ROOFED WITH GOLD.

Gorgeous Temples in a Land Where Famine Lurks.

We hear but little of the Greek Church, but it has one of the most lively religions in the world to-day, and the holy synod of Russia has a capital of $25,000,000, and its income is something like $6,000,000 a year. The Church of Our Saviour, surpasses in beauty any church of modern times. It was built to commemorate the deliverance of Moscow from the French, and it has cost about $40,000,000, or three times as much as all told as we have spent on the Capitol at Washington. It stands on the banks of the Moscow River just outside the Kremlin, and its great gold dome may be seen blazing out under the sun from any part of Moscow.

A $1,000,000 ONION.

It took 900 pounds of gold to plate this dome, and there is more than $1,000,000 worth of gold upon it. This dome is in the shape of an inverted Bermuda onion, and if you can imagine an onion of gold, the top of which is just 100 feet in diameter, you may get some idea of this $1,000,000 golden onion which crowns the Church of Our Saviour.

MILLION-DOLLAR BELLS.

The cupolas cost $800,000 to gold, and there are bells within this church which have cost nearly $1,000,000. The biggest one here cost $800,000, and it weighs just 13 tons.—[Am. Ex.]

Food In the Ocean.

The long voyage of the first officer of the wrecked ship W. A. Campbell is not without parallel. Less than twenty years ago two coal-laden vessels, after rounding the Horn, took fire, and the boats had over 2000 miles of voyage ere they reached a haven. In tropical seas an open boat has a fair prospect of keeping afloat. In respect of provisions much remains to be concerted by seamen for emergencies. It is generally too late to leave the storage of provisions and to the last moment. But while water may not be procurable it is possible to obtain food. The boat of the Campbell's first officer made about 100 miles a day, or five miles an hour. In all tropical seas flying-fish abound. Other kinds of fish are abundant also, but may not be so easily caught. The flying fish may be trapped by the hundred on boats going at a few miles an hour, and even on steamers. It frequently flops aboard vessels as high as twenty feet out of the water. A light hung over the side, with a piece of canvas stretched beneath on booms, would give a perfect shower of these fish to distressed mariners. And they are excellent eating too—just as good as gurnard, to which they are allied. The ocean teems with food and sailors should understand how to capture it. No fisherman in the tropical seas would have been in the distress these sailors of the Campbell were.—[Ex.]

The Tourist's Guide for the Hawaiian Islands can be had at this office. This handy book is invaluable for strangers visiting this country. It contains descriptive matter pertaining to the different islands with handsome illustrations and maps. No tourist should be without the guide as it will save them a lot of bother and questions.

Girls from the Dressmaking Department of Kawaiahao Seminary may be employed to go out sewing by the day or week to do plain dressmaking or sewing.

THEIR SECOND DUTY.

The first duty of the Ministry upon taking office was to introduce a bill for the payment of salaries. This has been done. Their second duty is to remove the Marshal—the Hon. C. B. Wilson.

It is not the purpose of this article to discuss the merits or demerits of Mr. Wilson. The ADVERTISER has pointed out very fully in the past the reasons for his removal and it will do so again at the proper time. Our object now is simply to point out the duty of the Cabinet and the Reform party, as it is plainly marked out for them by the events of the past two months.

When the Liberals and the Reform members of the House united against the late Cabinet, there was no formal agreement of any kind between them. This was because their alliance itself was not formal, but arose from their common adherence to a principle. It was, however, tacitly understood that the Liberals would not insist upon a representative in the Cabinet. The real condition of their support was the removal of Marshal Wilson. The principle has been upheld by the appointment of a Ministry freely selected by G. N. Wilcox, endorsed by the caucus and with no secret pledges to the Queen. We have the best of reasons for believing these to be the facts. If they are not, then the principle for which the Opposition has contended for two months has not been upheld, and the Cabinet are not entitled to support.

The duty of the Reform party is now to insist upon the prompt dismissal of the Marshal. If the Marshal is permitted to remain in office, it will be said that the Reform party has made use of the Liberals just as long as it found them useful, and then has dropped them. What is of infinitely more consequence, the accusation will be strictly true.

The Reform party, we repeat, are bound to insist upon the removal of Wilson, and bound to refuse its support to the Cabinet if it does not remove him, and if the Party does not abide by this obligation there is no political honor in it. It is only proper to add, however, that the obligations in this case are strictly mutual and co-ordinate. If the Reform party are bound to require the Ministers to remove Wilson, so the Liberals are bound to support the Cabinet if it does so remove him. It is not open to the Liberals to insist upon this removal as the condition of its support, and then after the condition has been realized turn around and assist the "disgruntled" Wilsonites to turn the Cabinet out. If the Liberals refuse to take this view of the case, the Reform Party is discharged from all its obligations to them, and free of every suspicion of treachery or bad faith.

We have dealt with the matter thus far solely as affecting the relations of the two wings of the late Opposition. There is another aspect of the matter, however, which is no less important. If the Reform Party is still a party of Reform, if it is not recreant to every principle which gave it life, it must insist upon the removal of Wilson, out of truth to itself, as one of the very chief reforms demanded by the times.

It is singularly unfortunate that the significance of the events of the past few days should be obscured by any ambiguity, yet such is the case. Mr. Bush's paper claims that the principle of majority rule has not been upheld, while the organ of the Court strenuously denies that Her Majesty has conceded any principle, or has ever consented to govern lawfully. The Cabinet has the best opportunity to establish the truth or the falsity of these allegations, to vindicate its autonomy, or to show itself to be paralyzed by some secret influence, the victim of some private pledge. Our sentiments towards the Cabinet are of a most friendly nature. We think it a strong one, and know that the country needs rest and stability. We are assured and gladly believe that it is not subject to any illegitimate influence, and look to see it maintain its character, refute the slanders against it, and redeem the pledges of its party, by the purification of the public service. If it does so it will be strong and make the country strong. If it does not do so, it will have to step down and out, and give place to better men.

Mr. Williams Interviewed.

There having been a great deal of discussion about the professional standing of Mrs. Dr. Longshore Potts, a reporter of the ADVERTISER asked Mr. T. T. Williams of San Francisco how her work was received in the United States. Mr. Williams replied: "I have known of Mrs. Potts as a lecturer in San Francisco since 1881 when she first came there. Her first appearance was at Dashaway Hall, her latest in 1892 was at the Baldwin, which is the fashionable house in San Francisco. Her work was considered perfectly legitimate and I know that the very best people in San Francisco attended her addresses and expressed themselves as much pleased with them. In Australia in 1883 I know that she made a pleasant impression. It seems to me that an attraction that has been acceptable in America and England ought to be above hostile criticism of the coarse character it has met in some quarters here."

