McKINLEY'S GREAT SPEECH AT BUFFALO

Country Was Talking of It When He Was Shot.

STATE OF UNEXAMPLED PROSPERITY

BOLDLY ADVOCATED AN EXTEN- SION OF TRADE THROUGH RECIPROCITY.

Would Foster American Shipping. Build an Isthmian Canal and Lay a Pacific Cable—His Wonderful Grasp of Business Affairs.

BUFFALO (N. Y.), Sept. 5.—There was a record-breaking attendance today at the Pan-American Exposition. It was President's Day, and the presence of the Chief Executive of the Nation, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley and a number of high officials, was the attraction. The reception to the President and his companions was a hearty one, and could not have been otherwise than gratifying.

President McKinley made quite a long and interesting address, to which the vast audience listened with wrapt attention.

After complimenting the exposition, speaking of the great advantage of such exhibitions in the advertising of a country and the development of its resources, and of the wonderful progress made in the last century, the President said:

"My fellow-citizens, trade indicates that this country is in a state of unexampled prosperity. The figures are almost appalling. They show that we are utilizing new fields, and forests, and mines, and we are furnishing profitable employment to the millions of workmen throughout the United States, bringing comfort and happiness to their homes, and making it possible to lay by something for old age and disability. That all the people are participating in this great prosperity is seen in every American community, and shown by the enormous and unprecedented deposits in our savings bank. Our duty is the care and security of those deposits, and their safe investment demands the highest integrity and the greatest capacity of those in charge of these depositories of the people's earnings."

"Our capacity to produce has developed so enormously, and our products have so multiplied, that the problem of more markets requires our urgent and immediate attention. Only a broad and enlightened policy will keep what we have. No other policy will get more. In these times of marvelous business energy and gain we ought to be looking to the future, strengthening the weak places in our industrial and commercial systems, that we may be ready for any storm or strain."

"Reciprocity is the natural outgrowth of our wonderful industrial development under the domestic policy now firmly established. That we have produced beyond our domestic consumption means that we have a vast surplus. The excess must be relieved through a foreign outlet, and we should sell wherever we can buy, whenever the buying will enlarge our sales and production, and thereby make a greater demand for home labor."

"The period of exclusiveness is past. The expansion of our trade and commerce is the pressing problem. Commercial wars are unprofitable. A policy of good-will and friendly relations will prevent poverty. Reciprocity treaties are in harmony with the spirit of the times, while measures of retaliation are not."

"If, perchance, some of our tariffs are no longer needed for revenue, not to encourage and protect our industries at home, why should they not be employed to extend and promote our markets abroad?"

"Then, too, we have inadequate steamship service. New lines of steamers have already been put in commission between the Pacific Coast ports of the United States and those on the western coasts of Mexico and Central and South America. These should be followed up with direct steamship lines between the eastern coast of the United States and South American ports. One of the needs of the times is direct commercial lines from our vast fields of product to the fields of consumption that we have but barely touched."

"Next in advantage to having the thing to sell, is to have the convenience to carry it to the buyer. We must encourage our merchant marine. We must have more ships. They must be under the American flag, built and manned and owned by Americans. These will not only be profitable in a commercial sense, they will be messengers of peace and amity wherever they go. We must build the Isthmian Canal, which will unite the two oceans and give a straight line of water communication with the western coasts of Central and South America and Mexico. The construction of a Pacific cable cannot be longer postponed."

"In the furtherance of these objects of national interest and concern, you are performing an important part. This exposition would have touched the heart of that American statesman whose mind was ever alert and ever constant for a larger commerce and truer fraternity of the republics of the new world. His broad American spirit is felt and manifested here. He needs no identification to an assemblage of Americans anywhere, for the name of Blaine is inseparably associated with the Pan-American movement which finds this practical and substantial expression, and which we all hope will be firmly advanced by the Pan-American Congress that assembles this autumn in the capital of Mexico. The good work will go on. It cannot be stopped. These buildings will disappear; these creations of art and beauty and industry will perish from sight, but their influence will remain to

"Make it live beyond its too short living."

With praises and thanksgivings, the President's speech was received with applause, his words referring to the establishment of reciprocal treaties with other countries, the necessity of the American people building an Isthmian canal and a Pacific cable, and his reference to the work of Blaine in developing the Pan-American idea, bringing forth especially enthusiastic cheers. At the conclusion of his address a large number of people broke through the lines around the stand, and the President held an impromptu reception for fifteen minutes, shaking hands with thousands.

GRAND AND PETTY JURIES.

Panels to Hear Matters in United States District Court.

Clerks Maling and Handy, of the United States District Court, have selected the grand and petty juries for the approaching term. The selection was made by drawing. Following is the grand jury selected:

Thomas McGuire, David Lloyd Conkling, H. J. Craft, Douglas Collins, J. H. McDonough, Frank Brown, J. T. Stacker, Patrick Cockett, H. N. Almy, James D. Tregloan, S. I. Shaw, J. T. Cravey, Frank T. Ferreira, Duncan B. Murdoch, James McQueen, George H. Paris, C. H. Brown, A. J. Campbell, Marcus Colburn, Joseph Cook, George H. Angus, Albert N. Campbell, William Reinhardt.

Trial jurors: J. F. Morgan, Charles M. Cook, John Ross, J. S. Martin, J. T. Brown, William W. Chamberlain, E. Byrnes, R. V. Boyd, J. W. G. Ashley, D. E. Whitman, P. Hughes, William T. Baldwin, W. L. Hopper, J. T. Copeland, J. F. Bowler, Harry F. Davison, J. G. Rothwell, H. F. Singer, C. H. Willis, T. W. Hobron, L. S. Canario, George F. McLeod, R. M. Duncan and Edward Dekum.

CASKET IN THE VAULT.

Remains of Late Marshal Ray Now Await Pleasure of Friends.

The casket containing the body of the late Marshal D. A. Ray was finally deposited in the vault at the Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon. On Wednesday afternoon the casket was taken to the cemetery but it unfortunately developed that the key to the vault had been mislaid, and it became necessary to return to the undertaking parlors, where the remains had since rested. Yesterday the lock on the vault in the cemetery was broken open and a new one put in its place.

NEWSPAPER MEN COMING.

Number of Frenchmen Will Look Through Newspaper Offices.

Jean Sabate has received a letter advising him of the approaching visit to this city of a party of French newspaper men who are traveling around the world investigating the methods of different newspapers and journals. The party will arrive here on the Sierra, which is expected on October 8th. Mr. Sabate's letter is from August Cordier, who represents a Bordeaux newspaper, who will be among the party.

The following newspapers will be represented in the party: La Figaro, Debate Eclair, Temps, Petit Journal, Petit Parisien, Figaro Illustré, Matin Journal, L'Aurore, Illustration, La Grande, Lyons Republican, Noveliste and Le Rire.

Mr. Wilson Decorated.

W. F. Wilson, master plumber of the Young Building, who sailed for the Coast by the Sierra, was unexpectedly decorated by his friends, W. J. England and C. H. Brown, immediately prior to the departure of the steamer. The "fellow" adorning Mr. Wilson consisted of numerous bananas other fruits, a plumbing material, etc., strung on a wire. The celebration of the job, however, will come to Mr. Wilson when he reaches San Francisco, for there he will receive a bill amounting to $81, for the fruit and supplies taken away by him.

EDUCATION IS A BENEFIT TO ALL

Open the Night Schools Is the Demand of the People.

THEIR CLOSING A GREAT MISTAKE

WHAT ARE THEY FOR BUT TO BENEFIT ALL CLASSES OF CITIZENS.

Because Hawaiians Fail to Grasp Their Opportunities For Self-Im- provement Is Not Sufficient Reason to Deprive Others of Advantages.

The Rev. W. D. Westervelt was interviewed yesterday afternoon on the question of closing the public night schools. Mr. Westervelt has had a wide experience among the Chinese and Japanese, and his opinion as to the practicability of educating the Orientals, is a valuable one.

"In the first place," said he, "in considering the question of closing the night schools, we should ask ourselves the question, 'What are the night schools for?' As I understand it, the action of Superintendent Atkinson in closing the night schools was based on the idea that the majority of the students were not Hawaiians."

