THOSE INCONSISTENT CHARGES. The Daily Thurston makes a great ado in parallel columns on what it terms the inconsistency of the charges to the grand jury and the supplemental charge of a few days ago.

Dr. English should use the megaphone in demanding his $30,000 from the Queen. Her ex-Majesty may be just "a little deaf" on that question.

What a nice time the newspapers of the Coast will have with the suit of the Queen and her physician.

Does "the devil's partner" support the Joyful News Mission? If so, why? or Satanic reasons?

Did English will get that $30,000 when the cable is laid. That will talk.

Silver Paramount With Bryan. The personality of Mr. Bryan stands out as forbidding any hope that his views on the currency can be subordinated to anything in his administration of the presidency.

Determining Fair Status. The populists will now endeavor to discover whether they belong to a separate political party or are only assistants to democrats.—Chicago Post.

One Result of Expansion. The democratic platform forgot to refer to development of the gold fields of Alaska. Alaska is one of the results of expansion.—Baltimore American.

THE BAND WILL PLAY. Both Tonight and on Sunday Next at the Capitol Grounds. The band gave a fine concert in capitol square yesterday afternoon.

CHINA WILL HAVE TO ANSWER. The latest information from China shows that the allied forces have begun their advance on Peking and that the fate of the ministers depends largely upon whether or not a swift dash for the Chinese capital is made.

Minister Conger's latest telegrams show that both provisions and ammunition are running low, and the legation guards cannot hope to hold out much longer.

The demand of Li Hung Chang and others in authority in China that they be allowed to escort the ministers and other residents of the legations to Tientsin is well known to be a trick of the Chinese to avert an exposure to their massacre.

If the ministers are slain within their barricade in the British legation, an act will brand China as a barbarian nation and bring upon her the combined forces of all the western world to avenge the awful wrong.

The Republican is represented by special correspondents at Washington and San Francisco, and has a complete news service.

eastern nations have learned something of Chinese character and duplicity in recent years, and particularly within the last few weeks, when it has stood out prominently in all China's dealings with Europe and America.

With its daily attacks upon National "omnibus" Sewall the "Daily Thurston" is showing how it proposes to cement the Republican party.

"The devil's partner," L. A. Thurston, is said to be very busy now preparing for a new raid on his friends who were sufficiently unfortunate to buy into Kihel stock.

The case of Kinney against the editor of The Republican will be heard today. The defense will be in justification of the truth.

It couldn't be an ordinary thing to make a physician to a Queen let go of $300 a month and perquisites.

What a nice time the newspapers of the Coast will have with the suit of the Queen and her physician.

Dr. English was probably not up to the Hawaiian royal idea.

POLLITZ, THE FINANCIER, TALKS OF THE SITUATION. "I fail to see where the outlook is so bad," said Mr. Edward Pollitz, the able financier, when interviewed by a Republican reporter last evening.

"The cane crop this year will amount to $22,000,000. When this money is turned out the market will be very free again. You see, this place is young in speculation. The people here have had little or no experience at all, in all this matter, so that they have been over-reaching themselves.

"Everybody seems to be eating three meals a day, as usual. Strangers are constantly coming and going and leaving some money behind them. No, sir, the present conditions will soon be swept away, and then the market will be as free as ever."

COMMISSION OF PARTITION ASKED BY SUGAR COMPANY. The Wahiawa Sugar Company's Claims to Land That it Has Been Unable to Secure.

The Wahiawa Sugar Company, Ltd., has filed its bill of partition against the Wahiawa Agricultural Company.

It sets forth that the plaintiff is entitled under two leases from James R. Holt, Jr., George L. Holt, Edward S. Holt, Annie K. Holt and Elizabeth Holt, children of Owen J. Holt, deceased, and Henry Smith, trustees under the will of Robert W. Holt, deceased, to the immediate possession of seven undivided parts of the Ahupua'a of Palala, otherwise Hahione.

The defendant has an interest in two undivided sixth parts thereof of said land, and that plaintiff and defendant are tenants in common of said land in said proportions of seven-ninths and two-ninths respectively.

That it is the desire of the plaintiff that the portion of the estates to which it has an immediate and direct right of possession may be set apart to it in severalty, but that the defendant, through requests by the plaintiff, has refused and still refuses to agree to any equitable division of the property.

The plaintiff asks that a commission of partition be issued by the court to set apart and allot unto the plaintiff the several parts of the said land, and for further relief.

By Authority. IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII.

Whereas, a libel hath been filed in the District Court of the United States for the Territory of Hawaii, on the 15th day of August, A. D. 1900, by Chris Collins, Carl Jensen, John Peterson, John Anderson, vs. The American Bank, "Empire," &c., and K. F. Konake, Master, for the reasons and causes in the said libel mentioned, and praying the usual process and motion of the said court in that behalf to be made, and that all persons interested in the said vessel, her tackle, etc., may be cited in general and special to answer the premises, and all proceedings being had that the said vessel, her tackle, etc., may for the causes in the said libel mentioned, be condemned and sold to pay the demands of the libellants.

