IMPRESSIONS OF LOCAL CONDITIONS.

What A. A. Brown Has Observed Since Arrival.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT NEEDED.

THE INTRODUCTION OF FEDERAL COURTS A GREAT ADVANCE.

The State and Territorial Law on Citizenship and Naturalization—Delighted with Honolulu.

Attorney A. A. Brown, who is here awaiting the next through steamer to the Colonies, where he goes on business, was seen at the Arlington Hotel last evening and gave the Republican an interview on his impressions of Honolulu and local conditions, as gleaned since his arrival by the Australia, as follows:

"It would be quite impossible for me to incorporate within the limits of a single interview my impressions of Honolulu, but there are a few salient features that must command the attention of an observer. The most important, perhaps, is the subject of and the benefits derived from annexation.

"It is very apparent to me that the Republic of Hawaii could not long have maintained its independence against the encroaching power of Japan, and it was but the toss of a penny, as far as the republic was concerned, as to which government would seize and control it. Such a fact should soften the asperities of the royalists, because annexation was inevitable. Such being true, it is surely to the advantage of the group to become a part of the greatest nation on earth, and to feel the throbbings of American enterprise, industry and commerce. The introduction into these islands of American tools and machinery, the coming of American capital and genius will develop a Territory in midocean that will be the world's eighth wonder."

"What industries suggest themselves to you?" was asked by the reporter. "It occurs to me," said Mr. Brown, "that the canning of native fruits and the manufacture of guava jellies could be made very profitable, now that the tariffs are off between the Islands and the States; the shipping of building stone, which might easily be freighted as ballast, seems to offer commercial inducements and the refining of sugar. The manufacture of brick for local building, is an industry worthy of consideration, and gardening for the local market.

"Municipal governments should be formed, cities and towns should be chartered, that local improvements could be pursued without reference to the general government. It is especially to the interest of this city that local and Territorial government be distinct, that no longer will it bear one-fourth the burdens of the entire group, save for Territorial purposes. Municipal governments will permit chartered cities and towns to engage in street and sidewalk lighting, water works, improvements, etc., as the enterprise of each community demands, without burdening the central government. Municipal government will afford better police service and protection to property. Such subdivisions will also remove the local municipalities from the despotism of a central government that has no interest in the welfare of the individual citizen, but only in the maintenance of local conditions and local demands. It will give local citizenship local powers and influence that will build up towns and cities, increase land values and enhance the tax duplicate beyond any other legislation that can be introduced."

"What have you to say, if anything, concerning the courts as you have found them?" was asked. "They closely follow the code of my own State and will require but little change under the new regime. The introduction of the Federal court will mark a very material advance, in that it will enable litigants, and especially those charged with crime, to forego civil rights and civil liberty, as prescribed therein, especially the enforcement of equal rights, without regard to personal interests, prejudices or friendship.

"Have you anything to say concerning the decision of Attorney-General Dole, regarding citizenship?" "I certainly have nothing to say on the subject of his decision," said Mr. Brown. "I would not presume to discuss the opinion of a public servant. I can say, however, that in my own and neighboring States men are not naturalized by law until they have resided in the States the full term of years prescribed by statute. When they have been fully naturalized they are at once entitled to all the prerogatives of an elector; in other words, they serve their probationary period before and not after becoming citizens. Such might be construed as the law here, if the matter was properly presented to the Federal court.

"One of the imperative needs of your city is an up-to-date street-car system. The one now occupying the streets might easily be suppressed as a common nuisance, or its charter forfeited for a failure to operate a street-car line as understood by the man of today, and it is a necessity to the development of the city and the suburbs that rapid transit and modern cars be one of the very first improvements.

"The public buildings of the city are superb, especially the schoolhouses, the architectural beauty of which is not excelled anywhere in the States. The city itself is a dream of beauty. The creator of the universe seems to have reserved the best of the wine for the last of the feast and completed his mighty work by studding the Pacific with the fairest and most brilliant jewel that the genius of the great architect of worlds could conceive, leaving it to become the brightest star in the constellation of States and Territories and the most strategic point in all the world for the maintenance of naval stores and munitions of war for the protection of our rapidly increasing possessions.

"The flag of Hawaii, of course it is dear to the hearts of those, over whom it was unfurled. But your flag of today is an emblem of power. The flag commands the respect of the world."

COUNCIL MEETING MONDAY.

PUBLIC WORKS BUSINESS TAKEN UP AND DISPATCHED.

New Street Plans Approved—Opening of Fort Street—Transport Sherman Case Decided.

There were present at the council meeting yesterday morning Governor Dole, Secretary H. E. Cooper, Attorney-General E. P. Dole, Treasurer Lansing, Superintendent of Public Works J. A. McCandless, Superintendent of Public Instruction A. T. Atkinson, Commissioner of Lands J. F. Brown and Commissioner of Agriculture Wray Taylor.

Superintendent McCandless read the application of C. M. Cooke for an exchange of land at Luakaha. The exchange was recommended, both parcels of land lying in Luakaha.

Maps showing the plan of the suggested changes in streets in Chinatown were submitted by Mr. McCandless and approved by the meeting. It was suggested that Mr. McCandless appoint a time to meet and confer with the property-holders of Chinatown about the plans. The Superintendent also presented a map of the proposed extension of streets mauka of Chinatown. He then spoke of the extension of Fort street, and it was intimated that the proper thing to be done was for the property-owners on the proposed new street to get together, form a syndicate, buy the land and deed the right-of-way to the government, as the opening of the street would increase the land values on the new street by hundreds of thousands of dollars. It was suggested that when the property-owners acted the road would be put through at once. It was recommended that the Superintendent confer with the property-owners and see what arrangements could be made to have the land for a street turned over to the government.

Mr. McCandless then read a petition asking that the Waikiki road be widened from King street to Kapiolani Park to eighty feet in width, and the Superintendent was instructed to confer with property-owners about the widening.

A letter from J. H. Wilson was read asking for an extension of time for the completion of the sewer contract for the outfall portion thereof. The matter was deferred to be looked into.

Action was deferred in a petition from Mr. Lester asking for a patent to the naval wharf commission had given a unanimous verdict in favor of the government.

