SECRETARY WAS NOT APPOINTED

Republicans Talk But Fail to Act

Successor to E. R. Hendry to be Chosen From the Members of Territorial Committee, No Business Transacted.

When the Republican Territorial Committee of Hawaii decides upon the selection of a permanent secretary for that organization, the official will be chosen from the ranks of the committee.

Such was the decision reached by eight committeemen, well supplied with proxies, at a meeting of the Republican Territorial Committee at the Republican headquarters in the Elite building yesterday evening.

The meeting abounded in stirring addresses. The actual business transacted amounted to but very little. Two hours were practically devoted to debates, and without selecting a successor to the retiring secretary, Mr. E. R. Hendry.

Avery Not to Be Secretary.

While it was generally understood that J. D. Avery was slated for the vacancy, the leaders in the committee and the men holding the proxies changed the complexion of affairs by submitting a resolution which practically barred any and all from holding the office of secretary to the committee, who were not duly enrolled as members of the Territorial committee.

Oppositionists to this method decried against the proposition on the ground that the scheme portended to secrecy and dark lantern methods generally. The opposing forces were marshalled together and led by T. McCants Stewart.

Realizing the trend that affairs had taken Acting Secretary Avery, through Committeeman Renton, had his name withdrawn from any connection with the secretaryship, and announced that he was out of the race.

Candidates Nominated.

The names of Col. J. H. Fisher and W. J. Coelho, both enrolled as committeemen, were submitted as candidates for the vacant office. Before the vote had been polled the committee annulled all proceedings which had taken place with the exception of passing the resolution.

One matter in which all members of the committee unanimously concurred was in passing suitable resolutions regarding the death of Representative Archibald Gillilan. There was not a dissenting voice.

Included among the committeemen present in person were: John C. Lane, W. J. Coelho, T. McCants Stewart, J. P. Cooke, J. H. Fisher, Charles Wilcox, B. H. Wright, R. H. Renton, C. H. Dickey and J. A. Gilman.

J. D. Avery was appointed secretary pro tem. The roll call followed in which all proxies were properly accredited and accounted for, and the minutes of two previous meetings were approved.

The resignation of E. R. Hendry as secretary of the Republican Territorial Committee and Territorial and Territorial Executive Committee was read and accepted.

Upon the motion of J. P. Cooke a vote of thanks was extended to the retiring secretary E. R. Hendry. It was carried by unanimous vote.

Wright Springs Resolution.

Committeemen R. H. Wright offered a motion to the effect that the secretary be selected from among the members of the Central Committee. The motion was seconded by Committeeman Renton.

Mr. Gilman contended that it was the duty of a committeeman to accept the office of secretary, and he intimated that there were several members who would take the position.

Stewart Declares Against Secrecy. T. McCants Stewart declared that the motion portended to secrecy and executive sessions. He voiced the belief that if the committee declared for the motion they would depart from all lines of precedent which had heretofore characterized committee meetings generally. Mr. Stewart wished to know why the motion was introduced. He admitted that he stood single handed and alone in the meeting.

"If we expect to control the Republican party by sand bag methods we shall simply fail in the management of the party," declared Mr. Stewart. "It seems to me that this committee is attempting to manage the Republican party of Hawaii on the same lines as a corporation or a plantation. As we stand now we are not in touch with the people and the voters, and this accounts for the many serious snags which the Republican party in these islands has encountered of late: If we adopt the resolution, we are certainly going beyond all precedent. One of the marked things noted by the large number of American born who are constantly coming to these islands is that they soon begin to realize the very peculiar methods in vogue in the inner circles of the Republican party's politics in Hawaii.

Precedent Cited.

"In the big national committees you seldom find the officers of the committee chosen from the ranks of the committeemen. The secretary of such a body is the driving machinery of the organization. Members of such committees are too busy to attend to small details.

Instead of running away from precedent we should follow the regular order of things. There should only be occasional secretaries or star chamber sessions in the work of this committee. The greatest publicity should always be given the general party work. I cannot see why we should guard secrecy in our deliberations."

Fisher Replies to Stewart. J. H. Fisher claimed he had no personal interest in the matter.

"Precedence does not count in the present incident," he insisted. "Our chairman first brought it to my attention. I think there are times when the meeting of this committee should be made executive and that committee secrets should not be handled by an outsider.

Spirited Repartee.

Mr. Stewart again interposed additional objections to the proposed resolution.

"I have often wished I had stood closer to the plantation interests of these islands. It is a great privilege to be numbered with the elect. I know from reliable authority that I am on the outside, and even the chosen organ of the party in these islands has taken up the cudgel against me. I am thankful that I possess the courage of my convictions however. Before I came to this meeting I was told that disloyal hands must not handle the proxies. This probably accounts for my not having as healthy a bunch as some of my friends of the opposite faction. I want to remind the committeemen of one thing, and that is I went into the fight a year ago with as much fire and energy as any of them. I expended as much good coin as the average committeemen."

Renton Gives His Opinion. Mr. Renton was of the opinion that a person best fitted for the position of secretary should be chosen. He insisted that if it was not necessary to go outside of the committee and select a committeeman. There need be no hard and fast rule. If better talent can be secured outside of the membership the most competent should be taken.

Mr. Stewart again contended for precedent and cited many mainland instances.

A vote taken resulted in 11 ayes for and 9 nays against the adoption of the resolution. Mr. Wright then nominated Mr. J. H. Fisher for secretary. Mr. Stewart nominated W. J. Coelho.

In taking the vote a number of committeemen stated that they bore proxies which instructed the holders specifically as to how they should vote.

Committee Paused and Considered. Mr. Stewart at this juncture took the floor and offered a motion that proceedings should be stopped and the matter of choosing a secretary be postponed until the next regular meeting. This motion was seconded by Mr. Fisher.

Mr. Wright requested more light upon the Stewart motion.

Mr. Stewart declared that the interruption of the meeting was a violation of the rules of the committee. He stated that the meeting was called to order and that the committee was in session. He stated that the meeting was called to order and that the committee was in session.

Mr. Stewart declared that the in-

FUNERAL OF MRS. PRATT TOOK PLACE YESTERDAY NOON

Very Many Prominent People Attend the Interment—Rev. William M. Kincaid Officiates—Hymns Sung by Double Quartette—Six Little Children Left Motherless.

The funeral of Mrs. J. S. B. Pratt, the wife of Dr. Pratt of the Board of Health, who died on Sunday afternoon, took place yesterday afternoon and was one of the largest private funerals which Honolulu has seen for a long time.

Mrs. Pratt was born in this city about forty years ago. She was the daughter of Joshua G. and Laura F. Dickson, a grand daughter of the late Dr. G. P. Judd, and a niece to the late Chief Justice Judd, Mrs. E. K. Wilder, Mrs. C. A. Carter and Miss Judd. She died after an illness of only three days and her death was a great shock to the many relatives and friends who gathered around her bier yesterday afternoon to bid her a last farewell.

The funeral took place from the residence on the corner of Nuuanu and Judd streets. The services, which were very simple according to the request of the family of the deceased, were begun by the singing of "Light After Darkness" by a double quartette. Rev. William Morris Kincaid then read selections from the Scriptures, finishing with a prayer.

The funeral procession then wended its way from the house to Nuuanu cemetery where the interment took place. The procession was an exceedingly large one and in it were a great many prominent people of this city. Among the pallbearers were Dr. C. B. Wood, Albert Judd, Allan Judd, Christian Tracey and Geo. Carter. At the grave "Jesus Lover of My Soul" was sung by the double quartette whereafter the commitment services were read by Rev. W. M. Kincaid. The services closed with the singing of "Shall We Gather at the River."

Mrs. Pratt leaves six little children of whom the youngest is only four days old. Mrs. Hitchcock, who lives near the Pratt residence will look after the motherless little ones.

There is another very sad feature to the case. A sister of Mrs. Pratt, whom she had not seen for over twelve years, is expected to arrive in the Ventura here on a visit. She is of course in total ignorance of the death of her sister and the intelligence will undoubtedly be a very sad shock to her.

AMONG FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Several Meetings Held Last Night in the City.

It was lodge night last night in Honolulu. The Harmony and Le Progres de l'Oceanic lodges and the Catholic Benevolent Union had meetings and each one brought out a large attendance. The Catholic Union regular meeting did not take place last night. Instead the members were treated to a musical concert by Father Valentin. One of the largest music boxes in the city had been placed on the platform and furnished all kinds of music from a rag time song to a sacred selection.

At Harmony lodge there was music also but of a vocal character. Several solos and a chorus were sung by the ladies and the members enjoyed a real good time.

Le Progres de l'Oceanic held its regular business meeting last night at Masonic Temple.

There will be a meeting of the Hawaiian Orphanage and Industrial School Association at the Kona Coffee Store Thursday morning at 10 a. m.

Mission Board to Meet.

The January meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions will be held in the lecture room of Central Union Church this afternoon.

First Bricks Made Here.

SUPREME COURT IS IN SESSION

Brief of Attorney General Dole for the National Supreme Court.

COOPER APPEALS FROM AUDITOR

CLERK HENRY SMITH CUTS DOWN THE LIST OF THRUM'S ANNUALS.

Distribution Directed in the Estate of Maria Bruns—Trustee Robinson Repps $15,000 Loan—Chinese Interpreter Ordered to Hilo—Honolulu Plantation Condemnation Case.

The January session of the Supreme Court opened yesterday morning. Chief Justice Frear and Associate Justices Galbraith and Perry being present. Four tax appeal cases were argued and submitted, Robertson & Wilder appearing for the Tax Assessor as follows: Julia and Becky Hunt, represented by Peterson & Matthews; Estate of James Campbell, by Cecil Brown; John Paulus, by Magoon & Dillon; and Mary A. Graeme, by Cecil Brown.

Motion to dismiss the case was denied in the matter of the estate of R. W. Holt, Thomas Fitch representing the heirs contestant; Holmes & Stanley for the trustee respondent.

