The Daily Bulletin.

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party,
But Established for the Benefit of All.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1894.

Much unfavorable comment is heard on the fixing of a musicale in a private house for the night of a concert by visiting artists who have given Honolulu a season of high-class music such as it seldom receives. What makes the matter seem more odious is that it involves the offense of ingratitude on the part of the particular circle that held the musicale. That circle is intimately connected with Kawaiahao Church and Seminary, and, it will be remembered, the Misses Albu soon after arrival generously sang in the church for the benefit of the seminary. All the return they get for this kindness is apparently deliberate injury in getting up a private event that prevents many music-lovers from attending their last concert.

THE LOYAL CITIZEN.

The "loyal citizen" of the leagues and clubs supporting the Provisional Government is an individual who is sworn to uphold government by a small minority. He is mostly a stranger and foreigner whose name is not found in the lists of voters or taxpayers. He may have been a convicted thief or other criminal, who by the law of the land has forfeited civil rights; but the exigencies of the revolutionists set the law aside, and exalt the convict to the pedestal of a party politician and committeeman in receipt of pay as a special policeman. The "loyal citizen" is largely a nomad, who has drifted here from the Pacific Coast on the encouragement given him by the P. G. Consul at San Francisco of obtaining government employment. The "loyal citizen" finds his entrance to his political rendezvous by a secret password and there under oath formulates plans for the government of the country, and by which he becomes the sworn enemy of every one who is by birth or adoption a legalized citizen, and "loyal" to the independence and orderly constitutional government of the country. No doubt the next Republican administration, which we are promised will take a sound interest in our affairs, will formulate a constitutional amendment giving the "loyal citizen" a legal standing in every state or kingdom where he can start a revolution. Until the arrival of that golden epoch for tramps and cut-throats and mercenary thugs, we shall, in the name of all that stands for good order, protest against the usurpation of the rights of citizenship which the party of un-American ideas and practices at present in power are encouraging.

"A VIOLENT ACT."

In an able review of Attorney-General Smith's anti-Chinese bill, a correspondent in this issue asks "what is to prevent the P. G. Councils from passing a law imprisoning every person refusing to take an oath to support them or to take up a gun to protect them, and confiscating their property, and then merely tagging an extra section to it to abolish all constitutional provisions and principles which conflict with the outrageous scheme." When this was indited the writer of it was not aware that Attorney-General Smith had a bill prepared to introduce in the P. G. Councils, which is almost identical in effect with the suppositional legislation against which he raises a warning in advance from the example of the anti-Chinese bill. There is tagged upon this new political inquisition bill of the Attorney-General a clause, abolishing every provision of the Constitution which might invalidate any provision of the proposed enactment. Besides, the bill contains provisions to deprive persons accused under it of the Magna Charta rights of trial by jury and protection of habeas corpus. It is doubtful if Russia or even Turkey can furnish a more outrageous attempt upon the liberty of the subject than this bill presented in cold blood by the Attorney-General. Mr. Damon, himself, although the champion of a secret society that may as soon plot against the Government as against its enemies, sprang to his feet on hearing his colleague's bill read and denounced it as "a violent act." Truly it is a violent act, which could only emanate from the conceptions of cowardly tyrants. It gives an accused person no better show for liberty than the old laws against witchcraft, under which an old woman would be thrown into the water, when, if she sank and was drowned, she was pronounced innocent, and, if she floated, she was pronounced guilty and fished out to be burned alive. Under Inquisitor-General Smith's proposed law a person accused of "lawless intentions" has the burden laid upon him of proving that he has not such intentions. Then no doubt the Inquisitor-General would assume the convenient "discretion" of prescribing as proof of innocence that the accused shall take the oath of allegiance to the Provisional Government and enroll himself as one of its armed supporters and defenders. The provision for dealing with a person who can furnish evidence that he is not "a dangerous person," but cannot quite convince the judge that he should not be put under restraint for public protection, can be called nothing better than a diabolical contrivance for political persecution of peaceable people who cannot be charged with anything worse than a lack of confidence in, or respect for, the ruling oligarchy. It would be a light matter if it was mere stupidity which presumed that one who cannot be proved a dangerous person may yet be "placed under restraint for public protection." But the provision is neither more nor less than one to enable the Attorney-General, when he cannot make good the information of his disreputable spies, to persecute opponents of the Provisional Government who never had any idea of joining in overt acts, even to the extent of confiscating their property, as is really involved in the power given to the judge to put the accused under bonds. The Attorney-General would do himself more credit if he set himself to the task of reforming the administrative work of his office, instead of engaging in fantastic attempts at legislation that will disgrace the Provisional Government in the eyes of all liberty-loving nations.

