PLANNING FOR PEACE OF NATIONS

Success of the Czar's Proposi- tion is Certain.

Powers That Will Send Representatives to Congress—Objects of the Conference.

Special Dispatch to The Examiner.

WASHINGTON, March 24. — Count Casini, the Russian Ambassador, has not yet received the detailed program of topics to be discussed at the coming Peace Congress to be held at The Hague in May, but enough information is at hand to show the scope of the conference.

Preparations for representation are going forward actively in nearly all the nations and the success of the conference is already assured, so far as the number in attendance is concerned. Russia, the United States, Great Britain, Germany, Austria, France, Italy, and other smaller nations, including probably Japan, will have representatives at The Hague in readiness for the convocation of the congress in May.

As soon as President McKinley returns from the South he will name the representative or representatives who will act for the United States and they will be given definite instructions as to what is expected of them in congress. Four chief propositions will come before the congress when it meets. In the order of their importance it is said the topics will thus be divided:

1.—The general proposition to limit the armaments of nations, both military and naval, which is the chief object of the congress as the Czar, its promoter, views it.

2.—The establishment of a standard of comparison which shall be made to serve as a basis for all the nations taking part. This will be one of the most difficult problems as the more powerful European nations have now costly military and naval armaments, the ratio in the military establishment to the whole population being in some instances from 5 to 8 for every 1000 of population.

3.—How to equalize the differences in armament between the smaller nations and the leaders of the world so that, if there should be a harmonious convention, the nations could carry out the spirit and letter of the compact, to the end that eventually the difficulties in armament would be those used by differences in population.

4.—The establishment of an International Court of Final Review which shall be competent to decide all questions of differences between nations wherein national honor is not involved. This would, in fact, be a general Court of Arbitration for all minor disputes between nations.

The United States is expected to have a potent influence in the congress and our representatives will undoubtedly be selected with this end in view. If Archbishop Ireland cannot accept the appointment offered him of being one of America's representatives, it is expected that one of the diplomats will be selected. Charlemagne, the new Ambassador to Russia, will be one, while Ambassador White at Berlin is expected to be another.

245 Cases of New Stylish goods are now being opened up at Kerr's, Queen street, and will be sold at bargains that will astonish you.

THE BALABAC MASSACRE.

Two New Republics.

By the kindness of a local firm, we have received an account from Labuan of recent events in the southern Philippines. The Spaniards evacuated the island of Palawan on the 10th December, in safety. Upon this, the natives there began rioting and shops were looted by liberated prisoners. The Spanish Governor of the island of Balabac and his staff were massacred on the 20th November. His widow, Senora Bellamy, the widow of a naval ensign, four children, one priest, and seven soldiers were held captive by the insurgents for 68 days. They were rescued by Capt. Pfort of the steamer Labuan who had to exercise strategem, diplomacy, and tact to gain his point. These people reached Labuan on the 24th January. Other rescued captives—twenty Manila men, and sixty women and children remained at Sadakan. The refugees speak highly of Capt. Pfort's humanity and kindness. A republic has been proclaimed at Balabac with Carlos Peerna as president. Aguinaldo's flag has been hoisted. The Palawan natives have also proclaimed a republic with a president. From fear of the Sulu islanders, they have requested Capt. Pfort to secure European protection for them. It is expected that, unless the American Government interferes, the Sulu islanders will make short work of these petty republics. The island of Kalasian, off the Palawan coast, is quite peaceful. It is inhabited by Sulu islanders and Chinese, and would be an admirable base of operations to deal with the trouble on the main island.—Straits Times.

A HOME FOR INCURABLES.

In the present mad rush for stocks and shares it is probably useless to remind the good people of Honolulu that something should be done at once to house the poor deluded people who come here suffering from incurable diseases, believing that in this Paradise of the Pacific a fig leaf, a palm tree and a bread fruit, are all what is needed for a wholesome and comfortable existence.

