The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room, where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large lanai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and bear are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m. and during those hours the work never ceases.
Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

PARSONS KIOK.

One of the most amusing incidents, which has occurred since annexation of Hawaii was the presenting of a protest by parsons who object to the National Guard of Hawaii, disturbing the Sabbath and the deep reflections on the mission-ary work of virtuous W. R. Castle and a few others who live in Manoa Valley and who have always steered clear of gun powder and the clang ing of arms.

It is nearly impossible to believe that men who claim that they have common sense could have presented the following protest to the govern- or, but it is on record. The protest reads:

"HONOLULU, H. T., Oct. 24, 1901.
"To his Honor, Sanford B. Dole,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii:

"Dear Sir:—We, the undersigned, protest against the National Guard of this Territory being allowed to have artillery practice and sham battles on Sundays. We believe that few, if any, precedents can be found for such action in any other of the States or Territories of the United States.

"Therefore, we call your attention to the proposed official exercises of the National Guard of Hawaii on Sunday next, and do most respectfully ask that you, as the official head of the National Guard, issue orders countermanding the proposed desecration of the Sabbath.

Among the signers of the protest were parsons Gulick, Kincaid, Pearson, Westervelt, Muckley and others who probably feared that the contri- bution boxes would look slim if the maneuvers in Manoa were allowed on a Sunday. Another protest was signed by L. A. Thurston and others among whom were,

W A Brown, P C Jones, W R Castle, E A P Newcomb, T Olive Davies,
Geo F Davis, J C Cooke, C H Cooke,
F C Atherton, F J Lowrey, Robert
Lewers, J P Cooke, L Tenney Pack,
P M Pond, J A McCandless, Frank
Andrade, E C Peters, B L Marx, W
J Forbes, Fred W Midderton, Albert
F Judd, W W Chamberlain, T
McCauley Stewart, H L Whitcomb,
Herman Mieth, Jas Nott, Jr, Chas H
Gilman, I M Long, J M Webb, C J
Day, A O Hushaw, W O Atwater, E
T Tannant, C H Dickey, Lyle A
Dickey, W H Baird, F W Macfarlane, R D Meade, Lorrin Andrews, J
M Whitney, P F Frear, G M Whitney, L J Warren, P L Weaver, O H
Walker, C E Dyke, W W Bristol, E
W Jordan, A F Cooke.

If the soldiers were not volunteers we could agree with the protesting people. But not one soldier needs to join the N. G. H. and adopt the regulations of that body, if he doesn't care to do so. No hardship is involved on the men. The effici- ency of the volunteer forces on the Mainland is caused by Sunday prac- tice. The maneuvers furnish a healthy and splendid exercise for our young men and a Sunday's drill at Manoa, is far better than a Satur- day and Sunday debauch in the same valley, which has occurred, according to rumor, without any opposition from Castle, Thurston, and the well paid "ministers," who think they can run this Territory.

Governor Dole put the protests in his waste basket, which gives the people a hope, that he is recovering and will soon cease to be a tool in the hands of "ministers," or a "grass-hopper," or whatever it was one of his would-be successors called him.

Colonel J. W. Jones in a publish- ed interview speaks very plainly and to the point. He says:

"I cannot see why the people waited until all arrangements for the camp had been made, before they entered their protest. Our in- tention of going into camp on Sun- day had been announced for over a month in the public press. Prac- tically and technically this is not a violation of the Sabbath law. The National Guard is a branch of the government, organized to assist in the preservation of the peace.

"The drill and camp on Sunday is not an amusement. It is business with the members of the National Guard. The target practice with the regiment as a unit, is no more than has been done regularly on Sunday by companies and battalions, and there has never been any complaint. Target practice on Sun- day is no worse than yacht races or shooting matches, and there has never been anything said of that.

"If the boys could have any other day for regimental target practice they would take it, but nearly all of them have to work, and could not afford to lose even one day.

"As far as the noise disturbing any one is concerned, I do not think there will be any of that. Last Sunday the battalion had target practice in Manoa Valley, and there was not the slightest complaint."

If these meddlers, who, under their ministerial cloaks, are doing all in their power to disturbing the peace and interfering with the wel- fare of this young Territory, un- derstood the political situation here, they would, if they were honest men stop their offensive, arrogant meddling. By their foolish actions they undo what the practical politi- cians, are trying to do in the inter- est of conservatism, law and order. These braying nonentities do all they can to spoil harmony, and har- mony is, what is needed in Hawaii today.