"What are the night schools for? As I understand it they were established for the benefit of those who are over school age and cannot therefore attend the day schools, and who are yet desirous of educating themselves. It will be found that the night schools throughout the mainland cities, are mainly patronized by people of foreign birth who desire to learn to speak the English language, which is the language of the country they are to become citizens of. In fact, I believe it is in many cases the main purpose of the night school to offer educational opportunities to those persons, known as the 'floating element.' If this principle is to hold good in these islands, the Chinese and Japanese certainly cannot be denied educational privileges, since the purpose of the night school is to teach the resident foreigners how to understand and speak the common language."

As to the lack of interest among the Hawaiians in the night schools, that is a matter that is explainable. The Hawaiians, in the first place, are easy going; again, the Hawaiians of the age of the Chinese and Japanese students attending, have probably had the advantages of the day schools, and feel that they do not need to go to the night school, while the older Hawaiians, naturally, regard their attendance as unnecessary. Perhaps in view of these things, it is not to be expected that there should be many Hawaiians particularly interested in night school education.

"Is it not a little invidious to the Hawaiian people to be pointed out as the only people that are not willing to grasp the opportunity for self-improvement, and in the light of this does it seem right that the schools should be closed because of their lack of interest. As to the question of earnestness in the matter of self-improvement, we have abundant evidence that the Orientals are commendably energetic in this line, and the effect of educating the Asiatics should be observed from different standpoints."

"First, last and all the time, education can not fail to be a benefit to any people or race, and particularly is education to be encouraged among the Chinese and Japanese. Others have advanced the question of policy in the matter, holding very properly that educated foreigners are much more desirable than ignorant ones in the islands. Some one has disputed the wisdom of this policy offering as the reason their belief that education makes bad and unfaithful laborers of the ignorant foreigners brought to these shores. This objection is un-American. Trying to keep persons ignorant is a relic of the dark ages, and such an argument is no argument at all in this country. A person who is truly desirous of the welfare of men cannot on this plea condone the withholding of educational opportunities to them."

Extend the School System.

"Wherever and however the school system in these islands can be extended, I believe it should be done. The day schools are established for the children, and they are fulfilling the purpose satisfactorily and acceptably. The night schools were planned for the benefit of adults, and those taxpayers, who furnish the largest income to educational funds, should certainly receive the benefit of some of the proceeds. The night school system is extending throughout Europe, and the principle of educating adults is observable all the way through, in both Europe and America; it is a work for the public, and the funds come from such sources as should assure educational opportunities to all resident classes alike.

"The advancement of general education in all lands shows that the whole civilized world is grasping the idea of the possibilities of men. Every English word that an Asiatic learns in these islands, is heaven for the future use of the English language in China. No one can tell the retroaction that will result from night schools in the Hawaiian Islands. The Chinese laborers that come here from the Orient may be coolies, or Chinese of the lowest class, but whatever they learn here and take back to China with them is for the good of the social world. In many of the mainland cities the Chinese live closely cooped up in their own settlements, the only Americans they come in contact with being the criminal elements and the police. Night schools established in such places have given these resident foreigners an entirely new idea than the one they naturally had, of America and Americans, and who can tell the influence?"

Effect of Legislative Example.

"In regard to the lack of interest taken by Hawaiians in the night schools, there is also perhaps another element that helps to account for this. The action of the last legislature in ruling that the Hawaiian language might be used, certainly had a strong influence in the matter of English education among the natives. Since the Hawaiian language was made the language of the legislature, they argued, what was the use of bothering about the English language. They considered this unnecessary, and Hawaiians seldom do what they do not consider necessary. The coming Hawaiians must be prepared for the use of the English language in these islands, or progress will be greatly retarded."

"I think it is a strong point that in this age of civilization, the United States can provide schools for the Asiatics in return for their taxes and fit them to increase the world's civilization. It isn't the amount a Chinese learns, but it is the glimpse he is given of a higher civilization that is going to act as leaven in China. The influence of education, leaving out the broader and universal benefit from a social standpoint, is clearly noticeable locally, and as some one has said, an educated Asiatic is a superior man to the ignorant Asiatic. They are with us and want the better man, therefore I believe we should educate the ignorant Asiatic that we may have the educated Asiatic."

WANTS HIS EXPENSES.

Ung Sung Files Claim for Routine Expenses During Quarantine.

The Fire Claims Commission ran upon a peculiar proposition yesterday, on at least one that has puzzled and is still puzzling some of its members. It was in the case of Ung Sung, alias Lee Sing. The claimant, by the way, is the man who caused the arrest of Secretary Cooper a few evenings ago for the alleged embezzlement of his citizenship papers. Ung Sung store has been burned. In addition, however, he had charged on every item of his expenses during the quarantine period. Among the items were sums for cigars, for hack fares and similar expenditures. The commission hesitated over the matter for a time and finally took it under consideration.

The case of charging incidental expenses to the Territory is new one but the principle has been mooted for some time. Merchants, as was Ung Sung, were shut out of business for a long time and lost their "good will" as the standing of a concern is sometimes called. Most of them had to begin, after quarantine, anew. The Ung Sung case is the first one in which items for routine expenses are included.

Vacation of Band.

The Hawaiian band will begin its vacation of four weeks on September 30, a week from Monday. Prof. Berger will leave for a short visit to San Francisco. Some of the bandmen will visit the other islands but most of them will remain in the city.

Fire Claims To Date.

Up to yesterday afternoon 6,562 claims had been filed before the Fire Claims Commission. They aggregated $2,793,782.27. The time for filing claims will expire on September 24.

JUDGE A. S. HUMPHREYS IS COMPLETELY VINDICATED

From the Chicago Record-Herald, Sept. 4.

The Attorney-General today sat in judgment on Judge Humphreys of Honolulu, who appeared in person as well as by counsel to meet his accusers, and gallantly met the charges preferred against him. None of his defamers has attacked his integrity, and F. W. Hankey, who appeared as counsel for the members of the Bar Association, who are pressing the charges, made several admissions which weakened his case. Judge Humphreys, who came to Washington from Chicago to attend the hearing, is elated tonight over the day's proceedings, and is receiving congratulations of friends, who are confident that he has been completely vindicated.

TEACHERS EN ROUTE TO THE PHILIPPINES

They Are Charmed With Beautiful City of Honolulu.

VISITED POINTS OF INTEREST

BRIEF INTERVIEWS OF THEIR IM- PRESSIONS OBTAINED FROM A NUMBER.

One Grows Sarcastic and Suggests That Some of Those Going Across the Pacific Would Do Well to Go to School.

A number of the teachers on board the transport Sherman en route to the Philippines were interviewed last night by a Republican reporter. The pedagogues of both sexes have been making the most of their time in Honolulu, and Bishop's Museum and the Kamehameha schools were visited by many of the teachers, while others enjoyed the surf at Waikiki, the view from Punchbowl or a trip to Pacific Heights. They all declare themselves delighted with Honolulu, and many of them expressed the wish that they might remain here instead of continuing to the doubtful joys of the Tagalog districts in the wilds of the Philippines. A number of the brief interviews are given below:

S. C. Moon, Princeton, Maine: "I do not know just what I shall do, or to what position I shall be assigned in the Philippines, as we, I believe, are to be somewhat at the mercy of the educational authorities at Manila. They tell me that it may be an Arcadia all over again, and that husband and wife are quite liable to be apportioned to schools at the opposite ends of the earth. If this is so the thirty couples that took their marriage vows on board the Thomas must have found their plans somewhat interfered with. Mrs. Moon is with me, and she is somewhat alarmed lest she will be deprived of my companionship. I think, however, that we may be more fortunate than some others. I have been in educational work for some time, and was formerly the principal of the high school at Princeton, Maine. So I am looking forward to a position in Manila. I am delighted with Honolulu; it has a very soothing, peaceful climate, and the natural beauties of the place are wonderful. It is also a surprisingly modern and energetic city."

Mrs. Etta Moon.—I am not content with paying tame compliments to your marvelous city. I am fascinated with its charms of climate, scenery and people. I have never been in so thoroughly cosmopolitan a city before. It seems strange to me to see so many different nationalities mingling together in perfect harmony, although each race seems to adhere to its own method of dress, and largely to its own language. It is a most interesting city and I shall be very busy all the time I am here, looking into these queer and fascinating things. The coloring of the mountains and valleys is marvelously beautiful, and such skies! I think the tropics are beautiful. I presume this must be a very popular winter resort. It certainly ought to be."

