HOTEL STREET

Should be of Interest

We have just marked and placed on sale another large shipment of Merchandise Direct from New York

comprising, among other things, some of the latest Novelties for LADIES' EVENING WEAR, arriving just in time for the approaching opera season.

French Silk Gauzes

With alternating satin and lace stripe, 44 inches wide, in black and all the popular evening shades—pink, light blue, maize, lavender, black, shot with silver threads; black, with satin stripe and ecru lace insertion; Nile green, lavender, maize, with satin stripe and ecru lace insertion; black spangled, with gold sequins, and white spangled, with silver sequins. These are only a few of a stock too numerous for individual mention, comprising Chiffons, Silk Mulls, Liberty Silks, etc.

Pine Apple Silk

This most desirable fabric we import direct from Japan, and the number of good qualities it possesses is astonishing.

It resembles silk in lustre and strength. It is made from a vegetable fiber, and, consequently, washes, tanning perfectly. It does not easily crumple or muss, but once crumpled, it is easily pressed, so that it looks as good as new. In spite of its extreme thinness, its strength is remarkable. It makes one of the daintiest of evening dresses.

Opera Capes

Just received direct from Europe, a half dozen Opera Capes, which, we believe, will be pronounced by competent judges to be the triumph of the dress-makers' art. There are no two of these alike in any respect, and any lady wanting a really chic and up-to-date opera cape should see these at once. They are so few and so desirable that they will be soon disposed of.

Gloves

We carry the world-known Dent's Kid Gloves, than no better is made. We have them from two-clasp length to 22-button length. We have them in black, white, pink, light blue, lavender, fawn, etc. Any one wanting a first-class, perfectly fitting glove, will do well to call and examine the Dent's gloves. Their price is no higher than others, in spite of their superiority.

Fans

Just received and marked a line of the latest in evening fans; no two alike. Among them are some exquisite creations—hand-painted, daintily colored, with hand-carved ivory sticks. No evening gown will be complete without one of these fans. Come and see them.

Gimps and Passamenteries

For trimming evening dresses, we have a stock, very complete, of all evening shades of Bead Passamenteries, Silk Appliques, Chiffon Ruffles and Ruching Sequins in all colors, Sequin Trimmings and Applique and a host of others too numerous to mention.

Ladies' Muslin Underwear

Our stock of this is very complete and choice, we buying only of the very best makers of the most advanced ideas and styles.

Shirt Waists

We have just placed on sale another line of Ladies' Waists, in both colors and white, comprising everything that is latest and new, and, what is of some importance, they are marked right.

For the benefit of tourists, who come here unprepared with suitable clothing adapted to this climate, we would say that our Shirt Waists and ready-made Skirts of pique, linen, covert cloths, etc., should prove a boon.

Gentlemen

We have just received direct from New York a very choice line of the latest in Neckwear. There is not an odd number in the lot. These have been very carefully selected, and will only have to be seen to be appreciated. In addition, we have our usual stock of carefully selected Gent's Furnishings.

Home Again.

A. Gartenberg, Secretary of M. S. Grinbaum & Co., Ltd., returned on Tuesday night from a four months visit to the Coast, accompanied by his family. Mr. Gartenberg looks well in spite of going through a siege of the grip while away. Mrs. Gartenberg also had an attack of pneumonia during her absence but is happily recovered. Both are glad to be back in Honolulu again.

Well Known Here.

Among the Gaelic's through passengers was Lieutenant W. H. Alderdyce, who was here with the U. S. S. Bennington some three or four years ago. The lieutenant is a playwright and actor of no mean ability. During his long stay in this city, he took the leading character in "Meredith's Old Coat," a comedy of which he was the author and which has since been produced in some of the best theaters on the mainland. Among those associated with Lieutenant Alderdyce in that production, which was given two nights in Independence Park, were Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Major Potter and A. St. Martin Mackintosh. "Meredith's Old Coat" will be remembered by the hundreds who witnessed it as one of the most enjoyable amateur performances ever given in this city.

The Daily Republican will be delivered to any part of the city for 75c per month.

AMUSEMENTS

There was a good attendance at the third performance of "Fra Diavolo" by the Southwell Opera Company at the Orpheum last night. "Fra Diavolo" is Asher's brightest work. It is more than a light opera, being rather of the romantic, or semi-grand. Its music is pleasing and catchy—so much so that it has been one of the most favored operas on the stage since its initial production. It is well sung by the company at the Orpheum—very well sung. If it was as well acted as it is sung, the rendition would be simply a great performance.

But, then, one must not expect too much. Opera singers, like other people, are not perfect. Many good singers are poor or indifferent actors. It is not often that one person combines both qualities. Mr. Baker, the new tenor, needs to throw away his self-consciousness and become imbued with the idea that he is only one actor in this big world and that other singers, even as good as he, will come after him. Just as he is confidently believed the southwell company will render a good account of themselves in the production. With Miss Sallinger as Leonore, Miss Ladd as Azucena, Mr. Goff as Count di Luna and Mr. Baker as Manrico, the prison scene should be one to arouse the audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

The First Message.

The pole for the Kaimuki Station of the Wireless Telegraph Co., has been placed in position on Telegraph Hill. On Tuesday expert Pletts left on the Mokoli with the equipment for Lanai station. It is the present plan to make Lanai station the main station for transmitting message from Oahu to Maui and Molokai.

On Saturday an illustration will be given of the work of the new system and a message will be sent from Kaimuki station to the Executive Building on the flag pole of which a receiving instrument will be rigged. In the afternoon Will E. Fisher will sell at auction the right to send the first message and Cecil Brown, J. H. Fisher and C. M. Cooke will be the judges to determine on the use of the sum received for the first privilege. The auction will take place on the front steps of the Executive Building and from the interest manifested it promises to be quite an event.

CAPTAIN BRAY OF SAILORS HOME

Opinion Regarding Matters and Conditions Along the Waterfront.

Captain I. Bray said yesterday, while speaking of the Sailors Home and the conditions along the waterfront: "There is very little doing now. Less than fifteen seamen are available for shipping at present; but there will be a large number of ships in soon, which will make business brisk again."

