

BUSINESS IN A BANK.

THE TELLER'S OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY HUMAN NATURE.

Wretched Life That Money Leads—How People Present Checks—The Common Falling—Sighing His Name—An Unwomanly Action—Forged Checks.

Every vocation in life affords opportunities for the king of studies, that of human nature, or as Pope says: "The proper study of mankind." The railroad conductor sees one of the pages of the human panorama, the ticket-seller sees another. The stamp and delivery clerks at the postoffice deal with still another class and have a chance to study people well. In the auction-room and at the circus you see the great characteristics of the American people—their gullibility. What a hungry people they are. If there is anything new under the sun, the American people will see it. They can get to the bottom of anything in ten minutes.

There is yet another place to study some odd phases of human nature, and that is at a good, busy bank. The teller has a splendid opportunity as he stands behind the wire screen and looks at the money-hole. There he stands from 9 o'clock in the morning until 3 in the afternoon, save a short respite at dinner time to pacify the disquietude of the stomach. At either hand are stacks of gold and silver and large bundles of bills. And what a wretched life that money leads! In and out, in and out all day long. All the same, the teller has some peculiar experiences.

Not long ago, a young man stood in the line along toward the closing-up time waiting his turn to get a check cashed. The pieces of gold and silver made a merry but cold jingle as they rattled to and fro on the glass plate, and the rustle of the bank notes fell soothingly upon the ears of the bystanders. "When will the bills rustle in my hand?" thought the young man, and the gold pieces ironically jingled: "In the sweet!"

There are many classes of people waiting their turn, some impatiently and others quietly and patiently. There were business men who clasped in their hands well-filled bank books; they were waiting to make their daily deposits. On some was a look of grim, triumphant satisfaction, a consciousness that another victory had been won in the mad battle for wealth. On others was an expression of petulant impatience. Neither were the working-men absent, and occasionally a woman put in her nervous appearance. One thing very noticeable was the fact that a majority of the checks presented were quickly handed back by the teller with the remark:

"You will have to indorse that check. Write your name on the back, please." This is the commonest requirement of a bank, yet there are many men who forget it, or at least do not heed it. A great many checks are made out payable to the order of the person to whom the check is given, and unless reminded by the teller some parties think the check needs no indorsement so long as they present it themselves. Each check is subjected to a rapid though close scrutiny by the teller, and down it goes, and the money is forthcoming, provided the name is good.

There was a young farmer in line, and he allowed his money-hole and his eyes to look at the teller, after a good survey he handed in a check for a small amount. The teller glanced at the signature, quickly turned the check over, and as quickly handed it to the farmer with: "This check is payable to the order of Simpson Blank; his name must be on the back."

"But I'm Simpson Blank." "That makes no difference. You will have to indorse it, please." "Well, gimme a pen, then." "You will find one on the desk near you." "Where did you say for me to sign it?" "On the back."

HE GOT IT DOWN AT LAST. The man went to the desk and cautiously wrote his name on the back of the check, at the same time making all kinds of grimaces and putting his mouth through as many contortions as there were crows in the letters spelling his name. He then handed the check over with the remark:

"There you are, I ain't much used to signing 'ests on checks, but I reckon that'll get me the money, won't it?" He got the money, grasped it tightly in his right hand, rammed it into his pocket, and left.

"Tis pity, but 'tis true, that women sometimes take undue advantage of the chivalry of men, but it is merely a bit of human nature now and then. A woman came in the door, and instead of writing to be given a place by the men she crowded right in front of them and presented her check prominently. The same spirit prompted her that prompts four young ladies to walk across a crossing abreast on a muddy day and allow the men to step aside into the mud. It might be called selfishness, but it's idiosyncrasy. It didn't take long for the student to learn his lesson there.

The reporter-student in conversation with the teller asked him if he was bothered with forged checks. He replied: "Sometimes I am, but I have not yet been caught. I tell you it places us in a ticklish position now and then when a check is presented. We want to be sure it's genuine, and at the same time do not wish to affront the person presenting it. And then we frequently have to positively refuse a check on account of the doubtful signature. There are many attempts made to beat banks, and a teller has some chance to study really and truly a business man of good standing presents a check we don't examine it so closely as when a stranger presents one, but I can say this: that honesty and integrity have a money value in every bank."—Toledo Blade.