Notice of motion to advance the mandamus case of H. R. Hitchcock et al. against the First Judge, First Circuit, was given by J. A. Morgan. The action is instituted to cause Judge Humphreys to preside at the new trial of the Kamalo Sugar case.

Four tax appeal cases were set for today: Richard T. Rickard, represented by Fitch and Wise; M. Moorehead, G. K. C. Rooke, by Atkinson & Judd; and M. S. Grinbaum & Co., Limited, by Hatch & Silliman.

Two cases have been set for Thursday, both are C. A. Brown against J. D. Spreckels et al. Magoon & Thompson and Smith & Parsons for plaintiff-appellant, and Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan for defendant.

For National Supreme Court.

Attorney General Edmund P. Dole has prepared his brief in the appeal from United States Judge Estee to the United States Supreme Court in the matter of the application of Osaki Mankichi for a writ of habeas corpus. The Attorney General is now waiting to learn that the matter has been placed on the calendar, after which he will proceed to Washington to present his case.

In his brief Mr. Dole declares that the status of the Hawaiian Islands, as far as the fifth and sixth amendments to the Constitution are concerned, is now before the Supreme Court for the first time.

The argument, in part, is as follows: "The status of the Hawaiian Islands, with reference to the Fifth and Sixth Amendments, during the period in question, now comes before this court for the first time. The islands were not one of the United States. They were not an organized Territory of the United States. They were not, like Porto Rico and the Philippines, an acquisition from another nation by conquest, purchase or otherwise, of a portion of its domain. They were an independent nation, surrendering their sovereignty and their national property for an indefinite period awaiting such form of government as Congress might give them. There is no parallel case in the history of the United States, probably not in the history of the world.

Annexation by Contract. "The annexation was by contract. The understanding and intentions of the parties are material. If it be urged that an extra session of the Legislature might have been called to establish a grand jury system, the answer is irresistible, that such action was within the control of the President of the United States, that it would have involved long delay, and that the result would have been doubtful.

BACHELORS' MUSICALE

TREAT AT CASTLE MANOA HOME

NUMEROUS YOUNG MEN WITH MANY OTHERS ENJOY THE AFTERNOON.

Vocal and Instrumental Music Rendered by Miss Carrie Castle, Miss Hyde, Miss Barber and Mr. Irvine. Hostess Doing Much Towards Educating Taste for Good Music.

The monthly "bachelors' concert," with which Miss Carrie Castle delights young men of her acquaintance, took place on Sunday afternoon at the Castle's Manoa valley residence. A number of people, mostly young men, were present to enjoy the opportunity of hearing good music in the beautiful surroundings of the Manoa "chateau," where he, in the midst of the refined luxury surrounding him, can enjoy the magnificent views of the valley, while the exquisite notes issuing from the music room make it a perfect ensemble of enjoyment.

Some Choice Selections.

The music Sunday was begun with the Wagner-Brazzin "Feuergeugen" from Die Valkyire, "exquisitely rendered on the piano by Miss Carrie Castle. Mr. Irvine next gave a song accompanied by Miss Castle, then Miss Iola Barber rendered Bohm's "Legends" on the violin, in her usual charming manner. The piano accompaniment was played by Miss Maud Kinney. Miss Hyde next delighted her hearers with two songs one of which was the well known "Say Yes, Mignon." Miss Barber again gave a well rendered violin number "L'Abelle" by Schubert. "L'Abelle" is an exquisite, short and very original piece of music, full of technical difficulties, but in rendering which Miss Barber, however, acquitted herself well.

Pathos and Perfection.

As the last number Miss Castle played "Wiegenlied," by Heller. The rendition of the piece was perfect, both as far as pathetic feeling, touch and technique are concerned and inspired the hearer with just the feeling which this beautiful piece of music ought to give.

The young men, as well as others who enjoy Miss Castle's "Bachelor Concerts," cannot be grateful enough to her for this charming phase of hospitality, by which she offers to them an opportunity to hear good classic music which could otherwise be heard but rarely.

Taste in Good Music.

By combining "utile and dulce" in this most enjoyable manner, Miss Castle is doing much towards cultivating among the young people of this city a taste for good, refined music and hardly enough can be said in her praise and to her credit. Among those present at Sunday's concert were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Theo. Richards, Miss Hyde, Miss Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Stemmmons, Mrs. and Miss Kinney, Miss Iola Barber, Mrs. Grace Waterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. A. Maxon Smith, Prof. Cooke, Mr. Irvine, Mr. Fletcher, Mr. Walter Howard, Mr. H. W. Kinney, Mr. Tracy, Mr. Templeton and many others.

ART LEAGUE COMPETITION.

Judges Elected to Consider Merits of Manuscripts Received. The time limit for handing in manuscript stories, verses, etc., for the Kihohana Art League competition having ended on January 31, the committee has elected the following to be the judges of the manuscripts:

Mrs. Henry Castle, Miss Burbank, Prof. M. M. Scott, Dr. N. Emerson, Walter G. Smith and Walter Dillingham. The literary committee of the League, consisting of Mrs. E. Van Cleve Hall, Mrs. W. F. Frear and Mrs. Sema S. Kinney, will also act as judges.

The manuscripts, which are considered by the judges to be the best, will be read aloud at the next meeting of the League.

CRASH TOGETHER IN DARK OF NIGHT

Vessels Collide in the Channel

Gasoline Schooner Malolo, Leaving Port, Runs Into Steamer J. A. Cummins, Coming Into the Harbor.

Too! Too!! Crash! "All hands on deck!" The gasoline schooner Malolo and the steamer J. A. Cummins crashed together in the middle of the channel approaching the harbor shortly before 9 o'clock last night.

In the twinkling of an eye all hands on either vessel were on deck, wondering what had happened and how long it would be before they were at the bottom or struggling in the black waters for the shore and safety.

The Cummins was entering port from a trip to Waimanalo. The Malolo was bound out on an island trip. Somehow or other the commander of the Malolo became confused, and ran his craft crashing into the Cummins' amidships. The Malolo's bowsprit speared the Cummins' starboard life-boat and then, as the Cummins sped on in the direction of the town, the Malolo was for the moment shoved back by the momentum, only to crash into the Cummins again, this time striking her stern on the starboard side, tearing away twelve or fourteen feet of the bulwarks, knocking a few stanchions into the sea and ripping off a portion of the Cummins' upper deck.

Thought Cummins Would Sink.

When the Malolo struck the Cummins the men in the engine-room were the nearest to the point of contact and consequently felt the blow the most. They knew absolutely nothing of what was happening until the crash came. When it came they rushed on deck by way of the port side. They did not know what had struck the vessel. They expected to find the water pouring over the deck when they got out of the engine room and were surprised to find that the vessel seemed to be going serenely on her way after the terrible shock. They soon learned what had happened and went back to the engine room to their duty while the Cummins was headed around to chase the disappearing Malolo, which had gone in the darkness somewhere, to see if she needed assistance.

No Leak on Cummins.

Captain Searle, of the J. A. Cummins, caused a hasty examination of the vessel to be made before he put about to the assistance of the Malolo. It was found that, besides the smashed life-boat, the starboard stern of the steamer was smashed considerably above the water-line, but that no other damage was apparent. The pumps were immediately sounded but failed to reveal the presence of any noticeable leak.

After it was found that the Cummins was evidently in no danger of going to the bottom Captain Searle gave his attention to the condition of the Malolo. The Malolo is a much smaller vessel and, striking head on as she did, it was supposed that she must have sustained serious injury. She might be sinking or even have sunk for all those on board knew of her condition or whereabouts. Nothing had been seen or heard of her after the collision.

When the Cummins headed around after the Malolo, Capt. Searle strained every effort to catch a glimpse of a sound of the Malolo or a sound from any of her crew.

For a minute he could see nothing of her. At last he caught a glimpse of her in the blackness, blackness which was only slightly relieved by the starlight.

"Malolo, ahoy! ahoy!" shouted Captain Searle, using his hands as a speaking trumpet.

At first there was no answer. Again the captain of the Cummins shouted through the night.

This time there came back a faint answer.

"Ahoy yourself! We're all right!" "Are you going to put back?" shouted Captain Searle as the Cummins overhauled the Malolo. "Aye! Aye!" came the response from one of the hands, "We're going back to town."

A great weight was lifted from his mind. Captain Searle put about and headed for town at a good speed, anxious to lose no time in making fast to the wharf and ascertaining the exact amount of damage to his own craft. He did not know but what the vessel might now be taking in water.

Safe at Oceanic Wharf.

About fifteen or twenty minutes after the collision the J. A. Cummins was moored alongside the Oceanic wharf. Here Captain Searle telephoned Fred Whitney of William G. Irwin & Company, agents for the J. A. Cummins, telling him of the accident and asking him to come down. It was found that the damage to the Cummins was not of a serious nature and nothing more than would require carpentry work above the water-line.

In the meanwhile the Malolo had put back and crept into the harbor with her gasoline engine working away for all it was worth.

The Malolo put up at the foot of Sorenson's wharf, with her jib-boom carried away, her bowsprit split and her nose badly barked and splintered where she had crashed into the bulwarks of the Cummins. Captain Moke of the Malolo, a Hawaiian, went up town almost as soon as his little vessel was safely moored and he had assured himself that she would float until the morning. Nobody was left aboard but the Chinese cook, who sounded the pump now and then between naps.

Captain Searle's Story.

Captain Searle was seen aboard the J. A. Cummins as she lay at the Oceanic wharf last night, shortly after she had docked. His story was as follows: "We left port at 8 o'clock this morning for Waimanalo, and were on our way back when the collision occurred. The Cummins was about in the middle of the channel at the time of the crash. I saw the Malolo coming. I was entering port, keeping to the port side of the channel. The Malolo was coming out, also keeping to port. As soon as I saw her lights I gave a couple of blasts of the whistle and kept right on, following out the promise of the whistle. The Malolo answered the whistle with a couple of toots of her wind machine. If she had kept right on her course all would have been well. To be sure, it was the narrowest point of the channel, but it was plenty wide enough for two great ships to pass each other, much less a couple of small vessels.

