WAILUKU, Maui, July 6.—Between $75,000 and $80,000 worth of property went up in smoke in less than half an hour last Monday, when the Paia depot of the Kahului Railroad Company, together with its entire contents, was destroyed by fire.

The fire originated in a pile of about 75 tons of saltpeter, which was located 100 feet to windward of the depot. Gangs of men were busy removing the saltpeter at the time, and it is supposed that either a lighted match or ashes from one of their pipes ignited the pile. All that is certain is that the men had to jump for their lives, as in an incredibly short space of time the whole pile was an exploding mass of flames.

The molten fertilizer, like lava, ran over the country immediately in its vicinity and communicated the flames to a stack of over $2,000 worth of lumber, a coal pile of about 1200 tons and finally to the depot proper, in which, besides a quantity of general freight, about 12,000 bags of sugar from both Paia and Haku plantations was stored.

Excellent time was made to Paia, but upon arrival there, it was seen that the entire property was doomed, and strenuous efforts were directed toward saving the coal pile. This work proved no light matter, as the melted fertilizer had crept beneath it and fired the whole pile. A trench was cut through it, however, and by this means the danger of wholesale destruction was considerably lessened.

Crowds of willing helpers and curious sightseers collected from all points of the compass until all of 300 persons were present. Their best efforts were, however, unavailing, as the absence of sufficient water and the intense heat of the fire made it a matter of impossibility.

The outbreak was first noticed at about 1:05 p. m., and in less than half an hour all was over but clearing away the debris.

Eleven cars belonging to the railroad company and a number of cars belonging to the plantations were destroyed, as also was a small house situated about 500 feet down the hill and toward the sea.

WAILUKU, Maui, July 6.—The glorious Fourth was celebrated in the usual manner by Mauiers. On the evening of July 3 a dance was given by the "boys" of Wailuku at the courthouse. About twenty-five couples found space upon the floor for the exercise of their abilities in the terepohorua art, and all voted the affair a big success. A special train left Spreckelsville at 7:30 p. m., conveying passengers to the dance, and returned at about 2 o'clock in the morning with a load of tired-out, but well-satisfied, people.

BRIEF IN THE EDWARDS CASE.

INTRICATE LEGAL POINTS FOR THE SUPREME COURT.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock is the hour set by the Supreme Court to hear the writ of error in the case of the Republic of Hawaii vs. George L. Edwards.

Edwards was convicted of an unlawful crime without the presentation or indictment of a grand jury, which his attorney, George A. Davis, contends is contrary to the provisions of Article 5 of the Constitution which reads:

"No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury."

HONOLULU, H. I., JULY 8, 1900.

SHOULD HE RESIGN?

The conditions pointed out in The Republican yesterday, wherein Treasurer Lansing, a member of a liquor firm which owns five of the fourteen saloons of the city of Honolulu, is shown to be the arbiter and judge of all saloon licenses issued in Hawaii and has it in his power to prevent all competition, develops a state of affairs that would not be tolerated for a day in any other State or Territory of the Union, nor even in any city of the mainland.

In the city of San Francisco the firm of John D. Siebe & Co. controls four hundred of the four thousand saloons of that city and the Breweries Company, Limited (Wieland's), controls over one thousand of the saloons of the city. Suppose Mayor Phelan were to appoint John D. Siebe or the auditor of the Wieland Breweries to a position where he had the right to grant or refuse all licenses for saloons, does anyone believe for a moment that the people of San Francisco would submit to such appointments? Why, certainly not. They would rise en masse, and the question would be taken up so vigorously that the Mayor would be compelled to withdraw his appointment.

In calling attention to the principle involved The Republican stirred things about the Government building as they have not been stirred in many a day. No one questions the ability of Mr. Lansing to be a good Treasurer if he were not placed in this peculiar position by his connection with a liquor firm. But what would Mr. Lansing or his friends think of a judge on the bench who would sit on a case in which he is personally interested? Like all other honest citizens they would denounce such a proceeding as damnable. Yet, Mr. Lansing, under the laws of Hawaii, sits as judge in passing upon all liquor licenses and a judge that is interested in the case. No supreme or circuit court judge could do this. He is disqualified from such action by statutory provision.