Mrs. Bawn, Wheatland, California.—This is a most beautiful place to happen in upon a journey across the Pacific. What a pleasant thought it was of Mother Nature to drop these charming islands down in the middle of the vast ocean. I am entirely captivated with Honolulu in its entirety, but I am not quite sure that I should like to remain here. I feel as if I were in a hot house, or conservatory all the while, and the odor of tropical flowers and foliage is so heavy as to make one feel faint. I am sure I should prefer a more invigorating atmosphere for a permanent residence.

Miss Bernice Bull, New York.—I don't know quite what has impressed me most, for I think I have been receiving wonderful impressions all day. I had not expected anything like this, and I think few people know what a surprisingly modern and business-like city you have here. Commercially it seems to be most active, and the strange mingling of all nationalities lends it peculiar interest. The natives seem to be quite a superior sort of people. Those Mother Hubbards that the women wear are so daintily made that it makes one wonder why the women of the mainland are not as sensible in the warmer climates. I think I shall have me one when I get to the Philippines. I am glad that we are to remain here for some days, as I should not like to leave without visiting all the points of interest of which I hear so much.

Miss Childs, Vermont.—I have been spending the afternoon in the surf at Waikiki. I could not have imagined anything more beautiful than the marine view there, with the waves breaking over the coral reefs, and the beautiful coloring of the water in the sunshine. The bathing is delightful, and it seems hard to realize one is not dreaming when the beauties of this lovely isle are considered. I am much interested in the people, who seem to be out on a holiday without much trouble on their shoulders. They tell me that people here don't have any troubles and that if one stays here one gets so lazy they can't worry. I am anxious enough already and it is probably fortunate that the summer will not remain more than a week.

E. Allen, Harvard, Mass.—The Philippines are anything like this, I shall not regret having left my happy home. Miss R. L. Mayer, Portland, Oregon.—I wish to add my quota of praise for beautiful Honolulu, with which we are all charmed. I have never before been in the tropics, and this balmy air is most delightful. There are so many interesting things to impress one that I hardly know what has impressed me most. I think it is the people—there are so many nationalities represented and all seem to meet on equal footing. We have been received most hospitably, and there seems to be a spirit of friendliness and hospitality in the atmosphere. It seems odd to see the extinct volcano craters jutting up so liberally. We are accustomed to see craters only in geographies, and have been teaching about them so it seems strange to be confronted with that impressive mountain you call Punchbowl—with its suggestion of what was going on a few thousand years ago hereabouts. One of the teachers from Missouri asked me this morning when Punchbowl would erupt again—the probably thought we should have a shower of lava before we left. It seems that a number of us need to go to school ourselves, instead of starting out over thousands of miles of land and ocean to instruct small Filipinos.

BOYD IN HAMAKUA.

Superintendent of Public Works Reaches Scene of Fire.

HAMAKUA, Hawaii, Sept. 18.—Superintendent Boyd, with Assistant Marine Campbell, arrived at Kawaihae and with Forester Haugh immediately set out for the scene of the devastating fire. They went first to Waihae, where they found the fire abating.

The next morning they made their way towards Hamakua on horseback. They were eleven hours in the saddle and covered fifty miles of the burned section. Words cannot describe the damage done. Hamakua is still fighting the fire, but its effect is of little effect on account of no rain and continued high winds.

Baseball at Makiki.

A game of baseball will be played this afternoon between the teams of the Hawaiian Electric Company and the Mutual Telephone Company, at 1 o'clock, at the Makiki grounds. The following is the line-up for each team:

H. E. Co.	Mut. Tel.
Hudson	2nd B. Desha
Taylor	1st B. Richards
Disbrow	3rd B. McDonald
Pond	C. Cronin
Rodriguez	P. Carristi
Wheeler	Lehr
Warner	Pitcher
Rock	Outfield
Howard	Center
Old Pal Gorman	Empire

Poo Wah in Duran.

Poo Wah, a Chinese, was arrested last night on charge of having for the past three months kept a disorderly house at Koloa, on King street, near the residence of Mr. Aona. Detective D. Kaapa has been keeping close watch on Poo Wah's premises for some weeks. On Sunday last a little family of Celestial gamblers were surprised at an entertaining game of Che Pa, and they were promptly taken into custody. Yesterday the warrant against the keeper of the house was issued, and Poo Wah now languishes in jail. His case will come up Monday morning before Judge Wilcox.

Young People's Meeting.

The Young People's Union of Honolulu, which includes the young people of the various churches, will meet at the Christian church on Monday evening to tender a farewell reception to Rev. A. E. Corey and wife, who will shortly sail for China to engage in missionary work. The reception will begin at 7:30 p. m. Messrs. Nakagawa of Kanakapali, will be chairman of the meeting. There will be responses from all of the societies, including Japanese, Chinese and Portuguese. The speakers' own tongues. The meeting will undoubtedly be a most interesting one.

Art League's Literary Circle.

The Literary Circle of the Kiloahana Art League has issued invitations to an art and literature evening on September 28, at 3 p. m. This will be the first meeting held by the circle for a number of months and new interest has been awakened by plans for active work on the part of the circle. The art home will be a pleasant affair socially, being of a somewhat informal nature. W. R. Castle, Jr., has promised to address the circle on "Stephen Phillips," and other interesting addresses will be made.

Peru From Orient.

The Pacific Mail steamship Peru, Captain A. F. Pillsbury, arrived in port from the Orient late last night and docked at the channel wharf. She has the following passengers aboard for San Francisco: Miss E. A. Eakin, Mrs. C. C. Hayden, Miss Lona Hansen, S. H. Ingram, Capt. Nordlie, Mrs. Geo. V. Green, John Hurley, Dr. C. C. Hansen, Miss Lillian Hansen, Frank Wilder, R. M. Marble, Geo. O. Owen, Jacob Negieff, H. B. Freeman, Geo. K. Hollister, Jr.

Stores Will Close.

Today, Regatta Day, the stores in general will be closed and there will be nothing doing in the courts or the capitol. Drug stores will keep Sunday hours. The Metropolitan Meat Market will be open all day, however. A few of the dry goods and shoe stores will open in the evening at 6 o'clock.

Inquest Postponed.

The coroner's jury in the case of Murray, who died from the effects of a fall from a building on Hotel and Smith streets, Wednesday, met last night, but no witnesses had yet been found for the inquest was postponed until Monday evening, at 7 o'clock.

ALL READY FOR THE REGATTA DAY SPORTS

Harbor Will Be Given Over to All Kinds of Aquatics.

MUSIC AND MIRTH AND PLEASURE

BOATHOUSES AND WHARVES WILL BE THROWN OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

Program of Boats and Crews and all Events—Yacht Races—Berger's Band to Play—Honolulu's Mer- riest Holiday.

Today will witness many struggles between teams of trained athletes for supremacy. While the observance of Regatta Day is a public one, it is generally understood that the inter-club events are the principal ones and the day develops into a great aquatic field day, the participants at which are either winners of Myrtle crimson, or Heanlian blue.

Today's program, as the programs of former Regatta Days, is a lengthy one and from the looks of things many of the events should be very closely contested. In all three of the six-oar barge races it would be very hard to pick winners. Especially is this so in the Freshman race. Both the Heanlian and Myrtle crews are evenly matched. The Heanlians are racing boys who are mere novices at the game while the Myrtles have old hands in the boat. In the Senior barge race the Heanlians have a little the best of the matter if late performances are to be taken as a criterion. The Myrtle crew seems to have gone back on its fine condition of a week or ten days ago. The intermediate race will be a hot one. In it are many of the old warhorses who have done yeoman service for the clubs for years. They do not know what it means to quit and the event will be a race from start to finish. All the men in this race are glad that the distance is not any farther than it is, and many of them have given notice that this year is the last time that they will allow their tail feathers to sprout. They will pass the work and sport on to the younger generation.

The yacht races are to furnish some surprises if the predictions of the wise ones are to be taken into account. In the first class, now that the Heanlian and Gladys have been cleaned, the Mary L. will not have the pious she was looking for. The Heanlian has developed some wonderful speed in recent trials and on Thursday, fairly ran away from the Gladys. In the second class, now that the Heanlian, although entered, has been withdrawn, so the race will only have one starter, Captain Johnson's Dewey. It may be arranged that this vessel will go against the first-class boats if a time allowance can be fixed. Otherwise she will sail over the course and claim the prize by default.

