A "HORSE" ON THE HOUSE

BERGER'S UNCONSCIOUS JOKE ON THE MEMBERS.

Band Plays "God Save the King" in Compliment to Admiral Bickford House Thinks it is "America."

The House of Representatives had rather a grave yard sort of laugh on itself this morning and as one cynic said "momentarily saw itself as others see it."

The House was in the midst of a tangle of motions when Rear Admiral Andrew K. Bickford from the British warship Warspite arrived at the Capitol to call on the Governor. As he arrived the government band struck up "God Save the King." The House couldn't see what was going on but it could hear the music.

Immediately Representative Makekua interrupted the proceedings by saying in Hawaiian that the members of the House ought to rise and remain standing while the national anthem was being played. Speaker Akina adopted the suggestion at once and called on all including those in the visitors' gallery to rise. Several of the members were a little slow to rise and the speaker admonished them. When the music ceased the members sat down again and went on with its parliamentary tangle rather pleased with itself for having so promptly recognized the proprieties.

A few minutes later, the same strains of music were heard. The admiral was leaving the Capitol grounds. This time the speaker did not wait for a suggestion but dropping the matters before the House, rose and indicated to the members to rise. Most of the members rose but some of them looked around at each other as much as to say they thought the band was working "America" pretty hard for one forenoon. Others did not rise at all, and the speaker again admonished them.

While the band was still playing and the strains of the anthem were still floating into the House, Beckley spoke up. "This is out of order," he said. "That is the anthem 'God Save the King,' the national anthem of Great Britain." Everybody looked at Beckley and most of them looked at him as though they wanted to laugh at a man who didn't know that the music of "God Save the King" was the same as the music of "America."

Dickey said he thought there was a good deal of foolishness in the members of the House dropping their business and jumping to their feet every time the music of a national anthem happened to float in at the open windows.

Beckley essayed it again. He said the band was not playing "America" at all but "God Save the King" in compliment to the British Admiral who was calling on the Governor.

This explanation and the finale of the music coming at about the same time gave the House a chance to see how ridiculous it had made itself, and the members sat down with their faces flushed as he sat down said, "who notified the House that 'America' or 'God Save the King' or anything else was being played," but like the rest of the members he was willing to let the incident be forgotten without pressing the point of order he had suggested.

A whole regiment of bands can surround the House and play "America" in a dozen different keys hereafter before the members will rise again to listen to it.

Just before the House took its noon recess, Beckley rose to a question of privilege. He wanted to know if the members must rise to its feet every time the band played "Yankee Doodle," "Marching Through Georgia," or any such tune saying the Star Spangled Banner was the only national tune to be recognized.

Speaker Akina said the action this morning was solely one of courtesy.

When the Senate heard the music it had no patriotic proprieties on draught. To its mind Berger and the band were simply disturbing legislation. The sergeant-at-arms was just on the point of being sent to stop the music when the real situation was learned, and perhaps an international complication was avoided.

SUNDAY LAWS MODIFIED

SENATOR CECIL BROWN BRINGS IN BILL ON SUBJECT.

The Stenographer is to Be Paid $1,000 For His Services. Reports of Committees and Other Senate Affairs.

Senate bills 6, 20, 28, 30 and 31 were reported printed.

The following reports were read: Hon. N. Russell, President of the Senate.

Sir: Your Committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements to whom was referred resolution of Senator J. B. Kaohi for certain appropriations for roads in North and South Kohala would report as follows: First, the road from Kawahae, South Kohala, to Keahualono or boundary of North Kona being the lower government road, over which the weekly mails are carried to Kona and Kau is in bad condition, and the fund has not sufficient to repair it. Your committee would recommend an item of $5000 be inserted in the appropriation bill but should read $4000 for repair of lower government road from Kawahae to boundary of North Kona, and $2000 for repairs to lower government road from Kiholo to boundary of South Kohala.

For the road from Kawahae, S. Kohala, to Puuhue, we would recommend the item of $4500 be inserted in the appropriation bill.

The last item asked for we consider will be covered by the emergency bill. We therefore recommend that the resolution be laid on the table to be considered with the appropriation bill.

JOHN D. PARIS.

Hon. Dr. N. Russell, President of the Senate.

The minority of the Judiciary Committee begs to report on Senate Bill 26, which has already been reported upon by the majority, that the bill be laid on the table that the introduction of the bill may have an opportunity to rearrange the subject matter. The proposed bill embraces different subjects which is contrary to the provisions of section 45 of the Organic Act.

G. R. CARTER.

Member of Judiciary Committee. Mr. Carter, minority of the Judiciary Committee, filed a report, recommending that Bill 26, exempting certain property from execution, be referred back to its author for correction to conform with the law.

Cecil Brown, for the special committee on the subject, offered a resolution, fixing the salary of the stenographer for the session at $1,000. The stenographer is to furnish a full report daily of proceedings which shall be printed by the clerk for distribution. The resolution passed.

The committee on leper settlement was given more time in which to report.

Cecil Brown introduced and read his bill to regulate the observance of Sunday. It modifies the present laws. Referred to Printing Committee.

This is the resolution in regard to the stenographer, which passed: Be it Resolved, That the stenographer be paid for the services to be rendered and already rendered by him during the term of the present session, the sum of One Thousand Dollars. That he furnish one copy of each day's proceedings duly transcribed from his stenographic notes; such proceedings shall contain as nearly as can be a full record of all speeches made and proceedings had, during each day's session of the Senate, to the clerk of the Senate. That said clerk shall cause five hundred copies of each day's proceedings so furnished to be printed each day in the English and Hawaiian languages and distributed among or furnished the Senators for distribution in such manner as they see fit.

And be it Further Resolved, That the resolution heretofore passed commanding the clerk to print Five Hundred Copies each day of the journal of the Senate, be and the same is hereby rescinded.

AMENDMENT BY CARTER.

Amend to read that 250 copies be printed in English and 250 copies in Hawaiian.

Mr. Kanuha introduced a bill regulating the sale of liquor, opium and awa in the Territory of Hawaii. This is the Dispensary bill of which so much has of late been said. It passed the first reading and went to the Printing Committee.