Does Mr. Lansing or his friends believe that the Secretary of the Interior or the President will endorse a Territorial Treasurer holding office who, in the discharge of his duties, has to pass upon subjects which specifically affect his private interests? If so, they deceive themselves.

WHY CASTLE WASN'T SEATED.

A morning contemporary seems to feel badly because W. R. Castle was not seated as a delegate in the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia. With its usual misrepresentation, it says, speaking of Mr. Castle and his efforts to obtain a seat in the convention: "He arrived at the convention and made an effort to be seated, but was too late. The choice of the convention, in the absence of Mr. Castle, had been centered on Sam Parker and A. N. Kepoikai, and he was compelled to take a seat among the spectators."

The choice of the convention in the absence of Mr. Castle was not centered on Sam Parker and Kepoikai. When the Territorial convention was held May 30th, it was not known whether or not any delegates would be admitted from Hawaii. As the old Territories of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma had been allotted six delegates, and Chairman Jones of the National Democratic Committee had recommended the same number for Hawaii at Kansas City, it was believed by some that the Republican convention might admit four delegates from Hawaii, though those acquainted with national convention work were sure but two would be seated. When the national committee on credentials examined the credentials of the delegates from Hawaii they discovered that Samuel Parker and Judge Kepoikai had each received seventy-four votes in the Territorial convention and W. R. Castle and B. F. Dillingham but sixty-six each. As these credentials clearly indicated that Messrs. Parker and Kepoikai were the first choice of the Territorial convention for delegates they were awarded the two seats allotted to Hawaii, and as to Mr. Castle being either late or early in arriving at Philadelphia had nothing to do with it.

AMERICA'S ATTITUDE.

The position of the United States in the matter of the contention in China is thoroughly tenable. It is one of dignity and honesty, and it will be firmly maintained, with the full sanction and support of the people without reference to partisan bias. The policy as outlined from Washington is as follows: "1. To give immediate relief to Americans in China whose lives are now in jeopardy. "2. To afford protection to Americans and American interests in China until order is restored and their safety assured. "3. To prepare to protect American trade rights if dismemberment of China becomes imminent.

"4. To seek no territory in the event of partition, but to demand an absolute guarantee of equal commercial privileges, and not to extend the United States sphere of influence beyond the Philippines."

There is nothing in this policy that will not be enthusiastically endorsed by every true, loyal American. It comports perfectly with our standing as a nation. It doesn't ask for too much—it could not decently demand less.

We are not in China with our troops to extend our domain or in a spirit of aggrandizement. China having repeatedly failed to protect the lives and property of American citizens, the Government has been reluctantly compelled to go to their rescue and naturally has allied itself with the powers. When peace will be restored, our future trade rights will demand attention, whether dismemberment ensues or not. This is not a movement for conquest, but for the protection of all Americans and American rights in China, and it has right behind it, which will give it might. On this matter the country is a unit, and the invasion cannot be too earnestly pushed to satisfy the people.

A son is prohibited by statutory provision from trying a cause before a court in which his father is the judge. If in the wisdom of the law-making powers such protections are thrown about the court, is it not equally important that a Territorial Treasurer who holds the destinies of all applicants for licenses in his hands, should not be financially interested in five saloons, which, naturally enough, do not want additional competition.

The Hilo Tribune says "taxation without music don't go any more." Join The Republican in the fight for municipal governments for Honolulu and Hilo, and then let each city pay for its own band. Mr. Tribune. Every fair-minded man recognizes that it is not just for all the Territory to pay for the music while only Honolulu does the dancing.

The wisdom of nominating Governor Roosevelt to the Vice Presidency has already manifested itself in the campaign in the States. Everywhere his services are demanded, and at all of his meetings the utmost enthusiasm prevails, foreshadowing, in the opinion of old and observant politicians, the overwhelming election of McKinley and Roosevelt.

The 16 to 1 silver proposition will not be an issue in the campaign of this year. It will find a place in the Democratic platform by mere tolerance. The coinage of silver will go on just the same, however, as it always has under past Republican administrations.

A tide of prosperity has set in for Honolulu; this is apparent to the most artificial observer. Honolulu, however, cannot achieve her destiny under the Territorial administration; she must have municipal rule, separate, distinct corporate existence, and the sooner the better.