Estee's New Rules.

The following new rules were pub- lished in the U. S. District Court yesterday:

"No. 126—In all civil actions tried by a jury, where the United States is not a party, each party shall deposit with the Clerk of the Court the sum of $24, being the amount of the fees of the jury for said day; up- on the finding of the verdict, the party in whose favor said verdict shall be found, shall through said clerk, pay the fees of the jury, and shall tax said fees in his cost bill as costs against the losing party. The funds deposited by the losing party shall upon the coming in of the ver- dict be returned to him by the Clerk.

"No. 127 - In all actions, suits and proceedings in said Court which are commenced by the filing of a ver- ified complaint, whether a verified complaint be required by the rules of Court or not, it shall be the duty of the opposing party to verify his answer or other pleading in bar."

The sombre drapings have been removed from all Government build- ings in the city.

Down The Mosquitoes.

Is the castor bean plant the bane for mosquitoes. Professor Freder- ick Starr, of the University of Chi- cago, announces that it is, and in order to prove his theory it is pro- posed to plant the castor bean in the Chicago parks.

The discovery was made by Pro- fessor Starr while pursuing anthro- pological investigations in the trop- ics.

"One night," said the professor, "I was annoyed more than usual by the thousands of humming insects. In desperation I tore some branches from a nearby plant, with which to brush them away. I soon found that I did not have to brush. The mosquitoes disappeared as if by magic and did not come back that night.

"The next morning I discovered that the plant from which I had torn the branch was the castor bean. I tried the same method again and again, with complete success."

Dr. L. O. Howard, entomologist of the United States Department of Agriculture, is rather sceptical as to the value of Professor Starr's dis- covery.

Dr. Howard says:—"Most unfor- tunately, evidence in this matter is so conflicting that it is hard to come to a definite conclusion. The same matter was made public last year by our very intelligent United States Consul at Maracaibo, Vene- zuela, Captain Eugene Plumacher, who announced it in a consular re- port which was copied widely by the newspapers in different parts of the country. Captain Plumacher subsequently visited this country and called upon me, and gave me seeds of two species of castor bean plants which seemed to be effica- cious in this way, and I have had the plants grown.

"So far, I have been unable to observe any anti mosquito effect from them. Moreover, in the South- ern States I have correspondents who have castor bean plants grow- ing in their gardens, and who as sure me it is all nonsense to sup- pose, for a moment, that they have any effect upon mosquitoes."

POOR GIRL.

One of George Ade's Modern Fa- bles.

While in a Department Store, whither he had gone to save two cents each on his Collars, a Nice Man with black Lambrequins leaned over the Counter and said to Geneve, the sweet-faced Saleslady, "Oh, Lit- tle Girl, how I sympathize with you."

Geneve looked at him in a Startled Manner and then her Gaze fell.

"What is Biting you," she asked timidly.

"I am so sorry for one who is com- pelled to Toil," he said. "I am thinking of starting a Noon Day Rest Club, where you and the others may come and drink Tea and listen to me read Advice to the Young."

"That would be lonely Billiards, wouldn't it?" asked Geneve as she gave him the Chirp. "We don't want to be rounded up and sozzled over. Not on your Leaf Lards. The Poor Working Girl draws the line on having a kind hearted Gentle- man pull the Weeps on her. Why should I do the Rapine? I see more Money every Week than the average Married Women, and when I get on my Best Clothes, why I put her on the Blink, easy. When I want some small change I don't have to coax for it. I go to the Ten Twent-and Thirt several times a week, and I don't have to sit up in any six by- nine Flat waiting until all Hours for it. I think I can struggle along without having you come around to hold my Hand."

The Philanthropist walked away deeply grieved at her Point of View. Moral—Any Girl with a Geneve kind of a Name is not looking for Sympathy.

Rheumatism

Is a disease of the blood. Local applications may furnish tem- porary relief, but to CURE the disease it is necessary to treat it through the blood.

Locomotor Ataxia

Is a disease of the nerves. The one successful method of treat- ment is by a remedy that will restore nutrition to the nerves. Such a remedy is

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

These pills are a specific in cases of Rheumatism, Locomotor Ataxia, Paralysis, and other diseases of the blood and nerves, because they supply the necessary elements to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. It is in this way that the pills effect so many cures in diseases of apparently widely different character.

