COASTING LAW AND MAILS

Will Foreign Vessels Carry Mail Between Honolulu and Coast Ports?

The Local Authorities at Sea on the Question—What the United States Statutes Reveal.

The question as to whether after the extension of the United States shipping laws to the Territory of Hawaii, foreign vessels will be allowed to carry mail to the Coast from Honolulu, has raised considerable discussion. Inquiries thus far made have failed to settle the question and the only section in the United States Revised Statutes bearing on the point is not explicit. The section in question says: "For transporting the mail between the United States and any foreign port, or between ports of the United States touching at a foreign port, the Postmaster General may allow as compensation, if by a United States steamship, any sum not exceeding the sea and United States inland postage; and if by a foreign steamship or sailing vessel, any sum not exceeding the sea postage, on the mail so transported."

When the question was asked of Captain Merry this morning he stated that it was his opinion, although there were no direct instructions, that the general United States statute, which provides that the United States mails shall only be carried in American built vessels manned by American officers, would cover the case here, as this territory would be under the coastwise trade. The question in the absence of specific instructions he considered a hard one to answer.

Mr. Boyd of the United States consular office was not certain what the ruling would be, but was inclined to think that section 4,009 of the U. S. Revised Statutes, quoted above, would allow mails to be sent to the Coast after the extension of the shipping laws to this Territory. In the meantime inquiries of the Washington authorities will be officially made regarding the matter.

Sections 3977 and 3978 of the revised Statutes provide that "the master of any steamboat passing between ports or places in the United States" shall deliver all letters or packets brought by him to the postmaster at the port of arrival, and that he shall receive from the postmaster two cents for each letter or packet so delivered, "unless the same is carried under a contract for carrying the mails" failure to so deliver the matter making the master liable to a penalty of one hundred and fifty dollars; and that "the Postmaster General may pay, to the master or owner of any vessel not regularly employed in carrying the mail, two cents for each letter carried by such vessel between ports or places in the United States."

These provisions contain no exclusion of discriminating in favor of American steamers under contract to carry the mails do not receive the sea postage of two cents a letter, the question of discriminating in favor of American steamers with mails between contract dates would very rarely occur. It would only happen in the case of two non-mail contract steamers, an American and a foreign, without any odds as to speed, leaving either end of the San Francisco-Honolulu route on the same day. In such a case there should be no question at all, for, as a matter of course, the mail would be sent by the American boat.

Commissioner's Last Luncheon

Last evening the Philippine Commissioners and staff and a limited number of invited guests, were entertained at a most successfully arranged luncheon at Aloha Cottage, Fern Place, Emma street by Mrs. B. F. Wotkins and Mr. Geo. P. Thielens of Alexander & Baldwin, who has a personal acquaintance with some of the commissioners. The spread was in true Hawaiian style and was enlivened by music by Solomon's quintet. The floral decoration of the cottage and rooms was elaborate, even for this land of evergreens. From the luncheon the guests were escorted to the U. S. troopship Hancock's launch, where the parting alohas were given.

Baseball for Charity

The Hogan minstrels and Regiment teams will play a game of baseball in the near future, the proceeds to go to the Hawaiian Relief Society. Mrs. Beckley, secretary of the society mentioned, telephoned this office today saying that the directors most willingly gave their consent to the proposition.

YOUNG CHARITY PROMOTING

The Minister of the Interior and Hospital for Incurables.

In His Private Capacity Mr. Young Is Urging the Scheme to Raise the Endowment and Building Funds.

Hon. Alex. Young is making a special effort, in large confidence of success, to have his $20,000 offer covered with four similar ones for an endowment fund of $100,000 for the Hospital for Incurables, also to raise another equal amount for building and equipment. He is sending out a circular, which is reprinted below, to people deemed likely to give a favorable response:

Honolulu, April 26th, 1900. My Dear Sir:—For many years a great want has been felt in Honolulu, and throughout the Islands generally, in the nature of a hospital, or home for incurables, who are of various nationalities, resident in Hawaii.

The Board of Health has recently published a report of the mortality of Honolulu for the months during which the plague has been causing so much uneasiness, which shows that the number of deaths from consumption is enormously greater than from any other cause.

The increase of lung trouble is marked amongst the native Hawaiians, which, I presume, is due to the fact that they have neither the knowledge nor conveniences to prevent its spread among them. See extracts Dr. Wood's report—inclosed.

Most of the afflicted people belong to the poorer classes, and they are unable to provide means of segregation and the proper intelligent care of their unfortunate sick ones.

An attempt was made in Honolulu over two years ago to raise money to organize an institution for the care and treatment of incurables, but the matter fell to the ground, partly because there was no endowment fund to guarantee its permanence after organization.

The Council of State has voted an amount of $25,000 for Hospital for Incurables, conditioned on an endowment fund of $100,000 being raised by the citizens.

It is sought to have five parties subscribe $20,000 each toward said endowment fund, and I have placed my own name at the head of the subscription list for this amount.

Further, it is sought to have twenty parties subscribe $5,000 each toward a fund to provide buildings and equipment for said hospital. This list I have also headed.

A third list for subscribers for any amount placed opposite the name is provided.

May I ask you to authorize some one in Honolulu to insert your name on one of those lists, the first mentioned if possible, so that the much needed hospital may be established.

Was Not Vagrancy.

M. D. Schoenfeld and Joseph Lichtig appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of vagrancy, the premises in question being Mrs. Levey's boarding house on Alakea street. Deputy Marshal Chillingworth asked that the case be nolle pro'd as Mrs. Levey had found that the two had been invited to the house by a man named Brown. Judge Wilcox allowed the men to go on their way.

It seems that Schoenfeld and Lichtig returned Thursday night, the former from Ewa and the latter from Maui. Finding their former room occupied they began to look about for another. They met Brown who asked them to the Levey house. Arriving at the house at about 1 o'clock in the morning the men went into the room next to Brown's and went to sleep. Yesterday Mrs. Levey got out a warrant for the arrest of the men.

Suit for Damages.

The John H. Estate, Ltd. has brought suit against the Club Stables Co., Ltd., for damages in the amount of $1,000, alleging that the defendant caused to be torn down a fence dividing its property from that of the plaintiff and destroyed valuable trees on the property of the latter.

TO EXTEND FORT STREET

Petition for Action Placed Before Minister Young.

Will Come Up in Executive Executive Council Monday—Generally Signed by Property Owners—Importance of Work.

The Minister of Interior received the following petition for the extension of Fort street this morning and will lay the matter before the Executive Council at Monday's session for action:

The undersigned, residents and property owners in the vicinity of the proposed line of extension of Fort street, hereby respectfully request that Fort street be extended according to the surveys heretofore made.

Your petitioners believe that the extension of this road was projected before any other road which is now uncompleted, and if extended would be of great use to the entire public of Honolulu. It will open up a large tract of land which will bring about a material increase of taxes. Fort street, the principal business street, now ends at School street, almost in the heart of the city:

PLAGUE IN THE COLONIES

The Epidemic at Sydney Has Assumed Serious Proportions.

Auckland, New Zealand, Proposes to Have Steamer Communication With Sydney Entirely Cut Off.

The official plague report of Sydney up to Saturday, April 7, brought by the Alameda showed, up to that date, 84 cases of which 26 had died and one recovered. There were 57 persons under treatment, the number reported for the last week being 29. Telegraphic advices to Auckland, N. Z., printed below evidence a continuance of the epidemic:

Sydney, April 12.—The following fresh cases of plague are reported. Two women named Cummings and Lafenz, employed in a hotel in King street; Harvey, employed in the quarantine area; Lindall, resident in Margaret street; and Cooney, resident in Sussex street.

The Government offers a bonus for catching rats.

The plague is seriously affecting the attendance at the agricultural show. The number present at the official opening was fully two-thirds less than last year. Sporting men, too, in large numbers, are absent from their usual haunts at this season.

Rosen, whose case was reported on Tuesday, is dead.

The cases of Miller and Vanhan have also proved fatal.

Banbury's case turns out not to be plague.

Meibourne, April 12.—An intercolonial Conference of health officers, to consider the plague and preventive measures, has opened. New South Wales is unable to be represented.

New Zealand Precautions.

Auckland, April 14.—The question of the plague was introduced by the Mayor (Mr. David Goldie) at the special meeting of the City Council last night. He said he considered that they should ask the Government to shut off steam communication with Sydney, for a time at least. It was a serious matter, of course, but he really thought that some steps should be taken. Auckland was one of the worst places that the plague could come to, and it was the nearest to Sydney.

Mr. Kidd considered the course a very wise one to adopt. He thought it would be far wiser, considering the small amount of trade that was now done with Sydney, and considering the risk attending that small amount of trade, to shut off communication. The question had come to be one of very serious import. He had spoken to several medical men and they quite agreed that the proposal of the Mayor was one of the steps that should be taken. He would move that a deputation, consisting of the Mayor and three councillors, wait on the Premier and see what could be done in the matter.

Mr. Salmon, who seconded, admitted that the step was a serious one, but considered that the present state of affairs demanded it.

Mr. Warren was of opinion that they should cut off communication with all infected ports.

Mr. Eutric said the matter would be serious in the case of large cargo boats from Home to New Zealand, which called in at Sydney.

The motion was adopted.

Wellington, April 12.—The Government consider there is no means of detecting passengers who have traveled overland from an infected place, to the port of departure, and have therefore declared the whole of Australia an infected country, and all vessels from there will be subjected to rigid quarantine. As Fiji, Samoa, and other islands are taking steps against the introduction of the plague, no restrictive action is taken against those places.

In consequence of the Central Board of Health declaring all Australian ports infected, the Wellington Harbor Board will throw the onus of fumigating vessels on shipowners or masters, the Board having no expert knowledge of the effects of the chemicals recommended for that purpose.

Proposed Yacht Run.

Several of the best known yachtsmen of the city have proposed a big run to Pearl Harbor when the quarantine is lifted. The yachtsmen of the city have met the proposition most favorably. Pearl Harbor has always been a favorite place for runs but, since the quarantine, there has, of course, been no sailing down in that direction and the yachtsmen are hankering after another sight of the place.

Kilohann Art League.

Works for the spring exhibition of the Kilohann Art League will be received at the League rooms on May 9th. Exhibitors' vanishing day will be May 19th. The members' first view reception will be held Monday evening, May 21st, at 8 o'clock.

MEET IN THE DRILL SHED

Col. J. W. Jones and Minister Mott-Smith have granted permission to the Republicans of Honolulu to hold their organization mass meeting in the Drill Shed on next Wednesday evening.

The Camarinos Estate.

Judge Silliman this morning heard the matter of the estate of the late P. G. Camarinos. Geo. A. Davis appeared for Geo. Andrews, one of the heirs, petitioner for an accounting, etc. Chas. Creighton represented D. G. Camarinos, guardian and administrator, who was also present. The Court ordered the accounts referred to Clarence M. White as master for examination and report, also that Mr. White take charge of the business, receiving and disbursing all moneys connected therewith, until the final distribution of the estate.

Marcello Has Escaped.

Detogini Marcello, under sentence of ten years' imprisonment at hard labor for the killing of a comrade during a spree at Moanalua, escaped from a large prison gang at the Kalihi quarry this morning between 8 and 9 o'clock and is now at large. Police officers have been despatched in every direction to apprehend the prisoner if possible. It is thought that Marcello changed his clothes at the house of a friend near Kamehameha school and then went toward Ewa, passing the guard at Pukaki.

Twenty-eighth Day.

The twenty-eighth clear day finds everything quiet and the opinion is general in Board of Health circles that the situation will remain unchanged until quarantine is raised on next Monday morning. The Federal quarantine, allowing clean bills of health to outgoing vessels, will not, however, be formally raised by Dr. Carmichael until Wednesday, May 30th.

(Special Correspondence.) Washington, April 13.—The question of appointments has as yet not come to the surface and those who are working are doing so very quietly.

LADIES HOSE

We have placed on sale THIS WEEK a line of Ladies Fast Black Hermsdorf dyed hose, received direct from the factory in Germany (thus avoiding the American duty) which we are offering at the very low price of 6 pairs for $1.00. Now this is an opportunity not often offered for ladies to supply themselves with a good staple article of everyday use at such a very low price. We do not claim them to be the best, but a good strong article of absolutely fast dye.