LEAVES HONOLULU AT 3 P. M. TRI-MONTHLY ON

Tuesday, March 9, touching at Maunaloa, Maui, about 12 a. m.; Kailua, Hawaii, about 10 a. m.; Kealahou, Hawaii, about noon. And other Kona ports, arriving at Punaluu at 6 P. M. of the day after leaving Honolulu. On the following morning, 5 A. M. she arrives at Honapa. Returning she will leave Kona at 7 A. M. on Monday, March 15th, touching at all way ports, including Maunaloa, Maui, at 6 a. m., and arriving at Honolulu 3 P. M. on the day following her departure from Kona. The steamer passes along the entire coast of the leeward side of Hawaii, affording Tourists a panorama of charming scenery, and will stop at Kilauea Bay where sufficient time is allowed to visit the monument of CAPTAIN COOK.

Tourists by this route reach Punaluu at 6 o'clock P. M., on the day after leaving HONOLULU being only one night on the vessel, and making the entire passage in smooth water. At PUNALUU there is the finest Hotel on Hawaii, and from here Tourists will be conveyed by Railroad to Pahala, thence by stage coach to Half-way House, where Horses and Guides will be in attendance to convey them to the Volcano. By this route the entire trip is made in five and a half days, allowing Tourists two nights and one whole day at the Volcano House.

THIS IS THE ONLY CARRIAGE ROUTE
Tickets for the round trip $50, which pays all expenses. Apply to HARRY ARMITAGE, Agent for the I. I. S. N. Co., "New Route to the Volcano," at J. J. Williams

FOREIGN NEWS.

Canada and Hawaiian Trade Relations.
 OTTAWA, Ont., April 10.—The special agent of the Dominion Government, who was sent to the Hawaiian Islands to inquire into the basis upon which a reciprocity treaty could be arranged between that Kingdom and the Dominion has returned and will shortly make his report. The line of steamers it is proposed to place on the route between British Columbia, the Hawaiian Islands and China will facilitate that commercial intercourse which both the Hawaiian and Dominion Governments believe can be developed to the mutual advantage of either country, and both are equally desirous of negotiating a commercial treaty by which their trade relations might be extended.

Canada's Right to Pass Restriction Laws.
 OTTAWA, Ont., April 10.—Whether the Dominion has to pass prohibitory legislation respecting the Chinese has been decided by a dispatch from Lord Derby. In 1884 British Columbia passed a Prohibitory Act. This was disallowed by the Dominion Minister of Justice, saying that it ought to be referred to the Imperial authorities. The communications passing between the Dominion and British Columbia, and the reasons for the disallowance, were submitted to the Colonial Secretary. Yesterday his reply was laid before Parliament as follows: "The question is not one which is held to involve Imperial interests, and the Dominion can deal with it as a Canadian question only."

Agricultural Report for April.
 WASHINGTON, April 10.—The Department of Agriculture reports that the official statistical investigation for April makes a reduction of the winter wheat area of 3,500,000 acres from the breadth seeded two years ago and 5 per cent reduction from the area seeded one year ago. On the Atlantic Coast there has been a very slight reduction, and none on the Pacific Coast. The largest decrease is in Illinois, Kansas and Missouri. In comparison with the breadth harvested last year there is an increase. In a moderate degree, protection by snow has been enjoyed, though the covering has neither been heavy nor continuous. The winds have laid bare the exposed surface and covered the valleys deeper. Winter killing in patches is therefore reported to some extent. The general average of the condition is 92 1/2 against 76 last year, the lowest ever reported, and 94 two years ago. Illinois shows 86, Missouri 94, Kansas 88 and California 100.

Henry George Talks.
 NEW YORK, April 13.—Henry George addressed 3,000 workmen last night at Irving Hall on the eight-hour question. He said: "I believe the world would be richer in proportion to the less we work. I believe one hour is enough. The intelligence that produced power that could send a message around the world in a minute, if rightly applied, would produce a condition of society where no one would be overworked and no one would be poor."

Eads Gains a Point.
 NEW YORK, April 13.—The Times' Washington correspondent says that the substitution of Gibson of Louisiana as a member of the Senate Commerce Committee, during the absence of Jones, means a report in favor of the passage of the Eads Ship Railway bill with its very liberal subsidy.

Washington Territory Admission Bill Passes the Senate.
 WASHINGTON, April 10.—At 1:30 P. M., the Washington Territory Admission bill was passed by the Senate without substantial amendment—aye 30, nays 13. The Senate then adjourned till Monday.