Superintendent McCandless announced he would have Aala Park filled and that no further dirt should be taken away; he would have the warehouses removed, so it could be filled up.

The announcement was formally made that the franchises had been approved by the Governor for the Rapid Transit, Hilo Railway and Kohala and Hilo Railway companies.

A short discussion was held about opening the public lands and Commissioner Wray Taylor spoke of the lack of water at Thomas square. It was decided not to connect the pipes at the square with the city water mains until the new pumping plant on Beretania street was in working order.

SLANDERS REPORTED EPIDEMIC ON MAUI.

The News Telephoned by Sheriff Baldwin to Dr. Garvin at Kahului.

Dr. Garvin, who has just returned from Maui, states that Sheriff Baldwin telephoned to him the day the doctor left Kahului that an epidemic of glanders had broken out at Ulupalakua. The Sheriff telephoned that there were at least 150 horses and mules affected. L. Von Tempy, H. A. Baldwin and Manager Dave Lindsey have already sent to Honolulu for a veterinary surgeon to help protect their district before the disease reaches there.

Dr. Garvin called on the Superintendent of Public Works yesterday and strongly urged that the Government take immediate action; and he was informed that Dr. Shaw would very likely be sent to Maui by the Kinuau today.

A Woman Suspected.

Several burglaries have of late taken place at the Orpheum hotel. On Saturday of last week a camera, a Panama hat and $20 in gold were taken from different rooms. The police are at work on the cases. A woman is under suspicion.

LIVELY ENCOUNTERS IN EDWARDS CASE.

Counsel for Defendant Makes an Elaborate Argument.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE CASE. DID THE FEDERAL CONSTITUTION FOLLOW THE FLAG?

Attorney General's Contentions—Matter Taken Under Advisement by Supreme Court—Edwards Admitted to Bail.

There were several sensational features in the Edwards habeas corpus case yesterday before the Supreme Court.

At the morning session of the court Acting Judge Stanley acted in place of Justice Perry.

The case of Bruce Cartwright vs. Laukae et al., a bill for the reformation of a deed, was heard.

This aroused George A. Davis, attorney for the defendant.

"Arguments in the Edwards habeas corpus case," said he to a Republican reporter, "were set for hearing at 10 o'clock. I was ready to proceed with my argument. The prisoner was there. Arguments on writs of habeas corpus take precedent in every American and English court, but it seems that it isn't so here. Judge Frear refused to proceed with the hearing and ordered me to sit down and adjourned the matter to 1:30 in the afternoon. The liberty of Edwards was at stake, but the court took up a case in which Lyle A. Dickey, a district magistrate, and an employe of the government was counsel. At 11:30 o'clock that official of the government was arguing. All my engagements had to be cancelled and my business thrown into confusion. What reason there was for an adjournment in the Edwards case I am at a loss to know."

At the afternoon session Acting Judge Stanley appeared on the bench, but subsequently gave way to First Circuit Judge Humphreys.

Attorney Davis commenced his argument by claiming that the defendant had a right to be admitted to bail; that the court could not refuse bail in the case. The writ of habeas corpus suspended the sentence. He read from the statute defining the exaction of bail. It should be so fixed as not to permit the wealthy to escape and place on the poor no onerous hardship.

"Corbett is gone," exclaimed the speaker in tremulously loud tones, "and Edwards is here, unlawfully deprived of his liberty. Corbett is locked. The prison doors have been unlocked to him. The wealthy have opened the prison doors to him."

"The defendant was tried without being indicted by a grand jury, and Judge Stanley had no right to find an indictment against this defendant."

"Edwards was convicted by ten jurors. This, your Honors, is contrary to the Constitution of the United States. The conviction of the defendant was an outrageous act. It is null and void."

The speaker recalled how the Magna Charta was wrested from King John by the barons. With much force he contended that the moment the flag went up on August 12, 1898, Hawaii was American territory, and the Constitution of the United States was in force here. The Constitution carried with it its own enforcement. It went with the flag.

The Newlands resolution, annexing Hawaii, explicitly stipulated that all laws of the republic not in conflict with the Constitution should remain in force. The railroading of Edwards to the penitentiary was clearly a violation of the Constitution. It was an outrage.

"Edwards," said Mr. Davis, "was not indicted by a grand jury. His trial was irrelevant and absolutely void. The sentence of the jury not being unanimous made further his conviction an enormity and disgraced justice."

"Edwards is now in jail in the United States undergoing a five-years sentence. He cannot be held in jail on the verdict of ten jurors. No act of Congress, no decision of a territorial court can take away the rights of an American citizen."

Mr. Davis then commenced discussing the want of corroborative evidence in the conviction of Edwards.

"We don't care to hear that," said Chief Justice Frear.

Mr. Davis persisted. "We do not wish to hear that, Mr. Davis," said Judge Humphreys, sternly. "I bow to the will of the court," replied the attorney.

Attorney-General Dole said he had very little to say regarding the case. He desired to submit the brief of the government when the cause was heard before. He contended that the Constitution was not in force when the flag was raised, nor subsequently. It was not in force until the Organic Act was passed by Congress and it became the law of this Territory. Edwards was tried during what was known as the transition period. He was tried under Hawaiian laws which involved the preservation of life, liberty and property.

LATE MAIL ADVICES FROM THE ORIENT.

Dowager Empress' Excuse for Firing on Allied Troops.

SERIOUS RIOT AT TSAOSHIB. A "BOXER" GOVERNOR QUICKLY REWARDED BY EMPRESS DOWAGER.

People Invited to See Some Daylight Fire-Works—Italian War Ships Ordered Away.

Secretary Potter to Governor Dole. Extracts From Letter About Hawaiian Exhibit at Paris Given to the Press.

The Nagasaki Press' correspondent sends the following from Peking to his paper for June 19:

"The Chinese Government declares that the call of a small legation guard by each foreign minister was acceded to by China, but not for such a large number of armed foreigners as are at present in Peking and Tien-Tsin. It is also declared by China that as the foreign troops are proceeding to Peking without consent of the Chinese Government they will be fired on by Chinese troops."

