AN IMPORTANT STATEMENT ON AFONG TROUBLE

Mr. McStocker Denies Assertions in Examiner Story--On Other Matters He Reserves Reply--Chastising the Japanese Servant.

Editor Advertiser: Yesterday, reporters of both the Star and Bulletin saw me as to an article in the San Francisco Examiner relative to alleged difficulties and differences between myself, and others who had married into the Afong family, on the one side, and Mrs. Afong on the other, asking me what I had to say in regard to the article in question. There had been a serious difference between the parties in question upon a private family matter, which I did not then, nor do I now, care to discuss, and I therefore told the reporters that I declined to say anything. Since then, I have been informed by friends, that a number of responsible citizens have been led by reiterated charges from apparently authentic sources and by silence on our part, to believe that I, with other sons-in-law of Mrs. Afong, did in fact, on the occasion of the visit to Mrs. Afong referred to in the Examiner, attempt to force her to sign a paper affecting her property rights. While my lips are for the present sealed as to what took us to Mrs. Afong's residence and what we wished of her and what occurred, I do not feel called upon to rest under the imputation of having attempted in any way to coerce Mrs. Afong on the occasion in question, or at any other time, into giving up any property rights, either by signing a paper or in any other wise whatever, and I therefore state that upon that occasion neither money nor property was discussed in any way whatever, nor did we go to Mrs. Afong's house to discuss such a subject, nor was she asked to sign any paper of any kind or to give up any property rights, nor was a paper discussed in any manner or shape at that interview, nor was any restraint put upon Mrs. Afong, except sufficient to prevent her from interfering in the deserved castigation of a Japanese servant. Mrs. Afong having on the occasion of this visit volunteered the threat that she would dispose of large properties and moneys, held by her in trust for all of the Afong children, to the detriment of those children, we did give notice to her, through her son and business agent, that we demanded a readjustment of the trust estate managed by her for the entire family, looking to a curtailment of her powers and control, but this demand was presented by letter through the ordinary channels, two days after the visit to her, when it could be and, presumably, was submitted to her attorney before reply was made. Very respectfully,
F. B. M'STOCKER.

FATHER MAXIME AND THE LEPERS

Can you give me any information about Father Maxime, the "leper priest" of the Hawaiian Islands, whose church was recently burned? What is his nationality?
T. O. D.

[Rev. Maxime Andre has been a missionary in the Hawaiian Islands for seventeen years. For fourteen years he was connected with the station of Hilo, on the island of Hawaii. In the leper colony at Molokai, made famous by Father Damien in 1889, there are two villages, Kalaupapa and Kalanipapa. It is in the latter village that Father Andre is stationed, living with the lepers, ministering to their spiritual wants and doing all that is possible to make life pleasant for these unfortunate beings. Father Andre is a member of the Congregation of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, an order which was founded in 1817, and which has headquarters in Paris. We have been unable to learn much about the missionary himself, as he is modest and does not care to give details of his career, but soon after he went to Kalaupapa he wrote some account of his work in a letter to his superior general, which was published in a magazine for missions, and from this letter the following extracts are taken.]

The leper colony at Molokai is, as it were, a little kingdom of which the resident is ruler. It comprises an extent of territory two miles in length and half a mile in width. Upon the north it is bounded by the Pacific Ocean, upon the south by a lofty mountain two thousand feet in height, an impassable barrier to all attempts at escape. However, the lepers who are confined in this place have no desire to run away; they live together as a large family. And then where could they go? They would be repulsed with expressions of horror wherever they might present themselves.

In the village of Kalanipapa the mission occupies a space of about an acre in extent. The huts of the lepers are all about. When I leave my house I meet everywhere people more or less disfigured; the ones who are in advanced stages of their disease are careful to avoid being seen. After a time one becomes accustomed to these disfigurements and can look at them without repugnance. The lepers, though they are afflicted to such a degree, are not wanting in good manners; they thank you without effusion for any service you may do them. They rarely complain, but, on the contrary, endure their miserable lot with great resignation.

The ministry of the priest varies according as he visits the very bad cases in the hospitals or goes among those people who are living isolated in their own houses. There are two asylums which have been built for the worst cases. That for the men, called the Baldwin Home, is in charge of the brothers of our congregation; the one for women, the Bishop Home, is under the direction of Franciscan sisters from Syracuse, N. Y. At Kalanipapa there are, at the least, 150 huts for those who live alone. The total number of lepers at the place is one thousand; the colony at Kalaupapa contains seven hundred. For our own part we have no fear of contracting leprosy. However, we do not neglect to observe the precautions which common prudence would suggest and which our superiors strongly advise. After we have come in contact with a leper we carefully wash our hands. Whenever lepers come to speak to us they do not enter the house, but remain upon the veranda. They themselves fully understand the purpose of these measures and are careful to observe them.

The opinion prevails to a great extent that a leper colony is like a great charnel house and that its inhabitants are always plunged in melancholy. The truth is much different. All day long sounds of mirth may be heard. Our lepers amuse themselves like children, chatting, singing or running about; in fact, they take their recreation like all other people. They have no cares and are not obliged to work, as the government furnishes them everything they need.

In our little commonwealth public duties are entrusted to the lepers. The judge is a leper; so is the sheriff; the lawyer, the policeman, the schoolmaster, are all afflicted with the disease. I must not forget to mention that there is a jail for the unruly members of the community. The only persons in the colony who are not lepers are the resident and the doctor; I ought to add also the postmaster.

ALVISA TOO ATTENTIVE

Is Stabbed by Porto Ricans While at a Dance.

A serious stabbing affray occurred early Sunday morning at the Half-way House, Nuuanu Valley, in which a Porto Rican named Pablo Alvisa was so badly wounded that he had to be transferred to the Queen's Hospital. His two assailants were arrested during the forenoon by Special Officer Jos Leal, and both are held at the police station for investigation pending the result of Alvisa's injuries.

A dance was given at the Half-way House by a number of Porto Ricans. Joy was unconfined until early in the morning, when Manuel Dehezu and Orlorio Capa took exception to Alvisa's attentions to a Porto Rican damsel who was being courted by Dehezu. A quarrel resulted and knives were drawn. Alvisa was stabbed and his assailants fled. Leal was put on the case early yesterday morning and before noon had the assailants in jail.

NO CHANGE IN RECOUNT SITUATION

George D. Gear, who arrived from Kauai yesterday morning, is said to have stated that there would be a recount in the case of the recent election for sheriff.

A. M. Brown, interviewed last night, said that he knew nothing of this and stated that no decision would be arrived at in the matter for a few days. "Gear has got nothing from me on the matter," said Sheriff Brown, "and the situation is unchanged."

OPIUM JOINT ON CAR LINE

Place at Waikiki Where Gambling and Pipe Hitting Go.

One of the principal opium dens of Honolulu, passed daily by thousands of people, and on the route of Sheriff Brown to and from the police station, is located on the Waikiki road at its junction with McCully Tract.

For months this den has been operating with from half a dozen to eight mat-covered couches whereon are laid the opium-smoking outfits. Of this den devotees of the poppy-extract habit are daily frequenters. Day and night Chinamen may be seen passing in and out of the place, but, to the average patron of the Rapid Transit cars, the shack has appeared to be only the peaceful habitation of a Chinaman and his family.

