SENATE FEELS BRECKONS AND ANTI-RUM PRODS ATKINSON CASE

Strong Petition Against Intended at First to Let Moore Bill --- In Question Go Over
The House. March 4.

That public sentiment has been aroused over the combined efforts of the liquor interests to amend the existing liquor law, so that it will become impotent and worthless as a measure of liquor traffic control, was made evident to the territorial Senate yesterday.

The Civic Federation presented a petition to the Senate in which the pernicious effects that will surely follow the adoption of the Moore whisky ring amendments were outlined so clearly that if there has been any doubt on that score it is now removed. The petition reminds the Senate that the majority of both houses of the Legislature are pledged to maintain the existing liquor law. Each reactionary and threatening clause is taken up and dealt with separately and the illy-concealed intentions of the act plainly indicated.

The Legislature will not only have to weigh in the balance the sentiment of the people of Honolulu when they come to vote on the whisky ring letters of marque. The people of Lahaina are aroused and have expressed their opinion of Moore's bill in no uncertain terms. The resolution which they adopted at a recent meeting was presented to the consideration of the Senate yesterday. The document declares that the meeting was held for "the purpose of making recommendations to our legislators, Senators and Representatives, in the matter of public improvements and appropriations and other matters affecting the welfare of the District of Lahaina and matters of public policy affecting not only the district but the Territory at large. It was resolved that this association go on record as unalterably opposed to any change or amendment to be made in the present law governing the granting of liquor licenses."

The Senate accomplished the usual routine work yesterday and passed two bills on third reading. Coelho introduced another act providing for the appointment of bail commissioners despite the fact that the upper house has already gone on record in this connection by indefinitely postponing consideration of the first Coelho measure covering the same ground.

Nine bills were passed on third reading yesterday morning in the House; six bills were read for the second time; two bills had their first reading; and the reports of the committees on eight bills and resolutions were received, read and voted upon. In addition there was a warm debate while it lasted on one bill and between times the members managed to pass a couple of resolutions, hear a few communications and listen to advice on points of parliamentary law from the Speaker. For three hours and a half there was not a moment wasted by anyone.

The bill to authorize the Honolulu Supervisors to pay their overdue road workers was passed, after a debate. A bill to establish juvenile courts in the Territory went through its third reading and a bill to make the H. R. T. & L. Company put air brakes on all its cars of a strength sufficient to stop any of them running at its highest speed in its own length was presented. The House adjourned after passing a resolution that it did so out of honor to President Taft and after deciding that it needed the afternoon, anyhow, for committee work.

THE SENATE.

Senator Chillingworth was not present at yesterday's session of the Senate, being excused because of a death in his family.

House Bill No. 32, relating to the transcript of evidence in felony cases, was transmitted to the Senate and passed on first reading. Senate Bill No. 33 was returned to the upper house on the passage of it on third reading in amended form. The bill was introduced by Senator Moore for the encouragement of diversified industries, and originally provided that all property and land used in the growing of cotton should be exempt from all taxation for a period of five years. In that form it passed the Senate, but the House amended it to read three years instead of five years as the period of the exemption clause. The explanation was that the desire of the House was to have all the tax exemptions lapse at the same period. Senator Moore concurred in the amendment and on his motion it was adopted by the Senate and the bill is (Continued on Page Two.)

WASHINGTON, D.C., February 20.—It looks as though several good appointments in the Federal service in Hawaii would go over to the Taft administration. It was said at the White House this afternoon that President Roosevelt does not now intend to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Breckons. Delegate Kalaniana'ole went to the Department of Justice a day or two ago.

"Is there a vacancy in the District Attorneyship?" he asked.

"Yes," was the reply, which he accepted as final proof that Mr. Breckons' resignation had been received. As has already been stated he has endorsed former territorial secretary Atkinson for the office.

Mr. Atkinson's application has been received at the White House, Secretary Loeb said today, but as the matter stands now it will simply be placed on file for the new President and the new Attorney General to consider some time next month.

By the same token the President will leave for Mr. Taft the selection of an (Continued on page 6.)

PORTLAND WANTS HAWAIIAN EXHIBIT

Requests the Islands to Participate in Annual Rose Festival.

John Gill, Envoy Extraordinary of the Portland Rose Festival Association to Hawaii, yesterday extended an invitation, in a letter to the Promotion Committee, to these Islands to be represented in the annual festival of the great Rose City of Oregon. The Rose Festival, Mr. Gill explained, was similar to the Floral Parade of Honolulu, several days being given up to fun and frolic as well as the showing of handsome floats and exhibits. Mr. Gill said, in the letter, which he wrote from Kani, where he is now visiting: "Upon arriving here I found a letter (Continued on Page Four.)

DISTINGUISHED FRENCH GENERAL IN TOWN

General de Negrier who arrived here on the Tenyo Maru yesterday, will make a trip to the volcano of Kilauea before continuing his voyage. He is the Inspector General of the French Army, and, since arriving here, has exhibited a great interest in the fortification work that is going on in these Islands. He will make a special trip to Pearl Harbor. The General says that Honolulu will be visited by a great many foreign officers of rank.

SUIT AGAINST THE QUEEN.

WASHINGTON (D.C.), February 24.—Mrs. Lydia Dominis, otherwise known as Liliuokalani, ex-Queen of Hawaii, was named defendant in a suit to recover $11,600 as damages for alleged breach of contract, filed in the District Supreme Court today by Dr. Charles H. English of Washington, who says he was employed by her as private physician for a term of two years.

The terms of the agreement, according to the physician, required a payment of $300 each month as salary; $150 a month for expenses and a bonus of $5000 at the expiration of the term of his contract. He therefore asks the court to render judgment against the ex-Queen for the full contract price of $7200 salary and $5000 bonus, less a credit of $800 for two months' salary received.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM PROMISE AND THE SENATORS.

"WE ENDORSE THE PRESENT LIQUOR LAW AND OPPOSE ANY GENERAL REVISION THEREOF."—Plank of the Republican party, adopted at the Territorial Convention, held in Honolulu, September 14, 1908.

The Senators representing the Republican party in the Senate, the party which subscribed to this plank, are Brown, Chillingworth, Coelho, Fairchild, Kalama, Knudsen, Quinn, Robinson, and Smith, a majority of the Senate.

Senator Robinson was a member of the Platform Committee of the convention which drew up the platform, including this plank pledging the party against any general revision of the present Liquor Law. His name is signed to the committee's report.

Present and taking part in the convention which bound the party to defend the present Liquor Law were A. F. Knudsen, J. T. Brown, W. T. Robinson, and E. W. Quinn, among others.

The Whisky Ring claims to have a majority in the Senate in favor of a measure radically revising the Liquor Law. Is this claim only an idle boast or are there some among the Republican Senators traitors to their words and willing to violate their party pledges and prove false to the platform upon which they were elected?—The people will be interested in seeing what weight the members of the Republican majority in the Senate attach to their pre-election promises and their party platform promises.

ANTI-SALOON MEN ARE UP IN ARMS AGAINST THE MOORE WHISKY RING BILL

There was a full meeting of the Anti-Saloon League at the office of W. A. Bowen in the Stangenwald block at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon to consider the whisky ring bill introduced by Senator Moore. Rev. J. W. Wadman presided.

After a full discussion it was decided to send a petition to the Legislature in both branches, strongly protesting against the passage of the bill. That petition was signed by every member of the executive committee.

It was also decided to cable John G. Woolley to come here at once to take charge of the Anti-Saloon League at a salary of $2500. A special committee was named to communicate with Rev. Wilbur F. Crafts, head of the International Reform Bureau at Washington, as to whether the Anti-Saloon League here should appeal to Congress for permanent relief from the machinations of whisky rings; and also if the measure pressed by the Reform Bureau to protect aboriginal races from the liquor curse should not be made to include the aborigines of Hawaii.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Hon. Wm. R. Castle invited those present to attend the meeting of the Men's League at the parish house of Central Union church this evening where Moore's whisky ring bill will also be discussed. Addresses will be made by Mr. Ballentyne, Mr. Thurston, Dr. Scudder and any representatives of the Liquor Dealers' Association who may respond to the invitation already sent out by the League.

ATCHERLEY SANE, JURY'S VERDICT

Physician Goes Free of Accusation Based on Shooting.

"We, the jury, find the said John Atcherley to be of sound mind." That was the verdict returned by a jury in Judge Lindsay's department of the Circuit Court at 5:40 o'clock last evening, ten minutes after they had adjourned to the jury room. There was no division of sentiment on the question of Atcherley's sanity among the jurors. This verdict brought the Atcherley case to an end and sent the physician and his wife from the courtroom rejoicing.

The arguments of Attorney Magoon for the defense and Cathcart for the prosecution consumed the entire afternoon. In his argument Magoon entered into a lengthy arraignment of what he termed a conspiracy to send a perfectly sane man to the asylum. He attacked the methods of Dr. Wayson and declared Wayson's violation of professional secrets was sufficient explanation of Atcherley's attempt to kill him. According to Magoon the proper course to have been pursued in the case of Atcherley would have been to prosecute the physician on a criminal charge and the very fact that such prosecution was abandoned in favor of the insanity accusation, Magoon said, was enough to show the ulterior motives behind the prosecution. Magoon did not attempt to palliate Atcherley's gunplay in which he turned a fusillade of bullets on the home of Dr. Wayson, Magoon said everyone was inclined to do "foolish things" at some time of this life, but if such an act made a man insane the asylums would have many sane persons within their confines.

Attacks Wayson.

Magoon said that the testimony in the case showed that Atcherley had no illusion as to the alleged persecution of him by Dr. Wayson—that it was a fact and was occasioned by a variety of causes chief of which was that Dr. Atcherley had become possessed of a remedy that went far to remove the symptoms of leprosy. Magoon attacked what he termed the deliberate falsification of Dr. Wayson and said that Wayson had shown his animosity in many ways and cited the statements of Mark P. Robinson, President of the Board of Health, to prove it.

The courtroom was thronged with the curious when the jury filed in with its verdict. When Judge Lindsay said "Let the prisoner be discharged," there was applause and the Atcherleys hurried over to thank the members of the jury.

FIVE SHARKS ARE CAPTURED

Water Outside the Harbor Is Teeming With Hungry Man-Eaters.

Five man-eating sharks, not one of which was under twelve feet long and the largest measuring over fifteen feet, were captured yesterday afternoon by a party taken out by Jack Young in his launch. Those in the party were L. W. Nute and wife of Boston, Oswald Stevens of Punahou College, Harry Wilder and Jack Young. The latter has won quite a reputation for himself as a shark-hunter of late, having had several narrow escapes in sea battles with the fierce man-eaters, and his experiences yesterday were of the most exciting sort.