Italian Ships Ordered off. "The So Pao says that the Italian warships, two in number, which arrived at Chin Hai, off Ningpo, on the Dragon-boat festival day, were forbidden by Commandant Yu to anchor in the harbor or even to land any sailors or marines, as it was believed they had been making sketches of the forts there and using the government parade ground to drill their forces."

Peking News, via Nagasaki. The Nagasaki Press of June 19 says: "The foreign Ministers declare that the powers will not recognize the existence of the Chinese Government and will resort to force, if the Chinese authorities continue to obstruct the foreign troops in marching to the capital."

The Press has the following additional Peking news: "Big guns have been placed at the British and American legations, respectively."

"The rioters have destroyed by fire all the British, American, German and French churches in Peking. Some 100 foreigners are said to have been killed by the Boxers."

"In reply to the instructions of the authorities for the dispersal of the I Ho mob, the ringleaders have addressed the authorities, stating that the Boxers will not disperse until the foreign troops have been withdrawn from China."

TOURIST FROM THE DORIC ROBBED.

Kakaako People Accused—Police Suspicious—Relieved of $120 in Gold.

A robbery occurred at Kakaako early Saturday morning in the house kept by Buchanan. A young man from the Doric on his way to the Orient was relieved of $120 in gold and a metal watch and Cameo fob and a stick pin of diamonds set around a sapphire. He was with a young friend of his who is a resident here. Both had been drinking and went to a room to lay down and rest awhile. The traveler displayed a purse full of twenties in the room. Several people saw them. The two friends went to sleep after locking the door and when they awoke the money and valuables were discovered to be missing.

Complaint was raised and the police called to investigate. An employe of the place was arrested and afterwards discharged at the request of the local man who was in the scrape.

It is claimed that the man was robbed by some of the inmates of the house. From an investigation made the police think it was not done by either the proprietor or any of his employes.

A BIG HOWL MADE AGAINST A STAMP AGT.

How Candidates for Naturalization Are Compelled to Plunk up Two Dollars.

There is a big growl among residents petitioning for naturalization that they are compelled to pay $2 each for Hawaiian stamps, which are affixed to the petitions.

A high official of the government was questioned about the stamps. "I think it is all right," said he. "The government demands that the stamps be affixed."

"But no such imposition is allowed in the States," said a candidate for naturalization. "These stamps are not United States government stamps; they are Hawaiian stamps. Candidates for naturalization become citizens of the United States. If any stamps are affixed they certainly should be United States stamps. Notwithstanding the waxes in the United States foreign citizens are not compelled to pay a stamp tax on taking out their naturalization papers."

THE TRIAD SOCIETY IN HAINAN.

A Hollow correspondent of the China Mail writes under date of June 7 as follows:

"The Triad Society has been very active for the last month and a half near the market town of Nodou, Tam-chow district, on the Island of Hainan. Those who joined the society two years ago and who later renounced it at the order of the officials have again gone into it, and the numbers of the Triads are now swelled far beyond what they were then. They have worked very quietly this year, in contrast to the continued boastings of two years ago, but it is evident that a raid of some sort is in the wind, unless headed off by the officials. It is said that large numbers have entered the society also in other parts of the island. In August, 1898, the Triads near Nodou attempted to rise, but were put down by the officials after one of the latter had been attacked at the premises of the American Presbyterian Mission."

The Riot at Tsao-shih. The North China Daily News of June 12 says:

"A serious riot occurred at the market town of Tsao-shih, in the province of Hupeh, on June 14, when the premises belonging to the London Mission were looted and destroyed. An immense crowd gathered to witness the festival of the god of medicine, drawn thither, it is now known, by a very widely-distributed notice that special attractions would be provided, including foreign fireworks. The garden gate was burst open and a terrific rush was made into the house. Dr. Willis, seeing that the mob was bent on mischief, made his escape by the front door, finding refuge in the loft of a house belonging to a friendly neighbor. But so determined was the mob to find his whereabouts that he was obliged to take refuge in a large wicker basket, where he sat for three or four hours while his enemies sought for him high and low, often quite close to his hiding

ALEXANDER YOUNG'S PRINCELY BUILDING.

Structure Described by Its Prospective Builder.

DETAILS NOT YET PERFECTED. BUILDING TO BE CONSTRUCTED OF STONE OR GLAZED BRICK.

Main Entrance to Elevators to be on Bishop Street—Frontages on Three Thoroughfares.

"I shall return to San Francisco on the Australia to-morrow," said Alexander Young to a Republican reporter last night. "William Mutch will accompany me. We go to complete plans for my new building to be erected on hotel, Bishop and King streets. Mr. Mutch will have entire supervision of the structure's erection. While I have practically decided on the plans, there are many details which have not been perfected. When all these details are completed work will be prosecuted with vigor."

"The structure will be absolutely fireproof. It will have steel girders and cement or tile floors. I expect the building will be finished in 1901."

"The structure will have a frontage on hotel street of 100 feet, on Bishop street of 50 feet and on King street of 110 feet."

"Bishop street will be 60 feet wide and will extend from hotel to King streets. No, I don't think that I should donate the street to the city. I don't know what the city will do, but I am willing to abide by its decision in the matter. Of course, the street will be a great convenience to residents of the city, enabling them to pass through to either King or hotel streets, without having to go by the way of Fort street, as they do now."

"The middle portion of the building on Bishop street will be four stories in height, exclusive of the basement. The frontages on hotel and King streets will be six stories, exclusive of the basement."

"I haven't decided what material to use in the building's construction. I favor Hawaiian stone, and its price is the only thing to its detriment. I shall either build of Hawaiian stone or glazed brick, such as the Crocker building in San Francisco is composed of. Glazed brick makes a very fine and durable structure."

"What name am I going to call the building? The Young building? No, the Alexander Young building. You see, there are a lot of Youngs here, but only one Alexander Young. There is young street named after a John Young who was the intimate friend of Samoa's chiefs."

"There will be thirteen stores in the building. The larger ones will be 70x90 feet and the smaller 30x90 feet. The other stores will be used for offices, at least that is my intention now. The offices will be furnished with all modern improvements; in fact, the entire building will be modern in every particular."