Mr. Kanuha's resolution of yesterday, providing for a joint arrangement with the House for the examination of the Dispensary bill, came up and was again bitterly assailed by Mr. White. Cecil Brown and the entire Republican side of the house supported the resolution. Resolution was defeated.

MEAT RATE CUT.

There was a cutting of meat rates at the fish market yesterday and this morning. The Chinese meat sellers and Manager Walker of the Metropolitan Meat Company had a misunderstanding, in which a lively slashing of price occurred. The Chinese cut their prices down to 5 cents a pound yesterday. This was met by the Metropolitan company who sold 5 1/2 pounds for 25 cents. This morning the Chinese were selling as low as 4 1/2 cents a pound. The meat company met this by selling 6 pounds for a quarter. The low prices were taken advantage of by a big crowd and most of the stock on hand was sold. An agreement was reached this afternoon by which the former scale was restored to 7 1/2 and 14 cents a pound.

POLITICAL CLAIMS OF 1895

HOUSE TAKES UP THE WHOLE SUBJECT.

Calls on the Secretary of the Territory for All the Papers in the Matter—A Great Seaf.

In the House this morning the political prisoners of 1895 had an inning. Representative Moesman introduced a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Territory for the names of all political prisoners arrested during the troubles of 1895, the length of time each was deprived of his liberty, the result of any trial had, the nationality of each prisoner, all papers on file in relation to claims for indemnity from the representatives of any foreign power, and generally all papers relating to the subject. The resolution was adopted.

The House has now done its part to supply the great seal for the Territory. Proclamation's bill filing the long felt want passed third reading by a vote of 25 to 1. The bill describes the design of the great seal very minutely and in the language of heraldry. The design is very similar to the present one in general appearance though with variation in details. The figures on the right and left of the shield are to be Kamehameha I as he appears in the statue in front of the Judiciary building, and the Goddess of Liberty wearing a Phrygian cap. Beneath the shield is to be a Phoenix and into the design from which the Phoenix rises are to be introduced taro leaves and other distinctive foliage.

Representative Kanuau introduced his bill providing for teaching Hawaiian in the public schools. It passed first reading.

Ewaliko offered a resolution to insert an item of $100,000 for the widening of Fort street, Hilo. It was tabled to be taken up with the appropriation bill.

Under suspension of the rule Representative Moesman moved to return the communication of the Auditor in relation to payment of official salaries during absence from duty, and to request the auditor to give the amounts paid in each case. This motion carried.

Representative Makulani presented a report from the committee on Public Health on the bill providing for the management and control of the government sewers. The committee recommended some minor changes in the spelling and wording of the bill, and that it pass. The report was laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

House Bill No. 14, relating to the Criminal Jurisdiction of District Magistrates, passed its third reading.

House Bill No. 17, relating to Practicing in criminal cases by persons not licensed and made an order of next Monday.

House Bill No. 18, amending certain sections of the Penal Code, defining felonies and misdemeanors, was called for its second reading. The bill was called for section by section and after a few amendments were made, passed its second reading. It was typewritten and made an order of the day for Monday.

House Bill No. 20, relating to cemeteries, came up for its second reading. It was called for section by section and after a few amendments were made, passed its second reading. It was typewritten and made an order of the day for Monday.

House Bill No. 21, relating to the Board of Health's power in the matters of regulating interments. A good deal of wrangling was done over the same. Makekua wanted his old resolution in regard to the authority of the Board of Health considered with the bill. Final action was postponed until this afternoon.

Puukii introduced the following resolution to be inserted in the appropriation bill. For the repairs on the roads in the District of Hanalei, Kauai, $6,000; second, for a bridge across the Kaibihai stream, $5,000; for a bridge across the Lumahai stream, $6,000 and for a bridge across the Wainiha stream, $4,000.

Ewaliko presented the following resolution. That the Secretary of the Territory be and he is hereby requested to furnish this House a list of persons drawing money from the Treasury under appropriation, "Support of the Military Pay Roll." Also present monthly expenditure if any under appropriation "Support of Military."

Beckley introduced the following resolution. That the Secretary of the Territory of Hawaii, be requested to furnish this House the names of all persons employed by the Territory in the City of Honolulu, their nationality, whether citizen or not.

For want of a quorum the House adjourned for the day at 1:30 o'clock.

CURTIS J. LYONS, Observer.

WENT WITH HANDSOME JAP.

There was a very sad and depressed Little Brown Man who sailed for Japan yesterday on the steamship Coptic. The wife of his bosom had deserted him for another fellow. The Japanese had purchased two steerage tickets for himself and his wife. In a fit of temporary aberration he permitted the woman to hold the cash while he bought himself a ticket. Shortly before the vessel sailed there was quite a delegation of their countrymen on hand to bid them aloha. When the eyes of the husband were gazing elsewhere the woman slipped down the gang plank to freedom, leaving her husband in the lurch and without cash. In vain did the bemoan his loss. The boat would not wait until he had searched for her. The Japanese finally concluded to waste no more time or money so he departed with the vessel.

DISPENSARY WAR OPENS

BILL INTRODUCED IN SENATE THIS MORNING.

Government Ownership of Saloons is Proposed—Most Radical Bill Yet Brought Forward.

The much-mooted Dispensary liquor bill was introduced in the Senate this morning and is now in the hands of the Printing committee. It was read the first time by title and went direct to the committee. The calculation is that it will be taken up next week for final action so far as the upper house is concerned, although it may be slightly sidetracked to follow the county government bill as throughout the measure as introduced reference is frequently made to counties and cities and towns, which are not yet organized nor authorized to be organized.

The bill in the Senate this morning came from an unexpected source. It had been calculated all along by outsiders that Dr. Russell would be the sponsor of the measure in the upper house. It turned out, however, that the measure came directly from the natives. Senator Kanuha, of Oahu, introduced the bill and it was supported by Senator Kalaokalani, the head of the Home Rule party. The bill is practically the same as the one drawn by Dr. Russell, of which details were given in these columns some weeks ago, except that it does not aim so much to a money-making feature.

