EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Cartwright having presented the Library Association with a copy of Darwin's works in six volumes, members of that organization will now have a chance to brush up their knowledge of their poor relations.

In reply to numerous inquirers, we are credibly informed that there are no detective officers in Honolulu in the pay of the Government at present. Mr. Good is a special officer in charge of a Chinese theatre; Mr. Hopkins is employed as night watchman in the Treasury Department. Both these gentlemen are efficient, and often make themselves useful in detective service. We know of no others except the regular police force.

FOREICN NEWS.

(San Francisco, Feb. 27th, per S. S. Geo. W. Elder.)

THE CHINESE QUESTION.

THREATENED RETALIATION.

The New York "Mail and Express" of Feb. 22 publishes the following interview with Ching Hoy, the Chinese Consul in that city, based upon a St. Louis despatch saying that the Chinese Imperial Government contemplate retaliatory measures on account of the treatment accorded to Chinese subjects in America: "I cannot say that I am advised that an Imperial proclamation has been issued compelling all Chinamen in this country to return home, but I can say that the Consul-General at San Francisco has sent notices advising all Chinamen to leave. Whether the Government is back of this I cannot say. As to the suggestion of retaliation, I have no doubt that measures of this kind will be taken by our Government. If the Chinese are driven out and outraged here, why cannot our people drive out all Americans from China? The good name of this country has been disgraced by the recent outrages, and the question becomes very serious. There is no protection to Chinamen at all, but American merchants and missionaries are well treated in China, and the Government takes prompt action, not only paying damages, but redressing the wrong done. What I do not understand is why the good people of the East here re-main silent. It certainly was not the intention of Congress that merchants and others should be treated in this way. If nothing is done the commerce between the two countries, amounting to $80,000,000 annually, will be destroyed."

IN CONGRESS. Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, on Feb. 26 delivered a speech on the bill recently introduced by him to provide for the abrogation of all treaties permitting the immigration of Chinese to the United States. He said the people of the whole Pacific Coast were to-day suffering from the presence of large numbers of an unclean, non-assimilating and pagan race. Impending over them and gradually extending Eastward, the cloud of wrath and evil imperiled labor, prosperity, peace-even life, To eradicate the scourge. heroic treatment would be necessary. A more decided and aggressive Governmental step than had yet been taken would be necessary. The means of relief could not properly be availed of while preserving treaty stipulations with the Chinese Government. Neither could we expeet within any reasonable time to secure relief by negotiation with that Government. Mitchell argued at length to show that the United States has the power to abrogate, by act of Congress, any treaty with a foreign nation, and that the magnitude of the evil to be relieved justified the step proposed. He read a number of newspaper articles, to show that the recent anti-Chinese disturbances in the West were not the work of an irresponsible or hoodlum element; they were the voice of the honest laborer, the wail of indignant toil struggling for life in an unequal contest with the servile laborer. The Burlingame Treaty he said was valueless to the United States. This point the speaker enlarged upon with detail and circumstance, quoting statistics of our commerce with China in support of his contention. Mr. Mitchell, in conclusion, showed the definite nature of his bill, that left no chance of its validity being destroyed by departmental or judicial decisions, and said: The conflict that is waged on this subject of the Asiatic occupation of this country is as irrepressible as the conflict that resulted in the overthrow of human slavery. It is a conflict for supremacy on American soil, between the intelligent, enlightened and honest American laborer and the cheap and degraded laborer of the lowest order of mongol. It is a conflict between morality and vice, order and anarchy, Americanism and Asiatics, a confliet between civitization and heathenism, christianity and paganism, a conflict between two opposing forces in all essential particulars, non-assimilating and repellant, when considered in the relation of one to the other, and one or the other which must and will ultimately and necessarily be driven to the wall. Nor does it require any peculiar prescience to determine the result of the contest. if the United States Government either stands supinely by and does nothing or, what is but little more effective for good, simply attacks the advancing army of invaders with wooden swords and paper bullets under the pretense of conforming to treaty stipulations and sustaining diplomatic relations.