CUMMINS AND ROAD COMMITTEE IN TROUBLE

Charging Tommy Cummins and the members of the Supervisory Road Committee with being "usurpers," Judge Edings will today file a petition for a writ of quo warranto in favor of John H. Wilson, the Mayor's appointee to the office of Road Supervisor, and against Cummins, Quinn, Kane and Aylett, the last-mentioned trio being the members of the Committee on Roads, Bridges, etc., in the Board of Supervisors. Judge Edings has taken hold of the case personally, without the aid of the other Democratic leaders, and he stated last night that he would fight it to the last ditch.

It will be alleged in the petition for a writ of quo warranto that Wilson was duly appointed to the office of Road Supervisor of the District of Honolulu, and that the defendants have unlawfully and illegally usurped the said office and held it against the rights of the petitioner, Wilson. Edings' petition will contain the prayer that Cummins and the members of the Road Committee be forthwith ousted from the office of Road Supervisor and that Wilson be installed therein. A second petition similar in all particulars will be filed to have J. H. Pahle, road overseer at Koolau-poko, removed and the Democratic appointee of Fern installed in his place. This will be directed at Sol. Peck, as well as Quinn, Kane and Aylett. The petitions will be heard first in the Circuit Court, though the probabilities are that they will be finally decided by the Supreme Court of the Territory. They will be filed today by Judge Edings.

GREAT FESTIVITIES ENDED TEMPESTUOUS INAUGURATION DAY

Outdoor Functions Confined to Military---President and Vice President Take Oaths Indoors ---Yale Tea at White House and Great Ball Follows.

(Associated Press Cablegrams.)

WASHINGTON, March 5.—A blizzard, the worst in years, compelled the abandonment of all outdoor functions in connection with the Taft inauguration yesterday, except the review of troops. This review proceeded in a driving storm of snow and sleet, the soldiers being muffled in heavy overcoats and the roar of the wind drowning the music of their bands. No civic organization ventured out, and some of the militia regiments were not paraded. The vicinity of the Capitol, where the usual platform had been erected for the inauguration ceremonies, was a sea of umbrellas.

Owing to the turbulent weather the President- and Vice President-elect took their oaths of office in the small Senate Chamber before a distinguished company. Mr. Taft read his inaugural address from the presiding officer's desk, in which he declared that he would enforce the Roosevelt policy for the control of corporations and railroads and seek to strengthen the laws behind it. He urged the speedy revision of the tariff and the creation of a more elastic currency; urged precautions to promote peace, among them adequate preparation for war; and, on the subject of immigration, expressed the belief that, by mutual concessions, the treaty rights of both Japan and the United States would be respected. The President declared himself further as approving ocean mail subsidies.

GAYETY AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

After the oath of office had been administered to President Taft and the other ceremonies were over, the new Executive went to the White House, where he entertained the Yale Club at tea.

Ten thousand people were present at the inaugural ball in the evening.

THE EX-PRESIDENT.

Directly after the oath had been administered to the new President, Mr. Roosevelt took the train for Oyster Bay. Thousands cheered him when he arrived at the Pennsylvania depot and as he was departing. He reached Oyster Bay in the middle of the night and was received by a cheering crowd of fellow townsmen. His first article for The Outlook will appear in the next number. It will be on Journalism.

CONGRESS AND THE CABINET.

The Sixtieth Congress is no more. The new Senate will convene today to receive the President's first nominations. Those for the Cabinet will be as follows:

Secretary of State—Philander C. Knox, Pennsylvania.
Secretary of the Treasury—Franklin MacVeagh, Illinois.
Secretary of War—Jacob M. Dickinson, Tennessee.
Attorney-General—George W. Wickersham, New York.
Postmaster-General—Frank H. Hitchcock, Massachusetts.
Secretary of the Navy—George Von Meyer, Massachusetts.
Secretary of the Interior—Richard A. Ballinger, Washington.
Secretary of Agriculture—James S. Wilson, Iowa.
Secretary of Commerce and Labor—James Nagel, Missouri.
The House will convene in extra session on the 15th inst.

JAPAN IS PLEASED.

TOKIO, March 5.—Taft and Roosevelt are eulogized by the press. The part of the inaugural address referring to Asiatic immigration has been received with great pleasure.

ANOTHER EARTHQUAKE IN LATIN AMERICA

CITY OF MEXICO, March 5.—News has reached here of earthquakes on the Isthmus Saturday. Great damage was done to houses and earth fissures opened. The natives were terrorized, but there were no deaths.

THE ROOSEVELT LIBEL CASES

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Federal jury has indicted Caleb Van Hamm, editor of the New York World; also the Press Publishing Co., publishers of The World, for issuing the Panama libel.

QUIETING SERBIA DOWN

BERLIN, March 5.—Under pressure of the Powers, Serbia has withdrawn her territorial demands on Austria.

CHINESE STATESMAN STRICKEN

PEKING, March 5.—Na Tung has been stricken with apoplexy.

FROM AFTERNOON REPORT.

MADISON, Wisconsin, March 4.—Stephenson has been elected as United States Senator.

SACRAMENTO, March 4.—The Senate has adopted a resolution asking Congress to exclude all Asiatics.

SENATE FEELS ANTI-RUM PRODS

now ready for the Governor's signature.

Against Moore Bill.

Senator Coelho presented a petition from the Lahaina Improvement Association, in which it is declared that the citizens of Lahaina are opposed to any change in the existing liquor laws. The full text of the document is as follows: "At a meeting of the Lahaina Improvement Association, held at Lahaina courthouse on Wednesday, the 3rd day of March, A. D. 1909, for the purpose of making recommendations to our legislators, Senators and Representatives, in the matter of public improvements, and appropriations, and other matters affecting the welfare of the district of Lahaina, and matters of public policy affecting not only this district but the Territory at large, it was resolved:

First. That this association does hereby go on record as unalterably opposed to any change or amendment to be made, or sought to be made, in the present law governing the granting of liquor licenses.

Second. That this association is unalterably opposed to the change of court terms for the Second Judicial Circuit, as proposed in a certain bill now before the Legislature, which in effect takes from Lahaina the one court term which it is now entitled to.

Third. That this association favors the granting by the Legislature of an appropriation for the hospital for Lahaina district, as provided for in a bill now before it, and for any further provisions for the same which the Legislature may allow.

Fourth. That this association favors a liberal appropriation for the support of Lahaina Industrial Schools.

Fifth. That this association favors the appropriation of an amount sufficient to erect a new government building at Lahaina, and failing which, a liberal appropriation for the repair of the present building, which is in a sad state of neglect.

Sixth. That this association strongly recommends the provision of an armory building for Lahaina.

That this association further respectfully request the Honorable House of Representatives and the Honorable Senate to take the matters herein represented under consideration. All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated at Lahaina, March 3, 1909.
The Civic Federation's request that the liquor law be unchanged and the Republican members reminded of their solemn promise to refrain from tampering with the laws, which they must do by favorably considering the Moore amendment, was read by Clerk Savidge in full. The petition shows very plainly the evils that will follow in the wake of any change in the present law. The petition in full is as follows: "To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives, Territory of Hawaii:

"Greeting.—The Civic Federation of Honolulu respectfully petitions your honorable body that Senate Bill No. 29, entitled 'An Act to amend Act 119 of the Session Laws of 1907, entitled 'An Act to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors,' repealing Act 67 of the Session Laws of 1905,' be not passed for the following reasons:

"(1) The present liquor law has worked well in most sections, causing a marked decrease in drunkenness. It has been complemented highly by many prominent visitors to the Territory. It should have a fair show to prove itself by being left unamended for another term.

"(2) The proposed law takes from the Commissioners their discretion in issuing licenses, making it mandatory that the license issue if the consent of adjacent property holders has been obtained. This revises the similar feature of the law of 1905, to which great objection was made. The discretion of the Commissioners is the most valuable feature of the present law and should not be eliminated.

"(3) The bill proposes to reduce the amount of the license fees. This should not be done. An ample number of licensees have paid the present fees and there is no call to reduce our revenues.

"(4) The bill provides for an appeal from all decisions of the board by the saloonkeeper under bonds. This would enable a skillful lawyer to delay the hearing of the case by interposing technicalities so that the entire term of the license would elapse before the final determination, thus defeating the law. The matter should be decided at once in order to protect the rights of the citizens.

"(5) The bill allows the sale of liquor in restaurants without meals. This opens the door to any saloon to sell liquor after hours, Sunday's and election days, by simply hiring a cook and running a restaurant on the same premises. The Commissioners of Oahu have practically decided that the present law did not allow liquor to be sold by restaurants except at and with meals.

"(6) Pending an appeal the bill allows the applicant to go ahead operating his saloon until the appeal is decided. This would render the whole matter a farce. He would only be out his lawyer's fee in case the appeal went against him, as the case could be prolonged by continuances, etc., as above stated.

"(7) The Republican party platform declared for the course that the present liquor law should not be amended at this session. A majority of both Houses were elected under that platform.

"(8) The bill, if it becomes a law, will greatly increase saloons and drunkenness and consequently misery and distress of women and children.

"(9) The law as framed drops out the only local option feature of the present law and is a step backward. Forty out of forty-six States have now local option laws or prohibition. To eliminate this feature is a direct attack on the rights of the majority.

"(10) The proposed law makes all meetings of the Board public. This is hard on applicants whose character is in question. Privacy in consultation is often desirable.

"(11) Under the laws as proposed no saloon can be suspended, no matter how much it may disregard the law.

An appeal lies from suspension also, and under it justice can be defeated and the saloon go right on.

"Respectfully submitted,
(Signed)

"C. H. DICKEY, Chairman,
"DOREMUS SCUDDER,
"W. R. CASTLE,
"Committee on Legislation, Civic Federation."

The petition was referred to the Ways and Means committee which has the Moore amendments under consideration.

Table Poi Resolution.

The select committee appointed to consider House Concurrent Resolution No. 10, relating to the Bonine moving pictures showing an aged Hawaiian eating poi in a manner that was objected to by the legislators, rendered its report, which was adopted by the Senate on a unanimous vote. The report says:

"Your select committee to whom was referred House Concurrent Resolution No. 10 relating to the 'Bonine Poi-Eating Films,' beg leave to report that we have met Mr. Bonine and he informed us that he had already caused the objectionable film to be discarded and destroyed, which he did at the time he received the first intimation of any one being hurt by its exhibition and before the resolution was received in the Senate. Mr. Bonine expressed his sincere regret for being the cause of innocently creating such adverse feeling to what he had regarded as a means of illustrating in some graphic manner and with a humorous tend, a scene which might depict an oldtime custom which is almost a thing of the past.