Malolo Swings Round.

"Instead of keeping to her course as she should have done, the Malolo suddenly swung around to starboard and plunged her jib-boom through the starboard life-boat of the Cummins. The crash was great and I thought at the moment that serious damage had been done.

"I cannot imagine what caused the strange action of the Malolo, unless the captain was confused about the lights or the whistles."

The circumstances of the collision will be thoroughly inquired into today and a survey will be made of both vessels.

SHIP LORD SHAFTSBURY SAILS AND BREAKS HARBOR'S MONOTONY

Crew Heaves Anchor and Sing Lively Songs

Three Cheers Given for Honolulu—Police Round Up Deserting Sailors—When Out of the Harbor, One Man Jumps Overboard and Swims Ashore—Eureka Expected Today.

The British bark Lord Shaftesbury captain J. G. Henrickson, was towed out to sea by the tug Fearless shortly after eleven o'clock yesterday morning, bound for Portland, Ore.

She left Honolulu in true "lime juice" style, with much cheering and singing and howling. As the vessel had no donkey engine on board, all the hauling had to be done by hand, and the waterfront habitues were treated to a public concert by the Britisher's crew.

As they have the anchor up, they struck up "Jimmy Brown" followed in rapid succession by "When we go around the Horn" and "Shang-haied Brown." The words produced by the nautical harmony of voices was so great that Captain Brokaw could not make himself heard and was seen several times, to throw up his hands in despair.

Several sailors who had deserted the Lord Shaftesbury during the past week, were rounded up by Captain Flint of the Harbor Police and put on board shortly before she sailed.

As the vessel passed in front of the Pacific Mail dock, the crew gathered on the fore'side head and under the direction of the "chief" gave three "hip, hip hurrahs" for Honolulu.

One man, however, did not join in the cheers of his comrades. He was sulen and non-communative. He had left the ship sometime last week and was on board only through the courtesy of Captain Flint who escorted him aboard this morning. When the vessel was off the lighthouse, and as soon as the captain gave the orders to loose the sails, this man was seen making for the lee rigging. He jumped overboard and swam ashore. His act was so quickly executed, that when the captain realized what had taken place, the vessel was well on her way to sea, and there was no possibility of recapturing the deserter. He was seen from the Myrtle boat house, and there is no doubt that he has long since told of his feat to his comrades along the waterfront.

been discovered either, and until something more definite regarding that vessel's damage is known the Board of Survey will not make its report.

BARK MAUNA ALA HAS PECULIAR EXPERIENCE

CARRIES SALT TO SAN FRANCISCO

On Her Way Up She Was Caught in the Tail of a Typhoon and Had a Hard Time in the Tail End of a Big Hurricane.

The Mauna Ala had a peculiar ex-at San Francisco December 27th, had a most eventful run from the islands. At times she was under water and Captain Smith had to use oil bags to keep the craft afloat.

The bark had aboard over 4,000 sacks of salt, a peculiar cargo when the loads of sugar that come from Hawaii are taken into consideration. This peculiar load has a history.

Away back in the 80's a man named Dousett started the idea that the making of salt by evaporation would pay. He began work on the coral reefs of Honolulu and in years had accumulated thousands of tons of the saline product. Then came the reaction and salt was a drug on the market, as the Mount Eden salt marshes on the Alameda shore had been discovered.

These proved a good investment to the holders and the Honolulu product was a drug in the market. The Dousett estate now wants to get rid of the stuff and the Mauna Ala comes here laden with it. It has lain in the store-houses of the family for nearly a generation and when it came to getting the stuff aboard the bark picks and shovels had to be used. Several other vessels are now on their way here with salt instead of sugar and the price of the former is sure to fall. In any event thousands of tons of the stuff which has been kept out of the market for years will come here on the sugar boats and thus reach the regular market.

The Mauna Ala had a peculiar experience in latitude 20 degrees north, 148 degrees west. This was about October 17 and about noon the barometer was down to 29.45.

"The wind was then backing from west-northwest to east-south-east," said Captain Smith yesterday. "The ship was down to lower topsails and foresail and we were running about two points free. It blew a hurricane and for a time we had to use oil bags to keep the seas from breaking aboard. We were then on the tail end of a hurricane.

"Back in 1887 I was on my way from Australia to Honolulu with a cargo of coal. We were caught in the gale that wrecked the Vandala and Trenton and were in pretty sore straits ourselves. On account of our trouble we had to put into Tahiti for repairs and it took us quite a while before we could leave Papeete. On this occasion we only got the tail end of a similar gale, but it was just as bad as we wanted. We will discharge our cargo of salt at once and will probably go back to the islands and bring up another load."

SHIPPING NEWS AND NOTES.

The barkentine S. G. Wilder is loading at Brewer's wharf.

The steamer Eureka, 11 days out from Seattle, is due here today.

The Norwegian ship Prince Louis is 94 days out from Newcastle.

Inspector George Kiester is still confined to his bed. It is said that his condition is somewhat precarious.

The barkentine Irmgard and the ship Benjamin Sewall are the only vessels remaining at anchor in Naval row.

The cruise of the Hawaii Yacht Club will take place on the afternoon of the 25th. It will be full moon then and the trip to Pearl Harbor promises to be an enjoyable one if the weather is fine.

The Treasury Department has issued a circular extending the prohibition against the importation of meat cattle from Australia and New Zealand into the United States, so as to include Hawaii, it being a territory of the United States.

Captain Horatio McKay, master of the Cunard liner Lucania, retired from the sea at the end of that vessel's last voyage from New York to Liverpool. Captain McKay has been long in the service, has earned forty-six testimonials and twelve medals.

Yesterday morning two white men went out in a small boat belonging to James Ballentyne of Kakaake. At the lighthouse on the way back the boat was struck by a squall and capsized, the two men in the boat being also capsized. They got ashore and then returned in a boat to right their overturned yacht.

BOARD OF SURVEY WAITING.

Another Report May Have to be Made on the Hesper.

The Board of Survey on the bark Hesper and ship Benjamin Sewall which put into this port in a leaking condition have not finished their labors. The leak of the Hesper has not yet been discovered although her deck load had been discharged, and it may be necessary to have another survey made when the report of the diver now working on the ship has been received.

The leak on the Sewall has not

THE FLINT MAKES A QUICK TRIP

Quickstep to Load Scrap Iron for the Sound—Antiope at Kahului With Coal and Stanley With Redwood—Two Schooners Sail.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE] WAILUKU, Jan. 4.—The barkentine Quickstep, Mellin, is still discharging her cargo of Northwest lumber at Kahului. She is nearly fully discharged, and next week she will take on a cargo of scrap iron, which she will take to the Sound. She will most likely sail the latter part of next week if the weather keeps favorable.

The bark Antiope, Murray, arrived at Kahului last Wednesday morning, after a fast trip from Oyster Harbor. She has a full cargo of coal, consigned to Alexander & Baldwin, which will be distributed among the different plantations on Maui. She has already commenced work and it will not be long before she will be fully discharged, as she can handle coal very fast.

The schooner Stanley, Schmalz, arrived at Kahului yesterday morning with a cargo of redwood lumber from Eureka. She will probably commence discharging her cargo next week some time.

The bark W. B. Flint, Captain Johnson, arrived at Kahului today after a fast voyage of 11 days from San Francisco. She has a cargo of general merchandise consigned to different parties on Maui. She also has some livestock on board. Captain Johnson reports a very fair wind all the way down, although he encountered light southerly winds before sighting the islands. She will be taken in hand by the Kahului Railroad Company and the work of discharging her will be commenced at once.

The schooner S. T. Alexander, Captain Johnson, went to sea in tow of the Leslie Baldwin last Friday. She has a part cargo of sugar for San Francisco.

The schooner Manila was towed to sea yesterday by the little tug. She has some nitrate aboard which she carries to British Columbia.

Shipping at Kahului is resuming its sugar season activity.

SAILOR IS REFUSED ADMISSION AT HOME

CAPTAIN BRAY DEFINES RULES

Sailors Do Not Go There When They Have Money But Rather After They Have Squandered It—No Advances Made Here.

Jos. Sorenson, a sailor recently discharged from a coasting vessel on account of sickness, and who had been confined at the Queen's Hospital until yesterday morning, claims that he applied for admission at the Sailor's Home yesterday morning and that he was refused because he had no money to pay a week's board in advance, according to the rules of the Home.

When seen yesterday Captain Bray, Superintendent of the Sailor's Home, did not deny but rather confirmed the report. According to his statement, the home is not a home in the sense of the mainland homes, but rather a sailor's boarding house. In the States, or for that matter in almost any part of the world, a sailor's home is a home where any man can find lodging and boarding as long as he takes his clothes there and promises to go to sea when a berth has been found for him by the Superintendent.

As in almost every port in the world seamen receive 30 days' advance wages when they sign the articles, and as a general rule the advance note is always given to the Superintendent of the home for outfit and boarding expenses, the latter never loses anything. He always looks to it that his sailors are shipped before the advance money is all gone.

Here the situation is different. Honolulu is largely a coasting port. Deep water ships are not fitted up here. Consequently sailors shipping from this port do not receive advance wages and have no guarantee to give to the manager of the Home that their bills will ever be paid.

Many sailors are paid off at this port with an average of $30 to $40 each. Captain Bray says that, consequently, they are very well able to pay $5 or $10 board in advance, instead of squandering their money first and applying to the Home for food and lodging afterwards.

SNUG SUM ALLOTTED TO BOYD

Public Works Department Gets More Money to Carry on Improvements.

MATTERS ON HAWAII PROGRESS

VERY LITTLE DAMAGE IS SUSTAINED BY ROADS IN HILO DISTRICT.

Assistant Superintendent Campbell Adds Recommendations Regarding Present Faulty Construction of Culverts—Bridge Material Now on the Ground Ready to Use.

"The immediate prospect of an improvement in the drainage of Kewalo district is not the brightest at the present time," declared Superintendent of Public Works James H. Boyd yesterday.