Mr. Kanuha's bill for Kalaokalani's bill, as the case may be) differs from the South Carolina law in several particulars. In the first place, it is not one-fourth as long and has not a half so much red tape. There is no conscription of any system under the law. Officers of the department are given police authority and they alone are expected to carry out the provisions of the act.

All of the details of the South Carolina law in regard to the government owning, using, controlling, saloons, inspecting liquors, selling in bottles, not drinking on the premises, etc., are repeated in the proposed law. A commission of three men to control the department is provided for, and an executive officer, to be known as the commissioner, is to be elected by the Legislature. Local option in all election precincts as to whether or not dispensaries may be established in such precincts is adhered to. Men and women over 21 years of age are made eligible to vote on the question in any precinct.

The use of opium is also regulated by the same act. Its sale in the dispensaries is authorized, but only on prescription of a physician. A Chinaman holding a certificate that he is addicted to the opium habit may purchase all the opium he may require indefinitely. The use of awa is regulated in the same way.

Mr. Kanuha, the author of the bill, had this to say this afternoon in regard to his measure: "I am not a drinking man. In the law I see one great thing, and that is, providing to men who drink pure liquors. The bill we have introduced is iron bound in this regard. Everything sold by the dispensary must be as pure as science can make it."

They have been the curse of the people in the past, and it is now time to call a halt. We will supply pure stuff, and the purer it is the cheaper it will be sold. So far as I am concerned I do not care a snap whether the government makes a cent or not on the system so long as the health of the people is preserved. There is provision in the law for a profit, of course. The money made out of the system will be used for the advancement of education and for the improvement of roads and towns."

WORRIED OVER OLYMPIC.

Bark is Now Over Thirty Days From San Francisco.

It has now been thirty days since the bark Olympic left San Francisco for Honolulu. Her failure to put in an appearance is causing much comment along the water front and her agents H. Hackfeld & Company have given the vessel up as lost they are worried over the long period that has elapsed without anything being heard from her. It is not an uncommon thing for vessels to take 25 and 30 days to make the run down here during this time of the year but inasmuch as several vessels which are not so speedy as the Olympic have made port leaving later than the Olympic there is much apprehension felt.

When she left San Francisco the vessel did not have a big deck load of machinery and seemed to be in fine shape for making the voyage. The month of March is one of the severest of the year for seafaring men and it is feared that perhaps the bark may have encountered some strong breeze that left her in a disabled condition.

A remarkably quick run for a sailing vessel is reported from San Francisco. The bark Oakland, Captain Ackerman went from Hilo to Cape Flatery in 11 days. This is very near the record and is a creditable performance.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drugs." Sold by all dealers. WAS WEATHER BOUND

UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCE OF THE KE AU HOU.

The Inter-Island steamer Ke Au Hou arrived this morning from Hawaiian ports after being out nearly two weeks. This is one of the longest trips ever made by the vessel and on some of the days there were quite exciting times. Rough weather was the cause of the delay.

The vessel left Honolulu on the 2nd, and had a fair passage to Waipio. She went over to Kukuhaele via Honokaa and worked some freight at the former place on the 11th but the weather became so bad on the following day that the vessel had to leave Honokaa. The port anchor and ten fathoms of chain went overboard, causing Captain Mosher to put back to Waipio Gulch to await unfavorable weather. However the weather continued rough on the 6th and 7th and the vessel was weather bound at Waipio. On the 3th purser Bert Sharratt was sent ashore in charge of a boat to get some stores for the ship. A big sea came up and carried the boat onto the rocks stove a hole in her bottom. The crew managed to get the boat back to the steamer however, and repair the damage. Later a landing was made and the ship's stores replenished. Nothing could be done on the next two days as the weather was still bad but on the 12th and 13th they were able to work at both Honokaa and Kukuhaele, leaving these places yesterday afternoon.

There was plenty of rain but the passage through the Hawaii channel was smooth. Off of Kihel however the wind blew a gale last night and the gib was carried away. This was not the only cause for excitement however for the first fire drill for practical purposes was sounded last night. The fuse of the electric light running into the dining room burned out and the woodwork caught fire. The blaze was of tiny dimensions however and was promptly extinguished by the second mate who chews tobacco. Captain Mosher thought it an excellent occasion to test the crew so the fire alarm was sounded. The men rallied promptly and stood by their posts without the slightest hesitancy or delay.

The steamer Helene was at Hilo yesterday and the Mauna Loa discharging at Honouapou. Dysentery is reported to be very prevalent at Hanalei.

The sugar left on Hawaii by the Ke Au Hou is as follows: H. A. Co., at Punahou, 15,000; Diamond H. at Honouapou, 9,000; H. S. Co., at Honokaa, 15,000; and P. S. H., at Kukuhaele, 3,000 bags.

COLLEGE ALUMNI.

At the meeting of the alumni of the St. Louis College held last evening at the college hall it was decided to postpone further action towards organizing until Sunday at 4 p. m. A temporary chairman with his usual aids were chosen to draw up a charter, and prepare enrollment lists. A rousing meeting of the graduates is expected for Sunday.

ANOTHER STEAMER LINE.

To Run Direct From the Coast to Manila.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—F. W. Stansbury of New York, who has been at the Palace since February 4th, is compiling statistics regarding Philippine shipments to and from this and other Pacific Coast ports. When these are completed he is to visit the Philippines and make a detailed report about their industries and possible developments. While admitting this much of his business, Mr. Stansbury refused to disclose the identity of the people for whom his reports are intended. Nor will he say to what use the information he is gathering is to be put. It is known that he is in the employ of Haskins & Sells of New York, accountant brokers, whose business it is to prepare reports for capitalists who are contemplating investments.
"Yes, I am inquiring into the Philippines trade of this port and the ports of the north," said Mr. Stansbury when pressed to explain the object of his mission to the Coast. "I also intend to visit the Philippine Islands. It is also true that I am in the employ of Haskins & Sells of New York. I would be violating business confidences to say anything more."
Several people here to whom Mr. Stansbury has applied for pertinent information are under the impression that he is preparing reports for an Eastern syndicate which is figuring on establishing a steamship line direct to Manila from either this port or Seattle, with the chances in favor of San Francisco. C. W. Haskins, the head of the firm of experts mentioned, was here for a few days in February, and in a talk with the same local merchants gave them a somewhat similar impression.
Other local merchants believe these mysterious inquiries have to do with plans of the North German Lloyd Steamship Company for a line of steamers between the Orient and the Philippines and this port. Dr. Wiegand, General Manager of that company, was here two years ago. He was then on his way to the Orient, and informed several San Franciscans that at the proper time his company would inquire into the advisability of a steamer line across the Pacific to this port.