Your committee feel that the action of the House was justified in promptly expressing their feeling as to what they deemed very objectionable; but, as the same is now beyond any future use, the committee therefore recommend the said Concurrent Resolution of the House be tabled."

Although the Senate has already gone on record as being opposed to the idea of bail commissioners, Coelho introduced another measure yesterday which the Maui statesman explained was materially different from the one that had already been considered by the Senate and indefinitely postponed on the recommendation of the Judiciary committee.

On the order of the day the Senate passed two bills on the third reading. The first, Senate Bill No. 45, provides for the service of process on corporations in judicial and administrative suits in the Territory.

The law provides that if no officer of a corporation can be found within the jurisdiction that service can be had by filing in the office of the treasurer a copy of the process in the name of an officer and that the same will become effective thirty days after filing. The bill passed third reading on motion of Knudsen.

House Bill No. 36 passed its third reading and is ready for the signature of the Governor. It makes the brothers and sisters of an illegitimate person included in the line of inheritance.

House Bill No. 5, was taken up for second reading and referred to the Judiciary Committee. The measure is intended to protect purchasers of real estate from fraudulent conveyances.

House Bill No. 15, providing for the maintenance and support of the family of a deceased person pending the administration of the estate, passed second reading.

House Bill No. 17, amending the City and County incorporating act, to give greater authority in the regulation of what the resolution terms "noisome trades," passed first reading.

Bills Are Referred.

House Bill No. 55, an act to repeal Section 1018 of the Revised Laws, relating to certificates of vaccination, was taken up on second reading and referred to the Committee on Public Health.

House Bill No. 58, intended to repeal Act 64 of the Session Laws of 1905 as amended by Act 79 of the Session Laws of 1907, relating to the issuance of certificates of Hawaiian birth.

House Bill 62, amending the Revised Laws relating to the granting of charters of incorporation was taken up for second reading and referred to the Judiciary Committee; and House Bill No. 63, amending the laws governing trial by jury, also went to the Judiciary Committee.

House Bill No. 69, relating to the bonds of public officers, was handed over to the Judiciary Committee for consideration.

Senate Bill No. 63, McCarthy's measure intended to make one surety sufficient for the holder or applicant for a liquor license, was taken up on second reading. It is in line with the general efforts of the liquor interests to have things their own way. It was referred to the same committee that has Moore's liquor law amendment bill—the Ways and Means.

Senate Bill No. 64, Baker's measure to impose a tax of ten cents per acre on all land in addition to the present taxes, was referred to the special committee on taxation.

Senate Bill No. 65, providing for a change in the Judiciary Circuits, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Senator Fairchild introduced an act to provide payment of the claim of Judge P. L. Weaver for the sum of $456.30, traveling expenses incurred in 1903 in connection with obtaining information relative to the procedure to be followed in the Court of Land Registration.

The other measure introduced by Senator Fairchild provides for an appropriation to pay a claim of the trustees of the estate of Bernice Pauahi Bishop.

Section 1. The sum of seven hundred and fourteen ($714.00) dollars is hereby appropriated to be paid out of any money in the treasury received from the general revenues of the Territory for the settlement of the claims of the trustees under the will and of the estate of Bernice Pauahi Bishop, for the taking of certain lands by the Territory belonging to said trustees as part of the Niuepa Homesteads, known and designated as lots 12, 14, 20, 21 and 27 of said homesteads.

"Section 2. The auditor shall not issue a warrant in payment of the above claim until a receipt in full therefor is filed and the same is approved by the Commissioner of Public Lands. Said Commissioner shall not approve such a receipt until delivery by said trustees of a properly executed quitclaim deed conveying to the Territory all the right, title and interest of said trustees in and to said lands."

HOUSE.

Kaleiopi's hurry-up bill, to pay the Supervisors' road workers from January 4 until date, for what actual work they have done and to authorize the city fathers to pay for what work may be done before March 15, was up on special order of the day.

Kamahu got the floor first yesterday, beating Kaleiopi by an eyelash. He desired to offer an amendment, which included the Mayor's employes actually employed.

Kaleiopi wanted to know who these might be and demanded a direct answer upon being informed that it was up to the Supervisors to learn who these were. This induced the father of the bill to give an opinion about men who hung around doing nothing while other men were at work "sweating for the public." He moved the tabling of the motion which cut Kamahu off in the middle of a sentence. The Speaker stated that he would like to see further debate but the motion prevented that.

Save the Supervisors.

Kamahu advanced the theory after his amendment had gone a-glimmering, that the men the Supervisors had hired ought to be paid out of the bonds of the Supervisors. He stated that ten of the present members of the House had been members of the House which passed the Municipal Act, knew what that act was and ought to know better now than to pass the bill under consideration. To pass such now would be to encourage a disregard of law. He moved the indefinite postponement of the bill.

Nakaleka moved that the bill pass on third reading, just as like arose for his maiden speech. Like favored Kamaku's motion and reviewed the trouble between the Mayor and Supervisors and the decision of the Supreme Court declaring the Supervisors' appointments illegal and void. He also wanted to make the members of the Board and their surties responsible for the mistakes. He had no objection to paying the men who had worked, but they had a remedy and that was properly to proceed against the bondsmen of the Supervisors. He wanted to have the bondsmen tried out first.

Kamahu also favored the indefinite postponement. The Supervisors got the people into trouble and now want to unload the pillk on the Legislature. The whole trouble was that there was a political fight on. The portion of the statute dealing with the responsibility of an official and his bondsmen should not be just a joke and this bill was making it such. He favored the indefinite postponement of the bill and an effort to induce the Honolulu politicians to stop their quarreling, get down to business and compromise their differences. He was sorry for some of the people but thought the lesson was a good one, if the people had only voted the straight ticket they would not have had the mix-up. They didn't, though, and the trouble they are having is their own fault.

Kaleiopi harked back to the Legislature of 1907, when the House was petitioned in regard to the trouble on Hawaii, where a Home Rule sheriff and a Republican Board of Supervisors had a falling out. All the counties then voted to pay the Hawaii police, now it was up to the members to let Oahu pay her laborers. No Territorial money was asked. He had not brought in the bill as a political measure but in order to help the laborers who were up against it. He did not deny the right of the Mayor to appoint and kokuu the Supreme Court on that, but blamed him for not first getting the approval of the Supervisors. The question is, shall the men be paid or allowed to go hungry?

Sheldor had something to remark about pillk. He agreed with Kamahu that there was politics at the bottom of the trouble but this did not alter the fact that work had been done, Oahu had benefited and the workmen had not been paid.

Kawehi told about the lobby work he did in the last session when he was on the payroll as sergeant-at-arms, this being in regard to the Hawaii police bill. Personally he benefited from that bill to the amount of $50.10 and knew the bill was a good one. He favored the bill.

Nothing Stopped Kaniho.

Rice moved the previous question, which carried and roll call proceeded, Kaniho speaking to the last and asking leave to verbally amend this bill. Rice rose to a point of order and was overruled. Kaniho wanted to state his amendment before the rules were suspended and there were parliamentary precepts lying a foot deep all over the House.

The Speaker tried to stem the tide of Kaniho's explanations about something, finally succeeding. The motion to suspend the rules was about to be put when Kaleiopi had to be put straight on the matter of rules and ruling. The motion to suspend was lost and for the third time roll call was reached. The vote stood twenty-five to five, those voting no being Furtado, Kamahu, Kaniho, Kealawa and Like.

Third Readings.

House Bill 51, Long, establishing a juvenile court in each Circuit Court circuit, is to obviate the necessity of bringing children arrested on minor charges into the police courts for trial and also removes children convicted of such offenses from having to go on record as criminals. This is one of the most important measures yet presented in the House.

On third reading yesterday the bill passed on a unanimous vote.

House Bill 53, Sheldon, requiring the publication of all laws as soon as possible after enactment, in English and Hawaiian newspapers, and the publishing of the same in both languages in book form, was read a third time and carried unanimously.

House Bill 70, Kinney, which makes certificates of Hawaiian birth prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein for purposes of registration and before Territorial courts, passed third reading. No one was opposed.

Wage Bill Hoisted Again.

House Bill 35, Nakaleka, which has been the cause of considerable rag-chewing on the floor of the House and elsewhere, passed third reading. This bill puts the minimum pay of laborers on all public works at $1.50 a day. When up once before for third reading, Castro had the bill put over to investigate into the power the Territory had to establish a wage scale for the counties.

Kamahu, who had submitted a minority report on the bill on second reading, offered an amendment, putting the daily wage up to $2.

This resulted in a further deferring of the bill for a week. For the third time the bill has thus come up, Kamahu putting in his $2 amendment each time, and for the third time it has been given the hoist. None of the members want to go on record as voting against a big raise in pay for laborers, at the same time realizing the absurdity of putting a $2 minimum on unskilled labor.

Rice looked much annoyed in Kamahu's direction when he made his motion to defer.

Senate Bill 7, McCarthy, respecting bonds given by executors and administrators, went successfully through the final stage and is ready for the Governor's consideration. On this, again, the House was unanimous.

Senate Bill 39, Chillingworth, relating to the purposes for which private property may be taken for public purposes, met with no opposition and passed third reading. The dove of peace plumed herself on the Speaker's desk during these quiet moments when all members voted unanimously on all these many measures.

Senate Bill 41, Knudsen, relating to the Court of Land Registration, passed third reading. This bill abolishes the court as now constituted and turns the work over to the circuit court judges.

Senate Bill 44, Quinn, specifying the term of office of fence commissioners, went through without division, third reading finding the House of one accord.

Senate Bill 34, Knudsen, making certified copies of documents in the public archives admissible in evidence before the Territorial courts, also went through on third reading. Everybody agreed with everybody else and there were no nos.

Second Readings.

Bills which came up on second reading yesterday morning and were referred to committees, were:

House Bill 91, Kaleiopi, authorizes the deposit of Territorial moneys in banks in this Territory. The Finance Committee will consider this.

House Bill 94, Castro, is to amend Section 3018, Revised Laws, and states: "Any person or corporation or officer thereof, or any company of persons, who shall issue any note, bill, order, check, or certificate of deposit in any sum of money with the intent that the same shall be circulated as currency, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for every offense shall be punished by a fine of fifty dollars, or be imprisoned not to exceed one month; provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the issuing of clearing house certificates by a duly organized clearing-house."

The matter was referred to Finance Committee.

