NEWS GRIST FROM HILO

Social and Business Matters that Stir
the Stirring Streets.

Portuguese Not to Organize Opposition Military
Company—Japanese Counterfitters—
Liked the Flag Raising.

The Hilo Tribune gives the following news notes of doings on the big island:

Honolulu plantation has finished grinding for the season with 4900 tons of sugar, which is a large increase over any previous year, and is very satisfactory to the management.

The Portuguese have decided not to organize a militia company separately from those of their own nationality. A good many will probably join the present company and others that may be formed.

The engagement of Miss Aubie Umiamaka to David K. Ewaliko, both of this city is announced. The wedding will take place next Thursday afternoon the 25th at the bride's home at Pauoe.

Invitations are out for a ball to be given at Hakalau, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ross, next Friday evening, Aug. 26th, in honor of the Misses Lishman, who return to Honolulu by the next Kinau.

A baseball game was played on Thursday afternoon between the consolidated Hilo team and the Kamehameha boys, which resulted in a score of 6 to 3 in favor of the latter although they have only four of their regular players here. It seems from this that it is just as well our local celebrities did not go down to the Capital City to back the regular team.

Company I (about to be), N. G. H., is drilling twice a week with rapid improvement noticeable under the efficient instruction of J. L. Carter, captain, and his able lieutenants. The company numbers now about seventy members, and new recruits are being daily added.

HILOITES AT THE CAPITAL.

A rather large delegation composed of some of the leading lights of Hilo and environs journeyed to Honolulu, to add dignity and grace to the flag raising ceremonies. Most of them were able to return by last Kinau. All reports concur in showing that they reflected much credit upon the home city, and gave many valuable hints to the denizens of the metropolis. The returning travelers give a glowing and picturesque account of the proceedings, public and private, and speak in the highest terms of the hospitality and kindness of their Honolulu hosts, even to the point of supplying dress shirts for their use at the grand ball. What greater test of charity and brotherly kindness could one ask? Evidently Honolulu isn't as bad at heart as the Tribune is wont to paint it.

It is said George Hardy of Honolulu raised the Spanish standard on flag hoisting day. He narrowly escaped the gallows.

W. McQuade, chemist of the Hamakua Mill Company, is slowly recovering from the results of a rather serious riding accident in which the right leg sustained a fracture.

The building to be used as church, school and library at Paauilo is in course of construction. It is hoped it will be ready for use in six weeks time. The edifice is the gift of the Hamakua Plantation Company.

Lieut. Hunt who recently left his bed at the Red Cross hospital will, if possible, get away for his home in the States on the Coptic. He, however, does not intend to travel in the States as announced in another paper.

PECULIAR DISAPPEARANCE

Bungalow Flag Missing From Its Usual Place.

Nobody Knows Where It Has Gone—Suspicious But no Proof—'93 Flag Now Flies from the Pole.

"The flag is gone."

These were the words used by a frightened private in one of the regular companies as he came out of the bungalow on the Executive building grounds Friday morning. The corporal of the guard and soon, a number of the other men at the bungalow were hunting high and low for the flag that had been lowered from the pole in front of the garrison at sunset on Thursday.

The flag was indeed gone and no one knew whence it had departed. The men were questioned and it was found that the American flag had been put in the usual place on Thursday evening.

The flag was the one raised on the pole August 12th, at the same time the American flag was raised over the Executive building. It was owned by Colonel Fisher.

Up to the present moment not a trace has been discovered of the flag, although there are suspicions against certain parties who, it is believed, took the flag at first as a joke and then, finding how serious might be the outcome if caught, decided to keep the flag and remain quiet about the affair.

The flag now floating from the pole in front of the bungalow is what is known as the "93" or "Thurston's" flag.

Captain Coyne was the officer on guard at the time the flag was taken.

The flag the talk of military circles just now.

WHISKERS TO GO.
Outcome of Senior Boat Race Will Determine Which.

One of two luxuriant growths of whiskers, products of the glorious climate, is soon doomed to annihilation. Which one will go depends on the outcome of the senior race between the Healan and Myrtle crews.

