Pledged to neither Sect nor Party,
But Established for the Benefit of All

TUESDAY, FEB. 27, 1894

Our Maui correspondent's letter was stamped "Feb. 25, 6 a. m." at the Postoffice, but was only delivered at 9 a. m. this morning, Feb. 27. Where was it in the meantime?

In answer to a question in the Reichstag a few days ago, it was stated that the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, son of Queen Victoria, being a German prince owed no more allegiance to Great Britain. Honolulu feels a little interest in the new German Prince, formerly the Duke of Edinburgh, as he stayed for a while in the house now part of the Hawaiian Carriage Co.'s works, and Edinburgh street running past there is called after him.

Two or three weeks ago the Post-office refused to sell the BULLETIN office sufficient one-cent stamps at one time to mail a quantity of printed matter to order. The messenger had to be sent several times for the stamps, as the clerk would not make more than one sale to him at one visit. Now we are told that a group of speculators has cleaned up all the one-cent stamps, amounting in price to $1865. The stamp clerk told the BULLETIN messenger that he would not sell Jesus Christ more than $2.50 worth at one sale, but it seems that there are other favorites of our Christian government who can get anything they want.

NEW NAMES.

The Star is strenuously advocating a general re-christening of all Hawaiian and royalist names of places in these islands. We are surprised that the Star does not begin his charity at home, by requesting Mr. J. T. Waterhouse to change the name of "Queen" over the door of his hotel (?) on Nuanu street, and Minister "King" to take a better and less odious name for himself. Then again, as an appellation for the Hawaiian Islands (which is too much "kanaka") or for the Sandwich Islands (which is too much English), how would the name of Endeavour Islands suit the Star, in view of perpetuating the "honorable" way by which the present Government got into power?

IT IS TOO THIN.

Nothing thinner since it started has the Star ever spread in its columns than its attempted counter-revolutionary scare of yesterday. It is not exactly a fake, but rather a feint. The probability is that the stalwart strangers who have been drifting into Honolulu by every steamer from San Francisco and British Columbia, for months past, have been enlisted by agents of the Provisional Government. For a long time it has been known that the Provisional Government did not quite trust some of its military forces. Lately the dominating attitude of the American League with its secret proceedings has been anything but enhancing of the Government's comfort. If these new arrivals of fighting men are not for the P. G.'s own service, it is strange how fine their description is got down by the Star. Now here are rare tactics. The Government desires to prevent suspicion from being aroused in the League camp about these reinforcements, therefore it finds means for putting the League's organ up to a royalist scare on their account. It is nothing new to have the secret agents of the P. G. going about, purposely pointed out and denounced as royalists and themselves acknowledging the soft impeachment. People should be careful in the presence of all strangers these times, as loose talk without any intent behind it may get one into trouble. There is nothing more probable, in our opinion, than that most of the men who have lately arrived as steaming passengers have come to the order of the Provisional Government, the large supplies of arms and ammunition coming all the time being collateral proof of the correctness of this belief. At the same time, it is possible that the turn of the foregoing remarks—that is, that the Government itself has instigated the present attempt at a royalist scare—may not be correct. It is almost as likely that it is one of those periodic alarms worked up by members of the secret service, to prevent reduction in their numbers or wages which would be the result of the continuance of the long and absolutely unbroken record of peaceableness made by the opponents of the schemes of the revolutionists. Color is given to this explanation of the attempted scare by the frantic call of the Star for the citizens' guard to sleep on their arms, for reinforcements of the executive building garrison, for an increase of the secret police, and a general piling on of the agony to the infamous robbery of the people for military purposes.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Trial of Vina King for the Pickaxing of George Washington.

The jury that tried Chun You for assault with a dangerous weapon yesterday could not agree and were discharged.

Vina King was on trial to-day for assault with a weapon imminently and obviously dangerous to life. The weapon was a pickaxe and it was alleged to have been used on the head of George Washington. Judge Cooper presided, as Judge Whiting was hearing a divorce case. The jury was as follows: John Phillips, E. Bonner, L. Hough, H. Schultz, J. S. Walker, J. M. Angus, Peter High, J. C. Cook, Wm. Maertens, D. B. Smith, C. T. Day and Chas. Carter. Objection was made by Mr. Kaulukou for the defense to evidence of Marshal Hitchcock and Deputy Marshal Brown, covering a confession of defendant. Being overruled counsel noted exceptions. At 1:40 Mr. Kaulukou addressed the jury for the defense, speaking for a little more than fifteen minutes. Mr. Wilder followed for the Provisional Government, closing at 2:06. The jury retired at 2:10. After an absence of ten minutes the jury returned a unanimous verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.

