

JUDGE HUMPHREYS CLEANS THE DOCKET.

Meaningless Cases Are Taken From the Calendar.

DOZENS OF CASES DISMISSED. ALL OLD BOARD OF HEALTH CASES ARE UNCELEBRATEDLY CAST OUT.

The Civil Calendar to Be Called on Friday - Two New Divorce Suits Filed - Other Matters.

Judge Humphreys, first Judge of the First Circuit, had a field day yesterday. He took long strides towards clearing the calendar and enabling the courts to start with fairly clean dockets. Many civil cases were dismissed, because the attorneys had failed to put in an appearance. Judge Humphreys righteously held that if the cases were not of sufficient importance to enlist the interest of the attorneys they ought not to be allowed to encumber the calendars.

Yamacka vs. Whitehouse & Wilson was stricken from the roll.
N. Souza vs. M. G. Sunioes was dismissed.
C. J. Fishel vs. B. H. Kahananui et al., assumption; judgment for plaintiff for $469.83.

Two cases against Frank Fisher and one each against C. Donahue and W. C. J. Ottman, unlicensed liquor selling, together with the appeal of G. A. Davis, fined for doing a notary's business without license; that of Goo Yuen, obscene language, and Wook Foe, opium in possession, have all been moved on the Circuit Court calendar.

All of the board of health cases were thrown out. These were suits brought against various parties for not complying with the regulations. In each of the cases it appeared that the parties had complied with the law, after having been fined in the District Court. The prosecution was willing that the matters be dropped. Among the cases were the three against J. A. Magoon, on account of the premises at the corner of Emma and Beretania streets. Since he was fined Mr. Magoon has remedied the evils complained of.

Chin Fook Chin vs. Ah Loy, dismissed.
George L. Edwards vs. A. M. Brown, High Sheriff, damages in the sum of $5,000, was dismissed on the application of the plaintiff.

Nolle prosequere was entered in each of these cases: Alapak, practicing medicine without a license; Torano, disorderly person; R. A. Faulkenberg, larceny in second degree, M. M. Pavao, carrying concealed weapon and violating health regulations, J. A. Magoon, three cases; Tai Cheung and Yee Lung Tai.

S. J. Campbell, nuisance, and Lee Yak, possession of opium, withdrew their appeal.

All of the various Paala land cases from Koolau were dismissed for the reason that plaintiff's attorney was not present.

In the matter of George C. Beckley vs. Ah In, the rice mill man, the plaintiff has filed a satisfaction of judgment.

S. J. Campbell, charged with common nuisance, withdrew his appeal and served on his four months on the reef. In fact, he is expected to give bond, he has already about served it out.

The following cases have been dismissed, some for non-appearance.
Young Chung vs. Joe Davis, damages.
C. S. Desky vs. Mrs. Thomas Lack, damage.

Charles Kampan vs. Mary Stevens, covenant.
Tong On vs. P. Mahaula, administrator, assumption.

H. H. Parker vs. Paala, trespass, appeal from Koolau, was dismissed.

The civil calendar will be called on Friday, when a further cleaning out is looked for.

Ernest H. Austin seeks a divorce from May H. Austin. The parties to the suit were married in Honolulu on Feb. 18, 1891. Libellant sets up that on or about Jan. 1, 1900, he sued libellee for divorce on the ground of adultery with persons unknown. But listening to the prayers of his wife, he discontinued the suit and the matter renewed their conjugal relations. Since then Mrs. Austin, he alleges, has become an habitual drunkard, wherefore he asks for a divorce from the bonds of matrimony, and control of the minor children, Ethel May and Ernest W. Judge Humphreys set a day for answer.

John S. Andrade is suing his wife, Adelaide, for absolute divorce. The parties were married in Honolulu on Feb. 24, 1892. He sets forth the statutory crime, charging the wife with having committed adultery with one A. G. Correa, at 7:15 p. m. of July 27, 1899. Ordered that answer be filed by Monday, Nov. 5.

In the suit of T. R. Mossman against H. R. Macfarlane, F. W. Macfarlane, J. M. Dowsett and others to quiet title to land at Ukumehama, Island of Maui, stipulations were filed that title to the land shall be waived and that the cause may be tried in term time or vacation.

The oath of Office of M. F. Scott as clerk of the Circuit Court of the Third District, Hawaii, was filed with Clerk of the Courts Smith yesterday.

Lillokalan Dominia has brought suit against Charles B. Wilson for unlawfully holding certain lands at Kula-kahua, in Honolulu, said lots comprising 72-1000 of an acre, being lots 9 and 11 of Macfarlane lots, which she claims belong to her in fee simple, and she asks $1,000 damages. ## IS METZ REALLY A CITIZEN.

ASSERTION THAT HE IS FROM JAPAN ONLY SEVEN MONTHS.

Was Marshal Ray Imposed Upon By The Members of the Hawaiian Family Compact.

It would be a pity if it should turn out that the recently appointed United States Marshal should have been induced to appoint a deputy at Hilo, who is not a United States citizen. Yet such appears to be the case. If the evidence at hand is to be relied upon here does not appear to be a doubt about the matter.

C. H. Brown, of Hilo, was a candidate for the appointment, but he didn't receive it. He had presented a very strong application, signed by all the sugar managers, bankers, leading business houses and prominent citizens generally. It seemed as though nothing stronger could be produced, and Mr. Brown last evening, "I do not believe that anything better was offered Mr. Ray."

"Tell you a few inside facts," said Mr. Brown to a Republic reporter, last evening, "on the kinna coming over here I saw W. Mason, a leading Democrat, who had boasted that he would fix Brown. He said he knew Mr. Ray, that they were personal friends and he would ask for the appointment of a man named Bowman, who has been in the country about eleven months. Marshal Ray admitted to me subsequently that Mason had seen about the matter."

"This morning I met Mr. Ray and he said I suppose you want your answer. The marshal said he was under bonds and would have to exact a bond from me. I told him I could give a bond and others. But I soon discovered that I was dishonest—that I had no chance whatever. So I simply asked Mr. Bowman to be not appointed, because he had been recommended by a Democrat. Thereupon Metz was named."

"Who is Metz? Ask me an easy one so far as I know he came over from Japan seven months ago and is not a citizen. I do not know his business, if so has any. It may be possible for a person who is not a citizen to act as United States deputy Marshal, but it isn't the custom in the states and Judge Estee may have something to say about the matter."

"This is not sour grapes. Not at all. I had made up my mind to resign later and move my plumbing business over here. So it doesn't cut much ice with me, anyway. The office is honestly worth more than $5 a month, and I doubt if it is worth that."

"I have been a Republican all my life and I shall vote the ticket all right this year, but I shall not tie up with the Dole lay out, who have pushed this man Metz."

Speaking in a general way about politics over on Hawaii, Mr. Brown expressed the opinion that the Independents would win in the main. "A. B. Lousenstein will be elected," he said, "he can't be beaten for Senator. Neither can Charlie Notley, the Independent. Hawaii has six members of the Assembly to elect and all are in doubt."

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE OF CUBA.

To Be Made Republic Under Uncle Sam's Wing.

UNITED STATES IS TO RETAIN SUPERVISION OVER FOREIGN RELATIONS AND FINANCIAL INTERESTS.

Proposed to Call a Convention Soon to Draft a Constitution for Government of the Island.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Cuba is likely to become a nominally independent republic, with certain reservations that will virtually make the island a self-governing colony of the United States, within six or eight months from this date.

These are the plans which have been formed by President McKinley and the Cabinet during the past few days, when the President and his advisers had an opportunity to consult with Governor General Wood concerning the future of the island. September 15th has been decided upon as the date for holding the election in Cuba for delegates to the convention that is to be called for the purpose of making a constitution for the republic. It is expected that the convention will be called to sit in Havana about the middle of October.

As to whether or not the United States is to withdraw from Cuba at an early date, much depends upon the sort of constitution which this convention may think it wise to adopt. If it adopts a constitution which, in the opinion of the administration or of Congress, insures the carrying out of the pledge given by the United States to see that a stable government is established in Cuba, and the establishment of a stable government follows, the United States will retire during the coming winter or early in the spring and turn the control of the island over to the Cuban people.

A significant part of the program in the conditions which the administration is disposed to insist upon in the new constitution. While the sovereignty is to be nominally vested in the Cuban people and the republic is, in name at least, to be free and independent, there are certain reservations which the United States in Congress upholds the President, will insist upon. These are:

First—The foreign relations of Cuba are to be managed through the American government at Washington.