"There will be two double sets of the latest improved elevators, either of the Otis or Crane make. The main entrances to the elevators will be 110 feet from King street on Bishop."

"I first thought of making an arcade to the building similar to the arcades seen in Paris, but the climate being tropical, it though the arcades unsuited for Honolulu."

Mr. Young was asked what would be the cost of the structure. He said that he was unable to answer until he had figured more closely on building.

Yesterday Mr. Young purchased the Hugh McIntyre residence adjoining the Arlington Hotel on King street. The purchase price was $25,000. The purchase of this property will not materially affect the plans for the new structure, as given by Mr. Young in the above interview.

The Alexander Young building, when completed, will be the finest structure in these islands. It will perpetuate the memory of a gentleman, who not only made his fortune here, but who also believed in Honolulu as a city in which to make a princely investment that would revolutionize the architecture of the town.

NOT A BREVET, BUT MATTER.

Electric Light Company's Discourteous Treatment of Customers.

The Republican, along with a number of other houses, had an experience last night with that august corporation, the Honolulu Electric Light Company. Power and lights went off at 10:30, and all effort to call up the office of the company by telephone to get some information as to when light and power might be expected were fruitless, as the company refused to answer any telephone calls.

Finally after the light and power had been off for one hour and ten minutes an employe of the republican office was sent to the power house to try to get some information so that arrangements could be made for getting out the paper by some other light and power than electric in case the latter could not be secured during the night. Arriving at the electric light works an inquiry as to when the republican could expect light and power was met by the reply: "It's none of your damned business."

It may be none of the Republican's damned business just now, but it will take good care to see to it immediately that it is some of its business, and it will guarantee full interest on the investment for the electric light company.

THE CHINESE HORROR.

The political situation in China is critical to an alarming degree, but it would be a thousand-fold more serious if China had a great leader at this crisis. With 400,000,000 population to draw upon a military genius like Napoleon could readily precipitate a world's war, the end of which could not even be conjectured.

AN ANALOGOUS CASE.

When General Grant was inaugurated President in 1869 he appointed A. T. Stewart, the great New York merchant, Secretary of the Treasury. The Senate refused to confirm the appointment on the ground that Mr. Stewart was disqualified from holding the office of Secretary of the Treasury on account of his being an importer and that he might therefore be interested in customs decisions which the Secretary of the Treasury is called upon to make.

As Viewed by a Voter.

Sir:—To the question in your editorial of this date, "Should He Resign?" By all means, or quit the liquor business. But if he don't—and few of the Dole regime resign—why, it will be in order for the Legislature to "not concur" in the appointment.

Raising the Hat.

When a knight of old entered a company of ladies he removed his helmet to indicate that he considered himself among friends, and that there was no need to protect himself. This practice has survived in the custom of raising the hat when saluting a lady.

Attention is called to the interview with Mr. A. A. Brown of Cincinnati, published in another column. Mr. Brown points out some of the reasons for municipal government and the necessity for such government for Honolulu. His observations are not those of a self-satisfied tourist, but of a sound thinker and a logical reasoner.

A Dakota farmer recently lost a valuable diamond shirt stud while harvesting. He probably forgot to remove it as he laid aside his full dress suit the evening before.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat expresses the belief that "the Sultan of Turkey is tongue-tied." On the old theory, probably, that "money talks," which the Sultan has declined to do with the United States.

General Buckner says: "Every man in Kentucky who needs hanging will get it." Great heavens, general; stay your hand, at least until after the election. What would become of the Democratic party in November, were you to proceed to this gruesome job all at once?

The miscellaneous use of flags of nations other than that of the United States, unaccompanied by the Stars and Stripes, in the Territory of Hawaii, is, we regret to see, too common. The practice should be discouraged.

There are many reasons why Honolulu should be incorporated as a city as speedily as it may be accomplished. We have not yet heard a good objection made to it.

The King of Siam is coming to America during the year. The powers can't alarm us by announcing this threatened invasion. Oscar Wilde visited us once without causing a contagion.

The Sunday edition of The Republican was sold out at an early hour last Sunday. We will be fully prepared to meet next Sunday's demand.

"The Holiness Association of South Dakota" recently held a session at Huron, in that State. Needless to say, Senator Pettigrew was not there. He is a Populist.

Rough Rider clubs are a feature of the Republican campaign on the mainland. All indications point to a warm time in the States in a political way this year.

That small farming will pay in Hawaii is assured. Small farms and intense cultivation are what are needed to make the Territory great and populous.

What's the matter with turning Jeffreys, Corbett, Sharkey, Choyinski and our whole army of prizefighters on the Chinese Boxers?

The burdens are slowly being lifted from the shoulders of the brown man and placed on those of the white man. China is about to be added.

Lord Roberts must be exceedingly grateful that the poet laureate, Mr. Austin, has, up to date, permitted him to escape.

Just now that Chinese "open door" is held in that position only by being braced with foreign bayonets.

It is not true that all things come to him that waits, unless he waits in the right place.

"McKinley, Safety and Thrift" is the battle-cry among the farmers of the Middle West.

In McKinley and Roosevelt the old and the new veterans are appropriately blended.

Principle, not personality, is the motto of The Republican.

But if he don't—and few of the Dole regime resign—why, it will be in order for the Legislature to "not concur" in the appointment.

Napoleon III made his running on the strength of being the nephew of his uncle. But if the present Attorney-General is not better posted on citizenship and its rights, he, too, had better give up to some one who has had a little—very little—common sense and law drilled into him.

The people of Greymouth, New Zealand, have a pretty wit. They are sending Sir George White a lump of local gold shaped into a brick. It bears the inscription: "To General Sir G. S. White, Defender of Ladysmith, from Greymouth, N. Z." On one face are the words, "This is a brick," and on the reverse, "You're Another."—London Chronicle.

ZEALANDIA'S TRIP TO GOLDEN NOME.

Seven Hundred Passengers to the Gold Fields.

CLAIM JUMPING IS COMMON THERE.

MAIN STREET OF NOME MORE CROWDED THAN SAN FRANCISCO.