While the jury in the foregoing case was out, the following jury was drawn to try Li Mau for opium in possession: Geo. Dillingham, C. W. Booth, H. W. Mait, T. A. Lloyd, E. A. Jones, W. C. Wilder, Jr., T. F. Lansing, Fred. Harrison, C. H. Kuegel, T. W. Hobron, Chas. Kuester and Fred. Philp. Deputy Attorney-General Wilder for prosecution; W. R. Castle for defendant.

In T. B. Murray vs. J. F. Colburn, the attorney for plaintiff, Enoch Johnson, gives notice to Antone Rosa, attorney for defendant, that his motion to dismiss defendant's appeal may be argued at 9 o'clock Friday before Judge Whiting.

A. S. Cleghorn, guardian of Victoria Kaulani, has filed his final account, showing receipts of $13,717.12 and payments of $20,023.59, making a balance of $6906.47 due the guardian. The last payment of allowance for the ward as her apparent was on Feb. 28, 1893. Payments on the building of a new house account for the excess of expenditure.

J. A. Thompson in person gives notice to W. C. Achi of motion to have his cause against the latter heard on Friday.

Judge Whiting is hearing the divorce case of Susie Cartwright vs. A. J. Cartwright. Hatch and Kinney for libellant; C. W. Ashford and Wakefield for libelee.

Emma Street's Sidewalk.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—I read in last night's Honolulu, a correspondence about the sidewalks in Emma street, and I quite concur with the writer thereof. Even if the law did allow Mr. C. R. Bishop to establish in front of his lower gate, the unbecoming pavement whereby the grade of the public sidewalk will be destroyed, this gentleman ought to be ashamed of himself. What he ought to do, for his own convenience, as well as for the public, and for the ornamental aspect of the street, is to lower his gate, and grade the road inside of his lot, so as to suit them to the grade of the street, not ruin the street to suit his old gate. And, as I do not believe—no more than the Honolulu's correspondent does—that the law allows Mr. Bishop's proceeding, I hope that the day will come when he will be ordered to remove that pavement he now places as an obstruction on the sidewalk.

A RESIDENT OF EMMA STREET.

A Slight Correction.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—By the slight substitution of "or" for "on" in the political review which you published for me yesterday, there is an important alteration in my meaning, which I beg you will allow me to correct. My proposal is that both parties to the joint committee should loyally support the draft constitution on appeal to the electorate. Such an appeal would be an essential condition of the acceptance of the constitution, in my opinion.

Prevention Is Better

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, also for every form of scrofula, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

THE GRAND OLD MAN.

Mr. Gladstone's Magnificent Nerve in Facing Danger.

Mr. G. W. Smalley, discussing the Pall Mall Gazette's prediction of Mr. Gladstone's resignation, refers to his failing eyesight. He says: "The real facts are known to few. Just after he left London for Biarritz I heard, not directly, but from a source I think trustworthy, what took place. Mr. Gladstone, or perhaps one of the family, sent for Dr. Grainger, of Chester, a physician, who is also an oculist. It was Dr. Grainger who attended him at the time when the gingerbread was thrown at him and struck and slightly injured one eye. Now that Sir Andrew Clarke is gone Dr. Grainger probably knows more of Mr. Gladstone's constitutional peculiarities than anybody else. He saw him at his house in Downing street the day before he started. He told Mr. Gladstone, not, I suppose, for the first time, that a cataract had entirely obliterated the sight of one eye, and that another cataract had begun to form on the other eye. This last statement was, perhaps, new to the Prime Minister. He reflected a moment and said: 'I wish you to remove the cataract at once.' Dr. Grainger told him it was not yet far enough advanced for an operation."

"You do not understand me," replied his illustrious patient. "It is the old cataract I wish removed. If that is out of the way I still shall have one good eye when the new cataract impairs the sight of the other."