The poor consumptive men and women who have read the romantic stories issued from the Foreign Office of Mr. Dole arrive here to get cruelly disappointed. The "fig leaf" has to be made of tweed or duck at an expensive tailor shop. The bread fruit has to be bought at its weight in gold, and the sleeping under a palm tree is generally awarded by a kick from a burly policeman and a fine of $2 and costs from the Magistrate.

But a hospital for incurables has become a necessity, and something must be done at once if Hawaii expects to be classed among civilized countries. We cannot afford to have people dying in our streets from hunger and lack of attendance. We must provide for them somewhere and somehow even when "Kihei" is going down. A short while ago everything was arranged for a Home for incurables above the Asylum. Stocks went up and the matter dropped. Now while "stocks" are dropping, couldn't the Home go up?

A meeting is called for "Organized Charities" by a prominent citizen on Thursday afternoon. We hope that the matter of a home for incurables will be brought up and acted upon and that "charities" will be organized for once here without any reference to creed or religion.

The Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. last evening held its annual meeting and elected forty new members bringing the membership up to 450. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Walter C. Weedon; Vice-President, T. Olive Davies; Recording Secretary, B. F. Beardslee; Treasurer, C. H. Atherton; Directors: C. H. Cooke, T. Olive Davies and A. B. Wood.

At the Orpheum.

Mr. Charles S. Desky has taken personal charge of the Orpheum and will bring his theatre up to a first-class standing. The musical exhibition of Professor Ordway last night was simply immense, and without being indiscreet we would like Antonio van Goffe to tell us where his "bones" are. He and they are "out of sight."

High Ball.

Besides the famous Jesse Moore whisky, the Anchor Saloon is now serving to customers the celebrated "High Ball," a white malt whisky marked Cyrus Noble and which with plain soda is considered a beverage for the most particular mortals. Try it.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Bishop's law is strong law before our courts especially when supported by able counsel.

It is a healthy sign for a community when Government investments are regarded as gilt-edged by the founders of fortunes, and Hawaii is doubly blessed in these conditions.

In the sweet mahope Pearl City and its inlet will be a busy locality with military and commercial harbors and a luxuriant back country to draw from when our industries are more diversified.

High handed procedure is the order of the day with strong nations. The Sultan of Oman has revoked the grant of a coaling station to the French under threat of bombardment by the British Admiral.

With a new President of the Commissioners of Education, and the combination of honest men like Alexander and Maxwell, the ex-President's scheme to oust a certain talented and able teacher is apt to fall to pieces.

Of course the recent unpleasant incident or accident will be placed to stock gambling instead of to eccentricity greatly caused by too much energy in our luxurious climate. Keep your head cool and your feet warm is a wise medical rule with which to travel over the dusty roads of this wearisome and toilsome earth.

Apropos of expositions, is it not wiser and more profitable to exhibit our wares elsewhere than at home. Our visitors come here to see our climate, scenery and people, and not our products. At Omaha and Paris and other diverse places we should take care to have a few specimens of bottled sunshine and rainbow drops and multitudinous and unlimited arrays of photographs.

Really, now! between Ballentyne and Paine we have some hopes of an improvement in our local transit lines in the sweet bye-and-bye. The street cars were once better than nothing and much appreciated, and the patronage accorded to them, even in their present dilapidated condition, is an earnest of future welfare when the means of travel are improved.

Any public movement which causes the liberation of hoarded funds, and the employment of labor, even temporarily, is generally of advantage. It is only the selfish greed to accumulate wealth too rapidly and speculatively that brings disaster by unduly elevating values. These values vary; for instance money is worth in England 2 percent and in Hawaii what you can get for it from 4 to 120 percent (according to recent disclosures).

That Bishop Willis would come out victorious in the foolish suit brought against him by men who do not understand the necessity of discipline in the church, has always been predicted in this paper which sneeringly has been called "the Bishop's organ." We simply knew what we were talking about, and we have neither time nor space to point our fingers at our opponents in this matter and say "we told you so."