You are therefore hereby commanded to attach the said vessel, her tackle, etc., and to retain the same in your custody until the further order of the court respecting the same, and to give due notice to all persons claiming salvage, or knowing or having anything to say why the same should not be condemned and sold pursuant to the prayer of the said note, that they be and appear before the said court, to be held in and for the Territory of Hawaii, on the 20th day of August, A. D. 1900, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the same day, if that day shall be a day of jurisdiction, otherwise, on the next day of jurisdiction thereafter, and to cause to be inserted in a newspaper for the same, and to make their allegations on that behalf.

And what you shall have done in the premises, do you then and there make return thereof, together with this writ.

Witness, the HON. MORRIS M. ESTEY, Judge of said court, at the City of Honolulu, in the Territory of Hawaii, this 15th day of August, A. D. 1900, and of our independence the one hundred and twenty-fifth.

(Signed) WALTER B. MAILING, Clerk. By D. A. RAY, U. S. Marshal for the Territory of Hawaii, per E. R. Hendry, Chief Clerk Deputy U. S. Marshal.

SAW A SHELL DESTROY THE

Tells About Jim Watts, the Hero of Tientsin Who Made the Wonderful Ride For Reinforcements.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—Among the passengers on the transport Logan were the two children of the United States Consul at Tientsin, J. W. Ragsdale. Earl, the elder, is fifteen years old, while his sister, Effie, is thirteen years of age. They were in Tientsin through all the days when it seemed probable that no white person would escape therefrom with his life, and now they have returned to this country, on their way to their home in Santa Rosa, for safety. They came alone; their father must remain at his post, and the mother chose to stay and share any danger that might come to him.

The boy, Earl, is a fine, manly fellow, unusually large for his age, and he feels that the latter fact brought him good fortune.

"I was in luck," he said; "my size enabled me to volunteer as nineteen years old—false pretences, you know—and so I carried a gun and did some shooting with the rest in defense of the women and children."

The girl Effie, is a brown-haired, blue-eyed maiden, and loquacious, as her sex gives her the right to be. She talks very graphically of her experiences, and tells with manifest pride how a fragment of shell struck her, tearing her stocking and slightly scratching her leg.

"We have lived in Tientsin two and one-half years," they said. "During all of that time, but especially since last November, we were warned by the Chinese servants, who were friendly, that a movement was on foot to annihilate the whites. We thought nothing of it. Everybody said: 'Oh, let them come on; we will drive them out easily enough;' but everybody was too sure."

"On June 6th our Chinese servants said the Boxers would attack the European concession in town that night, and most of the whites sat up all night. The Boxers did not come then, but the scare was kept up until two Chinese missions were burned on June 14th. On the next day our servants left us, and then everybody believed that serious trouble was right at hand. It came that very night. About midnight there was a rattling and banging at our gate, and the marine who was there called to us that we must go to Gordon Hall—a large stone building—at once, as the Boxers were upon us. It was a terrible sight that we then looked upon from our windows. The French concession was on fire, and so was the native village across from the station. At the latter, Russian troops were fighting the Boxers."

"We dressed as hurriedly as we might and went to the hall, but nobody was there, and, as the alarm bell had not been rung, the doors were locked. While we were huddled together, listening to the sounds of battle, some one ran by and shouted: 'The Boxers are coming over the river on the German bund.' This was just two streets from us, and if ever you saw scared people, they were there. You see, this was before we got used to being scared. Later we were so accustomed to it that we did not mind it so much. It was a terrible scene—musketry volleying, rickshaws loaded with household goods, hurrying to the hall, men running, women screaming, everybody expecting to be killed."

"At 9 o'clock the battling ceased for a time, and we went home, but returned to the hall for the night."

"The men were on guard, most of the women were crying and all of the babies were howling. But the battle was not resumed. The next day we went home for a little while, but we did not stay long."

"We were sitting on the veranda shortly after eight, when, about 10 o'clock, I heard the queerest noise I ever heard—Effie is telling the story now—"It was for all the world as if a great big whistle were flying through the air. Then the whistling stopped, there was a crash and I saw the corner of a house quite near us go flying some where. Then my father came and said it was a shell that struck quite near us; that we were being fired upon from the Chinese Viceroy's fort, and must hurry to Gordon Hall. We didn't stop to get a thing. I ran about all the way."

"Shrinking, horrified and half-expecting that some shell might find them in this blackness, the women and children remained in a cellar during all of the long, fearful hours while the shells were flying about the hall. We could hear vague sounds of turmoil above, but all we could do was to wait in the gloom and hope for the best. The shelling lasted through much of two days, and we were kept in the dungeon during this time."