A Graphic Account of the Special Trip of the Popular Liner so Well Known in Honolulu.

Three hundred and seventy thousand dollars in gold dust and $50,000 in drafts and currency were brought from Nome by the steamer Zealandia, which arrived recently from the northern gold camp. All the treasure is consigned to the Alaska Exploration Company, which sent the Zealandia to Nome, the vessel sailing from this point on May 21 with 700 passengers for Alaska. Six passengers returned on the steamer from Nome. They were H. L. Boyne, James Timmood, D. Linsen, R. E. Brown, H. Stoenager and J. Kerrigan, all of whom went north this season, remaining only a short time at Nome. They were unanimous in the opinion that Nome was a good place to visit until law and order was more firmly established. According to the passengers, shotgun titles are the only ones under which claims are at present held, and mining was expected to be at a standstill until the arrival of General Randall, who, with Government troops, was on his way to Nome at last accounts. The Rosecrans, upon which General Randall is a passenger, ran on the Yukon flats, eighty miles south of St. Michael, and was first sighted by the steamer Valencia, which went to her assistance. The Valencia became fast in the mud, however, and signaled the Rosecrans that she could do nothing, and the Valencia then got out to deep water with difficulty. The new tug Meteor hove in sight soon afterward and took the Rosecrans in tow, finally hauling the Rosecrans into deep water without injury. The Meteor is owned by the Alaska Exploration Company and is a powerful tug.

The stories that have been circulated regarding alleged trouble on board the Zealandia during her trip to Nome prove to have been unfounded. Captain Dowdell was presented with a testimonial signed by all the passengers, expressing thanks for the treatment given to them by the Zealandia's officers and praise for Captain Dowdell's skill and pluck in getting through the ice when other steamers hesitated about pushing on to Nome. The only trouble was at Dutch Harbor, on the way north. Two gamblers—one a negro, the other a white man named Bell, from Salt Lake City—got into a quarrel, when the negro drew a huge revolver and fired a shot at Bell, the bullet going wide of its mark. Captain Dowdell had both men put in irons, intending to turn them over to the authorities at Nome, but the negro escaped, and the failure of the officers at the gold camp to come after Bell caused Captain Dowdell to release him. The captain retained possession of the revolver. It was learned afterward that the bullet fired by the negro went through the purser's room in the steamer Oregon, lying alongside the Zealandia, but nobody was hurt.

On June 9, before the Zealandia reached Nome, J. S. Swan, aged 65, a resident of Watsonville, died of pneumonia after an illness of five days. The body was embalmed by Surgeon Clark of the Zealandia and was later buried near Nome.

The steamer Senator had one death and five cases of pneumonia, and James Ferguson, a passenger on the Oregon, died of pneumonia. Several cases of smallpox had broken out on board the steamer Ohio upon the arrival of the vessel at Nome, but the steamer and passengers were sent to Egg Island to remain in quarantine. In the opinion of Surgeon Clark of the Zealandia, the smallpox was taken north by passengers from Spokane and Seattle.

Captain Dowdell reports that he sailed from Nome on the return on June 18, but on account of an injury to the propeller, put back. Another start was made on the 20th, and the fast time of a little over nine days was made to this port. The bark Hunter and the schooner Eclipse were lost near Nome, the passengers and crews being picked up by the steamers Ranier and Valencia. The Zealandia sighted the ship Dashing Wave at Unalak pass. Good weather was experienced all the way down the coast.

Surgeon Clark brings the news that his brother, Harry L. Clark, formerly swimming instructor for the Olympic Club, is fast getting rich at Nome. He owns fifteen claims located on Duster creek, in Council City and on Norton bay, and his success in mining has been in great measure due to his wife, who has proved herself to be a helpmeet of his heroic qualities. While Clark and his partners were standing guard over their claims at Nome, and making progress with the work of getting out gold, Mrs. Clark went out alone with a dog team a distance of 120 miles after a supply of provisions, making the trip in safety. At another time she hired a carpenter and assisted him in building a comfortable house during Clark's absence at some of his claims.

Claim-jumping appears to be the favorite calling at Nome, according to the passengers returning on the Zealandia, and as the result of the disputes miners are not working, and conditions are very bad. Boatmen have been making as much as $150 and $200 a day transporting merchandise to the beach, but as every foot of the beach has been taken up, the new arrivals find themselves confronted by alleged owners of claims, who politely request them not to tarry on the beach at that particular spot. The main street at Nome is said to be more crowded than any portion of San Francisco, fully 20,000 people surging back and forth continually.

Captain William Robinson, formerly of the steamer Rosecrans, owns a claim on the beach at Nome and was preparing the foundation for a building, when a crowd of at least 200 men made a rush upon the spot, capturing it and piling coal upon the property.

Other flagrant acts are numerous. Phil Howell, a well-known sporting man of this city, had bought a lot for $5,000, where he expected to establish a gambling house, but upon arrival at Nome he found that it had been jumped. A man named Parks also found his expensive lot in others' hands and had to pay $17,000 for another piece of ground.

The bark Jane A. Falkenberg was towed into Nome on June 19 by the steamer Lakme. On May 30 the Zealandia sighted the schooner Antelope in latitude 63 deg. north, longitude 163 deg. 34 min. west, near Unalak pass. The vessel seemed to be out of the usual course for vessels bound for Nome.

Letters received from Nome state that trouble existed on the steamer San Pedro almost from the time she sailed from this city. The flimsy compartments put in the vessel were not waterproof, and many of the passengers were compelled to sleep under the saloon table or any other place where water could not reach them. Waiters were accused of selling provisions to the passengers, and one waiter who had too many noses, and therefore did not know whom to obey, was taken by the captain to the engine-room and ordered to go below and shovel coal. He refused to do so and was upheld by the passengers. The waiter remained in the forecastle until Dutch Harbor was reached.

At Dutch Harbor, on June 8, martial law was declared by Colonel Noyes, who had sailors and marines from the revenue cutter Rush and gunboat Wheeler patrolling the shore with guns and fixed bayonets. All the saigons at Dutch Harbor and Unalaska were closed. Deserters from the Government vessels were found by the force under Colonel Noyes in several of the other vessels, and when all the runaways had been found the martial law was abolished.