"At any rate, Mr. Castle was not aware that he was of the chosen four elected to represent Hawaii." Is it possible that Brother Thurston so far forgot his hand as to miss such a deal as this when he landed in San Francisco June 11? It would scarcely be pleasing to the present clean and matchless national administration to have it said that "a saloon trust" had been made a part and parcel of the administration of the baby Territory, Hawaii.

IT'S THE SAME THING OVER AGAIN.

So Says a Resident of Hawaii in Writing to THE REPUBLICAN.

Political Conditions. The Washington Post of June 18 contains the following: "A letter received in Washington from Honolulu, by a well-known Republican, gives an insight to Hawaiian politics that is of interest. The letter, under date of May 27, says: "The first evidence of the Dole faction's unpopularity was shown in the Republican primaries. Not one single Dole man was elected. Even Thurston was beaten in his own precinct, where he was a candidate to the Territorial convention. His opponent was a man politically unknown, a mechanic, a good, honest, straightforward man, whom everybody respected, and whose disapproval of the Dole faction was well known. "Governor Dole's appointment was received with blank silence. Business men, who have taken no part in politics, said they could not believe it to be true. The only people who are happy are the Democrats, who know that neither the natives, nor the Portuguese, nor a large part of the white population, will, under any circumstances, follow the Dole party. The only hope for the Republicans was to defeat Dole at the primaries, and this has been done. If he can also be beaten at the Territorial convention, May 20, there may be some hope of carrying the fall elections. The only danger that now threatens is that the Dole-Thurston faction may be able to stir up jealousy between the delegates from the different islands, and thus be able to carry their point. So far as official life is concerned, it is to be the same old thing over again, with native Hawaiian action prompted solely by their hatred of Dole. "We feel it is pretty hard that the President of the United States should consign the first Republican party in the tropics to the scrap heap. If we win out now, it will be in spite of the Dole incubus, and not through the strength which the President's appointment has given us."

THE LOUNGER.

I heard a funny story a few days ago of the Republican convention, held on May 30th. The mistake which caused the merriment grew out of the fact that there were two Smiths sent as delegates from Hilo. When the "machine" had their rules all ready to spring Mr. Achil went to see Judge Carl Smith about them, but by the usual mishap took Editor W. H. Smith of the Hilo Tribune for the buttonhole. Mr. Achil informed Mr. Smith that everything was all right with the Smiths, and that we want you to be chairman of the committee on rules and permanent organization. It is all arranged that the temporary chairman will appoint you chairman of the committee and we have got it fixed so there will not be much of anything out of the way; we will all help you out, and we have a full set of rules already drawn for you to go by, and the thing will go right through.

Editor Smith smiled grimly and replied: "I think it likely, Mr. Achil, that Judge Smith of Hilo is the man you intended to approach; I am not a supporter of put up jobs." "Are not you Judge Smith?" said Mr. Achil, with a wild look. "Not much; I'm Editor Smith!" was the reply.

Achil looked dazed for a minute, and then went off to hunt up Judge Smith, and twenty minutes after, when the convention reassembled, that gentleman was appointed chairman of the rules committee, which that evening introduced the famous machine document, which was finally passed down with full throated approval. The funny thing about the matter was that Achil did not have the courage to tell his friends of his blunder, and the machine delegates are still wondering how the straight Republican delegates got onto their "and" and "the" and the spokes out of their machine wheel.

There was one thing that struck me as peculiar on the Fourth of July, and that was the absence of decorations on prominent business houses in town, which, in former years were size-windedly in the patriotic line. I marveled greatly at the comment of a friend of mine, that there had been a change in the complexion of individual patriotism since annexation. This remark called to mind the allegation so often made in the past that many of the supporters of annexation were patriotic merely for the dollars there were in it. Unkind as this view has heretofore seemed to me, I cannot but admit that there was strong testimony to be seen favoring it in the street decorations on July 4, 1900.

I had a letter from an old friend in Denver by the name of Australia, asking me about opportunities for going into business here. As he is an experienced restaurateur, I immediately answered his letter, advising him to come on at once and establish a good restaurant with moderate prices, informing him that I believed he could do well here. This was largely prompted by a conversation I heard at the club a few days ago when a small party composed of business and professional men were discussing the restaurant business in Honolulu. One prominent King street business man said, in commenting on the failings of certain men in this business in Honolulu, that he believed it was a good thing for the city, as the failure of those who did not conduct their business in a way to merit public patronage would show some good man the proper method to adopt. There is good logic in this, and it is what induced me to write my friends to come out here at once. If he comes, as I believe he will, he will make a success.