"I am still in hopes that I may be able to arrange with the heads of other departments for a satisfactory sum with which to carry on some of the imperative improvements. With the present sum allotted to the department, there is not much chance of appropriating anything for the necessary work of improving the condition of the lower districts of Honolulu."

At a meeting of the Territorial executive council yesterday afternoon, at which the heads of the various departments were present, the department of Public Works was allowed an increase in the monthly appropriation assigned to the charge of Superintendent Boyd.

Whether the Public Works Department will be enabled to see its way clear to appropriate a small amount of the additional sum allotted to that branch of Territorial government, for Kewalo improvements, remains to be seen. Superintendent Boyd declares that he is in hearty sympathy with the requirements of the section of the city, and will do all in his power to render the locality more sanitary.

Slight Damage on Hilo.

Damage by storm in the Honohina and Hakalau districts on Hawaii has been very slight, according to the reports from these sections received by Superintendent of Public Works J. H. Boyd in his latest mail from the big island.

Concise statements from Road Commissioner Chalmers, and also E. E. Richards, agent for the Public Works Department with headquarters at Hilo, show that affairs on Hawaii are moving along smoothly, and work is progressing at a gratifying pace.

Among other things, Mr. Richards states:

"The roads in South Hilo are in fairly good repair, the last heavy rains causing no great amount of damage."

"New grades should be run between Honouliuli and Papaioua, as there are grades between these points over which it is impossible to haul much of a load. From Papaioua to Onomea the road is in splendid condition, having been recently macadamized. From Onomea to Hakalau the road is exceedingly rough for light vehicles, but is in good repair and will carry heavy traffic all right."

"Mr. Martin informs me it will require about four months to complete the Hilo side of Hakalau gulch, provided he has the same average force of prisoners he now has, which is about thirty men."

An Impassable Road.

The road from Waikamalo to Laupahoehoe is still impassable to wheeled vehicles. During a conversation with Mr. Walker, chairman of the North Hilo Road Board, he informed me that he had sent you a full report of the condition of affairs, and also a request that Mr. Campbell or some other equally competent engineer, be sent up to look over the ground and assist the road board with his advice. It is a good idea and might result in a considerable saving in the end."

"The present powder magazine, besides being too small for present requirements, will soon be in the center of a populous district. There are now within 200 feet of the magazine two school buildings accommodating something like one hundred children. Several residences are also being put up in the immediate vicinity, and it will be a matter of but a short time until the magazine is entirely surrounded by buildings. The building is about ten by twelve, built of wire netting and plastered, and is at the present time about two-thirds full of explosives. A new building thirty by thirty should be constructed and a good location would be about a mile farther out on the road leading to the garbage dumping ground."

"The Matson people" are still putting in piles at the mouth of the Waialua river, but from present indications they are not accomplishing what they are after, as the sand seems to be filling in as fast and as far out as they drive."

Culverts Washed Away.

W. G. Walker, chairman of the North Hilo road board also submitted reports concerning the progress made in road work in his district to Assistant Superintendent of Public Works Marston Campbell.

In referring the matter to Superintendent Boyd, Mr. Campbell states he has ordered the necessary iron-work and lumber for six bridges required, according to standard designs of the Department for combination bridges. The cost will be $1200 delivered at Papaloa, Hawaii. This bridge material will be sent forward in the steamer Kinau today. Mr. Campbell going along to see to their placing and erection in efficient manner.

Mr. Campbell writes that five culverts were found washed away, on his inspection of the road as far as Honohina, between Manaloa and Laupahoehoe gulches. "The washed out fills will average from 20 to 60 feet wide and from 15 to 20 feet deep," says Mr. Walker. "Between Manaloa gulch and Honohina there are two more culverts in about the same condition."

Mr. Campbell advises against the placing of culverts in the gulches again, as they become immediately choked up and the water rushes over the road, sweeping everything away in its path.

HILO BEATS MAUI AT BASEBALL GAME

PLAY FOLLOWS A ROUGH TRIP

Proposition for Another Match Rejected by Rainy City Boys Who Will Be Invited to Waikuku for a Return Visit Very Shortly.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
WAILUKU, Jan. 4.—The Maui Baseball Team arrived from Hilo last night by the Kinau, having lost the baseball game in a score of 7 to 4 in favor of the Hilo nine. The following account of the game is given by one of the Maui players:

"We had a very rough passage on the Kinau to Hilo, and in all my traveling between the islands this trip was about the worst. Most of the boys were seasick all the way up, and some of them never got up until they reached Hilo on Wednesday evening. We were taken to the Hilo Hotel, where we rested for the night. We proceeded to Hoolulu Park the next morning to play the game of baseball. Hoolulu Park was filled with spectators by the time we commenced the game, but I am sorry to say that most of our boys had the 'side-to-side' movement of the Kinau within them yet; and the worst of it all was that Jackson, the pitcher, still had the effects of the voyage within him. Most of the boys, of course, felt rocky, which accounts for the errors made. The score stood 7 to 4 at the end of the game, in favor of the Hilos."

"A much better game could have been played the following day. On Thursday another practice game of five innings was played, which resulted in a score of 12 to 0 in favor of the Maui. This game was only for practice sake, but there was nearly the same boys on the Hilo side who played on Wednesday. The Hilo Tribune says that the first game played was one of the best played on Hawaiian soil, but we consider it the poorest game our boys have put up. It was no game at all."

"The game was a surprise to us as well as to the Hiloites, and they all admit that we have the stronger team. We were not satisfied, however. We spoke to Mr. Haworth, the league's president, making him the following proposition: 'That we stay over another week and play them a game between then and the sailing of the next Kinau; that we were to pay our expenses should we lose the game, and that they were to partly bear our expenses should they lose. This proposition they would not consider, and we couldn't talk baseball to them again, as they would not consider the prospects of another game. We had to come back on this Kinau after having lost the game, but we are going to invite the Hiloites to Waikuku and play them a return game.'

A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I feel I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., U. S. A., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa.

THE ADVERTISER'S FRIEND...

THE advertiser's best friend is the medium through which he obtains the biggest returns for his money. One medium which is used by advertisers to a great extent is the circular or booklet. The circular or booklet is always ineffective, unless it is very handsome—handsome enough to attract the eye of the man to whom it is sent, no matter how busy he may be. A booklet handsome enough to do this almost always costs from three to four cents a piece. There is the mailing to count in (two cents a copy, of course); there is the trouble in getting a list of names, and in addressing. Altogether the cost will figure up to about seven cents a copy for a good booklet. Two thousand circulation in a booklet is very large. Two thousand circulation at seven cents is $140. I propose to show that you can invest $140 in newspaper space and get returns five fold of what you would get through a booklet.

Newspaper Space Is Valuable

In the first place, there is the cost. For $140 you can get a good-sized space in a newspaper of good circulation for quite a long time. You know your newspaper rates; you can figure it out to suit your own instance much better than I can. So much for cost.

Now for Effectiveness

You must tell your customers how much your goods are going to cost. An advertisement without a price is like meat without salt—it will do you no good. How can you put prices in a booklet when you are doing a strictly retail business? You have competitors; you have to change your prices constantly to meet theirs, and to meet other exigencies. The first change of a price will kill the effectiveness of a booklet, and where are you? Your advertisement in a newspaper may be changed as many times as you desire. You are constantly up-to-date.

The Newspaper Is Effective

Any kind of a newspaper has more circulation than you can obtain through a booklet for $140. Newspapers reach the heart of the home. Every one reads them, and they are far more certain to obtain close attention than any printed matter which you would send. If you sent printed matter of your own accord to persons who do not know you, you would be putting yourself face to face with them without a guarantee. They have nothing to judge the quality of your goods by, and they can only take what you say on your own paper and in your own way. Anybody can say as much as they please.

When your matter appears in a newspaper of good circulation and good standing, the newspaper is a guarantee for what you say. Newspapers are always particular as to whom their advertisers are. (I speak of good newspapers always.) Your ads will gain a value besides their inherent one. They will be vouched for, and this is not to be despised. You have a certain fluctuating trade, which is always valuable, and which needs some sort of an introduction to your store. This introduction the newspaper gives you.

Good Paper Adds Dignity

You are known by the company you keep, you know, and if your ads appear in a paper which holds itself up before the masses as a leader, you will be known as a patron of what is good, and you will obtain trade from those whom it is worth trading with.

On all scores I consider newspaper advertising by far the best. On the score of cheapness; on the score of being able to constantly change your announcements; on the score of direct and immediate returns; and on the score of being introduced to people, to strangers, as a store which can afford to announce its news to every one in a dignified and straightforward manner, and this is the manner which brings trade that pays.

The above article, written by one of the best-informed advertising men in the country, is in line with the business policy advocated and maintained by THE HONOLULU REPUBLICAN. His description of a good newspaper and its superior merits as an advertising medium is distinctly applicable to an essentially reliable and dignified family paper of large circulation, such as THE REPUBLICAN.

REPUBLICAN DELAY.

If the Republicans of Hawaii desire to become a factor in politics, the sooner they pull themselves together and do something, the better it will be for the party.

There was no earthly reason why a successor to ex-Secretary Hendry should not have been selected last night. The proper course was taken in deciding that the secretary should be chosen from among the members of the committee.

Having decided the point that the secretary should be a member of the committee, and that an assistant should be appointed, why on earth did not the Territorial committee get down to business and elect both?

Of course there is no great need for immediate activity on the part of the Republicans, but there is need for a secretary. He can always find work to do, will always have matters referred to him, can always be studying out the best methods to adopt in the next campaign and can be keeping in close touch with the maneuvers of the enemy.

Political campaign work and its results are largely influenced by the secretary himself. Upon his shoulders will fall much of the responsibility, be the result success or failure. There are differences to harmonize and the Republican party must not fail.

The usual weekly Monday morning attack on Judge Humphreys did not appear in yesterday's Advertiser. People were asking "What's the matter with Thurston?"