Second—Cuba is to have no power to declare war without the consent of the United States.

Third—The United States government is to have veto power over legislation increasing the Cuban debt beyond certain limits to be set forth in the new constitution.

Fourth—The United States is to have a certain well defined supervision over the Cuban treasury.

Fifth—The United States is to retain for a period of years, if not indefinitely, control of the fortifications which command the port of Havana and other important cities of the republic.

If the people of Cuba see to it that delegates are chosen to the constitutional convention who are willing to embody these reservations of American control in the Magna Charta of the new republic, the dream of Cuba's liberty may be realized within the next six or eight months. President McKinley has not yet decided whether it is his duty to submit the proposed Cuban constitution to the American Congress for its ratification or not, but the chances are that he will decide to do so.

The President doubtless has power to throw his military control of the island to approve or disapprove of the constitution, but it is thought that he will prefer to turn the matter over to Congress in order to avoid criticism. Members of the administration argue that the United States is pledged to give Cuba a stable government by force retiring from the control of the island, and that this pledge must be carried out to the letter.

It is understood that in the event of the Cuban constitutional convention failing to adopt a constitution containing sufficient provision for American check and control, the military government now in operation there will be continued for some time longer, or until public opinion in Cuba shall have been educated up to the proper point.

ANOTHER INVITATION TO BUBONIC PLAGUE.

The Chinatown Plan Would Look Like That.

NO PROVISION FOR THE SEWAGE.

NOTHING LEARNED, APPARENTLY, BY LAST WINTER'S AWFUL EXPERIENCE.

Tinder Boxes of Houses to Be Filled on Each Other Without Sanitary Surroundings.

"Experience is like the rays shed by the head-light of a locomotive; it serves a momentary purpose and is then forgotten; it leaves no permanent impression." So said some one, perhaps more truly than men usually believe. It is certainly doubtful whether experience teaches men wisdom. If it does it has not had that effect on the Territorial Board of Health. The costly experience of the plague does not appear to have taught the board anything. The same mistakes are being repeated. The wise precautions taken during the plague are being neglected; the fences are let down and the prospects are that the old Chinatown will be rebuilt in a more dangerous and inflammable manner than formerly, and that within a year or two it will be more foul and offensive and disease-breeding than formerly. If any doubt this they need but go across the river and examine the tinder-boxes that are now being erected there, together with their surroundings, which are filthy in the extreme, though these buildings are as yet in the main tenanted. The fire line has not been extended to cover this section and the former wise provisions against cesspools and the demand for connection with the sewers have all been ignored.

BOYS AT THE Y. M. C. A. CAMP.

Having a Delightful Time up in Beautiful Manoa Valley.

All is going on well at the Y. M. C. A. camp in Manoa valley. The boys are having a delightful time. They swim, tramp, hunt land shells and find countless other amusements with which to occupy their time.

At present there are about a dozen boys at the camp, but this number constantly varies. A great many are expected in the camp next Saturday and Sunday, the camp breaking up on Monday.

Next week the camp will be turned over to private parties, who will occupy the tent and engaged locker room. The session of the camp will be in the charge of I. M. Moore, and will consist of Mr. and Mrs. Moore and E. P. Chapin and family.

The arrangements for the new swimming tank and engaged locker room are about completed. I. N. Hayward, contractor, has been making an estimate of the cost, and as soon as he is ready to report a board meeting will be held, to take the matter into consideration.

T WAS A RECORD BREAKER.

WHAT WAS? WHY THE WEATHER OF TUESDAY.

Highest Mean Temperature Ever Recorded in Honolulu—What Became of the Rain.

Record breakers in the weather line are of almost every day occurrence this season, even in Honolulu as well as in Paris and in London; dear old London. Yesterday was one of them. Not in the matter of the greatest heat ever recorded, but in the fact that the mean temperature for the day was the highest Professor Lyons has ever recorded, and he has been recording weather statistics in Honolulu—well, it would hardly do to tell just the exact date, but anyway for many, many years.

The mean temperature yesterday, or to be more exact, for the twenty-four hours ending at 9 o'clock last night was 81.3 degrees, the highest mean temperature ever recorded here in any twenty-four hours before. Monday showed a mean temperature of 80, which was crowding the record closely.

Yesterday went it quite a little better. The maximum temperature at the day was 79, and the maximum 83, showing a daily range of only nine degrees. This accounts for the sultriness of Monday night and yesterday morning and that tired feeling that everyone had when they got out of bed yesterday morning. The heat of the night was only a little less than that of the day and its effect was enervating.

That heavy rain storm that Professor Lyons announced was coming this way yesterday part of last week, tried to beat its way into the rain clouds and the leather man that it did not reach Honolulu. The trades drove it in from the ocean heading it this way, but the mountains on the border of Koolau, on the other side of the island, poised their heads into the rain clouds and they just collapsed. Collapsed so completely that at Manuana on Saturday six inches of rain fell within a few hours and at Ahumani, not far from here, two inches fell. By the time the clouds had been emptied of this heavy rainfall they had nothing in them to carry over to this side of the range, so Honolulu went dry—much dryer than a thirsty individual goes at Waikiki on Sunday.

A weather man knew the rain was ahead this way all right, but he couldn't help it if it refused to come here. For today he gives the cheerless information "strong trades, cloudy and hazy, high temperature. If a gets much higher some one will take a call out of the weather man."

WAS NOT BOBBED.

Jockey McAnulle Skipped With Proceeds of the Anti-Lot. Race.

Antidote, the game old race horse, was not raffled off last Saturday as per arrangement. Jockey Joe McAnulle, who had charge of the race, skipped on the Aorangi with the proceeds of the sale of the tickets, leaving many mourning would-be owners of the old horse. It seems that McAnulle was a little short of ready cash, and so he went to a printing office and had a lot of raffle tickets printed. These he sold very readily about town among the boys, who thought $2.50 would be a pretty cheap price to pay for the game old runner. About one hundred tickets were sold. Then McAnulle skipped, giving the horse laugh to the dabbles who bought them.

LABOR DAY TO BE FITTINGLY OBSERVED IN HONOLULU.

Plumbers Union Appoints a Committee to Confer With Other Labor Organizations.

The recently organized plumbers' union of Honolulu propose to have a fitting celebration of Labor Day here, providing it can secure the co-operation of the other labor organizations of the city. At a meeting of the plumbers last night in their hall, corner Fort and Beretania streets, the hall formerly occupied by the Peniel Mission, it was decided to make a start towards the celebration of labor's great day. To this end a committee consisting of J. H. Conner, G. W. Walsh and Thomas Slattery were appointed to confer with the printers, painters, sailors, ironworkers, brick masons, carpenters and other craftsmen of the city to try and

AN EMERGENCY HOSPITAL NEEDED.

How Wounded Men Are Treated in Honolulu.

A MOST ABOMINABLE SYSTEM.

SOME INSTANCES OF CRUEL NEGLECT HERE RECOUNTED.

Crude Way in Which Accident Cases Are Handled—Apparently Little Regard for Human Life.

As Honolulu grows the need of an ambulance service intelligently directed and an emergency hospital is becoming more and more apparent.

On Monday evening when Pucio killed his wife and cut his own throat, it was nearly one hour and a half after the bodies of the two had been discovered before the man was on the operating table at the Queen's hospital, although it was not more than fifteen minutes drive from the scene of the tragedy to the hospital.

The shooting was done at about 10:30 and reported to the police station almost immediately afterwards. Lieutenant Maipo of the police went to the scene of the tragedy in a hack. After about three quarters of an hour he returned to the police station and reported to Captain Hoili. An attempt was made to ring up Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, but as usual central could not make connections. The hack being quicker than the telephone, the lieutenant was sent to the residence of the deputy sheriff.

At 11:45 the deputy sheriff arrived at the station house and immediately gave orders for the patrol wagon to go to the place on Robello lane, where the killing took place. No doctor accompanied the wagon. After a search at the premises had been made, Pucio, who was found to be alive, was put into a stretcher and taken to the hospital. After the hospital was reached a doctor was rung up by telephone, and this time central made connections in a reasonable time and the doctor soon appeared upon the scene.