"THE ANGLE LAMP" The Light that Never Fails

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the islands people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people) but besides being infinitely cheaper it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a revelation to every one who uses it, and simply demonstrates that the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.50 up.

THE DRAMA.

Miss Florence Roberts and her company at the Opera House last night gave a very satisfactory rendition of that much essayed play "Camille." Few dramatic characters have been the vehicle for as much ambitious effort by actresses who sought distinction in leading roles as this creation of Alexander Dumas, the younger. "Camille" is a character and play familiar to all play-goers. Actresses of the highest genius have sought in it proof of their power. Under these circumstances it is evidence of Miss Roberts' capability that she pleased the house as she did last night. Besides "Camille" there are other characters in the play which demand good dramatic treatment. Of their presentation last night much can be said in praise. Lucius Henderson as "Armand Duval" deserves much commendation. The stage direction of Carlyle Moore showed great excellence. The cast was as follows:

"Camille".....Miss Florence Roberts
"Armand Duval".....Lucius Henderson
"Mons. Duval".....Clarence Montaine
"Gaston Rieux".....Carlyle Moore
"Comte de Varville".....Paul Gerson
"Guastave".....Frank Readick
"Monsieur".....Jack Morris
"Madame Prudence".....Miss Marie Howe
"Nichelette".....Miss Stella Raseto
"Nanine".....Miss Lillian Armsby
"Olympe".....Miss Juliet Crosby
Tonight the play will be "A Suit of Sables." Saturday night the play will be "The Girl I Left Behind Me."

The play Miss Roberts will present to the public this Friday evening is a very clever comedy written especially for her. The play pictures the result of puritanical environment and want of sympathy in the education of a girl of birth, intelligence and mettle, longing all her life to be "taking places by the hand." Florence Roberts plays the part of Dorothea Van Dresser, who coming home from nine years of routine convent life, to the form and ceremony of a too well regulated household with "the straightening habit" terribly developed, and losing as she suppresses, "the one thing worth living for," makes a wild dash for happiness. This harmless escapade, as it proves to be, is the theme of the play and in its results, a hint to fathers who are strangers to their children in this play. Miss Roberts will wear a dress which is the only one of its kind in existence. She got the most prominent artists in the profession each to sew on a tiny spangle. Having so very many friends it took but a short time to have this skirt covered and as a reminder of good fellowship it is priceless to the wearer.

ROUGH ON KAUAI.

Kauai weather is very rough and the steamer Kauai, which arrived yesterday had rather an unpleasant experience. Owing to the heavy swell running in and the strong wind, she could not load sugar at Anahola and had to leave for Hanalei. The weather was so rough there that they laid in the harbor Saturday and Sunday. Returning to Anahola they found that the weather had not moderated. The vessel broke her windlass at Anahola.

According to the report of Punahoa, the W. G. Hall was at Hanalei Wednesday loading sugar and will start for Honolulu Thursday. The Nihau was at Waimea loading but left yesterday for Elele to get the scow and will call at Koloa for the roller. Steamer Noeuanu was at Elele discharging and left yesterday evening for Waimea. She expects to leave there today. The schooner Fannie Adele will leave Elele today. The schooner Agate is taking ballast at Elele and will leave some time this week.

PROGRESS.

Superintendent McCandless made a hard fight to have Chinatown rebuilt of brick, and has proposed new fire limits within which no wooden shanties should go up, but it does not seem as if Mr. McCandless' plans were acceptable and he has to live in the inevitable and issue permits for the erection of wooden buildings, which are now springing up like mushrooms. The Legislature by its inaction has thus done a serious wrong to the city.

The present fire limits are very restricted. Mr. McCandless proposition is to extend them to the Nuuanu stream, east bank, from the water front to eighty feet mauka of Beretania street, along to eighty feet east of Richard street, and then following eighty feet east of Punchbowl street's sinuosities, back to the water front. This would give a fine area, and a necessary one. It is nearly double of the old fire limits and even as it might be more extended with material advantage to the city.

The objection to this extension seems to be based on the leases made by Hawaiians to Asiatics and others. These leases are for short terms and the Chinese and Japanese who have them threaten to throw them up if they are forced to build in brick. But granted that these leases should be thrown up, it is all in favor of the Hawaiian land holder. Ground leases under the new fire limits would be two or three times more valuable than under the present fire limits. People will lease land for buildings at a much higher rate if they know that all surrounding lands have to have fire-proof buildings upon them, than if they know that their building is to be surrounded by fire trap shacks.

Again at the end of the lease a wooden house, completely out of repair, is turned over to the owner of the land. It takes probably three years rent to put it into repair and make it a rentable property. If a brick building had been erected, it would only require a few months rent to put it into proper condition to rent again. In the one case the landlord gets tangible property, in the other he gets ephemeral property.

The Legislature hesitates over this matter to the detriment of Hawaiian land holders. The large estates like the Bishop estate and others can look after themselves, and one does not care very much whether they are helped or not. But it is the small land holder whom one wants to see helped. It is a purely economic proposition. There is the chance of much increasing the ground rents, for the number wooden ing a valuable building at the end of a term of years, instead of having a worthless shed. It only requires action upon the part of the Legislative body.

The longer the legislative body hesitates, the less will be the value of the ground rents, for the more wooden shacks that are erected, will cause a distinct increase in insurance rates, and keep away builders who would otherwise put more money into their property.

