

HE PULLED HENRY CLAY'S NOSE.

Recollections of an Old Baltimore Barber—The Story of a Half-Dollar.

Mr. Thomas Harvey is the name of a colored gentleman who maintains a tonorial bar in close proximity to the Union depot. There are few old Baltimoreans who do not know him, for the music of his good broad-shouldered razor has been heard in our leading hotels since the days of Andy Jackson.

NEW TREATY WITH HAWAII. WASHINGTON, April 16th.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has been at work on a new treaty between this country and the Hawaiian Government.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Senator Stanford is very much opposed to the abrogation of the treaty, and when the matter comes up for consideration in the Senate the effect of the work that he has done in that behalf will be made apparent.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The House Committee on Ways and Means, by a vote of nine to one decided to return a favorable report on the resolution recommending the abrogation of the Hawaiian treaty.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs after a full discussion of the question of a new treaty between the United States and Hawaii, stand eight to one in favor of the treaty and have ordered a report recommending the same.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—A new treaty will probably pass the Senate and be signed by President Cleveland who, for political reasons, favors the measure.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Private advices were received from Washington to-day, which state that the new treaty between the United States and Hawaii will be submitted to the Senate at an early date.

THE CHRONICLE errs in saying that the only question involved in the Hawaiian Treaty is one of revenue. It is a question of trade. It is said the revenue would be $3,000,000 on the sugar imported if it were not for the treaty.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Second Reading of Gladstone's Bill. LONDON, April 14.—The second reading of Gladstone's Home Rule bill in the Commons has been postponed until May 10th.

Gladstone to Take a Rest. LONDON, April 16.—Gladstone has arranged to leave London to-morrow, and go to his country seat at Hawarden, where he expects to remain two weeks.

Opposition Wavering. NEW YORK, April 17.—A London special says: It is reported on good authority that among the seceders Lord Hartington and Mr. Goschen favor the Irish Land bill, and that Chamberlain and Trevelyan are wavering in their opposition, owing to the pressure brought to bear upon them by country Liberals, who are now willing to favor both the Home Rule and the Land bill in order to pass local government before this Parliament expires.

Shaftsbury's Suicide. LONDON, April 13th.—Earl Shaftsbury killed himself this afternoon. He was in a cab, riding through Regent street, when he took his life. He drew a revolver and discharged the contents of its several chambers into his person. The corpse was conveyed to the Middlesex Hospital. He was 54 years of age and was the eighth Earl of Shaftsbury, succeeding October 1st, 1885, to the title, on the death of his father, who was a noted philanthropist. He left a widow, Lady Harriet, daughter of the third Marquis of Donegal, and one son and five daughters. The Earl had latterly been unwell, and had complained of mental depression.

The Bartlett Poisoning Case. LONDON, April 17.—The Bartlett poisoning case was given to the jury to-day. On closing the case for the Crown Attorney General Russell contended that from the evidence it was clearly impossible for Bartlett to have committed suicide and that there could be no doubt that he was killed by the prisoner, Mrs. Adelaide Bartlett, who had been maintaining illicit relations with Rev. Mr. Dyson and who was inspired to remove her husband because he was regaining his health. The Judge, in summing up, told the jury that Dyson had taken advantage of the husband's maudlin condition to supplant him in the affections of his wife and advised that no part of the clergyman's testimony, although he had been a witness for the Crown, be accepted as reliable. The jury were out but a short time and rendered a verdict of acquittal.

Gladstone's Irish Land Bill. LONDON, April 16.—Gladstone propounded his Irish Land Bill to the House of Commons this evening. There was but little excitement compared with the enthusiasm attending the memorable proceedings of yesterday a week when the Home Rule measure was proposed. The new measure provides that the Land Act will go into effect when the Home Rule Bill does, which provides Legislative authority to deal with the landed estates and to act between vendor and purchaser. The purchases are to be made through the issue of £180,000,000 of three per cent. Stock issued at par. The purpose of the act is to give the landlords the option of selling out under its terms. The scope of the act will be confined to agricultural holdings and will not include mansions having demesnes and woods. The State authorities will act between peasant and land-owner in all purchases and transfers until the peasant is in possession as absolute proprietor. The State will not force small occupiers to become proprietors. The basis of prices will depend upon the rental for fixed leases. The judicial rental of 1845 will be the standard in all cases where the rent of the land to be sold was then fixed, otherwise the Land Commission will fix the price on the comparative basis of Griffith's valuation. Twenty years rental will be the average purchase price. Applications for sale will not be received after March 1st, 1890. Ten million pounds of stock will be issued during 1887, £20,000,000 in 1888, £20,000,000 in 1889 and £20,000,000 in each of the two succeeding years.

