESTER A. DOYLE, Japanese interpreter in circuit court, is up and about again after being confined to his home with an attack of rheumatism.

JAMES R. PIERCE, bailiff in the United States court, has received notification from Washington that he has been accepted as a member of the U. S. Public Service Reserve.

SYDNEY A. LEVEY, a Honolulu boy, has been called to duty in the quartermaster corps, and has been sent to Camp Fremont, Menlo Park, Cal., and is stationed with Company 2, Headquarters, M. C. After two or three months' extensive training, and passing all examinations, it is expected he will be commissioned and assigned a command.

MORE WOMEN WANTED FOR RED CROSS WORK

More women are urged to attend the Tuesday and Friday afternoon sessions of the Red Cross workers, who are engaged in making surgical and hospital bandages in the throne room. The attendance this morning was curtailed to a large extent by the food pledge workers being absent, but the ladies in charge at the throne room declare that the attendance Tuesday and Friday afternoons is negligible. Some time ago the throne room was kept open all day Tuesday and Friday in order to allow a large number of women to aid in the work, but they have apparently not taken advantage of the extra hours.

A large number of school girls from McKinley high school accompanied by teachers are generally in attendance on Friday afternoons, and the Red Cross officials would like to have a large representation from Punahou and the College of Hawaii. McKinley high school is thus far the only school which has sent an official representation to the throne room.

Cpl. John A. Baird, 9th Company, Fort De Russy, was injured yesterday afternoon while engaged in football practice and was rushed to the department hospital by ambulance. Word received today from the hospital states that he is recovering nicely.

AMERICA WATCHES HUN TRADE MOVES

Federal secret service men and intelligence officers are not watching the German propaganda, or military men scrutinizing the German military moves any closer than the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce is studying the attempts of the German traders to reorganize their "after the war" trade market. Since the war has eliminated the Germans from the world's trade, the United States commerce experts have been studying the German business methods, and are keeping a watchful eye on the moves of the Central Empire to regain the good will and prestige they held before the war.

Secretary Redfield, of the department of commerce, advises the American businessmen not to imitate the German theories of trade, but to build up a formidable organization to combat the attempts of the enemy after hostilities have ceased. In order to keep American business in touch with the disclosures of the federal trade experts, bulletins will be issued from time to time by the bureau. The demand for these bulletins shows that the American traders are making after-war preparations of their own.

Letters to the Editor

JACK D. CLEARY ANSWERS.

Honolulu, T. H., Dec. 5, 1917. Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Sir: In a letter appearing in this evening's Star-Bulletin, Mr. W. H. Soper sees fit to accuse me of treason to the United States, basing his accusations, however, on hearsay. He admits that he is "not acquainted with the man," but says "he has heard," etc. Will Mr. W. H. Soper kindly give the names of his informants, so that I may be provided with evidence enough to bring my accusers before the proper authorities in order to vindicate my character?

This is but fair, and I earnestly hope that Mr. Soper will avail himself of this opportunity to have his informants justify their statements. Mr. Soper also says that he wrote his letter "without heat," it sounded red hot to me, and if it was "without heat," I'd hate to hear from him when he was "hot."

The gentleman said, "He claims to have been trying to do for Ireland what the patriot fathers did for America." I sir, made no such claim. What I did say was, "I had every right to sympathize with the men who were trying," etc., and I wish that Mr. Soper would kindly not misquote me on such a vital particular as this. It seems as if those who are responsible for all this useless and senseless campaigning, which I really believe started against me during May of last year, were not content with the measure of success they have achieved, but will continue to hound me until they have driven my back to the wall. Well, Mr. Editor, every man expects a fair deal in this country and I hope that those interested will reserve their judgment until we see whether or not these character-smithers will charge me directly over their own names and give me the chance of fair play.

I deny that I am disloyal to the country of my adoption. I deny it emphatically and I deny the right of any Tom, Dick, or Harry, to question it, and if every American citizen of Irish blood, who believed in 1916 that an Irish republic would be beneficial to that nation, were to be accused of disloyalty to America in December, 1917, then millions of your "best and truest" are "under the ban." But, sir, it is only in a few isolated places here and there that some marked Irishman is victimized by men whose actions, tending towards furthering race hatred and distrust, lead one to question their loyalty. It is a conceded fact that "he who fosters dissension menaces the peace." In times like these it is not good form to stir up race hatred, rather should we "cry it down."

I wish to state here that I regret very much if my attitude of last year injured the business of my late employers, and I sincerely hope that those people who made them suffer on my account will now rally back to the "Old House."