In addition to the above we have our usual complete line of Ladies' Gents' Misses' and Children's HOSIERY, which have their own established reputation.

We have just received a small choice line of Genuine Scotch Zephyrs. Now we do not advertise these as cheap goods, at all, but just the kind a lady would select to make a gown of that she wanted to look stylish in, but that would stand the kind of laundrying it would receive here.

A small and carefully selected lot of printed pure IRISH LINEN LAWNS in neat and modest designs and colorings 12 yds. lengths which we are offering at just about half the price that they will have to be sold for when imported under the American tariff laws.

Of course all ladies know of the great durability of Irish linen and its delightful coolness, and here, where we use wash goods the year around, it pays to buy a good article that one can feel justified in expending the time and money necessary in making up in a manner that one would not on a cheap article that one would have to cast aside after the first laundering. For trimming these same goods we have a very complete assortment to choose from of embroideries of all kinds, cambric, nansook and Swiss, edgings, insertions and all others, and all of every description, these all imported by us direct from Europe in bond.

JUST RECEIVED direct from the factories at Troy, N. Y., a splendid line of GENT'S SHIRTS, in dress, colored and negligee.

In buying these shirts we have exercised the greatest care, first as to their fit and correctness of style and in case of the colored ones, in the very exacting manner of our examination in regards to their fastness of color, we doing our best to satisfy ourselves that we were getting nothing but absolutely fast colors in these shirts, and hope we have succeeded.

Call and see them and the line of GENT'S FURNISHINGS AND UNDERWEAR we carry. To housekeepers who might require them in a hurry, we wish to state that we have in stock a complete line of SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES, ready made, in all sizes and qualities and at prices we believe will be found satisfactory.

TRAVEL SOUVENIR BOOK.

The Union Pacific has just issued one of the handsomest souvenir book of views ever circulated by any western railroad. It consists of sixty-four pages, printed on fine enamel paper, with a tinted Bristol cover, laced at the hinge with a dainty silk cord. The front cover is handsomely embossed in red and gold, the celebrated trade mark of the Union Pacific being shown in four colors.

Opposite each page is shown either an exterior or interior view of the Union Pacific's crack train, the "Overland Limited," or a view of some scene on the great transcontinental route. The cuts are all done in colors and some are of exceptional beauty. The book contains well written reading matter pertaining to the country through which the road passes, the data being of interest and value to the passenger. In the beginning comparison is made between the "Overland Route" of 1849, with the dangers and inconvenience of stage coach transportation, and the "Overland Route" of the present day over this pioneer trunk line, affording all the comforts, luxuries and safety of modern times.

Among the new pictures is a cut of Sherman Hill, where the quarries of the famous Sherman gravel are located. This being the highest point in crossing the continent, it is worthy more than passing interest. Another new picture shows the completion of the great "Overland Route" May 10, 1869, with the Stars and Stripes hoisted and is one of the handsomest and most interesting of the series.

The publication is a convincing argument that a journey around the world is incomplete if a trip is not made across the continent on the great "Overland Route."—Omaha Bee, April 8, 1900.

The Bulletin is indebted for a copy of this handsome book to Mr. Darlow, treasurer and assistant general passenger agent of the U. P. Co. at Omaha. Soon after the passage of the Hawaiian bill in its final shape, so that it can be printed therein, Mr. Darlow will issue the Union Pacific's new Hawaiian folder with colored maps and illustrations.

Current History.

As a concise summary of the world's news, coming once a month, covering the whole field lucidly and judiciously, divested of non-essentials, aiming only to record the facts of history without political or sectarian bias, and with due regard to historical proportions and to both sides of controverted issues, we know of no publication equal to Current History. The contents of each monthly number cover the entire news of the world during the preceding month, illustrated with an abundance of authentic maps, portraits and views, and biographical sketches. In the April number most prominent space is given to the South African War, the Reciprocity Treaties, the American Colonial Problem, including the Cuban, Porto Rican, Philippine, Hawaiian and Samoan questions; the general relations of the Powers of Europe, the Open Door in China, and the Political Outlook in the Orient, the coming Presidential campaign, Currency Reform, the Work of Congress, Business and Industrial Developments, Kentucky Gubernatorial Contest, Canadian Affairs, Newfoundland Fisheries, Isthmian Canal Question, Progress of Science and Invention, Musical and Dramatic Productions, Religious Issues, etc. (Boston, Mass.: Current History Co., $1.50 a year; single numbers, 15 cents; 3 months' trial subscription, 25 cents.)

WHAT PORTO RICO WILL GET

Plan for the Installation of Its Civil Government.

May Day Celebration—Governor Allen Looking Over the Situation—Officers to Be Retained As Far As Possible.

New York, April 18.—A special to the Tribune from Washington, says:

Tuesday's long Cabinet meeting was chiefly devoted to considering the inauguration of the civil government in Porto Rico on May 1st under the new statutes. It has been decided that the people of the islands with their natural fondness for pomp and display shall be sufficiently impressed with the importance of the new establishment by the visit of the entire North Atlantic squadron.

On the day of the inauguration, General Davis, the retiring military governor, will assemble nearly all the troops of his department at the capital and parade them in honor of the occasion. Each of the ships will fire a governor's salute of seventeen guns, to be returned in kind by the forts ashore. At night there will be a brilliant illumination of the ships, with their masts lined with electric lights and an exhibition of searchlights. The naval display will be made all the more memorable from the fact that the day will be the anniversary of the battle of Manila bay.

Governor Allen will spend at least a week at San Juan before his formal inauguration and in that time it is expected that he will be able to form a correct estimate of the qualifications of leading natives for places in the executive council, which constitutes the upper house of the legislative assembly and be in a position to make recommendations to the President regarding appointments.

It is the impression among Cabinet officers that most of the men now holding office in General Davis' military Cabinet, except the United States army officers, will be continued in executive council either in their present places or similar offices under different titles.

The President and all the members of his Cabinet are anxious that the council shall be composed of natives as far as possible and desire to avoid all semblance of fastening any "carpet bag" rule on the island. The pressure for places in the island is, however, extremely great and prominent Senators have in some instances given exceedingly insistent endorsements to candidates. Governor Allen's mail overflows with applications, but these can have no weight as it will be the policy of the Administration to seek the best possible men for appointment regardless of the wishes of those who are volunteering for jobs.

It will be the effort of the President, largely on Governor Allen's recommendation, first to complete the executive of the island and then provide for the organization of the judiciary. The established courts of the island, including the Supreme Court of Porto Rico, will continue to sit as now constituted. Residents of the United States will be selected as Judge, District Attorney and Marshal of the United States District Court which will be established in a few weeks at San Juan.

It is also settled that General Davis will remain in Porto Rico and that Governor Allen will have the advantage of his experience and assistance.

The brigade of troops, consisting of cavalry and infantry regiment of regulars, the Porto Rican Native Regiment and two batteries of artillery, will continue to constitute General Davis' command, which will thus be as important as any of the military departments in the United States.

To Equalize Franchise.

Washington, April 18.—Senator Chandler today introduced a bill "for the prevention of the denial or the abridgment of the right of citizens of the United States to vote on account of color." In presenting the bill, Mr. Chandler said that he did so by request and was not prepared to press its consideration. He said, however, that he had drawn up the bill himself. It provides that "any requirement of any qualification for suffrage prescribed by any State in its constitution or its laws, which directly or indirectly by express words, or by any device or subterfuge is made to apply in its terms or in its operation to the great body of colored citizens of the State, while it is not made to apply to the great body of white citizens is hereby declared to be unconstitutional, null and inoperative."

Other sections of the bill authorize colored citizens to vote regardless of race or of State restrictions. Colored citizens also are given the right of action or damages against registration boards refusing them the right to register.

BOERS HAVE MONEY TO LEND.

Pretoria, April 18.—As soon as the Berne award of the Delagoa Bay Railway arbitration was published, the Transvaal Government offered to lend Portugal the amount she was condemned to pay ($5,000,000) which, however, was courteously declined, the statement being made that the money was already provided.

The government is receiving many memorials from burghers on the subject of sending the Boer prisoners to St. Helena and will formally protest to Great Britain on the subject.

Secretary of State Reitz says the Transvaal Government is not taking any resolution regarding the destruction of the mines.

WAS NO KNOCKOUT.

Chicago, April 17.—Tommy White of Chicago went six fast rounds with Terry McGovern of Brooklyn tonight, finished strong and had the better of the last round.

The fight was at 130 pounds, both men being below that, although the exact weights were not given out. McGovern did not from appearance have more than two or three pounds the worst of the weight.

By an agreement of the principals no decision was to be rendered if both men were on their feet at the end of the sixth round. McGovern would probably have received the decision if one had been rendered, as he was on the aggressive from start to finish, White keeping very largely on the defensive. He at times took the aggressive and jabbed McGovern in the most clever manner of his left.

Though McGovern set a terrific pace in the opening round, White was very cool and confident. In one of Terry's rushes Tommy went to the floor from a hard left on the head. White took the limit, but came up strong. A moment later McGovern swung right and left, missing both, and fell to the floor from the force of his blows. He was up immediately, and wrestled White to the floor. When Tommy came up he landed a right on Terry's ear. A left hook on the chin dropped White just as the song sounded.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1900.

The political platform of the official organ will be: "The American people be d—d. Hartwell and We do be IT. When revolution threatens Hartwell will get under the bed. All salaries will be cashed from the Diplomatic and Consular appropriation."

THE INFAMOUS CAMPAIGN.

Apropos of the campaign inaugurated by the official organ to turn the politics of Hawaii into the channels of a race war, it is timely to draw attention to the statements published during the annexation campaign by L. A. Thurston who now controls the morning organ.

The leading feature of Mr. Thurston's pamphlet is, "Twenty Objections to Annexation and Replies thereto." The fourth objection reads, "Whether the annexation of a non-homogeneous people is constitutional or not, the population of Hawaii is unfit for incorporation into, and will be dangerous to the American political system."

In making answer to this objection Mr. Thurston takes "the different nationalities up in detail." First the Native Hawaiians are dealt with as follows:

"The Native Hawaiians, only 32,000 in number, are a conservative, peaceful and generous people. They have had during the last twenty years to struggle against the retrogressive tendencies of the reigning family; but in spite of that, a very large proportion of them have stood out against such tendencies, and are supporters of the Republic and of annexation. The majority of the present House of Representatives, the first under the Republic, consists of pure-blooded Native Hawaiians, and the Speaker of the House is a Native Hawaiian."

"The Hawaiians are not Africans, but Polynesians. They are brown not black. There is not, and never has been any color line in Hawaii as against the native Hawaiians, and they participate fully and on an equality with the white people in affairs political, social, religious and charitable. The two races freely intermarry one with the other, the results being shown in a present population of some 150,000 of mixed blood. They are a race which will in the future, as they have in the past, easily and rapidly assimilate with and adopt American ways and methods."

In 1897, Mr. Thurston published abroad over his own signature that the Native Hawaiians are a "conservative, peaceful and generous people;" that "a very large proportion of them . . . are supporters of the Republic and of annexation;" that "there is not and never has been any color line in Hawaii." Replying to the "tenth objection" that "a large portion of Hawaiian voters have been disfranchised;" the answer reads, "The reply to the objection is that no Hawaiian voters have been disfranchised."

Thus we find Mr. Thurston claiming for the Hawaiians that strength and breadth of character, the conservative political acumen which justifies their admission to the full rights and privileges of American citizenship.

Since this pamphlet was issued the annexation of Hawaii to the United States has been consummated. Mr. Thurston has assumed control of the paper accepted as the mouthpiece of the ruling official circle, and the United States Congress has passed a bill which gives citizens of Hawaii an equal voice in the local affairs of the territorial administration. Suffrage has been limited only by an educational qualification in spite of the efforts of our local government representatives and their arguments presented through the columns of the official organ, to enforce upon the people a limitation of privileges gauged by property values.

As Hawaii is about to enter upon its American career, with the die cast so far as the question of suffrage is concerned, the official organ starts out on a campaign which is an insult to every citizen of Hawaii of native Hawaiian ancestry. The American statesmen who granted the Native Hawaiian full American rights, as they must necessarily grant "a conservative, peaceful and generous people" who "easily and rapidly assimilate with and adopt American ways and methods," worshipping the false god of "Americanism." The organ also has a nightmare of a bitter campaign against the

"haole" and ponders over a race war of a most unholy and terrible character.