"The hero of Tientsin was a young man named James Watts. On June 18th, while the battle was on and shells were whistling about us, he, with three Cossacks, started to carry a message to the Admirals at Taku. The message read: 'Shelled continually. Ammunition and supplies getting short. Send help at once or all lost.' He was chased by the Boxers and narrowly escaped, but finally reached the Admirals, after being on horseback from 8 in the evening till 8 in the morning, going through two Chinese camps and several villages where he would have been killed if he had been seen. When he returned, on June 22d, with 150 American soldiers and a company of Welsh Fusiliers, the people in the fort fairly went mad in greeting him. They cheered, shouting and cheered again, and finally took him on their shoulders and carried him into the hall."

June 18th was a most terrible day, and the women and children did not know how near they were to death. A battle was on near the railroad bridge, as well as another on the other side of town. Earl took part in the former.

"The volunteers," he says, "started in the direction away from the bridge. In order to assist the allies there. We were driven back and then went to the assistance of our troops at the scale in favor of the allies, and the Chinese were repulsed. That repulse was the salvation of the women and children, and of us all, for that matter. Under the arrangements which had been made if the allies were defeated the women and children were to have been sent to Taku under such escort as could be provided. If they did not, ten soldiers had been named—they had volunteered for the service—to kill every last woman and child of them all. So you see how much that victory at the railroad bridge meant."

Well, relief finally arrived, as the world knows, the Peiho river was patrolled and on the 2d it was deemed safe to send some of the people from Tientsin to Taku. On the first boat went these two children and their mother, the latter to return to her husband and the former to make the long homeward journey alone.

"From Tientsin to Taku," said the little girl, "is sixty-five miles, and in that distance we passed the dead bodies of 1200 or 1300 Chinese floating in the river. I suppose they were the bodies of Boxers, who had learned that no magic could enable them to spit out the bullets from European guns. It was terrible to see their ghastly dead faces slowly floating with the current."

Thus naively and childishly did Effie sum up the entire story:

"However exciting the whole time was, I do not think I would care to experience it again."

Few would.

NEGOTIATING FOR THEIR SURRENDER.
Alejandrino Pretends That Luzon Insurrectors are Anxious to Lay Down Their Arms.

NEW YORK, August 7.—A cable to the Sun from Hongkong says: Manila advices to the Filipino junta assert that General MacArthur and General Alejandrino, a leading rebel commander, are negotiating for the surrender, under the amnesty proclamation, of the insurgent forces in Central Luzon. These rebel forces include those under Colonels Lucana and Tecson, who last Wednesday captured Lieutenant Alstatter of the engineer corps and eleven cavalrymen.

Diligent inquiries at Army headquarters in Manila, failed to confirm the report of any such negotiations being on foot. It is known, however, that MacArthur has been in constant conference with rebel politicians and military leaders with the object of bringing about peace, otherwise than by fighting. On Saturday last General MacArthur, with an escort of officers, went to San Fernando and met Alejandrino at a conference, which had previously been arranged. According to the Filipinos, Alejandrino then made his offer to surrender the Central Luzon rebel commands and also to produce Aguinaldo under certain conditions, which were not made public. The result of the conference is not known. At its conclusion Alejandrino returned to the mountains.

MUST WEAR A COAT.
Chicago Hotel Refuses to Accept the Shirt Waist Man.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Chicago has little sympathy for the shirt waist which has become so popular in the East as an article of masculine wearing apparel. Local hotel keepers generally condemn the shirt waist and it is also tabooed around the prominent clubs. The feeling of the boniface in this respect was demonstrated beyond a doubt today when a young Easterner attempted to eat breakfast in the Auditorium hotel dining room. He was at first in a shirt waist of Eastern pattern, a pair of white trousers and he wore no coat. The head waiter of the dining room promptly requested him to withdraw and Manager C. E. Tripp acquiesced in the waiter's suggestion, later when complaint was made to him.

Stuyvesant French of New York was the name given by the young man who tried to set a precedent in shirt waists in Chicago. His shirt waist was decidedly noticeable, being of a creamy color. Mr. French's trousers were of flannel. A pair of patent leather shoes completed the make-up. He was no sooner seated in the dining room than the head waiter hastened to his side and asked him to withdraw, which he did in high dudgeon amid the laughter of the guests.

A Minister's Good Work.
"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

CHILD'S STORY OF THE TIEN-TSIN FIGHT. Little Miss Ragsdale Describes the Seige and Rescue.

SHE HELPED CARE FOR WOUNDED. SAW A SHELL DESTROY THE CORNER OF A HOUSE NEAR HER.

Tells About Jim Watts, the Hero of Tientsin Who Made the Wonderful Ride For Reinforcements.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—Among the passengers on the transport Logan were the two children of the United States Consul at Tien-tsin, J. W. Ragsdale.

"We dressed as hurriedly as we might and went to the hall, but nobody was there, and as the alarm bell had not been rung, the doors were locked.

"The men were on guard, most of the women were crying and all of the babies were howling. But the battle was not resumed. The next day we went home for a little while, but we did not stay long.