Beat the Record.

Passed Assistant Engineer Harry Webster, of the navy, has just completed one of the most brilliant examinations for promotion to the grade of chief engineer in the shortest time on record, viz., five and a half days. Mr. Webster is one of the heroes of the Samoan disaster, having kept the machinery on the ill-fated Vandalia going until the ship had struck and further effort was useless. As showing how slow promotion is in the engineer corps, it may be mentioned that Chief Engineer Webster entered the navy in 1862 and served all through the war.—[Washington Star.]

350,000 Troops in Thirty Hours.

Incidental to the war flurry occasioned by the Chilean affair officers of the various railroads received communications from Government officials asking information relative to the movement of troops in large bodies. Secretary Elkins has received a letter from J. T. Odell, general manager of the Baltimore and Ohio road, stating that since the G. A. R. encampment here he was able to reply to the inquiry. The four trunk lines, he says, can move from the interior to the coast, taking the mean distance at 1,000 miles, 350,000 troops in thirty hours, together with their necessary equipment, horses, etc., and supplies. At the same time, he says, these roads can move enough commercial supplies so as not to affect the general business of the country.—Washington Star.

OPINION ON COFFEE.

A San Francisco Firm Favors the Hamakua Product.

The following letter was received from Messrs. J. A. Folger & Co., the well-known San Francisco house, and is self-explanatory:

J. A. FOLGER & CO.,
IMPORTERS,
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25, 1892.
MESSRS. M. W. MCCHESNEY & SONS,
Honolulu, H. I.

DEAR SIRS: We have at hand yours of the 12th inst. concerning the Hamakua coffee grown by Mr. E. W. Barnard of Laupahoehoe, asking our opinion as to its quality as compared with that raised in the Kona district.

In reply we have to say that we had made roasts of the following different coffees: Java, Tahiti, Equador, Bolivia, Kona and Hamakua.

These coffees were drawn by our office boy, and neither Mr. Folger, Mr. Platt, nor the writer, knew one from the other, as the samples were numbered and the numbers known only to the boy who drew the coffee. We all three pronounced the Hamakua to be the best coffee of the six samples.

This morning, thinking that we might possibly be in error, and desiring to have further evidence, the writer took some samples to Messrs. A. Schilling & Co., the next largest coffee house on the Pacific Coast, and they, without knowing one from the other, decided the same as we had done,—that the Hamakua coffee is much the best of the lot.

With this confirmation we do not hesitate to pronounce the Hamakua a far better article than the Kona, and the writer believes that it is owing to the fact that the Hamakua coffee is cultivated, while the Kona is only of wild growth. This, however, can only be proven when we have some cultivated Kona to compare. The Kona coffee which we used for comparison was a sample taken from each of the 25 sacks you lately sent us. * * *

Very truly yours,
J. A. FOLGER & CO.

Glade," "Aloha," "Discovery" and S. S. "Australia". You may want one of those new Patent Plyers, very handy about the house to use either on wire or as a pipe wrench, in fact your tool chest is not complete without it. It will turn anything it takes hold of, from a piece of pipe to "an honest penny."

Is that your pup? You don't say so, part "Sooner" is he; well, the sooner you cut off that old dirty collar, and pick out a nice one from our new stock, the better your dog will look. That leather one you are looking at, is very strong and with its nickle trimmings looks very neat, but if you prefer an all-metal one, the one in the next box is what you want. You will notice that they differ from the ordinary link collar in that all the links are solid and no soft solder is used. If you want to see a sad dog, just look at one just after he has tried to break one of these collars, the way he used to break the old soldered link kind by walking to the end of his chain and then finding that he had an engagement to keep in the next yard.

Those waterproof linen Lariats, one of which you see in our front window, have been tried by a number of ranchmen and they all report them a good article, "better than rawhide," and they do not cost as much. We have them 50ft. long, in two sizes of rope and for anyone wanting a longer or shorter "lass" we have the article in 300ft. coils and will cut you off any number of feet you want, and we will have the "hondas" and metal grips that are used with the rope. Like the metal dog collars, the same animal never tries to break them more than one.

Those new style Pruning Shears and those steel edge Dust Pans, are goods that will please the ladies. With this kind of a shear, you don't have to screw your mouth up, and say "Oh!" before you get that tough piece of vine or rose bush cut through, and the dust pans, well, you know how you felt the other day when you had a little dirt to brush up and 67-100 of it slipped under the pan, because the edge was so bent. The steel edge Pan "keeps straight," and don't let dirt get by. Are any of your fine old shade trees troubled with the blight? If so, the only way to save them is to spray them. We have the Spraying Pumps complete with Nozzles and Hose, and if you get an outfit in time, it may save many a valuable tree. We have a new lot of hair clippers, and can sell you one that will clip your wife's, your boys', or your hair, so that it will be any where from 5-16 to 1-16 inches in length.

We have just added to our large stock of Buckles which fills up on many sizes we were short of. Among articles received by the "Glade" are Pig Lead, Steel and Iron Wire Rope, Fence Staples, Colza Oil, English Horse Shoes, Coal and Stockholm Tar, Sheep Shears, Shot, assorted numbers 2 to 10; Paris White Galvanized Fence Wire, Galvanized and Black Chain, Sal Soda, Lamp Black, White Castile Soap, Galvanized Plain Iron, Anvils, Bar Iron, Yellow Metal, 14 to 25 ounces; Red and White Lead, Boiled and Castor Oil in drums.

Next steamer we will have another big lot of those fine Western Pocket Knives, and by the "Martha Davis" now due from Boston, we will have a store full of new goods, but these you will hear about later. If you want anything in our line, come and see us, we will be pretty sure to suit you, both in quality of goods and in price.

Yours truly,

E. O. HALL & SON, L'D.,

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Judge A. L. Austin of Hawaii is a late arrival.

The band will give a concert at Queen Emma Hall to-night.

The mail dispatched on the Australia aggregated 7,552 letters and 2,599 newspapers.

Rev. V. H. Kiteat, the rector of St. Andrew's Cathedral, returned on the Kinu yesterday.

Hons. J. M. Horner and G. P. Kamaooha have returned to town after a visit to their homes.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock, the annual meeting of the stockholders E. O. Hall & Son, Ltd. will take place.