Having been brought to time by the people irrespective of race or nationality, and cringing before the universal condemnation roused by its infamous campaign, the organ whines that the "Royalist organ, the Independent" has instigated "the color line in politics." Admitting this to be true, although the Advertiser was presented with a communication from Mr. Testa, proprietor of the Independent, which it has not published, is there any particular reason why the official organ should further the cause of racial warfare by charging Native Hawaiians throughout the group with harboring sentiments entirely new to their personal character and as they well know inimical to their welfare as American citizens?

Why should the official organ at this time place such stress upon the statements of the Independent, when this same so-called "Royalist organ" was in 1897 using its columns to refute the assertions of the Thurston pamphlet that "a very large proportion" of the Hawaiians "are supporters of the Republic and of annexation" and "that no Hawaiian voters have been disfranchised."

Is the organ prepared to state that the assertions in Mr. Thurston's pamphlet are not truth?

Why did the official organ put words in the mouth of Mr. Testa which he did not utter?

The people of these islands can place but one interpretation on the course of the organ. Enraged and disgruntled that the United States Congress should grant to this Territory a thoroughly American government, embittered by the abject failure of the official delegate in dealing with American statesmen, the organ is prepared to conduct and is now furthering a campaign to force a race war upon the American politics of Hawaii, to so enrage the Native Hawaiians and their allies as to cause them to commit such political indiscretions, that Congress will be willing by future legislation to disfranchise the Native Hawaiians or allow the enactment of laws by the Territory that will accomplish the same result.

The people and the Native Hawaiians know the motives of the official organ, and the faction it represents, too well to allow it to accomplish its peridious purpose.

CEMETERIES TO BE CLOSED.

[San Francisco Chronicle.]

The ordinance providing for the discontinuance of interments in the cemeteries maintained within the city limits has become a law at last. After hanging fire for several weeks the measure was finally passed by the Board of Supervisors at Monday's session. It makes it unlawful to inter a body within the city and county limits after the 1st of August next year. One exception is, however, made. The ordinance does not operate against land owned and controlled by the United States. No check is, therefore, placed on the interment of soldiers in the cemetery located on the Presidio reservation. As a matter of fact the municipality has no jurisdiction over the military reservation and the exception was unavoidable.

This is the initial step toward the ultimate removal of the cemeteries. There is nothing sacrilegious in such a proceeding. Every consideration of the sanitary necessities of a populous city favors it. The laws of sanitation are opposed to the burial of the dead in the neighborhood of the abodes of the living. Science has long ago placed its veto against this practice. The presence of cemeteries in the heart of crowded communities is a standing menace to the public health. The stopping of interments in a long established cemetery and the subsequent removal elsewhere of the bodies interred there may grate on the sensibilities of some people who are controlled by sentiment; but the sanitary necessities of a community are of far more importance than any consideration of sentiment.

The closing of the cemeteries is the first practical result of an agitation which the owners of and residents on property adjacent to them have waged long and persistently. In their struggle for relief they have been backed by the improvement associations and successive Boards of Health. Everybody will concede now that it was a mistake to locate them where they are; but when those sites were chosen few were sanguine enough to suppose that in a little over a quarter of a century the city would grow beyond them. Such has, however, been the case, and in another decade these cemeteries will be occupying the very heart of the residential part of San Francisco. The Supervisors are to be commended for their work, for every year's delay in discontinuing burials in these cemeteries has been aggravating the evils springing from them.

Republicans Active.

The call for the Republican mass meeting to be held next Wednesday evening at the Drill Shed has received hundreds of signatures up to this afternoon. It is now becoming hard to find a Republican in town who has not already undersigned the proposition for immediate organization. Full arrangements will be made for a large gathering and speakers will be provided to enliven the occasion.

MONEY FOR YOU. THE - BOOK - STORE!

This will interest you if you are a Descendant of any one of thousands of foreign families whose money or estates are now in chancery.

WE HAVE

A complete list of persons who have left money or estates to the value of $388,468,845,

The heirs of which are now supposed to be in the United States but whose present whereabouts are unknown. You many have money, heirlooms, or estates

WAITING FOR YOU.

It is not surprising that in a population so vast and among a people containing families which can trace back their ancestry for centuries, that even with families of no so the ramifications are extraordinary, the ties of relationship often varying from Peers to Peasants, though all springing from one tree. The announcement that there is nearly $400,000,000 in money and estates going to begging sounds a little extravagant but it will not appear so extraordinary when it is remembered that the amount is based on a registered alphabetical list of persons who have been advertised for all over the world since the beginning of the century, including chancery heirs, next of kin, and legatees of persons who have died intestate in Great Britain, Europe, America and the British colonies. The main sources of unclaimed monies are: unclaimed dividends on Government stocks; dormant funds in chancery; Army and Navy Prize Money. Estates of persons who have died intestate without known next-of-kin; unclaimed dividends in bankruptcy; general unclaimed dividends and unclaimed bank deposits. We are also prepared to furnish certificates of Births, Deaths and Marriages and official Cert or Coat of Arms of your family

REMEMBER

We are the only firm in America who make a specialty of establishing claims of heirs-at-law and next-of-kin.

WE ASK NO FEE

Until claim has been settled. Enclose five-cent American stamps or ten cents in silver for mailing, wrapping, etc., and we will send you a book containing full information FREE. Write and see if you are among the lucky ones. Address

SPRING
NECKWEAR

Is coming. Cupid calls it good and beautiful. No article of wear partakes of so many patterns and makes as does neckwear. When you see the new the old that you thought beautiful grows stale. We have just received our new spring stock and if you don't say that they are a swell when you see them we will quit importing.

WE ARE NOT exactly selling our goods at auction, but we are doing the next best thing by selling them at greatly reduced prices. It is not our habit to carry goods over from one season to another, so we must sell our remnants of sizes at once, and at such prices that you will save money by buying of us. These goods must sell even if we incur a war in doing so. Boys' and Men's Clothing, Underwear and Men's Furnishings. We mean business. Call and have a look.

QUESTION FOR ENGINEERS.

Editor Evening Bulletin:—As a friend of mine of an inventive turn of mind is completing some drawings for a patent (he has now a caveat) and submitted the same to me for consideration I have come to the conclusion to leave the discussion and decision rather to some more learned mechanical and hydraulic engineers, readers of your highly esteemed paper, from whom I hope to learn of an answer in your scientific column.

In connection with his work Mr. A. has a large shaft about 25 feet square
and 100 feet deep, filled with water, and intends to sink to the bottom of this shaft, an iron tank full of air, about 15 feet high and 10 feet wide in every direction, with an inlet on top of a 4-inch pipe, running a stream of water into the tank and an outlet for a 4 1/2-inch pipe running down about 5 feet into the water of the shaft with no other possible outlet, while the whole tank rests on a trestle work, about 8 feet high. Now Mr. A. believes that the water coming in naturally from the bottom through this 4 1/2-inch pipe into the tank could be kept down to about 3 or 4 feet in the tank considering the heavy water pressure from above and the compressed air in the tank. "Wouldn't the water coming in from above and below finally unite and fill the tank completely in spite of water pressure and air pressure or rather wouldn't the water lose its power of pressure?" If there were no inlet through the top of the tank the water could not come in through the bottom pipe, he reasons—well, that is true, as anyone can experiment with a common bottle—and to equalize matters Mr. A. hermetically covers that inlet, until used under water, thinking that in that way the compressed air contained in the tank will keep the water out from the bottom and at the same time the pressure from above will keep the air in the tank. I should be highly pleased to hear anything contrary to my opinion, thus assisting my friend.
Trusting that you kindly will give the above space, I remain very respectfully,

INTERESTED READER.

New York Democrat's Preparer.

New York, April 17.—The Democratic State Convention will meet at the Hoffman House Friday for the purpose of calling the Democratic convention to name delegates to the national convention, which will meet at Kansas City July 4th. The impression prevails that the State convention will be held in Albany some time during the latter part of next month or early in June.
There is, however, some talk of the convention being held either in this city or Syracuse.

There seems to be no doubt that ex-
United States Senators David B. Hill and Edward Murphy will go to the convention. It is said that if Richard Croker returns from Europe in time he will be selected and that the Kings county representative will be any man named by Hugh McLaughlin.

CABLE BILL SURE TO PASS FOR SATURDAY SADNESS

Bulletin's Correspondent Fully Reviews
the Situation.

Link to Hawaii Imperative Line Through to Manila May Go by Way of Alaska—House Favorable.

(Special Correspondence.)
Washington, D. C., April 13.—The Senate has recognized the fact that a cable from San Francisco to Hawaii is one of the vital necessities of both commerce and government, and has properly and promptly passed the bill providing for such a cable.

The bill recites that to the end of establishing hereafter, whenever desirable, telegraphic communication between the United States and the Philippine Islands and Japan there shall be constructed, under the supervision of the Secretary of the Navy, a submarine telegraphic cable from the city of San Francisco to the city of Honolulu. That the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to cause surveys and soundings to be made to determine the most practicable route for such cable, and to obtain, by concession, lease or purchase, such lands and rights as may be necessary for establishment of proper terminal stations, and for the right of way on the Pacific Coast or upon any of the islands touched by the cable. That if it shall appear that the work of laying such cable can be ex-pediently, conveniently and economically performed by vessels of the Navy, their employment for such purpose is authorized.

By the provisions of the Act the Secretary of the Navy is authorized immediately upon its passage to enter into the necessary contracts to have constructed and equipped the said line of cable. All of the cable, wires, instruments, appliances and appurtenances necessary in the work are to be of American manufacture, provided, however, they can be procured at a cost not exceeding 12 per cent above what they can be procured for in foreign markets.

When completed the cable shall be transferred to the Postmaster General, who shall establish rates of toll, and who shall provide for the transmission of messages to the newspapers of the United States at a suitable reduction from the rates established for ordinary private messages. The Postmaster General shall establish a fund to be known as the "Pacific cable fund" into which all receipts derived from the revenues of the cable shall be deposited, and the net proceeds over and above operating expenses shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States.

That for the purposes of carrying the Act into effect the sum of $3,000,000 is appropriated.

The passage of the bill by the Senate has been approved generally and enthusiastically by the press of the country and the universal sentiment expressed here is that the House should take speedy action upon the measure.
It is believed this will be done and that the close of the session will witness the enactment into law of the measure.
It is believed also that it is wise at the present time to restrict the completion of the cable to Hawaii. There is serious doubt as to the best route for a line to the Philippines, the contention being made that a line can be constructed by way of Alaska for less money than by extension from Honolulu. But it is regarded as an impeccable and immediate proposition that the line from San Francisco to Honolulu be constructed at once and that this will be done may be confidently predicted.

JOHN A. BRECKONS.

Churchill Cries for Money.

London, April 16.—Winston Churchill telegraphs to the Morning Post from Bloemfontein, under Saturday's date, reiterating his opinion that the war is bound to prove an expensive business. He says: "Two hundred and fifty thousand men will be needed before the end is attained. The question of remounts will continue one of vital importance. Great numbers are now arriving, but, owing to the fact that they have to be put to work before time is given them to recover from the effects of the voyage, their condition is low and the death rate among them high.

"Thousands, therefore, will be wanted in addition to those now here or on the way and great resting depots must be formed, together with an ample staff to nurse and exercise them.
If that is done, then, about four or five months hence, you will be able to give your cavalry a new lease of life and strength."

Coxey Brown and Dewey.

Kansas City, April 18.—Carl Brown, of Coxey Army fame, was invited to address the morning session of the mass convention of Middle-of-the-Road Populists today and created consternation among the adherents of Wharton Barker of Pennsylvania when he strongly advocated Admiral Dewey as head of the Populist national ticket. "Barker," declared Brown, in his characteristic manner, is up against the iron wall of conditions and defeat for him is inevitable. The head of the ticket should be the popular idol of the people, Admiral George Dewey with Wharton Barker or Ignatius Donnelly for vice president.

There was a show of stopping the speaker as he uttered these remarks,
but Brown was permitted to continue.

BY DIOGENES.

Too bad if the rats can't be exterminated as soon as the quarantine is terminated.

Mr. Bryan complains that the Republican party "puts the dollar before the man." The man probably wants the dollar before him where he can get it, provided it be an honest dollar of a hundred cents.