It is pleasant to note that a feeling of justice is reactionary in our almost limitless borders in regard to the Chinese who have in the past been so unjustly treated. The idiotic action of ex-Minister of Foreign Affairs Cooper in suddenly stopping Chinese agricultural laborer immigration in order to afford an opportunity for flooding the country with the less desirable Japanese, will be better appreciated as the years roll on, and the unwisdom of his general policy in the Foreign office becomes more patent.

Now that the Hawaiian Naval Reserve is in a fair way of becoming an institution of our Island territory, let us go one patriotic step further. Little by little, even if it takes five years, out of the plenitude of the wealth of the Islands, let us purchase a little armed cruiser of our own, call her by a Hawaiian name and present her to the Home Government with the understanding that she be permitted to be, at least nominally, our own. If annexation be appreciated, let gratitude be attested by a little self-sacrifice by postponing that pleasure trip to Europe or Japan for twelve months.

For nearly fifteen years the writer has believed that the land-covered-with-water extending from the channel toward Waikiki would make an excellent harbor, while the, at present useless, salt marsh lands could be profitably converted into valuable sites for warehouses. The coral excavated to make the docks would aid in the building of the walls and road ways surrounding them. As we have understood it the main objection to the proposition is that of expense, but that would be a bagatelle in proportion to the advantage to be derived from, among other things, dry and graving docks for war vessels.

It will be desirable for the United States since it has pleased them to annex us at the request of a self-constituted government, unendorsed by the votes of the masses of the people, to rule us with a gentle hand in the manner we have been accustomed rather than to treat us as Filipinos, composed of many uncivilized and semi-barbaric races. We are entitled to as much Home Rule as the elastic limits of the conscience of Congress and the Constitution of the United States will permit to civilized and fairly well educated people, whose main fault is, perhaps, that they think the rustic cackle of their burgh the wave that murmurs round the world.

We won't offend our dearly esteemed subscriber by failing any longer to print his joke on the recently appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs. It is this: "What did agnostic Dole reply to those who cavilled at Minister Mott-Smith's appointment on the ground of his youth and inexperience?" Give it up!

"He said, I followed the precept taught in the open Bible of the Missionaries that 'out of the mouths of babes and sucklings cometh wisdom.'"

There is consolation in the reflection, Mr. Minister, that many great men have ruled with wisdom greater worlds than have been entrusted to you at an earlier age than your own.

There is very grave danger, as THE INDEPENDENT has often pointed out, that the ignorant Mainlanders, believing that the sun-browned tawny races should naturally love each other owing to the similarity of color, will influence the Federal Government to send us a garrison of colored troops unless we, the Government and the people, unitedly oppose such a measure. Every effort should be made to impress upon the Home Government the disastrous effect of garrisoning us with negroes. They are detested as a race by the Hawaiians, and are not deemed desirable by the whites and consequently we should be in constant turmoil and earn unintentionally a bad name.

The Waverley Club.

It is not generally enough known that the billiard and pool tables at the Waverley Club are free to members, and that there is a free lending library in connection with the club. The dues are only one dollar a month and new members are being added each week. Only those who will pay their small dues punctually or in advance are desired as members.

"The New York Dismal Daily Damper."

You'd starve to death in that newspaper's house,
Not food enough there to keep even a mouse;
And as for any least bit of joke—
The "devil," you know, he likes sober folk,
He likes sober folk!

That roomy sheet is stolid and dull,
Through it you hunt to your heart's content;
There's never a quip nor jest to cull—
A cunning rhyme it would soon resent,
It would soon resent.

It wants naught but facts, dry dusty facts,
Accounts of battles and crime and stocks;
Or, if your copy "society" lacks,
You'd batter not at that office knock,
At that office knock.

Columns of facts and faces and names,
Stupid chit-chat there's never enough;
When Mr. White went and Mrs. Black came—
And a mixed-up mess of such like stuff,
Mess of such like stuff.