An envelope containing papers was lost yesterday. The finder will please return the same to this office and receive a reward.

With this morning's issue Ka Leo resumes its English page. Editor Bush promises to roast everything in sight, including His Eminence, the Marshal.

Read the new advertisement of the Pacific Hardware Co. in this issue, it might remind you of something you are in need of.

J. Costa and wife, charged with murder, were returned to the Oahu jail yesterday to await the next term of the Circuit Court at Waima.

The Board of Representatives of the Honolulu Fire Department will hold their regular monthly meeting this evening at the Bell Tower.

Rep. Kauhi exhibited a mongoose in the House yesterday afternoon. The animal was tied to a long pole. Mr. Kauhi is quite a comedian.

The Legislative Committee has reported in favor of the bill to abolish the office of Fire Marshal and to have his duties performed by the Chief Engineer.

Mrs. Longshore-Potts, M. D., delivered a lecture yesterday afternoon in the Opera House, to a large number of Hawaiian ladies. Mrs. Nakuna acted as interpreter.

Work on the new warehouse for Wm. G. Irwin & Co. has been stopped for the present. Harrison Bros., the contractors, have exhausted their supply of brick.

The ladies of the Central Union Church will spread an inviting repast to-day at the Church parlors. Fish chowder, salads and other delicacies will be on the bill of fare.

Two native women have conducted a che fa game for some time. The drawing takes place on Maunakea street, while the prize money is delivered in a house situated in Printers' lane.

Mr. Francis Gay, of Niihau, will probably be the Reform Noble candidate for the unexpired six-year term vacated by the Hon. G. N. Wilcox. Mr. W. A. Kiha will most likely run for the Liberals.

J. J. Williams, the photographer, is about to leave for Laysan island to take some views on that guano laden island. During his absence W. D. Charlock will act for him under a full power of attorney.

The examination on the charge of common nuisance against Dr. Chas. Harrison was postponed yesterday until this morning, as was also the charge of criminal libel against E. Ellsworth Carey.

Col. Geo. W. Macfarlane's right-hand man Thos. McTigue will not have to worry about his Thanksgiving dinner. While the mock election was in progress on Tuesday he made a bet on Cleveland. The loser presented Thomas with a large sized turkey yesterday.

A foot ball game was played at Punahou yesterday, between the boarders of Oahu College and the pupils of Punahou Preparatory School. The collegians defeated the "kids" by two points. Willie Rice, of the college team, had his forehead bruised by running against an opponent.

The Supreme Court will probably sit in banco on the 28th instant, when the important point raised by Hon. C. W. Ashford regarding the appointments made by ousted Ministers will be heard. If Mr. Ashford is right, then Charles "Mahope" and others will have to go.

On the Queen's birthday, ten of the band boys were notified that Her Majesty had conferred the order of the "Crown of Hawaii" on each one of them. On Monday the boys were presented with the decorations from the hands of their Sovereign and they are now very happy minstrels in consequence.

Engine Company No. 2 held a special meeting last evening to elect a foreman in place of W. H. C. Greig, resigned. Carl Wide-man, the treasurer of the company, was elected as Mr. Greig's successor. A. L. C. Atkinson was selected to fill the vacant office of treasurer. Both gentlemen are extremely popular with their brother members.

A TEST CASE.

Hon. C. W. Ashford and the Actions of Ousted Ministers.

The ADVERTISER is informed that the Costa murder case was not and will not be heard at the present term of the Third Circuit Court at Waima. The accused couple, John Costa and his wife, were indicted at Waima on the 7th inst., whereupon their counsel, Hon. C. W. Ashford, made a motion to quash the indictment, alleging several grounds for the motion, but each embracing the non-existence at that date of any authority in Mr. W. A. Whiting to act as deputy Attorney-General under a commission signed by Mr. Creighton, as Attorney-General, on the 1st of November, the day Mr. Creighton was voted out of his Cabinet office by the "no confidence" resolution of the Legislature.

The motion raises the entire question of the authority of Ministers to conduct ministerial business after being so voted out by the Legislature, and is a virtual denial of their right to continue a day, even upon Royal request, to discharge ministerial functions after their resignations are tendered in pursuance of a non-confidence vote.

The questions involved in the motion were reserved by Justice Dole, presiding at the term, for consideration by the Supreme Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Costa returned to Honolulu by the Kinu yesterday morning, and are confined in Oahu Jail, awaiting the next term of the Third Circuit Court.

WEALTH RESTORED.
Mr. Thomas J. King loses a Sum of Money for a Short Time.

Yesterday morning Mr. Thomas J. King, when about to enter Cartwright's office on Merchant street, dropped a check for $44.63 and $70 in bills. He did not discover his loss until about ten minutes later, when he returned to the spot where he thought the money was dropped, but saw no traces of the wealth. A search in the afternoon resulted in the finding of the check, which was safely ensconced in the gutter. The bills were found by two of the office employees of the Honolulu Iron Works Company. Achi K. Akau and Kalahua were walking along Merchant street yesterday morning, when they found $70 on the street and promptly handed it to the manager, Hon. A. Young, who made enquiry at the Station House and found that Mr. T. J. King had lost the money. Mr. Young returned the amount to the owner, who was kind enough to reward the finders with $10.

THE ASSAULT CASE.
Captain Houdlette Recites a Little Testimony.

The examination of Dr. George Harrison, charged with assaulting E. Ellsworth Carey, a writer on the Liberal, was partly heard in the Police Court yesterday, and continued until this morning. Capt. Houdlette was the only witness examined. His testimony referred chiefly to a woman in San Francisco who claimed to be the wife of defendant. She wanted the captain to assist her in a plan to injure Harrison, but he refused to do so. It has since been learned that the woman is the divorced wife of the doctor. The case will come up again this morning.

JOSEPH IS SORE.
The Ousted Minister is in the Hands of His Friends.

It is rumored that Mr. Jos. Nawahi has positively declined to run again as a member from Central Hilo, to fill the vacancy caused by his own resignation. His friends urged him to run, but he replied that it was useless, as they (his friends) were the very ones who ousted him out of the Cabinet. But if his constituents are determined to vote for him against his wishes, he might accept the seat for their sake.

AMERICAN POLITICS.
A Dispute Settled in a Very Laconic Manner.