For the accommodation of the crowds the Pacific Mall wharf has been reserved by the committee and chairs in great numbers will be placed there. On the Wilder and Inter-island wharves the usual large crowds will gather and the steamers Claudine and Kinai will be in the water. The second session of early in the day by those anxious to get good positions at the starts and finishes. At the boat houses the members and their friends will hold forth as usual and there will be much food and refreshments for the visitors. The band will be stationed on the Pacific Mall wharf.

The following are the officials of the day: Regatta committee—A. A. Wilder, chairman; F. J. Church and S. E. P. Taylor, Judges; Captain C. J. Campbell, C. J. McCarthy and C. B. Wilson; A. W. Pearson, Judge of yacht races; Starter: C. B. Wilson; Timers: Captain Parker, Chris. Willis, C. T. Wilder and W. H. Charlock; Clerk of the Course: W. T. Monarrat; Secretary: J. W. Smithies. Captain Harry Flint of the Harbor Police has been specially engaged to help keep the course clear. Other officers will probably be on hand.

The first event will be the Senior barge race which will start at 9:30 o'clock. Following this the other events will be run off as quickly as possible and from the length of the program and the intermission of one hour from noon to 1 o'clock it will be late in the afternoon before the program is finished.

The following is a list of events in the order in which they will be run, with the names of the different contestants:

1. Six-oared sliding scull barge, free for all. Prize, $20 trophy. Heanlian: P. J. Jernett, stroke; D. B. Rogers, No. 2; B. J. Webster, No. 4; H. Murray, No. 3; P. Damon, No. 2; S. A. Walker, bow. Myrtle: W. Lyle, stroke; W. Soper, No. 2; P. Lishman, No. 4; S. Johnson, No. 3; J. Crozier, No. 4; G. Angus, bow.
2. Six-oared scull race, stationary seats. Prize, $20. Kanoelani, Prince David; Kanoelani, A. L. C. Atkinson.
3. Six-oared sliding scull barge, freshman race. Prize, $25 trophy. Heanlian: I. Kaulokun, stroke; W. Stone, No. 2; E. Allen, No. 4; J. Marcellina, No. 3; W.

THE transport-Summer arrived from San Francisco yesterday after a very pleasant trip. She left the city an hour before the Ventura. On the trip down very splendid weather was experienced and all the passengers, when they became used to the roll of the vessel, began to enjoy themselves. It was hoped that the China would be caught at this port, but the mail boat was several hours on her way when the Summer was at the dock. This disappointed several of the passengers. The length of time taken for the army boat to make the run was an account of the new regular, which would enable the vessel to keep to an eight-day schedule to save coal. The Summer could have made the trip in much less time if it had been found necessary. While here several small jobs which could not be done at San Francisco will be completed and the vessel will take on seven hundred tons of coal and probably get away on Monday. Tomorrow a holiday and attempt will be made to work on her, but on Sunday she will take coal all day and night.

There are seventy cabin passengers on the Summer on their way to the Philippines. Chief among them are Col. Philip Reed, known as the hero of San Juan Hill. He has been ordered to the Philippines for duty. The full passenger list of the Summer is as follows:

Major Philip Reed, Lieut. Tenny Ross, Lieut. E. H. Agnew, Mrs. Agnew, Lieut. W. B. Bonham, Mrs. E. B. Gose and nurse, Mrs. E. S. Jones and son, Mrs. C. E. Dentler and child, Mrs. R. Kerwin, maid and child; Mrs. C. McCullough, nurse, daughter and child; Mrs. Frank Jernigan and baby, Mrs. Henry D. Brown, Mrs. E. S. West, Mrs. E. Hiding, Miss H. S. Franklin, Miss Rita Meyer, Mrs. D. M. Dodge and two children, Mrs. W. O. Thornton and child, Mrs. D. S. Burns and three children, Fred Barker, Mrs. Barker, E. V. Johnson, Mrs. G. W. Sammie, Mrs. S. A. Moon, Mrs. I. W. Martin, Mrs. S. A. Harsha, Miss Bernice Bull, Miss J. M. Childs, N. G. Comer, Lieut. C. Allen, H. P. Langhille, City B. St. John, Frank L. Glick, Henry Wise, Walter B. Parkes, Chas. Dean Cool, W. J. Kilby, S. A. Noon, S. Stickney, J. J. McCarty, J. J. O'Donnell, Jr., J. R. Brown, V. J. L. Bann, Mrs. Bann, James R. Hull, Mr. Schwankenberg and three children. #### What is Lloyd's?

In reading the daily and weekly papers one often runs across the term "according to Lloyd's," but it is probable that very few know the extent of Lloyd's functions in the insurance world. Hence it is that an article which recently appeared in Alfred's Magazine is particularly apropos as helping to answer the question, "What is Lloyd's?" This, the writer of the article, S. A. Woods, says most members of Lloyd's carry on business as brokers or underwriters on their own responsibility. As a corporation Lloyd's assumes no financial liability for the failure of any of its members or subscribers. But it admits to membership only men of reputation and means, who must deposit a pecuniary guarantee in order to become an underwriter and underwriting member, an annual subscriber or an associate. An underwriting member must deposit with the committee of Lloyd's £5000 or £2000, on which he receives interest, and which may be returned to him three years after he ceases to be an underwriting member. He pays an entrance fee of 20 guineas. An annual subscriber pays no entrance fee, but an annual subscription of 7 guineas. An associate member pays 5 guineas. There were in 1771 only seventy-five subscribers to Lloyd's. There are now nearly 1000. The subscribers in the olden time, as now, did not confine themselves to marine insurance. They were willing to take a risk on almost anything. There is still preserved in Lloyd's a policy on the life of Napoleon Bonaparte for one month at a premium of £3 8s per cent. Bank deposits are insured in Lloyd's; also race horses and the lives of threatened monarchs. An odd case was the covering of a risk on a glass ball packed in twenty cases for the Sultan. Lloyd's insured the Prince of Wales' jubilee stamps, guaranteeing that the issue would be successful. The voice of a prima donna has been insured. A tradesman in a London street who has an impression that a monument may fall on his shop, has taken out a policy at the nominal premium of 2s 6d per cent. Gate money for cricket and football matches, animals of all sorts, actors and actresses, are subjects for insurance. Policies against twins is a favorite form of insurance. A well known underwriter is said to be always ready to lay a thousand to one against twins.

Lloyd's issues insurance against burglary. Elephants are insured regularly. The life of the great Jumbo, who came to New York on a Monarch Line steamer ship, was insured in Lloyd's for the voyage to New York. He was not insured when the life was knocked out of him by a locomotive on an American railroad, whose tracks he was crossing. A celebrated singer recently took out an insurance in Lloyd's on the life of Queen Victoria. She paid a big premium on account of the age of the Queen. The reason the singer did this was because her contract to sing would have been abrogated by the Queen's death, which would have blighted England into mourning and prevented the singer's appearance in opera—Bradstreet.

Made Fast Trip.

The steamer Kiana which left here on Tuesday last for Hilo, returned yesterday just before noon, after a remarkably fast round trip. She stopped at all her usual ports, but experienced no difficulty in making the time, as she is very clean. The rather small amount of freight both ways also helped her in the time.

Decorations at the Clubs.

All yesterday afternoon members of the Hawaiian and Myrtle boat clubs were busily engaged decorating their respective houses for tomorrow's festival. Both houses will be literally covered with flags and hunting and flowers and potted plants have been set around in artistic array. Open house, with music and light refreshments, will be the order of the day at both places.

Collector Sustained.

Collector Stickable has been withheld in a recent decision by the Board of General Appraisers at New York. The case is that of S. Kojima and H. Hanna, no, wherein they appealed from a ruling by the collector. He assessed some raw hide, cotton, straw, silk and iron shippers at 35 per cent duty. In their appeal they claimed 1st, that the duty should be ten per cent less. In sustaining Mr. Stickable, the Board of General Appraisers has decided that the duty should be increased to 45 per cent.

Hard to Handle.

The big steamer Oregonian sailed yesterday afternoon for Kahului. She was assisted from the Railroad wharf by the tug Fearless, which stayed by her until she was well out of the channel. The vessel was so deeply laden that she was unwieldy and hard to steer. Captain Sanders took the big ship out and was glad of the assistance of the tug, as with the narrowness of the channel and the great draught of the ship she was an uncomfortable vessel to handle.