And speaking of restaurants, a friend told me of an experience he had recently in trying to get a dinner at one of the fashionable boarding houses of the city. The restaurant had been highly recommended to my friend and his wife, so they concluded to try a dinner at the place. It so happens that this man and his wife are both great coffee drinkers, having lived some time in Spanish America, where coffee is the great drink. In fact, with the man it is a necessity, as he some years ago left off drinking all liquors of any kind, and since then his only tonic is coffee. It is his stimulant when tired and worn, and, as he often says, his staff of life. The waiter brought in some of that dinky, black tea which is so prevalent in Honolulu, when my friend told her to take it back and bring him a cup of coffee. Presently the girl came back and said: "We don't have coffee at dinner; only for breakfast." "Well, you go and tell Mrs. Zee I want coffee for myself and my wife," was the response, with some asperity. Presently the girl came back again and reported that Mrs. Zee said she didn't serve coffee at dinner. At this my friend was pretty mad, and, speaking to his wife, the two arose from the table and sought the landlady. "Do you mean to say that I cannot get a cup of coffee with my dinner?" said my friend. "No, we don't serve it only at breakfast," said the landlady very calmly. "Well, please take your pay out of that," said the now mad man, handing over a good price. "And I will go where I can get a meal I can eat. I would just as soon sit down to a meal of bread and water as to the finest spread in the land if I cannot have a cup of coffee with it." But this never phased the landlady, who looked at my friend, as he afterwards explained it, as though she were wondering what manner of new-found freak he was.

I have noticed with some interest the latest publication of the Honolulu Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. For some reason or other I never see the name of a society of this kind any place but I at once ask: "What about the society for the prevention of cruelty to women and children?" I am a believer in humane organizations in general, but I am convinced there is a certain class, and is it not possible that humane people could render more efficient service to mankind and to their maker to protect one of these little ones from an inhuman parent?

In this connection I was much gratified at the reports published in The Republican a few days ago of how Judge Wilcox treats wife-beaters in his court. If there is anything in this world that makes me wish I could be a police court judge for a short time it is to read of a wife-beating case. Years ago I was a police court reporter in Cincinnati when Judge Fitzgerald, better known as "The Terrible Jimmy," was on the bench. Fitzgerald was elected just following the famous riots of 1884, and he was indeed the right man in the right place. He was a terror to evil doers and did more to rid the city of bad characters than all other influences combined. Nothing so aroused Judge Jimmy as a wife-beating case. I have seen him become so choleric that he would seem that he was just on the eve of apoplexy when a particularly atrocious case of wife-beating would be related. And were to the wife-beater, even if his poor, ill-used wife did try to beg off for him. His sentence was always the limit of the law, and if there was an opportunity to fix more than one charge against him he received the limit on every charge, which often meant a fourteen months in the work-house. I think Judge Wilcox erred in one or two cases on the side of leniency. He should have made the sentence ninety days in the Oahu jail with hard labor, instead of a fine of $25.

They had a little soiree in the rooms of the Bachelor's Club at the Arlington the other evening when one of the boys gave the following toast on the United States, which Representative McCleary of Minnesota recently unearthed at Washington: "Here is to the United States, bounded on the north by the British Possessions, on the south by Mexico and the Gulf of Mexico, on the east by the Atlantic and on the west by the Pacific." This somewhat aroused an expansionist present, who gave another ancient national toast: "Here is to the United States, bounded on the north by the North Pole, on the east by the rising sun, and on the west by the setting thereof." This aroused the ambition of the young knothead who made himself an arrival on the Australia last week. A. A. Brown. He had just been spell-binding the Pythian brotherhood in their Castle, and his muse had a restive mood, for Mr. Brown is a poet, as well as a good fellow, as his fellow-passengers on the Australia will readily attest. Needless to say that Brown is a great patriot, as all Ohioans are, and he perpetrated the following: "Here is to the United States, bounded on the north by the aurora borealis, on the south by the procession of the Equinoxes, on the east by primeval Chaos, and on the west by the day of judgment." The last were immediately imposed on Brown. Judgment affirmed.

gain, reward or hope therefor, but will present all things truly as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding; and that you will keep secret the proceedings had before you."