An agreement has been made by two young men of this town, the possessors of beautiful whiskers, and members respectively of the aforementioned clubs. If the Myrtles win the Healan whiskers will be shorn off and should the Healan win the Myrtle wind ticklers will daily no more with the trade winds which have now begun. To avoid complications and on account of family ties no names are mentioned.

The Arizona.

The Arizona was to have gotten away from San Francisco on the 20th inst., two days after the departure of the Alliance. According to that she should be in tonight or sometime tomorrow as she is a fast boat.

AMERICAN FORCES TAKE MANILA.

Philippines Captured Before Peace News Arrived.

General Augusti Escapes on German Cruiser—Few Killed and Wounded—No Losses Among the Fleet.

New York, August 16.—Before the news that peace negotiations were on foot could reach Admiral Dewey and General Merritt, Manila had capitulated to the Americans. The officers of the Army and Navy held a conference on board the Olympia on Friday, August 12th, and arranged to demand on the morrow that the city should capitulate, and if the demand were refused that a joint land and sea attack should be made at noon on Saturday.

Early Saturday morning, under a flag of truce, Admiral Dewey sent the dispatch boat McCulloch with a formal demand to Captain-General Augusti that the city should capitulate. The Captain-General peremptorily refused to listen to the demand. Signals were made to General Merritt that an attack would be begun at noon, as previously arranged, and promptly on the hour appointed the Olympia, Boston, Monterey and Charleston began to bombard the fortifications of the city and to drop shells into the city itself.

The eight-inch shells of the Olympia did great damage to the fortifications. Instantaneously with the bombardment of the forts the American land forces advanced upon the city. This battle lasted two hours, when a white flag was hoisted over the forts, which had been nearly destroyed. No serious damage was done to the city proper, although a number of buildings were blown up or burned. The fortifications, however, were almost demolished. Two Americans were killed, and several were wounded. It is believed that many Spaniards were killed and wounded.

The Spanish suffered severely from the bombardment. The vaulted intramuros trenches were not tried. The Spanish commander, convinced that further resistance was hopeless, hoisted a white flag at 1:30, and orders to cease firing were immediately issued in the center of the town, but in the outskirts street fighting continued for some time afterward between rebels and Spaniards.

The only fear felt in the city is in regard to the conduct of the insurgents. As this is written in the house of the German Consul, a brisk fusillade is going on between the combatants and musketry fire is rattling all round.

Nothing could be more humane than the way the Americans captured the city. General Merritt and Admiral Dewey's plan was to spare every object but armed defenses and trenches. Apparently the American losses were extremely small. The Spanish intrenchments varied in point of distance from two to four miles from the center of old Manila. Defending this long line of at least ten miles were not over and probably under 5000 Spanish regular troops, volunteers and natives. About half that number were in the hospital.

The attacking force numbered from 10,000 to 20,000 natives and 10,000 Americans on shore and aboard the fleet. In every respect the advantage was on the side of the attack. The American field guns threw heavier metal and had a longer range than the Spanish. The marksmanship of the United States gunners was much superior to that of the Spaniards, and the men were stronger and in better condition. The Spaniards are a small race, compared with their stalwart opponents, and were worn out by 100 days' siege and disappointed by the failure to arrive of the promised Spanish relief squadron. They had lost heart. It was a hopeless struggle.

The attacking squadron formed in line between Malate and old Manila, with the Concord watching the fort at the mouth of the Pasig. The American fleet lay outside the breakwater. The Olympia fired the first shot at 9:40 and a fairly continuous, but by no means furious, cannonading was kept up until 11:30. By that time the Malate fort was silenced, and the American troops then stormed the intrenchments. The Spaniards who were in the earthworks say that the quick-firing guns of the little gunboat Rapido, which lay close to the shore, were far more terrible in their effect than was the raking fire of the ships. Resistance to the American attack was impossible.

TERMS OF SURRENDER.

Philippines to be Given Up to American Forces.