I did not expect that very many people would be found to boycott my employers just because they did not agree with my opinion, regarding a small nation, expressed more than a year

Two Football Games Will Be Staged In City on Saturday

Melim's Town Team Will Play 1st Infantry at Alexander Field at 2:15—Y. M. C. A. and Fort Kamehameha Will Clash at Moiliili Field at 3 o'clock—Fort Kamehameha Band Will Play During Game—Chance to Compare Lewis and Davis

Two football games will be staged in Honolulu on Saturday afternoon. At 2:15 Harry Melim's Town Team will meet the 1st Infantry at Alexander field and at 3 o'clock the Y. M. C. A. team will meet the Fort Kamehameha squad at Moiliili field.

It is unfortunate that the two games should have been scheduled for this time, as there will be little opportunity for the fans to witness both contests. Both should prove to be good games and it will be up to the follower of football to take his choice.

The Y. M. C. A. Fort Kam clash promises to bring out a real battle in more than one way. These two teams are out for the title, and the football followers will have an opportunity to decide on the merits of Davis and Lewis. Both men are fast and there promises to be some real open field play in this game.

The Y. M. C. A. have been making every effort to make up for their poor showing in the last game, and will endeavor to score first. In Whitcomb and von Holt the Y has two strong linemen, and these men are the only ones feared by the Fort Kam squad.

Coach Meyer believes that he has a better back field than the Y and he isn't stretching things by saying so either as Lewis, McVey, Stoddard and Irwin are real players, and these men have received the best of coaching. Of course the Y. M. C. A. team will be a slight favorite, but it would not be surprising if the visitors spilled the dope.

Schuman's Town Team will not play the 1st Infantry on Sunday. Seven of his men are out for the present, and several, perhaps for the season.

But instead, Melim's invincible eleven will buck the cracker-jack eleven from Castner on Alexander field at 2:15 tomorrow afternoon. Although inferior in weight, the smaller Townies make up the deficiency in their speed and teamwork.

Clifford Melim is still out with a bad shoulder, and in all probability will not play tomorrow. His speed enabled him to circle every end man encountered so far, and his dashing runs around the ends will be missed by his teammates. Nevertheless, there are Hawkins and "Peanuts" Leal to rely upon, and should they play up to form, there is no doubt the infantry aggregation will have their hands full in stopping this pair.

"Bill" Ross has been out for the last few nights and has taken special interest in Gilliland and "Pat" O'Sullivan, guard and tackle. Gilliland is a little green in the game yet, but his strength and "Pat's" weight will be a stone wall for the backs of the infantry to come through.

Roghan, playing full back for the Infantry Team, is expected to stand out as the individual star. Lieutenant Hamble, however, has his expectations in Shoemaker, Spooner, Pemberton, Egan, Crooks and Mutch, who played spectacular football in the 32nd game on Thanksgiving day.

Over the wire last night the infantry coach said that he felt sorry for Melim's little team, as their string of victories was coming to an end. The plucky little captain, however, replied that his bunch was from Missouri.

In all probability, Jackson of the Y. M. C. A. will referee the game, having officiated most satisfactorily in his past duties and especially on Turkey day at Schofield.

M'KINLEY OUT TO WIN TITLE IN BASKETBALL

High School Players Stage Interclass Contests; Many New Stars in Game This Year

Basketball is on at McKinley High school. The practise season commenced with a turnout of over a score who responded to the call of Captain McTaggart. McTaggart is unable to play early in the season on account of a football injury to his knee, but he is confident of turning out a squad that will give St. Louis a good run for their money, and his motto is "Second place this year, but the championship next year." In other words, McKinley is out for blood, and if it is not spilled this season, she will be ready for the Saints another year. It is not to be denied that the St. Louis boys have everything their own way in basketball, if in nothing else, and McKinley cannot hope to take a fall out of them with the green material she has on her hands.

Johnny Thompson, Cooper and McTaggart were on last year's squad, but none of them figured in the scoring to a great extent, being occupied with the guarding end of basketball. They will be towers of strength in cutting off shots at the basket, and the McKinley coach is slapping himself on the back at this good start. Some of the other men have played on "Y" teams, and one man hails from Hilo boarding school, which has one of the best fives on the Big Island. This man, Wikander, was kept out of football all season on account of a cracked shoulder blade, but he is back in harness again and will try to out one of the trio of veterans from his guard position.