General Miles from the Army, Admiral Dewey from the Navy and Colonel Bryan from the Militia are out for the Democratic presidential nomination. The Militia has most votes, so Bryan needn't worry on that score.
It's after the convention he'll have to hustle.

Yes, it is a cruel war. Yet if Britannia desist or fail, more cruel wars will result to the world's end. A year of these sacrifices of blood and treasure would be cheap for the purchase of a century's peace and progress in Africa.

They are just claims, those from the Chinatown fire—just claims and nothing more, until the treasury come under control of those who will recognize the claims as worthy of at least investigation.

To abolish the cause of the quarantine, happily nearing its end, the Board of Health had the treasury under its hand, the people at its back and no laws interfering with the most drastic measures. Now if it cannot complete the putting of the city into good sanitary condition and keep it so, the new Legislature will have to take the whole matter in hand to save the city, for good and all, from the recurrence of any occasion for placing an embargo on Hawaii's life and commerce. "Sanitation" should appear in capital letters in every political platform at the opening of the new regime.

When the Improvement leagues have made Honolulu the finest city under the flag, and the territorial legislature provided the finest house, upon the finest site, in the finest city, rent free for the Governor—then to be Governor of Hawaii will be with being "right," as the honorable alternative of being President, in the loftiest ambitions of United States statesmen.

Between Boards, Newsboys Exchange. Jose—Hullo, Billy, how'd yer come out in that 7-11 game?
Billy—Aw, shut up. I got rats!
Jose—That's right enough, ain't it?
Didn't the Board o' Health guys pay yer the bounty?

Mrs. Dewey protests that she tried to dissuade the Admiral from going after the nomination. She worked him right that way, though, by getting his fighting dander up. She knew there would be no stopping him then.

Honolulu will never have what can be truly called good government until mud and mosquitoes appear as common nuisances in the penal code, and the authorities be held personally liable under severe pains and penalties for allowing them to exist.

Hereafter the public conscience ought to be protected, in view of the current plague bills, by saying in statutory provisions for emergency expenditures that, under such and such circumstances, "any money in the treasury may be paid out for necessary and other expenses." It appears to be the "other" expenses that have occasioned all the prevailing rumors on this occasion.

Chinaman Killed.

Yee King, a house mover, was killed while attempting to move a house near St. Louis college. Yee King was under the house with his men, giving directions. The jack-screw near him gave way and his head was mashed into an unrecognizable mass between a heavy beam and a rock. The other two men were also pinned to the ground, each sustaining a broken arm. Police officers and others arrived on the scene and got the body as well as the two Chinamen from beneath the house.
The body was taken to the police station and then to the undertaker's.

Transports Released.

Washington, April 18.—Orders have been given to turn the transports Tartar and Westminster over to their owners as the Government has no longer any need for their services.
These vessels have been used by the Quartermaster's Department in the transportation of troops and supplies between San Francisco and Manila.

DISTRUSTFUL OF RUSSIA.

Yokohama, March 31.—If the quick and steady dispatch of telegrams from Korea means aught of a really serious nature the inference would be that Japan and Russia are on the verge of war. Outwardly, however, there is absolute calm, and the tone of the press is but slightly bellicose. The prevalent opinion of the foreign community seems to be that as the conflict is inevitable the sooner it occurs the better it will be for Japan. The latter, with her great fleet, far superior to that of her enemy in these waters, would make short work of Russia's naval force, and command the naval situation, for the time at least, with all the advantage which an added prestige would confer.

But, as in all such crises, in view of what modern war is now known to entail, there is extreme reluctance on the part of either Government to take the decisive step. If it were not for the deep-seated distrust of Russian methods of aggrandizement, of which she has furnished so many object lessons of late, Japan would be strongly inclined to put up with the "assurances" given, that "there is nothing in the demand for fighting to the death against her interests." But the Japanese have been and are keen students of Russian history, and they know what her gaining of a foothold means. They know that a foothold in Korea means the ultimate passing of the peninsula under Russian sway, and this nation is a unit for fighting to the death against that encroachment. Other powers may ask Korea for concessions and leases of libitum, but Russia has too often shown her hand and her plain intent for Japan to trust to any of her "assurances."

JONES DOES NOT ENTHUSE.

New York, April 17.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Senator Jones of Arkansas, chairman of the Democratic National Committee said last night that he had no idea what Admiral Dewey's intentions were, or what line of action he would pursue to obtain a presidential nomination. So far as the national committee as a body was concerned, no letter or communication had been addressed to the Admiral on the subject of his candidacy. Speaking for himself, Senator Jones said he had not written to the Admiral inquiring whether he would enter the Kansas City convention and abide by the result of the convention, but added:

"It is quite probable, however, that others are more curious."

"It is quite possible," continued he, "that Admiral Dewey may be suggested in connection with the vice presidency, but I have not the slightest idea that he will be proposed seriously as a presidential candidate." Public sentiment has already decreed that Mr. Bryan is to be the nominee of the regular Democratic party and in my judgment the men who will represent the Democratic party at Kansas City will carry out the will of the Democratic masses and name Mr. Bryan."

Dewey Owned the Town.

Washington, April 18.—Representative Wheeler of Kentucky, today presented to Admiral and Mrs. Dewey a unique invitation to visit the city of Paducah, Ky., while on their proposed western trip next month. The invitation was enclosed in an oak casket trimmed with gold and silver. It is on a thin sheet of birch which bears the seal of the city of Paducah, and reads as follows:

"To Admiral and Mrs. Dewey.—This town is yours. Pull the latch string—we will do the rest. Don't surprise us, but inform us when you pull."

The invitation is signed by the Mayor and prominent citizens of Paducah. Inside the casket were twelve quart bottles of twenty-year-old whiskey and a cut glass decanter incased in silver.

Turkey Must Pay.

New York, April 18.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says:

The United States Charge d'Affaires at Constantinople will be directed to inform the Sultan that this Government must insist upon the payment without further delay of the $100,000 indemnity for outrages on American missionaries and destruction of their property, unless prompt action on the Sultan's part anticipates the ultimatum and the debt is discharged before a resort is made to drastic measures.

School of Commerce.

Chicago, April 18.—A special to the Times-Herald from Madison, Wis., says:

The establishment of a school of commerce at the University of Wisconsin was unanimously decided upon by the board of regents at their meeting last night. Prof. W. A. Scott is made director of the school and a professor of commerce is to be appointed by President Adams.

Meeting of Emperors.

Rome, April 18.—The Tribune today says the forthcoming meeting of Emperor William and Emperor Francis Joseph in Berlin has in view arrangements for the occupation of Albania, European Turkey, by Austro-Hungarian troops. This statement has caused a sensation in Italy.

Favor Overhead Trolley.

Chicago, April 18.—The Chicago Electric Traction Company has applied to the city electrician for a permit to change its electric system from the storage battery to overhead trolley. When this change was made the only storage battery street car line in Chicago will be scratched from the map.

Board your horse at the Club Stables if you want it well and kindly cared for.

Hepburn Will Force
Canal Consideration

New York, April 18.—A special to the Tribune from Washington, says: Chairman Hepburn of the Committee on Inter-State and Foreign Commerce and other advocates in the House of Representatives, of immediate legislation to provide for the construction of the proposed Nicaraguan canal, have become extremely impatient on account of what they regard as an unreasonable delay and they are threatening to make the situation interesting as well as unpleasant for those they believe are exerting their influences for further delay because of their hostility to the project itself.

The Hepburn bill was favorably reported to the House two months ago, since that time the Hay-Pauncefote treaty has been signed and is now pending in the Senate for ratification with little or no prospect for favorable action until next winter, if ever. The preliminary report of the Walker commission has not yet been made and submitted to Congress and probably will not be for some time.

Vexed by the delay and untoward prospect the advocates of the Hepburn bill are trying to force its consideration and passage by the House at this session. Chairman Hepburn has already obtained an imposing array of signatures to a paper requesting the Committee on Rules to bring in a special order providing for the consideration of the bill at an early date specified and for a vote on the bill and all amendments thereto on a day and hour also to be specified. He is confident that such an order would be made by an overwhelming majority and there is every reason to believe that his confidence is justified. There is equally good reason to believe that the bill would pass the House as reported by the committee by a large majority.

NATURE'S WAY.

Mineral concoctions are dangerous. Nature never designed them for healing man. From time immemorial, man's healer was purely vegetable; and from that time to this, nature's unfailing remedy for rheumatism, and kindred diseases, was the same as that found in Kikapoo Indian Oil. It is nature's remedy, and acts as kindly as nature. It drives away pain, kills the dread rheumatism and restores the weakened tissue. It is made the same as the Indians made it centuries ago, out of roots, bark, herbs, gums, leaves, gathered from nature's unerring laboratory. Its record for cures is unparalleled. Before civilized man had heard of it, it kept the natives in perfect health. And since civilized man has known it, the category of cures has become voluminous. No other medicine has made such cures, because Kikapoo Indian Oil is nature's remedy, and nature stands back of it. Your druggist has it, or can get it. Insist on getting the genuine Kikapoo Indian Oil. Hobron Drug Co., Agents for the Kikapoo Indian Remedies.

Another Stanford Legacy.

Sacramento, April 18.—The Bee this evening says that the Leland Stanford Mansion, located at the corner of Eighth and N. street in this city was today presented by Mrs. Stanford to Right Rev. Bishop Grace of the Catholic Diocese of Sacramento, and his successors, together with an endowment fund of $75,000 invested in interest bearing bonds.

The mansion is to be known as the Lathrop-Stanford Children's Home. A certain number of children under the age of eight will be kept clothed and instructed and the Sisters of Mercy will probably have charge of the institution. The home is to be used in any educational way which will realize the ideas of Mrs. Stanford.

Plague in India.

Simla, April 18.—The deaths from plague throughout India during the past week slightly decreased, but the aggregate is still upwards of 4,000.

New Plague Ports.

Cairo, April 18.—The bubonic plague is reported to have made its appearance at several ports on the Red Sea.

C. Hedemann, E. E. Paxton and F. C. Smith, who returned from Hawaii to-day, bring accounts of conditions on Olua plantation which are cheering to holders of shares in that property.

All the way from 20,000 to 30,000 tons of sugar is estimated as the first crop of Olua to be harvested in 1901.

There is 1300 acres of cane growing beautifully, and 700 acres is ready for planting, besides which between 2000 and 3600 acres is being rapidly prepared.

Grading for the mill site is progressing. The railway from Hilo has working trains running to within three miles of the mill site, and will reach that spot inside of thirty days. Part of the material and machinery for the mill is on hand.

An ample supply of water for fluming the cane to the mill has been developed, which ensures a cheap solution of the transportation problem.

Frank B. McStocker has established a high standing for himself as manager. His successful solution of labor troubles has been masterly, attracting the wondering admiration of experienced plantation men. With an efficient corps of overseers under him, Mr. McStocker has proved himself equal to every problem as it arose.

Lahaina, Maui, April 26. — The strike both at Lahaina and Olowalu has been amicably settled by and between the parties concerned. Manager Althorn of the Pioneer Mill, Lahaina, has acceded to the demands of the Japanese, and has paid about $1500 in settlement; $500 to each of the families of the three Japanese who were accidentally killed by the falling of a pan in the mill some time ago.

The case of Hashimoto Seiken against the Olowalu Sugar Co. and A. Haneberg, manager, has also been amicably settled. Mr. Haneberg paying about $1,000 to the Japanese strikers who have all gone back to work. This case which was continued from last week was heard at Lahaina courthouse before Circuit Judge W. Kalua at 11 o'clock this morning.

On account of the prior settlement, Mr. Hashimoto Seiken, the plaintiff, did not appear in court, and so Judge Kalua decided in favor of defendant appellant, and plaintiff to pay costs. The contract of Hashimoto Seiken has been cancelled, that being one of the conditions of the settlement.

"Who is that, sonny?"

"A stranger."

"A stranger? Well, heave — brick at him!"

The instinct which causes the majority of people to regard newcomers more or less in the light of interlopers is not wholly confined to the Wild West "digins," where the above conversation is reported to have occurred. In all small communities a "stranger" has to contend against a certain feeling of resentment. Every act, however well intentioned, seems to evoke a feeling of antagonism from the old residents. They regard with suspicion each attempt on the part of the alien to take a share in local matters, or even to be charitable and hospitable. — New York Tribune.

