The New Turkish Cabinet.

The Roumelian Outbreak.

LUDWIG II., KING OF BAVARIA, HOPELESSLY MAD.

Sam Jones, the Evangelist, a Victim of Dynamite.

A Monster Gun.

PACIFIC COAST AND CONDENSED NEWS.

General American and European Items, Etc., Etc.

Constantinople, Sept. 25.—The Ministry has been dismissed and a new Cabinet formed, with the following changes: Kianui Pasha, Grand Vizier, in place of Said Pasha, dismissed; Said Pasha, recently Ambassador at Berlin, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in place of Assym Pasha, dismissed; Munia Pasha, lately dismissed from the office of Minister of Finance, is made Minister of the Interior in place of Edhem Pasha, who is appointed Ambassador at Paris; Server Pasha, Minister of Justice, in place of Fehmi Pasha, dismissed; Arty Pasha, President of the Council, in place of Akif Pasha, dismissed; Assad Pasha, Ambassador at Paris has been transferred to Berlin.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 25.—The feeling in St. Petersburg regarding the Roumelian question is hourly becoming more warlike. The sympathy of the masses is strongly with the Bulgarians. It is stated that the Czar has telegraphed his Minister of War to prepare plans for a campaign in the event of the opening of hostilities between Bulgaria and Turkey, as he is determined to support Prince Alexander's scheme of unity between Bulgaria and Roumelia. A prominent Russian general, in an interview to-day, when asked if it was true that the Czar seriously intended to support Bulgaria to the extent of going to war with Turkey, replied that "Russia would declare war against Turkey the moment the Porte attacked Bulgaria," and added that "the Czar is most emphatic in his resolution to support Bulgaria."

Sofia, Sept. 25.—The Servian Government has summoned all those Servians who are now in Germany, to return home at once for military duty.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 25.—Nevro Vreyna to-day, commenting on the Roumelian difficulty, hints that it is possible that Russian troops may be called upon to occupy Bulgaria.

London, Sept. 25.—The signatory Powers to the Treaty of Berlin all favor a conference forthwith for the settlement of the Bulgarian difficulty.

Paris, Sept. 25.—The Government has asked the co-operation of other Powers in urging on the Governments of Servia, Roumania and Greece the necessity of avoiding all agitation respecting the Roumelian difficulty, and not to permit anti-Turkish demonstrations during the present state of public feeling in the Balkans.

New York, Sept. 25.—The Sun's London correspondent says: There is no longer any possibility of doubt that Ludwig II., King of Bavaria is hopelessly mad. The fact will soon be formally recognized by the Bavarian Landtag, by its voting to pay the enormous debts of the King, and under-stating a guarantee on condition that the Landtag shall hereafter have absolute control over the finances of the royal households. The King's insanity has lately taken a less fantastic and more furious form. He no longer delights in listening in solitude to costly operas, or in building palaces where they can never be used, but he amuses himself by knocking down his couriers and treating his soldiers and attendants with brutality. Recently the King had an attack of toothache, and the leading dentist of Munich was summoned to attend him. The dentist informed his Majesty that the tooth must be extracted and that the operation could not be performed painlessly without the use of chloroform. The King declared this was a conspiracy to kill him, and refused to submit to an anesthetic, but ordered the dentist to proceed. The dentist extracted the tooth and of course caused some suffering. The King bellowed with pain and roared out, "You rascals, you deserve to be torn to pieces by wild bulls." He then made a rush for the dentist, but the latter fled and succeeded in escaping from the palace.

Sam Jones, the Evangelist, a Victim of Dynamite.

New York, Sept. 22.—A special from Cartersville, Ga., of the 21st says: Sam Jones' home was the scene of great excitement yesterday. The evangelist was to have closed a camp meeting last night. The people of Cartersville were awakened early yesterday morning by a terrible crash and the inmates of Sam Jones' house felt the building tremble and heard the windows rattle. At the same time a man at the gospel tent, several hundred yards distant, saw a flash of light in the direction of Jones' residence, accompanied by an explosion. The flash seemed like a suppressed bolt of lightning. A crowd quickly gathered and it was found that a large stable had been blown up by dynamite. A charged fuse of a cartridge was found. No one was injured. Friday night, in the course of his sermon, Jones made a very severe attack on the men who are flanking the prohibition law in Cartersville, and it is supposed that they did the work.

A Monster Gun of American Manufacture.