Stevens' "Brightest and Best."

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Patriot's letter in yesterday's issue of your paper throws considerable light on the rotten state of affairs which now prevails. With your permission I annex a list of some of the prominent P. G.'s, showing how they die for their country:

ONE OF STEVENS' LOW WHITES.

Open Letter to Marshal Hitchcock. SIR.—From certain unmistakable evidences which are proof positive, there are men in your employ presumably as detectives, but whose inability and gross incompetency give their entire game away. Their demeanor is such that, far from being unseen and unknown, although strangers they be, they are just the means for throwing light on the whole game of confidence. One case has come directly under my notice, and in such a manner that all argument to the contrary is of no avail. May this be a word of warning to all, and may I in conclusion ask why the public money cannot be paid to detectives and spies worthy of their hire and not to arrant fools.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd

Saturday, Feb. 24, 1894.

A cent a pound duty on sugar seems to have come closer than a possibility and reached a probability. Hawaii will benefit by this action to an extent that will extend the smile on everyone's countenance. Should it go the other way there will be long faces and few smiles. This is one of the disadvantages of a locality where nearly everything depends upon a single industry. Hawaii is not alone in this respect. Take any of the mining towns in the United States; directly a lead peters out the place is deserted. Twenty-five or thirty years ago one of the most thriving towns in Colorado was Kit Carson; it was the distributing point for all of southern Colorado and New Mexico, outfits were formed there and produce for the mining towns in the lower country was largely purchased there; everyone was prosperous and houses went up like mushrooms; then the railroad built a line to La Junta in the south and Kit Carson as a mercantile town was reduced to a pile of empty tins and a water tank while La Junta jumped into prominence. Kit Carson had but one source of wealth, or if it had others they were not developed. While Hawaii is not in the identical position of this faded-from-view town there is a similarity. This country has undeveloped sources of revenue but legislation in the past has been "agin it." The thousands of acres of valuable and unimproved land should be opened up for settlement; let the country be opened up to the small farmer. There was a time when the Island of Maui furnished potatoes to California, now we look to California and New Zealand for plain everyday "spuds." There is no reason why this change should have taken place. Maui exists to-day in the same locality as when California reached its hand out to gather in our produce. If Maui is not big enough to raise potatoes for the inhabitants of the Hawaiian Islands, what is the matter with enlisting the services of Hawaii and Oahu? When the idle lands are opened for settlement perhaps a change will come and when it does what a boom there will be in the Jones locked fence. Every man who has a ten acre lot will want to fence it and do it well, the only way to do this is to adopt this style fencing. The man who economizes at the beginning will be accustomed to it when prosperity smiles upon him and he will grow rich with age. A fence that will last a life time is what every man who owns an acre of land should have, and there is no other fence in the world that will last as long as the Jones locked fence. Barnum used to say, "keep your eye on day and date." We tell you to keep your eye on the price. Six cents each for stays and fifteen cents a pound for the washers. Your stays are placed six or eight feet apart and your wooden posts from thirty to fifty.

WHY LUCOL

IS THE BEST PAINT OIL.