Dr. Grainger hesitated. Mr. Gladstone continued: "You still seem not to understand me. I want you to perform the operation here, and now, while I am sitting in this chair." Dr. Grainger still objected. "It might not be successful," said he. "This is a risk I accept," retorted the gallant old man. In the end Dr. Grainger, saying that the responsibility must be his, as a medical man, declined, giving such reasons as he could. The true reason probably was that such an operation on a patient of Mr. Gladstone's age was too dangerous. It was not performed. But what could be more admirable than the courage and resolution he showed.

Trick That Was Vain.

The charge of embezzlement against Thow Choy, a Chinese merchant, was not pros'd in the District Court this morning. It appears that the prosecuting Chinaman had pawned a gold watch and ring valued at $275 with Choy, and wishing to get the articles back without paying the amount brought the charge of embezzlement. Seeing he would get left the accuser dropped the case.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd

Saturday, Feb. 24, 1894.

A cent a pound duty on sugar seems to have come closer than a possibility and reached a probability. Hawaii will benefit by this action to an extent that will extend the smile on everyone's countenance. Should it go the other way there will be long faces and few smiles. This is one of the disadvantages of a locality where nearly everything depends upon a single industry. Hawaii is not alone in this respect. Take any of the mining towns in the United States; directly a lead peters out the place is deserted. Twenty-five or thirty years ago one of the most thriving towns in Colorado was Kit Carson; it was the distributing point for all of southern Colorado and New Mexico, outfits were formed there and produce for the mining towns in the lower country was largely purchased there; everyone was prosperous and houses went up like mushrooms; then the railroad built a line to La Junta in the south and Kit Carson as a mercantile town was reduced to a pile of empty tins and a water tank while La Junta jumped into prominence. Kit Carson had but one source to wealth, or if it had others they were not developed. While Hawaii is not in the identical position of this faded-from-view town there is a similarity. This country has undeveloped sources of revenue but legislation in the past has been "agin it." The thousands of acres of valuable and unimproved land should be opened up for settlement; let the country be opened up to the small farmer. There was a time when the Island of Maui furnished potatoes to California, now we look to California and New Zealand for plain everyday "spuds." There is no reason why this change should have taken place. Maui exists to-day in the same locality as when California reached its hand out to gather in our produce. If Maui is not big enough to raise potatoes for the inhabitants of the Hawaiian Islands, what is the matter with enlisting the services of Hawaii and Oahu? When the idle lands are opened for settlement perhaps a change will come and when it does what a boom there will be in the Jones locked fence. Every man who has a ten acre lot will want to fence it and do it well, the only way to do this is to adopt this style fencing. The man who economizes at the beginning will be accustomed to it when prosperity smiles upon him and he will grow rich with age. A fence that will last a life time is what every man who owns an acre of land should have, and there is no other fence in the world that will last as long as the Jones locked fence. Barnum used to say, "keep your eye on day and date." We tell you to keep your eye on the price. Six cents each for stays and fifteen cents a pound for the washers. Your stays are placed six or eight feet apart and your wooden posts from thirty to fifty. We have received by the "Australia" an invoice of iron stoves so that we are now able to fill all back orders. The Pansy is a world beater in iron stoves and gives satisfaction in every kitchen it enters. This make is not only well-finished and a good baker but it is cheap in price. We've never had a complaint yet and the last stoves are as perfect in every respect as the first. If you want a cheap stove come to us and get a Pansy. In high grade ranges we make the Fischer a leader. We do not believe there is a steel range made that will use as little fuel or heat up as quickly as this make; we hear this from everyone who has used it and the users are the best advertisers we can have.

WHY LUCOL

IS THE BEST

PAINT OIL.

Dries perfectly solid inside of twenty hours.
Forms a durable and elastic, not a brittle coating.
Retains its gloss longer than any other oil.
Resists the action of acids and alkalis better than any other oil.
Flows freely from the brush without running and spreads well.
With the addition of Litharge, yields a hard surface, suitable for floors, steps, etc.
Mixes readily with pigments ground in oil in paste form.
Brings out the real shades of the colors and keeps them unaltered.
Is a solvent for the most delicate of the new coal tar colors.
Added to varnish greatly improves the working of the varnish.
Does not darken white lead or any delicate colors.
Has greater body than any other oil.
Requires one-third less pigment than any other oil.
Can be added to linseed oil and it will greatly improve the linseed.
Can be thinned with turpentine.
By actual tests, has outlasted the best linseed oil.
Therefore, is the best paint oil ever manufactured.