Several gentlemen had a spirited argument yesterday on Fort street. The subject was American politics. One man contended that an alien, after a residence of six months in the State of Minnesota was eligible to vote at a Presidential election. No one present agreed with him. A prominent attorney was questioned about the dispute, and he replied that "an alien can vote by fraud only," and he added "an alien can commit murder also."

The steam launch for Laysan island was tried yesterday around the bay. The working of the engine was quite successful.

The American brigantine W. G. Irwin, J. E. McCulloch master, arrived yesterday, 17 days from San Francisco with general freight. She had light southerly winds the greater part of the voyage. The bark Forest Queen left for this port two days ahead of her. The Irwin will discharge her cargo at the O. S. S. Co.'s wharf to-day.

The steamer Mikahala was taken on the marine railway yesterday to have her bottom cleaned.

The steamer Hawaii took yesterday 25 head of cattle to Kalaupapa, 100 bags fertilizer to Onomea and one Jersey bull to Paauhau, besides general freight for Hamakua ports.

On October 28th there was launched at Paisley, Scotland, a large dredger to be used for dredging purposes on the Clyde. In respect of dredging capacity the vessel is one of the most powerful of its kind afloat. It will be capable of dredging 1,000 tons of ordinary material per hour to a depth of 40 feet. The vessel is 200 feet long by 37 and 13 feet deep. The engines are compound surface-condensing of the most approved type, having two powerful boilers. The engines and boilers are fitted with all the most modern improvements. A rotary steam derrick crane has been placed on the deck for the purpose of lifting or removing machinery, etc., for repairs. The dredger is lighted up by electricity of 2,000-candle power.—Ex.

The wreck of a Spanish warship lying at the bottom of the bay at Santiago de Cuba has been accidentally discovered and accurately located by Herman Walker, a Philadelphia sub-marine diver, while making railroad improvements for the Juragua Iron Co. at that Cuban port. More than a century ago a Spanish warship, called St. Paul, was chased by a British squadron and managed to get into Santiago de Cuba Bay, where she sank soon after coming to her anchorage. Her brass guns and lighter armament remain on board in nearly the same position as on the day she went down, the bay being protected from the winds from all directions by high mountains, rich in copper and iron ore. Permission has been granted by the Spanish captain of the port to allow a diver to go down in the vessel's hold.—[Ex.]

STANDING COMMITTEES.

Noble Williams reported as printed Bill No. 194; the report of the Committee on Water Works; and Section 1 of the Appropriation Bill.

Rep. Smith reported for the Judiciary Committee, on the bill to license tram car drivers. The Committee recommended the bill be tabled as the company is amply able to respond in damages, and the case is quite different from that of drivers of hacks. Adopted.

Rep. Kapahu presented the minority report of the Sanitary Committee on a bill to elect the Board of Health. Laid on the table with the bill.

The same member presented a minority report of Sanitary Committee, on vaccination. Tabled for consideration with the bill.

Under suspension of the rules, the Minister of Finance gave notice of an act providing for payment of salaries and certain necessary Government expenses until November 30, 1892.

Under suspension of the rules the bill was read a second time.

Rep. Smith moved the bill pass to engrossment.

Noble Marsden moved the bill be referred to a committee. He did not favor payment at the old rate.

Rep. Smith said it would make confusion worse confounded, as it would establish a rate for a single month only, and would necessitate a vast quantity of fresh computations.

Rep. Kanehiki favored the passage to engrossment, but he wished the bill extended to Dec. 31.

Attorney-General Brown saw no necessity of reference to a committee at all. There would have to be some new figuring anyway. When the Appropriation Bill was ready to go into effect, the Ministry would have to be ready to make deduction for the time between the expiration of the old bill and the passage of the new one.

Rep. Kamaooha favored the reference to a committee, as the high rate of salaries should not go on.

Rep. Bush favored the effort to relieve the Government employees, but the salaries should be paid at the rate established in the new Appropriation Bill, not the old, and it should be passed at once to the end of December.

Minister Jones wished to add to the amendment extending the bill to December 31, these words, "unless an Appropriation Bill shall have been passed before that time."

The amendments were rejected and the bill passed to the third reading.

The President appointed the following persons in the committee places vacated by Rep. Nawahi and Noble Cornwell: Nobles Kaulane and Maile on the Education Committee and Noble Hopkins to be chairman of the Military Committee.

Rep. Smith presented a report from the Judiciary Committee, on the bill to repeal the law requiring hack drivers to take out a new license each time they change their employer. The committee do not favor the repeal of the law and recommend the bill be tabled.

The report was adopted.

Rep. Smith reported, for the same committee, on the bill regarding collisions at sea. The committee do not see the necessity of the bill and recommend it be tabled.

The report was adopted.

The same committee reported on the petition of Mr. Thompson, of Kau, asking that his fee as candidate in the election of 1892 be refunded. The gentleman named became a candidate, but subsequently changed his mind. The committee hold that the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.

Rep. Kapahu moved the report be made the special order for to-morrow.

Rep. Waipulani hoped the report of the committee would be adopted.

The report was adopted.

The same committee reported on the bill to prohibit profane and obscene language. The committee presented a substitute bill, which they recommended to passage.

Laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

The Judiciary Committee reported further on Bill 110, to abolish the office of fire marshal. The committee favor passage of the bill.

Tabled with the bill.

The committee also reported on the bill granting the Board of Representatives of the Fire Department greater control over the funds. The committee recommend the bill to passage, with an amendment.

Tabled with the bill.

The same committee reported on Bill 172, providing for the voting of seamen. The committee hold the bill conflicts with Articles 59 and 61 of the Constitution.

The report was adopted.

The same committee reported on Bill 145, amending the Constitution so as to make members of the Legislature eligible to hold positions in the consular and diplomatic service. The amendment is directly opposed to the principle of the constitutional provision, as it makes possible the holding out of inducements in the way of offices. The committee recommend it be rejected.

Tabled for consideration with the bill.

The same committee reported on Bill 161, to amend the Constitution by making Cabinet Ministers elective by the Legislature. The committee recommend the bill be rejected.

The report was adopted.

The same committee reported on Bill 154, to amend the Constitution by providing for the release of any member of the Legislature under arrest on the parole of five members. The committee oppose the bill.

Tabled for consideration with the bill.

The committee also reported on the bill to reduce the income qualification of Nobles from $500 to $300. The committee oppose the bill.

The report, which was a minority one, was tabled for future consideration.

Rep. Smith on behalf of the Sanitary Committee presented the answers of the Board of Health to questions regarding the duties of government physicians, in regard to free attendance and distribution of medicines.