House Bill 95, Castro, fixes the stamp duties on charters of religious, charitable, literary or educational corporations at $10; on corporations otherwise as follows: When capitalization is less than $10,000, the stamp duty is $5; when between $10,000 and $25,000, the duty is $15; and when over $25,000 the duty is $25. The bill went to the Finance Committee.

House Bill 102, Shingle, amends Section 1723, Revised Laws, and states: "If the defendant was never an inhabitant of the Territory (but has property situated within the same) or has removed therefrom, or if, after due diligence, he cannot be found within the Territory of Hawaii, and the fact shall appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court or a judge thereof at Chambers, and it shall in like manner appear that a cause of action exists against such defendant, or that he is a necessary or proper party to the action, such court or judge may grant an order that the service be made by publication of the summons."

The bill will be considered in Judiciary Committee.

Senate Bill 51, from the Senate Committee on Education, is the substitute bill sent in by that committee to replace one of Coelho's measures. It parallels a House Bill, now in the Senate, providing for representation from each county on the Board of Education. It was referred to Education Committee.

Senate Bill 52, Judiciary Committee of the Senate, is a bill paralleling Castro's Divorce Bill, now on second reading in the House. The Senate bill went to the Judiciary Committee.

In Honor of New President.

Affonso presented the following resolution, which passed unanimously: "Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Territory of Hawaii, That when it does adjourn for the day it do so in honor of the inauguration of His Excellency, William H. Taft, as President of the United States of America."

Modest Amount.

Kinney presented the first money order of the day, asking for $500 for a new jailer's cottage at Haula, Koolauloa. This was on the table to await the appropriation bill.

Annual Awa Act.

Kaleiopi presented a bill relating to the growers of awa, which forbids the grower selling awa to anyone who has himself a license to sell awa. The bill provides for a fine of from $25 to $100 for a violation of the regulation or imprisonment for not over two months.

The measure, if passed, would enable the holders of licenses to fix the prices for selling to awa fiends and the prices at which they could buy from the grower.

Air Brake Bill.

Correa introduced a bill to compel street car companies in the Territory, meaning the Honolulu Rapid Transit company, to equip all street cars with air brakes. The bill states:

"Every electric car running upon the public streets or highways of the Territory of Hawaii shall be provided with, in addition to the brake now in use upon such car, an emergency air brake or brake operated by compressed air or other means sufficient to stop such car when running at the highest rate of speed permitted by law within a space

House Journal Printing.

The journal committee reported having awarded journal printing contracts as follows: Bulletin Printing Company, 250 copies English at $1.42 per page; Star Newspaper Association, 500 copies in Hawaiian at $2.07 1/2 per page, and for binding forty volumes in full sheep and lettering the same in gold at $1.50 per volume.

The bidders were the Bulletin, Star and Paradise of the Pacific, a letter from the Gazette Company thanking the committee for the opportunity to bid but stating that on account of so many previous orders being in no bid would be made.

Judiciary Committee Severe.

The Judiciary Committee reported on five bills, recommending one for passage, three for the table and advising the introducer of the fifth to petition the Governor and not bother the House with the wants of Kawaihae regarding a polling booth.

The one bill which passed the scrutinizing eye of the legal lights in safety is an old friend in the Legislature, being one presented by Moanalui to prevent anyone from drawing pay for two separate jobs in either the Territory, county or municipality. This bill was recommended for passage.

Kinney's grotesque request that a bill be drafted "to prohibit the habit of selling fish and meat openly in the fishmarket," was returned with a recommendation that it be put to slumber on the table, where so much of the products of the intelligence of the House already awaits it. To the table it went.

The report on Makekan's House Bill 39 was short and to the point. "Your committee recommend that the bill be tabled," it said.

A Vigorous Report.

The report on another bill of Makekan's, one to have a radical change in the assessment law, was, in part:

"The object of this bill is to constitute district magistrates and deputies sheriff of each taxation district together with some other disinterested person a board of equalization to pass upon and determine tax assessments as levied by the tax assessors of the various taxation districts. In the opinion of your committee if the present bill became law it would unquestionably give the district magistrates and deputies sheriff vast power, for they could fix the amount of assessments irrespective of the valuations fixed by the tax assessors and in many instances it might be that those officers would not be competent to pass upon matters which involve our public revenue. Your committee is further of the opinion that such power should not be conferred upon district magistrates and deputies sheriff; and therefore recommend that the bill be tabled."

There was considerable opposition to the receipt of this report and a standing vote had to be called for. The report was only adopted by a majority of two in the full House. The Committee on Finance raised the license fee on foreign corporations from $25, as specified in Castro's Bill No. 13, to $100, the report being accepted. Unfavorable to Conspicuous Flavor.

A report presented but not received, because of an error in phraseology, was read from the Military Committee. This report was on the bill to authorize the preparation of a list of the men in the Territory capable of bearing arms, but the committee thought that the time taken in doing this by the tax assessors might more profitably be used in collecting the territorial taxes. The report stated that the committee saw little sense in such a bill, at any rate, or words to that effect.

Another report from the Military Committee was turned down. Affonso, the chairman of the committee, reported on a resolution from Representative Affonso that an item for the Hilo armory be included in the appropriation bill, instead of the usual recommendation that the item be taken up in the appropriation bill. The little change did not escape the notice of the members.

In order to allow the standing committees to catch up in their work, the House took a recess at half past twelve until this morning at nine.

NO MATCH IS MADE AS YET

Reilly-McFadden Go Still in the Air—Peterson Looks Very Fit.

Nothing more has been done with regard to the Reilly-McFadden bout. Both lads seem anxious for the go and the result would certainly be a hummer, for there is very bitter personal feeling between them and they would go after each other from the first tap of the gong.

At present it is up to Joe Cohen to make the next move. But the recent bouts have not been a very brilliant success and Joe has hardly had sufficient encouragement to make a very liberal offer. It seems to be the universal opinion round town that this event would be a great drawing card and it is very probable that the winner of the go would make more by accepting a percentage than by taking a purse.

In the meanwhile the fans are talking about the Peterson-Sullivan go. There is nothing in the rumor that this had been called off on account of a difference between Cohen and Peterson as to the size of the purse. Peterson was at work at the Orpheum yesterday and looked remarkably fit. The border lights over the stage were turned on and the effect of the downward direction of the light was to enhance the lines of his muscles. He certainly looked a living model of bodily perfection as he went through his shadow boxing stunts.

George Nelson was the victim for Peterson yesterday. These two went seven rounds before a large audience and the spectators had all they went to see and then some. Nelson is striving his utmost to learn to box and is getting better use out of his left all the time. He leads more neatly than he has ever done before and, if the Punchbowl Demon insists on leaving his face open as he did last time, he may find that George's fist makes swift connection with his feed intake.

In the sixth round Nelson made a brave rush for Peterson with a mean right swing that should have landed. But it met only the air and Peterson countered so neatly that the big marine was staggered against the ropes to the huge joy of the fans who had filled up the dais seats on the stage.

There is not much love lost between the two camps. When any member of either establishment passes another from the opposition on the street, they do not exactly stop and chin on the sidewalk. Usually there is a very ceremonious bow on both sides and they pass on as who would say "Where have I seen that fellow before?"

Who will referee the bout it is hard to say. Paddy Ryan has stated that he will not act in that capacity again and it is doubtful whether Peterson would agree to Mike Patton, even if the latter would consent to act. As a matter of fact Mike did a good piece of refereeing last time and was quite correct in all his actions. Howls to the contrary notwithstanding.

Developments in the Reilly-McFadden possibility will probably show themselves today and, while there is not a very great chance at present, it may well be that this attractive bout will be fixed up.

WRESTLERS ARE FIT AND READY

The wrestling match between Sailor Roberts and Wm. Jornell at the Orpheum tomorrow night is attracting considerable attention. There are many of the fans who enjoy a good wrestling match and these two husky performers may be relied on to put up a fine exhibition. They seem to be evenly matched and should draw a good crowd to watch them disport themselves on the mat.

Jornell has quite a record that he has made for himself since he has been in the United States. The following are some of the likely men he has met and defeated. Wm. Richo in Seattle, Strangler Smith in Portland, Joe Warner in Astoria, Pete Hooger in Aberdeen, Professor Santell in Astoria, who failed to throw him three times in an hour; Phil Schumacher in Seattle, Sam Riley in Vancouver, Tim Douglas in Tacoma and George Smith in Bellingham. He has only one loss to his debit and that was with Peter Hooger the second time in Aberdeen.

The big Russian is working very seriously. He has three big, husky Swede working partners who put him through the mill every day. These are water-front workers and are tremendously powerful men as well as being in naturally good condition. Jornell is very confident and has a fine looking wad which he is willing to put up on himself. He will take anything up to $500 that he can best the sailor.

Roberts works at the Camp Very gymnasium every afternoon and is in excellent condition. The Marines all look on him as a winner and have made up a pot of no mean dimensions to slip out on their favorite. There will be a big excitement tomorrow night when the two athletes get together on the mat.

The Cupid League has postponed its game to the 14th on account of the Marathon race.

CHARLIE MASAK

The Honolulu baseball favorite, who will leave on the transport Thomas.

COME BACK CHARLIE.

With curly hair and a sunny smile. That makes your heart feel light: With a lust for baseball all the while And a swat that's out of sight. Our Charlie Masak leaves, alas, But with him, when he goes, He'll take aloha from the Isles Where the blustering trade-wind blows.

Here's to you lad, where'er you go You'll surely leave behind A true regret that you have gone In every sportsman's mind. Out for the sport and sport alone Has always been your sign, And any man who plays like you Is good enough for mine.

JACK DENSHAM.

THREE PLAYERS ARE LEAVING

Talk about bad luck. Samuel di Hoppo stated yesterday afternoon that he has never come across anything worse than that which he is facing today. Think of it, three of the best ball players that Hoppo has in his aggregation are going away and this will mean that old di Hoppo will have to get busy and train up a few new players. The players who are going to leave are Manuel Correa, the crack first baseman; Kealoha, one of the best batters that the Riverside League has ever produced; and Chas. Masak, another big swatter.

Correa and Kealoha will leave on the Claudiene this evening for Paunone, Maui, where both of them have been offered good positions and during spare hours are going to play for the baseball teams there. When these boys leave this evening, Hoppo will give them a big sendoff by taking them to the dock in an automobile and have them decorated with leis by a few young ladies who have been invited to assist.

Then on either Monday or Tuesday next week, Masak will leave for the Mare Island Navy Yard, and it will be probably six months before this lad will again be seen in Honolulu. Masak is well liked by all the Ala fans and his departure will be regretted by many of them.