"There are some twelve sailors in the home now and we are not taking in landmen. Yes, we are still running the restaurant, but we wish to supply lodging only to seamen. At present I have no boat in connection with the house; when a captain engages men of me he generally sends his boat in for them."

"As long as present conditions on the waterfront continue it will be nearly impossible for me to do much business. There is not much money in the place at present. I am making a living, but that is about all. I think, however, I can rest upon my oars until there is an improvement in waterfront affairs."

"I believe it would be to the interest of all persons, if the business men interested in ships, either as owners or agents would band themselves together and patronize the sailors' home. This would draw all the sailors here, where captains would be able to come for crews upon paying a reasonable shipping fee, and the sailors would get what was due them, so that all would be satisfied."

Court Camoes Election.

Court Camoes Number 8110 A. O. P. held its semi-annual meeting for the election of officers, Tuesday evening in their Lodge rooms, in Pythian Hall.

A. V. Potter delegate to the High Court convention in San Francisco, made his report to the Lodge. The following are the officers elected for the next six months: C. R. J. G. Silva, S. C. R. J. A. Gonsalves, T. J. A. M. Osori, F. S. J. P. Dias, R. S. A. H. A. Vleiro, S. W. M. J. Coltr, J. W. J. M. Silva, S. W. M. V. Souza, J. W. M. Machado.

WILL ADOPT MARCONI SYSTEM.

Government to Establish Stations for Wireless Telegraphy in Porto Rico and the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Brigadier-General Greeley, chief signal officer, said to-day that he has directed the establishment of wireless telegraph stations in the harbor of San Francisco, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

In New York harbor it is possible that a wireless telegraph system may take the place of the cable connecting Fort Hamilton and Fort Hancock. This cable was recently found to be cut in 11 places.

It is desired to connect the various points in San Francisco harbor at which guns are located, and the wireless telegraph, it is believed, will give better results than a cable.

In Porto Rico, Crab Island will be connected with some port on the coast of the larger island, but the establishment of stations there are merely to give the officers of the army an opportunity to learn how to operate the system.

tem. In the Philippines the system will take the place of the heliograph, which now flashes messages between Corregidor Island and Manila, Bohol, and Cebu and other points.

REPUBLICAN PARTY RULES.

FULL TEXT OF THOSE PRESENTED TO RECENT CONVENTION.

Together with Text of the Same Rules after they had been Amended— Plan of Organization over the Islands.

When the first Republican Territorial convention was held in Honolulu a contest arose over a set of rules and regulations presented by the Committee on Rules. They provoked the only contest in the convention, and so violently were they opposed that two days were devoted to their consideration by the convention. Much was published about the rules, as reported and as amended by the local press at the time, but no paper published the rules in full, either as presented or as finally amended by the convention. Believing that many of the citizens of the Islands are interested in reading these rules, we presented to the convention and as finally adopted, the Republican here-with presents them in full:

To the Officers and Members of the Republican Convention for the Territory of Hawaii:

Gentlemen—Your Committee on Permanent Organization, Rules and Procedure beg leave to submit to your honorable body the following as their report on the matters confided to their charge:

Your committee recommends that this convention proceed at once to appoint a temporary Territorial central committee, which shall consist of 30 members chosen from the respective election districts, each district to be entitled to twice as many members on such committee as such district had representation in the House of Representatives in the last Legislature.

That such committee shall be empowered to call all necessary primaries and conventions and to otherwise regulate the affairs of the Republican party until after the next election, to be held in November, 1900.

That precinct clubs be organized in each election precinct in the Territory of Hawaii, which club shall be the regular Republican organization in each election precinct for the next campaign and until after the November election. That following said November election, that is to say, between the first and tenth days of December, 1900, the said Territorial Central Committee shall issue a call for new primaries to perfect the permanent organization of the Republican party, in accordance with the following rules and regulations:

ARTICLE I. PRECINCT ASSOCIATIONS. Sec. 1. The unit of organization shall be the election precinct association.

Sec. 2. There shall be a precinct organization in every election precinct in which not less than 15 Republican votes shall have been cast at the last election and in which at least 10 Republican voters residing in said precinct shall unite to form such an association.

Sec. 3. Every person legally enrolled in the various precinct clubs at the time of the primaries for the election of officers and delegates in the permanent organization of the Republican party in December, 1900, shall be a member of the precinct club when permanently organized.

Sec. 4. After said permanent organization all applicants for membership must attend at a regular meeting of the precinct organization in which they reside and sign an application for admission, in which said applicant shall state that he is a resident of said precinct, is in sympathy with the principles of the Republican party, and he intends to vote for its candidates. Said applicant shall be referred to a committee on membership, which shall investigate said applicant's eligibility and report thereon. A majority vote of the members present at such meeting shall elect.

Sec. 5. The officers of each precinct club shall be a president, secretary, three judges of election and such other officers as the by-laws of said precinct may provide. All officers shall serve for a year, or until their successors are selected. Any duly enrolled member of the club may be eligible to hold office.

Sec. 6. The duties of these officers shall be those usual to said officers and such as may be provided for in the by-laws of each precinct club. The three judges of election shall be sole judges at all primaries.

Sec. 7. Regular meetings of each precinct club may be held on the second Tuesday of the month, and one-fifth of the members enrolled shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Sec. 8. The president and secretary of each precinct club shall act as a revising board of the roll of the precinct club, and not later than the month of May in each year shall meet and revise said roll, so that it shall consist of only those members who are still enrolled in said precinct, but no member on the old roll shall be omitted if he still resides in said district, unless for cause his name shall have been ordered dropped by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a regular meeting.

Sec. 9. Each precinct shall at the annual December primaries elect, besides the officers aforesaid, delegates to the District Committee.

Sec. 10. Each precinct shall be entitled to elect one delegate to said District Committee for each 25 votes cast in said precinct for the Republican ticket at the preceding election. Whenever, after dividing said Republican vote by 25, there is a remainder of 15 or more, then the precinct is entitled to an additional delegate, but each precinct shall be entitled to at least one delegate to said District Committee, although the Republican vote, as aforesaid, in said precinct, shall be below 25.