London, August 18.—The Manila correspondent of the Times telegraphs, under date of August 13: The terms of the surrender of Manila may be briefly outlined as follows:

An agreement for the capitulation of the Philippines and a provision for disarming the men who remain organized under the command of their officers, no parole being exacted.

Necessary supplies to be furnished from the captured treasury funds, any possible deficiency being made good by the Americans.

Safety of the lives and property of Spanish soldiers and citizens to be guaranteed as far as possible.

The question of the transportation of troops to Spain to be referred to a decision of the Washington Government, and of returning their arms to soldiers to be left to the discretion of General Merritt.

Banks and similar institutions to continue operations under existing regulations unless these are changed by the United States authorities.

Foreign firms in Manila have agreed to urge the following considerations:

First—The expulsion of Franciscans, Dominicans and Augustines, who are the real cause of the rebellion.

Second—No independent republic.

Third—Spaniards, if they retain dominion, must pledge themselves not to hamper trade.

Fourth—That applications for concessions shall be quickly considered and not shelved for years.

Fifth—That freedom of religion be stipulated for.

Arrival of Transport Alliance With Three Companies.

Captain Ferguson in Command—Two Staff Officers for Col. Barber—Boys Go to Camp Immediately.

The transport steamer Alliance, Hardwick commander, arrived in port and hauled alongside the Oceanic wharf at about 12 noon today, a little over nine days from San Francisco.

The Alliance has aboard the Third Battalion of the New York Volunteers, detailed for duty here. Captain Ferguson is in command.

There are two officers of Col. Barber's staff aboard, as follows: Surgeon Major C. E. Davis and Chaplain Karl Schwartz.

Co. E of the Third Battalion came down on the Mariposa and are now in camp. The remaining companies with their officers, brought on the Alliance, are as follows:

Co. F—Captain Martin, First Lieutenant Boyce and Second Lieutenant Oonbont.

Co. G—Captain Ferguson, First Lieutenant Tucker and Second Lieutenant Boardman.

Co. H—Captain Hitchcock, First Lieutenant Worthing and Second Lieutenant Hinman.

There are in all 314 men in the three companies of the Third Battalion.

As soon as the Alliance was fairly alongside, the troops began to disembark. They will all go out to the camp of the New York Regiment in Kapiolani Park, this afternoon.

The band was on the wharf to welcome the boys. There was also the usual great crowd and the pineapples, bananas and cakes.

The Alliance will get away for San Francisco in the course of a few days.

Climbed In a Window.

Last night at about 10 o'clock some natives living in the vicinity of Kawaiahao cemetery on Queen street saw a man climb into the window of a house near by. Detective Kaapa and some of his men were summoned and, having surrounded the house where it was supposed a thief was at work, started in at the windows and doors. The fellow got away but was finally caught near the graveyard. He proved to be a certain police officer who, upon appearing at the police station, was allowed to go.

Molokai Notes.

Through the kindness of Deputy Marshal Hitchcock the following items on Molokai affairs have been obtained:

There is only one man on the Molokai police force that has refused to sign the oath of allegiance to the United States. This is Kahanele of Moakea. If he does not come to time by the end of the month he will be asked to hand in his commission.

The cane on the new plantation at Kaanakakai is looking up in fine shape. Cane planted on May 6th is now six feet high.

Heavy rains have fallen at Kamalo and Paukoo on the upper lands. The lower lands are very dry.

Very Sick Man.

Gamerson, an Englishman who lives in Fowler's yard was found in the cigar store at the corner of Nuuanu and Merchant streets this forenoon in a state of collapse. He was hardly able to move and made the request that he be removed to the hospital where he was taken by a police officer. He was very weak and had to be lifted into a hack.

The membership includes not only the passengers who came down on the last trip but those who have traveled on the Castle in the past. Likewise it will include all those who travel on the barkentine in the future, it makes no difference between what ports. These of course will have to be regularly elected to membership.

Besides called meetings, an annual meeting is to be held on the 26th of August each year. This is the date of the arrival of the Castle at this port on her last trip.