The shack was at one time used as a store considerably to Ewa of its present location. It was moved up to its present position, but it was never reopened as a store. The windows were boarded up and the front door closed. The only entrance is toward the rear on the Waikiki side. This entrance opens into a room occupying the width of the structure. A partition divides this lower portion from the front and larger portion. The front section is the "opium den." The hard couches, two by two, are arranged all around the room. At the junction of each pair of couches an opium layout entices the habitués. The sputter-sputter of the opium, as it is cooked at the tiny lamp turned over and over upon a bookkin is to be heard every night.

Adjoining this larger room a smaller one has been partitioned off, and in this space are a small table and many chairs. Last night a crowd of Chinese gathered about the table. As "banker" there was a Hawaiian-Chinese operating the little inverted bowl over the small white buttons used in playing pai-kau, while the dominoes clicked and clicked as they were shuffled and shuffled by the Chinese gamblers.

GEN. SHAFTER FACES THE LAST ENEMY

South African Trouble--King Leopold III--Kansas Election--No Rupture With Spain Is Feared at the Vatican.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., November 12.—General Shafter is dying.

Major General William Rufus Shafter, U. S. A. (retired), achieved fame in the Spanish War as commander of the American forces in Cuba in 1898, when he conducted the military operations ending in the capitulation of the Spanish forces under General Linhares and the surrender of Santiago. He afterwards commanded the military departments of California and Columbia from 1899 to 1901, and was retired from active service in 1901 as Major General.

He was born in Galesburg, Mich., October 16, 1835. He entered the Union army as First Lieutenant of the 7th Michigan Infantry, August 22, 1861. He became Major of the 19th Michigan Infantry, September 5, 1862, and Lieutenant Colonel in 1863. In 1864 he was promoted to Colonel of the 17th U. S. Colored Infantry. On March 13, 1865, he was brevetted Brigadier General for meritorious and gallant services during the war. He was mustered out of the volunteer army and became a Lieutenant Colonel in the regular army in 1867. The same year he was given a congressional medal for gallant and meritorious services at the battle of Fair Oaks, Va. He rose through the various ranks to Major General in 1898.

BLACKMAILERS THREATEN WEALTHY SHEEP OWNER

OGDEN, Utah, Oct. 30.—Joseph S. Peery, a wealthy young sheepman of this city, is in receipt of a blackmailing letter sent through the mail and signed "Three." In this letter the writers demand $500 and threaten to kill Peery's sheep by poisoning the watering places if he fails to comply with their demand.

Accompanying the letter is a diagram designating a certain spot on the shore of the Great Salt Lake as the place where the money is to be left for them in a can. The letter was roughly printed with a lead pencil.

Henry Peery, one of the owners of this ranch, who is also a prominent stockbroker of Salt Lake City and Goldfield, visited Honolulu about three years ago.

STATUE TO A MAN WELL KNOWN HERE.

SPOKANE, Oct. 25.—Spokane today unveiled a bronze statue to Ensign John Robert Monaghan, U. S. N. The occasion was notable because it was the first ceremony of the kind in the city's history and because of the distinguished speakers and the great throng present. Fully 5000 persons braved dust-whirling gales to attend the exercises, and fully 5000 more crowded the streets along the line of march. United States troops from Fort Wright, the local company of the National Guard, Philippine and Civil War veterans, school children and every Catholic society in the city participated in the parade. The line of march was more than a mile in length.

The speakers included Governor Mead, ex-United States Senator George Turner, Charles S. Voorhees, Mayor Daggett, Bishop Edward O'Dea, Rev. Father Goller, S. J., Rev. Father Jaquet of Santa Clara College, California; C. B. Dunning, Departmental Commander of the G. A. R., and Captain Thomas S. Phelps, U. S. N., of the battleship California.

The statue stands at the corner of Riverside avenue and Monroe street, at the south approach of the Monroe-street bridge, a main business artery of the city. It is of simple design on a huge base of granite brought from the East. On the south side of the base is a tablet illustrative of the scenes during which Monaghan gave his life in a heroic attempt to save a brother officer from being murdered by natives of the South Seas. On the north side is inscribed a brief biography of the young hero.

SUNDAY AT THE BEACH

A Perfect Day Brings
Out Pleasure
Seekers.

The glorious weather yesterday drew an unusually large crowd to the beach and one of the pleasantest Sunday afternoons of the year was enjoyed by the patrons of the Waikiki resorts.

High tide came at just the right time to catch the crowd and the surf was just right for surfing.

Although the sun shone brightly all day, the strong trade wind brought with it an agreeable coolness in which a tang of autumn could be detected.

The beach was well populated until the sun had sunk far below the horizon and the golden aftermath of his splendor had faded from the western sky.

The Aquarium entertained a large number of visitors who found unending delight in watching the diverting gyrations of the finny occupants of the various tanks.

The big squid did a star stunt yesterday. Emerging from his retirement beneath an overhanging ledge of coral, the slippery fellow perched on a ledge of rock and surveyed his surroundings.

Small, transparent shrimps passed before his hungry gaze but he suffered the tiny crustaceans to remain unmolested. He was after bigger game.

Presently a fat black crab scuttled along a side of the tank. Quick as a flash his squidship got a move on and with his tentacles trailing behind him precipitated himself at the unfortunate shell-fish.

Just before reaching the crab the squid checked himself and, spreading out his feelers like the opening of an umbrella, soon had the crab in his mouth, the parrot-like mandibles of which quickly crushed it into digestible form. It took the squid half an hour to complete his meal, after which he retired to his retreat and went to sleep.

Perhaps the most attractive tank in the Aquarium just now is that which constitutes the home of the colony of fantailed goldfish.

These curious little fish present a splendid appearance as the sun's rays strike down through the clear water onto their red-gold bodies, delicately relieved with pure white.

There has been placed in one of the tanks of late a jelly-fish. This is no ordinary jelly-fish, though as shapeless as the rest of his race. It is his color that attracts and distinguishes. Imagine the warmest rose-red you can and you will fall short of the mark. It is living color that attracts and fascinates. It is color that painter's palette never bore. It is color that transforms the hideous, shapeless form of the jelly-fish into a thing of wondrous beauty which you return to gaze at again and again. Varied and remarkable are the comments made by visitors to the Aquarium on its varied denizens.

Two ladies were regarding the opahine or parrot-fish yesterday. Now this fish is the loziest thing imaginable, baring of course its neighbors, the perching fish. The opahine can succeed in looking more bored than any inhabitant of the heaven above, the earth beneath or the waters under the earth.

One lady remarked that this kind lived for ever.

Her friend exclaimed that she had always wanted to see a turtle as she had heard that they were wonderfully long-lived.

Those animated little transparencies, the shrimps, attracted the attention of a couple of Britishers from a tramp steamer in port.

GULLS DESTROY GRASSHOPPERS.

The great flock of sea gulls that is clearing Iuka township of grasshoppers is much appreciated by the people up there. While driving in that township we saw at some distance what seemed to be a big lot of new tin cans in great numbers stretched across a quarter section of land. Presently we discovered there was life and activity in the white objects glistening in the sunlight, and then we discovered it to be countless thousands of sea gulls stretched across the fields and catching hoppers and bugs. They were not wild, as one could drive within a few rods of them and not disturb them in the least.—Pratt (Kas.) Union.