Direction for Use.

Use LUCOL in every respect in the same manner as you would linseed oil, with the single exception that you may add fully one-quarter more LUCOL to the same quantity of pigment than you would of linseed.
In using metallic Venetian red, the ochres, and other dry pigments, it is advisable to mix up the paint at least one day before it is to be used, then add a third more LUCOL and the paint will be found to cover well and have a good gloss.

NEVER USE JAPANS.

Where hard surfaces such as floors, steps, etc., are required use litharge only, never use Japans.

LUCOL MIXES WITH VARNISHES

and assists their working and improves their appearance BUT THEY SHOULD BE USED SAME DAY THEY ARE MIXED, otherwise the gum of the varnish may be precipitated or the mixture curdled.

The addition of from 1/4 to 1/2 of LUCOL to varnishes does not reduce their lustre nor retard their hardening and drying and it prevents their cracking.

Shipping Notes.

The main boom of the schooner Ka Mo, belonging to Allen & Robinson, is being repaired. Alex. Smith has the contract.
The steamer Waiwalele left this morning for Lahaina and Hanalei. T. Mathews went as purser. A. Mettman having gone in the same capacity on the Iwalei.
The fine Hawaiian steel bark R. P. Rithet, P. H. Morrison, will leave to-morrow for the Coast with a load of sugar. She received the final installment this afternoon.
The bark Galveston is being slowly discharged of her Oriental cargo at Brewer's wharf. The bark presents a battle of appearance, and it will no doubt cost the owners a goodly pile for repairs. She was roughly handled on the way from China.
The steamer Likeike arrived this afternoon with 8200 bags of sugar from Papekou for the bark S. C. Allen. Purser Place reports that the steamer Hawaii left Honolulu yesterday evening for Hanalei with a cargo of sugar. The steamer Lohia was lying at anchor at Kaula when the Likeike passed yesterday.
The experience of Geo. A. Appgar, of German Valley, N. J., is well worth remembering. He was troubled with chronic diarrhoea and doctored for five months and was treated by four different doctors without benefit. He then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, of which one small bottle effected a complete cure. It is for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Court Cases will meet this evening as usual.

The Misses Albu returned from Ahimau about midday.

Diamond Head, 3 p.m.—Weather hazy, wind light southwest.

Ka Maile store will not change hands until the 1st of April.

There are rumors of Chinese merchants adopting the boycott system.

Twenty-six passengers left on the steamer Kinai this afternoon for the volcano.

Purser Wallace's leg is slowly repairing and he hopes to be about in a few days.

The steamer Likeike experienced fine weather along the Hanalei coast this trip.

Service, in the German language, will be held next Sunday at 10:30 a.m. at the Y. M. C. A.

Five boats were brought on the deck of the bark Galveston from China, and are offered for sale.

The P. G. band gave its usual weekly concert on the Executive building grounds this morning.

Remember the Kawaiahae Seminary concert on Saturday evening. Get tickets early at any of the advertised places.

A great musical event—the benefit by the Misses Albu and Prof. Berger to Manager Plunkett on Thursday evening.

Eleven Chinese have taken out passports at the Custom House for the S. S. Oceanic due to leave for China on March 6th.

Besides what it yielded to the Sailor's Home, the late concert at Kaumakapili Church paid a debt on the electric lights of the church.

Judge Cooper only excused the disengaged jurors one hour this afternoon, as it was hoped to get through Li Mau's trial in that time.

Dr. Campbell and wife, who returned from Victoria, B. C., on the S. S. Arawa, return to their home on Kaula this afternoon by the Mikahala.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. Ld. will be held at the company's office on Tuesday next.

Three Japs, Ikida, Mizuba and Isamoto, have been arrested for keeping victualing houses within the past three months without a license.

J. Casiero, the murderous half-breed, will appear for trial on March 6th. He is held under two charges, awaiting the verdict of the coroner's inquest into the death of Jim Kauhane.

New designs for a flag for the Hawaiian Republic are as numerous as flies around the Quarantine Station. Several new ones are exhibited. The question now is, "Will any of them be adopted?"