All this time the man Pucio was bleeding copiously. It is true he was probably mortally wounded, but he might not have been. Time will often save a life in a case of accident. Had time been of any object on Monday evening the man might have bled to death three or four times before receiving medical attendance.

With regards the establishment of an emergency hospital, the Queen's hospital is a private hospital to all intents and purposes. Those of Hawaiian blood are entitled to free treatment there. Others are pay patients. There is no resident physician at the hospital, and very often accident victims are brought there and have to wait from fifteen minutes to half an hour before a doctor arrives.

At the police station there is a medicine chest, some surgical instruments and lint, bandages, plaster, etc. Such a thing as an operating table is unknown. One night not very long ago a man was severely cut in an affray in Kakaako. He was brought to the police station and after while the doctor arrived. The man was seated in a chair in the corridor of the jail, near the medicine chest. His wounds, some of which were in the breast, some in the back and some in the thigh, were dressed while the man was in the chair, but he became unconscious or unable to sit in the chair he would probably have been laid on the floor to have his wounds attended to.

An incident is recalled where Full Moon, the aged Chinaman who attempted to kill his wife several months ago and then took some of the board of health rat poison to end his own life. He was laid on the floor of the station house and sweet oil was administered to him. He lay there for about an hour and was finally taken to the Queen's hospital, where he was given stomach-pump treatment. He finally died at the institution and the coroner's jury said he died of poison. He might have died of pneumonia contracted while he lay on the station house floor.

McINTOSH ESTATE SETTLED.

John Cassidy, Guardian of Heirs, Was Paid the Balance Due.

John Cassidy as guardian of the heirs of the late Henry W. McIntosh was yesterday paid the sum of $770, being balance in the hands of the clerk of the Circuit Court ordered paid to the guardian by Judge Perry when the delay in the settlement was on account of a small balance in the Postal Savings Bank which the clerk only received a few days ago. The McIntosh heirs now reside in Ashland County, Oregon. The late H. W. McIntosh once held the position of Superintendent of Public Works under the Monarchy.

"I was up this afternoon to visit the forests on Tantalus. Now let me impress this fact upon the citizens of Honolulu. Unless enough trees are planted in the adjacent mountains within a reasonable space of time to catch the big rainfall there the government will have to start a large irrigation plant in order to supply the city with water. The people do not really know what a crisis they face. Enough rain falls in the mountains even in the dry seasons to furnish Honolulu with a water supply that would hold out under all emergencies. But as an act of self-preservation the planting of forests is an absolute necessity."

The above startling statement was made to a Republic reporter by Professor E. C. Stubbs, the special agent in the Quarantine Notice published May 16, 1900, which reads: "that no building erected upon such premises shall be occupied until the sewerage system is in working order in such district and the buildings are properly connected with the same, and further that no cesspools shall be excavated or used upon such premises."

There are many people who seem to think that this quarantine should have been continued in force, and that to rescind it is a menace to the health and safety of the community.

Quite a number of permits have already been asked for and some have been issued. The permit for the large building of the Sing Chong Company, at King and Maunakea streets, has not been granted as yet, but it is understood that this and a few other larger buildings will be of brick. Thorough work and connection with the sewers ought to be demanded, according to adjacent property holders.

"Will small farms be a success here? Well, that is a question that as yet I am not fully prepared to answer. As far as I can make out there is no reason why individual farms should not succeed. Take, for instance, the vegetable farming. These islands are rich in the Bermudas of the Pacific Coast, but there is a very rigid quarantine in California against all island vegetables, on account of the melon fly, a pest which is found in large quantities here. If this pest could be stamped out California and the rest of the Pacific Coast could be supplied with able vegetables in season and out, thereby establishing a very profitable industry in these islands.

"I have enjoyed my visit very much, and only wish that I had the time to go to the other islands. So many new specimens have been brought to my attention that I cannot really tell whether I enjoy them more through the fact of their newness or through their scientific value.

"I want to thank the citizens of Honolulu for the kind support they have given me. Everywhere I go I find everyone willing to help me along. The sugar planters and scientists are especially very helpful, and I can assure you that I will report very favorably concerning these islands and their resources."

entail them in the due observance of the day.

The plumbers are anxious to have a big parade participated in by all the laboring men of the city, particularly union laborers, and desire if possible to have Judge Humphreys deliver an address on the nobility of labor and what the day signifies from noon to 12:30.

Although only organized a short time, the Honolulu plumbers' union is in a most flourishing condition. It now has a membership of thirty-five, two new members having been received into the union last night, and the applications of four candidates being referred to the proper committee. The union has arranged to inaugurate the eight-hour day in Honolulu, beginning September 3d—Labor Day.

Officers of the union deny recent statements that they are trying to keep plumbers from the Coast from coming here. On the other hand they are glad to welcome their brother workmen, as with more coming they will soon have such a strong union that they can effectively shut out all Chinese and Japanese plumbers through the moral effect of their organization.

Before adjourning the union voted to all of the free use of their hall to any other labor organizations that wished to meet to arrange plans for joining in the celebration of Labor Day.

PRINCE DAVID THEIR HOST.

Entertains Employes and Attorneys of the Kapiolani Estate.

Prince David gave a stag party at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening to the employes and attorneys of the Kapiolani Estate, the occasion was the anniversary of the estate. About a dozen friends were present. Solomon's Quinette club was in attendance and sang their sweetest songs during the dinner.

The table was prettily decorated in red and white. In the center of the table was a beautiful palm with flowers and aunting banked upon it. Toasts were in order to which all the guests responded.

After the dinner the party went to the Orpheum, accompanied by the quintette club. During the intermission the boys rendered several Hawaiian airs, which were greatly appreciated by the audience and players on the stage. Those present were: Messrs. Tinney, Ballou, Morris, Colburn, Wise, Toehokalo, Hart, Liliokalan and Keane. Mr. Colburn was toast-master.

A chair was placed on the right of the host for Prince Cupid, who is absent in England.

HEW TO THE LINE. The statement of H. N. Almy, proprietor of the Waikiki Inn, as to his agreement with the police department in regard to open violation of the law in selling liquors on Sundays reveals a most remarkable state of affairs. The Republican has on numerous occasions called attention to the favoritism, not to say corruption, of the present police force. High Sheriff Brown has been asked directly why it was possible for him to secure evidence upon which to close up certain places violating the law, when it was no trouble for this paper to secure evidence that the law was being violated.

STOP THE OPERA BOUFFE. The story published on another page of today's paper concerning the need of an emergency hospital should arouse the people of Honolulu to immediate action. It shows a most lamentable condition of affairs about police headquarters. A Lieutenant of police who just discovered the murdered woman and wounded man Monday night must return to headquarters and report to his Captain before he could take any action, and that Captain must go further and report to the Deputy Sheriff or Sheriff before he could take action. It is a wonder that the Captain was not required to report to Hanrahan first and Hanrahan the first to High Sheriff Brown before any aid could be rendered to a supposedly dying man. What a farce all this circumlocution? If Lieutenant Naipo and Captain Holi are not competent to take charge of such cases in an emergency like that of last Monday night, then what under heaven do they hold the rank of commissioned officers for?

Who manipulated the Oahu sugar stock slumps? So poor Ottman did not belong to the Waikiki police-hotel compact. The worse for Ottman. With municipal government Honolulu could very soon secure an emergency hospital, which is so much needed. Charlie Wilcox was very busy yesterday, auditing the plague bills, which is a guarantee of honesty of purpose. A card of explanation would seem to be due from the High Sheriff, now that he Waikiki hotel men have spoken. The Kalia typhoid scare is happily over, thanks to the prompt and vigorous methods of the board of health. If the enforcement of any particular law should prove offensive to its strict enforcement will soon bring about its repeal. Court business is being done with dispatch these days, and to the large saving of expense to the litigants and the people. Who in the police department trafficked in the privilege of permitting the sale of liquors at Waikiki? It seems to be up to High Sheriff Brown! The appointment of Mr. Metz as Deputy United States Marshal on Hawaii is a victory over "Brown, of Hilo." Mighty dangerous to tie up wrongly politically, these days. At Argentine, Kansas, a Democratic McKinley and Roosevelt club has been formed on the following platform: "As between Populism and Socialism filtered through the channels of Bryanism, we prefer McKinleyism." Pretty sound platform.