SCHOOL MEET ON MARCH 20

The Inter-scholastic triangular meet has been set for March 20. It will be on Alexander field and will be taken part in by students of Oahu College, High Schools and Kamehameha Schools. This was decided at a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. last night and attended by a full representation.

First, second and third places will count five, three and one points respectively. Each team may enter as many contestants as they please but there must be three to make a start.

There will be no high hurdles, only the 220 low hurdles. Neither will there be any fifty-yard dash. The relay will be half a mile for four-man teams, only first place to count.

Drawings will be made for the trial heats. Low man in each case takes choice of position and runs in the first heat. The higher numbers will take order of precedence according to the lowness of their numbers. First and second men in each heat will take part in the finals.

The order of track events will be: 100-yard heats, mile run, 100-yard finals, 220 hurdles heats, Intermission of fifteen minutes, 220 hurdles finals, 440 run, 220-yard dash heats, Intermission of fifteen minutes, 220-yard finals, half mile run, half mile relay.

Field events to be pulled off simultaneously with track events. High jump; shot put, twelve pounds; broad jump; hammer throw, twelve pounds, and pole vault.

An athletic club has been formed at Aliolani college with the intention of putting a basketball team in the field. It is expected that a junior school league will be started soon and the Kaimuki kids want to have a good team to enter. Officers of the club are: W. Carter, president; Foster Robinson, vice president; H. Broderick, manager; Frank Stillman, captain; and En Pat, vice captain.

TICKETS ON SALE TOMORROW

Limited Number Only Can Be Carried on Committee Special.

Since the announcement that there will be a special train to Haleiwa on the day of Marathon race, yesterday morning, A. K. Vierra has been inundated with orders for tickets. These will not be printed and ready for sale until tomorrow morning when they will be obtainable at the King street store of Wall, Nichols company from Mr. Vierra. Only a limited number of these can be sold and those who figure on taking advantage of this exceptional opportunity, should make sure of buying early so that they may be sure of a place on the train.

Judging by the interest that is being taken in the race there will be a very big bunch want to go on the train and see the finish. The train will take not more than two hours to make the run as there will be no stops and will be at Haleiwa well in advance of the winning contestant.

The special will leave the depot as soon after the race starts as possible. The exact time has not yet been set but it will be not later than nine o'clock. It is possible that tickets will be on sale at the depot prior to the start of the race, but it is expected that all of them will be gone before that time and, in order to make sure of getting on the train, it is advisable to secure the necessary piece of paste-board several days in advance.

Start Arranged.

All arrangements for a good start have been made. The bandstand will be reserved for members of the Legislature and the Supervisors, whence a fine view of the starters and the crowd will be obtainable. From Ala park the runners will start out along King street where a squad of mounted police will keep the crowd back so that the starters are not interfered with.

The bicycle race will start first at half past seven and five minutes later the runners will follow them. Automobiles and rigs will be kept back as far as possible until the runners are well away and then as the runners take their positions, each conveyance carrying friends of any particular contestant will have a chance to fall in behind him and follow him over the course.

No offers of prizes have come in lately so the committee has decided to make a canvass of the merchants. This will be done by mail and each possible donor will be sent a form with stamped addressed envelope by which he may easily reply and state what prize he is able to give.

H. M. Ayres, the sporting editor of the Star, has instituted a novel method of boosting the race. The paper has offered prizes for those who come nearest to guessing the names of the first six finishers and the time in which it will be made.

A direct appeal will be made to owners of automobiles to assist in making the race a success by keeping room for one person in case any of them give in. This appeal has been made several times in the paper without any response and so they will be asked more directly. There are many people who own machines who will follow the race and the matter needs only to be drawn directly to their attention to bring a ready assent, judging by past events.

Sport Notes

The Mid-Pacifics defeated the East Maui team in a fast game of ball at Lahaina last Saturday. The score was 12 to 6 and was won mostly on earned runs. Tomorrow the East Maui team have to go up against the crack David Malos. If the latter play anything like they did against the Lahainalunas it will be goodnight for the Maui kids.

Dick Reuter will leave for the Coast on the sixteenth. As already stated he has been engaged by the Pueblo team in the Colorado league to pitch for them. If Dick keeps his old form in the frosty heights of the Rockies, he will sure make a hit with the lynch law kids.

WALLABIES ARE EXPECTED.

The Wallabies are expected to be in Honolulu today. They were scheduled to leave Vancouver on the Moana and, as that vessel is due in here some time this morning, we may expect to see twenty or more husky Australian athletes walking round and seeing the sights of Honolulu.

As the Moana will not stay here overnight it is impossible to arrange an exhibition game. If the team had come from San Francisco direct there would have been no difficulty about this but it is quite impossible to get up a game on such short notice.

The team has been very fairly successful during its recent tour in England but has not won many games as the All-Blacks and Stein Bloeds did. It will be pleasant to see them and hear something of their experiences during their trip.

HONOLULU ARE CHAMPIONS.

The Honolulu bowling team has won the championship of the recent series and is now the holder of the Hotel Cup. They have not lost a single game and came out with a percentage of one thousand. The highest personal average during the series was that of Sergeant Simons and the highest team score was made by the Punahou, 2357.

The series has been a pronounced success in every way. It has promoted the good sport of bowling and has induced many desultory players to get in and work for a place on a team. It is to be hoped that there will be another tournament of the same kind in the near future.

THE WHISKY RING AND ITS BLUNDERS.

The Whisky Ring has stirred up several hornet's nests, just as this paper predicted. First it has succeeded in putting the Republican Senators and Representatives on whom it depends, face to face with their platform pledges to let the present liquor law alone. The latter have got to show the voting public, and especially the men whom they depend on in campaigns for money, whether they consider the interests of the Whisky Ring superior to those of the party they represent; and whether their platform pledges are held to have no binding value when they conflict with the wishes of the Ring. Here is a predicament which the so-called liquor forces in the Legislature would have very much liked to avoid, but which they have been forced into by suicidal Ring tactics.

The second hornet's nest has been raised among the independent retail liquor dealers, meaning those who are not under the thumb of the wholesalers. They see in the Moore bill nothing more than a scheme of the wholesale men to surround them with competitors, legitimate and blind pig, so that the big fellows can sell more liquor. This spells a bare living for them instead of a fair profit. These retailers are mad clear through and may be counted to use their political influence hereafter against the Senators and Representatives who may vote against the present liquor law in favor of the Moore conspiracy.

The third hornet's nest which the Ring found to stir, was among the temperance men. The latter had settled down, determined to be satisfied with the present liquor law. They let Mr. Woolley go—he the best anti-saloon organizer in the United States; they had even dropped their proposed Local Option bill. They didn't even rouse up when the Whisky Ring made its famous raid on election day. Now, because of the fatuous policy of the wholesalers, they are setting out for a campaign which may easily end in driving liquor from the territories altogether. They have cabled Woolley to come; they have got into relations with a Reform Bureau which has a great and growing influence on Congress; they are consulting that bureau as to the best methods of bringing the vast power of American reform bodies against the sale of liquor to aboriginal races, and they are preparing to give the Whisky Ring of Hawaii the fight of its life. Here is an open hornet's nest indeed; and but for the insane greed of the Whisky Ring here it might have laid dormant for years.

The Advertiser is glad that the hornets have got busy; but what must be the opinion of the friends of the liquor interest about the sagacity of the Ring that stirred all these yellow jackets up when there was no need of it?

A BILL TO CURB A DEMOCRATIC MAYOR.

A bill to amend the Municipal act will be introduced into the House today by either Kaleiopi or Douthitt, the object of which will be to strip the Mayor of much of the power conferred on him in the present Municipal act and confirmed by the recent Supreme Court decision regarding his right to appoint.

The bill would have been introduced yesterday afternoon if there had been any session after the noon recess. It was not introduced in the morning, although it is all drafted and ready, because it was thought best to have the enabling act into the Senate before the next card in the municipal game was exposed.

The proposed bill was agreed upon at a joint meeting of the majority of the Republican Representatives for Oahu, the Republican members of the City Board of Supervisors, and, of course, the City Attorney and his man Friday. At this meeting the whole course of the campaign to have the Municipal act amended to fit the circumstances attendant upon the election of a Democratic Mayor was laid out, and it was in pursuance of this planned course that the bill to pay the present road supervisor and his men was changed to authorize payment up until the fifteenth of the present month; was steered through the House by Kaleiopi, and will be railroaded through the Senate in the same way unless the Democratic Senators are cleverer in plans to retard it than the Democratic Representatives were.

The bill will specify that the Mayor is to have the right still to nominate the heads of departments, and what particular thing is meant by "department" will be specified. In this instance it will be defined as meaning the offices filled with Fern's appointees on Wednesday, with the sanction of the Board and the office of road supervisor. The term will not be defined to fit any of the minor offices which Fern undertook to fill in December last.

The main amendment to the act will specify that the Board of Supervisors through its committees, will hire all the municipal employees except those to be nominated by the Mayor; it will give the Board the power to hire and fire, fix salaries and pay them and generally bring the act into conformity with the rules drawn up by the City Attorney and adopted by the Board for their own government.

The hope is to have this bill slammed through the Legislature on special orders of the day, on motions to prevent debate, and with the silent agreement of the Republican majority in both Houses.

The members of the Board of Supervisors are, say they, "not inclined to show Fern any mercy now, for the reason that after he had had the decision of the Supreme Court in his favor and could afford to be magnanimous, he insisted once again on nominating the whole bunch of city employees from road supervisor to stable boy for Kakaako, or, rather, insisted that these positions had always been filled by the men named by him." According to the statements of some of the members of the Board, they were feeling chastened enough after being turned down in the Supreme Court and learning on authority that the legal reed on which they had relied was fallible, to meet the Mayor more than half way and agree on some manner of doing business. The Mayor, however, according to their statements, "rebuffed them again and assumed a lordly and bossier attitude than ever."

"He thought he could rub it into us," remarked one of the Supervisors, "but now let him watch out. We will have to clip his wings, and the clipping will be a good thing anyway. This city is just as apt to elect a bad Republican as a stupid Democrat, and it should never be that the affairs of this city should be put in one man's hands, be he good or bad."

And yet every man of sense knows that if a Republican had been elected Mayor, however inefficient he might be, nothing in the clipping line would be done. The supervisory idea is to make it impossible for the people to rule if they want a Democrat—all of which is an amazing travesty on the popular government they profess to love so much.

