BIDDLES BROUGHT TO GRIEF When Pursuit Nears They Attempt Suicide.

MRS. SOFFEL ALSO SHOOT HERSELF

A Sensational Ending of the Remarkable Story of Crime From Pittsburg, Pa.

PITTSBURG, January 31.—Edward Biddle is dying in the jail at Butler; John Biddle is riddled with buckshot and in a precarious condition, and Mrs. Peter K. Soffel is lying in the hospital with a self-inflicted wound in the breast. This is the sequel of the sensational escape of the Biddle brothers from the Allegheny county jail, aided by Mrs. Soffel, wife of the jail warden, on Thursday morning.

The close of the Biddle tragedy came at 5:45 o'clock this afternoon in a snow-covered road two miles east of Prospect, Butler county, near Mount Chestnut. The exact place was at McClure's barn, where two double-team sleighs filled with eight officers, three of them Pittsburg detectives, John Roach, Albert Swinehart and Charles McGovern, met the two Biddles in a one-horse sleigh stolen at Perryville, and at once opened fire on the trio. The Biddles returned the fire, after jumping out of the sleigh. Mrs. Soffel was shot through the breast. Edward Biddle was shot in the left arm, in the breast and in one leg. John Biddle was riddled with buckshot in the breast and head.

The Pittsburg officers were met at Butler this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Rhiney and Hoon and Officers Frank Holliday and Aaron Thompson, the latter under command of Chief of Police Robert Ray of Butler. The officers were certain that they were on the right trail, and it was only a question of time when they would overtake the escaping condemned murderers and their guilty companion.

The Biddles and Mrs. Soffel ate dinner at J. J. Stephens' home, at Mount Chestnut, five miles east of Butler. They had made a detour of the town of Butler, and after going seven miles east turned north and then west. The Pittsburg officers, only a few miles in the rear, took the wrong road for about eight miles, but when they found their mistake they made up lost time by telephoning and telegraphing ahead for fresh horses. They reached Mount Chestnut not less than half an hour after the Biddles and Mrs. Soffel. At this point William Watson, storekeeper, had fresh horses waiting for them, and the chase began anew.

The two sleighs carrying the eight officers met the Biddles and Mrs. Soffel at McClure's barn, two miles from Mount Prospect. The Biddles, having learned that they were almost overtaken, and taking what they considered the only chance they had, drove eastward and met their doom. The Pittsburg and other officers were armed with Winchester rifles and revolvers of large caliber. They shot to kill, and their aim was perfect. The Biddles tried to kill to the last of their string, but not one of the eight officers has a wound as a result of the battle. When the detectives got within about sixty yards of the fugitives they opened fire. The Biddles promptly answered with shotgun and revolvers. When Ed Biddle fell and she saw that she was about to be captured, Mrs. Soffel fired a bullet into her breast.

Edward Biddle got a bullet in the breast, which penetrated his right lung and will probably end his life before morning. John Biddle may recover, as his wounds, though numerous, failed to reach a vital spot. The escape of the officers is miraculous. The Biddles have demonstrated on several occasions that they are good marksmen, and why they should have failed today to bring down their men is a mystery.

After the Biddles fell to the snow-covered ground the officers picked up the apparently lifeless bodies of Mrs. Soffel and the Biddles and took them back to Butler, where they also took the stolen sleigh and the worn-out horses that the trio had made use of in their flight.

The story of the fight, as told by one of the detectives, follows: The Biddles were sitting on the right side of the sleigh. Mrs. Soffel was on the left side. When Detective McGovern called to them to hold up their hands and surrender Ed Biddle jumped up and, raising his shotgun, fired at McGovern. He

EX-QUEEN IS COMING HOME SOON

Liliuokalani has written friends here that she will return to Honolulu some time during the next month. It is understood she will go to San Francisco and remain for a short time, and then come direct to Honolulu.

aimed badly, and the shot scattered alongside the road. Almost simultaneously Detectives McGovern and Roach discharged their Winchester at Ed Biddle. Both shots took effect. Jack Biddle raised in the vehicle and discharged his revolver at the three officers. Detectives Swinehart steadied himself and fired his 45-caliber Colt revolver at Jack. The ball took effect in Jack's arm.

Then the detectives opened a rapid fire on the escapes. The shots knocked them out of the sleigh. Ed fell sprawling on the snow and Jack fell on top of him, their firearms falling from their hands. The Biddles' horse then became frightened and ran away across a field. It was at this time that Mrs. Soffel was seen to collapse in the sleigh. The detectives approached the wounded men and Detective Swinehart was rushing in on them when Detective McGovern called to him to stay back—that the Biddles were only feigning. Detective Roach saw Ed Biddle reach for his coat pocket as if for a gun, and the detective shot him again. McGovern ran up within five feet of the boys and emptied his Winchester into them. The Biddles then yielded, and Roach and McGovern handcuffed them, hands and feet, and they were taken to Butler.

Mrs. Soffel, who had fallen from the sleigh when the horse ran away, was picked up and placed in the detectives' large sleigh with her companions, and taken to the hospital at Butler. At the jail tonight Ed Biddle called for a priest and made the following statement: "I have been accused of a great many serious crimes. I admit that I have committed many as the opportunities for them presented themselves. I want to say now that I did not kill Detective Fitzgerald, nor did I shoot Thomas Kahney, nor was my brother implicated in the latter affair. Mrs. Soffel aided us in getting out of the County Jail, and had it not been for her we would have made our escape today. She gave up everything for us, and I am bound to her. I did not shoot her. She shot herself. Oh, father, bless me and tell me that my sins are forgiven.

"Although I have been pictured to you as a desperate man, I still have some heart and gratitude for the woman who helped us to escape. She merely did it out of good sympathy for us. I persuaded her to do it. I told her I was guiltless of the crime for which I was about to be executed, and she was impressed and yielded to my suggestion. I planned it all.

Father Walsh administered the last rites of the dying, and Biddle rolled over on his face and sighed. He was asked if he wanted any word taken to his brother and he shook his head. The entire party, officers and prisoners, are expected to arrive in this city tonight on a special train. Mrs. Soffel made a statement after her capture in which she said she became involved in the affair through her sympathy for Ed Biddle. She said she now realized her mistake and wished she was dead. She said she did not shoot herself, but was the first one shot by the detectives. The officers said the woman was armed, but do not think she fired a shot.

Dr. J. E. Ayers, who examined the Biddles and Mrs. Soffel as soon as the prisoners were taken into the County Jail, made the following statement tonight: "The wounds of all three prisoners are exceedingly grave and may result fatally before another twenty-four hours. The bullet which struck Mrs. Soffel, and which appears to be self-inflicted, entered her left breast, going through the nipple and passing back about six inches through her chest. It lodged under the skin of the back, almost opposite its point of entrance. From my examination of Mrs. Soffel's wound I think she may live, but her exposure to the cold and the excitement and nervousness of this affair may so complicate matters that her wound may prove fatal."

THE WOUNDED FUGITIVES. BUTLER, Pa., Feb. 1.—The condition this morning of the fugitives from justice, Edward and John Biddle and Mrs. Soffel, who were wounded in the battle with the Pittsburg and Butler police last evening, had not changed since midnight, except in the case of "Ed" Biddle, who has grown noticeably weaker and has almost continual internal hemorrhages. Mrs. Soffel's only wound was made by a bullet which penetrated the left breast. It was from a 32-calibre revolver, and coursed around the r.b. to the left side, lodging in the shoulder blade. Dr. G. K. McArdoo operated on her, removing the bullet, and her recovery is probable. Mrs. Soffel tells two stories of the shooting, one that she shot herself during the fight, and the other that she was shot by Edward Biddle. The bullet did not go through her outer garment, which indicates that the shot was fired by herself or by Biddle, by putting the hand under the coat.

From the statement made this morning by Jack Biddle in his cell, it is evident that the escaped convicts and their accomplice had arranged to commit suicide in case capture became imminent. In addition, Jack also told how they escaped. Their manner of getting out of jail, according to his statement, was as has already been published. McGovern, he says, fell over the range when he jerked loose from the hold the prisoner had on him. He says Mrs. Soffel helped them to escape, but would not say she supplied the saws. The sawing of the bars of the cells, he says, was completed before January 14, and her recovery is probable. The day on which the escape was made their plans failed through some little detail.

T. McCANTS STEWART'S VARIED PARTY RECORD

Announces Himself as an Unflinching Democrat and Praises Tammany Hall.

WHAT may be light upon a past contained in the following letter received by a former New Yorker now resident here, from a friend in Brooklyn, who for many years has had to do with things public and private concerning the business and politics of his city. The letter is given only in part:

"I read in the Sun some time ago a little piece about the conditions in Honolulu, the idea conveyed by the writer being that there was absolutely no distinctions as to races. This was elaborated and when the climax came it was in the statement that there was a negro lawyer, T. McCants Stewart, who was easily the leading man in the social and business life of the mid-Pacific metropolis. I have waited for some time in answering for the reason that I have been very busy, and that I knew something about this man, and wished to get it straight before advising you. I suppose he is at his old game of office hunting, playing upon his facility of language and general readiness, and perhaps will succeed in getting a following, which will be a misfortune. You can see for yourself what he did while here, and can guess what you may avoid if you can prevent his getting any foothold.

- Following is a part of the political record of T. McCants Stewart. The personal record is not included here: 1. 1876—Turned Democrat in South Carolina, formerly a Republican. 2. 1882—Came to Brooklyn, New York. 3. April 21, 1883—Appointed a member of the Board of Education by Mayor Chapin, Dem., to fill unexpired term. 4. July 23, 1891—Appointed to same place for full term of three years, by same mayor. 5. June 2, 1894—Applies to President Cleveland for position of U. S. District Attorney for Brooklyn. 6. July 23, 1894—Is refused re-appointment to Board of Education by Mayor Schieren, Rep. 7. September 12, 1894—Addresses Democrats of 25th Ward, Brooklyn, reiterating his allegiance to the party. 8. July 4, 1895—Writes a letter to Tammany Hall congratulating and praising the organization. 9. October 23, 1895—Writes to Democratic Committee declaring his intention of becoming a Republican.

VERIFICATION. "To the Editor of the Eagle:— "I am a bona fide office-seeker. The enclosed letter shows for itself. If you deem it worthy of public note please pass it to type. "T. McCANTS STEWART. "New York, June 1, 1894."