It seems to be a matter of some importance whether or not the recently appointed United States deputy marshal is a citizen of the United States. It has been so common for aliens to hold office in Hawaii that heretofore it has aroused no feeling save contempt among intelligent foreign residents.

but with the establishment of the Federal court here all these things should change. There are more than enough Americans to fill American offices. W. S. Nichols, editor of the Jacksonville, Ill. Journal, who has been spending a couple of months in the Territory, left for home on the Australia yesterday. Some ten years ago Mr. Nichols conceived the idea of spending his vacations by visiting some part of the United States he had never seen before. In this period he has made a trip around the lakes, viewed the wonders of the Yellowstone, gazed in awe at El Capitan and Yosemite Falls, climbed Pike's Peak and eaten chili con carne with the Dons of Mexico. This year he came to the new possession, Hawaii. Mr. Nichols was a welcome guest at the Republican office during much of his stay in Honolulu, and we hope he will be the means of sending a number of progressive farmers to the baby Territory. Mr. Nichols' last interview for the Republican before his departure for home appears on another page of today's paper.

Judge Humphreys' charge to the grand jury has struck a popular chord amongst all good citizens. The laws are created for all, rich and poor alike, and if the principles of the Republic are not to be perverted they must be so enforced. Every citizen of Honolulu will be interested in the dire possibility of want of water in this city suggested by Dr. Stubbs, the special Commissioner to Hawaii of the United States Agricultural department. Dr. Stubbs is no alarmist. Did the High Sheriff have a compact with the Waikiki hotels to allow them to sell liquor on Sundays? If not, what police official arrogates to himself such powers? This is a serious matter and the responsibility should be definitely placed.

Judge Wilcox on Bathing Suits. Ah Po, a Chinaman, arrested by officer Halverson Monday for bathing in Nuuanu stream in his birthday clothes was fined $1 and costs in the police court yesterday morning. should make fish of one and fowl of the other, and yet this is exactly what the police department has been doing light along in Honolulu. Enforce the laws as they stand and enforce them with equal vigor against the wealthy hotel proprietors or corporations with which they are enforced against the poor man. The most serious charge against the old government of Hawaii previous to the 14th of June and the chief complaint against the reappointment of the present officials was that it would result in the same lot of office holders being retained who enforced the laws strenuously against the poor man and those they did not like, or who opposed them, and winked at violations of the law on the part of their friends and supporters or on the part of those who represented large money interests.

HEW TO THE LINE.

The statement of H. N. Almy, proprietor of the Waikiki Inn, as to his agreement with the police department in regard to open violation of the law in selling liquors on Sundays reveals a most remarkable state of affairs. The Republican has on numerous occasions called attention to the favoritism, nepotism, and corruption, of the present police force. High Sheriff Brown has been asked directly why it was possible for him to secure evidence upon which to close up certain places violating the law, when it was no trouble for this paper to secure evidence that the law was being violated.

All these queries have been ignored with a "you be damned" expression upon the part of the High Sheriff. The Republican has known for some time that liquor was being sold on Sunday at Waikiki in open violation of the law because of an agreement between the police department and the proprietors of bar rooms. The Republican has had evidence in its possession of violation of the law right in the heart of the city because of a similar agreement.

Such actions upon the part of the High Sheriff or the police department deserve the severest censure of all law-abiding citizens, and if necessary they should make matters so interesting for an officer who will thus attempt to override the law that he must forfeit his position. Governor Dole, as head of the Territorial administration, cannot afford to have such a scandal smirch his skirts as is sure to follow this most remarkable showing. Judge Humphreys charged the grand jury to investigate this and other subjects without fear or favor, and we believe that honorable body of gentlemen will follow out the court's instructions. Because Mr. Almy and others at Waikiki have announced their intention of closing their houses next Friday the grand jury cannot afford to let that fact throw it off the track of its plain line of duty.

As Judge Humphreys well said in his charge to the jury: "It may be that this court does not believe in the enforcement of laws which prohibit the sale of liquor on Sundays at these resorts. Possibly you do not. If you do believe in the policy of the law, and desire to have it repealed, the very best way to secure its repeal is to enforce it. You are to set aside your private personal opinions as to the expediency, fairness or liberality of the law; it is your duty, and you are bound under your oaths, to fairly and impartially enforce the law."

It was the following section which the Republican had in mind when it called repeated attention to the violation of the law in the case of a down town restaurant, that Judge Humphreys undoubtedly referred to yesterday. It is Sec. 445 of the Penal code, which reads: "Any holder of a license who shall sell or retail any spirituous liquor, or permit or suffer the same to be drunk in his house or premises on Sundays, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars. But this section shall not apply to the ordinary supplies furnished to bona fide boarders and lodgers in the houses or premises."

"Or permit or suffer the same to be drunk in his premises." Is not that plain enough as to the violation of the law by a man who is furnishing liquor under the pretense that he is not selling it. And to "bona fide boarders and lodgers." This does not mean transient patrons who come into a hotel or restaurant for a single meal. It means exactly what it says, "bona fide boarders and lodgers," not or lodgers. They must be both.

The Republican is informed and believes that Deputy Marshal Chillingworth said, after Judge Humphreys' charge to the jury Monday: "How is anyone to tell who is not a regular boarder or lodger." Such a statement is ridiculous and shows the utter weakness and lack of defense the police have for their compromising with crime.

These questions make a thorough investigation by the grand jury all the more important. Because Mr. Almy, for one who was violating the law under an agreement with the police department, closes his place, the investigation must not be stopped nor turned from its course. The people have the right to know, and they must and will know, if the charges against the police department has been doing founded. They want to know who Mr. Almy had his agreement with, and why such an agreement was made. The penal code was not enacted to be enforced against one man and winked at in the case of another. It was not intended that the police department should make fish of one and fowl of the other, and yet this is exactly what the police department has been doing light along in Honolulu. Enforce the laws as they stand and enforce them with equal vigor against the wealthy hotel proprietors or corporations with which they are enforced against the poor man.

The most serious charge against the old government of Hawaii previous to the 14th of June and the chief complaint against the reappointment of the present officials was that it would result in the same lot of office holders being retained who enforced the laws strenuously against the poor man and those they did not like, or who opposed them, and winked at violations of the law on the part of their friends and supporters or on the part of those who represented large money interests.

The people may well thank Judge Humphreys that he had the courage and manhood to call the attention of these violations of the law to the grand jury and demand a rigid investigation. Let us have an honest and even administration of the law as is guaranteed very place under the American flag, and let us hurl from high places and from low places every man who dares to set himself above the law or to subvert the open violation of the law.

STOP THE OPERA BOUFFE.

The story published on another page of today's paper concerning the need of an emergency hospital should arouse the people of Honolulu, to immediate action. It shows a most lamentable condition of affairs about police headquarters. A Lieutenant of police who had discovered the murdered woman and wounded man Monday night must return to headquarters and report to his Captain before he could take any action, and that Captain must go further and report to the Deputy Sheriff or Sheriff before he could take action. It is a wonder that the Captain was not required to report to Hanrahan the first and Hanrahan the first to High Sheriff Brown before any aid could be rendered to a supposedly dying man. What a farce all this circumlocution? If Lieutenant Naipo and Captain Holi are not competent to take charge of such cases in an emergency like that of last Monday night, then what under heaven do they hold the rank of commissioned officers for?

Everyone who knows either of these officers knows that they are just as competent to act in an emergency as either the High Sheriff or his deputy, or even Hanrahan. Lieutenant Naipo is a good English scholar as well as a Hawaiian, and Captain Holi is one of the most competent Hawaiians in Honolulu. Both men have brilliant records as police officers, both having been promoted for bravery.

Then why all this opera bouffe nonsense that no one save the much-hecked and beribboned High Sheriff or his chief deputy is competent to direct any action that might result in the saving of human life, or in the absence of such action would mean the loss of human life? Isn't it about time to stop such nonsense? It is a relic of the one man power at the Provisional Government. If subordinates are not capable of acting in an emergency such as that of Monday night then why are they retained? Is it possible that all the brains of the entire police department is centered in the three small heads which surmount the large frames of Brown, Chillingworth and Hanrahan?

Who manipulated the Oahu sugar stock slumps?

So poor Ottoman did not belong to the Waikiki police-hotel compact. The worse for Ottoman.

With municipal government Honolulu could very soon secure an emergency hospital, which is so much needed.

Charlie Wilcox was very busy yesterday, auditing the plague bills, which is a guarantee of honesty of purpose.