"What are those blooming things?" queried the first.

"Why, shrimps, of course," replied his companion. "What did you take them for?"

"Oh, quit your kidding," said the first son of Albion; "shrimps is pink."

The Waikiki Inn was the objective point of many pleasure-seekers and the Moana baths did a rushing business.

At the Seaside Hotel one of the largest crowds of the season listened to the music of the Kawaihau Quintet Club and the waves.

Manager Church, who has been confined to his bed through indisposition, the past few days, was up and about yesterday, and received many congratulations on his recovery.

DEATH OF H. C. OVENDEN.

Harry C. Ovenden, head bookkeeper of the Kaeleku Sugar Company, died at his home in Hana on the seventh instant. He had been ill for a short time and had been under the care of Drs. Deas and Dinegar, and had so far recovered that he had intended to return to work the following day, when his heart gave way and he died suddenly. Mr. Ovenden had been a resident of the islands for twenty-three years, most of which time he had been with Grinbaum & Co. He was born in London, February 15, 1859. He was a man of irreproachable character and made a host of friends. Deceased leaves a wife and several small children to mourn his loss.—Maui News.

KOREAN SHOOTER GETS FIVE YEARS

Y. Man Yong, convicted of assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to commit murder, was sentenced by Judge Lindsay on Saturday morning to pay a fine of $1 and to be imprisoned at hard labor for five years.

Attorney Lightfoot had reminded the court that the defendant had been in jail since March. Deputy Attorney General Fleming had remarked that he did not believe a statement from him was necessary.

Judge Lindsay, in passing sentence, said if the victim of the shooting had died he would be passing the death sentence. He had been given a fair trial and the verdict of guilty was justified by the evidence.

The defendant was told that, though the Koreans had only recently come to this country, he was an unusually intelligent member of the race and for that reason there was no excuse for the crime. There had been a suggestion of leniency, but the court could not see a single ground therefor.

Attorney Noar, after the sentence, renewed his motion made at trial to have a mistrial entered on account of prejudgment of the case by the evening papers. The motion was overruled and an exception noted.

SPORTS

HEADS TAKE THE PENNANT

Butchers Fall Down in Final Winter League Game.

The Diamond Heads are champions of the Winter League. They earned this title by defeating the Metropolitan yesterday, in the deciding game of the series, by the score of 5 to 1.

It was a good game and was witnessed by a good crowd.

Up to the beginning of the seventh innings the score was 1 to 0 in favor of the Butchers. In the fatal seventh the Heads annexed a brace, putting them one run ahead.

The ninth saw the Heads amass three runs, making the score 5 to 1 in their favor. The Butchers came back strong, but two runs was the best they were able to do.

W. Chillingworth pitched a grand game, only three hits being made off him. He practically won his own game in the seventh by fine stick-work.

W. Desha made a two-bagger and W. Chillingworth did likewise, scoring Desha. Moses was hit by pitcher and took his base. Akana went out to right field. Soper base-hit and drove in Chillingworth. Sam Chillingworth flew out to left and Bower died on a pop fly to second.

In the first of the ninth Bill Chillingworth base-hit, but was put out trying to steal third. Moses went out to pitcher. Akana base-hit. Soper was safe on an infield rap. S. Chillingworth base-hit, scoring Akana. Bower got safe on third's error. Soper scoring. Moore base-hit, bringing Sam Chillingworth home. D. Desha struck out.

In the second of the ninth Ayau fanned and Dixon was hit by a pitched ball. Almos walked. Kuhina got to first on an infield hit. Almos dying short to third. Busnell's three-bagger scored Dixon and Kuhina. Busnell was put out at the plate while trying to make a home run. It was a tight fit, however.

There were few errors on either side. The superior team-work of the Diamond Heads was in large measure responsible for their victory.

Ayau wins the league base-stealing race with a total of 30. Bower and W. Desha come next with 29 bases apiece to their credit. Ayau increased his total two bases in yesterday's game.

HORSE DRIVEN WITH FRACTURED HIP

One day last week a horse drawing a hack on the Pal road slipped while turning round and fell. The animal got up and was driven to town apparently uninjured.

For two days following the accident the horse was driven.

On the third day the animal went lame, being unable to bear any weight on its off hind leg.

Dr. A. R. Rowat was called in and found the poor creature to be suffering from a badly fractured hip.

The curious thing is that the horse could have stood up so long with such an injury.

Dr. Rowat's explanation of this is that the fracture was held together by the muscles and finally knocked apart by the horse getting up in its stall. He has the animal under treatment in his infirmary at present and is hopeful of saving it for further usefulness.

Many years ago the owner of the horse had a similar accident happen to another animal belonging to him. Dr. Rowat had the case, but was obliged to put an end to suffering with a bullet.

POTTER ONCE HAD AN ENORMOUS RAY

Manager Potter of the Aquarium, talking to an Advertiser man yesterday, said that he had read with interest the account of the capture of a giant ray off the harbor.

He said that a year ago a great ray was caught with a hook by Japanese fishermen and was towed to the Aquarium, through the inner waters of the reef.

The fish was six feet across its body and weighed in the neighborhood of two hundred pounds. It was kept in the shark tank for four days, at the end of which time it died.

Potter has also exhibited a small black ray with white spots and a thin, whip-like tail. This fellow lived for several weeks. Potter has the tail yet.

On account of the windy weather of the last few weeks but few fish have been brought to the Aquarium.

The work of completing the bathing pool, in front of the Kunst property, and next to the Aquarium, is proceeding apace.

THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

How Honolulu Won the Puunene Challenge Cup.

The Honolulu tennis players, who went to Maui on Saturday returned to Honolulu by the steamer Likelike yesterday, bringing the Puunene cup back with them.

The homesters won the tournament by fifteen points. They report a royal time on the Valley Isle and allege that the treatment they received was as fine as silk. A luau and a dance were given in the visitors' honor.

The Honolulu players were: A. T. Brock and F. E. Steere, W. P. Roth and R. D. Mead, C. H. Cooke and D. H. Hitchcock, S. H. Derby and C. G. Bockus.

C. Hartwell was unable to make the trip and this left W. Alexander without a partner.

Four teams from each island played three sets each and the number of games won by both sides were added together.

On this figuration the Honolulu boys had fifteen points the best of the deal. The tournament took place in the morning and in the afternoon various friendly matches were played.

An exhibition game was played between C. H. Cooke and W. P. Roth and Krumbhaar and Stevenson, the former winning. Messrs. Krumbhaar and Stevenson were the only team to win in the regular contest, beating S. H. Derby and C. G. Bockus.

Another interesting game was between A. T. Brock and Krumbhaar, the former winning, 1-6, 6-3, 6-1.

The Maui teams were as follows: C. C. Krumbhaar and Stevenson, F. F. Baldwin and W. Savage, F. P. Rosecrans and J. B. Thompson, William Searby and George B. Henderson.

O. P. COX WON THE WHITE ROCK

The White Rock Golf Cup tournament, played at Haleiwa yesterday, resulted in a win for O. P. Cox.

