A NEW CLUB.

A Meeting To-morrow Evening to Discuss the Proposition.

When the Hagay Social Club died through the necessary settlement up of the affairs of the Hagay Institute, of which it was an offshoot, a few of those associated with it appreciating the many pleasant evenings they had enjoyed there in each other's company decided to organize a new club on a broader basis and entirely dissociated from the former club yet retaining the advantages of its pleasantest experiences.

Consequently a short prospectus was drawn up on the first instant and after a brief canvass by one of the members about forty promises were promptly obtained. It was then thought advisable to postpone further action until a meeting was called to discuss matters. This meeting will be held at Charley Lind's restaurant on Nuuanu, between King and Hotel, to-morrow, Thursday evening, at 7:30 when should the number present justify such a course, and the meeting so decide, a preliminary organization will be effected.

This prospectus reads as follows:

We the undersigned hereby agree to associate ourselves as members of a new Social and Reading Club on the following bases and principles:

1. Good fellowship and conduct.
2. Open to persons of all politics, religions, races and occupations.
3. The majority to rule.
4. The Club to be self-supporting from its beginning and not to incur debt under any consideration.
5. Punctual payment of dues; or satisfactory arrangements for their payment at stated periods by the temporarily unemployed.
6. No intoxicating beverages to be furnished, or consumed, on the Club premises.
7. No direct, or indirect, gambling or betting to be permitted on the Club premises.

When thirty names have been affixed to these preliminary lists, a meeting of the signatories shall be called to organize, frame a constitution and by-laws, elect officers and rent Club rooms and furniture.

It is understood that to-morrow evening the promoters will be ready with a report in regard to rooms and furniture for the Club, and that they also desire as many as favor the formation of such a Club to attend the meeting and express their views.

It is hoped that arrangements may be satisfactorily made to enter into permanent organization on the Club premises on December 1st, if not before.

It goes without saying that Honorary and Contributory Members will be welcomed.

It is understood, though not determined, that the initiation fee will be one dollar and the monthly dues one dollar. The preliminary lists open for signature are in the hands of Charles Lind, James Monkhouse and Walter Brash, who will gladly furnish information. Nearly one-half of the members of the new Club were members of the old one.

If such a Club can be properly organized and conducted it will fill a vacant space by providing a comfortable place for men to while away their idle hours with a pipe and games of skill at cards, chess, checkers, and billiards or pool in due course. The Honolulu Library and the Y. M. C. A. furnish the other opportunities for the more studiously minded and this Club will, if successful, "cap the climax."

The Agricultural Bureau.

The Bulletin of the Bureau for this week has the following to say in reference to the profit-making cocconut. It omits a description of the luscious milk which is so invigorating if properly mixed with cordial of spiritus frumenti, and which is said to be the finest "pick-me-up" ever invented by nature and man combined:

Cocconut trees.—Five years ago, Hugh McIntyre imported 2000 Samoan nuts for E. Lindemann, which the latter planted along the sea coast at Wailua, Kauai. To day he has 2000 cocconut trees in bearing and some of them had fruit when only four years old.

Mr. Lindemann says that in some places he had to dig holes in the rocks to get the nuts planted. As copra and cocconut it is in great demand, the product of each tree is worth one dollar per year or at a very low estimate, fifty cents per tree as at Wailua. You have $1000 net, or say you value the tree (six years old) at ten dollars. There you have $20,000 worth of property.

Mrs. Lindemann has now gone East to sell this year's crop. These are no fancy coffee figures, but facts. You can get one of these beautiful Samoan cocoanuts, sprouted, of Hugh McIntyre for twenty-five cents. They are worth five dollars. If you have a place to plant them, they will increase the value of your lot. After you get them growing, these little cocoa palms are worth a dozen of the almost worthless trees (with fictitious names) that you get from the Government nursery for nothing.

The cocconut is destined to become one of the most valuable products to civilized man.