Gladstone's Strength. NEW YORK, April 17.—The Times' London cable of the 16th says: The chief interest to-night lay in Chamberlain's revelation of his position, for the essential features of Gladstone's land scheme have been discounted for days back. Despite the ugly tone of Chamberlain's speech, everybody sees in it an opening back-door for his return to the Liberal party, and believes he will vote for the bill. He has succeeded in maneuvering the Marquis of Hartington in a hole where the resumption of Liberal heirship will be impossible, and is now willing to climb back, but I fancy his tactics are too openly selfish to succeed. The whole tenor of his speech to-night was a vindication devoted to showing that all the features that he objected to had been abandoned. Among other opinions he revealed was the fact that Gladstone originally proposed to allow Ireland the control of the customs and volunteer militia, which he (Chamberlain) smashed. This will be interesting to Irish-Americans who are disposed to complain of the limitation of Gladstone's bill. It is not easy to get English members to talk about the land scheme, but there seems no doubt that the prevailing sentiment regarding it is favorable. It is at least certain that no new antagonisms will be created by it. Whether Chamberlain comes in or not, it is to-night sure that a majority of the House of Commons is for both bills. It is not probable that this advantage will be lost during the holiday agitation. Gladstone was in very bad voice to-night, but it is likely the Midlothian air will restore him. He is absolutely confident that the dangerous point has been passed and that Home Rule is secured.

Ex-President Arthur's Illness. PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—The Times' New York special says: Ex-President Arthur's illness is daily assuming a more dangerous form. His condition is regarded as extremely critical. It is conceded by those most accurately informed of the case that the ex-President will never leave his house again. Despite all the secrecy which his condition has been guarded both by his physicians and at his home, the fact is known that some ten or twelve days ago he made his will and prepared for the worst. He was then so ill that he had to be helped up in bed while affixing the signature to his last will and testament. His condition has not materially improved since. Fewer people every day are permitted to his bedside. About the only person who is at nearly all times admitted is J. C. Reid, who was at one time his Private Secretary and whom the ex-President appointed Shipping Commissioner of New York. Despite the statements that are going about that Arthur will be out in a few days, it is doubtful whether he lives three months.

The President's Coming Marriage. NEW YORK, April 17.—The Sun's N. Y. special of the 16th says: The statements of Rev. Wm. Cleveland, brother of the President, that the latter will marry Miss Francis Folsom, the lovely daughter of the late Oscar Folsom, together with some additional information gleaned to-day by the correspondent of the Sun, leaves no doubt of the fact that the White House wedding will take place. The wedding will be of the most quiet character possible and it will be solemnized in the White House in June. There will not be a dozen persons present, and it is possible the time of its occurrence will be kept secret until after the ceremony. Miss Folsom is modest, retiring and sensitive, and her wishes are that there shall be no display. In this it is understood the President concurs.

The "Tairoa" Disaster. WELLINGTON, N. Z., April 13th.—Later reports from the scene of the wreck of the coasting steamer Tairoa, show that fourteen persons were saved from the vessel. The number of drowned was twenty-four.

The Cholera in Italy. WASHINGTON, April 17.—The United States Consul General at Rome has telegraphed to the Secretary of State that there were sixteen deaths from cholera at Brindisi from April 8th to 16th.

Ecclesiastical Bill. BERLIN, April 13th.—The Upper House of the Prussian Landtag has accepted the Ecclesiastical bill with the amendments offered by Dr. Kopp, Bishop of Fulda.

The attention of all interested is called to the notice inserted by Mr. Frank H. Austin, agent of the Relief Committee, of the establishment of an office in Fowler's Yard. This location, from its convenience, will greatly facilitate the benevolent objects of the committee.

Three fine Sapota or Sapodilla pears, were brought to the Press office last Saturday evening, which were raised at the place of Mr. T. R. Foster in Honolulu, formerly known as the Hillbrand garden. The sapota is one of the most luscious of tropical fruits and although it is rare in these Islands it is a fruit which ought, with proper care, to become as plentiful as mangoes now are.

