OAHU PRISON.

What the "Reef" Looks Like.

Reminiscences of a "Guest."

The next matter to be mentioned is the food. Before entering upon a description of the prison fare, I think it proper to dwell a little on the lack of spiritual food, which I encountered while under the care of our most Christian government. It is awfully painful to me to be obliged to make a statement which apparently places our authorities in a "heathen" and "barbaric" light. The truth, however, must be told. For seven weeks we unfortunate prisoners were left without spiritual comfort, and seven Sundays went by, without any church service being held, and without the slightest attempt to keep the sabbath sacred. Among us were men of many different religions and denominations, but to none was the opportunity given to worship according to his creed. The Salvation Army asked permission to hold service but it was refused. The Sunday school teachers and regular preachers at the jail either staid away or were kept away. That a government which has used "Christianity" versus "heathenism" as a point in favor of its recent actions should treat us so cruelly and refuse us the offices of ordained ministers is highly surprising and highly inconsistent with the principles of the members of the administration in their private life. What I suffered on this account can better be imagined than described.

But let us return to our mutton or rather beef steak. The food served in the Prison is not very bad. It is something like ordinary ship's fare. That is, what I and my "class" received. The natives and the prisoners of war generally lived for over a week on hard bread and tea served twice a day. The manner in which the food is served to the unfortunates who have to eat in their cells would do credit to the "waiters" in a zoological garden. The turnkey unlocks the door to the cell while a regular prisoner arranges the food to be delivered to the inmates. The door is then opened a few inches, the food is shoved in without any regard to where it lands and the door is banged to with an avarity that seems to indicate a fear that the caged "tigers" might break lose and eat the well fattened turnkey, existed for days on crackers and well they might after having and pots of alleged tea. We got beefsteak for breakfast and soup [a la l'eau] and more beefsteak for dinner and crackers and tea for supper. Sometimes the food was quite decent and well cooked. It depended on what jailbird was detailed to work in the kitchen.

We had a pretty good cook in the beginning of my stay. His time expired unfortunately and we were unable to induce him to commit some fresh offense upon being released and come back to serve us. I am inclined to suspect that he must have used some of Jailor Low's stores of spices and Worcestershire sauce because his soup was really respectable at one time. His successor evidently didn't know where to find the sauce and we drifted back again to the "dish water" style. We took our meals in the yard under the sheds which I have formerly described. It is not pleasant to eat in the cages. I had breakfast there one morning, and I didn't like it at all. The fact is that I am in the peculiar habit of taking a bath or at least an ablation in the morning before eating. Such sybaritism can of course not be appreciated by the prison authorities who made us eat in our cage without having made our toilet and without having had the room cleaned and the bucket—ugh, there goes that bucket again. I had to be practical though and I was hungry. Not being partial to the alleged tea, I washed myself as well as I could in the aforesaid concoction and then devoured the steak and potato served on a tin plate. Knives and forks are contrivances used by the ancients. Modern jails do not sport such luxuries. What are the fingers good for anyhow? After a while Low succeeded in persuading the government to run the risk of being charged with extravagance and a couple of dozen forks and knives were bought. Of course there was not enough of them to go "around," but then the game of borrowing is not new to any of us.

I must here again remind the reader that we were not convicts or under punishment, but that we were simply "suspects" and not even charged with any offense. Show me one place in the world where gentlemen are treated under similar circumstances in the manner that we were by the "gentlemen" who run the republic of Hawaii.