Sec. 11. Any person who is a duly enrolled member of a precinct club shall be eligible as a delegate to the district committee.

Sec. 12. The officers of each precinct club shall be a president, secretary, three judges of election and such other officers as the by-laws of said precinct club may provide. No initiation fees or dues shall be charged the members of a precinct club. All officers shall serve one year or until their successors are selected. Any duly enrolled member of a precinct club may be eligible to hold office.

the year, and shall elect the following officers: President, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and such other officers and standing committees as the by-laws may provide, and shall elect such delegates to the Territorial Committee as it may be entitled to.

Sec. 4. Each District Committee shall be entitled to elect to the Territorial Central Committee as many delegates as the election district is entitled to in the Territorial House of Representatives.

Sec. 5. Any duly enrolled Republican shall be eligible as a delegate to the Territorial Committee from the district in which he resides.

Sec. 6. Each District Committee shall be charged with the general care and supervision of the affairs of the party within its district, subject to these rules and regulations. It shall take such measures as it deems necessary and expedient to secure the organization and maintenance of precinct clubs in every precinct and secure the cooperation of all Republican voters with the party organization and shall, under the control of the Territorial Committee, have charge of all campaigns in the district. It shall decide all disputes from the precinct organization and contests within said district as to primary elections.

Sec. 7. District committees may hold regular meetings on the third Tuesday of each month and one-third of the members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE III. TERRITORIAL CENTRAL COMMITTEE. Sec. 1. The Territorial Central Committee shall consist of delegates elected as prescribed above from each district club.

Sec. 2. Annual dues of $25 shall be paid by each member of said committee, and if dues are not paid within two months after the annual meeting for organization, the place of the said delegate shall be declared vacant.

Sec. 3. On the first Tuesday of February of each and every year the Territorial Central Committee shall meet for organization at a place designated by the retiring Territorial Committee, and it shall elect such officers and promulgate such by-laws as it sees fit and as are not inconsistent with these rules and regulations.

Sec. 4. The Territorial Central Committee shall meet from time to time, as its by-laws provide, and shall call all conventions and primaries, conduct the general campaign of the Republican party within the Territory and have general supervision of the affairs of the party.

Sec. 5. In the month of November, after each general election, the Territorial Committee shall meet and notify each precinct club and District Committee of the representation it is entitled to for the ensuing year.

ARTICLE IV. PRIMARIES. Primaries for the election of officers for the precinct club and delegates to the District Committee shall be called by the Territorial Central Committee between the 1st and 15th of December of each and every year. Primaries for delegates for convention shall be called whenever necessary by the Territorial Central Committee, at least ten days' notice being given each precinct club. No member of a precinct club shall be entitled to vote at any primary unless his name shall have been enrolled in said club at least fifteen days.

ARTICLE V. CONVENTION. Sec. 1. Convention shall be called by the Territorial Central Committee whenever necessary, a place and temporary chairman being designated by said Territorial Central Committee.

NEED FOR IMPROVED ROADS.

NEW METHODS EXPECTED UNDER THE MUNICIPALITY.

Statement of Some Facts About Road Building and Repairing, which will Meet with Public Approval.

The question of better roads for Honolulu has long been a live one, and since the assurance of municipal government, there has been expressed a very general desire to establish new methods in road building and repairing within the city limits. The old slipshod and unscientific methods in vogue here since the days when the taro patches were first filled in to make building lots, and the direction of the early streets was determined by the taro patches left standing, have been adhered to by a score of road supervisors, almost without exception. The present roads of Honolulu furnish ample evidence of the methods of the past.

As soon as the municipal government is organized the question of reforms in road building and repairing is to be taken up and pushed by the improvement clubs and citizens. A large property owner and public-spirited gentleman, who will be largely interested in these reforms, said to a Republican reporter yesterday: "I hope we will be able to make a start in this direction as soon as the Legislature meets and authorizes a charter for the new city government. It would, of course, be desirable to have reforms in road building begin before, or as soon as the new appropriations are available, but it is questionable whether those who hold over from the old regime will be able to break away from former methods without some public demonstration on the part of the taxpayers. The matter of more and better road building and repairing must be agitated and an expression of public opinion obtained before the Legislature convenes, so that definite action can be taken in the premises."

There are many points of improvement to be considered in the future of our streets, and one of these is the care to be taken of them after they are properly constructed. For example, the street railway and street sprinkling companies should not be allowed to dump water on car tracks and roadbeds as at present. Our streets should be lightly sprinkled at short intervals if they are to be preserved. The regular rainfalls will do sufficient injury without subsidizing watering carts to aid in the destruction. Another point of reform is to keep the present method of covering a newly-constructed roadbed with fine dirt, which immediately forms puddle holes, instead of with finely crushed rock, which sheds the water to the gutters from the start.

Repairing roads with metal the size of cobblestones is another abuse, which every road supervisor since "taro-patch" times has done religiously. The "hump-back" roads of the city are too well known to everybody to need comment; but what is needed is to get the people interested to a point where they will see that it will pay both the individual and the municipality to have good roads, and that though the original cost is 50 per cent more at the beginning.

African Railway Development.

In twenty years' time, it is safe to prophecy, railway development in Africa will have made enormous strides—and the many important branch lines to connect with the Cape-Cairo trunk will have been constructed or near completion. In the south the line from Johannesburg will have joined that at Bulawayo; Bulawayo, again, will be connected with a line running right across country to Walfisch bay in German West Africa. In Central Africa, the trunk line will connect with German and British lines running to the east coast; and it is only reasonable to suppose that by that time a line of lines through Belgian territory will connect or be in close touch with the Cape-to-Cairo route. And that the trunk line will be a paying concern there is no reason to doubt. In the Rhodesian section already built the company have advanced by leaps and bounds. The engineering difficulties of the Cape-to-Cairo line are considerable, but not insuperable; so that, with Mr. Rhodes at the head to "push the thing along," there is every prospect of the scheme, vast as it is, being successfully accomplished.

Feeding an Army in the Field.