Rep. Kamaooha moved the report of the committee be translated and carried for the information of the native people. Carried.

At 11:32 the House took a recess till 1:30.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House re-assembled at 1:35 P.M. Noble Pua presented a minority report of the Sanitary Committee regarding the detention of lepers at Kalahehi, recommending that the resolution calling for their detention be adopted.

Laid on the table with the majority report.

Rep. Wilder reported on the bill to encourage fruit industry by remission of taxes and duties on materials for canning, etc. The committee favor the idea and present a substitute bill 192a.

Tabled with the bill.

The same committee presented a report on the petition asking that tools and machinery for canning works be exempt from duty and taxes until the 35 per cent. American duty is removed. The committee recommend the prayer of the petition be granted.

The same committee reported on Bill 186 providing for re-registration of brands. The committee recommend the bill be passed.

The Attorney-General moved that the report be adopted.

Noble Thurston and the Attorney-General explained the object of the bill which was to release brands no longer in use.

The report was adopted and Saturday set for the third reading.

The same committee reported on the bill providing for the free admission of articles used in the manufacture of soap. The committee recommend the passage of the bill with an amendment to section 1.

Adopted and Saturday set for the third reading.

The same committee reported on the bill authorizing the appointment of postmasters on the inter-island steamers. The committee submitted the matter to the Postmaster-General who is opposed to the bill because the masters of vessels can already receive and carry letters, and the provision of compensation is unnecessary. People should mail their letters at the Post Office. The committee do not altogether agree with the Postmaster, but they think that no extra expense should be incurred at this time, and recommend the bill be laid on the table.

Rep. Kapahu moved the report be tabled for consideration with the bill.

Rep. Smith moved the report be adopted. Carried.

Noble Thurston reported that the Public Lands Committee had considered the petition of J. W. Robertson for certain labor performed on roads and bridges. The committee recommend the insertion of two items to satisfy the claim.

Tabled with the Appropriation Bill.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

Noble Marsden reported for the Special Committee on Bill 175 to regulate hours of labor of government employees. The committee find the bill aims to secure a much needed reform and they recommend its passage with a couple of amendments.

Tabled with the bill.

Noble Marsden presented a minority report on Bill 149 to amend the law relating to desertion of service by contract laborers.

Tabled to await the majority report.

Noble Thurston presented a report of the Special Committee on the Oceanic steamship subsidy recommending the appropriation of $24,000 for the biennial period and $12,000 more, if the Australia bill touch at Hilo. Noble Baldwin favored $30,000 and $60,000 extra for the Hilo trade.

The report was tabled for consideration with the minority report and Appropriation Bill.

Noble Williams for the Water Works Committee reported on the claim of L. A. Ho for work done in Nuuanu Valley for the water works. The claim was rejected by the Legislature of 1890, and the committee see no reason for reversing their verdict.

The report was adopted.

Rep. Kamaooha presented a report of a Select Committee on Bill 5 to repeal chapter 64 of the Laws of 1878 relating to the segregation of lepers. The committee offer a substitute bill.

Tabled with the report of other members of the committee.

Rep. Smith reported for the Select Committee on the Taro Blight. The committee sent Dr. Lyons to Kauai, and his report is appended. The committee recommend that the Minister of the Interior cause a full investigation to be made, and that $500 be appropriated for that purpose.

The report was laid on the table, to be considered with the Appropriation bill.

Noble Thurston reported for the Committee on Public Lands, recommending that the bill to re-establish the commission of boundaries pass.

Adopted, and Saturday set for third reading of the bill.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rep. Kapahu questioned the Minister of Finance in regard to the purchase of a certain house by the Board of Education.

Noble Young read by title an Act to authorize the Hawaiian Government to contract for the construction of submarine telegraph cables.

Under suspension of rules, the bill was read a second time by title.

Rep. Bipikane moved the bill be considered with the lottery bill.

The bill was referred to a select committee of five.

At 3:15 the House proceeded to the ORDER OF THE DAY.

Section 2: On motion of the Minister of Finance, the amount named in line one was stricken out.

DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Education of Hawaiian youth abroad, $10,000.

Noble Marsden said this amount, or whatever of it was necessary, should go into section 1. He moved reference to a select committee.

The Attorney-General opposed reference to a select committee, which he held was unnecessary. The item could be passed over until the third reading, when the Minister of Foreign Affairs would be ready to recommend the amount necessary in Section 1.

Rep. Smith said only about $3000 had been spent during the last period.

Noble Thurston moved reference to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, to inquire what amount would be necessary to support these young men until January 1st and then to discharge them home.

One had been in Boston five years and the other in London ten, which was beyond all reason. The young man in London had got married three or four years ago.

Noble Baldwin did not favor the recall of the young men. Makalua, the one in London, had been studying medicine and had just graduated, and he ought to have experience in a medical hospital. He was an intelligent young man.

Rep. R. W. Wilcox said there was no use in making any reference to a committee. The proposition to recall these young men showed a jealousy of native Hawaiians, and men who made such propositions were black-hearted, etc.

Noble Thurston said the member from Wailua had better take a drink of ice water and cool off. He had said nothing which justified such remarks. He would be glad to see more young Hawaiians study abroad, but they should pay for themselves, and not ask the taxpayers to do it for them. The only education which the speaker had got abroad was one year and a half, and he had paid every dollar for it himself. There were young men here beginning to show the down on the lip who were hardly born when this young man went away. Why spend half a lifetime educating him? Let someone else have a chance.

Rep. Smith said the discussion showed the wisdom of a reference to the Minister. Over $100,000 had been appropriated for the education of Hawaiian youths abroad, and there was not much to show for it.

Rep. R. W. Wilcox said the member from Lihue and the Noble from Maui would make a good team. It did not follow because $100,000 had been spent. There was no use in half educating the people.

The item was referred to the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Relief and return of indigent Hawaiians, $5000.

The item was passed and transferred to Section 1.

The President appointed as committee on the Cable Bill, Nobles Thurston, Young and Hind Reys. Wilder and White.

At 3:55 the House adjourned.

Coolness in a Mixed College.

There is a coolness between the boys and the girls of the Stanford university. It all came about from a question of propriety. The boys gave a ball in their dormitory hall on Monday night, to which they invited all the girl students, as well as the professors. Elaborate preparations were made, and the young men anticipated an evening of enjoyment. They hired a band, and had the dormitory beautifully decorated.