A card of explanation would seem to be due from the High Sheriff, now that the Waikiki hotel men have spoken.

The Kalih typhoid scare is happily over, thanks to the prompt and vigorous methods of the board of health.

If the enforcement of any particular law should prove offensive its strict enforcement will soon bring about its repeal.

Court business is being done with dispatch these days, and to the large saving of expense to the litigants and the people.

Who in the police department trafficked in the privilege of permitting the sale of liquors at Waikiki? It seems to be up to High Sheriff Brown!

The appointment of Mr. Metz as Deputy United States Marshal on Hawaii is a victory over "Brown, of Hilo." Mighty dangerous to tie up wrongly politically, these days.

At Argentine, Kansas, a Democratic McKinley and Roosevelt club has been formed on the following platform: "As between Populism and Socialism filtered through the channels of Bryanism, we prefer McKinleyism." Pretty sound platform.

It seems to be a matter of some importance whether or not the recently appointed United States deputy marshal is a citizen of the United States. It has been so common for aliens to hold office in Hawaii that heretofore it was assumed no feeling save contempt among intelligent foreign residents, but with the establishment of the Federal court here all these things should change. There are more than enough Americans to fill American offices.

W. S. Nichols, editor of the Jacksonville, Ill., Journal, who has been spending a couple of months in the Territory, left for home on the Australia yesterday. Some ten years ago Mr. Nichols conceived the idea of spending his vacations by visiting some part of the United States he had never seen before. In this period he has made a trip around the lakes, viewed the wonders of the Yellowstone, gazed in awe at El Capitan and Yosemite Falls, climbed Pike's Peak and eaten chili con carne with the Dons of Mexico. This year he came to the new possession, Hawaii. Mr. Nichols was a welcome guest at the Republican office during much of his stay in Honolulu, and we hope he will be the means of sending a number of progressive farmers to the baby Territory. Mr. Nichols' last interview for the Republican before his departure for home appears on another page of today's paper.

Judge Humphreys' charge to the grand jury has struck a popular chord amongst all good citizens. The laws are created for all, rich and poor alike, and if the principles of the Republic are not to be perverted they must be so enforced.

Every citizen of Honolulu will be interested in the dire possibility of want of water in this city suggested by Dr. Stubbs, the special Commissioner to Hawaii of the United States Agricultural department. Dr. Stubbs is no alarmist.

Did the High Sheriff have a compact with the Waikiki hotels to allow them to sell liquor on Sundays? If not, what police official arrogates to himself such powers? This is a serious matter and the responsibility should be definitely placed.

Judge Wilcox on Bathing Suits. Ah Po, a Chinaman, arrested by officer Halverson Monday for bathing in Nuuanu stream in his birthday clothes was fined $1 and costs in the police court yesterday morning. In passing sentence on the man Judge Wilcox stated that he had seen people at Waikiki in bathing suits that fit too quick and he thought that if the "gals" were allowed to display their manly forms in abbreviated bathing suits without molestation the fine of $1 would be sufficient for the Chinaman as he was not trying to make a show of himself.

Good Medicine for Children. If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea, so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Belling, Ind., who has an 11-month-old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water, and he got better at once." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Both States will be a considerable factor in cane production within five years.

The high prices are a great stimulant to the cultivation of sugar beets, and new large areas in nearly all the Northern States are being devoted to the new crop.

NEW YORK MARKET. NEW YORK, July 21.—The week closes on a steady, firm market for raw sugar, with all advances fully maintained and a good outlook for next week. Latest advices from Java indicate unfavorable crop weather and delay in shipment of contracted sugars, which again will delay the free receipts anticipated here in September.

Refined was not advanced today, and may or may not be on Monday, as the demand is only moderate and buyers may prefer taking chances at present basis. Still higher prices on Monday or Tuesday are expected by many.

THE CANE CROP. The sugar cane is generally reported by our correspondents this week to be growing rapidly and exhibiting a dark green, healthy color. Those who have not finished the work of laying by the crop have been retarded very much by the rains, which have occurred nearly every day, and strenuous efforts are being made to hasten this work at every possible opportunity. Fortunately those who are still in the grass are in the minority, most of the planters having given the crop its last working, and they are now engaged in watching it grow and giving it a few supplementary touches where necessary. The outlook at this date is very promising, and should no disaster visit the sugar belt a good crop is assured.—Louisiana Planter.

FLORIDA SUGAR CANE. In a letter to the Manufacturers' Record, President R. E. Rose of the Florida State Agricultural Society, commenting upon a recent editorial in the Manufacturers' Record on lines of industry offering good opportunities in the South, writes: "I believe no other agricultural and manufacturing industry offers such opportunities as does sugar production in the sugar cane belt of the South for the employment of capital and labor. The vast sums invested in beet culture show the demand for the article and the profit in its production. A careful and candid examination of the cane sugar possibilities, I am satisfied, will convince unprejudiced minds of the vast superiority of the sugar cane fields, the reliability and certainty of the crop and the demand at home for the article. There has just been published in pamphlet form the address delivered before the State Agricultural Society by President Rose on the possibilities of sugar production in Florida, in which he advocated the plan of a central mill purchasing cane from the farmers, the farmers devoting their time, skill and labor to producing the largest possible crop of high grade cane, the millers to the most economical methods of making the best sugar, each receiving the greatest possible reward for his skill in his particular line.

SUGAR BEET NOTES

California, Washington, Utah, Colorado and New York have, in the past week, experienced little or no rain; Michigan, Oregon, Nebraska and Minnesota have had slight showers while Iowa, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois had plentiful and beneficial rains.

The new factory building at Marine City, Mich., is being rapidly pushed to completion. The capacity of the factory when finished will be 350 tons of beets per day.

The Wolverine Sugar Company at Benton Harbor, Michigan, reports that the present crop is in much better condition and more advanced than the last crop, and expect to about triple last year's production. The Alma Sugar Company, at Alma, Mich., also has satisfactory reports on the crop and expect an exceptionally fine stand. The beets of the Peninsular Sugar Refining Company, at Caro, Mich., are said to be exceptionally fine, and an increased yield to almost double the last crop is expected, although the increase in acreage is extremely small. The Holland Sugar Company, at Holland, Mich., also seems perfectly satisfied with the present prospects.

Iowa Falls, Iowa, is looking for capital enough to erect a sugar factory capable of working beets from 5,000 acres of land next year.

The estimated yield of sugar beets for the crop at Sugar City, Colo., is 9,000 tons.

La Grande, Oregon, has the cheerful report that the sugar beet crop there is the most prosperous since the erection of the factory, and that it is two weeks in advance of last year's crop, owing to the fact that the land has been better prepared and that there was a sufficiency of labor.

From Ohio comes the news that work in the factory at Fremont is going rapidly on and that the buildings will be well on in the buildings completed and everything in order. The crop there is favorable, the factory having contracted for 2,750 acres of beets.

The beets grown for the Lehi, Utah, sugar factory, in Sevin county, have been inspected by a representative of the factory, who reports the progress as generally satisfactory. A field of 4,000 tons of beets is expected from Sevin county. Weeding and regular cultivation every two weeks is recommended as the future work in these areas, which are watered by irrigation. Ogden, Utah, reports the crop prospects as still being favorable, but that there is not a competent supply of water for irrigating, and that the dry, hot season has not set in. The hope is to tide over the drought by very thorough cultivation.

The National Beet Sugar Company's new factory at Sugar City, Colo., has received 200 Germans from the State of Nebraska, who will cultivate beets for the factory this season. It is also reported that they have 650 Russians who are familiar with field work and will also cultivate beets. The factory will be finished about October 1, and a good harvest is expected.

PAY FOR STREET WORKERS.

Over Seven Thousand Dollars Distributed to Them Yesterday.

Yesterday was a busy day for the road department. Besides the usual work, the paying of employees had to be done, and for some time the clerks were kept busy paying the men who crowded to the window. About 310 men were paid, this being the largest number ever in the employ of the street department, it requiring $7,300 to pay them off.

Plans have been completed for two new steel bridges to be erected over Mann creek at Beretania and School streets. Bids are now open for the contracts.

INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTIONS.

The Internal Revenue office was rushed to its utmost yesterday. A large consignment of money was to be shipped on the Australia. Owing to the departure of R. N. Frick for Hawaii, matters were slightly hampered, but returns kept coming in all day. The amount consigned by the Australia was $14,838.75, which goes to the treasury in San Francisco. Hereafter shipments will be made monthly.