Summary of the Week's News

Monday, April 23.

The trouble at Heia plantation Friday afternoon did not cease with the declaration by Dr. Howard that the Japanese kicked by a lulu in the field was by no means stable to work. All day Saturday and Sunday the Japanese were in a sorry mood, although on the former day all, with the exception of the shamming fellow, went to work.

On Sunday there was more time for discussion. The Japanese called an indignation meeting in the camp. During this meeting, one of the Japanese, seated on a railing of one of the houses, fell over backwards with the result of a broken arm, case of concussion of the brain and several bad bruises. It seems the railway gave way with him. The fellow remained unconscious a couple of hours and is now in a pretty bad plight.

Early this morning the manager and amas found that the Japanese had struck in a body, many claiming to be unable to work on account of illness.

A little later on, police officers arrived at Heia from Kaneohe and placed under arrest the lulu who assaulted the Japanese Friday afternoon. The Japanese and head men of the plantation went over to the Kaneohe court house where the lulu pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and battery and was fined $5 and costs. The shamming Japanese was present in court, he having been carried there by his countrymen. The fellow claimed that he was totally unable to walk.

The crowd from Heia returned to the plantation close upon 12 o'clock and again assumed a sullen mood.

Manager Bull placed himself in communication with Marshal Brown who instructed the Japanese of the plantation that if they refused to go back to work, he would take the whole gang to Honolulu.

Friday, April 27.

As a New York telegram in yesterday's second edition stated, Edward Pollitz was confident of the success of his errand to the metropolis, which was stated to be the listing of Hawaiian securities on the Exchange there.

A recent number of the Wasp says in effect that, among the knowing, the stock listing in question was a minor part of Mr. Pollitz's mission. The paper hinted that he was engaged in a large deal, one that would most favorably affect the class of investments he represented.

E. C. Macfarlane, of the Hawaiian Stock Exchange, was asked if he had knowledge of the nature of the deal in question, and answered:

"I have received letters from California assuring me that Mr. Pollitz was succeeding in New York even beyond his expectations. While I am not advised of the nature of any deal beyond the listing operation, I am certain that the mission of Mr. Pollitz will be of very great advantage to Hawaiian securities. Mr. Pollitz has the highest financial connections in New York, and, from what is already known, you can say there is little doubt he has interested J. & W. Seligman in Hawaiian investments. It may be depended upon, that whatever of our securities Mr. Pollitz gets listed on the New York market are those which will stand on their merits."

John W. Winter's funeral took place from his late residence in King street at 11 o'clock this morning. The pall bearers were A. de Souza, Canavarro, Captain Christensen, Henry Vida, W. Porter Boyd, Henry Pfleger, Chas. Creighton, William Woon, H. M. Whitney Jr. The late Mr. Winter leaves, in these islands, besides his wife nee Kruger and a young family, Frank L. Winter, brother, living at Hilo, Mrs. E. R. Hendry, Mrs. Albert Horner and Miss Alice Winter, sisters, and, in the States, William Winter, brother. His father's visit to Honolulu shortly before his death a few years ago will be remembered by many residents. "Jack" Winter will be greatly missed, both in a wide circle of friends and in the arena of many sports. He was one of the most enthusiastic supporters of the American national game here, having been a strong player of ball in the amateur period, and since his retirement from the diamond an earnest patron, a strictly fair umpire and a keen critic among the prominent "baseballers."

Eleventh of June races are not going by default. Last night the annual meeting of the Hawaiian Jockey Club was held at the Pacific Club, when a committee was appointed to collect funds for renewing or renovating the buildings at Kapiolani park track. It remains to be decided by the executive committee whether a half day's prelude to the Derby will be held on Saturday the 9th of June. Officers were elected as follows: W. G. Irwin, president; G. P. Wilder, treasurer; D. P. R. Isenberg, secretary; David Kawanakoa, C. J. McCarthy and C. L. Crabbe, executive committee.

New York, April 19.—Edward Pollitz of San Francisco is in New York endeavoring to secure the listing by the Stock Exchange of the more important Hawaiian sugar stocks. He is at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, and in discussing his mission expressed himself as being quite confident that he would succeed. No expression is yet obtainable from the officials of the Stock Exchange who will deal with the matter. The value of the Hawaiian stocks is well known here, and at present it is not anticipated that there will be any very serious objection to the plan. If Mr. Pollitz succeeds his work will prove very valuable to the business interests of both Honolulu and San Francisco.

Monday, April 23.

James Campbell, the aged capitalist, died at his Emma street residence on Saturday evening. He was a native of Londonderry, Ireland, and 74 years of age.

Mr. Campbell had an eventful career. He arrived at Lahaina as carpenter on a whaler in 1852, and settled down there. Six or seven years later he sustained the loss of his first wife, a European whom he had married at Lahaina.

From his late wife he inherited some land, which, with his own accumulations, enabled him to start a sugar plantation. Sule power ran the mill. King Kamehameha V. followed his example, his plantation eventually being absorbed by Mr. Campbell's. In partnership with Harry Turton, who died a few years ago after having been many years sheriff of Maui, Mr. Campbell started the Pioneer plantation whose stock has now long been gilt-edged.

Mr. Campbell in 1879 married a second time, his choice being Miss Abigail Mainpine Bright, a part Hawaiian, who survives him holding the universal esteem of the community as a leader in works of benevolence. Four daughters out of eight children of this union are living, the two eldest of whom are being educated in California. The two younger ones returned with their parents from the Mainland only a few days ago.

The dead capitalist leaves a rich estate. Besides the Honolulu lands under lease to the Ewa plantation company and other extensive agricultural and pastoral lands, he owned a great deal of improved real estate in Honolulu, also the St. James hotel at San Jose, Cal., and a large interest in the First American Bank of Hawaii. For several years past he had spent much of his time in travel, while his business affairs were in the efficient hands of Hon. Cecil Brown.

A sensational episode in Mr. Campbell's career is still fresh in memory. This was his being kidnapped by two confidence men in San Francisco, who, having stunned him with a blow in a room to which they had lured him, bore him away to a house. They stole over $300 from his pockets and detained him, handcuffed and chained to a bed, without food or drink for two days while they tried to intimidate him into signing an order for $20,000. When the ruffians had first engaged him he looked calmly into the muzzle of a pistol one of them held and refused to hold up his hands. Having failed to reduce his courage by confinement and threats, the men at the end of the time mentioned let Mr. Campbell go. Despite their warnings of vengeance if he should follow them up, he lost no time in putting the officers of justice on their track with the result that Winthrop, the leading desperado, is now serving sentence in San Quentin for the outrage.

The funeral of the late James Campbell will take place from the house in Emma street at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Bishop Willis will conduct the services, beginning at 2:45. Interment will be in Nuuanu cemetery. The pall bearers are J. O. Carter, Godfrey Brown, E. S. Cunha, J. M. Dowsett, Dr. F. L. Miner and H. M. von Holt.

Monday, April 23.

John W. Winter, known throughout Honolulu as "Jack," died suddenly this afternoon at 1:05 o'clock at his residence on King street. Among his friends it is known that Mr. Winter had been ailing for several weeks. Last Sunday afternoon he attended a party at Harry Vida's, and did not complain of sickness during the evening. His wife states that she was awakened at 1 o'clock this morning by his loud snoring and that he turned over and went to sleep at once when she disturbed him by shaking him by the shoulder. She arose at the usual time and when breakfast was ready tried to awaken her husband, but found him unconscious.

Dr. Sinclair was immediately sent for and arrived at 8 o'clock. He at once pronounced it a stroke of apoplexy and Dr. Cooper was called in consultation. Mr. Winter never regained consciousness, however, and died early in the afternoon as stated. He leaves a wife and several small children. He was 44 years of age and was born in Galesburg, Ill., where he resided many years, and until he came to Hawaii about twelve or thirteen years ago. For several years he was with Wm. G. Irwin & Co. and afterwards became identified with the Hollister Drug Co., of which he was secretary and bookkeeper at the time of his death. He leaves an estate consisting of a life insurance policy of $5,000 and an interest in the Hollister Drug Co. The time of the funeral will be announced hereafter.

Wednesday, April 25.

At the meeting of the Executive Council this morning letters from Mr. Hartwell at Washington dated March 30 and April 12 were read.

The Minister of Finance was authorized to pay $1460 and $1200, respective expenses for February and March in school payrolls.

The Waiwae Co. was granted an amendment of charter relative to date of annual meeting.

A report from the Surveyor General was read, in regard to water available on the slopes between Palolo valley and Kalihi, and it was decided to measure the water in the various streams about July, or during the dry season.

Mr. Young asked questions about the sale he had been authorized to hold of effects in the Executive building. It was decided that any articles of furniture, which heads of departments deemed not necessary, might be sold. Mr. Mott-Smith will make a list of articles to be sold out of the bungalow.

Thursday, April 26.

Monied men and philanthropists should not forget that the auction of the first wireless telegraphy message will be held on May day, next Tuesday. The proposition of Manager Cross of the Inter-Island Telegraph Co. is to turn over the first message taken from the wireless system to the person making the highest bid. The money secured from this sale will be given to such charitable institution as the purchaser may elect.

Council of State Adjourned

Monday, April 23.
Following is the resolution passed at the Council of State this afternoon dealing with the Court of Claims:

Honolulu, April 23, 1900.

Whereas the records of the Council of State show that on January 22d, 1900, President Dole announced to the Council of State that he would ask President McKinley to approve of the appointment of a Court of Claims in connection with the fire of January 20th, 1900, and that such Court should consist mostly of business men, and

Whereas, on April 2d, 1900, such a Court of Claims was appointed by the Executive of the Government, which Court had five members, all of whom were lawyers, and who were to conduct the proceedings of the Court under the following rules, thereby making such a Court a Court to consider primarily the legality of claims rather than their justice and merit:

Here Mr. Dole's executive order is given in full:

Whereas the act introduced and recommended by the Executive, appropriating funds for the carrying on of said Court, was laid on the table by a unanimous vote of the Council of State, which action met with unqualified endorsement of the citizens and residents of the Republic of Hawaii, and

Whereas on April 11th the Council of State adopted the following resolution, after the whole of the correspondence, between the Executive of Hawaii and President McKinley, referring to this matter, had been laid before it:

Here the Bolte resolution asking for a new court is quoted.

Whereas the Executive Council reported on this resolution on April 8th, as follows:

The Executive's reply to Mr. Bolte's resolution is quoted in full.

Whereas it appears from the above, as well as from the correspondence with President McKinley and from the long time elapsed between the receipt of the authorization from President McKinley and the appointment of the Court, that the Executive has changed its mind and is now trying to evade the responsibility assumed by it on January 22d, 1900, therefore be it

Resolved by the Council of State:

First, That the interpretation by the Executive Council of the words "just claims," by the statement that "an authoritative recognition of a claim as just must be in accordance with the Hawaiian law," would be a correct interpretation if the words had been "legal claims," but as the words used by the Council of State in the resolution of April 11th are "just claims," there is no such ambiguity of meaning as the Executive Council has tried to force upon these words. The interpretation of the Council of State of the words "just claims" is: claims which are "true, accurate and equitable." This interpretation means that every claim should be considered on its merits and no claim thrown out on strictly legal or technical grounds, following out the principle that all property destroyed by the Government for the public good should be paid for by the Government. This principle has been followed out by other governments as well as the Hawaiian Government in similar cases, viz.: Payments during the last twelve months by the Governments of Hongkong and Cairo of all damage done in the suppression of the bubonic plague, and payment three years ago by the Hawaiian Government of all damage done by the action of the Board of Health in the suppression of the epidemic of cholera.

Second, That, as the Executive states, that no reasons are set forth by the Council of State why the present commissioners of the Court of Claims should be dismissed and a new Court be appointed, and as the Executive gives as reason for the maintaining of the present Court of Claims, consisting of five lawyers, that the practice and precedence of all Hawaiian Courts must be upheld; that it is the sense of the Council of State that the very reason that the practice and precedent of all Hawaiian Courts must be upheld is the reason why the Court of Claims should consist of business men, as it is the understanding of the Council of State that all questions of fact are decided in the Hawaiian Courts by juries composed of business men, and legal and technical questions are left to the judge, who presides.