"President Cleveland, Washington, D. C.: "In the event of the withdrawal by you of the name of the gentleman whom you have nominated for the position of U. S. District Attorney in this District, or in the event of the failure of the Senate to confirm the same, I respectfully ask to be considered by you as an applicant for said office. "As I am personally known to you, I do not add hereto any letter of introduction. At the time of your second nomination I sent you a political address which was carried in two or three columns of the Brooklyn 'Eagle.' You did me the honor to read the same and to write me the following letter, which I have never made public:

PRESIDENT HAS NOT ASKED DOLE'S RESIGNATION.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—There is no authoritative foundation for the report that Samuel Parker has been selected to replace Governor Dole of Hawaii. It is not likely that the President will have the information necessary to enable him to act for some time to come. It is perfectly well known that he has not written to Dole asking for his resignation, and as between Dole and some of the elements which are clamoring for his official head, the chances are more than fair that the President would stand by Dole on general principles. What the future movements in this case may be cannot be forecast at this time.—Boston Transcript.

Santos Dumont's Plans. NEW YORK, January 31.—A cable to the World from Monte Carlo says: "The Duke of Monaco arrived tonight at Villefrance on board the yacht Princess Alice. Santos-Dumont says he will go up tomorrow to meet the Duke, and miles out at sea and will try to descend on the yacht and return to Monaco with the Prince. The daring project is the subject of conversation tonight."

(Letter of acknowledgment by President Cleveland in ordinary form.) "As to my ability to discharge the duties of the office I call attention to the following: (References.)

"I have always followed your lead, Mr. President, in public affairs, because I have found you to be an American who classifies men, not by race, color or condition, but by character and intellect, and I believe that you desire to elevate, broaden and Americanize the public services by advancing Afro-Americans to places not hitherto held by them. "Yours, etc."

(Followed by affidavit signed by Stewart that this is a correct copy of his letter to President Cleveland.)—Brooklyn Eagle, June 2, 1894.

QUOTATIONS FROM SPEECH. He (Stewart) declared he was a Democrat and would not sacrifice his principles for such consideration.

(Note)—Schieren had not re-appointed him member of the Board of Education.—Brooklyn Eagle, September 12, 1894.

"I declare that I speak as a Democrat who can stand like the oak in the strokes, even in defeat."—Brooklyn Eagle, September 13, 1894.

"Then we should march to victory for we shall march with the people and the Ark of the Covenant of true Democracy will be safe from the devastating hands of the Philistines who menace it through their trusts and their monopolistic combines fostered by a war tariff."—Brooklyn Eagle, September 13, 1894.

"I declare that I speak as a Democrat who can stand like the oak in the strokes, even in defeat."—Brooklyn Eagle, September 13, 1894. Mr. Stewart has complained since coming to Honolulu that he had got no money or preferment through his services to the Republican party, and since his appearance as a speaker at a Home Rule meeting is supposed, as a "bona fide office-seeker" of Tammany extraction, to be looking for money and preferment in the other camp. As a specimen job-chasing carpet-bagger, this Sambo politician, who assumes to run the Republican party of Honolulu, completely fills the bill.]

WILL LET CARTER GO ON ALONE

HOME RULERS will not send an emissary to Washington to attempt to counteract the influence of Senator George R. Carter, if the recommendations of the committee appointed yesterday to consider and report upon the matter are permitted to lead. After giving long and thorough consideration to the proposition yesterday afternoon it was decided by the three men chosen for the service that such a course was not advisable.

The Sunday morning session of the executive committee of the Home Rulers was a well attended meeting, and the action taken was after long and full debate. The proposition which came before the meeting was whether or not there should be sent to the Capital a man who could present the situation to the President as it appears in the eyes of the Home Rulers. It developed in the discussion that the statement of Senator Carter, that he would welcome suggestions and facts from men of every shade of political opinion, has aroused in the minds of some of the members of the committee the idea that their party, instead of giving views to Senator Carter, should send on some person commissioned to see the President and set before him all that he should know as to the situation.

During the talks it was shown that the conservative sentiment of the members present was that there will be a successor to Governor Dole appointed very soon, but that without doubt it will be a Republican, and consequently there could be little effected by the sending of a Home Rule commissioner.

Some of the speakers did not agree with the proposition that the office should be given to a native Republican, but they favored rather the selection of some one intimately connected with the old order of things. It was deemed advisable, however, that there should be serious consideration given to the matter of sending on such a commissioner as had been proposed, and the result was the passage of a resolution providing for a committee to consider the matter. This committee, as named, consisted of Prince Cupid, Senator Kalauokalani and Representative Emmeluth. As Prince Cupid was not present, the committee was given power to act, and the two members present were to notify Prince Cupid.

The committee met during the afternoon at the Walkiki residence of the Prince and a long session was held. The matter first narrows itself down to a question of men. There were few available members of the party. Mr. Emmeluth could not leave his business and when the matter was passed up to the Prince it was seen that there could be some question as to the value of his services, owing to the fact that his brother is the son-in-law of Colonel Parker. Senator Carter's mission was discussed, and it was decided that his representations would be fair, making the natural allowances for his affiliations with the other party, and so it was decided by the committee that everything should be left in the hands of Delegate Wilcox. The committee will report against the advisability of sending any one from here especially to take up the matters to be covered in the report which Senator Carter will make, but it may advise the sending of special letters to the Delegate. Wilcox is believed to be able to secure the ear of President Roosevelt, and he will keep close watch of the situation, so as to make a statement when that of the visitor from the city shall have been heard by the Chief Executive.

FIFTY PER CENT REDUCTION. T. Estrada Palma and the Proposed Cuban Tariff

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—T. Estrada Palma, President-elect of the Republic of Cuba, whose home is at Central Valley, N. Y., has been in consultation with the members of the Cuban commission who are in this country to urge a reduction of 50 per cent of the duty on sugar imported from Cuba. Mr. Palma declined to discuss the situation either in Washington or in Cuba for publication until he has given it further consideration.

NO MORE OFFICIAL LOBBYING. The President Interdicts a Common Practice of Federal Employees.

WASHINGTON, January 31.—The President has issued the following executive order: "All officers and employees of the United States of every description, serving in or under any of the executive departments, and whether so serving in or out of Washington, are hereby forbidden either directly or indirectly, individually or through associations, to solicit an increase of pay or to influence or attempt to influence in their own interests any legislation whatever, either before Congress or its committees, or in any way save through the head of departments in or under which they serve, on penalty of dismissal from the government service."—THEODORE ROOSEVELT. "White House, January 31, 1902."

Sugar Bounties.

LONDON, February 1.—Writing from Brussels, the correspondent of the Standard says that the international sugar conference has been charged by the Belgian government to frame a new treaty abolishing all kinds of sugar bounties and installing under the presidency of the Belgian Prime Minister, Count Smet de Naeyer, a permanent international committee empowered to inflict fines not exceeding 50,000 francs on the government offending against this treaty. The conference will discuss this treaty upon

PARKER IS DEN ROUTE TO HAWAII

Denies Having Said He Was to Be Governor.

PARTY MAY COME IN THE SIERRA

San Francisco Opinion is That There is Little Danger of Any Change Here.

(Special Correspondence.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—Among islanders and men of affairs here, who have interests in Hawaii, the question of Sam Parker's remarks concerning his expectations in the way of the governorship, is still discussed above all other topics. Telegrams tell of his denials that he said what has been attributed to him, and among the prominent folk here there is little credence given to the story of the promises of the President.

Colonel Parker and his bride and Prince and Princess Kawanakoa are expected to arrive here the first of the week, from their Eastern trip. They have taken the steamer on the Sierra, which will leave on Thursday next, February 6th, and everything is ready for their departure for their island home. They will stop at the Occidental during the few days of their stay here, and it is expected they will have the company of several of the kamaainas now here on their return journey.

It develops here that there will be a strong pressure brought to bear to prevent any change in the administration of affairs in the islands, by California capitalists. There are many men here who have large interests down there, and they have been quite anxious, since they learned the extent to which the native population would go to embarrass the administration. The result is that the men here, believing that the Governor has shown his strength in the past, will make strong representations in his behalf, should it later develop that the conspiracy against him has any great strength in Washington.

There is a stronger feeling in some quarters here as to the future of Hawaiian securities, and the value of investments in Honolulu. There is now going into mortgages there a good deal of money from the savings banks. Several small advances are reported, and it is understood that the large loan will be made soon to the Kaploani estate, if all the preliminaries are in order. The amount is placed in the region of a quarter of a million dollars, and it is understood that the sum is to be used by the estate in consolidating its bills payable, refunding them at a lower rate of interest. The saving in interest alone is said to be nearly $5000, in favor of the estate.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

It is understood this executive order by the President inhibiting government officers and employes from attempting to influence legislation is the result of complaints made by members of Congress that Postoffice employes, and particularly route agents and general delivery letter carriers, in their districts, are making every possible effort to secure legislation by Congress favorable to their interests, and in some instances threats had been made that unless their representatives in Congress favored such legislation they would not be re-elected. The President is fully determined that this thing shall cease, and it is said that any person who violates the order will be summarily dismissed.

The Duke of Newcastle will not leave the country until after the 15th.

BIDDLES BROUGHT TO GRIEF

tail. Jack again reiterated that he never killed anyone and that he never put a bullet into anyone except Keeper Reynolds. He said the first crime he ever committed was assisting to rob a liquor store at Carnegie, but admitted that he had participated in a number of robberies after that. After they had left the jail they went to a house near a railroad in Pittsburg. They remained all of Thursday. The people in the house, when they read of the escape from the jail, recognized them, and would only let them remain after the Biddles gave them a "bunch of money."

They remained at the house until Thursday night, leaving it as soon as it grew dark. Jack says he wanted to stay there and that Ed was willing to stay, but that "the woman was nervous and afraid they would be caught." Jack said, "I would not let them go alone." Jack said, "and as soon as it grew dark we went down the street and took a Perrysville avenue car. We rode to the end of the line, and from there walked until we reached the farm where we stole the horse. If it had not been for the woman we would not have been caught, for we could easily have gotten another horse and by this time have been more than 100 miles away. It's a lead pipe cinch that we would have escaped but we could not let that poor woman go by herself. She did all she could for us—betrayed her husband, deserted her family, all to help us out—and we would have been a great deal worse than we are thought to be if we had thrown her down."