IMPROVEMENTS ON RIVER CLYDE.

THE SHIP HEMLOCK AND EMILY F. WHITNEY ARRIVE HERE.

Both Made Long Trips to this Port—The Fearless Out for a Spin—Strike on the Hall.

There was a big crowd at the Australia yesterday afternoon at the steamer's departure. Several people who had intended to go were recalled at the last minute by the law officers with little bills that had been forgotten in the haste of departure.

The steamer got away on time and was accompanied out of the harbor by the tug Fearless with a party of Spectacles captains on board. The Fearless started back from the outer buoy and Captain Brokaw opened her up for a little sport. She came up the channel like a railroad train and tied up at the Oceanic wharf, where she will lay usually.

IMPROVEMENT OF CLYDE.

As an example of what pluck and perseverance, coupled with splendid engineering skill, can accomplish in overcoming adverse natural conditions, the development and deepening of the Clyde river from a comparatively shallow stream to its present efficient state of navigability stands out as one of the greatest achievements in river improvements to be found anywhere. The improvements were begun as far back as 1770, and contemplated a depth of from 4 to 5 feet of water up to the wharfs at Glasgow, as compared with 4 to 18 inches, which was the usual depth of the river in a state of nature. This work was begun by Mr. Golborne, and was the first work undertaken by the Clyde Navigation Trust, which has been formed as early as 1759. With this small and modest beginning, and from his time onward, an artificial depth of the river has followed every development in the size and draft of shipping. In 1836, by the efforts of such eminent engineers as Telford, Rennie and others, the river had been given a depth of 15 feet at high water at Broomielaw, and about 7 to 8 feet at low water. Today the Clyde has a uniform depth of 20 feet at low water, and the biggest ships afloat can be safely taken right into the center of the city of Glasgow. This much, without which Glasgow could never have become the great commercial, shipping and shipbuilding center that it now is, was achieved at a cost of nearly £15,000,000, and the work extended over a period of nearly 125 years. During the last 50 years about £2,000,000 has been expended simply in dredging, and there is a large fleet of steamers and dredgers equipped with the most ingenious machinery constantly employed in this service. These possibilities of science and enterprise were so little anticipated in the past that in the seventeenth century Port Glasgow, three miles from Greenock, indicated by its name, and during the last 50 years Ardrossan, had the ambition to become Glasgow's gate to the sea, just as on the Pacific coast Astoria, at the entrance of the Columbia river, has aspired to become Portland's seaward, and Cuxhaven, at the mouth of the Elbe, once imagined that it would supersede Hamburg as a great seaport. The results which have attended the deepening of the Clyde have been little less than marvelous. Great liners and large sailing ships enter and depart from Glasgow every day of the year, and in 1898 there entered and cleared from that city no less than 1,527,277 tons of shipping to and from every known part of the world. This would have been clearly impossible had the river been permitted to remain in its natural state. But another marvelous result of the deepening of the Clyde has been the magnificent shipbuilding industry which justly has made the Clyde famous all over the world. These great establishments, which have during the last half century turned out thousands of all kinds of vessels, stately ocean liners, great men-of-war, and every type and kind of craft, and afforded employment to tens of thousands of men, are the pride of the Clyde and of Great Britain. In 1893 there was launched from these yards 235 vessels of 466,802 tons, or about one-third of all the tonnage built in Great Britain during that year. To the traveler, the merchant and the seaman the words "Clyde built" as applied to a vessel, spells more surely strength, speed, comfort and safety to navigation. The steady and snappy Clyde of a century ago has become a majestic river, capable of carrying on its waters the largest vessels afloat, and its banks have become studded with miles upon miles of ship yards, the finest and most extensive to be found anywhere in the world. And all this has been made possible by the river improvements. Surely that undertaking is one of the brightest pages in the history of maritime engineering to be found anywhere, or in any age, and a lasting tribute to British pluck, perseverance and science.—Coast Seaman's Journal.

PRaise FOR HAWAII BY EASTERN VISITOR.

Annexation Has Greatly Benefited These Islands.

COMMENDATION FOR MISSIONARIES.

THE QUESTION OF IMPORTING BLACK LABOR IS INTELLIGENTLY DISCUSSED.

Great Scenic Wonders of the Islands of Maui—No Hope for Democrats Here—Mr. Nichols' Farewell.

S. W. Nichols, editor of the Jacksonville (Ill.) Journal, who has been visiting in Hawaii for five weeks past being about to leave for his old home submitted to an interview with The Republican, giving his impressions of the Islands and the probabilities of their future growth and development.

"Of course a sojourn of five weeks doesn't enable one to know everything regarding the Islands, but I have endeavored to observe closely and study the conditions which I have met," said Mr. Nichols.

"In the first place, annexation has doubtless been an untold blessing. Truly the lines have fallen in pleasant places for the Islands, and as a part of the United States they have a goodly heritage. I can easily see how the natives can wish the white man had never seen their shores; but for fertile territory like this to remain undisturbed in the hands of its original inhabitants is simply impossible in the nature of things, and the very best lot in the world has fallen to the lot of the people of Hawaii in becoming a part of the great republic."

"I am satisfied that the people of the Islands, both natives and immigrants are under untold obligations to the missionaries. Of course the heralds of the Cross were but human and made mistakes, but they did these Islands an incalculable service, which is benefiting all who live here today. They brought with them the principles of the Prince of Peace. They have given a trend to public opinion which has been a blessing. The law of kindness prevails to a gratifying extent; hospitals, schools and benevolent enterprises abound, and an era of good feeling prevails, for all of which the Islands are largely indebted to the noble, self-sacrificing men and women who came here years ago to teach the gospel to them, grand men who have been of such vast benefit to the Territory. I know that a great many think otherwise, but I have generally observed that the true religion of Christ demands sacrifices; it leads such good men as Mr. Damon to work among the despised and neglected for their good and to leave his family for laborious evangelistic tours about the Islands and it is very safe to say that those who criticize the missionaries are simply trying to justify their own laziness and selfishness.

"The presence of so many Orientals in the Islands and the possible increase of the numbers by immigration and otherwise presents a problem of exceeding gravity, and of course I do not attempt to offer a solution; but sooner or later it will have to be met. It goes without saying that the American citizen, even if he be but a common laborer, is entitled to such compensation for his services as will enable him to maintain his family in at least a tolerable degree of comfort in a home of his own, be it ever so humble. But how can he do this and compete in the labor market with men who herd together like animals and support life on what would be simply wretchedness and starvation for a white man? Of course the Asiatics who are here now should be treated with justice and not in any way subjected to persecution. All who can be induced to attend the mission churches and schools will get there the greatest benefit, while the children should all be required to go regularly to the public schools.

"I hardly feel prepared to give a categorical opinion regarding the importation of African laborers from the Southern States. It will most certainly prove a failure unless they are brought in large numbers and settled here in communities, where they can have their own churches and societies. I have had some experience in dealing with this race, and can warn any man that if he gets a dozen or so of them to work separated from others of their race he will soon have on his hands a desperately homesick lot of people, and even should they be brought here with their families, as I first suggested, there is yet much danger of their drifting for the country they have left. Great care should also be taken by their employers to teach them thrift and economy, the art of saving their wages and putting by for a rainy day. They are generally very ignorant and confident, and philanthropic people and the authorities, as far as possible, should see to it that they are not imposed upon by unscrupulous persons. If they can be made contented here they will spend their money at home, and so the evil of a really foreign element, eagerly accumulating funds to send away, will be avoided.