Niulii Men Meet.

In response to a call from Henry Waterhouse the men who subscribed for shares in the Niulii Sugar Co. met this morning and did some good business. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Henry Waterhouse, president; F. M. Hatch, vice president; Henry Waterhouse, Jr., treasurer; R. W. Shingle, secretary; Tom May, auditor. The above-named officers together with Francis Gay and Cecil Brown are the directors of the new company, which will start operations at once on a large scale.

One of the best features of the new sugar company is that the stocks are held mainly by the kamaainas, and that the promoter, Mr. Henry Waterhouse, has favored the "small" men of old residence here to throwing the shares on a foreign market. With men like Francis Gay, Cecil Brown, Tom May, F. M. Hatch and others connected with the Waterhouse firm, it is safe to say that the Niulii sugar concern will be a Klondike affair.

Mr. Waterhouse leaves for Kohala on Friday to close the bargains for lands. It is whispered that before long the new company will possess all the sugar lands from Hawi to Niulii and will own one of the biggest sugar plantations in the world. The mill at the Kohala sugar plantation could be temporarily used for all the cane of the district and the smaller mills be abandoned.

The Niulii "stockholders" will await the return of Mr. Henry Waterhouse from Hawaii with deep interest, and the stock dealers will sit up at nights until they hear that he has Halawa, Kohala, the Union, Rycroft and Hawi.

The Murder of Father Victorin.

The following account of the barbarities perpetrated upon the unfortunate Father Victorin by the anti-foreign Chinese of Shikhsan
in the Patung district is taken from North China Daily News:

Father Victorin was a Belgian, not quite twenty-nine years of age, and was appointed by his Bishop some two months ago to a Roman Catholic station at Shikhsan, in the Pa-tung district, about 100 miles from here. For some time past there has been a feeling of enmity against the Catholics smouldering among the evilly disposed, and this at last came to a head in an attack on the Catholic converts at Shikhsan. Father Victorin at first made his escape,
but was so unfortunate as to be caught by a roving band of the rioters who after beating him cruelly and stripping him almost naked, tied him on a board and brought him in triumph back to his former home, where a large band of rioters was assembled, whose evil passions
had been stirred up by the burning out and slaughtering of converts in which they had been indulging. In sight of his late home they tied the poor priest to a tree, and here I would gladly draw a veil over the rest of this ghastly scene, but that I feel that the world should know of what the Chinese in their hour of triumph over a defenceless foreigner are capable, and I would warn all readers who are inclined to be squeamish to read no further, or to skip the next few lines.

As this poor man hung from the tree to which he was tied, pieces were cut from his thighs and eaten by his tormentors. From the state of his poor body fire was evidently applied to it, and slugs were fired into non-vital parts. Finally his body was cut open from the chest to the bottom of the abdomen, he was disembowelled, and the various organs were taken out and eaten by these semi-civilized people, who at the same time drank his blood. He was also mutilated in a way that cannot be described, and his head cut off; there being a hole in the top of the skull large enough to put one's fist in. The head—which I may add is entirely cleaned out of the brain, etc.—is easily recognizable, bearing the small brown moustache which he wore. One eye was evidently gouged out.

The Pope's Joke.

LONDON, March 18.—The Pope has just indulged in a joke at the expense of Cardinal Oreglia di Santo Stefano, who, as cardinal chamberlain of the church and prefect of the congregational of ceremonial, has to make sure that the Pope is dead by tapping him three times on the forehead with a little silver hammer. When Cardinal Santo Stefano was summoned to the Vatican in hot haste on the first news of the illness of the Pontiff, he put the hammer in his pocket, as it might be needed. The story reached the Pope's ears and afterward, receiving the Cardinal, his Holiness thanked him, commented on his foresight, and said: "And, as a token of our sincere appreciation of your thoughtful attention, we ask your Eminence to accept this little golden hammer
as a souvenir of our recovery."