The layman cannot easily realize the vast amount of material as to food and ammunition demanded by an army in the field. A few facts and figures as to this may aid to make it more tangible. Each man requires at a minimum three pounds and a half of food per day. Each animal should have at least twenty pounds of food in countries where grazing is not abundant. If we take, for the purposes of estimate, only fifteen pounds required to supply each animal, leaving five pounds to be gathered from the country by grazing and otherwise, we estimate a quantity that may be considered a minimum. An army of 150,000 men would require about 50,000 animals for transportation of artillery, camp equipment, ammunition, food, hospital and medical equipment. There should not be less than 30,000 cavalry. There should not be less than 10,000 animals available at all times to supply losses. This makes a total of 90,000 animals to be fed. With this as a basis we see that the daily demands would be for the men 525,000 pounds and for the horses 1,350,000 pounds, or an aggregate of 1,875,000 pounds. This is equal to something more than 836 tons per day.

Re-arming Indian Army.

The decision suddenly arrived at by the British Government to place the native troops in India on the same footing as the British in the matter of armament has caused much surprise and a good deal of speculation on their part. Hitherto the native Indian troops have invariably been armed with a weapon inferior to that in the hands of the British soldiers, and after the great mutiny of 1857 the native artillery was abolished. Under a recent resolution of the British Government...

FLAGS FOR THE SCHOOLS.

PUBLIC PRESENTATION BY THE GRAND ARMY VETERANS.

Pupils of the Emma Street High School are the first to raise the Stars and Stripes in Hawaii.

The first public presentation of "Old Glory" to any of the schools of the new Territory of Hawaii took place at the High School on Emma street yesterday morning in the presence of over 2,000 pupils and visitors.

The flags, 248 in all, one-half of them silk, were presented by Lafayette Post, No. 146, G. A. R., of the Department of New York, through G. W. De Long Post of this city. The High School was beautifully and tastefully decorated, the flag of Hawaii blending with the bunting and with the Stars and Stripes, while on a banner in the front of the building was inscribed:

"Westward the course of empire takes its way, Time's noblest offspring is the last."

On one corner of the raised platform, the flags, one for each school in the Islands, repose on a table pending the presentation ceremonies.

The exercises were opened by the singing of "America" by children of the High School, accompanied by the Government Band, after which W. L. Eaton, post commander of G. W. De Long Post, read the following address from the Lafayette Post of New York, the donors of the flags:

To the Teachers, Scholars and the People of Hawaii:

More than thirty years ago there was a great and terrible war existing in the United States of America between two sections of the Nation. One section striving to divide the country and to establish a new government and a strange flag—the other to prevent the dismemberment of the United States and to sustain the sovereignty and supremacy of the flag which had been the standard of the republic since the Revolution a hundred years before.

The triumph of the army for the maintenance of the union and for the retention of the "Old Flag" is familiar to you all, and the providence of an all-wise God has been manifested in a glorious progress that has followed the victory guided by His omnipotent direction.

A product of this great war was the Grand Army of the Republic—an organization born on the field of strife, which has multiplied into a membership of 300,000 soldiers who served in the victorious army.

One of the principles of this noble order is the inculcation of patriotism—a purpose to carry forward through all time a love of country and devotion to its welfare.

This Grand Army of the Republic is a national organization, represented by as many departments as there are States in the union, and in each State there are the representatives in smaller bodies called posts. Lafayette Post is one of these, with a membership of 600, whose chief aim, besides its fraternity and charity, is to instill patriotism in the minds of the growing children—native and foreign born—who will be the future citizens and rulers of the land. For fourteen years the post has found it to be a pleasant duty to labor for a love of the flag which, through its agency and example, now floats above every school house throughout the broad domain.

When the cruel yoke of Spain was removed from the oppressed people of Porto Rico and that beautiful island hailed with delight the approach of the flag of freedom, this post remembered the children who would be blessed with the banner of liberty and sent 800 flags to be an emblem of their release from the bondage of inhumanity and servility.

Later, when the American soldiers and sailors broke the chains which fettered the liberty of the Philippines, the post, again, inspired by the welcome and thanksgiving of the Porto Ricans, forwarded 600 of the same flags to Manila, where they now float over the school houses of those islands of the Orient.

And now, learning of the little brotherhood of American union veterans, the George W. De Long Post of your own "Gem of the Pacific," who, through privation and sacrifice, were laboring for an accomplishment beyond their strength, strong as they are in faith and hope and charity, Lafayette Post finds it one of its greatest privileges to be permitted to assist in the glorious achievement of planting the flag that stands for the uplifting of the human race wherever the wisdom of God has placed them.

With you there is much less to teach—you are a favored people. The Gospel of Christ was carried to you from our shores and you have learned the Golden Rule and know little of the oppression of man. But with the Bible goes the flag.

The inspiration of truth is sustained by the flag that is raised for the elevation of man. To love God and keep the law is to obey the commandments of a divine government and a righteous people.

As the sun rises here in the East to brighten the lives of all, so we raise the flag to impress the people with the benevolence of man, guided by the beneficence of the Creator.

It is a bright thought with us that it has been our privilege to plant our beautiful standard of strength and right at home and abroad. The flag is never folded; but as we sleep in peace, confident of the protection it has brought, it is flying before the gentle zephyrs of fullest day over our kindred of other climes.

In our dreams we shall have sweet visions of floating colors over Punaehoa to welcome the storm-tossed mariner into your tranquil coral-bound harbor of Honolulu. That as we remember your exquisite Nuuanu valley and ride to the Fall we shall see floating gracefully as subasms on the morning clouds the brilliant Stars and Stripes, for which we offered our lives. We shall think of it at stations on the way to Haleakala and on the snow-crowned hills of Mokuaweoweo. At Hilo, at Ulupalakua, at Waikiki, wherever the children are, there shall the beseech be lifted to protect the fullness of the mercy of man, who is the image of the Creator, God.

We commend to you not only the flying flag, but the teaching and learning of all that it represents. Learn of the good men who have died for it; and pray for the few declining years who yet remain, who have suffered for it. Teach our boys the national hymn, the other the year which commemorate the brightest pages of American history when liberty was born, freedom restored and inhumanity overthrown.

Under the Government of this flag all children are of royal birth. All men may become rulers of the nation, and women have an equal heritage and place of honor.