There is a tendency amongst educated people to cease using animal fats, as it leads to disease. Through recent perfection of methods, the fatty oil from the copra is manufactured into a healthy substitute for animal fats, and the demand is greater than the supply, for culinary purposes.

We eat too much beef and too little fruits and vegetables.

Thanksgiving Service.

Thursday, November 25th, being the day set apart for thanksgiving, the second congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral will hold a special service on that day in the morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Alex. Mackintosh will be in charge and the choir of ladies and gentlemen will render the following program of music:

- Organ prelude.....Westbrook
- Festival responses.....Tallis
- Venite in G.....Turle
- Te Deum in F.....Vogrich
- Jubilate in G.....Holden
- Anthem—Sing and be joyful...Hall
- Hymn—We plough the fields and scatter.
- Hymn—Now thank we all our God.
- Organ postlude—Harvest Thanksgiving March.....Calkin

From casks rotund, the mellow brew Of Pabst springs perfect to the light.

FOR THEIR COUNTRY AND FLAG

In spite of all that Mr. Thurston the hired emissary of the coolie, owning planters may say in regard to the sentiments of the Hawaiians the fact remains that every man, woman and child belonging to the Hawaiian race oppose the attempts of Mr. Dole's unscrupulous adventurers to sell the islands to the United States and establish a colony to be governed and ruled by themselves.

By the next steamer a number of Hawaiians will leave for Washington and there join Queen Liliuokalani in an appeal to the American people asking that their country be allowed to stand independent among the nations of the world, and that the Hawaiian people be permitted to fly the flag under which they were born and for which they have the same love, the same sincere respect the same aloha as have the Americans for the glorious Stars and Stripes.

It would appear to any fairminded man that the Hawaiians are going to the right place in their search for freedom and self-government. The American people pride themselves on the magnificent principles of liberty and freedom embodied in that model instrument, the constitution of the United States. The people of Hawaii ask no favors from America. They pray that they may be left in peace and work out their own salvation. Hawaii for the Hawaiians is their cry, and the whole world will see a wonderful spectacle indeed, if the free liberty loving citizens of the Great Republic across the sea stifle the cry of a civilized nation and by their superior strength force the Hawaiian Islands into the great Union of American States. It will not be annexation but it will be a conquest of the weak by the strong, the cowardly act of the bully.

The men who will travel to Washington may accomplish very little, but it is meet that the people of the United States should be reminded of the fact that the Hawaiian people now held in thralldom by the guns of the white squadron of America, are not sitting patiently along the rivers lomoaning their fate to the plaintive tune of their Portuguese-made ukuleles but that they feel deeply the danger which now threatens the independence of their country, their national existence, and that they want to be heard in their appeal for justice and fairness by every nation in the world and especially by the American people.

The do not follow the example of the Cubans in devastating their country and destroying plantations and towns. The Hawaiians believe in the honor of the American people and appeal to them for their country and flag.

HE COULD NOT LIE.

Says the President's imported relative, who also holds a fat Government billet, to Senator Chandler: "You know me, and you know I won't lie to you. I tell you that the islands will make just as good an American community as can be found on Uncle Sam's Farm." No one disputes any of these facts any more than that President Dole has a very pretty residence, and a very bonnie yacht, and a very snug salary for being the figure-head of the oligarchy, but these facts do not afford a legal argument why we should forcibly deprive this political high-muck-a-muck of his pleasant possessions or put them up to auction for our private benefit. "There is no pleasanter place to live in," says Mr. E. P. Dole, "and I see no reason why he (Uncle Sam) should not have his share of the good things going." That certainly is the freebooter's moral, "take what you can, and hold fast to it when you've got it." But then he also blindly offers as another excuse the contradictory one "the greed of greater nations for increased territory and power," as one of the main reasons why his "greater power" should steal a land from its people to please a handful of "intensely American" Americans so that Senator Chandler and he might loaf around Pearl Harbor "in the President's little yacht, the Bonnie Dundee," (oh! pretty taffy for my uncle) remain aground all night (as he did) "and contemplate how this harbor gives the naval power which hold its command of the great Pacific Ocean." THE INDEPENDENT has an impression that, as Providence generally punishes the criminal in the long run, the United States will swallow more than it can comfortably digest when it gobbles up the Hawaiian Islands. Write on, E. P. D., and furnish the world with more of your "facts," and if you want printing space rope to hang your cause with we will give it to you—with pleasure, and "stand by" you also.