Meeting of Louisiana Sugar Planters.
 NEW ORLEANS, April 10.—The sugar planters held a meeting yesterday and resolved to resist any attempt by Congress to reduce the duty on sugar.

Reviewing the Field.
 NEW YORK, April 12.—Thomas Power O'Connor, member of Parliament, sends the following to the Star from London: "These are trying times for the Gladstone Liberals. There are few signs yet on the political horizon of a reaction. The Opposition are having things for a moment pretty much their own way. The Liberals are still suffering from the depressing effects of Morley's ineffective reply to the opponents of Gladstone's bill, the demoralizing demonstrations of the Opposition and the lack of enthusiasm in their own camps. The Tories are exulting over the aggressiveness of their fighting men and the weakness and dissensions of the Liberals. They are offering to bet five to one that the Home Rule bill fails to pass the House of Commons. Other Tories are offering to give odds that the measure will not be presented for a second reading."

Socialist Leader Acquitted.
 LONDON, April 10.—The trial of Burns, Hyndman, Champion and Williams, the Socialist leaders, on the charge of having incited the Trafalgar-square and Hyde Park riots, was concluded this afternoon. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty, and the defendants were discharged.

Ten Firemen Killed.
 LAWRENCE, Mass., April 13.—During a fire at the Pemberton mill this afternoon, the rear walls of the building fell, burying ten firemen. All were killed.

A Satisfactory Settlement.

Nobody who can form an unbiased opinion on the subject will find fault with the disposition of the Silver Question just made by the House of Representatives. That body has voted by a large majority against the suspension of the coinage of the standard dollar. It likewise voted by a small majority against the free coinage of silver. This action leaves matters as they are, and that is about the wisest thing that Congress could do.—S. F. Bulletin.

Ask an easy one.—Why is it that even well-bred, kindly people always laugh at sea-sickness and the collapse of umbrellas in a gale of wind?—Boston Transcript.

LOCAL NEWS.

The S. S. Mararoa may be expected here any time to-day.

There was no Police Court held yesterday, it being Good Friday.

The Band will not play at Emma Square to-morrow, but will entertain the public at the base ball grounds.

One hundred and seventeen Chinese took passage for Hong Kong by the S. S. City of Rio de Janeiro yesterday.

The schooner Ehukai arrived from Waimanalo yesterday bringing two broken mill rollers from Waimanalo Plantation.

The walls of the large brick building on Nuuanu street, which was occupied by Messrs Chu Lan & Co., were torn down yesterday.

The Mutual Telephone Company's wires, a good many of which were destroyed by the late fire, were all in working order last Thursday afternoon.

The PRESS is under obligations to His Excellency the Minister of the Interior for an excellent map of the new official survey of the burnt district.

The barkentine Ella, Captain Howe, sails for San Francisco this afternoon. Any mail to go by her will be received at the Post Office up to eleven o'clock this forenoon.

The young men's Bible class will meet in the Y. M. C. A. parlour at 9:45 to-morrow morning. The Gospel praise service will be held in the hall at half-past six o'clock, to which all are invited.

An old wheel barrow has been reporing in front of the PRESS office since the fire. Yesterday some person tacked the following notice on the much used vehicle: "This 'brake' for sale; apply to the owner."

The children and young people of the Bethel Union Sunday school are requested to meet at the Lyceum on Nuuanu avenue this afternoon at 3 o'clock, to rehearse for the Easter exercises to-morrow evening.

In the Advertiser of yesterday, T. H. Davies, Esq., offers to be one of five contributors of $1,000 each, or one of ten of $500 each, to a relief fund for the benefit of sufferers by the late fire. Four or nine yet remain to be heard from.

The remains of the man who died on board the S. S. City of Rio de Janeiro were taken to the Quarantine Station yesterday, where they will be kept until a favorable opportunity offers to send them back to the United States.

The native newspaper, the Elele, has purchased the old Daily Hawaiian plant, which was moved into the Elele's new quarters on Queen street yesterday. Dan Lyons, the manager, declares he has not been so busy since the campaign as he was yesterday.

The fourth game of base ball for the season will be played at the Makiki grounds this afternoon between the Benedicts and Hawaiis. As usual Jim Dodd will run an extra bus to the grounds which will leave the corner of Fort and Hotel streets at three o'clock sharp.

Appropriate services were held last night at the Catholic Church on Fort street. The services were of the most impressive character and were listened to by a very large congregation in which there were many strangers. The service was preached in English on the subject of the "Sufferings of Christ."