Third, That the Council of State considers that all powers relative to the Court of Claims as well as to appropriations for settlements of awards made by such Court, emanate from President McKinley to the Executive Council as well as to the Council of State and that it is therefore not necessary for either the Executive Council or the Council of State to extend the law, even if they had such discretion. It is therefore not necessary to entail further hardship upon the large number of sufferers, who have lost their all, by waiting for legislative authority.

Fourth, That, as the Executive Council refuses to accept the advice of the Council of State and does not heed resolutions to the same effect passed by the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and by mass meetings of the sufferers, that, therefore, in order to relieve the present unfortunate situation as soon as possible, the Council of State respectfully requests that President McKinley advise the Executive Council of Hawaii as to what further steps are to be taken in this matter and also that the Secretary of the Council of State forward copies of these resolutions to President McKinley and to the Executive Council of Hawaii.

Honolulu, April 23d, 1900.
At 3:45 the Council adjourned without day.

Tuesday, April 24.

The Council of State met for the last time probably yesterday at 3 p. m. There were present President Dole, Ministers Mott-Smith, Young and Damon, and Counsellors Isenberg, Achi, Kaulukou, Allen, Gonsalves, Robertson, Jones, Gear, Bolte, Kennedy, Kane, Nott and Robinson.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Gear asked the Minister of Foreign Affairs for the correspondence of the Washington State Department about the disposition of the claims of aliens imprisoned as suspects in 1895.

Minister Mott-Smith replied that after annexation the correspondence with foreign representatives terminated and the settlement of the matter was referred to Washington. Hon. H. M. Sewall had been furnished with full memoranda of the matter and the latter gentleman had handed him a note in reference thereto as follows:

"I have the honor to advise you that I am in receipt of instructions from the Secretary of State to the effect that all claims existing against Hawaii in favor of the subjects or citizens of foreign lands prior to and at the time of its annexation to the United States are referred back to the local Hawaiian government for its consideration and settlement."

Mr. Gear asked if this was all of the correspondence which passed.

Minister Mott-Smith replied that one letter had since been received in which the additional word "determination" had been inserted and the clause of the instructions relating to the claims now stood so that they were referred to the Hawaiian Government for "consideration, determination and settlement."

Mr. Gear asked what the occasion was for the second letter and why had the word "determination" been added to the instructions. Had the local government written to Washington and drawn out the addition.

Minister Mott-Smith replied that he did not now remember whether the government wrote directly or whether the inquiry was made through Mr. Hartwell, who knew what was wanted.

Mr. Gear asked if Mr. Hartwell was the Special Agent of the Foreign Office at Washington.

Minister Mott-Smith replied that he was not, but was the special agent of the Hawaiian Government and was paid out of the Consular and Diplomatic appropriation.

Mr. Robertson asked if Mr. Hartwell had found out about the matter of claims.

Minister Mott-Smith replied that the instructions, as amended, were doubtless the reply to Mr. Hartwell's inquiry.

Mr. Gear moved the adoption of the resolution regarding the Court of Claims, which was published in yesterday's Bulletin.

Mr. Robertson said he would vote against the resolution. He did not think it was the proper function of the Council of State to ask President McKinley to give advice to the local government; it was not proper under the terms of the Constitution. We should not bother President McKinley with the details of our local affairs. He had too much respect for President McKinley to ask this of him. He should be sorry to see the Council of State getting down to such little work. Besides he thought that some of the statements made were inaccurate. He cited the claims paid during the cholera time, when some garden and taro patches were destroyed. If anything else was destroyed and paid for he did not know what, and did not think anybody else did. He held the resolution was beyond the province of the Council of State and was impertinent.

The resolution was adopted, all the Counsellors, except Mr. Robertson, voting in the affirmative.

At 3:35 p. m. the Council adjourned sine die.

Tuesday, April 24.

The Government has letters from Washington containing the news given in the second edition of the Bulletin yesterday. President Dole regards the conference committee on the Territorial bill a very good one.

A telegram has also been received by the Government announcing that President McKinley has extended the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims, for adjudication of sanitary fire losses, to cover the Hawaiian Islands instead of merely Chinatown as in the original authorization.

President Dole said no to a question as to whether the Court of Claims could proceed without supplies being voted by the Council of State.

"Then the Council of State has stalled the whole business?"

"Yes," answered the President.

Thursday, April 26.

The members of the Philippine Commission went down the road to Ewa this morning in company with Special Agent Sewall, Captain Merry and a number of others. Tonight they will be entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. Sewall in Waikiki.

Three of the elegant new chair cars built at the O. & L. Co.'s shops in Honolulu formed part of the special train that carried the Philippine Commission party down country today. Such fine specimens of Hawaiian home manufacture in railway carriages must have strongly impressed the eminent folks with the advancement of the arts in these islands.

From the Seat of War

(Associated Press Special.)

London, April 17.—At last Roberts seems to be on the eve of making his main advance towards Pretoria. Unless all the usual reliable sources of information and all the indications smuggled past the censor are at fault, the British army within a few days will be marching northward.

After many premature and unfounded reports that have purported to tell of this move there is naturally even, in the best informed quarters considerable hesitancy in settling upon the day Lord Roberts is likely to leave Bloemfontein, but there is a settled impression that it will occur either at the end of this week or the beginning of next.

The long, weary wait in the Free State capital has apparently effected a much needed rehabilitation, though it is probable Lord Roberts would still further have delayed his advance had not the Boer activity forced him to put his forces in such position that unless they quickly proceed northward the strategic advantage will be lost.

Thenceforth agree in the supposition that the advance will be made in parallel columns with a broad front west of the railroad, the third and eighth divisions sweeping northward to the extreme northwest, the entire force amounting to 75,000 men.

Exactly what part General Buller will take is still a secret, which no one is able to probe.

From the seat of war, there is significant silence. From The Hague comes the news that the Boer delegates refuse to make public the object of their mission. They hope to be received by Queen Wilhelmina, but nothing in this direction has yet been decided upon.

(Associated Press Special.)

Maseru, Basutoland, Monday, April 16.—The Boers for two days past have been displaying great activity along the Reddersburg and Rouxville roads. Their scouts report that the British are advancing on those places to the relief of Wepener and the Burgheers consequently are divided whether to remain or to retire. A majority of them desire to abandon the investments of Wepener, fearing to be cut off, while the minority, led by Commandant Olivier, are reluctant to move as long as there is a chance to capture Colonel Dalget's garrison.

Scouts have just reported rifle firing in the direction of Thabamochu.

London, April 17.—The Daily Mail has the following from Lady Sarah Wilson, dated Mafeking, April 5th. The pinch of hunger is beginning to be felt and relief seems more distant than ever.

Since March 1st there has been no shelling until today. Commandant Smyman having taken his burghers to bar Colonel Plumer's road. Today, however, he returned and the bombardment was renewed. The military authorities say the British artillery has nothing to compare with the guns now in use by the Boers.

London, April 17.—The War Office tonight published in the Gazette a dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated February 13, submitting General Buller's dispatches describing the Spion Kop and other operations from January 14 to January 24. Lord Roberts deals severely with General Warren and some others. Even General Buller does not escape. Lord Roberts complains that the plan of operations is not clearly described in the dispatches.

After sketching General Buller's intentions, as communicated to Sir Charles Warren, who commanded the whole force, Lord Roberts points out that General Warren seems to have concluded after consultation with his officers that the flanking movement ordered by General Buller was impracticable, and therefore so changed the plan of advance as to necessitate the capture and retention of Spion Kop. Lord Roberts continues:

"As Warren considered it impossible to make the wide flanking movement which was recommended, if not actually prescribed, in the secret instructions, he should forthwith have acquainted Buller with the course he proposed to adopt. There is nothing to show whether he did so or not. But it is only fair to Warren to point out that Buller appears throughout to have been aware of what was happening."

Regarding the withdrawal from Spion Kop, the retention of which had become essential to the relief of Ladysmith, Lord Roberts says:

"I regret to be unable to concur with Buller in thinking Thornycroft exercised wise discretion in ordering the troops to retire. I am of the opinion that Thornycroft's assumption of responsibility and authority was wholly inexcusable. During the night the enemy's fire could not have been formidable, and it would not have taken more than two or three hours for Thornycroft to communicate by messenger with Major General Coke or Warren. Coke appears to have left Spion Kop at 9:30 p. m., for the purpose of consulting with Warren. Up to that time the idea of withdrawal had not been entertained. Yet almost immediately after Coke's departure Thornycroft issued the order, without reference to superior authority, which upset the whole plan of operations and rendered unavailing the sacrifices made to carry it into effect. On the other hand, it is only right to say that Thornycroft appears to have behaved in a very gallant manner throughout the day."

"It is to be regretted that Warren did not himself visit Spion Kop in the afternoon or evening, knowing, as he did, that the state of affairs was very critical and that the loss of the position would involve the failure of the operations. He consequently was obliged to summon Coke to his headquarters, and the command at Spion Kop thus devolved on Thornycroft, un-

Hartwell's Aspirations.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, April 13.—Mr. Hartwell, who has been here during the entire session of Congress, is a candidate for the position of United States District Judge for the Islands. It is probable, however, that Mr. Hartwell will not carry the appointment back with him. He has failed in securing much that he has advocated in the formation of legislation for the islands and has not made as strong an impression as should be desired for a representative of Hawaii.

known to Coke, who was under the impression that the command devolved upon Colonel Hill as senior officer. Omissions or mistakes of this nature may be trifling in themselves, yet they may exercise an important influence over the course of events, and I believe Buller was justified in remarking "There was a want of organization and system which acted most unfavorably on the defense."

"The attempt to relieve Ladysmith was well devised, and I agree with Buller in thinking it ought to have succeeded. That it failed may in some measure have been due to the difficulties of the ground and the commanding positions held by the enemy, and probably also to errors of judgment and want of administrative capacity on the part of Warren. But whatever faults Warren may have committed, the failure must also be attributed to the disinclination of the officer in the supreme command to assert his authority and see that what he thought best was done and also to the unwarrantable and needless assumption of responsibility by a subordinate officer."

The dispatch concludes:

"The gratifying feature of these dispatches is the admirable behavior of the troops throughout the operation."

Allwal North, April 14.—Colonel Grenfell wires that the casualties at Wepener include Quartermaster Williams, Lieut. Halford and Lieut. Duncan and 15 men wounded.

Sir Godfrey Lagden, resident Commissioner at Maseru, telegraphs that no shelling has been heard from the direction of Wepener today. A regiment of British infantry and a battery of artillery arrived Friday.

General Brabant's headquarters and all the mounted troops have gone to Rouxville.

London, April 18.—1:55 p. m.—Lord Roberts' criticisms of General Buller, General Warren and Colonel Thornycroft continue topics of acute interest. All the afternoon papers comment at length on the strictures of the British commander-in-chief in South Africa, taking the same lines as the morning papers, praising Lord Roberts for his frankness and speculating upon what the publication of the dispatches at the present time portends.

Some of them maintain there is nothing left for General Buller but to resign. The St. James Gazette is particularly scathing. Referring to General Buller's report it says:

"Never in the history of armies did it happen that generals scribbled their confessions of failure and defeat, of useless deaths of men and of discredit to the flag in a manner which suggests a careful selection from the forced jocular manner, the slangy language of the horseman, and the gabble of the smoking room in the evening."

The Globe declares that "a more pitiable record of indecision in plan and confusion in execution we have seldom read," and adds that what little reputation General Buller had left has been scattered to the winds.

Practically no developments have been reported in today's South African cables. A despatch from Warren, dated Tuesday, April 17, says: "Finding the Boers busy making new trenches we exploded lyddite shells, following up these with the Maxim. The enemy's ambulance was afterwards observed on the spot."

From Wepener there is nothing later than Lord Roberts' message of yesterday and presumably neither side has gained any particular advantage at any point in the theater of war since the last official despatches were received.

London, April 18.—It is persistently insisted in military circles that Lieutenant General Sir Charles Warren, the commander of the Fifth division in the South African field forces, has been ordered to return home.

It is said that a prearranged order for General Warren's return was cabled to South Africa this morning.

Thursday, April 26.