We send to you, through our comrades of the loyal army, the members of the George W. De Long Post, the contribution to their unselfish devotion to the land they helped to save from destruction; though absent, they are forgotten not.

We send it with our love and heartfelt greeting, trusting with the confidence of patriots who never faltered before the cannon's mouth that what ever else betide, no power may wrest from you the homes and happiness protected by the flag that has cost so much to create and for which men have suffered so much to preserve.

ALLAN BAKERWELL,
Official: WILBUR F. BROWN, Adjutant.

R. J. Greene, on behalf of the local G. A. R. post, presented the flags to the schools of Hawaii through E. A. Mott-Smith, Minister of Public Instruction. Mr. Greene explained the significance of the flag and what it stood for, adjuring the pupils of all the schools to love and respect and cherish it as the sacred emblem of their country.

Mr. Mott-Smith made a brief address of thanks for the generous gifts for the schools and promising on behalf of the pupils that they would ever be as ready to defend the flag as were the donors in the dark days of civil strife forty years ago.

"Our Flag" was sung by the pupils of the High School, accompanied by the band, followed by a reading of Tenneyson's "Launching of the Ship" by Miss E. Cartwright. The flag drill, arranged by Miss Cartwright, was given by 22 young women of the High School, bringing forth generous rounds of applause for the manner in which the drill was executed.

President S. B. Dole then addressed the children, saying in part: "You know that ladies are very fond of jewelry, prizing above everything their engagement and marriage rings. They will never part with these. They are the symbols, to them of what pleasures and sorrows are in their past. A nation's flag is the same to it. It calls up the pleasant and the sorrowful memories of the nation to the people. It is upon their public dwellings and government buildings; it is carried in processions and by the navy around the world. Our Hawaiian flag will always be dear to us for the memories that it cherishes."

Mr. Dole then took an American flag from the pile on the table and holding it aloft, said: "The number of stripes on the American flag is thirteen, representing the original colonies. The field of stars was originally thirteen, but since then it has grown to a perfect galaxy. I know that you are all tired, so I will say no more."

After the President's address came the ceremony of raising the flag presented to the High School to the top of the pole on the school building. The members of G. W. De Long Post came from their seats on the veranda above to the platform and stood in a row with their hands uncovered. The following young ladies held the lanyard and drew the flag up, while the band played "The Star-Spangled Banner," everybody singing: The Misses Daisy Smith, Alice Johnston, Estel Schermer, Lando, Agnes Carroll, Ella Zeigler, Clare Gertz and Anna Tucker.

COMMERCE OF GERMANY.

Imports the Past Year Far in Excess of Exports.

Germany's commerce with the world in all commodities, except the precious metals, amounted last year to $2,156,744,000, according to a report to the State Department from Acting Consul Monaghan at Chemnitz. Her imports the same year amounted to $1,228,826,000; exports, $949,858,000. The most pronounced decrease in imports in the last few years has been in wheat and rye on account of the gain in home production. Some lines of trade have suffered setback, such as sugar exports, having fallen from $4,502,000 in 1897 to $45,035,000 in 1899. This decrease is said to be due to the lessened demand from the United States.

SUGAR-MAKING IN VERMONT.

C. W. Fitzsimmons of Underhill brought 15 gallons of new maple sirup into town recently, which represented the product made from 1200 trees during the last week. He got 90 cents a gallon for it. Mr. Fitzsimmons owns one of the largest sugar bushes in the State. He says that the flow of sap so far has been light. He further stated that many owners of maple orchards in Underhill and other parts of the State were cutting them all down for lumber, because lumber brought a lot of ready cash, and for the reason that many farmers have become discouraged about the ravages of the forest worm, which is killing the sugar maple. Others are tapping but a small percentage of their trees. Indications point to a small supply of maple sweets this year, even if weather conditions prove favorable.—Burlington (Vt.) News.

IN HILO TOWN.

Stranger—Hi! what in the dickens is that man aking that bag of sugar for?
Hiloite—Well, yer see, they didn't put any thing in the Territorial bill he could pick about, 'nd so he's just keepin' in practice.
Stranger—In practice! What fer?
Hiloite—What fer? Say, stranger, do you think we're going to live here till the next Legislature meets, waitin' fer someboddy to kick at? No-air-ee! We intend to keep up our reputation, 'nd I'll bet yer our harbor against yer little wash basin in Honolulu that we raise a good, old-fashioned kick of some kind, or bust.

Arlington Block HOTEL STREET

Should be of Interest

We have just marked and placed on sale another large shipment of Merchandise Direct from New York

comprising, among other things, some of the latest Novelties for LADIES' EVENING WEAR, arriving just in time for the approaching opera season.

French Silk Gauzes

With alternating satin and lace stripe, 44 inches wide, in black and all the popular evening shades—pink, light blue, maize, lavender, black, shot with silver threads; black, with satin stripe and ecru lace inserting; Nile green, lavender, maize, with satin stripe and ecru lace inserting; black spangled, with gold sequins, and white spangled, with silver sequins. These are only a few of a stock too numerous for individual mention, comprising Chiffons, Silk Mulls, Liberty Silks, etc.

Pine Apple Silk

This most desirable fabric we import direct from Japan, and the number of good qualities it possesses is astonishing.

It resembles silk in lustre and strength. It is made from a vegetable fiber, and, consequently, washes, laundering perfectly. It does not easily crumple or muss, but once crumpled, it is easily pressed, so that it looks as good as new. In spite of its extreme thinness, its strength is remarkable. It makes one of the daintiest of evening dresses.

Opera Capes

Just received direct from Europe, a half dozen Opera Capes, which, we believe, will be pronounced by competent judges to be the triumph of the dress-makers' art. There are no two of these alike in any respect, and any lady wanting a really chic and up-to-date opera cape should see these at once. They are so few and so desirable that they will be soon disposed of.

Gloves

We carry the world-known Dent's Kid Gloves, than no better is made. We have them from two-clasp length to 22-button length. We have them in black, white, pink, light blue, lavender, tans, etc. Any one wanting a first-class, perfectly fitting glove, will do well to call and examine the Dent's gloves. Their price is no higher than others, in spite of their superiority.