9. CHARGE OF THE COURT.

The grand jury being impaneled and sworn, shall be charged by the court. In doing so, the court shall give them such information as it may deem proper as to their duties and as to the law pertaining to such cases as may come before them. The court may further charge the jury when the necessity arises.

10. OFFICER IN ATTENDANCE.

13. SUBPOENA OF WITNESSES.

15. PRESENCE OF OTHERS WITH JURORS.

The prosecuting officer or any member of the grand jury may interrogate witnesses before the grand jury. The prosecuting officer shall advise the grand jury in regard to the law of the cases that come before them, and draw the indictments. 18. PRESENTING AND FILING.

Indictments or presentments, when found, shall be presented by the foreman, in the presence of the other grand jurors, to the Court, and shall there be filed; but such as are found for a felony against any person not in custody or under recognizance, shall not be open to the inspection of any person except the prosecuting officer, until the defendant therein shall have been arrested. Tending a profound compassion to this class of persons, we appeal to those who love a good cup of real "TEA." Few good judges of "TEA" are entirely satisfied with the qualities possessed by any one brand of "TEA," and seek to supply deficiencies by a mixture of different "TEAS," technically called "blending." With our experience of years, we can do this better than an amateur consumer, our large knowledge of "TEAS" guiding us with comparative certainty when the mere amateur blunders. FOURTH AT HILO WAS A SUCCESS.
Weather Fine and the Town Full of People.

HONOLULU OPERA HOUSE OPENED.
SUCCESSFUL DANCE HELD IN NEW PAVILION AT THE PARK.

Several Thousand People Witness a Long and Interesting Racing Program—Items of Local News.

The glorious Fourth this year was more glorious than usual in Hilo owing to the absence of our usual amount of moisture, which only fits in well with the swimming matches. From sunrise to sunset there was hardly a cloud in the sky, and the people from Honolulu who brought umbrellas to keep off the rain found their only use was to guard against sunstroke.

Hilo adopted quite a metropolitan appearance, and swarmed with the denizens of Hamakua, Puna, Kohala and Honolulu, beside the regular residents of the burg. Patriotism did not display itself so much as at times through the medium of the firecrackers and other obnoxious explosives, but there was a very general decoration of buildings, both public and private, with flags and bunting, and the population migrated in a body to Hoolulu Park, which is a candidate for admission to the Society of Seven Wonders of the World as soon as there is a vacancy. This combination of racetrack, athletic field and opera boufe ballroom is at present Hilo's especial pride, and accounts for any symptoms of "swell-head" which our friends may notice. Its construction, carried on with such rapidity and completed so satisfactorily on the very eve of the great holiday, reflects great credit upon the Volcano Stables and Transportation Company and its manager, J. R. Wilson.

Never in the annals of Hilo's eventful Fourth has there ever been such a glorious one. Never have the Hilo theatergoers been regaled with a comic opera equal to the "Romeo and Juliet" which not only opened the celebration but the Hoolulu Opera House as well.

When the curtain, slightly detained by the inability of everyone to get into the same hack, went up at 9 o'clock, a crowded and fashionable audience greeted the actors of the Peck Opera Troupe.

Hilo has been famous for years for the success of her Fourth-of-July dances, and the one this year was even more charming and successful than its predecessors. The dance was held in the new pavilion at Hoolulu Park. It is an ideal ballroom in that it is very large and has a magnificent floor. Being open on three sides with graceful arches, it not only permits the maska breeze's entrance, but it also lends itself most readily to artistic decoration. And the committee, quick to seize the advantage, made the room very attractive with flags and ferns. The beauty of the hall was further enhanced by the stage and its accessories. The music, which was unusually good, was given by a happy combination of the Klondike Glee Club and Charlie Rose's Sextette.

Some 250 people were present, and among them were the following visitors from outlying plantations: Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, Mr. McLean and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patton of Hakalau; Mr. and Mrs. Fraser of Mahukona; Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Ookala; Mr. and Mrs. Colin McLennan and Mr. A. C. Palfrey of Laupahoehoe; Mr. and Mrs. Haley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert More and Mr. Hartman of Papekoni; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Horner, Mr. Robert Horner, Miss A. Horner of Kukalau; Mr. Hamilton of Honoum, Mr. and Mrs. Givens of Oloa, Mr. W. H. C. Campbell and Miss Rycroft from Puna; Mrs. Creighton, Miss Lishman, Miss Alice Lishman, Miss Daisy Lishman and Miss McLain were visitors from Honolulu.