T. McCants Stewart received an ovation on his appearance last night, and each and every sentiment voiced in his address was greeted with applause, especially the hope that every individual should be monarch of a kuluana.

For a malicious and distorted account of a public meeting commend us to the report of the Home Rule meeting as given in yesterday's Advertiser. The venom of the paper's intent toward native Hawaiians was shown by its cartoon.

"Annexation was by contract between two independent nations. The status of the Hawaiian Islands, pending the organization of the new government for them, must be controlled by the contract. The intention of the parties is the pole star of the interpretation of the contract. Such intention must be determined by their contemporaneous acts and conduct, and by the documentary evidence taken as a whole, not by a forced construction of a single phrase.

Annexation Opposed.

"It is universally understood, it is a part of the history of the day, that an annexation was not effected without great opposition in the United States, and might have failed but for the Spanish war. Serious fears were extensively entertained that those powers which the patriot statesmen who then watched over the interests of our country, deemed essential to union, were not adapted to conditions in the Hawaiian Islands, and the lack of accurate information regarding those conditions was universally admitted.

The master's report on the account of F. A. Schaefer, trustee, in the estate of A. A. Corniot, C. C. Bitting, master, has been confirmed and the account approved, the master being allowed a fee of $20. First and final account of M. G. Silva, administrator of the estate of John da Costa, filed yesterday, shows $1466.80 received from house rent; insurance policy, $1000 and bank deposit $336.80. An expenditure of $243.42 is shown, including a commission of two and a half per cent on the insurance policy, amounting to $33.42. Friday, February 14, has been set for hearing the amounts and petition for distribution and discharge.

Stipulation and Notice.

In re Harrison vs. Magoon et al, it is stipulated that defendants may have twenty days to file exceptions. Kinney, Ballou & McClannahan have given notice to place the case of the people against Wm. Savidge et al, assault and battery, on the calendar of the Supreme Court.

Miss Widdifield Appointed.

Miss Kathryn Widdifield yesterday received her appointment as clerk to the First Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit and entered upon her new duties.

Hawaiian Annals.

The list of State libraries to which copies of Thrum's Annals have been sent by the Territorial department of justice has been cut down by Clerk Henry Smith, as a result of the protest of Judge Humphreys. The list has been reduced from thirty-six to twenty. The extra copies will be returned to Thrum. Judge Humphreys objected to the free distribution of annals as a useless waste of funds.

Distribution Directed.

Judge Humphreys yesterday signed an order approving the final accounts of Meta A. Sutherland, executrix of the will of Maria A. Bruns and directing the following distribution of the balance of $6,984.50 in her hands: To William J. White, trustee, $3,000, to apply its income from time to time for the benefit of Mabel Bruns, Henry Bruns and George Bruns, grandchildren of the testator, and when the youngest child shall arrive at the age of legal majority to divide the principal sum equally between them, under a bond of $5,000 by the trustee. The remainder of $3,984.50 to be paid in one-fourth parts to Meta Sutherland, wife of James Sutherland; Edward Bruns, William Bruns and Adeline White, wife of William J. White. Upon filing receipts for the sums in accordance with this order, the executrix will be discharged.

Robinson Repays.

In the matter of the estate of James Robinson, deceased, M. P. Robinson, trustee, has complied with the order of the court in repaying a loan of that account. It is a little surprising, $15,000 from the trust to himself. The matter of investment in certain industrial bonds had been taken under advisement by Judge Humphreys.

Interpreter for Hilo.

In answer to the following letter from Judge Little, Judge Humphreys yesterday ordered the Chinese interpreter Leong Cheong, to proceed forthwith to Hilo. Hilo, Hawaii, January 3, 1902. Hon. A. S. appear to be just and reasonable in the premises."

Auditor Austin's Reply.

In returning the bills in question to Secretary Cooper, Auditor Austin says: "The above named persons are regular employees of the Government, receiving salaries at the rate of $100 per month from appropriations under Act 3, Extra Session, 1901."

"Section 3 of said Act provides that: 'No persons holding more than one office shall be authorized to draw more than the salary of the highest grade of the office held by him if the salary of any office held by him shall amount to twelve hundred dollars or more per annum and he shall be entitled to no other or further compensation.'"

Party to the Action.

Kaolulo Kahala, by her attorney W. L. Whitney, having moved that Eugene Lee, the father of the defendants in the case of Kahala (w) against the Lee minors be made a party to the action, and said motion having been approved by Judge Humphreys, it is ordered that Eugene Lee be made such party to the action.

Appointed Administrator.

Otto S. Meyer of Kalae, Molokai, has been appointed administrator of the estate of Henry Prendergast Meyer under bond in the sum of $1000 and it is ordered that the administrator file a bond within thirty days and give the usual notice to creditors.

HACKS RACE FOR BUSINESS

JEHUS RESPOND TO CONSUL'S CALL

SPEEDY MAIL CARRIER SCARES STREET WORSHIPPERS AT THEIR PRAYERS.

Storming of Satan's Citadel Temporarily Abandoned and Penal Mission Followers Warned to Select Safe Locations—Gross Cheat Sentenced to Six Months in Jail.

Morita and Yoshimoto are Japanese hackdrivers located on the same stand. Keen competition for business and the almighty dollar caused them to overlook some of the necessary provisions laid down in the Territorial carriage ordinances, with the result that both appeared before Judge Wilcox in the police court yesterday morning charged with heedless driving.

The merry tinkle of the telephone bell at the Oriental hack stand office proved an incentive to increased activity. A call coming from the residence of the Japanese consulate brought both Morita and Yoshimoto flying down Nuanuan avenue at a pace which caused wild-eyed astonishment to the passerby, and consternation to those whose business found them on the same thoroughfare. The time made at the recent Hilo race meeting was not a marker to the clip traveled by the fast flying rivals. A wireless message was sent out along the line and soon the Japanese found themselves landed in the tanks at the police station. The court, through the offices of an interpreter, administered several pinches of good advice to the Jehus and assessed each in the sum of $6 and costs.

Quick Mail Carrier.

John Silva is a letter carrier in the employ of Uncle Sam who has occasion to get over his allotted territory by the aid of a horse and carriage. On the evening of December 31, Silva was alleged to have steered a course which was several points off from the true and narrow one. He is said to have born down upon a small group of devout worshippers from the Peniel Mission while in the midst of their tenebrous street corner supplications. John McKenzie and Miss Udenberg happened to hear a clamor and commotion during the singing of a hymn, and realized the peril which threatened the band. The storming of the citadel of Satan was for the time being abandoned. Organist, choir leaders, singers and exhorters realized that discretion was the better part of valor and fled to places of safety.

Complaint was registered against Silva. He was booked at the station upon the charge of heedless driving, but was discharged at the conclusion of a mild reprimand at the hands of the court. The Peniel Mission followers were also cautioned regarding the selection of locations for holding their street meetings.

Six Months for Gross Cheat.

Kurada, a Japanese charged with assaulting a fellow countryman named Shumida, was granted a nolle pro, as the prosecuting witness failed to put in an appearance. Wilferson, alias Wilson, charged with gross cheat, in that he passed a forged check amounting to $75 bearing the endorsement of J. W. G. Dodgers, was sentenced to six months at Oahu Prison. Wilson was represented by Attorney Bitting, who raised a plea in defense that his client was suffering from a mental disorder and was not accountable for his actions. W. S. Hicks and Antonio Colon pleaded not guilty to the charge of adultery and their cases were set for today. Four cases of intoxication were

FRANCIS MURPHY CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

GOOD MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

Moses K. Nakuina Re-elected President—Members Make Pretty Home Attractive to Strangers—Vote of Thanks to Anonymous Donor.

With much enthusiasm the regenerated Murphy Club elected officers last night under the new constitution and by-laws. There was a good attendance and the following officers were chosen unanimously:

President, Moses K. Nakuina; first vice president, George Boole; second vice president, F. G. Noyes; secretary, F. H. G. Seymour; assistant secretary, J. Frank May; treasurer, H. H. Ham; directors, I. W. Ryder, Frank Darling, E. J. Wilson, C. J. Austin, C. W. Renear.

After the election of officers it was decided that the Saturday meetings should be devoted entirely to the entertainment and amusement of the visitors. Sacred concerts will be held every Sunday evening and temperance agitation meetings on Tuesday evenings.

A vote of thanks was adopted by the Club to the anonymous donor of $100 with which the Club has been enabled to carry on its work and pay outstanding expenses.

It was announced that the basement room which has been used as a night school was now vacant as the school had been dismissed on account of the continued illness of Mrs. Cooper. The members hope to rent it to some labor union or fraternal organization. Another room on the basement is now occupied by the Plumbers' Union.

Since the Murphy Club has moved to Queen Emma Hall, that old historical building has undergone a thorough transformation. The Club now has a cozy home of its own with a large and prettily decorated concert hall, a reading room, dining room, billiard parlor, and an office for the president. The reading room is well supplied with current newspapers and magazines while the "bar" is one of the most attractive in town. Beautiful paintings hang all over the walls and plants and tropical flowers add to the general appearance of the Club.

ANOTHER COMPETITOR APPEARS ON THE BAY

PAIN IN THE TOWING BUSINESS

Old Boat Talula is in Commission—Makes Her Appearance in the Harbor Swept and Garnished Like a New Boat.

Pain's old boat, the "Talula," has reappeared on the waters of the blue Pacific. For months she was laid up but now, trim as ever, she steams up and down the bay looking for a stray schooner or a derelict scow to tow to a place of safety.

The "Talula" is now engaged with the Fearless and the Eled in the towing business, and lively competition is expected along the waterfront. The old boat has been thoroughly overhauled and is ready to give a tow, for a consideration, to almost anything that comes into the harbor. She has been recently painted and with her new American flag flying at her stern makes a brave showing. The Talula is in charge of Captain Garland while Albert A. Durant, the launchman, acts as business manager. Her engineer, Bert Wheeler, last night accepted a position with the Pearl Harbor Dredging Company, but his place will probably be filled by C. W. Renear.