Fans

Just received and marked a line of the latest in evening fans; no two alike. Among them are some exquisite creations—hand-painted, daintily colored, with hand-carved ivory sticks. No evening gown will be complete without one of these fans. Come and see them.

Gimps and Passamenteries

For trimming evening dresses, we have a stock, very complete, of all evening shades of Bead Passamenteries, Silk Appliques, Chiffon Ruffles and Ruching Sequins in all colors, Sequin Trimmings and Applique and a host of others too numerous to mention.

Now a word on other subjects than evening wear.

Ladies' Muslin Underwear

Our stock of this is very complete and choice, we buying only of the very best makers of the most advanced ideas and styles.

Shirt Waists

We have just placed on sale another line of Ladies' Waists, in both colors and white, comprising everything that is latest and new, and, what is of some importance, they are marked right.

For the benefit of tourists, who come here unprepared with suitable clothing adapted to this climate, we would say that our Shirt Waists and ready-made Skirts of plique, linen, covert cloths, etc., should prove a boon.

Gentlemen

We have just received direct from New York a very choice line of the latest in Neckwear. There is not an old number in the lot. These have been very carefully selected, and will only have to be seen to be appreciated. In addition, we have our usual stock of carefully selected Gent's Furnishings.

Home Again.

A. Gartenberg, Secretary of M. S. Grinbaum & Co., Ltd., returned on Tuesday night from a four months visit to the Coast, accompanied by his family. Mr. Gartenberg looks well in spite of going through a siege of the grip while away. Mrs. Gartenberg also had an attack of pneumonia during her absence but is happily recovered. Both are glad to be back in Honolulu again.

Well Known Here.

Among the Gaelic's through passengers was Lieutenant W. H. Alderdyce, who was here with the U. S. S. Bennington some three or four years ago. The lieutenant is a playwright and actor of no mean ability. During his long stay in this city, he took the leading character in "Meredith's Old Coat," a comedy of which he was the author and which has since been produced in some of the best theaters on the mainland. Among those associated with Lieutenant Alderdyce in that production, which was given two nights in Independence Park, were Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Major Potter and A. St. Martin Mackintosh. "Meredith's Old Coat" will be remembered by the hundreds who witnessed it as one of the most enjoyable amateur performances ever given in this city.

The Daily Republican will be delivered to any part of the city for 75c per month.

AMUSEMENTS.

There was a good attendance at the third performance of "Fra Diavolo" by the Southwell Opera Company at the Orpheum last night. "Fra Diavolo" is Aubrey's brightest work. It is more than a light opera, being rather of the romantic or semi-grand. Its music is pleasing and catchy—so much so that it has been one of the most favored operas on the stage since its initial production. It is well sung by the company at the Orpheum—very well sung. If it was as well acted as it is sung, the rendition would be simply a great performance.

But, then, one must not expect too much. Opera singers, like other people, are not perfect. Many good singers are poor or indifferent actors. It is not often that one person combines both qualities. Mr. Baker, the new tenor, needs to give away his self-consciousness and become imbued with the idea that he is only one actor in this big world and that other singers, even as good as he, will come after him. Just as others have gone before him. Do this and he will soon learn how to act, as well as sing. People in the audience care nothing for the man behind the footlights. It is what he can do and the way he does it, and many a promising artist has ruined his career by an exaggerated idea of his own importance. Mr. Baker is not the only one in the Southwell company afflicted in this way. In the language of the gallery gods, "Der is orders."

The management is ambitious, and after the manner in which "Queen's Lace Handkerchief" and "Fra Diavolo" have been rendered has concluded to put on Verdi's immortal "Il Trovatore." Of all the Italian operas, none hold the place in popular esteem that "Il Trovatore" does. It is a most ambitious undertaking to produce this masterpiece on the Orpheum stage, but it is confidently believed the Southwell company will render a good account of themselves in the production. With Miss Sallinger as Leonora, Miss Ladd as Azucena, Mr. Coff as Count di Luna, and Mr. Baker as Manrico, the prison scene should be one to arouse the audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

The First Message.

The pole for the Kaimuki Station of the Wireless Telegraph Co., has been placed in position on Telegraph Hill. On Tuesday expert Plette left on the Mokohii with the equipment for Lanai station. It is the present plan to make Lanai station the main station for transmitting message from Oahu to Maui and Molokai.

On Saturday an illustration will be given of the work of the new system and a message will be sent from Kaimuki station to the Executive Building on the flag pole of which a receiving instrument will be rigged. In the afternoon Will E. Fisher will sell at auction the right to send the first message and Cecil Brown, J. H. Fisher, and C. M. Cooke will be the judges to determine on the use of the sum received for the first privilege. The auction will take place on the front steps of the Executive Building and from the interest manifested it promises to be quite an event.

CAPTAIN BRAY OF SAILORS HOME

Opinion Regarding Matters and Conditions Along the Waterfront.

Captain I. Bray said yesterday, while speaking of the Sailors Home and the conditions along the waterfront: "There is very little doing now. Less than fifteen seamen are available for shipping at present; but there will be a large number of ships in soon, which will make business brisk again. "There are some twelve sailors in the home now and we are not taking in handmen. Yes, we are still running the restaurant, but we wish to supply lodging only to seamen. At present I have no boat in connection with the home; when a captain engages men of me he generally sends his boat in for them."

"As long as present conditions on the waterfront continue it will be nearly impossible for me to do much business. There is not much money in the place at present. I am making a living, but that is about all. I think, however, I can rest upon my oars until there is an improvement in waterfront affairs. "I believe it would be to the interest of all persons, if the business men interested in ships, either as owners or agents would band themselves together and patronize the sailors' home. This would draw all the sailors here, where captains would be able to come for crews upon paying a reasonable shipping fee, and the sailors would get what was due them, so that all would be satisfied."

Court Camoes Election.

Court Camoes Number 8110 A. O. F. held its semi-annual meeting for the election of officers, Tuesday evening in their Lodge rooms, in Pythian Hall. A. V. Potter delegate to the High Court convention in San Francisco, made his report to the Lodge. The following are the officers elected for the next six months: C. R. J. G. Silva, S. C. R. J. A. Gonalves, T. J. A. M. Osori, F. S. J. P. Dias, R. S. A. H. A. Vieiro, S. W. M. J. Coitr, J. W. J. M. Silva, S. W. M. V. Souza, J. W. M. Machado.