C. Stocke and W. B. Ash left on the steamer Kinai this afternoon for Maui and Hawaii. They intend giving exhibitions on the other islands. Mr. Stocke took his photograph with him.

J. B. Atherton was a fellow-passenger of the Misses Albu from San Francisco. He has remembered them nicely since, having expended no less than $47 thus far in tickets for their concert.

Views of Sans Souci and Annex, exterior and interior, nicely framed, are on exhibition in the Pacific Hardware Co.'s window. Robert Louis Stevenson's testimonial appears in the centre of the frame.

Quong Hoo was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor at fifty cents a day on Saturday last, until he was able to pay $650 for taxes. Hoo said he had been sick and had no money to settle with the P. G.

The Crescent Baseball Club met at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday evening, when George Angus was elected captain and Arthur Wilder secretary and treasurer. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $139.42.

Complaints are being made of the poisoning of dogs and chickens. Recently a valuable dog was poisoned near Thomas Square and the other day another dog and several chickens were killed by the same process on Queen street. Some prosecutions for this practice would have a wholesome effect.

The large number of carpet bag tourists who have been arriving from the Coast, with the fact that they have been seen hanging around the government buildings, has started a rumor that they are here to assist the Queen. They are only attracted by the $40 a month salary and P. G. grub.

All of the members of the new Board of Education excepting Prof. Alexander, absent at Washington, attended the inaugural meeting yesterday. A lot of routine business was done. Mrs. Foss was appointed principal of the Kilanea, Kaula, school for the rest of the present term, with Miss Hadley as assistant.

The Sailor's Home funds have received two snug increments within a few days. From the Kaumakapili Church concert, at which Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner sang, they received $91.50. Capt. Barker of the Philadelphia turned in $120 gained by the minstrels of his ship at their concert in the Opera House on Washington's birthday night.

Frank Correa, a young man employed by J. T. Waterhouse at Pearl City, while attempting to stop a runaway horse got run over by a loaded express wagon and sustained severe bruises. He was taken to the city and sent to Dr. McLennan's office where his injuries were attended to. He will probably be confined to his home for some weeks.

MAUI NOTES.

Local Minstrel Show—Personal—Shipping.

The Wailuku Dramatic and Minstrel Club gave their third performance at their lately acquired entertainment hall, the Wailuku Skating Rink, last Wednesday, 21st inst. The uncertainty of the weather doubtless prevented many up-country people from coming, who otherwise would have taken in the show. There was a fine moon and a clear sky in the evening, however, and quite a number of spectators came down by train from Paia and Spreckelsville, who, together with the inhabitants of Wailuku and Kahului, made quite a good-sized audience.

Although impeded by various obstructions and desertions, the boys managed to get up a very respectable entertainment. The first part of the program consisted of plantation songs for solo and chorus, interspersed with more or less humorous gags and jokes. The second part comprised a farce representing a court of justice with a decidedly Hebraic judge, susceptible to the moral suasion of bribes, followed by a bogus Corbett-Mitchell contest.

A quintet of the members sang some very pleasing native songs while the preparations were going on for Mr. Carley's humorous stump-speech which was as usual well received, and the program concluded with a ludicrous farce, "A Desperate Situation," well sustained.

The piano accompaniments were very ably performed by Mrs. W. T. Robinson, who deserves double credit as having been called in at the last moment to fill an unexpected vacancy and consequently had had no time to rehearse.

A delegation from the Hana Annexation Club arrived by the Claudine to-day to attend a political convention at Wailuku.

Drs. Tieman and Kallen, two German gentlemen of learning, who arrived by the Claudine last Wednesday, made the ascent of Haleakala during Wednesday and Thursday, returning Thursday afternoon and report fair weather and a grand view at the summit. Dr. Kallen, who is an Inspector of Schools at Sauribus, Germany, and one of the commissioners for that empire at the Chicago World's Fair, left for the volcano on the W. G. Hall last night, and intends to leave by the next Oceanic for Japan and the Orient.

Misses Adele Widdifield and Blanche Cornwell, who have sojournd at Waikapu for several weeks, return by the Claudine to the gay capital.