Officers Arrives.

Raymer Sharpe arrived in the transport-Summer yesterday to take the position of chief examiner in the Customs-house. Mr. Sharpe will assume his duties at once. For several years he has been connected with the Customs-house at San Francisco and during his incumbency has made many friends. Several of his acquaintances are now here among the customs brokers and they all extend to him a hearty welcome.

Cleaning Wharves.

Several gangs of men were at work yesterday cleaning up the Inter-Island, Wilder and Pacific Mail wharves in anticipation of the crowds which will flock to them today to witness the races. On the Pacific Mail wharf arrangements have been made to place six hundred chairs for the accommodation of spectators who do not care to go to the boat houses.

The Para Departs.

The steamer City of Para sailed for Port Los Angeles yesterday afternoon, having gotten rid of the rest of her passengers yesterday morning. She will get to Los Angeles in about a week and return here as soon as possible.

BOTH CLAIMING VICTORIES.

Conflicting Reports of Battles Come From Colombia.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—According to advices from Colombia received by the Tribune, both sides are claiming victories. Arturo de Brigard, Colombian Consul-General here, has received a communication from General Cordoba, Governor of the Department of Cauca. He tells of a Government victory at Puenta Pedra over the rebel forces of General Barriga, and also of the insurgent leader General Marinosa, at La Yedras. In this engagement, General Cordoba says, the revolutionists lost 200 men. General Eduardo Vasquez, of the government army, was also killed in this battle. The latter was one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens of Antioquia. According to official advices the rebels suffered another defeat at El Helochal. Department of Santander, in which one of their chiefs was killed and another taken prisoner.

General Cordoba also writes that an invasion from Ecuador is feared. He charges that the President of Ecuador is supplying arms and ammunition to the revolutionists commanded by General Rosas for this purpose.

The information that came to the local agents of the rebellion, however, gave an entirely different aspect to the state of affairs. This news tells of a battle fought at Managua, Department of Boyaca, in which the government division under General Vasquez, the number 2000, attacked the strongly entrenched force of 1000 rebels commanded by General Benito Hernandez, with the result that the former were repulsed with a great loss. Besides the rebels, General Vasquez secured ten pack mules, carrying 20,000 cartridges.

General Uribe Uribe is now said to be in Santander with 6000 men. His plan is to engage the government forces from the front, while General Hernandez and another command under General Arzulla from Ocean attack from the rear, thus practically surrounding the principal detachment of the government.

THE POLICE COURT JUDGMENTS FAIL

Bankruptcy Proceedings Intervene in Case Lum Suk.

PROPERTY MUST GO TO TRUSTEE

JUDGE ESTEE HOLDS THAT FOUR MONTHS CLAUSE IN THE LAW STANDS.

Four Judgments in Police Court Against Estate Made Subject to Subdivision F, Section 67 of the Bankruptcy Law.

Judge Estee yesterday handed down a decision in the United States District Court in the matter of the bankruptcy of Lum Man Suk. In this matter four judgments were given in the police court on July 3 against the Chinaman. Bankruptcy proceedings were begun on July 17. High Sheriff Brown had in the meanwhile seized the property of Lum Man Suk in a store on Nuuanu street to satisfy the judgments and refused stoutly to give them up. W. W. Thayer, who was appointed trustee by the court of the bankruptcy estate, claimed that no property owned within four months prior to bankruptcy could be withheld to satisfy a judgment or judgments. High Sheriff Brown contended that this applied only to involuntary bankruptcies and not to voluntary failures. The decision of the court explains the matter in the following manner:

The hearing in this matter was had upon the petition of Wade Warren Thayer, trustee of the above named bankrupt, praying this court for an order to be issued to Arthur M. Brown, High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii, requiring him to show cause before this court why he should not deliver up to said trustee, a certain stock of merchandise in his possession belonging to said bankrupt, situated in a store at 1017 Nuuanu street, in Honolulu, and which the said High Sheriff held under and by virtue of an execution issued in pursuance of certain judgments rendered on the 3rd day of July, 1901, in the District Court of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, in favor of M. S. Grinbaum & Co., and against the said bankrupt, and a portion of which said stock of merchandise the said High Sheriff was about to sell at public auction.

The facts as shown on the hearing appear to be these: On the 17th day of July, 1901, Lum Man Suk, filed in this court, in due and regular form, a petition praying to be adjudged a bankrupt and thereupon, on the 18th day of July, 1901, an order was made in this court declaring and adjudging the said petitioner a bankrupt.

It further appears that prior thereto, to-wit: On the 3rd day of July, the District Court of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, rendered four judgments against the said Lum Man Suk, doing business as Chin Yip Company, in favor of M. S. Grinbaum & Co., Limited, and executions issued out of said District Court to Arthur M. Brown, the High Sheriff of Honolulu, under which he took possession of the stock of merchandise forming a part of the assets of said bankrupt and was about to sell the same to satisfy said judgments when this order to show cause was issued.

The trustee of the bankrupt claims possession of these goods under the provisions of Subdivision F, Section 67 of the Bankruptcy Act of 1898, the said executions being issued upon judgments rendered within four months prior to the filing of the petition in insolvency of the bankrupt and the order of adjudication of bankruptcy, while the High Sheriff claims that this is not a case falling under the provisions of Subdivision F, Section 67, but is controlled by the provisions of Subdivision 1 of said Section 67.

There is no dispute as to the fact that this judgment was obtained against the insolvent within four months prior to the filing of the petition in bankruptcy, and the adjudication thereon. The point raised by the counsel for the High Sheriff that Subdivision "F" applies only to involuntary proceedings in bankruptcy is not a good one in view of the provisions of Subdivision 1 of Section 1 of the Bankruptcy Act, which provides that the words:

"A person against whom a petition has been filed shall include a person who has filed a voluntary petition."

(In re Blair, 180 Fed. Rep. 530; In re Lester, 108 Fed. Rep. 203; In re Lester, 100 Fed. Rep. 466; In re Richards, 98 Fed. Rep. 67 C. C. A.)

There seems to be a difference of opinion between some of the United States Courts as to whether the word "petition" is given to Subdivisions "C" and "F" of Section 67, which subdivisions are hopelessly in conflict; but I am clearly of opinion that not only the weight of authority but the better reasoning sustains Subdivision "F" where there is any question as to which shall prevail, and this would seem to be in accordance with the well known rules of statutory construction.

As was said by the Circuit Court of Appeals in the case of In re Richards, 98 Fed. Rep. 530:

"The two subdivisions 'C' and 'F' of Section 67 of the Bankruptcy Act relate to the effect of an adjudication of bankruptcy upon existing liens upon the property of a bankrupt acquired thereon legal proceedings are irreconcilable and antagonistic; and therefore in any case of conflict between them the former must give way to the latter."

The court further says: "AR Bona obtained through legal proceedings against an insolvent debtor within four months prior to the filing of a petition in bankruptcy by or against him are annulled by his adjudication as a bankrupt irrespective of the question whether the lien be obtained, and irrespective of any knowledge by the creditors of the debtor's insolvency."

See also St. Cor. vs. Delgado, 160 Fed. Rep. 854. So, too, in the very recent case of In re Kenay, decided by the Circuit Court of Appeals, 2, 101 Fed. Rep. 885, where the court, in construing Section 67 F uses the following language:

"There can be no doubt that it was the intention of Congress by this section to nullify creditors of the bankrupt from obtaining preferences over other creditors as the result of any legal proceedings against him during the period of four months prior to the filing of the petition; and apt words are used to express its intention. The property of the bankrupt is safeguarded against all such proceedings by the provisions that such of them as would ordinarily be done against such bankrupt shall be deemed null and void and the property shall be discharged and released from the same. It seems to me from the authorities quoted I am compelled to hold that Subdivision 'F' controls in this proceeding, and the judgments under which the executions were issued and the property seized upon by the High Sheriff Brown are null and void, that such executions should be released at once and the property turned over to the trustee of the bankrupt as a part of the assets of his estate to be administered upon by the said trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act. ESTEE, Judge.

It is so ordered.
September 20th, 1901.

HILO NEWS NOTES.