Practise Monday
The first practise was held on Monday, but examinations have cut into further training, and the next practise will be held this coming Monday. For the week before vacation, interclass games will give the coach a line on his material, beginning Tuesday. The Seniors and Freshmen will mix on Tuesday, and the Sophomores and Juniors on Wednesday. This will bring out the cream of the entering class, including Jones, the football find of the season, and Holt, who played a hard game on the Midgets at center. He will make a good man at the same position on the basketball quintet for the Frosh. For the Seniors, Thompson and Cooper will star. Wednesday afternoon the Sophomores and Juniors will battle for the right to play the winners of the Frosh-Senior game. There is supposed to be a wealth of material in the two middle classes. This game will show just how verdant or veteran it is.

Brawn vs. ?
The championship struggle will be staged Thursday at 2:30, when the winners of the two previous games will decide who has the right to the interclass championship. But the big game of the week will come on the following afternoon. This will be a conflict of brawn against brain, for the Seniors will attempt to make the Faculty look foolish, and the pedagogues will try to outwit the fourth year men. It is reported that Cummins of the Faculty team has figured it all out that the chances of the seniors add up to about naught, and MacCaughy has discovered a parable for the ball to follow that never fails to put it in the basket. Greenly has been at work on the arm action necessary to tip off the ball at center, and says that he can reach several inches higher than any of the Seniors can jump. Be that as it may, Joseph, the janitor of the school, has them all guessing, and is reported to have been indulging in night practise at "bomb throwing with the basket as a target. He will be used on the faculty team, as there is a shortage of men at the high school. Brier will also play, paring off with MacCaughy at the forward position.

There will be no admission charged at this game, and a fund is being contemplated to hire mourners for the event. The mourners will also take care of the corpses of the Seniors at the struggle. A high class of ball is assured, the only question being whether it is to be basketball or football. In any case, it will be bloody.

MORE CAMOUFLAGE
We have had the spit ball, emery ball, shine ball and various other weird deliveries, but when the soldiers who are playing the national game behind the trenches return we may expect something new. They are likely to bring back with them the camouflage ball.

The pitcher will provide himself with a glove in which are inserted watercolor paints, and as soon as the new sphere is tossed out he will color it to resemble the background. This will render it invisible to the batter. Wilbur Rogan already throws the camouflage ball, without the aid of coloring matter.

CHANGE IN A. A. U. OUGHT TO BRING BEST OF RESULTS
Hughes Believes New President of National A. A. U. Will Put New Life Into Urjion

If Charles A. Dean of the Illinois Athletic Club of Chicago, the new president of the A. A. U., goes through with his plans, a lot of deadwood will be knocked out of that organization and it will cease to be the laughing stock of athletes and sport writers generally, writes Ed Hughes in the San Francisco Chronicle. Keenly alive to the big problems of the present, President Dean is going to tackle athletics in the big army training camps for a starter, and to do a good job of it he will first rip up a lot of red tape and toss it into the waste basket.

President Dean rightly says the old A. A. U. must crawl out of its shell of conservatism and spirit of spoil sport and get busy with big things. The biggest things in the athletic line right now are the army camps, and he proposes to raise money and encourage athletic activity for the good of the boys who are training to go to the front. Although the A. A. U. has officially nothing to do with football, the gridiron games are big money makers, and the money thus raised can be used for good purpose in buying athletic equipment for the men.

In the past there have been a lot of post-humous fellows connected with the A. A. U. who were afraid some lily-white amateur would get soiled if he breathed the same air as a professional, and if President Dean has his way men of this caliber will be asked to retire rapidly to the rear. He says that no A. A. U. rules will tie down athletics among the soldiers and sailors. It will be a free for all with no questions asked about amateur standing or fees demanded. If an amateur should find himself opposed to a professional he will not be hindered before a committee of critics, many of whom are only rocking-chair athletes and whose waist lines show that they are not obeying the advice of Hoover. The soldier or sailor who takes part in any sort of a bout or game will be as immaculately white as the finish as he was at the start, so far as the A. A. U. is concerned. President Dean says the new policy of the A. A. U. will be to encourage the boys in training to indulge in boxing, wrestling, baseball, football and all sorts of sports, and no inquiries will be made as to the athletic past of the participant.

One man on this coast, who has been actively connected with the A. A. U. for years, is so narrow between the eyes that he crosses the street rather than meet a professional baseball player. He will not attend the theater, for the actors are professionals. He leads a lonesome life, but he is happy in the thought that he is chemically pure. This man never was an athlete; he never will be an athlete; he does not know a base hit from a bass viol, or a high jump from a slide to second, yet for years he has been messing around making young fellows unhappy and thinking he was doing a great work for amateur athletics. His kind will not even have seats on the sidelines after President Dean gets into full swing and finds out about them.