"Shrinking, horrified and half-expecting that some shell might find them in this blackness, the women and children remained in a cellar during all of the long, fearful hours while the shells were flying about the hall.

went mad in greeting him. They cheered, shouting and cheered again, and finally took him on their shoulders and carried him into the hall.

Well, relief finally arrived, as the world knows, the Peiho river was patrolled and on the 2d it was deemed safe to send some of the people from Tien-Tsin to Taku.

SOME PEOPLE MUST WAIT A FEW MONTHS. Plague Bills Will Be Paid According to Date.

THE APRIL BILLS THE LIMIT.

REPORTS OF VARIOUS HEALTH COMMITTEES READ AND APPROVED.

Registration Board Goes to Molokai. -Iwela Slaughter House and Kahului Discussed.

At a meeting of the board of health yesterday it was decided to reconsider the resolution which was adopted at the last meeting, referring to the payment of the plague bills. A letter from Auditor Austin was the cause of this action. Mr. Austin stated that he could under no condition pay the bills as suggested by the board of health; that is, to pay 80 per cent on every bill. He said that if the creditors wished to deduct enough items to make the bills amount to four-fifths of the original sum, he would pay the bills. He suggested that he pay the bills, beginning with the oldest, and so on until the appropriation should be exhausted. The board decided to take Mr. Austin's advice, and after a good deal of discussion G. W. Smith moved that the bills for December, January, February, March and April should be paid. That brought the total up to $29,413.32, while the appropriation was about $420 minus that amount. Mr. Smith's suggestion was to the effect that the executive officer should deduct enough money from the April bills to bring the amount under the appropriation. Mr. Cooper amended the motion so that the bills should be paid until the fund was exhausted, and in its amended form the motion was passed.

Dr. Garvin then reported on the registration of the leper settlement. The doctor said that he had conferred with Mr. Wray Taylor in regard to the matter, and that Mr. Taylor informed him that it would be impossible to appoint a new registration officer, on account of the lack of an examination board. It was moved that permission be granted to the registrars to go to the settlement.

The lists of lepers sent to the board last Monday were examined and reported. Secretary Wilcox reported in regard to the necessary health certificates for teachers, that by a resolution of the board of health, recently adopted, that it was absolutely of importance to teachers, as well as children, to have good health certificates. Two weeks from the opening of school was the time allowed for such action.

The question of the proposed ward to be built on Waiuku hospital came up before the meeting. Secretary Wilcox reported that the necessary funds were available, and the board decided to build the ward.

Dr. Pratt, the city sanitary inspector, sent in his report. The doctor stated, among other things, that he had given sixty-two building permits, five being granted under certain conditions, and five being refused. That he had made 163 visits to these buildings and 103 to other places. He had investigated eighteen death certificates, had located eight cesspools, had torn down four privies, and had investigated four complaints. That in almost every case his instructions had been complied with. He had also expelled the squatters from the Aala tract, the land being in an unsanitary condition. The report was approved and placed on file.

It was decided that Manager Waller of the Metropolitan meat market should be notified to take decisive actions at once in regard to the Iwela slaughter houses, which were in a surpassing condition of filth.

A request was read from Kahului that the sanitary regulations be extended to that place, so that they might have power to restrict the building of some Chinese quarters. It was moved to request Kahului to make up regulations of their own, using the city regulations as a guide.

Dr. Garvin now opened his mind to the board of health. It appears that the doctor has a mule, or rather the board has a sick mule, a mule with a large appetite, a larger doctor's bill, and a still larger inability to perform manual labor. Now, although the doctor had a very tender spot in his heart for the mule, he did not think that the animal should live on the board any longer, and suggested that he find better board elsewhere. He also went on to state that a Chinaman had offered him $50 for the mule. He asked the board's advice. After considerable discussion, in which Hilo was contemplated as a future dwelling place for the mule, the animal was turned over to the doctor, with power to act.

LABORERS FOR HAWAII.

Plantation Negroes in Louisiana Being Induced to Come.

NEW ORLEANS, La., August 6. - B. Collins and John Hind, Hawaiian sugar planters, reached New Orleans two days ago on a mission to secure negro labor for the Hawaiian sugar fields. The gentlemen have already begun work and several negro families of Monroe, La., have decided to risk the trip. The planters will visit several Southern States. They are careful to select their drunks, picking only young negroes with small families. They have refused to sign any city negroes on the ground that the blacks in the cities are of a lower moral standard and impregnated with the anarchist ideas which inspired the murderer Robert Charles in his recent horrible crimes in New Orleans. The negroes under contract to Messrs. Hind and Collins are promised $3.00 per month in Hawaii and they will have to reimburse by slow payments half their transportation of $50. They will be given houses and gardens to work.

Mr. Collins before going to Honolulu nine months ago, was Louisiana's State Chemist and one of the experts at the Audubon Sugar Experiment station. The gentlemen will also secure negroes in Porto Rico.

POLICE OFFICER SERVICE.

Order by Judge Silliman in an Ex Parte Case.