Referring to the notice of Mr. Austin, agent of the Relief Committee, it is suggested that those desirous of employing labor of any kind give the preference, other things being equal, to the unfortunates who have been bereft of their all by the fire. Employment to such would be in the nature of a boon.

No. 25 of Luso Hawaiiano was out promptly on Saturday evening, and contains a special description of the great fire, with the list of the Portuguese sufferers. It also contains an article on Easter, from the pen of Father Clement, and the usual amount of news of interest to the readers of this intelligently managed newspaper, which can boast of bringing a fresh patronage of advertisements in each issue.

The Campobello Concert Company, composed of Signor E. Campobello, Signor Lencioni, Miss May Mitchell Spring, and the Joran sisters arrived Saturday on the Marara and will open at the Hawaiian Opera House this evening. The ovation accorded this famous troupe in California will bespeak for it a corresponding appreciation here. The programme will be changed each night. Box plans now open at J. E. Wiseman's office.

The S. S. Marara, Captain Edie, arrived in port last Saturday afternoon, six days and sixteen hours from San Francisco. The following is her report: "Left San Francisco, April 17th, at 9 P. M., discharged pilot at 11:16 P. M., took Honolulu pilot at 1 P. M. on 23rd inst., and made fast to the wharf at 11:45 P. M. Experienced light winds and fine weather throughout the passage. After discharging her cargo for this port and taking in coal, she proceeded on her way to the Colonies.

Captain O'Connor, formerly commander of the Queen's Own, left for the Colonies by the Marara. About two hours before the sailing of the steamer the Queen's Own marched to the Oceanic wharf and through Lieutenant Keola, presented the Captain with a gold headed cane, with the following inscription engraved on it: "Presented to Captain O'Connor by the Queen's Own." After bidding him good-bye, some of the company returned to the wharf and as the steamer was leaving the wharf they sang "Aloha Oe" and several other popular native songs, much to the enjoyment of the passengers.

A well filled house greeted the Rev. E. C. Oggel, pastor of the Bethel Union Church, yesterday morning at the Lyceum on Nuuanu avenue. The building was tastefully decorated for the Easter services. The pastor preached a sermon appropriate to the day. In the evening, there was another Easter service, conducted by Mr. E. F. Dillingham, Superintendent. Secretary Fuller, several young people and the pastor took part in the exercises. An interesting feature of the programme was the placing of three crowns, by as many young ladies, on a cross. Misses May Dillingham and Addie Peterson gave recitations relating to the Easter festival.

The Cabinet Relief Committee and its Agent, Mr. Frank H. Austin, are deserving of great credit for the work which is being done by them to alleviate the distress of the fire sufferers. About four hundred meals are served daily at the Immigration Depot and about thirty persons are housed. The agent exercises the most rigid discrimination in the exercise of the committee benevolence. No relief is afforded except to those establishing satisfactory claims. The work is carried on as efficiently and rapidly as such discrimination will allow. Mr. F. W. Damon's co-operation, from his intimate acquaintance with the Chinese language and people, is invaluable and materially assists in the proper bestowal of aims and assistance.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Alden Fruit and Taro Company appearing in to-day's paper. Mr. Bielenberg will canvass the Islands thoroughly to acquaint the people with the merits of the taro flour and the manner of making it into poi. W. H. Cummings and W. H. Daniels of Kahoolawe and their employees who have used the flour for some time, prefer poi from it to poi otherwise made. Improved machinery and more extended facilities, added recently at considerable expense, enable the company to produce an article superior to their former manufactures. The erection of similar factories on the other islands is contemplated should patronage warrant. The present outlook is favorable. A considerable increase of revenue may confidently be predicted, from this industry which will stimulate the production of taro, thereby affording employment to natives and others. Good poi can now be made with slight labor and a native need not necessarily be a Hercules to prepare his breakfast.

They say that the hope of Hawaii lies in the new treaty; that the roads were full of "outing" parties yesterday; that the Kinau brought down a larger number of passengers than usual; that the news of the fire was the cause of the large number; that the native who thought he had found a big lump of silver in the fire-runs beyond Nuuanu street was greatly disappointed when the Government Assayer at the Police Station pronounced it lead; that sugar went up as soon as the Senate Committee's vote in favor of the new treaty was passed; that the base ball game passed off with great edat last Saturday afternoon; that the consummation of the new treaty will rest largely with the action of the Hawaiian Government and the native population; that all political feeling should be kept under until the treaty is permanently settled; that the new fire bill, to be brought before the next Legislature, is about finished; that the new treaty is a political move of the Democratic Administration; that there are to be further changes in the Honolulu Post Office Department before long; that the Church and State question will crop out during the coming Legislature; that the sugar question has cut a large figure in the argument against the present Reciprocity Treaty; that the fire is still burning in patches over the burnt district; that the proposition of Mr. Davies if carried out, will be a movement in the right direction, to which none but political demagogues will object; that the Bethel Church has been offered several new locations; that one of these is near Palace Square; that many of the Chinese will be unable to rebuild if they are obliged to use stone and brick; that the Bell Telephone Company is several days behind in getting its wires repaired; that its customers are getting uneasy; and that the weather is about to change; and that the Government will likely follow suit in its future political policy.