"When we saw the officers coming toward us on the road yesterday evening we knew it was all up. We did not fire a shot at the officers, but attempted to kill ourselves. I shot myself in the mouth. Ed shot himself over the heart and the woman shot herself in the breast. We knew we had no chance to get away, and we knew we would swing if taken back, and that is why we wanted to kill ourselves."

The Biddles, when captured, had on the same clothes they wore when they escaped. Jack had, in addition, a light Melton overcoat. Mrs. Soffel also had on the clothes in which she left her home. Through Ed's coat there is one bullet hole, but through the dark velvet vest he wore are two holes made by the bullet that lodged near his heart. Jack's coat and vest are literally riddled. There are four holes in the sleeve of the coat and ten in the right sleeve. The latter appear to have been made by small bullets. Jack's pistol was a cheap 32-calibre affair.

Three of the six chambers of the gun hold empty cartridges. Both of the Biddles were talkative this morning, but both disclaimed ever having killed anyone.

The Kahney murder, Ed alleged, was committed by Walter Dorman, assisted by a man who had that day come from Chicago, and the Seebers woman, who put on a man's suit. This, Ed said, she had often done before when she had assisted them in their robberies. He admitted having committed a great many robberies, but stoutly denied that he had ever killed anyone.

Dr. Bricker is in constant attendance at the cells of the Biddles. He says their wounds will not permit of their being removed and feels certain that a journey to Pittsburg today would be sure death to Ed Biddle. Notwithstanding this, however, it is the intention of the Pittsburg authorities to have them moved to Pittsburg at once, regardless of consequences. Superintendent of Police Demmel has wired here to that effect, and officers are now on their way to this place to take back the prisoners at any cost. Doctors Greer and Bricker, who have been attending the two Biddles, made a report this morning that apparently confirms Jack Biddle's story that the fugitives had tried to kill themselves. They had come to this conclusion after a complete examination and a partial probing of the wounds of both men. Ed Biddle, who is supposed to be the worst injured, has several powder-marks on his left breast, which would go to show that he attempted to kill himself. In Jack's wound are three bullet wounds, which would be prima facie evidence that he wanted to rid the world of himself. One of the bullets, which evidently came from a revolver, carried away a portion of his tonsil, which the doctors say could only have happened by the holding of a revolver to his own mouth. One of his other wounds is through his abdomen, and it is thought into his bowels, and this may cause his death, because peritonitis usually results from wounds of this kind. Bullets from two of his other wounds about the stomach were taken out this morning.

About 10:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Soffel took a bad turn, and her condition is more serious. She asked for her children, and they will probably be sent for. Edward Biddle is unconscious and breathing heavily. His death may occur at any moment. John Biddle has recovered from the opiates administered and talks in a boastful strain. The physicians now say that while he may live several days, his ultimate recovery is deemed impossible.

There is great excitement in the town and the streets are crowded, large numbers surrounding the hospital. A conflict between the Pittsburg and Butler authorities over the possession of the prisoners and the right to the reward is confidently expected. The Butler authorities assert that they will not give up the prisoners without a writ of habeas corpus.

District Attorney John C. Haymaker left for Butler at 10:45 this morning over the Pittsburg & Western Railroad. He stated that he did not think he would have any difficulty in straightening out the tangle at Butler in connection with the arrest of the Biddles, and also said he was of the opinion that if it was at all feasible the Biddles would be removed to this city at the earliest possible moment. Much depended, he said, on what condition the prisoners were in, and that he could not say definitely as to what action he could take until he had investigated for himself.

The declaration by Edward Biddle that he did not shoot Detective Fitzgerald and was not implicated in the Kahney murder is given no credence by the superintendent of police and Kelly.

As to the Biddles' declaration that neither of them was at the Kahney house the night of the murder, Detective Kelly said:

"That is absurd. Fred Ohlinger positively identified them, as did several others. The Seebers woman was accounted for that night. The Biddles' statement in this regard is absurd, as a preponderance of evidence shows."

Former Warden Soffel made the startling revelation that he had been under the influence of chloroform during the night when the Biddles broke jail. Mr. Soffel believes the anaesthetic was administered by his wife.

The Butler officers demand half of the reward of $5,000, and in order to hold the prisoners warrants were sworn out for the Biddles, charging them with felonious shooting in attempting to kill Mrs. Soffel.

District Attorney Haymaker says the position taken by the Butler officials is wholly untenable, and steps will be taken at once to compel them to relinquish their claims.

As there is nothing to hold Mrs. Soffel as a prisoner, Mr. Haymaker will prefer charges against her of felonious assault and battery and aid and assisting a prisoner to escape from a place of confinement.

BUTLER, Pa., Feb. 1, 1:20 p. m.—The Biddles were believed to be dying, and contrary to expectations, John may pass away first.

Inflammation has set in in his bowels, which were torn by pieces by the bullets, and it is said he cannot live long.

Ed Biddle is in a dying condition. He is in convulsions, and the death rattle has been detected in his throat.

Mrs. Soffel has developed pneumonia, and her condition is more serious than ever.

Dance at the Hawaiian Hotel.

The army officers of the transport Thomas will be entertained this evening at the Hawaiian hotel with a dancing party. There will be music during dinner and the quintette club will play for the dancing, which will occupy both the great lanais. The dance was arranged last evening by Manager Lake, and his hospitality was accepted by the representatives of the company on board the ship, who spent the evening at the hotel.

Mrs. Fremont, widow of General Fremont, is said to be destitute at Kansas City. She has a claim of $50,000 against the United States government which may now be paid.

"MUDDLED OAFS AT THE GOALS"

At Makiki on Saturday an unusually interesting league game of Association football between the Malle Illmas and the Hackfeld-Davies team resulted in a win for the former by the narrow margin of one goal, the only point scored in the game. Following were the teams and positions:

Malle Illmas—Cummings, goal; R. Anderson, McGill, back; Brown, Craik, J. Anderson, half backs; Munro, Lansdale, Boyle, Eolster, Chamberlain, forwards.

Hackfeld-Davies — Dusenberg, goal; Guild, Beardmore, back; Isenberg, Sinclair, Churton, halfbacks; Byer, Brett, Morse, Davies, Stopp, forwards.

No goal was scored in the first half. The Malle had all the best of it, however, and it was only Dusenberg's magnificent goal-keeping which prevented the Malle from compiling several goals.

In the second half the ball, finely centered by Craik, was hurried through by the green and gold battalion. In this half the Malle should have scored several times.

The losers put up a surprisingly good individual game, but showed a total lack of combination. Churton and Byer, in particular, played much improved game. Guild and Morse at the two extremes were the mainstays of the team. For the winners Boyle, R. Anderson and McGill played sterling football.

Next Saturday the Malle Illmas and Honolulu play what may prove to be the deciding game of the league.

WHITES WON BY A BLOCK

The first practice game of polo, preparatory to selecting the team which shall represent the Oahu Polo Club in the coming inter-island tournament, was played at Kapolani Park on Saturday, in the presence of a small crowd. The teams and positions were as follows:

Whites—Potter, 1; Angus, 2; Dillingham, 3; Dole, back.

Reds—Atkinson, 1; Hancock, 2; Dickey, 3; Flemming, back.

Four ten-minute periods were played. The game, which was devoid of special features, ended in a win for the Whites, by the score of 7 to 4.

The players on the whole seemed to be somewhat off color, probably on account of the heat, and the game itself was characterized by a lack of that dash which was so conspicuous in the recent league contests.

The goals were distributed as follows: Reds—Hancock (2), Atkinson (2). Whites—Angus (2), Dillingham (2), Potter (3).

HILO HUNGERS FOR HORSE RACING

Washington's birthday, February 22, will be observed in Hilo with a good card of sports at Hoolulu Park. Manager Geo. S. McKenzie has arranged for several local races between well known local horses, and a polo game will be played in the center field. The day is a national holiday, and this year falls on Saturday. This will insure a big crowd at the track and guarantee a successful race day.

Fiero and General Cronje will go in a mile dash for a purse of $50.

A three-eighths mile dash has been arranged between Phillip and Time Center; purse, $50.

Frank S. and Nullah will run a half mile for $50.

There is good prospect for a race, three-fourths mile, between Carter Harrison and Del Vista.

The polo game begins at 1:30 p. m.

The Junior League.

L. G. Blackman is still in need of a few names of players for his Junior Association Football League, and will be glad to hear from any one wishing to play in the league games. Mr. Blackman will be present at the football practice at Makiki at 5 o'clock this afternoon, for the purpose of taking the names of intending candidates for the teams.

TOOK FLAG AT EL CANEY

Colored Man Who Captured It in Town.

Lieutenant Butler, formerly a private in the Twenty-fifth United States infantry, the colored regiment commanded by Colonel "Andy" Burt, is aboard the transport Thomas, en route as a civilian passenger for Manila. Butler is the man who captured the first Spanish flag at the battle of El Caney, for which gallant action he received a commission in the Forty-ninth infantry, colored.

Butler has an honorable record as a fighter in the United States army and is quite a modest hero. As private and officer he exhibited the heroic traits which won for him the approbation of his commanders, and his meritorious services on the field of battle three times got him deserved fame.

When the Twenty-fifth regiment started for Tampa to embark with the army destined for Santiago, Butler was a private soldier, one of a thousand colored men. The Colonel was taken from them when they reached Cuba, he having been promoted to a Brigadier-General. The regiment, however, was in General Burt's brigade, and when the battle began the colored fighters were near the front of the line. When the famous charge up El Caney hill began many of the colored infantrymen outran their white comrades, but always in the direction of the Spanish trenches. When at last the soldiers had driven the Spanish back Butler and several comrades were in the line of a heavy fire which came from the blockhouse situated on the very top of the hill. Above it floated the Spanish flag, and the sight of it urged the brave band forward. The men charged, several fell, but eventually the few reached the entrance to the blockhouse. The door was battered down and again they were met by the concentrated fire of the inmates. It was a death struggle and when the end came, no Spaniard lived to see his flag hauled down. It was Butler who performed this act, after fighting his way to the foot of the staff. When it came down the army at the foot of the hill and in the vicinity of the trenches knew that the American troops had won the day.

For his brave act Butler was commended by his officers and the military dispatches to Washington contained an account of the deed. For such a service Butler was rewarded with a commission as lieutenant in the Forty-ninth infantry, one of the two new colored regiments organized for service in the Philippines. His regiment passed through Honolulu in 1899. During the time Butler was in the Philippines his gallantry on the field of battle and in the face of the enemy won him the distinction of being twice mentioned in the dispatches to headquarters. Upon his return to the United States Butler again entered civil life. He waited in San Francisco for General Burt, declaring that he would never again be separated from his old commander, and now accompanies Colonel Burt to the Philippines in a civilian capacity.