Engagement Announced and Other Events in Second City.

From the Hawaii Herald.

The engagement of Miss Elise B. Nickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nickerson, to Robert Hawthurst, Jr., is announced. Miss Nickerson is one of the most popular of Hilo's society ladies. Mr. Hawthurst has been engaged in the engineering department of the Hilo Railroad Co. since its inception and has lately joined forces with L. M. Whitehouse in the business of railroad and general contractors.

S. A. Houghton and family left for the coast by the Sautia yesterday. Mr. Houghton was manager of the Oahu Sugar Co.'s store at Keanu up to a few weeks ago.

Mrs. E. W. Fuller of Oahu returned from California last week. She spent several weeks with friends and placed her daughter Madeline at school at San Jose. Miss K. Mahlum, who arrived by the Kihun last week, will be one of the teachers at the new school at Keanu when the building is ready for occupancy.

"Jock" McGuire, with the Hilo Railroad Co., will, with his family, reside in Hilo. He is contemplating building a home shortly.

It is rumored that the Yokohama Sancho Bank will shortly resume business in Hilo.

Danger of a Drop.

Superintendent Bood and his assistant, Mr. Campbell, neither of whom is a lightweight, should send out a skinkish line before crossing the bridges between Waima and Hilo. There is apt to be a drop in bridge material otherwise.

A Communication.

MR. EDITOR:—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. Brockman, Barnell, Mo. U. S. A. This remedy is for sale by all druggists and dealers. BENSON, SMITH & CO., Agents for Hawaii.

VOICED THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S CONCLUSIONS.

It is wonderful, according to the Advertiser, how Judge Humphreys has been turned down by Attorney General Knox, though according to the Washington correspondents of the leading newspapers of the United States he has been sustained. In connection with the dispatches to the leading papers of the country it is well to consider who they were sent by and what their tenor means. It is well known in the newspaper and political circles in the United States that the New York Tribune and the Chicago Record-Herald are to a very large extent mouthpieces of the McKinley administration, just as the New York Times, and the Atlanta Journal and the Chicago Chronicle were mouthpieces of the Cleveland administration. In fact the New York Tribune occupies much the same relation to the McKinley administration that the London Times does to the administration of Lord Salisbury in England. Whenever the administration wishes to "sound the country" on some subject of public policy it is first broached through the New York Tribune and from that paper given to other prominent Republican papers throughout the country.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent is Mr. M. G. Seckendorf, almost the dean of Washington correspondents. He has been in Washington for many, many years, being the highest salaried correspondent at the National Capitol, receiving a yearly stipend of $10,000. Mr. Seckendorf not only holds the confidence of the President, whom he has known intimately for more than twenty years, but he holds the confidence of the President's official family.

When the Attorney General had reached a decision to uphold Judge Humphreys he intimated the fact to Mr. Seckendorf giving him Humphreys' answer to give to the country through the Tribune so that people could readily understand why Judge Humphreys had been upheld. Mr. Seckendorf did not go to Judge Humphreys for his information, he went direct to the Department of Justice, and not only that, but to the head of that department, and his telegrams of Sept. 3rd and 4th as republished in this paper were merely voicing the opinion of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice.

As will be seen by a dispatch republished from the Chicago Record-Herald in another column, that paper says distinctly that Judge Humphreys has been completely vindicated by the Attorney General. The correspondent for the Record-Herald is Mr. Walter Wellman who has represented the Record-Herald, and its predecessor the Times-Herald, in Washington for nearly a dozen years. Mr. Wellman is one of the front rank men among the Washington correspondents, thoroughly reliable and trustworthy. So trustworthy is he regarded by officials that he is often entrusted with advance information to be used when it shall be deemed opportune. Upon several occasions within the last few months Mr. Wellman has wired his paper inside information of events at Washington which was furnished by officials for the purpose of "sounding the people" on the question before positive action should be taken.

E. G. Dunnell of the New York Times is another correspondent of the highest rank. Mr. Dunnell has represented the Times at Washington since 1885 and for five years previous to that had represented the same paper at Albany as its correspondent from the State Capitol. For seven years past Mr. Dunnell has been the chairman of the standing committee of correspondents which committee in joint action with the Congressional committee passes on the credentials of correspondents and allots the seats in the press galleries of the two houses. Mr. Dunnell, like Seckendorf and Wellman, is personally acquainted with every public man in Washington being persona grata with them all. He is one of the few newspaper men whom Grover Cleveland ever liked and during that gentleman's administration Mr. Dunnell was the especially favored one.

These correspondents are far from being irresponsible nobodies. They are men who stand at the very head and front of their profession and they do not send out wild and weird telegrams at random. Nor do they accept the statements of men called before the departments as the basis for their dispatches. They get their information first hand from the departments themselves. Known as they are and representing the great papers that they do these men are received as the equals of any wherever they go. Their information in regard to Judge Humphreys' answer to the charges of the Bar Association was furnished them from the Department of Justice as representing the attitude of the Attorney General and furnished for the purpose of giving to the country the reasons why the Attorney General had decided in Judge Humphreys' favor. The Advertiser knows this as well as anyone else but it evidently believes that the people of Hawaii are so ignorant of prevailing forms in Washington that they will accept its false statements willy nilly.

Judge Humphreys has been completely vindicated just as the Record-Herald said.

Honolulu cannot afford to be placed in the attitude of closing her night schools because the majority of attendants were of foreign birth nor can Governor Dole's administration afford to be placed in the position of closing them for this reason. The Governor should awake to this fact and give his Superintendent of Public Instruction positive orders to reopen the night schools. It would be a good idea to do this before a prod comes from Washington directing that it be done.

Journals which fail to get the latest news legitimately try to make up for the deficit by faking, as vide the fake bulletin appearing in a morning contemporary on Wednesday. Such faking is an old trick attempted to deceive the public long before daily papers were published.

No doubt the Morning Organ will omit that part of Judge Humphreys' brief referring to Iwilei. It shows up the Dole administration in such a light that the Advertiser may well desire to suppress it on the alleged ground that it is "too indecent for publication."

Since the mainland papers of Sept. 5th and 9th fail to contain any bulletin of the character published in the Advertiser of Wednesday perhaps our morning contemporary can tell where it secured its wonderful bulletin. Will it dare to do so?

More Thurston Evasion.

From the Evening Bulletin.

No wonder the organ of factional politicians and Thurston's Bar Association refuse to publish that portion of Judge Humphreys' brief relating to the close government's connection with the Iwilei blockade. The reference to Iwilei is the pith of the whole brief; it is the portion which, supported by a secret agent's report to the Department of Justice put Hankey on the defensive, caused him to ask for ten days time in which to reply and was granted only five days by the Attorney General, and now furnishes the basis on which the removal of Governor Dole will be seriously discussed by department officers in Washington. Naturally Thurston and his thirty-six Bar Association members evade this main issue. Neither is it difficult to determine why their organ of abuse has failed to publish the special dispatch to the New York Tribune under date of Sept. 4 in which the Washington correspondent of that administration paper expressed the belief that the President, failing to remove Governor Dole immediately would probably ask Congress for authority to appoint a commission to investigate the methods and acts of the local administration. This information as well as that in the dispatch of Sept. 3 in which the vindication of Judge Humphreys was forecast was obtained by the Tribune correspondent through a conversation with Attorney General Knox—not Judge Humphreys.

Judge Humphreys' opponents have not only maliciously and continuously maligned him but they have with the same industry sought to mislead the people of Hawaii as to the source and import of dispatches sent to the New York papers by staff correspondents. They have endeavored to make the people believe that Humphreys has these correspondents on a string and they act according to the strength of Humphreys' pull. To those who know the character and standing of these correspondents, especially the Tribune representative, this furnishes positive evidence of the realization by Thurston and his cohorts that they have been routed horse, foot and dragon, and their efforts must now be centered to save themselves and the Governor. Washington correspondents do not go to Humphreys or Hankey to get their information. They go direct to the department and their dispatches reflect not the opinion of Humphreys or Hankey but the position of the department head. Of all the correspondents in Washington none holds closer relations with the administration than the representative of the Tribune. He is personally intimate with the President indeed. He does not have to go wool-gathering for news, nor seek out Humphreys to learn the attitude of the Department of Justice, or the sentiment of the Cabinet officers who have to deal with the Dole administration.