At 1 o'clock commenced a series of racing events which was witnessed by several thousand people, and which was conducted in a manner satisfactory to all.

The first of them was the trotting race, three-minute class, best two in three heats. This was won by Admiral Dewey, owned by W. Vannata, in the first and second heats, the time being 2:36 and 2:47, respectively. The Admiral was in fine form and won without effort. He was the favorite of those who had seen his famous sprint down Waiuanue street one day a few weeks ago, after he had dumped his owner, who was taking him for a sociable drive. Daisy Bell, entered by J. I. Wilson, took second honors. Hector's jockey was barred out on the first heat for being under weight, and Queen, owned by R. T. Guard, was thrown out for breaking in the same heat.

In the half-mile dash the entries were Antidote, owned by George Rodiek, and Beauty and Iago, both from Horner's ranch. Iago won in 0:53, where a large amount of the coin of the realm changed its place of residence. Antidote received second place on the bulletin.

In the one-mile, free for all, the entries were Watossa, Portuguese Racing Club; Zinfandel, Horner's Ranch; Naples and Everett, J. R. Wilson; Uncle True, George Rodiek. Again Horner's ranch played merry Ned with the sports, as Zinfandel came in in 1:05 1/2, Uncle True holding down the second choice.

For the trotting race, 2:24 class, purse $200, the entries were: Outcast, C. E. Eagan; Silas, S. W. Cunningham, and Daisy Bell Jr., J. R. Wilson. Cunningham's horse won first and second heats in 2:47 and 2:35 2-5, respectively. The one-mile mule race for a purse of $50 went to John Baker's Black Baby. A. B. L.'s hitherto invincible Makee fell hopelessly behind.

In the one-mile scrub race for a purse of $50, the entries were Lady Lightfoot, Horner's ranch, and Peanut, owned by Henry Easton. Lady Lightfoot won in a walk.

The day closed with the Hawaiian Derby, for a purse of $150, one and a half miles, free for all. J. R. Wilson had two entries, General Crompton and Bill McClusky. Horner's ranch put in the well-known Hawaii, and George Rodiek Dixie Land. This was McClusky's race, Hawaii not coming up in proper time, and Dixie Land just failed to forge ahead in the final quarter.

George Ross, J. T. Molr and W. H. C. Campbell acted as judges and filled their somewhat difficult office most satisfactorily. The general smoothness, freedom from disorder and lack of delay with which the events were brought off were appreciated by all. Although the track was necessarily somewhat heavy, it was by no means bad, and next year should be excellent.

Thursday's races commenced at 1 p. m. with the free-for-all, trot or pace, one mile, purse $200 and Hilo Hotel cup. Entries were: Loupe, Charles Eagan; Directress, J. K. Gibson; Silas, S. W. Cunningham. Loupe won the first heat and Directress the second. The final was won with ease by Loupe in 2:31 1/2.

The mile dash, Hawaiian bred horses, was won by Antidote, the other entries being Beauty and Iago, both from Horner's ranch; purse $200. The hurdle race, one and a half miles, purse $150, was won by George Rodiek's Dixie Land against Peter Lee's Van Wagner.

The half-mile dash, free for all, purse $200, proved an interesting affair. Naples and Frank E. came under the wire together, making a dead heat. Time, 0:53. In the second trial Naples won out.

In the mile pony race Uncle Sam, owned by V. J. Carvalho, came to the finishing post first, but the race was awarded to Daisy, entered by Manjiro, for what the judge considered sufficient reasons.

In the three-quarter mile race the entries were Zinfandel and Beauty, Horner's ranch; Virgie A and Everett, J. R. Wilson; J. R., George Rodiek; Watossa, Portuguese Racing Club. Zinfandel delayed matters somewhat by running away with her jockey and taking a couple of sprints around the track before the flag was dropped. Everett won in 1:21. Virgie A. came second.

For the mile and a quarter dash, purse $250, were entered Hawaii, Horner's ranch; Uncle True, George Rodiek; Billy McCloskey and Everett, J. R. Wilson. This race was won by Billy McCloskey. Uncle True second.