WASHINGTON STAR IDIOCY.

(Springfield Republican.)

Judge Humphreys of Honolulu has complete a vindication from the Department of Justice against the charges preferred against him by the Honolulu Bar Association as could be desired. Among the charges was one that he had been a political partisan while holding a judicial office. Yet Attorney General Knox, after careful scrutiny, found nothing to condemn on therefore, to find the Washington Star attacking Judge Humphreys, after his departure from the national capital, as a "carpet-bagger" who returns home to engage in a political fight against Governor Dole. If Judge Humphreys was a "carpet-bagger," he was appointed just the same to the bench by President McKinley; and if he is a political marplot wearing the ermine of the bench, then he goes back to Hawaii with the indorsement of Attorney General Knox.

FEDERAL COURT IS SUPERIOR

Judge Estee's Decision in the Voeller Bankruptcy Matter.

WITHIN JURISDICTIONAL POWER U. S. AND TERRITORIAL COURTS NOT OF CO-ORDINATE AUTHORITY.

Powers of Federal Court in Bankruptcy Matters Clearly Defined—Protection of Creditors—Orders of the Court—Property Within Jurisdiction—Voeller is Bankrupt.

Paul J. Voeller was declared a bankrupt by Judge Estee in the United District Court yesterday morning in a written decision, showing that the Federal Court was within its jurisdictional power when it issued a restraining order to the High Sheriff and that the United States courts, in bankruptcy, and the Territorial courts are not of co-ordinate authority, the Federal Court being superior. Following are the main points in the decision:

In the District Court of the United States, in and for the District of Hawaii.

In the Matter of the Bankruptcy of Paul J. Voeller.

On November 20th, 1901, a petition, duly verified, was filed herein by three of the creditors of one Paul J. Voeller, alleging, among other things, that the said Paul J. Voeller "has for the greater portion of six months next preceding the date of the filing of this petition, had his domicile at Honolulu, and has property in the city of Honolulu aforesaid, subject to execution and owes debts to the amount of $2,729.73."

Said petition also sets up the nature and character of the private claims, showing that the same amount in the aggregate in excess of securities held by them to the sum of five hundred dollars.

Obtained a Preference.

Among the other allegations of said petition, it appears that one J. J. Byrne had obtained a preference by legal proceedings, whereby said J. J. Byrne had on the 14th day of October, 1901, procured a judgment against said Paul J. Voeller, in the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit of this Territory in the sum of $650.90, and had procured execution to be issued under the said judgment, and under which execution the property of said Paul J. Voeller had been levied upon and advertised to be sold and disposed of under said execution on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1901, at 12 o'clock m.

Upon the showing made by said petition and affidavit this court issued an order to the High Sheriff of the Territory, A. M. Brown, directing and ordering him to desist from and enjoining and restraining him from selling the property of the said Paul J. Voeller and every part thereof until the further order of this court; and directing the said High Sheriff as aforesaid to be and appear at the court room of this court on Friday, the 22d day of November, 1901, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any he had, why the said property of the said Paul J. Voeller should not be turned over to the United States Marshal for the Territory of Hawaii, and also to show cause why he should not be enjoined and restrained from selling or exposing for sale until after the hearing upon the said petition herein.

Upon the day set for the hearing of the petition and order to show cause, postponed until 2d day of January, 1902, J. J. Byrne, the judgment creditor aforesaid, and A. M. Brown, the High Sheriff, appeared by their attorneys, Messrs. Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan and H. A. Bigelow, and opposed any such action by this court in the matter upon the following grounds:

Question of Jurisdiction.

1. That this court has no jurisdiction, as the said Paul J. Voeller is not now nor has he ever been for the six months preceding the date of the petition, either a resident or domiciled within the jurisdiction of the court; nor had he his principal place of business within the jurisdiction of the court, as required by subdivision 1, chapter 2, section 2 of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898.

2. That this court had no jurisdiction to remove the property in the hands of the High Sheriff of the Territory under the judgment heretofore referred to.

Bankruptcy Act, after providing for the courts of bankruptcy, confers upon them jurisdiction to: 1. "Adjudge persons bankrupt who have had their principal place of business, resided or had their domicile within their respective Territorial jurisdictions, for the preceding six months, or the greater portion thereof, or who do not have their principal place of business, reside or have their domicile within the United States, but have property within their jurisdictions, or who have been adjudged bankrupts by courts of competent jurisdiction without the United States and have property within their jurisdictions. . . ."

It is apparent, therefore, that either one of three conditions must exist in order to enable this court to have jurisdiction to adjudge a person a bankrupt, to-wit:

1. The person adjudged to be a bankrupt must either have had his principal place of business, resided, or had his domicile within the territorial jurisdiction of the court for the preceding six months or the greater portion thereof; or

2. While not having his principal place of business, resided or had his domicile within the United States, "but has property within their jurisdictions;" or

3. Has been adjudged a bankrupt by a court of competent jurisdiction without the United States and has property within that jurisdiction.

The petition in this case shows on its face two grounds of jurisdiction:

First. That Paul J. Voeller of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, has for the greater portion of six months next preceding the date of the filing of this petition, had his domicile at Honolulu aforesaid; and (2) has property in the city of Honolulu aforesaid, subject to execution and owes debts to the amount of $2,729.73."

Either of which two grounds, if borne out by the facts adduced at the hearing, would be sufficient to give this court jurisdiction.

Property Within Jurisdiction.

But conceding that the petitioning creditors had failed to show that Voeller had a domicile within this territorial jurisdiction for the six months preceding the filing of the petition yet it clearly appears that he has property within this jurisdiction and subject to the jurisdiction of the court; to-wit, certain real estate set forth in the schedule attached to the petition and estimated to be of the value of some $2000. This would, independently of the provision of domicile, or residence, bring him within the purview of the bankruptcy jurisdiction of this court.

The essential facts which give a court jurisdiction of bankruptcy proceedings appearing affirmatively and distinctly in this proceeding, I am therefore of opinion that unless some other reasons are given why said Voeller should not be adjudged a bankrupt, the petitioning creditors are entitled to an order adjudging him such.

Powers of Federal Court.

Second. Upon the second objection raised by counsel to the jurisdiction of this court, namely, its power to issue the restraining order to the High Sheriff of the Territory—it is clear that the court was fully within its jurisdictional powers when it issued said order, and it is not true that the Territorial Courts and the District Courts of the United States have concurrent or co-ordinate jurisdiction in bankruptcy proceedings.

It would seem quite unnecessary to state, were it not for the point raised by counsel brief, that the United States District Courts are made courts of bankruptcy and "are invested with such jurisdiction in law and in equity as will enable them to exercise original jurisdiction in bankruptcy proceedings in vacation, in chambers and during their respective term. . . . Section 1, subdivision 2, and section 2 of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898.

It is further provided by subdivision F of Section 67 of the Act, that "All levies, judgments, attachments, or other liens obtained through legal proceedings against a person who is insolvent, at any time within four months prior to the filing of a petition in bankruptcy against him, shall be deemed null and void in case he is adjudged a bankrupt and the property affected by the levy, judgment, attachment or other lien, shall be deemed wholly discharged and released from the same."

The decisions construing this section are clearly to the effect that it was the intention of Congress by the aforesaid section to prevent any creditor of an insolvent debtor from obtaining any advantage over other creditors by legal proceedings during a period of four months prior to the filing of a petition in bankruptcy, whether voluntary or involuntary, and that all such liens were dissolved by the adjudication.

For Proper Administration.

The province of the Courts to marshal the assets of the bankrupt so that there may be a proper administration upon his estate, and also that there may be a fair and just distribution thereof to his creditors entitled thereto; and in so marshaling the assets of said estate, the Court has full power to restrain any State or Territorial Court or officer from disposing of any of said assets until the adjudication by the United States Court of the debtor as a bankrupt or the dismissal of the petition.

The provision of the Bankruptcy Act of 1867, and which Act was in force prior to the passage of the Act of 1898, are practically the same as the latter Act so far as the jurisdiction of the Court of bankruptcy is concerned; and there are numerous cases to be found where the United States Courts are sustained in their exercise of the power to restrain all proceedings in State courts affecting the disposition or sale of the property of a debtor pending the decision of the District Court upon the question of his bankruptcy. This is done so that the rights of all parties may be preserved until the proper court can administer upon the estate of the bankrupt or dismiss the petition as the facts upon the hearing may disclose to be necessary.

The Court's Decision.

I am therefore of opinion.

1. That the judgment creditor has not shown such proof of a change of domicile by the debtor as to prevent this court from assuming that the domicile of origin still exists.

2. Assuming that the domicile of origin no longer exists, yet it is clear that the debtor has property within the territorial jurisdiction of the court, which fact is sufficient to enable this court to assume jurisdiction, as a bankruptcy proceeding is a proceeding in rem and this court has jurisdiction of the situs.

3. It is the order of this court that the prayer of the petition be granted and the said Paul J. Voeller be adjudged a bankrupt.

4. That the restraining order heretofore issued in this case was properly issued and the said A. M. Brown High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii is directed to turn over to the United States Marshal all property in his possession or under his control belonging to the said Paul J. Voeller.

GOVERNOR'S COUNCIL ON APPROPRIATIONS

WATERHOUSE OFFER ACCEPTED

New Regulations for Loading Wharves Read and Adopted—Fuller and McAllister Report on Government Tug's Troubles—Lots at Kilauea.

The Territorial executive council devoted the greater part of its morning and afternoon session yesterday to a general discussion of Territorial finances, and the several allotments made the various departments for carrying on their work.

Superintendent James H. Boyd succeeded in securing an additional sum for carrying on the work assigned to the Department of Public Works. After a careful presentation of the immediate needs of the department, Mr. Boyd was allowed $20,000 a month until further notice, this sum is to be added to the amount already appropriated for public works.

Superintendent Boyd was also authorized to accept the proposition submitted to the Territory by the Henry Waterhouse Company for the widening of Hotel street. The Waterhouse Company is to furnish the necessary land at $1 an acre, and the department of Public Works is to widen the street, set the necessary curbs and attend to the grading.