What we want is progress. What the Legislature talks of wanting is progress. But it does not square its conduct with its speech. It is probable that one reason for the Legislative inaction upon this point, is that it considers these questions ought to be settled not by the general Legislature, but by the county governments. But we have not got the county governments yet. We have not even received and had put before us the plans for the county governments. They no doubt will be excellent in this way, and will enable citizens to control their local affairs, but meanwhile the said local affairs are going all wrong, and in spite of everything that the Superintendent of Public Works can do, the mushroom growth in the old Chinatown is going forward as rapidly as the growth of vegetation is described by Wells in his new moon story.

The Legislature is not dealing fairly with the people. It is keeping back legislation which should be pushed forward. Important measures, which we all had every reason to believe would be brought straight forward are kept back. Meantime property holders are being tangibly injured by this inaction, and this is made distinctly clear over the matter of the fire limits.

RUSSIAN SUGAR.

The countervailing duty on Russian sugar has caused a great deal of trouble. Secretary Gage is acting entirely within the law. If the law is wrong Congress should attend to it. All that the executive can do is to carry out the law.

The question is of considerable interest to us as being a sugar growing territory. The Argonaut puts the matter as follows:

"The production of sugar in Russia is an industry which is conducted under strict government control, and, in order to maintain such oversight, the minister of finance each year estimates the amount of sugar which the home market will demand. Upon this quantity an excise tax is payable amounting to about two and one-half cents per pound. The minister also prescribes the quantity which may be exported. On the exportations no duty is placed, but any sugar sold in the home market in excess of the amount prescribed is subject to a double excise tax, and any sugar already sold at home but afterward exported is entitled to a rebate. The tariff law of the United States provides that when any foreign country grants a bounty on sugar exported to this country, a countervailing duty shall be placed upon the importation equal to the bounty received.

"Upon representations that Russian sugar received a bounty, a countervailing duty of 90 cents per hundred pounds was imposed in December, 1898, by the Treasury Department of the United States under the tariff act of 1897. Doubts as to the exact status of Russian sugar caused the temporary removal of the duty last April, pending investigation. Since then the officials of the Treasury have conducted an inquiry, the result of which has been the recent order re-imposing the countervailing duty."

The sugar men in the United States hold that there is a bounty paid for export of Russian beet sugar, and Secretary Gage thinks the same. The manufacturers who have interests amounting to three and a half millions a year in Russia trade take an entirely opposite view, because Russia is retaliating by putting duties upon United States manufactures.

This small rift within the commercial lute is going to grow larger and larger as time goes on. The policy which guards the producer of raw material, and the policy which guards the manufacturer are not identical, and the United States is beginning to feel the difference.

It is true that as far as figures go this matter of Russian sugar is not a very important one. Of the $100,000,000 worth of sugar imported by the United States in 1900, only $22,000 odd came from Russia. Among the beet sugar producing countries Russia stands fourth. The crop of Germany is 1,000,000 tons greater than that of Russia for the season 1900-1901. But this is not the argument by any means. It is not a question of how much sugar is imported into the United States. If only a ton of Russian sugar were imported, the position would be exactly the same. The question is whether Russia pays a bounty. To any one who gives the matter a thought it is evident that she does. It is insidiously and cleverly done, but the bounty is paid all the same.

The argument of many papers on the mainland upon this matter, is that the question at issue is so small, while the exports to Russia are so large, that it is not worth while to bring on a tariff war. But this argument is only on a par with that of the servant girl, who on being accused of having a baby said "Please ma'am it was only a very little one." The policy of the United States in the matter of tariff does not depend upon the amount of goods imported, but upon distinct principle. Whether it is a pound or whether it is a billion pounds matters not a jot. If a tariff policy has been adopted, it must be followed out by the executive, no matter whether it hurts particular manufacturers or not. The remedy of the latter lies with Congress. If the policy is wrong Congress can right it. As far as Secretary Gage is concerned he can do nothing but support and carry out the law as he finds it. Expediency is what many people aim after, but expediency is a very weak battle horse.

Senator White's plan will give a majority of the Home Rulers in the Senate for the next session of the Legislature. But by next Legislature the present Home Rule party will be itself disrupted. There are indications of a coming break up.

The grove of giant trees which has been the pride of California, may yet go to the saw mills, in spite of the efforts that have been made to save them. Some time ago the trees were sold for $100,000, now the owner is willing to sell them back for $500,000. California was not long headed enough to look after her own natural advantages.

The race problem in the South is troubling the politicians. The white republicans are clamoring for the colored republicans to be kept out of office. The first great struggle will come over the re-appointment of the colored postmaster at Athens, Georgia. Both sides are in Washington arguing and urging their claims.

The Home Rulers have turned down the estimates of the Governor. It will be interesting to see whether their own estimates will prove any better. From what has been seen up to the present it is likely that the Home Rule estimates will out herod Herod. It is a pretty little fight which is on, but any man of common sense can see its end.

The Porto Ricans who were persuaded to remain in California instead of coming on here, have become a charge upon the county governments. There have also been a number of fictitious reports circulated in Porto Rico about the ill treatment of Porto Ricans on these islands. The foundation for these fairy stories is probably to be found in California. The Porto Ricans here are getting along quite contentedly.

The resignation of Senator Cecil Brown from the Judiciary Committee of the Senate is unfortunate, since he, of all others, thoroughly understood his duties in that direction, and his advice was of exceptional value. Senator Brown felt himself ignored by his fellow members, who held meetings without his being present. This, of course, is utterly against legislative etiquette and the Senator is justified in resenting it, but the Senator's constituents suffer on account of his action.

REGISTERED MAIL MATTER

SAFETY NOT SPEED IS THE OBJECT.

Why it is Slower in Transmission than Ordinary Mail—Must be Received for At Every Stage.

"The primary object of the United States Post Office Department in the registered mail division," said a post office official this morning, "is not speed but safety. Of course unnecessary delay is not sought, but as safety is the primary object the regulations in regard to it are made with a view to safety, and then as great expedition as is consistent with that."