It is generally claimed that solitary confinement is a very severe punishment and very trying to the culprit undergoing it. I say, it depends on who your cell mate is. I was very fortunate myself in regard to partners, but I am sure that I would have preferred solitary confinement in several instances rather than being "doubled up" with certain individuals. One of our number evidently took the same view and he told me one day that he was bound to get into the hospital so as to get out of the cell and away from his mate. He is as strong as an ox, and I pointed out to him that it would be a hard job for him to be pronounced suffering from consumption, typhoid fever, gout or some other horrid disease. He winked at me with a knowing smile and told me that he intended to sprain or fracture an arm or a leg. I hardly thought that he would adopt such a heroic a measure, but a few mornings after, when I came out from the bath house, I heard a terrible crash. A figure in a dressing gown was rolling down the stairs, and a few minutes after, assisted to the hospital, holding on to his right arm in a most painful manner. A private physician was remarkably enough within ready call and immediately appeared on the scene, and attended to the injured man, who, since that day, enjoyed a specially good room, a daily visit from the doctor, a prescription for claret to strengthen him and I resume, a very nice doctor's bill when he got out of jail. I am pleased to state that his arm has fully recovered and that his voluntary "solitary" confinement has agreed better with him than his involuntary "doubling up" ever would.

Annexation.

As a specimen of undiluted twaddle give the prize to the editorial remarks in yesterday's Advertiser, in which the official organ appears as the apologist of the Cabinet and gives assurances of good faith to the annexationists in behalf of Dole & Company. Nobody ever demanded that the President or his Ministers should stand around the street corners and "talk" annexation, or appear with Sequah in a golden chariot with a brass band and talk spread-eagleism and jingoism. The only thing that the people who favor annexation desire to be convinced of is that the government is sincere in its efforts and that no stone is being left unturned in its attempt to obtain annexation, and that is where the doubt comes in. The honest and upright annexationists are getting sceptical and who can blame them? The Star cries, "Where is the Hawaiian Annexation Club?" The Bulletin howls, "Where are the Hawaiian annexationists?" The solemn chorus of town and country sings, "Where is the Government?"

And then comes the official morning organ and answers: "Hush, babies, hush! Don't cry for the moon. Don't swallow too many of the sugar-coated annexation pills. Leave everything to nurse Dole and nurse Thurston. When the right moment arrives, you shall have the moon and all the pills you want, but let your dear old nurse run the shebang in the meantime and be satisfied until then with being suckers."

Of course that sounds very fine and everybody accepts the oracular words of the Advertiser, but still the "babies" are inclined to ask: "Why shall we wait? Why is it necessary to 'educate' us before steps can be taken to secure the union? Why are our 'nurses' the very best men to lead us into the promised land?"

Of course such questions are not far from being impertinent. The fate of Hawaii is in the hands of the ruling clique, and where is the doubting Thomas who does not realize its superior qualities, its magnificent intelligence and Thurstonian unselfishness? We will get annexation fast enough. Only wait for the proper moment and for suitable terms. In the meantime possess your souls in patience, and hush-a-by in nurse's lap.

Finances.

The financial statement of the treasury, which is published weekly in the Star, does not show such a glorious condition of the government finances, as the public has been led to believe exists. We are told that one of the reasons for the calling of the special legislative session is to secure appropriations to carry out public works. That sounds very well, and we have no doubt that the appropriations will look perfectly beautiful and imposing on paper. But where is the money to come from?

The available cash is about $145,000. The taxes are all collected and the only "sure" thing that the government has is the demand for money to pay salaries and wages. During the last week the revenues only footed up about $21,000. More than one half of that sum was derived from the Custom House, and the other half from miscellaneous sources. Apparently no taxes were collected, though all the newspapers have stated that lots of people were arrested last week and forced to pay taxes. No government bonds were sold during the week, but the bonded debt amounts to nearly $3,000,000. About another million is due to the Postal Savings Bank and its note holders, which shows that Hawaii's debt to-day is very near $4,000,000. Under the present circumstances the government will find it pretty hard to borrow any more money, and to depend on the regular treasury balance for the carrying out of public works would be an absurdity of which the Cabinet never will be found guilty.

It is absolutely necessary that the coming Legislature shall investigate the financial status of the country. It is no use to keep on traveling in the dark. Let us know the truth and face the issue like men. If it prove that the abnormal circumstances under which Hawaii has existed for the last two years have led the treasury into deep water, let us say nothing about it, but try by all means to extricate the stranded financial vessel from the mud, and by increased taxation and rigid economy, which will not tolerate useless expenditures for soldiers and spies, endeavor to place the country on a sound financial basis. If Hawaii really desires closer political relations with the United States, and earnestly intends to proposed articles of a partnership, let her be in a position, first and foremost, to show a clean balance sheet, and let the fashionable local "experts" of books and accounts be unnecessary. If the financial statement published in last night's Star is correct, the government is in a worse fix than even its bitterest enemies believed it to be.