Dries perfectly solid inside of twenty hours.
Forms a durable and elastic, not a brittle coating.
Retains its gloss longer than any other oil.
Resists the action of acids and alkalis better than any other oil.
Flows freely from the brush without running and spreads well.
With the addition of Litharge, yields a hard surface, suitable for doors, steps, etc.
Mixes readily with pigments ground in oil in paste form.
Brings out the real shades of the colors and keeps them unaltered.
Is a solvent for the most delicate of the new coal tar colors.
Added to varnish greatly improves the working of the varnish.
Does not darken white lead or any delicate colors.
Has greater body than any other oil.
Requires one-third less pigment than any other oil.
Can be added to linseed oil and it will greatly improve the linseed.
Can be thinned with turpentine.
By actual tests, has outlasted the best linseed oil.
Therefore, is the best paint oil ever manufactured.

Direction for Use.

Use Lucol in every respect in the same manner as you would linseed oil, with the single exception that you may add fully one-quarter more Lucol to the same quantity of pigment than you would of linseed.

Alleged Error in Tax Receipt.

Chun Quin was up before the District Magistrate to-day for non-payment of taxes. Quin showed a tax receipt for $5.50 for 1893. A mistake in the year, according to Quin, was made by the tax collector. He paid for this year but the collector put it for last. Quin said he shouldn't be held responsible for the mistakes of others. The case was postponed until this afternoon to allow the prosecution to interview tax collector Shaw on the subject.

J. Mull, a native, paid $5.50 in Court and he was discharged.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one got rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but he will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. ## LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Diamond Head, 3 p.m.—Weather hazy, wind northeast.

Royalists are getting rather tired of that Alakea street E. G. spy.

The Hawaii baseball club will meet in the Y. M. C. A. hall this evening.

Mrs. Mary Allan returns by the S. S. Australia to-morrow to the Mid-winter Fair.

The steamer W. G. Hall is expected from windward at 6 or 7 o'clock this evening.

The P. G. band will play at the Hawaiian Hotel this evening for the benefit of guests leaving by the S. S. Australia to-morrow.

As we go to press the engagement is announced of Col. Geo. W. Macfarlane to Miss Julie Albu, the gifted and beautiful singer. The BULLETIN extends sincerest congratulations.

The failure of the American League's candidate, D. B. Smith, to be elected to the vacancy in the Councils, although he was the sole candidate, was the chief topic about town yesterday evening.

As Theo. H. Davies and son will not be passengers by the S. S. Australia to-morrow, the Hawaiian National Band will not play at her departure. Mr. Davies is booked for the Coast on the S. S. Mariposa.

Thomas Spencer, who a few days ago completed a sentence on the reef for horse stealing, is again under arrest. He is charged with forgery, in passing a bill alleged to be endorsed by Mrs. Gav of Kauai. Spencer is on trial in the District Court this afternoon.

There was a heavy run this morning on the 5-cent Kaneohe stamp of the new issue. Chinese merchants were buying by the wholesale and by noon about $2000 worth of the stamps were sold. The item in yesterday's BULLETIN was the cause of the heavy run.

The rendition of the Hawaiian songs, "Like no a Like," and "Ahi Wela," by Miss Rose Albu at the Opera House yesterday evening, took the house by storm. It enthused the natives so much to hear the foreign lady sing their language so clearly and correctly that sometimes the applause burst out at the wrong places. "Aloha no olua."

RARE FEAST OF MUSIC.

Another Delightful Concert by the Misses Albu and Others.

But a small house responded to Mr. Plunkett's benefit last night. Those who turned out had a splendid musical treat. The Misses Albu fairly surpassed themselves. They were in magnificent voice. As an encore to "She wandered down the mountain side," Julie sang a little gem, "Sweetheart." Rose created almost wild enthusiasm by her singing of two native songs, one as an encore to the other, which had been an encore to "Fond heart farewell." The duet, "Misericordia," the Misses Albu sang with thrilling effect, inducing an imperative recall. Julie's solo in the second part was "Ave Maria," with violin obligato by Mr. Heitman, and the audience had to have it again. The closing number on the program was the duet, "Venetian Boat Song," by the sisters, but, although an encore at the close of a concert as a rule fails owing to some people breaking for the door at the last note, on this occasion the entire audience stayed down until the ladies responded to the applause.