MISS ROOSEVELT AS AN ISSUE

Will She Attend the Coronation of the British Sovereign?

WASHINGTON, January 31.—Reports that Miss Alice Roosevelt is to be permitted to attend the coronation of King Edward in June next are annoying to President and Mrs. Roosevelt. No one in the White House will discuss the subject, but it is known that while the family have talked over such a visit, no decision has been reached. It is denied that Miss Roosevelt is anxious to attend the coronation, but that the President is averse to it. All talk about Miss Roosevelt ranking next to Princesses of the blood were she to go to London is as foolish as the report that she therefore would wear a robe of royal purple.

Diplomats in Washington are greatly worried because the report is not denied. According to their training they cannot imagine that a rumor of this sort should so long go uncontradicted. One diplomat says: "The American people may consider this matter simply in the light of a girl's whim which should be gratified. The British government at this juncture would move heaven and earth to secure its realization. Its tendency would be to defeat some of the shrewdest diplomatic efforts of the past year. The British press and diplomats would enlarge its social and international importance." and is entirely free from objectionable surroundings. No saloons, wash houses, ivery stables, poi shops and other nuisances of like character are allowed, and by all means is the most attractive suburban district near Honolulu.

Persons desiring lots in this locality will be able to secure full particulars in regard to these lots by applying to Mr. P. C. JONES or Mr. JONATHAN SHAW at the office of the Trustees, No. 404 Judd Building.

P. C. JONES, Treasurer.

Tammany M. Stewart ought to be his name hereafter.

The latest reports from Washington show that the President's version of his relations with Parker is still widely at variance with Parker's own.

Anxiety lest a commission shall come here to look into island affairs seems to be intensifying the strain among the job-chasers which the Carter invitation caused.

We hope that a committee of Home Rulers will eventually go to Washington to advise the President. The more the President sees of the men who want to rule Hawaii, the better it will be for good government here.

No "bona fide office seeker" who leaves the Republicans to seek a job of the Democrats, and then plays good Lord to Cleveland and good Devil to his enemies of Tammany Hall, is needed to help carry on the affairs of the Republican party in Hawaii. Carpet-baggers of this description should apply to the Home Rule party.

The Home Rulers will observe that the President has asked no questions of Aguinaldo Wilcox at any time. Wilcox is persona non grata at the White House, where his character is well understood. Later it will appear, when the fate of his bills is registered, that he has no better standing in the House. The investment in Wilcox would be dear at a dollar and a half.

At the time Roosevelt was fighting Tammany Hall, tooth and nail, McCants Stewart was congratulating that corrupt outfit on its record. As one of the hungry crew that is now advising the removal of Governor Dole so as to "save the Republican party," McCants evidently hopes to have a little Tammany politics of his own in this much-afflicted country.

AGAINST THE LEPER BILL.

The Republican party spoke Saturday night in no irresolute voice about the Kahn-Wilcox leper bill. Representing the best interests of the Territory as it does, and knowing what Hawaiian public welfare requires better even than Congress can know, the party should be able to gain an attentive and considerate ear at Washington. It has a strong cause to present and will present it strongly.

For Congress to pass the Lazaretto bill and for the President to sign it, would be a ruinous injustice to our people and an invasion of their private rights. Hawaii is not an uninhabited or savage possession waiting upon any use to which its sovereign may see fit to put it, but a Territory of the United States which entered the Union in the faith that it would get fair play, and that in time it might become a State. It is a Territory which seeks home-seekers and tourists; but if Congress should pass and the President sign the Kahn-Wilcox bill, it could expect neither. The result is that outsiders would not differentiate between Molokai and the rest of the group; and that the Hawaiian archipelago as a whole would soon become known as the Leper Islands or the Plague Spot of the Pacific. As soon as these designations were fixed people would not come here either for pleasure or residence. And to so fix them, every commercial antagonist of Hawaii and every other American winter resort, especially those of California, would draw upon all their resources in competitive ingenuity.

Every State and Territory of the United States should care for its own sick, as Hawaii is doing. Assuredly it should not foist them upon us. The wrong is as clear in our case as it would be in Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma, or between the States of the Union. If it were proposed to send all consumptives to California that State would feel the injustice as keenly as does Hawaii over the proposal, which originated in California, to send all lepers in America here.

Hawaii has a right to get rid of the leprosy if it can, and is trying to do so with some show of success. Congress has no moral right to make this effort a foredoomed failure; no right to perpetuate here the most dreadful of human maladies.

The position occupied by the Republican party should be taken by other parties and by the Chamber of Commerce and similar bodies. They all agree, we believe, on the main point, but have not yet made the fact plain at Washington.

PROTEST TO CHINA.

Great Britain and Japan Protest Against Infringements.

LONDON, February 1.—From Peking the correspondent of the Daily Times cables that Great Britain and Japan, supported by the United States, while not opposing the completion of an equitable agreement safeguarding Russia's interests, energetically protest against the infringement of their rights involved in the agreement between China and the Russo-Chinese bank, which gives Russia exclusive mining and other privileges. The signing of this agreement has, therefore, been delayed.

Germany has taken no action in this matter, but, on the contrary, has given many indications of approval of Russia's policy, which would furnish her with an easy pretext for obtaining similar preferential rights throughout Shaantung province.

Negotiating With Bandits.

RANSIÖG (Roumelia, European Turkey), January 30.—A reporter of the Associated Press here has had an interview with the delegates who have been negotiating for the release of Miss Stone and Mme. Tselka. They said that their negotiations with the brigands had been unsatisfactory, and that they had intended to return to Constantinople. Before starting, however, they say they received fresh information, which induced them to renew their communications with the brigands and that these negotiations are now proceeding.

The Senate passed the Hoar resolution for a constitutional amendment respecting the line of Presidential succession in case the President should die between the time of his election and the date of inauguration.

NEGOTIATING WITH CHINESE

WASHINGTON, January 31.—Though the United States failed to secure the insertion in the Chinese protocol of a provision assuring the maintenance of the "open door" in China, this result will be achieved, it is learned, by the negotiation of a new commercial treaty with the Peking government. When in Peking Special Commissioner Rockhill, under instructions given him by Secretary Hay, made an earnest effort to induce the powers to agree to the negotiation of a joint commercial treaty with China. Europe was not prepared, however, to co-operate with the United States, and it therefore became necessary to negotiate separate commercial arrangements.

In the new treaty there will be incorporated a provision which will read something like this: "That whatever privilege, exemption, benefit or advantage is already or may hereafter be conceded by China to the official representatives or to the merchants, subjects or citizens of any other country, in respect to their personal property rights or occupations, shall at the time be extended to like official representatives, merchants and citizens of the United States; that the lowest rates of duties or charges imposed on personal property or articles of international commerce of any foreign national origin shall be immediately applicable to like articles of United States origin; and no other or higher duties, charges, burdens or restrictions of any kind shall be imposed on exports of the United States than those imposed on the imports of the most favored nation."

Cuban Reciprocity.

WASHINGTON, January 31.—Chairman Payne of the House Ways and Means Committee today authorized the following statement: "A report is being industriously circulated to the effect that the Ways and Means Committee, by taking action on the bill reducing war taxes, has indirectly sought to dispose of the subject of Cuban reciprocity. Nothing could be farther from the facts, and the erroneous report appears to be the result of a mixture of self-interest and unwarranted speculation. The fact is that the Ways and Means Committee has taken no vote on the subject of Cuban reciprocity, nor has there been any such conference or exchange of views among the members, or among the Republicans of the committee as would warrant any conclusion that there was no purpose to deal with the subject of Cuban reciprocity."

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled with weak stomach and nausea and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable." E. B. HICKMAN, W. Chester, Pa.

How to Sow Pansy Seeds

The best method for sowing pansy seeds is to select a good piece of rich ground, dig and rake thoroughly, scatter the seed evenly on the surface, and cover thinly by sowing over it some rich, light soil, pat gently with a board, water thoroughly, and shade during the middle of the day.

In the following list will be found a grand assortment to choose from. Many of the flowers are of mammoth proportions, measuring 2 or 3 inches across, variously striped, blotched veins and marbled.

GEN. "ANDY" BURT HERE Has Best Baseball Team in the Army.

General "Andy" S. Burt, famous as the Colonel of the Twenty-fifth Infantry, one of the two original colored regiments of the army, is again in town, arriving yesterday as a passenger of the transport Thomas. This is his second visit to Honolulu, his first visit being in 1899, when he passed through on the transport Pennsylvania en route to Manila. General Burt has been in the States on a furlough, and is now on his way back to the Philippines to rejoin his regiment, which he anticipates will soon be ordered home.

General Burt became possessed of that title when the Spanish war broke out, having been made a Brigadier-General of Volunteers. Since the reorganization of the army he has again assumed his rank of Colonel and is still attached to his favorite regiment of colored fighters. He participated in the battle of Santiago as one of the brigade commanders, and he points with pride to the record which the men of his regiment made in the operations around Santiago and especially in the charge up the hill of El Caney.

General Burt entered the army on April 26, 1861, as Sergeant of Company A, Sixth Ohio Infantry; was aide de camp in 1862; he was made Captain in the regular army in 1863, became a Major in the Eighth in 1883, Lieutenant Colonel Seventh Infantry in 1888; Colonel of the Twenty-fifth in 1892. On May 4, 1898, he was made a Brigadier-General of Volunteers and honorably discharged from that service at the end of the same year.

The men of the Twenty-fifth swear by "Andy" Burt and would follow his lead in a battle to the bitter end. He has endeared himself to the men of his regiment by the interest he has taken in them and his appreciativeness of their value as integral parts of the American army. In the field, in camp, garrison or on the march, "Andy" Burt and his colored fighters are inseparable.

But if Gen. Burt believes in the colored men as the best soldiers in the army, he is also proud of their prowess on the baseball diamond. The Twenty-fifth has a baseball team which has earned honors for many years and is generally accredited with being the best team of the old army.

When General Burt was asked yesterday what his regiment had accomplished since it went to the Philippines, the grizzled warrior replied: "Well, the Twenty-fifth has made a splendid record, and is one of the best behaved regiments ever sent to Manila. Of course it has not had as much fighting as the men would probably have liked, but they did some hard work at Ararat, and at one time they bagged the biggest lot of prisoners and the largest amount of arms and ammunition taken during the war. But we didn't have a newspaper man with us, and consequently some of the glory of the expedition was lost on the public."