Observations.

It took "Student" seventeen columns to express his views in the INDEPENDENT on Pearl Harbor. The Star man uses twelve lines to refute Student's arguments and he gets a correspondent to make a few insignificant postulations in another column. And based on the remarks of Manana, who, by the way, shows the earmarks of a certain Pearl City promoter, the supreme evening paper says, "These facts are known to and have been accepted by all men capable of judging in the premises." If that is so, brother Star, you have evidently not "known or accepted" the fact.

A certain citizen in a store uptown yesterday said that the reminiscences of Oahu Prison published in the INDEPENDENT are all false and lies. This is a good specimen of the average "intelligent citizen" in Honolulu, who "knows it all." The critic admitted that he hadn't been in the prison and also admitted that the writer in the INDEPENDENT undoubtedly had been there. And consequently the critic was the best judge in the matter, but his asinine head ornaments continued to show plainly under his hat.

A Word In Time.

The Outlook, formerly New York Christian Union, of April 6th, contains the following concerning Mr. Thurston's coadjutor in Washington. Under the heading, "Tawdry and Barbaric," it says: "Senator Frye, of Maine, made a speech at Bridgeport last week, the quality and spirit of which are indicated by this brief extract: 'We will place our flag on all the seas of the earth, restore the merchant marine to its place, and will increase our white, strong-armed squadrons so that they command the respect of all nations. We will annex the Hawaiian Islands, fortify Pearl Harbor, build the Nicaragua Canal, and manage two great oceans. We will show people a foreign policy that is American in every fiber, and hoist the American flag on whatever island we think best, and no hand shall ever pull it down.' If Senator Frye were a local politician, these words might pass without comment; but he is a member of the highest legislative body in the country, and he is a leader of the party which may shortly come into power again. If these words are mere bluster, they are entirely unworthy the position of the man who uttered them. If they were seriously considered, they indicate a policy which may be described as tawdry and barbaric. The true way to maintain the dignity of the flag and command the respect of the world is not to set out upon a career of indiscriminate annexation; it is to make republican institutions synonymous with honesty, honor and human happiness. We have been grossly unfaithful in our custody of the great idea of free government. We have identified it in the mind of the world with corruption, inefficiency, and general wastefulness. Our first mission is to rescue that idea from the dirt in which we have trailed it. If Senator Frye is anxious to find a policy for the Republican party which will regain the confidence of the country and restore the respect of the world, let him lead the party to a reformation within its own ranks; before we have acquired another foot of territory, let him show us a sound government of the territory we already control. Let him inspire his party to break the bondage to which it is now bound hand and foot to corporations in New Jersey, throw off the incubus which has crushed the moral life out of it in Pennsylvania, and unseat the boss at Albany who is making a by-word of the party in this State. Let him show one American city honestly, economically, and efficiently governed, and then the country will be in a condition to turn its attention abroad. Meanwhile, its first function is to settle some of the problems which are pressing upon it at home. The attempt to direct attention from those problems or from poverty of domestic policy by a showy foreign programme based on the ethics of Dahomey will not succeed."

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Proceedings of the Regular Meeting.

Young Russian Heroine.

The Board of Health met yesterday afternoon, President W. O. Smith in the chair, with whom were present Drs. Emerson and Wood and T. F. Lansing, members; Charles Wilcox, secretary, and C. B. Reynolds, executive officer.

An old Chinaman appeared before the Board, bearing a letter from Dr. McGrew, to ask permission to use opium. The doctor stated that the applicant had smoked opium forty years.

Dr. Wood was strongly against giving open permits to smoke opium. When he had a patient that required opium, he never allowed him to take it himself, but gave it to him in his own way. He did not let him smoke it, and the patient did not know how much of the drug he was getting. If a man was allowed to take the drug in his own way, what was to prevent his turning his house into an opium joint?