HAWAIIAN INSULTED.

THE INDEPENDENT does not know who is responsible for sending the jurors in the Smith murder case to the Sailor's Home. As a matter of fact we do not care to know who is responsible for this latest exhibition of "race feeling." Judge Perry and Attorney-General Smith would not dare to confine a "white" jury at the Sailor's Home or any other place of a similar nature but the Hawaiians who are serving the Government as jurors are evidently not entitled to any consideration. The Sailors' Home may be a very decent place in its way, but we fail to see why the authorities should select it as the abiding place of the men who do their duties as good citizens in serving as jurors. If the 12 jurors who are now trying the men supposed to be implicated in the assassination of Dr. Smith have any self-respect and a clear understanding of their rights, they will leave the Sailors' Home and demand first class accommodations during the trial. The taxpayers of Hawaii are the hosts of the jurors during jury trials and they do not propose to treat their guests in a shabby manner.

The Sailors' Home may be a very nice place. The manager of it was a very nice and smooth bartender in the "Sparta," in San Francisco, in the Hotel and the refined Commercial Saloon of Honolulu. Admitting these good points we do not think that the Sailors' Home is the proper place for jurors to be compelled to live in. The Home was built and is supported by men interested in sailors, and not as a resting place or asylum for jurors.

PLEASING PROSPECTS FOR HAWAII.

HONOLULU, H. I., August 15.—American negroes will henceforward work the cane fields of Hawaii and the Japs and Chinese must go. So says the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, and the plan has the full indorsement of the Government. Ten thousand negroes will be imported from the Southern States during the next twelve months, and a corresponding number of Asiatics must seek other climes.—S. F. Examiner.

HAWESVILLE, Ky., Sept. 26.—At 5 o'clock this (Sunday) evening, in the midst of a revival, not a mask to be seen and in the presence of 800 infuriated people, Raymond Bushrod, a negro, was made to pay the penalty of his assault on 14 year-old Maggie Roberts. He was swung from a limb in the courthouse yard.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Sept. 26.—Henry Richardson, colored, is in jail here for criminally assaulting Julia Smith colored, 10 years old. If not protected by militia, lynching will be scarcely avertible. Excitement is intensified by to-day's event in Hawesville.

The Miniature Yacht Race.

The miniature yacht race of the Hui Moku Lili'i yesterday was quite a success. The Judges were Edward Lilikalani, Kahulu and W. Hakalau, and the course from the Healanani Boat Club House to the Bell buoy and return. The first prize, Queen Dowager Kapiolani's cup, was won by Kasuai's Healanani in 3 hours and 15 minutes. Prince Cupid Kalaniana'ole's yachts Lady L No. 1 and No. 2 coming in second and third, with Prince David's K. I. I. K. fourth, and Mahuka's boat fifth.

The day was celebrated with a largely attended luau at Honuakaha.

"You say he was a wonderful raconteur, but his stories didn't strike me as so very interesting."

"Oh, but when he gets to the end of one, it never reminds somebody else of another!"

Chat on the Boulevard.—Saddler—"That was a wonderful performance of Star Pointer's, wasn't it? I tell you, a mile in less than two minutes is going pretty fast." Wheeler—"You bet it is. What gear did he have, I wonder?"

SAFE SAFER, SAYED

A very safe topic to discuss at all times and under all conditions, for it embraces politics, religion, progress and morality and in fact from it can diverge a million conversational ideas.

At present we have only one idea in our mind: We are your savior, we have the safe and you will be saved if you inspect and buy one of our VICTOR SAFE and Lock Company's safes.