The brigantine Consuelo, Captain Jacobson, arrived from San Francisco last Sunday, 18th inst., 11 1/2 days out. She came in ballast and left again last Wednesday with a cargo of 129 tons sugar, valued at $22,007.85, from Paia and Hilo.

The 3-masted schooner Glendale from Honolulu, and the schooner Maid of Orleans, both arrived during the afternoon of Monday, 19th inst. The Maid of Orleans had a passage of 18 days from San Francisco, and brought a full cargo of merchandise for the H. C. and S. Co. and others. She sailed on last Friday, 23rd inst., with cargo of 1400 bags sugar, value $15,176.30.

The Glendale which brought about 167 tons coal as ballast from Honolulu, has discharged, and will probably be loaded and ready for sea by next Monday afternoon.

Weather: rainy, with frequent thunder and lightning and southerly winds during the last four days; to-day, calm, cloudy, with indications of more rain.

Maui, Feb. 24, 1894.

THE COOK WAS ROBBED.

Toyo an Honest Man and Tanaka the Thief.

Mr. Renjes says that it was his Japanese cook, Toyo, who was robbed of $92.50 ten days ago and not himself, and the offender was Tanaka, the yard boy. Toyo is a very trustworthy man who was in the employ of Jno. Waterhouse eleven years and has been with Mr. Renjes four years. Tanaka's friends have responded to his call for assistance out of his present dilemma, and this morning are canvassing among Japanese for the balance of the money, $25 having been recovered. Mrs. Renjes has since missed a twenty-dollar bill, which Tanaka has confessed to having taken. This brings the amount to $112.50. Tanaka is still in jail.

A Work of Art.

In one of the windows of the Pacific Hardware Co. there is a view, in a massive oak frame, a series of photographic scenes of our famous marine hotel, "Sans Souci." The photo work is from the gallery of J. J. Williams, and fully sustains the high reputation of that establishment. The highly artistic and superb lettering is the work of Mr. Viggo Jacobsen, and for artistic beauty of design and harmony in coloring, leaves nothing to be suggested by the most fastidious critic. It is always pleasing to inspect Mr. Jacobsen's work, but in this latest example he has excelled himself, resolved, no doubt, to maintain his own in the Midwinter Fair, where this work will be forwarded by the next steamer.

A Reasoning Dog.

A Chinaman's dog, following its master's wagon into town on King street this morning, seized the copy of the Advertiser delivered at Mr. Hotting's door and tore it to pieces. This is one of the most convincing instances in evidence of reason in dumb animals which has ever been recorded. How the Chinaman's dog knew that the Advertiser in that issue flopped clean over against any Chinese labor immigration is a marvel.

The Marshal was again "stuffed" today by one of the numerous specials. What the report was could not be learned, but it was probably something sensational, and as usual pertaining to the blooming royalists.

Miss Jennie Flager, Ohio City, Ohio.

Hood's Cures

Scrofula and All Blood Diseases.
"I take great pleasure in giving public testimony to the value of Hood's Sarsaparilla for Scrofula."

I have suffered with this distressing trouble for nearly ten years, and in that time have tried almost every medicine recommended to me without any relief whatever until, after much urging, I gave Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. It has been of great benefit, and will effect a permanent cure. I say to all people who suffer from Scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla, it will do you good." Miss JENNIE FLAGER, Ohio City, Van Wert County, Ohio.

Scrofulous Catarrh.
"My daughter, eleven years old, has been troubled with scrofulous catarrh ever since she was three years old. Three physicians gave her no permanent relief. In the summer it commenced eating into her nose. We bought Hood's Sarsaparilla and gave it to her and it has cured her, for which we are very thankful. We got one box of Hood's Pills and like them very much." Miss DAVID C. SHIMEL, Chandlerville, Ohio.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.

The Prize Awarded!

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co.
Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their
"EAGLE" Brand Beer.

ST. LOUIS, OCT. 28, 1903.
Messrs. Macfarlane & Co., Ltd.,
Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sirs:—We have mailed you a copy of the Globe-Democrat announcing the great victory won by the ANHEUSER-BUSCH ASSO-CIATION with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Signed) ANHEUSER-BUSCH BREWING ASSO-CIATION.

(Special Despatch to Globe-Democrat.)

World's Fair, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 28.—
No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one given to-day by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank,
to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association.
By methods of unrivaled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given to-day by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.