One or two of the more modest and retiring of the maidens in the girls' dormitory were shocked at the avowed intention of some of the girls to attend the ball, and called a meeting of the girls, at which there was a long discussion of the affair.

Many of the fair students said they could see no harm in going to the ball as long as the professors were willing, but the more prudish damsels read a strong lecture on the evils of such doings, and, on a vote, there was a majority in favor of not attending the ball. So none of them went.

The boys waited long for the coming of the fair ones, but they came not. At first the collegians were very angry. Then they took the dancing floor themselves and made a "star" party of it. They say, however, that for future festivities they will send no invitations to the girl students. This suits the ultra-modest among the latter, but the sociable girls feel crushed.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Brooklyn's Roomy Park.

Brooklyn is becoming quite a town for parks, and the taxpayers have never been known in recent years to object to having their money spent for such purposes. There was a great outcry thirty-five years ago, when the laying out of Prospect park was suggested, but nobody now worries because the project was carried through. The thing was a very profitable bargain in buying the 516-1-6 acres contained in that park and paying only $2,918,370.70 for them. Since then the city has expended $5,348,860.35 on construction account, making this one park represent an expenditure of $8,267,231.05, but if it was put on the market tomorrow it would easily sell for twice that amount.

This is the biggest breathing spot in the city. It contains 110 acres of wood, 77 acres of lakes, 70 acres of meadow land and 250 1-6 acres of plantations. To accommodate owners of horses there are 9 miles of drives and 3-1-10 miles of bridle roads, while the most enthusiastic pedestrian ought to be satisfied with his 12 miles of walks. In addition the national guard and the baseball players are provided with a plot of level greensward known as the parade grounds, and covering an area of 49 acres.—New York Times.

The Old Way of Baking.

Bake kettles to supplement the brick ovens to this day are used on southern plantations. These kettles or ovens are placed upon the coals in huge fireplaces, on the covers of which were put coals so that both top and bottom would bake alike.

Johnnycake and shortcake were often baked upon a board tilted in front of the fire upon the hearth. The turning of these cakes required a sleight of hand trick incomprehensible to my youth, but my mother always did it deftly enough. Small tin bakers, closed on three sides, were afterward submitted for the johnnycake board.—Troy Times.

A Flag Made of Undershirts.

Perhaps the most interesting war relic in Maine is a Union flag made from the undershirts of the prisoners at Salisbury prison. The prisoners had set a day upon which they intended to rise and overpower the guards. The flag was to be used as a rallying signal. But before the day arrived orders came for them to be exchanged. The flag was brought home by Lieutenant George B. Keniston, of Boothbay, a member of the Fifth Maine, whose property the flag now is.—Bangor Commercial.

Goos by Contraries.

"Shut that door!" yelled a man in the Moffat block as a caller passed out one red-hot day.

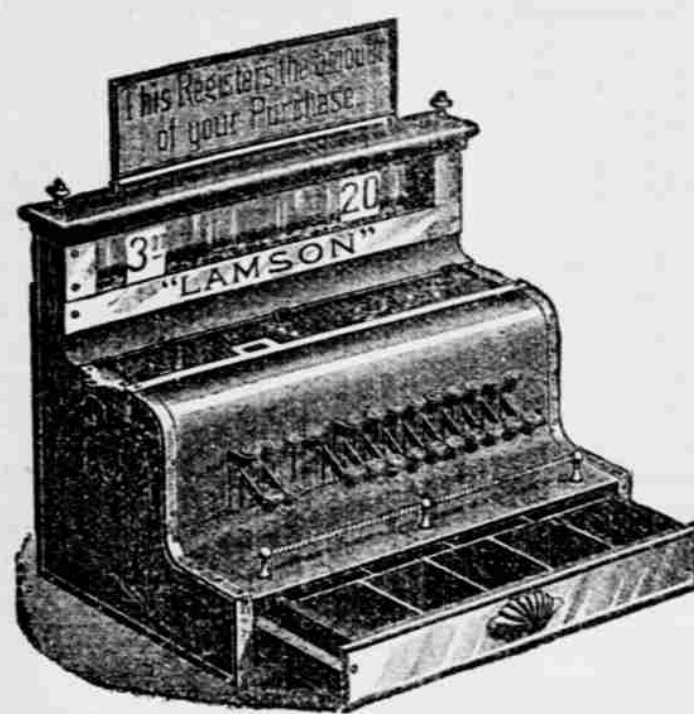

The hand of the visitor was already closing the door, but as he heard the injunction to shut it he dropped it as if it had been a hot potato, and it swung open and settled back against the wall.

"It always works," said the hot man as he moved closer to the draft and fanned himself contentedly.—Exchange.

in designing the Mimeograph took as his principle, the stylus, the writing implement of man since the art was first invented. It is the natural instrument by which the hand can trace characters. This is one of the reasons why this machine has achieved such popularity.

The pen or stylus glides easily over the prepared stencil paper with just enough friction to make writing identical to that done with a hard lead pencil.

It is used by jobbers sending out price lists; retail stores use it sending circulars direct to their customers; secretaries, in printing notices of meeting, programmes, etc.; hotels, printing bills of fare and printing bill and letter heads; musicians, sketching notes in colors, and in fact anything that a lead pencil can do, this machine does. It is simple, cleanly and strong. Prints on any kind of paper. Reproduces copies of type-written work that are exact fac similes.

HAWAII'S FINANCES.

A Plan for Getting Out of Deep Water.

MR. EDITOR: Now that we have at last some fair prospect of a stable Cabinet (?), it may not be out of place to submit to your readers some observations on the policy that the new Ministry will have to follow, if they earnestly care for the good of the country, especially in financial matters.