The Alaska Exploration Company received news yesterday by the steamer Zealandia of the death of F. G. McCafferty, the company's agent at Golovin bay, on June 18. McCafferty was shot and mortally wounded by a drunken man named Sweet some days prior, without warning or provocation. The murderer was too drunk at the time to realize the enormity of his deed. McCafferty was a trusted employe of the Alaska Exploration Company, and his employers speak of him in the highest terms of praise. He came from Portland, Or., where his mother is living, whose sole support he was. The residents of Golovin bay are enraged at the murder and Sweet may be lynched.

When the Government invited bids for lightering at Nome all three transportation companies submitted bids at rates which they considered reasonable. Some outsiders offered to do the work at a smaller figure, and the contract was awarded to him. When the transportation had arrived at Nome the contractor had disappeared and no trace could be found of him. The officials, after waiting a reasonable time, and having made every effort to locate the missing contractor without result, applied to the different transportation companies to perform the work. Just then the companies had their hands full with their own lightering, and it was impossible for any of them to undertake the work. After much delay, the material was taken ashore, but the Government was obliged to pay much more than the ruling rates.

The new survey of the town of Nome has caused much annoyance, and may result in endless litigation because of the change in most of the streets. Much trouble is feared in consequence, and the people were awaiting the arrival of General Randall, to whom they look to straighten out the tangled property affairs. Real estate is very high at Nome and advancing. Just before the Zealandia sailed a lot 50x150 feet, adjoining the Alaska Exploration Company's warehouse, sold for $22,000 cash. Merchandise is plentiful. All the stores are stocked to overflowing and goods are strewn along the beach for want of places to store them. Staple articles sell at the same rate as in San Francisco. Only certain goods which are temporarily scarce command high prices.

The Alaska Exploration Company's steamer Gustin, from Dawson and Yukon way ports, arrived at St. Michael June 15. She brought 300 passengers, partly for Nome and partly for San Francisco, and $2,000,000 in gold dust, most of which is consigned to the San Francisco agencies of Canadian banks. The steamer Humboldt will bring passengers and treasure to this port.—San Francisco Chronicle.

VAN WYCK AND ICE TRUST.
Croker Denies Power of the Governor to Remove Mayor.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Richard Croker arrived from England today on board the Cunard line steamer Lucania. He says that he is ready to take a very active part in the coming national campaign. Mr. Croker acknowledged having owned American ice stock, but said it was bought before the company became the trust, and would not say if he were now a stockholder. As to the request made to Governor Roosevelt to remove Mayor Van Wyck for his ownership of ice stocks, Mr. Croker said:

"The Governor has the power to do so if the Mayor is guilty, but all men must be considered innocent until they are convicted of wrong-doing."

"What would you consider as guilt?" he was asked.

"Well, in case the Mayor used his office to get possession of the shares of stock or to increase the price of ice, that would be, if proved, cause for his removal," was his reply.

Mr. Croker said that with Roosevelt as McKinley's running-mate we should have "San Juan Hill all over again." He said that he was going to Kansas City and that he had to thank the New York newspapers for making him a delegate. It looked, he said, as if Bryan would be the Democratic nominee for the Presidency.

It Saved His Baby.
"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Doak, of Williams, Or. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

The Steamer Australia for the Coast this Afternoon.

PROMISES TO BE A BUSY DAY.

THE KINAU AND CLAUDINE LEAVE ON THEIR REGULAR RUNS.

The Coptic Comes and Goes - The Little Schooner Serena Thayer and Barkentine Perkins Arrive.

To-day will be busy getting the Kinau, Australia, Claudine and the Inter-Island steamers off on their runs. There has not been a moment wasted in discharging the Australia, and she worked all night loading to be ready to leave to-day on time. Her deckload of heavy machinery was cumbersome to handle, and, considering the bulk of it, the work was quickly done.

Several cargo vessels arrived Sunday from coast ports. The Kilikita arrived off the harbor just at dark and anchored until yesterday morning, when she was brought in. The little two-masted schooner Serena Thayer, from Eureka with lumber, arrived yesterday, after a quick passage of seventeen days. She is a trim little vessel of about 200 tons and carried a full cargo. She was loaded to the deck-line and presented a very spic and span appearance as she hove in sight off Diamond Head, looking very much like a yacht.

The George C. Perkins, also from Eureka, left almost a week before the Thayer, but the schooner beat the barkentine here by several hours. The Perkins also brings lumber.

Captain Cameron, who has been under the weather for several weeks, was on deck again yesterday and brought the Perkins in.

The Coptic, a day ahead of time, came into port yesterday in the forenoon. She had but little freight for Honolulu and got away shortly after 5 o'clock for San Francisco.

The arrivals during the month have been up to the average of the last several months. Since the first of the month there have been twenty-one arrivals of deep water vessels, and within the same time there have been eleven departures.

PROGRESSIVE GERMAN SHIPBUILDERS.

Though the position of shipbuilding in Germany is most satisfactory and has received an unexpected impetus from the passing of the naval bill in the spring of 1898, which authorized an expenditure of large sums on new men-of-war during the next six years, yet the Germans themselves acknowledge that they are still far behind Great Britain in some respects, and must not on any account rest on the laurels already won. The great struggle of the German shipbuilders has been to equal the promptness of the Britisher in the execution of orders and in bringing down the price. These objects are no doubt being yearly more attained. Consequently, increased care on the part of the English shipbuilder is more than ever necessary if England is to lead in the shipbuilding industry of the future, as otherwise it will go to the progressive German shipbuilders. The general conviction in Germany is that ships built in Germany should be built exclusively of German products and manufacture, and this has already to some extent been attained, the quality of ship materials and even of ships and war crafts built in Germany have shown themselves to be of a very high order of production. It will be instructive to submit here two recent proofs thereof.

First, during October, 1899, the Schichau yard at Elbing (near Danzig) achieved the feat of building several torpedo-boat destroyers of 250 tons and of 6000 horse-power, which on their trial trips gave a speed of 40 1/3 miles per hour, a speed only equaled several months thereafter by the new British torpedo-boat destroyer Vixen, but never yet surpassed.