The officers of the Castle Club are as follows: Z. G. Kellogg, president; Mrs. B. O. Clark, first vice president; D. W. Shelhamer, second vice president; Miss Addie Farmer, secretary and treasurer.

Captain Hubbard was made an honorary member.

CRITICIZES THE GERMANS.

Pall Mall Gazette on the Escape of Augusti.

London, August 17.—The Pall Mall Gazette comments this afternoon on the extraordinary action of the Germans in assisting the flight of General Augusti from Manila. In terms similar to those used by the Times this morning it sharply criticizes the proceeding, drawing attention to its similarity to the German action during the British bombardment of Zanzibar, when the usurping Sultan sought refuge at the German Consulate.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "This Manila incident is uncommonly high a flagrant breach of neutrality and is certain to be regarded as an international discourtesy, if nothing worse."

Will Wait for Greig.

The Eliza Miller hauled alongside Brewer's wharf to discharge her cargo for this port. She will not sail until about the 6th of September as she has arranged to take George Greig and his family back to their home in Fanning Island. Mr. Greig is expected up from the Colonies on the next steamer. His family is here.

U. S. S. Philadelphia.

The U. S. S. Philadelphia is coming into port as the BULLETIN goes to press. She was expected this forenoon.

NOT HOBSON'S BY CHOICE

Naval Hero Is Now Bombarded By Various Cranks.

One Girl Gets a Kiss—Letters of Love and Devotion—Requests for Autographs.

Lieutenant Richmond Pearson Hobson is destined to have as much trouble with an endless chain of letters, as was Miss Schenck, of Babylon, L. I. To be sure the Lieutenant is not getting remittances of ten cent pieces in his letters, but he is getting photographs, locks of hair and a thousand and one other things, in addition to requisite for all manner of mementos and volumes of sweetly written sentences, all from feminine admirers.

The Lieutenant has had many honors and attention thrust on him since his return from Santiago and has written his signature a thousand times, but it was not until his visit to the Long Beach Hotel that he was asked to give a touch of his lips as a keep-sake. Miss Arnold, of St. Louis, has the distinction of obtaining the oculo-lary memento. Miss Arnold asked for a kiss and got it, while the Lieutenant's mother simply looked at the operation in mute astonishment. His sister, Miss Annie Hobson, was also a witness, and only smiled.

As Miss Arnold moved away she was surrounded by a dozen pretty girls, guests in the Long Beach Hotel, who begged that she distribute the kiss among them, as one said:—

"We don't dare ask the Lieutenant, but we want to share the kiss with you."

Miss Arnold thereupon proceeded to kiss her companions in turn, and the Lieutenant's gift became to this extent the property of at least a dozen.

As for the Lieutenant's daily mail, it follows him about like a spectre. It matters not whether the young man is spending a quiet evening at the home of his cousin, Miss Katie Fearn Patton, in Morristown, N. J.; at the Waldorf-Astoria or at the Army and Navy Club, there are always scores of letters thrust into his hand, which a private secretary would have difficulty in assorting, opening and digesting.

"It's the most remarkable thing what correspondence 'Rich' gets," a feminine relative of Lieutenant Hobson said to me yesterday. "Why, he gets letters from all parts of the country, and the majority of them are from girls—girls who want his autograph, girls who want to open correspondence with him, and girls who write of everything; well, yes, including love."

"As for photographs, I guess 'Rich' must have at least a hundred. Women's? Why, certainly; they come in every mail. They picture feminine admirers all the way from sixteen to forty years old. They may or may not be likenesses of those who send them, but they come to 'Rich' nevertheless. What does he do with them? Oh, I don't know. If he carries them back on shipboard with him there will be no room for 13 inch guns or rapid fire. Why, the photographs come in stacks."

"As for the letters, it takes the time of two persons to assort them; I mean to separate the women's letters from those that relate to 'Rich's' business affairs. Of course, these letters are all of a congratulatory character, but—soft," and here my informant laughed.