"To secure this safety, as well as to be able to locate responsibility for loss, and reimbursement in case of loss, registered mail passes from one postal employee to another and finally to the person to whom it is addressed, only on the delivery of receipts. Take for instance registered mail for Kauai. The sender of each piece gets a receipt from the registry clerk. The registry clerk makes up the registered mail for Kauai, and it is put in the registry pouch in the presence of two postal employees who receipt for it. Then it is delivered to the mailing division in exchange for a receipt. The mailing division delivers it to the transportation company in exchange for a receipt. The transportation company delivers it to the postmaster at Lihue in exchange for a receipt. The postmaster at Lihue opens it, takes out the packages for his office which he delivers to the addressee only in exchange for a receipt, then he re-registers, in effect the cost of the registered package and delivers it to the next postal employee in the chain of delivery, in exchange for a receipt. The next postmaster who receives the pouch goes through the same process, and so on until the last parcel is delivered. By this process the point at which a registered parcel is lost can be determined, and proceedings for recovery or reimbursement, or for criminal prosecution if there has been anything criminal, can be begun with chances of success.

"Safety demands this or some equivalent series of precautions. The same process is gone through with registered matter for points in the States. It is receipted for and re-registered at every registered mail matter office through which it passes.

"Every postmaster has a key that will unlock the registered mail pouch. As there are a hundred or so postmasters in this territory it can be seen that to secure safety and locate loss there must be this system of receipts. It delays registered mail matter somewhat as compared with unregistered matter but it adds safety."

The attitude of the local postoffice officials is said to be to promote the convenience of the public and the dispatch of the mails in every way consistent with the rules of the department, and in this respect registered mail is sent to Kauai three times a week instead of only once as is required by the department regulations. Suggestions for improvements in the service are cordially received, but even when valuable ones, they can only be put in operation in accord with general regulations.

Changed conditions of population also require some changes from old methods and these for the most part in the exercise of greater precautions which from their very nature generally take time and in some degree militate against dispatch. But the tendency of the strict requirements of the regulations in regard to registered matter, is to create habits of care in other respects, so that ordinary mail thereby secures an additional element of safety.

It often cures a fresh cold in a single night, and it masters chronic coughs and bronchitis in a short time. Consumption is certainly prevented, and cured, too, if taken in time.

DRY BONES RATTLE AGAIN

ANOTHER SENSATION IN THE SENATE.

Achl Also Refuses to Serve on The Committee With Bill White and Kaiue—Russell Acts.

There was another rattling up of dry bones in the Senate yesterday afternoon. It was a repetition of Wednesday's incident, when Cecil Brown resigned from the Judiciary committee and dramatically announced that his conscience would not permit him to sit on a committee with such men as William White and S. E. Kaiue, members from Lahaina and Waialua respectively. Mr. Brown's resignation was accepted and Mr. Achl, from the same side of the House, was appointed on the committee in his stead.

The reason for the resignation of Mr. Brown was that the two majority members of the Judiciary committee were going ahead and holding meetings without notifying him of such meetings. On Wednesday alone two reports were brought in by the majority, when Mr. Brown had not known of a meeting at all. He characterized the action as most unfair and refused to serve longer on the committee.

Yesterday afternoon, however, the same thing was repeated. White and Kaiue presented a report on Bill 33. Mr. Achl was on his feet in a second, protesting in no uncertain words against the action of the majority. He had known of no meeting of the committee. The majority members had gone behind his back and held a meeting of their own. He charged that the majority members of the committee were also sidetracking Republicans bills and pushing measures of their own members forward. Mr. Achl concluded by resigning from the committee.

Mr. Carter declined to serve, adding that no Republican could serve on a committee of which the majority were Home Rulers. At this juncture, President Russell made a ruling that somewhat changed the status of things. It was to the effect that in future the chairman of committees should notify the chair of any and all meetings and that the same should be announced in open meeting of the Senate. Any business transacted at a meeting not so announced would not be accepted as official.

This seemed to clear the atmosphere and the incident was closed.

Outside the Senate chamber Dr. Russell stated that Cecil Brown and Achl were both right in their contentions. He went on to state that White and Kaiue had made a great mistake in holding meetings without notifying other members of the committee, and that it must not occur again. Dr. Russell went on to say that his acceptance of the resignations of both Mr. Brown and Mr. Achl was intended as a recognition that they had not been treated fairly and that they were justified in seeking to leave the committee.

DISCUSS SUNDAY LAWS.

House Spends Most of the Afternoon on the Subject.

At yesterday afternoon session, the chair asked permission of the House to appoint a committee to carry bills passed to the Governor for his signature.

Makekau said he did not think such a committee could be appointed under present rules unless joint rules were adopted. Robertson supported Makekau in his statement. Beckley said as the president and secretary of the upper house and the Speaker and secretary of the House certified to the passing of all bills, he thought a committee unnecessary, and that a "messenger" was all that was required to deliver the bills to the Governor for his signature. Robertson said to deliver a message or bill to the Governor by a messenger was not proper, as they would not know whether he had received the message or not, and thought it a slovenly manner of doing business.

Pulle suggested that the chair empower the secretary to communicate with the President of the Senate and jointly appoint a committee to pass on bills. Makekau moved the Senate committee on rules meet with the House committee on same and form rules in regard to the manner of delivering bills to the Governor for signature. This was adopted.

Makekau moved suspension of rules in order to allow the Miscellaneous committee to make its report on petition 8 introduced by Ewaliko the other day, to repeal the act to segregate so far as related to suspicious cases, and to repeal the personal tax and vaccination law, to educate Hawaiian youths abroad, to license Hawaiians to practice medicine, and to provide an act to teach the Hawaiian language in public schools. The committee favored its adoption.

Almost the entire afternoon session was taken up in discussion House Bill No. 3, reference to an act repealing certain sections of the existing Sunday law. The House went into committee of the whole with Beckley in the chair, a good many of the members availed themselves of the opportunity to display their oratorical talents. Aylett led off in a fiery and earnest speech that the bill pass. He was followed by Kumulau, who favored the keeping of the present law. Puukali spoke in favor of the bill. Emmeluth said it was about time to stop the useless discussion going on and favored the making of municipal laws as a better method of gaining the ends sought.

Robertson said that the law was all wrong in part, and that he was in favor of repealing certain sections.