M. Phillips, A. S. Mahaulu and F. Halstead tied for second prize, a case of White Rock water, and on a cut of the cards Phillips won.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a break-down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its cause (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alope is absolutely essential in all such cases is INCREASED VITALITY—VIGOR—VITAL STRENGTH AND ENERGY to drive that as night succeeds the day this may throw off these morbid feelings, and experience a more certainly secured by a course of the celebrated life-reviving tonic.

TERAPION, NO. 3
has by any other known combination. So surely as it is taken in accordance with the printed directions accompanying it, will the shattered health be restored, the EXHAUSTED AMP OF LIFE LIGHTED UP AGAIN, and a new existence imparted in place of what and so lately seemed worn-out, "used up" and exhausted. This wonderful modicum is pure vegetable and innocuous, he agreeable to the taste—suitable for all constitutions and conditions, in either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a case of disease or derangement, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that preceded it for this wide-spread and numerous class of human ailments.

TOWN TALK RUBBISH.

One of the San Francisco papers that the earthquake has not knocked the nonsense out of is Town Talk, a weekly of free-lance principles and indiscriminate gossip. It seems to have a correspondent in Honolulu who knows just about the kind of stuff the journal wants, therefore as a rule sends it matter with all sorts of spice excepting truth. The following is a specimen in point from the issue of October 27, "So That He May Splurge" being the caption:

"At the next session of Congress a raid will be made on the Federal treasury by the territorial officials of Hawaii. My correspondent in the islands informs me that Governor Carter hopes to have his salary doubled. He feels that as Honolulu is the gateway of the Pacific to the mainland and he is called upon to entertain visiting ambassadors, ministers and other state officials crossing the ocean the drain on his private purse is too severe. When Prince Li, the representative of the Emperor of China, stopped at Honolulu about a year ago, Governor Carter gave him a reception that cost five hundred dollars. And he has given other receptions that came high—too high, he thinks, for a Governor drawing only five thousand per. So Congress is to be asked to raise his salary to ten thousand. And to make the pull as strong as possible an effort will be made at the same time to raise the salaries of the Federal judges. In this matter there will be a unanimity of sentiment among the job-holders and their friends will pull for them as one man."

In the foregoing item the only odor of news is from what is untrue. Governor Carter is neither asking nor hoping for a raise in his salary. A year or so ago he recommended that an increase of the Governor's salary be made from the existing rate of $5000 a year to $7500, but that was for his successor and not for himself. This he made perfectly well known. His term of office will expire one year from the 23rd of this month and a raise of salary, even at the short session of Congress approaching, would be of little advantage to him.

Governor Carter, at the same time, advocated an increase in the salaries of the Territorial circuit judges, not those of "the Federal judges" as Town Talk has it. There is but one Federal judge for the Territory and he now receives $5000 a year—or two thousand dollars more than a Territorial circuit judge—and nothing has ever been heard about any proposal to raise his salary. Although it is not high considering the Federal judge's duties and labors, yet it is probable that a recommendation to raise it would be more appropriately made through the United States Attorney General than through the Governor.

Respecting the salaries of the circuit judges, particularly those sitting in Honolulu, any censorious comment on the proposal to raise their salaries is misplaced and entirely unresponsive to intelligent public opinion. Governor Carter's motive, as made clear at the time he proposed the raise, was to enhance the attractiveness of the office in the eyes of men fit to hold it. At present the honor of the station is for such the prime attraction. Many good men have declined offers of circuit judgeships here simply because they could not afford to take the position.

PROTECTION TO COFFEE.

Mr. Louissou is a whole Chamber of Commerce in himself when it comes to promoting the interests of Hawaiian coffee. His effective work, on his recent visit to the mainland, in bringing that cause into the public eye merits great praise. Agitation of protection to coffee at this time would seem to be particularly timely. Brazil has just put into operation a scheme of governmental patronage of its coffee industry, of which Willett & Gray (New York) say: "Brazil is to be commended in making this judicious arrangement for the better protection of her coffee industry, and it points perhaps to permanent improvement in matters so important when consumption of coffee constantly increases beyond average production."

Having acquired coffee-growing countries in Hawaii and Porto Rico, it is surely up to the United States, with stand-pat protection to home industries dominant, to look out for its own. With Brazil seeing to better prices for its product American consumers will undoubtedly have to pay more for their coffee anyway. They may as well give the excess to their own citizens here and in Porto Rico as to the Brazilian growers. It is unfair to apply the doctrine of a "cheap breakfast table" to coffee when it is not applied to sugar. Since the acquisition of Hawaii and Porto Rico a policy has taken shape in different of the public departments at Washington of encouraging the production, under the flag, of articles of tropical growth which are enormously imported from foreign countries. The Department of Agriculture is making a special feature of this policy. With regard to coffee, it will be remembered that, early last year, Governor Winthrop of Porto Rico wrote the following message to Governor Carter:

"The War Department and the Navy Department have issued orders that Hawaiian coffee and Porto Rican coffee shall be advertised for, and shall be given a preference, cost and quality being the same."

Before that cheering word was received the commercial bodies of Honolulu had been agitating for recognition of Hawaiian coffee in army and navy supplies. Since then little or no effort seems to have been made to follow up the advantage gained. At least no contracts for supplying the commissariat of army or navy with Hawaiian coffee are at this moment recollectable. Since Mr. Louissou is home again it would be opportune for the commercial bodies of Honolulu and Hilo to resume consideration of the coffee question. It ought to figure largely in the approaching campaign on behalf of Hawaii's interests generally at Washington.

A powerful thesis against the idea of Cuban annexation by Hon. John W. Foster, one of our ablest diplomats and a former Secretary of State, will be found in this issue. Coming from such a prominent Republican in national politics, this deliverance ought to have a reassuring effect upon people here who have been almost panic-stricken over the fact of American intervention in Cuba. Secretary Root's mission to the Latin-American republics, it may be gathered from Mr. Foster's argument, practically estops the administration of President Roosevelt from offering anything but strenuous resistance to either action or agitation in favor of the annexation of Cuba. The citation of five distinct pledges for Cuban independence and the reasons given on behalf of American industries, in the article, are equally impressive with the remarks on the mission of Mr. Root and on the history of the countries he has visited which have gradually developed from a revolutionary to an evolutionary condition of progress.

Automobiles have created a new problem in the making and preserving of roads. It is seen, by an exchange, that the highway commissioners of Massachusetts announce that they are compelled to ask for an additional legislative appropriation of fifty thousand dollars to repair the damage to state roads caused by automobiles. The heavy touring cars, passing over the macadamized ways at high speed, have torn up the top layer of the road, which served to cover the broken stones underneath. This top covering is dissipated in clouds of dust, or is washed away as mud. The result is that the roadbed becomes cracked and uneven, the stones themselves being carried away during heavy rains, leaving hard ridges and valleys to jounce the unwary traveler.

In the President's letter to the National Irrigation Congress the following passage appears: "By keeping the public forests in the public hands our forest policy substitutes the good of the whole people for the profits of the privileged few. With that result none will quarrel except the men who are losing the chance of personal profit at the public expense." It is not taking much of a prophet's risk to say that there is nothing in which governmental agency is active in Hawaii today which will yield better results to the people of this Territory in the not very remote future than the policy of forest conservation. The forests that are being protected and propagated are likely to become one of the best sources of Territorial revenue.