Frank Long, who lives near Len- non, Mich., says: "I was first taken with a pain in my back. The phys- ician pronounced my case muscu- lar rheumatism, accompanied by lumbago. My disease gradually be- came worse until I thought death would be welcome release. "I was finally induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale Peo- ple. Before the first box was used I could get about the house, and after using five boxes was entirely cured. Since that time I have felt no return of the rheumatic pains. Am confident that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life."

Sworn to before me at Venice, Mich., this 15th day of April, 1900.
G. B. GOLDSMITH, Justice of the Peace.

The full name is on each package. Sold by all druggists, or sent postpaid by Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y. Price 50c. per box; 6 boxes, $2.50.

Edwin R. Tripp, Postmaster of Middlefield Centre, N.Y., said: "I was attacked by what I learned was locomotor ataxia. Two skillful doctors did everything they could for me. I became worse, could not move even about the room. I did not expect to live very long. "The turning point was a news- paper article. It told how a man, who had suffered as I had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I took two boxes of the pills; then four more boxes. My gain was steady; my return to health was a source of daily grati- fication. In all I took eighteen boxes of the pills before I was entirely well. I owe my cure entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

Subscribed and sworn to before me, HOMER HANNA, Notary Public.

The Youths' Dramatic Club has signed a contract to play "Jesse James Oath" at the Chinese theater tonight. The show starts at eight o'clock and after two hours of Jesse James the Chinese stock company will put on "Bo Mun Yok Kin" or "What is it all about?"

It is reported that Mrs. Theresa Wilcox will start a newspaper here, which will be published in the English and Hawaiian languages, like our old Holomua. Mr. Robert W. Wilcox will hardly resign his office as Delegate to become editor of the new sheet, the policy of which may possibly be controlled by the mysterious "Colonel Mazuma."

Mr. C. A. Brown has applied to the Circuit Court to grant him temporary charge of his children with his divorced wife, who is now Mrs. C. Holloway, and, under the ruling of the Court, is the custodian of the children. The reason for the petition is that the mother of the children contemplates a trip to the Mainland, and that Mr. Brown is not satisfied with the arrangements made for the care of the two children, during her absence.

Grelok Didn't Go.

Albert Grelok, charged with larceny of beer belonging to the Honolulu Brewery, who was indicted by the Grand Jury, tried to jump his bond yesterday. He was captured by harbor officer Harry Flint, upon whose statement, Judge Gear increased the bail from $500 to $1000. Flint's report reads:

"This morning at 8 o'clock while searching the German bark 'Syrone' for stowaways, said bark being scheduled to sail at 9 o'clock for a foreign port, I discovered Albert Grelok hidden away in the forepeak, almost completely concealed under a pile of empty bags.

"I ascertained that he boarded the bark this morning at 5 o'clock with his trunk containing clothes. He begged hard to be allowed to get away on the vessel, and offered me money if I would allow him to do so.

"Knowing that he was charged with larceny, and believing that he intended to depart from this Territory and not stand trial upon said charge, I took him into custody."

Nipped In the Bud.

"Let me be frank and call your attention to a little fault of yours." "Certainly; but first let me call attention to your fault of not attending to your own business."

A MODERN FABLE.

George Ade's Advice When to Remove Kinks In a Husband

Fastidious Fannie was the name a Girl who had her Pencil out and marked down an Error the Minute it was made. She knew the Rules and Regulations by Heart. She slept with the Hand Book of Etiquette under her Pillow and worked the Eagle Eye whenever she was in Company, looking for Misplays. Fan was so Grammatical that she made nearly every one tired, and she was so Touchy that those who took long Chances and started in to Chat with her had to weight every Word.

At least a dozen Young Men came fooling around at different Times, attracted by her cold Beauty and the fact that she was the Only Child of a National Bank. Fan put the Blue Tag on them one by one. The first was six hours late in making his Party Call, and when he came around he found the Gate nailed up. The second wore his Dinner Jacket and a Tie one evening when he should work his long Henry Miller, so Fan wrote to him that he was ninety per cent Pinky doodle and belonged in a Lumber Camp. Another was careless enough to strike a Match and light his Student's Lamp one evening he was seeing her Home. She screamed and called for a Cab, for she held that no True Gentleman would Smoke a Cigarette while walking with a Lady. A fourth Aspirant wrote to her on the wrong kind of Paper and put the Date at the bottom instead of at the top. She and the fourth were Waltzing, and after that she couldn't see him, not even with a Spy Glass.