Under date of April 12, a New York correspondent of H. Waterhouse & Co. writes:

"Our market for raws, owing to lack of competition, declined recently to 4½c. for centrifugals. The situation was unnatural and did not last, and values are again up to 4½c., being our present basis. The American Sugar Refining Co. are showing this season an unusual lack of interest in Java sugars to arrive here in August-November. Usually they try to secure these. If diverted to other countries it will at least not be detrimental to your interests. The Cuba crop is only turning out about 325,000 tons. In addition to the effects of the war, the drought has caused much seed cane planted to be lost. This is all discouraging to new investors, and it will be several years yet before Cuba grows enough sugar to affect prices of the product from more distant countries, and it certainly looks as though the development there would be much slower than we anticipated, even a year ago."

The Tribune's graceful model, its strength and ease of action makes it pre-eminently a favorite with every rider.

Progress of Hawaii Bill Before Congress

Washington, April 11.—Representative M. Levy of New York received a vigorous protest from representatives of the Hawaiian Steamship Company against the amendment to the Hawaiian bill adopted at the instance of Representative Cushman of Washington.

They claim that Cushman does not represent the shipping interests on the Pacific nor the Pacific Coast. These interests do not want the amendment. Had notice been given, the amendment would never have passed the House, for the shipowners of both coasts, with the exception of those of the State of Washington, would have united in protesting against the unjust and damaging legislation. All intention of reflecting on Cushman is disavowed, the letter stating that he is misinformed.

Representative Levy saw Senator Morgan today and laid the matter before him. Morgan having been a member of the Hawaiian Commission, was deeply interested and promised to give the matter his attention at once. Levy will urge the House conference to take the matter up in conference with a view of overcoming the difficulty.

Washington, April 12.—Through the efforts of Representative Cushman, the provision in the Hawaiian bill inserted in the Senate, extending the shipping laws of the United States to those islands, was amended to become applicable one year from the passage of the bill.

Mr. Cushman, in explaining his action, says that the Senate provision would have cut off all shipping between the Pacific Coast and Hawaii in all except American ships, which would have been shut out of the many vessels plying between Puget Sound and Hawaii, which are all foreign vessels. Under his amendment the shipping interests of the Sound will have a year in which to install American ships on the Hawaiian route.

Mr. Cushman says he expects his amendment to be opposed in conference because San Francisco interests controlling American ships running to Hawaii are anxious to have the Senate provision carry, to the detriment of the Sound trade.

Washington, April 17.—After extended meetings a unanimous agreement was reported today by the House and Senate conferees on the Hawaiian Government bill. The Senate conferees yielded to the House measure, which passed as a substitute for the Senate bill as a whole, although a number of amendments were made. In the main the form of government as finally determined upon is that provided by the House. The chief amendments are those providing a district court instead of the Federal court organized under general laws, and the striking out of the House provision postponing for one year the time for applying the coasting laws to Hawaii. The prohibition of saloons in Hawaii as provided by the House bill is retained in a modified form, in effect leaving the matter to local option. The House provisions as to the land laws are retained, including the amendment of Representative Newlands of Nevada, restricting the amount of land to be held by a corporation to 1,000 acres. The other Newlands amendment, providing for a committee to investigate the labor question in Hawaii, is changed so that Commissioner of Labor Wright will conduct the inquiry. The appointment of Circuit Judges, which was the subject of rather earnest differences, was finally decided by leaving the appointments with the President.

The bill establishes a complete form of government for the islands, with a Governor and other executive officers, a Legislature of two branches and a judicial branch, consisting of a Supreme Court, Circuit Courts and inferior courts. The bill provides that Hawaii shall be represented in Congress by a delegate, who shall have a seat in the House of Representatives, with the right to debate, but not to vote. The delegate to Congress is to be chosen at an election of the people. There is no tariff provision in the bill, as the tariff laws of the United States are extended over the islands and the Territory of Hawaii is specifically made a "customs district of the United States," with the ports of entry at Honolulu, Hilo, Mahukona and Kahului.

As to the crown lands, which have been a source of some controversy, it is provided: That the portion of the public domain heretofore known as crown lands is hereby declared to have been, on August 12, 1898, and prior thereto, the property of the Hawaiian Government and to be free and clear from any trust or of concerning the same, and from all claim of any nature whatsoever, upon the rents, issue and profits thereof. It shall be subject to alienation and other uses as may be provided by law.

The Chinese on the islands are given one year to obtain certificates of residence, but the conferees struck out the amendment inserted by Representative De Armond of Missouri, providing that "all Chinese and other Asiatics" arriving since the islands were acquired by the United States shall depart within one year or else be deported by the Government. This latter provision was omitted in view of the belief that the Japanese have secured a treaty status in Hawaii and that their forcible deportation by the United States would invite a serious and needless breach with Japan.

Thursday, April 26.
Inquiries made among those interested in stocks and business men in general show the feeling to be that the listing of Hawaiian plantation stocks in New York, by Edward Pollitz, and the passage of the cable bill will have a most beneficial effect on the commercial and financial affairs of these islands.

George R. Carter said that in all probability Mr. Pollitz will only list those stocks in New York now listed in San Francisco; these may be followed by the listing of others. The larger the market the better will be the prices of the stocks listed. It will have a good effect, if we can let New York investors have some of our dividends. The cable, of course, will be a very great benefit to all kinds of business and will be a great help to private interests as well. While he did not look for the cable to bring a boom, still the gross receipts would probably be much larger than anticipated, and the benefits to the islands would be incalculable. The laying of the cable would directly stimulate the markets here by putting us in touch with the business centers of the world.

J. H. Fisher, president of the Honolulu Stock Exchange, said the listing of the stocks in New York would have the immediate effect that the better class of our stocks would be bought up there for the large dividends they will pay. Communication with the Mainland by cable cannot have anything except a beneficial effect. Access to a larger money market would raise the price of our stocks. We certainly have large dividends paying properties here and our securities would be sought after; this fact would cause prices to go up. When our stocks were listed in San Francisco it had had a tendency to raise the prices of those plantation stocks listed; a like effect would follow their listing in New York, which is a great money center. The success of the matter would largely rest with the majority holders here, as to whether they care to let go of good investments.

I. R. Burns said he believed the listing of stocks in New York and the laying of the cable would make a financial boom in the islands which would be felt in every department of business. He did not agree with some who thought our sugar industry threatened through competition; all that was needed now to make new benefits apparent, was to get to work under the new territorial government as soon as possible.

Will E. Fisher said the islands were greatly in need of outside capital, which should at once be interested here. Capital was quick to take advantage of opportunities and there was plenty of it awaiting the action of Washington, on the territorial bill, to seek investment. The chaotic state of the islands in the past and present has had more or less to do with keeping capital from investing here. He was in receipt of letters by every mail asking for proper investments, but they had all been contingent upon the passage of the territorial bill. As soon as that is passed and the cable laid, Hawaii may look for wonderful prosperity. He had great confidence in Mr. Pollitz and with the listing of our stocks and the completion of the cable the islands would reap the greatest financial and commercial advantages.

Harry Armitage said the cable would make a final success of the Pollitz case. Stock transactions were now badly hampered by the necessity of transacting business by mail. The cable means a large increase in the stock business. Real estate would also be influenced and prices would advance; but it was the stock and security market that would be benefited most. The need of the islands was an increase of ready capital and with the cable this would come. It was impossible now for brokers to carry the large orders from the Mainland, but this inconvenience would disappear with the completion of the cable; then capital could be transferred at once from the Mainland to Honolulu and stocks, paying the largest dividends in the world given in exchange. This meant good times and a boom in financial circles.

San Francisco, April 12.—The Oceanic Steamship Company has been notified that it has been awarded the contract for carrying the English and Australian closed mails for the next ten years, a tri-monthly service being required, touching at Honolulu, Apia or Pago-Pago, which shall be selected by the Government, and Auckland. The rate will be $2 a mile. The company is negotiating with the New Zealand and Australian Governments for carrying mails to San Francisco.

The Oceanic Company has been notified that the Tahitian Government has accepted its proposal for steamship service between San Francisco and Tahiti. A steamer of 3000 tons is to be put on the route, to make eleven trips a year of thirty-five days each, with a speed of fourteen knots, the bonus to be $30,000 a year. The Mariposa or Alameda will probably be overhauled and placed on the route.

Thursday, April 26.
Franklin H. Austin, editor of Austin's Weekly, was advised by a medical friend some weeks ago that he should abandon his editorial work and live in the country for at least a year. Since he has gone to the hospital, Mr. Austin has concluded that he will have to take the advice. He has accordingly tendered his resignation as manager and editor to the directors of his company.

Liliuokalani Will Return.

(Special Correspondence.)
Washington, April 13.—The ex-Queen of Hawaii, Liliuokalani, has been so busy in the last several weeks suffering from the prevalent Washington complaint, the grip. She is, however, recovering rapidly and will, it is expected, soon be in possession of her usual health. Liliuokalani expects to leave Washington not later than the middle of May for Honolulu. She has been following closely the proposed legislation for Hawaii and is satisfied that the House measure will afford a fair and practical form of government for the islands. While regretting that this Congress failed to recognize the claim made by her friends that she be recompensed for her loss of lands and other property, the ex-Queen takes the matter philosophically and makes no complaint.

BRECKONS.

Thursday, April 26.
As an outcome of the matter the Wilder and Inter-Island steamship companies as the principal factors, and the main business houses of Honolulu, have decided to form a corporation for the control of the towage business of the port.

As yet there have been no meetings for the formation of the company so that practically, the whole scheme is in the air, but like the showers during the present month, it is sure to descend and become a reality.

One of the principal men in the movement had the following to say today:

"Of course, if we find that the government can still retain the towage business of this port without an infringement of the law, we will very probably drop quietly out of the scheme we now have on hand. If, however, it should be as we have contended, we will proceed rapidly with the formation of the company. Tugs will be ordered and all arrangements made."

"No doubt the proposition will be a paying one and we will not only make a little out of it but we will assure ourselves of good work with no more dilatory tactics."

Something over a fortnight ago the Council of State passed an appropriation of $65,000 for the purchase of a new tug boat for this port. There was much debate when the proposed item was read, several of the members objecting strenuously to its passage on the ground that the United States laws governing territories mentioned specifically that the government should not operate the towage business as is the case in Honolulu today. To pass the item would be to appropriate money for a purpose forbidden by law.

The matter was looked up but the men who made the objection could not put their finger on the law although they had no doubt as to its existence. The item was passed.

Lahore, Punjab, April 17.—That Great Britain's attitude towards Afghanistan in regard to Russian designs on Herat, does not meet with approval at Kabul (the capital of Afghanistan) is proved by an autograph letter published with the Ameer's consent, in which, after referring to the various rumors, he adds:

"Now when Afghanistan is overwhelmed on all sides, the British Government does not seem to take any interest but enjoys the pride of aloofness and reserve. Whenever I have suggested a check to Russian aggression, I have had no response from the Government of India, except the suggestion that Afghanistan might consent to the construction of railways and Telegraphs. This is impossible, as the Afghans consider that such a step would mean their ruin. Notwithstanding all these troubles I have proved for the past twenty-one years, the firm ally of Great Britain. But now at the last moment, I must inform my powerful ally, the Government of India, that the present is the time for deeds and not talk."

The bacteriological committee on Chinatown soil are awaiting the report of Dr. Hoffmann on samples. Upon that their recommendation to the Board of Health will depend as to whether Chinatown should be opened forthwith to rebuilding. It is not thought for a moment that the Board has power, outside of the question of infection, to hold the land down. However great the public desire to have rebuilding postponed until the Legislature could establish new street lines and remodel fire limits, the Board has really nothing to do with those things no matter if they are indirectly related to sanitation. A member of the Board, who explains the situation in the sense just expressed, adds that another moving consideration is the fact that a new Chinatown is rising in patches all over the city area. The quickest check to this process would be to open up the old Chinatown site.

Circuit Court Has Usual Busy Routine

Thursday, April 26.
Judge Stillman yesterday allowed a fee of $1,000 to P. L. Weaver as attorney for W. R. Castle, administrator of the estate of the late William Dean. This closed the affairs of the administration. In December last Judge Perry declared the legal heirs to be Ann Atkinson, Dosey Ransome, Elizabeth Hall and Thomas Dean, the first three being half sisters of deceased and the last named a half brother. The deceased left real estate in Honolulu, lately appraised at $8,000 value, and about $20,000 in money.

A curious romance is revealed in the testimony of Mr. Castle. He had repeatedly advised Dean to make a will, but all the latter left of a testamentary nature was a memorandum book, wherein, in his own handwriting, he said if anything should happen to him he wished all of his property left to his aunt, Mrs. Edward Robinson, and in case of her death to her children.