Judge Silliman has signed an order of default against defendants in Honolulu Investment Co. Ltd. vs. Minnie Ohi Unanna et al, action to quiet title. The following memorandum is appended to the order.

It appears that the summons was served by a police officer but not by a sheriff or deputy sheriff. But it seems to have been the long established practice here for such police officers to serve such process. The matter is one of construction only, and in this extreme case, I felt that it was proper, in view of the long established practice, to hold that the service was within the contemplation of the Legislature, as shown by the practical working of the law in the courts.

COMMITTEE NOTIFIES BRYAN OF NOMINATION.

Great Gathering of the Democratic Clans in the Capital of Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, and Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois, were notified of their nomination for the offices of President and Vice President respectively, in Military Park, shortly after 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Thousands of people witnessed the ceremonies. Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, was introduced by Mayor Taggart as presiding officer. Senator Jones in a brief speech introduced Congressman James D. Richardson of Tennessee. Congressman Richardson was received with wild cheers as he mounted the stand to officially notify Mr. Bryan of the fact that he had been selected as Presidential nominee of the Democratic Convention at Kansas City.

When Mr. Bryan arose to reply a demonstration occurred which perhaps has never been equalled in this city. When order was finally restored Mr. Bryan began his address which was of considerable length.

Governor Thomas of Colorado, followed, notifying Mr. Stevenson of his nomination. Mr. Stevenson replied in a somewhat briefer speech than that of Mr. Bryan.

Towne's Letter.

Indianapolis, Aug. 8.—When asked for an expression of opinion today upon the withdrawal of Mr. Towne from the Populist National ticket Mr. Bryan replied:

"Mr. Towne's letter is manly and patriotic, but it is nothing less than was expected by those who know him best."

Other Democratic leaders expressed themselves in similar strains. It was the general opinion that the withdrawal would not alienate many Populists and that it would increase the chances of Democratic success at the polls.

HARRISMITH SURRENDERS TO THE BRITISH.

Lord Roberts Reports the Latest Movements of His Forces.

London, Aug. 7.—Lord Roberts reports to the War Office under date of August 6th, as follows: Harrismith surrendered on August 4th. The neighboring country seems to be quiet. Kitchener is with the force south of the Vaal river. He was joined yesterday by a strong detachment of Brabant's horse and the Canadian regiment.

"The Boers attacked the garrison at Elands river on the morning of August 4th. Information was sent to Kitchener, who was on the way to Elands river. Ian Hamilton, who reached Rustenburg yesterday, reported hearing heavy firing in the direction of Elands river. Today the firing seems more distant, which looks as if the Elands river garrison had been relieved and was retiring towards Zerst."

Boer Patrol Defeated.

Kroonstad, Aug. 7.—Commandant Heron, who commanded the Boer flying patrol that derailed and burned last week near Hönigspruit the train carrying United States Consul Stowe and trying the Stars and Stripes, has suffered a loss of three killed and ten severely wounded in a rear guard action near Kroonstad with the Malta Mountain Infantry. The British sustained no losses.

President Steyn of the Orange Free State is ill.

Kruger Ready to Quit.

Pretoria, Monday, Aug. 6.—It is stated positively that President Kruger is willing and anxious to surrender, provided a satisfactory promise is given as to his ultimate destination.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT STANDS ADJOURNED.

Queen in Her Speech Feelingly Refers to War in South Africa.

London, Aug. 8.—Parliament adjourned today after the appropriation bill had been passed by both houses. The Queen's speech at the proroguing of Parliament, after stating that the relations with the powers of Europe and America continue friendly and making a reference to the establishment of the commonwealth of Australia, refers to the war in South Africa, "which has placed in the strongest light the heroism and high military qualities of the troops brought together under my banner from this country, from Canada, Australia, and my South African possessions."

The speech then says: "Believing the continued independence of the republics to be a constant danger to the peace of South Africa I authorized the annexation of the Free State as a first step to a union of the races, under an institution which may in time be developed so as to secure equal rights and privileges in South Africa."

Referring to China, the speech says: "The British and other legations at Peking have been attacked by an insurgent mob and it is feared many of their inmates have been murdered. How far the Chinese authorities are accomplices in this atrocious crime and whether the British Minister and his family are among the victims are matters still in some uncertainty. The utmost efforts will be made by myself and my allies to visit with worthy punishment the authors of this unexampled crime."

After a reference to the Ashanti rising, the speech devotes a few words to the distress caused by the famine and plague in India, thanks the Commons for the liberality with which they responded to the unusual financial demands due to the war, and adds that the satisfactory progress of the campaign gives fair ground for hoping that the excessive requirements of military activity will soon be abated.

An innovation in the Queen's speech which caused some comment was the mentioning of America specifically. The speeches from the throne usually allude to the powers generally, or to the European powers.

Bubonic Plague in Europe.

Hamburg, Aug. 6.—A case of bubonic plague has been discovered on a vessel in the harbor. All possible precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

EYES OF EUROPE ON ITALY'S NEW KING.