Mr. Roosevelt will now take up his pen as contributing editor of the Outlook. In fact, he has probably done so already, an article of his on Journalism being announced for the next number. As the man who caused the indictment of two great editors for libel and who has enlisted several more in the Ananias Club, the ex-President's views on Journalism will be awaited in the guild of yellow editors with some of the trepidation which the man in the howdah feels when he is expecting the first run and jump of the tiger.

News of the appointment of A. L. C. Atkinson came by cable five days after the correspondents had predicted that the Breckons case would go over into the next Administration. It would seem that the President had found reason not to wait.

The Representative who introduced the bill to abolish the solar plexus in prize fights, should not be forgotten. He may be needed some day to show to visiting Congressmen as one of the finest products of popular rule in these Islands.

"Lucky" Baldwin's wife gets $200,000. And yet they talked about $25,000,000 being "Lucky's" fortune. The figures must have come from a Los Angeles census boomer.

The Methodist Conference would do well to adopt strong resolutions against the whisky bill which threatens to spread vice and depravity over the whole Territory.

If those African lions and hippopotami only knew what the 4th of March meant to them, they would get themselves sold to some circus.

To spend all that can be raised or borrowed is a poor start toward preventing Federal interference in the Territorial government.

SAYS THE KEEPER OF EMMA SQUARE IS O. K.

Editor Advertiser: The writer of yesterday's letter surely does not begrudge an old native his $40.00 a month for looking after Emma Square! I have noticed that man morning after morning hard at work, often at day-break, and I am sure, that he has never failed to be at his post of duty later than 6 a. m. If he takes things a little easier in the afternoons and gambols with his dogs, he works the harder for it in the cool of the mornings. This really should be to his credit, as the city will be spared the expense of an employe, stricken down with heat prostration.

I admit that the grass is sprouting some on the edges of the walks. This is caused by the recent constant rains and you will find that this will disappear, as if by magic, as soon as the weather becomes more settled.

Now, if there is a kick coming, kindly permit me to do a little kicking! The author of the letter seemingly finds the place an eyesore in the daytime. I deem it worse than an eyesore after dark. "Billing and cooing" is all very nice in its place, but a little light should be shed on the subject in a public square, I personally, have aided by installing two 16-candlepower lights near my residence and the church has placed one lamp on their side of the square. Let us have an ardent in a suitable spot and you will find that this, combined with "Louis" renewed efforts, will make the pretty little square a breathing place for the weary in the evenings as well as in the daytime. Now, at night, it is shunned by all decent people.

informing me of my appointment by the Portland Rose Festival Association from Portland, Oregon, my home, as its 'Envoy Extraordinary' to Hawaii in the interests of that body, with the special mission of interesting your people in the festival to be held in Portland in mid-June. The society authorizes me to invite most cordially the Hawaiians to participate in this grand festival in honor of the Imperial Rose—whose royal seat is Portland—and it seems to me that this invitation may be most appropriately extended to your committee for consideration and, I hope, acceptance."

Secretary Wood of the Promotion Committee recommended that this matter be referred to Commissioner Knudsen of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition Commission, who would be in the Northwest at the time. It is probable that Hawaii will be conspicuously represented at the Rose Festival, as it will be a great advertising medium on account of the number of tourists who will be passing through the Western cities at that time.

Unique Report of Chairman.

One hundred and thirteen places of interest were pointed out to a party of friends by Chairman Bowen last Sunday on their way to and from church. This was the gist of an interesting report which he made to the committee. On a mere stroll, he found this number of places of note to point out to his friends.

Sightseeing Cars.

The Promotion Committee will take up the matter of a Honolulu Sightseeing Car with the Rapid Transit Company in the near future, many requests for such having come to the committee from tourists. It was suggested that one of the large four-in-hand rigs be secured from a local livery stable to take parties to places of interest on the outskirts of the city. This matter will be handled by Secretary Wood in the near future.

BRECKONS AND ATKINSON CASE

additional Federal judge. The bill creating that office passed the Senate yesterday and now goes into conference. As has already been stated it is a provision on an omnibus territories bill but presumably will be agreed to and signed by the President before this letter reaches Honolulu. There are several amendments in the bill, as adopted by the Senate. Certain of these amendments affect the Hawaiian provisions but undoubtedly the provision for an extra Federal judge will go through in some form.

Little or nothing is known here as to who will be favored for the appointment, beyond statements in the Hawaiian papers at hand. The Delegate said this afternoon that he did not contemplate making a request for the nomination of any particular man. It is quite possible that the selection of this judge for Hawaii will be the first judicial appointment President Taft will be called upon to make.

The Postmastership.

As matters look the appointment of a postmaster at Honolulu will go over to the new administration. The Post-office Department, as is frequently the case with such appointments, is showing no haste about selecting Mr. Pratt's successor. There is no reason why it should as postmasters under their commissions can hold on till a successor qualifies. There is no doubt, from information here, that Mr. Pratt is to have another term. The department expresses satisfaction with his administration of the office. Delegate Kalaniano'le stated today that there were no other applicants and that Mr. Pratt's endorsements on file at the department were very complete.

Pearl Harbor Dock.

There has been a great to-do about the construction of the drydock at Pearl Harbor and at present there is much uncertainty whether the construction can be undertaken for a year or two. However, some way out of the difficulty can probably be found.

The lowest responsible bid—that of the Pacific Construction Company—was considerably above the $2,000,000 estimate originally sent to Congress and embodied by legislation into an authorization. Immediately after the opening of the bids described in a previous letter, Admiral Hillyard, Chief of Yards and Docks, had a supplemental estimate forwarded to the Senate in the hope that it would be incorporated into the navy bill, then pending before that body. Senator Perkins and other Californians were appealed to to have the supplemental authorization incorporated in the Naval Appropriation Bill but Senator Hale, in charge of the bill, was unwilling to do so. There was a big time about it. Delegate Kalaniano'le and Mr. McClellan camped on the trails of Senators and members from the Pacific Coast to no purpose and finally went to the President. He was very wroth, said hard things about Senator Perkins, whom he characterized as not "a quarter of a man" and all that sort of thing but the upshot was that the naval bill passed the Senate without any additional authorization for the Pearl Harbor dock and there seems no way of getting it at this session of Congress, perhaps not till another year when another Naval Appropriation Bill is passed.

The Delegate and Mr. McClellan have had two or three talks with Admiral Hillyard about the matter. He is thinking of undertaking a construction of only a half of the dock, so that the work can go on in the meantime. This will probably be done, if no way is found between now and the close of Congress for getting the additional authorization, but whether an arrangement will be made with the Pacific Construction Company on the basis of their bid already submitted or whether there will be another advertisement so that new terms can be put into the contract has not yet been finally determined. It is in Admiral Hillyard's mind to have a provision in the contract by which the builder will go on with the construction of a 600-foot dock and agree to build the entire dock on condition that Congress soon authorizes the necessary appropriation.

Various Appropriation Bills.

The Rivers and Harbors Bill, just reported to the House, carries provision for the survey of Elele harbor, on the Island of Kauai, and of Kahului on the Island of Maui. There appears to be considerable doubt whether the Rivers and Harbors Bill will be allowed to pass at this session, in which event, of course, the provisions for Hawaii would be lost.

The Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill, just reported to the House, carries an appropriation of $200,000 for a cavalry post at Honolulu, which emphasizes anew the plans of the government to have a big army stationed in the mid-Pacific. The while Congress and the administration are planning to build a great naval base in the Pacific at Pearl Harbor it is undoubtedly the purpose to have there also an army sufficient to man the great land fortifications and also to repel any invading force. Good authorities here think it not improbable that in the course of the next eight or ten years an army of 10,000 men will be stationed in Hawaii. That would include the coast artillery necessary to operate the big guns commanding the entrance to Pearl Harbor and those commanding the entrance to Honolulu.

The same bill carries another item—$500,000 for filling in the artillery post lands at Waikiki, and $150,000 toward the public building at Honolulu, already authorized; also $150,000, the amount remaining under the authorization for the Hilo breakwater; and $600,000 for coast artillery quarters in Hawaii and the Philippines. Just what proportion of this $600,000 will be spent in Hawaii is not known, but probably it will be toward a half.

The plans for the Honolulu public building continue at a standstill, due, it is claimed, to the hostility of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Winthrop, who did not like it a little bit because his arrangements for changing the site for the public building did not go through. There is some anxiety among the friends of the Islands here regarding Mr. Winthrop's continued tenure in the Treasury Department, because of his attitude toward the Islands.

AMUSEMENTS

The clever aggregation of talented youngsters known to the theatrical world as the Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company will arrive today on the Moana, unless she should be delayed.

This organization, which created such a furore among local theatergoers last year, is now on its way home after completing its fourth American tour with even greater success than before.

Honolulu people are already talking about them and their clever acting, and, judging from the demand for reservations, they are prepared to fill the Opera House every night, as they filled the Orpheum last year.

The opening bill, "The Belle of New York," is one of the most popular of their operas, and is scheduled to run the first three nights, "Florodora," which will follow, will be given Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, and for the Saturday matinee.

New songs, specialties and dances will be given in every opera, and will lend a freshness and novelty to the old plays seen before. Tickets are 25c, 50c and 75c at Bergstrom's. Matinee prices are: Children, 25c; adults, 50c.

The Gem Theater.

When you come down shopping in the afternoons and grow weary looking at the goods you do not want to buy, ease your mind for an hour in the Gem Theater. The motion pictures will take away all worry and you will then be able to start fresh and buy with better judgment.

There will be a change of program this afternoon and you will enjoy the show. The house is pretty well crowded at all times, but the management sees to the ladies having good seats. The admission is ten and fifteen cents for adults and five cents for children.

M. H. S. Senior Play.

"A Modern Annanias" is now ready for the dress rehearsal and when the curtain rises tomorrow night, all will be prepared to give a good account of themselves to the audience. The farce abounds in clever situations, all of them comic.

The sale of seats is very pleasing, and friends of the school having turned out in force, to lend a helping hand to the class. The dress rehearsal will be held this evening.

cause it is felt that as long as he holds his present position he will not help the Honolulu public building project along with any enthusiasm. It was intended by Mr. Taft that Mr. Winthrop should become Assistant Secretary of State, but Mr. Winthrop declined that place as soon as he became aware that there was likely to be an Under Secretary of State, who would be a more important official in the State Department than he.

It is rumored that some other place will be found for Mr. Winthrop. In the meantime, he will continue as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in charge of public building projects, and accordingly in charge of that at Honolulu.

Mrs. George W. Diener of New York City arrived here on the Tenyo Maru and is making a stop-over in the city at the Moana Hotel.