"But did you hear what our baseball team did down there? Well, they just wiped out every team that went up against my boys. We had twenty men picked from the regiment, and went to Manila during the height of the baseball season last year. Every regimental team went down there, and the last one was from Battery H, Sixth Artillery, the crack team of Manila. Did we beat them? Yes, indeed, and we hold the championship yet."

Baseball is General Burt's weakness. He personally directs the operations of the regimental ball team, and occasionally takes a hand in the game. When General Burt's headquarters were at La Loma church, a few miles outside of Manila, on the advanced line of the American army, almost within rifle shot of the Filipino army of General Pio Pitar, arrangements were being made to do some ball playing. One morning a big box filled with baseball bats, gloves, masks, balls and everything for the diamond, had just arrived from Manila and was opened up in the church, when an attack was made on the right of the line maintained by two or three companies of the Twenty-fifth. The box had just been opened and General Burt had for his special duty the handing out of the contents. The colored men were standing around and comments were being passed on the qualifications of each man. "Look here, Johnson," said the Colonel, "I think you're a better shortstop than a third; you just change places with Jackson." Jackson thought he was all right as shortstop and said so. Colonel Burt answered: "Now you look here, Jackson; don't you think I know base as I tell you; I'm looking out for this team."

Just then the first shot of the attack were heard, and baseball was dropped for military duty. The attack lasted an hour or so, and on returning to the church the Colonel resumed his instructions to the team, as if nothing had happened.

While the Twenty-fifth regiment was at Chattanooga, Tenn., during the first days of the Spanish war excitement, Col. Burt was most active in keeping his men in good health, in the climate which was unusual to them, the regiment having been stationed for years in the northwest. So he ordered that each company have its ball team and that the men should play a good, hard game. When the first game of note was to come off the Colonel having heard some comment upon the heat and the fact that the men might not play a swift game, went on the field himself and announced that he would play with one of the teams. The soldiers of the command have a great command of several kinds of language, being perhaps most fluent in the profane. There was not much of this when Col. Burt having hit the ball slam hard, was running the bases. He was trying to make a home run out of his hit, and paid attention only to the noise on the coaching lines, until he turned from second base to third, and there, following with expurgation, reached his ears, bawled out by the great black soldier who was stationed at the third corner:—

"Run, Andy, your big feet run, run, you pale faced little runt; run, roll, any way to get here, you bow-legged little runt. Come on, you can't run fast enough to catch your breath, you."

As the torrent of abuse fell on the ears of the struggling little soldier, who never before quailed or quit, he was dumfounded, and when he struck third he stopped. With a look about him he called ed one of the men to the base and with head erect, announced that the man would run for him, and that he was out of the game. He wouldn't kick because it was one of his own men, forgetting his dignity in the heat of the game, and he could not rebuke the soldier because he knew, as one of the fellows put it when the matter was brought to his attention: "Why, the old man knows that he wouldn't have said it if he hadn't loved Andy so much."

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance. Herpicide is now used by thousands of people, all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market today.

FOUGHT FOR FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

The arrests for Saturday and Sunday included:

- Drunkenness, Gus Que, James Carey, Sylva Grant, W. H. Dunn, D. Brown, W. Kibbins, Antonio Paris, Demster, A. C. Thayer, J. Duffy, Robert Johnson, T. Bennett, O. Lynn, J. Sanderson, Ed Blair, Paokao, George Ward, Mike Berg, Kila, E. Fogarty, Palea, F. Gustavson, Smith.
- Affray, D. C. Mills, J. Walker, J. Coug, A. Watson, J. C. McGuire, Chas. Rogers.
- Assault and battery, Samuel Castle, on Ouali (W.); Tome Kaaloleo, on Mona.

Investigation, Kipilano. Saturday was the wettest night of the year from an alcoholic standpoint, no less than a score of drunks being rounded up. They were mostly men from the transport Meade, however, and were released on depositing the usual cash bail of $5. The chances are that when their names are called in the District Court this morning, they will be found to be negligent quantities.

The majority of the transport men arrested had plenty of gold in their possession, one, who was picked up asleep in the rear of a Chinaman's store, being in possession of $20. He said that he felt tired and was looking for a place to lie down and rest, when sleep overtook him. The only real trouble of the two days occurred in the Merchant's Exchange on Saturday night. Two soldiers from the Meade each placed $25 in gold on the floor of the saloon and fought for it. One man, Mills, was knocked out in three minutes, and the winner, a Peruvian named Coug, ordered drinks for the house. While he was standing at the bar the vanquished one seized a beer glass and threw it at Coug's head, inflicting a nasty scratch. Then Coug grabbed a schooner and assailed Mills with it, cutting him up so badly that medical assistance had to be requisitioned.

Four men, including the principals, were arrested and charged with affray. They furnished bail and, it is said, were on board the Meade when she pulled out last night.

On a knoll back of the residence of J. F. Clay an acre of cane was surveyed by S. G. Walker and cut in order that the average yield might be ascertained. It was placed on the scales and showed ninety-three tons, which is enormous, considering the fact that the location was such that heavy rains would have a tendency to wash away the fine top soil. The average yield of Oahu will probably reach forty tons to the acre.—Hilo Herald.

"Fat Willie" Crawford, charged with assaulting Officer Van Gieson during Konohi, told the police that they didn't know how bad he felt about it, and that the proposal was entered on Saturday, Van Gieson declaring his willingness to forgive and forget.

G. O'Hara, the iceman, and Kahale, charged with affray, were fined $5 and costs on Saturday. Francis Joseph got the same dose for "kicking" em on.

The Hilo tug Rover, which came here the other day, was passed by the Federal inspectors and given a license.

AS TO THE CHURCH ROW

Rev. Mr. Mackintosh's Paper on the Crisis.

The following is from the current number of the Anglican Church Chronicle:

With respect to the affairs of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral we can only say that there is no need to add more fuel to the flame that has been kindled in this suffering church. The people most concerned know their own case thoroughly and the cause of their sufferings, and they have laid their complaint before the church in America, their only ecclesiastical source of appeal.

The general public have seen this matter placed before them in very fair terms by the local press, and their sympathies with the oppressed are manifest. The religious community will be drawn together in closer bonds by the fraternal and practical sympathy evinced by the pastors and members of the several churches, which will be never forgotten by the Anglican church.

There are some new members who are ignorant of the past history and for their information we give the following facts:

We think that it may be truthfully asserted that in the annals of church history there is not another case where a Bishop of the church has closed the doors of a church to exclude a congregation, whose only crime was its objection to his personal rule as rector. The body of directors has no authority over the services of the church. Their duty is to guard the property. The trustees of the Anglican church in Hawaii, the predecessors of the present directors, were not consulted in the granting of the buildings to the Second Congregation. They were chosen mainly by that congregation which had existed from the beginning of the mission to take care of its own property. The Bishop of Honolulu simply freed the English-speaking people from his own personal control. Had he not done so, there is every reason to believe that the Anglican church in Hawaii would be represented today as it is in the congregation over which he is virtually the rector. From the moment this part of the church was free, it began to be a factor in the community, and to exercise an influence beneficial to all who come within its borders. This is the only reason for its attempted dissolution.

On the minister's appeal for guidance to the Bishops most interested in Hawaiian church affairs, he was told to do all he could to preserve the status quo until April 1, when Bishop Willis' jurisdiction would expire. Had any one of the Bishops in America counseled him to obey Bishop Willis he would have done so, even against his own judgment.

Bishop Willis is responsible for the trouble and inconvenience which the members of the Second Congregation have suffered, and he will have to answer for his conduct before the proper tribunal. It is asserted very authoritatively that the directors were opposed to Bishop Willis' plan of annihilating the Second Congregation, and only reluctantly gave their vote for the closing of the church doors.

We give a little ecclesiastical law for the perusal of our island churchmen. The following appertains to Missionary Bishops and of Missionaries of various branches of the Anglican Communion:

Paragraph 18: "As regards the withdrawal of a license, your committee find that in some provinces the mode of proceeding for revocation has been fixed by Canon, and the jurisdiction thus created has been established by consent. For these places it is not necessary to make any recommendations. Where no such jurisdiction exists your committee recommend that the Bishop should in no case proceed to the revocation of a clergyman's license without affording him the opportunity of showing cause against it, and that if the Bishop shall afterwards proceed to revoke the license, he should, if the clergyman desire it, state the reasons for his decision to such clergyman and also to the Metropolitan, who should have power to sanction or disallow the revocation. In cases where there is no Metropolitan, the Archbishop of Canterbury should be regarded as the Metropolitan for this purpose. No such revocation should take place except for grave ecclesiastical offenses."

These recommendations were adopted by the Lambeth Conference of 1888.

A KING MAY COME.

Siam's Sovereign May Visit Us Next Year.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 1.—Word has been received by the Philadelphia Commercial Museum from its correspondent in Bangkok, Siam, that the King, after looking forward to a visit to the United States, has finally decided not to come at present. It has been arranged that the Crown Prince, whose name is Mama Vagirevudh, shall return from England by way of this country, reaching the United States next October. If the Crown Prince shall be impressed favorably with his visit, the museum's correspondent learns from authoritative sources that the King will come the following year. The Crown Prince has been a student at Oxford, Eng., and has taken his standard for scholarship there.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—David B. Sicks of this city, at one time an official representative of the United States at Bangkok, Siam, has received a letter from a friend in that city saying that the King of Siam is considering the question of making a tour of the world this year, including the United States, where, it is understood, he is to become the nation's guest by invitation of President Roosevelt.

PEARL HARBOR SEEN BY GUESTS

Pearl Harbor was the scene of a couple of very pleasant parties yesterday. The morning train carried to the peninsula Mr. P. N. Lillenthal and the members of his immediate party. They were the guests of Mr. Clarence W. Macfarlane, and soon after their arrival they were taken through the locks in his launch. The growing came was inspected upon Ford's Island and the peninsula as well, and the party after a long ride returned to the Macfarlane residence and partook of luncheon. At the same time there was touring the harbor a company consisting of Mr. Hendy of San Francisco and his party, the host being Captain Merry, of the naval station, who took them down in his launch. The visitors made a special inspection of the site for the naval station, and then made the tour of the entire harbor. All the guests expressed themselves as greatly pleased with what they had seen, and so all there was a revelation in the extent of the harbor.