New York, Aug. 5.—A special to the Times from London says: A question now agitating Italy and interesting all Europe is what the new King, Victor Emanuel III. will do. He, as is the fashion of heirs apparent, has been in the opposite political camp from his father, and since he attained manhood has congregated with Socialists and leaned to the side of reformers. Will he be prepared to continue this attitude and to face the consequences? Should he do so and prove to be a strong man, with political qualities like those of the grandfather, only of a higher order, then he may regenerate Italy. On the other hand, should he be driven by the murder of his father into the arms of reactionaries and attempt once more to hold the Italian people down by the iron hand of the soldier, he will not have long to wait for renewed attempts at revolution.

Those who know the young man say he is sensible and amiable, but somewhat obstinate and easily excited, so the future is dark enough and is not much illumined by his first manifesto as sovereign of Italy.

DON'T BELIEVE EARL LI'S LATEST MESSAGE.

London, Aug. 7.—A Shanghai special dated August 6th, says: "Li Hung Chang has officially informed the consuls that the Ministers left Peking for Tientsin last Friday, August 3d, with General Yung Lu in command of the escort. The Consuls are by no means disposed to credit Earl Li's statement. All other reports that have reached London up to this hour indicate that the Ministers have not left Peking."

DASTARDLY WORK OF ROBBERS Kill a Passenger Who Attempts to Defend a Woman.

Denver, Col., Aug. 5.—Two masked robbers committed one of the worst crimes of the year this side of Hugo, Col., shortly after midnight this morning, when they held up the passengers in two Pullman cars on the Union Pacific train No. 4 and killed William J. Fay, one of Denver's oldest citizens and now of Anaheim, Cal., because he had the courage to defend a woman in an adjoining berth against the ruffians' threats. The money and valuables that the bandits secured were of comparatively little moment in view of the sacrifice of Mr. Fay's life, for the latter leaves a great host of friends in this city, California and other places, to mourn his tragic death.

VIGOROUS ACTION NEEDED TO SAVE MINISTERS.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The message from Minister Conger brings the Chinese situation to its most critical stage and the authorities in Washington regard the matter as one of great gravity. They are aware that nothing but the most vigorous action can meet the conditions, save the Ministers and other foreigners in Peking, and avert war of long duration. After a conference of the men in charge of the diplomatic and military affairs, in which President McKinley participated on the long distance telephone, it was decided to send a message to Consul General Goodnow, repeating the contents of the Conger message, and advising him that the situation was serious and a crisis had been reached.

He was directed to communicate the fact to Li Hung Chang, to Sheng and other Chinese officials, who were to transmit it to the Government of China, with a strong representation that the present situation was now intolerable and could not be continued without the most serious results. It is understood that the dispatch was practically an ultimatum, and an early reply was demanded. The answer is expected during the day or evening, and it probably will determine the future action of this Government.

It is now believed by the War Department officials that the international forces now operating along the Pei river can reach Peking in time to rescue the Ministers, if active hostilities should begin against the legations by the imperial troops. So serious do the officials regard the situation that it is believed by some there is greater safety for the Ministers and other foreigners to accept an escort of the imperial army to Tientsin than to remain in Peking if war should be declared. The information received through the Chinese Minister regarding the opening of communication between the Ministers and their governments is the one ray of hope in the situation. Whether the promises contained in the edict will be made good ought to be speedily known, and if communication is established, the most serious consequences may be averted. Although there have been intimations before that such communication would be established, this is the first time that it has appeared in the form of an imperial edict.

As a result of this latest communication from the Chinese Government and the message sent to Consul General Goodnow, the United States Government is now in a waiting attitude, hoping for the best, but apprehensive of the gravest possibilities.

Good Medicine for Children

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind., who has an 11-month-old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water, and he got better at once." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

To Those in Quest of A RUG...

To Intending Purchasers of Rugs we would state that just before the change in tariff we received a large and varied assortment of

Japanese Rugs

By purchasing these Rugs before the change, a saving of about fifty (50) per cent. was effected, which our customers are to profit by, as we do not intend, at present, to increase the price but will sell them, while they last, at the old figure.

Under these conditions, a buyer here can now purchase these Rugs for much less than they are sold for on the mainland.

We have made a display of these Very Handsome Rugs in our large, central show window, where their beautiful designs and harmonious coloring is sure to attract attention.

PRETTY ISABELLA PACHECO'S TROUBLES.

She Appears as a Prosecuting Witness in Court.

CASE RESULTED FROM COLLISION. WHAT CAUSED JUROR EUGENE SULLIVAN TO CRANE HIS NECK AND STARE.

Antone Medeiros Acquitted of Heedlessly Conducting a Vehicle to the Detriment of Life and Upright Walking.