Among those who are on the register of the Moana Hotel is E. Lawrence of Seattle. He is visiting Hawaii for the first time, and likes it here.

W. S. and J. T. Spaulding, who arrived here on the Tenyo Maru yesterday, will remain in Honolulu for a short time. They are registered at the Young Hotel from Boston.

E. J. Lord and L. M. Whitehouse of Honolulu were in Buffalo, N. Y., shortly before the drydock bids were opened, getting figures on 7,000,000 pounds of sheet steel to cover piles.

Mrs. E. B. Potter, of Chicago, arrived here on the Tenyo Maru, and is now domiciled at the Moana Hotel. She will remain in the Islands several weeks before continuing her voyage to the Orient.

H. A. Duke, a well known man of Seattle, Washington, has been in Honolulu for some weeks past. He will remain here for about two weeks more, when he will return to the mainland. He is staying at the Moana Hotel.

W. L. Bilger and family will leave on the Siberia for his home in Seattle, where Mr. Bilger is manager of the Seattle Hardware Company, one of the largest wholesale concerns in the Northwest. They are at present living at the Pleasanton.

Charles T. Boynton, a wealthy Chicago man who is connected with the United Steel and Wire Company, arrived here on the Tenyo Maru with his family. He will remain in several days ago to reserve a suite of rooms at the Young Hotel.

S. Tsukahara, the vice president of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha company, is returning on the flagship of his company's fleet from a business trip to the mainland. He stated yesterday that the reason white captains are put in charge of the T. K. K. vessels was because they brought commercial prosperity to the company.

George A. Bachelder, the prominent California attorney who has been a guest of the Moana Hotel for the past month, will leave on the Siberia for the mainland. He has spent a great deal of his time on the other Islands. Mr. Bachelder is a member of a large bonding concern in California which is interested in several local companies.

Miss Krupp, who is a relative of the lady bearing the same name who is the richest woman in the world, will leave the Islands on the Tenyo Maru, sailing this morning. Miss Krupp has been stopping at the Moana Hotel for some months past. During her stay here she visited the volcano of Kilauea. She will be accompanied by Miss Danforth in her trip through the Orient.

Frankie Smith states that he likes Honolulu very well and would stay here if he could get a job. Well, Frankie, there are plenty of jobs for a hustler if he only digs for them.

Health for the Children

Every parent notes with anxious eye the first symptoms of the children's failing health: the pale cheek, listless manner and capricious appetite speak more plainly than any words, for the well child is a veritable storage battery of animal spirits.

Renewing the appetite is the first step back to health and

Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Extract

given faithfully for a short time will do it. The children need not even know it is a medicine for the taste is very pleasant and does not suggest cod liver oil in the least. But the effect is certain.

For persons of every age Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Extract is an unfailing tonic, appetizer and strength renewer. Get it at your chemist's, and be sure you get STEARNS'—the genuine.

MAYFLOWER

THE PRESIDENT

of the "MAYFLOWER" QUARTZ & CHANNEL MINING CO. is Mr. William George Motley whose photograph is presented herewith and a full sketch of whose personal career and professional record may be read in the February issue of THE SUCCESSFUL AMERICAN MAGAZINE. Mr. Motley is the senior member of the Firm of W. G. Motley & Co., the well-known mining engineers at 32, Broadway, New York City. He has had over thirty years experience in mining operations in various parts of the world and his career proves a notable ILLUSTRATION OF THE TRUTH OF THE OLD SAYING that "nothing succeeds like success." In 1887, when on a visit to Europe, where reports of his mining successes had already preceded him, he was made a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society of England and of the Royal Colonial Institute. English financiers engaged him to conduct mining examinations for them in Central Canada and upon his recommendation the celebrated Regina Mine was purchased.

The triumph he scored in this great mine was commented upon lavishly, at the time, in the Canadian Government Mining Reports.

Mr. Motley holds the Royal Canadian Humane Society's medal for chivalric services in rescuing, at the imminent risk of his own life, eight miners from a burning mine, near the Regina. All of the eight men were taken out unconscious, a ninth dying in Mr. Motley's arms.

In a recent interview, referring to the progress of his latest enterprises, he said in part: "I am not exactly a promoter, as the term has come to be understood. The present-day promoter is altogether too prone to stick to a proposition only in fair weather, abandoning it and allowing the stockholders to shift for themselves as soon as the first trifling obstacle makes its appearance. That may go for promotion, but it doesn't meet my idea of good business policy. When I take up an enterprise, no matter what it is, I expect to have to confront occasional difficulties, and I believe in sticking to the job until I have overcome the very last one of them."

"Good mining propositions are to be had in all parts of the country, but the promoter who sits in his City office year in and year out isn't likely to find many of them. The propositions that are brought to you are seldom worth considering. If you want a first-class enterprise to promote and develop you generally have to go after it. No, I wouldn't want you to put me down as a 'promoter.' 'I'm a practical mining man, and most of my life I have been employed by capitalists, simply as the means of increasing their wealth, through the operation of properties purchased under my recommendations. Of late I have concluded to look after the operating end of the business myself, as well as the professional end, and I am perfectly satisfied with my success so far. I am building up an enormous list of correspondents, and just as soon as they learn to understand this new method of mining promotion, I think we will be able to demonstrate through practical results obtained, that my idea is the right idea. It's the system that will bring real dividend checks even though it doesn't make as much noise as some of the others.'

Mr. Motley was asked for an expression of his opinion concerning the Mayflower mine, in the Nevada City district, in California, and he said:

"The Mayflower has already a record to its credit that has not been equalled by a good many of the leading gold producing mines in the West that have been paying dividends for years. When you open a great gold mine it is usually necessary to expend a modest fortune in getting ready for your future production, but the Mayflower has paid its own way from the beginning, and in addition to that, has equipped itself, as you might say, with one of the finest milling plants on the Coast. As an investment proposition it is easily superior to any of the big gold properties that have been brought to the public's attention within the past twelve or fifteen years. It will shortly be realized, I am sure, that the Mayflower is to California what the Comstock was to Nevada, years ago, and what the Homestake is today to South Dakota. The dividends paid by the Mayflower mine, naturally, will go to those who recognize this fact in time to secure the stock while it offers a basis for a splendid investment; and to this end I can assure you, seriously, that there is no time like the present."

BISHOP SMITH'S ADDRESS TO METHODIST CONFERENCE

The annual conference of the Methodist Mission of Hawaii opened yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in First church, Bishop Chas. W. Smith, D. D., L.L. D., presiding. Rev. John W. Wadman, the superintendent, called the roll and upwards of twenty-five members of the conference answered to their names, a few having been unable to attend on account of sickness.

Bishop Smith then proceeded to address the conference as follows:

"What I have to say is addressed to this company as ministers and preachers of the gospel of the Methodist Episcopal church. As such our first question should be, 'What are we to preach to the people?' Mr. Wesley, our founder, sets us an example. He founded our doctrinal system and since his time there have been no important changes in the fundamental doctrines. 'There are three or four points deserving special mention.

"First, we preach universal salvation—a salvation offered to all men everywhere in all conditions and on the same terms. This enables us to go to all nationalities and explains the fact of three languages being represented in this conference.

"All men have an equal interest in our message because Jesus Christ tasted death for all men. Some men have taught that God intended to save only a few people—the elect; that Christ died for these only. Wesley emphasized the equality of men. Today this emphasis is not needed for scarcely anyone believes otherwise.

"Second, we preach a full salvation. We preach that God is able to save 'to the uttermost' all that come. This means to the uttermost of character. God can save from the lowest depths of sin. It means to the uttermost of salvation. God can save from all sin so may be his children in deed and in truth. If man sins it is not because he can't help it. Jesus Christ can save us from all conscious sin—and all sin is conscious. We make mistakes, but to sin is to knowingly and consciously violate God's law and if we let him, Christ can save us from this. He does not save us from temptation, but from yielding, and we have the promise that we will receive no temptation stronger than we can bear.

"Third, we preach conscious or experimental salvation—not a mere guess but an experimental religion; one of the heart as well as of the head. God's spirit bears witness with ours that we are his children, and we come to know it and realize it. The preaching of such an experimental religion was started by the Methodists. At first Wesley was laughed at as an enthusiast and fanatic. Wesley came to a knowledge of this religion not through his own church experience but through the Moravians, who during a storm on the ocean, when everyone was frightened, remained calm and peaceful. Wesley wanted to know their secret and was told that it was the consciousness of salvation. Later he was led into this experience himself. Before this Wesley was converted but he did not bear outward witness to it.

"In conclusion let me say: Don't rest until you get this experience. You can't preach the gospel correctly without having the consciousness of being the child of God.

"A minister cannot tell persons when they are saved. He can encourage them but they must find out for themselves when they have the assurance in their own hearts that they are children of God.

"These three things—universal sal-

should be fairly plump. They ought to put on fat as fast as they use it up; for fat is fuel, and the burning of it makes power and force. Thin children—even along to the age of eighteen or twenty—are in danger from consumption, and from other wasting complaints. The children who starve, and the young men and women who are consumed—why, the very idea of it is frightful. For such as they, there is always what is called a "mighty famine" in the land. Food, though it may be taken plentifully, does not nourish them. It makes no fat; it gives no strength. To prevent this, to cure this, to save the young ones at the mother's knees, and the bright boys and girls who are just looking at the world with ambitious eyes, is the purpose of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION. Its success is decided and settled. Thousands owe to it life and health. It is palatable as honey and contains all the curative properties of pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. In building up pale, puny, emaciated children, particularly those troubled with Anemia, Scrofula, Rickets, and bone and blood diseases, nothing equals it; its tonic qualities are of the highest order. A Medical Institution says: "We have used your preparation in treating children for coughs, colds and inflammation; its application has never failed us in any case, even the most aggravated bordering on pneumonia. The children like it, and it builds up their bodies; many little children owe their lives to it." Effective from the first dose, and you cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists.

vation, full salvation and experimental salvation, are fundamental and are necessary to make effective preachers."

The following officers were appointed:

Rev. John T. Jones, English Secretary
C. P. Hong, Korean Secretary
Otto So, Japanese Secretary
E. Takimasa, Treasurer
C. H. Min, Interpreter
Mrs. Mame H. Wadman, Organist

Rev. John W. Wadman then read his report in which he stated that during the past year there had been 280 baptisms, 324 new members received, three new churches and forty Sunday schools established, and that there were 1500 scholars in the schools and 1400 members in the churches.

Dr. John T. Jones was introduced from the Indiana conference, as the new pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, and Rev. C. Nakimura was introduced as the new pastor of River Street Japanese church, Honolulu, coming from the Japan Methodist church.