Hawaii shipped 2,147,154 pounds of coffee to the mainland in the year ending June 30, 1905, against 1,437,053 pounds the previous year. This was an increase of 49.41 per cent, quite gratifying in itself. It shows that the coffee industry is making some headway after the reverse it met some years ago in the collapse of the Olan boom.

Universal penny postage is likely to be a fact before the twentieth century is much older. At the international congress of chambers of commerce, at Milan last month, the vote in favor of it was nearly unanimous.

AGITATION AGAINST THE JAPANESE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—It is becoming evident that strong pressure will be exerted during the next session of Congress to secure legislation restricting Japanese immigration. The subject is already being actively discussed in Washington. It is expected here that the labor organizations on the Pacific Coast will take the lead in advocating this legislation, and that they will have more or less support from organized labor all over the country. Labor conditions in Hawaii will be cited as an illustration of the contention that if the Japanese continue to be admitted as freely as at present they will soon have a practical monopoly of labor in the Pacific Coast States.

On the other hand restrictive legislation will be opposed on the ground that it would give a serious setback to the development of American trade not only in Japan, but in all Eastern Asia. Those who take this view point out that a Japanese boycott of American goods would not only injure their sale in Japan and Korea, but also in China, where Japanese influence is now becoming more effective than ever before. President Roosevelt has not yet made public any statement on the question, but he has let it be known in direct that the administration will not favor any legislation that will impose restrictions on Japanese immigrants that are not imposed on those from all other countries as well.

COLON IN COURT.

Mateo Colon, who made a dastardly attack one week ago on a nurse at the Japanese hospital, stabbing her in the back and inflicting injuries which narrowly escaped being fatal, and who within a few hours afterwards stabbed a Japanese roomer in a hotel which he burglarized, was up before Judge Whitney on Saturday for a preliminary hearing. As the victims of his murderous assault are still confined to the hospital and were unable to appear against him, his case was further continued until Saturday next. Colon is facing a triple charge, assault with intent to murder, assault with a dangerous weapon and burglary in the first degree.

Contractor E. J. Lord inspected Kalihi Bay and vicinity yesterday in the launch Brothers of the Young Bros. The proposed outlet is to be in deep water at the mouth of the bay.

FATHER MAXIME.

There is a great contrast between Kalawao and Kalapapa. The latter, built near the sea, is very healthful; but the former, placed as it is at the foot of the mountain, is damp. Therefore Kalapapa is much preferred by the Board of Health as a place of residence for the lepers. Anyone who desires to leave Kalawao for the neighboring colony is encouraged to do so by the government, which pays all the expenses of the removal and gives the newcomer a house in which to settle. The day perhaps is not far off when Kalawao will be entirely abandoned. [—Boston paper.]

Can't Eat

You certainly don't want to eat if you are not hungry. But you must eat, and you must digest your food, too. If not, you will become weak, pale, thin. Good food, good appetite, good digestion,—these are essential.

Mr. Robert Venus, of Luncheon, Tasmania, sends us his photograph and says: "I suffered greatly from loss of appetite, indigestion, pains in the stomach, weakness, and nervousness. Several doctors tried in vain to give me relief. A friend then induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for it had done him much good. The first bottle worked wonders for me. Soon my appetite came back, my indigestion was cured, and I was 'strong and hearty.'"

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

VALPARAISO EARTHQUAKE—REMAINS OF NAVAL CLUB AND OFFICE OF CAPTAIN OF THE PORT.

THE ANNEXATION OF CUBA.

BY JOHN W. FOSTER, LL. D.,
Ex-Secretary of State.

(New York Independent, Oct. 25, 1906.)

The action of President Roosevelt in directing the intervention of the civil and military authorities of the United States in Cuba has met with the hearty and general approval of the country. In the recess of Congress there was no other course left open to him, in view of the obligations which we have assumed toward the Government and people of that island. To a proper understanding of the future relations of our Government toward them and to the part it may take in shaping the destiny of that island, it may be well to examine the character of the obligations we have assumed, and, in doing so, to recall some well-known facts.

The joint resolution of Congress of April 20, 1898, which was a virtual declaration of war against Spain, contained the following provision:

"Fourth—That the United States hereby disclaims any disposition or intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said island (Cuba), except for the pacification thereof, and asserts its determination, when that is accomplished, to leave the government and control of the island to its people."

This enactment was not only a notice to Spain and to Cuba, but a declaration to the world of our determination and purpose.

After the war and when the United States was proceeding "to leave the government and control of the island to its people," Congress, in the act of March 2, 1901, to that end, adopted the following, being a part of what is known as the Platt Amendment:

"III.—That the Government of Cuba consents that the United States may exercise the right to intervene for the preservation of Cuban independence, the maintenance of a government adequate for the protection of life, property and individual liberty, and for discharging the obligations with respect to Cuba imposed by the treaty of Paris on the United States, now to be assumed and undertaken by the Government of Cuba."

The primary object of the intervention thus authorized is "for the preservation of Cuban independence." It is to be noted in connection with the last clause just quoted that while in the treaty of Paris, Spain "ceded" to the United States the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico, it simply "relinquished" its claim of sovereignty over and title to Cuba; hence the United States has never acquired a permanent title to Cuba. At the instance of the United States Article III. was ratified by the Cuban Government and attached to its constitution, with the other articles of the Platt Amendment. Additional solemnity was given to these articles by a treaty entered into between Cuba and the United States in 1903, two years after the independent government of Cuba had been established. Article VII, likewise provided that, "to enable the United States to maintain the independence of Cuba," coaling or naval stations should be leased by Cuba to the United States; and in 1903 leases were made and signed by the Presidents of the two countries, in which the stipulation "to maintain the independence of Cuba" was recited and approved.

It is thus seen that the United States has in the most impressive and binding manner five times announced its determination and its duty to maintain the independence of Cuba: First, in the declaration of war against Spain; second, in the enactment by Congress of the Platt Amendment; third, in requiring the Cuban convention to make it a part of its constitution; fourth, in taking a lease of the naval stations; and fifth, in its formal treaty. It is gratifying to know that the executive department of our Government fully realizes determination and duty. Language could not be more explicit and decisive in this spirit than that used by President Roosevelt in his letter to Minister Quesada. The judicious conduct of Secretary Taft in seeking to avoid intervention made it clear that he was animated by this spirit. The proclamations of Secretary Taft and Provisional Governor Magoon, issued under the President's direction, show that the only purpose of the intervention forced upon them is "to maintain the independence of Cuba."

But there is danger, unless checked, that a hastily formed and unwise popular sentiment may take possession of our country, and greatly embarrass the administration in its effort to keep faith with the people of Cuba and show to the world that we are animated by a policy of sincerity and disinterestedness. We read of statesmen high in public favor who announce that the American army now in Cuba will never leave it, and that the island is bound to be annexed to the United States. The view is taken by many journals of influence. American planters, commercial men and promoters in Cuba seem anxious to have the United States assume outright and permanently the burdens of Cuban government. The advocates of "manifest destiny" believe the time is ripe to take one step further in southern expansion. These and other influences will oppose the withdrawal of our present control; and if another opportunity is given the Cubans to conduct an independent government and they again fall into disorder, the demand from these influences for permanent annexation may become almost irresistible.