Police Court Items. SATURDAY, April 24th. Two drunks, $6 each. Radway, charged with disturbing the quiet of the night; forfeited bail, $10. Ioani, charged with disorderly conduct; sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for 48 hours, and pay costs, $1.20. Leui, charged with disorderly conduct; forfeited bail, $10. Emily R. Cocah, charged with deserting her husband; remanded until the 27th inst. Kekapa, remanded from the 22nd inst., charged with larceny; sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for three months, and pay costs, $1.20. J. R. Silva and Kuhlolo, remanded from the 21st inst., charged with larceny; remanded until to-day.

An Interesting Case. The well known, but not famous, E. Kekoa, has been on trial in the Police Court at Hilo, for irregularities in connection with the late election in Puna. It will be remembered that complaints were made that there were some men whose names appeared on more than one of the polling lists, and also that the registration board did not meet according to law. These matters are to be sifted as soon as Kekoa can be got to face the charges in court. He does not seem at all anxious for the opportunity to vindicate himself before his fellow citizens. When the case was first called he asked that it be continued for four months, so that he could attend the session of the Legislature before standing his trial. Failing to get this, he fights for just as much as he can get. At the time of the closing of the mail no decision had been reached although it is probable that the case will result in the exposing of some shameful frauds. It is thought at Hilo that the Police Judge will convict Kekoa, but this belief does not create much hope that justice will ultimately be reached.

Hilo Notes. Rev. E. P. Baker and J. D. Blackman, of Hilo, returned from Kilauea on the 21st inst., and report but slight signs of life at the crater. His Majesty King Kalakaua, is having a large boat house erected at Hilo. Tourists make a great mistake who fail to go visit the crater, for it is a very grand sight to see such an immense crater active or quiet. Tourists should visit the extinct crater on Maui. Hilo is having a liberal quantity of rain just now.

It is a wonder that none of those wonderful hand grenades did effective service at the big fire in Honolulu. The last arrival of Kinau at Hilo brought sad news. The immense destruction of property made give Honolulu, in the burnt locality, a very sad appearance. The dear old Bethel Church will be greatly missed. As the Press states, the church has been burned but its record never can be destroyed. A new church will now be erected and money will easily be secured from the Islands, America and England. All Christians will be glad to contribute towards the erection of a church of such a reputation.

A Card. The report seems to be current that the prices of Lumber and Building Materials will be advanced on account of the recent fire, and we are continually asked if such is to be the case. We desire to publicly state that there will be NO CHANGE in the price of any goods which we have in stock, consisting of Lumber of all kinds and sizes, Shingles, Corrugated Iron, Doors, Windows, Blinds, Nails, and Builders' Hardware, Chinese Matting, etc., etc. LEWERS & COOKE.

Captain Turner of the brigantine W. G. Irwin will remain at the Coast until the return of the vessel to San Francisco. Captain McCulloch will be in charge of the vessel this trip. The latest sugar advices from the Coast received by the steamer Marara last Saturday state that the highest quotation offered was 5 11-16 cents, and that holders were refusing to sell at 5 12-16 cents. B. M. S. Satellite. The names of the two teams will be published as soon as the teams are organized. The attention of all interested is called to the notice inserted by Mr. Frank H. Austin, agent of the Relief Committee, of the establishment of an office in Fowler's Yard. This location, from its convenience, will greatly facilitate the benevolent objects of the committee. Three fine Sapota or Sapodilla pears, were brought to the Press office last Saturday evening, which were raised at the place of Mr. T. R. Foster in Honolulu, formerly known as the Hillbrand garden. The sapota is one of the most luscious of tropical fruits and although it is rare in these Islands it is a fruit which ought, with proper care, to become as plentiful as mangoes now are.