HEAD SPINNERS READY FOR BIG BOUT SATURDAY

Two Preliminary Events Will Precede Main Event Between Leo Poaha and Espevedt

Followers of the mat game will have an opportunity to witness some real bouts at the Skating Rink on Saturday evening when the program which is now being arranged by James Schneider is staged. Louis Espevedt and Leo Poaha, the latter the champion of the police force, will meet in the main event.

Espevedt has a number of friends at Fort Ruger who are confident that the army head spinner will be able to secure the necessary falls. There has been much rivalry between the army and the police since this match was announced, and a large delegation of fans are expected to be on hand for this bout.

Schneider has made arrangements for the preliminary events which will bring out Kamimono and Nishiyama two well known Japanese matmen. In addition Charles Harroun of Fort Ruger and George Clement of Fort Schofield will meet. The big show will begin at 7 o'clock and special arrangements have been made to seat a large crowd.

Informal Games Receive Notice

Since Harvard and Yale abandoned regular football schedules and placed the Harvard Informal and Yale Informal teams in the field many Eastern writers have had strange comments on the games. One of these follows:

First Period
Full Back Goop took his boots off and kicked the football with his bare feet. It was delightfully informal. Right Tackle Gubblix, who was attired in negligee, grabbed the kick and six husky strangers took advantage of the informality and climbed on his face without an introduction. Gubblix protested to the umpire but withdrew his squeak when that official assured him that our best people were doing that this season.

Second Period
Harvard got the ball by kicking the opposing quarter back in the chins without first sending in their cards. The Harvard back field was informally occupied in decollete. Tackle Sapp got his nose between Center Jabob's teeth and refused to let go. It was a most informal hold and delightfully chic.

Third Period
Yale informally opened this period by tackling the runner with bale hooks and pitchforks. The Harvard retaliated informally by grabbing the Yale backs by the ears. The humor was spontaneous and informal. A delightful and loose time was had by all.

Fourth Period
After calling each other a few informal names the two teams held an impromptu skull-busting tournament in midfield. A few legs were fractured informally and three or four dozen arms were torn off without the formality of steel-encased invitation cards being sent out. While leaving the reception the visiting eleven bounced a down fist off the host's dome in appreciation of his hospitality. There will be another informal game as soon as the teams escape from the hospital.

PACIFIC CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HELP TRADE, PLAN

[By Associated Press] SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 26.—A further cementing of trade relations between China, Japan and the United States through the formation of a Pan-Pacific Chamber of Commerce has been proposed here. Francis B. Loomis, former assistant secretary of state, is one of the leaders of the movement. The details of the project are to be presented to Secretary of State Lansing and other high Washington officials. It is proposed, through the chamber, to secure greater shipping facilities for the movement of goods between Oriental and Occidental ports. The basic plans for the Pan-Pacific movement were suggested by the Japanese Financial Mission now visiting this country. It is understood that it has the backing of Japanese and Chinese financiers, and would be greatly aided by the official sanction of the United States government. The trade expansion desired would affect Honolulu and practically all of the Pacific and Chinese, Japanese and other Oriental ports.

AVERY'S SUCCESS PLEASES COAST

Coast newspapers comment favorably on the promotion of W. H. Avery to the position of advisor to the Asano syndicate. Mr. Avery is now a visitor in Honolulu and is supposed to be here on business connected with the Toyo Kisen Kaisha line. For many years he was the Pacific coast representative of the company and worked his way up to his present position through all the stages of freight clerk, store keeper and purser.

When S. Asano planned the Toyo Kisen Kaisha he took Mr. Avery from the old Pacific Mail Steamship Co. and placed him in charge of the San Francisco office.

Under Avery's guidance, the Toyo Kisen Kaisha grew rapidly and is one of the greatest passenger companies in the world. From one vessel, under Avery's management, the company fleet expanded to the thirteen great carriers now flying the Asano house flag. The success in the transportation business necessitated the building of a large shipbuilding plant by the Asano interests at Tsuromi, Japan, where ships can be turned out in a few months. A steel plant adjoins the shipyard. In all the developments of the company Avery had a leading part and it is in recognition of his ability that the Asanos have relieved him of office detail in order to give him more time for big problems.