The anti-Chinese agitation goes on all over the Coast, reports of meetings occupying large space in the

The California Horticultural Association adopted resolution declaring that it was "a mistake on the part of our Government when it encouraged the Chinese or any other of the lower classes of civilization in coming to the United States." The association, however, deemed Chinese labor necessary to the horticultural interests at present, but resolved that its membe s should give preference to white labor. Also, it was resolved that Congress should pass a law forever stopping the immigration of the Chinese, and that there should be no more return certificates issued.

The directors of the California Fruit Union passed a resolution deprecating the great injuries likely to be inflicted on the fruit interest of the State by hasty and violent expulsion of the Chinese laborers, who are now so largely the sole labor reliance of orchardists and vinevardists.

Mr. David L. Beck, recently so ill at the Hawaiian Hotel, who went home to San Francisco on the last up trip of the Mararoa, died in that city on the 25th of February last. It appeared that he had Bright's discase of the kidneys. He teaves a large circle of friends here, in the East and on the Coast, who sincerely mourn his loss. It is seldom that one so amiable and full of good qualities is called away.

In the "Virginian Mummy," to be given by the Merry Makers at Mr. Norman's benefit to-night, Wash. Norton will personate an Egyptian nammy. It is a most amusing farce, and in that role Mr. Norton has kept audiences to the south convulsed with laughter. A dummy plays mummy along with him, but he is supposed to believe that the figure beside him is another live person paid to act the part.

A LARGE crowd attended the concert of the Royal Hawaiian Band at the Hotel last evening, the verandahs and grounds being thronged. Manager Graham had a fine illumination with hundreds of colored lan erns. The King, Princess Liliuokalani, Governor Dominis, Attorney-General Neumann, and the American Minister with Mrs. Merrill were among those present. No. 21 of the "Luso Hawaiiano," which is just to hand, complains of the numerous robberies which are committed at present, and of which the Portuguese element suffers as much as all the rest of the population. The "Luso" further says that if the present state of affairs does not meet with a speedy remedy, the citizens will have to do here what was done in San Francisco, when the people took the law in their own hands and instituted the committee of "vigilantes." THE REIGN OF TEL WR.

SEVERAL BURGLARIES AND ATTEMPT-ED ROBBERIES L ST N SIT-CITI-ZENS ARMING FOR PROJECTION.

SUSPICIOUS VISITOR AT THE HOUSE OF HON, SAL PAR FR.

A suspicious-looking character was seen prowling about Hon, Sam. Parker's house, King street, Sunday last. He was notice I to hang a horseshoe on a gate, as if to mark the place for a necturnal visit. A close watch was therefore kept, but nobody came round that night. Last evening, while the concert at the Hotel was in progress, a telephone message came there to inform Mr. Parker that two stronge men were at his place. At the same time word was sent to the Police Station, and Mr. Crabbe, Stat as keeper, despatched two policer en to the spot. The officers, however, failed to find anybody; but hr. Hiram, driving into town, reported that he passed two white men in long overcoats, on Piikoi stree, opposite Judge Preston's house.

ROBT. MORE & CO. LOBBED.

Last night the worksh p and store of Robt. More & Co., machinists, King street, were burgle i.ed, three revolvers and a lot of momunition being carried off. E: rance was effected from Bethel street, the breaking-in being done wough the shop of Brown & Phillips, plumbers. A gate about six feet hi, h was first climbed over, and the bar at the back of it removed. The indicates more than one robber, he climber opening the gate to adm. his comrades. The rear winds v of the plumbing shop looks out on the yard into which the gate opens. A stick was used to suppor the upper sash of this windov. The robbers broke a pane of glass in the lower sash, when it was easy o insert an arm and remove the stolk. When inside, the robbers climbed up on a rack of iron pipe, thus string over a high partition into Re d. More & Co.'s shop, whence they ad a clear road to the office on I mg street. They took the revolve from the show case or window, o. part from both, and in getting corridges to suit disarranged the stock in the window, many boxes being found open this morning, will the contents of some scatte of about. Nothing but the arms a d ammunition mentioned is missed. There is no sign of any attempt upon the safe of either firm. It would therefore appear to be more the work of persons itching for the pessession of deadly weapons than that of burglars after valuable spoi s.