Dr. Emerson asked the president if any measure was to be introduced in the Legislature for the licensing of opium.

The president answered that he could say nothing about the matter.

Dr. Emerson thought if a man needed opium to preserve his health or life he should be permitted to smoke it if smoking was his habit. It would be hard to require such a subject to pay for a doctor's prescription every day.

Dr. Wood said then the law would have to be changed.

Mr. Lansing concurred with Dr. Wood and the president that it would not do to give open permits.

Dr. Emerson said the best way for this Chinaman was to go to Dr. Howard at the Government dispensary every day and get the required dose. He added that there were numbers of opium users in prison for possession of opium, but he did not give them opium once in a hundred cases. They were given other medicine to tone them up.

The president dismissed the applicant with instructions to go to the dispensary for his opium.

Dr. W. T. Monsarrat, the official veterinarian's, reports for two weeks were read by the president. They showed for that time 104 bullocks and 10 calves slaughtered which were affected with liver fluke. A small number of the cases were from Maui and Molokai. Dr. Monsarrat's reports as inspector under the Act to Mitigate for two weeks were also read.

A letter was read from Deputy Marshal Brown recommending new regulations for minimizing the social evil, which he said was increasing especially in the matter of solicitation on the street. He favored the delimitation of some specified quarter outside of which the practices in question would be treated as criminal.

Mr. Brown was sent for, and, on his arrival, the discussion was continued with his participation. Suggestions were given to the Deputy Marshal, to aid him in reducing the cause of complaint.

Dr. Herbert's report as medical superintendent of the Insane Asylum was read. There were 86 inmates on March 31, against 80 on Dec. 31. The inmates at date of report are 71 males and 15 females. A Hawaiian male was discharged as improved, a Japanese female as cured and a Portuguese female as improved, while two Hawaiian females died. Twelve patients, evenly divided between the sexes, were received in the quarter. Dr. Herbert reports the general health of the institution good and the mortality small. The large majority of patients are Chinese, Hawaiian and Portuguese, there being 21 Chinese out of 15,000 population, 25 Hawaiians out of 35,000 and 15 Portuguese out of 8000. Most of those committed have been some years resident in the islands. "The utmost care is taken to keep the wards and cells scrupulously clean, which is a much more difficult proceeding than might appear to anyone not familiar with the ways and whims of these poor afflicted." The doctor gives full information regarding the conduct and regimen of the asylum. He notes with great pleasure the progress of the woman's department. In conclusion Dr. Herbert discusses in general terms the treatment of the insane, urging the importance of having their surroundings as bright, cheerful and comfortable as possible.

The report of K. W. Meyer, superintendent of the leper settlement, was read. It contained nothing of public interest. A telephone line across the mountains to his residence needed to be repaired, and the Board agreed to see the matter.

A letter was received from J. F. Hackfeld, acting Vice Consul of Russia, enclosing a letter from Wieniawsky, Counsellor of State of the Governor of Warsaw, Russia, stating that Mademoiselle de Frotzka, a Russian subject residing in Warsaw, engaged at the Hospital de St. Roch as assistant of the sister of charity, aged 25 years, desires to devote herself entirely to works of public charity and the care of the lepers, following the example of Miss Fowler, whom she would like to serve as aid, and under whose orders she would like to travel to the hospital at Honolulu. She has made serious studies in this specialty.

Mlle. de Frotzka wants to know if she would have to pay her own traveling expenses, and asks what documents she required to present for admission.

It was decided with very little talk to answer that there was no opening for the young lady at the leper settlement.

A petition from the lepers was read, praising Dr. Oliver's services and asking for their retention.

Several applications were received from persons who want to accompany the Board on its annual visit of inspection to the leper settlement. Decisions were reserved until it is seen what room there may be on the steamer. The visit is to be made on Friday, 24th inst.

Dr. Thompson, Government physician at North Hilo, answered a final notice to him that he must either give up acting as plantation attorney or resign his position under the Board. He said he would give up the law practice.