STEAMER MARIPOSA PROVES TOTAL LOSS

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 27.—With the Mariposa a total loss, the steamer Salvor, which was despatched to the scene of the wreck in the hope that she might be able to save the ship, is returning from the north to Victoria. She left the scene of the wreck yesterday. Though she stood by several days the Salvor was never able to approach sufficiently close to get a line aboard the Mariposa. The wind blew a gale and heavy seas were running all the time she was in the vicinity of the wreck. The forward half of the Mariposa is still holding on the Strait Island reef and in that hold of the vessel there were stored several hundred tons of valuable copper ore. The after half of the vessel, carrying the bulk of the ship's ore shipment, dropped into the sea and sank. Though the forward reach of the ship is still holding fast on the reef it is doubtful, marine men think, if the ore cargo can be removed. The big hull piece is carried off or broken up.

HARBOR NOTES

A. B. Denniston, formerly assistant general passenger agent of the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Co., who arrived here on the President, is now in charge of the railroad and steamship traffic business for Fred Waldron. He took up his new duties there yesterday and is rapidly familiarizing himself with island conditions. Mr. Denniston is declared to be an expert in the transportation business.

Because they were nearly half an hour later than the hour set for the closing of the Honolulu harbor during the war, a sampa fishing party had to run up a distress flag on last Sunday evening to gain entrance. This was done by turning an American flag upside down, after which about 20 soldiers from Fort Armstrong boarded the sampa. As there were a number of women in the fishing party the sampa was permitted to anchor at the fort and the members of the fishing party permitted to go to their homes.

WHAT THE WAR MEANS TO US

(Contributed by EMERSON HOUGH to the National Security League's campaign of Patriotism Through Education.)

The victory of Germany in this war—and she has won the war and accomplished her dream of a German Mittel Europa if her peace terms be admitted—means that Germany will have carried out the program of war which she had fully prepared before she was "forced" to begin the war. It means that war itself is to justify everything for every nation in the future, provided that war of however unscrupulous sort shall prove successful. It means that efficiency, no matter how ruthless, is to be the touchstone of human success hereafter; that dishonesty is to be the best policy.

"GETS-IT," 2 DROPS. CORNS PEEL OFF!

For 25 Cents Peel Off 25 Corns. "Gets-It," the greatest corn discovery of any age, makes joy-walkers out of corn-sufferers. It makes you feel like the Statue of Liberty. Buy a "liberty" bottle of "Gets-It!"

"It Will Come Off in One Complete Piece!"

Right now—free yourself at once from all corn misery. It will peel off painlessly, in one complete piece, any corn, old or young, hard or soft, or between the toes, any callus, or any corn that has resisted everything else you ever used. Off it comes like magic. Guaranteed.

All you need is 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It," that's all. "Gets-It" is the only safe way in the world to treat a corn or callus. It's the sure way—the way that never fails. It is tried and true—used by millions. Never irritates the flesh or makes the toe sore. It always works; peels-corn-off-like-banana-skin. 25c a bottle is all you need pay for "Gets-It" at any drug store, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS DISFRANCHISED BY VOTE OF COMMONS

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.) LONDON, Eng., Dec. 6.—Those who are too conscientious to fight the battles of their country in time of need are unworthy of the right of suffrage and so the house of commons decided yesterday when it was determined by that body to disfranchise all who refuse to serve their country in the conduct of the war and give as an excuse that they have conscientious scruples against war and the causing of bloodshed.

The decision reached by the commons provides for the disfranchisement of persons of this class for the period of the war and for five years after the war ends.

DRAFT SYSTEM TO BE CONTINUED, SAYS DENT

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Wireless.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—No likelihood of any action by congress at this session of the question of determining upon a fixed policy for universal military service is seen by Representative Dent, chairman of the house committee on military affairs. Hearings on the new army appropriations are scheduled to begin today before the house committee on military affairs. In this connection the chairman, Representative Dent, yesterday issued a statement in which he said that it is his belief that the permanent military policy of the country will not be decided until after the pressure of legislation which is absolutely essential to the immediate successful conduct of the war has been passed. He added his belief that the question of permanently continuing the policy of universal military service would also wait and that the selective draft law would stand except for such amendments as may be needed to make its operation more effective.

ENTIRE RAILWAY SYSTEM OF U. S. MAY BE POOLED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—Further consolidation of railroads and railroad systems such as that which has already been effected in the pooling of the Eastern roads to relieve congestion and expedite the transportation of essential freight is to be expected within a few days. Steps looking toward traffic consolidation have already been taken and it is probable that it will be extended to cover all parts of the continental United States.