Will such a demand be reasonable? Will it be consistent with our pledged faith and our publicly proclaimed purpose? Secretary Taft reached the heart of this question in his admirable address in the University at Havana. He made it clear that the Cubans should not be tested by the same standard of self-government as the people of the United States; that we had centuries of experience behind us and the Cubans were now for the first time being afforded an opportunity to govern themselves; and that if they stumbled and fell they must be helped up again and put on the road to self-government.

It is opportune to recall the experience of the Latin-American republics. Take the most successful of them, Argentina's history for fifty years after independence was a series of revolutions, violent changes of rulers and defections in public obligations. Chile had much the same history, and only a few years ago a President was displaced by revolutionary means and the country distracted by civil war. The turbulent condition of Mexico for fifty years following its independence is well known. The condition of anarchy became so great that President Buchanan requested Congress to confer authority on him to send, in his discretion, an army into Mexico, for the protection of the lives and property of American residents; but this Congress declined to do. Later, through our intervention, the French were required to leave Mexico, but their departure was followed by several years of civil disorder, and the present successful ruler of our neighboring republic came into power by revolutionary methods. The condition of affairs in Cuba does not approach the disorders through which Argentina, Chile and Mexico have passed, and it becomes us to be patient, forbearing and reasonable toward this youngest of American republics.

There seems to be a widespread feeling in this country that if Cuba makes another failure in government, the only alternative will be annexation. This conclusion takes it for granted that annexation is desirable and would be advantageous to the United States. Is not this at least a debatable question? Let us briefly make an examination of it. The considerations which enter into a decision of this question are of two kinds, political and economic.

The political considerations. Some of these are the following:

1. How are we to annex Cuba? By force and in violation of our public promises, or by the consent of its people freely given? If by the latter course then we must make the island a part of the territory of the Union and create out of it one or more States, for under no other conditions would the people of the island consent to annexation. It is true, we could disregard their wishes and our own public declarations, make of Cuba a dependency and govern it as we do the Philippines or Porto Rico. But are the American people so enamored of that policy that they desire to complicate the unsolved problem by adding new obligations and burdens in that direction?

2. Does Cuba contain a population which it is desirable to incorporate at this time into our Union? Out of its one million six hundred thousand people, only from one to two hundred thousand have any scholastic education. To the great mass of the voting population of today the common school is an unknown institution.
3. A large proportion of the population is of negro or mixed blood. Cuba was the last of the American countries to abolish slavery, the final act being in 1887. With the negro problem in our Southern States pressing upon us for solution, and (if we are to accept the conviction of one of their ablest and best informed Senators) a race war is there threatened, do we desire to aggravate the situation by adding a million more of the despised race to our voting population?

4. The people of Cuba are almost in their entirety the adherents of one religious faith. The Catholics in the United States are among our most patriotic and useful citizens, but it would not be desirable to have one or more of our States composed entirely of them. Our experience with Utah in the government of a hierarchy cautions us to avoid, for our own civil peace and credit, further experiments in that direction.

5. The annexation of Cuba without the consent of its people will make necessary the employment there for some years to come of a large contingent of our army, and even by any method of annexation, for many of its people have been in almost continuous insurrection for years, and it will require a strong military force to accustom them to the ways of peace and industry. Many of the peace-loving people of the United States lamented the necessity in the Philippines which called for an increase of the army, and they will lament still more a further increase on account of the annexation of Cuba.

The economic considerations. I shall only attempt a brief mention of some of these.

Kaauhuhu, 32.26 acres, upset price $161.30, sold to B. H. Zablan for $402.

PEPEEKEO IMPROVEMENTS.

Marked signs of progress are to be seen at the Pepeekeo Sugar Company's premises since the last crop was taken off. In the bollinghouse department the old clarifiers have been dispensed with and the Deming system, which has been in successful operation for years in the up-to-date mills, has been adopted instead. Then, too, the evaporators have been increased so as to double the work during the grinding season if necessary.

The company has also adopted the crystallization system in motion. The work of making the crystallizers was done here in Hilo at the Hilo railroad shops. They are of the latest style and will so operate that the molasses coming from the centrifugals will be of a lower purity than can be got by the old process.

ITEMS.

Spreckels Hall was the scene of great gaiety Friday evening last week on the occasion of the dance given by the Hilo Burns Club. The dance program was a large one, a large number of strictly Scotch dances finding their place on it as a matter of course. The Highland dance, to the music of the pipes, were features, without which no Scottish gathering would be a success, and these were well performed.

N. G. Campion, who has been engineer at Wainaku for some time past, has left that position and has succeeded E. H. Cane as engineer at Paipaku.

Captain John Fitzgerald, harbor-master, was a welcome arrival back in town after three months' holiday in California.

John Deter, manager of Demosthenes Hotel, has been suffering from a poisoned hand.

L. Lougher of Havi has succeeded A. von Arnsveld as sugar boiler at Paipaku.

1. The sugar production. The soil and climate of Cuba are specially adapted for this cultivation, and, owing mainly to the political situation in the past, only a fraction of the land suitable for this product has as yet been brought under cultivation. The annexation of the island, with its cheap labor, will menace the destruction of the cane sugar industry of Louisiana, and the infant but increasing beet sugar cultivation of the Central and Northern States.

2. Much the same statement may be applied to the tobacco industry, with the added fact that the large number of tobacco factories scattered all over the United States would have to compete with the cheap labor and better quality of tobacco of the island.

3. Cuba has not as yet developed fruit growing and exportation to any great extent, but it has a soil, climate and labor well adapted to a large production of citrus fruits. With the tariff barrier broken down the island may well compete with the fruit growers of Florida and California.

4. Similar remarks may be made as to garden products. A large, growing and profitable industry has in late years been created in the seaboard Southern States for the supply of the Northern markets in the winter and early spring months. It may seem to the advocates of "manifest destiny" an insignificant matter to put these considerations forward as an obstacle to annexation, but the representatives of the many thousands of our people who are dependent upon the industries mentioned will reflect upon them seriously before they give their consent to the annexation of Cuba.

The most notable event in our recent diplomatic affairs has been the visit which Secretary Root has just made to the South American republics. It was a most opportune visit, was wisely conducted, and has had a most salutary influence in disabusing the minds of the influential statesmen and people of those republics respecting what was believed by many of them to be our aggressive and grasping policy. No utterance of a Secretary of State in many a day has breathed a more exalted spirit, or let us hope, was a better exposition of genuine American sentiment, than the address of Mr. Root at Rio de Janeiro. From that address I make this extract, as appropriate to the foregoing discussion:

"We wish no victories but those of peace; for no territory except our own; for no sovereignty except the sovereignty over ourselves. We deem the independence and equal rights of the smallest and weakest member of the family of nations entitled to as much respect as those of the greatest empire, and we deem the observance of that respect the chief guaranty of the weak against the oppression of the strong."

"We wish to increase our prosperity, to expand our trade, to grow in wealth, in wisdom and in spirit, but our conception of the true way to accomplish this is not to pull down others and profit by their ruin, but to help all friends to a common prosperity and a common growth, that we may all become greater and stronger together."