A complaint was read from Frank L. Hoogs, reporter for the Advertiser, about being prevented from going on board the steamer Gaelic.

Mr. Reynolds gave explanations, saying the steamer was in quarantine.

The president after a short discussion directed that an answer be sent to Hoogs, stating that the steamer was in quarantine and that the Board did not wish to make any discrimination against members of the press.

President Smith brought up the matter of accommodation for the convention of physicians to be held next week. There was a room in the Judiciary building available.

It was decided to refer applications to go on the Molokai trip to the president.

Dr. Emerson submitted from the leprosy committee a circular letter to be sent to physicians, soliciting correspondence on the question of remedies for the disease.

Those Seersucker Gingham 8 yards for $1.00, and those pretty new White Goods 5 yards for $1.00, that N. S. Sachs is selling, take the starch out of competition. may 16th.

Lewis & Co., grocers, are selling their goods at hard times prices. When you get the best quality of groceries and provisions at the lowest rates, you cannot help enjoying a feeling of happy satisfaction.

Joists eighty feet in length are made at the Enterprise planing mill for Kawaihae church's new roof. Their hauling round corners between the mill and the church involves considerable maneuvering.

"200" is the number most frequently called over the telephone wires. It rings up the UNITED CARRIAGE COMPANY'S stand, where Superior Hack with safe and courteous drivers, are always to be found. A complete livery outfit, including buggies and wagnettes, furnished at the shortest notice.

The Hollister Drug Company owns a peerless name for excellence of goods and attention to the wants of customers. Besides drugs and chemicals, toilet articles, etc., this corporation handles the finest descriptions of photographic apparatus and requisites.

A notice appears elsewhere of the dance at Independence Park in honor of Queen Victoria's birthday. Already the management has obtained assurances that it is to be one of the greatest social events in a long time. The refreshments are to be provided by lady friends.

A Chinese hack horse ran away last night from Maunakea street, and was caught at Afong's up Nuuanu avenue, without any damage having been done. That a Chinese hack horse should have energy enough to run off is enough to upset the equanimity of the horse marines.

Last night a patrolman reported a Chinaman as seriously ill from an overdose of opium. He was in a Chinaman's store at King and Liliha streets. Dr. Howard was notified, also Lieut. Renken of the mounted patrol. Renken found the man in a critical condition and reported his case to the Chinese consul. At an early hour this morning the sick man was still alive.

LOST.

On last Monday morning, on King Street, near Kawaihae Seminary, a black Collie dog, answers to the name of "Bob." Had a new collar on, no name. Finder will receive a suitable reward by returning same to MACFARLANE & Co., Kaahumanu Street. my 17 3t.

COURT RECORD.

John Dias Not Guilty of Liquor Selling.

Various Matters at Chambers.

Joe Dias was tried before Judge Cooper yesterday on the charge of selling spirituous liquors without a license. Robertson for prosecution; Kinney for defendant. The following were the jury: Wm. McGurn, A. K. Kunuakea, A. Bishaw, M. Kellina, H. E. Cooke, J. W. Mahelona, John Wallace, C. A. Long, S. Kamealoha, J. Nalua, C. B. Dwight, Hiram Kaaha.

A verdict was returned of not guilty, three jurors dissenting.

Kaniku was put on trial in the afternoon for assault with a dangerous weapon. Hartwell for prosecution; Brown and Kane for defendant. The following were the jury, after six jurors had been excused: H. Kolomoku, Peter Souza, J. Kapali, Jas. L. Holt Jr., John Baker, W. K. Waiama, C. P. Kanakani, A. Morris, M. P. Robinson, H. Kahalewai, T. R. Mossman, D. L. Keliipi.

At 5:20 the Court adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning.

Hermann Focke, executor of the will of the late James Gay, petitions that W. O. Smith be appointed guardian of the seven minor children.

Kaili Kakoi, administratrix of the estate of Petelo Kakoi, petitions for allowance of accounts and discharge.