WILL ADOPT MARCONI SYSTEM.

Government to Establish Stations for Wireless Telegraphy in Porto Rico and the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Brigadier-General Greeley, chief signal officer, said to-day that he had directed the establishment of wireless telegraph stations in the harbor of San Francisco, Porto Rico and the Philippines. In New York harbor it is possible that a wireless telegraph system may take the place of the cable connecting Fort Hamilton and Fort Hancock. This cable was recently found to be cut in 11 places.

It is desired to connect the various points in San Francisco harbor at which guns are located, and the wireless telegraph, it is believed, will give better results than a cable. In Porto Rico, Crab Island will be connected with some port on the coast of the larger island, but the establishment of stations there are merely to give the officers of the army an opportunity to learn how to operate the system.

tem. In the Philippines the system will take the place of the heliograph, which now flashes messages between Corregido Island and Manila, Bohol, and Cebu and other points.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT

Great Crowds Witness Departure of the Australia.

ACCIDENT THREATENED

PROMPT ACTION OF BOAT'S OFFICERS PROBABLY SAVES LIVES.

Large Number of Passengers Sail for the Mainland, Gaelic with Latest News and Mail from the States.

There have been crowds on the Oceanic wharf at the departure of the Australia but yesterday's record boat any other. At 3:30 o'clock the wharf was well filled; at 3:45 it was a difficult matter to move about and at 4, a person in the midst of the crowd must needs remain there until the outer edges had worn away.

It was just about this time that an accident was averted by the officers of the ship and policemen detailed for duty on the wharf. It being near 4 o'clock, crowds of people attempted to rush the gangway to get aboard in order to say farewell to friends while as many people who had already done this, were attempting to get down.

The consequence was a blockade and there was no movement either way. All the while, more people were crowding on from the wharf and steamer's deck until the gangway began to sag at the middle.

Captain Lawless rushed through the crowd, took his stand at the foot of the gangway, shouted to officers aboard to do the same at the head and then proceeded to clear the gangway. Captain Fox and three police officers came to the rescue and the danger was averted. Had the gangway given way, the result would have been awful as there were no less than a hundred and twenty-five people upon it, the majority being women.

After the gangway was cleared the order was given to allow no one but passengers aboard the steamer and a young man on deck was seen to shed a silent tear for just at this moment the land struck up, "The girl I left behind me" and all he could do was to wave his farewell.

On account of the large amount of freight and baggage on the wharf, the steamer was delayed until shortly after 5 o'clock. Even at that time, a large number of people stood on the wharf waving aloha to their bedecked friends aboard. The occasion was much celebrated by the music of Berger's band. In fact the departure of the Australia would be tame without the efforts of the band.

The Australia was crowded throughout. Not a berth was left in cabin or steerage and some, it is understood, will have to sleep upon mattresses in various staterooms.

WAKEFIELD IN A STORM. SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The American ship Cyrus Wakefield was 23 days coming here from the Hawaiian Islands with a load of sugar, and during the passage was caught in a storm which sprung her foretopmast head and carried away the main topgallant mast. She will probably go back into the sugar trade when the repairs are completed.

IN THE DOLDRUMS. SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The Hawaiian four-masted schooner America is now out 96 days from Iloilo, and it is about time she was showing up. The chances are she has got caught in the doldrums on the equator and her crew has had nothing to do but curse their luck.

MANAUENSU MAKES A RECORD. The steamship Manauensu, John Barneson commander, has been chartered to San Francisco and made a trip to Vancouver and St. Michael. It will be remembered that the Manauensu's last trip was to Kahului. She made a record at that time, doing the round trip in 25 days. This, of course, included the time taken at Kahului to discharge 1600 tons of freight and to take on 1500 tons of sugar.

FAST RUSSIAN CRUISER. PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—The Russian cruiser Varig, which left Cramps' shipyard last Tuesday for her builders' trial at sea, returned to this city today after having been given a satisfactory test. The big warship and her battery were tried out in every conceivable way and not one weak spot was found in the construction of the vessel or in her engines and boilers. On her speed trial the cruiser developed 22 knots an hour under natural draft and with one of her boilers out of use, and the builders are confident that she can cover fully 24 knots when put under forced draft. The Varig will have her official trial in July and will be ready to be placed in commission late in August.

NEWS OF THE TRANSPORTS. SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Captain John Barneson of the Army Transport Service received word yesterday that the transports Buford and Kipatrik would soon sail from New York for this port, via Manila. The vessels have been in the Cuban service, and are undergoing a thorough overhauling before leaving on their long trip. The Buford and Kipatrik are rather smaller than the transports Meade, Thomas, Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Logan and Hancock, and from information at hand are classed with the Lawton.

Stopped Work to Fight. Yesterday morning while having their shoes shined, a prominent governmental official and a well known photographer were treated to a fine little serenade which was worked up on the spot by the gentlemen when without any deliberation of a bellicose nature they dropped their brushes and started in pommeling each other much to the enjoyment of their on-lookers. They were surprised at the great effect made by the silencers. The fun lasted until it was stopped by a passer by who believed not in fetichs.

WARNS DEMOCRATS AGAINST HEARET. Sacramento Zoo Declares That to Give Him Second Place on the Ticket Would Be Suicidal.

SACRAMENTO, June 4.—The Zoo, whose position as a leader in Bryan sentiment in this State and Nation, that candidate has often publicly acknowledged tonight publicly warns the Democratic party that to use the language of its own editorial headline, "the idea of nominating W. K. Hearst would be nothing short of political suicide." The Zoo carried Sacramento, one of the banner Republican counties of the State, for Bryan in the last Presidential campaign, but that it despairs of accomplishing that feat again with the Hearst handicap would appear from the following double-headed editorial tonight: "A widespread effort is on foot to give W. R. Hearst the second place on the ticket with W. J. Bryan. The Zoo hopes it will not be successful. Hearst does not believe in the doctrines which Bryan has so eloquently advocated. He is not a silver man. He never was a silver man. He is a gold bug pure and simple. His newspapers have repeatedly done all they could to belittle Bryan, and there is no doubt that they would have thrown the people's advocate over for George Devey if the times had been propitious. The most virulent attack ever made on Bryan appears in the columns of the New York Journal, written by Arthur McLeven, evidently at the suggestion of W. R. Hearst. His nomination would be suicidal and would probably lose California and New York to Bryan."