THE SITUATION

of the Kingdom is not worse than that of many other governments in this era of universal depression, but the local effects of the general hard times will require here more executive ability than ever before. Thus, the new Minister of Finance will find himself very far from being on a bed of roses. I don't know whether the new incumbent is himself fully aware of what is awaiting him and whether he fairly looks out before leaping into the portfolio; this is none of my business. But what I can say, is that if my information is correct—the whole of the now incoming taxes, due for the year ending on the 1st of July next, is already needed at once to meet the present outstanding obligations of the Government, debts and refunding of deposits in the post office savings bank. With what funds will the Government hereafter carry out, not only the necessary improvements, but even the ordinary running expenses, is the first problem that the new Minister of Finance has to ponder over. It has been considered in this country that the finance portfolio was simply a sinecure, a mere fifth-wheel, that any dunce could fill. We will shortly be made to realize that it is quite the reverse, and that to put the Government matters on a right footing, it will need the skill of our smartest "financiers," if we have any here outside of the banks; and, in my mind, the most reliable, experienced, intelligent and patriotic Minister of Finance would be Hon. S. M. Damon, if he were available for public service. It seems already conceded by all parties that is unavoidable and indispensable, but that it will require our shrewdest financier to realize this loan advantageously. How about the new incumbent? The country is certainly worth the money of a very large loan, which would be just as safe as in the best governed countries; but it requires more tact than was found in some of our previous Ministers to manipulate it successfully, whilst it will require careful judgment to properly expend the loan, if it be obtained, this last depending entirely on the skill of the Minister and of the agents he may select. Furthermore, this is where an intelligent financier will have occasion to show his ability by taking advantage of the necessity of the loan, so as to unburden our financial situation generally. This can be realized by

of our indebtedness, such as all civilized countries—England, France, Italy, Germany, and America herself—have given us examples of at some period of their history. In all these Governments, the older loans obtained at high interest have been gradually reduced from 6, 5, 4 per cent. to 3, and even 2½. In this country, our bonded indebtedness stands, I believe, as follows: $46,000 at 12 per cent.; $13,000 at 9 per cent.; $10,000 at 7 per cent.; $1,873,300 at 6 per cent.; and the balance of the Postal Savings Bank, say $300,000, at 4 per cent.; total, $2,823,300, for which we pay interest, $155,206.

Now a new loan could certainly be obtained under proper management, but not necessarily in London, because there are other money markets in the world which might be found more advantageous; and it could be realized at 4 or 5 per cent. interest, and yet be quite a desirable one for foreign investors because, at present, the best Government securities give only 3 per cent., and the new consols only 2½. If such a loan of say four millions, out of which $2,823,000 to reimburse all the Savings Bank investments—or as much as is necessary—and to cancel all our present bonds of every kind (whose reimbursement the Legislature has the perfect right to order, before the expiration of their shortest term, just as much as any mortgage has a right to pay off his mortgage before the end of the stipulated time), this would leave $1,167,000 for meeting the forthcoming necessities of the administration and carrying out the necessary public improvements; and this total loan, at 4 per cent. would require but $160,000 for interest, or only $5000 a year more than what is now paid. And such a loan could all the more easily be obtained at present, as we have a fine feather in our cap to advertise on, viz.: the recent deepening of the bar, a bona fide improvement which doubles the value of our harbor. Will the present incumbent realize these facts?

EMBARRASSMENT.

The principal reason of the embarrassment in which the Government now finds themselves is the insensate improvident mismanagement, by previous finance ministers, of the savings bank. This institution, most excellent if properly understood and administered, has been taken by the late pseudo-financiers of past years, for a goose with golden eggs, which they expected would ever lay without anything to feed it. The money procured through it has been expended, presumably to the advantage of the country in the long run, but without any idea that some of the depositors might some day want their money back; and no provision has been made to meet the emergency. If my proposition in the Legislature in 1890 had been heeded no trouble would ever have arisen in this respect; it needed simply to introduce here the iron rule of foreign postal savings banks, by which, as soon as a deposit overreaches by mere accruing interest a certain limit, it is at once transformed into Government bonds, which the owner can sell, but which the administration is not obliged to refund on demand. The new Minister of Finance will therefore have to attend to this point if he does not intend, as his improvident predecessors, to always live from hand to mouth. Moreover, if he is an ordinarily intelligent and unbiased man, he may probably soon find out that the best thing for the future finances of the country would be to see about starting some sound so as to render the administration independent of local personal influences and pressure; and, as a successful foreign loan would probably stop any further calls for reimbursements on the Postal Savings Bank, the surplus thus resulting would enable the Minister to start this national bank without any difficulty; and here some of the ideas of my friend Hon. J. M. Horner might not be found as cranky as many of his detractors assume them to be. Outside of these little financial operations the Minister of Foreign Relations will have his share of financial duties. He must help his colleague of the finances by a spirited and

INTELLIGENT FOREIGN POLICY.

He must not pander exclusively to American tendencies, and must not bother about a treaty with America on the old basis, viz.: "to give everything away and obtain nothing in return except some petty favor for the interests of a few individuals," but he must look out for the general interest. More especially, as we are so poor and need tangible help. He will have to take in hand the matter of properly utilizing the harbors of

on the basis of a good lease to the highest bidder, as it was lately expressed in the ADVERTISER by the learned Judge Hartwell and by myself. As I then said: "what we need and must try to realize, is to make a good bargain, a pure business transaction without any sentimentalism or national preferences or prejudices," and before giving away our jewels to Uncle Sam, for whatever he may deign to offer, our new Minister of Foreign Affairs, (unless he is blinded by partiality and a traitor to the country), must enquire who might be of the three possible lessees, England, Russia and America, and then, only deal with the one who will give us the most, whoever that may be. This might avoid the necessity of a loan. Will the new incumbent know how to successfully perform those skillful diplomatic manoeuvres?

These are some of the views that can be adduced from the present situation, as to the future policy of the new Ministry; others might follow, but as I must already apologize for the length of this letter, they will keep for a future occasion. All that is useful to add for the present, is that, in the actual condition of things here, a careless, unintelligent or biased minister of finance will easily ruin the country, and a careless, unintelligent or partisan minister of foreign affairs will jeopardize the independence of the kingdom without obtaining any advantage in exchange. The people will therefore watch the new Cabinet with curiosity, remembering that, anyhow, only fourteen short months separate us from the next elections. But, as the new ministers are four gentlemen of undoubted reputation for intelligence, ability and patriotism, we must hope for the best—if they remain long enough in office, for there is about them a certain odor that does not seem to please everybody in the Legislature.

Yours respectfully,

A. MARQUES.

NOT TO WORRY is an aid to the general pleasure of living.

But you will worry so long as you are without a good Safe.

Did you know that the lock on a Hall's Safe was the most difficult to pick? A combination of numbers are more perplexing than a word of four letters, ending, as they invariably do on the letter K. You have only to guess a few words, such as bank, rank, etc., and you may open your neighbor's Safe. But you can't disturb his ease of mind if it's a Hall's. Try.

Glance at the hinges and knobs on this Safe and then compare with others. Nothing is skimmed. Security, durability and a clean record mark every line in a Safe that will last a lifetime and always saleable.