Isabella Pacheco is quite pretty. She is coy. Yesterday she wore a hat radiant with flowers. It was a bowler of bloom and bright colors and charmingly set off her brunette features. As she took the witness stand in Judge Humphreys' court room, Juror Eugene Sullivan, who was sitting on the back seat, craned his neck to get a better view of the pretty witness. And during the whole time of her recital Sullivan watched her as attentively as he would a Democratic orator at a Bryan ratification meeting.

Isabella, on taking the stand, said she could not speak English, yet in the resonant language of her native land she told how it all happened. It was on Kamehameha Day, the 11th of last June. She was in an alley extending from Punchbowl to Kinau streets when the collision came. She was knocked down and badly injured. Her left leg and arm were bruised. "Did you call in a doctor?" asked the Deputy Attorney General. "No, I used some medicine," replied the witness sweetly in her native tongue, which lost its sweetness on the court room air in being translated. "What hit you?" asked Deputy District Attorney Cathcart, running his hand through his shock of hair. "A bicycle," answered the witness, and there was quite a commotion of flowers on the bench. "How wide was the alley?" "Nineteen feet," came the answer. And then the witness went on to explain how a horse and cart blocked some of this nineteen feet, and it was in juxtaposition to horse and cart that woman, bicycle and man mingled in confusion.

The man who pedaled the bicycle was Antone Medeiros. He was arrested for heedlessly conducting a vehicle, to-wit, a bicycle, through the streets of Honolulu, to the detriment of the peace and good order of society, jeopardizing the life, liberty and the pursuit of walking upright.

The defendant claimed that he was exercising due diligence when the collision came. He wasn't riding fast, traveling a district messenger boy pace and observing the rules, rights and law of the road.

Now, notwithstanding the coyness of Isabella, her recalling of injured leg and bruised arm, the jury after due and careful deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty, and Antone Medeiros walked from the court room a free man.

And thus had another victory been recorded for the bicycle over man.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES HAVE BEEN CALLED

The Executive Committee Met Last Evening and Subject is Now Under Consideration

The executive committee of the Republican party in Hawaii had a meeting last evening. The only business was the issuing of a call for primaries to elect delegates to the district committee.

The official call will be issued later on, but the rules and regulations of the Republican party in Hawaii provide as follows, relating to the district committee:

Section 1. Each district committee shall consist of delegates from the precinct clubs in said district.

Sec. 2. Each district committee shall meet when notified to do so by the Territorial committee, and shall elect the following officers: President, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and such other officers and standing committees as it may be entitled to.

Sec. 3. Any duly enrolled Republican shall be eligible as a delegate to the Territorial committee from the district in which he resides.

Sec. 4. Each district committee shall be charged with the general care and supervision of the affairs of the party within its district, subject to these rules and regulations. It shall take such measures as it deems necessary and expedient to secure the organization and maintenance of precinct clubs in every precinct, and secure the co-operation of all Republican voters with the party organization, and shall, under the control of the Territorial committee, have charge of all campaigns in the district. It shall decide all disputes from the precinct organizations, and contests within said district as to primary elections.

Sec. 5. District committees may hold regular or special meetings as may be provided for in their by-laws, and not less than one-third of the members shall constitute a quorum.

Article 2. No meeting of precinct or district clubs shall be held without public notice being given through the papers or otherwise, not less than six days before the day of meeting.

His petition for the place is numerously signed.

HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION.

Plans for Organization Will be Discussed This Afternoon.

The idea of having a hospital established here on the lines of some of the hospitals, conducted by the big railroads and manufacturing concerns of the United States, is to be discussed at a meeting to be held at the office of J. E. de Bolt on Merchant street this afternoon.

There is nothing new in the scheme except that it will be tried here. The idea is to have co-operation in the support of the concern which is all that is necessary after a start has been made. Members of the Hospital Association have the benefits of the hospital or medical attendance at their homes at a very small cost. The dues or membership are supposed to be $1 per month.

An attempt is being made to reach classes of people in the endeavor to make the association a success, and the different large business houses and places employing many men have been asked to join in the co-operation, to employ good medical treatment at a normal cost.

E. Hulay, in speaking of the matter yesterday, said: "There is certainly the need of a modern hospital here, conducted in a modern way; with up-to-date appliances and built according to latest sanitary and scientific requirements. This will all be talked over at the meeting this afternoon, and I feel sure we will be able to do something very soon towards the establishment of a new hospital."

TIE ITSIN REFUGEES

REACH SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 8.—Forty-two refugees from Tien-tsin were landed yesterday from the transport Logan, which arrived at midnight on Sunday from Taku and Nagasaki. The passengers were some of the women and children and a few male non-combatants who were compelled to leave the beleaguered city for their own safety. They tell graphic stories of the siege and the pathetic incidents. Nearly all left behind relatives who are still waging war against the Chinese. The men compelled their women and children to leave, fearing the awful fate that awaited them should they fall into the hands of the Boxers or imperial troops.