President Wilson yesterday conferred with McAdoo, Newlands and the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission on ways and means of unifying railway rates and railway operations. This was done in preparation for a general consolidation to be effected either through government control or support.

FINLAND IN DIRE STRAITS FOR FOOD

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 7.—Finland is in desperate straits for food and an appeal has been made through the press of Sweden that messengers may be taken for the relief of the country. The appeal is issued by the Finnish food commission, according to advice received from the Exchange Telegraph Company. Finland is said to be unable to save itself and thousands of families will hunger and starve unless they be helped soon.

UKRAINIANS DECLARE FOR FIGHT TO FINISH

PARIS, France, Dec. 7.—Official denial has been received from the new Ukrainian government of any attempt to unite in or participate in the negotiations for an armistice and peace with Germany. The Ukrainians assert they will continue to fight and will not chance a sacrifice of their liberty and independence.

HAGENS WON'T RESIGN BECAUSE OF ATTACK

Answering statements in a paid advertisement in a morning paper questioning his tenure of office as president of the Chamber of Commerce because of his German parentage, J. F. C. Hagens points out that he is not a German but a naturalized American and that the Constitution of the United States makes no distinction between the native born and naturalized citizens. "I am proud of my American citizenship, proud of the high ideals and aims in this war of my government, and its president, and am, therefore, at all times prepared to do my duty to my country, the only country I ever swore allegiance to; and further than that, I am prepared to do my full duty towards my fellow citizens in this community and continue to fulfill and carry out the duties of any office which, by force of circumstance or otherwise, is entrusted to me."

MRS. MINNIE TODD DIES

Following a short illness, Mrs. Minnie Florence Todd, wife of A. E. W. Todd, 816 Young street, died at her late residence yesterday. Death was due to heart trouble. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from Williams' undertaking parlors.

Deceased is survived by her father, C. A. de Cow, and her stepmother, three brothers and two sisters, one of the latter, Mrs. A. M. Webster, residing in Hilo.

Contracts for 30,000 freight cars for Russia have been finally awarded, being distributed among several companies.

Start Tomorrow and Keep It Up Every Morning

Get in the habit of drinking a glass of hot water before breakfast.

We're not here long, so let's make our stay agreeable. Let us live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, and look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet, how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter. Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast and flushing out the phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of inside-bathing before breakfast.—Adv.

Too Sick To Work

Many Women in this Condition Regain Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Convincing Proof of This Fact.

Ridgway, Penn. — "I suffered from female trouble with backache and pain in my side for over seven months so I could not do any of my work. I was treated by three different doctors and was getting discouraged when my sister-in-law told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her. I decided to try it, and it restored my health, so I now do all of my housework which is not light as I have a little boy three years old." —Mrs. O. M. RHINES, Ridgway, Penn.

Mrs. Lindsey Now Keeps House For Seven.

Tennille, Ga.—"I want to tell you how much I have benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About eight years ago I got in such a low state of health I was unable to keep house for three in the family. I had dull, tired, dizzy feelings, cold feet and hands nearly all the time and could scarcely sleep at all. The doctor said I had a severe case of ulceration and without an operation I would always be an invalid, but I told him I wanted to wait awhile. Our druggist advised my husband to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has entirely cured me. Now I keep house for seven and work in the garden some, too. I am so thankful I got this medicine. I feel as though it saved my life and have recommended it to others and they have benefited." —Mrs. W. E. LINDSEY, R. R. 3, Tennille, Ga.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Dorothy Dix Talks

PARENTS AND CHILDREN
(By DOROTHY DIX
The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.)

In an amusing satire, in which he throws a thousand fantastic lights upon the relationship between parents and children, George Bernard Shaw makes the father in the play declare that the time will come when no child will know who its parents are, and no parents will know their own children. Then, he says, there will be a chance for parents and children to be friends when they meet. As it is now there is a wall ten feet thick between them that neither can break through.

Of course the Shawian point of view is always a humorously exaggerated one, but it is true that between most parents and children there is a wall ten feet thick that they can neither break through nor climb over, and if most fathers and mothers and children would tell the truth, they would admit that there is nobody else on earth with whom they feel so little equaled as with those who are flesh of their flesh and bone of their bone.

What is this bar that so tragically separates parents and children and so often makes any real intimacy or companionship between them impossible?