In a spirit of impatience and by a refusal to allow the Cubans the same chance as Mexico, Chile and Argentina have had to grow into strong and stable governments, let us not destroy the good which Secretary Root has sown. Let us not demonstrate to the world that our most solemn protestations and stipulations are but a mockery of sincerity and fair dealing.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles—A Honolulu Citizen Shows You How to Cure Them.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. It cures all troubles city, is attached to the Hawaiian incised by weak or diseased kidneys.

John E. Bush of Punchbowl st., this terpretation staff at the Supreme Court. He says: "I had kidney trouble, and, acting on the recommendation of a friend, who had tried your invaluable remedy, I got some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They were just as beneficial to me as they had been to my friend. It is well the virtues of these pills should be made known, for they really are an excellent medicine for kidney trouble."

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE
ALL-IMPORTANT
FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years.

The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; this has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result:

First letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have a severe female trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

Second letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their value and what you have done for me."

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

FLORIST

Alexander Young Building.

With several hundred Japanese steamer passengers for Honolulu, and with only fourteen first-class cabin passengers all told, the Toyo Kisen Kaisha S. S. America Maru arrived yesterday afternoon from Yokohama and docked at the Hackfeld wharf. Owing to the large number of people aboard for this place and the fact that the local agents will not give overtime wages, the America Maru will remain here until 7 o'clock this evening. This will give the business community ample time to prepare its Coast mail in answer to that received on the Alameda.

The America Maru's trip was uneventful and exceedingly pleasant. Among the passengers is General Manager M. Shiraiishi of the T. K. K. line, who goes to San Francisco to confer with Mr. Avery, assistant general manager of the line. Both officials are expected to return to Japan on the next trip of the America Maru. Mrs. Avery, who is a guest at the Moana Hotel, will join her husband on his arrival here and they will continue the voyage to the Orient together.

Dr. S. Terano is the consulting engineer of the T. K. K. line and goes to England to look after the engines for the new big T. K. K. steamships being constructed at Nagasaki, the first of which will be commissioned about November, 1907.

Miss Katydil Jones, who stops over at Honolulu, is a sister of the American Consul at Dalny, Manchuria, now a Japanese open port. Miss Jones has passed through Honolulu before and has many friends here, among them being Mrs. L. Tenney Peck. Miss Jones has been the guest of her brother for some time. Consul Jones will pass through here in a few weeks on full leave of absence. They will continue to the mainland together. Consul Jones goes to Washington to confer with Third Assistant Secretary of State Wilson, who has charge of the consular department.

LT. Col. Roubovsky is a Russian army officer who has lately been stationed at Vladivostok.

Mr. H. Tompkins is a prominent tea merchant who will make two or three business trips annually to the Orient.

MALONY TRANSFERRED.

F. C. Malony, freight clerk of the T. K. K. America Maru, which arrived yesterday from Yokohama, has been detached by cable orders from San Francisco to await the arrival of the Hongkong Maru, which sailed from the Coast on November 9 without a freight clerk. Mr. Malony was quite surprised to receive the order. It is understood that Mr. Howland, freight clerk of the Hongkong Maru, has quit the service, at least temporarily. That Mr. Malony should be selected to fill the post at Honolulu is a feather in his cap, as it will require an able man to pick up the details of the work from San Francisco, here and complete the lists out to the Orient. Mr. Malony is considered one of the best freight clerks in the service.

SIBERIA'S ACCOMMODATIONS.

The Pacific Mail S. S. Siberia sailed from Yokohama for Honolulu on November 10. The vessel has accommodations for about forty passengers from here to the Coast. She carries a thorough list of about one hundred. The vessel will arrive here the morning of November 19, Monday.

NEW CHIEF STEWARD.

W. J. Brady is making his first trip here as chief steward of the Oceanic liner Alameda, succeeding Chief Steward Hackett, who goes in the same capacity on the S. S. Sierra. Mr. Brady was for a long time second steward on the Alameda, and previously was storekeeper on the Sierra. He has a large number of friends here who congratulate him on his well-deserved promotion.

GET MUCH BUSINESS.

According to officers on the America Maru, the liners running between Portland and Seattle and the Japanese ports have been well patronized lately, at least from the Orient to the Coast.

SUGAR IN FORMOSA.

Willet & Gray's Journal for October 25 contains the following information of sugar production in Formosa:

There were installed in 1905 a large number of new cane mills, some operated by steam, some by naphtha and some by the old system of evaporation. These 47 mills were manufactured in Glasgow, and they possess a capacity of from 40 to 200 tons cane in 24 hours. Formosa has now a total of 67 new mills, which are able to grind 5330 tons of cane in 24 hours, say from 60 per cent, to 70 per cent, of the total crop of the whole island. Among these mills, six can work 1350 tons of cane a day and produce centrifugal sugar, while the others make ordinary raw sugar, but of a better quality than formerly. It is thought that when the Chinese have become more familiar with the working of these new mills the system will be generally adopted. On account of this lack of experience, the harvest of the 1905-06 crop has not been as rapid as formerly. The low price of sugar has caused a reduction in the cane planting for the 1906-07 crop, but nevertheless because of a new variety of cane planted on a large scale, named the "Bamboo Rose," which will give 30 tons to the acre, in place of the old varieties, which give 15 tons, that the crop will equal 1905-06.

The Taiwan Saito Kabushiki Kaisha, a Japanese company, has let a contract to the Honolulu Iron Works for the erection of a cane sugar factory on the island of Formosa. The plant will be of modern design and will have a capacity for grinding 500 tons of cane daily. The machinery will be especially made to produce a semi-refined white sugar for Japanese consumption.

OPIUM JOINT.

The shack is an "opium den." The law as to dens, however, is rather vague. Section 1399 of the Revised Laws of 1905, under the caption of "Sale of Opium," sets forth: "The Board of Health may, upon the conditions to be named in such authorization, authorize any duly-qualified physician or surgeon, or any person holding a license to sell poisonous drugs, to sell, for medicinal purposes only, opium and preparations thereof; provided, however, that no person shall sell or furnish opium or any preparation thereof except upon the written prescription of a duly-licensed physician signed by him."

CRAPSTERS ARRESTED.

Several of the old gang of crapsters who figure in nearly all the raids were arrested yesterday forenoon in Kaunakakai by Bicycle Officer Sheldon. Among the crowd were George Kaea, Kakapa, Sam Kapua, Wm. Hilo and W. H. Newland. The first two and the last named gave $10 bail and were released. The other two were given their freedom.

NOTHING TO FEAR.

Mothers need have no hesitancy in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

Old
Planters

The Hawaiian Gazette Co. has, at considerable expense, succeeded in completing a limited number of sets of Planters' Monthlies from Vol. 1 of 1882 up to the first of the present year.

Of the earlier numbers, long since out of print, many issues were entirely exhausted, making it necessary to reset and reprint all such numbers, thus adding materially to the cost. This extra expense was more than justified, however, by the valuable nature of much of the matter contained in these old numbers, matter that cannot be found elsewhere than in these books and that is valuable really beyond price to the plantation interests.

These Planters are uniformly bound in full law sheep, giving them an attractive appearance in addition to their durability.