Secondly, an instance of good workmanship is afforded by the fact that during the month of October, 1898, at a trial range near Washington, D. C., it was proved on the occasion of trials of heavy armor plates to be used for the new United States men-of-war that those manufactured by Krupp's new method were superior to Harvey's which the ironclads of the United States are now armed, and show that Krupp 12-inch plate was equal to any other armorplate 13 1/2 inches in thickness.

Further proof of the superiority of German shipbuilding materials might be furnished, but space forbids. In conclusion, we desire to call attention to the monster steamers of the German Lloyd and Hamburg-American Line built in Germany of German material and by German workmen, which experts declare to be the superiors to any merchant steamers afloat as regard strength, sea-going qualities, speed, carrying power, passenger accommodations, and, last but not least, the source of profitable investments.—Coast Seaman's Journal.

WORKED AND TOWED.

The steamer Mikahala acted as tow-boat yesterday morning and shifted the schooner James Rolph from Richards street slip to the Inter-Island wharf stern first. All the time the vessels were moving the steamer kept slinging sugar into the water. The schooner was moored alongside the W. G. Hall, and will receive her sugar, finishing this morning.

Some hay on the old fishmarket wharf was discovered on fire shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday. The chemical engine was first on the scene, and the stream soon had the blaze out. About a ton and a half of hay was damaged. It belonged to D. Keefe & Co. A lighted cigar or cigarette stump is supposed to be the cause of the fire.

A Minister's Good Work.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had open running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

SHORT NOTES OF INTEREST.

"It is announced," says the Peabody Mo. News, "that our fellow townsman, the Hon. J. G. Johnson, is to be made Postmaster General under Bryan's administration. It will be remembered that Mr. Johnson was Secretary of State under Bryan's other administration."

In a Western court recently a man asked for divorce on the ground that his wife would not get up early enough to get his breakfast. In her counter-petition the wife alleged that her husband snored so loud that in the early part of the night she could not go to sleep. The court granted the divorce on general principles, without prejudice to either side.

"It is now supposed," says a London weekly, "that Lord Kitchener may be appointed military governor of the conquered (African) provinces, as his stern sense of duty has alarmed 'society,' which fears that, were he intrusted with the task of reorganizing the army at home, he would ignore the claims of the well-connected to live at the expense of the community."

The Board of County Commissioners of Wichita county, Kansas, has just abolished the poorhouse, there being no more paupers in the county. One old soldier is the only dependent person in the county, and he is being cared for by popular subscription. Ten years ago there were over 500 paupers in Wichita county, but the crops have been so large since then that everybody has made plenty of money. No tramps are allowed in the county. They must work or leave.

The Women's Hotel Company of New York, having raised $350,000 by private subscription to its stock, proposes to offer the remaining $50,000 to the public, in order that work on the project may begin at once. The proposal to reserve a portion of the hotel for transient lady guests reaching the city without an escort, meets with widening appreciation as supplying a great want.

In recognition of the establishing at Oxford of Ruskin Hall, the gift of Americans for the higher education of British workmen, the trade unionists, says the London Times, have started a British subscription for the establishment of a similar institution in America. Two representatives of organized labor sailed for America, June 16, bringing with them £4,000 to be used toward the erection of a Ruskin hall in St. Louis, Mo.

The first session of the national conference of Jewish charities in the United States opened at Chicago June 11, with the address of the president, Max Senior of Cincinnati, and the reports of the various committees. At the afternoon session Professor Morris Loeb of New York delivered an address on "Federation versus Consolidation of Jewish Charities in a City," and Dr. N. Reitzenstein of New York spoke on "Relations of Bad Housing and Poverty."

The Squirrel Inn, says the Churchman, has at last become a reality, not precisely as an inn, but as a model eating house, where good food will be given without the accessories that increase its cost many times over. This restaurant has been for a long time a favorite project of the Bishop of New York and of the church temperance society. It was opened on Decoration Day. The building, 131 Bowery, has been given, rent free, for five years. The funds necessary for the first year's running expenses—$18,000—have been subscribed.

A bill which goes into effect in Massachusetts, January 1, 1904, provides for the purchase of from 1500 to 2500 acres in some tract, at a cost of not over $25,000, and the expenditure of not over $50,000 is permitted for the erection of buildings for the dwellings of the insane. Thus there will be a State colony of the insane, living in small numbers in separate cottages. It is expected that the able bodied insane will be set to work on land, as they are able to do, and this will be better for them than being kept in comparative idleness.

Brunswick, Maine, a town of about 7,000 inhabitants, is thought to be the first municipality in the United States to undertake forest planting on a large scale, or what is practically the old world institution of a town forest. The town owns a tract of about 1,000 acres and at a recent meeting of the council $100 was appropriated to improve this land by planting it in white pine. Town forests are common in Europe and often furnish a large part of the municipal revenue. The division of forestry of the United States Department of Agriculture will assist in the work in Brunswick.

Good Medicine for Children

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O. P. M. Holiday, of Deming, Ind., who has an 11-months-old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water, and he got better at once." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

The Honolulu Republican will be delivered to any part of the city for 75c per month or $3 per quarter.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST

Manager Wolters of the Lihue plantation has resigned and will return to Germany.

Dr. Carzichael goes to Hawaii to-day by the Kaima. Mrs. Carmichael is now in Hilo.

Wm. E. Bal, a Hawaiian, is a candidate for superintendent of the Waikuku water works.

W. B. Sims, well and favorably known here in business and political circles, goes to the coast today at the advice of his physician to recuperate his health.

Alexander Young, accompanied by his daughters, leaves for the coast today by the Australia.

A Lewis is a new lawyer from California who has applied for a license to practice.

Harry Evans was taken suddenly ill last Sunday afternoon and soon passed in an unconscious state. He was somewhat better last night but is still confined to his bed.

Yearning for the Unattainable.

Ighatus Donnelly says the Democratic party is not sufficiently in earnest. But Mr. Donnelly is mistaken. He is not a man to be taken in. He is a Democratic party man par excellence. —Kansas City Journal.