It isn't a matter of lack of affection or of neglect on the parents' part, because you see this want of companionship just as often in households where the parents have sacrificed themselves for their children and slaved for them as you do in the households where the children have been brought up by nurses and governesses and tutors. Indeed, the wall that children never tell me anything, I am not in their confidence, is never so bitter as from the lips of parents who have literally worshipped their offspring.

It is not a matter of disparity of age. Father is on chummy terms with half a dozen boys the age of his own son who are in his office. He can joke with them and tell them stories and discuss with them every topic from a batting record to the temptations that lie in wait for every young man. But when he is left alone for half an hour with his own boy they haven't a word to say to each other, and are embarrassed and ill at ease, and one or the other makes a sneak of it at the earliest opportunity.

It isn't because mother is old that daughter never tells her any of the shy little secrets of her heart, and what the boy who brought her home from the dancing class said to her or she said to him. She bubbles these confidences fast enough to some other woman, mother's age, on whom she has a school girl crush. Nor is it because mother is so much older than daughter that she cannot bring herself to talk to daughter about the things that every mother should tell a girl. Mother can discuss the most intimate problems of womanhood with every other girl except her own.

What, then, is this mysterious wall made of that so tragically and terribly separates parents and children? I think that it is made of the adamantine, colossal self-concept of parents.

The vanity of parents makes them pose before their children as oracles and little tin gods, and while you may reverence and even, abstractly love a superior being, you can't possibly pal with one. You haven't the nerve to even expect one who has always been perfect and never made mistakes or had silly yearnings for foolish things to sympathize with your own faults and weaknesses.

It is because parents put themselves upon self-erected pedestals instead of staying down on the ground where their children are that there is so little companionship between them.

It is a pathetic and a curious fact that human egotism finds its ultimate expression in parenthood. The first thing that fathers and mothers do when a child is born is to explore the poor little red countenance for a trace of their own lineaments, and they are overjoyed when they find out that they have wished on the unfortunate little creature their own nose or mouth or eyes or chin, regardless of how ugly these features may be.

Then they are determined to dominate their child's life, to mold its opinions, decide its destiny, no matter even if their own lives have been failures that showed that they lacked intelligence and judgment. Other people may think me dull and stupid and a poor manager, says the father or mother inwardly, but I am determined that my child shall admire me and reverence me as an oracle.

Therefore father assumes the attitude of one who has always been a model of all the virtues, and who has never for an instant strayed from the straight and narrow path. He might boast to other young men that in his time he has been one of the boys, but he never comes down from his high plane with his own boy and tells him that he, too, has made a fool of himself many a time over a pretty face and drunk too much and lost money that he couldn't afford in a poker game.

And the price he pays for his self-righteous hypocrisy is his boy's confidence, because the boy, aware of his own frailties, feels that he has got nothing in common with this superior man who is his father, and dares not tell of his own skidding from the high road.

And the girl meets the same difficulty with mother. Mother also feels it necessary to wrap herself in angel robes and pretend that she never flirted or made eyes at a man, or let anybody kiss her or hold her hand, or did anything but sit up prim and proper in the bright light, close by her chambermaid's side.

Mamma is so good she wouldn't understand, says the girl to herself, and so she carefully hides from mother all of her foolish little love affairs and finds it more impossible to tell mother the things she really thinks and feels than she would to confide them to any other woman on earth.

Another bar between parents and children is the incredible conceit that makes parents think their way the only way and that they have a right to make their children follow their scheme of life, no matter what the child's own inclinations and talents are.

Whenever you hear a man speak of his son as an ungrateful young dog who has no appreciation of the sacrifices a parent makes, in nine cases out of ten you will find that the boy has merely refused to be clay in the hands of the paternal father and has asserted his own right to live his own life. "John has broken my heart," a father will declare. "I had built up this big grocery business for him and he simply turned his back on it and studied medicine. Said he'd rather starve as a doctor doing what he liked than make a million selling salt cod fish."

"Mary is such a disappointment to me," a mother will weep. "I was a belle when I was a girl, and I had always looked forward to the time when Mary would make a great splash in society, and I had her so carefully educated for a society career, and all she will do is to study and devote herself to what she calls uplift work. We haven't a single thing in common."

And there you are. Perhaps there is no easy solution of this problem, but one thing is certain, if this wall between parents and children is ever broken down it will be by parents dropping the attitude of demigods toward their children and meeting them on a common plane of humanity.