LOCAL REVITIES.

The Lenten season begins on Wednesday of this week, February 12. The Oahu Railway Company is building forty cars, with a capacity of thirty tons each, at its shops. E. M. Griffiths, the United States forster, will spend today at Moanalua, and tomorrow will leave for Palianae, his Island. Owing to a delay in the receipt of the question papers from Washington, the civil service examination to have been held Saturday was postponed. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Damon entertained at a Saturday afternoon tea at their home in Moanalua, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Lillenthal, of San Francisco. When last heard from the Hawaiian fingers were in Washington. In a letter received from them it is stated that Buffalo society women have taken to the hula, and some have become adepts of the art. The resolution adopted by the Home Mrs. at their meeting last week was that to Governor Dole and Superintendent Boyd on Saturday. It calls for the use of only American labor on all public works. Porto Rican laborers who had boarded the Mauna Loa at Napoopo, hurriedly left the steamer at Napoopo, when they learned of the stringent measures being taken to rid Honolulu of vagrants, and returned to work on the plantations. At the regular monthly meeting of the Officers' Club, held yesterday morning, it was decided to hold a parade of the National Guard in Honolulu on Washington's birthday, February 22. The drill for prizes, to be held soon, was also discussed, and the few minor stalls still remaining, arranged. The meeting of the Nahiku Sugar Company on Saturday again failed of a quorum and was postponed. It is stated that the homesteaders have withdrawn their opposition to the lease granted by the Nahiku Sugar Company water rights on Hawaii, and will withdraw the memorial sent to Washington. Handel's Messiah. The oratorio is to be presented by the Harmonic Society, assisted by Mme. Eva Johnstone Bishop, on Friday, February 14th, 8 p. m., in Panahi Hall, Ahu College. Chorus of seventy-five voices, orchestra and organ. Tickets, at Wall, Nichols Company.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

St. Valentine's day falls on the 14th of the month—next Thursday. United States Marshal Hendry has gone to Kauai to serve papers in a bankruptcy case. Pacific Rebekah Lodge will give a farmers' dance in Progress Hall, on Friday, February 14. Judge Gilbert F. Little came over from Hilo on the Kinau Saturday, and is at the Hawaiian Hotel. Rev. G. L. Pearson will go to Lahaina on the 19th to dedicate a Methodist church recently completed by the Japanese there. Householders will greet their Chinese cooks again this morning. Most of these promised to end their New Year's celebration last night. There was an unusually large attendance at the Chinese Theater Saturday evening, many whites and natives being in the audience. Mr. S. Ehrlich, manager of the Pacific Import Company, leaves on the Sonoma on a business trip. He will bring home many fine dress goods materials. George Leas took testimony as commissioner Saturday in the suit of the Hogan Company against the hui which brought the colored minstrels to Honolulu. Miss Kate Kelley, secretary to Secretary Cooper, returned Saturday from a pleasant month's visit with her sister, Mrs. J. T. Stacker, at Oiaa, Hawaii. Miss Mary Sprague, who was once a school teacher in Honolulu, and went to Manila, was a passenger on the transport Meade, en route for the States. Captain Schofield, of the Meade, is said to have refused the request of the Young Men's Christian Association to hold services aboard the transport while she was in port. Big electric light poles are being raised in Thomas Square. A large number of trees are being cut down, and quite a change in the appearance of the park is taking place. Major Wadsworth, who is pleasantly remembered as one of the officers of the First New York Regiment, which was here in 1898 and 1899, has become a benedict. He is at present in Washington. Chief Deputy Thompson, now in Assessor Pratt's office in Honolulu, will be transferred to the Ewa office. An instant is to be appointed to Electrical Inspector Hasson, and there are already many applicants for the position. Captain Berger's bandmen went on a strike Friday when they were asked to play at the Orpheum on their regular holiday night. Kappelmeister Berger, with a couple of loyal men, stuck to their posts, however, and furnished what music they could for the benefit. Judge Gear on Saturday heard a motion for a new trial in the William Davis case, and took the matter under advisement. Judge Humphreys granted divorces in the cases of Virginia de Sa vs. Francisco de Sa; Mele Manuel vs. Peter Manuel, and Lisa I. Kaholokai vs. Iokewe Kaholokai. A series of lectures has been arranged for the ladies of the Young Women's Christian Association, the first to be given on the 13th of this month. The addresses will be given by Mr. Newcomb, Mr. Dyke, Mrs. Henry Castle, Mr. Waldron, Miss Keany, Miss Barnard and Miss Cartwright. The Concrete Construction Company has been awarded the contract by Superintendent Boyd for the widening of Fort street and the construction of the fence and walk in front of the Catholic Mission. There were fourteen bidders, and the lowest price, made by the successful firm, was $615. The Band concert at the Capitol grounds was largely attended by officers and ladies and enlisted men from the transport Thomas. Several hundred men were present, all looking neat and clean in their new khaki uniforms. The singing of the two Hawaiian girls seemed especially pleasing to the men, who gave them liberal applause. Ernest Hogan met his old manager, Sylvester, on board the Thomas yesterday. Sylvester is second steward. The author of "All Coons," etc., and his former manager met at first without recognizing one another, but when the recognition came, the whole ship knew it, and the passengers enjoyed the scene. Sylvester claims that when he managed the "Unbleached American's" stage affairs, Hogan had his pocket well lined with box receipts. C. A. Brown, of this city, is acquainted with both men who are being looked for by Marshal Hendry on a charge of having looted a Lowell bank of nearly a million and half of dollars. Mrs. Brown had considerable money on deposit in the bank in question, and Mr. Brown has informed the Marshal that all but $15,000 had been returned by the thieves, who were former employes. He does not think they will come in this direction, because they know that he is living here, and would recognize them.

Transport Thomas Here With Fifteen Hundred Recruits for the Philippines.

About 12:45 p. m. yesterday the transport Thomas arrived from San Francisco. She left on February 1 and good weather was enjoyed all the way down.

There are on board 1501 recruits, who will on reaching Manila, be assigned to the various regiments now serving in the Philippines. The men are, in the majority of cases, new to soldiering, there being very few re-enlisted men among them. Most of them come from inland, and this is the first time they have been on the sea. They are a clean, fine-looking, well-behaved body of men and created a very favorable impression, as they were seen taking in the town yesterday.

The Thomas lies at the naval wharf, and all of yesterday afternoon the veterans on the home-going Meade and the "rookies" on the Manila-bound vessel compared notes and exchanged compliments.

The Thomas brought a few commissaries for the local garrison, and has on board about 100 tons of freight for Guam. She will take on coal here, and will sail at 5 p. m. tomorrow.

Following is the list of cabin passengers:

General A. S. Burt, wife and servant; Mrs. R. J. Burt and child, Mrs. M. Brust and child, Gerow D. Brill and wife, Geo. Bentzhoef, E. L. Baker Jr., Lieut. W. B. Renziehausen, Mr. M. M. Corey and wife, L. W. Dennison and wife, Mrs. C. M. Godfrey, child and nurse, Gunther and wife, Mr. J. L. Hughes and wife, Mrs. G. J. Hesson and daughter, Mrs. Andrew Holland and two children, Mrs. Frank Jansen, Mr. Stewart Loughlin, Max Loewidt, Mrs. Main and child, George E. Mercer, Mr. Chas. E. Painter, Mrs. James S. Pettit and two children, Mrs. W. B. Renziehausen, Mrs. Wm. H. Robinson, Miss Adah H. Ruddock, Mrs. Wm. Skyles, Mr. John G. Woods, Mrs. Chas. E. Woodruff and son, Major Wm. ### An Airship War Fleet.

NEW YORK, January 31.—A fleet of airships, each manned by eight men, to defend our coasts, is what J. Franklin Cameron, a member of the firm of Conrad & Co., dealers in linens, proposes. For more than thirty years he has been interested in the problem of aerial navigation, and he has perfected the idea of what he believes will be more potent than any fleet that ever sailed the seas. "Dynamite bombs could be dropped," he said, "with deadly effect, and everything below demolished. I have devised and patented a machine that consists of two spindle-shaped hulls 400 feet long, the diameter of the largest section being fifty feet and the diameter between hulls being 125 feet in all. The capacity of each hull is 47,000 cubic feet, making 94,000 cubic feet in all. This will carry 50,000 pounds of hydrogen gas, the buoyancy power being based on Renard and Krebs' balloon La France.

"The machine can go in any direction and its two vertical screws are propelled by two oil engines of 300 horse power each."

Reaching for Trade.

TACOMA, January 31.—During the present year the Northern Pacific is to be one of the greatest factors in the growth of Tacoma shipping. The amount of freight which is handled on the docks in this city is already reaching proportions which have demanded addition to the warehouse capacity along the front. The company is known to have plans for greatly increasing the size and strength of the fleet which it operates between this city and the Orient, and it is stated in reliable quarters that by the end of the year the Northern Pacific will be shipping 100 per cent more freight than it is handling at this time. Plans have already been consummated for an increased fleet of steamships, doubling the number which plied between Tacoma and the Orient during 1901.

A Freeze Out.

HILO, February 6.—The cold storage schedule on perishable goods made out by the Matson Navigation Company for the new steamer Enterprise are reduced to a point that it is hoped will fill the ninety-ton space set aside in that vessel for cold storage freight. The schedule is as follows: Eggs, 5c per dozen; butter, fish and fruit, 3c per pound; fresh meat, 2 1/2c per pound. In large shipments even better rates than these will probably be made. The company has spent over $75,000 in adding the cold storage and passenger facilities to the equipment of the Enterprise.

In certain seasons of the year these rates will make eggs a staple instead of a luxury, and the price of steaks will also be materially affected.

Sold the Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 31.—The Leather Trust, according to a dispatch from New York, has obtained control of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company. Charles R. Flint having disposed of his interest to L. H. Lapham, vice president of the trust. When the American-Hawaiian line went into the competition for the carrying trade between San Francisco, Hawaii and New York, recently, a big cut in rates was made. The new competitor brought steamer freight rates down to the level of the sailing vessel rates. The reduction was promptly met and the war is still on.

The yacht La Palma has been taken to Pearl City.

ANOTHER CONDOR'S DUTY DONE THEY BOAT REPORTED ARE GOING HOME

All Hope of Vessel's Safety is Now Abandoned—Probable Collision Theory.