We are furnished by R. W. Laine with a tribute to the memory of the late Senator J. F. Miller, in the form of General Order No. 2, emanating from W. R. Smedberg, Department Commander for the Pacific Coast. In beautifully chosen words the Order announces his death and recites the fact that he organized the Grand Army on the Pacific Coast. Then follows an eulogy of his career as a citizen, soldier, statesman and comrade. The tribute winds up as follows: "The death of these great soldiers before they had reached the allotted span of life admonishes us, my Comrades, that the General may sound for us also at any moment, and we should so bear ourselves in the beautiful principles of our Order, in Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty, that when our names are called we may answer, 'Here!' fully prepared for the life beyond."

St. Andrew's Cathedral The first congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral will hold services to-morrow as follows: Holy Communion at six o'clock a. m.; Choral celebration of Holy Communion at 7 a. m., at which Marbeck's entire service as arranged by Dr. Stainer will be sung by a surplised choir of boys. At 9:30 a. m.,

The vacant lot adjoining the Government barracks has become the arena of base ball achievements. Yesterday an exciting game was going on. The only base was at the bat. He made a frantic lunge at a ten-degree curve, and was so eager to hit the ball that he let go of the bat and succeeded in putting the pitcher out of sight—in one strike. In a short time the pitcher's heels came into view writing in the air in several different languages. An examination of the bat shows it to be an ancient war club weighing about ten pounds.

Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, a solitary horse and carriage might have been seen coming down Fort street. It contained two native women a little boy and girl. At the same time some British tars were going up Fort street. They were carrying branches. Each circumstance was innocent enough in itself. But observe the combination! The horse proceeded to proceed and the more he proceeded, the more procession there was. Billy Moore was sitting in his hack at the Fashion Stable musing over his batting record. He jumped out dashed at the horse and succeeded in grasping the bridle. After being dragged awhile, he managed to stop the runaway at the corner of Fort and Hotel streets. Billy is accustomed to stopping "daisy cutters" at third base and fielding a horse and buggy or even a freight train is perfectly in his line.

They say: That everybody is pleased with the new survey of the burnt district; that the weather is getting ready for a change; that the Chinese who were burnt out are picking up courage again; that the bulk of the Chinese now here are not in favor of further Chinese immigration; that the amiable Jimmie Williams was as mad as hops yesterday because he couldn't work fast enough; that the Shooting Gallery is drawing crowds nightly; that "24" is a crack shot and will likely take the cake; that the British tars take as much interest in the Shooting Gallery as the Honolulu boys; that the party which rode gaily out of town last evening about six o'clock came back later in a piliiki; that the old political campaign is to be fought over again when the Legislature meets; that the Government party, like the Opposition party, is bothered with political soreheads; that the little boys and girls were all good yesterday just because it was "Good Friday"; that the Mararoa will not be here until to-morrow or the next day; that the price of silver will go up if they don't quit voting about it in the United States; that there are some startling police revelations to be made before the Legislature meets; that there will likely be a committee of investigation appointed; that there are several good and practical laws already drawn to present to the next Legislature; that the Rifles intend holding a picnic this year; that it would be a good idea for the other military to follow suit; that Honolulu will soon be visited by another large fire; that the Mararoa will not arrive until Monday next; that the Myrtle Boat Club will accept the challenge of the crew of the Satellite, if such challenge is offered; that the Chinese who arrived by the City of Rio de Janeiro are a motley looking lot; that Honolulu has no place to put the said Chinese when they are freed from the Quarantine Station; and that the base ball rules of 1886 do not differ from those of 1885.

Bethel Union Church Services. The Bethel Union Church and congregation will hold services to-morrow at the Lyceum on Nuuanu avenue, kindly tendered them for their use by the Messrs. Waterhouse, until the people shall have a house of worship of their own. The Sunday school will be held at 9:45 o'clock. Services with an Easter sermon by Rev. E. C. Oggel, the pastor, at 11 o'clock. Interesting Easter exercises by the Sunday school at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. A cordial invitation to these services is extended to all.