"My brief sojourn on the island of Maui was delightful. The grand old mountain, Haleakala, is worth seeing, even at the expense of a long journey, for it fills the heart of every true American with pride to be able to say, 'Here is the largest extinct crater on the globe.' The view from the summit is simply superb, and no one who loves nature can fail to enjoy it. The sight of the sun setting is glorious, and is only equalled the next morning by the rising of the glorious orb of day above the mighty peaks. The scenery about the ride to the top and the surrounding country is also very enjoyable, as it presents many unique features to the tourist. It is unfortunate that the expense of visiting the mountain is so great. To one going alone it amounts to little else than a simple hold-up. Perhaps the people over there can't afford to make the charges any less, but they are well high prohibitory to the average tourist who goes in the ordinary way. The existence of two great political parties is always well, for it goes without saying that each serves as a check on the other; but this year it is a little difficult to see how an intelligent resident of these Islands can very heartily endorse the platform of the Democratic party, embodying as it does the Chicago production of '96, dictated by such a man as Albigel, whose very name is a reproach to the State in which he lives. To one knowing but little of finance it is apparent that the policy of '96 is nothing but disastrous for the Islands, having so many dealings with other countries. Expansion is as inevitable as the rising of the sun; the treaty of Paris was duly ratified by the United States senate and nothing possible remains out to accept the consequences, as the present administration is doing. Hostilities were begun by the Filipinos, and while there have been instances of improper conduct on the part of our troops, the entire effort of the army has been for pacification and the good of the country. The blood of our fallen heroes rests on the heads of such men as Atkinson, Hoar and Bryan, whose utterances have given aid and comfort to Aguinaldo, a man who has proved himself a traitor to the cause he professed to serve. The moral responsibility for the peace and welfare of these Islands devolved on us the moment Dewey sunk the fleet of Montejano, and we cannot escape it. To abandon them would leave them a prey to other powers, and there is no telling what fate might await them in that case, while their retention will be profitable to the Islands.

"As for trusts—neither Bryan himself nor the leaders of his party believe in the trusts of what they say on the subject. That there are great evils connected with them is true, and the best remedy was offered by the Republicans in Congress in the shape of a constitutional amendment, and voted down by the Democrats for the sake of political capital. The Republican party an best be depended on to handle the question, correct the evils and spare what is good, for it cannot be denied that much good as well as evil has arisen from combinations of capital.

"As I am about to leave the Islands I look back with great pleasure on my visit here. I think of a sunny climate, a country richly blessed by Providence with fertile soil and wonderful possibilities, containing within its boundaries tropical verdure enchanting to one who lives where the mercury goes to 90 and 90 degrees below in the winter. The mighty volcanoes and extinct craters inspire a feeling of admiration, tingled with awe and reverence, while they are ever fascinating to an admirer of the Creator's grandest works, and weeks or even months I could sojourn in recollections of a cordial, hospitable people with pleasure. I take with me people who have done much to make my visit pleasant, and I have no instance of rudeness or unkindness to recall. I have been especially fortunate in finding here personal friends, former residents of the city in which I live, and they have exerted themselves to the utmost for my happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Marcus, Miss Ferris, Mrs. Tarbell and others, as well as Mr. Parker, whom I first met here and not from my own place, have placed me under many obligations.

"The educational and various public institutions of Honolulu are a just source of pride, nor can I begin to enumerate all the reasons for the good people of the metropolis have for satisfaction. The press is a wonder to me used to having dispatches every day from all over the world. The managers of the Honolulu papers show a marvel of ability and industry. "I came here a comparative stranger, with but a general idea of the great attractions of the Islands. I leave bearing hundreds of fine pictures, the work of superior artists, very interesting specimens of the beauties and wonders of the Islands, and above all a feeling of cordial friendship. With genuine regret I say good-bye."

TREASURY DEPARTMENT AND PARCELS POST

Ruling by the Secretary on Treatment of Packages.

MATTER IN CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT

DUTY TO BE COLLECTED ON PARCELS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

Parcels Appraised and Assessed With Duty by the Collector of Customs—Treatment of Registered Packages.

The United States Treasury Department has recently made the following ruling regarding the conduct of the parcels post between countries in the Postal Union and the United States:

Treasury Department, May 4, 1900. To Officers of the Customs and Others Concerned:

In order to secure uniformity in the treatment of parcels post packages imported in the foreign mails, the following instructions are issued and their observance enjoined upon the various officers of the customs:

UNSEALED PACKAGES.

All unsealed packages (except registered) received by parcels post containing articles liable to customs duties will be delivered by the postmaster at the exchange office of receipt to the collector or other officer of the customs in whose district said office of exchange is situated, who will appraise, deliver and collect duty on packages addressed to persons residing in his district, using entry Form Cat. No. 335, and require the addressee to affix to the entry, in the place provided herefor, the necessary internal revenue stamp. Those packages addressed to postoffices other than exchange offices of receipt should, after appraisal and rating of duty by the collector or other officer of the customs in whose district the exchange office of receipt is situated, be returned to the postmaster from whom they were received, accompanied by entry, Form Cat. No. 335, properly filled in, who will promptly transmit them to the addressee charged with the duties levied thereon which amounts postmasters at office of destination will collect from the addressees on delivery and remit, together with the entry, by first registered mail thereafter to the office of the customs at the exchange postoffice of receipt. Postmasters at offices of destination will require addressees to affix to the entry the necessary internal revenue stamp.

For illustration: A dutiable parcels post package received at the New York postoffice (an exchange office of receipt) addressed to a person residing at Washington, D. C., should be appraised and assessed with duty by the collector of customs at New York, after which the package and entry should be returned to the postmaster at New York, who will forward them in the mails to the addressee at Washington, charged with the duties levied thereon, and the postmaster at Washington will collect the duty from the addressee on delivery and remit the same to the collector of customs at New York, accompanied by the entry properly stamped. Thus, it will be observed, that officers of the customs located at other than exchange offices of receipt are in no way concerned in the treatment of unsealed parcels post packages.

Registered packages, unsealed, should be submitted to the office of the customs at the exchange office of receipt for appraisal and rating of duty after which they should be returned to the postmaster at the exchange office of receipt, accompanied by an entry, for delivery and collection of duties (if the addressee resides in the city in which the exchange office of receipt is situated), or for transportation in the mails to the office of destination.

Packages closed with nails or screws are to be treated as unsealed.

The duties collected on unsealed parcels post packages are to be accounted for as receipts from customs.

SEALED PACKAGES.

The conventions under which parcels post packages are exchanged provide that such packages must be so wrapped or inclosed as to permit their contents to be easily examined by customs officers and by postmasters authorized to do so. Therefore, when packages (including registered) bear seals, or are so wrapped or inclosed as to prevent examination without material damage to, or destruction of, their contents, they should not be treated as parcels post packages, but as illegal importations, except in the case of books, and released upon payment of fines equal to duties, or appraised value, as is done with importations under the Universal Postal Union Convention. Books will be delivered on payment of duty. (Joint Regulations, T. D. 18246; articles 305 and 317, Customs Regulations, 1892, and T. D. 18887.)

Fines collected on sealed packages should be taken up in fines accounts.

UNDELIVERABLE PACKAGES.

Parcels post packages which cannot be delivered should be returned to the country of origin at the expiration of thirty days from their receipt at the office of destination, except packages from the Republic of Colombia, which are to be returned at the expiration of ninety days, and also except Barbados and Jamaica. When packages from the two last named places cannot be delivered, the senders should be notified by the Postoffice Department, and if no reply is received from them within three months from the date of notice, such packages may be sold for the benefit of whom it may concern. The beneficiary is held to be the sender. The duty or fine should be deducted from the proceeds.

When the contents of a parcel which cannot be delivered are liable to deterioration or corruption, they may be destroyed at once, if necessary, or if expedient, sold, without previous notice or judicial formality, for the benefit of the right person. The right person is held to be the sender. The duty or fine should be deducted from the proceeds.

DECLARATIONS AND UNDER-VALUATIONS.

The sender of each parcels post package must make a customs declaration, upon a special form provided for the purpose, stating the address, a general description of the contents, and an accurate statement of the contents and its value. The declaration should accompany the entry to the accounting office.

If the appraised value exceeds the value declared, additional duty should be assessed, or seizure made, as provided by Section 32 of the Act of July 24, 1897, amending Section 7 of the Customs Administrative Act.

INVOICE OR BOND.

When parcels post packages exceed 100 in value, a duly certified invoice, or a bond for the production thereof, as required by Section 4 of the Customs Administrative Act. (T. D. 13531.)

PROHIBITED PACKAGES.

Parcels post packages are subject to the customs laws and regulations of the country of destination, and, therefore, publications which violate the copyright and trade mark laws of the United States, lottery tickets, advertisements or circulars, obscene or immoral articles, cigars in illegal quantities, and any other prohibited articles, should be seized and dealt with as prescribed by the customs laws and regulations. The various parcels post and postal conventions also prohibit the forwarding in the mails of poisonous and explosive or inflammable substances, fatty substances, quicksilver and substances which easily decay, confections and pastes, live or dead animals, except dead insects or reptiles when thoroughly dried, fruits and vegetables which easily decompose, substances which exhale a bad odor, articles which might in any way damage or destroy the mails or injure the persons handling them, and opium from Hawaii.