Mrs. Martha Herald Christie of Cleveland, Ohio, who is wintering at Sane Sonei, Waikiki, for the benefit of her health, sang "Petter Land" and "Ecstasy." She bowed her acknowledgments of a hearty encore for the first, and was warmly applauded on her second appearance.

Mrs. Christie has a voice of remarkable purity and sweet quality, which she uses naturally although with evidence of a high degree of cultivation. As the particular ailment from which she is recovering in this climate is deficiency of lungs, Mrs. Christie was truly heroic in consenting to sing at all in public. Indeed, her physician told her that if he had known of it in advance, she should never have appeared with his consent, especially in the trying weather that now prevails. As it is, her efforts are highly praised by the best judges of music who heard her with-out knowing aught of her weak physical condition.

Professor Berger gave the greatest satisfaction to both vocalists and audience by his accompaniments, which he played on his own concert grand piano. The duets played by him on that instrument and Mr. Heitman on the violin were delightful and won loud applause. Mr. Barsotti with flute and piccolo and Mr. Kromer with cornet contributed much to the pleasure of the house.

Matters in the Army.

Whooping Up the Latest War Bug—Elections of Officers.

Ever since the arrival of the Canadian-Australian steamer Arawa, active preparations for something have been noticed about the Executive building. Sentinels have been doubled, the four corners of the square now being decorated with "dog houses." Those are occupied by sentries at night. These precautions are made to give the reported "Queen's Guard," said to have been reinforced by the Arawa, a warm reception should they make a midnight visit. About 9 o'clock last night a shot was heard in the Executive building, but as the flag is not flying at half-mast this morning it is presumed no one was killed.

In the drill shed yesterday evening Co. A volunteers, held an election of officers. Captain Ziegler having resigned to solely command Co. F. regulars. There were two aspirants to the captaincy, first lieutenant Julius Asche and sergeant John Emmeluth. The latter was snored under by six votes and lieutenant Asche was elected captain. Second lieutenant Paul Smith was promoted to first lieutenant, and sergeant Emmeluth to second lieutenant. The appointment of sergeant Emmeluth's successor was left till next meeting. Sergeant Lecker was elected secretary and treasurer. Each company of the volunteer is allowed $25 a month by the government, and Co. A will devote one-half of this amount to a sick fund.

Will Work Another Term.

An Old Chinese Crook is Sent Over Again for Thieving.

Al Loy, an old jailbird, has gone back to his old quarters in Oahu Prison. Loy was arrested the other day for larceny in the third degree in Honolulu on February 27 by stealing certain plants valued at $10, the property of Ah Kai. Detectives Boyle and Paul testified to having arrested prisoner at 11:30 o'clock on the date mentioned near the Eagle House. They had seen him jump over a fence with a bundle in his hand. They followed him up and on arresting him found the plants. Ah Kai stated they had been given to him by a friend. His character not being unknown to the officers, his story was uncredited and he was arrested on suspicion. On the following morning the plants were missing by Captain Kahua owner of the premises from which Ah Kai had emerged. The officers notified Kahua of Ah Kai's arrest with the plants in possession and these were recovered.

Al Kai, owner of the plants, stated that they were valued at $125 apiece. Four plants were stolen. He imported twenty-eight trees from China recently and had Kahua's permission to plant them in his yard.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Leper, a well-known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three or four applications of it," he says, "and I have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by all dealers. ## JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Various Proceedings at Term and Chambers.

All attorneys having cases on the calendar are required to appear to-morrow morning for disposition of their cases.