Fort-Street Church. The Fort-street Church will be, as usual, tastefully and elaborately decorated for the Easter services. Sunday morning the pastor will preach a sermon appropriate to the day. In the evening the order of exercises will be as follows: 1. Quiretelle. Organ, Violin, Flute, Cornet and Violoncello. 2. Novello 4. Doxology and Invocation. 3. Mozart 5. Old Testament Lesson. 4. Hymn 308. "Christ the Lord is Risen Again." 7. New Testament Lesson. 8. Easter Anthem. 9. Prayer. 10. Offertorie. Trio from "Messe." Rossini. 11. Hymn 329. "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Holden. 12. Easter Address. 13. Anthem. "God Hath Appointed a Day." 14. Hymn 331. "Now be My Heart Inspired to Sing." Reading. 15. Dismissal.

The offering will be for the Fort-street Church music fund. Mrs. H. H. H. Solo Soprano; Mrs. J. F. Brown, Solo Alto; Mr. W. W. Hall, Solo Tenor; Mr. J. W. Yandley, Solo Bass; Mr. Myron Jones, Organist; Mr. J. W. Yandley, Director.

The Bishop will preach at morning prayer when the Te Deum by Red-head, and proper Psalms will be sung to Gregorian tones; regular Easter hymns will also be sung. At 6 P. M., evening prayer, with an address by the Bishop, will be held, when special Easter hymns will be sung.

The second congregation will hold morning prayer at 11:15 A. M., with sermon by Rev. Geo. Wallace followed by Holy Communion, during which the Te Deum by Barret in E. flat will be rendered. The anthem "He is Risen," by Simfer, and special Easter hymns will be sung. At 4 P. M., special children's service will be held in the Lyceum. At 7:30 P. M., full evening service with sermon by Rev. Mr. Marwood of H. B. M. S. Heroine. The following pieces will be rendered: Magnificat and Ave Dimittis by Ebdon, in C. Anthem "Christ being raised from the Dead," by Sir George Elvey, and special hymns.

Y. M. C. A. Committees for 1886.

At the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held on Wednesday evening, the President, W. A. Bowen, announced the following committees to serve during the ensuing year: DEVOTIONAL WORK—F. J. Lowrey, Chairman; J. M. Whitney, A. F. Judd, J. B. Atherton, T. S. Southwick, S. E. Bishop, H. Waterhouse. TEMPERANCE—P. C. Jones, Jr., Chairman; J. A. Dower, J. A. Cassidy, H. Logan, G. P. Castle.

Sporting Notes.

The crack pulling crew of H. B. M. S. Satellite are contemplating a challenge to the Myrtle crew of Honolulu. Up to 8:45 last night thirty-five shots had been scored for the prizes at the Shooting Gallery. J. H. Fisher, 24, and W. C. King, 23, C. K. Miller, 23, and seven others, each were the highest scores. Two hundred and sixty-five shots remain to complete the list.

At the Casino yesterday the scores stood Higgins 159, Brodie 153. The range is at 500 yards. Strong "fish tail zephyrs" prevailed and better shooting under such circumstances was impossible. This is evidenced by the fact that several experts subsequently failed to reach either of the above scores.

Another Remedy.

DEAR SIR: "Always lock the barn after the horse is stolen," is advice which we all laugh at, but when we have other horses which may be stolen it is just as well to lock the barn.

We have had a conflagration at last which has been long foretold and which might have been prevented if fire limits had been established in the remote past, and which, perhaps, might have sooner been checked if they had been established even during the past ten years.

I am told that the city of Drammen in Norway was visited from time to time by very large fires, but neglected precautions, until at last two-thirds of the city was destroyed by one terrible conflagration. A law was then passed forbidding the erection of any wooden buildings within the city limits, except under the following regulations:

A space was reserved six feet wide around each man's lot on which no wooden building, boards or inflammable rubbish was allowed. As each man was compelled to leave such a space there would always be twelve feet space between wooden buildings. No wooden house could be erected which was over eighteen feet in height including foundation and roof.

I think it would be well to adopt a similar for rule Honolulu. It would compel business men, who required all their space, to build brick, stone or galvanized iron houses; and yet would enable those not needing all their room, to put up cheaper houses for which they have means. A reasonably good fire department would have no difficulty in controlling a fire if there was always twelve feet space between wooden buildings and there were no tall buildings to carry the flames to a distance.

A Card.

The report seems to be current that the prices of Lumber and Building Materials will be advanced on account of the recent fire, and we are continually asked if such is to be the case.

We desire to publicly state that there will be NO CHANGE in the price of any goods which we have in stock, consisting of Lumber of all kinds and sizes, Shingles, Corrugated Iron, Doors, Windows, Blinds, Nails, and Builders' Hardware, Chinese Matting, etc., etc.