Prohibitionists Concentrate On Doubtful Element

Passage of National "Dry" Resolution Hinges on Work of Temperance Folk in Home Districts

By C. S. ALBERT
(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—Rev. Edwin C. Dinwiddie, legislative superintendent of the National Anti-Saloon League, was asked to give his opinion of the effect which the prohibition vote in Ohio and New Mexico would have on the Sheppard-Webb resolution for submitting national prohibition. He is quite optimistic, yet qualifies his hopefulness with "if the temperance folk back home in the districts of the 'doubtful hopefuls' do their 'bit' between now and the time the vote is taken."

Mr. Dinwiddie has made a careful poll of the house of representatives and has consulted with the prohibition leaders and friends on both sides of the house, and knows to the last man just who can be depended upon to vote for the resolution, and just who could not be induced to do so. Then there is quite a substantial class of men who have not declared themselves one way or the other and who can be influenced by the sentiment expressed by supporters from their home districts. If a reasonable proportion of this latter "doubtful" class—quite a number of whom are classed as "hopeful doubtfuls"—are won to the support of the resolution, its passage by the required two-thirds or more is assured. The legislative department of the league, with the cooperation of its corps of superintendents throughout the states, is out to secure the vote of this "doubtful hopeful" list.

With New Mexico voting "dry," if Ohio had voted "dry" also, Mr. Dinwiddie feels that the passage of the resolution by the house would have been almost assured. Even with the outcome in Ohio still in doubt, but with the majority against prohibition in previous elections so nearly—if not quite—wiped out in this one, the effect will undoubtedly be helpful to the prohibition cause, and he believes it will win a number of votes. This feeling of hopefulness is strengthened by the adoption of woman suffrage in New York, especially so since the superintendent of the state, William H. Anderson, has announced that the State League has decided to try for war time prohibition. It is believed that, national prohibition will make quite a gain in the vote from New York state, and this will help materially. "It is now up to the people in the 'doubtful'

TREE CLASS TO MAKE EXPEDITION TO KOOLAU MTS.

The class in dendrology, or the study of trees, at the College of Hawaii, is making an expedition into the Koolau mountains, under the direction of Professor Vaughan MacCauley. The class comprises junior and senior men in engineering courses and the subject deals with the structure and uses of the economic timbers of importance. One of the requirements of the course is a trip, occupying several days, into a representative forest region of Oahu. Field studies are made of the important kinds of trees that make up the Hawaiian forests and of the forest as a conservator of water.

The dendrology course is announced as follows: A survey of the structure, classification, and life histories of timber trees, from the standpoint of Hawaiian and North American forest conditions; studies of structure as affecting the properties of woods; geographical distribution of timber trees, rate of reproduction, and relation of these to lumber production; the forest flora and fauna; ecological factors, and their influence upon the forest.

Particular attention is given in field and laboratories to the commercial indigenous and imported timbers of Hawaii.

There are three divisions of the forest zone, lower, middle and upper; each of these has distinct humid and arid sections, with intergrading districts. In the vicinity of Honolulu only the lower and middle zones exist; the upper zone is confined to the lofty mountains of Maui and Hawaii. The forests within reach of Honolulu are chiefly humid or "rain" forests, although there are some xerophytic species. Topics: The conspicuous trees, shrubs and herbaceous plants of the forest; the forest as a watershed; the forest floor; animal life of the forest; lianas and other specialized stem forms; prehistoric species and varieties; landslides and other destructive agencies; relation of forest to precipitation, wind, elevation, etc.; conspicuous forest flowers and fruits; changes in the native forest within historic times; played forests; forest conservation.

The Oahu mountains are deeply dissected by steep-walled valleys, ravines and gorges. Many of these valleys are great amphitheatres of erosion. The humidity increases progressively and conspicuously from mouth to head. Topics: Plant zonation of the valley floor and walls; plant life of the stream and its borders; plants of precipices, spurs, hanging valleys and summit ridges.

CONSTRUCTION BUSINESS SUFFERS FALLING OFF

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—Business is generally good throughout the country, is the report that was issued yesterday by the federal reserve banking board. An exception to this rule, however, is to be found in building and construction work in various parts of the country. This is dull because materials are scarce, difficult to obtain and high, and labor is short, with wages at abnormally large figures.

Exemptions

Many a housewife claims exemption from cooking breakfast and luncheon for hubby because it takes so long to fire up the stove in the morning and is so hot to cook in the middle of the day. Gentlemen, don't let your wife "get by" with any claim like that. She can be just as sweet and dainty as any wife ever was, and cook all three meals for you —That is, if she cooks with GAS. What's more, she'll save enough to pay for the gas range and pay the gas bill.

Try the change; you won't regret it!