ENGLISHMEN AS LAWYERS.

Judge Jette's Remarks at a Banquet
at Montreal.

At the banquet of the law faculty of McGill College last evening, reports the Montreal Witness, Judge Jette, in the course of his remarks,
referred to the high sense of justice
with which every Briton is so imbued that it is known under a name which is not to be found in other languages and is called "British fair play," and in order to show that this was not, on his part, a mere compliment fit for the occasion, he quoted the following extract from a book on the "Great Jurists," written by Mr. Rodiere, professor in the law faculty of Toulouse, France:

"We are happy to pay here a tribute of sincere admiration to the great English nation, whose children have perhaps less than we the genius of art, but who possess certainly as much as ourselves the genius of science, that of poetry and eloquence and especially the genius of law.

We entertain the strongest sympathies for this people, where the same man may make princely liberalities
when nobody contests his rights, but who will not hesitate to make immense sacrifices rather than suffer the least injustice. Everybody knows the obstinacy of that dauntless Englishman who, rather than pay an insignificant tax which was wrongly asked from him by an English corporation, asked opinions of all the jurists of the three kingdoms, making for that end innumerable journeys, wrote, printed and circulated a number of pamphlets; appealed to all jurisdictions of the land, petitioned Parliament, and finally gained his suit, after having spent £2000 sterling, to obtain restitution of a sum less than a shilling.

"Let us acknowledge that there is to be found the principal cause of the success of the English people;
in this persistence, like that of the Romans, which nothing can wear out, which has favored the foundation of so many colonies in all parts of the world, and which, at last, gave England the advantage in that gigantic struggle which she sustained in the beginning of the century against the first Napoleon. This obstinacy, highly commendable
when it is at the service of what is right, has made of the English a people of jurists."

BLOOD THICKER THAN WATER.

Two Brave American Scouts with the British in Africa.

The big game hunter Coryndon has just returned from Matabele, and in an interview with a correspondent gave a stirring description of Captain Wilson's fatal pursuit of Lobengula. He spoke very highly of the great assistance given Captain Wilson by two Americans of the name of Biran and Ingram, who accompanied Wilson's party and did daring scouting during the campaign. He said: "When Captain Wilson's party was first attacked by Lobengula's escort, he sent the Americans back to Major Forbes,
who was stationed on the Shangani river, to get reinforcements. After a most perilous ride under fire the Americans reached the Shangani, which they found to be rapidly rising, and they had great difficulty in swimming the rushing stream. During their ride they heard continuous firing behind them. The arrival of the Americans with the tidings
of Captain Wilson's peril created great excitement among Major Forbes' force, which immediately started to aid Captain Wilson. But they were soon attacked and were forced to retreat. On the following night the position of Major Forbes' force was so dangerous that the two Americans were despatched under cover of a heavy thunderstorm
to Bulawayo for reinforcements.
The Americans, after stealing
through the enemy's lines, rode almost continuously at all times in the greatest peril, for three days and nights until they reached Bulwayo. They were almost dead from fatigue when they reached there,
but were able to tell their story
after a short rest. They were overwhelmed with attentions by the force at Bulawayo, and immediate arrangements were made to send a relief column to the assistance of Major Forbes. The Americans accompanied them back, and when they reached the Forbes party they found them in a deplorable condition. They had lost 120 horses, they had run out of provisions and had been compelled to eat horse-flesh, and their clothes were in tatters."

The Declaration of Independence.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—To-day the original copy of the Declaration of Independence was withdrawn from public exhibition in the State Department Library, made into a roll and placed in a tin box for filing
with the archives of the Government. The rapid fading of the text of the declaration and the deterioration of the parchment on which it is engrossed from exposure to the light and on account of age, rendered it impracticable for the department to allow it to be exhibited or handled longer. In lieu of the original document a facsimile will be placed on exhibition.

Some years ago it was noticed that the ink on the original parchment was fading and it has been gradually growing fainter. Recently chemists were called on to examine it and they gave the opinion that the full strength of the ink could be brought out again by coating it with a chemical solution. But this experiment was not tried owing to the fear that the precious paper might be injured in some way and also because no alteration or anything could be done to it without the authority of an act of Congress. It required an act of Congress to bring the declaration
from Philadelphia to Washington.