SHOULD NOT BE OFFICERS

ADMIRAL SAMPSON REVIVES AN OLD CONTROVERSY.

Believes That Warrant Officers Should Not be Given Commissions—This Expression may Cost Him Advancement

NEW YORK, February 24.—A special to the Journal from Washington says: In an extended explanation of his veto of the application of Gunner Charles Morgan to take examination for promotion to the rank of Ensign, Admiral Sampson takes a remarkable position. He says that men of the class of gunners in the Navy should not become officers, because, owing to the social duties of naval officers in time of peace they should all be gentlemen of the country in the wardrobe.

Sampson, in his answer to Morgan's petition for indorsement, holds that "in time of peace the Navy's function consists of a certain extent of representing the country abroad and should at least be men of refinement. While there are perhaps a certain few among the warrant officers who could fulfill this requirement, I am of the opinion that the vast majority of them could not. Once commissioned, they would have the same social standing as other officers. I do not mean to detract from the sterling worth of the warrant officers of the Navy, I merely mean to suggest to the department that, unfortunately for them, they have been deprived of certain natural advantages, and, in consequence their proper place is that of leading men among the crew and not as representatives of the country in the wardrobe."

Secretary Long said today: "I have received and acted upon this correspondence. I have designated Gunner Morgan as one of the men to be examined for promotion to the position of Ensign."

Morgan rendered splendid service in establishing the theory that the Maine was blown up by an explosion from the outside. NEW YORK, February 25.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: Admiral Sampson's indorsement on the application of Gunner Morgan for promotion from warrant grade to a commission in the Navy, has been the engrossing subject of discussion in the Navy today, and while the spirit which is believed to have animated him is generally supported by the officers of every rank his deliverance is deeply deplored. The officers believe that it defeats beyond doubt Sampson's promotion to the grade of Vice-Admiral, and in all probability other rewards recommended by the President on account of the sea campaign in Cuban waters.

But the most notable result of the publishing of the Sampson indorsement and one which is calculated to have a most radical effect in the future of the Navy lies in its bearing upon a proposed amendment to the naval appropriation bill, now in conference. The indorsement is thought to insure the legislation against which it was really aimed. The amendment provides for the promotion of not exceeding six petty naval officers in any year, when the Navy Academy fails to furnish the required number of graduates. The amendment is apparently a harmless affair, merely designed to furnish an incentive to extraordinarily energetic and capable young Americans to win advancement on their merits in the ways open to them in other careers under a republican form of government, but it also resurrects the bitter line and staff controversy which injured the Navy for so many years and which was finally buried, it was supposed, when the personnel law three years ago was enacted. Instead of relative rank to officers and amalgamated the line and engineers.

FOURTH STEAMER LAUNCHED. SAN FRANCISCO, March 7.—The fourth steamer on the new American-Hawaiian line was successfully launched from an Eastern ship yard on the 4th under the name of Oregonian. The Hawaiian is now 33 days out from New York for this port.

EVARTS DEAD.

NEW YORK, February 23.—William Maxwell Evarts died shortly after 9 o'clock this morning in his home, 231 Second avenue. His last words were, "Morning is coming." He was 83 years of age on February 6th.

Fifty years ago Evarts first became prominent at the bar of New York. For the next forty years his career was an almost unbroken series of legal, oratorical and political triumphs. He is the only lawyer in the world who ever got a single fee of $500,000; he defended Henry Ward Beecher in the famous Tilton case; he helped make Rutherford B. Hayes President of the United States; he defended President Andrew Johnson when the attempt was made to impeach him; he represented the United States in the Alabama claims case, he served as Secretary of State in the Hayes Cabinet and as Attorney-General under Johnson and served as Senator from the State of New York.

THE HAWAIIAN VILLAGE. Tobin the "King of the Midway" has practically completed arrangements for his Hawaiian Village exhibit at the Buffalo Exposition. He has engaged forty Hawaiians and they will sail by the China April 2. He will not take any of the features to which objection has been made in the past. In his company are mat makers, fan makers, fishermen and others of a similar character. His object is to make an exhibit of the primitive industries of the Hawaiian race, bringing out the quaint and archaic characteristics of the ancient Hawaiian life. The Kamehameha quartette has been engaged and is now practicing under instruction some of the ancient Hawaiian chants and melodies and some of the earlier of the Hawaiian songs written after the Islands became civilized.

WASHINGTON, February 28.—The final conference report on the war revenue reduction bill was passed by the Senate and House today, and now goes to the President. The report of the conference committee shows a compromise all along the lines of the bill, the changes in the present law being as follows:

Tobacco—20 per cent discount of the original tax of 12 cents per pound as against 25 per cent reduction as fixed by the Senate and none as the bill passed the House. The rate agreed upon will make the tax $9.60 per 100 pounds.

Cigars—On those weighing more than three pounds per thousand, the House rate of $3 per thousand was retained as against $2.50 as fixed by the Senate and $3.00 as in the present law. On those weighing less than three pounds per thousand, the Senate rate of 18 cents per pound was allowed to stand as against the rate of 11 per thousand as fixed by the existing law, which was not disturbed by the House.

Cigarettes—On those weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, the Senate's action fixing the rate at 18 cents per pound prevailed. The House did not change the existing law.

Beer—The House rate of $1.60 per barrel and repealing the 7 1/2 per cent discount was retained.

Bankers' capital—Present law retained. The Senate receding from its amendment.

Commercial brokers' tax—Repealed in accordance with the original action of both houses.

Certificates of stock transfers—The rate of 2 cents for each 1000 is retained and the Senate amendment making the law include the transactions of bucket shops was accepted by the House conference.

Conveyances—Exempted below $2,500; above $2,500, 25 cents for each $500 in accordance with Senate action.

Mortgages—Tax repealed. Steamship passage tickets—Exempted below $50 in value and the rate fixed at 50 cents for each $50 in cost for that price and over.