"There is every requests in the letters he gets that you can think of. Some want Rich's signature, while others ask him for uniform buttons. Then, again, he is asked to send his photograph to the correspondent. One of the funniest things is that letters are sent to me, with the request to forward them to Lieutenant Hobson. The writers notice in the newspaper that Rich is staying at our home. That is all sufficient. That day or the next the mail begins to arrive and the envelopes are marked 'Please forward.' Then, too, there seems to be an uncertainty about 'Rich's' official rank. He is addressed 'Lieutenant' by some 'Captain' by others and 'Commander,' 'Commodore' and even 'Admiral.' "And how does the Lieutenant receive all these little attentions?"

"Oh, in the simplest way imaginable. He reads the letters, looks at the photographs and smiles, and that's all I know. Rich is very careful to give no offense, but I imagine he hasn't the time to more than acknowledge the receipt of the epistles, if he even does that."

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." GOOD LAND PROSPECTUS

Commissioner J. F. Brown States Some Facts.

Small Amount of Land Now Available—Waiting Surveyors—Suggestions to Those Contemplating Settling in Hawaii.

Commission of Public Lands,
Honolulu, H. I., Aug. 26, 1898.

Sir:—The natural interest taken in Hawaiian matters by the people of the Great Republic, and the tendency which exists with many of looking for great and golden opportunities in the distance, is apt to tempt to these Islands a considerable number of people who are ill informed, or not at all informed, of true conditions here, and many of whom must be disappointed.

It is with the desire to clearly set forth the conditions at least as far as regards the public lands of the Islands, that I write hoping that the statements made may come to the attention of some of those intending to try their fortunes in Hawaii.

First it should be noted that Hawaii is not a "new" country with great unbroken areas of public lands awaiting the settler. For half a century a definite system of land division and ownership has existed, and for that long period transactions in public and private lands have steadily taken place as in all civilized countries. The policy of selling lands outright for cash at low figures, and of making long leases of large tracts, was steadily carried out from the early "fifties" until the date of the land Act of 1895, and the result is easily inferred. A large portion of what might be called the "cream" of the Government lands had at the latter date passed into the hands of private owners, and long leases have been made covering the most valuable Government and Crown lands, many of which leases are still in force. It was to conserve and devote to the use of "bona fide" settlers the remaining public land, that the Land Act of 1895 was passed, which Act, eminently suited to the conditions of the case, is in force at this date.

To carry out the purpose of this Act, public lands have as fast as practicable been divided and opened up. As there has been for the past two years a keen demand for such lands, both on the part of old residents of the country and of new comers, it has followed that all tracts have been taken up as soon as opened, at the present date there is practically no land ready for the occupation of any considerable number of new comers. The survey work which over rough mountain lands and through dense tropical jungle, is at all times a laborious and slow process, was interrupted at the end of 1897 by the exhaustion of appropriations for that purpose, and has only been recently resumed upon the passage of new appropriations. It is inevitable that some time must elapse before necessary surveys can be completed. The new lands are off the lines of travel; much difficulty is encountered in projecting roads to reach them and the task all around, is a difficult one which one unfamiliar with the country can not easily estimate.

The lands laid out and disposed of since the date of the 1895 Land Act have been those portions most favorably situated, and those remaining are of course still further removed from centers of population and lines of travel. To settle upon and to improve such lands is no "soft snap."

To residents of the Islands it is well known, but for the information of others it is necessary to state that, as far as cane lands and sugar cultivation is concerned, there is practically no opening except for large capitalists, and for few, if any, of those.

The field is occupied by those who for forty years have been developing this industry, extending and consolidating their interests.

The low lying flat land of the country with abundant water supply, a considerable part of the whole, is wholly occupied by rice or taro planters, who have engaged in those planting occupations for many years.

There does remain still, a considerable area to be disposed of as surveys are completed and as old leases expire, principally of lands suited to coffee cultivation and small farming.

With reference to lands suited to coffee cultivation it may be said, that the same are in general forest and bush lands, requiring much labor and expense in clearing.

Being in general, away from present main lines of travel, they are at a disadvantage as regards roads, and it is inevitable that for some time, trails more or less rough, must take the place of wagon roads. For the development of a coffee plantation even of moderate size, capital is needed. Good intentions and industry alone will not suffice.