Thus she threw them into the Discard as fast as they bobbed up. One parted his Hair on the wrong side and another kept his Hands in his Pockets and another walked on the off side of her when they went up Street.

At last she had checked up the whole Push and not one would Do. And they were so Scared of her that when they came near her Corner they did a little Foot-Work to the other side of the Street.

For 8 years she sat with the Lace Curtains parted, keeping a keen lookout for old Perfection. She knew that there were some Real Gentlemen in the World, because she had read about them in Laura Jean Libbey.

At last she began to lean against the chilly Fact that the Tide had gone out and left her tangled in the Sea-Weed. So she went out and put up a Sign in the Front Yard:—"Man wanted. White one preferred."

Moral:—Marry him first and remove the Kinks afterward.

Sparks of Truth.

We never know how good we were going to be until the opportunity is past.

Don't waste your pity on the man who starts out to get something for nothing; he is more than apt to get his just deserts.

People wouldn't take half so many risks, if there were no one besides themselves to fasten the blame upon in case of failure.

Presentiment is a quality we frequently discover ourselves to have possessed—when the thing has happened.

It is sadder to lose a friend than a fortune. 'Most any man will tell you this—who has never had a fortune to lose.

Every man has to pay his own tuition in the school of life—and some pretty heavy mortgages besides.

Those people who are always tired of doing nothing are generally without the energy to do something.

The first rule of economy is to stop spending what you haven't; then you will soon have something upon which to economize.

It is often a more difficult matter to reconcile ourselves to other people's successes than to our own defeats.

A Clever Typewriter.

Down on Broadway last week one of the big banks, under the management of shrewd financiers and expert accountants, had to give up a puzzle that a young girl solved in a second. Through the mail came a typewritten letter that presented some strange hieroglyphics, puzzling to all, from the letter clerk up to the president.

In part the letter said:—"I will require 4 & 's.'"

"What does it mean?" asked one of the other, as the letter passed from hand to hand, and no one could tell.

"Show it to your typewriter," said the president to the cashier. He did so and she smiled.

"That's plain enough," she said. "It means $7,927."

"How do you make that out?"

"Easily enough," was the answer. "The writer simply blundered, neglected the shift key of his machine when he should have used it and used it when he should not. By not pressing it when he wanted to make the dollar mark he made a four, and by holding it while he thought he was making the four figures he made the characters above them on their keys."

She was right.

The First Naughty-Mobile.

While the scientists have been perfecting the horseless vehicle and, incidentally, trying to discover its inventor, a certain small boy of this town has settled the latter point to his own entire satisfaction. At Sunday school he is very attentive and imbibes information of Biblical matters which he uses in the dull routine of every day modern life.

A short time ago, at a large dinner party at his home, where the new and dangerous but delightful means of transport was the subject of conversation, he spoke up:—"I know who invented the auto mobile!"

A flattering silence; then, "Well?"

"The Lord!"

"Oh, Dick!"

"It's true, mamma!"

"Prove it, my dear!"

"Why, wasn't Elijah caught up in a chariot of fire, with horses of fire, too? Now if that had been real fire it could not have come from heaven, but from—"

"Dick!"

"Well, you know what I mean. So I guess that God used gasoline or electricity!"

A Popular Antidote.

"Mike," said Mrs. Flannigan, looking from the paper in her hand to her husband, who was just signed the temperance pledge, "shure an' a great doctor sez that alcohol do be a shure cure for carbolic acid pizen, and if so be yez haven't anny alcohol, thin twict as much whisky will do jist as well."

"Be quick, thin, Norah, me dear, an' lay by a good store o' the stuff. Shure I'm that despr'it there's no tellin' when I'll be nadin' the rimidy!"

The Way Cook Put It

Wife—"Well, John, I'll have to do the cooking now. The cook left without warning this afternoon."

Husband—"Not exactly without warning. She told me this morning I had better bring home some dyspepsia tablets tonight, but I didn't quite catch on to what she meant.—Judge."

Jimmie's Query.

"All of you who never told a lie raise your hands," asked the teacher of her small pupils.

"Please, ma'am," piped little Jimmie, "is it a lie if nobody finds it out?"—Ohio State Journal.

Evidence: "How do you tell the age of a turkey?" "By the teeth." "A turkey hasn't got teeth!" "No; but I have."—Tit-Bits.