On a petition for allowance of accounts, discharge and distribution, in the matter of the estate of Ehu, deceased, Judge Cooper has rendered a decision on different claims to the property. Kea and Laepaa, by their attorney, A. S. Hartwell, claimed the entire estate as sole heirs; J. A. Magoun claimed on behalf of Lizzie one-third. Judgment is given against Lizzie. The case turned on the finding that a man's son was his ancestor in the inheriting of the property. Lizzie is a grand daughter and Kea and Laepaa are daughters of a woman named Laepaa who married a second time. A full brother of Kea and Laepaa became heir to the property, which originally belonged to his wife, on the death of wife and son within a few months. Then this brother, Ehu by name, died, and it is his estate that is in question. As a son can be his father's ancestor in law, the case is decided in favor of the sisters of the deceased.

Judge Whiting has ordered Captain Anderson in default at the suit of E. B. Thomas, and that the case may be heard without injury in vacation.

The P. G. case of libel against E. Norrie is continued until next term.

In the matter of the writ of habeas corpus for Reynold Brodie, Judge Whiting has ordered Brodie to appear to-morrow morning for plea from the files was made by C. L. Carter, guardian, and argued by A. S. Hartwell before Judge Cooper, and the matter was continued to 1:30 p. m. next Monday. In the matter of the guardianship of the same person, Judge Cooper this afternoon filed a decision sustaining the demurrer to the amended petition. Hartwell for petitioner; C. W. Ashford and Wakefield for respondent.

Jas. I. Dawsett vs. Flora Jones et al., jury waived, was argued before Judge Whiting this morning. Magoun for plaintiff; Hartwell for defendant.

The Mahi divorce case was partly heard and continued for the term. C. W. Ashford for wife, plaintiff; Kinney for defendant.

The Cartwright divorce case is also continued till next term.

For seven years or more Mrs. W. D. Louder, of Quincy, Ky., was subjected to severe attacks of cramp colic. Mr. S. R. Morse, a druggist of that place, recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has effected a permanent cure, saving her much suffering besides the trouble and expense of sending for a doctor, which was often necessary. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Awarded!

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co.
Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their
"EAGLE" Brand Beer.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28, 1893.
Messrs. MACFARLANE & CO., L.D.,
Honolulu, H. I.
Dear Sirs:—We have mailed you a copy of the Globe-Democrat announcing the great victory won by the ANHEUSER-BUSCH ASSOCIATION with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Signed) ANHEUSER-BUSCH BREWING ASSOCIATION.

(Special Despatch to Globe-Democrat.)

WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 26.—No award has ever been made so gratifying to the American people and so justly merited as the one given today by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank, to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association. By methods of unrivaled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given today by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms anew the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.

from not to exceed $100 or 1 month's hard labor for a first offense, to not to exceed $500 or 6 months' imprisonment for any succeeding offense, or deportation. That is for a second and subsequent conviction of a violation of any of the provisions of or regulations under this law the offender may be torn from his family and relations and per born here or not, if he has the misfortune to be "wholly of Chinese or Mongolian birth or descent."

This Section 8 has a second clause as follows: "Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to Chinese engaged as domestic or agricultural laborers who shall perform mechanical work for their employers." I will not enlarge on this, as every newspaper published in English here has already shown what a loophole this admits for evading the provisions of the Act by those who have wealth and influence enough to do so. Suffice it to say that with this sub-clause the Act would become like so many others on our statute books, a dead letter, only revived for purposes of petty or personal spite or political persecution.

Section 9 gives District Magistrates jurisdiction to try all cases arising under the Act.

Section 10, however, is so remarkable that I quote it in full as the third prominent inherent defect in the Act, and desire all who read this to ponder it well and reflect on the logical consequences of its passage and enforcement by our Courts. It is as follows: "Section 10. All Constitutional provisions and principles in so far as they conflict with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed." That is to say the equality of all before the law, the equal right of all to the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness, the prohibition of class legislation, the nullity of ex post facto laws, are all done away with as far as the Chinese are concerned.