W. F. Allen, as administrator of the estate of Wm. A. Aldrich, has filed a bond in $2000 with S. C. Allen as surety.

W. O. Smith, executor of the will of Geo. E. Richardson, has filed his final receipts. The three minor children received $702.89 each paid to W. O. Smith, guardian; John W. Smith, as guardian of Caroline Travis, received $176.05 and, as trustee for John Hapai, minor, $176.06.

W. R. Castle, attorney for Manuel Espinda and other heirs of Joe Espinda, has filed a motion for an order of redistribution. Circuit Judge Kalua of the Second Circuit has referred the accounts to Henry Smith, clerk of the Judiciary Department, to report thereon as master, ordering the executrix at the same time to pay funds in her hands to the said clerk.

Nancy K. Ryan has been granted a divorce from Alfred P. Ryan by Judge Whiting on the grounds of habitual intemperance, cruelty and failure to provide. C. Brown for libellant; no appearance of or for libelee.

Narrow Escape.

While some Portuguese workmen were hoisting corrugated iron to the top of the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday, the man holding the guiding rope did not handle it properly. In consequence a sheet of iron took off two or three bricks of the cornice. Wm. Keating, bricklayer, was working at the base of the building, besides the laborers engaged in hoisting. The bricks came down amongst them with terrific force, Keating's arm being grazed with one. Had a brick struck a man on the head, there would have been a subject for a coroner's inquest. Keating made a few remarks, naturally, such as might not be suitable from the platform inside of the building.

Thrown From His Horse.

A number of Philadelphia sailors were whooping it up yesterday evening and of course got on horseback, galloping through streets and roads. One man was thrown opposite George Beckley's residence on King Street and received serious injuries. He was taken to the police station, and the doctor of the Philadelphia was sent for to examine him. The doctor pronounced the man out of danger and more drunk than hurt. He will be released this morning. It shows good sense on the part of the officers on duty to send for the ship's doctor. "Back talk" is thereby prevented.

SPORTS.

Race Track Notes.

Everything is getting ready for the merry war on the 11th of June. Silky did some excellent work yesterday. Her time is of course kept dark, but 2:35 is not far off the point. James Quinn took out a track permit for Johnny Hayward and on Monday next the old "hack horse" will begin his training. Bert Lee was out yesterday morning. He has been photographed lately and makes a very pretty picture. He will be away below 2:33 when the day arrives. There is some kick (there are always kicks) because there is no three-minute class in the Jockey Club programme. It is stated that the 2:50 class was selected to make an opening for a certain horse and that five trotters which would have been entered were barred. Why not have a dignified race for double teams, owners to drive? It would be a pleasant event and the club need not put up any purse. There are a number of fine spans now in Honolulu, and several of them would enter just for the fun. Can't it be done yet?

EXCITING RUNAWAY.

Wreck and Ruin by a Horse in a Hotel.

A horse belonging to C. Stealing the painter ran away with a brake from Union street yesterday. It took the lane leading to the Arlington Hotel, but instead of keeping the road around the house the horse went straight through the house. After wrecking a door and other light wood-work in the rear, the brake now a wreck itself knocked out the next post and rails of the main aisle. Leaving the smashed vehicle behind the horse sprang over the veranda railing in the front of the house and escaped through one of the front gates on King street. It is a wonder the frantic beast did not try to go through the stone wall instead of the gate. It is the same horse as ran over M. Nieper the expressman, injuring him seriously, the other day. Such a horse should be devoted to the bone yard without delay. It costs its owner much more than it is worth, and has several times nearly caused loss of human life. Thomas Krouse, proprietor of the Arlington, and a boy had narrow escapes from being badly hurt, if not killed, by the horse's mad career through the hotel.

SEQUEL OF THE ROW.

"Trix" In Jail, Wichart Exiled.

The two patrolmen who were implicated in the brutal assault on Captain Cook of the mounted police have received their just dues. Nelson is in the chain gang and will remain there for six months, and yesterday Wichart pleaded guilty to the charge of aiding and abetting Nelson and he was given the option of clearing out of the country or going to jail. He accepted the first proposition and will leave the country at the earliest opportunity.