WHY WE DIDN'T GET IT.

Secretary Cooper Says the Cash is Rather Short.

In response to the petition sent down to Honolulu that the government's band be allowed to come to Hilo and help the Queen City whoop it up on the glorious Fourth, Mr. E. E. Richards, who forwarded the petition, received the following reply:

"Territory of Hawaii, Office of the Secretary, Honolulu, H. I., July 2, 1900; Sir:—In answer to the petition of yourself and others under date of June 25, in which you request that the government band be sent to Hilo on the occasion of the celebration of American independence, I have to say that the funds at the disposal of the band are not sufficient to allow this trip. The last trip of the band to Hilo cost $492.59 and the present appropriation is barely sufficient to pay salaries and necessary incidentals. It will, therefore, be impossible to grant your request.

"I am, sir, very respectfully yours,
HENRY E. COOPER,
Secretary of the Territory.

"E. E. Richards, Esq., Hilo, Hawaii."
"We are sorry the band didn't come. We think a change of climate would have done them good. They ought to get out of Honolulu once in a while and see the country; it would be an inspiration to them. They ought to get acquainted with the taxpayers who put up a good-sized proportion of the $10,000 or $12,000 they get each year. We are sorry they didn't come, but we are glad to know why $492 is a big sum to spend once in five years to send the band to the second city and the largest islands of the group. These economical spasms of the secretary don't come very often, but they are very acute when they do come. That old joke, known as the band appropriation will be in the head the next session of the Legislature, and don't you forget it. Taxation without music don't go any more.—Tribune.

A team of horses belonging to Peter McRae of Oloa ran away on Thursday, wrecking the buggy. No one injured. Chester A. Davis, official court Japanese interpreter, is attending the Circuit court at Honokaa, stopping at Hilo en route.

In a boxing bout at Hilo on Wednesday evening between Bill Watts and Jim Pollock, for points, Watts was awarded the decision. Alexander Hansen of Honolulu put Bob Burns of San Francisco asleep in the third round of a limited ten-round go.

It Saved His Baby.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Doak, of Williams, Or. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

IN MEMORY OF THE LATE CHIEF JUSTICE.

Impressive Proceedings Before the Supreme Court.

THE BAR MEMORIAL RESOLUTION.

A NUMBER OF ADDRESSES DELIVERED BY THE ATTORNEYS.

Eloquent and Feeling Tribute by Chief Justice Frear to His Late Associate—His Characteristics.

Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock the Supreme Court heard the memorial resolution of the bar association upon the late Chief Justice Albert F. Judd. All the justices were present, including the following judges, officials and members of the bar:

- A. S. Humphreys, Sanford B. Dole, H. E. Cooper, W. A. Whiting, W. L. Stanley, P. Neumann, D. H. Case, F. M. Hatch, E. P. Dole, W. L. Wilcox, C. Fred Peterson, L. Andrews, Geo. A. Davis, Geo. D. Gear, F. W. Hankey, A. G. M. Robertson, A. A. Wilder, J. L. Kaulukou, D. Kahaulio, S. K. Kanei, Enoch Johnson, L. M. Long, C. Brown, A. M. Brown, P. L. Weaver, H. R. Hitchcock, H. A. Bigelow, A. W. Carter, W. A. Kinney, C. Creighton, T. McCants Stewart, L. A. Dickey, S. M. Ballou, W. O. Smith, S. F. Chillingworth, W. A. Henshall, L. M. Robbins, and H. D. Marx.

Mr. Andrews presented the resolution. He moved that it be spread on the minutes and a copy sent to the family of the deceased. Following is the resolution:

"Our late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Albert Francis Judd, having been removed from us by untimely death on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1900, the Bar Association of the Hawaiian Islands respectfully presents to the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, as a mark of respect, the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That by the death of our lamented Chief Justice this community has sustained a serious and deplorable loss.

"That as a jurist the deceased has always occupied a prominent place in the history of the Hawaiian Islands; "That his long service of twenty-six years as Justice and Chief Justice of our Supreme Court has shown him to have been a just, strict and capable, and of a disposition which gained for him the respect and affection of those with whom he was brought into contact;

"That as a fellow-citizen he was justly appreciated for his honesty, purity of life and public spirit.