Now if it were only the Chinese that were thus affected a selfish person would say, "Let them look out for themselves." But when you begin to knock out one of the foundation posts what is to prevent the rest being knocked out in turn and the whole structure coming to the ground? What is to prevent in future the Portuguese or Japanese becoming in turn obnoxious, from their competition, to the traders or mechanics and being served the same way? What is to prevent in the future the rising up of the Hawaiian born whether of pure, mixed, or foreign blood all combined together and enacting that "all constitutional provisions and principles" which conflict with the passage of some law prohibiting all those of "wholly American, English or German birth or descent" from engaging in certain occupations? Nay, what is to prevent the present P. G. Councils from passing a law imprisoning every person refusing to take an oath to support them or to take up a gun to protect them, and confiscating their property, and then merely tagging an extraction to it to abolish all constitutional provisions and principles" which conflict with the outrageous scheme.

All free men and lovers of liberty should cry down such an outrageous attempt at the subversion of the principles and practice of liberty as this. All who wish to guard their own safety and freedom should scornfully repel this audacious attempt on the liberty of others. Who knows when your turn will come if this become law without protest or resistance? Look to it that it does not become so or farewell to freedom in Hawaii forever.
How strange, too, that those same men who assert to the whole world that their only cause for seizing place and power was to prevent the Queen from abolishing the old constitution by promulgating a new one, should now proceed at one stroke to strike out the whole basis of liberty from that constitution they were so anxious to preserve, that they broke their oaths and rebelled against their Sovereign and Laws, and still stranger to do it by one tiny section added to an Act intended to prevent Chinese from competing in business or mechanical trades with a few white men. Was their love of liberty a blind only? It looks like it. "Eternal vigilance is the price of LIBERTY."

The Provisional Prophets.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The prophets of the P. G. are not in the least abashed over the fact that all their predictions up to date have miscarried. It was foretold by them that annexation was a certainty, just as soon as the evidence of the leading revolutionists would be presented to the Administration by Commissioner Blount. But, lo, the voluntary evidence of the leading conspirators, which was intended to bury the cause of government by the people here out of sight, has proved a boomerang. The statements of the principal actors of the Stevens-Thurston-Doie drama are, to the American people, sufficient evidence of the character of the revolution to stamp it as unjustifiable, and, when weighed in the balance of United States principles, essentially un-American.

The prophets, moreover, predicted that if the President ventured to pronounce for restoration of the state of affairs, to that which existed before the illegal landing of U. S. troops on the 16th of January, 1893, he would be impeached. The impeachment has not materialized. We were told that since the "tidal wave" state elections in which the Republicans were slight gainers that the Democratic members were more than ever sensitive and anxious to get on a better footing with the voters before the next Congressional contest, and therefore the House would reject any proposal for the Administration for restoration. But the Democrats have had the courage of their convictions, they have followed the only safe course for men entrusted with the national honor, to do right, and fear not.

The Republicans, as a party, have by their action on the Hawaiian question, written their epitaph. We want to see the new age, predicted by the seers of the P. G., when the able-bodied American citizen of sound mind goes howling at the polls for a plank in the national platform to seize every small state which is too feeble to defy the guns of American cruisers, and pocket them as "puny barnacles of royalty."

The American people are, at the present writing, exceedingly likely to have a valuable object lesson in Hawaii, one which will, at any rate before the next elections, enable them to feel their way in the business of the further conquest of kingdoms. He would indeed be a bold prophet who would, just now, attempt to outline—judging by the fantastic preambles and resolutions of "loyal" secret oath-bound leagues—what peculiar and irresponsible form of anarchy we are drifting to. In the meantime, the business of the prophets of Baal goes merrily on, not entirely unconscious of the fact that an Elisha may appear. Nemesis keeps watch in the Universe. The belt which Ajax gave Hector dragged the Trojan hero over the field at the wheels of the car of Achilles; and the sword which Hector gave Ajax was that on whose point Ajax fell. This is only fable.