OPERA AT THE ORPHEUM.

Company Give an Excellent Rendition of "Fra Diavolo."

Auber's Fra Diavolo is perhaps the pleasantest and without doubt one of the most musical of light operas. With Carmen it approaches closely the realms of grand opera and may be said to fairly rank with "Martha" which is usually admitted into the ranks of the more classical works. To the general public all opera that is not "grand" is broadly termed "light" a sweeping category that admits of subdivision. Professionally speaking, the latter class is divided into "comedy," "light," and "romantic." Under the last head, which are usually of considerable merit, musically, than the others, are included "Maritana," "Carmen," "Fra Diavolo" and others. They are all essentially "singing" operas being as dependent on a skillful musical rendition for their success as is "Mascotte," on its nonsense.

Fra Diavolo possesses ample opportunity for the display of good voices and the showing up of indifferent ones and it is a bright feather in the cap of the organization now singing at the Orpheum that, musically, there is little room for even the captious critic to lodge a complaint against their rendering of the opera.

That past-master of criticism, Clement about once issued the axiom that "it is the true critic's delight to find matter which he can consistently and conscientiously find." It is therefore pleasant to be able to bestow laurels where laurels are due which in the present instance extends from principals to property men.

Dramatically the cast of Fra Diavolo is weak in spots and strong in spots. An operatic "Admirable Critic" who shall combine the dramatic power of an Irving or a Mansfield with the voice of a Jean de Reszke has yet to be born and it is almost invariably the case that the greatest singer makes the plausible actor. Mr. Wolf of the Company approaches very nearly the desired consummation, however, having a remarkable and versatile dramatic force besides an unusually fine basso. Mr. Goff is a trifle lacking at times in his stage craft and Mr. Baker seemed somewhat nervous, which perhaps is only natural considering that this is his first appearance in a strange part and in a strange town where the critics have seemed to be hunting for opportunities to cavil rather than to praise. Neither of these gentlemen's shortcomings however, are sufficient to detract in any way from the pleasure of the whole performance; while after all, it is music that one goes to the opera to hear and a better baritone or tenor would be hard to find.

Miss Hattie Belle Ladd as "Zerlina" had a difficult role to sustain. The disturbing scene in the second act is a particularly trying ordeal to any actress. While the scene must be handled with the utmost delicacy it is the natural refinement of the virtuous, village maiden that should be shown.

It would hardly be strange if the ultra-feminine lady of the manner at the neighboring chateau would be apt to do. The country girl's natural vanity at the pleasure her charms were likely to bestow upon her lover, husband, the innate modesty of the pure-minded girl, and a certain very fetching coquetry which is all Miss Ladd's own, gave a delightful touch of naturalness and originality to the rendition. Miss Ladd is eminently able to sustain the localization of the role, being gifted with a pure cantabile of great range and sweetness that has already won repeated plaudits not only here but in cities far more metropolitan and large than Honolulu.

Mr. Goff has a baritone that should rapidly bring him to the front rank of his profession. Both in upper and lower register there is strength, sweetness and purity of production. Mr. Goff sings dramatically and feelingly and in every part attempted has given his listeners an undeniable treat.

Grafton Baker, the new arrival had no much scope in Lorenzo to exploit a pure, mellow tenor robusto voice; what little he had to sing, he sang well and produced a most favorable impression. Mr. Baker has come here direct from singing grand opera roles in the East and his interpretation of the title role in "Il Trovatore," most musical of Italian operas, to night may be looked forward to as a treat.

William Wolf was by popular acclaim a masterly Beppo. In Gaspard he gave proof of his dramatic force and in the last act of Diavolo he increased the impression after keeping the audience in perpetual good humor with his whimsicalities in the previous acts. His voice too was in great form last night and he was forced to repeat his interpolated ballad of the "Hobber Chief" three times to an enthusiastic house. Mention must be made of Miss Fairbairn's and Mr. Branson's Lord and Lady Alcega, which contributed most materially to the success of the performance. They both presented excellent pieces of character work, vocally and dramatically. Mr. Rogers makes a forcible and effective Matteo and Nace Bonville had a good make up and conception of Giacomo. Miss Text-smith, with only one little "No" to say made a winsome bridegroom.

The chorus has very little to do in Diavolo which is a pity, the rank and file of the Orpheum folks being blessed with good voices and well drilled precision of attack and climax, reaching powers that are most refreshing. What little chance they had however they made the most of and helped in no small measure in bringing about that most desired consummation, a curtain call after the last act. So liberal indeed are the Orpheum audiences of late in the matter of encores and curtain calls it is a matter of wonderment that the theatre is not crowded to the doors nightly.

Honolulu does not seem to revel in the present opportunity for opera and it is a hard matter to ascribe the correct reason. Here is an opera company whose principals are held in high esteem in Greater America and have certainly "made good" here, a chorus that sings excellently, drills well and is lavishly costumed, in all, an organization for ahead of what we have hitherto enjoyed here or with present encouragement are likely to do again. They present a series of operas, many of which are royalty pieces and have never been heard here before. They present them too at a moderate price of admission and yet at the high salaries which such artists as Mr. Wolf and his companions command the Orpheum cannot be doing much more than coming out even. This attempt to bring a first-class attraction to Honolulu is an experiment which the Orpheum management or no one else are likely to regret without some more satisfactory financial inducement.

Il Trovatore should tonight, despite the bull, pack the house. The work is always a favorite and has drawn big houses in this town before when, it may be safely said it was presented in but indifferent shape compared with the account the present company are likely to render of it. The management announces the regular matinee for Saturday at the usual price of 25 and 50 cents. The opportunity should bring out a good house. Grand Opera at half a dollar a head is not an every day occurrence in Honolulu.