Booming.

That there is no necessity for Honolulu's good people to send to San Francisco for "cheap" goods, or patronize the Japanese and Chinese stores, was demonstrated yesterday at Waterhouse's clearance sale, at the Queen street store. The store was packed from morning till evening, and the fortunate purchasers made many a desirable bargain. The excellent goods for which Waterhouse's store is famous in Hawaii were sold at prices difficult to imagine except in dreams. The goods were cleared out, the cash rolled in and the merry sale goes on to-day.

About midnight a gentleman living on Young street discovered a fire in the yard adjoining the residence of Capt. McAllister. The fire was caused by the burning of rubbish next to a fence and a stable. The fence caught fire and if it had not been for the prompt action of neighbors called to the scene a serious conflagration would have taken place.

Canada Against Annexation.

Albany, April 25.—The Legislature yesterday adopted a motion favoring political union with Canada.

Ottawa (Ont.), April 25.—Regarding the motion passed by the New York Legislature to-day favoring the political union of the United States and Canada, Premier Bowell said:

"The average American has as kindly a feeling toward Canada as we have toward the United States.
It is only demagogues and irresponsible vandals like Mr. O'Grady that attempt to create ill-feeling between the two countries. Every Canadian knows that there is no annexation sentiment in this country, because we believe we are better off than Americans.
We have passed through the financial crisis better than they have. We have a more reliable banking system than they have.
We have no negro problems, and we have no anarchists or bombthrowers. We have a responsible Government; they have not.
If the Canadians lose confidence in the Government of which I am the head, we can be put out of power in a month. Cleveland governs for four years and cannot be displaced except by a process never resorted to successfully.
Besides all this, we are Britishers and we intend, I think, to stay so."

Sir Richard Cartwright, a prominent Liberal leader, said:
"This man O'Grady is looking for notoriety and favor with his own not very desirable class.
Americans who visit Canada expecting to find a strong annexation sentiment invariably go home without having found any at all.
That states the whole question."

Stupid Yarns.

The following which appeared in the S. F. Bulletin shows what rot is being manufactured and believed of Hawaii.

The passengers of the Australia speak at length upon the subject of the torture of a Chinese prisoner by the jailor of the prison at Honolulu. The Hawaiian papers state that the jailor denies the allegations, but it is reported that several witnesses swore to the truth of the following story:
A Chinese named Ah Quon,
who was accused of smuggling opium, was arrested and placed in the Honolulu jail. He tried to escape and was captured. The jailor caused him to be suspended by his pigtail to a telephone pole for several hours. The celestial suffered great torture until cut down by order of a person higher in authority than the prison officials.

The Spreckels Slander Suit.

San Francisco, May 2.—C. A.
Spreckels devoted several hours yesterday to telling why he sued his father for slander. Claus Spreckels will tell to-day why he made the statements to which his son takes exception. The statements of each will be used in the coming trial.

The deposition of C. A. Spreckels was taken yesterday by Ed
Levy, a notary public. S. M.
Shortridge, who appeared as the attorney of Claus Spreckels, limited the examination for the most part to an effort to ascertain wherein the plaintiff had suffered any specific damages. While the young man could not mention any particular occasion where he had suffered financially, he had said that his general reputation had been injured. All of the Spreckels millions, he said, would not recompense him for the damage done to his standing in the community.

The suit for slander, it will be remembered, is based on an article published several weeks ago in which Claus Spreckels was quoted as saying that C. A. Spreckels and his younger brother had attempted to defraud him of a large sum of money, and that C.
A. Spreckels was a poor business man and would soon be bankrupt.
After a great deal of legal sparring between Mr. Shortridge and Mr. Ach with regard to certain question which Mr. Spreckels had been instructed by the Court on a former occasion that he need not answer, the examination of the witness began.

The deposition of Claus Spreckels will be taken at 2 o'clock this afternoon before ex-Judge Lawler, in the office of Henry Ach, a notary public.