In all our experience we have never sold safes as rapidly and numerously as just now or given greater satisfaction. We have these Victor safes, all with COMBINATION locks, in six different sizes and can order other sizes. They are the LOWEST PRICED safes in the market. You can buy one for $15 or you can pay more.

BURGLAR PROOF AND FIRE PROOF

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Australia sails at 4 p. m. to-day.
 The Hawaiian Planters' Association meets on Monday.
 Ring up 841, if you have anything to say to THE INDEPENDENT.
 J. T. Lund's telephone number is 398, if you wish any bicycle work done.

Princess Kaiulani will be "at home" to-morrow afternoon between the hours of 3 and 6.
 A business man on Fort street is feeling proud to-day. His assiduous work has received its reward.

The balance of the royal chinaware and silver will be sold by Auctioneer Morgan to-morrow.
 The Alameda is due from San Francisco on Thursday and the Gaelic for San Francisco on Friday.

The Ewa stockholders have postponed the consideration of the proposition to double up on their stocks.
 It is claimed that there is no leakage at the Punchbowl reservoir. It is only an intentionally caused overflow.

Ladies Day at the Pacific Tennis Club this afternoon from 3 to 5:30. No band will play at the Executive grounds.
 Senator Pettigrew will return to town to-morrow by the Kinau, and will attend a dinner to-morrow evening at the United States legation.

There is apparently no hope of the recovery to health of Mr. P. G. Camarinos, much to the deep regret of very many friends in Honolulu.

The annual meeting of the trustees of the Anglican Church in Hawaii will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock, November 26, in the Cathedral precincts.

"Christopher, Jr.," the bill for the opening of the Frawley season gives the ladies of the company a chance to display some of their pretty gowns.

The Hawaiian National band boys are celebrating the first anniversary of their return to Hawaii at a luau at the residence of Bandmaster Sam Kamakaia.

The teachers of Central Union Sunday Schools meet in the lecture room of the church this evening to arrange a program for Christmas cheer for the little ones.

Some interesting developments in horse racing as carried out by a certain clique in Honolulu are predicted to be given publicity in the near future. When rogues fall out, etc.

Mr. Walter McBryde of the bank of Bishop & Co., is confined to his bed nursing an attack of malaria fever. Judge Whiting is entertaining his gouty old friend and is carrying his right arm in a sling.

Princess Kaiulani attended the band concert last evening, and the attendance was unusually large. There is not seating accommodation sufficient for the general public at present but this can be remedied.

Everything is now in readiness for the opening of the Frawley season. The sale has been unusually large and the audience promises to be one of the most fashionable ones that has ever gathered in the Opera House.

Mr. D. G. Camarinos of the California Fruit Market having successfully proved what he can do in fruit and vegetable farming now proposes to have a steam launch for his harbor business. He is undoubtedly a very progressive business man.

Jas. T. Stacker evidently means business with the Hawaii Herald. Even its first issue under his management shows promise of very satisfactory developments as he becomes more firmly seated in the saddle and more thoroughly familiar with his environments.

A Capital Concert.

The free concert at the Y. M. C. A. last evening was a success musically and socially. As usual Professor Yandley won the highest honors with his perfectly rendered Nocturne and the very sympathetic interpretation of the beautiful melody the "Suwanee river." The duet between himself and Mr. Love admirably brought out the growing power of the younger and clever violinist. Miss Ward was in excellent voice and delighted her audience. Miss Johnson and Mr. Macurda earned a well deserved encore while Mr. Wilcox showed that he had complete control over his piano. The accompanists were Miss Clymer, Miss Patch and Mr. Lampert, a pianist of marked talent.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Now that the chances for the passage of the Annexation Treaty by the Senate of the United States are becoming more and more doubtful, other and more desperate means are to be resorted to. Ugly rumors are current that the annexationists will seek to precipitate a disturbance that will warrant the United States Minister and Admiral Miller in landing the armed forces from the U. S. ships Baltimore and Bennington "to protect American interests." Once landed the American flag will be raised and a short cut to annexation accomplished. The sudden departure of General Hartwell would seem to warrant the belief that trouble is imminent.