Reading, Penn., Sept. 8.—The Scott foundry to-day cast one of the parts of a heavy breech-loading chambered rifled cannon, with a bore thirty feet in length, for the American Standard Ordnance Company of New York, under the supervision of Col. Norman Ward. Forty thousand pounds of iron were used in its construction and the entire gun will require 100,000 pounds of iron. The casting was a success and was witnessed by many New York parties. This is the first occasion where private enterprise has undertaken to manufacture expensive ordnance for the Government and test it entirely at private cost. The gun, it is expected, will prove capable of delivering 18,000 pounds of projectile and consuming 9,000 pounds of powder in one hour's practice of consecutive firing. The unequal expansion of metal and consequent bursting of guns in rapid firing is believed to have been overcome, and it is expected that it will meet the provisions of the Congressional enactment that no gun shall be introduced into the service until it has been tested by firing it rapidly under conditions resembling the test of battle. Its projectors claim that one of these new guns can be fired from five to ten times, while the ordinary rifles and shotguns can only be fired once with safety.—Special to St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The President's Policy.

New York, Sept. 21.—The Commercial Washington special says: Gen. Rosecrans has declined the invitation of the Ohio Democrats, who wanted him to take part in the present campaign. As soon as the President returned from his vacation, Rosecrans called upon him to ask him if public officers were to be allowed to take part in the political campaigns. In other words, could he have permission to go to Ohio and help his political brethren? It is understood the President set his foot down and forbade any such proceedings on the part of any one holding office under his Administration, because he wanted to try the neutral policy. Rosecrans accordingly sent his declination to Ohio.

The Treasure Ships all Right.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The Treasury Department is informed that the United States steamers Swatara and Yantic, bearing about $10,400,000 in silver coin, have entered Chesapeake Bay and will probably arrive in Washington to-morrow. The coin will be transferred from the navy yard to the Treasury Department by Adams Express Company's wagons, which will be guarded by United States marines.

New York, Sept. 25.—The Herald's Cork special confirms the reports that boycotting is increasing. Accounts are daily received of persons who, honest and independent in their actions, have made themselves obnoxious to their neighbors, and are unable to dispose of their produce even at a sacrifice in their market towns. There are three Roman Catholic churches in the county, wherein disgraceful scenes are witnessed each succeeding Sunday. The entrance of some boycotted individual to join in divine service is made the signal for the congregation to arise en masse and quit the edifice. In two instances the officiating clergy men have remonstrated with the congregation, but in the third, the boycotted individual was denounced for putting in his appearance.

VENTURE.

Light on his airy crest his slender head; His body short, his limbs luxuriant spread; Muscles on muscle knots his brassy breast; No fear alarms him, no vain shouts molest; O'er his high shoulder, flowing full and fair, Sweeps his thick mane and spreads his pomp of hair; Swift works his double spine, and earth around Rings to his solid hoof that wears the ground.—(Venus).

This well-known Trotting Stallion is now standing at the corner of Punchbowl and Queen streets, and breeders, horsemen and stock-owners should take advantage of the opportunity to obtain his blood while they have the chance. He is now looking and feeling nearly as well as he ever did in his life, and moves as lively and his eye is as bright and he is as vigorous as a four-year-old horse.

It does not require a great horseman to discover great points of excellence in VENTURE. The ordinary citizen, upon beholding him, will be impressed immediately with his grand make-up, magnificent length, and elegant finish. If he is not the greatest horse that ever came to this country, he is sure to be one of the greatest, and as a turf performer, he towers as far above them all as he does above a sucking colt in stature.

A great deal of importance has lately been attached to the value of a horse that is being kept for stock purposes, whether he is standard or not, and the President of the National Association of Trotting Horse Breeders in America strongly advises people not to patronize stallions that are not standard bred, and he also advises them to select one not only standard bred, but if possible one that is standard by his own performance, which is a public record of 2:30, or better, and even more than this by the performance of his get also. Now, if this rule was rigidly applied it would exclude all such great horses as Electioneer and the sire of Maid S. and Jay Eye Sea, etc., for while they have become greatly renowned by the performance of their get, they never were turf performers themselves.

Now, we will see, for curiosity, how near VENTURE comes to possessing these three qualifications, namely: Breeding, performance and performance of his get.

As to breeding, he is the peer of any horse on earth, and I don't except the great Hermit, who is the most popular stallion in England, and whose service fee is £500, he being the sire of three Derby winners.

As to his own performance, he meets the requirements, having a public record of 2:17 1/2—2:30 being the standard of admission.