New regulations regarding the loading and weight to be sustained by government wharves were read and adopted.

An application from Mr. St. Sayres to have his dealer's license changed in location to his bottling works at Kakaako was refused.

Reports from Harbormaster Fuller and Captain McAllister of the tug Eleu, regarding the recent trouble met with by the government tug in her competition for business with the Fearless were read and placed on file.

Mr. Nawahi's application for a light wine and beer license at Kalapana, Hawaii, was not approved.

A renewal of W. D. Scott's light wine and beer license at Paia, Maui, was recommended.

The council failed to act upon the preferred land along Fort street offered by Father Valentine. The intention was to widen the thoroughfare.

A request was presented by the Land Commissioner, E. S. Boyd, for opening lots in Kilauea, Hawaii.

Large Temperance Convention.

The officers of the Anti-Saloon League are at present discussing a plan for having a large temperance convention in this city either in the latter part of January or early in February.

January Sale of Undermuslins

This is our first GREAT SALE OF MUSLIN UNDERWEAR and we mean to make it the most wonderful sale of any kind ever held in Honolulu. No words that we could use would be too strong in describing the splendid values which we shall offer for the six days of this sale. The prices, we honestly believe, are the very lowest in the world for good goods. And these are good goods. Every article in this sale has been selected with the object in view of causing every buyer to become a permanent customer of the house.

Most people know how our sales are conducted. They know that a WHITNEY & MARSH SALE is a sale in fact as well as in name. They know that the day before the sale begins, or the day after it ends, they cannot purchase any article at the same price that prevails in the sale. In this instance, to every piece of underwear which figures in this sale there has been pinned a pink ticket bearing the sale price. If there are any garments left at the close of the sale on Saturday afternoon these tickets come off and the articles go back to their original prices. There are two more sales of other articles, which we will not now mention, to be held in the two weeks following this. In both of these sales the same policy of extraordinary prices for the week of the sale only will be carried out.

Muslin underwear is this year daintier than ever before. It is made mostly from fine, sheer fabrics; muslin, cambric and lawn, trimmed with pretty insertion, embroideries and ribbons. The night gowns usually have low necks and short sleeves, with trimming of ribbon and lace or embroidery and are especially suitable to this climate.

Corset covers, chemises, petticoats and drawers are characterized by a wealth of variety in style and daintiness in trimming.

SCHOOL TERM HAS BEGUN

CHRISTMAS VACATION AT AN END

WORK IS ALSO RESUMED AT THE KINDERGARTENS OF THE CITY.

Kamehameha Schools Have Not as Yet Had Their Vacation, But Will Take it on January 12—Kindergarten Children Are Glad of the Chance to Resume Play-work.

Yesterday, while being of no special note to the community at large, was a day of vast importance to the younger element as on that day the arduous task of gathering knowledge was resumed with the opening of the schools. The ideal boy or girl who has the proverbial hunger for learning, probably hastened to school with eager zeal, although most of the children seen on their way to school yesterday morning seemed shameless enough not to realize the vastness of the educational benefits they were to enjoy again.

All the government schools opened regularly yesterday morning. At none of them was any special feature made of the reopening as this is reserved for the summer time when the schools close for the longest vacation of ten weeks.

Teachers in Charge.

The teachers of the government schools in this city are at present as follows: High School: Prof. M. M. Scott, principal; C. A. Elston, vice-principal; and Henry W. Lull, Mrs. S. S. Kinney, Miss Clara Ziegler, Miss Elizabeth Cartwright and F. J. Armstrong, assistants. The principals of the other public schools of Honolulu are: Wallupe, Miss Anne M. Prescott; Waikiki, Miss Bianca Horner; Moulili, Miss M. F. Maroni; Manoa, Miss Maggie Davison; Kaahumanu, Miss Felker; Kawaiahae, Mrs. Mary Gunn; Pohukaina, Mrs. Perkins; Kaakopua, Miss M. J. Coorsen; Royal School, Rev. Alexander Mackintosh; Normal School, Edgar Wood; Pauoa, Miss Mary L. May; Maemae, Miss Rhoda Green; Kaula, H. M. Wells; Kaula, Mrs. Nina S. D. Frazer; Kalia, Mrs. J. U. Taggard; Kalia, Mrs. H. S. Overend; Moanalua, Miss Mollie E. Grace; and the Reformatory School, T. H. Gibson.

At Kamehameha Schools.

The Kamehameha Schools do not have their Christmas vacation at the same time as the rest of the schools. According to the rules laid down by the trustees the schools have two terms of twenty weeks each which makes this vacation begin on January 18th when a vacation of three weeks will take place. With the exception of Christmas day, which was a holiday, work has been going on regularly at the Kamehameha Schools while the other schools had their vacation.

Some Happy Little Ones.

The Kindergarten children were the ones who seemed to be really happy that school was to begin again. At the Kindergarten instruction is administered in such an attractive manner and made so much like play that the children swallow it like a sugar coated pill and hanker after it so that yesterday morning one could see troops of little tots of various races and nationalities trotting along to school with bright and happy faces.

The directors of the kindergarten of this city are at present as follows: Miller Street, Mrs. I. A. Tarbell, Kawaiahae, Carrie E. Bray; Fort Street, Mabel A. Gilbert; Vineyard Street, Mabel S. Barlow; Palama, Grace A. Barrett; Henry and Dorothy Castle Memorial, Cora F. Panabaker.

RECEIVE HEARTY ENDORSEMENTS.

The new enclosed type of Arc Lamps we are now installing receive the hearty endorsement of all who are now using them.

Mr. T. Rosenberg, of the Globe Clothing Co., says: "You may say for me that I am highly pleased with these lamps and would have no other. They meet every requirement, are soft, brilliant and steady, and so far as I can see, are absolutely without fault."

These lamps will install at a very small cost. They will give five times the amount of light of the incandescent for the same money. Burn eighty hours with one trimming, and give a soft, penetrating, evenly distributed light, without fluttering or noise.

For further information, send us a postal, or ring up Main 390, and we will be pleased to call at your office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lowrie Entertain on New Year's Eve, and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Searle Give House Warming—Tug Gets a New Commander—Change at Post Office.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
 WAILUKU, Jan. 4.—A riot was started in Kihel last Sunday, and the Wailuku police were immediately sent for. Upon arrival at Kihel it was found that a band of Chinese had pursued the Portuguese police with weapons, evidently with the intent to assault him. One Chinaman died while pursuing the officer, and a rumor was spread that the Chinaman had been shot by the officer, but upon examination by the government physician it was found the Chinaman had been undergoing treatment, and that he died from weakness. Seven of the Chinese were committed to the jury on a charge of assault.

Captain R. B. Selke has accepted a position with the Kahului Railroad in the capacity of Commander of the Tug Leslie Baldwin, to succeed Captain M. G. Henderson. Captain Selke was on the Leslie Baldwin before, and he has proved himself capable of handling her in all respects.

W. H. Field of Wailuku was married to Miss M. R. Nape, also of Wailuku, at Maunaloa Seminary on New Year's eve. Hon. H. P. Baldwin was best man. There were no invited guests, and the occasion was a very quiet affair.

L. M. Vettesen has taken charge of the Wailuku Postoffice succeeding T. B. Lyons resigned. M. C. Ross Jr. will continue in office as Assistant Postmaster.

The dance given by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lowrie, at their residence in Spreckelsville on New Year's eve, was a most enjoyable occasion. The Walhee quintet furnished the music suitable for the occasion. The dance was held on the spacious lanai adjoining Mr. Lowrie's main house, and this was brilliantly lighted up. Light refreshments were served the guests, and nothing was left undone to make the occasion a very delightful one to the host and hostess as well as to their guests.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Searle were treated to an elegant spread on New Year's day at Honolulu. The occasion was a house warming of the Manager's new residence which was completed lately. Many tables were spread on the tables, and everything was arranged in a purely Hawaiian fashion. The many guests satisfied their appetites, and all went home after having spent a most enjoyable day, with good wishes to the Manager of the Honolulu Ranch, Mr. R. C. Searle.

MEETING OF THE MINISTERS

SPEECH MADE BY REV. J. USBORNE

TALKS ON NEED FOR AND BENEFIT DERIVED FROM THE WEEK OF PRAYER.

Owing to the Departure of Rev. Dr. Hartley Rest of Semi-Annual Program Undergoes Some Changes—Many Ministers Present at Yesterday's Meeting of Ministerial Union

The semi-monthly meeting of the Ministerial Union of this city took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. It had been expected that Rev. R. A. Torrey, who recently went through here on his way to the Orient, would have been here and his name was set down on the semi-annual program of the Union to speak on the "Week of Prayer." His place was taken by Rev. John Osborne who led the meeting speaking on the subject taken from the fourteenth chapter of St. John, that prayer is a necessity for all Christian work. He made it simply a heart to heart talk, as a man to men with whom he is in thorough sympathy, outlining the need and benefit of a week of prayer. A number of other ministers took a leading part in the meeting offering prayers. Among these were Rev. G. L. Pearson, H. C. Brown, Rev. W. H. Rice, Rev. J. Leadingham and others.

Change of Program.
 Owing to the departure to the Coast of Rev. Dr. L. M. Hartley who was on the program for a speech on "Temperance Work in Hawaii" for the next meeting of the Ministerial Union it was found necessary to alter this program, which now reads as follows:
 On January 20, Rev. E. C. Muckley will speak on the "Advent of the Holy Spirit."
 February 3, Rev. G. L. Pearson will speak on "The Preacher and His Theme."
 February 17, Rev. Sereno E. Bishop will speak but he has not as yet chosen his subject.
 March 3, Rev. William Morris M. Kincaid will speak on "The New Protestantism."
 March 17, Rev. John P. Erdman will speak but his subject is not as yet selected.