This method of misrepresentation is not a new phase of Thurstonian operations. As the stability of his nefarious hold upon the local administration has been shaken to the breaking point, the rash assertions made without suspicion of truth may be expected to increase. Thurston's crowd, however, is to be congratulated since by its attack upon Humphreys the opportunity has been furnished to expose its hypocrisy, set the Dole idol on its proper standard, and secure for this Territory the straightforward, honest American government to which it is entitled but thus far has not enjoyed from its officials giving allegiance to the Dole-Thurston ring.

ANOTHER VIEW OF CHARGES.

What New York Times Correspondent Wires About Hearing.

(Correspondence New York Times.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Attorney General Knox, having heard the reply of the Bar Association, First Judge of the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii, to the charges brought against him by the Bar Association of Honolulu, has expressed a readiness to make a report and recommendations to the President, but at the very earnest solicitations of F. W. Hankey, the representative of the Hawaii Bar Association, has granted him five days in which to further reply to Judge Humphreys.

The indications are that the Attorney General will disregard most of the accusations made against Judge Humphreys, and treat some other charges as immaterial. But a decision generally sustaining Judge Humphreys, while it may strike those who have read the charges and reply as gratifying, will leave a very bitter controversy in Hawaii unsettled. The trouble there, as shown by the reply of Judge Humphreys to his accusers, is that in selecting Judge Estee and the Circuit Judges the plans of the old line of politicians, who controlled the affairs of Hawaii as an oligarchy, have been interfered with. The new positions taken by Judge Humphreys is his opposition to renewals of leases for fifty years of the crown lands to sugar planters, who have absorbed great tracts of such territory and wish to retain them, while the Judge favors throwing open the lands to settlement.

The case against Judge Humphreys is really a case of the Dole government against the new element, the foreigners and natives, who have manifested a disloyalty to the government of the Islands. Judge Humphreys charges that the High Sheriff of the Dole administration is a "stockade" at Iwilei, in which 250 women are crowded and "protected" in the pursuit of an illegal and immoral traffic for the regulation of which rules and officers are appointed. Judge Humphreys made himself obnoxious to the Dole government by instructing a grand jury to inquire fearlessly into the matter, and to make such recommendations as should seem proper after investigation.

Further than that, Judge Humphreys puts upon the Dole government the charge that incompetent justices of the peace, men who could not read, write or speak English, had been appointed in at least seventeen cases, and that he had only been governed by a desire to maintain the dignity of the court when he refused to permit interested parties to discuss cases with him, as had been the rather loose practice before, and because he did not permit contempt of court to go unpunished.

Judge Humphreys is rather a small man, with a quick manner of conversation, clear gray eyes, great nervous energy and confidence of manner. He is the husband of one of the celebrated daughters of Ah Fong, and has been in Honolulu six years. He is a native of Mississippi, and is thirty-two years of age.

AMUSEMENTS.

Matinee today to start at 3 p. m. sharp. Doors open at 2:30.

STEEL STRIKE ABOUT OVER.

President Shaffer Instructed to Negotiate for Peace.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 12.—The Iron Trade Review this week says: "Indications now point to an early settlement of the steel strike. According to Pittsburgh advices, President Shaffer has been instructed by the executive committee of the Amalgamated Association to negotiate for peace on the best terms obtainable and it is probable that the strike will be settled on the terms offered by the United States Steel corporation last week. They provide for the signing of the scale for all the mills of the American Steel Hoop Company that were signed for last year, and the signing of the scale for all the mills of the American Sheet Steel Company that were signed for last year, except the mills that were placed in operation non-union during the year and those that have been placed in operation since the strike was declared."

JUDGE GEAR REVERSES

Prisoner, Ah Oe,

GRAND JURY FINDS TRUE BILLS

AN INSURANCE CASE, INVOLVING
$25,000, BEING TRIED
BY A JURY.

Motions For Trial by Jury In Pearl Harbor Land Condemnation Suits
—Probate Matters For Hearing Monday Morning.

Ah Oe is at last a free man. He was brought before Judge Gear, under a writ of habeas corpus at noon yesterday. High Sheriff Brown, being a member of the bar, took charge of the case, as Deputy Attorney General Cathcart was unable to be present for the Territory on account of sickness. The High Sheriff said that the principle witness against the prisoner was gone and there would be no use in bringing Ah Oe before the grand jury under a warrant as it would only be wasting the time of that body.

The prisoner was ordered to stand up and the Court informed him through the interpreter that, having been imprisoned under a mittimus which was illegal, he was discharged. The prisoner's bail was also ordered remitted at the suggestion of Attorney F. M. Brooks. Ah Oe had been serving a sentence of burglary, having been convicted before Judge Perry and sentenced to ten years imprisonment.

Judge Gear, in discharging the prisoner, said that he followed the decision of the United States District Court.

It was in this case of Ah Oe that the Hawaiian Supreme Court only recently rendered a decision to the effect that the old conviction was valid. The proceedings in Judge Gear's court yesterday were a reversal of the Supreme Court's order, under the authority of the decision of United States Judge Estee. Ah Oe was one of the prisoners formerly released by Judge Gear, but detained in prison by an appeal to the Supreme Court by Attorney General Dole which, as already stated, that tribunal sustained.

Grand Jury Indictments.

The grand jury yesterday indicted five men for murder in the first degree and one for larceny in the second degree. Against four of the alleged murderers the jury brought in three separate charges each.

The men indicted for murder were George Wade Yamane Nenchiro, Chida Manzabaro, Osaki Mankichi and Ihara Chigoro. Early in the afternoon all appeared before Judge Gear and were committed to the indictments.

George Wade, a negro, was indicted for the murder of Gillespie, steward, on board the steamship Australia, May 26, 1899. He was in custody, however, on a charge of assault with a weapon on Harry Evans, who arrested him aboard the vessel for the murder. Wade pleaded not guilty and was ordered committed to trial.

The four Japanese are those connected with the riot at Kahuku over two years ago. They were charged with the murder of certain Chinese at that place, on March 21, 1899. As each of the four Japanese are charged with killing each of three Chinese there are three charges of murder in the first degree against each of the four prisoners. These Japanese were already in custody, having been held on new warrants after their former release on habeas corpus by Judge Gear.

The other indictment was against George Holuholu, a native, charged with larceny in the second degree. The accused was not in custody, his case having been placed on the secret file. He was ordered to stand up and the indictment was read to him by an interpreter. He pleaded guilty to having stolen about three hundred pounds of coal belonging to the United States Government. When asked by the Court why he had stolen the coal, he stated that he was hard up at the time. The coal was valued at about three dollars. Deputy Attorney General Davis said that the offense was a small one and he thought the Court could temper justice with mercy. Judge Gear sentenced the native to ten days imprisonment at hard labor.

In three of the indictments against the four Japanese rioters Deputy Attorney General Davis declined to appear as he had represented them in the habeas corpus cases in both the Territorial and Federal courts. High Sheriff Brown appeared in these cases, therefore, Deputy Attorney General Cathcart being absent on account of sickness.

Give Up Insurance Claims.
Judge Stanley, of Holmes & Stanley, announced in Judge Gear's court yesterday morning that discontinuances would be filed in all cases in which the firm represents claimants for damages from insurance companies on account of the plague fire in Chinatown of January, 1900.

This takes half a dozen cases off the calendar and, if other firms follow the example of Holmes & Stanley, thirty-five cases will probably be dropped.

The action of Holmes & Stanley, it is said, indicates that this firm at least has arrived at the conclusion that the Supreme Court will reverse the decision in the case of Gow Chong against the Royal Insurance Company, in which the jury gave a verdict for the defendant. It was then claimed that the proximate cause of the loss of the property was the wind and not the Board of Health's order for the destruction of another building. The jury sustained this plea.

For Hearing Today.

A decision will be given in the case of Jacinto Rawlins, ordered to show cause, on Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock in Judge Gear's court, when the following probate matters will also be heard: In re estate of J. J. N. Ilac; guardianship of Albert H. Lucas, et al. minors; petition for appointment of guardian; estate of John de Costa; motion for more allowance to widow; guardianship of Francisco Borges et al. petition for guardianship; guardianship of H. A. P. Carter, et al.; estate of Antonio P. Felipe, alias Phillips, ordered to show cause; guardianship of J. Blaisdell minors; guardianship of Richardson minors; guardianship of H. P. Williams et al. in re bond of Nibbo; guardianship of Kailoa Hale III, spendthrift; guardianship of Joseph and Manuel Christ; guardianship of Gay minors; estate of Kaloia Iukko; guardianship of Florence Bell Tewkesbury; estate of J. M. Stillman; guardianship of Becke Kaonohi; estate of Antonio Felipe; guardianship of Mary Pestana and guardianship of Jacinto Pestana, an insane person.