The departure for Washington of Mr. William Auld of Honolulu and Colonel John Richardson of Maui shows that the anti-annexation move is not as dead as some of the ex-royalist papers desire the people to believe. Mr. Auld is a man well versed in Hawaiian matters, and his high standing in the community is well illustrated by the rank held by him in Masonic societies. Colonel Richardson is one of the ablest Hawaiians who has taken part in public business and in Hawaiian politics. He believes in good government for Hawaii, but first and last he fights to the bitter end for the preservation of the autonomy of his native country. Representatives of the different political societies may also travel to Washington to assist in the fight against annexation without a vote of the Hawaiian people.

It is with regret that we have to notice the frequent occurrence of unpleasantness caused by petty jealousy among Hawaiians. Men and women of all races have family rows, but the educated, refined gentlemen and gentle-women do not wash their soiled linen in public. Instances occur, however, when decent people desiring peace and nothing else, have been insulted and annoyed in public. The law has no suitable provisions in such cases but the Press has, and can make things very uncomfortable for men or women who refuse to recognize and respect the sanctity of the home and who apparently enjoy the annoying of people who deserve and will have the protection of the best portion of our community. Perhaps we are referring to a special case. If so, take warning, ladies, and don't tamper with dangerous material which may prove a boomerang.

Socialism.

Socialism does not wish to abolish private property, or accumulation of wealth; but aims to displace the present system of private capital by a system of collective capital, which would introduce a unified organization of national labor.

Cricket Notes.

A return whole day match is proposed between Davies & Co., and Honolulu C. C., on Thanksgiving Day or Hawaiian holiday, picnic on the field.

Davies & Co. have some useful players in, James, Hatfield, Hewitt, and the Davies brothers.

Clive Davies captained his team well last week, especially considering the amount of almost raw material he had under him.

Glad to hear that Commissioner Kenny is an old cricketer and on his return to normal health intends to assist us in the field.

We are also glad to welcome back to active work Messrs. Starkey and Lightfoot. T. Starkey, an old English County player. Lightfoot, a slashing bat, well known here in the past.

Now that Mr. Theo. Davies has promised an outfit to Davies & Co., two clubs should be started, and a Union formed. It is quite possible that the baseball boys will form a club, as those who have tried the game, say it plays much better than it looks and if the difficulty of obtaining bowlers could be overcome, their smart fielding and trained eyes for batting, would largely assist in making them a worthy foe.

All the cricketers wish for now, to have a popular season, is a more centrally situated ground, also owing to the refusal of the Government to our enclosing a piece of land 24 yards by 3 yards, with a movable fence on our present ground, we are unable to have a decent level pitch to play on and that combined with the distance from the town, makes its most unsatisfactory to a large majority of players.

The Kauai Murder Case.

A jury of twelve Hawaiians was impanelled last night to try Kapea and his alleged accessories, charged with the killing of Dr. Smith on Kauai.

The jurors are considered fair and inflexible men, and their verdict will be honest.

This morning the case was opened by Mr. Kinney, who on behalf of the prosecution made an eloquent address to the court. Mr. Rosa, one of the attorneys for the defense, was obliged to check Mr. Kinney in several instances, when he, the representative of the Government, jumped beyond his bounds of authority.

A recess was taken till 2 o'clock this afternoon when the first witness for the prosecution will be called.

Ladies Drawers, exceptional value for 50 cents, at Sachs.

The Kilohana Art League rooms will be open free on Monday evenings from 7 to 9. School children are welcome any afternoon except Sundays, Honolulu not yet being "up to date" in opening her art galleries on the puritan's Sabbath.

Cut Glass of the finest quality; Royal Worcester, Coalport China; Daish Pottery; Wedgewood Ware Real; Bohemian Glass, decorated and plain; French China Table Ware; Piano Lamps; Banquet Lamps; Hanging Lamps; Japanese Chinaware, Trays, etc.