Although Candidate Bryan stands in with the populists, it is claimed that he is not a gold brick, and the chances are 16 to 1 that he is not.

If a man had his life to live over again, the chances are that he would be more selfish, save more money, and be meaner than he is now.

The rich man—without genius—who thinks himself able to make his mark in the world will find that he has made nothing but common dollar marks.

Methodist Box Social.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a box social on the parsonage lawn, this evening. The entertainment takes its name from the fact that each lady brings a box containing lunch for two, and her card. These boxes are sold at auction and the person who gets lunch with the lady whose card is in his box. There will be music, recitations and so on. The ladies hope to see all their friends.

By Avunculus' Aid, Eh?

A former Seattle man gets the place of attorney general of Hawaii, which goes to show that a good man is bound to rise wherever he is.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Hawaii is Republican.

Hawaii has sent a delegation to the Republican national convention. The delegates were elected before the territorial government was established. There were eighty delegates in the convention that named the delegates to the national convention, and of these forty were native Hawaiians. That looks as though the Republican party has a good foothold in the islands.—Idaho Statesman.

Their Boat Capsized.
A young man and woman in a small boat got a ducking near the dredger yesterday. They were in a little boat borrowed from one of the boathouses and in crossing the mooring line of the dredger it tightened, capsizing the boat and throwing the occupants into the water. They were fished out by some bystanders and presented a very sorry appearance in their dripping garments.

Go Into Business.
W. Porter Boyd and Leslie P. Scott have formed a copartnership for the carrying on of a custom house and commission brokerage business. Mr. Scott has been for about five years in the employ of the customs service here and has made many friends among the business community. From his knowledge of customs house affairs he is well fitted for the business in which he is entering.

Mr. Porter Boyd from his long experience as American vice-consul here is very familiar with the ins and outs of the routine work, he being the United States shipping commissioner at the present time. The new firm has secured offices in the Campbell block, opposite Irwin & Co.'s office.

STRONG MAN PERRI WHO ACTED QUEER.

He Has Been Locked up pending an Investigation as to his Sanity.

Autone Perri the strong man who electrified large audiences at the Orpheum some months ago by his feats of strength was arrested last night by Captain Fox and is awaiting an investigation as to his sanity at the police station.

Perri returned from Hilo on the last Kiana. He had been there quite a while and on several occasions his actions caused much comment and speculation as to the condition of his mind. He was notified by the authorities in the rainy city that he had better come back here as the folks there were getting to be afraid of him.

Last night he was parading the street with a homemade lantern. It consisted of a can with a candle in it. He said he was looking for work. The idea of a strong man looking for work was too much for the Captain of the mounted patrol, so he arrested Perri and locked him up pending an investigation. Dr. Emmerson will enquire into his sanity this morning.

MEDALS FOR SHOOTING PRESENTED TO POLICE.

Captain Robert Parker Won the Gold Medal—Distribution
Just Made.

For the first time in the history of the police department the medals won by the three best shots in the rifle competition held before quarantine were not presented in the regular way.
The medals were sent down to the station and the clerk distributed them.

The first prize was a gold medal won by Captain Robt. Parker with a score of 411 out of a possible 500. Second prize silver and enamel won by Balatani score 386; third prize silver medal won by C. H. Baker score 384. The medals were awarded by Attorney General H. E. Cooper. Heretofore it has been his custom to present the winning contestants with the trophies.
This time it was not done.

Jurisdiction Questioned.

The case of the Wilder Steamship Company vs. John C. Porter was heard by the Supreme Court yesterday. W.
A. Waitling sitting in place of Justice Perry. It being an admiralty case the jurisdiction of the court to hear the action is questioned.

An at Home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooke gave an At Home last evening at their residence.
The occasion was the return to the islands of H. P. Baldwin and the coming to Honolulu of Mr. and Mrs. F. F.
Baldwin who are to take up their residence here.

Several hundred guests were present during the evening to meet the new comers and Mr. and Mrs. H. P.
Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wilder are passengers by the Australia today.

THEY WERE SUBJECTS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

The Preponderance of New Citizens of English Birth—Magistrate Hore Naturalized.

The preponderance of the new naturalized citizens were formerly subjects of Great Britain. Thus far ten Englishmen have been naturalized and two Germans.

Yesterday morning Judge Edward Hore, District Magistrate of Waialua became a citizen of the United States by taking the oath of allegiance before the Supreme Court.

The following have filed their petitions for naturalization:
Charles Pedersen, Norway; James
Gregory, Ireland; Samuel Johnson
Russia; Alex Raymond, Canada; C. B.
Reynolds, England; Marcus Dollinger,
Australia; John A. Hughes, Ireland; A.
C. de Souza, Azores; Halvor Myhre, Norway; Charles Crozier, New Zealand; Charles J. Campbell, Prince Edward Island; Henry Kjosme, Germany; A. A. Correiro, Azores; Ernst L.
Berodt, Germany; T. A. Simpson, New Zealand.

The supreme Court has not rendered a decision in the case of Captain Wm.
Smith. The captain has petitioned for naturalization.

OPIUM SHIPPED BACK.

Sing Chong & Co., Will Not Make a Test Case.

The opium received here by the Australia consigned to Sing Chong was sent to that firm without its knowledge. It has never been in the hands of the Customs Department as it was regularly manifested and invoiced and bore the requisite United States stamp.
It is now on the Australia and will be shipped back to the consignor this afternoon.

Cecil Brown attorney for Sing
Chong & Co., said yesterday. The firm of Sing Chong & Co., is not in the opium business. The stuff was sent to them on consignment without their knowledge and has been sent back to San Francisco. There will be no test case made on the part of the firm as to their right of keeping it in possession.
They don't want it.

By Authority.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII.

ORDER FOR A SPECIAL TERM.

By virtue of the statute in such cases made and provided, and deeming it necessary to the promotion of justice, it is ordered that a special term of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii be held in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, in the courtroom of the said court, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.
on Tuesday, the tenth day of July, 1900.

By the Court:
HENRY SMITH,
Clerk Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii.

Dated at Honolulu, aforesaid, this sixth day of July, 1900.