POSTAL CONVENTION PACKAGES FROM MEXICO AND CANADA.

In addition to the parcels post convention with Mexico, there is a postal convention, under the terms of which articles of every kind or nature admitted to the domestic mails of either country, except sealed packages (not in the form of a letter) and those prohibited by the customs laws and regulations, may be imported into the United States.

Parcels imported under the terms of this convention must be so wrapped or inclosed that they may be readily and thoroughly examined by postmasters or customs officers; otherwise they should be treated as if sealed. The weight must not exceed four pounds.

The provisions herein for entry, appraisal, rating of duty, internal revenue stamps, prohibited articles, and delivery of unsealed parcels post packages (including registered) are to be applied to postal convention packages; likewise the provisions relative to sealed packages (including registered).

As declarations are not required to accompany postal convention packages, such packages are not subject to the provisions of Section 32 of the Act of July 24, 1897.

Postal convention packages, when undelivered are to be returned to the country of origin at the expiration of thirty days from their receipt at the office of destination.

The exchange postoffices of receipt for packages imported under the terms of this convention are the same as those for parcels post packages from Mexico.

There being a postal convention between the United States and Canada, and no parcels post convention, packages imported in the mails from that country should be treated in the same manner as are packages arriving from Mexico under the postal convention with that country.

The following are the exchange postoffices of receipt for packages imported from Canada:

THE HOGAN MINSTREL CASES.

They Have Been Compromised Out of Court—It Appears.

The civil suits growing out of the troubles between the British ship Aorangi and the Ernest Hogan Minstrel Company have been compromised. They were 29 cases in all, and it is understood that the minstrels have been satisfied. The sum of $880.50 was yesterday paid by clerk Smith to counsel for the Hogan minstrel cases. This was a return deposit as the cases were settled out of court by the filing of discontinuances in 26 cases, three having been tried upon the merits and verdicts in favor of plaintiffs rendered by the jury as follows: Jennie Alexander, $500; Harley Ikeyoua, $275; Ernest Hogan, $200. It was supposed that it was the fear of these cases that had something to do with the reluctance on the part of the Aorangi to call at this port on her last trip.

The job printing department of the Robert Grieve Printing Company has been enlarged and improved, though still in charge of the expert workmen who have so successfully served the business men and the general public for so many years.

AFFECTING REALTY LEASES.

A CASE INVOLVING A PECULIAR AND INTERESTING PRINCIPLE.

The Makee Sugar Company Tests a Case Against Tuck Chew a Chinese Lessee.

A case of peculiar significance was decided by the Supreme Court yesterday, in the matter of the Makee Sugar Company against Tuck Chew.

It appears that the parties to this suit executed a lease in duplicate, each receiving a copy. Afterwards they agreed to alter it by inserting a clause of forfeiture, and re-executed the lessor's copy, and they acted therefor as if the lease had been altered as agreed; afterwards the lessee for breach of covenant, and the lessee brought action against the lessor for alleged unlawful dispossession; the lessor then brought this bill in equity for specific performance of the agreement to alter the lessee's copy and for an injunction against his setting up that copy unaltered in the action at law; the lease and estate created thereby have determined, and the lessor's only object is to be protected against the lessee's action at law.

Held, that the bill should be dismissed, as the lessor may set up the altered lease in the action at law, and the rule that the lessee's copy prevails over the lessor's in case of a discrepancy, where both are executed at the same time as counterparts, does not apply to a case like the present, where the apparent discrepancy is due to an alteration made in the lessee's copy in pursuance of a subsequent agreement to alter the lease—to effect which alteration it is sufficient to modify one copy only. The decree appealed from is reversed and the bill dismissed with costs.

Chief Justice Frear presided. Galbraith, Justice, and Circuit Judge Humphreys sitting for Justice Perry, absent. The opinion was by the Chief Justice, concurred in by Judges Galbraith and Humphreys.

Mr. Vivas Is Improving.

J. M. Vivas, the well known Portuguese attorney and politician, is lying seriously ill at the Honolulu Sanitarium. He is suffering from a paralytic stroke. His friends are pleased to hear that he is improving.

PUUEO STILL LIVES.

With His Head Almost Severed From His Body.

Contrary to report Puueo the man who killed his wife on Monday evening and then so terribly wounded himself was alive last evening. Dr. Wood the attending physician says it is a very remarkable case.

The cut in the throat although a very deep one did not reach the Carotid artery and although all of the little arteries and veins of the throat were cut through, they have stopped bleeding and the man lies on a cot conscious but very weak. He is of course very weak from the excessive loss of blood and from the shock both mental and physical. The chances are now that the man will die but he may live. On account of the wound being in this place it is almost impossible to draw it together. The cut was made just over the larynx and goes so deep that the spinal column was probably just missed by the razor with which the cutting was done.

It is not advisable to attempt to stitch the wound at present as it would result in the starting of a hemorrhage of some of the small arteries and the man would quickly die. He was apparently resting easy last night.

THE SPEED OF VESSELS.

According to reports, the turbine torpedo boat destroyer Cobra has reached a speed in her recent tests of 35.856 knots an hour, which breaks all previous records upon water and brings up the question as to what limits may be expected to be reached in the speed of vessels. The best attained as yet in the merchant marine is about twenty-three knots an hour, although a contract is to be made for a vessel that will have a speed of twenty-five, by the North German Lloyd Company.

But when we talk of the Cobra's trials showing that her speed was 35.856 knots an hour, we must remember that her hull is to be made for a vessel that will have a speed of twenty-five, by the North German Lloyd Company. This makes the speed of the torpedo boat destroyer when reduced to the measurement that we use on land, 41.09 miles an hour. This is just two-thirds as fast as our best express trains, and considerably faster than many trains that are called "express" on the time tables. It is the first time in the history of marine engineering that a boat has attained this speed, and as it is almost ten per cent faster than any previous record, we may hope that the near future will produce still more striking results in this direction.

The tests of the Cobra and the Viper show that previous ideas in regard to plans of speedy boats must be changed. The torpedo boats were, on account of their comparative lightness and slenderness, thought to present the ideal form of fast boats, but the destroyer, which is heavier and which has greater length, is now shown to be the speedier class. It should be possible, following out this line of reasoning, for a longer boat, equipped with more powerful engines of the turbine class, to make a still better showing. In ten years we have added ten knots to the average speed of the swiftest vessels, bringing them from twenty-five to thirty-five. It is possible that in ten years more we may be able to add another ten knots an hour, and in time reach the mile-a-minute stage that has already become a standard on land. All things are possible in these progressive days.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

SOCIAL PHILOSOPHY.

We have never seen a double-turreted monitor, but somehow we imagine that the shortcake served in restaurants looks like one.

When a girl pins a rose to her dress the bugs on it have lots of fun crawling out one at a time and scaring her to death.

About all the impression an elocutionist leaves on an audience is a regret that such a good memory isn't put to better purposes.

The girl who puts on her prettiest clothes and starts out to catch a husband should be warned that that's what her mother did once, and see how she looks now!

THE WAIKIKI INN TO CLOSE ITS DOORS.

Management Will Not Risk Grand Jury's Investigation—Sunday Sales Are Large.

Because it is illegal to sell liquor on Sundays the Waikiki Inn will close. H. N. Almy, manager of this popular seaside resort, said yesterday that the charge of Judge Humphreys to the grand jury was in part directly aimed at the custom of selling liquor at the beach resorts on Sundays. He had seen Judge Humphreys and stated to him that at the time the licenses were granted for the Waikiki Inn and the Annex it was understood between the managers of the resorts and the police that no raids would be made for selling liquor on Sundays as long as the places were kept orderly. Light wine and beer licenses had been granted, as it was clearly shown that the beach resorts could not compete with the downtown saloons if they were made to pay the regular saloon license of $1,000 per year, unless they were allowed to sell on Sunday.

The gentlemen associated with Mr. Almy in the Waikiki Inn do not relish the idea of being indicted for selling liquor unlawfully, and as the place cannot be made to pay without Sunday liquor trade, it will be closed on Friday next.

It Saved His Baby.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J.