STREET LETTER BOXES.
EDITOR STAR: In civilized countries the Street Letter Boxes not only carry on their faces the hours of collection, but also an arrangement to prevent one from depositing a letter, intended for a particular collection to catch a certain mail at the Postoffice, after that collection has been made. There is a sliding column of the several times of collection, which the collectors move after each collection, so that the hours of the next collection is brought opposite the words, "The next collection will be at—"

On the street boxes in this city that your correspondent uses, there has only been a clock notice which the rains have washed out, of the hours of collection; and experience has shown that to be sure that one's letters will be in time for a particular foreign or island mail at the Postoffice it is not safe to put letters in within ten minutes of the time of clearing. The collector is sometimes a few minutes behind time and on occasions five or more minutes ahead of time, so that there is always a risk, unless one allows a wide margin, of innocently putting letters into the box after it has been cleared.

Your advocacy of an improvement which will bring our postal system more up to date will confer a boon on many as well as on

YOUR CORRESPONDENT.

The Popular Actors Now Playing at Buffalo.

The tremendous success of James Neill and the great Neill Company at the Teck Theatre, Buffalo, N. Y., still continues. Efforts have been made to cancel dates contracted for in the west so that the Neill company could remain in Buffalo during the Pan-American exposition, but it being impossible to get releases, arrangements have been made to put on Kiralfy Bros. big spectacle, "Constantinople," which is now the rage of Earl's Court, London at the Teck shortly after Mr. Neill's present engagement there.

Monday, February 25th, Mr. Neill began the eighth consecutive week of his present engagement in Buffalo with a magnificent production of Mary F.

Stone's dramatization of Elizabeth Phelps Train's "A Social Highwayman" Mr. Neill appeared as Courtice Jaffray and his success in the part of the suave thief was no less than in other parts in which he has appeared in that city. During the last week of the Neill engagement in that city, as a token of their appreciation of Mr. Neill's efforts in giving the finest series of high class dramatic performances ever presented in Buffalo for so long an engagement arrangements have been made by Hon. John H. Meach, Mayor Diehl and other prominent citizens to tender him an elaborate banquet.

SUGAR TRUST STOCK.
NEW YORK, February 27.—A rise of seven points net or nine and one-quarter points from the low price of the American Sugar Refining Company stock today. The closing price of the stock was 142 1/2 and the top price 143. The dealings were in 100,000 shares.

The expectation of an increase in the dividend to be declared next month was one of the reasons given for the advance. Another report was that the forecasting agreement regarding the duty on Cuban sugar was one that would favor the sugar company. In the sugar trade the authorities were at a loss to account for the advance and ascribe it to stock market manipulation.

INSULAR PROBLEMS.

Mainland Sentiment Against Any More of Them.

Judge R. D. Silliman arrived by the Sierra from an absence of several weeks on the Coast. He says that public sentiment on the mainland is undoubtedly and strongly in favor of letting Cuba work out her own salvation. The sentiment favors giving Cuba her absolute freedom and independence to manage her own internal affairs, with a friendly protectorate on the part of the United States in matters of foreign relations. The people, says Judge Silliman do not want any more island problems.

The same feeling, Judge Silliman says, is felt and expressed regarding Hawaii. It is believed the islands will work out their own destiny as a territory, and the people will grapple with and solve their own problems. Wilcox he says, has been given every show, and treated with the utmost consideration. Gear's appointment as judge came because he was an eligible candidate and had no bearing, and evidenced no feeling on the part of the administration regarding the effort to unseat Wilcox.

LITHOGRAPHS OF SUGAR MILLS.

Handsome Souvenirs Issued by Millikin Brothers of New York.

Millikin Brothers, engineers and constructors of New York, have issued some handsome souvenirs of work done by them in the Hawaiian Islands. This firm has constructed practically all of the large sugar mills here and has just sent their local representatives (C. E. Guest and C. H. Snyder, lithographs of the various mills.

The lithographs which are very handsome works of art show the Makee, Ewa, Olua, Hawaiian Commercial, Oahu, Waialua and McIrvine sugar mills, the Honolulu Iron Works and the mill which was designed for McBryde but which was subsequently sold to the Francisco Sugar Company of Cuba. The sugar mill at Banes, Cuba also designed and erected by Millikin Brothers is shown. The lithographs have been in great demand and are being distributed to those prominently identified with the sugar industry of the islands.

Millikin Brothers also have the contract for all of the iron work on the new Alexander Young building. The first shipment of this material will arrive next month on the steamship Hawaiian from New York. In addition to having offices in Honolulu the firm has branches in San Francisco, Havana, Cuba, Mexico and South Africa. Their business in these islands has been very extensive.

Soap Sense

Very few mothers would think of using impure laundry soap to wash babies' dresses. How much more important it is to employ a pure, non-irritating soap for baby's delicate and tender skin.

Curative
Skin
Soap

Is the ideal soap for baby's bath as its soothing effect upon the skin prevents blotches, pimples, or unsightly and torturing eczemas. A trial will convince. It leaves the skin clean, soft and velvety.

W. & M., Ltd

Away off in old New England in the town of Manchester, N. H., stand three immense mills, employing 7000 operators and weavers, whose product is famed from ocean to ocean and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, for its superb qualities and style. Our share of the spring productions—some 20,000 yards of material—is at hand.

Among them are quantities of Batistes, Percales and Dimities which seem to be made expressly for this climate. The patterns are dainty and tasteful—the colors fast enough to stand the most rigorous laundrying. They are selling at 15 cents and 20 cents the yard.

Then there are Tissues and Zephyrs—every piece spans—light in weight but strong in weave. These are 30 cents and 45 cents the yard.

Next come French Cotton Foulards that you can't tell from silk unless you come close. And, in point of fact, they make up better than silk. They give to a gown that deliciously fluffy aspect that can never be attained in silk. A score of bewildering patterns at 25 cents the yard.

Together with the goods we have described there came to us on the "Mariposa" a consignment of ladies' Crash, Duck, and Pique Skirts and another lot of those irresistible shirt waists, which as usual include a variety of charmingly new styles.

There can be no question but that the "Sonnette" is the acme of American corset manufacture. We have imported a large number of their latest successes the much coveted "straight front" and we have them in all sizes from 18 to 30, and in several qualities.