The afternoon session of the conference of the Methodist Mission of Hawaii was opened at 4 o'clock by Rev. Dr. John T. Jones, who addressed the assembly on the "Baptism of the Holy Spirit." He spoke in part as follows:

"We are studying the work of the Holy Spirit in modern days. This work was not confined to the days of Pentecost but in all subsequent time, periodically there have been great manifestations of the spirit's presence in the world. Until Benjamin Franklin discovered that lightning and electricity were identical we had none of the wonderful electrical mechanical appliances that are being used now. Similarly, if we can appropriate the power of the Holy Spirit we can have God's assistance in all departments of church work."

After making references to the work of the Holy Spirit in the lives of such famous evangelists as John Wesley, D. L. Moody and Thomas Harrison, and after mentioning some personal experiences, the speaker closed by entreating all to pray for this baptism of the Holy Spirit and for power and strength from on high so that wonderful success might crown their efforts to bring salvation to all the world.

Today's program follows:

It has been proved, however, that all medicines are not adulterated and worthless any more than are all food products.

The wheat has been sifted from the chaff, and such medicines as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs and complies with all conditions of the Pure Food and Drugs Law, will continue to hold its place as the standard American remedy for female ills.

PURE FOODS AND PURE MEDICINES.

OUR MUNICIPAL WAYS ARE DIFFERENT

Editor Advertiser: So much is being said by the advocates of municipal and county government of its success, treating this phase of governmental development as a traditional form of American government that I wonder why they permit the system to be so overwhelmed with such old-fashioned departments as sheriff, particularly in the municipality of Honolulu.

Take the three-ply governments of any inland state and you will find first the state government; second, the county government, and thirdly, municipalities within the counties. Each county has its sheriff, but each municipality has its chief of police, entirely dissociated from the sheriff. Their duties are entirely separate, just as much as those of the sheriff of the city and county of San Francisco are separate from those of the chief of police of the municipal government of San Francisco.

These mainland municipalities have their mayor who appoints boards and commissions. There is a police commission, through and with whom the mayor appoints the chief of police. The members of the police force are chosen by merit and their promotion and retention depends upon their fitness for the positions. The position of chief of police is appointive just as is that of fire chief, road supervisor and the various departmental heads not otherwise provided for under the elective system.

The sheriff (of the county) is elected and he has the appointment of a few deputies. In the case of Oahu the elected sheriff would appoint the deputies who are now elected for Ewa, Wai-anae, Wai-anae, Koolauloa, Koolanukou, etc. They would be separate from the police force of the municipal precincts of Honolulu.

The system works well elsewhere and if the electorate of this community is striving toward the allegedly traditional American ideal of government, and must needs have all the old-fashioned fills and trimmings, then let it fashion its municipality like others on the mainland.

LECTURES ON AGRICULTUREFirst of a Series Begun by the New College of Hawaii.The first of the evening lectures on agriculture in the College of Hawaii course were given to a very interested audience Wednesday. People were expecting some good things and Dr. E.
V. Wilcox and President Gilmore presented their subjects in a strikingly able manner so that everyone felt well repaid for the evening spent.As was announced by President Gilmore, the work is to give opportunity to people to get the newest and best information upon subjects pertaining to agriculture.In the course of the lecture on the agricultural problems of Hawaii, Dr.
Wilcox told of the problems as he and his workers were finding them and also something of what they were undertaking to do at the station and about the islands.The first problem which he mentioned was that of the pineapple growers, which had assumed a specific nature in that it had been noted that certain soils produce yellow pineapples, that continuous cropping was unfavorable to good yield and that the disease, black rot, was troublesome. Market ing is a question for all crops but the best methods of getting the crops on the market is very vital to these men.With rubber, problems were chiefly in the experimental stage for the faith in the ultimate outcome had led men to plant some 1500 acres to rubber bearing trees, chiefly of the Ceara variety.Station's experiments upon some 300 or 400 trees have shown good results.
For the benefit of the industry methods of tapping, the use of fertilizers and the use of the land while the young trees are growing are receiving attention in a cooperative way by both growers and station men. Cotton growing has a good opportunity. Some work must be done with variety tests. Sea Island and Caravelle are the two varieties under consideration, but the Egyptian cotton would have a good market since United States makes large importations of such cotton. Here, seed selection will improve this crop.It was interesting to note that Mr.
Waterhouse had distinguished some forty-six varieties of taro. Problems with other fruits were taken up. Meat production was being improved by attention to forage crops. Of all the problems mentioned the most vital to the people of Hawaii was that treating on the question of maintaining fertility.In a very pleasing and most interesting manner President J. W.
Gilmore stated his viewpoint of agricultural education. He brought out the economies of the subject very forcibly by a report of his own travels and experience and by statistics from the Bureau of Commerce and Labor.He contrasted the former popular idea of education with the present day advance in industrial education.
Achievement in industrial affairs must come about by training. Oldtime practices must pass and give away to the new and most profitable.Attention was called to the return to the old farms of New England which were considered to be worn out, and this was because of the application of the new intelligence.Today the farmers are recognized as citizens and men as well as producers of crops and animals. Agriculture is the application of the sciences such as physics, chemistry and biology, to the production of plants and animals.Education for the farmer does not stop with the production of things but consist also of the selling of them and in the relation which he bears to manufactures and transportation.The results of agricultural education are pleasing and very favorable for crop production has been increased, man's efficiency improved, and the cost and the time to produce a crop has been remarkably lessened.The lectures were well attended and it is hope that many more will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending them.

INAUGURAL EXERCISES
AT ROYAL SCHOOLThe following introductory remarks were made yesterday by the mayor of the Royal School, City:"We have met here this morning to celebrate the inauguration of the United States. Mr. Taft has had good training for the office. He has been connected with the government in many official positions, and is perhaps the best posted man on governmental affairs who has ever been elected to the highest office in the gift of the people.""He ought to make a good President. We believe he will make a good President. We are proud to know that the humblest boy born in our country may become the President of the grandest country on earth. We want to fit ourselves to become worthy men and women of our great country. We are glad we have such a good man for President as W. H. Taft."This program was then rendered:

PARIS MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, U. S. A.

Neurasthenia

is the physician's name for a condition of weakness or exhaustion of the nervous system. The patient finds difficulty in keeping his mind on his work, is inclined to worry over trifles, is often depressed and irritable, is subject to headaches or a feeling of pressure on the head, is sleepless and sometimes the digestion is disturbed. A tendency to the disease may be inherited or it may result from almost any form of excess, from overwork and worry or the use of drugs or stimulants. The common name for this disorder is

Nervous Debility

or, in extreme cases, nervous prostration. The treatment consists largely in rest, recreation and the use of a tonic, the discontinuance of any practice that may have caused it and abstinence from tea, coffee or other stimulants.
As the nerves receive their nourishment through the blood the latter must be built up and made rich and pure. Especially if there is loss of weight and a pallor indicating a weakness of the blood, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the tonic best adapted to effect a cure.
They have been used by the most eminent physicians for the treatment of neurasthenia with most excellent results. The late Dr. Lapponi, who was physician to two popes, recommended them highly for neurasthenia and for similar disorders.

Home Treatment

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills being perfectly safe as a family medicine without the necessity of a separate prescription for each case, are sold in packages under the well-known trade mark which is our guarantee to the purchaser of the genuineness, purity and harmlessness of the contents. Hundreds of nervous men and women have cured themselves at home with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

An Iowa Cure

Mrs. C. F. Schroeder, whose address is Box 15, R. F. D. No. 1, Dixon, Iowa, says: "I suffered from nervousness for three years before I found a medicine that cured me. It is almost impossible to get help here and I have been obliged to do all my work. I became much run down in health and very nervous, was troubled with palpitation of the heart and became so thin that I weighed about 90 pounds. I read of a case like mine which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured and started taking them at once. I could feel a change for the better while on the first box and took the pills until I was entirely cured."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr.

N. Y.LOCAL MUSICIANS PAY TRIBUTE TO HAWAII NEI"I long for the Isles of Hawaii nei" is the theme of a just published musical composition, the song bearing on its title page the names of two persons well known to everyone in Honolulu—
George F. Davies and Edgar A. P.
Newcomb. Mr. Davies has furnished a beautiful musical setting for the words by Mr. Newcomb. The music is published by a well known Philadelphia house, and copies are now on sale in the city.The song is bound to be a popular one, not only in Hawaii but with those mainlanders who have tarried in the Isles long enough to gain that aloha for Hawaii that seems inextinguishable when once developed. The words are of one with this aloha but separated from the scenes and people for whom he longs. The words of the song are:The patter of rain on the window pane,
The rustle and scurry of dead leaves flying.The bare boughs whisper: "The year's on the wane."And Boreas rides o'er the woodlands sighing.Some golden days—but more sad and gray—And my spirit droops in the Autumn weather.I long for the Isles of Hawaii nei—Would we were there, love, would we were there.

You and I together.

They lie on the breast of the silver sea, Girdled with reefs the glad waves o'er leaping.A haven of summer life, gladness and free—I yearn for thy shores, my heart in thy keeping.I long for thy palms with their dreamy sway.Backward and forward in neighborly greeting.Their heads in the heavens, their feet in the spray—

They beckon Aloha, Aloha repeating.

I long for Manoa's mysterious vale,
Where rainbows are dancing in sunlight all day.For the scent of the maille, the rhythmical wail

Of thy children at night far away.

The mountains and moonlight, when I remember.I long to unloosen this wearisome tether.To fly from the gloom of impending November.To fly to those Isles, love; those Isles in the sea.

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FORESTRY OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII, DIVISION OF ENTOMOLOGY.

Regulation No. 6.

Whereas, By order of the Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry, dated September 1, 1903, owing to the prevalence of a serious plant disease on pineapples in the Australian Colonies, further importation into the Territory of pineapple plants, shoots and suckers was prohibited; and

Whereas, There has been established at the Port of Honolulu sufficient facilities for the proper disinfection and quarantine of such plants; now, Therefore, By virtue of the powers conferred upon us by law and with the approval of the Governor of this Territory, we, the Board of Agriculture and Forestry of the Territory of Hawaii, at a regular meeting assembled hereby order that entry of importations of pineapple plants, shoots or suckers into the Territory of Hawaii from the said Australian Colonies be, and the same is hereby permitted at the Port of Honolulu, subject to such inspection, treatment and quarantine as the Board or its duly appointed agent may deem necessary to safeguard the agricultural interests of this Territory against the introduction of possible pests of an insect, fungus or any other parasitic nature.

This regulation shall take effect from the date of its approval.