As far as I am able to learn the expense of purchasing, clearing,

Carlyle and Andrews make a great success in this department and stand ready to satisfy patrons in the matter of Seattle beer on draught, as well as all the best brands of whisky, viz: John Dewar's Scotch, O. P. S., etc., and from a full line of other liquors and wines cannot fail to fill even the most exacting and varied demand.

SATURDAY, AUG. 27, 1898

Even the stock exchange bids fair to have troubles of its own.

It does the soul of the sporting and social world good to see the Leilani boat club coming more prominently to the front.

The salt tears shed by the Hilo Tribune because the Commissioners were going to confine their travels to Honolulu and vicinity may now be dried.

It is to be hoped that the native Hawaiians will join the forces working to secure a liberal government for these islands. By holding off from taking part in affairs under the new conditions they will work injury to themselves.

Commissioner Brown's public statement regarding the new lands of the territory ought to be put in pamphlet form and sent to Commissioner Shingle. It is a plain review of the situation that may save those ignorant of conditions here, many dollars and possible hardship.

When the increase of local ocean steamers to various ports on these islands, cuts into the value of Honolulu as a center of trade, the citizens of Oahu will build a monument to B. F. Dillingham as the man principally responsible for the development of the resources of Oahu. We are glad to say, however, that there are a great many people of the present day who appreciate his work.

One of the most remarkable works of corrupt politics has been the canals of New York State. The business men of the State are a practical unit for the improvement of these great inland waterways which have done so much to make New York city the leading eastern port. Nearly every legislature for the past ten years has been called upon to make appropriations for improvements in this line. The politicians have asked for several millions, stating, "This is all that will be needed to complete the work." The last legislature gave nine millions of dollars which was to "finally complete the work." Now with a "complete improvement" of 66 miles, an "incomplete improvement" of 245 miles, it is found that over two millions of dollars has been captured by some one and over thirteen millions will be required to finish the total 638 miles. The people as might be expected are rising in their wrath.

ORGANIZE PROMPTLY.

There yet remains to be given a good reason why the political organizations of the country should not begin to form their new lines immediately and get into the proper shape for work. We refer particularly to the organization of a Republican club, which shall voice broader sentiments than now obtain in any political organization of the country. The present chaotic conditions, the certain amount of "feeling" that exists an account of the rapid work in favor of Minister Sewall, the apparent splitting up in all directions, creates a condition that is not conducive to the best interests of the country, leaving the question of party politics entirely out of the question. Best results are never obtained by independent disorganized effort, and the opportunity now offers for the amalgamation of liberal political forces on the Republican basis. The sooner the various leaders get together and declare themselves the better it will be for all concerned. The people of the country will continually be working it cross purposes until they know positively what they have to depend upon from party leaders. Nothing is ever lost by a flat-footed declaration of principle.

Shortly after the chaplain of the Texas told of the great faith in prayer held by Captain Philip, a correspondent wrote to the New York Herald telling how much Captain Philip indulged in profanity, and condemning him accordingly. There are some people in this world of ours, who believe that because the inborn cussedness of human nature sometimes crops out of a man's mouth under extraordinary circumstances, he must be forever damned by all religious people. The few remarks Captain Phillip made to his men just after the battle off Santiago bid fair to do more for the religious welfare of his men than many of the long winded discourses delivered from many pulpits. What though he did "let loose" in the excitement of battle, he showed the spirit of true religious manhood in calling for public recognition that God rules over all. Too many good people forget that in the end God rules—not the petty opinions of various religious factions. Moral manhood often does as much, if not more, than church membership.

Having taken another big bottle of "American territorial expansion," Uncle Sam is inclined to think that the small dose of "humanitarian powders" did him no harm.

On Waiting Ships.

Said a frequenter of the water front this morning: "It does seem a shame that vessels are forced to wait here so long for sugar sometimes. Take the cases of the Andrew Welch and the Irmgard now in port waiting for just a few bags of sugar. The owners of these ships must suffer just because the sugar expected happens to be coming from certain places. Other sugar could be put in and the vessels sent on. I regard it as nothing less than an imposition."