"Requiescat in pace. "PAUL NEUMANN, "L. ANDREWS, "S. K. KANE

"Committee." Mr. Neumann seconded the motion. He spoke feelingly of the deceased jurist, of his integrity, urbanity, Christian spirit, benevolence and his readiness to assist others. He was strong in character and of an exceedingly sociable disposition. His kindness to members of the bar was proverbial.

Mr. Kane's remarks were interpreted by W. O. Smith. Death comes to all alike. The late Chief Justice was held in high esteem and occupied an excellent position under three regimes—the monarchy, the provisional government and the republic—he was Chief Justice. Native Hawaiians came to him for advice.

Mr. Kaulukou also spoke in Hawaiian. The late Chief Justice was a friend of the Hawaiians. It was with sorrow that the speaker participated in the proceedings.

Mr. Creighton recalled the time when he traveled the circuits with the late Chief Justice. The speaker was then Deputy Attorney General. The deceased was an agreeable and genial companion. His decisions were always received with respect. Mr. Hankey's tribute was that of a comparative stranger. The late Chief Justice was one of those men who had made their mark. The work accomplished through ability and the purity of his character.

W. O. Smith said that only a few members of the bar were present when the late Chief Justice took his oath of office. The Supreme Court during his term of office was above reproach. It was respected by all. Credit was due the late Chief Justice for the exalted character of the Hawaiian judiciary.

Addresses were also delivered by T. McCants Stewart, Attorney General Dole and F. M. Hatch.

One of the most graceful tributes paid to the dead jurist was that of Chief Justice Frear. The Chief Justice gave a brief biographical sketch of his late associate and with much feeling recounted his many characteristics. It was a sincere and touching tribute.

The Chief Justice ordered the resolution spread upon the minutes.

Good Medicine for Children

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea, so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind., who has an 11-months-old child, says: "Through the month of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water, and he got better at once." For sale by all dealers and druggists. THE MAN WHO DRESSES WELL

Has that satisfactory feeling which invariably comes to a man after partaking heartily of an excellent dinner. It causes him to wonder what there is in the world to be miserable about.

THE "KASH"

Is a rendezvous for well dressed men. Very Modish are the Suits and Furnishing Goods shown by us this season. Our windows tell about them. Have a look during luncheon hour.

"It's a very good world to live in, To lend, or to spend, or to give in, But to beg, or to borrow, or to get a man's own, It is the very worst world that ever was known."

AND WORST OF ALL, the dear old world is busy trying to forget how to give a lot for a little. It's a sad one of ours TO BE FRANK. And, besides, if we advertised at all times to give you more than "your money's worth," it would be an insult to your intelligence.

THIS IS WHAT WE DO—We give you one hundred cents' worth of merchandise for one dollar—EVERY TIME. Ask some of your friends—they know. We are offering this week Crash Suits for Men—Coat, Vest and Pants at $2.85 the Suit.

Attorney George Davis returned from Maui yesterday. He was an attorney in the case of Louis von Temfoksy vs. Lee Fat Sun, a bill for petition in equity before Judge Kalua.

On the hearing, after considerable evidence had been taken, Mr. Davis brought out the fact on cross-examination that the commissioner had never been sworn.

Jacob F. Brown of Honolulu, on motion of Mr. Davis, was appointed commissioner to divide the land and report to the court on or before the 31st day of August.

The matter to be adjudicated comprises ninety-five acres of land valued at $10,000.

Mr. Davis reports that the Fourth was gloriously celebrated on Maui. The races commenced at 10 o'clock in the morning and closed at 5 o'clock in the bicycle race Jackson, formerly of Honolulu, was the winner.

FRANCIS BLAKELY MESTOCKER.
 Death of the Father of Manager Mestocker of Oiaa.

Manager Mestocker of the Oiaa plantation has received the sad news of the death of his father on June 14th, at Southwark near Philadelphia at the age of 74 years. "Francis Blakely Mestocker," says the Philadelphia Press, was one of the best citizens of Southwark. He was of old revolutionary stock being a great grandson, on the maternal side, of Belzar Geyer, who was Captain in the City Guard of Philadelphia during the revolution. On the paternal side he was closely related to Captain Johnston Blakely, who commanded the United States sloop-of-war Wasp during the war of 1812. The Wasp was successful in capturing several British vessels but was, near the close of the war, lost at sea.