Mrs. Edward B. Drew of Boston, whose husband is Commissioner of Customs at Tien-tsin, gives a vivid picture of the atrocities practiced by Russian troops on innocent Chinese. Dr. Ditzendorfer, who participated to some extent in the fighting, sharply criticises the missionaries, whom he blames for all the trouble. Dainty Elsie Ragdale, the thirteen-year-old daughter of the American Consul at Tien-tsin, and her brother Earl tell in a quaint manner the thrilling story of the siege, and M. A. Montelle of this city adds a number of incidents of interest. Miss Laura Jones, a young missionary, had a remarkable escape from the Boxers in their own country, and the story of Mrs. Lowry, with her three tiny children, is full of pathos. Every passenger has something of interest to tell.

The Logan took the Ninth Infantry to Taku from Manila—the soldiers who made the gallant stand in the open before the walled city. They were without protection from the fire of the forts and the leaden hail of Mauser bullets and Colonel Liscum was one of the first to fall. Sixty-one of the regiment were brought back sick without having had a chance to fight. There were besides, sixteen marines and four prisoners. By order of Admiral Remy the transport took on board at Taku all fugitives, irrespective of nationality, and gained for the United States the applause of the world.

A Singular Coincidence.

Hicks—They have said that Bertou is a man of peculiar views, but it seems that he can think the same as others. Wicks—Possibly. What led you to that conclusion? Hicks—When I met him today he said he supposed I hadn't a dollar I wanted to spare, and—really, it was quite a coincidence—I supposed so, too.

A Spanish General's Kindness.

During the period of his imprisonment by the Filipinos, Lieutenant Gilmore and his men were at one time thrown into an old barrack with a party of Spanish prisoners, including a Major General. The latter in some way obtained money, which he divided among his men, and with great generosity sent fifty Mexican dollars to Lieutenant Gilmore, asking him to accept them with his compliments. Gilmore made the condition that it should be considered a loan, to which the Spanish General graciously assented and he used the money to buy shoes and clothing for his men, something they sadly needed, for they were almost naked.

After his rescue Gilmore learned that the Spanish General, who had also escaped from the Filipinos, was in the city of Manila, and he offered him fifty silver dollars as repayment of the loan. The General was quite indignant, and refused to accept it. When Gilmore reminded him of the agreement he smiled and said that he had consented to it only because he feared the Americans would not accept the money otherwise. Gilmore told the story among the other naval officers at Manila, who passed around a paper and collected a handsome sum, which was expended in the purchase of the most appropriate and expensive piece of silver that could be found in Manila. It was engraved with a brief statement of the incident and presented to the Spanish General with appropriate ceremonies, as a token of gratitude and admiration from the navy of the United States. Then he was invited to a reception upon the flagship, where very officer of the fleet who could be spared welcomed him and thanked him in person for his kindness to Gilmore and his men. Havana Post.

KILLING OF LORBEER AND HOPE OF AVERY.

The grand jury yesterday morning investigated the case of Samuel Barney, charged with the killing of John Lorbeer on Sunday. In the afternoon it was at work on the Avery case. Avery was the man arrested on the Australia on the eve of her departure for San Francisco, on a charge of embezzlement, on a warrant sworn out by W. C. King. The case was heard in the police court and Avery was honorably acquitted of the charge. Subsequently Avery brought action in the United States District Court for $5,000. A large number of witnesses were subpoenaed to give evidence in the Avery case. Prominent business men and women—for Miss Killian was there—restlessly paced the corridors, waiting to be called.

Bleak House For Sale.

Lovers of Dickens should be interested to learn that the famous Bleak House, Broadstairs, is for sale, the price asked being $15,000.—So far no purchaser has come forward, the reason alleged for this being that the house is in a bad state of repair and would require a considerable sum to make it habitable. Failing a private purchaser, it is suggested that the house should be acquired as a Dickens memorial and museum.

Oh, Woman, Gentle Woman.

Here are a few facts gleaned from a single issue of the newspapers by the Philadelphia Enquirer: One hundred and forty girl students at Wellesley College bind and gag twenty-five other female students, jump them with paint and leave them at the woods at night.

The Elmira College Athletic Association, composed exclusively of girls, made the following records in their annual sports: Standing broad jump, 7 feet 8 inches; fifty yard hurdle race, 0:09 1-5 seconds; baseball throwing, 132 feet 3 inches; running broad jump, 11 feet one inch; 100-yard dash, 0:14 1-2 seconds; one-third of a mile walk, 5:00 1-2 minutes.

Jessie Gibney, of Jersey City, grabbed a thief by the collar and wrestled him to the ground with him screaming for help, and thus effected his capture.

In St. Louis several women were attacked by various mobs of women. The clothing of those attacked were torn from their backs, and the victims chased in semi-nakedness through the streets of the town. A mob of women also publicly spanked three young women school teachers.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs adjourned after trying to heal the many wounds engendered by the meeting, and without being able to prevent the race question becoming a matter for the courts.

The Honolulu Republican will be delivered to any part of the city for 75c per month or $2 per quarter.

It Saved His Baby.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Deak, of Williams, Or. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.