His get are now just beginning to be appreciated in California, one of which (Vengeance) won a good race quite lately in Sacramento, in straight heats, making a record of 2:34, and is said to be able to trot close to 2:30, when called upon to do so.

With these facts before us, VENTURE looms up as one of the greatest horses, not only in this but in any other country, and the day is past when people will breed anything but the very best; and while the death of two such great horses as Bowtell and Bazar is greatly deplored by all true horsemen, still it is a great consolation that there is so good a horse as VENTURE to fill their place.

VENTURE is an aged horse, but he is one year younger than Dictator, who was sold only last year in Kentucky for $25,000, on the strength of his being the sire of Jay Eye Sea. His stud fee is $500. He is also ten years younger than Volunteer (sire of St. Julien), whose fee is $500. All things taken into consideration, I cannot see why VENTURE is not as desirable a horse to breed from as any of them, or why he is not as worthy of the patronage of the public. Below I will give his pedigree, of which I invite a comparison with that of any other horse in the country.

LOCAL NEWS. The southerly wind spell of weather is on us again and bids fair to stay some time.

Mr. Jaeger brought into town yesterday the first custard apple grown in this country.

The members of the Young People's Christian Temperance Union are requested to meet in the vestry of the Fort Street Church this evening at seven o'clock.

Dr. Henry L. Curtis, who arrived on the City of Sydney will go to Hana, Maui, to take the place of Dr. G. A. Rawson, Government physician, who left for the coast recently.

A skating match will probably come off at one of the skating rinks between two young men of Honolulu some time this month for a sufficient amount to make it interesting.

Mr. George C. Stratemeyer has hung out his shingle in San Francisco and will not return to the Islands for some time yet. There is no doubt that George is homesick all the same.

Notwithstanding the frequency of rain showers during this summer the late dry spell has had a telling effect in parching the ground—at least the plains seem to show it prominently.

The Hilo Liquor Saloon, after much difficulty, succeeded in getting the sale of swipes stopped and then hired a kanaka to manufacture it but was informed that he could not sell or make.

Last Thursday afternoon two half-whites were seen passing Palama with a dozen or more doves which they had shot. It is reported that this destruction of Hawaiian doves for food is constantly carried on by the natives and half-whites.

The complimentary concert at the Hotel last night in honor of the officers of the Satellite was well attended and was fully appreciated by the numerous sailors present as well as by the usual concourse of citizens.

The Board of Health have at last decided to do something pertaining to the office and have passed a set of resolutions which look well on paper. The public will soon find out if they mean business or if they are only attempting to quiet the Sanitary discussion.

Captain T. E. Eldart reports that the coast of Puna, Hawaii, is gradually sinking. Where his boat housed stood six months ago is now flooded with water at high tide. In 1868 during the great earthquake of April the whole Puna coast sank from five to fifteen feet. Some day the eastern part of Hawaii will turn up missing if this thing goes on.

About eight o'clock yesterday morning two horses (one horse hitched at each end of a rope about twenty feet long), turned out of King street into Fort and ran at a rapid rate up to Dodd's stables. It is not known whose horses they were, but it is known that letting horses loose on the streets, tied in such a manner, might result in an accident or injury to persons on the street.

Yesterday on one of his trips to Waikiki, Mr. Jim Sherwood, the leader of the bus band, concluded he would give one of his horses a bath at the Long Branch Baths. He took the horse out into the water and when it became deep enough to swim, Jim attempted to grasp the horse's mane and swim with him. In starting, however, the horse kicked Jim on the inside of the thigh and hurt him so badly that he was obliged to lay off for a few days. Jim's friends declare that this was the only horse in the Kingdom that had kicked enough to kick him.

Yesterday afternoon about five o'clock, a Portuguese had a dispute with a colt he was driving in a brake on King street. The dispute occurred just beyond the Chinese Theatre, and the colt settled the affair as far as he was concerned by bolting off the road, through a fence, breaking both shafts of the brake, and at last falling down to contemplate the ruin he had wrought. The Portuguese driver stuck to the brake, and when the colt fell down he sat with his arms akimbo swinging his whip with a South-of-Spain look of disgust on his face.

Yesterday evening shortly after dark, while a gentleman was walking up Nuuanu street, opposite the new Temperance Hotel, he was caught under the chin by a small rope which had been tied from the top of the high board fence to an overhanging bough of a tree, and was injured about the throat and face. It may be fun for the persons that put it there but is a dangerous sort of fun which ought to be punished and would be in any place but Honolulu. If the police wish to look the matter up, the piece of rope which was cut from the fence by the gentleman who ran against it, will be given them at this office.