Mr. Castle testified that the aunt has been dead fifteen years, and the two cousins are not his nearest relatives, but he did want them to have his property. The reason for that was, Mr. Castle learned, that before he came to these islands he fell in love with a woman, and had made all arrangements to marry her when his father turned around and married her. The children of this marriage were his nearest relatives, but he did not want any of the property to go to them.

Dean was not married here. He was a very skillful mechanic, and did all the nice work at the palace. In the last five or six years of his life he did no work, but lived on his rents in a little cottage just above the first Nuuanu bridge. Sometimes he would go off to Molokai and shoot deer, and Mr. Castle supposed that kind of life was too much for him and killed him.

Louisa Nihoa III petitions for letters of administration on the estate of her mother, Abbie Hoopio Nihoa, valued at $1250, to issue to P. L. Weaver.

Withdrawals of appeals by Dr. Miner and Jas. F. Morgan from Berea street widening awards, of which the fact has already been published in this paper, have been filed in the clerk's office.

Henry Smith, Clerk of Jails, is busy getting out the calendar for the May term of the First Circuit Court. It breaks all records, there being from 200 to 300 cases. The Hawaiian jury criminal calendar is light with but eight cases. There are twenty-five foreign jury criminal cases including two of murder. This favorable showing for the law-abiding character of the native Hawaiian is all the more pleasant to consider in view of the fact that the coming occasion will be the last in Hawaiian history when separate race juries will be empaneled.

Judge Stillman this morning resumed hearing of the bill for injunction to restrain the Kamalo Sugar Co. from selling delinquent shares. Geo. A. Davis spoke eloquently in behalf of the claims of the objecting shareholders. A. G. M. Robertson of Robertson & Wilder represented the company.

After argument the Court granted a temporary injunction restraining the sale of stock until the termination of proceedings now pending.

Mr. Robertson asked that the Court order a bond in the sum of $50,000. Mr. Davis argued against the request, stating that the present value of the stock did not warrant such a heavy bond.

The Court ordered the plaintiff to file a bond of $15,000 within the next two days.

Friday, April 27.
The continued hearing of Kauai vs. Peter High before Judge Stillman this morning was interrupted through the receiving by Attorney Ballou of a telephone message calling him home. A day's continuance was granted.

Judge Stillman has rendered an equity decision in A. S. Cleghorn, administrator, vs. W. R. Castle and others, finding that defendant Castle should pay to plaintiff $3420, with interest from January 1897. This is part of the Antonio Felipe estate matter, in which neglect of formalities by different parties led to a tangle. Robertson & Wilder for plaintiff, W. R. Castle in person, and P. L. Weaver with him.

Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan file a motion for leave to file an affidavit of E. B. McCandless on the motion for new trial of A. G. Mericourt vs. Norwalk Fire Insurance Co.

The decedent Kamalo stockholders have filed their bond for $15,000 in the injunction suit against the company, with Harry L. Evans as principal and Lawrence H. Dees, Harvey R. Hitchcock and Otto S. Meyer as sureties.

W. S. Luce and Thos. Ray Keyworth, executors of the estate of Eliza Luce, deceased, have filed a bond of $10,000 with J. Alfred Magoon as surety.

Board of Health Work For the Week

Thursday, April 26.
The Board of Health met yesterday at 3 p. m. There were present President Wood, Mr. Lowrey, G. W. Smith, Dr. Emerson, Dr. Garvin and Secretary Wilcox. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Dr. Wood brought up the question of raising quarantine and, upon motion of George W. Smith, it was decided "that all quarantine be raised on Monday, April 30th, if no further outbreak of plague occurs."

It was ordered that hereafter the shipment of soy and sake be allowed after fumigation of the outside of the containers.

On motion of Mr. Lowrey all animals were ordered inspected at the port of shipment.

On motion of Mr. Lowrey it was recorded that it was the opinion of the Board of Health that the Government should arrange for the inspection of animals throughout the islands, with special reference to dairy cattle.

On motion of Dr. Emerson the opinion of the Board of Health was recorded that the power to appoint a plumbing inspector lay with the Department of the Interior.

Dr. Wood said the hospital for incurables had asked that the Board of Health be made responsible for the pay of Dr. Bowman, now attending physician, until the permanent hospital was established. Mr. Lowrey pointed out the Council of State had appropriated $5,000 for temporary expenses. On motion of Dr. Emerson it was recorded that the Board did not see its way clear to assume the responsibility or liability in the matter.

Dr. Garvin reported the Japanese Camp No. 1 in Nuuanu valley as abandoned; camps Nos. 2 and 3 as filthy and unsanitary. Placed on file.

Dr. Pratt reported upon the application for raising pigs in Nuuanu valley, that there was danger of infecting the stream near by and finally the Nuuanu stream; that the law had not been complied with in construction of buildings and that the location had been selected upon the watershed. He recommended that the permit be refused. So ordered. Thirty days were given to remove the pigs now there.

President Wood stated that Executive Officer Dr. Garvin called for action in the case of the slaughter house at Iwilei. He made a statement about the insanitary condition of the slaughter houses and the necessity for a new location; and, on motion of Mr. Smith, it was ordered "that the premises occupied by the slaughter house be condemned."

Dr. Garvin made a preliminary report on livery stables recommending that the stalls be made water tight and have a slant of three and a half inches; that all liquid discharges from animals be drained into cesspools; that all places where carriage washing is done must have cement floors and discharge into cesspools or sewers; that all manures must be removed once and twice a week as necessary.

The Executive Officer was ordered to purchase two mules for garbage cart and excavator.

A request from the Puna Sugar Co. to pay $75, and the Government $75 per month, each, on the salary of a physician to reside in the Puna district was referred to Dr. Garvin to confer with Robert J. Yeroff, representing the plantation.

President Wood brought up the matter of delayed bills. Several were examined and approved and the remainder were disposed of under a motion by Mr. Smith ordering that all bills contracted prior to April 1st be approved by the Board of Health through President Wood and payment be authorized.

Dr. Emerson brought up the question of transshipment of German and English freight by the Alameda and on motion of Mr. Lowrey the President or the Board was authorized to act upon the arrival of the steamer as circumstances warranted.

Mr. Zumwalt was ordered to be paid a salary of $75 per month as sanitary officer at Kahului, Maui.

The application of Elders Musser and Storey of the Latter Day Saints, to be allowed to visit the latter settlement, was granted after the raising of quarantine.

Dr. Emerson was ordered to go to Kahului, dispose of the Government property in the camps there and settle with those in charge.

An application of A. M. McLeis for a position was placed on file.

Dr. Carl Hoffmann was granted a license to practice medicine.

An application from Mr. Joseph Morgan for more pay for work done during the plague was laid on the table.

A claim for the loss of sake for $11.37 by a Japanese named Mozaki was referred to the executive officer.

J. D. McVeh was referred to the Interior Department for permission to rent a building at Kalihi.

Croton Landing, N. Y., April 16.—The first blood shed as the outcome of the strike at the Croton dam was the life's blood of Sergeant Robert Douglas of the Eleventh Separate Company of Mount Vernon, who was shot dead by an unknown assassin while he was relieving guard at 8:50 o'clock tonight. The wildest excitement prevailed throughout the camp as soon as the news of the assassination spread to the different tents and the soldiers are frantic over the crime.

$3,000,000 for a Cable to Honolulu

Washington, April 11.—With little debate of consequence the Senate today passed the Pacific cable bill, a measure appropriating $3,000,000 for the construction of a cable between San Francisco and Honolulu. The bill was unanimously reported by the Committee on Naval Affairs, and that it was passed without serious objection is regarded as a compliment to the committee. The bill as reported to the Senate is a substitute for the measure as originally introduced by Hale. It carries an appropriation of $3,000,000 for the project.

The bill provides for a cable from San Francisco to Honolulu, the work to be done under the supervision of the Navy Department, which has made surveys and determined the practicability of the route. The Navy Department may use any of its ships that can be adapted to the task of laying the cable, and if it needs other ships it may charter them. In addition to this, it provides that the Secretary of the Navy, in his discretion if he finds it not practicable to lay the cable by the force of his own department, may contract, under specifications and due advertisement, for the construction, laying and equipment of the cable. All materials and appurtenances shall be of special quality.

Section 5 provides that the cable, wires and other instruments, materials, appliances and appurtenances necessary in the work of laying the cable shall be of American manufacture, provided the same can be procured at a cost not exceeding 12 per cent above what the same can be procured for in foreign markets.

Hale explained that the bill provided for the building of the cable from San Francisco to Honolulu. This, he said, would be in the nature of an experiment, and upon the result of it would depend in a measure the future course of the Government. It might be deemed desirable in the light of experiment to start the Philippine cable from some point like Seattle and proceed to Japan by the northern route.

Pettus moved to strike out section 5 of the bill. "Why," he inquired, "should the Government consent to be taxed on its own business for the benefit of certain manufacturers? It's an absurdity. Even if you do rob the people by your taxes you ought not to rob the Government."

Tillman, of South Carolina, as a member of the Naval Committee, defended the bill, in the report of which all the Democratic members of the committee had joined. While he was not, he said, a protectionist or in favor of subsidies, he regarded the provision in section 5 of this bill in the interest of the people, as it would be a "sort of nursing bottle" to the industries interested. He deemed it a desirable experiment in Government ownership and control, and expressed the opinion that it might prove a good thing for Alabama.

"Up to this date," said Pettus, "Alabama will not accept your bribe. I have seen one great State near mine accept the sugar bribe and I don't like it."

Tillman disclaimed any effort to bribe either Senator Pettus or the State of Alabama, but he was anxious to increase the struggling iron and steel industries of Alabama, and he hoped to see the day when a Government armor-plate factory would be located in Alabama.

"Alabama is not struggling at all," retorted Pettus, with spirit. "Alabama is master of the situation both as to iron and coal. But the great grandchildren of the Senator (Tillman) will be here in the Senate before any part of the armor plates are manufactured in Alabama. This thing is wrong and the Senator knows it."

Pettus' amendment was defeated, 11 to 38, and the bill passed without division.

Wednesday, April 25.

The winner of the second prize may choose any one of these three styles of machines:

SINGER NUMBER 15.
(OSCILLATING SHUTTLE)
Is a easily operated, light running, noiseless, oscillating shuttle, lock-stitch machine, suitable for all grades of family sewing and for light manufacturing purposes. It is finely adjusted and positive mechanical movements, a short self-setting Needle, Independent Thread-Controllers and Stitch Regulators—a combination which secures the highest rate of speed ever attained.

SINGER NUMBER 27.
(VIBRATING SHUTTLE)
Is a light-running, quiet easily operated, self-threading lock-stitch machine, adapted to all varieties of family sewing. Among its latest improvements are the simple Stitch-Regulator, evenly-balanced Tension, Automatic Bobbin-Winder, simple Shuttle and short self-setting Needle.

SINGER NUMBER 24.
(AUTOMATIC CHAIN-STITCH.)
Is a simple, silent, swift and easy running single-thread machine, intended for all kinds of light sewing in the home. One of its many attractions consists in always being ready for use when the needle is threaded.

Number 15 and 24 as above are with top covers.
Number 27 comes with the Cabinet table top.
This table is the latest result of the cabinet-maker's art, in the ingenuity of its arrangement and thoroughness of workmanship. The machine can be folded down below the table against a bent-wood shield that fully protects the dress of the operator and the floor from all dripping of oil, lint, etc. The machine is thus thoroughly protected from dust when not in use, and the closed table can be utilized for other purposes. The hinged extension leaf that covers the machine when down is folded back when it is raised, thus making a tabletop measuring 30 inches in length by 18 inches in width, and affording ample room for the work.

From BERGSTROM MUSIC CO., Sole Agents.

—The conditions of this contest appear in the announcement on the first page. Any person in the Hawaiian Islands is eligible to compete for these prizes. With the great number of competitors who will take advantage of this opportunity to secure one of these elegant prizes with comparatively slight effort, it will evidently be impossible for all to succeed. In recognition of this fact, and that the efforts of all may be rewarded, the Bulletin will give to all who shall have competed for these prizes, and who are not among the fortunate first four in the list, some prize. The value of the prize in each case will be determined by the amount of the subscriptions sent in by each one during the contest.