HILO BUDGET.

The Queen Dowager and Suite Visit Madame Pele.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

A total eclipse of the moon was observable here on the morning of the 4th. The moon went into shadow shortly after 3 A. M., and towards 4 A. M. totality took place, the corona being distinctly observable. It set still partially in shadow behind Mauna Kea about 4:30. The sky was perfectly clear and the night had been a most beautiful one until the darkness from the eclipse came on. There were a few of our residents who were spry enough to get up and see a portion of it.

The Queen Dowager Kapiolani and suite arrived on the Kinau on Thursday. She is the guest of Mr. D. Kaihenui, of Kukaiaui. Under the care of Governor J. T. Baker she and party left for the Volcano on Friday morning and returned again on Saturday evening. She intends stopping in Hilo until next steamer.

A pleasant Halloween party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Lobenstein on Monday night. Most of the young people of the town were present and joined in games, bobbing for apples in different ways, and having their future decided, etc., ending up with dancing. A very agreeable time was spent and all enjoyed themselves.

The band gave a concert at the Court House grounds on Friday evening; quite a number of people listened to it. The night was a beautiful one, the moon being almost full, and the music and the evening were quite enjoyable.

The Foreign Church social was a most pleasant one, given on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Terry at their home at the Boarding School. There was a good attendance and great sociability. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served. Among the strangers present were Mr. Theo. H. Davies and Mr. Callendar. Mr. Callendar is a lay minister who has accompanied Mr. Davies from England, and goes to Hamakua to take a charge over there at Paunilo, and also to teach school. He has been formerly a minister or missionary in Africa.

Another very pleasant picnic was given on Saturday at Coconut Island, and the day being a perfect one, the bathing fine and the lunch a most bounteous one, a happy time was had. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. L. Severance, Mr. Theo. H. Davies, Mr. Swanzy, Mr. Callendar, Rev. E. P. Baker, Rev. and Mrs. O. K. Gulick, Miss McLeod, Miss McGowan, Miss Porter and Miss Scott.

Judge and Mrs. Austin are expected home in about a week from their tour of the Island.

Hilo, November 7, 1892.

LUNCH TO-DAY.

A Royal Repast to be Served in the Church Parlors.

The lunch at Central Union Church to-day will be the last of the series given by the ladies, and pains have been taken to make it the best of all. The chowder, for which they are justly celebrated, will be the main feature, but there will be an abundance of delicious salads and other viands to suit all tastes. Their coffee, as we all know, is unsurpassed, if not unsurpassable.

Pin This To Your Memory.

The best way to stop the pain from a burn or scald when the skin has been taken off is to break an egg over the wound. The suffering arises largely from the exposure to the air, and the white of the egg forms an artificial skin or covering, which for a time effectually prevents contact with the air, and so lessens the irritation of the nerves. —[St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

The herbarium of the British Museum has been recently enriched by a valuable collection of Muscineae, presented by the widow of the collector. It comprises upwards of 20,000 specimens of mosses, hepaticae and lichens from New Zealand, Samoa, India, the West Indies, America and Europe.

Paris Fashions.

The new fall toilets bid fair to be the prettiest and most elegant of any that have ever been seen, both in color and make. The prevailing colors for early autumn will partake of the coloring in nature, and be russet, faded reds and purples, with warm browns and soft yellows. The new fall wools are seen in these colors and in mixtures and also changeable effects. There is a pretty serge with the warp of pale blue, like the autumn sky, and a rich yellow, like the poplar leaves, for the wool and the tones blend and mingle so that in one light it is blue, in another yellow, and all together a delicate green. Trimmed as this was, with four narrow silk pinked ruffles around the bottom and a draped corsage of silk bearing the same shades, and with wrinkled sleeves bordered by three of the tiniest ruffles, it was most beautiful.

I saw one exquisite costume for the promenade made of faded leaf cashmere which was sublime. Around the bottom of the rather long skirt were two self, plain hemmed ruffles, headed by a rose plaiting pinked on both edges. There was a short wrap of the same material, with a ruffle five inches deep of cashmere embroidered in exactly the same shade and headed by a pinked out rose plaiting; the front laid in a plait, with long tabs, and the back gathered into a short Watteau plait. Faint and pinking and much accordion plaiting will be seen on all the fall costumes.

Another beautiful dress for a young lady was of lilac and gray striped sarah; the skirt was quite plain, with lace drapery across the bust and down the left side. I saw this same design in several other colors and materials.

A Southern Beauty.

Miss Carrie Cochran, daughter of the eminent southern jurist, Judge John Cochran, who died when she was an infant, was introduced in Washington society last season by her aunt, the beautiful titul wife of Representative Oates, of Alabama. She is quite tall, has quantities of hair so dark that it is almost black, well defined brows, clear cut features, fine dark eyes and complexion of the loveliest pink and white. She is a highly accomplished girl and is quite agreeable in conversation.

CARRIE COCHRAN.

Consideration for the Help.

The thoughtful housekeeper will not forget the consideration due to her servant during such extreme weather as has been undergone lately. Even with every care the kitchen is an almost intolerable place with the average temperature of the day among the nineties. Any woman who does not realize this has only to walk from her cool, darkened sitting room to the cook's domain to be glad to hurry away.

The meals should be planned to demand as little heat as possible, and an arrangement ought to be made to give the cook an hour or two out of the kitchen in some cool spot during the day. In a morning call a day or two ago the hostess excused herself a moment to call over the basement balustrade, "Is the door closed into the basement hall, Ellen, from the kitchen?" "No, ma'am," came up stairs. "Close it at once, please; the heat from the kitchen comes up through the house," and it was further explained to the visitor on the return to the parlor that Ellen was ironing, and with the discretion usual to her kind "persisted in keeping the kitchen door open."

That the girl over the ironing table needed the circulation of air possible only by the opening of the door in question and the lower area door did not occur to the mistress. Yet she was a kind hearted woman, for she told her caller a few moments later that she had some shopping to do, but it was "really too warm to take out the horse."—Her Point of View in New York Times.

OYSTERS AND SEEDS

Are valuable for what's in 'em. Good and bad oysters look alike in the shell. Good and bad seeds often have the same appearance. Any one can tell a worthless oyster on opening it. The value of a seed must be determined by its growth. This makes its quality worth considering. You want seeds that will grow, and you want the product to be of value. There is but one guarantee; the reliability of the firm from which you buy.