Insurance Money Tied Up.

An interesting case was commenced in Judge Gear's court yesterday afternoon, one in which $25,000 insurance money is involved, the case of Cecil Brown, administrator of the estate of David Bowers Smith, deceased, vs. The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States. Judge Whiting appeared for plaintiff and Judge Silliman for defendant. The following jurors were drawn to try the case: Harry Z. Austin, James Olds, Jr., Lawrence H. Dee, H. N. Almy, Eli J. Crawford, E. Buffenau, Geo. F. Kleugel, F. C. Bertelman, G. K. Fox, J. R. Edwards, Edward Dekum, W. G. Ashley.

Plaintiff, in his complaint, sets forth that D. B. Smith died without making a will and that he had an estate in New York which consisted of a paid up insurance policy of $25,000. Notice of the death of Smith had been forwarded to the insurance company's office in New York and a demand had been made for the money to be turned over to the administrator, Cecil Brown, in Honolulu. The money had been refused. Plaintiff therefore asks for judgment with interest from the time the money became due, and costs.

Defendant, in its answer, states that no demand had been made for the money which was payable at the office of the company in New York and that the company held the money ready to be paid over. There are, however, evidently two administrators in the field. It seems that an aunt of the deceased had put in a claim and had been granted temporary letters of administration in New York. This aunt is Olivia K. Brown of Statesville, North Carolina. The daughter of the late David Bowers Smith, Mrs. Burke, was in court with her husband.

Several witnesses were put on the stand by the plaintiff. It was shown that the insurance company had been notified of the death of David Bowers Smith. Whiting claimed that the certificate of death presented at the office of the insurance company constituted a demand for the money, the amount of the policy. The case continues on Monday.

There will be nothing doing in the courts today, on account of the holiday.

Gill Case Nolle Pro'd.

Upon motion of Deputy Attorney General George A. Davis before Judge Gear yesterday a nolle prosequi was entered in the case of the Territory of Hawaii vs. Edwin S. Gill, assault with a dangerous weapon, as the prosecuting witness was absent. When the matter was brought before the Court, Judge Gear remarked that it seemed that the prosecuting witness had been absent a long time and that a nolle prosequi should have been entered in the matter long ago.

Motion for Jury Trial.

Motions for jury trial in the Pearl Harbor naval station land condemnation suits have been filed by the estate of Bernice Pauahi Bishop, the Dowsett Company, Ltd., the Oahu Sugar Company, Ltd., and the Honolulu Plantation Company, by their attorneys, Hatch & Silliman. It is asked that these cases be placed upon the calendar of cases to be tried before the jury at the October term of the United States District Court.

Notice has been given that on Monday, the 23rd instant, at 10 a. m., these motions will be presented before Judge Estee.

The Dowsett Company has filed its answer in the condemnation proceedings, denying all allegations in the complaint. The other three companies above mentioned have filed amended answers.

FIRE SITUATION FAR FROM SATISFACTORY

HAMAKUA FORESTS STILL ABLAZE
—EFFORTS BEING MADE TO CHECK ADVANCE

Albert Horner Thinks That Money Hunters Are Chiefly to Blame For The Disastrous Fire—Opinion of Mr. Loebenstein.

From the Hawaii Herald.

The condition of plantations in North Hilo and Hamakua is far from assuring, notwithstanding the advice sent to San Francisco by a stock broker with a view to booming stock. The absence of rain, coupled with the disastrous fire that have swept that part of the island since the latter part of June, though not confined to the cane fields, threaten them, and many of the laborers are taken from the fields to fight the fire, and consequently, the amount of work done on the plantations is considerably lessened.

Horner's ranch owners are warning people off their lands, and forbidding them using the pasture for their horses and cattle. Albert Horner states to a representative of the Herald that the last terrible fire was started by a bee hunter, who secured about a pound and a half of bees from 400 acres. "How much more it will burn before a rain comes to extinguish it is problematical. We have landed these men in jail and we hope to keep them there. Having learned the source of this fire, we have concluded that others, starting far from the original one, were from the same cause."

"I have ridden around the fire and observed several trees that had been cut down by persons hunting for honey. In these cases the parties were successful in putting out the fire before they had gotten much headway. We propose now to make a thorough investigation, and if it is possible to have the trespassers punished we will do so. It is merely a question of time, without rain, when the entire forest belt of Hamakua will be wiped out, and a change in the direction of the wind for any length of time means annihilation of the sugar industry here for some time. The planters have spent all they can afford to put out the fires now raging on Government land, and they believe they should have some assistance from the State."

"It has been suggested in the Herald that the prisoners be called upon to work at fighting the fire, and acting upon that suggestion I called upon Sheriff Andrews and explained to him the situation. He informed me after hearing what I had to say that there were not enough prisoners on the island to accomplish much. The trouble is that the ground is so dry that the fire burns the roots of trees for 50 or a hundred feet under ground, and while we may leave a locality unburned, two weeks hence may find it bursting out afresh in the same spot where we had worked with success, as we supposed."

A. B. Loebenstein, in discussing the fire situation, says that in his opinion the great fires in the Hamakua district will affect the water supply to such an extent that the sugar crop of the district of Hamakua will be materially lessened.

CZAR AND EMPEROR.

Each Bestows Decorations Upon Staff of the Other.

HEILA, Prussia, Sept. 12.—Emperor William, Prince Henry of Prussia, Admiral Tiche, Secretary of the Admiralty, and others in attendance on the two Emperors dined with the Czar on board the Russian Imperial yacht Standart after the imposing reception yesterday was ended. The Czar before dinner personally bestowed the Order of St. Andrew on the German Imperial Chancellor, Count von Buelow, and on Count von Eulenberg, and gave portraits of himself to the lesser German dignitaries. Emperor William decorated Count Lamsdorf, the Russian Foreign Minister, with the order of merit of the Prussian Crown and President Baron Fredericks, Minister of the Russian Imperial Household and Aide-de-Camp General, with the Grand Cross of the Red Eagle.

The Czar and Emperor William remained on deck until after 11 o'clock, looking at the illuminated vessels. In the meanwhile the Western or Blue Squadron, which takes part in the maneuvers today, put to sea, each ship saluting as it passed the Standart. The Czar has appointed Emperor William to be chief of the Russian Dragon Regiment Narva No. 23, one of the most famous in the Russian army. Emperor William conferred with the Czar in the uniform of Empress Alexandra regiment, the Second Dragon Regiment of the Prussian Guard.

Nothing Like Oil.

"In dealing with a man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the most severe cases of diarrhea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow. ## MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION IS LOOKING FOR ADVERTISER

Desires Some One and Some Scheme to Properly Advertise Islands on the Mainland.

W. W. Harris, of the Merchants' Association, was interviewed yesterday in regard to the propositions being entertained by the Association for extensively advertising these islands on the mainland. "I cannot say that anything definite has been done," said he, "but it is true that the Merchants' Association is willing and anxious to take up any reasonable and reliable proposition which may be presented in the way of effective advertising on the mainland. The attractions of Honolulu have never been advertised properly, and by giving attention to this matter and superintending judicious plans for presenting the beauties of this city and the surrounding country to people on the mainland, it is certain that great benefit from a business standpoint can be obtained. There is no place which better affords opportunity and material for attractive advertising than this, and it is the conviction of all that a great increase in tourist travel could be brought about by proper advertising, and that many wealthy people of the mainland might also be induced to make this their winter resort. Several propositions have been made to the Association, along the line of attractive printed circulars and in the way of stereoscopic views and lectures, but a great deal of expense attaches to such plans, and the Association would wish to be certain of satisfactory results before taking up such propositions. For one reason or another all the propositions yet presented are not entirely desirable, and nothing has yet been decided upon. We are on the lookout for an entirely reliable and effective arrangement, and when such a proposition is made by competent and reliable parties the Association will not hesitate a moment to take it up."