A BURGLAR VISITS TI S BRITISH

COMMISSIONEL. Another burglary was committed at an early hour this morning, and the boldness of the de redator was so great that it makes one's blood tingle with madness to think that the culprit is still at large. It happened at two o'clock, an hour of profound darkness and leavy slumber, at the residence of Major Wodehouse, H. B. M. Commis Joner. Mrs. Wodehouse, who was cesting half awake, was disturbed by a peculiar noise in the hallway the leads from the parlor to the dining room, and fearing something wron; she got up and struck a light, when all of a sudden there was a terrible racket of falling chairs and a harry retreat of someone. A barglar, apparently well acquainted with the inner structure of the house, and entered by one of the front doc s that opens into the parlor, and almough there were a great many vali ables in that room he passed through into the dining room and then to the Major's dressing room, where his daily apparel, gold watch an ther valuables were. It was just then that Mrs. Wodehouse struc: the light, and the burglar becor mg alarmed made the disturbance with the furniture, in his hasty retreat dropping his plunder, the Major s clothes, in the dining room and arlor. It is believed that the rolber dropped everything he had be a collecting for removal. Precaution will be taken against another visit of the kind.

THE AUGER BUT NESS.

On Sunday night a Chinese store kept by So Sam Lee, 1 manu street, nearly opposite the duite House, was entered and $20 in money. three shawls and two felt hats earried off. Entrance vas made by perforating a board in + water closet with an auger and the removing it, from that apartment the burglar finding easy access to be rest of the building. An unsucc saful attempt at a similar game was made on Friday night, on a Chaese store on Fort street, the preprietor being wakened up by the grating of the auger on two occasions, and finding in the morning a board with fourteen holes across it but not removed.

A SUPPOSED HIGHWAYMAN.

At 12 o'clock la t night hack number 179, with Mr. Bielenberg as passenger, was comit ; down Nuu- Feathers Cleaned and Dyed.

of trade, having o e w. . column Mr. P. C. Jones's house a man was seen to emerge from the darkness. He had a revolver in nand, and when the carriage app oached he came forward as though to intercept the vehicle. The driver drew up the horse and was almost at a stand, when Mr. Bielenberg houted to whip up and go as fast s possible. The driver obeyed, and the carriage was allowed to pass. From the light of the hack lamp the highwayman was seen to be a foreigner and was noticed to mount a horse that was hitched to the fence and ride off towards the Pali.

c pod:

The Gazette has the following, missed by its daily contemporaries: On Sunday evening the residence of Mr. Geo. Ordway, on Punchbowl street, was visited by a couple of burglars, who after trying to gain admission by means of false keys, awakened the owner, who with pistol in hand awaited their entrance into the house. Unfortunately Mr. O. had occasion to cough slightly, when the burglars, who were barefooted, immediately decamped in opposite directions.

SELF-PROTECTION.

Residents are generally talking 'vigilance committee" and "pistol," as antidotes to the present robbers' carnival. Rusty weapons are being brought forth, furbished, oiled and loaded, by people to defend their homes against the depredators, who must be taken for granted as ready for any act to prevent capture if discovered. It is to be hoped, however, for the good name of the place, that poor men, unable to buy defensive weapons to protect their small household stores, will not resort to burglary to obtain them. Such an anomaly would suggest that an undignified panic had seized the community.

AN INTERESTING VOLUME.

At the Honolulu Library may be seen an old Geography of the World published in London about the beginning of the present century. It is a large folio, and has some curious engravings of scenes in the Hawaiian Islands, and in ther parts of the Pacific, then exclude as much public interest as Stabley's dis-coveries in Africa have for this present generation.