VICTORIA, B. C., January 31.—The master of the collier San Mateo, now at Nanaimo, reports that on January 16th, when bound from Nanaimo to San Francisco, he sighted a derelict boat drifting near the entrance to the Straits of San Juan de Fuca, which he believes was one of the boats of the missing warship Condor. Captain Ross says the boat was a white painted one, with no name on it, and was empty. It was a heavily built boat, with a square stern and evidently belonged to a warship. From the description given of that found by the Indians at Ahousett, he says, he firmly believes that the boat seen by him was the second of the Condor's to be located. That it was not the same boat that was found at Ahousett is shown by the fact that the boat found by the Indians was picked up on January 6th, ten days before.

A naval official at Esquimalt, who was interviewed this evening regarding the marks on the boat found on the west coast, says there can be no mistake. She is positively one of the Condor's boats, the date of construction and length of craft, and the initial of the dockyard where the ship was built. These all appear on the boat found off Ahousett.

SEATTLE, Wash., January 30.—Considerable excitement has been caused in local marine circles by the theory of a probable collision between the Condor and the Matteawan advanced by Captain Hasdorff of the Cape Flattery lightship, and every circumstance tending to throw light on the fate of the two vessels is now cited in support of a deduction that appears most tenable. The steamers sailed from Ladysmith and Victoria, B. C., respectively, on December 2d and passed through the straits within a half-hour of one another.

The course of the Matteawan, bound for San Francisco, and the Condor for Honolulu, would have been exactly the same for at least twenty miles after leaving Cape Flattery. The Matteawan was noticed in the afternoon by the weather observer at Neah Bay, six miles from the termination of the cape. He has so reported to the local office. Still later Captain Hasdorff of the lightship stationed four miles south of Cape Flattery, and anchored off Flattery Rocks, noted the steamer southward bound two miles off and evidently in distress.

The Condor must have been at that time but a short distance behind. It is now believed here that the Matteawan put back for shelter at Neah Bay, and at some point near and undoubtedly southward of Cape Flattery, collided with the Condor. The terrible marine tragedy which would follow such a collision is accepted here as the explanation of the mystery which shrouds the fate of the missing craft.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The transport Thomas brought two days' later news.

James Clarey, second mate of the bark Andrew Welch, was arrested for drunkenness on Saturday.

The Kinau arrived from Hilo at 12:45 on Saturday with very little freight. Rough weather was reported.

The soldiers on the transport Meade nearly all had money, some carrying as much as $400 in gold on their persons.

Captain J. Irvin, master of the schooner Waiakia, returned with his crew from Anahola, on the Ke Au Hou on Saturday.

The Prince Louis, Alden Besse, Newsboy, Andrew Welch and C. D. Bryant all got away for Frisco or the Sound during the last two days.

Despite the fact that none of the Meade's soldiers were allowed to go ashore, quite a number of them managed to elude the guard.

B. Talbot, a Manila newspaper man, was a passenger to San Francisco on the transport Meade. Several returning school teachers were also on board.

The Nosau, which arrived from Hamakua on Saturday, experienced very rough weather along the Hamakua coast and brought but little sugar on that account.

The following sugar is reported on Hawaii: Honouuaupou, 1000 bags; Punaluu, 4000 bags; Onomea Sugar Co., 10,100 bags; Pepee Sugar Co., 15,000 bags; Hakalau Plantation, 15,000 bags; Honouuaupou, 4500 bags; Laupahoehoe Sugar Co., 2500 bags; Kukuiahe, 1000 bags; Honokaa, 100 bags.

Chief Steward Evans of the transport Meade was married in Manila to Miss Helen Brown, the daughter of Major Brown of the Tenth U. S. Infantry, and who first met her husband on the transport when she was going to join her father in the Philippines three months ago.

Captain Not Liable.

United States Attorney Dunne has rendered an opinion, at the request of Collector of Customs Stackpole, that the captain of the ship Helen Brewer is not liable to a fine for coming here from New York without a regular crew list as provided for in the Revised Statutes of the United States. Attorney Dunne holds that the trip of the Helen Brewer from New York cannot be considered a "foreign voyage," as the Brewer is an American vessel and came from an American port to an American port.

He ped Himself.

HILO, February 6.—The freight arriving at Hilo by the steamer Hawaiian showed that the stevedores at New York knew a good thing when it was in sight. Several cases of shoes arrived at Hackfeld's minus several pairs, which are supposed to be the shoes of the feet of wharf rats or stevedores in the metropolis. The same gentry carried off a lot of copper wire.

Manilas Popular.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 31.—The custom house authorities have been notified of the shipment of two million cigars from Manila to Honolulu. They are coming on regular steamers by way of Hongkong. This is the first shipment. Many others are to follow. The factories in the Philippines are running day and night to supply the orders for the American trade.

Transport Meade Puts in for Coal With a Thousand Sunburned Veterans Aboard.

The transport Meade, from Nagasaki, arrived here on Saturday morning, greatly to the surprise of everybody. As soon as she was sighted all sorts of conjectures were rife as to the cause of her unexpected visit. It turned out that on account of the poor quality of coal she took on at Nagasaki, her bunkers were nearly empty six hundred miles north of this port and she was forced to put in here for a further supply. The Meade left Nagasaki on January 23, taking 17 days to make the run. She will be more than a week overdue when she arrives in San Francisco and great anxiety is likely to be manifested on her behalf. This will be increased by the fact that the Nippon Maru, which left for San Francisco on Friday night, will be unable to report her as having put in here. The Meade will arrive about ten days after the Nippon Maru.

After leaving here three months ago for Manila, the Meade struck a typhoon and for days and nights her situation was perilous in the extreme. She was only saved by superior seamanship after all hope had practically been abandoned.

On board the Meade are about a thousand soldiers returning from the Philippines, most of them awaiting their discharge. Many government officials who have been serving in the East are returning as cabin passengers.

On board are 13 insane soldiers, 33 sick and convalescent, 25 disabled and two prisoners. Two deaths occurred between Nagasaki and Honolulu.

The Meade's passengers are as follows: Maj. B. Porter, Maj. J. D. Glennon, Major H. P. Hoyt, Com. T. H. Stevens, U. S. N.; Capt. T. P. Varney, Lieut. D. G. Arrowsmith, Capt. H. Tupes, Capt. J. J. Carry, Lieut. Henry Clay Evans Jr., Lieut. Herman Glade, Lieut. T. H. Koch, Lieut. G. M. Holly, Lieut. J. F. Robinson, Lieut. L. J. Van Shaick, Chaplain G. W. Prioleau, Lieut. J. T. Clarke, Lieut. W. M. Roberts, Dr. I. J. Ransbottom, Miss Vena Richmond, Lena Richmond, Miss Lida Losswell, Miss J. J. Deeley, Miss B. R. Locke, Capt. C. R. Hexamer, wife and child, Mrs. H. F. Hoyt and son, Mrs. J. F. Presnell and child, Mrs. H. Tupes and child, Mrs. E. Maeklin and child, Mrs. F. A. Lewis, Mrs. C. B. Franklin, Mrs. J. J. Corry, C. I. Dillon, J. J. Meany, J. P. Thompson, O. B. Jenkins, Mrs. W. A. Boyle, H. P. Ford, Mrs. W. H. Roberts, F. H. Brundage, W. R. Lyle, W. McLaughlin, H. H. Rutherford and child, L. M. Theabenden, Mrs. E. C. Batten, J. J. Kellerman, Miss Mary Sprague, J. K. Barrett, Lieut. J. L. Purcell, Dr. C. Martin, Dr. C. F. Smith, Jose Vano, J. A. Le Roy and wife, Lieut. J. T. B. Mitchell, T. D. Marsfield.

After having taken on about 800 tons of coal, the Meade departed at 5:15 yesterday. The returning soldiers seemed greatly elated at the prospect of getting back to God's country again, as they succinctly put it, and affected to express the deepest commiseration for the "rookies" on board the Teasars, from the deck of their vessel, which lay at the next wharf, with feelings which can better be imagined than described.

Packard's Bad Trip.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—The worst trip ever made by the ship Benjamin F. Packard on this coast came to an end yesterday afternoon when the vessel dropped anchor in the harbor, eight days from Ladysmith, B. C., with a cargo of 3000 tons of coal. Captain Allen reports that from start to finish the trip was one succession of terrific gales, tremendous waves frequently breaking clear over the ship, and disorder and hardship following in their wake. At one time it seemed that every rope was tangled with the others, making it almost impossible to manage the ship, which for a great part of the time was under lower topsails, though some of them were torn away by the gales.

Minus a Mast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—The American brig Galliee, Captain Hellingens, 16 days from Honolulu, Hawaii, arrived this evening. Captain Hellingens reports that on January 27th, in latitude 38 deg. north, longitude 136 deg. 50 min. west, he sighted a French bark, painted white, flying the signal letters H. M. K. Her fore-and-aft mast was gone. This is the French bark Vendee, from South Shields to Portland, 161 days out. The Galliee, on January 21st, sighted the barkentine Anchor, Captain Calhoun, bound for this port from Honolulu.

Coming and Going.

The barkentine Coronado sailed from San Francisco on January 31 for Honolulu. The steamer Eureka, Weedon, arrived at Seattle on January 31, 13 days from the Hawaiian Islands. The steamer Meteor from Honolulu arrived at Seattle on the same day.

Captain George Gardner of the gasoline schooner Malolo sent Henry Macfarlane a report by the Ke Au Hou that Davis, the sailor who was lost off the Malolo, was washed overboard by a heavy sea about 25 miles off Kaena Point.

Jewel Stoves

Jewel Stoves are made from the higher grades of iron, selected and chemically tested before melted.

Test bars of each day's melt are made to insure uniform strength of casting, and a most rigid inspection of work insures perfectly smooth and properly made castings.

No stoves are sent out from the factory until they are thoroughly fire tested.

We are not in business for a day, but to build up what will be a continuous business for ages to come; therefore we cannot afford to sell any stoves, bearing our name, which will not last for a great many years, and work as stoves should.

In our house furnishing goods department you will see samples of thirty-five different Jewel stoves and ranges, from the little four-hole wood cook stove, up to the large hotel range.

They are all made from the same material, and are constructed under the very latest principles of economy, durability and beauty.

We can show you hundreds of testimonials from customers.

If you require a range or stove, with hot water coil, to be connected to your boiler, we have competent help, and can do satisfactory work, under a very nominal charge.