They say: that the King intends taking a vacation; that the Foreign Office is a domestic complication; that opium is as good as gold if you know the ropes; that the police take most of their leads from the newspapers; that the meteor of night before last portends the death of a chief—provided one can be found; that the new battery will be neutral; that we are about to have a new moon; that Henry Hart takes things cool; that Hawaii hauled England in last night at the Hawaiian Hotel; that the aftermath will show up again as soon as it gets another local notice from the Honolulu newspapers; and that the editors of Honolulu ought not talk before their compositors if they do not want to be given away.

The Anglican Chronicle for October is at hand. The leading article of the number is written on the growing laxity of Sunday observance both in the United States and here. Speaking of the drift of the time in the United States is unquestionably towards a relaxed Sunday observance, towards the Sunday opening not only of reading rooms, libraries and museums, but of places of public amusement; towards the increased running of Sunday trains and Sunday boats; This is undoubtedly so in America and follows the development of republics generally. "Church and Social Morality" from the Church Review discusses the Fall Mall exposures. The November number will complete the third volume of the Chronicle.

Mrs. Anna Breeze Southwick, with one or two ladies to assist her has organized a Sunday school in Fowler's yard. Thirty-seven children were present last Sunday, the majority not attending any other Sunday school. This is a move in the right direction and should have the support and co-operation of all interested. Fowler's yard is a village in itself, and Mr. Fowler has provided comfortable homes for many poor but respectable people, at low rents, otherwise these people would scarcely find a place to shelter them in Honolulu. Neither are honest, industrious men or women ever turned from their doors, when misfortune visits them and are unable to pay their rent. Mrs. Southwick will also give lessons free of charge, Saturday evenings of every week at the same place, to any Germans or Norwegians, who may desire to acquire an knowledge of or perfect themselves in the English language.

The following is an exact copy of a letter which has doubtless been written by an enemy of Marshal Soper, copies of which have been scattered around town lately:

HONOLULU—Gentlemen: We not know what kind of man the Marshal Soper was but Wong Tai Poo is the worst kind. China men here have not any one good Chinaman like him, but now he was the arms of the fool Soper, where the fool Soper goes upon the bad Chinaman Wong Tai Poo wants, Wong Tai Poo now don't care for any Chinaman only factors on the fool Soper, and the fool Soper says what Wong Tai Poo doing is alright in this Kingdom the arms of Wong Tai Poo, all are bad Chinaman, selling opium liquors, retail and wholesale every thing against the King-dom's law, and of cause the arms of Soper and Wong Tai Poo carrying laws of himself, the fool Soper don't care his name, only care that Wong Tai Poo going away from him, mostly for the way of money. The reason is this, if a man cares about the wealth he is going to be a friendship of a thief, about the names, he ought to go along with a good man.

PUBLIC. How Gai Chun was the highest partner of Wong Tai Poo who was arrested in Friday night for perjury search out from his pocket thru not only him but all of Wong Tai Poo partners or companies about sixty man just the same and ready give out charges to holes if they can the fool Soper was the head of those bad Chinamen to fool round in the China town, oh, dangers China, or Chinamen are dangerous.

Bethel Church Service. "A Great Discovery" was the theme of Rev. E. C. Oggel's sermon last Sunday evening at the Bethel-Union Church. The text was: "Then Manasseh Knew that the Lord Was God." and Chron. 33: 13. The reverend gentleman said: In the Bible as in the natural kingdom you meet with a wonderful variety of life. The history of the individual, like the rise and fall of empires and the stated courses of the heavenly bodies, is under divine control. Twelve years was Manasseh old when he became king. He counteracted with evil all the good his father had done. He sinned against a religious education: he knew better. When a man once gets on the wrong track there is no telling to what lengths and depths of evil he will go. As a king he had influence and he wielded it to lead men away from God. The power of evil is ample for good or evil is immeasurable. But God's eye was on the king; he spoke to him through his servants. It seems as seed falling on a rock. Then God afflicted him. In a far-away land, like the prodigal son, the king came to himself. He humbled himself and "prayed unto God." Then the king made a great discovery. "He knew that the Lord was God." True conversion is ever characterized by a cordial and complete consecration to the cause of God. When Manasseh was converted he wrought righteousness and commanded all the people to serve Jehovah.