REMEMBER the MAINE

Thing to know is that we are gas and electrical engineers and that we are here for business. We install complete gas and electric plants with all the fixtures, etc., ready to run.

We handle all kinds of ELECTRICAL GOODS, gas and electric fixtures.

We are also sole agents for the Columbia Phonograph Co., and American Battery Co. "makers of the best storage batteries in the world."

We have already installed the following Acetylene gas plants complete with all fixtures which are giving entire satisfaction. Government Light House in harbor, Hawaiian Tramways Co., Mr W. Hilt's residence, Oahu Railway and Land Co., and the new residence of Hon. C. W. Macfarlane at the Peninsula.

The light is absolutely reliable and will not go out as long as any gas remains in the generator.

The cost based on candle power is from $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ as cheap as electric lights at the present rates.

Several of the plants already installed are equipped with electric gas-lighting burners which make the use of gas as convenient as electric lights at about one-half the cost. A plant placed in your house makes you independent of lighting companies.

Our generator has received the unqualified approval of the Honolulu Board of Underwriters which does away with any increased rate of insurance. Call in and examine goods and get our prices. We want only a fair profit.

Remember that all our work, big or little is absolutely guaranteed and we replace and repair all material and labor which is defective within six months. Give us a trial order.

ACCIDENT AND DEATH.

What Has Happened at Hospital During a Day.

David Kauwahi, a young native Hawaii of 23 years was injured in the gearing of the steam plow on the Waianae plantation at 2 p. m. yesterday. He was brought up on the train and taken to the Queen's hospital in the afternoon. Dr. Wood amputated the thumb and first and second fingers of the injured hand. The patient is doing very well.

Edward Froemberg, formerly an employe of the Metropolitan Meat Company, died at the Queen's hospital at 7:30 o'clock this morning.

Deceased met with an accident in the back yard of the Metropolitan Meat Company on June 23, 1896. He was on the front seat of one of the meat carts when the horses started off suddenly, throwing him down and crushing his body between the shed and the cart. His spine was badly injured and he was operated upon more than once but no relief could ever be secured.

Froemberg was doomed never to rise again and for twenty six months he lingered along at the hospital where he was shown every attention. The Metropolitan Meat Company paid all his expenses and will attend to the burial.

We Know By Experience

Wise men use the experience of others and make it their own. Those who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla are the ones who are competent to speak of its merits.

The testimonials of cures by Hood's constitute a vast mass of testimony which proves the power of this medicine to cure a great variety of diseases.

These cures often seem marvelous, yet they are perfectly natural and are easily explained. They are the necessary result of purifying and enriching the blood.

"I have been troubled with scrofula all my life, and it effected my eyes so that I was obliged to remain in a dark room. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Now my eyes are so strong that the light never troubles me, and my health is good." Mrs. CARRIE WELLS, Lompoc, Cal.

Counterfeiters at Hilo.

The police came down on a Japanese fold yesterday morning, and though the Japanese had fled he left behind him a very good outfit of counterfeiters' tools together with some rather inferior specimens of coin in various stages of completion. Deputy-Sheriff Lyman promptly corralled the effects for judicial purposes and the police proceeded to get on the trail of the offender. In the course of an hour he was lassoed and placed in durance vile. He will probably be taught by experience the sin of a desire to acquire wealth too suddenly and of helping the Government to increase the volume of the circulating medium of exchange, when it can do it more cheaply and neatly. —[Tribune.

DID YOU EVER
SEE A SNOWSTORM
IN SUMMER?

We never did; but we have seen the clothing at this time of the year so covered with dandruff that it looked as if it had been out in a regular snowstorm.

No need of this snowstorm.

As the summer sun would melt the falling snow, so will melt these flakes of dandruff in the scalp. It goes further than this: it prevents their formation.

It has still other properties: it will restore color to gray hair in just ten out of every ten cases.

And it does even more: it feeds and nourishes the roots of the hair. Thin hair becomes thick hair; and short hair becomes long hair.