Many Ministers Present.
 Present at yesterday's meeting were: Rev. John Osborne, Rev. John P. Erdman, Rev. J. P. Waldron, Rev. W. D. Westervelt, Prof. Theodore Richards, Rev. W. H. Rice, Rev. Sereno E. Bishop, Rev. O. H. Gulick, Rev. J. Leadingham, Rev. Hiram Bingham, Rev. William M. Kincaid, Rev. G. L. Pearson, H. C. Brown, Major Wood and others.

tion of his motion was to nullify everything coming up at the meeting. He would raise no objection against the first resolution as adopted, but that he believed the selection of a secretary could better be deferred until a later date.

Proceedings Partially Annulled.

A motion of Mr. Dickey that all proceedings following the passing of the resolution, be squashed was adopted. This resulted in all nominations for the office of secretary being withdrawn, and leaving a clear field for action at a future meeting.

Mr. Fisher offered a motion creating the office of an assistant to the secretary. This was seconded by Mr. Cooke.

Mr. Stewart called Chairman Lane's attention to the Dickey resolution calling for a general postponement. Mr. Fisher was persuaded to withdraw his motion.

Resolution No. 9 Amended.

Mr. Stewart moved that proxies be limited to the Territorial Committee. Mr. Cooke moved to amend that the proxies be limited to members of the last Territorial convention.

Mr. Wright also offered an amendment to Mr. Cooke's amendment that proxies be limited to district committeemen.

Mr. Fisher spoke in favor of the adoption of the resolution and the proposed amendments. All amendments were adopted.

Resolution No. 9 as passed read as follows:

Resolved that a proxy may be used at any committee meeting of the Territorial Committee, but no proxy shall be used except by a member of the Territorial Committee or of the last Territorial convention, or of the district committee, and no members shall hold more than two proxies.

The resolution setting aside the first Monday evening of every month as the time of holding committee meetings passed unanimously.

Successor for Gibbs.

The question of a successor to Mr. James Gibbs, Committeeman of the Hilo district, was brought up by Mr. Cooke, who stated that the matter had remained in an unsettled state for some time past. The resignation of Gibbs had been acted upon, thus leaving the place on the committee open for appointment.

Mr. Cooke offered a motion, afterward passed, that the secretary be instructed to write to Messrs. McStocker, Estep and Walker for recommendation as to the successor of Committeeman Gibbs.

Mr. Renton announced that he had been advised by Mr. Avery that, owing to the sense of the meeting he would withdraw his name from the race for secretary.

Resolutions for Gillilan.

The motion of Mr. Gilman to adjourn was deferred pending Mr. Stewart's calling the attention of the committeemen to the fact that suitable resolutions should be adopted concerning the death of Representative Gillilan. The following resolutions were offered by Mr. Stewart and unanimously adopted.

RESOLVED, That this committee has learned with deep regret of the death of the Honorable Archibald Gillilan, a member of the House of Representatives of the Fourth District.

"He was an earnest and faithful Republican, holding Republican principles with clearness, and impounding them with ability."

"That he was a faithful representative of the party and of the people in the House of Representatives, and that the party and the people of the Territory have suffered great loss in the death of Representative Gillilan, whose place in party council and in public life will not be easily filled."

RESOLVED, That a page of the minute book of this committee be set aside for the transcribing of the resolution, and that a copy thereof be sent to such representatives of the family of Representative Gillilan as the chairman of this committee may suggest.

In offering a second to the resolution Mr. Dickey took occasion to pay a touching tribute to his co-laborer in the House of Representatives. Adjournment was taken to the first Monday evening in February.

LIVE ELECTRIC WIRE NEAR-CROWDED HOUSE

There was considerable excitement around the Occidental hotel about 6:30 last evening. A live electric wire had fallen in front of the barber shop, and the hotel was thrown into complete darkness. The Occidental restaurant was crowded with stevedores and clerks who, after their daily work, were partaking of their evening meal before going to their homes. The utmost confusion prevailed as soon as the lights went out.

One man rushed to the telephone to notify the electric company and received a severe shock for his pains.

KAU SODA WORKS CO. FAILED TO IDENTIFY.

Incorporated to Alleviate Thirst in Hawaii's Promising District.

Henry J. Lyman and Eugene Lyman of Hilo, and Samuel Kauhane, W. K. Makakoa, J. H. Makino, Charles H. Ake and L. Chong of Kau, Hawaii, have incorporated the Kau Soda Works Co., Ltd., with the principal offices and place of business located at Waiohine, Kau, Hawaii.

The capital stock has been placed at $5000 divided into 250 shares at a par value of $20 a share. The company reserves the right to increase its capital not to exceed $25,000. Fifty per cent of the capital is paid in.

The purpose of the corporation is the manufacture of and dealing in carbonated water in all its branches. The term is fifty years. Sam Kauhane is president and Henry J. Lyman secretary and treasurer.

HORSEBACK PARTY RETURNS.

Travelers Tell Tales of Exciting Adventures at Waianae Pass.

An exceedingly enjoyable Christmas vacation outing was spent by Miss Alice Tabor, Mr. F. G. Armstrong and Mr. Searle. The party left Honolulu on horseback and journeyed over the plains to Waiahua where they spent five days. On New Year's night they, together with the settlers, built an enormous bonfire and indulged in several kinds of fun.

From Waiahua the party went on to Waialua where they spent a day before they doubled on their tracks on their way back to the city. On the return trip they made a detour to the Waianae pass. Here a most terrific wind was encountered and, if the reports of the voyagers did not sound altogether too much a la Munchhausen, some decidedly exciting times were experienced, but when it comes to believing that a man is belted 200 feet by shawl, straps and belts to recover a lost camera case the point is reached where incredulity becomes a virtue.

Notwithstanding their perils the bold crew are now back in the city.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Boston Globe (dem.): Vigorous is a good word to apply to the message. No one will deny that President Roosevelt makes a strong argument in favor of national irrigation in the arid regions of the west.

Chicago Tribune (rep.): President Roosevelt's message is like the man—practical, business-like, straightforward, earnest and strenuous. Though a literary man as well as statesman, there is no attempt at fine writing in it.

Philadelphia Ledger (ind.): It is a formidable state document, but it is readable throughout. The message is thoroughly American. It departs altogether from the stereotyped form and one looks in vain for the ordinary arrangement of topics. Every American ought to read it.

Minneapolis Journal (rep.): It is the message of a man so intent upon the affairs which tradition compels him to discuss in a formal manner, that he has little time to consider the literary form of the statement. To put it in homely fashion: He says what he has to say and quits.

New York Post (ind.): Except in a few features President Roosevelt's message is lacking in definite recommendations, but these few are of first-rate importance. As instances of vagueness in the message we may mention the paragraph which relates to reciprocity and the one in reference to ship subsidies.

Chicago News (ind.): President Roosevelt's message to congress will strengthen the public confidence in him as a man of broad outlook, high purpose and common sense. His language is notably clear and direct. It has the accent of personal conviction, but it is everywhere temperate and restrained.

Minneapolis Times (ind.): As to the reception of the message with the people there need be no doubt. It will not suit the billionaire, nor the radical populist. It will please, unreservedly, almost that vast majority of citizens who occupy the planes between those of the mighty rich and the discontented agitator.

Kansas City Star (ind.): No document ever put forth by a chief executive of the United States has been more thoroughly balanced or conservative. The president insists upon the most absolute efficiency in the conduct of public affairs and the firm repudiation of policies as expedients to the end of partisan success.

Tramway Driver Visits Camp McKinley to Pick Out Robbers.

Mmanuel Rodriguez, driver of the Pain tramcar which was robbed of its cash box containing $20.80 at the Waiikiiki terminus on Saturday night, visited Camp McKinley on Sunday in hopes he could identify the three persons who perpetrated the theft.

The driver is positive that the robbery of the cash box was committed by one of three soldiers who were the only persons aboard the tram at the time, and had traveled with the car from the center of town.

The Portuguese was unable to pick out the men, however, and the matter was for the time being dropped. The police have no other clue to follow.

Yesterday the athletic classes of the Y. M. C. A. started work again in the gymnasium after a vacation of two weeks.

HELLO GIRL'S CHANGE IS GONE

ERNEST A. FALLER, an electrical and mechanical engineer of this city, has invented and successfully operated an automatic telephone exchange.

Mr. Faller is a native of the Black forest, in South Germany, and is but 31 years old. Six years ago, while installing a telephone exchange in San Francisco, he conceived the idea upon which his "mechanical operator" is built.

He secured financial backing, and in May last an experimental machine, ingeniously built, was given a trial, and every hope of the inventor was realized. Then followed the actual building of a 100-phone exchange equipment. Sweeping patent rights were secured and the machine is now complete.

Some of the merits of the mechanical operator, as compared with present day manual and so-called automatic exchanges, will be seen by the following: A multiple exchange of 1,000 circuits has 1,250 or more magnets; the present automatic exchange of the same size has 3,000, while the Faller system only requires 154, and the proportion holds through all sizes of exchanges.

A small multiple exchange of 1,000 subscribers with metallic circuits would have 10,100 talking contacts. The present automatic of the same size would have 2 million, while this new mechanical operator would have only 3,000. The multiple exchange of 4,000 subscribers would have 160,000 contacts; the present automatic 32 millions, which is wholly impracticable, while this new mechanical operator would have only 12,000.

The new system is flexible, with no "multiple" feature. The simplicity of circuits is fully preserved. It works as fast as the multiple system now used. No calls can be lost as the result of a rush on any section. The apparatus is easy to operate and the necessary attachments can be placed on any equipment now in use in a short period. It has "number wheels," which expose a number through a small opening leaving a means of check that the right number is set for the subscriber.

From the moment the reader is set to the required number, and the calling knob turned until the end of the conversation, the exchange operates automatically and independently of the subscriber, and it is impossible for him to interfere with it. Notice is given of the completed connection by the ringer, and, as in manual exchanges, the act of hanging up the receiver restores all parts of the circuit to normal or position of rest.

It cannot be definitely learned whether the new company is negotiating with the other companies, but it is believed that it is.—Baltimore Sun.