I't affords us great pleasure to testify that we are highly satisfied with the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company's route to the Volcano. WORD PUZZLE-NO. XVII.

I am square, I am round, And in many shapes am found, In open air and underground I thrive, I run o'er banks and stones.

And root up dead men's bones And all land living creatures keep alive. Most birds that fly in air Depend on me for fare. I'm a friend to dog and man and womankind. The lion, tiger, bear,

The rabbits and the hare Could not exist without me you will

I can save and can destroy. And many lives I do annoy; I am good and bad just as you please to take me. Though a trouble and a bore, You will like me more and more. And many chew and eat and boil and bake me.

I help to furnish every ship. And force folks to take a trip, I am often found beneath your houses, I'm a crawler and a sucker.

I cause lips and tongues to pucker.

And furnish stuffs to make your pants and blouses.

I help to make men drunk, I give food to deer and skunk. Some people have me hanging in their windows:

am always in your mouth, When the wind is from the south, And in fact no matter from which point the wind blows.

Now cut me in two and backward prononnee. And two simple words will appear. Which help us to make ourselves well

And we use them each day in the year. Answer to No. 16-Rail, Liar. JOHN B. RASH.

By which a nearly continuous stream of sugar cane or other material may be moved by means of electric motors drawing buckets, baskets or other con-tainers along a stationary steel rod suspended on posts, the power being sup-plied at a central station by means of a steam engine or water power working on electric dynamo.

This system does not profess to compete with tramways where the ground is suitable for such a mode of conveyance, but the circumstances under which its advantages are apparent are:

Where the ground is very rough, un-even or gulchy, or where the gradients are steep, as it has no difficulty in draw-ing a load up an incline of 1 in 10; Where the space for a tramway cannot well be spared, or over swamps or other ground impracticable for tram-

It can be taken along the high road with as much facility and with little more obstruction to the traffic than by a line of telephone posts;

It has the advantages of the overhead wire rope system without its disadvantages, as there is not a long wire rope to drag with its attendant friction and loss of power, whilst it can turn on sharp

The main line can be moved to different positions at a moderate expense.

A line is now working at Glynde in STATEMENT.

THE undersigned, a Committee of Directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, appointed to formulate the views of the Board on the advantages offered by the Society to the public, report:—
1st—The Society issues all the approved forms of assurance, including Ordi-nary Life, Endowment and Tontine pclicies. It is immaterial to the Directors which form of policy is taken by intending assurers.

2d—The Life and Endowment forms of policy provide for annual cash dividends and a surrender value; are indisputable after three years and payable immediately after proof of death.

3d—The premiums on a Tontine policy are the same as on the Ordinary Life, but, while the latter is only pay-able in the event of death, the holder of the Tontine policy has the right to draw the whole of the reserve and the accumulated profits in cash at the end of a stated period; thus, during his own lifetime, after his producing years are past, he can, without any larger premium than on an ordinary policy, secure these greater advantages. 4th-Experience shows that the return paid in cash on maturing Tontine po-licies approximates to or exceeds the amount of premiums paid by policyholders, so that the average cost of the assurance will be only about the interest on the premiums.

5th—Tontine policies, like others, are paid in full in the event of death at any time during the term of the policy, and are incontestable after three years, and payable immediately after due proof of death. 6th—Experience shows that the mer-tality is lower among Tontine policy-holders, as the better lives seek this kind of assurances, which is a considerable source of profit.

7th—Tentine policies will be made non-forfeitable under the laws of the State, if so desired at the time the assurance is effected. 8th-The Tontine system is fair and just; its accounts are accurately kept, separate from all other business, the funds judiciously invested and improved, and the accumulated profits faithfully guarded and properly apportioned.
9th—The Society has since its organization transacted a larger amount of new business than any other company, while its new business for the first half of the present year is $1,750,000 larger than that of the first half of 1884. It has Assets of $60,000,000; over $14,000,-000 of Surplus, and its ratio of Surplus to Liability is greater than that of any other company. CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW, JOHN A.