Do not wait until your old stove is completely worn out and worthless. We may be able to save you a few dollars by taking it off your hands now, and supplying you in place with one of our celebrated Jewel stoves.

If you feel that you cannot afford to pay cash, we will make the terms very easy for you.

Call on us and be convinced.

We deliver our goods to all parts of the city and suburbs.

Deliveries to Manoa Valley, Moanalua and Diamond Head are made every other day.

KONOHI ON MAUI Not So Much Doing as Former Years.

MAUI, Feb. 8.—Judging from the noise of exploding firecrackers, it would not seem probable that Chinese New Year is being celebrated on Maui in a less lavish manner than is customary, but so it is stated, nevertheless. Possibly the luau or banquets are less elaborate, or include a smaller number of guests than formerly.

Surely during yesterday and today enough powder was used to appease the evil spirits for another year, not only at every little store in the tiny villages throughout the Kula region, but also at the larger Chinese colonies of Makawao, Paia, Wailuku, etc.

During the evening of the 7th, Ah Chee, a prominent merchant of Market street, Wailuku, gave a fine luau, which was well attended by some of the leading Hawaiians and foreigners of the town.

Awana, of Makawao, also entertained in his usual hospitable style quite a number of well known people the same evening.

It seems that the Japanese are also celebrating Konohi, for many of them have ceased their usual daily labors, and are keeping, or will keep, the 7th, 8th and 9th in a festive manner.

Today in Kula, and at Spreckels' Park, Kahului, they are holding horse-races in honor of the Oriental new year.

Appropos of racing, during the 6th, while two Japanese sports were exercising their horses at the race track, either by a collision of stumbling, one horse and rider fell to the ground in such a manner that the animal was instantly killed, while the man was only badly bruised.

STRAYS. This is the coldest winter in fifteen years on Maui. The thermometer is constantly registering below 60 degrees nights and mornings. In consequence, pneumonia, grip and bad colds are prevalent.

Dr. W. F. McConkey, of Paia, who has been suffering from a severe attack of grip, is much better. Dr. Dinegan, of Kihel, attended him.

District Magistrate Charles Copp, of Makawao, is also recovering from his illness—pleuro-pneumonia. During the 4th he was able to hold court at his residence. His son Harry of Honolulu has been visiting him.

During the week Lawrence R. Crook assumed his new duties as clerk of the Circuit Court of Wailuku, the position formerly held by James H. Keola, who resigned, owing to the pressure of work in the tax office.

The Puunene Mill is busy night and day.

Corn and potato planters of Kula are busy cultivating their lands, preparatory for planting. On the field corn sells at $1.15, and potatoes at $1.50.

JUDGMENT GOES AGAINST ESTEE

Issue of Veracity Between Federal Jurist and Colonel Trumbo.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 1.—There was tried in Judge Hunt's court yesterday a suit whereby Colonel Isaac Trumbo secured a judgment for $10,000 against Morris M. Estee upon a note for $8000 and interest, executed by Judge Estee in Trumbo's favor October 6, 1897.

The feature of the case was a deposition by Judge Estee in which Estee claimed to have given the note to Trumbo as a negotiable instrument, for no consideration whatever, as a mere matter of accommodation, for the purpose of helping Trumbo out of a difficulty. The deposition read, in part: "About this time (October, 1897) Mr. Trumbo became financially depressed and was in great distress owing to the fact that several judgments had been obtained against him. He came to me and stated that executions were going to issue at once upon said judgments and appealed to me to help him out of his difficulties. Our relations had always been of the most friendly nature, and when he asked me to execute the note in suit in order that he might use it, and represented to me that the note would never come against me, I consented to make the note. I drew it just as it is for the accommodation of Mr. Trumbo, in order to assist him in his distress, and as between Mr. Trumbo and me it was and is nothing more than a mere piece of accommodation paper. I received no consideration for this note, giving it to Mr. Trumbo in order to help him under the circumstances stated.

And I wish to state further that I also made a similar note in favor of Mr. Irving M. Scott and Henry Scott for Mr. Trumbo, in order to relieve him. He came to me and stated that the Scott brothers had issued an execution upon a judgment of theirs against him, and had levied upon his paintings, and complained bitterly about this and asked me to assist him. He represented to me that he had conferred with the Scotts and that they agreed to take my note to them in security and release this execution. I then accommodated Mr. Trumbo by executing a note to the Scott brothers for the face of their judgment against Trumbo, which I think was in the neighborhood of $3000. This note grew out of no relation between the Scotts and me or by reason of any consideration paid by Trumbo to me. I signed it merely to accommodate Mr. Trumbo and to relieve his paintings from the lien of the Scott execution. After the note was signed I paid some interest on it, I cannot recall how much, but no doubt the Scotts can tell. When the time came to pay the note I was not in a position to meet it, owing to the destruction of my vineyard and orchard, whereby I was placed in such a position that notwithstanding my desire to do so, I was unable to meet this obligation and have not as yet paid it nor has the note been returned to me by Trumbo. Judge Estee, of course, was not present yesterday, but Trumbo was, and when called upon to testify denied in toto Estee's explanation regarding the note. He said that he had loaned Estee large sums of money from time to time, and that the amount of the note represented the aggregate sums advanced. He also denied another allegation of the defendant, namely, that Trumbo had agreed that Estee should settle his indebtedness by the rendition of certain legal services. Judge Hunt decided that, in the absence of corroborative evidence on Estee's behalf, the note spoke for itself, especially as Estee had acknowledged having borrowed money from Trumbo.

SOCIETY

THE face of Honolulu society is changing—has changed—greatly. For a long time such admission was not made. Those who had lived here long felt almost that the refusal to recognize definitely a change would perhaps retard that change and the delightful informality of the old regime in the order of things social was so much more to be desired than the more conventional tone fast gaining ground that the new was realized with regret. But that it is now an established fact is beyond dispute. Cliques have been formed. Entertaining, that when done before, included everybody now takes the form of numerous small affairs where certain ones only are invited. Where being left out would once have been considered a slight, it is now taken as simply an indication of the fact that some particular "set" only is being entertained. Ladies with large calling lists are systematizing by keeping careful account according to some certain rule, for instance, date of calls, and are entertaining by that, the earliest comers being invited with the first lot, and so on in that way.

The arrival of prominent strangers instead of creating the furor of former times, is now by general society, not noticed at all or is at best viewed with an indifferent interest except by those having for special reason, individual concern. This of course is the result of the increased number of people who are constantly coming to the islands for shorter or longer visits. It is also the result of the more numerous steamers. Where before a foreign boat was an event and its passenger list of absorbing interest, now many occurrences hurry forward to distract. Life in Honolulu has grown busier, fuller. Warren Stoddard would find difficulty now in getting any of his material for "Lazy Life in Low Latitudes" in our city. And one cannot but admit that much of the unique charm of the social phase is gone. But still, if one wants to look on the favorable side, does not all this have a tendency to develop individuality? It is not enough now to know or be known to some one member of Honolulu society to be given a footing. Personality is counting more and more. One must show distinctive character, and one gets place accordingly; and in this world it is astonishing sometimes how much one can develop in a certain direction where a development is necessary, lest one submit to exclusion. For years we accept a stated status as ours. We deem it impossible in ways to change. We accept as inevitable that we are so and so. Then there comes a reason vital to our peace, or perhaps to our happiness or—more ignoble incentive—our self-interest, and strangely enough we find we can develop along that hitherto untrod course. If the new social condition in Honolulu means more development along agreeable or witty or entertaining or any such hues there is a commendable side to the change.

Mr. E. A. Knudsen returned from the other Islands in the last Kinau.

The departure of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fortes from the island is a matter of regret to their many friends.

Mrs. C. Ballard has gone to the coast for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. K. E. Cooper was an out-goer in the last Alameda.

Mr. W. J. Lowrie took the last foreign boat for away.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, who have gone to San Francisco, may be away for a number of months. Mrs. Tenney's many friends evinced their regret at her departure by decorating her with many beautiful leis previous to the outgoing of the Alameda.

Capt. and Mrs. Slaker will be much missed at the Camp, and in the large circle of the acquaintance formed since they have been in Honolulu.

Mr. C. M. Cooke left for the coast in the last foreign boat.

Mr. M. S. Grinbaum and Mr. R. R. Berg went out on the Maui bound for the Hana Plantation.

stay abroad, where she goes to complete her musical education. The music of Grieg—exquisitely beautiful, with its brightness and sparkle, and the ever-present suggestion that sings through it of the weird northern land which is the great composer's home—might lose much in the rendering. That it was not so to those listening on Thursday evening to the playing of Miss Kinney, was evinced by their frequent bursts of pleased applause. Her skilful fingers responded ably to the dictates of the rare taste that interpreted; and many were the regrets expressed during the evening that the dainty little lady is so soon to go from our midst.

Thirty-six ladies enjoyed a delightful progressive euchre party given by Mrs. Chalmers Graham on Friday afternoon. The first prize was won by Mrs. Oils, and consisted of a beautiful little coat-pot after dinner coffee; Mrs. Chas. B. Cooper won the second prize, an Austrian hand painted plate; while the consolation prize bestowed was a carnation lei. Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of the game, and so pleasant was the afternoon that no hurrying away was noticeable, even among the unfortunate ladies now suffering from lack of autocarat of the kitchen. Among the ladies were Mrs. Morris M. Bissel, Mrs. Atwater, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. Amey, Mrs. Phillip, Mrs. Mrs. Joe Cooke, Miss Grace Cooke, Mrs. C. H. Atherton, Mrs. Brock, Mrs. Augur, Mrs. J. T. Prince Cupid and wife and party occupied a box at the Myrtle benefit on Friday evening.

JUDGE TAKING ORDERS?

The Release of Criminals Seems Part of a Conspiracy.

When there was in court last week the unusual proceeding of a political quarrel being brought up for the benefit of certain persons charged with crime, and in some instances represented by the former partner of a jurist, it was noticed that the bench received many communications from within the courtroom and presumably from without.

Later in the day an attorney who had seen the frequent reference to notes made by the judge, found this lying on the floor in front of the bench, close to the desk of the clerk. It is written with a lead pencil on a fragment of yellow scratch paper, and reads as follows:

"If defendant announces ready I would call a jury in the box. Have clerk read indictment, then there being no evidence, would instruct jury to acquit."

Some persons who have seen the fragment, say it is in the handwriting of the First Judge of the First Circuit, while others intimate that the handwriting is that of a lawyer who was in the courtroom.