Anyone desiring a complete set, or any part of a set, would do well to communicate with the Gazette Co. at an early date, as there are but very few sets available at the present time, and in order to complete more sets it will be necessary to reset and print more back numbers, thus increasing the cost still more.

HOW MAUI
WAS WONDetails of Republican Victory--Masonic Ball, Etc.

MAUI, November 9.—The last prediction of Republican campaign manager S. E. Kalama just prior to the election was "a sweeping party victory on the island" and this prediction has come true, the entire Republican ticket—legislative and county—with the exception of the deputy sheriff of Molokai having been elected by a majority varying on the average from two to four hundred.

All the good luck this time was on the side of the Republicans, for there were several victories by such narrow margins that by the change of only a few votes matters would have been reversed.

Kalaniana'ole ran fully as well as was expected. Notley did better than was anticipated, but McClanahan was simply passed over as a "malihini."

Coelho beat White by 56 votes, being but three ahead before the last precinct (Kalaupapa) was heard from.

The representative ticket ran well, clever party managers having strengthened all the weak spots in it. Saffery beat Kalua for county sheriff by an even 400 votes. Judge Kalua's political sun seems to have set.

Case beat Vivas by 202 votes for county attorney and L. M. Baldwin won handily from T. B. Lyons by 225 votes for county treasurer.

The voting in the districts of Wailuku, Hana and Molokai for supervisors and deputy sheriffs was especially close. In Wailuku Kalua beat Cornwell for supervisor by but five votes and Lake won from Tom Clark the position of deputy sheriff by 26 votes.

In Hana, Haia beat Ahulii for supervisor by 24 votes and Witrock vanquished Hanana for deputy sheriff by 19 votes.

On Molokai T. T. Meyer was re-elected as supervisor over Uahini by just three votes and J. H. Mahoe lost his present billet as deputy sheriff to Paia Naki (Home Ruler) by 12 votes.

The remaining county officials were re-elected by good majorities, which can be accepted as an endorsement by the public of the excellent administration of county affairs for the past year.

Full returns are given below for delegate and totals only for legislators and county officers:

THE BRIGHT SIDE

of life. It is a feeling common to the majority of us that we do not get quite the amount of happiness we are entitled to. Among the countless things which tend to make us more or less miserable ill health takes first place. Hannah More said that sin was generally to be attributed to biliousness. No doubt a crippled liver with the resulting impure blood, is the cause of more mental gloom than any other single thing. And who can reckon up the fearful aggregate of pain, loss and fear arising from the many diseases which are familiar to mankind; like a vast cloud it hangs over a multitude no one can number. You can see these people everywhere. For them life can scarcely be said to have any "bright side" at all. Hence the eagerness with which they search for relief and cure. Remedies like WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION have not attained their high position in the confidence of the people by bald assertions and boasting advertisements. They are obliged to win it by doing actually what is claimed for them. That this remedy deserves its reputation is conceded. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Nothing has such a record of success in Scrofula, Influenza, Throat and Lung Troubles, and emaciating complaints and disorders that tend to undermine the foundations of strength and vigor. Its use helps to show life's brighter side. Professor Reddy, of Canada, says: "I have much pleasure in stating that I have used it in cases of debility and found it to be a very valuable remedy as well as pleasing to take." "You cannot be disappointed in it. Sold by chemists,

Superintendent E. B. Carley of the Maui Telephone Co. showed his usual courtesy in giving out returns during all Tuesday night. Additional operators were employed and additional telephones installed in the central offices. Thanks are due the telephone company for blank tally-sheets with the printed list of candidates and so spaced that the returns from the various twenty precincts could be easily tabulated.

MASONIC BALL.

The grand ball given last night by the members of the Maui Lodge of Freemasons in the new lumber warehouse of the Kahului R. R. Co. at Kahului was a great success.

The interior of the warehouse formed a most spacious hall and the decorations with flags of all kinds and greens were most elaborate.

The Puunene string band of twelve musicians furnished excellent music and dancing was kept up until a late hour. People from all parts of Maui and a number from Oahu were present at the festivity. Supper was served in one of the halls of the new masonic temple and the fine building was lighted and open for inspection.

The first Wailuku train conveying people home met with a mishap near the old Kahului depot. On account of a misplaced switch the engine of the train toppled over and lay across the track, causing a delay of two hours before it could be removed. Little damage was the result of the accident.

The ceremony in dedication of the new temple will take place tomorrow afternoon.

The Board of Supervisor is holding its monthly meeting at Wailuku.

Weather: Heavy rain in Kahului and other places late last night and early this morning. Generally during the week very warm, still days and cool nights.

They were in a local hostelry and it was suggested that they partake of a "duck and doris."

"By the way," said one of the men, "what is the literal meaning of the expression and where and how did it come to originate?"

"It was originally written 'dunk out doris,' which is good Irish and means 'let's drink and away,'" replied the other.

"I've heard it explained differently," remarked the first man. "Along about closing time a fellow would invite his friend to have just one more, whereupon the bartender would get wrathful, and to escape his anger one would say to the boozy other, 'Duck out of doris,' which has in time been corrupted to 'duck and doris.'"

"Well, whatever it was originally written," said his companion, "the name and the custom are strictly right. Why, even old Omar says somewhere something about a 'duck and doris' underneath the bough."

"And then they had their."

"I am afraid, madam," said a gentleman who was looking for country lodgings, "that the house is too near the station to be pleasant." "It is a little noisy," assented the landlady, "but from the front veranda one has such a fine view of people who miss the trains."—Tit-Bits.

THE SAMURAI HAVE A SCRAP

Shimizu, Azawa and Kumira are neighbors and lived happily side by side up till Friday, in spite of the fact that Shimizu was in Azawa's debt to the amount of $25. On Friday the time appointed for the settling of the claim arrived and the creditor and debtor met on the latter's lanai to confer. Courtesy demanded that refreshments be served and the sight of the spread attracted Kumira, who bowed his way next to the dishes without any formal invitation.

At this point the evidence begins to diverge. Kumira informed Judge Whitney that he acted solely as a peace-maker in helping the settlement of the debt. Shimizu opined that he was a buttinsky at the feast and smashed some of the dishes, whereat he smashed Kumira. After hearing all which the Judge assessed Shimizu $10 and costs for assault and discharged Kumira from a malicious injury charge. So far as can be learned the $25 is still outstanding.

HABEAS CORPUS CASE.

It was agreed in the United States District Court and ordered by Judge Dole Saturday that the habeas corpus case of Chiyo-matsu Takashima should be submitted on briefs. District Attorney Breckons is allowed till the 15th and J. W. Cathcart for petitioner till the 20th for their respective briefs. Petitioner claims he is unlawfully detained and forbidden to land in this country, while the immigration authorities claim he is subject to deportation for being infected with trachoma.

SHORT IN HIS CASH.

A bookkeeper in one of the retail stores recently found on closing his cash for the day that he was nearly twenty dollars short in his cash. Suspicion pointed to one of the boys whose duties frequently took him close to the cashier's desk, but a further investigation, showed a sales slip for the amount had been entered twice. This discovery preceded the purchase of a National cash register only twenty-four hours. The Hawaiian Office Specialty Co. are the agents.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic County Committee at noon today at the Democratic headquarters, Waverley building.