There are three brands of Jams and Jellies known to be absolutely pure. Crosse & Blackwells, Morton's and Code, Efelt & Co. During the pure food crusade in California the goods of the latter passed every inspection and now come out of the factory specially stamped "Pure Food." We have a complete stock of these goods and offer them to the public at very low prices.

Our grocery department is full to the brim with reliable goods and our prices are low enough as to draw comment from other dealers. We buy for cash in quantities to suit the demand and consequently they are always fresh.

We handle the celebrated Albert boneless sardines and the Palace brand of sliced bacon, two articles for the table that are unexcelled.

We carry a full line of table delicacies, English and American and promptly fill orders. Prompt delivery in all cases whether in person or by telephone and careful attention paid to the selection of goods.

Annexation Unjust to Hawaii, Unjust to America.

The last of the Congressional picnic party who have been down to Honolulu have now returned home or are on their way, and have not brought the Hawaiian Islands with them. They still rest in the bosom of the ocean, somewhat disturbed by the mighty volcano and at times, troubled by the leproustaint among their people, but otherwise quiet.

It is possible the visitors have performed some diplomatic incantation which shall presently result in a great transformation scene and which will widen the maps of the United States by over one-half to include these islands of the sea. In fact, it is all too possible. They went there not so much to consider the feasibility of annexation as to seek means to bring it about, and if there were any among them who had some little doubt of the advisability of the measure that it proposed to carry out there were in Honolulu and on the steamship that carried them there men of plausibility to deal with these honest and creditable views.

It might be well for the Federal Government to ask itself at this time, has this country not got already more diverse and opposed races under its flag than it can deal with successfully? Why should it seek to receive into citizenship at one swoop 80,000 people who are tainted with an awful and ineradicable disease, whose customs are alien to those of this republic, who are idle if not vicious, immoral if not criminal, and at the same moment keep guard at the ports of the Atlantic Coast so that no single objectionable immigrant shall set foot on these shores?

Are these Europeans who are thus debarred refused admission to this country sole because they would cheapen the price of labor in a market which is already overflowing? Not at all. These are reasons and important ones, but there is a greater principle in the background. It is that they have come in numbers too vast to be assimilated in our republican life and that their increasing presence is a menace to the state.

Then why should these people of the Sandwich Islands be brought into the Union? Their social life is antagonistic to ours as that of that flood of immigration we are now stopping on the Eastern coast. They have a country, it is true, that is rich with possibilities, but it is far distant, exposed to attack in case of war—undefensible, requiring great outlay for administration purposes—and out of touch everywhere with the genius of the American people.

Does any one think that the great colonial possessions of England are the source or the mainstay of her power? If so, he is vastly in error. They are a source of outlay, of trouble and concern. There is no colony under the English flag to-day that may not without her let or hindrance, or even remonstrance, hoist a national flag and declare itself free and independent. The colonies are loyal, it is true, but they are loyal because the mother country is a protectress in fact, that her policy is fixed by years of precedent, and by reason of it the colonial people know what to depend upon. The people of Hawaii can have no such assurance of steadfast support; they must always feel that they will be but nominally, not actually, Americans.

There is no commercial profit to be looked for that is not ours already, or that the legitimate efforts of trade cannot secure. There is no strategic value in islands which if regarded as protection to the Pacific Coast are 1700 miles from it. One might as well say the Island of St. Helena serves that end for the Cape and South African colonies. It can be of no value as a coaling station, because there is no probability that the great fleets will ever maneuver there. Its annexation would be unjust to its people and our own.—Philadelphia Times.

NOT ON THE TICKET.

A sensation was sprung at the Central Committee headquarters yesterday afternoon by the announcement that there had been an omission in the ticket filed and consequently the entire ticket would be illegal. After working everybody up to fever heat the member making this announcement stated that the omission consisted in the failure to include Rainier Beer on the list of candidates for popular favor. Rainier Beer, however, does not need to be on any ticket, as it was long ago voted to be the best beer made on the coast. Criterion Saloon
